THE BIBLE

AND

HOLY SCRIPTVRES

CONTEYNED IN

THE OLDE AND NEWE

Teſtament.

TRANSLATED ACCORDING to the Ebrue and Greke, and conferred With the beſt tranſlations in diuers langages.

WITH MOSTE PROFITABLE ANNOTATIONS vpon all the Lord places, and other things of great importance as may appeare in the Epiſtle to the Reader.

FEARE YE NOT, STAND STIL, AND BEHOLDE the ſaluacion of the Lord, which he will ſhewe to you this day. Exod. 14, 13.

Great are the troubles of the righteous: (but the Lord deliuereth them out of all, Pſal. 34, 19.

THE LORD SHAL FIGHT FOR YOV: THEREFORE holde you your peace, Exod. 14, vers. 14.

AT GENEVA.

PRINTED BY ROVLAND HALL

M. D. L X.

The Holy Bible – Geneva Edition
1st Printing, 1st Edition in 1560

Given back to the people so all may understand

The Geneva Bible was first printed in Geneva, Switzerland, by refugees from England, fleeing the persecution of Protestants by Roman Catholic Queen "Bloody" Mary. Many copies were smuggled back into England at great personal risk. In later years, when Protestant-friendly Queen Elizabeth took the throne, printing of the Geneva Bible moved back to England. The Geneva Bible was produced by John Calvin, John Knox, Myles Coverdale, John Foxe, and other Reformers. It is the version that William Shakespeare quotes from hundreds of times in his plays, and the first English Bible to offer plain roman-style type in some of its early printings.

The Geneva Bible was the first Bible taken to America, brought over on the Mayflower… it is the Bible upon which early America and its government was founded (certainly not the King's of England's Bible!) The Geneva Bible was also the first English Bible to break the chapters of scripture into numbered verses, and it was the first true "Study Bible" offering extensive commentary notes in the margins. It was so accurate and popular, that a half-century later, when the King James Bible came out… it retained more than 90% of the exact wording of the Geneva Bible.

PDF Created in 2004 for future generations to learn

TO THE MOSTE VER-TVOVS AND NOBLE QVENE ELIſabet, Quene of England, France, ād Ireland, &c. Your hum ble ſubiects of the Engliſh Churche at Geneua, wiſh grace and peace from God the Father through Chriſt Ieſus our Lord.

* * *

HOw hard a thing it is, and what great impedimentes let, to enterpriſe any worthie act, not only dailie experience ſufficiently ſheweth (moſte noble and vertuous Quene) but alſo that notable prouerbe doeth cõfirme the ſame, which admoniſheth vs, that all thīgs are hard which are faire and excellēt. And what enterpriſe can there be of greater importance, and more acceptable vnto God, or more worthie of ſinguler commendation, then the building of the Lords ‖ Temple, the ‖ houſe of God, the ‖ Church of Chriſt, whereof the ‖ Sonne of God is the head and perfection? 1.Cor.3.17. 1.Tim.3.14. Epheſ.1.22. Ebr.3.6.

When Zerubbabel went about to builde the materiall Temple, according to the commandement of the Lord, what difficulties and ſtayes ‖ daily aroſe to hinder his worthy indeuours, ẏ bookes of Ezra & Eſdras playnely witneſſe: how that not only he and the people of God were ſore moleſted with ‖ foreyn aduerſaries, (whereof ſome maliciouſly ‖ warred againſt them, and corrupted the Kings officers: and others craftely practiſed vnder ‖ pretence of religion) but alſo at home with domeſtical enemies, as ‖ falſe Prophetes, ‖ craftie worldlings, faint hearted ſoldiers, and ‖ oppreſſors of their brethren, who aſwel by falſe doctrine and lyes, as by ſubtil counſel, cowardies, and extortion, diſcouraged the heartes almoſte of all: ſo that the Lords worke was not only interrupted and left of for ‖ a long tyme, but ſcarcely at the length with great labour and danger after a ‖ ſort broght to paſſe. Ezra,4. 1.Eſdr.2.16. Ezra4.7 Ezra 4.2 Nehem.6.10 Nehem.6.18 Nehem.5.1 Ioh.2.20 Ezra 3.12

Which thing when we weigh aright, and conſider earneſtly how muche greater charge God hath laid vpon you in making you a builder of his ſpiritual Temple, we can not but partely feare, ‖ knowing the crafte and force of Satan our ſpiritual enemie, and the weakenes and vnabilitie of this our nature: and partely be feruent in our prayers toward God that he wolde bring to perfection this noble worke which he hath begon by you: and therefore we indeuour our ſelues by all meanes to ayde, & to beſtowe our whole force vnder your graces ſtādard, whome God hath made as our Zerubbabel for the erecting of this moſte excellent Temple, and to plant and maynteyn his holy worde to the aduancement of his glorie, for your owne honour and ſaluatiō of your ſoule, and for the ſinguler comfort of that great flocke which Chriſt Ieſus the ‖ great ſhepherd hath boght with his ‖ precious blood, and committed vnto your charge to be fed both in body and ſoule. 2.Cor.2.13 Ebr.13.20 1.Pet.1.19

The enemies ẅ labour to ſtay religion.

Conſidering therefore how many enemies there are, which by one meanes or other, as the ‖ aduerſaries of Iudah and Beniamin went about to ſtay the building of that Temple, ſo labour to hinder the courſe of this building (whereof ſome are Papiſtes, who vnder pretence of fauoring Gods worde, traiterouſly ſeke to erect idolatrie and to deſtroy your maieſtie: ſome are worldlings, who as ‖ Demas haue forſake Chriſt for the loue of this worlde: others are ambicious prelats, who as ‖ Amaſiah & ‖ Diotrephes can abide none but them ſelues: and as ‖ Demetrius many practiſe ſedition to maynteyne their errors) we perſuaded our ſelues that there was no way ſo expedient and neceſſarie for the preſeruation of the one, and deſtruction of Ezra 4.1 2.Tim.4.10 Amos 7.12 3.Iohn 9 Act .19.24 the other, as to preſent vnto your Maieſtie the holy Scriptures faithfully and playnely tranſlated according to the langages wherein thei were firſt written by the holy Goſt. For the worde of God is an euident token of Gods ‖ loue and our aſſurance of his defence, whereſoeuer it is obediently receyued: it is the trial of the ‖ ſpirits: and as the Prophet ſaieth, ‖ It is as a fyre and hammer to breake the ſtonie heartes of them that reſiſt Gods mercies offred by the preaching of the ſame. Yea it is ‖ ſharper then any two edged ſworde to examine the very thoghtes and to iudge the affections of the heart, and to diſcouer whatſoeuer lyeth hid vnder hypocriſie and wolde be ſecret from the face of God and his Churche. So that this muſt be the firſt fundacion and groundworke, according whereunto the good ſtones of this building muſt be framed, and the euil tried out and reiected.

The neceſſitie of gods worde for ẏ reformīg of religion.

Iohn 4.23

1. Iohn 4.1
Ier. 23.29

Ebr. 4.12

The groun de of true religion.

Now as he that goeth about to lay a fundacion ſurely, firſt taketh away ſuche impedimentes, as might iuſtely ether hurt, let or difforme the worke: ſo is it neceſſarie that your graces zeale appeare herein, that nether the craftie perſuaſion of man, nether worldly policie, or natural feare diſſuade you to roote out, cut downe and deſtroy theſe wedes and impedimentes which do not only deface your building, but vtterly indeuour, yea & threaten the ruine thereof. For when the noble ‖ Ioſias entrepriſed the like kinde of worke, among other notable and many things he deſtroyed, not only with vtter confuſion the idoles with their appertinances, but alſo burnt (in ſigne of deteſtatiō) the idolatrous prieſts bones vpon their altars, and put to ‖ death the falſe prophetes and ſorcerers, to performe ‖ the wordes of the Lawe of God: and therefore the Lord gaue him good ſucceſſe & bleſſed him wonderfully, ſo long as he made ‖ Gods worde his line and rule to followe, and enterpriſed nothing before he had inquired at the mouth of the Lord.

All impedimētes muſt be taken away.

2. King. 23.16
2. chro. 34.5
Ioſias zeale and true obediēce to God.
Deu. 13.5
Leu. 20.6
deu. 18.11
2. Chro. 35.22

And if theſe zealous begynnings ſeme dangerous and to brede diſquietnes in your dominions, yet by the ſtorie of King ‖ Aſa it is manifeſt, that the quietnes and ‖ peace of kingdomes ſtandeth in the vtter aboliſhing of idolatrie, and in aduancing of true religion: for in his dayes Iudah lyued in reſt and quietnes for the ſpace of fyue and thirtie yere, til at length he began to be colde in the zeale of the Lord, feared the power of man, impriſoned the Prophet of God, and oppreſſed the people: then the Lord ſent him warres, & at length toke him away by death.

2. Chro. 14.5. & 15.15.
Wherein ſtandeth ȳ quietnes of kingdomes.
2. Chro. 12.8

Wherefore great wiſdome, not worldelie, but heauenly is here requrred, which you grace muſt earneſtly craue of the Lord, as did ‖ Salomon, to whome God gaue an vnderſtanding heart to iudge his people aright, and to diſcerne betwene good and bad. For if God for the furniſhing of the olde temple gaue the Spirit of wiſdome & vnderſtanding to them that ſhulde be the workemen thereof, as to ‖ Bezaleel, Aholiab, and ‖ Hiram: how muche more will he indewe your grace and other godly princes and chefe gouernours with a principal Spirit, that you may procure and commande things neceſſarie for this moſte holy Temple, foreſe and take hede of things that might hinder it, and aboliſh and deſtroy whatſoeuer might impere and ouerthrowe the ſame?

What wiſdome is requiſite for the eſtabliſhing of religion and the meanes to obteyne it.
1. King. 3.9
2. chro. 1.10
Exod. 31.1
1. King. 7.14

Moreouer the maruelous diligence and zeale of Iehoſhaphat, Ioſiah, and Hezekiah are by the ſinguler prouidence of God left as an example to all godly rulers to reforme their countreys and to eſtabliſh the worde of God with all ſpede, leſt the ‖ wrath of the Lord fall vpon them for the neglecting thereof. For theſe excellent Kings did not onely imbrace the worde promptely and ioyfully, but alſo procured earneſtly and commanded the ſame to be taught, preached and maynteyned through all their countreys and dominions, ‖ bynding them and all their ſubiectes bothe great and ſmale with ſolemne proteſtations and couenantes before God to obey the worde, and to walke after the waies of the Lord. Yea and in the daies

Diligence and zeale are neceſſarie to builde it ſpedely.
2. Chro. 34.21
2. Chro. 34.31
A ſolemne othe for ȳ mayntenāce of Gods worde.

of

seruyng ‖ Asa it was enacted that whosoeuer wolde not seke the Lord God of Israel, shulde be slayne, whether he were smale or great, man or woman. And for the establishing hereof and performance of this solemne othe, aswel ‖ Priests as Iudges were appointed and placed through all the cities of Iudah to instruct the people in the true knollage and feare of God, and to minister iustice according to the worde, knowing that, except God by his worde dyd reigne in ‖ the heartes and soules, all mans diligence and indeuors were of none effect: for without this worde we can not discerne betwene iustice, and iniurie, protection and oppression, wisdome and foolishnes, knollage and ignorance, good and euil. Therefore the Lord, who is the chefe gouernour of his Church, willeth that nothing be attempted before we haue inquired thereof at his mouth. For seing he is our God, of duetie we must giue him this preeminence, that of our selues we entreprise nothing, but that which he hath appointed, who only knoweth all things, and gouerneth them as may best serue to his glorie and our saluation. We oght not therefore to preuent him, or do any thing without his worde, ‖ but assone as he hath reueiled his wil, immediately to put it in execution.

Now as concerning the maner of this building, it is not according to man, nor after the wisdome of the flesh, but of the Spirit, & according to the worde of God, whose ‖ wais are diuers from mans wais. For if it was not lawful for Moses to builde the material Tabernacle after any other sorte then God had shewed him by a ‖ patern, nether to prescribe any other ‖ ceremonies & lawes then suche as the Lord had expresly commãded: how can it be lawful to procede in this spiritual building any other waies, then Iesus Christ the Sonne of God, who is bothe the fundacion, head and chief corner stone thereof, hath commanded by his worde? And for asmuche as he hath established and left an order in his Churche for the building vp of his body, ‖ appointing some to be Apostles, some Prophetes, others Euangelistes, some pastors, and teachers, he signifieth that euery one according as he is placed in this body which is the Church, oght to inquire of his ministres concerning the wil of the Lord, which is reueiled in his worde. For thei are, saieth ‖ Ieremiah, as the mouth of the Lord: yea he ‖ promiseth to be with their mouth, & that their ‖ lippes shal kepe knollage, & that the trueth & the law shalbe in their mouth. For it is their office chefely to vnderstand the Scriptures & teache them. For this cause the people of Israel in matters of difficultie vsed to ‖ aske the Lord ether by the ‖ Prophets, or by the meanes of the hie ‖ Priest, who bare Vrim & Thummim, which were tokens of light & knollage, of holines & perfectiõ which shulde be in the hie Priest. Therefore when Iehoshaphat toke this order in the Church of Israel, he appointed Amariah to be the chief concerning the worde of God, because he was moste expert in the law of the Lord, and colde gyue coũsel and gouerne according vnto the same. Els there is no degre or office which may haue that autoritie and priuiledge to decise concerning Gods worde, except withall he hath the Spirit of God, and sufficient knollage and iudgement to define according thereunto. And as euery one is indued of God with greater giftes, so oght he to be herein chefely heard, or at least that without the expresse worde none be heard: for he that hathe not the worde, ‖ speaketh not by the mouthe of the Lord. Agayne, what danger it is to do any thing, seme it neuer so godly or necessarie, without consulting with Gods mouth, the examples of the Israelites, ‖ deceiued hereby through the Gibeonites: and of ‖ Saul, whose intention semed good and necessarie: and of ‖ Iosiah also, who for great considerations was moued for the defence of true religion & his people, to fight against Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, may sufficiently admonish vs.

Last of all (moste gracious Quene) for the aduancement of this building

Anact gainst thei that obeie not Gods worde. 2.Chro.17.7. & 19.5

What policie must be vsed for the plãting of religiõ. Deut.6.6.& 11.18

Gods worde must go before, or els we builde in vaine. We must first cõsult with God. Isa.30.2

The maner of building is as God hathe prescribed by his worde. Isa.55.8 Exod.25 4 act.7.44 ebr.8.5 Deut.5.32 Ephes.4.11

Of whome we must inquire concerning the wil of the Lord and knollage of his worde. Ier.15.19 Exod.4.12 Mal 2.7. Iudg.1.1 & 20 1 1.sam.10.22 1.Sam.9.9 2.king 22.13 Exod.28.30

What is requisite in them that must giue counsel by Gods worde. Ier.23 16 Iosh.9.14 1.Sam.13.11 2.Chro.35.20

The setting vp of the building.

and rearing vp of the worke, two things are neceſſarie, Firſt, that we haue a liue-& ſtedfaſt faith in Chriſt Ieſus, who muſt ‖ dwel in our heartes, as the only meane Epheſ.3.17 Gen.28.12 Ioh.1.15 and aſſurance of our ſaluation: for he is the ‖ ladder that reacheth from the earth to heauen: he lifteth vp his Churche and ſetteth it in the heauenly places: he maketh 1.Pet.2.5 2.Cor.12.12 vs ‖ lyuely ſtones and buildeth vs vpon him ſelfe: he ioyneth vs to him ſelfe as the me bres and body to the head: yea he maketh him ſelfe and his Churche one ‖ Chriſt.
The next is, that our faith bring forthe good fruites, ſo that our godly conuerſa-2.Pet.1.10 Epheſ.4.1 tion may ſerue vs as a witnes to ‖ confirme our election, and be an example to all others to ‖ walke as apperteyneth to the vocation whereunto thei are called: leſt Rom.2.12 the worde of God be ‖ euil ſpoken of, and this building be ſtayed to growe vp to a iuſt height, which cã not be without the great prouocatiõ of Gods iuſte vengeance and diſcouraging of many thouſandes through all the worlde, if thei ſhulde ſe that our life were not holy and agreable to our profeſsion. For the eyes of all that feare 2.Theſſ.1.7 God in all places beholde your countreyes as an ‖ example to all that beleue, and the prayers of all the godly at all tymes are directed to God for the preſeruatiõ of your maieſtie. For conſidering Gods wonderful mercies toward you at all ſeaſons, who 2.Tim.3.15 hath pulled you out of the mouthe of the lyons, and how that from your ‖ youth you haue bene broght vp in the holy Scriptures, the hope of all men is ſo increaſed, that thei cã not but looke that God ſhulde bring to paſſe ſome wõderful worke by your grace to the vniuerſal comfort of his Churche. Therefore euen aboue ſtrẽgth, you muſt ſhewe your ſelfe ſtrong and bolde in Gods matters: and thogh Satan lay all his power and craft together to hurt and hinder the Lordes building: yet be you Reuel.12.9 aſſured that God wil fight from heauen againſt this great ‖ dragon, the ancient ſer-pent, which is called the deuil and Satan. til he haue accompliſhed the whole wor-Epheſ.4.27 ke and made his Churche ‖ glorious to him ſelfe, without ſpot or wrincle. For albeit all other kingdomes and monarchies, as the Babylonians, Perſians, Grecians & Romains haue fallen & taken end: yet the Churche of Chriſt euen vnder the Croſſe hath from the begynning of the worlde bene victorious, and ſhalbe euerlaſtingly. Trueth it is, that ſometyme it ſemeth to be ſhadowed with a cloude, or driuen with a ſtormie perfecution, yet ſuddenly the beames of Chriſt the ſunne of iuſtice ſhine and bring it to light and libertie. If for a tyme it lie couered with aſhes, yet it is quickely kindeled agayne by the wynde of God ſ. Spirit: thogh it ſeme drowned in the ſea, or parched and pyned in the wildernes, yet God giueth euer good ſucceſſe. for he puniſheth the enemies, and deliuereth his, nourriſheth them and ſtil preſerueth the vnder his wyngs. This Lord of lordes & King of kings who hath euer defended his, ſtrengthẽ, cõfort and preſerue your maieſtie, that you may be able to builde vp the ruines of Gods houſe to his glorie, the diſcharge of your conſcience, and to the comfort of all them that loue the comming of Chriſt Ieſus our Lord.
From Geneua. 10. April. 1560.

THE FIRST BOKE OF Moſés, called * Geneſis.

* This worde ſignifieth the beginning and generacion of the creatures.

THE ARGVMENT.

MOSES in effect declareth the things, which are here chefly to be conſidered: Firſt, that the worlde & all things therein were created by God, & that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the worlde to beholde Gods wonderful workes, & to praiſe his Name for the infinite graces, wherewith he had endued him, fel willingly from God through diſobedience: who yet for his owne mercies ſake reſtored him to life, & confirmed him in the ſame by his promes of Chriſt to come, by whome he ſhulde ouercome Satan, death and hel. Secondely, that the wicked, vnmindeful of Gods moſte excellent benefites, remained ſtil in their wickednes, & ſo falling moſte horribly from ſinne to ſinne, prouoked God (who by his preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to deſtroye the whole worlde. Thirdly, he aſſureth vs by the example of Abrahám, Ixhák, Iaakób & the reſt of the Patriarkes, that his mercies neuer faile them, whome he chuſeth to be his Church, and to profeſſe his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and perſecutions he euer aſſiſteth them, ſendeth comforte, & deliuereth them. And becauſe the beginning, increaſe, preſeruacion and ſucceſſe thereof might be onely attributed to God, Moſés ſheweth by the examples of Kain, Iſhmaél, Eſaú and others, which were nolle in mans iudgement, that this Church dependeth not on the eſtimacion and nobilitie of the worlde: and alſo by the fewenes of them, which haue at all times worſhiped him purely according to his worde, that it ſtandeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and deſpiſed, in the ſmale flocke and litle nomber, that man in his wiſdome might be confounded, & the Name of God euer more praiſed.

a Firſt of all, & before that ane creature was, God made heauen and earth of noſhing. Pſal 33.6. & 136.5 eccleſ. 18.1. act. 14,15 & 17,24.

b As a rude lumpe. & without ane creature in it: for the waters couered all.

c Darkenes couered ȳ depe waters: for as yet ȳ light was not created.

d He maintened this cõfuſe heape by his ſecret power. Ebr. 11,3.

e The light was made before either ſunne or moone was created: therefore we muſt not attribute that to ȳ creatures that are Gods inſtruments, ẅ onely apperteneth to God.

‖ The 1. day. Pſal. 33,6. & 136,5 iere. 10, 12. & 51,15.

* Or, ſpreading ouer, & ayre.

f As the ſea & ruers, from thoſe waters that are in the cloudes, which are vpholden by Gods power, leſt they ſhulde ouerwhelme the worlde. Pſal. 148,4.

g That is, the region of the ayre, and all ȳ is aboue vs.

‖ The 2. day. Pſal. 33,7. & 89,12.

h So that we ſe it is the onely power of Gods worde that maketh ȳ earth fruteful, which els naturally is barren.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heauen & the earth, 3 The light & the darkenes, 8 The firmamẽt. 9 He ſeparateth the water from the earth 16 He createth the ſunne, the moone, & the ſtarres. 21 He createth the fiſh, birdes, beaſtes. 26 He createth man and giueth him rule ouer all creatures, 29 And proudeth nourriture for man and beaſt.

IN THE a beginning * God created ȳ heauen and the earth.

And the earth was b without forme & voyde, and c darkenes was vpon the depe, & the Spirit of God d moued vpon the waters.

Then God ſaid, * Let there be light: and there was e light.

And God ſawe ȳ light that it was good, and God ſeparated the light from the darkenes.

And God called the light, Day, and the darkenes, he called Night. ‖ So the euenig and the morning were the firſt day.

¶ Againe God ſaid, * Let there be a" firmament in the middes of the waters: and let it ſeparate the waters from the waters.

Then God made the firmament, & parted the waters, which were f vnder the firmament, from the waters which were * aboue the firmament. and it was ſo.

And God called the firmament, g Heauen. ‖ So the euening and the morning were the ſeconde day.

¶ God ſaid againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauẽ be gathered into one place, & let the drye land appeare. and it was ſo.

And God called the drye land, Earth, & he called ȳ gathering together of the waters, Seas: & God ſawe that it was good.

Then God ſaid, h Let the earth budde forthe the budde of the herbe, that ſedeth ſede, the fruteful tre, ẅ beareth frute according to his kinde, which maie haue his ſede in it ſelf vpon the earth. & it was ſo.

And the earth broght forthe the budde of the herbe, that ſedeth ſede accordig to his kinde, alſo the tre that yeldeth frute, ẅ hathe his ſede in it ſelfe according to his kinde: & God i ſawe that it was good.

‖ So the euening and the morning were the third daie.

¶ And God ſaid, * Let there be k lightes in the firmament of the heauen, to l ſeparate the daie from the night, & let them be for m ſignes, and for ſeaſons, and for daies and yeres.

And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpõ the earth. and it was ſo.

God then made two n great lightes: the greater light o to rule the daie, & the leſſe light to rule ȳ night: he made alſo ȳ ſtarres.

And God ſet them in the firmament of the heauen, to ſhine vpon the earth,

And to * rule in the daie, & in the night, and to ſeparate the light from the darkenes: and God ſawe that it was good.

‖ So the euening and the morning were the fourth daie.

Afterwarde God ſaid, Let the waters bring forthe in abundãce euerie p creping thing that hathe " life: & let the foule flie vpon the earth in the " open firmament of the heauen.

Then God created the great whales, & euerie thing liuing & mouing, ẅ the q waters broght forthe in abundance, accordig to their kinde, & euerie fethered foule according to his kinde: & God ſawe that it was good.

i This ſentence is ſo oft repeated, to ſignifie ȳ God made all his creatures to ſerue to his glorie, & to the profit of man: but for ſinne they were accurſed, yet to ȳ cleſt, by Chriſt they are reſtored & ſerue to their welth.

‖ The 3. day. Pſal 136,7. deut. 4,19.

k By ȳ lightes he meaneth ȳ ſunne, the moone and the ſtarres.

l Which is ȳ artificial day, frõ the ſunne riſing to the going downe.

m Of things apperteining to natural and politicall ordres and ſeaſons.

n To wit, the ſunne and the moone: & here he ſpeaketh as man iudgeth by his eye: for els the moone is leſſe thẽ the planete Saturnus.

o To giue ſufficiẽt light, as inſtruments appointed for ȳ ſame, to ſerue to mãs vſe. Iere. 31,35.

‖ The 4. day.

p As fiſh and wormes which ſlide, ſwimme or crepe.

" Ebr. the ſoule of life.

" Ebr face of the firmament.

q The fiſh & foules had bothe one beginning, wherein we ſe that nature giueth place to Gods wil, foraſmuche as the one ſorte is made to flie aboue in the ayre, & the other to ſwimme beneth in the water.

22 Then God [r] bleſſed them, ſaying, Bring forthe frute and multiplie, and fil the waters in the ſeas & let the foule multiplie in the earth.
23 ‖So the euening & the morning were the fifte day.
24 ¶Moreouer God ſaid, Let the earth bring forthe the "liuing thing according to his kinde, cattel, & that which crepeth, & the beaſt of the earth, according to his kinde. and it was ſo.
25 And God made ỹ beaſt of the earth according to his kinde, and the cattel according to his kinde, & euerie creping thing of ỹ earth according to his kinde: & God ſawe that it was good.
26 Furthermore God ſaid, [*t] Let vs make man in our [t] image according to our lickenes, and let them rule ouer the fiſh of the ſea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer the beaſtes, & ouer all the earth, and ouer euerie thing that crepeth & moueth on the earth.
27 Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them male and female.
28 And God [u] bleſſed them, and God ſaid to them, * Bring forthe frute and multiplie, and fil the earth, and ſubdue it, and rule ouer the fiſh of the ſea and ouer the foule of the heauen, & ouer euerie beaſt that moueth vpon the earth.
29 And God ſaid, Beholde, I haue giuen vnto you *euerie herbe bearig ſede, which is vpon all the earth, & euerie tre, wherein is the frute of a tre bearing ſede: * that ſhalbe to you for meat.
30 Likewiſe to euerie beaſt of the earth, and to euerie foule of the heauen, & to euerie thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hathe life in it ſelfe, euerie grene herbe ſhalbe for meat. and it was ſo.
31 * And God ſawe all that he had made, & lo, it was very good. ‖So the euening and the morning were the ſixt day.

CHAP. II

2 God reſteth the ſeuenth day, and ſanctifieth it. 15 He ſetteth man in the garden. 22 He createth the womā. 29 Marriage is ordeined.

1 THus the heauens and the earth were finiſhed, & all the [a] hoſte of them.
2 For in the ſeuenth day God ended his worke which he had made, * & the ſeuenth daye he [b] reſted from all his worke, which he had made.
3 So God bleſſed the ſeuenth day, & [c] ſanctified it, becauſe that in it he had reſted from all his worke, which God had created and made.
4 ¶Theſe are the "generacions of the heauens & of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,
5 And euerie "plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euerie herbe of the field, before it grewe: for the Lord God had not cauſed it to [d] raine vpō the earth, nether was there a man to til the grounde,
6 But a myſt went vp from the earth, and watred all the earth.
7 ¶The Lord God alſo made the mā [e] of the duſt of the grounde, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing ſoule.
8 And the Lord God plāted a garden Eaſtwarde in [f] Eden, and there he put the man whome he had made.
9 (For out of the grounde made the Lord God to growe euerie tre pleaſant to the ſight, and good for meat: the [g] tre of life alſo in the middes of the garden, [h] and the tre of knowledge of good and of euil.
10 And out of Eden went a riuer to water the garden, and from thence it was deuided, and became into foure heades.
11 The name of one is * Piſhón: the ſame compaſſeth the whole land [i] of Hauilāh, where is golde.
12 And the golde of that land is good: there is alſo "bdelium, and the onix ſtone.
13 And the name of the ſecōde riuer is Gihón: the ſame compaſſeth the whole land of "Cuſh.
14 The name alſo of ỹ third riuer is "Hiddékel: this goeth towarde the Eaſtſide of "Aſſhúr: and the fourth riuer is "Peráth)
15 ¶Then the Lord God toke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might [k] dreſſe it and kepe it.
16 And the Lord God [l] commanded the man, ſaying, Thou ſhalt eat freely of euerie tre of the garden, 17 But as touching the tre of knowledge of good and euil, thou ſhalt not eat of it: for "whenſoeuer thou eateſt thereof, thou ſhalt dye the [m] death.
18 Alſo the Lord God ſaid, It is not good that the man ſhulde be him ſelfe alone. I wil make him an helpe "mete for him.
19 So the Lord God formed of the earth euerie beaſt of the field, and euerie foule of the heauen, & broght them vnto the [n] mā to ſe how he wolde call thē: for howſoeuer the man named the liuing creature, ſo was the name thereof.
20 The man therefore gaue names vnto all cattel, and to the foule of the heauen, and to euerie beaſt of the field: but for Adám founde he not an helpe mete for him.
21 ¶Therefore the Lord God cauſed an heauie ſlepe to fall vpon the man. & whiles he ſlept, he toke one of his rybbes and cloſed vp the fleſh in ſteade thereof.
22 And the rybbe which the Lord God had taken from the man, "made he a [o] woman, and broght her to the man.

Then

---

r That is, by the vertue of his worde he gaue power to his creatures to ingendre.
‖The 5 day
"Ebr. ſoule of life.
Chap.1.5. & 9.6.1.cor.11,7 coloſ.3,10.
ſ God cōmanded the water and the earth, to brig forthe other creatures: but of man he ſaith, Let vs make: ſignifying ỹ God taketh counſel with his wiſdome & vertue, purpoſing to make an excellent worke aboue all the reſt of his creacion.
t This image and lickneſ of God in man is expounded Epheſ 4.24: where it is write, ỹ man was created after God in righteouſnes & true holines, meaning by theſe two wordes all perfection, as wiſdome, trueth, innocencie, power, &c.
Wiſdo.2,23. eccleſ.17,1. Matt.19,4.
u The propagacion of man is the bleſsing of God, Pſal. 128.
Chap.8,17. & 9,1.
x Gods great liberalitie to man taketh away all excuſe of his ingratitude.
Chap.9,3. Exod.3,17. eccleſ.39,21. mar.7,37.
‖The 6 day,
a That is, the innumerable abundance of creatures in heauē & earth.
Exod.20,11. & 31,17. ebr.4,4.
b For he had now finiſhed his creacion, but his prouidence ſtil watcheth ouer his creatures, and gouerneth thē.
c Appointed it to be kept holy, that man might therein conſider ỹ excellencie of his workes & Gods goodnes towards him.
"Or, the originall & beginning.

"Or, tre, as Chap.21,15.

d God onely openeth the heauens and ſhutteth thē, he ſendeth drought and raine according to his good pleaſure.
e He ſheweth whereof mans bodye was created, to the intent that mā ſhulde not glorie in the excellēcie of his owne nature.
f This was the name of a place, as ſome thike, in Meſopotamia, moſte pleaſant & abundant in all things.
g Which was a ſigne of the life receaued of God.
h That is, of miſerable experiēce, which came by diſobeying God.
Eccle.24,35.
i Which Hauiláh is a cōtrey ioyning to Perſia Eſtwarde & enclineth towarde the Weſt.
"Or, precious ſtone, or perle.
Plinie ſayth it is the name of a tre.
"Or, Ethiopia.
"Or, tygris.
"Or, Aſſyria.
"Or, Euphrates.
k God wolde not haue man ydle, thogh as yet there was no nede to labour.
l So that man might knowe there was a ſoueraigne Lord, to whome he owed obediēce.
"Ebr. in the day
m By this death he meaneth the ſeparacion of man frō God, who is our life and chief felicitie: and alſo that our diſobediēce is the cauſe thereof.
"Ebr. before him.
n By meuing them to come & ſubmit thē ſelues to Adám.

"Ebr. buylde.
o Signifying, that mankinde was perfit, when ỹ womā was created, & before was like an vnperfit buylding.

1 Cor 11,8.

23 Then the man said, * This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shalbe called [o] woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 *Therefore shal man leaue [p] his father and his mother, and shal cleaue to his wife, and they shalbe one flesh.

25 And they were bothe naked, the man & his wife, and were not [q] ashamed.

[o] Or, Manner, because she cōmeth of man: for in Ebr Ish, is man, and Ishah the woman.

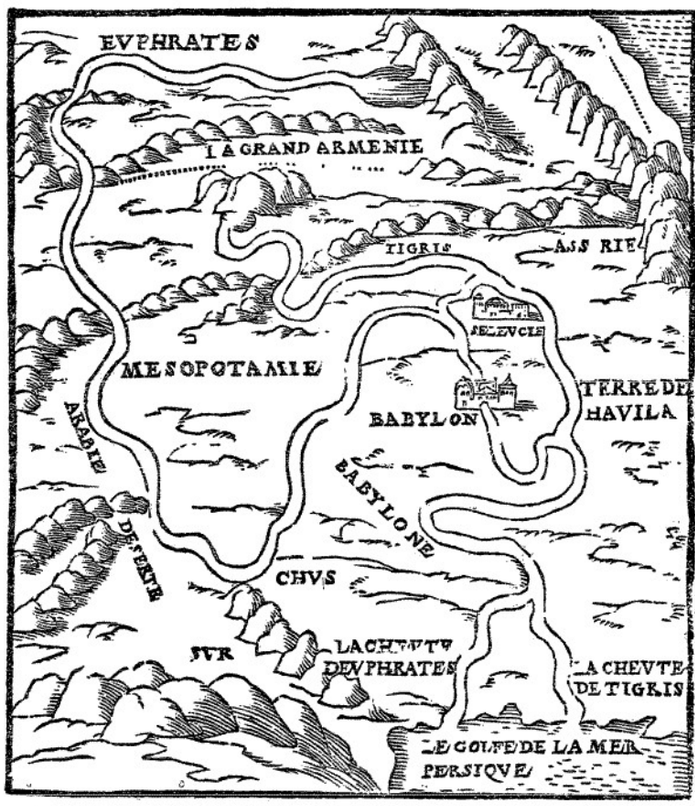
Mat 19,5. mar 10,7. 1 cor 6,16. ephes 5,31

[p] So that mariage requireth a greater duetie of vs towarde ē wiues, thē otherwise we are bounde to shewe to our parents.

[q] For before sinne entred, all things were honest and somely.

THE SITVACION OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN.



La grand Armenie
[o] Or, Armenia the great

Terre de Hauilah
[o] Or, land of Hauilah

La cheute d Euphrates.
Or, the fall of Euphrates.

La cheute de Tygris
Or, the fall of Tygris

Le golfe de la mer Persique
Or, the golfe of the Persian sea

Because mencion is made in the tenth verse of this seconde chapter of the riuer that watered the garden, we muste note that Euphrates and Tygris called in Ebrewe, Perath and Hiddékel, were called but one riuer where they ioyned together, els they had foure heades: that is, two at their springs, & two where they fel into the Persian sea In this countrey and moste plentiful land Adám dwelt, and this was called Paradise: that is, a garden of pleasure, because of the frutefulnes and abundance thereof And whereas it is said that Pishón compasseth the land of Hauilah, it is meant of Tygris, which in some place, as it passed by diuers places, was called by sondry names, as some time Diglitte, in other places Pasitygris, & of some Phasin or Pishón. Likewise Euphrates towarde the countrey of Cush or Ethiopia, or Arabia was called Gihon So that Tygris and Euphrates (which were but two riuers and some time when they ioyned together, were called after one name) were according to diuers places called by these foure names, so that they might seme to haue bene foure diuers riuers.

CHAP. III.

The womā seduced by the serpēt, 6 Entiseth her housbād to sinne. 14 They thre are punished 15 Christ is promised 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of paradise.

Wisdo 2,25

1 NOw *the serpent was more [a] subtil then anie beast of the field, which ye Lord God had made: and he [b] said to the woman, Yea, hathe God in dede said, Ye shal not eat of euerie tre of the garden?

2 And the woman said vnto the serpēt, We eat of the frute of the trees of the garden,

3 But of the frute of the tre, which is in the middes of the garden, God hathe said, Ye shal not eat of it, nether shal ye touche it, [c] lest ye dye.

4 Then *the serpent said to the woman, Ye shal not [d] dye at all,

5 But God doeth knowe, that when ye shal eat thereof, your eyes shalbe opened, & ye shalbe as gods, [e] knowing good and euil.

6 So the woman (seing that the tre was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, & a tre to be desired to get knowledge) toke of the frute thereof, and did * eat, and gaue also to her housband with her, and he [f] did eat.

7 Then the eyes of them bothe were opened, & they [g] knewe that they were naked, and they sewed figtre leaues together, and made them selues [h] breeches.

8 ¶Afterwarde they heard the voyce of a As Satan cā change him selfe into an Angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdome of the serpent to deceaue man b God suffered Satan to make the serpent his instrument and to speake in him.

c In douting of Gods threatnīg she yelded to Satan.

2 Cor 11,3.

d This is Satans chiefest subtilitie, to cause vs not to feare Gods threatenings

e As though he shulde say, God doeth not forbid you to eay of the frute, saue that he knoweth that if you shulde eat thereof, you shulde be like to him

Eccles 25,33. 1 tim 2,14.

f Not so muche to please his wife, as moued by ambicion at her persuasion

g They began to fele their miserie, but they soght not to God for remedie the Lord God walking in the garden in the *coole of the day, and the man and his wife h hid them ſelues from the preſence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

[h] Ebr things to girde about thē to hide their priuities.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and ſaid vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Who ſaid, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afraied: becauſe I was i naked, therefore I hid my ſelf.

11 And he ſaid, Who tolde thee, that thou waſt naked? Haſt thou eaten of the tre, whereof I cõmanded thee that thou ſhuldeſt not eat in no caſe?

12 Then the man ſaid, The woman which thou k gaueſt to be with me, ſhe gaue me of the tre, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God ſaid to the woman, Why haſt thou done this? And the womã ſaid, l The ſerpent beguyled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God ſaid to the ſerpẽt, m Becauſe thou haſt done this, thou art curſed aboue all cattel, and aboue euerie beaſt of the field: vpon thy belly ſhalt thou go, and n duſt ſhalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.

15 I wil alſo o put enimitie betwene thee and the womã, & betwene thy ſede & her ſede. He ſhal breake thine p head, & thou ſhalt q bruiſe his heele.

16 ¶ Vnto the woman he ſaid, I wil greately increaſe thy r ſorowes, & thy conceptiõs. In ſorowe ſhalt thou bring forthe childrẽ, and thy deſire ſhal be ſubiect to thine houſband, and he ſhal* rule ouer thee.

17 ¶ Alſo to Adám he ſaid, Becauſe thou haſt obeied the voyce of thy wife, and haſt eaten of the tre (whereof I cõmãded thee, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not eat of it) ſ curſed is the earth for thy ſake: in ſorowe ſhalt thou eat of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 t Thornes alſo, and thyſtles ſhal it bring forthe to thee, and thou ſhalt eat the herbe of the field.

19 In the ſweat of thy face ſhalt thou eat bread, til thou returne to the earth: for out of it waſt thou taken, becauſe thou art duſt, and to duſt ſhalt thou returne.

20 (And the man called his wiues name Heuáh, becauſe ſhe was the mother of all liuing)

21 Vnto Adám alſo and to his wife did the Lord God u make coates of ſkinnes, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God ſaid, x Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, to knowe good and euil. And now leſt he put forthe his hand, and y take alſo of the tre of life and eat and liue for euer, 23 Therefore ẏ Lord God ſent him forthe from the garden of Eden, to til the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he caſt out man, and at the Eaſtſide of the garden of Eden he ſet the Cherubíms, and the blade of a ſworde ſhaken, to kepe the waye of the tre of life.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The generacion of mankinde. 8 Káin killeth Hábel 23 Lamech a tyrant encourageth his feareful wiues. 26 True religion is reſtored.

1 AFterwarde the man knewe Heuáh his wife, which a cõceiued & bare Káin, & ſaid, I haue obteined a man b by ẏ Lord.

2 And againe ſhe broght forthe his brother Hábel, and Hábel was a keper of ſhepe, & Káin was a tiller of the grounde.

3 ¶ And in proceſſe of time it came to paſſe, that Káin broght an c oblacion vnto the Lord of the frute of the grounde.

4 And Hábel alſo him ſelfe broght of the firſt frutes of his ſhepe, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had reſpect vnto *Hábel, and to his offring,

5 But vnto Káin and to his offring he had no d regarde: wherefore Káin was exceding wroth, & his countenance fel downe.

6 Then the Lord ſaid vnto Káin, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance caſt downe?

7 If thou do wel, ſhalt thou not be e accepted? and if thou doeſt not wel, ſinne lieth at the f dore: alſo vnto thee his g deſire ſhal be ſubiect, and thou ſhalt rule ouer him.

8 ¶ Then Káin ſpake to Hábel his brother. And * when they were in the field, Káin roſe vp againſt Hábel his brother, and ſlewe him.

9 Then the Lord ſaid vnto Káin, Where is Hábel thy brother? Who anſwered, I cã not tel. h Am I my brothers keper?

10 Againe he ſaid, What haſt thou done? the i voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me from the grounde.

11 Now therefore thou art curſed k frõ the earth, w̃ hathe opened her mouth to receiue thy brothers blood from thine hand.

12 When thou ſhalt til the grounde, it ſhal not henceforthe yelde vnto thee her ſtrength: a l vagabonde and a rennegate ſhalt thou be in the earth.

13 Then Káin ſaid to the Lord, m *My puniſhment is greater, then I can beare.

14 Beholde, thou haſt caſt me out this day from the earth, and from thy face ſhal I be hid, and ſhalbe a vagabonde and a rennegate in the earth, & whoſoeuer findeth me, ſhal ſlaye me.

15 Then the Lord ſaid vnto him, Douteles whoſoeuer ſlayeth Káin, he ſhalbe n puniſhed ſeuen folde. And ẏ Lord ſet a o marke vpon Káin, leſt anie man finding him ſhulde kil him.

16 Then Káin went out from the preſence of the Lord and dwelt in the land of Nod tow rd the Eaſtſide of Eden.

---

*Or, winde.

h The ſinfull cõſciẽce feeth Gods preſẽce

i His hypocriſie appeareth in that he hid ẏ cauſe of his nakednes, w̃ was the tranſgreſsion of Gods cõmãdement k His wickednes & lacke of true repentãce appeareth in this ẏ he burdeneth God w̃ his faute, becauſe he had giuẽ hi a wife.

l In ſtead of confeſſing her ſinne, ſhe increaſeth it by accuſing the ſerpent

m He aſked ẏ reaſon of Adã and his wife, becauſe he wolde bring them to repentance, but he aſketh not the ſerpẽt, becauſe he wolde ſhewe him no mercie n As a vile & contemptible beaſt, Iſa 65, 25.

o He chiefly meaneth Satã, by whoſe motion & craft ẏ ſerpent deceiued ẏ woman

p That is, the power of ſinne and death

¶ Satan ſhal fight Chriſt & his members, but not ouercome them

r The Lord comforteth Adám by the promes of the bleſſed ſede, & alſo puniſheth ẏ body for the ſinne, which ẏ ſoule ſhulde haue bene puniſhed for, ẏ the ſpirit hauing conceiued hope of forgiuenes, might liue by faith

1 Cor. 14, 34.

ſ The tranſgreſſiõ of Gods cõmandement was the cauſe ẏ bothe mankinde and all other creatures were ſubiect to the curſe.

t Theſe are not ẏ natural frutes of the earth, but procede of ẏ corruption of ſinne.

u Or gaue thẽ knowledge to make thẽ ſelues coates x By this deciſion he reprocheth Adãs miſerie, wherevnto he was fallen by ambition

y Adám deprined of life loſt alſo the ſigne thereof.

a Mans nature, the ſtate of mariage, & Gods bleſsing were not vtterly aboliſhed through ſinne, but the qualitie or conditiõ thereof was changed

b That is, according to the Lords promes, as chap 3, 15: ſome read, To the Lord, as reioycing for ẏ ſonne, w̃ he had borne, who me ſhe wolde offer to ẏ Lord as the firſt frutes of her birth c This declareth that the father inſtructed his childrẽ in ẏ knowledge of God, and alſo how God gaue thẽ ſacrifices to ſignifie their ſaluatiõ: albeit they were deſtitute of the ſacrament of the tre of life.

Ebr 11, 4.

d Because he was an hypocrite and offred onely for an outwarde ſhew without ſinceritie of heart

e Bothe thou and thy ſacrifice ſhalbe acceptable to me

f Sinne ſhal ſtil tormẽt thy conſcience

g The dignitie of ẏ firſt borne is giuen to Káin ouer Hábel

Wiſd 10, 3.

mat. 23, 35.

1 ioh 3, 12.

iud 11.

h This is the nature of the reprobate w hẽ they are repruued of their hypocriſie, euẽ to neglect God and deſpite him i God reuengeth ẏ wrõgs of his Saints, thogh none cõplaine: for the iniquitie itſelfe cryeth for vengeance k The earth ſhalbe a witnes againſt thee which mercifully receiued that blood, w̃ thou moſte cruelly ſhed.

l Thou ſhalt neuer haue reſt: for thine heart ſhalbe in continual feare & care.

m He burdeneth God as a cruel iudge, becauſe he did puniſh him ſo ſharpely Or, my ſinne is greater then can be pardoned.

n Not for the loue he bare to Káin, but to ſuppreſſe murther.

o A viſible ſigne of Gods iudgement that others ſhulde feare.

17 Káin alſo knewe his wife, which cõceiued and bare Henóch: and he buylt a p citie and called the name of the citie by the name of his ſonne, Henóch.

p Thinking thereby to be ſure & to haue leſſe occaſion to feare Gods iudgements againſt him.

18 And to Henóch was borne Irád, and Irád begate Mehuiaél, and Mehuiaél begate Methuſhaél, and Methuſhaél begate Lámech.

19 ¶And Lámech toke to him q two wiues: the name of the one was Adáh, and the name of the other Zilláh.

q The lawful inſtitucion of marriage, ẅ is ẏ two ſhulde be one fleſh, was firſt corrupt in ẏ houſe of Káin by Lámech 20 And Adáh bare Iabál, who was the r father of ſuche as dwel in the tentes, and of ſuche as haue cattel.

r Or, firſt ſnuffer.

21 And his brothers name was Iubál, who was the father of all that playe on the harpe and s organes.

s Or, flutes and pipes.

22 And Zilláh alſo bare Tubal-káin, who wroght cunningly euerie crafte of braſſe and of yron: and the ſiſter of Tubal-káin was Naamáh.

23 Then Lámech ſaid vnto his wiues Adáh and Zilláh, Heare my voyce, ye wiues of Lámech: hearken vnto my ſpeche: t for I wolde ſlaye a man in my woũde, & a yong man in mine hurt.

t His wiues ſeing that all mẽ hated him for his cruelty, were afraied. therefore he braggeth ẏ there is none ſo luſty that were able to riſiſt, although he were alreadie wounded 24 If Káin ſhalbe auenged ſeuen folde, truely Lámech, u ſeuentie times ſeuen folde.

u He mocked at Gods ſufferãce in Káin, ieſtig as thogh God wolde ſuffre none to puniſh him, & yet giue him licẽce to murther others

25 ¶And Adám knewe his wife againe, and ſhe bare a ſonne, and ſhe called his name Sheth: for God, ſaid ſhe, hathe appointed me another ſede for Hábel, becauſe Káin ſlewe him.

26 And to the ſame Sheth alſo there was borne a ſonne, and he called his name Enóſh. Then began men to x call vpon the Name of the Lord.

x In theſe dayes God began to moue ẏ hearts of the godlie to reſtore religion, ẅ along time by ẏ wicked had bene ſuppreſſed

CHAP. V.

1 The genealogie. 5 Age and deathe of Adám. 6 His ſucceſſion vnto Nóah and his children.

THis is the a boke of the generacions of Adám. In the day that God created Adám, in the b lickenes of God made he him, a Or, rehearſal of the ſtocke

2 Male and female created he thẽ, & bleſſed them, and called their name c Adám in the day that they were created.

b Read Chap 1,26

c By giuing them bothe one name, he meneth the inſeparable cõiunction of mã and wife

3 ¶Now Adám liued an hũdreth and thirtie yeres and begate a childe in his owne d lickenes after his image, and called his name Sheth.

d Aſwel concerning his creation, as his corruption

4 *And the dayes of Adám, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundreth yeres, and he begate ſonnes and daughters.

*1 Chro.1,1.

5 So all the dayes that Adám liued, were nine hundreth and thirtie yeres: and he dyed.

6 And e Sheth liued an hundreth, and fyue yeres, and begate Enóſh.

e He proueth Adams generation by thẽ, which came of Sheth, to ſhewe which is ẏ true Church, and alſo what care God had euer the ſame from the beginning, in that he continued euer his graces toward it by a continual ſucceſſion

7 And Sheth liued, after he begate Enóſh, eight hundreth and ſeuen yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

8 So all the dayes of Sheth were f nine hũdreth and twelue yeres: & he dyed.

f The chiefe cauſe of long life in the firſt age was the multiplicatiõ of mankinde, that accordig to Gods commandement at the beginning the worlde might be increaſed with people, which might vniuerſally praiſe his Name.

9 ¶Alſo Enóſh liued ninety yeres & begate Kenán.

10 And Enóſh liued, after he begate Kenán, eight hundreth and fiftene yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

11 So all the daies of Enóſh were nine hundreth and fiue yeres: and he dyed.

12 ¶Likewiſe Kenán liued ſeuentie yeres, and begate Mahalaleél.

13 And Kenán liued, after he begate Mahalaleél, eight hundreth and fourty yeres, & begate ſonnes and daughters.

14 So all the dayes of Kenán were nine hũdreth and ten yeres: and he dyed.

15 ¶Mahalaleél alſo liued ſixty & fiue yeres and begate Iéred.

16 Alſo Mahalaleél liued, after he begate Iéred, eight hundreth and thirty yeres, & begate ſonnes and daughters.

17 So all the dayes of Mahalaleél were eight hundreth ninety and fiue yeres: and he dyed.

18 ¶And Iéred liued an hundreth ſixty and two yeres, and begate Henóch.

19 Then Iéred liued, after he begate Henóch, eight hundreth yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

20 So all the dayes of Iéred were nine hundreth ſixty and two yeres: & he dyed.

21 ¶* Alſo Henóch liued ſixty and fiue yeres, and begate Methuſhélah.

*Eccl 44,15. Hebr.11,5.

22 And Henóch g walked with God, after he begate Methuſhélah, thre hundreth yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

g That is, he led an vpright & godlie life.

23 So all the daies of Henóch were thre hũdreth ſixty and fiue yeres.

24 And Henóch walked with God, and he was no more ſene: for h God toke him away.

h To ſhewe ẏ there was a better life prepared, & to be a teſtimonie of the immortalitie of ſoules & bodies As to inquire where he became, is mere curioſitie.

25 Methuſhélah alſo liued an hundreth eighty and ſeuen yeres, and begate Lámech.

26 And Methuſhélah liued, after he begate Lámech, ſeuen hundreth eighty and two yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

27 So all the dayes of Methuſhélah were nine hundreth ſixty and nine yeres: and he dyed.

28 ¶Then Lámech liued an hũdreth eighty and two yeres, and begate a ſonne, 29 And called his name Nóah, ſaying, This ſame ſhal i comfort vs concerning our worke and ſorowe of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hathe curſed.

i Lámech had reſpect to the promes, Chap. 3,15, and deſired to ſe the deliuerer, ẅ ſhulde be ſent, & yet ſawe but a figure thereof. he alſo ſpake this by the Spirit of prophecie, becauſe Nóah deliuered the Church, and preſerued it by his obedience.

30 And Lámech liued, after he begate Nóah, fiue hundreth ninety and fiue yeres, and begate ſonnes and daughters.

31 So all the dayes of Lámech were ſeuẽ hundreth ſeuenty and ſeuen yeres: and he dyed.

32 And Nóah was fiue hundreth yere olde. And Nóah begate Shem, Ham and Iápheth.

CHAP. VI.

3 God threateneth to bring the flood. 5 Man is altogether corrupt. 18 Nóah is preſerued in the Arke, which he was commanded to make.

1 SO when men began to be multiplied vpon the earth, and there were daughters borne vnto them,

2 Then the [a] ſonnes of God ſawe the daughters [b] of men that they were [c] faire, and they toke them wiues of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord ſaid, My Spirit ſhal not alway [d] ſtriue with man, becauſe he is but fleſh, & his dayes ſhal be an [e] hundreth and twentie yeres.

4 There were [f] gyantes in the earth in thoſe dayes: yea, and after that the ſonnes of God came vnto the daughters of mẽ, and they had borne them children, theſe were mightie men, which in olde time were men of [f] renoume.

5 ¶When the Lord ſawe that the wickednes of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginacions of the thoghts of his *heart were onely euil continually,

6 Then it [g] repẽted the Lord, that he had made man in the earth, and he was ſorie in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord ſaid, I wil deſtroye from the earth the man, whome I haue created, from man [h] to beaſt, to the creping thing, & to the foule of the heauen: for I repent that I haue made them.

8 But Nóah [i] founde grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 ¶Theſe are the [g] generacions of Nóah. Nóah was a iuſte and vpright man in his time, and walked with God.

10 And Nóah begate thre ſonnes, Shem, Ham and Iápheth.

11 The earth alſo was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with [k] crueltie.

12 Then God loked vpõ the earth, and beholde, it was corrupt: for all fleſh had corrupt his way vpon the earth.

13 And God ſaid vnto Nóah, [g] An end of all fleſh is come before me: for the earth is filled with [g] crueltie through them: and beholde, I wil deſtroye them with the earth.

14 ¶Make thee an Arke of [l] pine trees: thou ſhalt make [l] cabines in the Arke, and ſhalt pytch it within and without with pytch.

15 And [g] thus ſhalt thou make it: The lẽgth of the Arke ſhalbe thre hundreth cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it thirtie cubites.

16 A windowe ſhalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite ſhalt thou finiſh it aboue, and the dore of the Arke ſhalt thou ſet in the ſide thereof: thou ſhalt make it with the [l] lowe, ſeconde and third roume.

17 And I, beholde, I wil bring a flood of waters vpon the earth to deſtroye all fleſh, wherein is ſ breath of life vnder the heauen: all that is in the earth ſhal periſh.

18 But with thee wil I [m] eſtabliſh my couenant, & thou ſhalt go into the Arke, thou, and thy ſonnes, and thy wife, and thy ſonnes wiues with thee.

19 And of euerie liuing thing, of all fleſh two of euerie ſorte ſhalt thou cauſe to come into the Arke, to kepe them aliue with thee: they ſhalbe male and female.

20 Of the foules after their kinde, and of the cattel after their kinde, of euerie creping thing of the earth after his kinde, two of euerie ſorte ſhal come vnto thee, that thou maieſt kepe them aliue.

21 And take thou with thee of all meat that is eatẽ: & thou ſhalt gather it to thee, that it may be meat for thee & for them.

22 *Nóah therefore did according vnto all, that God commanded him: euen [n] ſo did he.

a The childrẽ of thẽ godlie, which begã to degenerate.
b Thoſe that came of wicked parents as of Kain.
c Hauing more reſpect to their beautie, & to worldely conſideratiõs, then to their maners, and godlines.
d Becauſe mã colde not be wõne by Gods lenitie and lõg ſufferãce, whereby he ſtroue to ouercome him, he wolde no longer ſtay his vengeãce.
e Which terme God gaue man to repent before he wolde deſtroy the earth, 1 Pet. 3, 20.
f Or, tyrants.
g Which vſurped autoritie ouer others & did degenerate from ſ ſimplicitie, wherein their faders liued.
Chap. 8, 21. mat. 15, 19.
g God doeth neuer repent, but he ſpeaketh after our capacitie, becauſe he did deſtroy him, & in that, as it were, did diſauowe him to be his creature.
h God declareth how muche he deteſteth ſinne, ſeing the puniſhment thereof extẽdeth to the brute beaſtes.
i God was merciful vnto him.
Or, hiſtorie.
k Meaning ſ all were giuen to the contẽpt of God and oppreſſion of their neighbours.
Or, I wil deſtroy mankinde.
Or, oppreſſion & wickednes.
l Ebr Gopher.
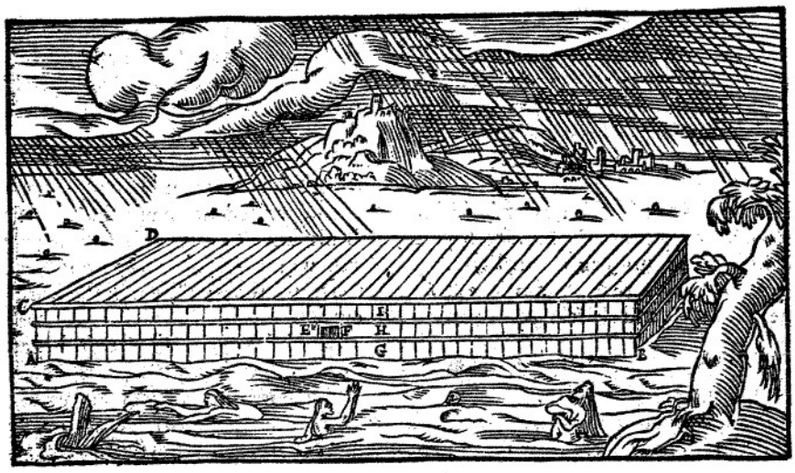
Ebr neſtes.
Or, of this meaſure.
l That is, of thre heightes, as appeareth in this figure.
m To the intẽt that in this great enterpriſe & mockings of the whole worlde thou maiſt be confirmed, that thy faith faile not.
Ebr 11, 7.
n That is, he obeyd Gods cõmandements in all points.



A. B. The length thre hũdreth cubites
A. C. The breadth fiftie
D. E. The height thirtie
E. The windowe a cubite long.
F. The dore.
G. H. I. The thre heightes.

CHAP. VII.

1 Nóah and his entre into the Arke. 20 The flood deſtroyeth all the reſt vpon the earth.

1 AND the Lord ſaid vnto Nóah, Entre thou and all thine houſe into the Arke: for thee haue I ſene *a righteous before me in this age.

2 Of euerie b cleane beaſt thou ſhalt take to thee by ſeuens, the male and his female: but of vncleane beaſtes by couples, ỹ male and his female.

3 Of the foules alſo of the heauen by ſeuens, male and female, to kepe ſede aliue vpon the whole earth.

4 For ſeuen dayes hence I wil cauſe it raine vpon the earth fourty dayes & fourty nights, and all the ſubſtance that I haue made, wil I deſtroye from of the earth.

5 *Nóah therefore did according vnto all that the Lord commanded him.

6 And Nóah was ſix hundreth yeres olde, when the flood of waters was vpon the earth.

7 ¶ So Nóah entred and his ſonnes, & his wife, and his ſonnes wiues with him into the Arke, becauſe of the waters of the flood.

8 Of the cleane beaſtes, and of the vncleane beaſtes, and of the foules, & of all that crepeth vpon the earth, 9 There c came two & two vnto Nóah into the Arke, male & female, as God had commanded Nóah.

10 And ſo after ſeuen dayes the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

11 ¶ In the ſix hundreth yere of Noahs life in the d ſeconde moneth, the ſeuententh day of the moneth, in the ſame day were all the e fountaines of the great depe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened,

12 And the raine was vpon the earth fourty dayes and fourty nights.

13 In the ſelfe ſame day entred Nóah with Shem, & Ham and Iápheth, the ſonnes of Nóah, and Noahs wife, and the thre wiues of his ſonnes with thẽ into the Arke.

14 They and euerie beaſt after his kinde, & all cattel after their kinde, & euerie thing that crepeth and moueth vpon the earth after his kinde, & euerie foule after his kinde, euen euerie birde of euerie fether.

15 For they came to Nóah into the Arke, two and two, f of all fleſh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entring in, came male & female of all fleſh, as God had cõmanded him: and the Lord g ſhut him in.

17 Then the flood was fourty dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increaſed, & bare vp ỹ Arke, which was lifte vp aboue the earth.

18 The waters alſo waxed ſtrong, and were increaſed exceedingly vpon the earth, and the Arke went vpon the waters.

19 The waters "preuailed ſo exceedingly vpon the earth, that all the high mountaines, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered.

20 Fiftene cubites vpwarde did the waters preuaile, when the mountaines were couered.

21 *Then all fleſh periſhed that moued vpon the earth, bothe foule and cattel and beaſt, & euerie thing that crepeth & moueth vpon the earth, and euerie man.

22 Euerie thing in whoſe noſtrels the ſpirit of life did breathe, whatſoeuer they were in the drye land, they dyed.

23 So h he deſtroyed euerie thing that was vpon the earth, from man to beaſt, to the creping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: they were euen deſtroyed from the earth. and Nóah onely i remained, & they that were with him in the Arke.

24 And the waters preuailed vpon the earth an hundreth and fiftie dayes.

CHAP. VIII.

13 The flood ceaſeth. 16 Nóah is commanded to come forthe of the Arke with his. 20 He ſacrificeth to the Lord. 22 God promiſeth that all things ſhal continue in their firſt ordre.

1 NOw God a remembred Nóah & b euerie beaſt, & all the cattel that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to paſſe vpon the earth, and the waters ceaſed.

2 The fountaines alſo of the depe & the windowes of heauen were ſtopped & the raine from heauen was reſtrained,

3 And the waters returned from aboue the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundreth and fiftieth day the waters abated.

4 And in the c ſeuenth moneth, in the ſeuententh day of the moneth, the Arke "reſted vpon the mountaines of "Ararát.

5 And the waters were going & decreaſing vntil the d tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, & in the firſt day of the moneth were the toppes of the mountaines ſene.

6 ¶ So "after fourty dayes, Nóah opened ỹ windowe of the Arke, which he had made,

7 And ſent forthe a ‖rauen, which went out going forthe and returning, vntil the waters were dryed vp vpon the earth.

8 Againe he ſent a ‖doue from him, that he might ſe if the waters were diminiſhed from of the earth.

9 But the doue founde no reſt for the ſole of her foote: therefore ſhe returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) & he e put forthe his hand, & toke her, and pulled her to him into the Arke.

a. Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he ſendeth ſuccour, then he ſheweth that he remẽbreth them.

b If God remẽber euerie brute beaſt, what ought to be the aſſurãce of his childrẽ?

c Which contemed parte of September & parte of October.

"Or, ſtayed.

"Or, Armenia.

d Which was the moneth of December.

"Ebr. at the end of fourty dayes.

‖ The rauen is ſent forthe & returneth.

‖ He ſendeth the doue.

e It is like, ỹ the rauen did flie to and fro, reſting on the Arke, but came not in to it, as the doue that was taken in.

2. Pet. 2, 5.

a In reſpect of the reſt of the worlde, & becauſe he had a deſire to ſerue God and liue vprightly.

b Which might be offred in ſacrifice, whereof ſix were for breed and the ſeuẽth for ſacrifice.

Mat. 24, 37. luk. 17, 26. 1 pet. 3, 20.

c God compelled them to preſẽt thẽſelues to Noah, as they did before to Adám, when he gaue euery one names, Chap. 2, 19.

d Which was about the beginning of Maie, when all things did moſte floriſh.

e Bothe ỹ waters in ỹ earth did ouerflowe, and alſo the cloudes powred downe.

f Euerie liuing thing that God woulde haue to be preſerued on earth, came into the Arke to Nóah.

g So ỹ Gods ſecret power detenued him againſt the rage of ỹ mightie waters.

10 And he abode yet other ſeuen dayes, and againe he ſent forthe the doue out of the Arke.

11 And the doue came to him in the euenīg, & lo, in her [e] mouthe was an [f] oliue leafe that ſhe had pluct: whereby Nóah knewe that ỹ waters were abated from of ỹ earth.

12 Notwithſtanding he waited yet other ſeuen dayes, & ſent forthe the doue, which returned not againe vnto him any more.

13 ¶And in the ſix hundreth and one yere, in the firſt date of the [g] firſt moneth the waters were dryed vp from of the earth: & Nóah remoued the couering of the Arke & loked, & beholde, the vppei parte of the grounde was drye.

14 And in the ſeconde moneth, in the ſeuen and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth drye.

15 ¶Then God ſpake to Nóah, ſaying,

16 [h] Go forthe of ỹ Arke, thou & thy wife, & thy ſonnes & thy ſonnes wiues w̄ thee.

17 Bring forthe with thee euerie beaſt that is with thee, of all fleſh, bothe foule and cattel, & euerie thing that crepeth & moueth vpon the earth, that thei maie brede abundantly in the earth, * & bring forthe frute and increaſe vpon the earth.

18 So Nóah came forthe, and his ſonnes, & his wife, and his ſonnes wiues with him.

19 Euerie beaſt, euerie creping thing, & euerie foule, all that moueth vpō the earth after their kindes went out of the Arke.

20 ¶Then Nóah [i] buylt an altar to ỹ Lord and toke of euerie cleane beaſt, & of euerie cleane foule, and offred burnt offrings vpon the altar.

21 And the Lord ſmelled a [k] ſauour of reſt, & ỹ Lord ſaid in his heart, I wil henceforthe curſe the ground no more for mās cauſe: for the imaginacion of mans *heart is euil, euen frō his youth: nether wil I ſmite anie more all things liuing, as I haue done.

22 Hereafter [l] ſede time & harueſt, & colde & heate, & ſommer and winter, & daie & night ſhal not ceaſe, ſo long as the earth remaineth.

CHAP. IX.

1 The confirmacīō of mariage 3 Permiſſiō of meates 6 The power of the ſworde. 14 The rainebowe is the ſigne of Gods promes 21 Nóah is dronken & mocked of his ſonne, whome he curſeth. 29 The age & death of Nóah.

AND God [a] bleſſed Nóah & his ſōnes, and ſaid to them, Bring forthe frute, and multiplie, and repleniſh the earth.

2 Alſo the [b] feare of you, and the dread of you ſhalbe vpon euerie beaſt of the earth, and vpon euerie foule of the heauen, vpon all that moueth on the earth, & vpō all the fiſhes of the ſea: into your hand are thei deliuered.

3 Euerie [c] thing that moueth & liueth, ſhalbe meat for you: as ỹ * grene herbe, haue I giuen you all things.

4 *[d] But fleſh with the life thereof, I meane, with the blood thereof, ſhal ye not eat.

5 [e] For ſurely I wil require your blood, wherein your liues are: at the hand of euerie beaſt wil I require it: and at the hand of man, euen at the hand of a mās [m] brother wil I require the life of man.

6 Whoſo * ſhedeth mans blood, [f] by man ſhal his blood be ſhed: for in the [g] image of God hathe he made man.

7 But bring ye forthe frute and multiplie: growe plētifully in the earth, and increaſe therein.

8 ¶God ſpake alſo to Nóah & to his ſonnes with him, ſaying,

9 Beholde, I, euen I eſtabliſh my [h] couenāt with you, and with your [i] ſede after you,

10 And with euerie liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattel, & with euerie beaſt of the earth with you, from all that go out of the Arke, vnto euerie beaſt of the earth.

11 *And my couenant wil I eſtabliſh with you, that from henceforthe all fleſh ſhal not be rooted out by the waters of the flood, nether ſhal there be a flood to deſtroye the earth any more.

12 Then God ſaid, This is the token of the couenant which I make betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing, that is with you vnto perpetual generacions.

13 I haue ſet my [k] bowe in the cloude, and it ſhalbe for a ſigne of the couenāt betwene me and the earth.

14 And when *I ſhal couer the earth with a cloude, and the bowe ſhal be ſene in the cloude, 15 Then wil I remēber my [l] couenāt, which is betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing in all fleſh, & there ſhalbe no more waters of a flood to deſtroy all fleſh.

16 Therefore ỹ bowe ſhalbe in the cloude, ỹ I may ſe it, & remember the euerlaſting couenant betwene God, and euerie liuing thing in all fleſh that is vpon the earth.

17 God ſaid yet to Nóah, [m] This is the ſigne of the couenant, which I haue eſtabliſhed betwene me and all fleſh that is vpon the earth.

18 ¶Now the ſonnes of Nóah going forthe of the Arke, were Shem & Ham & Iápheth. And Ham is the father of Canáan.

19 Theſe are the thre ſonnes of Nóah, and of them was the [n] whole earth ouerſpred.

20 [o] Nóah alſo began to be an houſband mā and planted a vineyarde.

21 And he drōke of ỹ wine & was [p] dronkē, & was vncouered in ỹ middes of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father [p] of Canáan ſawe the nakednes of his father, [q] he tolde his two brethren without.

23 Then toke Shem and Iápheth a garmēt, and Leu 17,14.

d That is, liuing creatures & the fleſh of beaſtes that are ſtrāgled: & hereby all cruelte is forbidden

e That is, I wil take vengeāce for your blood

[m] Or, neighbour

Mat 26, 52. reuel 13,10.

f Not onely by the magiſtrate, but oftimes God raiſeth vp one murtherer to kil another g Therefore to kil man is to deface Gods image, and ſo iniurie is not onely done to man, but to God

h To aſſure you that the worlde ſhalbe no more deſtroyed by a flood i The childrē which are not yet borne, are comprehēded in Gods couenant made w̄ their fathers

Iſa 54,9.

k Hereby we ſe that ſigues or ſacraments oght not to be ſepaiate from the worde

Eccleſ 43,12.

l When men ſhal ſe my bowe in ỹ heauen, thei ſhal knowe that I haue not forgotten my couenant with them

m God doeth repeat this the oftener to confirme Noahs faith ſo muche more n This declareth what was the vertue of Gods bleſsing, when he ſaid, Increaſe and bring forthe, Chap 1,28

[n] Or, Noe to begā againe

o This is ſet before our eies to ſhewe what an horrible thing drōkennes is p Of whome came the Cananites that wicked natiō, who were alſo curſed of God

q In derisiō & contempt of his father

Chap 1,22. & 9 1.

1 For ſacrifices, which were as an exciſe of their faith, whereby thei vſed to giue thankes to God for his benefites

[o] Or, a ſweete ſauour

k That is, thereby he ſhewed him ſelfe appeaſed, and his angre to reſt

Chap 6,5. mat 15,19.

l The ordre of nature deſtroyed by the flood is reſtored by Gods promes

2 God increaſed them with frute, & declared vnto them his counſel as touching ỹ repleniſhing of the earth

3 By the vertue of this cōmandement beaſtes rage not ſo muche againſt man as they wolde, yea and many ſerue to his vſe thereby

* By this permiſſion man may, with a good conſcience vſe ỹ creatures of God for his neceſſitie and put it vpon bothe their ſhulders and wēt backward, and couered the nakednes of their father with their faces backwarde: ſo thei ſawe not their fathers nakednēs.

Chap 1,29.

24 Then Nóah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his yonger ſonne had done vnto him, 25 And ſaid, [r] Curſed be Canáan: a [f] ſeruant of ſeruantes ſhal he be vnto his brethren.

26 He ſaid moreouer, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canáan be his ſeruant.

27 God [*t] perſuade Iápheth, that he may dwel in the tentes of Shem, and let Canáan be his ſeruant.

28 ¶And Nóah liued after ỹ flood thre hūdreth and fifty yeres.

29 So all the dayes of Nóah were nine hūdreth and fifty yeres: and he dyed.

r He pronoūceth as a Prophet the curſe of God againſt all thē, that honour not their parents: for Ham and his poſteritie were accurſed

f That is, a moſte vile ſlaue

*Or, enlarge, or, cauſe to ſeruate

t He declareth that the Gentiles, which came of Iápheth & were ſeparated from the Church, ſhulde be ioyned to the ſame by the perſuaſion of Gods Spirit and preaching of the Goſpel

CHAP. X.

1 The increaſe of mankinde by Nóah and his ſonnes 10 The beginning of cities, contreis and nations.

1 NOw theſe are the [a] generacions of ỹ ſonnes of Nóah, Shem, Ham & Iápheth: vnto whome ſonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The ſonnes of Iápheth were Gómer and Magóg, and [b] Madái, and Iauán, and Tubál and Méſhech, and Tirás.

3 And the ſonnes of Gómer, Aſhkenáz, and Ripháth and Togarmáh.

4 Alſo ỹ ſonnes of Iauán, Eliſháh and Tarſhíſh, Kittím, and Dodanim.

5 Of theſe were the [c] yles of the Gentiles deuided in their landes, euerie man after his tongue, and after their families in their nacions.

6 ¶Moreouer ỹ ſónes of Ham were [d] Cuſh, and Mizráim, and Put, and Canáan.

7 And the ſonnes of Cuſh, Sebá and Hauiláh, and Sabtáh, and Raamáh, and Sabtechá: alſo the ſonnes of Raamáh were Shebá and Dedán.

8 And Cuſh begate Nimród, who began to be [e] mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hūter before the Lord. wherefore it is ſaid, [f] As Nimród ỹ mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdome was Babél, and Erech, and Accád, and Calnéh, in the lands of Shinár.

11 Out of that land came Aſſhúr, & buylded Niniuéh, and the [g] citie Rehobóth, and Cálah:

12 Réſen alſo betwene Niniuéh and Cálah: this is a great citie.

13 And Mizráim begate [h] Ludím, and Anamím, and Lehabím, and Naphtuhim.

14 Pathruſím alſo, and Caſluhím (out of whome came the Philiſtíms) and [*g] Caphtoríms.

15 ¶Alſo Canáan begate Zidón his firſt borne, and Heth,

16 And Iebuſí, and Emorí, and Girgaſhí,

17 And Hiuí, and Aíki, and Siní,

18 And Aruadí, and Zemarí, & Hamathí: & afterwarde were the families of ỹ Canaanites ſpred abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidón, as thou commeſt to Gerár vntil Azzáh, & as thou goeſt vnto Sodóm, and Gomoráh, and Admáh, & Zeboiím, euen vnto Láſha.

20 Theſe are ỹ ſonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their coūtries and in their nacións.

21 ¶Vnto [i] Shem alſo the father of all the ſonnes [k] of Eber, and elder brother of Iápheth were children borne.

22 *The ſonnes of Shem were Elám and Aſſhúr, and Arpachſhád, and Lud, and Arám.

23 And the ſonnes of Arám, Vz & Hul, and Géther and Maſh.

24 Alſo Arpachſhád begate Shélah, and Shélah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber alſo were borne two ſonnes: the name of the one was Péleg: for in his dayes was the earth [l] diuided: & his brothers name was Ioktán.

26 Then Ioktán begate Almodád and Shéleph, & Hazarmáueth, and Iérah, 27 And Hadorám, & Vzál, and Dickláh,

28 And Obál, & Abimaél, and Shebá,

29 And Ophír, and Hauiláh, and Iobáb. all theſe were the ſonnes of Ioktán.

30 And their dwelling was from Meſhá, as thou goeſt vnto Sephár a mount of the Eaſt.

31 Theſe are ỹ ſonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreis and nacions.

32 Theſe are the families of the ſonnes of Nóah, after their generacions amōg their people: and [*o] out of theſe were the nacions diuided in the earth after the flood.

a Theſe generatiós are here recited partely to declare the maruelous increaſe in ſo ſmale a time, and alſo to ſet forthe their great forgetfulnes of Gods graces toward their fathers

b Of Madái, & Iauán came the Medes and Grekes

c The Iewes ſo call all cōtreis wher are ſeparated frō thē by ſea, as Grecia, Italie, &c wher were giuen to the childrē of Iapheth, of whome came the Gentiles.

d Of Cuſh & Mizráim came the Ethiopiās & Egyptians

e Meaning, a cruel oppreſſor & tyrant f His tyrannie came into a cuſtome as hated bothe of God and man: for he paſſed not to commit crueltie euē in Gods preſēce.

g For there was another citie in Egypt called alſo Babél

*Or, the ſtreetes of the citie.

h Of Lud came the Lydians

*Or, the Cappadocians.

i In his ſtock the Church was preſerued therfore Moſes leaueth of ſpeaking of Iápheth and Ham, and intreateth of Shem more at large k Of whome came the Ebrewes or Iewes

1 Chro. 1.17.

l This diuiſion came by the diuerſitie of languages, as appeareth. chap. 11.9.

*Or, of theſe came diuers nacions

Wiſd. 10.5.

CHAP. XI.

6 The buylding of Babél was the cauſe of the confuſion of tongues. 10 The age and generacion of Shem vnto Abram. 31 Abrams departure from Ur with his father Térah, Sarái & Lot. 32 The age and death of Térah.

1 THen the whole earth was of one *lan guage and one ſpeache.

2 And [a] as [b] they went from the [c] Eaſt, they founde a plaine in the land of [d] Shinár, & there they abode.

3 And they ſaid one to an other, Come let vs make brycke, and burne it in the fire. So thei had brycke for ſtone, and ſlyme had they in ſteade of morter.

4 Alſo they ſaid, Go to, let vs [e] buylde vs a citie and a tower, whoſe toppe may reach vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, leſt we be ſcatred vpon ỹ whole earth.

5 But the Lord [f] came downe, to ſe the citie & tower, which ỹ ſonnes of men buylded.

a In the yere an hundreth and thirtie after the flood.

b To wit, Nimród and his companie

c That is, frō Armenia, where the Arke ſtaied.

d Which was afterward called Caldea.

e They were moued wt pride and ambition, thinking to prefarre their own glorie to Gods honour.

f Meaning, ỹ he declared by effect that he knewe their wicked enterpriſe: for Gods power is euerie where.

g God speaketh this in derisiō because of their foolish persuasion & enterprise.

6 And the Lord said, g Beholde, the people is one, & they all haue one language, & this they beginne to do, nether can they now be stopped from whatsoeuer they haue imagined to do.

h He speaketh, as though he toke counsel with his owne wisdome and power: to wit, with the Sone and holy Goost: signifying the greatnes and certeintie of ỹ punishement.

7 Come on, h let vs go downe, and i there confounde their language, that euerie one perceiue not an others speache.

i By this great plague of the confusion of tōgues, appeareth Gods horrible indgemēt against mans pride and vaine glorie.

8 So the Lord scatred them from thence vpon all the earth, and they left of to buylde the citie.

*Or, confusion.

9 Therfore the name of it was called *Babél, because the Lord did there confounde the language of all the earth: frō thence then did the Lord scater them vpon all the earth.

2. Chro. 1. 17.

k He returneth to ỹ genealogie of Shem, to come to the historie of Abrám, wherein the Church of God is described, which is Moses principal purpose.

10 ¶ *These are the generacions k of Shem: Shem was an hūdreth yere olde, and begate Arpachshád two yere after the flood.

11 And Shé liued, after he begate Arpachshád, fiue hundreth yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

12 Also Arpachshád liued fiue and thirty yeres, and begate Shélah.

13 And Arpachshád liued, after he begate Shélah, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And Shélah liued thirty yeres, and begate Eber.

15 So Shélah liued, after he begate Eber, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

16 Likewise Eber liued foure and thirty yeres, and begate Péleg.

17 So Eber liued, after he begate Péleg, foure hundreth and thirty yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

18 And Péleg liued thirty yeres, and begate Reú.

1 Chro. 1. 19. 19 * And Péleg liued, after he begate Reú, two hundreth and nine yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 Also Reú liued two and thirty yeres, & begate Serúg.

21 So Reú liued after he begate Serúg, two hundreth and seuen yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

22 Moreouer Serúg liued thirty yeres, and begate Nahór.

23 And Serúg liued, after he begate Nahór, two hundreth yeres, and begate sonnes & daughters.

24 And Nahór liued nine & twenty yeres, and begate Térah.

25 So Nahór liued, after he begate Térah, an hūdreth and ninetene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

1 Chro. 1. 26. Iosh. 24. 2.

l He maketh menciō first of Abram, not because he was the first borne, but for the historie, which properly appertaineth vnto him.

26 * So Térah liued seuentie yeres, & begate Abrám, Nahór, and Harán.

27 ¶ Now these are ỹ generacions of Térah: Térah begate l Abrám, Nahór, & Harán: and Harán begate Lot.

28 Then Harán dyed before Térah his father in the land of his natiuitie, in Vr of "the Caldees.

"Ebr. Caldim.

m Some thinke that this Iscáh was Sarái.

29 So Abrám and Nahór toke them wiues. the name of Abrams wife was Sarái, and the name of Nahors wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcán, and the father of m Iscáh.

n Albeit the oracle of God came to Abram, yet the honour is giuen to Térah, because he was ỹ father. Iosh. 24. 2. nehe. 9. 7. iudi. 5. 6. act. 7. 4.

30 But Sarái was barren, and had no childe.

31 Then n Térah toke Abrám his sonne, & Lot the sonne of Harán, his sonnes sonne, and Sarái his daughter in lawe, his sonne Abrams wife: and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to * go into the land of Canáan, and they came to o Harán, and dwelt there.

o Which was a citie of Mesopotamia.

32 So the dayes of Térah were two hundreth and fiue yeres, and Térah dyed in Harán.

act. 7. 3.

a From the flood to this time were thre hundreth thre score and thre yere.

CHAP. XII.

1 Abrám by Gods commandement goeth to Canáan. 3. Christ is promised. 7 Abram buyldeth altars for exercise and declaration of his faith among the infideles. 10 Because of the derthe he goeth into Egypt. 15 Pharaoh taketh his wife, and is punished.

1 FOr the Lord had said vnto Abrám, * a Get thee out of thy countrey, and frō thy kindred, and frō thy fathers house vnto b the land that I wil shewe thee.

b In appointing him no certeine place he proueth so muche more his faith & obedience.

2 And I wil make of thee a great nacion, and wil blesse thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be c a blessing.

c The worlde shal recouer by thy sede, wch is Christ, the blessig wch thei lost in Adám.

3 I wil also blesse them that blesse thee, & curse them that curse thee, & in thee shal all families of the earth be blessed.

d Meaning, aswel seruāts as cattel.

4 So Abrám departed, euen as the Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him. (And Abrám was seuenty and fiue yere olde, when he departed out of Harán)

e He wandred to and fro in ỹ lād before he colde finde a settling place: thus God exerciseth the faith of his children.

*Or, ayre greue.

5 Then Abrám toke Sarái his wife, & Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that they possessed, & the d soules that they had gotten in Harán, and they departed, to go to the land of Canaan. and to the land of Canáan they came.

f Which was a cruel and rebellious natiō, by whome God kept his in a continual exercise.

6 ¶ So Abrám e passed through ỹ land vnto ỹ place of Shechém, and vnto the "plaine of Moréh (and the f Canaanite was then in the land)

g It was not ynough for hi to worship God in his heart, but it was expedient to declare by outward profession his faith before men, whereof this altar was a signe.

7 And the Lord appeared vnto Abrám, and said, Vnto thy sede wil I giue this lād. And there buylded he an g altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.

h Because of the troubles that he had amōg that wicked people.

8 Afterward remouing h thence vnto a mountaine Eastward from Beth-él, he pitched his tent hauing Beth-él on the West side, & Haái on ỹ East: and there he buylt an i altar vnto the Lord, and called on the name of the Lord.

i And so serued ỹ true God & renoūced all idolatrie.

9 k Againe Abrám wēt forthe going & iourneing towarde the South.

k Thus ỹ children of God may loke for no rest in this worlde, but must waite for ỹ heauēlie rest and quietnes.

10 ¶ Then there came a l famine in the lād: therfore Abrám went downe into Egypt. to soiourne there. for there was a great famine

l This was a newe trial of Abrams faith: wherby we se that the end of one affliction is ỹ beginning of an other.

famine in the land.

11 And when he drewe nere to entre into Egypt, he ſaid to Sarái his wife, Beholde now, I knowe that thou art a faire woman to loke vpon:

12 Therfore it wil come to paſſe, that whē the Egyptians ſe thee, they will ſay, She is his wife: ſo wil thei kil me, but they wil kepe thee aliue.

m By this we maie learne not to vſe vnlaufull meanes, nor to put others in danger to ſaue our ſelues read verſe twentie albeit it maie appeare ỹ Abrā feared not ſomuch death, aſ that, if he ſhuld die with out iſsue, Gods promes ſhulde not haue takē place: wherein appeared a weake faith.

13 Say, I pray thee, ỹ thou art my m ſiſter, that I may fare wel for thy ſake, and that my "life may be preſerued by thee.

" Ebr. that my ſoule maie liue.

14 ¶ Now, when Abrám was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for ſhe was very faire.

15 And the princes of Pharaóh ſawe her, and commended her vnto Pharaóh: ſo the woman was n taken into Pharaohs houſe:

n To be his wife

16 Who intreated Abrám wel for her ſake, and he had ſhepe, and beues, and he aſſes, and men ſeruantes and maide ſeruantes, and ſhe aſſes, and camelles.

o The Lord toke ỹ defence of this poore ſtranger againſt a mightie King: and as he is euer careful ouer his, ſo did he preſerue Sarái.

17 But the Lord o plagued Pharaóh and his houſe with great plagues, becauſe of Sarái Abrams wife.

18 Then Pharaóh called Abrám and ſaid, Why haſt ỹ done this vnto me? Wherfore dideſt thou not tel me, that ſhe was thy wife?

19 Why ſaideſt thou, She is my ſiſter, that I ſhulde take her to be my wife? Now therfore beholde thy wife, take her and go thy way.

p To the entēt ỹ none ſhulde hurt him either in his perſone or goods.

20 And Pharaóh gaue men p commandemēt concerning him: and they conueied him forthe, and his wife, and all ỹ he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abrám departeth out of Egypt. 11 Lot departeth from him. 13 The wickednes of the Sodomites. 14 The promes made to Abram is renued. 18 Abram buyldeth an altar to the Lord.

a His great riches gotte in Egypt hindred him not to folowe his vocation.

1 THen a Abrám went vp from Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, & Lot with him towarde the South.

2 And Abrám was very riche in cattel, in ſiluer and in golde.

b He calleth ỹ place by that name, which was after giuē vnto it. chap. 28,19. Chap.12,7.

3 And he wēt on his iourney frō the South toward b Beth-él, to the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, betwene Beth-él and Haái, 4 Vnto ỹ place of the* altar, which he had made there at the firſt: and there Abrám called on the Name of the Lord.

c This incōmoditie came by their riches, wch brake friendeſhip, and as it were, the bond of nature. Chap.36,7.

5 ¶ Lot alſo, who wēt with Abrám, had ſhepe cattel and tentes, d Who ſeking their ſtatiō might blaſpheme God and deſtroye them.

6 So that the land colde not c beare them, that they might dwel together: for their * ſubſtance was great, ſo that they colde not dwel together.

7 And there was debate betwene the herdmen of Abrams cattel, & the herdmen of Lots cattel. (and the d Canaanites & the Perizzites dwelled at that time in ỹ lād)

e He curteth of the occaſion of contēcion: therfore the euil ceaſeth.

8 Then ſaid Abrám vnto Lot, Let there be no e ſtrife, I pray thee, betwene thee & me, nether betwene mine herdmen and thine herdmen: for we be brethren.

f Abrám reſigneth his owne right to bie peace.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? departe I pray thee frō me: if thou wilt f take ỹ left hand, then I wil go to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I wil take the left.

g Which was ỹ Edē, chap. 2,10

10 So when Lot lifted vp his eies, he ſawe ỹ all the plaine of Iordén was watered euerie where: (for before the Lord deſtroyed Sodóm and Gomoráh, it was as the g garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goeſt vnto Zóar)

h This was done by Gods prouidence, that onely Abram and his ſede might dwel in the land of Canaan.

11 Then Lot choſe vnto him all ỹ plaine of Iordén and toke his iourney frō the East: & they departed the h one from ỹ other.

i Lot thinking to get paradiſe found hel.

12 Abrám dwelled in the land of Canáan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen to Sodóm.

13 Now the men of Sodóm were wicked & exceading i ſinners againſt the Lord.

k The Lord cōforted him, leſt he ſhulde haue taken thoght for the departure of his nephew. Chap.12.7.& 15,1. & 26,4. deu 34,4.

14 ¶ Thē ỹ Lord ſaid vnto k Abrám, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift vp thine eies now, and loke from the place, where ỹ art, Northward, and Southward, and Eaſtward, and Weſtward:

l Meanig, a lōg time, and til ỹ comming of Chriſt, as Exo. 21,6. deu 15,17. 1 ſam 2,20 and ſpiritually. this is referred to the true children of Abrám, borne according to ỹ promes. & not according to ỹ fleſh, which are heires of the true land of Canáan.

15 For all* the land, which thou ſeeſt, wil I giue vnto thee and to thy ſede for l euer, 16 And I wil make thy ſede, as the duſt of ỹ earth: ſo that if a man can nombre ỹ duſt of the earth, then ſhal thy ſede be nōbred.

17 Ariſe, walke through the land, in the length thereof, and bredth thereof: for I wil giue it vnto thee.

18 Then Abrám remoued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Mamré, which is in Hebrón, & buylded there an altar vnto the Lord.

CHAP. XIIII.

12 In the ouerthrowe of Sodóm Lot is taken priſoner. 16 Abram deliuereth him. 18 Melchi-zedek commeth to mete him. 23 Abrā wolde not be enriched by the King of Sodom.

a That is, of Babilon: by Kings here meaning thē, that were gouernors of cities.

ANd in the daies of Amraphél King of a Shinár, Arióch King of Ellaſár, Chedor-laómer King of Élam, and Tidál King of the b nacions:

b Of a people gathered of diuers cōtries.

2 Theſe men made warre with Berá King of Sodóm, & with Birſhá King of Gomoráh, Shináb King of Admáh, and Shemebér King of Zeboím, and the King of Belá which is Zóar.

c Ambicion is the chief cauſe of warres among princes.

3 All theſe c ioyned together in the vale of d Siddim, which is the d ſalte Sea.

Or, of the laboured fielder.

4 Twelue yeres were they ſubiect to Chedor-laómer, but in ỹ thirtenthe yere they rebelled.

d Called alſo ỹ dead Sea, or ỹ lake Aſphaltite nere vnto Sodóm and Gomoráh.

5 And in the fourteneth yere came Chedor-laómer, & the Kings that were with him, & ſmote the Rephaims in Aſhteróth kar-nám, and the Zuzíms in Ham, and the Emims in [a] Shauéh Kiriathaim.

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, vnto the plaine of Parán, ẅ is by ỹ wildernes.
7 And thei returned and came to En-miſhpat, which is Kadéſh, and [b] ſmote all ỹ coũtrie of the Amalekites, and alſo the Amorites that dwelled in Hazezon-tamár.
8 Then went out the King of Sodom, & the King of Gomoráh, & ỹ King of Admáh & ỹ King of Zeboiim, & the King of Béla, ẅ is Zóar: and thei ioyned battel with them in the vale of Siddím:
9 To wit, with Cheder-laómer King of Elám, and Tidál King of nacions, and Amraphél King of Shinár, and Arióh King of Ellaſár: foure Kings againſt fiue.
10 Now the [c] vale of Siddím was ful of ſlyme pittes, and ỹ Kings of Sodóm and Gomoráh fled [d] & fel there: and ỹ reſidue fled to the mountaine.
11 Then thei toke all the ſubſtance of Sodóm and Gomoráh, and all their vitailes and went their waie.
12 Thei [f] toke Lot alſo Abrams brothers ſonne and his ſubſtance (for he dwelt at Sodóm) and departed.
13 ¶ Then came one that had eſcaped, and tolde Abrám the Ebrewe, which dwelt in ỹ plaine of Mamré the Amorite, brother of Eſhcól, and brother of Anér, which were [g] confederat with Abrám.
14 When Abrám heard that his brother was taken, he broght forthe of them that were borne and broght vp in his houſe, thre hũdreth & eightene, & purſued thẽ vnto Dan.
15 Thẽ he, & his ſeruantes diuided them ſelues againſt thẽ by night, & ſmote them and purſued them vnto Hobáh, which is on the left ſide of [h] Damaſcus, 16 And he recouered all the ſubſtance, and alſo broght againe his brother Lot, and his goods, & the women alſo and ỹ people.
17 ¶ After that he returned frõ the ſlaughter of Chedor-laómer and of the Kings that were with him, came the King of Sodóm forthe to mete him in the valley of Shauéh, which is the *Kings dale.
18 And *[i] Melchi-zédek King of Shalém [k] broght forthe bread and wine; & he was a Prieſt of the moſte high God.
19 Therfore he [l] bleſſed him, ſaying, Bleſſed art thou, Abrám, of God moſte high poſſeſſor of heauen and earth, 20 And bleſſed be the moſte high God, ẅ hathe deliuered thine ennemies into thine hand. * And Abrám gaue him tithe of all.
21 Then the King of Sodóm ſaid to Abrám, Giue me the [m] perſonnes, and take ỹ goods to thy ſelfe.
22 And Abrám ſaid to the King of Sodóm, [n] I haue lift vp mine hand vnto the Lord the moſte high God poſſeſſor of heauen and earth, 23 [o] That I wil not take of all that is thine, ſo muche as a threde or ſhoulachet, leſt ỹ ſhuldeſt ſaie, I haue made Abrám riche, 24 [k] Saue onely that, which the yong men haue eaten, and the partes of the men ẅ wẽt with me, Anér, Eſhcol, and Mamré: let them take their partes.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Lord is Abrams defence and reuarde. 6 He is iuſtified by faith. 13 The ſeruitude and deliuerance out of Egypt is declared. 18 The land of Canáan is promiſed the fourth time.

1 AFter theſe things, ỹ [a] worde of ỹ Lord came vnto Abrám in a *viſiõ, ſaying, Feare not, Abrám, I am thy buckler, and thine exceading *great rewarde.
2 And Abrám ſaid, [a] O Lord God, what wilt thou giue me, ſeing I go childeles, and the ſtuarde of mine houſe is this Eliézer of Damaſcus?
3 Againe Abrám ſaid, Beholde, to me thou haſt giuen no ſede: wherfore lo, a ſeruant of mine houſe ſhalbe mine heire.
4 Then beholde, the worde of ỹ Lord came vnto him, ſaying, He ſhal not be thine heire, but one that ſhal come out of thine owne bowelles, he ſhalbe thine heire.
5 Moreouer he broght him forthe and ſaid, *Loke vp now vnto heauen, & tel the ſtarres, if thou be able to nombre them: and he ſaid vnto him, So ſhal thy ſede be.
6 And *Abrám beleued the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteouſnes.
7 Againe he ſaid vnto him, I am the Lord, that broght thee out of * Vr of the Caldees, to giue thee this land to inherit it.
8 And he ſaid, O Lord God, [b] whereby ſhal I knowe that I ſhal inherit it?
9 Then he ſaid vnto him, Take me an heyfer of thre yeres olde, and a ſhe goate of thre yeres olde, and a ramme of thre yeres olde, a turtel doue alſo and a pigion.
10 So he toke all theſe vnto him, & [c] diuided them in the middes, and laied euerie pece one againſt an other: but the birdes diuided he not.
11 Then foules fel on the carkaſes, and Abrám droue them awaie.
12 And when the ſunne went downe, there fel an heauie ſlepe vpon Abrám: & lo, a verie feareful darckenes fel vpon him.
13 Then he ſaid to Abrám, *Knowe this of a ſuretie, that thy ſede ſhal be a ſtranger in a land, that is not theirs, [d] foure hundreth yeres, and ſhal ſerue them: and thei ſhal entreate them euil.
14 Notwithſtanding the nacion, whome thei ſhal ſerue, wil I iudge: and afterward ſhal thei come out with great ſubſtance.
15 But ỹ ſhalt go vnto thy fathers in peace, and ſhalt be buryed in a good age.
16 And in the [n] fourthe generacio thei ſhal come

---

[a] Or, plaine
[b] Or, ſmote all
[c] Or, were diſcõfited
[d] Or, were diſcõfited
[f] The godlie are plagued manie times with the wicked: therfore their compame is dangerous.
[g] God moued them to ioyne with Abrám, and preſerued him frõ their idolatrie and ſuperſtitions.
[h] Or, armed.
[i] Ebr. Dámeſek.
2. Sam. 18. 18.
Ebr. 7. 3.
[k] For Abrám and his ſoldiors refection, & not to offer ſacrifice.
[l] In that Melchi-zedek fed Abrám, he declared him ſelfe to repreſent a King: & in ỹ he bleſſed him, the high Prieſt.
Ebr. 7. 8.
[m] Ebr. ſoules.
[n] Or, I haue ſworne.
[a] Or, the Lord ſpake to Abram
Rom. 12. 6.
Pſal 16. 6.
a His feare was not onely leſt he ſhulde not haue children, but leſt the promes of the bleſſed ſede ſhulde not be accomplifhed in him
Rom. 4. 18.
Rom. 4. 3.
Iam. 2. 2
gal. 3. 6.
Chap. 22. 28.
b This is a particular mocion of Gods Spirit, which is not lawful for all to follow in aſking ſignes: but was permitted to ſome by a peculiar mocion, as to Gideon, and Ezechiáh.
c This was ỹ olde cuſtome in making coenãts, Ierem. 34. 18: to the which God added theſe condicions, ỹ Abrams poſte rite ſhulde be as torne in peces, but after thei ſhulde be coupled together: alſo that it ſhulde be aſſalted, but yet deliuered.
[o] Ebr. a feare of great darckne.
Act. 7. 6.
d Counting frõ the birthe of Izhák to their departure out of Egypt which declareth that God wil ſuffer his to be afflicted in this worlde, [n] Or, after foure hundreth yeres.

come hether againe: for the c wickednes of the Amorites is not yet ful.

c Thogh God ſuffre the wicked for a time, yet his vengeance falleth vpō them, whē the meaſure of their wickednes is ful 17 Alſo when the ſunne went downe, there was a darckenes: & beholde, a ſmoking furnace, and a firebrāde, which went betwene thoſe peces.

*Cha 12,7 13, 15 26,4. deut. 1,4. 1.King.4,21. 2.chro 9,26. a Ebr Perath

18 *In that ſame day the Lord made a couenant with Abrám, ſaying, Vnto thy ſede haue I giuen this land, * from the riuer of Egypt vnto the great riuer, the riuer a Euphrates.

19 The Kenites, & the Kenizites, & ỹ Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, & the Rephaims, 21 The Amorites alſo, & the Canaanites & the Girgaſhites, and the Iebuſites.

CHAP. XVI.

Sarái being barren, giueth Hagái to Abrám. 4 Which cōceiueth & deſpiſeth her dame: 6 And being il handled fleeth 7 The Angel comforteth her 11,12 The name and maners of her ſonne 13 She calleth vpon the Lord, whome ſhe findeth true.

a It ſemeth that ſhe had reſpect to Gods promes, which colde not be accomplifhed without iſſue

1 NOw a Sarái Abrams wife bare him no children, and ſhe had a maide an Egyptian, Hagái by name.

b She faileth in binding Gods power to the commō ordre of nature, as though God colde not giue her children in her olde age.

2 And Sarái ſaid vnto Abrám, Beholde now, the Lord hathe b reſtrayned me from childe bearing. I pray thee go in vnto my maide: it may be ỹ I ſhal a receiue a childe by her. And Abrám obeied the voice of Sarái.

a Ebr be buylded by her

3 Then Sarái Abrams wife toke Hagár her maide the Egyptian, after Abrám had dwelled ten yere in the land of Canáan, and gaue her to her houſband Abrám for his wife.

4 ¶And he wēt in vnto Hagár, & ſhe conceiued. and when ſhe ſawe ỹ ſhe had conceiued, her dame was c deſpiſed in her eies.

c This punifhmēt declareth what thet gaine that attēpt any thing agaīſt the worde of God

5 Then Sarái ſaid to Abrám, a Thou doeſt me wrōg. I haue giuen my maide into thy boſome, and ſhe ſeeth that ſhe hathe cōceiued, and I am deſpiſed in her eies: ỹ Lord iudge betwene me and thee.

a Ebr mine iniurie is vpon thee

6 Then Abrám ſaid to Sarái, Beholde, thy maide is in thine a hand: do with her as it pleaſeth thee. Thē Sarái delt roughly with her: wherfore ſhe fled from her.

a Or, power

d Which was Chriſt, as appeareth verſe 10 & chap 18, 11

7 ¶But the d Angel of the Lord founde her beſide a fountayne of water in the wildernes by the fountaine in the way to Shur,

8 And he ſaid, Hagár Sarais maide, whence comeſt thou? and whether wilt thou go? And ſhe ſaid, I flee from my dame Sarái.

e God reiecteth none eſtate of people in their miſeries, but ſendeth them cōfort.

9 Thē the Angel of ỹ Lord ſaid to her, e Returne to thy dame, and humble thy ſelfe vnder her handes.

10 Againe the Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto her, I wil ſo greatly encreaſe thy ſede, that it ſhal not be nōbred for multitude.

11 Alſo the Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto her, Se, thou art with childe, and ſhalt beare a ſonne, and ſhalt call his name Iſhmaél: for the Lord hathe heard thy tribulation.

a Or, feare and cruel, or, as a wilde aſſe.

12 And he ſhal be a a wilde man: his hand ſhalbe againſt euerie man, and euerie mās hād againſt him. * and f he ſhal dwel in the preſence of all his brethren.

Chap. 25, 17.

f That is, the Iſhmaelites ſhalbe a peculiar people by them ſelues & not a portion of an other people 13 Then ſhe called the name of the Lord, that ſpake vnto her, Thou God lokeſt on me: for ſhe ſaid, g Haue I not alſo here loked after him that ſeeth me?

g She rebuketh her owne dulnes and acknowledgeth Gods graces. who was preſent with her euery where.

14 *Wherfore the well was called, a Beér-lahái-roi. lo, it is betwene Kadéſh & Béred.

Chap. 24, 62 a Or, the well of the liuing and ſeing me.

15 ¶And Hagár bare Abrám a ſonne, and Abrám called his ſonnes name, which Hagár bare, Iſhmaél.

16 And Abrám was foure ſcore and ſixe yere olde, when Hagár bare him Iſhmaél.

CHAP. XVII.

5 Abrams name is changed to confirme him in the promes. 8 The land of Canáan is the firſt time promiſed. 12 Circūciſion is inſtituted. 13 Sarai is named Saráh. 18 Abrahā prayeth for Iſhmaél 19 Izhak is promiſed.

1 WHen Abrám was ninety yere olde and nine, the Lord appeared to Abrám, and ſaid vnto him, I am God a all ſufficient. * walke before me, and be thou b vpright, a Or, almightie Chap 5,22 b Or, with out hypocriſie.

2 And I wil make my couenant betwene me and thee, and I wil multiply thee exceadingly.

3 Then Abrám fel on his face, and God talked with him, ſaying,

4 Beholde, I make my couenant with thee, & thou ſhalt be a a father of manie naciōs, a Not only according to ỹ fleſhe, but of a farre greater multitude by faith, ro.4,17.

5 Nether ſhal thy name anie more be called Abrám, but thy name ſhalbe b Abrahám: * for a father of manie nacions haue I made thee.

b The changing of his name is a ſeale to confirme Gods promes vnto him Rom.4,17.

6 Alſo I wil make thee exceading fruteful, and wil make nacions of thee: yea, Kings ſhal procede of thee.

7 Moreouer I wil eſtabliſh my couenant betwene me and thee, and thy ſede after thee in their generacions, for an * euerlaſting couenant, to be God vnto thee and to thy ſede after thee.

Chap 13,11.

8 And I wil giue thee and thy ſede after thee the land, wherin thou art a ſtranger, euen all the lād of Canáan, for an euerlaſting poſſeſsion, and I wil be their God.

c Circumciſiō is called the couenāt, becauſe it ſignifieth the couenāt & hathe the promes of grace ioyned to it; which phraſe is commune to all ſacraments Act.7,8.

9 ¶Againe God ſaid vnto Abrahám, Thou alſo ſhalt kepe my couenant, thou, and thy ſede after thee in their generacions.

10 c This is my couenant, which ye ſhal kepe betwene me and you, and thy ſede after thee, * Let euerie man childe among you be circumciſed:

d That priuie parte is circūciſed to ſhewe that all that is begotten of mā is corrupt and muſt be mortified Rom.4,11.

11 That is, ye ſhal circumciſe the d foreſkin of your fleſh, and it ſhal be a * ſigne of the couenant betwene me and you.

12 And euerie mā childe of eight daies olde among you, ſhalbe circūciſed in your generaciós, aſwel he that is borne in thine houſe, as he that is boght with money of any ſtranger, which is not of thy ſede.

13 He that is borne in thine houſe, and he that is boght with thy money, muſt nedes be circumciſed: ſo my couenant ſhal be in your fleſh for an euerlaſting couenant.

14 But the vncircumciſed [e] man childe, in whoſe fleſh the foreſkinne is not circumciſed, euen that perſonne ſhal be cut of frō his people, becauſe he hathe brokē my couenant.

15 ¶ Afterward God ſaid vnto Abrahám, Sarái thy wife ſhalt thou not call Sarái, but [f] Saráh ſhalbe her name.

16 And I wil bleſſe her, & wil alſo giue thee a ſonne of her, yea, I wil bleſſe her & ſhe ſhalbe the mother of nations: Kings alſo of people ſhal come of her.

17 Thē Abrahám fel vpō his face, & [f] laughed, & ſaid in his heart, Shal a childe be borne vnto him, that is an hundreth yere olde? and ſhal Saráh that is ninety yere olde beare?

18 And Abrahám ſaid vnto God, *Oh, that Iſhmaél might liue in thy ſight.

19 Thē God ſaid, Saráh thy wife ſhal beare thee a ſonne in dede, & thou ſhalt call his name Izhak: & I wil eſtabliſh my couenā with him for an [g] euerlaſting couenāt, and with his ſeede afte him.

20 And as cōcerning Iſhmaél, I haue heard thee: lo I haue bleſſed him, and wil make him fruteful, and wil multiplie him "exceadingly: twelue princes ſhal he beget, and I wil make a great nacion of him.

21 But my couenant wil I eſtabliſh with Izhák, which Saráh ſhal beare vnto thee, ỹ next* vere at this ſeaſon.

22 And he left of talking with him, and God went vp from Abrahám.

23 ¶ Then Abrahám toke Iſhmaél his ſonne and all that were borne in his houſe, & all that was boght with his money, that is, euery man childe among the men of Abrahams houſe and [h] he circumciſed the foreſkinne of their fleſh in that ſelf ſame day, as God had commanded him.

24 Abrahám alſo him ſelfe was ninety yere olde & nine, when the foreſkinne of his fleſh was circumciſed.

25 And Iſhmaél his ſonne was thirtene yere olde, when the foreſkinne of his fleſh was circumciſed.

26 The ſelfe ſame day was Abrahám circumciſed, and Iſhmaél his ſonne:

27 And all the men of his houſe, both borne in his houſe, and boght with money of the ſtrāger, were circumciſed with him.

e Albeit womē were not circumciſed, yet were they partakers of Gods promes: for vnder the mankinde all was conſecrated & here is declared, that whoſoeuer cōteneth ỹ ſigne, deſpiseth alſo the promes

*Or, dame, or, princeſſe

f Which proceded of a ſodein ioye, and not of infidelitie

Chap 18,10. and,21,2.

g The euerlaſting couenant is made with the childrē of the Spirite: and with the childrē of the fleſhe is made ỹ temporal proms, as was promiled to Iſhmaél

"Or greatly greatly

Chap 21,2.

h Thei were wel inſtructed which obeied to be circumciſed without reſiſtance: wherby is declared ỹ maſters in their houſes ought to be as preachers to their families, that from the hieſt to ỹ loweſt they may obey the wil of God.

CHAP. XVIII.

Abrahám receiueth thre Angels into his houſe. 10 Izhak is promiſed againe. 12 Sarah laugheth. 18 Christ is promiſed to all nations. 19 Abraham taught his familie to knowe God. 21 The deſtruction of Sodom is declared vnto Abraham. 23 Abraham prayeth for them.

1 AGaine the Lord* appeared vnto him in the [i] plaine of Mamré, as he ſate in his tent dore about the heate of the day.

2 And he lift vp his eies, and loked: and lo, thre [a] men ſtode by him, and when he ſawe them, he ran to mete them from the tent dore, & bowed him ſelfe to the grounde.

3 And he ſaid, [b] Lord, if I haue now found fauour in thy ſight, go not, I praie thee, from thy ſeruant.

4 Let a litle water, I pray you, be broght, and [c] waſh your fete, and reſt your ſelues vnder the tre.

5 And I wil bring a morſel of bread, that you may cōfort your heartes, afterwarde ye ſhal go your waies: for therfore are ye [d] come to your ſeruant. And they ſaid, Do euen as thou haſt ſaid.

6 Then Abrahám made haſte into the tēt vnto Saráh, and ſaid, Make ready at once thre "meaſures of fine meale: knede it, and make cakes vpon the herthe.

7 And Abrahám ran to ỹ beaſtes, & toke a tender and good calfe, and gaue it to the ſeruant, who haſted to make it ready.

8 And he toke butter & milke, and the calfe, which he had prepared, and ſet before them, and ſtode him ſelfe by them vnder the tre, and [e] thei did eat.

9 ¶ Thē thei ſaid to him, Where is Saráh thy wife? And he anſwered, Beholde, ſhe is in the tent.

10 And he ſaid, * I wil certeinly come againe vnto thee according to ỹ time [f] of life: and lo, Saráh thy wife ſhal haue a ſonne and Saráh heard in the tēt dore, which was behinde him.

11 (Now Abrahám and Saráh were olde & ſtriken in age, and it ceaſed to be with Saráh after the maner of women)

12 Therfore Saráh laughed within her ſelfe, ſaying, After I am waxed olde, * & my lord alſo, ſhal I haue luſt?

13 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Abrahám, Wherfore did Saráh thus laugh, ſaying, Shal I certeinly beare a childe, which am olde?

14 (Shal anie thig be [g] hard to the Lord? at ỹ time appointed wil I returne vnto thee, euen according to the time of life, and Saráh ſhal haue a ſonne.)

15 But Saráh denied, ſaying, I laughed not: for ſhe was afraied. And he ſaid, It is not ſo: for thou laughedſt.

16 ¶ Afterward ỹ mē did riſe vp frō thēce & loked towarde Sodóm: and Abrahám wēt with them to bring them on ỹ waie.

17 And the [h] Lord ſaid, Shal I hide from Abrahám that thing which I do, 18 Seīg ỹ Abrahám ſhalbe in dede a great and a mightie nacion, & *all the naciōs of the

*Ebr 13,2.

[i] Or, one gyue

a That is, thre Angels in mans ſhape.

b Speaking to one of them, in whome appeared to be moſt maieſtie: for he thoght thei had bene men

c For men vſed because of the great heat to go bare foted in thoſe parties

d As ſent of God, that I ſhulde do my ducetie to you

[e] Ebr Sem

e For as God gaue them bodies for a time, ſo gaue he thē ỹ facultīes thereof, to walke, to eat and drincke, & ſuche like.

Chap 17, 19. and 21,2 ro 9,9 f That is, whē ſhe ſhalbe deliuered, or whē the childe ſhal come into this life

g For ſhe rather had reſpect to the ordre of nature, then beleued the promes of God

1 Pet 3,6.

[g] Or hid.

h Iehouáh the Ebrewe worde, which we call Lord; ſheweth that this Angel was Christ: for this worde is onely applied to God.

Chap 12,13. and.22,17.

the earth ſhal be bleſſed in him?

i He ſheweth that fathers oght bothe to knowe Gods iudgements & to declare them to their children 19 For I knowe him i ỹ he wil commande his ſonnes and his houſholde after him, that thei kepe the waie of the Lord, to do righteouſnes and iudgement, that the Lord maie bring vpon Abrahám that he hathe ſpoken vnto him.

20 Then the Lord ſaid, Becauſe the crie of Sodóm and Gomoráh is great, and becauſe their ſinne is exceading grieuous, k God ſpeaketh after the facion of mẽ: that is, I wil enere into iudgement with good aduis.

21 I wil k go downe now, and ſe whether thei haue done altogether according to ỹ l crie, which is come vnto me: and if not, that I maie knowe.

l For our ſins crie for vengeance thogh no ne accuſe vs

22 And ỹ men turned thence & went toward Sodóm: but Abrahám ſtode yet before the Lord.

23 Thẽ Abrahám drewe nere, & ſaid, Wilt ỹ alſo deſtroie ỹ righteous with ỹ wicked?

24 If there be fiftie righteous within the citie, wilt thou deſtroie & not ſpare the place for ỹ fiftie righteous that are therein?

25 Be it farre frõ thee frõ doing this thing, to ſlay the righteous with the wicked: & that the righteous ſhulde be euen as the wicked, be it farre from thee. ſhal not the iudge of all the worlde " do right?

" Ebr. do iudgement?

26 And the Lord anſwered, If I ſhal finde in Sodóm m fifty righteous within ỹ citie, thẽ wil I ſpare all the place for their ſakes.

m God declareth that his iudgements were done of great mercie, foraſmuche as all were ſo corrupt, that not onely fiftie, but ten righteous men colde not be founde there: and alſo that the wicked are ſpared for the righteous ſake 27 Then Abrahám anſwered and ſaid, Behold now, I haue begonne to ſpeake vnto my Lord, and I am n but duſt and aſſhes.

n Hereby we learne, that ỹ nerer we approche vnto God, the more doeth our miſerable eſtate appeare, and the more are we humbled.

28 If there ſhal lacke fiue of fiftie righteous, wilt ỹ deſtroie all the citie for fiue? And he ſaid, If I finde there fiue and fourty, I wil not deſtroie it.

29 And he yet ſpake to him againe, and ſaid, What if there ſhalbe founde fourtie? Then he anſwered, I wil not do it for fourties ſake.

o If God refuſed not the praier for the wicked Sodomites, euen to ỹ ſixt requeſt, how muche more wil he graunte the praiers of the godlie for ỹ afflicted Churche?

30 Againe he ſaid, Let not my Lord now be angry ỹ I ſpeake, What if thirtie be foũde there? Then he ſaid, I wil not do it, if I finde thirtie there.

31 Moreouer he ſaid, Beholde, now I haue begõne to ſpeake vnto my Lord, What if twentie be founde there? And he ãſwered, I wil not deſtroie it for twenties ſake.

32 Then he ſaid, Let not my Lord be now angrie, & I wil ſpeak but this o once, What if ten be founde there? And he anſwered, I wil not deſtroie it for tens ſake.

p Where in we ſe Gods prouident care in preſeruing his: albeit he reueileth not himſelfe to all alike. for Lot had but two Angels and Abrahám three.

33 ¶ And ỹ Lord went his waie when he had left communing with Abrahám, & Abrahám returned vnto his place.

CHAP. XIX

¶ 3 Lot receiueth two Angels into his houſe. 4 The filthy luſtes of the Sodomites 16 Lot is deliuered 24 Sodõ is deſtroied 26. Lots wife is made a piller of ſalt 33. Lots daughters lye with their father, of whome come Moab and Ammón.

AND in ỹ euening their came two p Angels to Sodóm: and Lot ſate at the gate of Sodóm, & Lot ſawe them, & roſe vp to mete them, and he bowed him ſelfe with his face to the grownd:

2 And he ſaid, Se my Lords, I praie you turne in now into your ſeruants houſe, & tarie all night, and * waſh your fete, and ye ſhal riſe vp early and go your waies. Who ſaid, Naie, but we wil abide in the ſtrete all night.

Chap. 18. 4.

3 Then b he preaſed vpon them earneſtly, and thei turned into him, and came to his houſe, and he made them a feaſt, and did bake vnleauened bread, and thei c did eat.

b That is, he prated them ſo inſtantly.

c Not for ỹ thei had neceſſitie, but becauſe ỹ time was not yet come that thei wolde reueile them ſelues

4 But before thei went to bed, the men of the citie, euen the men of Sodóm compaſſed the houſe round about from the yong to the olde, d all the people from all quarters.

d Nothing is more dangerous, then to dwel where ſinne reigneth: for it corrupteth all.

5 Who cryig vnto Lot ſaid to him, Where are ỹ men, which came to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs that we maie knowe them.

6 Then Lot went out at ỹ dore vnto them, and ſhut the doore after him,

7 And ſaid, I praie you, my brethren, do not ſo wickedly.

8 Beholde now, I haue two e daughters, ẅ haue not knowen man: thẽ wil I bring out now vnto you, and do to them as ſemeth you good: onely vnto theſe men do nothing. f for therfore are thei come vnder the ſhadowe of my rofe.

e He deſerueth praiſe in defending his gueſtes, but he is to be blamed in ſeking vnlauful meanes f That I ſhulde preſerue them from all iniurie.

9 Then thei ſaid, Awaie hence. and thei ſaid, He is come alone as a ſtranger, & ſhal he iudge and rule? we wil now deale worſe with thee then with them. So thei preaſed ſore vpon Lot * him ſelfe, & came to breake ỹ doore.

2 Pet. 2. 7.

10 But the men put forthe their hand & pulled Lot into the houſe to them and ſhut to the doore.

11 * Then thei ſmote the men that were at the dore of ỹ houſe with blindenes bothe ſmale and great, ſo that thei were wearie in " ſeking the dore.

Wiſdo. 19. 16.

" Ebr. finding.

12 ¶ Then the men ſaid vnto Lot, Whome haſt thou yet here? ether ſonne in lawe or thy ſonnes, or thy daughters, or whatſoeuer thou haſt in the citie, bring it out of this place.

13 For we g wil deſtroie this place, becauſe the * crie of them is great before ỹ Lord, and the Lord hathe ſent vs to deſtroie it.

g This proueth that the Angels are miniſters, aſwel to execute Gods wrath, as to declare his fauour 14 Then Lot went out and ſpake vnto his ſonnes in lawe, which " maried his daughters, & ſaid, Ariſe, get you out of this place: for the Lord wil deſtroie the citie: but he ſemed to his ſonnes in lawe as thogh he had mocked.

Chap. 18. 20.

" Or, ſhulde marie

15 ¶ And when ỹ morning aroſe, the Angels haſted Lot, ſaying, Ariſe, take thy wife and thy two daughters " which are here, leſt ỹ be deſtroied in the puniſhmẽt of the citie.

" Ebr. which are founde.

16 And as he [h] prolonged the time, * the men caught bothe him & his wife, and his two daughters by the handes (ỹ Lord being merciful vnto him) & they broght him forthe, & ſet him without the citie.

17 ¶ And when they had broght thē out, the Angel ſaid: eſcape for thy life: [i] loke not behinde thee, nether tarie thou in all the plaine: eſcape into the mountaine, leſt thou be deſtroied.

18 And Lot ſaid vnto them, Not ſo, I praie thee, my Lord.

19 Beholde now, thy ſeruant hathe founde grace in thy ſight, and thou haſt magnified thy mercie, which thou haſt ſhewed vnto me in ſauing my life: and I can not eſcape in the mountaine, leſt some euil take me, and I die.

20 Se now this citie hereby to flee vnto, which is a litle one: Oh let me eſcape thither: is it not a [k] litle one, & my ſoule ſhal liue?

21 Then he ſaid vnto him, Beholde, I haue receiued "thy requeſt alſo cōcerning this thing, that I wil not ouerthrowe this citie, for the which thou haſt ſpoken.

22 Haſte thee, ſaue thee there: for I cā do [l] nothīg til thou be come thether. Therfore ỹ name of ỹ citie was called [m] Zóar.

23 ¶ The ſunne did riſe vpon the earth, whē Lot entred into Zóar.

24 Then the Lord * rained vpon Sodóm and vpon Gomoráh brimſtone, and fire from the Lord out of heauen, 25 And oue[r]threwe thoſe cities and all the plaine, & all the inhabitāts of the cities, and that that grewe vpon the earth.

26 ¶ Now his wife behīde him loked backe, and was turned in to a [n] piller of ſalt.

27 ¶ And Abrahám riſing vp early in ỹ mornīg went to ỹ place, where he had ſtand before the Lord, and loking toward Sodóm and Gomoráh and toward all the land of the plaine:

28 Beholde, he ſawe the ſmoke of the land mounting vp as the ſmoke of a fornace.

29 ¶ But yet when God deſtroied the cities of the plaine, God thoght vpon Abrahā, and ſent Lot out from the middes of the deſtructiō, whē he oue[r]threwe the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went vp frō Zóar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he [o] feared to tarie in Zóar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters.

31 And the elder ſaid vnto ỹ yonger, Our father is olde, and there is not a man in the [p] earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of all the earth.

32 Come, we wil make our father [q] drinke wine, and lye with him, that we maie preſerue ſede of our father.

33 So thei made their father drinke wine ỹ night, and the elder went and laie with her father: but he perceiued not, nether when ſhe laie downe, nether when ſhe roſe vp.

34 And on the morow the elder ſaid to the yonger, Beholde, yeſter night laie I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night alſo, and go thou and lye with him, ỹ we maie "preſerue ſede of ō father.

35 So thei made their father drinke wine ỹ night alſo, and the yonger arōſe, and laie with him, but he perceiued not, when ſhe laie downe, nether when ſhe roſe vp.

36 Thus were [r] bothe the daughters of Lot with childe by their father.

37 And the elder bare a ſonne, & ſhe called his name Moáb: the ſame is the father of ỹ [f] Moabites vnto this daie.

38 And the yonger bare a ſonne alſo, and ſhe called his name [t] Ben-ammi: the ſame is ỹ father of ỹ Ammonites vnto this daie.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abrahám dwelleth as a ſtranger in the land of Gerár. 2 Abimélech taketh awaie his wife. 3 God reproueth the King. 9 And the King, Abrahā. 11 Sarah is reſtored with great giftes. 17 Abrahám praieth, and the King and his are healed.

1 AFterwarde Abrahám departed thence toward the South countrie and dwelled betwene Cadéſh & [a] Shur, and ſoiourned in Gerár.

2 And Abrahám ſaid of Sarah his wife, [b] She is my ſiſter. Thē Abimélech King of Gerár ſent and toke Saráh.

3 But God came to Abimélech in a dreame by night and ſaid to him, Beholde, [c] thou art but dead, becauſe of the womā, which thou haſt taken: for ſhe is a mans wife.

4 (Notwithſtanding Abimélech had not yet come nere her) And he ſaid, Lord, wilt thou ſlaie euen [d] the righteous nacion?

5 Said not he vnto me, She is my ſiſter? yea, and ſhe her ſelfe ſaid, He is my brother: [w] an vpright [e] minde, and [f] innocēt hāds haue I done this.

6 And God ſaid vnto him by a dreame, I knowe ỹ thou dideſt this euen with an vpright minde, & I [g] kept thee alſo that thou ſhuldeſt not ſinne againſt me: therfore ſuffred I thee not to touche her.

7 Now then deliuer ỹ man his wife againe: for he is a [h] Prophet, & he [i] ſhal praye for thee ỹ thou mayeſt liue: but if thou deliuer her not āgaine, be ſure ỹ thou ſhalt die the death, thou, & all that thou haſt.

8 Then Abimélech riſing vp early in the morning called all his ſeruātes, and tolde all theſe things "vnto them, and the men were ſore afraide.

9 Afterward Abimélech called Abrahám, and ſaid vnto him, What haſt thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou haſt broght on me and on my [k] kingdome this great ſinne? thou haſt done things vnto me that oght not to be done.

10 So

---

h The mercie of God ſtriueth to ouercome mans ſlownes in following Gods calling. Wiſd.10,6.

i He willed hi to flee from Gods iudgements, and not to be ſorie to depart from ỹ riche countrei and ful of vaine pleaſures.

k Thogh it be litle, yet it is great ynough to ſaue my life: wherī he offendeth in choſing another place then the Angel had appointed him.

l Ebr. thy face.

l Becauſe Gods commandemēt was to deſtroie the citie and to ſaue Lot.

m Which before was called Beláh, cha.14, 2.

Deu.29,23.
iſai 13,19.
ierem 50,40.
ezech.16,49.
ezech.11,8.
amo.4,11.
luk.17,29.
iude 7.

n As touching the bodie onely: & this was a notable mōnumēt of Gods vengeance to all them that paſſed that way.

o Hauing before felt Gods mercie, he durſt not prouoke him againe by continuing among the wicked

p Meaning, in the countrei, which ỹ Lord had now deſtroied q For except he had bene ouercome w wine, he wolde neuer haue done ỹ abominable act.

r Thus God permitted him to fall moſte horribly in ỹ ſolitarie mountaynes, whome the wickednes of Sodóm colde not ouercome

f Who as they were borne in moſte horrible inceſt, ſo were they and their poſteritie vile and wicked

t That is, ſōne of my people: ſignifyīg, that thei rather reioyced i their ſinne, then repented for the ſame.

a Which was toward Egypt.

b Abrahám had now twiſe fallē into this faute: ſuche is mans frailtie.

c So greatly God deteſteth the breache of mariage.

d The infideles confeſſed that God wold not puniſh but for iuſt occaſion: therfore whenſoeuer he puniſheth, ỹ occaſion is iuſt.

e As one failing by ignorance, and not doing euil of purpoſe.

f Not thinkīg to do any man harme.

g God by his holie Spirit reteineth thē that offend by ignorāce, that thei fall not into greater inconueniēce.

h That is, one, to whome God reueileth him ſelf familiarly.

i For ỹ prayer of ỹ godlie is of force towards God.

"Ebr in their eares

k The wickednes of the Kīg bringeth Gods wrath vpon ỹ whole realme.

10 So Abimélech ſaid vnto Abrahám, What ſaweſt ỹ that ỹ haſt done this thig?
11 Then Abrahám anſwered, Becauſe I thoght thus, Surely ỹ [l] feare of God is not in this place, and they wil ſlay me for my wiues ſake.
12 Yet in very dede ſhe is my [m] ſiſter: for ſhe is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, & ſhe is my wife.
13 Now when God cauſed me to wandre out of my fathers houſe, I ſaid thē to her, This is thy kindenes that ỹ ſhalt ſhewevn to me in all places where we come, * Say thou of me, He is my brother.
14 Then toke Abimélech ſhepe & beues, & men ſeruantes, and women ſeruantes, and gaue them vnto Abrahám, and reſtored him Saráh his wife.
15 And Abimélech ſaid, Behold, my land is [o] before thee: dwel where it pleaſeth thee.
16 Likewiſe to Saráh he ſaid, Beholde, I haue giuen thy brother a thouſand peces of ſiluer: beholde, he is ỹ [n] vaile of thine eies to all that are with thee, and to all others: and ſhe was [o] thus reproued.
17 ¶ Then Abrahám praied vnto God, & God healed Abimélech, and his wife, and his maid ſeruants: and they bare children.
18 For ỹ Lord [p] had ſhut vp euerie wōbe of ỹ houſe of Abimélech, becauſe of Saráh Abrahams wife.

l He ſheweth that no honoſtie can be hoped for, where the feare of God is not m By ſiſter, he meaneth his coſin germain, & by daughter, Abrahams nece for ſo the Ebrewes vſe theſe words Chap 12,13.
o Or, in at thy commaundemēt n Such an head, as with whome thou maiſt be preſerued from all dangers o God cauſed this heathen King to reproue her, becauſe ſhe diſſembled, ſince God had giuen her a houſband, as her vaile and defenſe
p Had taken away frō thē the gift of conceiuing

CHAP. XXI.

2 Izhák is borne. 9 Iſhmaél mocketh Izhák. 14 Hagár is caſt out with her ſonne. 17 The Angel comforteth Hagár. 22 The couenāt betwene Abimélech & Abrahā.

1 NOw ỹ Lord viſited Saráh, as he had ſaid, and did vnto her * according as he had promiſed.
2 For * Saráh conceiued, & bare Abrahám a ſonne in his [a] olde age, at the ſame ſeaſon that God tolde him.
3 And Abrahám called his ſonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Saráh bare him, Izhák.
4 Then Abrahám circumciſed Izhák his ſonne, when he was eight daies olde, * as God had commanded him.
5 So Abrahám was an hundreth yere olde, whē his ſonne Izhák was borne vnto him.
6 ¶ Thē Saráh ſaid, God hathe made me to reioyce: all that heare wil reioyce w̄ me.
7 Againe ſhe ſaid, [b] Who wolde haue ſaid to Abrahám, that Saráh ſhulde haue giuen children ſucke? for I haue borne him a ſonne in his olde age.
8 Then the childe grewe & was weaned: & Abrahám made a great feaſt the ſame day that Izhák was weaned.
9 ¶ And Saráh ſawe ỹ ſonne of Hagár the Egyptiā (which ſhe had borne vnto Abrahám) [c] mocking.
10 Wherefore ſhe ſaid vnto Abrahám, Caſt out this bond woman and her ſonne: for the ſonne of this bond woman ſhal not be heire with my ſonne Izhák.
11 And this thing was very grieuous in Abrahams ſight, becauſe of his ſonne.
12 ¶ But God ſaid vnto Abrahám, Let it not be grieuous in thy ſight for the childe, and for thy bond womā: in all that Saráh ſhal ſaie vnto thee, heare her voice: for in Izhák ſhal thy ſede be [d] called.
13 As for ỹ ſonne of ỹ bond womā, I wil make hī [e] a nacīō alſo, becauſe he is thy ſede.
14 So Abrahám aroſe vp early in the morning, and toke bread, and a bottel of water, and gaue it vnto Hagár, putting it on her ſhulder and the childe alſo, and [f] ſent her away: who departing wandred in the wildernes of Beer-ſhéba.
15 And when the water of the bottel was ſpēt, ſhe caſt ỹ childe vnder a certeine tre.
16 Then ſhe went and ſate her ouer againſt him a farre of about a bowe ſhote: for ſhe ſaid, I wil not ſe the death of the childe. and ſhe ſate downe ouer againſt him, and lift vp her voyce and wept.
17 Then God [g] heard the voyce of the childe, and the Angel of God called to Hagár from heauen, and ſaid vnto her, What aileth thee, Hagár? feare not, for God hathe heard ỹ voyce of the childe where he is.
18 Ariſe, take vp ỹ childe, and holde him in thine hand: for I wil make of him a great people.
19 And God [h] opened her eies, & ſhe ſawe a well of water ſo ſhe went and filled the bottel with water, & gaue ỹ boye drinke.
20 So God was [i] with the childe & he grewe and dwelt in the wildernes, and was an "archer.
21 And he dwelt in the wildernes of Parán, and his mother toke him a wife out of the land of Egypt.
22 ¶ And at that ſame time Abimélech and Phichól his chief captaine ſpake vnto Abrahám, ſaying, God is with thee in all ỹ thou doeſt.
23 Now therefore ſweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not "hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: thou ſhalt deale with me, and with ỹ countrie, where thou haſt bene a ſtrāger, according vnto the kīdenes that I haue ſhewed thee.
24 Then Abrahám ſaid, I wil [k] ſweare.
25 And Abrahám rebuked Abimélech for a well of water, w̄ Abimlechs ſeruants had violently taken away.
26 And Abimélech ſaid [l] I knowe not who hathe done this thing: alſo thou toldeſt me not, nether heard I of it but this daie.
27 Then Abrahám toke ſhepe, and beues, and gaue them vnto Abimélech: and they two made a couenant.
28 And Abrahám ſet ſeuen lambes of the d The promiſed ſede ſhalbe coūted frō Izhák and not from Iſhmaél. Rom 9,7. ebr 11,18

e The Iſhmaelites ſhal come of him f True faith reōceth all natural affectiōs to obey Gods cōmandemēt g For his promes ſake made to Abrahám, and not becauſe ỹ childe had diſcretion and iudgemēt to pray.
h Except God open our eies, we can nether ſe, nor vſe the meanes which are before vs.
i As touching outwarde thigs God cauſed him to proſper " Or, ſtet in the bowe and was an hunter.
" Ebr deale falſly with me, or lye.
k So ỹ it is a lauful thīg to take an othe, in matters of importance, for to iuſtifie the trueth and to aſſure others of our ſincerite l Wicked ſeruants do many euils vnknowē to their maſters.

Chap 17,19. & 18,10 Act.7,8. gal 4,23. ebr 11,11.
a Therefore ỹ miracle was greater
Chap 17,12.
b She accuſeth her ſelfe of ingratitude that ſhe did not beleue the Angel c He derided Gods promes made to Izhák, which ỹ Apoſtle calleth perſecutiō. Gal 4,29.

flocke by them ſelues.

29 Then Abimélech ſaid vnto Abrahám, What meane theſe ſeuen lambes, which thou haſt ſet by them ſelues?

30 And he anſwered, Becauſe thou ſhalt receiue of mine hand theſe ſeuen lambes, ỹ it may be a witnes vnto me, that I haue digged this well.

Or, well of the othe, or, of ſeuẽ, meaning likes

31 Wherefore the place is called "Beer-ſhéba, becauſe there thei bothe ſware.

32 Thus made they a[m] couenant at Beer-ſhéba: afterward Abimélech & Phichól his chief captaine roſe vp, & turned againe vnto the land of the Philiſtíms.

33 ¶ And Abrahám planted a groue in Beer-ſhéba, and [n] called there on the Name of the Lord, the euerlaſting God.

m That is, by thy true obedience thou haſt declared thy liuelie faith

Or, and haſt not withholden thine onelie ſonne from me.

34 And Abrahám was a ſtranger in the Philiſtíms land a long ſeaſon.

n That is, he worſhiped God in all points of true religion

CHAP. XXII.

1.2 The faith of Abrahám is proued in offring his ſonne Izhák. 8 Izhák is a figure of Chriſt. 20 The generation of Nahór Abrahams brother, of whome cõmeth Rebekáh.

1 AND after theſe thĩgs God did *proue Abrahám, & ſaid vnto hĩ, Abrahám. Who anſwered, "Here am I.

Ebr. 11,17.

Ebr 1o,1.

2 And he ſaid, Take now thine onely ſonne Izhák whome thou loueſt, & get thee vnto the lande of [a] Moriáh, and [b] offre him there for a burnt offring vpon one of the mountaines, which I wil ſhewe thee.

a Which ſignifieth the feare of God, in the which place he was honoured: and Salomõ afterward buylt the temple

b Herein ſtode ỹ chiefeſt point of his tẽtation, ſeinghe was commanded to offre vp him in whome God had promiſed to bleſſe all the nations of the worlde.

3 Then Abrahám roſe vp early in the morning, and ſadled his aſſe, and toke two of his ſeruants with him, and Izhák his ſonne, and cloue wood for the burnt offring, and roſe vp and went to the place, which God had tolde him.

4 ¶ Then ỹ third day Abrahám lift vp his eies, and ſawe the place a farre of,

5 And ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Abide you here w̃ the aſſe: for I & the childe wil go yõder & worſhip, & [c] come againe vnto you.

c He doubted not, but God wolde accompliſh his promes thogh he ſhulde ſacrifice his ſonne.

6 Then Abrahám toke the wood of ỹ burnt offring, & laied it vpon Izhák his ſonne, & he toke the fire in his hand, & the knife: and they went bothe together.

7 Then ſpake Izhák vnto Abrahám his father, & ſaid, My father. And he anſwered, Here am I, my ſonne. And he ſaid, Behold de the fire & the wood, but where is the lambe for the burnt offring?

8 Thẽ Abrahám anſwered, My ſonne, God wil [d] prouide him a lambe for a burnt offring: ſo they went bothe together.

d The onely way to ouercome all tentations is to reſt vpõ Gods prouidence.

9 Whẽ they came to ỹ place w̃ God had ſhewed hĩ, Abrahám buylded an altar there, & couched ỹ wood, & [e] boud Izhák his ſõne *& laied him on ỹ altar vpon ỹ wood.

e For it is like yhis father had declared to him Gods cõmandemẽt whereunto he ſhewed him ſelf obedient Iam.2,21.

10 And Abrahám ſtretching forthe his hand, toke the knife to kil his ſonne.

11 But ỹ Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauẽ, ſaying, Abrahám, Abrahám. And he anſwered, Here am I.

12 Then he ſaid, Lay not thine hand vpon the childe, nether do anie thing vnto him: for now I [f] knowe that thou feareſt God, ſeing for my ſake [g] thou haſt not ſpared thine onely ſonne.

f That is, by thy true obedience thou haſt declared thy liuelie faith

g Or, and haſt not withholden thine onelie ſonne from me.

13 And Abrahám lifting vp his eies, loked: & beholde, there was a ram behinde him caught by ỹ hornes in a buſhe. then Abraham wẽt & toke the ram & offred him vp for a burnt offring in ỹ ſtede of his ſonne.

14 And Abrahám called the name of that place, *Iehouáh-iireh. as it is ſaid this day, In the mount wil the Lord ſ be ſene.

Or, The Lord wil ſee, or prouide

15 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord cryed vnto Abrahám from heauen the ſeconde time,

16 And ſaid, By [h] my ſelfe haue I ſworne (ſaith ỹ Lord) becauſe thou haſt done this thĩg, & haſt not ſpared thine onely ſonne, g The name is changed, to ſhewe ỹ God dothe both ſee & prouide ſecretly for his, and alſo euidently is ſene and felt in time cõueniẽt h Signifiing, that there is no greater thẽ he.

17 Therefore wil I ſurely bleſſe thee, and wil greatly multiplie thy ſede, as ỹ ſtarres of the heauen, and as ỹ ſande which is vpon the ſeaſhore, and thy ſede ſhal poſſeſſe the [i] gate of his ennemies.

Or, holdes

18 *And in thy ſede ſhal all ỹ naciõs of the earth be bleſſed, becauſe thou haſt obeied my voyce.

Chap 12,3. & 18,18. eccleſ.44,25. act.3,25. gal.3,8.

19 Then turned Abrahám againe vnto his ſeruants, and they roſe vp and went together to Beer-ſhéba: and Abrahám dwelt at Beer-ſhéba.

20 ¶ And after theſe thĩgs one tolde Abrahám, ſayĩg, Beholde Milcáh, ſhe hathe alſo borne children vnto thy brother Nahór:

21 To wit, Vz his eldeſt ſonne, & Buz his brother, & Kemuél the father of "Arám,

Or, of the Eaſt cou.

22 And Chéſed and Hazó, & Pildáſh, & Iidláph, and Bethuél.

23 And Bethuél begate Rebekáh: theſe eight did Milcáh beare to Nahór Abrahams brother.

24 And his [i] cõcubine called Reumáh, ſhe bare alſo Tébah, & Gáhan & Thahaſh & Maacháh.

i Concubine is oftentimes taken in the good parte for thoſe women which were inferior to the wiues.

CHAP. XXIII.

2. Abrahám lamenteth the death of Saráh 4 He bieth a field, to bury her, of the Hittites. 13 The equitie of Abrahám. 19 Saráh is buryed in Machpelah.

1 WHen Saráh was an húdreth twenty and ſeuen yere olde ("ſo long liued ſhe)

"Ebr the yeres of the life of Sarah

2 Then Saráh dyed in Kiriath-arbã: the ſame is Hebrón in the land of Canáan. & Abraham came to mourne for Saráh and to wepe for her.

a That is whẽ he had mourned: ſo ỹ godlie may mourne, if their paſſe not meaſure: and ỹ natural affection is cõmendable

3 ¶ Then Abrahám [a] roſe vp fro õ ỹ ſight of his corps, & talked w̃ the "Hittites, ſaying,

"Ebr. ſonnes of Hethe

4 I am a ſtranger, & a foriner among you, giue me a poſſeſſion of buryal with you, that I may bury my dead out of my ſight.

b That is, godlie or excellẽt. for ỹ Ebrewes ſo ſpeake of all things that are notable, becauſe all excellencie cometh of God.

5 Then the Hittites anſwered Abrahám, ſaying vnto him,

6 Heare vs, my Lord: thou art a prince [b] of God among vs: in the chiefeſt of our ſepulchres chres bury thy dead: none of vs ſhal forbid thee his ſepulchre, but thou maieſt bury thy dead therein.

7 Then Abrahám ſtode vp, & bowed him ſelfe before the people of the land of the Hittites.

8 And he communed with them, ſaying, If it be "your minde, ỹ I ſhal bury my dead out of my ſight, heare me, and intreat for me to Ephrón the ſonne of Zóhar, 9 That he wolde giue me ỹ caue of Machpeláh, which he hathe in the end of his field: ỹ he wolde giue it me for as muche "money as it is worthe, for a poſſeſsion to bury in among you.

10 (For Ephrón dwelt among ỹ Hittites) Then Ephrón the Hittite anſwered Abrahám in the audience of all the Hittites ỹ [c] went in at the gates of his citie, ſaying, 11 No, my lord, heare me: the field giue I thee, and the caue, that therein is, I giue it thee: euen in the preſence of the ſonnes of my people giue I it thee, to bury thy dead.

12 Then Abrahám [d] bowed him ſelf before the people of the land,

13 And ſpake vnto Ephrón in the audience of the people of the coũtrey, ſaying, Seing ỹ wilt giue it, I praye thee, heare me, I wil giue ỹ price of the field: receiue it of me, and I wil bury my dead there.

14 Ephrón then anſwered Abrahám, ſaying vnto him,

15 My Lord, hearkẽ vnto me: ỹ land is worthe four hũdreth [e] ſhekels of ſiluer: what is ỹ betwene me & thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 So Abrahám hearkened vnto Ephrón, & Abrahám weyed to Ephrón the ſiluer, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, euen foure hũdreth ſiluer ſhekels of currant money among marchãtes.

17 ¶ So ỹ field of Ephrón which was in Machpeláh, & ouer against Mamré, euen ỹ field & the caue ỹ was therein, and all the trees ỹ were in the field, which were in all the borders roundabout, was made ſure

18 Vnto Abrahám for a poſſeſsion, in the ſight of the Hittites, euen of all that "went in at the gates of his citie.

19 And after this, Abrahám buryed Saráh his wife in the caue of the field of Machpeláh ouer against Mamré: the ſame is Hebrón in the land of Canáan.

20 Thus bothe the field and the caue, ỹ is therein, was made ſure vnto Abrahám for a poſſeſsion of buryal [f] by the Hittites.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 Abrahám cauſeth his ſeruant to ſweare to take a wife for Izhák in his owne kinred. 12 The ſeruant prayeth to God. 34 His fidelitie towarde his maſter. 50 The friends of Rebekáh commit the matter to God. 58 They aſke her conſent and ſhe agreeth. 67 And is maryed to Izhák.

1 NOw Abrahám was olde, and "ſtriken in yeres, and the Lord had bleſſed Abrahám in all things.

2 Therefore Abrahám ſaid vnto his eldeſt ſeruant of his houſe, which had the rule ouer all that he had, * [a] Put now thine hand vnder my thigh,

3 And I wil make thee [b] ſweare by the Lord God of ỹ heauen, & God of ỹ earth, that thou ſhalt not take a wife vnto my ſonne of the daughters of the Canaanites amõg whome I dwel.

4 But thou ſhalt go vnto my [c] countrie, & to my kinred, & take a wife vnto my ſonne Izhák.

5 And the ſeruant ſaid to him, What if the woman wil not come w̃ me to this land? ſhal I bring thy ſonne againe vnto the lãd from whence thou cameſt?

6 To whome Abrahám anſwered, Beware ỹ ỹ bring not my ſonne [d] thether againe.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heauen, who toke me from my fathers houſe, & from ỹ lãd where I was borne, and that ſpake vnto me, & that ſware vnto me, ſaying, * Vnto thy ſede wil I giue this land, he ſhal ſend his Angel before thee, and thou ſhalt take a wife vnto my ſonne from thence.

8 Neuertheles if the womã wil not followe thee, then ſhalt thou be "diſcharged of this mine othe: onely bring not my ſonne thether againe.

9 Then the ſeruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abrahám his maſter, & ſware to him for this matter.

10 ¶ So the ſeruant toke ten camels of the camels of his maſter, and departed: for he had all his maſters goods in his hãd, & ſo he aroſe, and went to "Aram Naharáim, vnto the [e] citie of Nahór.

11 And he made his camels to "lie downe without the citie by a well of water, at euen about the time that women come out to drawe water.

12 And he ſaid, O [f] Lord God of my maſter Abrahám, I beſeche thee, "ſend me good ſpede this day, and ſhewe mercie vnto my maſter Abrahám.

13 Lo, I ſtand [d] by the well of water, whiles the mẽs daughters of this citie come out to drawe water.

14 § Grant that ỹ maide, to whome I ſaie, Bowe downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if ſhe ſay, Drinke, and I wil giue thy camels drinke alſo: may be ſhe ỹ thou haſt ordeined for thy ſeruant Izhák: & thereby ſhal I knowe ỹ thou haſt ſhewed mercie on my maſter.

15 ¶ Now yer he had left ſpeaking, beholde, [h] Rebekáh came out, the daughter of Bethuél, ſonne of Milcáh the wife of Nahór Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her ſhuldre.

16 (And the maide was very faire to loke vpon, a virgine and vnknowen of man) &

" Ebr in your eare

[a] Or, double caue, becauſe one was within an other

" Ebr in full ſil ver

[c] Meaning, all the citizens & inhabitants.

[d] To ſhewe ỹ he had them in good eſtimation and reuerence

[e] The comẽ ſhekel is about 20 pẽce, ſo thẽ 400 ſhekels mount to 33 li 6 ſhill & 8 pence, after 5 ſhill ſterl. the once.

[f] Or, enioyment.

[f] That is, all the people cõ firmed ỹ ſale.

" Ebr come into dayes.

Chap 47.29. [a] Which ceremonie declared ỹ ſeruants obedience towards his maſter, and ỹ maſters power ouer the ſeruãt.

[b] This ſheweth that an othe may be required in a lawful cauſe.

[c] He wolde not ỹ his ſonne ſhulde mary out of the godlie familie: for the inconuenients ỹ come by maryiog with the vngodlie are ſet forthe in ſondrie places of the Scriptures

[d] Leſt he ſhulde loſe the inheritance promiſed Cha 12,7. & 13,15. & 15, 18, & 26,4.

" Ebr innocens.

[e] That is, to Chirán

" Ebr to bowe their knees

[f] He groũdeth his prayer vpõ Gods promes made to his maſter

" Or, cauſe me to meete.

[g] The ſeruant moued by Gods Spirit diſcreted to be aſſured by a ſigne, whether God proſpered his iourney or no.

[h] God giueth good ſucceſſe to all things ỹ are vndertaken for the glorie of his Name and according to his words.

ſhe [i] went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 Then the ſeruant ran to mete her, and ſaid, Let me drincke, I praye thee a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And ſhe ſaid, Drinke [e] ſyr: and ſhe haſted, & let downe her pitcher vpon her hand & gaue him drinke.

19 And when ſhe had giuen him drinke, ſhe ſaid, I wil drawe water for thy camels alſo vntil they [e] haue dronken ynough.

20 And ſhe poured out her pitcher into the troogh ſpedely, and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and ſhe drewe for all his camels.

21 So the man wondred at her, and helde his peace, to wit, whether the Lord had made his iourney proſperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man toke a golden [k] abillement of [l] halfe a ſhekel weight, & two bracelettes for her hãds, of tẽ ſhekels weight of golde:

23 And he ſaid, Whoſe daughter art thou? tel me, I praie thee, Is there roume in thy fathers houſe for vs to lodge in?

24 Then ſhe ſaid to him, I am ỹ daughter of Bethuél the ſonne of Milcáh whome ſhe bare vntò Nahór.

25 Moreouer ſhe ſaid vnto him, We haue lytter alſo and prouander ynough, and roume to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed him ſelfe and worſhipped the Lord,

27 And ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord God of my maſter Abrahám, [m] hathe not withdrawen his mercie and his trueth from my maſter: for whẽ I was in ỹ waie, ỹ Lord broght me to my maſters brethrẽs houſe.

28 And the maide ran & tolde them of her mothers houſe according to theſe wordes.

29 ¶ Now Rebekáh had a brother called Labán, & Labán ran vnto ỹ mã to the well.

30 For when he had ſene the earings & the bracelettes in his ſiſters hands, & when he heard the wordes of Rebekáh his ſiſter, ſaying, Thus ſaid the man vnto me, then he went to the man, & lo [n] he ſtode by the camels at the well.

31 And he ſaid, Come ỹ [p] bleſſed of ỹ Lord: wherfore ſtandeſt ỹ without, ſeing I haue prepared the houſe, & roume for ỹ camels?

32 ¶ Then ỹ man came into ỹ houſe, and [o] he vnſadeled the [p] camels and broght lytter & prouander for the camels, and water to waſhe his fete, & the mens fete that were with him.

33 Afterward the meat was ſet before him: but he ſaid, I [q] wil not eat, vntil I haue ſaid my meſſage: And he ſaid, Speake on.

34 Then he ſaid, I am Abrahams ſeruant,

35 And the Lord hathe [r] bleſſed my maſter wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hathe giuen him ſhepe, and beues, & ſiluer, and golde, and men, ſeruantes, & maide ſeruantes, and camels, and aſſes.

36 And Saráh my maſters wife hathe borne a ſonne to my maſter, whẽ ſhe was olde, & vnto him hathe he giuẽ all that he hathe.

37 Now my maſter made me ſweare, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not take a wife to my ſonne of the daughters of the [f] Canaanites, in whoſe land I dwel:

38 But thou ſhalt go vnto my [t] fathers houſe and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my ſonne.

39 Then I ſaid vnto my maſter, What if the woman wil not followe me?

40 Who anſwered me, The Lord, before whome I walke, wil ſend his Angel with thee, and proſper thy iourney, and thou ſhalt take a wife for my ſonne of my kĩdred and my fathers houſe.

41 Then ſhalt ỹ be diſcharged of [u] mine othe, when thou commeſt to my kinred: and if thei giue thee not one, thou ſhalt be fre from mine othe.

42 So I came this daie to the well, and ſaid, O Lord, the God of my maſter Abrahám, if ỹ now proſper my [g] iourney which I go,

43 Beholde, * I ſtand by the well of water: when a virgine commeth forthe to drawe water, & I ſaie to her, Giue me, I praie thee, a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke, 44 And ſhe ſaie to me, Drinke ỹ, and I wil alſo drawe for thy camels, let her be the wife, which the Lord hathe [h] prepared for my maſters ſonne.

45 And before I had made an end of ſpeakĩg in mine [x] heart, beholde, Rebekáh came forthe, and her pitcher on her ſhuldre, & ſhe went downe vnto the well, and drewe water. Thẽ I ſaid vnto her, Giue me drĩke, I praie thee.

46 And ſhe made haſte, and toke downe her pitcher from her ſhulder, and ſaid, Drinke, & I wil giue thy camels drinke alſo. So I dranke, & ſhe gaue the camels drinke alſo.

47 Then I aſked her, & ſaid, Whoſe daughter art ỹ? And ſhe anſwered, The daughter of Bethuél Nahors ſonne, whome Milcáh bare vnto him. Then I put the abillement vpon her face, and the bracelettes vpon her handes:

48 [y] And I bowed downe & worſhipped ỹ Lord, and bleſſed the Lord God of my maſter Abrahám, which had broght me ỹ [z] right waie to take my maſters brothers daughter vnto his ſonne.

49 Now therefore, if ye wil deale [z] mercifully and truely with my maſter, tel me: and if not, tel me that I maie turne me to the [a] right hand or to the left.

50 Then anſwered Labán and Bethuél, & ſaid, [b] This thing is proceded of the Lord: we can not therefore ſaie vnto thee, nether euil nor good.

51 Be-

---

i Here is declared ỹ God euer heareth the prayers of his, and graunteth their requeſtes

*Ebr my lord

e Ebr. haue made an end of drinking

*Or, earing

k God permitted manie things both in apparel and other things ỹ are nowe forbid: ſpecially when thei apperteine not to our mortification l The golden ſhekel is here ment and not that of ſiluer.

m He boaſteth not his good fortune (as do the wicked) but acknollageth that God hath dealtmercifully with his maſter in kepig promes.

n For he waited on Gods hand, who had now heard his prayer

o To wit, Labã

p The gentle intertenemẽt of ſtrangers vſed among the godlie fathers q The fidelitie that ſeruants owe to their maſters, cauſeth them to preferre their maſters buſines to their owne neceſſitie.

r To bleſſe, ſignifieth here to enriche, or encreaſe with ſubſtance, as ỹ text in ỹ ſame verſe declareth.

f The Canaanites were accurſed & therfore the godlie colde not ſome with thẽ in marriage

t Meaning among his kiſſo folkes, as ver. 40 u Which by mine authoritie I cauſed thee to make.

*Or, waie.

Verſe 13.

*Or, ſtored.

x Signifiyng ỹ this praier was not ſpokẽ by the mouth, but onely meditated in his heart.

y He ſheweth what is our duetie, when we haue receiued ante benefite of the Lord.

Ebr. in the waie of trueth z Yf you wfrely & faithfully giue your daughter to my maſters ſonne.

a That is, ỹ I maie prouide els where.

b So ſone as thei perceiue that it is Gods ordinance thei yelde.

51 Beholde, Rebekáh is "before thee. take her & go, that ſhe maie be thy maſters ſonnes wife, euen as the Lord hathe "ſaid.

52 And when Abrahams ſeruant heard their wordes, he bowed him ſelfe towarde the earth vnto the Lord.

53 Then the ſeruãt toke forthe iewels of ſiluer, & iewels of golde, & raiment, & gaue to Rebekáh: alſo vnto her brother and to her mother he gaue giftes.

54 Afterwarde they did eat & drinke, both he. and the men that were with him, and taried all night. and when they roſe vp in the morning, he ſaid, *Let me departe vnto my maſter.

55 Then her brother and her mother anſwered, Let the maide abide with vs, at the leaſt "ten dayes: then ſhal ſhe go.

56 But he ſaid vnto thẽ, Hídre you me not, ſeíng ỹ Lord hathe proſpered my iourney: ſend me away, ỹ I may go to my maſter.

57 Then they ſaid, We wil call the maide, and aſke her "conſent.

58 And they called Rebekáh, and ſaid vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And ſhe anſwered, I wil go.

59 So they let Rebekáh their ſiſter go, and her nourſe, with Abrahams ſeruant and his men.

60 And they bleſſed Rebekáh, and ſaid vnto her, Thou art our ſiſter, growe into thouſand thouſandes, and thy ſede poſſeſſe the gate of his ennemies.

61 ¶Then Rebekáh aroſe, and her maides, & rode vpon the camels, and followed ỹ mã & ỹ ſeruãt toke Rebekáh, & departed.

62 Now Izhák came from the way of * Beér-lahái-roí, (for he dwelt in the South countrey)

63 And Izhák went out to pray in the field toward the euening: who lift vp his eies and loked, and beholde, the camels came.

64 Alſo Rebekáh lift vp her eies, and when ſhe ſawe Izhák, ſhe lighted downe from the camel.

65 (For ſhe had ſaid to the ſeruant, Who is yonder man, that commeth in the field to mete vs? And the ſeruãt had ſaid, It is my maſter) So ſhe toke a vaile and couered her.

66 And the ſeruant tolde Izhák all things, that he had done.

67 Afterward Izhák broght her into the tẽt of Saráh his mother, & he toke Rebekáh, & ſhe was his wife, & he loued her: ſo Izhák was "cõforted after his mothers death.

CHAP. XXV.

Abrahám taketh Keturáh to wife, and getteth many children. 6 Abrahám giueth all his goods to Izhák. 12 The genealogie of Iſhmaél. 25 The birth of Iaakób and Eſau. 30 Eſau ſelleth his birth right for a meſſe of potage.

1 NOw Abrahám had taken him another wife called Keturáh,

2 Which bare him Zimrán, & Iokſhán, & Medán, & Mideán, & Iſhbák, and Shúah.

3 And Iokſhán begate Sheba & Dedán: * And the ſonnes of Dedán were Aſſhurím, & Letuſhím, and Leummím.

4 Alſo the ſonnes of Mideán were Epháh, & Ephér, & Hanóch, & Abidá, and Eldáah. all theſe were the ſonnes of Keturáh.

5 ¶And Abrahám gaue "all his goods to Izhák,

6 But vnto the ſonnes of the concubines, which Abrahám had, Abrahám gaue gifts, and ſent them away from Izhák his ſonne (while he yet liued) Eaſtward to the East countrey.

7 And this is the age of Abrahams life, which he liued, an hundreth ſeuenty and fiue yere.

8 Thẽ Abrahám yelded the ſpirit, & dyed in a good age, an olde man, and of great yeres, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his ſonnes, Izhák and Iſhmaél buryed him in the caue of Machpeláh in the field of Ephrón ſonne of Zóhar the Hittite, before Mamré.

10 Which field Abrahám boght of the Hittites, where Abrahám was buryed ẅ Saráh his wife.

11 ¶And after the death of Abrahám God bleſſed Izhák his ſonne, *and Izhák dwelt by Beér-lahái-roí.

12 ¶Now theſe are the generacions of Iſhmaél Abrahams ſonne, whome Hagár the Egyptian Sarahs handmaide bare vnto Abrahám.

13 * And theſe are ỹ names of the ſonnes of Iſhmaél, name by name, accordíng to their kinreds: the "eldeſt ſonne of Iſhmaél was Nebaióth, then Kedár, & Adbeél, & Mibſám,

14 And Miſhmá, & Dumáh, & Maſſá,

15 Hadár, & Temá, Ietúr, Naphíſh, & Kédemah.

16 Theſe are the ſonnes of Iſhmaél, and theſe are their names, by their townes and by their caſtels: to wit, twelue princes of their nations.

17 (And theſe are ỹ yeres of the life of Iſhmaél, an hundreth thirty and ſeuen yere, and he yelded the ſpirit, and dyed, & was gathered vnto his "people)

18 And they dwelt frõ Hauiláh vnto Shur, that is towardes Egypt, as thou goeſt to Aſſhúr: Iſhmaél dwelt "ſ in the preſence of all his brethren.

19 ¶Likewiſe theſe are the generacions of Izhák Abrahams ſonne. Abrahám begate Izhák, 20 And Izhák was fourty yere olde, when he toke Rebekáh to wife, the daughter of Bethuél the "Aramite of Padán Arám, and ſiſter to Labán the Aramite.

21 And Izhák prayed vnto the Lord for his 'Or, at thy commaudement.

"Or, ordeined.

"Ber. 56, & 59.

"Ebr. dayes, or yeu

e This ſheweth that parents haue not authoritie to mary their childrẽ without conſent of the parties

"Ebr. her mouthe.

d That is, let it be victorious ouer his ennemies: ẅ bleſsig is fully accompliſshed in Ieſus Chriſt

Chap 16, 14. and 25, 10.

e This was ỹ exercise of ỹ godlie fathers to meditate Gods promiſſes & to pray for the accõpliſhmẽt thereof.

f The cuſtome was, that the ſpouſe was broght to her houſband, her head beíng couered, in tokẽ of ſhamefastnes & chaſtitie.

"Or, had left mourning for his mother a Whiles Saráh was yet aliue.

"Ebr. all that he had.

b For by the vertue of Gods worde he had not onely Izhák, but begate many mo

c Reade, chap. 22, 24

d To auoyde the diſſenſion that els might haue come becauſe of the heritage.

e Hereby the Ancients ſignified that man by death periſhed not wholy: but as the ſoules of the godlie liued after in ꝑpetual ioye, ſo the ſoules of the wicked in perpetual peine

Chap. 16, 14. and 24, 62

1. Chro. 1. 29.

"Ebr. firſt borne.

1 Chro. 1. 32.

f Which dweltamong the Arabians, and were ſeparat from the bleſſed ſede

"Or, his lot fel.

g He meaneth that his lot fel to dwel among his brethren, as the Angel promiſed chap 16.

"Or, Syrian of Meſopotamia.

wife, becauſe ſhe was baren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebekáh his wife conceiued, 22 But the children ſtroue together within her: therefore ſhe ſaid, Seing it is ſo, why am I thus? wherefore ſhe wēt to aſke ỹ Lord.

23 And the Lord ſaid to her, two nations are in thy wombe, and two maner of people ſhalbe deuided out of thy bowels, and the one people ſhalbe mightier then the other, and the* elder ſhal ſerue ỹ yonger.

24 ¶ Therefore when her time of deliuerāce was fulfilled, beholde, twinnes were in her wombe.

25 So he that came out firſt was red, and he was all ouer as a rough garment, and they called his name Eſáu.

26 * And afterwarde came his brother out, and his hand held Eſáu by the hele: therefore his name was called Iaakób. Now Izhák was thre ſcore yere olde when Rebekáh bare them.

27 And the boyes grewe, & Eſáu was a cunning hunter, & " liued in ỹ fields: but Iaakób was a "plaine man, and dwelt in tētes.

28 And Izhak loued Eſáu, for "veniſon was his meat, but Rebekáh loued Iaakób.

29 Now Iaakób ſodde pottage, & Eſáu came from the field and was wearie;

30 Then Eſáu ſaid to Iaakób, "Let me eat, I pray thee, of ỹ pottage ſo red, for I am weary. Therefore was his name called Edóm.

31 And Iaakób ſaid, Sel me euen now thy birthright.

32 And Eſáu ſaid, Lo, I am almoſt dead, what is then this k birthright to me?

33 Iaakób then ſaid, Sweare to me euē now. And he ſware to him, *& l ſolde his birthright vnto Iaakób.

34 Then Iaakób gaue Eſáu bread and pottage of lentiles: and he did eat and drinke and roſe vp, & went his way: So Eſáu cōtemned his birthright.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 God prouideth for Izhák in the famine 3 He renueth his promes 9 The king blameth him for denying his wife. 14 The Philiſtims hate him for his riches. 15 Stoppe his welles. 16 And driue him away. 24 God comforteth him. 31 He maketh alliance with Abimélech.

AND there was a famine in the a land beſides the firſt famine that was in the dayes of Abrahám. wherefore Izhák went to Abimélech King of the Philiſtíms vnto Gerár.

2 For the Lord appeared vnto him, & ſaid, b Go not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I ſhal ſhewe vnto thee.

3 Dwel in this land, & I wil be with thee, and wil bleſſe thee: for to thee, and to thy ſede I wil giue all theſe *countreis: and I wil performe the othe which I ſware vnto Abrahám thy father.

4 Alſo I wil cauſe thy ſede to multiplie as the ſtarres of heauen, and wil giue vnto thy ſede all theſe countreis: & in thy ſede ſhal all the naciōs of the earth be *bleſſed,

5 Becauſe that Abrahám c obeied my voyce and kept mine" ordinance, my commandemētes, my ſtatutes, and my Lawes.

6 ¶ So Izhák dwelt in Gerár.

7 And the men of the place aſked him of his wife, & he ſaid, She is my ſiſter: for he d feared to ſay, She is my wife, leſt, ſaid he, the men of the place ſhulde kil me, becauſe of Rebekah: for ſhe was beautiful to the eie.

8 So after he had bene there long time, Abimélech King of the Philiſtíms loked out at a windowe, and lo, he ſawe Izhák e ſporting with Rebekáh his wife.

9 Then Abimélech called Izhák, and ſaid, Lo, ſhe is of a ſuretie thy wife, & why ſaideſt ỹ, She is my ſiſter? To whome Izhák anſwered, Becauſe I thoght this, It maie be that I ſhal die for her.

10 Then Abimélech ſaid, Why haſt thou done this vnto vs? one of the people had almoſt lien by thy wife, ſo ſhuldeſt thou haue broght f ſinne vpon vs.

11 Thē Abimélech charged all his people, ſaying, He that toucheth this man, or his wife, ſhal die the death.

12 Afterward Izhák ſowed in that land, and founde in the ſame yere an" hūdreth folde by eſtimacion: and ſo ỹ Lord bleſſed him.

13 And the man waxed mightie, and " ſtil increaſed, til he was exceading great,

14 For he had flockes of ſhepe, and herdes of cattel, and a mightie houſholde: therefore the Philiſtíms had g enuie at him, 15 In ſo muche that ỹ Philiſtíms ſtopped & filled vp with earth all the wells which his fathers ſeruants digged in his father Abrahams time.

16 Then Abimélech ſaid vnto Izhák, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier thē we a great deale.

17 ¶ Therefore Izhák departed thēce & pitched his tent in the h valley of Gerár, and dwelt there.

18 And Izhák returning, digged the welles of water, which they had digged in the dayes of Abrahám his father: for the Philiſtíms had ſtopped them after the death of Abrahám, & he gaue thē the ſame names, which his father gaue them.

19 Izhaks ſeruants then digged in the vallei, & found there a well of" liuing water.

20 But the herd men of Gerár did ſtriue w Izhaks herd mē ſayīg, The water is ours: therefore called he the name of the well "Eſek, becauſe they were at ſtrief w him.

21 Afterward they digged another well, and ſtroue for that alſo, and he called the name of it "Sitnáh.

22 Then he remoued thence, & digged an other well, for the w they ſtroue not: there-

---

Chap. 12. 37. and 15, 18. & 22, 19. and 23. 14.

c He commendeth Abrahās obedience becauſe Izhák ſhulde be the more readie to follow ỹ like: for as God made this ꝓmes of his fre mercie, ſo doeth ỹ confirmation thereof ꝓcede of the ſame fountaine.

d Whereby we ſe ỹ feare and diſtruſt is found in ỹ moſte faithful e Or ſhewing ſome familiar ſigne of loue, whereby it might be knowen that ſhe was his wife.

f In all agos men were perſuaded ỹ Gods vēgeāce ſhulde light vpon wedloke breakers.

g The malicious enuie alwaies the graces of God in others.

h The Ebrewe worde ſignifieth a flood, or vallei, where water at any time runneth.

Or, hurt one another.

h That is, ỹ childe, ſeing one ſhal deſtroye another.

i For that is the onely refuge in all our miſeries Rom 9, 10.

Eze. 12, 3. Mat. 1, 2.

"Ebr. a man of the field
"Or, ſimple and tanceat
"Ebr veniſon in his mouthe.

"Or, fede me quickely

k The reprobate eſteme not Gods benefits except they fele them preſently, & therfore they preferre preſent pleaſures Ebr 12, 16.

l Thus ỹ wicked preferre their worldelie cōmodities to Gods ſpiritual graces: but ỹ childrē of God do the contrary.

a In the land of Canaan.

b Gods prouidēce alwaies watcheth to direct ỹ waies of his childrē

Chap. 13. 15. & 15, 18.

"Or, ſpringing.

"Or, Contention, ſtrife

"Or, hatred.

Or, Largeneſs roume.

fore called he the name of it [f] Rehobóth, & ſaid, Becauſe ỹ Lord hathe now made vs roume, we ſhal encreaſe vpon ỹ earth.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer-ſhéba.

24 And the Lord appeared vnto him the ſame night, and ſaid, I am the God of Abrahám thy father: feare not, for I am with thee, and wil bleſſe thee and multiplie thy ſede for my ſeruant Abrahams ſake.

. God aſſureth Izhák againſt all feare by rehersing the promes made to Abrahám. k To ſignifie that he wolde ſerue none other God, but the God of his father Abrahám.

25 Thē he buylt an [k] altar there, and called vpon the name of the Lord, & there ſpred his tent: where alſo Izhaks ſeruants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then came Abimélech to him frō Gerár, and Ahuzzáth one of his friends, and Phichól the captaine of his armie.

27 To whome Izhák ſaid, Wherefore come ye to me, ſeing ye hate me and haue put me awaie from you?

28 Who anſwered, We ſawe certeinly that the Lord was with thee, and we thoght thus, Let there be now an othe betwene vs, euen betwene vs and thee, and let vs make a couenant with thee.

l The Ebrewes in iwearing begin comonly w If, & vnderſtand ỹ reſt: ỹ is that God ſhal puniſhe him that breaketh the other here the wicked ſhewe that thei are afraied leſt ỹ come to them ẅ thei wolde do to other.

29 Thou [l] ſhalt do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vn to thee nothing but good, and ſent thee awaie in peace: thou now, the bleſſed of the Lord, do this.

30 Then he made them a feaſt, & thei did eat and drinke.

31 And thei roſe vp betimes in the morning, and ſware one to an other: then Izhák let them go, and thei departed from him in peace.

32 And that ſame daye Izhaks ſeruants came & tolde him of a well, which thei had digged, & ſaid vnto him, We haue found water.

Or, the.

33 So he called it [m] Shibáh: therefore the name of the citie is called [n] Beer-ſhéba vnto this daye.

[m] Or, the well of the othe.

34 ¶ Now when Eſáu was fourtie yere olde, he toke to wife Iudíth, the daughter of Beerí an Hittite, & Baſhemáth ỹ daughter of Elón an Hittite alſo.

Chap. 27. 46.

35 And thei * were [o] a grief of minde to Izhák and to Rebekáh.

[o] Or, diſobedient and rebellious.

CHAP. XXVII.

Iaakób getteth the bleſſing from Eſáu by his mothers counſel. 38 Eſáu by weping moueth his father to pitie him. 41 Eſáu hateth Iaakób and threateneth his death. 43 Rebekáh ſendeth Iaakób awaie.

1 AND when Izhák was olde, & his eies were dimme (ſo that he colde not ſe) he called Eſáu his eldeſt ſonne, and ſaid vnto him, My ſonne. And he anſwered him, "I am here.

"Ebr. Behi, I.

2 Then he ſaid, Beholde, I am now olde and knowe not the daie of my death:

3 Wherefore now, I praie thee take thine inſtruments, thy quiuer and thy bowe, & get thee to the field, that thou maieſt "take me ſome veniſon.

" Ebr. hunt.

4 Then make me ſauourie meat, ſuch as I loue, and bring it me that I maie eat, and ỹ my [a] ſoule maie bleſſe thee, before I dye.

a The carnal affectiō, which he bare to his ſonne, made him forget ỹ which God ſpake to his wife. Chap. 25. 23.

5 (Now Rebekáh heard, when Izhák ſpake to Eſáu his ſonne) and Eſáu went into the field to hunt for veniſon, and to bring it.

6 ¶ Then Rebekáh ſpake vnto Iaakób her ſonne, ſaying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking w Eſáu thy brother, ſaying, 7 Bring me veniſon, and make me ſauourie meat, that I maie eat and bleſſe thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my ſonne, heare my voyce in that which I commande thee.

9 [b] Get thee now to the flocke, & bring me thence two good kyds of the goates, that I maie make pleaſant meat of them for thy father, ſuch as he loueth.

b This ſubtilte is blameworthie becauſe ſhe ſhulde haue taried til God had performed his promes.

10 Then thou ſhalt bring it to thy father, and he ſhal eat, to the intent, that he maie bleſſe thee before his death.

11 But Iaakób ſaid to Rebekáh his mother, Beholde, Eſáu my brother is rough, and I am ſmothe.

12 My father maie poſſibly fele me, and I ſhal ſeme "to him to be a mocker: ſo ſhal I bring a curſe vpon me, and not a bleſſing.

"Ebr. before his eies.

[c] Or, as though I wolde deceiue him

13 But his mother ſaid vnto him, [c] Vpō me be thy curſe, my ſonne: onely heare my voyce, and go and bring me them.

[c] Or, I wil take the daager on me.

14 So he went and fet them, and broght them to his mother: and his mother made pleaſant meat, ſuch as his father loued.

c The aſſurance of Gods decre made her bolde.

15 And Rebekáh toke faire clothes of her elder ſonne Eſáu, which were in her houſe, and clothed Iaakób her yonger ſonne:

16 And ſhe couered his hands and the ſmothe of his necke with the ſkinnes of the kyds of the goates.

17 Afterwarde ſhe put the pleaſant meat and bread, which ſhe had prepared, in the hand of her ſonne Iaakób.

18 ¶ And whē he came to his father, he ſaid, My father. Who anſwered, I am here: who art thou, my ſonne?

19 And Iaakób ſaid to his father, [d] I am Eſáu thy firſt borne, I haue done as ỹ badeſt me, ariſe, I praie thee: ſit vp and eat of my veniſon, that thy ſoule maie bleſſe me.

d Although Iaakób was aſſured of this bleſſing by faith: yet he did euil to ſeke it by lies and the more becauſe he abuſeth Gods Name therunto.

20 Then Izhák ſaid vnto his ſonne, How haſt thou founde it ſo quickly my ſonne? Who ſaid, Becauſe the Lord thy God broght it to mine hand.

21 Againe ſaid Izhák vnto Iaakób, Come nere now, that I maie fele thee, my ſonne, whether thou be that my ſonne Eſáu or not.

e This declareth that he ſuſpected ſome thing, yet God wolde not haue his decre alred.

22 Then Iaakób came nere to Izhák his father, and he felt him and ſaid, The [e] voyce ỹ Iaakobs voyce, but the hāds are the handes of Eſáu.

23 (For he knewe him not, becauſe his handes were rough as his brother Eſaus handes: wherefore he bleſſed him)
24 Again he ſaid, Art thou that my ſonne Eſáu? Who anſwered, "Yea.
25 Then ſaid he, Bring it me hether, and I wil eat of my ſonnes veniſon, that my ſoule may bleſſe thee. And he broght it to hi and he ate: alſo he broght him wine, and he dranke.
26 Afterwarde his father Izhák ſaid vnto him, Come nere now, and kiſſe me, my ſonne.
27 And he came nere and kiſſed him. Then he ſmelled the ſauour of his garments, & bleſſed him, and ſaid, Beholde, the ſmel of my ſonne is as the ſmel of a field, which ỹ Lord hathe bleſſed.
28 * God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fatnes of the earth, and plentie of wheat and wine.
29 Let people be thy ſeruants, and nacions bowe vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethré, and let thy mothers childré honour thee. curſed be he that curſeth thee, and bleſſed be he that bleſſeth thee.
30 ¶ And when Izhák had made an end of bleſsing Iaakób, and Iaakób was ſcace gone out from the preſence of Izhák his father, then came Eſáu his brother from his hunting, 31 And he alſo prepared ſauourie meat and broght it to his father, and ſaid vnto his father, Let my father ariſe, and eat of his ſonnes veniſon, that thy ſoule may bleſſe me.
32 But his father Izhák ſaid vnto him, Who art thou? And he anſwered, I am thy ſõne, euen thy firſt borne Eſáu.
33 Then Izhák was [f] ſtricken with a meruelous great feare, & ſaid, Who and where is he that húnted veniſon, and broght it me, and I haue eat [g] of all before thou cameſt? and I haue bleſſed him, therefore he ſhal be bleſſed.
34 When Eſáu heard the wordes of his father, he cryed out with a great crye and bitter, out of meaſure, and ſaid vnto his father, Bleſſe me, euen me alſo, my father.
35 Who anſwered, Thy brother came with ſubtiltie, and hathe taken away thy bleſſing.
36 Then he ſaid, Was he not iuſtely called [g] Iaakób? for he hathe deceiued me theſe two times: he toke my birthright, and lo, now hathe he taken my bleſsing. Alſo he ſaid, Haſt thou not reſerued a bleſsing for me?
37 Then Izhák anſwered, and ſaid vnto Eſáu, Beholde, I haue made him [h] thy lord, and all his brethren haue I made his ſeruantes: alſo with wheat and wine haue I furniſhed him, and vnto thee now what ſhal I do, my ſonne?
38 Thẽ Eſáu ſaid vnto his father, Haſt thou but one bleſsing my father? bleſſe me, [e] euen me alſo, my father: and Eſáu lifted vp his voyce, and * wept.
39 Then Izhák his father anſwered, and ſaid vnto him, Beholde, the fatnes of the earth ſhalbe thy dwelling place, and thou ſhalt haue of the dewe of heauen from aboue.
40 And [i] by thy ſworde ſhalt thou liue, and ſhalt be thy brothers [k] ſeruant. But it ſhal come to paſſe, whẽ thou ſhalt get the maſtrie, that thou ſhalt breake his yoke from thy necke.
41 ¶ Therefore Eſáu hated Iaakób, becauſe of ỹ bleſsing, wherewith his father bleſſed him. And Eſáu thoght in his minde, * The dayes of mourning for my father wil come ſhortely, [l] then I wil ſlay my brother Iaakób.
42 And it was tolde to Rebekáh of ỹ wordes of Eſáu her elder ſonne, and ſhe ſent & called Iaakób her yonger ſonne, and ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Eſáu [m] is comforted againſt thee, meaning to kil thee:
43 Now therefore my ſõne, heare my voyce: ariſe, and flee thou to Harán to my brother Labán, 44 And tary with him a while vntil thy brothers fearcenes be ſwaged, 45 And til thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the things, which thou haſt done to him: then wil I ſend and take thee from thence: why ſhulde I be [n] depriued of you bothe in one day?
46 Alſo Rebekáh ſaid to Izhák, * I am weary of my life, for the [o] daughters of Heth. If Iaakób take a wife of the daughters of Heth like theſe of the daughters of the land, [p] what auaileth it me to liue?

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Izhák forbiddeth Iaakób to take a wife of the Canaanites. 6 Eſáu taketh a wife of the daughters of Iſhmaél againſt hu fathers wil. 12 Iaakób in the way to Harán ſeeth a ladder reaching to heauen. 14 Chriſt is promiſed. 20 Iaakób aſketh of God onely meat and clothing.

1 THen Izhák called Iaakób and [a] bleſſed him, and charged him, and ſaid vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canáan.
2 Ariſe, * get thee to Padán Arám to the houſe of Bethuél thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Labán thy mothers brother.
3 And God [r] all ſufficiẽt bleſſe thee, & make thee to encreaſe, & multiplie thee, that thou maieſt be a multitude of people,
4 And giue thee the bleſsing of Abrahám, euen to thee & to thy ſede with thee, that thou maieſt inherit the lãd (wherein thou art a [b] ſtrãger) which God gaue vnto Abrahám.

Thus

---

e Or, I am alſo (thy ſonne) Ebr. 12, 16.

i Becauſe thine ennemies ſhalbe rounde about thee.
k Which was fulfilled in his poſteritie the Idumeãs: who were tributaries for a time to Iſraél, and after came to libertie. Abd. 1, 10.
l Hypocrites onely abſteine from doing euil for feare of men.

m He hathe good hope to recouer his birthright by killing thee.

n For ỹ wicked ſonne wil kil the godlie: & ỹ plague of God wil afterward light on ỹ wicked ſõne. Chap. 26, 35.
o Which were Eſaus wiues.
p Hereby ſhe perſuaded Izhák to agre to Iaakobs departing.

a This ſecõde bleſsing was to cõfirme Iaakobs faith, leſt he ſhuld thinke ỹ his father had giuen it without Gods motion. Ob. 8. 12, 13. Chap. 24, 10.
r Or, all mighti.
b The godlie fathers were put in minde continually, ỹ they were but ſtrãgers in this worlde: to trãſfer their ſhulde lift vp their eyes to ỹ heauẽs where they ſhulde haue a ſure dwellig.

f In perceiuig his errour, by appointing his heyre againſt Gods ſentence pronoũced before.
g Or, ſufficiently.
g In the chap. 25. he was ſo called becauſe he helde his brother by ỹ hele, as though he wolde ouerthrowe hi: & therfore he is here called an ouerthrower, or deceyuer.
h For Izhák did this as he was the miniſter and Prophet of God.

5 Thus Izhák ſent forthe Iaakób, and he went to Padán Arám vnto Labán ſonne of Bethuél the Aramite, brother to Rebekáh, Iaakobs and Eſaus mother.

6 ¶Whē Eſáu ſawe that Izhák had bleſſed Iaakób, and ſent him to Padán Arám, to fet him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he bleſſed him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canáan,

7 And that Iaakób had obeied his father & his mother, & was gone to Padán Arám:

8 Alſo Eſáu ſeing ỹ the daughters of Canáan diſpleaſed Izhák his father,

Or, beſide his wiues

9 Then went Eſáu to Iſhmaél, & toke *vnto ỹ wiues, which he had, Mahaláth the daughter of [c] Iſhmaél Abrahams ſonne, the ſiſter of Nabaióth, to be his wife.

c Thinkīg hereby to haue reconciled hī ſelfe to his father, but all in vaine, for he taketh not aware the ſe of the cuſt.

10 ¶Now Iaakób departed frō Beer-ſhéba, and went to Harán, 11 And he came vnto a certeine place, & taried there all night, becauſe ỹ ſonne was downe, and toke of the ſtones of the place and laied vnder his head and ſlept in the ſame place.

12 Then he dreamed, and beholde, there ſtode a [d] ladder vpon the earth and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and lo, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it.

d Chriſt is the ladder whereby God and mā are ioyned together, and by whome the Angels miniſtre vnto vs: all graces by him are giuen vnto vs, & we by him aſcende into heauē

13 *And beholde, the Lord ſtode aboue it, and ſaid, I am the Lord God of Abrahám thy father, & the God of Izhák: the land, vpon the which thou ſlepeſt, [e] wil I giue thee and thy ſede.

Chap 35.1. and 48.3.

14 And thy ſede ſhal be as the duſt of the earth, and thou ſhalt ſpreade abrode *to ỹ Weſt, and to the Eaſt, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy ſede ſhal all the *families of the earth be bleſſed.

e He felt the force of this promes onely by faith · for all his life time he was but a ſtranger in this land

15 And lo, I am with thee, & wil kepe thee whitherſoeuer thou goeſt, and wil bring thee againe into this land: for I wil not forſake thee vntil I haue performed that, that I haue promiſed thee.

Deut 12. 20. and 19,14. Chap 12, 35. and 18,18. & 22,18. and 26, 4.

16 ¶Then Iaakób awoke out of his ſlepe, and ſaid, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

f He was touched with a godlie feare & reuerence.

17 And he was [f] afraid and ſaid, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the houſe of God, and this is the gate of heauen.

18 Then Iaakób roſe vp early in the morning, and toke the ſtone that he had laied vnder his head, and ſet it vp as a piller, and powred oyle vpon the top of it.

g To be a remembrance onely of ỹ viſiō ſhewed vnto him

19 And he called the name of that place [g] Beth-él: notwithſtāding the name of the citie was at the firſt calle Luz.

Or, houſe of God

20 Then Iaakób vowed a vowe, ſaying, If h God wil be with me, and wil kepe me in this iourney which I go, and wil giue me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:

h He bindeth not God vnder this condition but acknollageth his infirmitie, and promiſeth to be thankeful

21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers houſe in ſafety, then ſhal the Lord be my God.

22 And this ſtone, w̄ I haue ſet vp as a piller, ſhal be Gods houſe: & of all that ỹ ſhalt giue me, wil I giue the tenth vnto thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

13 Iaakób commeth to Labán and ſerueth ſeuen yere for Rahél. 23 Leah brought to his bed in ſtede of Rahél. 27 He ſerueth ſeuen yere more for Rahél. 32 Leah conceiueth and beareth foure ſonnes.

1 THen Iaakób [a] lift vp his fete and came into the "East countrei.

a That is, he wēt forthe on his iourney

2 And as he loked about, beholde there was a well in the field, [b] and lo, thre flockes of ſhepe lay thereby (for at that well were ỹ flockes watered) and there was a great ſtone vpon the welles mouthe.

"Ebr. to the Lād of the children of the East

b Thus he was directed by ỹ onely prouidēce of God who broght hī alſo to Labās houſe.

3 And thither were all ỹ flockes gathered, and they rolled the ſtone from the welles mouthe, and watered the ſhepe, and put the ſtone againe vpon the welles mouthe in his place.

4 And Iaakób ſaid vnto them, My [c] brethren, whence be ye? And they anſwered, We are of Harán.

c It ſemeth ỹ in thoſe dayes ỹ cuſtome was to cāll euēſtrāgers brethren.

5 Then he ſaid vnto them, Knowe ye Labán the ſonne of Nahór? Who ſaid, We knowe him.

6 Againe he ſaid vnto them, [d] Is he ī good helth? And they anſwered, He is in good helth, and beholde, his daughter Rahél commeth with the ſhepe.

d Or, is he in peace? by the w̄ worde the Ebrewes ſignifie all proſperitie

7 Thē he ſaid, Lo, it is yet hie day, nether is it time ỹ the cattel ſhulde be gathered together: watter ye the ſhepe & go fede thē.

8 But they ſaid, We may not vntil all the flockes be broght together, & til that men rolle the ſtone frō the welles mouth, that we may watter the ſhepe.

9 ¶While he talked with them, Rahél alſo came w̄ her fathers ſhepe, for ſhe kept thē.

10 And aſſone as Iaakób ſawe Rahél the daughter of Labán his mothers brother, and the ſhepe of Labán his mothers brother, thē came Iaakób nere, and rolled the ſtone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Labán his mothers brother.

11 And Iaakób kiſſed Rahél, and lift vp his voyce and wept.

12 (For Iaakób tolde Rahél, that he was her fathers [e] brother, & that he was Rebekahs ſonne) then ſhe ran and tolde her father.

Or, nephew.

13 And whē Laban heard tel of Iaakób his ſiſters ſonne, he ran to mete him, and embraſed him and kiſſed him, & broght him to his houſe: and he tolde Labán [e] all theſe things.

e That is, the cauſe why he departed from his fathers houſe, & what he ſawe in ỹ way.

14 To whome Labán ſaid, Wel, thou art my [f] bone and my fleſh. and he abode with him the ſpace of a moneth.

f That is, of my blood and kinred.

15 ¶ For Labán ſaid vnto Iaakób, Thogh thou be my brother, ſhuldeſt thou therefore ſeruе me for noght? tel me, what ſhal be thý wages?

16 Now Labán had two daughters, the elder called Leáh, & ỹ yonger called Rahél.

17 And Leáh was [f] tender eyed, but Rahél was beautiful and faire.

18 And Iaakób loued Rahél, and ſaid, I wil ſeruе thee ſeuen yeres for Rahél thy yonger daughter.

19 Then Labán anſwered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I ſhulde giue her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Iaakób ſerued ſeuen yerés for Rahél, and they ſemed vnto him but a [g] fewe daies, becauſe he loued her.

21 ¶ Then Iaakób ſaid to Labán, Giue me my wife that I maie go in to her: for my [h] terme is ended.

22 Wherefore Labán gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feaſt.

23 But [i] whē the euening was come, he toke Leáh his daughter and broght her to him, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Labán gaue his maide Zilpáh to his daughter Leáh, to be her ſeruant.

25 But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then ſaid he to Labán, Wherefore haſt thou done thus to me? did not I ſerue thee for Rahél? wherefore then haſt thou beguiled me?

26 And Labán anſwered, It is not the [l] maner of this place, to giue the yonger before the elder.

27 Fulfil ſeuen yeres for her, and we wil alſo giue thee this for the ſeruice, which thou ſhalt ſerue me yet ſeuen yeres more.

28 Thē Iaakób did ſo, & fulfilled her ſeuen yeres, ſo he gaue him Rahél his daughter to be his wife.

29 Labán alſo gaue to Rahél his daughter Bilháh his maide to be her ſeruant.

30 So entred he in to Rahél alſo, and loued alſo Rahél more then Leáh, and ſerued him yet ſeuen yeres mo.

31 ¶ When ỹ Lord ſawe that Leáh was deſpiſed, he [k] made her fruteful: but Rahél was baren.

32 And Leáh conceiued and bare a ſonne, and ſhe called his name Reubén: for ſhe ſaid, Becauſe the [l] Lord hathe loked vpon mý tribulacion, now therefore mine houſband wil [m] loue me.

33 And ſhe conceiued againe and bare a ſonne, and ſaid, Becauſe the Lord heard that I was hated, he hathe therefore giuen me this ſonne alſo, and ſhe called his name Simeón.

34 And ſhe conceiued againe and bare a ſonne, and ſaid, Now at this time wil my houſbād kepe me companie, becauſe I haue borne him thre ſonnes: therefore was his name called Leuí.

35 Moreouer ſhe conceiued againe and bare a ſonne, ſaying, Now wil I [n] praiſe the Lord: * therefore ſhe called his name Iudáh, and [o] left bearing.

CHAP. XXX.

4 9. Rahél and Leáh being bothe baren giue their maides vnto their houſband, and they beare him children. 15 Leáh giueth mādrakes to Rahél that Iaakób might lie with her. 27 Labán is enriched for Iaakobs ſake. 43 Iaakób is made very riche.

1 AND when Rahél ſawe that ſhe bare Iaakób nō children, Rahél enuied her ſiſter, and ſaid vnto Iaakób, Giue me children, or els I dye.

2 Thē Iaakobs angre was kindeled againſt Rahél, and he ſaid, Am I in [a] Gods ſtede, which hathe withholden frō thee the frute of the wombe?

3 And ſhe ſaid, Beholde my maide Bilháh, go in to her, and ſhe ſhal beare vpon my [b] knees, & [p] I ſhal haue childrē alſo by her.

4 Then ſhe gaue him Bilháh her maide to wife, and Iaakób went in to her.

5 So Bilháh conceiued and bare Iaakób a ſonne.

6 Thē ſaid Rahél, God hathe giuen ſentēce on my ſide, & hathe alſo heard my voyce, and hathe giuen me a ſonne: therefore called ſhe his name, Dan.

7 And Bilháh Rahels maide conceiued againe, and bare Iaakób the ſeconde ſonne.

8 Then Rahél ſaid, With [q] excellēt wreſtlings haue I wreſtled with my ſiſter and haue gotten the vpper hand: and ſhe called his name, Naphtalí.

9 And when Leah ſawe that ſhe had left bearing, ſhe toke Zilpáh her maide, and gaue her Iaakób to wife.

10 And Zilpáh Leahs maide bare Iaakób a ſonne.

11 Then ſaid Leáh, [r] A companie cometh: and ſhe called his name, Gad.

12 Againe Zilpáh Leahs maide bare Iaakób another ſonne.

13 Then ſaid Leáh, Ah, bleſſed am I, for the daughters wil bleſſe me. and ſhe called his name, Aſhér.

14 ¶ Now Reubén went in the dayes of the wheat harueſt and found [s] mandrakes in the field & broght them vnto his mother Leáh. Then ſaid Rahél to Leáh, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy ſonnes mandrakes.

15 But ſhe anſwered her, Is it a ſmale matter for thee to take mine houſbād, except thou take my ſonnes mādrakes alſo? Thē ſaid Rahél, Therefore he ſhal ſlepe with thee this night for thy ſonnes mandrakes.

16 And Iaakób came from the field in the euening, and Leáh went out tō mete him, & ſaid, Come in to me, for I haue [t] boght and payed for thee with my ſonnes mandrakes: and he ſlept with her that night.

17 And God heard Leáh and ſhe cōceiued, and bare vnto Iaakób the fift ſonne.

18 Then

---

[f] Or, beautified

[g] Meaning, after that the yeres were accompliſhed.

[h] Hebr my daies are fild

[i] The cauſe why Iaakób was deceiued was, that in olde time the wife was couered with a vaile, when ſhe was broght to her houſband in ſigne of chaſtitie & ſhamefaſtnes.

[l] He eſteemed more the profit that he had of Iaakobs ſeruice thē ether his promes or the maner of the countrie, though he alledged cuſtome for his excuſe

[k] Hebr opened her wombe

[k] This declareth, that oft times thei, ẅ are deſpiſed of men, are fauored of God I Hereby appeareth, that ſhe had recours to God in her affliction

[m] For children are a great cauſe of mutual loue betwene man and wife.

[n] Or, confeſſe. Mat. 1, 2.

[o] Ebr ſtode from bearing.

[a] It is onely God that maketh barē and fruteful, and therfore I am not in faute.

[b] I ẅil receiue her childrē on my lappe, as though they were mine owne

[p] Ebr I ſhalbe buylded.

[q] Ebr wreſtlings of God

[q] The arrogācie of mās nature appeareth in that ſhe cōtmueth her ſiſter, after ſhe hath receiued this benefit of God to beare children

[r] That is, God doeth increaſe me ỹ a multitude of children · for ſo Iaakób doeth expounde this name Gad, chap 49.9

[s] Which is a kinde of herbe whoſe rote hath a certeine likenes of ỹ figure of a man.

[t] Ebr hyring I haue hyred.

18 Thē ſaid Leáh, God hathe giuen me my rewarde, becauſe I gaue my f maide to my houſband, & ſhe called his name Iſſachár.

f In ſtede of acknolleagig her faute, ſhe boaſteth as if God had rewarded her therefore.

19 After, Leáh conceiued againe, and bare Iaakób the ſixt ſonne.

20 Thē Leáh ſaid, God hathe endued me ẅ a good dowrie: now wil mine houſbād dwel with me, becauſe I haue borne him ſix ſōnes: & ſhe called his name Zebulún.

21 After that, ſhe bare a daughter, and ſhe called her name Dináb.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rahél, and God heard her, *and opened her wombe.

*Or, made her fruitful

23 So ſhe conceiued and bare a ſonne, and ſaid, God hathe taken away my g rebuke.

g Becauſe fruitefulnes came of Gods bleſſing, who ſaid, Increaſe and multiplie: barrenes was counted as a curſe.

24 And ſhe called his name Ioſéph, ſaying, The Lord wil giue me yet another ſonne.

25 ¶ And aſſone as Rahél had borne Ioſéph, Iaakób ſaid to Labán, Sēd me away that I may go vnto my place and to my countrey.

26 Giue me my wiues and my children, for whome I haue ſerued thee, and let me go: for thou knoweſt what ſeruice I haue done thee.

27 To whome Labán anſwered, If I haue now founde fauour in thy ſight, tarie: I haue * perceiued that the Lord hathe bleſſed me for thy ſake.

*Or, tried by experience.

28 Alſo he ſaid, Appoint vnto me thy wages, and I wil giue it thee.

29 But he ſaid vnto hi, Thou knoweſt, what ſeruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattel hathe bene *vnder me.

*Or, with me.

30 For the litle, that thou haddeſt before I came, is increaſed into a multitude: and the Lord hathe bleſſed thee "by my coming: but now whē ſhal h I trauel for mine owne houſe alſo?

"Ebr at my foote

h The ordre of nature requireth that euerie one prouide for his owne familie

31 Then he ſaid, What ſhal I giue thee? And Iaakób anſwered, Thou ſhalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I wil returne, fede, and kepe thy ſhepe.

32 I wil paſſe through all thy flockes this day, and * ſeparat from them all the ſhepe with litle ſpottes and great ſpottes, & all "blacke lambes among the ſhepe, and the great ſpotted, and litle ſpotted amōg the goates: and it ſhalbe my wages.

*Or, ſeparat thou

"Or, red.

33 So ſhal my k righteouſnes anſwere for me hereafter, when it ſhal come for my rewarde before thy face, & euerie one that hathe not litle or great ſpottes among the goates, and blacke among the ſhepe, the ſame ſhalbe "theft with me.

i That which ſhal hereafter be thus ſpotted k God ſhal teſtifie for my righteous dealing by rewarding my labours

"Or, counted theft.

34 Then Labán ſaid, Go to, wolde God it might be according to thy ſaying.

35 Therefore he toke out the ſame day the he goates that were party coloured and with great ſpottes, and all the ſhe goates with litle and great ſpottes, and all ŷ had white in thē, and all the * blacke among ŷ ſhepe, & put thē in ŷ keping of his ſonnes.

*Or, Laban.

*Or, red, or, broune.

36 And he ſet thre dares iourney betwene him ſelfe and Iaakób. & Iaakób kept the reſt of Labans ſhepe.

37 ¶ Then Iaakób l toke roddes of grene popular, and of haſel, and of the cheſnut tre, and pilled white ſtrakes in them, and made the white appeare in the roddes.

l Iaakob herein vſed no deceit: for it was Gods commādement as he declareth in ŷ next chapter, ver 9 and 11.

38 Then he put ŷ roddes, which he had pilled, in the gutters and watering troghes, when the ſhepe came to drinke, before ŷ ſhepe: (for thei were in heate, when thei came to drinke)

39 And the ſhepe * were in heate before the roddes, & afterward brought forthe yong of party colour, and with ſmale & great ſpottes.

*Or, conceiued.

40 And Iaakób parted theſe lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards theſe lambes party coloured and all maner of blacke, among the ſhepe of Labán: ſo he put his owne flockes by them ſelues, & put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in euerie ramming tyme of the m ſtronger ſhepe, Iaakób laied the roddes before the eies of the ſhepe in the gutters ŷ thei might conceiue before the roddes.

m As they ẅ toke ŷ ram about Septēbre, & brought for the about marche: ſo the febler in marche, & lambde in Septembre.

42 But when the ſhepe were feble, he put them not in: and ſo ŷ febler were Labans, and the ſtronger Iaakobs.

43 So the man encreaſed excedingly, and had manie flockes, and maide ſeruāts, and men ſeruants, and camels and aſſes.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Labans children murmure againſt Iaakób. 3 God commandeth him to returne to his countrey. 14 The care of God for Iaakób. 19 Rahél ſtealeth her fathers idoles. 25 Laban followeth Iaakób. 44 The couenant betwene Laban and Iaakób.

1 NOw he heard the a wordes of Labās ſonnes, ſaying, Iaakób hathe takē away all that was our fathers, and of out fathers goods hathe he gotte all this honour.

a The childrē vttered in wordes that ŷ the father diſſembled in heart. for ŷ couetous think ŷ whatſoeuer thei cā not ſnatche is pluck frō thē

2 Alſo Iaakób behelde the countenance of Labán, "that it was not towards him as in times paſt.

"Ebr and lo, that he with him, as yeſterday & yeſterday.

3 And the Lord had ſaid vnto Iaakób, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinred, and I wil be with thee.

4 Therefore Iaakób ſent and called Rahél and Leáh to the field vnto his flocke.

5 Thē ſaid he vnto them, I ſe your fathers countenance, that it is not toward me as it was wonte, and the b God of my father hathe bene with me.

b The God whome my father worſhipped.

6 And ye knowe that I haue ſerued your father with all my might.

7 But your father hathe deceiued me, and changed my wages * ten times: but God ſuffred him not to hurt me.

*Or, many times

8 If he thus ſaid, The ſpotted ſhalbe thy wages, thē all the ſhepe bare ſpotted: & if he ſaid thus, The partie coloured ſhal be thy reward, thē bare all ŷ ſhepe particoloured.

9 Thus hathe c God taken awaie your fathers ſubſtance, and giuen it me.
10 ¶For in rauming time I lifted vp mine eies and ſawe in a dreame, and beholde, the he goates leaped vpō the ſhe goates, that were partie coloured with litle and great ſpottes ſpotted.
11 And the Angel of God ſaid to me in a dreame, Iaakób. And I anſwered, Lo, I am here.
12 And he ſaid, lift vp now thine eies, and ſe all the he goates leaping vpon the ſhe goates that are partie coloured, ſpotted with litle & great ſpottes: for I haue ſene all that Labán doeth vnto thee.
13 d I am the God of Beth-él, where thou * anointedſt ỹ piller, where thou vowedſt a vowe vnto me. Now ariſe, get thee out of this countrei & returne vnto the land where thou waſt borne.
14 Then anſwered Rahél and Leáh, and ſaid vnto him, Haue we anie more porcion and enheritance in our fathers houſe?
15 Doeth not he count vs as ſtrangers? for he hathe e ſolde vs, and hathe eaten vp & conſumed our monie.
16 Therefore all ỹ riches, which God hathe taken from our father, is ours and our childrēs: now then whatſoeuer God hathe ſaid vnto thee do it.
17 ¶Thē Iaakób roſe vp, and ſet his ſonnes and his wiues vpon camels.
18 And he caried awaie all his flockes, and all his ſubſtance which he had gotten, to wit, his riches, which he had gotten in Padán Arám, for to go to Izhak his father vnto the land of Canáan.
19 When Labán was gone to ſhere his ſhepe, then Rahél ſtale heŕ fathers f idoles.
20 Thus Iaakób "ſtale awaie the heart of Labán the Aramite: for he tolde him not that he fled.
21 So fled he with all that he had, & he roſe vp, and paſſed the "riuer, and ſet his face toward mount Gileád.
22 The third day after was it tolde Labán, that Iaakób fled.
23 Then he toke his brethren with him, & followed after him ſeuen dayes iourney, and "ouertoke him at mount Gileád.
24 And God came to Labán the Aramite in a dreame by night, and ſaid vnto him, Take hede that thou ſpeake not to Iaakób "ought ſaue good.
25 ¶Then Labán ouertoke Iaakób, & Iaakób had pitched his tent in the mount: & Labán alſo with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gileád.
26 Then Labán ſaid to Iaakób, What haſt thou done? "thou haſt euen ſtollen away mine heart & caried away my daughters as thogh they had bene taken captiues ẅ the ſworde.
27 Wherefore diddeſt thou flee ſo ſecretly & ſteale away from me, & diddeſt not tel me, that I might haue ſent thee forthe with mirth & with ſongs, with timbrel & with harpe?
28 But thou haſt not ſuffered me to kiſſe my ſonnes and my daughters: now thou haſt done fooliſhly in doing ſo.
29 I am "able to do you euil: but the g God of your father ſpake vnto me yeſter night, ſaying, Take hede that thou ſpeake not to Iaakób ought ſaue good.
30 Now thogh thou wenteſt thy way, becauſe thou greatly longedſt after thy fathers houſe: yet wherefore haſt thou ſtollē my gods?
31 Thē Iaakób anſwered, & ſaid to Labán, Becauſe I was afraid, & thoght that thou woldeſt haue taken thy daughters from me.
32 But with whome thou findeſt thy gods, "let him not liue. Serche thou before our brethren what I haue of thine, and take it to thee (but Iaakób wiſt not that Rahél had ſtollen them)
33 Then came Labán into Iaakobs tent, & into Leahs tent, and into the two maides tentes, but founde them not. ſo he wēt out of Leahs tent, & entred into Rahels tent.
34 (Now Ranel had takē the idoles & put them in the camels litter & ſate downe vpon them) & Labán ſerched all the tent; but founde them not.
35 Then ſaid ſhe to her father, "My lord, be not angry that I can not riſe vp before thee: for the cuſtome of womē is vpon me: ſo he ſerched, but found not the idoles.
36 ¶Thē Iaakob was wroth, & chode with Labán: Iaakób alſo anſwered and ſaid to Labán, What haue I treſpaced? what haue I offended, that thou haſt purſued after me?
37 Seing thou haſt ſerched all my ſtuffe, what haſt ỹ founde of all thine houſholde ſtuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betwene vs bothe.
38 This twēty yere I haue bene with thee: thine ewes and thy goates haue not "caſt their yong, & the rams of thy flocke haue I not eaten.
39 "What ſoeuer was torne of beaſtes, I broght it not vnto thee, but made it good my ſelfe: *of mine hāde diddeſt thou require it, were it ſtollen by day or ſtollen by night.
40 I was in the day conſumed with heat, and with froſt in the night, and my "ſlepe departed from mine eies.
41 Thus haue I bene twenty yere in thine houſe, and ſerued thee fourtēth yeres for thy two daughters, and ſix yeres for thy ſhepe, and thou haſt changed my wages ten times.

42 Except

c This declareth that the thing, which Iaakób did before, was by Gods cōmandement, & not through deceite.
e Or, caſtel
d This Angel was Chriſt ẅ appeared to Iaakób in Bethel: & hereby appeareth he had taught his wiues ỹ feare of God: for he talketh as thogh they knewe this thing. Chap 28.18.
e For they were giuen to Iaakób in recompence of his ſeruice: ẅ was a kinde of ſale.
f For ſo the worde here ſignifieth, becauſe Labán calleth thē gods, vers 30.
"Or, ſtale away
"Or, went away priuely from Laban
"Or, Euphrates.
"Or, kinſfolkes & friends.
"Or, ioyned with him.
"Ebr. from good to euil.
"Or, conueighed thy ſelfe away ſecretly.
"Ebr. power is in mine hand.
g He was an idolater, and therfore wold not acknollage the God of Iaakób for his God "Or, let him dye.
"Or, Araue, or ſaddle.
"Ebr. let the anger be in the eyes of my Lord.
"Ebr. the tornes or caſt by pray. Exod.22.12.
"or, I ſlept not.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abrahám, & the [h] feare of Izhák had bene with me, ſurely thou haddeſt ſent me away now empty: but God behelde my tribulacion, & the labour of mine handes, & rebuked thee yeſter night.

h That is, the God whome Izhák did feare & reuerence

43 Then Labán anſwered, & ſaid vnto Iaakób, Theſe daughters are my daughters, and theſe ſonnes are my ſonnes, and theſe ſhepe are my ſhepe, and all that thou ſeeſt, is mine, and what can I do this day vnto theſe my daughters, or to their ſonnes which they haue borne?

i His conſcience reproued him of his miſbehauiour toward Iaakób and therefore moued him to ſeke peace

44 Now therefore [i] come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witnes betwene me and thee.

45 Then toke Iaakób a ſtone, and ſet it vp as a piller:

46 And Iaakób ſaid vnto his brethren, Gather ſtones: who broght ſtones, and made an heape, and they did eat there vpon the heape.

*Or, The heape of witnes

47 And Labán called it [*] Iegár-ſahaduthá, and Iaakób called it [k] Galeéd.

k The one nameth the place in the Syrian tongue, & the other in the Ebrewe tongue 48 For Labán ſaid, This heape is witnes betwene me & thee this day: therefore he called the name of it Galeéd. Alſo he called it

*Or, watch tower

49 [*] Mizpáh, becauſe he ſaid, The Lord [l] loke betwene me & thee, when we ſhalbe departed one from another,

l To puniſhe the treſpacer

50 If [ỹ] ſhalt uexe my daugthers, or ſhalt take [m] wiues beſide my daughters: there is no man with vs, beholde, God is witnes betwene me and thee.

m Nature cõpelleth him to codemne that vice, wherunto through couetouſnes he forced Iaakób.

51 Moreouer Labán ſaid to Iaakób, Beholde this heape, & beholde, the piller, which I haue ſet betwene me and thee, 52 This heape ſhalbe witnes, and the piller ſhalbe witnes, [ỹ] I wil not come ouer this heape to thee, and that [ỹ] ſhalt not paſſe ouer this heape & this piller vnto me for euil.

n Beholde, how the idolaters mingle the true God with their fayned gods?

53 The God of Abrahám, & the God of [n] Nahór, & [ỹ] God of their father be iudge betwene vs: but Iaakób ſware by the [o] feare of his father Izhák.

o Meaning, by the true God whome Izhák worſhipped.

54 Then Iaakób did offre a ſacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eat [*] bread. and they did eat bread, & taried all night in the mount.

*Or, meat.

55 And early in the morning Labán roſe vp and kiſſed his ſonnes & his daughters, & [p] bleſſed them, and Labán departing, went vnto his place againe.

p We ſe that there is euer ſome ſede of [ỹ] kuollage of God in [ỹ] hearttes of the wicked.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 God cõforteth Iaakób by his Angels. 9. 10 He praieth vnto God confeſſing his Unworthines. 13 He ſendeth preſentes vnto Eſau. 24 28 He wreſtled with the Angel who nameth him Iſraél.

1 [a] NOw Iaakób wẽt forthe on his iourney & the Angels of God met him.

a He acknolleageth Gods benefits: who for the preſeruation of his ſeruãnts hath hoſtes of Angels.

2 And when Iaakób ſawe them, he ſaid, [a] This is Gods hoſt, & called the name of the ſame place [*] Mahanáim.

*Or, Tentes

3 Then Iaakób ſent meſſengers before him to Eſáu his brother, vnto the land of Seír into the countrey of Edóm:

4 To whome he gaue commandemẽt, ſaying, Thus ſhal ye ſpeake to my [b] lord Eſáu: Thy ſeruant Iaakób ſaith thus, I haue bene a ſtranger with Labán & taried vnto this time.

b He reuerenced his brother in worldly things, becauſe he chiefely loked to be preferred to [ỹ] ſpirituall promes.

5 I haue beues alſo & aſſes, ſhepe, & men ſeruantes, and women ſeruantes, and haue ſent to ſhewe my lord, that I may finde grace in thy ſight.

6 ¶So the meſſengers came againe to Iaakób, ſaying, We came vnto thy brother Eſáu, and he alſo commeth againſt thee and foure hundreth men with him.

c Albeit he was cõforted by the Angels, yet the infirmitie of [ỹ] fleſhe doeth appeare.

7 Then Iaakób was [c] greatly afraid, and was ſore troubled, & deuided the people that was with him, and the ſhepe, and the beues, and the camels into two cõpanies.

8 For he ſaid, if Eſáu come to the one companie and ſmite it, the other companie ſhal eſcape.

¶Moreouer Iaakób ſaid, O God of my father Abrahám, and God of my father Izhák: Lord, which ſaideſt vnto me, Returne vnto thy countrei & to thy kinred, and I wil do thee good,

10 I am not [*] worthie of the leaſt of all the mercies & all the trueth, which thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruant: For [w] my [d] ſtaffe came I ouer this Iordén, and now haue I gotten two bandes.

*Ebr I am leſſe then all thy mercies.

d That is, poore, & without all prouiſion.

11 I pray thee, Deliuer me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Eſáu: for I feare him, leſt he wil come and ſmite me, & the [e] mother vpon the children.

e Meaning, he wil put all to death: this prouerbe commeth of them which kille the birde toge ther with her yong ones

12 For [ỹ] ſaideſt, I wil ſurely do thee good, and make thy ſede as the ſand of the ſea, which can not be nõbred for multitude.

13 ¶And he taried there the ſame night, & toke of that which came to hand, a [f] preſente for Eſáu his brother:

f Not diſtruſting Gods aſſiſtance, but vſing ſuch meanes as God had giuẽ him.

14 Two hũdreth ſhe goates and twenty he goates, two hundreth ewes and twentie rammes:

15 Thirty milche camels with their colues, fourtie kine, & ten bullockes, twẽtie ſhe aſſes and ten foles.

16 So he deliuered them into the hand of his ſeruãtes, euerie droue by them ſelues, & ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Paſſe before me, and put a ſpace betwene droue & droue.

17 And he commanded the formeſt, ſaying, If Eſáu my brother mete thee, and aſke thee, ſaying, Whoſe ſeruant art thou? & whither goeſt thou? and whoſe are theſe before thee?

18 Then thou ſhalt ſay, they be thy ſeruant Iaakobs: it is a preſent ſent vnto my lord Eſáu: and beholde, he him ſelfe alſo is behinde vs.

19 So likewiſe commanded he the ſeconde & the third, & all that followed the droues, ſaying, After this maner, ye ſhal ſpeake vnto Eſáu, when ye finde him.
20 And ye ſhal ſay moreouer, Beholde, thy ſeruant Iaakób commeth after vs (for he thoght, I g wil appeaſe his wrath with the preſent that goeth before me, and afterward I wil ſe his face: it may be that he wil "accept me)
21 So went the preſent before him: but he taried that night with the companie.
22 And he roſe vp the ſame night, and toke his two wiues, and his two maides, and his eleuē children, & went ouer the forde Iabbók.
23 And he toke them, & ſent them ouer the riuer, & ſent ouer that he had.
24 ¶ Whē Iaakób was left him ſelfe alone, there wreſtled a h man with him vnto the breaking of the day.
25 And he ſawe that he colde not i preuaile againſt him: therefore he touched ŷ holow of his thigh, & the holow of Iaakobs thigh was loſed, as he wreſtled with him.
26 And he ſaid, Let me go, for ŷ morning appeareth. Who anſwered, *I wil not let thee go except thou bleſſe me.
27 Then ſaid he vnto him, What is thy name? And he ſaid, Iaakób.
28 Then ſaid he, *Thy name ſhal be called Iaakób no more, but Iſraél: becauſe thou haſt had k power with God, thou ſhalt alſo preuaile with men.
29 Then Iaakób demāded, ſaying, Tel me, I pray thee, thy name. And he ſaid, Wherefore now doeſt thou aſke my name? And he bleſſed him there.
30 And Iaakób called the name of the place, Peniél: for, ſaid he, I haue ſene God face to face, and my "life is preſerued.
31 And the ſunne roſe to him as he paſſed Peniél, and he l halted vpon his thigh.
32 Therefore the children of Iſraél eat not of the ſinew that ſhranke in the holow of the thigh, vnto this day: becauſe he touched the ſinew that ſhranke in the holow of Iaakobs thigh.

g He thoght it no loſſe to departe ŷ theſe goods, to the intēt he might follow the vocatiō whereūto God called him
"Ebr receiue my face.
h That is, God in forme of man i For God aſſaileth his ŵ the one hand, & vpholdeth them with the other Oz ſ. 12, 4.
Chap. 35. 10.
k God gaue Iaakób both e power to ouercome & alſo ŷ praiſe of the victorie.
"Or, ſoule.
l The faithful ſo ouercome their tētatiōs, that thei fele the ſmart thereof, to the intēt that thei ſhulde not glorie, but i their humilitie

CHAP. XXXIII.

4. Eſáu and Iaakób mete and are agreed. 11. Eſáu receiueth his gifts. 19 Iaakob byeth a poſſeſſion, 20. And buyldeth an altar.

1 AND as Iaakób lift vp his eies, and loked, beholde, Eſáu came, and with him foure hundreth men: and he a deuided the children to Leáh, and to Rahél, and to the two maides.
2 And he put the maides, & their children formoſt, and Leáh and her children after, and Rahél, and Ioſeph hindermoſt.
3 So he went before thē and b bowed him ſelfe to the grounde ſeuen times, vntil he came nere to his brother.
4 Then Eſáu ran to mete him and embraced him, and fel on his necke and kiſſed him, and thei wept.
5 And he lift vp his eies, and ſawe the women, and the children, and ſaid, Who are theſe with thee? And he anſwered, Thei are ŷ childrē whome God of his grace hathe giuen thy ſeruant.
6 Then came ŷ maides nere, thei, and their children, and c bowed them ſelues.
7 Leáh alſo with her children came nere and made obeiſance. and after Ioſeph & Rahél drewe nere and did reuerence.
8 Then he ſaid, What meaneſt thou by all this droue, which I met? Who anſwered, I haue ſent it, that I maie finde fauour in ŷ ſight of my lord.
9 And Eſáu ſaid, I haue ynough, my brother: kepe that thou haſt to thy ſelfe.
10 But Iaakób anſwered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue founde grace now in thy ſight, then receiue my preſent at mine hand: for d I haue ſene thy face, as thogh I had ſene the face of God, becauſe thou haſt accepted me.
11 I praie thee take my "bleſsing, that is broght thee: for God hathe had mercie on me, & therefore I haue all things: ſo he e compelled him, and he toke it.
12 And he ſaid, Let vs take our iourney & go, and I wil go before thee.
13 Then he anſwered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tendre, and the ewes & kine with yong vnder mine hād: & if thei ſhulde ouerdriue them one day, all the flocke wolde dye.
14 Let now my lord go before his ſeruāt, and I wil driue ſoftly, according to the paſſe of the cattel, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, vntil f I come to my lord vnto Seír.
15 Then Eſáu ſaid, I wil leaue thē ſome of my folke with thee. And he anſwered, What nedeth this? let me finde grace in the ſight of my lord.
16 ¶ So Eſáu returned, and went his way that ſame day vnto Seír.
17 And Iaakób went forwarde towarde Succóth, & buylt him an houſe, and made boothes for his cattel: therefore he called the name of the place "Succóth.
18 ¶ After warde, Iaakób came ſafe to Shechém a citie, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from "Padan Arám, and pitched before the citie.
19 And there he bought a parcel of groūde, where he pitched his tent, at the hand of the ſonnes of Hamór Shechems father, for an hundreth "pieces of money.
20 And he ſet vp there an altar, and called g it, The mightie God of Iſraél.

a That if the one part were aſſailed, the other might eſcape b By this geſture he partly did reuerence to his brother, & partely prayed to God to mitigate Eſaus wrath.
c Iaakób and his familie are the image of ŷ Church vnder the yoke of tyrants, ŵ for feare are brought to ſubiection.
d In that that his brother imbraced him ſo louingly, cōtrary to his expectation, he accepted it as a plaine ſigne of Goos preſence "Or, gift.
e By earneſt intreatie.
f He promiſed that ŵ (as ſeemeth) his minde was not to performe.
"Or, ſtate.
"Or, Meſopotamia.
"Or, lambes, or money ſo marked
g He calleth the ſigne the thing, which it ſignifieth, in token ŷ God had mightely deliuered him.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 Dináh is rauiſhed. 3 Hamór aſketh her in mariage for for his ſonne. 22 The Shechemites are circumciſed at the requeſt of Iaakobs ſonnes, and the perſuaſion of Hamór. 25 The whoredome is reuenged. 28 Iaakób reproueth his ſonnes.

1 THen Dináh the daughter of Leáh, which ſhe bare vnto Iaakób, [a] wẽt out to ſe the daughters of that countrey.

a This example teacheth that it to muche libertie is not to be giuen to youthe

2 Whome when Shechém the ſonne of Hamór the Hiuite lord of that coũtrie ſawe, he toke her, and lay w̃ her, & [*] defiled her.

* Ebr. humbled her

3 So his heart claue vnto Dináh ỹ daughter of Iaakób: and he loued the maide, & [*] ſpake kindely vnto the maide.

* Ebr. ſpake to the heart of the maide

4 Thẽ ſaid Shechém to his father Hamór, ſaying, [b] Get me this maide to wife.

b This proueth that the conſent of parẽts is requiſite in mariage, ſeing the very infideles did alſo obſerue it as a thing neceſſarie

5 (Now Iaakób heard that he had defiled Dináh his daughter, and his ſonnes were with his cattel in ỹ field: therefore Iaakób helde his peace, vntil they were come)

6 ¶ Then Hamór the father of Shechém went out vnto Iaakób to commune with him.

7 And when the ſonnes of Iaakób were come out of the field and heard it, it grieued the men, & they were very angrie, becauſe he had wroght [] vilennie in Iſraél, in that he had liẽ with Iaakobs daughter: [] which thing oght not to be done.

* Or, folie.

* Ebr. and it ſhal not be ſo do he 8 And Hamór cómuned with them, ſaying, The ſoule of my ſonne Shechém longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make [*] affinitie w̃ vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you,

* Or, mariages.

10 And ye ſhal dwel with vs, and the land ſhal be before you: dwel, and do your buſines in it, and haue your poſſeſsions therein.

11 Shechém alſo ſaid vnto her father and vnto her brethren, [*] Let me finde fauour in your eies, and I wil giue whatſoeuer ye ſhal appoint me.

* Or, grant my requeſt.

12 [*] Aſke of me abundantly bothe dowrie and giftes, & I wil giue as ye appoint me, ſo that ye giue me the maide to wife.

* Ebr. multiply greatly the dowry.

13 Thẽ the ſonnes of Iaakób anſwered Shechém and Hamór his father, talking among them ſelues deceitfully, becauſe he had defiled Dináh their ſiſter, 14 And they ſaid vnto them, [c] We can not do this thing, to giue our ſiſter to an vncircumciſed man: for that were a [d] reproſe vnto vs.

c They made the holy ordinance of God a meane to cõpaſſe their wicked purpoſe.

d As it is abomination for them that are baptized to ioine with infidels.

15 But in this wil we conſent vnto you, if ye wil be as we are, that euerie mã childe among you be [e] circumciſed:

e Their faute is the greater, in that they make religion a cloke for their craft.

16 Then wil we giue our daughters to you, and we wil take your daughters to vs, and wil dwel with you, and be one people.

17 But if ye wil not hearken vnto vs to be circumciſed, then wil we take our daughter & departe.

18 Now their wordes pleaſed Hamór, and Shechém Hamors ſonne.

19 And the yong man deferde not to do the thig becauſe he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was alſo the moſte ſet by of all his fathers houſe.

20 ¶ Then Hamór and Shechém his ſonne went vnto the [f] gate of their citie, & communed with the men of their citie, ſaying, f For the people vſed to aſſemble there, and iuſtice was alſo miniſtred 21 Theſe men are [g] peaceable with vs: & ỹ they may dwel in the land, and do their affaires therein (for beholde, the land hathe roume ynough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

g Thus many pretẽd to ſpeake for a publike profit, whẽ they only ſpeake for their owne priuate gaine and commoditie.

22 Onely herein wil ỹ men conſent vnto vs for to dwel with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circũciſed as they are circumciſed.

23 Shal not [h] their flockes and their ſubſtãce and all their cattel be ours? onely let vs conſent herein vnto thẽ, and they wil dwel with vs.

h Thus they lacke no kinde of perſuaſion, which preferre their owne cõmodities before the common welth.

24 And vnto Hamór, & Shechém his ſonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumciſed, euen all that went out of the gate of his citie.

25 And on the third day (when they were ſore) two of the ſonnes of Iaakób, [i] Siméon and Leuí, Dináhs brethren toke either of them his ſworde & went into the citie boldely, and [*] ſlewe [k] euerie male.

i For they were the chief of the cõpanie.

Chap. 49, 6.

k The people are puniſhed with their wicked princes.

* Ebr. mouthe of the ſworde.

26 They ſlewe alſo Hamór and Shechém his ſonne with the [*] edge of the ſworde, & toke Dináh out of Shechems houſe, and went their way.

27 Againe the other ſonnes of Iaakób came vpon the dead, and ſpoiled the citie, becauſe they had defiled their ſiſter.

28 They toke their ſhepe, and their beues, and their aſſes, and whatſoeuer was in the citie, and in the fields.

29 Alſo they caried away captiue and ſpoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wiues, and all that was in the houſes.

30 Then Iaakób ſaid to Simeón and Leuí, Ye haue troubled me, & made me [*] ſtinke among the inhabitants of the land, aſwel the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being fewe in nombre, they ſhal gather them ſelues together againſt me, and ſlay me, and ſo ſhal I, and my houſe be deſtroied.

* Or, to be abhorred.

31 And they anſwered, Shulde he abuſe our ſiſter as a whore?

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Iaakób at Gods commãdement goeth vp to Beth-el. 2 He reformeth his houſholde. 8 Deboráh dyeth. 12 The land of Canaan is promiſed him. 18 Rahél dyeth in labour. 22 Reubén lieth with his fathers cõcubine. 30 The death of Iizhák.

35 1 THen a God ſaid to Iaakób, Ariſe, go vp to Beth-él & dwel there, & make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vn to thee,* whē thou fleddeſt from Eſáu thy brother.

a God is euer at hand to ſue cour his in their troubles.

Chap.28,13.

2 Then ſaid Iaakób vnto his houſholde & to all that were with him, Put away the ſtrāge gods that are among you, & b clenſe your ſelues, and change your garments:

b That by this outwarde act they ſhuld ſhewe their inwarde repentance.

3 For we wil riſe and go vp to Beth-él, and I wil make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulacion, & was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iaakób all the ſtrange gods, which were in their hands, and all their c earings which were in their eares, and Iaakób hid them vnder an oke, which was by Shechém.

c For therein was ſome ſigne of ſuperſtition as in tablets & Agnus dets.

5 Then they went on their iourney, and the d feare of God was vpon the cities, that were round about them: ſo that thei did not followe after the ſonnes of Iaakób.

d Thus, notwithſtanding ỹ inconuenience ỹ came before, God deliuered Iaakób.

6 ¶So came Iaakób to Luz, which is in the land of Canáan: (the ſame is Beth-él) he and all the people that was with him.

Chap. 28,19.

7 And he buylt there an altar, & * had called the place, The God of Beth-él, becauſe that God appeared vnto him there, whē he fled from his brother.

8 Then Deboráh Rebekahs nourſe dyed, and was buryed beneth Beth-él vnder an oke: and he called the name of it e Allón bachúth.

e Or, oke of lamentation.

9 ¶Againe God appeared vnto Iaakób, after he came out of Padán Arám, and bleſſed him.

10 Moreouer God ſaid vnto him, Thy name is Iaakób: thy name ſhal be no more called Iaakób, but * Iſrael ſhalbe thy name: and he called his name Iſraél.

Chap. 32,28.

11 Againe God ſaid vnto him, I am God f all ſufficiēt. growe, & multiplie: a nation & a multitude of natiōs ſhal ſprīg of thee, and Kings ſhal come out of thy loynes.

f Or, almighty.

12 Alſo I wil giue ỹ land, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhák, vnto thee: & vnto thy ſede after thee wil I giue that land.

13 So God g aſcended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

g As God is ſaid to deſcend, when he ſheweth ſome ſigne of his preſence: ſoone is ſaid to aſcēde, when ỹ viſion is ended.

14 And Iaakób ſet vp a piller in the place where he talked with him, a piller of ſtone, and powred drinke offring thereon: alſo he powred oyle thereon.

15 And Iaakób called the name of the place, where God ſpake with him, Beth-él.

16 ¶Then they departed from Beth-él, & whē there was f about halfe a daies iourney of grounde to come to Ephráth, Rahél trauailed, and in trauailing ſhe was in peril.

f The Ebrewe worde ſignifieth as muche grounde as one may go frō bayte to bayte, & is take for halfe a days iourney.

17 And when ſhe was in peines of her labour, the midwife ſaid vnto her, Feare not: for thou ſhalt haue this ſonne alſo.

18 Then as ſhe was about to yelde vp the goſte (for ſhe dyed) ſhe called his name Ben-oní, but his father called him Beniamín.

19 Thus dyed Rahél, & was buryed in the way to Ephráth, which is Beth-léhem.

20 And Iaakób ſet a g piller vpon her graue: This is the piller of Rahels graue vnto this day.

g The auncient fathers vſed this ceremonie to teſtifie their hope of the reſurrection to come, which was not generally reuciled.

21 ¶Thē Iſraél went forwarde, & pitched his tent beyonde Migdal-éder.

22 Now, when Iſraél dwelt in that land, Reubén went, and h laye * with Bilháh his fathers concubine, and it came to Iſraels eare. And Iaakób had twelue ſonnes.

h This teacheth that the fathers were not choſen for their merites, but by Gods onely mercies, whoſe electiō by their fautes was not chaūged

Chap.48,7.

23 The ſonnes of Leáh: Reubén Iaakobs eldeſt ſonne, and Simeón, & Leuí, & Iudáh, & Iſſachár, & Zebulún.

24 The ſonnes of Rahél: Ioſéph and Beniamín.

25 And ỹ ſonnes of Bilháh Rahels maide: Dan and Naphtalí.

26 And the ſonnes of Zilpáh Leahs maide: Gad and Aſhér. theſe are the ſonnes of Iaakób, which were borne him in Padán Arám.

27 ¶Then Iaakób camē vnto Izhák his father to Mamré a citie of Arbáh: this is Hebrón, where Abrahám and Izhák were ſtrangers.

28 And the dayes of Izhák were an hundreth and foure ſcore yeres.

29 And Izhák gaue vp the goſte and dyed, and was * gathered vnto his people, being olde and ful of daies: & his ſonnes Eſáu and Iaakób buryed him.

Chap.25,8.

CHAP. XXXVI.

2 The wiues of Eſáu. 7 Iaakób and Eſáu are riche. 9 The genealogie of Eſau. 24 The finding of mules.

1 NOw theſe are the a generations of Eſáu, which is Edóm.

a This genealogie declareth that Eſáu was bleſſed temporally, & that his fathers bleſſing toke place in worldlie things.

2 Eſáu toke his wiues of the b daughters of Canáan: Adáh the daughter of Elón an Hittite, and Aholibamáh the daughter of Anáh, the daughter of Zibeón an Hiuite, b Beſides thoſe wiues wher of is ſpoken, chap 26,34. 1.Chro.1,35.

3 And toke Baſemáth Iſhmaels daughter, ſiſter of Nebaióth.

4 And * Adáh bare vnto Eſáu, Elipház: & Baſemáth bare Reuél.

5 Alſo Aholibamáh bare Ieúſh, & Iaalám, and Kórah: theſe are the ſonnes of Eſáu which were borne to him in the land of Canáan.

6 So Eſáu toke his wiues and his ſonnes, & his daughters, & all the ſoules of his houſe, and his flockes, and all his cattel, and all his ſubſtance, which he had gotten in the land of Canáan, & c went into an other countrei from his brother Iaakób.

c Herein appeareth Gods prouidence, which cauſeth the wicked to giue place to the godlie ỹ Iaakób might enioye Canáā according to Gods promes.

7 For their riches were ſo great that they colde not dwel together, & the land, wherein they were ſtrangers, colde not receiue them becauſe of their flockes.

8 There-

Ioſh.24.4.

8 *Therefore dwelt Eſáu in moût Seír: this Eſáu is Edóm.

9 ¶So theſe are the generaciõs of Eſáu father of *Edóm in mount Seír.

*Or, the Edomites

10 Theſe are the names of Eſaus ſonnes: *Elipház, the ſonne of Adáh, the wife of Eſáu, & Reuél the ſonne of Baſhemáth, the wife of Eſáu.

1.Chro 1.35.

11 And the ſonnes of Elipház were Temán, Omár, Zephó, and Gatám, and Kenáz.

12 And Timná was concubine to Elipház Eſaus ſonne, & bare vnto Elipház, Amalék: theſe be the ſonnes of Adáh Eſaus wife.

13 ¶And theſe are ỹ *ſonnes of Reuél: Náhath, and Zérah, Shammáh, and Mizzáh: theſe were the ſonnes of Baſhemáth Eſaus wife.

*Or, nephewes.

14 ¶And theſe were ỹ ſonnes of Aholibamáh the daughter of Anáh, *daughter of Zibeón Eſaus wife: for ſhe bare vnto Eſáu, Ieúſh, and Iaalám, and Kóràh.

*Or, nece.

15 ¶Theſe were *d Dukes of the ſonnes of Eſáu: the ſonnes of Elipház, the firſt borne of Eſáu: duke Temán, duke Omár, duke Zephó, duke Kenáz,

*Or, chief men

d It Gods promes be ſo ſure towardes thẽ, which are not of his houſhold, how muche more wil he performe the ſame to vs 16 Duke Kórah, duke Gatám, duke Amalék: theſe are ỹ dukes that came of Elipház in the land of Edóm: theſe were the *ſonnes of Adáh.

*Or, nephewes.

17 ¶And theſe are the ſonnes of Reuél Eſaus ſonne: duke Náhath, duke Zérah, duke Shammáh, duke Mizzáh: theſe are the dukes that came of Reuél in the land of Edóm: theſe are the *ſonnes of Baſhemáth Eſaus wife.

*Or, nephewes.

18 ¶Likewiſe theſe were the ſonnes of Aholibamáh Eſaus wife: Duke Ieúſh, duke Iaalám, duke Kórah: theſe dukes came of Aholibamáh, the daughter of Anáh Eſaus wife.

19 Theſe are the children of Eſáu, & theſe are the dukes of thẽ: This Eſáu is Edóm.

1 Chro.1.38.

20 ¶*Theſe are the ſonnes of Seír the Horite, which e inhabited the land before, Lotán, and Shobál, and Zibeón, and Anáh.

e Before that Eſáu did there inhabit.

21 And Diſhón, and Ezer, and Diſhán: theſe are the dukes of the Horites, the ſonnes of Seír in the land of Edóm.

22 And the ſonnes of Lotan were, Horí & Hemám, and Lotans ſiſter was Timná.

23 And the ſonnes of Shobál were theſe: Aluán, and Manáhath, and Ebál, Shephó, And Onám.

24 And theſe are the ſonnes of Zibeón: bothe Aiáh, & Anáh: this was Anáh that founde f mules in the wildernes, as he fed his father Zibeons aſſes.

f Who not cõtented with thoſe kides of beaſtes, which God had created, found out the mõſtruous generacion of mules betwene the aſſe and the mare.

25 And the children of Anáh were theſe: Diſhón & Aholibamáh, the daughter of Anáh.

26 Alſo theſe are the ſonnes of Diſhán: Hemdán, & Eſhbán, & Ithrán, & Cherán.

27 The ſonnes of Ezer are theſe: Bilhán, & Zaauán, and Akán.

28 The ſonnes of Diſhán are theſe: Vz, and Arán.

29 Theſe are the dukes of the Horites: duke Lotán, duke Shobál, duke Zibeón, duke Anáh, 30 Duke Diſhón, duke Ezer, duke Diſhán: theſe be the dukes of the Horites, after their dukedomes in the land of Seír.

31 ¶And theſe are ỹ g Kings that reigned in the lãd of Edóm, before there reigned any King ouer the children of Iſraél.

g The wicked riſe vp ſodẽly to honour, and periſh as quickely, but the inheritance of the childrẽ of God cõtinueth euer pſal 101. 28.

32 Thẽ Béla the ſonne of Beór reigned in Edóm, and the name of his citie was Dinhábah.

33 And when Béla dyed, Iobáb the ſonne of Zérah of Bozrá reigned in his ſtede.

34 When Iobáb alſo was dead, Huſhám of the lãd of Temaní reigned in his ſtede.

35 And after the death of Huſhám, Hadád the ſonne of Bedád, which ſlewe Midián in the field of Moáb, reigned in his ſtede, and the name of his citie was Auíth.

36 When Hadád was dead, then Samláh of Maſrekáh reigned in his ſtede.

37 When Samláh was dead, Shaúl of h Rehobóth by the riuer, reigned in his ſtede.

h Which citie is by the riuer Euphrátes

38 When Shaúl dyed, Baal-hanán the ſonne of Achbór reigned in his ſtede.

39 And after the death of Baal-hanán the ſonne of Achbór, Hadád reigned in his ſtede, and the name of his citie was Páu: & his wiues name Mehetabél the daughter of Matréd, the *daughter of Mezahab.

*Or, nece

40 Then theſe are the names of the dukes of Eſáu according to their families, their places and by their names: duke Timná, duke Aluáh, duke Iethéth,

41 Duke Aholibamáh, duke Eláh, duke Pinón,

42 Duke Kenáz, duke Temán, duke Mibzár,

43 Duke Magdiél, duke Irám: theſe be the dukes of Edóm, according to their habitacions, in the land of their inheritance. This Eſáu is the father of i Edóm.

i Of Edóm came the Idumeans.

CHAP. XXXVII.

2 Ioſeph accuſeth his brethren. 5 He dreameth and is hated of his brethren. 28 They ſel him to the Iſhmaelites. 34 Iaakób bewaileth Ioſeph.

1 IAakób now dwelt in the land, wherein his father was a ſtranger, in the lãd of Canáan.

2 Theſe are the a generacions of Iaakób, when Ioſéph was ſeuenteenth yere olde: he kept ſhepe with his brethrẽ, & the childe was with the ſonnes of Bilháh, and with the ſonnes of Zilpáh, his fathers wiues. And Ioſéph broght vnto their father their euil *b ſaying.

a That is, the ſtorie of ſuche thigs as came to him and his familie, as chap 5.2

*Or, ſlander.

b He cõplained of the euil wordes & iniuries, which their ſpake & did againſt hẽ.

3 Now Iſraél loued Ioſéph more then all his ſonnes, becauſe he begate him in his olde age, and he made him a coate of ma-

*Or, pieces. ny *colours.
4 So when his brethren ſawe that their father loued him more then all his brethrē, then thei hated him, and colde not ſpeake peaceably vnto him.
c God reueiled to him by a dreame, what ſhulde come to paſſe. 5 ¶ And Ioſéph c dreamed a dreame, and tolde his brethren, who hated him ſo muche the more.
6 For he ſaid vnto thē, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed.
7 Beholde now, we were binding ſheues in ỹ middes of the field: & lo, my ſhefe aroſe and alſo ſtode vpright, & beholde, your ſheues compaſſed rounde about, and did reuerence to my ſhefe.
8 Then his brethren ſaid to him, What, ſhalt thou reigne ouer vs, and rule vs? or ſhalt thou haue altogether dominiō ouer d The more ỹ God ſheweth him ſelfe fauorable to his, ỹ more doeth the malice of ỹ wicked rage againſt them. vs? And thei d hated him ſo muche the more, for his dreames, & for his wordes.
9 ¶ Againe he dreamed an other dreame, & tolde it his brethren, & ſaid, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the ſunne and the moone and eleuen ſtar-res did reuerence to me.
10 Then he tolde it vnto his father & to his e Not deſpiſing the viſion, but ſeking to appeaſe his brethren brethren, and his father e rebuked him, & ſaid vnto him, What is this dreame, which thou haſt dreamed? ſhal I, & thy mother, and thy brethren come in dede and fall on the grounde before thee?
11 And his brethren enuied him, but his fa-
*Or, kept diligently ther *f noted the ſaying.
f He knewe that God was autor of the dreame, but he vnderſtodeneit the meaning 12 ¶ Then his brethren went to kepe their fathers ſhepe in Shechém.
13 And Iſraél ſaid vnto Ioſéph, Do not thy brethren kepe in Shechém? come & I wil ſend thee to them.
14 And he anſwered him, I am here. Then he ſaid vnto him, Go now, ſe whether it be wel with thy brethren, and how the floc-kes proſper, and bring me worde againe.
ſo he ſent him from the vale of Hebrón, and he came to Shechém.
15 ¶ Then a man founde him: for lo, he was wandring in the field, and the man aſked him, ſaying, What ſekeſt thou?
16 And he anſwered, I ſeke my brethren: tel me, I pray thee, where they kepe ſhepe.
17 And the man ſaid, Thei are departed hence: for I heard them ſay, Let vs go vnto Dothán. Then went Ioſéph after his brethren, and found them in Dothán.
18 And when thei ſaw him a far of, euen
g The holy Goſt couereth not mens faultes, as do vaine writers ỹ make vice vertue. before he came at them, thei g conſpired againſt him for to ſlaie him.
*Or, maker of dreames. 19 For thei ſaid one to an other, Beholde, this *dreamer commeth.
20 Cóme now therefore, & let vs ſlaie him, and caſt him into ſome pit, & we wil ſay,
A wicked beaſt hathe deuoured him: thē we ſhal ſe, what wil come of his dreames.
21 *But whē Reubén heard that, he deliue- *Chap. 42. 22.
red him out of their hands, & ſaid, "Let "Ebr let vs not ſmite hīs life.
vs not kil him.
22 Alſo Reubēn ſaid vnto them, Shed not blood, but caſt him into this pit that is in the wildernes, & lay no hand vpon him.
Thus he ſaid, that he might deliuer him out of their hand, and reſtore him to his father againe.
23 ¶ Now when Ioſéph was come vnto his brethrē, thei ſtript Ioſéph out of his coat, his particoloured coate ỹ was vpon him.
h Their hypocriſie appeareth in this ỹ thei feared mā more then God: & thoght it was not inurther, if thei ſhed not his blood: or els had an excuſe to couer their faute. 24 And thei toke him, & caſt h hī into a pit, & the pit was empty, without water in it.
25 Then thei ſat them downe to eat bread:
and thei lift vp their eies and loked, and beholde, there came a company of Iſhmeelites from Gileád, and their camels ladē with ſpicerie, and roſen, and myrrhe, and were going to carie it downe into Egypt.
26 Thē Iudáh ſaid vnto his brethrē, What auaileth it, if we ſlaie our brother thogh we kepe his blood ſecret?
27 Come and let vs ſel him to the Iſhmee-lites, and let not our hands be vpon him:
for he is our brother & our fleſh: and his brethren obeied.
28 Thē the * Midianites marchāt men paſ- *Wiſd. 10, 13. *pſal. 105, 17.
ſed by, and thei drewe forthe, and lift Io-ſéph out of the pit, and ſolde Ioſéph vnto the i Iſhmeelites for twentie pieces of ſiluer: who broght Ioſéph into Egypt.
i Moſes writing accordig to the opinion of thē, which toke the Midianites and Iſhmeelites to be bothe one, doeth here cō founde their names: as alſo appeareth verſ. 36 and chap. 39, 1 or els he was firſt offred to ỹ Midianites, but ſolde to the Iſhmeelites k So wit, the meſſengers ỹ were ſent. 29 ¶ Afterward Reubén returned to ỹ pit, and beholde, Ioſéph was not in the pit: thē
he rent his clothes, 30 And returned to his brethrē, & ſaid, The childe is not yōder, & I, whether ſhal I go?
31 And thei toke Ioſephs coate, and killed a kid of the goates, and depped the coate in the blood.
32 So thei ſent that particoloured coate, k and thei broght it vnto their father, & ſaid, This haue we foūde: ſe now, whether it be thy ſonnes coate, or no.
33 Then he knew it and ſaid, It is my ſon- *Chap. 44. 28.
nes coat: a wicked beaſt hathe * deuoured him: Ioſéph is ſurely torne in pieces.
34 And Iaakób rēt his clothes, & put ſackcloth about his loynes, & ſorowed for his ſonne a long ſeaſon.
35 Then all his ſonnes & all his daughters roſe vp to cōforte him, but he wolde not be comforted, but ſaid, "Surely I wil go "Or, I wil mourne for him ſo long as I liue.
downe into ỹ graue vnto my ſōne mourning: ſo his father wept for him.
36 And the Midianites ſolde him into Egypt vnto Potiphár l an Eunuche of Pharaohs, and his "chief ſtuarde.
l Which worde doeth not alwaie ſignifie him, ỹ is geided, but alſo him that is ſome high dignitie
*Or, captaine of the garde.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

2 The mariage of Iudáh. 29 The treſpaſſe of Er and Onán, and the vengeance of God that came thereupō. 18 Iudáh lyeth with his daughter in lawe Tamár. 29, 30 The birth of Pháraz and Zárah.

And

a Moſes deſcribeth ỹ genealogie of Iudáh becauſe the Meſsias ſhuld come of him.

1. Chro. 2, 3.

b Which affinitie notwithſtanding was condemned of God Nom 26, 9.

Nom. 26, 19.

c This ordre was for ỹ preſeruation of ỹ ſtocke, that ỹ childe begotten by the ſeconde brother ſhulde haue ỹ name and inheritance of ỹ firſt. Which is in the new Teſtament aboliſhed.

d For ſhe colde not mary in any other familie ſo long as Iudáh wolde reteine her in his.

*Ebr. was comforted.

*Or, in the dore of the fountaines: or, where were two waies.

e God had wonderfully blinded him ỹ he colde not knowe her by her talke

*Or, tyre of thine head.

1 AND at that time a Iudáh went downe from his brethren, and turned in to a man called Hiráh an Adullamite.
2 And Iudáh ſawe there the daughter of a man called * Shuáh a b Canaanite: and he toke her to wife, and went in vnto her.
3 So ſhe conceiued and bare a ſonne, & he called his name Er.
4 * And ſhe conceiued againe, and bare a ſonne, and ſhe called his name Onán.
5 Moreouer ſhe bare yet a ſonne, whome ſhe called Sheláh: and Iudáh was at Chezíb when ſhe bare him.
6 Thē Iudáh toke a wife to Er his firſt borne ſonne whoſe name was Tamár.
7 *Now Er ỹ firſt borne of Iudáh was wicked in the ſight of the Lord, therefore the Lord ſlewe him.
8 Then Iudáh ſaid to Onán, Go in vnto thy brothers wife, and do the office of a kinſman vnto her, & raiſe c vp ſede vnto thy brother.
9 And Onán knewe ỹ the ſede ſhulde not be his: therefore when he wēt in vnto his brothers wife, he ſpilled it on the groũde, leſt he ſhulde giue ſede vnto his brother.
10 And it was wicked in the eies of ỹ Lord, which he did: wher fore he ſlewe hī alſo.
11 Then ſaid Iudáh to Tamar his daughter in lawe, d Remaine a widowe in thy fathers houſe, til Sheláh my ſonne growe vp (for he thoght thus, Leſt he die aſwel as his brethren) So Tamár went & dwelt in her fathers houſe.
12 ¶ And in proceſſe of time alſo the daughter of Shuáh Iudahs wife dyed. Then Iudáh, when he *had left mourning, went vp to his ſhepe sheiers to Timnáh, he, and his neighbour Hiráh the Adullamite.
13 And it was tolde Tamár, ſaying, Beholde, thy farher in lawe goeth vp to Timnáh, to ſhere his ſhepe.
14 Then ſhe put her widowes garmentes of from her, & couered her with a vaile, and wrapped her ſelfe, & ſate downe in *Pethāh-enáim, w̄ is by the way to Timnáh, becauſe ſhe ſawe ỹ Sheláh was growen, & ſhe was not giuē vnto him to wife.
15 When Iudáh ſawe her, he iudged her an whore: for ſhe had couered her face.
16 And he turned to the way, towards her, & ſaid, Come, I pray thee, let me lye with thee. (for he e knewe not that ſhe was his daughter in lawe) And ſhe anſwered, What wilt thou giue me for to lie w̄ me?
17 Then ſaid he, I wil ſend thee a kid of ỹ goates from the flocke. & ſhe ſaid, Wel, if thou wilt giue me a pledge, til ỹ ſend it.
18 Then he ſaid, What is the pledge that I ſhal giue thee? And ſhe anſwered, Thy ſigner, & thy *cloke, and thy ſtaffe that is in thine hand. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and ſhe was with childe by him.
19 Then ſhe roſe, and went & put her vaile frō her & put on her widowes raymēt.
20 Afterward Iudáh ſent a kid of the goates by the hād of his f neighbour ỹ Adullamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he founde her not.
21 Then aſked he the mē of that place, ſaying, Where is ỹ whore, that ſate in Enáim by ỹ way ſide? And they anſwered, There was no whore here.
22 He came therefore to Iudáh againe, & ſaid, I cā not finde her, & alſo the mē of ỹ place ſaid, There was no whore there.
23 Then Iudáh ſaid, Let her take it to her, leſt we be *'s ſhamed: beholde, I ſent this kid, and thou haſt not founde her.
24 ¶ Now after thre moneths, one tolde Iudáh, ſaying, Tamár thy daughter in lawe hathe played the whore, and lo, with playing the whore, ſhe is great with childe. Then Iudáh ſaid, Bring ye her forthe and let her be h burnt.
25 When ſhe was broght forthe, ſhe ſent to her father in law, ſaying, By the man, vnto whome theſe thīgs pertein, am I with childe: & ſaid alſo, Loke. I praye thee, whoſe theſe are, the ſeale, & ỹ cloke, and ỹ ſtaffe.
26 Then Iudáh knewe them, and ſaid, She is i more righteous thē I: for ſhe hath done it becauſe I gaue her not to Sheláh my ſonne. So he laye with her k no more.
27 ¶ Now, whē the time was come that ſhe ſhulde be deliuered, beholde, there were twinnes in her wombe.
28 And when ſhe was in trauel, the one put out his hand: & the midwife toke and bounde a red threde about his hand, ſaying, This is come out firſt.
29 But when he l plucked his hād backe againe, lo, his brother came out, & the midwife ſaid, How haſt m thou broken the breache vpō thee? & his name was called *Pháretz.
30 And afterwarde came out his brother ỹ had the red threde about his hand, and his name was called Záraḥ.

f That his wickednes might not be knowē to others.

*Ebr in contēpt. g He feareth man more thē God.

h We ſē that ỹ lawe, which was written in mans hart, taught them that whoredome ſhulde be punished with death: albeit no lawe as yet was giuen.

i That is, ſhe oght rather to accuſe me thē I her.

k For ỹ horrour of ỹ ſinne cōdēned him.

l Their hainous ſinne was ſignified by this monſtruous birth

m Or the ſeparation betwene thee & thy brother. 2 Chro. 2, 4. mat. 1, 3.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Ioſeph is ſolde to Potiphár. 2 God proſpereth him 7 Potiphars wife tempteth him 13, 20 He is accuſed & caſt in priſon 21 God ſheweth him fauour.

1 NOw Ioſéph was broght downe into Egypt: & Potiphár a an Eunuche of Pharaohs (and his chief ſtuard an Egyptian) boght him at the hand of the Iſhmeelites, which had broght him thether.
2 And the Lord b was with Ioſéph, and he was a man that proſpered and was in the houſe of his maſter the Egyptian.
3 And his maſter ſawe that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to proſper in his hand.
4 So Ioſéph founde fauour in his ſight, & ſerued him: and he made him c ruler of his houſe, and put all that he had in his hand.

a Read chap. 37, 36.

b The fauour of God is the founteine of all proſperitie.

c Becauſe God proſpered him and ſo he made religion to ſerue his profite.

5 And frō that time that he had made him ruler ouer his houſe & ouer all that he had, the Lord [d] bleſſed the Egyptiās houſe for Ioſephs ſake: & the bleſsing of the Lord was vpon all that he had in ỹ houſe, and in the field.

[d] The wicked are bleſſed by ỹ companie of the godlie.

6 Therefore he left all ỹ he had in Ioſephs hād, [e] & toke accompte of nothīg, that was w̄ him, ſaue onely of the bread, which he did eat. And Ioſéph was a faire perſonne, and wel fauoured.

[e] For he was aſſured ỹ all things ſhulde proſper wel: therforehe ate and dranke & toke no care

7 ¶ Now therefore after theſe thīgs, his maſters wife caſt her eyes vpon Ioſéph, and ſaid, [f] Lye with me.

[f] In this word he declareth ỹ ſomme whe reunto all her flatteries did tend

8 But he refuſed & ſaid to his maſters wife, Beholde, my maſter knoweth not what he hathe in the houſe with me, but hathe cō mitted all that he hathe to mine hand.

9 There is no man greater in this houſe then I: nether hathe he kept any thing frō me, but only thee, becauſe thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickednes & ſo ſinne againſt [g] God?

[g] The feare of God preſerued him againſt her continual tēptatiōs.

10 And albeit ſhe ſpake to Ioſéph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her, to lye with her, or to be in her companie.

11 Then on a certeine day Ioſeph entred into the houſe, to do his buſines: & there was no man of the houſholde in the houſe:

12 Therefore ſhe caught him by his garment, ſayīg, Slepe w̄ me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, & got him out.

13 Now when ſhe ſawe that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out, 14 She called vnto the men of her houſe, and tolde them, ſaying, Beholde, he hathe broght ī an Ebrewe vnto vs [o] to mocke vs: who came into me for to haue ſlept with me: but I [h] cryed with a loude voyce.

[o] Or, to do vs vilenaie and ſhame

[h] This declareth that where incontinencie is, thereunto is ioyned extreme impudencie and craft

15 And when he heard ỹ I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment with me, & fled away, and got him out.

16 So ſhe layed vp his garment by her, vntil her lord came home.

17 Then ſhe tolde him [p] according to theſe wordes, ſaying, The Ebrewe ſeruant, w̄ thou haſt brogt vnto vs, came into me to mocke me.

[p] Or, after the maner.

18 But aſsone as I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garmēt w̄ me, & fled out.

19 Then when his maſter heard the wordes of his wife, which ſhe tolde him, ſaying, After this maner did thy ſeruāt to me, his angre was kindled.

20 And Ioſephs maſter toke him and put him in [q] [i] priſon, in the place where the Kings priſoners lay bounde: and there he was in priſon

[q] Ebr. in the priſon houſe

[i] His euil intreatement in the priſon may be gathered of the pſal 105 18.

21 ¶ But ỹ Lord was with Ioſéph, & [r] ſhewed him mercie, and got him fauour in the ſight of the [s] maſter of the priſon.

[r] Ebr. inclined mercie vnto him.

[s] Or, lord.

22 And the keper of the priſon committed to Ioſephs hād all the priſoners that were in the priſon, and [k] whatſoeuer they did there, that did he.

[k] That is, nothing was done without his cōmandemēt.

23 And the keper of the priſon loked vnto nothing that was vnder his hand, ſeing that the Lord was with him: for whatſoeuer he did, the Lord made it to proſper.

CHAP. XL.

[g] The interpretation of dreames is of God. 12. 19. Ioſéph expoundeth the dreames of the two priſoners. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

1 AND after theſe thīgs, the butler of ỹ King of Egypt and his baker offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaóh was angry againſt his two [a] officers, againſt the chief butler, and againſt the chief baker.

[a] Or, eunuches. the worde ſignifieth them that were in high eſtate, or, them that were gelded

3 Therefore he put them in warde in his chief ſtuardes houſe, in the priſon and place where [a] Ioſéph was bounde.

[a] God worked many wonderful meanes to deliuer his.

4 And the chief ſtuarde gaue Ioſéph charge ouer them, & he ſerued them; and they continued a ſeaſon in warde:

5 ¶ And they bothe dreamed a dreame, ether of thē his dreame in one night, [b] eche one according to ỹ interpretation of his dreame, bothe ỹ butler & the baker of the King of Egypt, w̄ were bounde in the priſon.

[b] That is, euerie dreamer had his interpretation, as the thing afterward declared.

6 And when Ioſéph came in vnto them in the morning, and loked vpon them, beholde, they were ſad.

7 And he aſked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his maſters warde, ſaying, Wherefore [w] loke ye ſo ſadly to day?

[w] Ebr. why are your faces euil?

8 Who anſwered him, We haue dreamed, eche one a dreame, & there is none to interpret the ſame. Then Ioſéph ſaid vnto thē, [c] Are not interpretations of God? tel them me now.

[c] Can not God raiſe vp ſuche as ſhal interpret ſuche things?

9 So the chief butler tolde his dreame to Ioſéph, and ſaid vnto him, In my dreame, beholde, a vine was before me,

10 And in the vine were thre branches, and as it budded, her floure came forthe: & the cluſters of grapes waxed ripe.

11 And I had Pharaohs cup in mine hand, & I toke the grapes, and wrong them into Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 Then Ioſéph ſaid vnto him, This [d] is the interpretation of it: The thre branches are thre dayes.

[d] He was aſſured by the Spirit of God ỹ his interpretation was true.

13 Within thre dayes ſhal Pharaóh lift vp thine head, & reſtore thee vnto thine [w] office, and thou ſhalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner, when ỹ waſt his butler.

[w] Ebr. place.

14 But haue me in remembrāce with thee, when thou art in good caſe, & ſhewe mercie, I pray thee, vnto me, and [e] make mēcion of me to Pharaóh, that thou maieſt bring me out of this houſe.

[e] He refuſed not the meanes to be deliuered, which he thoght God had appoited.

15 For I was ſtollen away by theft out of ỹ land of the Ebrewes, & here alſo haue I done done nothing, wherefore they ſhulde put

43/1224

c Or, in the pit. me c in the dungeon.
16 And when the chief baker ſawe that the interpretacio was good, he ſaid vnto Ioſéph, Alſo me thoght in my dreame that I f That is, made of white twigges, or, as ſome read, baſkets ful of holes. had thre f white baſkets on mine head.
17 And in the vppermoſt baſket there was of all maner baké meates for Pharaóh: & the birdes did eat them out of the baſket vpon mine head.
g He ſheweth that the miniſters of God ought not to cõceile that, ẏ God reueileth vnto them 18 Then Ioſéph anſwered, & ſaid, g This is the interpretacion thereof: The thre baſkets are thre dayes:
19 Within thre daies ſhal Pharaóh take thine head from thee, & ſhal hang thee on a tre, and the birdes ſhal eat thy fleſh from of thee.
h Which was an occaſion to appoint his officers and ſo to examine thẽ that were in priſon 20 ¶ And ſo the third day, which was Pharaohs h birthday, he made a feaſt vnto all his ſeruantes: and he lifted vp the head of the chief butler, and the head of the chief baker among his ſeruantes.
21 And he reſtored the chief butler vnto his butlerſhip, who gaue the cup in to Pharaohs hand, 22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Ioſéph had interpreted vnto them.
23 Yet the chief butler did not remembre Ioſéph, but forgat him.

CHAP. XLI.

26 Pharaohs dreames are expounded by Ioſéph. 40 He is made ruler ouer all Egypt. 51 He hathe two ſonnes: Manaſſéh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth throughout the worlde.

m Eb at the end of two yeres of dayes 1 AND m two yeres after, Pharaóh alſo a This dreame was not ſo muche for Pharaóh, as to be a meane to deliuer Ioſéph, and to prouide for his Church a dreamed, and beholde, he ſtode by a riuer, 2 And lo, there came out of the riuer ſeuen goodlie kine and fatfleſhed, and thei fed in a n medow:
n Or, flaggy place. 3 And lo, ſeuen other kine came vp after them out of the riuer, euilfauoured and leane fleſhed, and ſtode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.
4 And the euilfauoured and leane fleſhed kine did eat vp the ſeuen welfauoured & fat kine: ſo Pharaóh awoke.
b All theſe meanes God vſed to deliuer his ſeruant, & to bring him in to fauour and autoritie 5 Againe he ſlept, and dreamed the b ſeconde time: and beholde, ſeuen eares of corne grewe vpon one ſtalke, ranke and goodlie.
6 And lo, ſeuẽ thinne eares, & blaſted with the Eaſt winde, ſprang vp after them:
c This feare was ynough to teache him, that this viſion was ſent of God 7 And the thinne eares deuoured the ſeuẽ ranke and ful eares. then Pharaóh awaked, and lo, it was a dreame.
d The wiſe of the worlde vnderſtand not Gods ſecrets, but to his ſeruants his wil is reueiled. 8 Now when the morning came, his ſpirite was c troubled: therefore he ſent and called all the ſotheſaiers of Egypt, & all the wiſe men thereof, and Pharaóh tolde them his dreames: but d none colde interpret them to Pharaóh.
e He cõfeſſeth his faure againſt ẏ King, before he ſpeake of Ioſéph. 9 Then ſpake the chief butler vnto Pharaóh, ſaying, I e call to minde my fautes this day.
10 Pharaóh being angry with his ſeruantes, put me in waide in the chief ſtuardes houſe, bothe me and the chief baker.
11 Thẽ we dreamed a dreame in one night, bothe I, and he: we dreamed eche man according to the interpretacion of his dreame.
12 And there was with vs a yong man, an Ebrewe, ſeruant vnto the chief ſtuarde, whome when we tolde, he declared our dreames to n vs, to euerie one he declared according to his dreame.
n Read Chapter 40, 5. 13 And as he declared vnto vs, ſo it came to paſſe: for he reſtored me to mine office, and hanged him.
Pſal. 105. 20. f The wicked ſeke to ẏ Prophets of God in their neceſſitie, whome in their proſperitie they abhorre. 14 *Then ſent Pharaóh, and f called Ioſéph, and they broght him haſtely out of priſon, and he ſhaued him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaóh.
15 Then Pharaóh ſaid to Ioſéph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard ſay of thee, that when thou heareſt a dreame, thou canſt interpret it.
g As thogh he wolde ſay, If I interpret thy dreame, it cometh of God & not of me. o Ebr anſwer peace. 16 And Ioſéph anſwered Pharaóh, ſaying, g Without me God ſhal o anſwer for the welth of Pharaóh.
17 And Pharaóh ſaid vnto Ioſéph, In my dreame, beholde, I ſtode by the banke of the riuer:
18 And lo, there came vp out of ẏ riuer ſeuẽ fatfleſhed, and welfauoured kine, and thei fed in the medow.
p Ebr. naught. 19 Alſo lo, ſeuen other kine came vp after them, poore and very p euilfauoured, and leanefleſhed: I neuer ſawe the like in all the land of Egypt, for euilfauoured.
20 And the leane and euilfauoured kine did eat vp the firſt ſeuen fat kine.
q Ebr were gone into their inwarde partes. 21 And when they q had eaten them vp, it colde not be knowen that they had eaten them, but they were ſtil as euilfauoured, as they were at the beginning: ſo did I awake.
22 Moreouer I ſawe in my dreame, and beholde, ſeuen eares ſprang out of one ſtalke, ful and faire.
23 And lo, ſeuen eares, withered, thinne, and blaſted with the Eaſt winde, ſprang vp after them.
24 And the thinne eares deuoured the ſeuen good eares. Now I haue tolde the ſotheſaiers, and none can declare it vnto me.
h Bothe his dreames tend to one end. 25 ¶ Then Ioſéph anſwered Pharaóh, Bothe Pharaóhs dreames are one. h God hathe ſhewed Pharaóh, what he is about to do.
26 The ſeuen good kine are ſeuen yeres, & the ſeuen good eares are ſeuen yeres: this is one dreame.
27 Likewiſe the ſeuen thinne and euil fauoured kine, that came out after them, are ſeuen yeres: and the ſeuen emptie eares blaſted with the Eaſt winde are ſeuen yeres of famine.

28 This is the thing, which I haue ſaid vnto Pharaóh, that Gód hathe ſhewed vnto Pharaóh, what he is aboute to do.

29 Beholde, there come ſeuen yeres of great [a] plentie in all the land of Egypt.

30 Againe, there ſhal ariſe after them ſeuen yeres of famine, ſo that all the plentie ſhalbe forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine ſhal conſume the land:

31 Nether ſhal the plentie [a] be knowē in the land, by reaſon of this famine that ſhal come after: for it ſhalbe exceading great.

32 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaóh the ſecond time, becauſe the thing is eſtabliſhed by God, & God haſteth to performe it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaóh [i] prouide for a man of vnderſtanding and wiſdome, & ſet him ouer the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaóh make and appoint officers ouer the lad, and take vp the fifte parte of ỹ lād of Egypt in ỹ ſeuen plenteous yeres.

35 Alſo let them gather all the fode of theſe good yeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharaóh for fode, in the cities, and let them kepe it.

36 So the fode ſhalbe for the prouiſion of the land, againſt the ſeuen yeres of famine, which ſhalbe in the land of Egypt, that the land periſh not by famine.

37 ¶ And ỹ ſaying pleaſed Pharaóh and all his ſeruantes.

38 Then ſaid Pharaóh vnto his ſeruantes, Can we finde ſuche a man as this, in whome is the [k] Spirit of God?

39 Thē Pharaóh ſaid to Ioſéph, For as muche as God hathe ſhewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderſtanding, or of wiſdome like vnto thee.

40 *Thou ſhalt be ouer mine houſe, & at thy [a] worde ſhal all my people be armed, only in ỹ Kings throne wil I be aboue thee.

41 Moreouer Pharaóh ſaid to Ioſéph, Beholde, I haue ſet thee ouer all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaóh toke of his [a] ring from his hand, and put it vpon Ioſéphs hand, and araied him in gaiments of fine linen and put a golden cheine about his necke.

43 So he ſet him vpon the [a] beſt charet that he had, ſaue one: & they cryed before him, [m] Abréch, and placed him ouer all the land of Egypt.

44 Againe Pharaóh ſaid vnto Ioſéph, I am Pharaóh, & without thee ſhal no man lift vp his hand or his fote in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaóh called Ioſephs name [a] Zaphnáth-paaneáh: and he gaue him to wife Aſenath ỹ daughter of Poti-phérah [a] prince of On. then went Ioſéph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Ioſéph was [n] thirty yere olde whē he ſtode before Pharaóh King of Egypt: and Ioſéph departing from the preſence of Pharaóh, went through out all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the ſeuen plenteous yeres the earth [a] broght for the ſtore.

48 And he gathered vp all the fode of the ſeuen plenteous yeres, which were in the land of Egypt, and layed vp fode in the cities: the fode of the field, that was roūd about euery citie, layed he vp in the ſame.

49 So Ioſéph gathered wheat, like vnto the ſand of ỹ ſea in multitude out of meaſure, vntil he left nombring: for it was without nombre.

50 Now vnto Ioſéph were borne* two ſonnes (before the yeres of famine came) w̄ Aſenáth the daughter of Poti-phérah príce of On bare vnto him.

51 And Ioſéph called the name of the firſt borne Manaſſéh: for God, ſaid he, hathe made me forget all my labour & all my [o] fathers houſholde.

52 Alſo he called the name of the ſeconde Ephráim: for God ſaid he, hathe made me fruteful in the land of mine afflictiō.

53 ¶ So the ſeuen yeres of the plentie that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 *Thē began the ſeuen yeres of famine to come, according as Ioſéph had ſaid: & the famine was in all landes, but in all the land of Egypt was [a] bread.

55 At the length all the land of Egypt was affamiſhed and the people cryed to Pharaóh for bread. And Pharaóh ſaid vnto all the Egyptians, Go to Ioſéph: what he ſaith to you, do ye.

56 When the famine was vpon all the lād, Ioſéph opened all places, wherein the ſtore was and ſolde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed ſore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countreis came to Egypt to bye corne of Ioſéph, becauſe the famine was ſore in all landes.

CHAP. XLII.

3 Ioſephs brethren come into Egypt to bye corne. 7 He knoweth them, and tryeth them. 24, 25 Simeón is put in priſon. 26 The other returne to their father to fet Beniamin.

1 [a] Then Iaakób ſawe that there was fode in Egypt, & Iaakób ſaid vnto his ſonnes, Why [b] gaze ye one vpō another?

2 And he ſaid, Beholde, I haue heard that there is fode in Egypt,* Get you downe thether & bye vs fode thence, that we may liue, and not die.

3 ¶ So went Ioſephs ten brethrē downe to bye corne of the Egyptians.

4 But Bēiamín Ioſephs brother wolde not Iaakób ſend with his brethrē. for he ſaid, Leſt death ſhulde [a] befall him.

5 And

---

[a] Or, abundance and ſtoreſie.

[a] Or, they ſhal remembre no more the plentie.

[i] The office of a true Prophet is not onely to ſhewe ỹ euils to come, but alſo the remedies for the ſame.

[k] None ſhuld be preferred to honour, yf he haue not gifts of God mete for the same.

[a] Pſal 105,21 1.mac 2,53. act.7,10.

[a] Eor mouthe. I Some read, The people ſhal kiſſe thy mouthe: that is, ſhal obey thee in all things

[a] Or, bus figure

[a] Ebr. ſeconde charet.

[m] In ſigne of honour: which worde ſome expound, tender father, or father of the King, or kncle downe

[a] Or, the expōnder of ſecrets.

[a] Or, preſt.

[n] His age is mencioned both to ſhewe that his autoritie came of God, and alſo that he ſuffred impriſonment & exile twelue yeres and mo

[a] Ebr made ſto gatherīge.

Chap. 46,20. & 48,5.

[o] Notwithſtanding that his fathers houſe was the true Church of God, yet ỹ compaine of the wicked & proſperite cauſed him to forget it

Pſal 105,16.

[a] Or, fode.

[a] Or, came to Egypt to Ioſéph

[a] This ſtorie ſheweth plainely that all things are gouerned by Gods prouidence for the profite of his Church

[b] As men deſtitute of cōſel

Act.7,12.

[a] Ebr ſtulde mete him.

5 And the ſonnes of Iſraél came to bye fode amóg them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canáan.
6 Now Ioſéph was gouernor of the land who ſolde to all the people of the lād: thē Ioſephs brethren came, and bowed their face to the grounde before him.
7 And whē Ioſéph ſawe his brethrē, he knewe them, and [c] made him ſelfe ſtrange toward them, and ſpake to them roughly, & ſaid vnto them, Whēce come ye? Who anſwered, Out of the land of Canáan, to bye vitaile.
8 (Now Ioſéph knewe his brethren, but they knewe not him.
Chap.37.5. 9 And Ioſéph remembred the *dreames, which he dreamed of them) and he ſaid vnto them, Ye are ſpies, and are come to ſe the "weakenes of the land.
10 But they ſaid vnto him, Nay, my lord, but to bye vitaile thy ſeruātes are come.
11 We are all one mans ſonnes: we meane truely, and thy ſeruantes are no ſpies.
12 But he ſaid vnto them, Nay, but ye are come to ſe the weakenes of the land.
13 And they ſaid, We thy ſeruantes are twelue brethren, the ſonnes of one man in the land of Canáan: and beholde, the yōgeſt is this day with our father, and one [o] is not.
14 Againe Ioſéph ſaid vnto thē, This is it that I ſpake vnto you, ſayīg, Ye are ſpies.
15 Hereby ye ſhalbe proued: [d] by the life of Pharaóh, ye ſhal not go hēce, except your yongeſt brother come hether.
16 Sēd one of you which may fet your brother, and ye ſhal be kept in priſon, that your wordes may be proued, whether there be trueth in you: or els by the life of Pharaóh ye are but ſpies.
17 So he put them in warde thre dayes.
18 Then Ioſéph ſaid vnto them the third day, This do, and liue: for I [e] feare God.
19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bounde in your priſon houſe, & go ye, carie fode for the famine of your houſes:
Chap 43.5. 20 *But bring your yonger brother vnto me, that your wordes may be tried, and ye die not: and they did ſo.
21 ¶And thei ſaid one to an other, [f] We haue verely ſinned againſt our brother, in yᵗ we ſawe the anguiſh of his ſoule, when he beſoght vs, and we wolde not heare him: therefore is this trouble come vpon vs.
Chap.37.21.
22 And Reubén anſwered them, ſaying, Warned I not you, ſaying, *Sinne not againſt the childe, and ye wolde not heare? and lo, his [g] blood is now required.
23 (And they were not aware that Ioſéph vnderſtode them: for he "ſpake vnto them by an interpreter)
24 Then he turned from them, and [h] wept, and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and toke Simeón from amōg them, and bounde him before their eyes.
25 ¶So Ioſéph commanded that thei ſhulde fille their ſackes with wheat, and put euerie mans money againe in his ſacke, & giue them vitaile for the iourney: and thus did he vnto them.
26 And they laied their vitaile vpon their aſſes, and departed thence.
27 And as one of them opened his ſacke for to giue his aſſe prouandre in the ynne, he eſpied his money: for lo, it was in his ſackes mouthe.
28 Then he ſaid vnto his brethren, My money is reſtored: for lo, it is euen in my ſacke. And their heart "failed them, & they were [i] aſtonniſhed, and ſaid one to an other, What is this, that God hathe done vnto vs?
29 ¶And they came vnto Iaakób their father vnto the land of Canáan, and tolde him all that had befallen them, ſaying, 30 The man, who is lord of the land, ſpake roughly to vs, and put vs in priſon as ſpies of the countrei.
31 And we ſaid vnto him, We are true mē, and are no ſpies.
32 We be twelue brethren, ſonnes of our father: one is "not, and the yongeſt is this day with our father in the lād of Canáan.
33 Then the lord of the countrei ſaid vnto vs, Hereby ſhal I knowe if ye be true mē: Leaue one of your brethren with me, and take fode for the famine of your houſes & departe, 34 And bring your yongeſt brother vnto me, that I may knowe that ye are no ſpies, but true mē: ſo wil I deliuer you your brother, and ye ſhal occupie in the land.
35 ¶And as they empted their ſackes, behold, euerie mans bundel of money was in his ſacke: and when they and their father ſawe the būdels of their money, they were afraied.
36 Then Iaakób their father ſaid to them, Ye haue robbed me of my childrē: Ioſéph is not, and Simeón is not, and ye wil take Bēiamín: all theſe thīgs "are againſt [k] me.
37 Then Reubén anſwered his father, ſaying, Slay my two ſōnes, if I brīg him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I wil bring him to thee againe.
38 But he ſaid, My ſōne ſhal not go downe wᵗ you: for his brother is dead, & he is left alone: if death come vnto him by yᵗ way, which ye go, then ye ſhal bring my graie head with ſorowe vnto the graue.

[c] This diſſembling is not to be followed, nor any particular facts of ſᵗ fathers not approued by Gods worde
"Ebr. nakednes, or, filthines.
[o] Or, is dead.
[d] The Egyptians, which were idolaters, vſed to ſweare by their kings life: but God forbiddeth to ſweare by any but him: yet Ioſéph dwelling amōg ſᵗ wicked ſmelleth of their corruptions
[e] And therefore am true and iuſt
[f] Affliction maketh men to acknowledge their faultes wᵗ otherwiſe thei wolde diſſemble
Chap.37.21.
[g] God wil take vengeance vpō vs, & meaſure vs wᵗ our owne meaſure
"Ebr an interpreter betweene them [h] Though he ſhewed him ſelfe rigorous, yet his brotherlie affectiō remained.
"Ebr went out.
[i] Becauſe their conſcience accuſed them of their ſinne, they thoght God wolde haue broght thē to trouble by this money.
"Or, can not be founde.
"Or, light vpon me.
[k] For they ſemed not to be touched wᵗ any loue towarde their brethrē, wᵗ increaſed his ſorowe: & partely as appeareth he ſuſpected them for Ioſéph.

CHAP. XLIII.

13 Iaakób ſuffreth Beniamin to departe with his childrē. 23 Simeón is deliuered out of priſon. 30 Ioſeph goeth aſide and wepeth. 32 They feaſt together.

NOw great [a] famine was in the land.
2 And when they had eaten vp the vitaile, which they had broght from Egypt, their father ſaid vnto them, Turne againe, and bye vs a litle fode.
3 And Iudáh anſwered him, ſaying, The man charged vs by an othe, ſaying, * Neuer ſe my face, except your brother be with you.
4 If thou wilt ſend our brother with vs, we wil go downe, and by thee fode:
5 But if thou wilt not ſend him, we wil not go downe: for the man ſaid vnto vs, * Loke me not in the face, except your brother be with you.
6 And Iſraél ſaid, Wherefore delt ye ſo euil with me, as to tel the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?
7 And they anſwered, The man aſked ſtraitly of [d] our ſelues and of our kinred, ſaying, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye any brother? And we tolde him [e] according to theſe wordes: colde we knowe certeinly ỹ he wolde ſay, Bring your brother downe?
8 Then ſaid Iudáh to Iſráel his father, Sẽd the boye with me, that we may riſe & go, and that we may liue and not dye, bothe we, and thou, and our children.
9 I wil be ſuretie for him: of mine hand ſhalt thou require him. * If I bring him not to thee, & ſet him before thee, [f] then let me beare the blame for euer.
10 For except we had made this tarying, doutles by this we had returned the ſeconde time.
11 Then their father Iſraél ſaid vnto them, If it muſt nedes be ſo nowe, do thus: take of the beſt frutes of the land in your veſſels, and bring the man a preſent, a litle roſen, and a litle honie, [g] ſpices and myrre, nuttes, and almondes:
12 And take [h] double money in your hand, and the money, that was broght againe in your ſackes mouthes: carie it againe in your hand, leſt it were ſome ouer ſight.
13 Take alſo your brother and ariſe, and go againe to the man.
14 And [i] God almightie giue you mercie in the ſight of the man, that he maie deliuer you your other brother, and Beniamín: but I ſhalbe [k] robbed of my childe, as I haue bene.
15 ¶ Thus ỹ men toke this preſent, and toke twiſe ſo muche money in their hand with Beniamín, and roſe vp, and went downe to Egypt and ſtode before Ioſéph.
16 And when Ioſéph ſawe Beniamín w̃ thẽ, he ſaid to [l] his ſtuard, Bring theſe men home and kil meat and make readie: for the men ſhal eat with me at noone.
17 And ỹ man did as Ioſéph bad, & broght the men vnto Iosephs houſe.
18 Now when the mẽ were broght into Iosephs houſe, thei were [m] afraied, and ſaid, Becauſe of the money, that came in our ſackes mouthes at the firſt time, are we broght, that he maie [n] pike a quarel againſt vs, and [n] laie ſome thing to our charge, and bring vs in bondage and our aſſes.
19 Therefore came thei to Ioſephs ſtuard, and communed with him at the dore of the houſe.
20 And ſaid, Oh ſyr, * we came ī dede downe hether at the firſt time to bye fode, 21 And as we came to an ynne and opened our ſackes, behold, euerie mans money was in his ſackes mouth, euen our money in ful weight, but we haue broght it againe in our hands.
22 Alſo other money haue we broght in ỏ handes to bye fode, but we cá not tel, who put our money in our ſackes.
23 And he ſaid, [o] Peace be vnto you, feare not: [p] your God and the God of your father hathe giuen you that treaſure in your ſackes, I had your money: and he broght forthe Simeón to them.
24 So the man led thẽ in to Ioſephs houſe, and gaue them water to waſh their fete, and gaue their aſſes prouander.
25 And thei made redy their preſẽt againſt Ioſẽph came at none, (for thei heard ſaie, that thei ſhulde eat bread there)
26 When Ioſẽph came home, thei broght the preſent into the houſe to him, which was in their hands, and bowed downe to the grounde before him.
27 And he aſked them of their [q] proſperitie, and ſaid, Is your father the olde man, of whome ye tolde me, in good health? is he yet aliue?
28 Who anſwered, Thy ſeruãt our father is in good helth, he is yet aliue: and they bowed downe, and made obeiſance.
29 And he lifting vp his eies, behelde his brother Beniamín his [r] mothers ſonne, & ſaid, Is this your yonger brother, of whome ye tolde me? And he ſaid, God be merciful vnto thee, my ſonne.
30 And Ioſéph made haſte (for his [s] affection was inflamed toward his brother, and ſoght where to wepe) and entred into his chambre, and wept there.
31 Afterward he waſhed his face, and came out, and refrained him ſelfe, and ſaid, Set on [t] meat.
32 And they [u] prepared for him by him ſelfe, and for them by them ſelues, and for ỹ Egyptians, which did eat with him, by them ſelues, becauſe the Egyptians might not eat bread with ỹ Ebrewes: for that was an [x] abomination vnto the Egyptians.
33 So they ſate before him: the eldeſt according vnto his age, and the yongeſt according vnto his youthe. and the men marueiled

a This was a great tentatiõ to Iaakób to ſuffre ſo great famine in that lãd, where God had promiſed to bleſſe him
Chap. 42, 20.
Chap. 42, 20.
d Or, of our eſtate and condition.
e Eb. to the mouthe of theſe wordes: that is, that thing which he aſked vs.
Chap. 44, 32.
f Eb. I wil ſinne to thee.
g Or, ſweet ſmelling.
h Whẽ we are in neceſsitie or danger God forbiddeth not to vſe all honeſt meanes to better ỏ eſtate and condition.
i Our chief truſt ought to be in God and not in worldelie meanes.
k He ſpeaketh theſe wordes not ſo much of deſpaire, as to make his ſonnes more careful to bring againe their brother.
l Or, to the ruler of his houſe.
m So the iudgement of God preſſed their conſcience n Eb. lay him ſelfe vpon vs. Eb. caſt him ſelfe vpon vs.
Chap. 42, 3.
o Or, you are wel.
p Notwithſtãding the corruptions of Egypt, yet Ioſeph taught his familie to feare God.
q Eb. peace.
r For they two onely were borne of Rahél.
s Eb. bowels.
t Eb. bread.
u To ſignifie his dignitie.
x The nature of the ſuperſtitious is to cõdemne all other in reſpect of thẽ ſelues.

marueiled among them ſelues.

34 And thei toke meaſes frō before him, & ſent to thē: but Beniamins meaſe was fiue times ſo muche as anie of theirs: & thei dronke [k] & had of the beſt drinke w̄ him.

k Sometime this worde ſignifieth to be dronken, but here it is met, that thei had ynough, and dronke of the beſt wine

CHAP. XLIIII.

15 Ioſéph accuſeth his brother of theft. 33 Iudáh offreth him ſelfe to be ſeruant for Beniamin.

1 AFterwarde he cōmanded his ſtuard, ſaying, Fil the mens ſackes with fode, as muche as thei can cary, and put euerie mans money in his ſackes mouthe.

2 And [a] put my cup, I meane the ſiluer cup, in the ſackes mouthe of the yongeſt, and his corne money. And he did according to the commandement that Ioſéph gaue him.

3 And in the "morning the men were ſent away, thei, and their aſſes.

4 And when thei went out of the citie not faire of, Ioſéph ſaid to his ſtuard, Vp, followe after the men: & whē thou doeſt ouertake them, ſay vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euil for good?

5 Is that not the cup, wherein my lord drinketh [b] and in the which he doeth deuine and prophecie [b] ye haue done euil in ſō doing.

6 ¶ And whē he ouertoke thē, he ſaid thoſe wordes vnto them.

7 And thei anſwered him, Wherefore ſaieth my lord ſuche wordes [b] God forbid that thy ſeruants ſhulde do ſuche a thing.

8 Beholde, the money which wē found in our ſackes mouthes, we broght againe to thee out of the land of Canáan: how then ſhulde we ſteale out of thy lordes houſe ſiluer, or golde?

9 With whomeſoeuer of thy ſeruants it be founde, let him dye, and we alſo wil be my lords bondmen.

10 And he ſaid, Now then let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whome it is founde, ſhalbe my ſeruant, & ye ſhal be "blameles.

11 Then at once euerie mā toke downe his ſacke to the grounde, and euerie one opened his ſacke.

12 And he ſearched, and began at the eldeſt and left at the yongeſt: and the cup was founde in Beniamins ſacke.

13 Then thei [c] rent their clothes, and laded euerie man his aſſe, and went againe into the citie.

14 ¶ So Iudáh & his brethren came to Ioſephs houſe (for he was yet there) and thei fel beforē him on the grounde.

15 Thē Ioſéph ſaid vnto thē, What acte is this, which ye haue done [b] Knowe ye not that ſuche a man as I, can deuine & prophecie?

16 Then ſaid Iudáh, What ſhal we ſay vnto my lord? what ſhal we ſpeake? & how can we iuſtifie our ſelues? [d] God hathe founde out the wickednes of thy ſeruantes: beholde we are ſeruants to my lord, bothe we, and he, with whome the cup is founde.

17 But he anſwered, God forbid, [y] I ſhulde do ſo, but the man, with whome the cup is founde, he ſhalbe my ſeruant, & go ye in peace vnto your father.

18 ¶ Thē Iudáh drewe nere vnto him, and ſaid, Oh my lord, let thy ſeruant now ſpeake a worde in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled againſt thy ſeruant: for thou art euen [e] as Pharaóh.

19 My lord aſked his ſeruāts, ſaying, *Haue ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we anſwered my lord, We haue a father that is olde, and a yong "childe, which he begate in his age: and his brother is dead, & he alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 Now [y] ſaideſt vnto thy ſeruants, Bring him vnto me, that I may "ſet mine eie vpon him.

22 And we anſwered my lord, The childe can not departe from his father: for if he leaue his father, his father wolde dye.

23 Then ſaideſt thou vnto thy ſeruāts, *Except your yonger brother come downe with you, loke in my face no more.

24 So when we came vnto thy ſeruant our father, and ſhewed him what my lord had ſaid,

25 And our father ſaid vnto vs, Go againe, bye vs a litle fode, 26 Thē we anſwered, We can not go downe: but if our yongeſt brother "go with vs, then wil we go downe: for we may not ſe the mās face, except our yongeſt brother be with vs.

27 Then thy ſeruant my father ſaid vnto vs, Ye knowe that my [f] wife bare me two ſonnes, 28 And the one went out from me, and I ſaid, Of a ſurety he is torne in pieces, and I ſawe him not ſince.

29 Now ye take this alſo away from me: if death take him, then [g] ye ſhal bring my gray head in ſorowe to the graue.

30 Now therefore, whē I come to thy ſeruant my father, and the childe be not with vs (ſeing that his "life dependeth on the childes life)

31 Then when he ſhal ſe that the childe is not come, he wil dye: ſo ſhal thy ſeruants bring the gray head of thy ſeruant our father with ſorowe to the graue.

32 Doutles thy ſeruant became ſurētie for the childe to my father, and ſaid, * If I bring him not vnto thee againe, thē I wil beare the blame vnto my father for euer.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy ſeruant bide for the childe, as a ſeruant to a We may not by this example vſe any vnlawful practiſes, ſeing God hathe commāded vs to walke in ſimplicitie

"Ebr the morning ſkone

b Because the people thoght he colde deuine, he attributeth to him ſelfe ỹ knowledge: or els he ſaineth that he conſulted w̄ ſoothſaiers for it: which ſimulation is worthy to be reproued

"Or, innocent

c To ſignifie how greatly the thing diſpleaſed them, and how ſory thei were for it

d If we ſe not euident cauſe of our affliction, let vs loke to the ſecret coūſel of God, who puniſheth vs iuſtly for our ſinnes.

e Equal in authoritie, or, next vnto the King

Chap. 42. 18.

"Ebr childe of hys olde age

"Or, that I may ſe him.

Chap. 43. 3.

"Ebr. be with vs

f Rahél bare to Iaakób Ioſéph and Beniamin.

g Ye ſhal cauſe me to dye for ſorowe

"Ebr his ſoule is bounde in his ſoule.

Chap. 43. 8.

my lord, and let the childe go vp with his brethren.

h Meaning, he had rather remaine there priſoner, then to returne and be his father heauines.

34 For h how can I go vp to my father, if the childe be not with me, onles I wolde ſe the euil that ſhal come on my father?

CHAP. XLV.

1 Ioſéph maketh him ſelfe knowen to his brethren. 8 He ſheweth that all was done by Gods prouidēce. 18 Pharaóh commandeth him to ſend for his father. 24 Ioſéph exhorteth his brethren to cōcorde. 27 Iaakób reioyceth.

THen Ioſéph colde not refraine him ſelfe before all that ſtode by him, but he cryed, a Haue forthe euerie mā frō me. And there taried not one with him, while Ioſéph vttered him ſelfe vnto his brethren.

a Not that he was aſhamed of his kinred, but that he wolde couer his brethrens faute.

2 And he wept & cryed, ſo that the Egyptiās heard: ỹ houſe of Pharaóh heard alſo.

3 Then Ioſéph ſaid to his brethren, I am Ioſéph: doeth my father yet liue? But his brethren colde not anſwer him, for thei were aſtoniſhed at his preſence.

4 Againe Ioſéph ſaid to his brethren, Come nere, I pray you, to me. And thei came nere. And he ſaid, * I am Ioſéph your brother, whome ye ſolde into Egypt.

Act. 7, 13.

b This exāple teacheth, that we muſt by all meanes cōfort thē, which are cruelly trōbled & wounded for their ſinnes. Chap. 50, 20.

5 Now therefore be not b ſad, nether grieued with your ſelues, that ye ſolde me hether: *for God did ſend me before you for your preſeruation.

6 For now two yeres of famine haue bene through the land, and fiue yeres are behinde, wherein nether ſhal be earing nor haruеſt.

7 Wherefore God ſent me before you to preſerue your poſteritie in this land, and to ſaue you aliue by a great deliuerance.

c Albeit God deteſt ſinne, yet he turneth mans wickednes to ſerue to his glorie.

8 Now then you ſent not me hether, but c God, who hathe made me a father vnto Pharaóh, and lord of all his houſe, and ruler through out all the land of Egypt.

9 Haſte you and go vp to my father, and tel him, Thus ſaieth thy ſonne Ioſeph, God hathe made me lord of all Egypt: come downe to me, tary not.

10 And thou ſhalt dwel in the land of Góſhen, and ſhalt be nere me, thou and thy children, & thy childrens childrē, & thy ſhepe, & thy beaſtes, & all that thou haſt.

11 Alſo I wil nouriſh thee there (for yet remaine fiue yeres of famine) leſt thou periſh through pouertie, thou & thy houſholde, and all that thou haſt.

d That is, that I ſpeake in your owne lāgage, and haue none interpreter.

12 And beholde, your eies do ſe, & the eies of my brother Beniamín, ỹ d my mouth ſpeaketh to you.

13 Therefore tel my father of all mine honour in Egypt, & of all that ye haue ſene, & make haſte, & bring my father hether.

14 Then he fel on his brother Beniamins necke, and wept, & Beniamín wept on his necke.

15 Moreouer he kiſſed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and after warde his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the "tydings came vnto Pharaohs houſe, ſo that thei ſaid, Ioſephs brethren are come: and it pleaſed Pharaóh wel, & his ſeruants.

Ebr. voice

17 Then Pharaóh ſaid vnto Ioſéph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, lade your beaſtes & departe, go to ỹ lād of Canáan, 18 And take your father, and your houſholdes, and come to me, and I wil giue you the e beſt of the land of Egypt, and ye ſhal eat of the f fat of the land.

e The moſte plēteful groūde.

f The chiefeſt frutes & cōmodities.

19 And I commande thee, Thus do ye, take you charets out of the land of Egypt for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father and come.

20 Alſo " regard not your ſtuffe: for the beſt of all the land of Egypt is yours.

"Ebr. let not your eie ſpare your veſſele.

21 And the children of Iſraél did ſo: and Ioſéph gaue them charets according to the commādement of Pharaóh: he gaue them vitaile alſo for the iourney.

22 He gaue thē all, none except, change of raiment: but vnto Beniamín he gaue thre hundreth pieces of ſiluer, & fiue ſutes of rayment.

23 And vnto his father ' likewiſe he ſent ten he aſſes laden with the beſt things of Egypt, and ten ſhe aſſes ladē with wheat, & bread, & meat for his father by the way.

'Or, he ſent aſmuch to wit, ſiluer, as verſ. 22. & ten aſſes.

24 So ſent he his brethren away, and thei departed: and he ſaid vnto them, g Fall not out by the way.

g Seing he had remitted the faute done toward him, he wolde not ỹ thei ſhulde accuſe oneган other.

25 ¶ Then thei wēt vp from Egypt, & came vnto the land of Canáan vnto Iaakób their father, 26 And tolde him, ſaying, Ioſéph is yet aliue, and he alſo is gouerner ouer all the lād of Egypt, and Iaakobs heart h failed: for he beleued them not.

h As one betwene hope & feare.

27 And thei tolde him all the wordes of Ioſéph, which he had ſaid vnto them: but when he ſawe the charets, which Ioſéph had ſent to cary him, then the ſpirit of Iaakób their father reuiued.

28 And Iſraél ſaid, I haue ynough: Ioſéph my ſonne is yet aliue: I wil go and ſe him yer I dye.

CHAP. XLVI.

2 God aſſureth Iaakób of his iourney into Egypt. 27 The nombre of his familie when he went into Egypt. 29 Ioſéph meeteth his father. 34 He teacheth his brethren what to anſwer to Pharaóh.

1 THen Iſraél toke his iourney with all that he had, & came to Beer-ſhéba, and a offred ſacrifice vnto the God of his father Izhák.

a Whereby he both ſignified, that he worſhipped ỹ true God, and alſo that he kept in his hearc ỹ poſſeſsion of that land, frō whēce preſent neceſsitie droue him.

2 And God ſpake vnto Iſraél in a viſion by night, ſaying, Iaakób, Iaakób. Who anſwered, I am here.

3 Then he ſaid, I am God, the God of thy father, feare not to go downe into Egypt: for for I wil there make of thee a great nation.

4 I wil [b] go downe with thee into Egypt, and I wil alſo [c] bring thee vp againe, and Ioſéph ſhal [d] put his hād vpō thine eies.

5 Then Iaakób roſe vp from Beer-ſhéba: and the ſonnes of Iſraél caried Iaakób their father, and their children, and their wiues in the charets, which Pharaóh had ſent to cary him.

6 And thei toke their cattel & their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canáan, and came into Egypt, both *Iaakób and all his ſede with him,

7 His ſonnes and his ſonnes ſonnes with him, his daughters and his ſonnes daughters, and all his ſede broght he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ And theſe are the names of the children of Iſraél, which came into Egypt, euen Iaakób & his ſonnes: * Reubén, Iaakobs firſt borne.

9 And the ſonnes of Reubén: Hanóch, and Phallú, and Hezrón and Carmí.

10 ¶ And the ſōnes of * Simeón: Iemuél, & Iamín, and Ohad, and Iachín, & Zóhar, & Shaúl ỹ ſonne of a Canaanitiſh womā.

11 ¶ Alſo ỹ ſonnes of * Leuí: Gerſhón, Koháth and Merarí.

12 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of * Iudáh: Er, and Onán, and Sheláh, and Phárez, and Zérah: (but Er, and Onán dyed in ỹ land of Canáan) And the ſonnes of Phárez were Hezrón and Hamúl.

13 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of * Iſſachár: Tolá, & Phuuáh, and Iob, and Shimron.

14 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of Zebulún: Séred, & Elón, and Iahleél.

15 Theſe be the ſonnes of Leáh, which ſhe bare vnto Iaakób in Padán Arám, with his daughter Dináh. All the [e] ſoules of his ſōnes & his daughters were thirty & thre.

16 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of Gad: Ziphión, and Haggí, Shuní, and Ezbón, Erí, and Arodí, and Arelí.

17 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of * Aſhér: Iimnáh, & Iſhuáh, and Iſuí, and Beriáh, and Sérah their ſiſter. And the ſonnes of Beriáh: Héber, and Malchiél.

18 Theſe are ỹ childrē of Zilpáh, whome Labán gaue to Leáh his daughter: & theſe ſhe bare vnto Iaakób, euē ſixtene ſoules.

19 The ſonnes of Rahél Iaakobs wife were Ioſéph, and Beniamín.

20 ¶ And vnto Ioſéph in the lād of Egypt were borne Manaſſéh, & Ephráim, which * Aſenáth the daughter of Poti-phérah prince of On bare vnto him.

21 ¶ Alſo ỹ ſonnes of * Beniamín: Bélah, & Bécher, & Aſhbél, Gerá, and Naamán, Ehí, & Roſh, Muppím, & Huppím, & Ard.

22 Theſe are the ſonnes of Rahél, ẅ were borne vnto Iaakób, fourtene ſoules in all.

23 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of Dan: Huſhím.

24 ¶ Alſo the ſōnes of Nephtalí: Iahzeél, and Guní, and Iézer, and Shillém.

25 Theſe are the ſonnes of Bilháh, ẅ Labán gaue vnto Rahél his daughter, & ſhe bare theſe to Iaakób, in all, ſeuē ſoules.

26 All the * ſoules, that came with Iaakób into Egypt, which came out of his " loynes (beſide Iaakobs ſonnes wiues) were in the whole, thre ſcore and ſixe ſoules.

27 Alſo the ſonnes of Ioſéph, which were borne him ī Egypt, were two ſoules: ſo that all the ſoules of ỹ houſe of Iaakób, which came into Egypt, are ſeuēte.

28 ¶ Then he ſēt Iudáh before him vnto Ioſéph, to " direct his way vnto Góſhen, and they came into the land of Góſhen.

29 Then Ioſéph "made ready his charet & went vp to Góſhen to mete Iſraél his father, and preſented him ſelfe vnto him, & fel on his necke, and wept vpon his necke a " good while.

30 And Iſraél ſaid vnto Ioſéph, Now let me dye, ſince I haue ſene thy face, and that thou art yet aliue.

31 Then Ioſéph ſaid to his brethren, and to his fathers houſe, I wil go vp and ſhewe Pharaóh, and tel him, My brethren and my fathers houſe, which were in the land of Canáan, are come vnto me, 32 And the men are [e] ſhepherdes, & becauſe they are ſhepherdes, they haue broght their ſhepe & their cattel, & all ỹ thei haue.

33 And if Pharaóh call you, and aſke you, What is your trade?

34 Thē ye ſhal ſay, Thy ſeruants are men occupied about cattel, frō our childhode euen vnto this time, bothe we and our fathers: that ye may dwel in the lād of Góſhen: for euerie ſhepekeper is an [f] abomination vnto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

Iaakób commeth before Pharaóh, and telleth him his age. 11 The land of Goſhen is giuen him. 22 The idolatrous prieſts haue liuing of the King. 28 Iaakobs age, when he dyeth. 30 Ioſeph ſweareth to bury him with his fathers.

1 THen came Ioſéph and tolde Pharaóh, and ſaid, My father, & my brethrē, & their ſhepe, & their cattel, and all ỹ they haue, are come out of the land of Canáan, & beholde, they are in ỹ land of Góſhen.

2 And Ioſéph toke parte of his brethrē, euē [a] fiue men, & preſented thē vnto Pharaóh.

3 Thē Pharaóh ſaid vnto his brethrē, What is your trade? And thei anſwered Pharaóh, Thy ſeruants are ſhepherdes, bothe we and our fathers.

4 Thei ſaid moreouer vnto Pharaóh, For to ſoiourne in ỹ land are we come: for thy ſeruāts haue no paſture for their ſhepe, ſo ſore is the famine in the land of Canáan. Now therefore, we pray thee, let thy ſeruants dwel in the land of Góſhen.

b Conducting thee by my power.
c In thy poſteritie.
d Shal ſhut thine eies when thou dieſt ẅ appertened to him that was moſte dearest or chief of the kined.

Ioſh.24.4. pſal.105,23. Act.7.15.

Exod.1,2.and 6,14. nom.26,5. 1.chro.5,1.

Exod 6,15. 1.chro.4,24.

1.Chro.6,1.

2.Chro.2,3. & 4,21. chap.38,3.

1.Chro.7,1.

1.Chro.7,30.

Chap.41,50.

1.Chro.7,6. and 8,1.

" Or, perſonae.

" Or, to prepare him a place.

" Hebr. bounde his charet.

" Hebr. yet a while.

e He was not aſhamed of his father and kinred, though their were of baſſe condition.

f God ſuffreth the worlde to hate his, that they may forſake the filthe of ỹ worlde & cleaue to him.

a That ỹ King might be aſſured they were come, and ſe whatmaner of people they were.

5 Then ſpake Pharaóh to Ioſéph, ſaying, Thy father and thy brethrē are come vnto thee.

b Ioſephs great modeſtie appeareth in ỹ he wolde enterpriſe nothing without the Kings cōmandement

6 The b land of Egypt is before thee: in ỹ beſt place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwel: let them dwel in the land of Góſhen: and if thou knoweſt that there be men of actiuitie among them, make them rulers ouer my cattel.

7 Ioſéph alſo broght Iaakób his father, & ſet him before Pharaóh. And Iaakób "ſaluted Pharaóh.

"Ebr bleſſed.

"Ebr how many dayes are the yeres of thy life?

8 Then Pharaóh ſaid vnto Iaakób, "How olde art thou?

Ebr. 11,9.

9 And Iaakób ſaid vnto Pharaóh, The whole time of my *pilgrimage *is an hūdreth & thirty yeres: fewe and euil haue the dayes of my life bene, & I haue not atteined vnto the yeres of the life of my fathers, in ỹ dayes of their pilgrimages.

"Ebr bleſſed

10 And Iaakób "toke leaue of Pharaóh, & departed from ỹ preſence of Pharaóh.

11 ¶ And Ioſéph placed his father, and his brethren, and gaue them poſſeſsion in the land of Egypt, in the beſt of the land, euen in the land of c Rameſés, as Pharaóh had commanded.

c Which was a citie in the contrey of Góſhē Exod 1,11

12 And Ioſéph nouriſhed his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers houſholde with bread, euen d to the yong children.

d Some read, that he fed thē as litle babes, becauſe they colde not prouide for them ſelues againſt that famine.

13 ¶ Now there was no bread in all the lād: for the famine was exceading ſore: ſo that the land of Egypt & the land of Canáan were famiſhed by the reaſon of ỹ famine.

14 And Ioſéph gathered all the money, that was foūde in the lād of Egypt, and in the land of Canáan, fōr the corne which they boght, & e Ioſéph laied vp the money in Pharaohs houſe.

e Wherein he bothe declareth his fidelitie toward the King, and his minde fre frō couetouſnes.

15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canáan, then all the Egyptiás came vnto Ioſéph, and ſaid, Giue vs bread: for why ſhulde we dye before thee? for our money is ſpent.

16 Then ſaid Ioſéph, Bring your cattel, & I wil giue you for your cattel, if your money be ſpent.

17 So they broght their cattel vnto Ioſéph, & Ioſéph gaue them bread for the horſes, and for the flockes of ſhepe, and for the herdes of cattel, and for the aſſes: ſo he fed them with bread for all their cattel that yere.

18 But when the yere was ended, they came vnto him the next yere, & ſaid vnto him, We wil not hide from my lord, that ſince our money is ſpent, & my lord hathe the herdes of the cattel; there is nothing left in the ſight of my lord, but our bodies & our grounde.

f For except the grounde be tilled & ſowē, it periſheth & is, as it were dead.

19 Why ſhal we periſh in thy ſight, bothe we, and our f land? bye vs and our lād for bread, and we and our land wil be bonde to Pharaóh: therefore giue vs ſede, ỹ we may liue and not dye, and that the land go not to waſte.

20 So Ioſéph boght all the lād of Egypt for Pharaoh: for ỹ Egyptians ſolde euerie mā his grounde becauſe the famine was ſore vpon them: ſo the land became Pharaohs.

g By this chāging they ſignified ỹ they had nothing of their owne, but receiued all of the Kings libel litie
"Ebr cede of the border.

21 And he g remoued the people vnto the cities, " from one ſide of Egypt euen to the other.

22 Onely the land of the Prieſtes boght he not: for the Prieſtes had an ordinarie of Pharaóh, and they did eat their ordinarie, which Pharaóh gaue thē: wherefore they ſolde not their grounde.

23 Then Ioſéph ſaid vnto the people, Beholde, I haue boght you this day and your land for Pharaóh: lo, here is ſede for you: ſowe therefore the grounde.

24 And of the encreaſe ye ſhal giue the fifte parte vnto Pharaóh, and foure partes ſhal be yours for the ſede of the field, and for your meat, and for them of your houſholdes, and for your children to eat.

25 Then they anſwered, Thou haſt ſaued our liues: let vs finde grace in the ſight of my lord, & we wil be Pharaohs ſeruāts.

26 Then Ioſéph made it a lawe ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharaóh ſhulde haue the fifte parte, h except the land of the Prieſtes onely, ẅ was not Pharaohs.

h Pharaóh is prouiding for idolatrous prieſts, ſhalbe a condemnation to all them ẅ neglect ỹ true miniſters of Gods worde.

27 ¶ And Iſraél dwelt in the lād of Egypt, in the countrey of Góſhen: and they had their poſſeſsions therein, and grewe and multiplied exceadingly.

28 Moreouer, Iaakób liued in the land of Egypt ſeuentene yeres, ſo that the whole age of Iaakób was an hundreth fourtie & ſeuen yere.

29 Now when the time drewe nere ỹ Iſraél muſt dye, he called his ſonne Ioſéph, and ſaid vnto him, If I haue now foūde grace in thy ſight, put thine hād now vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truely ẅ me: bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt, i Hereby he protefted ỹ he died in ỹ faith of his fathers, teaching his childrē to hope for the promiſed land

30 But when I ſhal i ſlepe with my fathers, thou ſhalt cary me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial. And he anſwered, I wil do as thou haſt ſaid.

k He reioyced ỹ Ioſéph had promiſed him, & ſetting him ſelfe vp vpon his pillowe, praiſed God, read 1 Chro. 29 10

31 Then he ſaid, Sweare vnto me. And he ſwaie vnto him. And Iſraél k worſhipped toward the beds head.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 Ioſéph with his two ſonnes viſiteth his ſicke father. 3. Iaakób rehearſeth Gods promes. 5 He receiueth Ioſéphs ſonnes as his. 19 He preferreth the yonger. 21 He prophecieth their returne to Canáan.

1 AGaine after this, one ſaid to Ioſéph, Lo, thy father is ſicke: then he toke ẅ hī his a two ſonnes. Manaſſéh & Ephráim.

a Ioſeph more eſteemeth ỹ his childrē ſhulde bereceiued into Iaakobs familie, ẅ was ỹ Church of God, then to enioye all the treaſors of Egypt

2 Alſo one tolde Iaakób, & ſaid, Beholde, thy ſonne Ioſéph is come to thee, and Iſraél raél toke his ſtrength vnto him and ſate vpon the bed.

*Or all ſufficiẽt. Chap 28,13

3 Then Iaakób ſaid vnto Ioſéph, God *almightie appeared vnto me at *Luz in the land of Canáan, and bleſſed me.

Chap.41, 50. Ioſh.13,7.

4 And he ſaid vnto me, Beholde, I wil make thee fruitful, and wil multiplie thee, & wil make a great *nombre of people of thee, and wil giue this land vnto thy ſede after thee for an [b] euerlaſting poſſeſſion.

b Which is true in ỹ carnal Iſraél vnto the cõming of Chriſt, and in the ſpiritual for euer.

5 ¶ And now thy two ſonnes, Manaſſéh & Ephráim, which are borne vnto thee in ỹ land of Egypt, before I came to thee into Egypt, ſhalbe mine, as Reubén and Simeón are mine.

6 But thy lignage, which thou haſt begotten after them, ſhalbe thine: they ſhalbe called after the names of their brethrẽ in their enheritance.

Chap 35,19. 7 Now whẽ I came frõ Padán, Rahél *dyed vpon mine hãd in the land of Canáan, by the way when there was but halfe a daies iourney of grounde to come to Ephráth: and I buryed her there in the way to Ephráth: the ſame is Beth-léhem.

8 Then Iſraél behelde Ioſephs ſonnes and ſaid, Whoſe are theſe?

9 And Ioſéph ſaid vnto his father, Thei are my ſõnes, which [c] God hathe giuẽ me here. then he ſaid, I pray thee, bring them to me, that I may bleſſe them:

c The faithful acknowledge all benefits to come of Gods free mercies

10 (For the eies of Iſraél were dim for age, ſo that he colde not wel ſe) Then he cauſed them to come to him, and he kiſſed them and embraced them.

11 And Iſraél ſaid vnto Ioſéph, I had not thoght to haue ſene thy face: yet lo, God hathe ſhewed me alſo thy ſede.

*Or his face to the ground

12 And Ioſéph toke thẽ away frõ his knees, and did reuerence "downe to the ground.

13 Then toke Ioſéph them bothe, Ephraim in his right hand toward Iſraels left hãd, and Manaſſéh in his left hand toward Iſraels right hãd, ſo he broght thẽ vnto hĩ.

14 But Iſraél ſtretched out his right hand, and laid it on [d] Ephraims head, which was the yonger, and his left hand vpon Manaſſehs head (directing his hands of purpoſe) for Manaſſéh was the elder.

d Gods iudgement is oft times contrary to mans, & he preferreth ỹ, which man deſpiteth Ebr.11,21.

15 ¶ *Alſo he bleſſed Ioſéph and ſaid, The God, before whome my fathers Abrahám and Izhák did walke, the God, which hathe fed me all my life long vnto this day, 16 bleſſe thee. The [e] Angel, which hathe deliuered me frõ all euil, bleſſe the children, and let my [f] name be named vpon them, and the name of my fathers Abrahám and Izhák, that they may growe as fiſh into a multitude in the middes of the earth.

e This Angel muſt be vnderſtãd of Chriſt, as chap 31,13 & 32,1.
f Let them be taken as my children

17 But whẽ Ioſéph ſawe that his father laid his right hãd vpõ the head of Ephráim, it [g] diſpleaſed him: and he ſtayed his fathers hand to remoue it from Ephraims head to Manaſſehs head.

g Ioſéph fayleth in binding Gods grace to the ordre of nature

18 And Ioſéph ſaid vnto his father, Not ſo my father, for this is ỹ eldeſt. put thy right hand vpon his head.

19 But his father refuſed, and ſaid, I knowe wel, my ſonne, I knowe wel: he ſhalbe alſo a people, & he ſhalbe great likewiſe: but his yonger brother ſhalbe greater thẽ he, and his ſede ſhalbe ful of nations.

20 So he bleſſed them that day, and ſaid, In thee Iſraél ſhal bleſſe, and ſay, God make thee as [h] Ephráim and as Manaſſéh. & he ſet Ephráim before Manaſſéh.

h In whome Gods graces ſhulde manifeſtly appeare.

21 Then Iſraél ſaid vnto Ioſéph, Beholde, I dye, and God ſhalbe with you, & bring you againe vnto the land of [i] your fathers.

i Which they had by faith in the promes

22 Moreouer, I haue giuen vnto thee one porcion aboue thy brethrẽ, which [k] I gate out of the hand of the Amorite by my ſworde & by my bowe.

k By my children, whome God ſpared for my ſake

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Iaakób bleſſeth all his ſonnes by name, and ſheweth them what is to come 29 He wil be buryed with his fathers. 33 He dyeth

1 THen Iaakób called his ſonnes, & ſaid, Gather you ſelues together, that I may tel you what ſhal come to you in the [a] laſt daies.

a When God ſhal bring you out of Egypt

2 Gather your ſelues together, & heare, ye ſonnes of Iaakób, & hearken vnto Iſraél your father.

3 ¶ Reubén mine eldeſt ſonne, thou art my [b] might, & the beginning of my ſtrength, [c] the excellencie of dignitie, & the excellencie of power.

b Begotten in my youthe
c If thou hadeſt not loſt thy birthright by thine offence.

4 Thou waſt light as water: thou ſhalt not be excellent, becauſe thou wenteſt vp to thy fathers bed: then dideſt thou defile my bed, thy dignitie is gone.

5 ¶ Simeón and Leuí, brethrẽ in euil, the "inſtrumẽts of cruel tie are in their habitaciõs.

"Or, their ſwordes were inſtrumẽts of violẽce.

6 Into their ſecret let not my ſoule come: my [d] glorie, be not thou ioyned with their aſſemblie: for in their wrath they ſlewe a [e] man, and in their ſelfewil they digged downe a wall.

d Or tongue: meaning that he neither conſented to thẽ in worde nor thoght
e The Shechemites chap 34.26

7 Curſed be their wrath, for it was fearce, & their rage, for it was cruel: I wil [f] diuide them in Iaakób, & ſcater thẽ in Iſraél.

f For Leuí had no parte, & Simeón was vnder Iudáh Ioſ 19,1. til God gaue them the place of the Amalechites 1 Chro 4,43

8 ¶ Thou Iudáh, thy brethren ſhal praiſe thee: thine hãd ſhalbe in ỹ necke of thine ennemies: thy fathers ſonnes ſhal [g] bowe downe vnto thee.

g As was verified in Dauid and Chriſt

9 Iudáh, as a lions whelpe ſhalt thou come vp from the ſpoile, my ſonne. He ſhal lie downe & couche as a lion, & as a lioneſſe. [h] Who ſhal ſter him vp?

h His ennemies ſhal ſo feare him.

10 The "ſceptre ſhal not departe from Iudáh, nor a lawgiuer from betwene his fete, vntil [i] Shilóh come, and the people ſhal be gathered vnto him.

"Or, Kingdome.
i Which is Chriſt the Meſſias, the gener of all proſperitie who ſhal call the Gentiles to ſaluation.

11 He ſhal binde his aſſe fole vnto the k vine, & his asses colte vnto the best vine. he shal wash his garment in wine, and his cloke in the blood of grapes.

k A countrey moste abundant with vines and pastures is promised him.

12 His eies shalbe red with wine, and his teethe white with milke.

13 ¶ Zebulún shal dwel by the sea side. & he shalbe an hauen for shippes: his border shal be vnto Zidón.

14 Issachár shalbe "l a strong asse, couching downe betwene two burdens:

"Ebr. An asse of great bones

l His force shalbe great, but he shal want courage to resist his enemies.

15 And he shal se that rest is good, and that the land is pleasant, and he shal bowe his shulder to beare, and shalbe subiect vnto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan m shal iudge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

m Shal haue ye honour of a tribe

17 Dan shalbe a n serpét by the way, an adder by the path, byting the horse heles, so that his ryder shal fall backwarde.

n That is, full of subtelte.

18 o O Lord, I haue waited for thy saluacion.

o Seing ye miseries that his posteritie shulde fall into, he brasteth out in prayer to God to remedie it 19 ¶ Gad, an host of mẽ shal ouercome him, but he shal ouercome at the last.

20 Cõcerning Asher, his p bread shalbe fat, and he shal giue pleasures for a King.

p He shal abũde in corne & pleasãt frutes

21 ¶ Naphtalí shalbe a hinde let go, giuing q goodlie wordes.

¶ Ouercoming more by faire wordes then by force

22 ¶ Ioseph shalbe "r a fruteful bough, euen a fruteful bough by the well side: the "r smale boughes shal runne vpon the wall.

"Ebr. a sonne of increase

23 s And the archers grieued him, and shot against him, and hated him.

"Ebr. daughters

24 But his bowe abode strong, and the hãdes of his armes were strengthened, by the hãds of the mightie God of Iaakób, of whome was the feeder appointed by the t sto ne of Israél, r As his brethren, Potiphár, and others

t That is, God

25 Euen by the God of thy father, who shal helpe thee, & by the almightie, who shal blesse thee with heauenlie blessings frõ aboue, with blessings of ẏ depe, that lieth beneath, with blessings of the brests, & of the wombe.

26 The blessings of thy father shalbe u strõger thẽ the blessings of mine elders: vnto the end of the hilles of the worlde they shalbe on the head of Ioseph, and on the toppe of the head of him that was x sepaiat from his brethren.

u In as muche as he was more nere to ẏ accomplishment of the promes. & it had bene more often cõfirmed x Ether in dignitie, or whe he was solde from his brethren.

27 ¶ Beniamín shal rauine as a wolfe: in the morning he shal deuoure the prate, and at night he shal diuide the spoile.

28 ¶ All these are the twelue tribes of Israél, and thus their father spake vnto thẽ, and blessed them: euerie one of them blessed he with a seueral blessing.

29 And he charged them & said vnto thẽ, I am ready to be gathered vnto my people: *bury me with my fathers in the caue that is in the field of Ephrón the Hittite,

Chap 47,30.

30 In the caue that is in the field of Machpeláh besides Mamré in the land of Canáan: which caue Abrahám boght w the field of Ephrón the Hittite for a possession to bury in.

31 There thei buryed Abrahám and Saráh his wife: there thei buryed Izhák & Rebekáh his wife: and there I buryed Leáh.

32 The purchase of the field & the eaue ẏ is therein, was boght of ẏ children of Heth.

33 Thus Iaakób made an end of giuing charge to his sonnes, and x plucked vp his fete into the bed and gaue vp the gost, & was gathered to his people.

x Whereby is signified how quietly he dyed

CHAP. L.

12 Iaakób is buryed. 19 Ioséph forgiueth his brethren. 23 He seeth his childrens children. 25 He dyeth.

1 THen Ioséph fel vpon his fathers face and wept vpon him, and kissed him.

2 And Ioséph commanded his seruantes the a phisicions, to enbaume his father, & the phisicions enbaumed Israél.

a He meaneth thẽ ẏ enbaumed the dead & buryed thẽ.

3 So fourty daies were accõplished (for so long did the daies of them that were enbaumed last) and the Egyptiãs bewailed him b seuenty daies.

b They were more exclsiue in lamẽting thẽ ẏ faithful.

4 And when the daies of his mourning were past, Ioséph spake to the house of Pharaóh, saying, If I haue now founde fauour in your eies, speak, I pray you, in ẏ eares of Pharaóh, and say,

5 My father made me * sweare, saying, Lo, I dye, bury me in my graue, which I haue made me in the lãd of Canáan: now therefore let me go, I praie thee, & bury my father and I wil come againe.

Chap 47,29.

6 Thẽ Pharaóh said, Go vp and bury thy father, c as he made thee to sweare.

c The very iustifiers wolde haue others performe.

7 ¶ So Ioséph went vp to bury his father, and with him went all the seruantes of Pharaóh, bothe the elders of his house and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

8 Likewise all the house of Ioséph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: onely their children, and their shepe, and their cattel left they in the land of Góshen.

9 And there went vp with him bothe charets and horsemen: and they were an exceading great companie.

10 And they came to y Góren Atád, which is beyonde Iordén, and there they made a great and exceading sore lamentacion: and he mourned for his father seuẽ daies.

y Or, the cuae floure of Atad.

11 And whẽ the Canaanites the inhabitãts of the land sawe the mourning in Góren Atád, they said, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: wherefore the name thereof was called z Abél Mizráim, which is beyonde Iordén.

z Or, the Lamentation of the Egyptians.

12 So his sonnes did vnto him according as he had commanded them:

13 *For his sonnes caried him into the land of Canáan, & buryed him in the caue of the field of Machpeláh, w caue * Abrahám boght with ẏ field, to be a a place to bury in, of Ephrón ẏ Hittite besides Mamre.

Act. 7,16.

Chap. 23,18.

a Or, a possession

14 ¶ Then

14 ¶ Then Ioſéph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, & all that went vp with him to bury his father, after that he had buryed his father.

15 And whē Ioſephs brethrē ſawe that their father was dead, they ſaid, [d] It may be ỹ Ioſéph wil hate vs, and wil paye vs againe all the euil, which we did vnto him.

16 Therefore they ſent vnto Ioſéph, ſayīg, Thy father commanded before his death, ſaying, 17 Thus ſhal ye ſay vnto Ioſéph, Forgiue now, I pray thee, ỹ treſpace of thy brethrē, and their ſinne: for they rewarded thee euil. And now, we pray thee, forgiue ỹ treſpace of the ſeruants of thy fathers [e] God. And Ioſéph wept, when [*] they ſpake vnto him.

18 Alſo his brethrē came vnto him, and fel downe before his face, & ſaid, Beholde, we be thy ſeruantes.

19 To whome Ioſéph ſaid, Feare not: for am not I vnder [f] God?

20 When ye thoght euil againſt mē, God diſpoſed it to good, that he might bring to paſſe, as it is this day, and ſaue muche people aliue.

21 Feare not now therefore, I wil nouriſh you, and your children: and he comforted them, and ſpake [*] kindely vnto them.

22 ¶ So Ioſéph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers houſe: and Ioſéph liued an [g] hundreth and ten yere.

23 And Ioſéph ſawe Ephraims children, euen vnto the third generacion: alſo the ſonnes of Machir the ſonne of Manaſséh were broght vp on Ioſephs knees.

24 And Ioſéph ſaid vnto his brethrē, *I am ready to dye, & God wil ſurely viſet you, and bring you out of this land vnto the land, which he ſware vnto Abrahám, vnto Izhák, and vnto Iaakób.

25 And Ioſéph toke an othe of the childrē of Iſraél, ſaying, [h] God wil ſurely viſet you, and ye ſhal cary my bones hence.

26 So Ioſéph dyed, when he was an hundreth and ten yere olde: and they enbaumed him & put him in a cheſt in Egypt.

d An euil conſcience is neuer fully at reſt.

e Meaning, ỹ they which haue one God, ſhulde be ioyned in moſte ſure loue

*Or, the meſſengers

f Who by the good ſucceſſe ſemeth to remit it, & therefore it ought not to be reuēged by me.

*Eb. to their heart.

g Who, notwithſtādig he bare rule in Egypt about foure ſcore yeres, yet was ioyned with ỹ Church of God in faith and religion. Ebr.11.22.

h He ſpeaketh this by the ſpirit of prophecie, exhorting his brethren, to haue ful truſt in Gods promes for their deliuerance.

THE SECONDE BOKE
of Moſés, called Exodus.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFTER that Iaakób by Gods commandemēt Gen.46,3. had broght his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the ſpace of foure hundreth yeres, and of ſeuenty perſones grewe to an infinite nombre, ſo that the King and the countrey grudged and endeuored bothe by tyrannie and cruel ſlauery to ſuppreſſe them: the Lord according to his promes Gen.15,14. had compaſſion of his Church & deliuered them, but plagued their ennemies in moſte ſtrāge and ſondry ſortes. And the more that the tyrānie of the wicked enraged againſt his Church, the more did his heauy iudgements increaſe againſt them, til Pharaōh & his armie were drowned in the ſame Sea, which gaue an entrie and paſſage to the childrē of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, ſo did they immediatly forget Gods wōderful benefites: & albeit he had giuen them the Paſſouer to be a ſigne & memorial of the ſame, yet they fel to diſtruſt, & tempted God with ſondry murmurings and grudgings againſt him and his miniſters: ſometime moued with ambitiō, ſometime for lacke of drincke or meate to cōtent their luſtes, ſometime by idolatrie, or ſuche like. Wherfore God viſited them with ſharpe roddes and plagues that by his correctiōs they might ſeke to him for remedy againſt his ſcourges & earneſtly repent them for their rebelliōs & wickednes. And becauſe God loueth thē to the end, whome he hathe once begōne to loue, he puniſhed thē not according to their deſertes, but dealt with them in great mercies, and euer with newe benefites labored to ouercome their malice: for he ſtil gouerned them and gaue thē his worde & Law, bothe cōcerning the maner of ſeruing him, & alſo the forme of iudgements and ciuil policie: to the intent that thei ſhulde not ſerue God after their owne inuentions, but according to that ordre, which his heauenlie wiſdome had appointed.

CHAP. I.

a The childrē of Iaakób that came into Egypt. 8 The newe Pharaōh oppreſſeth them. 12 The prouidence of God towarde them. 15 The Kings cōmandemēt to the midwiues. 22 The ſonnes of the Ebrewes are commanded to be caſt into the riuer.

a Moſes deſcribeth the wonderful ordre that God obſerueth in performing his promes to Abrahám. Gen.15.14

NOw [a] theſe are ỹ names of ỹ childrē of Iſraél, ẅ came ī to Egypt (euerie man and his houſholde came thither ẅ Iaakób)

2 Reubén, Simeón, Leuí, and Iudáh,

3 Iſſachár, Zebulún, and Beniamín,

4 Dan, & Naphthalí, Gad, & Aſhér.

5 So all ỹ [] ſoules, that came out of ỹ loynes of Iaakób, were [] ſeuētie ſoules: Ioſéph was in Egypt already.

6 Now Ioſéph dyed and all his brethrē, & that whole generacion.

7 ¶ And the [*] children of Iſraél broght forthe frute and encreaſed in abundance, & were multiplied, and were exceading mightie, ſo that the [b] lād was ful of them.

8 Then there roſe vp a newe King in Egypt, who [c] knewe not Ioſéph.

9 And he ſaid vnto his people, Beholde, the

*Or, perſones.

Gen.46.26. deu.10.22.

Act.7.17.

b He meaneth the coūtrey of Gōſhen

c He conſidered not how God had preſerued Egypt for Ioſephs ſake.

people of the children of Iſraél are greater and mightier then we.

10 Come, let vs worke wiſely with thē, leſt they multiplie, and it come to paſſe, that if there be warre, they ioyne them ſelues alſo vnto our ennemies, & fight againſt vs, and [d] get them out of the land.

11 Therefore did they ſet taſkemaſters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burdens: and they buylt the cities Pithóm & Raamſés for the [e] treaſures of Pharaóh.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grewe: therefore [e] they were more grieued againſt the children of Iſraél.

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie cauſed the children of Iſraél to ſerue.

14 Thus they made them weary of their liues by ſore labour in claye and in bricke, and in all worke in the field, with all maner of bondage, [*] which they laied vpon them moſte cruelly.

15 ¶ Moreouer the King of Egypt cōmanded the midwiues of the Ebrewe women, (of which the ones name was [f] Siphrah, and the name of the other Puáh)

16 And ſaid, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes & ſe them on their [*] ſtolles, if it be a ſonne, thē ye ſhal kil him: but if it bea daughter, then let her liue.

17 Notwithſtanding the midwiues feared God, & did not as the King of Egypt cōmanded them, but preſerued aliue the mē children.

18 Then the King of Egypt called for the midwiues, & ſaid vnto thē, Why haue ye done thus, and haue preſerued aliue the men children?

19 And the midwiues anſwered Pharaóh, Becauſe the Ebrewes womē are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuelie, and are deliuered yer [g] the midwife come at thē.

20 God therefore proſpered the midwiues, and the people [h] multiplied & were very mightie.

21 And becauſe the midwiues feared God, therefore he [h] made them houſes.

22 Then Pharaóh charged all his people, ſaying, Euerie man childe that is borne, [i] caſt ye into the riuer, but reſerue euerie maidchilde aliue.

CHAP. II.

2 Moſes is borne and caſt into the flagges. 5 He is taken vp of Pharaohs daughter & kept. 12 He killeth the Egyptian. 15 He fleeth and marieth a wife. 23 The Iſraelites crye vnto the Lord.

1 THen there went a [a] man of the houſe of Leuí, & toke to wife a daughter of Leuí,

2 And the woman conceiued & bare a ſonne: & whē ſhe ſawe that he was faire, [*] ſhe hid him thre moneths.

3 But when ſhe colde no longer hide him, ſhe toke for him an arke made of rede, and daubed it w̄ ſlime & with pitch, & [b] laid the childe therein, & put it among [c] ỹ bulruſhes by the riuer brinke.

4 Now his ſiſter ſtode a far of, to wit what wolde come of him.

5 ¶ Then the daughter of Pharaóh came downe to waſh her in the riuer, and her maidens walked by the riuers ſide: & whē ſhe ſawe the arke among the bulruſhes, ſhe ſent her maid to fet it.

7 Then ſhe opened it, and ſawe it was a childe: and beholde, the babe wept: ſo ſhe had compaſsion on it, and ſaid, This is one of the Ebrewes children.

7 Thē ſaid his ſiſter vnto Pharaohs daughter, Shal I go & call vnto thee a nurce of the Ebrewe womē to nurce thee ỹ childe?

8 And Pharaohs daughter ſaid to her, Go. So the maid went and called the [c] childes mother.

9 To whome Pharaohs daughter ſaid, Take this childe away, and nurce it for me, & I wil reward thee. Thē the woman toke the childe and nurced him

10 Now the childe grewe, and ſhe brought him vnto Pharaohs daughter, & he was as her ſonnē, and ſhe called his name Moſés, becauſe, ſaid ſhe, I drewe him out of the water.

11 ¶ And in thoſe dayes, when Moſés was [d] growē, he went forthe vnto his brethrē, and loked on their burdens: alſo he ſawe an Egyptiā ſmiting an Ebrewe one of his brethren.

12 And he loked [*] rounde about, & whē he ſawe no man, he [e] ſlew the Egyptian, and hid him in the ſand.

13 Againe he came forthe the ſeconde day, and beholde, two Ebrewes ſtroue: and he ſaid vnto him that did the wrōg, Wherefore ſmiteſt thou thy felowe?

14 And he anſwered, Who made thee a mā of authoritie & a iudge ouer vs? Thinkeſt thou to kil me, as thou killedſt the Egyptian? Then Moſés [f] feared and ſaid, Certenly this thing is knowen.

15 Now Pharaóh heard this matter, and ſought to ſlay Moſés: therefore Moſés fled from Pharaóh, & dwelt in the land of Midián, and he ſate downe by a well.

16 And ỹ Prieſt of Midiā had ſeuē daughters, which came and drewe water, and filled the troghes, for to watter their fathers ſhepe.

17 Then the ſhepherdes came and droue them away: but Moſés roſe vp & [*] defended them, an watered their ſhepe.

18 And when they came to Reuél their [*] father, he ſaid, How are ye come ſo ſone to day?

19 And they ſaid, A man of Egypt deliue-ied

[d] In to Cnaan, and ſo we ſhal loſe our commoditie

[e] Or, come and promiſed

[e] The more that God bleſſeth his, the more doeth ỹ wicked mute them.

[*] Ebr wherwith they ſerued thē ſelues of them by crueltie

[f] Theſe ſeeme to haue bene the chief of ỹ reſt.

[*] Or ſeeing her vpon they ſate in trauel

[g] Their diſobediēce herein was lawful, but their diſſembling euil.

[h] That is, God increaſed the families of ỹ Iſraelites by their meanes

[i] When tyrāts can not preuaile by craft, then braſt forthe into open rage

[a] This Leuite was called Amrám, who maried Iochabéd, cha 6,20.

Act. 7,20. hebr 11,23.

[b] Committing hi to ỹ prouidence of God, whome ſhe colde not kepe from the rage of ỹ tyrāt

[c] Mans coūſel cā not hindre that, which God hath determined ſhal come to paſſe.

[d] That is, when fourtiē yere olde, Act 7,23.

[*] Ebr thus & thus

[e] Being aſſured th t God had appointed him to deliuer the Iſraelites, Act 7,25

[f] Thogh by his feare he ſhewe ſ his infirmitie yet faith couered it Ebr 11,27

[*] Or, prince

[*] Ebr ſaued thē.

[*] Or, grande father.

red vs from the hand of the ſhepherdes, & alſo drewe vs water ynough, and wattered the ſhepe.

20 Then he ſaid vnto his daughters, And where is he? why haue ye ſo left the man? g call him that he may eat bread.

g Wherein he declared a thankful minde, & wolde recompence ſ benefite done vnto his 21 And Moſés agreed to dwel with the mā: who gaue vnto Moſés Zipporáh his daughter:

22 And ſhe bare a ſonne, * whoſe name he called Gerſhóm: for he ſaid, I haue bene a ſtranger in a ſtrange land.

Chap 18,3.

23 ¶ Then in proceſſe of time, the King of Egypt dyed, & the childrē of Iſraél ſighed for the bondage and h cryed: & their crye for the bondage came vp vnto God.

h God humbleth his by afflictiōs, that they ſhulde crye vnto hī, & receiue the fruite of his promes 24 Then God heard their mone, and God remembred his couenant with Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób.

25 So God loked vpon the children of Iſraél, and God i had reſpect vnto them.

i He iudged their cauſe or, acknowledged thē to be his

CHAP. III.

1 Moſés kepeth ſhepe, and God appeareth vnto him in a buſhe. 10 He ſendeth him to deliuer the children of Iſraél. 14 The name of God. 16 God teacheth him what to do.

1 WHen Moſés kept the ſhepe of Ietthró his father in lawe, Prieſt of Midian, & droue the flocke to the e backe ſide of the deſert, and came to the a Mountaine of God, b Horéb, e Or, far with in the deſert a It was ſo called after ſ I awe was giuē

b Called alſo Sinai

2 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a flame of fyre, out of the middes of a c buſhe: & he loked, & beholde, the buſhe burned with fyre, and the buſhe was not conſumed.

c This ſignifieth that the Church is not conſumed by ſ fier of afflictions, b cauſe God is in the middes therof

3 Therefore Moſés ſaid, I wil turne aſide now, & ſe this great ſight, why the buſhe burneth not.

4 And when the d Lord ſaw that he turned aſide to ſe, God called vnto him out of the middes of the buſhe, and ſaid, Moſés, Moſés. And he anſwered, I am here.

d Whome he called the Angel, verſ 2

5 Then he ſaid, Come not hither, e put thy ſhooes of thy fete: for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt is f holy grounde.

e Reſigne thy ſelfe vp to me, Ruth 4,7 1 of 5,15

f Becauſe of my preſence Mat 22,32. act 7,32.

6 Moreouer he ſaid, * I am the God of thy father, the God of Abrahám, the God of Izhák, & the God of Iaakób. Then Moſés hid his face: for he was g afraied to lokē vpon God.

g For ſinne cauſeth man to feare Gods iuſtice

7 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid, I haue ſurely ſene the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, & haue heard their crye, becauſe of their h taſkemaſters: for I knowe their ſorowes.

h Whoſe cruelte was intollerable

8 Therefore I am come downe to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land into a good lād & a large, into a lād that i floweth with milke & hony, euen into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites.

i Moſe pleaſiful of all things

9 k And now lo, the crye of the children of Iſraél is come vnto me, and I haue alſo ſene the oppreſsion, wherewith the Egyptians oppreſſe them.

k He heard before, but now he wolde reuenge it.

10 Come now therefore, and I wil ſend thee vnto Pharaóh, that thou maieſt brīg my people the children of Iſraél out of Egypt.

11 ¶ But Moſés ſaid vnto God, Who am l I, that I ſhulde go vnto Pharaóh, and that I ſhulde bring the children of Iſraél out of Egypt?

l He dareth not fully diſobey God, but acknowledgeth his owne weakenes 12 And he anſwered, m Certeinly I wil be with thee: & this ſhalbe a toké vnto thee, that I haue ſēt thee, After that thou haſte broght the people out of Egypt, ye ſhal ſerue God vpon this Mountaine.

m Nether feare thine owne weakenes, ner Pharaohs tyrannie

13 Then Moſés ſaid vnto God, Beholde, when I ſhal come vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſhal ſay vnto them, The God of your fathers hathe ſent me vnto you: if thei ſay vnto me, What is his Name? what anſwere ſhal I giue them?

14 And God anſwered Moſés, I n AM THAT I AM. Alſo he ſaid, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the childrē of Iſaaél, I AM hathe ſent me vnto you.

n The God ſ haue euer bene, am & ſhalbe: ſ God almightie, by whome all things haue their being, & ſ God of mercie mindeful of my promes, Reuel 1,4.

15 And God ſpake further vnto Moſés, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the children of Iſraél, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abrahám, the God of Izhák, and the God of Iaakób hathe ſent me vnto you: this is my Name for euer, & this is my memorial vnto all ages.

16 Go and gather the Elders of Iſraél together, & thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, The Lord God of your fathers, ſ God of Abrahám, Izhák, & Iaakób appeared vnto me, & ſaid, "I haue ſurely remēbred you, & that which is done to you in Egypt.

"Or, in viſiting b. are viſited.

17 Therefore I did ſay, I wil bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, & the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites, vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony.

18 Then ſhal thei obeie thy voyce, & thou and the Elders of Iſraél ſhal go vnto the King of Egypt, and ſaie vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hathe o met vs: we pray thee now therefore, let vs go thre dayes iourney in the wildernes, that we may o ſacrifice vnto ſ Lord our God.

o Or, appeared vnto vs

o Becauſe Egypt was full of idolatrie, God wolde appoint them a place where they ſhulde ſerue him purely 19 ¶ But I knowe, that the King of Egypt wil not let you go, but by ſtrong hand.

20 Therefore wil I ſtretch out mine hād and ſmite Egypt with all my wonders, w I wil do in the middes therof: and after that ſhal he let you go.

21 And I wil make this people to be fauored of the Egyptians: ſo that when ye go, ye ſhal not go emptie.

p This exãple may not be followed generallye: though at Gods cõmandemẽt they did it iuſtly, receiuing ſome recompence of their labours.

22 p For euerie woman ſhal aſke of her neighbour, and of her that ſoiourneth in her houſe, iewels of ſiluer and iewels of golde & raiment, & ye ſhal put them on your ſonnes, and on your daughters, and ſhal ſpoile the Egyptians.

*Or, in whoſe houſe ſhe ſoiourneth.

CHAP. IIII.

Moſés rod is turned into a ſerpẽt. 6 His hand is leprous. 9 The water of the riuer is turned into blood. 14 Aarón is giuen to helpe Moſés. 21 God hardeneth Pharaóh. 25 His wife circũciſeth her ſonne. 27 Aarón meeteth with Moſés, and thei come to the Iſraelites and are beleued.

a God beareth with Moſés doutig, becauſe he was not al together without faith.

1 THen Moſés anſwered, and ſaid, a But lo, thei wil not beleue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: for thei wil ſay, The Lord hathe not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, What is ỳ in thine hãd? And he anſwered, A rod.

3 Then ſaid he, Caſt it on the grounde. So he caſt it on the grounde, and it was turned into a ſerpent: and Moſés fled from it.

4 Againe the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Put forthe thine hãd, and take it by the taile. Then he put forthe his hand and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

b This power to worke miracles was to confirme his doctrine, & to aſſure him of his vocation.

5 Do this b that thei may beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abrahám, the God of Izhák, & the God of Iaakób hathe appeared vnto thee.

6 ¶And the Lord ſaid furthermore vnto him, Thruſt now thine hand into thy boſome. And he thruſt his hand into his boſome, and when he toke it out againe, beholde, his hand was "leprous as ſnowe.

"Or, white as ſnowe.

7 Moreouer he ſaid, Put thine hand into thy boſome againe. So he put his hãd into his boſome againe, & pluckt it out of his boſome, and beholde, it was turned againe as his other fleſh.

c Or, the wordes confirmed by the firſt ſigne.

8 So ſhal it be, if thei wil not beleue thee, nether obey "the voyce of the firſt ſigne, yet ſhal thei beleue for the voyce of the ſeconde ſigne.

c Becauſe theſe thre ſignes ſhulde be ſufficiente witneſſes to proue ỳ Moſés ſhulde deliuer Gods people 9 But if thei wil not yet beleue theſe two ſignes, nether obey vnto thy voyce, then ſhalt thou take of the c water of the riuer, and powre it vpon the drye land: ſo the water which thou ſhalt take out of the riuer, ſhalbe turned to blood vpon the drye land.

"Ebr. from yeſterdaye, & yer yeſterday

"Ebr heauie of mouthe.

10 ¶But Moſés ſaid vnto the Lord, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, "nether at any time haue bene, nor yet ſince thou haſte ſpoken vnto thy ſeruant: but I am "ſlow of ſpeache and ſlow of tongue.

11 Then the Lord ſaid vnto him, Who hathe giuen the mouth to man? or who hathe made the dõme, or the deafe, or himỳ ſeeth, or the blinde? haue not I the Lord?

Mat. 10, 19. & 12, 13.

12 Therefore go now, and * I wil be with thy mouth, & wil teache thee what thou ſhalt ſay.

13 But he ſaid, Oh my Lord, ſend, I pray thee, by the "hand of him, whome ỳ ſhuldeſt ſend.

*Or, miniſtrie

d That is, of the Meſſias: or ſome other, that is more mete then I 14 Then the Lord was e very angry with Moſés, and ſaid, Do not I knowe Aarón thy brother the Leuite, that he him ſelfe ſhal ſpeake? for lo, he cõmeth alſo forthe to mete thee, and when he ſeeth thee, he wilbe glad in his heart.

e Thogh we prouoke God iuſtly to angre, yet he wil neuer ceaſe his 15 Therefore thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto him, & f put theſe wordes in his mouth, and I wilbe with thy mouth, and ẅ his mouth, and wil teache you what ye ogh to do.

f Thou ſhalt inſtruct him what to ſay.

16 And he ſhalbe thy ſpokeſman vnto the people: he ſhalbe, euen he ſhalbe as thy mouth, & thou ſhalt be to him as g God.

g Meaning as a wiſe counſelor and ful of Gods Spirit.

17 Moreouer ỳ ſhalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou ſhalt do miracles.

18 ¶Therefore Moſés went and returned to Iethró his father in lawe, & ſaid vnto him, I pray thee, let me go, and returne to my "brethren, which are in Egypt, and ſe whether thei be yet aliue. Then Iethró ſaid to Moſés, Go in peace.

*Or, kinſfolke, & liguage

19 (For the Lord had ſaid vnto Moſés in Midian, Go, returne to Egypt: for thei are all dead which went about to kil thee)

20 Then Moſés toke his wife, and his ſonnes, and "put them on an aſſe, and returned towarde the land of Egypt, & Moſés toke the h rod of God in his hand.

"Ebr cauſed them to ride.

h Whereby he wroght the miracles.

21 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, When thou art entred and come into Egypt againe, ſe that thou do all the wonders before Pharaóh, which I haue put in thine hand: but I wil i harden his heart, and he ſhal not let the people go.

i By reteining my ſpirit and deliuerig him vnto Satan to increaſe his malice.

22 Then thou ſhalt ſay to Pharaóh, Thus ſaith the Lord, Iſraél is my ſonne, euẽ my k firſt borne.

k Meaning, moſte dere vnto him.

23 Wherefore I ſay to thee, Let my ſonne go, that he may ſerue me: if thou refuſe to let him go, beholde, I wil ſlay thy ſonne, euen thy firſt borne.

24 ¶And as he was by the way in the ynne, the Lord met him, and l wolde haue killed him.

l God puniſhed with ſickenes for neglecting his Sacrament.

25 Then Zipporáh toke a ſharpe knife, and m cut away the fore ſkinne of her ſonne, and caſt it at his fete, and ſaid, Thou art in dede a bloodie houſband vnto me.

m This acte was extraordinarie: for Moſés was ſore ſicke, and God euen the required it.

26 So "he departed frõ him. Then ſhe ſaid, O bloodie houſband (becauſe of the circumciſion)

"Or, the Angel.

27 ¶Then the Lord ſaid vnto Aarón, Gõ mete Moſés in the wildernes. And he wẽt and met him in the "Mount of God, and kiſſed him.

"Or, Horeb.

28 Then Moſés tolde Aarón all the wordes of the Lord, who had ſent him, and all the ſignes wherewith he had charged him.

29 ¶So went Moſés and Aarón, & gathered all the Elders of the children of Iſraél.

30 And Aarón tolde all the wordes, which the

the Lord had ſpoken vnto Moſés, and he did the miracles in the ſight of the people, n So that Moſés had now experience of Gods promes that he ſhulde haue good ſucceſſe.

31 And the n people beleued, and when they heard that the Lord had viſited ȳ children of Iſraél, and had loked vpon their tribulacíó, they bowed downe, & worſhipped.

CHAP. V.

1 Moſés and Aarón do their meſſage to Pharaóh, who letteth not the people of Iſraél departe but oppreſſeth them more and more. 20 They crye out vpon Moſés & Aarón therefore, and Moſés complaineth to God.

1 THen afterward Moſés & Aarón went & ſaid to a Pharaóh, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, Let my people go, that they maie b celebrate a feaſt vnto me in the wildernes.

a Faith ouercommeth feare, and maketh men bolde in their vocatiõ. b And offre ſacrifice.

2 And Pharaóh ſaid, Who is the Lord, ȳ I ſhulde heare his voyce, & let Iſraél go? I knowe not the Lord, nether wil I let Iſraél go.

c Or, God hathe met vs

3 And they ſaid, c We worſhip the God of ȳ Ebrewes: we pray thee, ſuffre vs to go thre daies iournei in the deſert and to ſacrifice vnto the Lord our God, leſt " he bring vpon vs the peſtilence or ſworde.

" Ebr left he meete vs with peſtilence.

4 Thẽ ſaid the King of Egypt vnto them, Moſés and Aarón, why cauſe ye the people to ceaſe from their workes? get you to your burdens.

5 Phaiaóh ſaid furthermore, Beholde, muche people is now in the land, & ye e make them leaue their burdens.

e As though ye wolde rebel.

6 Therefore Pharaóh gaue commãdemẽt the ſame day vnto the taſkemaſters of the people, and to their d officers, ſaying, d Which were of the Iſraelites and had charge to ſe them do their worke.

7 Ye ſhal giue the people no more ſtrawe, to make bricke (as in time paſt) but let them go and gather them ſtraw them ſelues:

8 Notwithſtanding lay vpon them the nóbre of bricke, which they made in time paſt, diminiſh nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore thei crye, ſaying, Let vs go to offre ſacrifice vnto our God.

e The more cruelly that tyrãts rage, ȳ nerer is Gods helpe 9 e Lay more worke vpon the men, and cauſe them to do it, and let them not regarde f vaine wordes.

f Of Moſés & Aarón

10 ¶ Then went the taſkemaſters of ȳ people & their officers out, and tolde the people, ſaying, Thus ſaith Pharaóh, I wil giue you no more ſtraw.

11 Go your ſelues, get you ſtraw where ye can finde it, yet ſhal nothing of your labour be diminiſhed.

12 Then were the people ſcatred abrode throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather ſtubble in ſtede of ſtraw.

13 And the taſkemaſters haſted thẽ, ſaying, Finiſh your daies worke " euerie dayes taſke, as ye did when ye had ſtraw.

" Ebr the worke of a day in his day

14 And the officers of the children of Iſraél, which Pharaohs taſkemaſters had ſet ouer them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherfore haue ye not fulfilled your taſke in making bricke yeſterday and to day, as in times paſt?

15 ¶ Thẽ the officers of the childrẽ of Iſraél came, & cryed vnto Phaiaóh, ſayíg, Wherefore dealeſt thou thus with thy ſeruants?

16 There is no ſtraw giuen to thy ſeruants, and they ſay vnto vs, Make bricke: and lo, thy ſeruants are beaten, and ᵍthy people is blamed.

g Or, thy people the Egyptias are in the fautt.

17 But he ſaid, " Ye are to muche idle: therefore ye ſay, Let vs go to offre ſacrifice to the Lord.

" Ebr idle, ye are idle

18 Go therefore now & worke: for there ſhal no ſtraw be giuen you, yet ſhal ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Iſraél ſawe thẽ ſelues in an euil caſe, becauſe it was ſaid, Ye ſhal diminiſh nothing of your bricke, nor of euerie daies taſke, h Or, loked ſad on them, whech ſaid.

20 ¶ And they met Moſés & Aarón, which ſtode in their way as they came out from Pharaóh, 21 To whome they ſaid, The Lord loke vpon you and iudge: for ye haue made our ſauour to * ſtincke before Pharaóh & before his ſeruants, in that ye haue g put a ſworde in their hand to ſlay vs.

Read, Gen. 34.30.

g It is agreuous thing to the ſeruants of God to be accuſed of euil, ſpecially of their brethren, when they do as their duetie requireth.

22 Wherefore Moſés returned to ȳ Lord, and ſaid, Lord, why haſt thou afflicted this people? wherefore haſt thou thus ſent me?

23 For ſince I came to Phãraóh to ſpeake in thy Name, he hathe vexed this people, and yet thou haſt not deliuered thy people.

CHAP. VI.

3 God renueth his promes of the deliuerance of the Iſraelites. 9 Moſés ſpeaketh to the Iſraelites, but they beleue him not. 10 Moſés and Aarón are ſent againe to Pharaóh. 14 The genealogie of Reuben, Simeón, and Leui, of whome came Moſés and Aarón.

1 THẽ the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Now ſhalt thou ſe, what I wil do vnto Pharaóh: for by a ſtrong hand ſhal he let them go, and euen "be conſtreined to driue thẽ out of his land.

" Ebr in a ſtrõg hand.

2 Moreouer God ſpake vnto Moſés, and ſaid vnto him, I am the Lord,

3 And I appeared vnto Abrahám, to Izhák, and to Iaakób by the Name of ⁱ Almightie God: but by my Name a Iehouáh was I not knowen vnto them.

i Or, all ſufficiẽte

a Wherby he ſignifieth that he wil perfourme in dede ȳ, which he promiſed to their fathers: for this Name declareth ȳ he is conſtant & wil performe his promes

4 Furthermore as I made my couenãt with them to giue them the land of Canáan, the lãd of their pilgremage, wherein they were ſtrangers:

5 So I haue alſo heard the groning of the children of Iſraél, whome the Egyptians kepe in bondage, & haue remembred my couenant.

6 Wherefore ſay thou vnto the childrē of Iſraél, I am the Lord, and I wil bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and wil deliuer you out of their bondage, and wil redeme you in a ſtretched out arme, and in great iudgementes.

*Or, plagues.

7 Alſo I wil [b] take you for my people, and wil be your God: then ye ſhal knowe ỹ I the Lord your God bring you out from ỹ burdens of the Egyptians.

b He meaneth, as touching the outward vocatiō: for election to life euerlaſting is immutable

8 And I wil bring you into the land which I [a] ſware that I wolde giue to Abrahám, to Izhák and to Iaakób, and I wil giue it vnto you for a poſſeſsion: I am the Lord.

a Or, lift vp mine hand

9 ¶ So Moſés tolde the children of Iſraél thus: but thei hearkened [c] not vnto Moſés, for anguiſh of ſpirit & for cruel bōdage.

c So hard a thing it is to ſhewe true obedience vnder the croſſe.

10 Then the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

11 Go ſpeake to Pharaóh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Iſraél go out of his land.

12 But Moſés ſpake before ỹ Lord, ſaying, Beholde, the children of Iſraél hearken not vnto me, how then ſhal Pharaóh heare me, which am of [d] vncircumciſed lippes?

d Or, barbarous and rude in ſpeache & by this worde (vncircumciſed) is ſignified the whole corruption of mans nature.

13 Then the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés and vnto Aarón, & charged them to go to the children of Iſraél and to Pharaóh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Iſraél out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ Theſe be the [e] heades of their fathers houſes: the ſonnes of Reubén the firſt borne of Iſraél are Hanóch and Pallú, Hezrón and Carmí: theſe are the families of Reubén.

e This genealogie ſheweth of whome Moſés and Aarón came.

15 Alſo the ſonnes of Simeón: Iemuél & Iamín, & Ohád, and Iachín, & Zóar, and Shaúl the ſonne of a Canaanitiſh womā: theſe are the families of Simeón.

16 ¶ Theſe alſo are the names of the ſonnes of Leuí in their generacions: Gerſhón & Kohath and Merarí (and the yeres of the life of Leuí were an hundreth [f] thirty and ſeuen yere) f For he was 42 yere olde, when he came into Egypt, and there liued 94.

17 The ſonnes of Gerſhón were Libní & Shimí by their families.

18 And the ſonnes of Kohath, Amrám and Izhár, & Hebrón and Vzziél. (& Kohath liued an hundreth thirty and three yere)

19 Alſo the ſonnes of Merarí were Mahalí and Muſhí: theſe are the families of Leuí by their kinreds.

20 And Amrám toke Iochébed his [g] fathers ſiſter to his wife, and ſhe bare him Aarón and Moſés (and Amrám liued and hundreth thirty and ſeuen yere) g Which kinde of mariage was after in ỹ lawe forbidden, Lenit 18, 12.

21 ¶ Alſo the ſonnes of Izhár: [h] Kórah, & Népheg, and Zichrí.

h Moſés and he were brethrēs childrē, whoſe rebellion was puniſhed, Nomb. 16, 1 22 And the ſonnes of Vzziél: Miſhaél, and Elzaphán, and Sithrí.

23 And Aarón toke Eliſhéba daughter of [i] Amminadáb, ſiſter of Nahaſhón to his wife, which bare him Nadáb, and Abihú, Eleazár and Ithamár.

i Who was a Prince of Iudáh, Nom 2, 3.

24 Alſo the ſonnes of Kórah: Aſsír, & Elkanáh, & Abiaſáph: theſe are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazár Aarons ſonne toke him one of the daughters of Putiél to his wife, which bare him * Phinehás: theſe are the principal fathers of the Leuites through out their families. *Nom. 25, 10.

26 Theſe are Aarón and Moſés to whome the Lord ſaid, Bring the childrē of Iſraél out of the land of Egypt, according to their [k] armies.

k For their families were ſo great, ỹ they might be compared to armies.

27 Theſe are ỹ Moſés & Aarón, ẅ ſpake to Pharaóh King of Egypt, that they might bring the childrē of Iſraél out of Egypt.

28 ¶ And at that time when the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés in the land of Egypt,

29 When the Lord, I ſay, ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying, I am the Lord, ſpeake thou vnto Pharaóh the King of Egypt all that I ſay vnto thee, 30 Then Moſés ſaid before the Lord, Beholde, I am of [l] vncircumciſed lippes, and how ſhal Pharaóh heare me?

l The diſobedience both of Moſés and of ỹ people ſheweth ỹ their deliuerance came onely of Gods fre mercie.

CHAP. VII.

1 God hardeneth Pharaohs heart. 10 Moſés and Aarón do the miracles of the ſerpent, and the blood: and Pharaohs ſorcerers do the like.

1 THē the Lord ſaid to Moſés, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaohs [a] God, & Aarón thy brother ſhal be thy Prophet.

a I haue giuē thee power & autoritie to ſpeake in my name and to execute my iudgemēts vpon him.

2 Thou ſhalt ſpeake all that I commanded thee: and Aarón thy brother ſhal ſpeake vnto Pharaóh, that he ſuffre the children of Iſraél to go out of his land.

*Or ſhal ſpeake for thee (before Pharaoh)

3 But I wil harden Pharaohs heart, and multiplie my miracles and my wondres in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaóh ſhal not hearkē vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, & bring out mine armies, euē my people, the childrē of Iſraél out of the lād of Egypt, by great [b] iudgements.

b To ſtrengthē Moſés faith, God promiſeth againe to puniſhe moſte ſharpely the oppreſsion of his Church.

5 Then the Egyptians ſhal know that I am ỹ Lord, when I ſtretch forthe mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Iſraél from among them.

6 So Moſés and Aarón did as the Lord commanded them, euen ſo did they.

7 (Now Moſés was [c] foure ſcore yere olde, & Aarón foure ſcore and thre, when thei ſpake vnto Pharaóh) c Moſés liued in affliction & banniſhement 40 yere before he enioyed his office to deliuer Gods people.

8 ¶ And the Lord had ſpoken vnto Moſés and Aarón, ſaying, 9 If Pharaóh ſpeake vnto you, ſaying, Shewe a miracle for you, then ỹ ſhalt ſay vnto Aarón, Take thy rod & caſt it before Pharaóh, and it ſhal be turned ito a [d] ſerpēt.

d Or, dragon.

10 ¶ Then went Moſés and Aarón vnto Pharaóh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aarón caſte forthe his rod rod before Pharaóh and before his ſeruants, and it was turned into a ſerpent.

11 Then Pharaóh called alſo for the wiſe men and [d] ſorcerers: and thoſe charmers alſo of Egypt did in like maner with their enchantements.

[d] It ſemeth that theſe were Iannes and Iambres, read 2 Tim. 3. ſo euer the wicked maliciouſly reſiſt the truth of God.

12 For they caſt downe euerie man his rod, and thei were turned into ſerpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, & he hearkned not to thē, as the Lord had ſaid.

14 ¶ The Lord then ſaid vnto Moſés, Pharaohs heart is [o]obſtinat, he refuſeth to let the people go.

[o] Or, heauy and dul.

15 Go vnto Pharaóh in the morning, (lo, he wil come vnto the water) & thou ſhalt ſtand & mete him by [e] the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a ſerpent, ſhalt thou take in thine hand.

[e] To wit the riuer Nilus.

16 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto him, The Lord God of ỹ Ebrews hath ſent me vnto thee, ſaying, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me in the wildernes: & beholde, hitherto thou woldeſt not heare.

17 Thus ſaith the Lord, In this thou ſhalt knowe that I am the Lord: beholde, I wil ſmite with the rod that is in mine hād vpon ỹ water that is in the riuer, & it ſhalbe turned to blood.

18 And the fiſh that is in the riuer ſhal dye, and the riuer ſhal ſtinke, & it ſhal [f]greue ỹ Egyptiās to drinke of ỹ water of ỹ riuer.

[f] For they ſhalbe weary, and ab horre to drinke.

19 ¶ The Lord then ſpake to Moſés, Say vnto Aarón, Take thy rod, & ſtretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their ſtreames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their pondes, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they ſhalbe ‖ blood, and there ſhalbe blood through out all ỹ land of Egypt, bothe in veſſels of wood, & of ſtone.

‖ The firſt plague

20 So Moſés and Aarón did euē as the Lord commanded: * and he lift vp the rod, and ſmote the water that was in the riuer in ỹ ſight of Pharaóh, and in the ſight of his ſeruants: and all the water that was in the riuer, was turned into blood.

*Chap. 17. 5.

21 And the [t] fiſh that was in the riuer dyed, and the riuer ſtanke: ſo that the Egyptiās colde not drinke of the water of the riuer: and there was blood through out all the land of Egypt.

[t] To ſignifie that it was a true miracle, and that God plagued them in that, which was moſte neceſſarie for ỹ preſeruatiō of life

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did [g] like wiſe w̄ their ſorceries: & the heart of Pharaóh was hardened: ſo ỹ he did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had ſaid.

[g] In outward appearance, & after that the 7. daies were ended.

23 Then Pharaóh returned, & wēt againe into his houſe, "nether did this yet entre into his heart.

"Ebr. he ſet not his heart at all therevnto.

24 All ỹ Egyptiās thē digged round about ỹ riuer for waters to drinke. for they colde not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And this cōtinued fully ſeuē daies after the Lord had ſmitten the riuer.

CHAP. VIII.

6 Frogges are ſent. 13 Moſés praieth and they dye. 15 Lyce are ſet, whereby the ſorcerers acknowledge Gods power. 24 Egypt is plagued with noyſom flies. 30 Moſés praieth againe: 32 But Pharaohs heart is hardened.

1 AFterwarde the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Go vnto Pharaóh, and tel him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Let my people go, ỹ they may ſerue me:

2 And if thou wilt not let them go, beholde, I wil ſmite all thy coūtrey with [a] frogges:

[a] There is nothing ſo weake, that God cā not cauſe to ouercome the greateſt power of man.

3 And the riuer ſhal ſcrall ful of frogges, which ſhal go vp and come into thine houſe: and into thy chambre, where thou ſlepeſt, and vpon thy bed, & into the houſe of thy ſeruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine ouens, and [o] into thy kneading troghes.

[o] Or, vpon thy degh or, into thine ſawrers.

4 Yea, the frogges ſhal climbe vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy ſeruants.

5 ¶ Alſo the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Say thou vnto Aarón, Stretch thine hand with thy rod vpon the ſtreames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the pōdes, and cauſe frogges to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aarón ſtretched his hād vpon the waters of Egypt, and the ‖ frogges came vp, and couered the land of [b] Egypt.

‖ The ſeconde plague.
b But Gōſhen, where Gods people dwelt, was excepted.

7 And ỹ ſorcerers did likewiſe with their ſorceries, and broght frogges vp vpō the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaóh called for Moſés & Aarón, & ſaid, [c] Pray ye vnto the Lord that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people, & I wil let the people go, that they may do ſacrifice vnto the Lord.

[c] Not loue, but feare cauſeth the very infideles to ſeke vnto God.

9 And Moſés ſaid vnto Pharaóh, "As concerning me, euen commande when I ſhal praye for thee, and for thy ſeruants, and for thy people, to deſtroye the frogges frō thee and from thine houſes, that they may remaine in the riuer onely.

"Ebr. Haue this honour ouer me.

10 Thē he ſaid, To morowe. And he anſwered, Be it "as ỹ haſt ſaid, that thou maieſt knowe, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.

"Ebr. according to thy worde.

11 So the frogges ſhal departe frō thee, & from thine houſes, and from thy ſeruants, and from thy people: onely they ſhal remayne in the riuer.

12 Then Moſes and Aarón went out from Pharaóh: and Moſés cryed vnto the Lord cōcerning the frogges, which he had "ſent vnto Pharaóh.

"Or, laid vpon.

13 And the Lord did according to the ſaying of Moſés; ſo the frogges [d] dyed in the houſes, in the townes, & in the fields.

[d] In things of this life God oft times heareth the prayers of the iuſt for the vngodly.

14 And they gathered them togither by heapes, and the land ſtanke of them.

15 But whē Pharaóh ſawe that he had reſt giuen him, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had ſaid.

16 ¶ Againe the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Say vnto Aarón, Stretche out thy rod, & ſmite the duſt of the earth, that it may be turned to ‖ lyce throughout all the land of Egypt.

‖ The third plague.

17 And they did ſo: for Aarón ſtretched out his hand with his rod, and ſmote the duſt of the earth: and lyce came vpō man & vpon beaſt: all the duſt of the earth was lyce throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now ỹ enchāters aſſaied likewiſe with their enchantments to bring forthe lyce, but they [e] colde not. ſo the lyce were vpō man and vpon beaſt.

e God confoūded their wiſedome & authoritie in a thing moſte vile 19 Then ſaid ỹ enchanters vnto Pharaóh, This is [f] the finger of God. But Pharaohs heart remained obſtinat, and he hearckened not vnto them, as the Lord had ſaid.

f They acknowledged ỹ this was done by Gods power and not by ſorcerie

20 ¶ Moreouer the Lord ſaid to Moſés, Riſe vp early in ỹ morning, and ſtand before Phaiaóh (lo, he wil come forthe vnto the water) & ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith ỹ Lord, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

21 Els, if ỹ wilt not let my people go, beholde, I wil ſend [g] ſwarmes of flies bothe vpon thee, & vpon thy ſeruants, and vpon thy people, & into thine houſes: and the houſes of the Egyptiās ſhalbe ful of ſwarmes of flies, and the grounde alſo whereon they are.

g Or, a multitude of venimous beaſts, as ſerpents, &c.

22 But the land of Góſhen, where my people are, wil I cauſe to be [h] wonderful in that day, ſo that no ſwarmes of flies ſhal be there, ỹ thou maieſt knowe that I am the Lord in the middes of the [i] earth.

h Or, I wil ſeperat.

i Or, Land of Egypt

23 And I wil make a deliuerāce of my people from thy people: to morowe ſhal this miracle be.

24 And the Lord did ſo: for there came ‖ great ſwarmes of flies into the houſe of Pharaóh, and into his ſeruants houſes, ſo that through all the land of Egypt the earth was corrupt by the ſwarmes of flies.

‖ The fourthe plague.

25 Then Pharaóh called for Moſés and Aarón, & ſaid, Go, do ſacrifice vnto your God in this land.

26 But Moſés anſwered, It is not mete to do ſo: for then we ſhulde offre vnto the Lord our God that, which is an [k] abomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, can we ſacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eies, and they not ſtone vs?

k For the Egyptians worſhipped diuers beaſts, as the oxe, the ſhepe & ſuche like, ỹ the Iſraelites offred in ſacrifice 27 Let vs go thre daies iourney in the deſert, & ſacrifice vnto the Lord our God, as he hathe commanded vs.

28 And Pharaóh ſaid, I wil let you go, ỹ ye may ſacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wildernes: but [l] go not farre away, pray for me.

l So ỹ wicked preſcribe vnto Gods meſſengers how farre they ſhal go 29 And Moſés ſaid, Beholde, I wil go out from thee, and pray vnto the Lord, that ỹ ſwarmes of flies may departe frō Pharaóh, from his ſeruants, and from his people tomorowe: but let Phaiaóh fro hence forthe [i] deceiue no more, in not ſuffring ỹ people to ſacrifice vnto the Lord.

i He colde not iudge his heart, but yet he charged him to do this vnfainedly

30 So Moſés went out from Phaiaóh and prayed vnto the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to ỹ ſaying of Moſés, and the ſwarmes of flies departed from Pharaóh, from his ſeruants, and frō his people, & there remained not one.

32 Yet Pharaóh [k] hardened his heart euen then alſo, & did not let the people go.

k Where God giueth not faith, no miracles can preuaile.

CHAP. IX.

1 The moraine of beaſtes 10 The plague of botches & ſores 23 The horrible haile, thundre, and the lightening. 26 The land of Góſhen euer is excepted 27 Pharaóh cōfeſſeth his wickednes 33 Moſés praieth for him, 35 Yet is he obſtinat.

1 THen the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Go to Pharaóh, and tel him, Thus ſaith ỹ Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

2 But if thou refuſe to let them go, & wilt yet holde them ſtil,

3 Beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpō thy flocke which is in the field: for vpon ỹ horſes, vpon the aſſes, vpon the camels, vpon the cattel, & vpō the ſhepe ſhalbe a ‖ mighty great moraine.

‖ The fift plague

4 And the Lord ſhal do [a] wonderfully betwene the beaſtes of Iſraél, and the beaſtes of Egypt: ſo that there ſhal nothing dye of all ỹ perteineth to the childrē of Iſraél.

a He ſhal declare his heauie iudgement againſt his enemies, & his fauour toward his children.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, ſaying, Tomorowe the Lord ſhal finiſh this thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did it on the morowe, & all the cattel of Egypt dyed: but of the cattel of the children of Iſraél dyed not one.

7 Then Pharaóh [b] ſent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattel of the Iſraelites dead: and the heart of Pharaóh was obſtinat, and he did not let the people go.

b In to the lād of Góſhē, where the Iſraelites dwelled

8 ¶ And the Lord ſaid to Moſés & to Aarón, Take your handful of [c] aſſhes of the fornace, and Moſés ſhal ſprinkle them towarde the heauen in the ſight of Phaiaóh, c Or, imbers.

9 And they ſhalbe turned to duſt in all the land of Egypt: & it ſhalbe as a ſcab breaking out into bliſters vpon man and vpon beaſt throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then they toke aſſhes of the fornace, and ſtode before Pharaóh: and Moſés ſprinkled them towarde the heauen, and there came ‖ a ſcab breaking out into bliſters vpon man, and vpon beaſt.

‖ The fixt plague

11 And the ſorcerers colde not ſtād before Moſés, becauſe of ỹ ſcab: for the ſcab was vpon the enchanters, & vpon all the Egyp-gyptians.

12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Phaiaóh, and he hearkened not vnto thē, *as the Lord had ſaid vnto Moſés.

*Chap. 4,21.

13 ¶Alſo the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Riſe vp earely in the morning, and ſtand before Phaiaóh, and tel him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of ỹ Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

14 For I wil at this time ſend all my plagues vpon [c] thine heart, and vpon thy ſeruants, & vpon thy people, that thou maieſt know that there is none like me in all the earth.

c So that thine owne conſcience ſhal cōdemne thee of ingratitude & malice

15 For now I wil ſtretche out mine hand, that I may ſmite thee & thy people with the peſtilence: & thou ſhalt periſh from the earth.

16 And in dede, *for this cauſe haue [e] I appointed thee, to [f] ſhewe my power in thee, & to declare my [d] Name throughout all the world.

*Rom 9,17.
e Or, ſet thee vp f Or, to ſhewe thee
d That is, ỹ all the world may magnifie my power in ouer cōming thee

17 Yet thou exalteſt thy ſelfe againſt my people, and letteſt them not go.

18 Beholde, tomorowe this time I wil cauſe to raine a mightie great haile, ſuche as was not in Egypt ſince the fundatiō thereof was laid vnto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and [e] gather thy cattel, and all that thou haſt in the field: for vpon all the men, & the beaſtes, which are founde in the field, and not broght home, the haile ſhal fall vpon them and they ſhal dye.

e Here we ſe, thogh Gods wrath be kindeled, yet there is a certein mercie ſhewed euen to his ennemies

20 Suche then as feared the worde of the Lord among the ſeruantes of Pharaóh, made his ſeruants & his cattel flee into the houſes:

21 But ſuche as "regarded not the [f] worde of the Lord, left his ſeruants, and his cattel in the field.

"Ebr. ſet not his heart to f The worde of the miniſter is called the worde of God

22 ¶And the Lord ſaid to Moſés, Stretche forthe thine hād toward heauen, that there may be haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man and vpon beaſt, and vpon all ỹ herbes of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moſés ſtretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord ſent thundre & ‖ haile, and "lightening vpon the grounde: and the Lord cauſed haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.

‖The ſeuenth plague
"Ebr. fire walked

24 So there was haile, & fire mingled with the haile, ſo grieuous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, ſince "it was a nation.

"Or, ſince it was inhabited

25 And the haile ſmote throughout all the lād of Egypt all that was in ỹ field, bothe man and beaſt: alſo the haile ſmote all ỹ herbes of the field, and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.

26 Onely in the land of Góſhen (where the children of Iſraél were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaóh ſent and called for Moſés and Aarón, and ſaid vnto them, I [g] haue now ſinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

g The wicked confeſſe their ſinnes to their condemnation, but they can not beleue to obteine remiſſion 28 Pray ye vnto ỹ Lord (for it is ynough) that there be no more "mightie thunders & haile, and I wil let you go, and ye ſhal tary no longer.

"Ebr. voices of God.

29 Then Moſés ſaid vnto him, Aſſone as I am out of ỹ citie, I wil ſpreade mine handes vnto the Lord, and the thunder ſhal ceaſe, nether ſhal there be any more haile, that thou maieſt know that the earth is the Lords.

30 Now I knowe that thou, and thy ſeruātes feare the Lord God, [h] before I pray.

h Meaning, ỹ whē they haue their requeſt, they are neuer the better.

31 (And the flaxe, and the barly were ſmitten: for the barly was eared, and the flaxe was bolled.

32 But the wheat & the rye were not ſmitten, for they were "hid in the grounde)

"Or, late ſowen.

33 Then Moſés went out of the citie from Pharaóh & ſpied his hands to the Lord, and the thundre and the haile ceaſed, nether rained it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharaóh ſaw that the raine and the haile and the thundre were ceaſed, he ſinned againe, and hardened his heart bothe he, and his ſeruants.

35 So the heart of Pharaóh was hardened: nether wolde he let the children of Iſraél go, as the Lord had ſaid "by Moſés.

"Eb. by the hād of Moſes.

CHAP. X.

[7] Pharaohs ſeruants counſel him to let the Iſraelites departe 13 Greſhoppers deſtroye the cōtrey. 16 Pharaóh confeſſeth his ſinne 22 Darckenes is ſent 28 Pharaóh forbiddeth Moſés to come any more in his preſence.

1 AGain the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Go to Pharaóh: for * I haue hardened his heart, & the heart of his ſeruants, that I might worke theſe my miracles [7] in the middes of his realme.

*Chap. 4,24.
7 Or, in his preſence

2 And that thou maieſt declare in the [a] eares of thy ſonne, and of thy ſonnes ſonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, & my miracles, which I haue done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

a The miracles ſhulde be ſo great, ỹ they ſhuld be ſpoke of for euer where alſo we ſe ỹ ouette of parēts toward their childrē.

3 Then Moſés and Aarón came vnto Phaiaóh, and ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, How lōg wilt thou refuſe [b] to humble thy ſelfe before me? Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

b The end of afflictions is, to humble our ſelues & true repentāce vnder the hand of God

4 But if thou refuſe to let my people go, beholde, tomorowe wil I bring "greſhoppers into thy coaſtes.

"Or, locuſtes.

5 And they ſhal couer the face of the earth, that a man can not ſe the earth: and they ſhal eat the reſidue which remaineth vnto you, and hathe eſcaped from the haile: & they ſhal eat all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they ſhal fil thine houſes, & all thy ſeruants houſes, and the houſes of all the Egyptians, as nether thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue ſene, ſince the time they were vpon the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaóh.

7 Then Pharaohs ſeruants ſaid vnto him, How lõg ſhal he be [a] an [c] offence vnto vs? let the men go, that they may ſerue the Lord their God: wilt thou firſt knowe ỹ Egypt is deſtroyed?

8 So Moſés and Aarón were broght againe vnto Pharaóh, & he ſaid to them, Go, ſerue the Lord your God, but who are they that ſhal go?

9 And Moſés anſwered, We wil go with õ yong and with our olde, with our ſonnes and with our daughters, with our ſhepe and with our cattel wil we go: for we muſt celebrate a feaſt vnto the Lord.

10 And he ſaid vnto them, Let [d] the Lord ſo be with you, as I wil let you go and your children: beholde, for [e] euil is before your face.

11 It ſhal not be ſo: now go ye that are mẽ, and ſerue the Lord: for that was your deſire. Then they were thruſt out from Pharaohs preſence.

12 ¶ After, ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Stretch out thine hand vpon the land of Egypt for the greſhoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eat all the herbes of the land, euen all that the haile hathe left.

13 Then Moſés ſtretched forthe his rod vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord broght an Eaſt winde vpon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning ỹ Eaſt winde broght the ‖ greſhoppers.

14 So the greſhoppers went vp vpõ all the land of Egypt, and [g] remained in all quarters of Egypt: ſo grieuous greſhoppers, like to theſe were neuer before, nether after them ſhalbe ſuche.

15 For they couered all the face of ỹ earth, ſo that the land was darcke: and they did eat all the herbes of the land, and all the fruites of the trees, which ỹ haile had left, ſo ỹ there was no grene thing left vpon the trees, nor among ỹ herbes of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaóh called for [f] Moſés and Aarón in haſte, and ſaid, I haue ſinned againſt the Lord your God, and againſt you.

17 And nowe forgiue me my ſinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 Moſes then went out from Pharaóh, and praied vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie ſtrong Weſt winde, and toke away the greſhoppers, and violently caſt thẽ into the red Sea, ſo that there remained not one greſhopper in all the coaſt of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he did not let the children of Iſraél go.

21 ¶ Againe the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, ỹ there may be vpon ỹ lãd of Egypt darcknes, euen darcknes that may be [h] felt.

22 Then Moſés ſtretched forthe his hand toward heauen, and there was a ‖ blacke * darcknes in all the land of Egypt thre dayes.

23 No man ſaw an other, nether roſe vp frõ the place where he was for thre dayes: *but all the children of Iſraél had light where they dwelt.

24 Then Pharaóh called for Moſés and ſaid, Go, ſerue the Lord: onely your ſhepe and your cattel ſhal abide, and your children ſhal go with you.

25 And Moſés ſaid, Thou muſt giue vs alſo ſacrifices, and burnt offrings that we may do ſacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattel alſo ſhal go wt vs: there ſhal not an [i] hoofe be left, for thereof muſt we take to ſerue the Lord our God: nether do we knowe [k] how we ſhal ſerue the Lord, vntil we come thither.

27 (But ỹ Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he wolde not let them go)

28 And Pharaóh ſaid vnto him, Get thee frõ me: loke thou ſe my face no more: for whenſoeuer thou commeſt in my ſight, thou ſhalt [l] dye.

29 Then Moſés ſaid, Thou haſt ſaid wel: from henceforthe wil I ſe thy face nomore.

CHAP. XI.

1 God promiſeth their departure 2 He willeth them to borrow their neighbours iewels. 3 Moſés was eſteemed of all ſaue Pharaoh. 5 He ſignifieth the death of the firſt borne.

1 NOw (the Lord had ſaid vnto Moſés, Yet wil I bring one plague more vpon Pharaóh, and vpon Egypt: after that he wil let you go hence: when he letteth you go, he ſhal [a] at once chaſe you hence.

2 Speake thou now to the people, that euerie man [o] require of his neighbour, and euerie woman of her neighbour * iewels of ſiluer and iewels of golde.

3 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the ſight of the Egyptians: alſo * Moſés was verie great in the land of Egypt, in the ſight of Pharaohs ſeruants, and in the ſight of the people)

4 Alſo Moſés ſaid, Thus ſaith ỹ Lord, *About midnight wil I go out into ỹ mid-des

---

[a] Meaning, the occaſion of all theſe euils: ſo are the godlie euer charged, as Elias was by Achab

[b] That is, I wolde ỹ Lord were no more affectioned toward you, thẽ I am minded to let you go

[c] Puniſhemẽt is prepared for you. Some read, Ye entend ſome miſchief.

‖ The eight plague.

[g] Or, he cauſed thẽ to remaine

The wicked in their miſerie ſeke to Gods miniſters for helpe, albeit they hate & deteſt thẽ

[h] Becauſe it was ſo thicke.

‖ The ninthe plague

Wiſd.17.20.

Wiſd.18.1.

[i] The miniſters of God ought not to yelde one iote to the wicked, as touching their charge

[k] That is, with what beaſtes or how many.

[l] Though before he coteſſed Moſés iuſt, yet gainſt his owne conſcience he threatneth to put him to death

[a] Without anie condition, but with haſte and violence

[o] Or, borrowe.

Chap.3.22.

Ecc.45.3

des of Egypt.
5 And all the firſt borne in the land of Egypt ſhal dye, frō the firſtborne of Pharaóh that ſitteth on his throne, vnto the firſtborne of the maid ſeruant, that is at [b] the mille, & all the firſt borne of beaſtes.
6 Then there ſhal be a great crye throughout all the land of Egypt, ſuche as was neuer none like, nor ſhalbe.
7 But againſt none of the children of Iſraél ſhal a dog moue his tongue, nether againſt man nor beaſt, that ye may knowe that the Lord putteth a difference betwene the Egyptians and Iſraél.
8 And all theſe thy ſeruantes ſhal come downe vnto me, and fall before me, ſaying, Get thee out, and all the people that [c] are at thy fete, & after this wil I depart. So he wēt out from Pharaóh very angry.
9 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Pharaóh ſhal not heare you, [d] that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.
10 So Moſés and Aarón did all theſe wonders before Pharaóh: but the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he ſuffred not the children of Iſraél to go out of his land.

b From the hieſt to the loweſt

c That is, vnder thy power and gouernement

d God hardeneth the hartes of ỳ reprobat, that his glorie thereby might be the more ſet forthe, rom 9. 17.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Lord inſtituteth the Paſſeouer. 26 The fathers muſt teache their children the myſterie thereof 29 The firſt borne are ſlaine 31 The Iſraelites are driuen out of the land. 35 The Egyptians reſpoiled 37 The nombre that departeth out of Egypt. 40 How long they were in Egypt

1 THen the Lord ſpake to Moſés and to Aarón in the land of Egypt, ſaying,
2 This [a] moneth ſhal be vnto you the beginning of moneths: it ſhalbe to you the firſt [b] moneth of the yere.
3 Speake ye vnto all the Congregacion of Iſraél, ſaying, In the tenth of this moneth let euerie man take vnto him a lambe according to the houſe of the [c] fathers, a lābe for an houſe.
4 If the houſholde be to litle for the lambe, he ſhal take his neighbour, which is next vnto his houſe, according to the nōbre of the perſones: euerie one of you, according to his [d] eating ſhal make your compt for the lambe.
5 Your lambe ſhalbe without blemiſh, a male of a yere olde: ye ſhal take it of the lambes, or of the kiddes.
6 And ye ſhal kepe it vntil the fourteenth day of this moneth · then [e] all the multitude of the Congregacion of Iſraél ſhal kil it "at euen.
7 After thei ſhal take of the blood & ſtrike it on the two poſtes, and on the vpper doore poſt of the houſes where thei ſhal eat it.
8 And thei ſhal eat the fleſh ỳ ſame night, roſte with fyre, & vnleauened bread with ſower herbes thei ſhal eat it.

a Called Niſan, contemig parte of Marche & parte of April

b As touching the obſeruatiō of feaſtes: as for other policies, thei rekoned from Septembre

c As ỳ fathers of ỳ houſholde had great or ſmale families.

d He ſhal take ſo many as are ſufficient to eat the lambe.

e Euerie one in his houſe.

"Ebr betwene the two euenings, or twilight

9 Eat not thereof rawe, boiled nor ſoddē in water, but roſte with fyre, both his [f] head, his fete, and his purtenance.
10 And ye ſhal reſerue nothing of it vnto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it vnto the morowe, ſhal ye burne with fyre.
11 ¶ And thus ſhal ye eat it, Your loynes girded, your ſhoes on your fete, & your ſtaues in your hands, and ye ſhal eat it in haſte: for it is the Lords Paſſeouer.
12 For I wil paſſe through the land of Egypt the ſame night, and wil ſmite all the firſt borne in the land of Egypt, bothe mā and beaſt, and I wil execute iudgement vpō all the "gods of Egypt. I am the Lord.
13 And the blood ſhalbe a token for you vpon the houſes where ye are: ſo when I ſe the blood, I wil paſſe ouer you, and the plague ſhal not be vpon you to deſtruction, when I ſmite the land of Egypt.
14 And this day ſhalbe vnto you a [h] remēbrance: and ye ſhal kepe it an holy feaſt vnto the Lord, throughout your generacions: ye ſhal kepe it holy by an ordinance [i] for euer.
15 Seuē daies ſhal ye eat vnleauened bread, & in any caſe ye ſhal put away leauen the firſt day out of your houſes: for whoſoeuer eateth leauened bread from the firſt day vntil the ſeuenth day, that perſone ſhal be cut of from Iſraél.
16 And in the firſt day ſhalbe an holy "aſſemblie: alſo in the ſeuenth day ſhal be an holy aſſemblie vnto you: no worke ſhalbe done in them, ſaue about that which euerie man muſt eat: that onely may ye do.
17 Ye ſhal kepe alſo the feaſt of vnleauened bread: for that ſame day I wil bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye ſhal obſerue this day, throughout your poſteritie, by an ordinance for euer.
18 ¶ In the firſt moneth and the fourteenth day of the moneth at [k] euen, ye ſhal eat vnleauened bread vnto the one and twentieth day of the moneth at euen.
19 Seuen dayes ſhal no leauen be founde in your houſes: for whoſoeuer eateth leauened bread, that perſone ſhalbe cut of frō the Congregacion of Iſraél: whether he be a ſtranger, or borne in the land.
20 Ye ſhal eat no leauened bread: but in all your habitacions ſhal ye eat vnleauened bread.
21 ¶ Thē Moſés called all the Elders of Iſraél, and ſaid vnto them, Choſe out and take you for euerie of your houſholdes a lambe, and kil the Paſſeouer.
22 And take a * bunche of hyſſope, and dip it in the blood that is in the baſſen, & ſtrike the "lintel, and the "doore chekes with the blood that is in the baſſen, & let none of you go out at the doore of his houſe, vnh.i.

f That is, all that may be eaten

g The lambe was not the Paſſeouer, but ſignified it. as ſacraméts are not the thing it ſelfe, which thei do repreſent, but ſignifie it.

*Ebr. 11. 28.

"Or, princes, or idoles

h Of the benefite receiued for your deliuerance.

i That is, vntil Chriſts comming: for then ceremonies had an end.

"Or, calling together of the people to ſeruice God

k For in olde time ſo thei cōpted, beginnig the day at ſunne ſet til ỳ next day at ỳ ſame time

"Or, vrancour, or, vpper dore poſte

"Or, two ſide poſtes

til the morning.

23 For the Lord wil paſſe by to ſmite the Egyptians: and when he ſeeth the blood vpon the lintel & on the two dore chekes, the Lord wil paſſe ouer the dore, & wil not ſuffre the [l] deſtroyer to come into your houſes to plague you.

l The Angel ſent of God to kil the firſt borne 24 Therefore ſhal ye obſerue this thing as an ordinance bothe for thee and thy ſonnes for euer.

25 And when ye ſhal come into the [m] land, which the Lord wil giue you, as he hathe promiſed, then ye ſhal kepe this [*] ſeruice.

m The land of Canaan

*Or, ceremonie.

Iosh.4.6.

26 *And whē your children aſke you, What ſeruice is this ye kepe?

27 Then ye ſhal ſay, It is the ſacrifice of the Lords Paſſeouer, which paſſed ouer the houſes of the children of Iſraél in Egypt, when he ſmote the Egyptians, and preſerued our houſes. Then the people [n] bowed them ſelues, and worſhipped.

n Thei gaue God thankes for ſo great a benefite.

28 So the children of Iſraél went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moſés and Aarón: ſo did thei.

Chap 11.4. ‖The 10th plague.

29 ¶Now at* midnight, the Lord ‖ ſmote all the firſtborne in the lād of Egypt, fró the firſtborne of Pharaóh that ſate on his throne, vnto the* firſtborne of the captiue that was in priſon, and all the firſtborne of beaſtes.

Wiſd 18.5.

30 And Pharaóh roſe vp in the night, he, and all his ſeruants & all the Egyptians: and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was [o] no houſe where there was not one dead.

o Of theſe houſes, wherin any firſtborne was either of mē or beaſtes.

31 And he called to Moſés and to Aarón by night, & ſaid, Riſe vp, get you out fró among my people, bothe ye, and the children of Iſraél, and go ſerue the Lord as ye haue ſaid.

32 Take alſo your ſhepe and your cattel as ye haue ſaid, and departe, and [p] bleſſe me alſo.

p Pray for me

33 And the Egyptiās did force the people, becauſe thei wolde ſend them out of the land in haſte: for thei ſaid, We dye all.

34 Therefore the people toke their dowe before it was leauened, euen their dowe bounde in clothes vpon their ſhulders.

35 And the children of Iſraél did accoording to the ſaying of Moſés, and thei aſked of the Egyptians * iewels of ſiluer & iewels of golde, and raiment.

Chap 3.22. & 11.2. Iosh.24.6.

36 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the ſight of the Egyptians: and thei [q] grāted their requeſt: ſo thei ſpoiled the Egyptians.

Nomb 33.3.

37 Then the* children of Iſraél toke their iourney from [q] Rameſés to Succóth about ſix hundreth thouſand men of fote, beſide children.

q Which was a citie in Gōſhen, Gen 47, 11

38 And [r] a great multitude of ſundry ſortes of people went out with them, and r Which were ſtrangers, and not borne of the Iſraelites.

ſhepe, and beues, & cattel in great abundance.

39 And thei baked the dowe which thei broght out of Egypt, & made vnleauened cakes: for it was not leauened, becauſe thei were thruſt out of Egypt, nether colde they tary, nor yet prepare them ſelues vitailes.

40 ¶So the dwelling of the childrē of Iſraél, while thei dwelled in Egypt, *was foure hundreth and thirty yeres.

Gen 15.16. act 7.6. Gala 3.17.

41 And when the [s] foure hundreth & thirty yeres were expired, euen the ſelfe ſame day departed all the hoſtes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

s Frō Abrahās departing frō Vr in Chaldea vnto ỹ departing of ỹ children of Iſraél from Egypt, are 430 yeres.

42 It is a night to be kept holy to the Lord, becauſe he broght them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the childrē of Iſraél muſt kepe throughout their generacions.

43 Alſo the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés and Aarón, This is the lawe of the Paſſeouer: [t] no ſtranger ſhal eat thereof.

t Except he be circūciſed & onely profeſſe your religion.

44 But euerie ſeruāt that is boght for money, when thou haſt circūciſed him, then ſhal he eat thereof.

45 A ſtranger or an hyred ſeruant ſhal not eat thereof.

46 *In one houſe ſhal it be eatē: thou ſhalt cary none of the fleſh out of the houſe, *nether ſhal ye breake a bone thereof.

Nombr 9.12. Iohn.19.36.

47 All the Cōgregacion of Iſraél ſhal obſerue it.

48 But if a ſtranger dwel with thee, & wil obſerue the Paſſeouer of ỹ Lord, let him circumciſe all the males, that belong vnto him, and then let him come and obſerue it, and he ſhalbe as one that is borne in the land: for none vncircumciſed perſone ſhal eat thereof.

49 One [u] law ſhalbe to him that is borne in the land, & to the ſtranger that dwelleth among you.

u Thei that are of ỹ houſholde of God, muſt be all ioyned in one faith and religion.

50 Then all the children of Iſraél did as the Lord commanded Moſés and Aarón: ſo did thei.

51 And the ſelfe ſame day did the Lord bring the children of Iſraél out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The firſtborne are offred to God. 3 The memorial of their deliuerance. 8.14 An exhortacion to teache their children to remembre this deliuerance. 17 Why thei are led by the wilderne. 19 The bones of Ioſeph. 21 The piller of the cloude and of the fire.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 *Sanctifie vnto me all the firſtborne: that is, euerie one that firſt openeth the wombe among the children of Iſraél, as wel of man as of beaſt: for it is mine.

Chap.22.29. & 34.19 leu 27.26. nom 3.13 & 8.16 luk 2.23. Exod 23.15.

3 ¶Then Moſés ſaid vnto the people, *Remembre this day in the which ye came out of out of Egypt, out of the "house of [a] bondage: for by a mightie hand the Lord broght you out from thence: therefore no leauened bread shalbe [b] eaten.

4 This day come ye out in the moneth of [c] Abib.

5 ¶ Now whē the Lord hathe broght thee into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hiuites, and Iebusites (which he sware vnto thy fathers, that he wolde giue thee, a land flowing with milke and hony) thē thou shalt kepe this seruice in this moneth.

6 Seuen daies shalt thou eat vnleauened bread, & the [d] seuenth day shalbe the feast of the Lord.

7 Vnleauened bread shalbe eaten seuen daies, & there shal no leauened bread be sene with thee, nor yet leauē be sene with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shewe thy sonne [e] in ỹ day, saying, This is done, because of that which the Lord did vnto me, whē I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shal be a signe vnto thee [f] vpon thine hand, & for a remēbrance betwene thine eies, that the Lawe of the Lord may be in thy mouth: for by a strong hand the Lord broght thee out of Egypt.

10 Kepe therefore this ordinance in his season appointed from yere to yere.

11 ¶ And when the Lord shal bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, & shal giue it thee, 12 *Then ỹ shalt set a parte vnto the Lord all that first openeth the wombe: also euerie thing that first doeth opē the wombe, & commeth forthe of thy beast: the males shalbe the Lords.

13 But euerie first fole of an [g] asse, ỹ shalt redeme with a lambe: and if thou redeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: likewise all the first borne of man among thy sonnes shalt thou [h] bye out.

14 ¶ And when thy sonne shal aske thee [i] tomorowe, saying, What is this? thou shalt then say vnto him, With a mightie hand the Lord broght vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 For when Pharaóh was hard hearted against our departing, the Lord thē slewe all the firstborne in the lād of Egypt: frō the firstborne of man euē to the firstborne of beast: therefore I sacrifice vnto ỹ Lord all the males that first open the wōbe, but all the firstborne of my sonnes I redeme.

16 And it shalbe as a token vpon thine hand, & as [k] frōtelets betwene thine eies, that the Lord broght vs out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

17 ¶ Now whē Pharaóh had let the people go, God caried thē not by the way of the Philistims countrey, [l] thogh it were nerer: (for God said, Lest ỹ people repent whē thei se [m] warre, & turne againe to Egypt)

18 But God made the people to go about by ỹ way of the wildernes of the red Sea: and the children of Israél went vp [n] armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 (And Moses toke the bones of Ioséph with him: for he had made the childrē of Israél sweare, saying, *God wil surely visite you, and ye shal take my bones away hence with you)

20 ¶ So thei toke their iourney from Succóth, and camped in Ethám in the edge of the wildernes.

21 *And the Lord went before thē by day in a piller of a [o] cloude to leade them the way, & by night in a piller of fyre to giue them light, that thei might go bothe by day and by night.

22 *He toke not away the piller of the cloude by day, nor the piller of fyre by night from before the people.

CHAP. XIIII.

4.8 Pharaohs heart is hardened, and pursueth the Israelites 11 The Israelites striken with feare murmure against Moses. 21 He deuideth the Sea. 23.27 The Egyptians followe and are drowned.

1 THen the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake to the children of Israél, that thei [a] returne & campe before [b] Pi-hahiróth, betwene Migdól and ỹ Sea, ouer against *Baal-zephón: about it shal ye campe by the Sea.

3 For Pharaóh wil say of the children of Israél, Thei are tangled in the land: the wildernes hathe shut them in.

4 And I wil harden Pharaohs heart that he shal follow after you: so I wil [c] get me honour vpon Pharaóh, and vpon all his hoste: the Egyptians also shal knowe that I am the Lord: and thei did so.

5 ¶ Then it was tolde the King of Egypt, that the people fled: & the heart of Pharaóh & of his seruants was turned against the people, and they said, Why haue we this done, & haue let Israél go out of our seruice?

6 And he made ready his charets, & toke his people with him,

7 And toke six hundreth chosen charets, & [d] all the charets of Egypt, and captaines ouer euerie one of them.

8 (For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaóh King of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israél: but the children of Israél went out with an [e] hye hād)

9 *And the Egyptians pursued after thē, & all the horses and charets of Pharaóh, & his horsemen & his hoste ouertoke them camping by the Sea, beside Pi-hahiróth, before Baal-zephón.

"Ebr house of seruants.

a Where thei were in moste cruel slauerie

b To signifie that thei had not leasure to leauin their bread

c Conteining parte of Marche & parte of April, when corne begī to ripe in that countrey d Bothe the seuenth & the first day were holy, as chap. 12,16.

e When thou doest celebrate the feast of vnleauened bread.

f Thou shalt haue continual remembrance thereof, as ỹ woldest of a thing that is in thine hand or before thine eies.

Chap 22,29. & 34,19. & Ezech.44,30.

g This is also vnderstand of the horse and other beastes, which were not offred in sacrifice

h By offring a cleane beast in sacrifice, Leui 12,6 i Or, here after.

k Or, figues of remembrance.

l Or, because

m Which the Philistims wolde haue made against them by stopping them the passage.

n That is, not priuely, but openly, and as the worde doeth signifie, set in ordre by fiue and fiue Gen 50,25 Iosh.24,32.

o To defend them from the heat of the sunne Nahe.3,19.

Nom.14,14. deut 1,33. Psal 78,14. 1.cor.10,1 a Frō towarde the countrey of the Philistims.

b So the Sea was before thē, moūteines on either side, and the ennemie at their backe: yet thei obeyed God and were deliuered

c By punishīg his obstinat rebellion.

d Ioseph* writeth ỹ besides these charets there were 50000 horsemen, and 200000 foremen

e With great ioye & boldenes Iosh.24,6. 1.mac.4,8

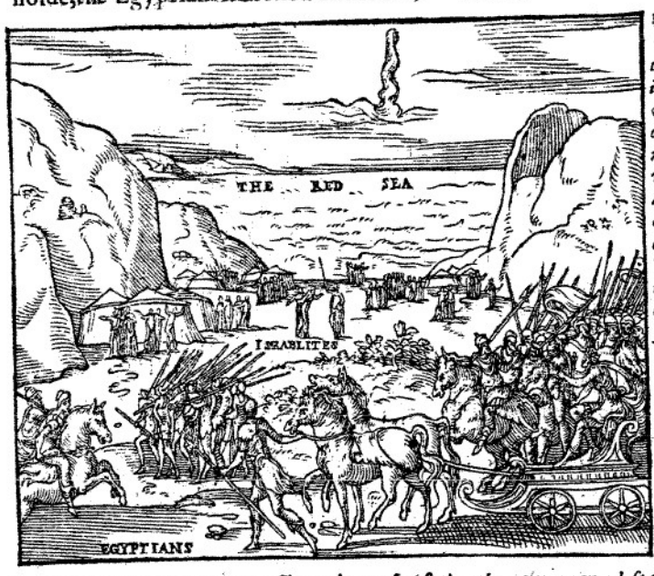
10 And when Pharaóh drewe nie, the children of Iſraél lift vp their eies, and beholde, the Egyptians marched afther thē, and they were ſore [f] afraied: wherefore the children of Iſraél cryed vnto the Lord.

f Thei, which a litle before in their déliuerance reioyced, being now in danger are afraied & murmure.



In this figure foure chief points are to be conſidered. firſt that the Church of God is euer ſubiect in this worlde to the Croſſe & to be afflicted after one ſore or other. The ſecond, that the miniſters of God following their vocation ſhalbe euil ſpoken of, and murmured againſt, euen of them that pretend the ſame cauſe and religion that thei do. The third, that God deliuereth not his Church incontinently out of dangers, but to exerciſe their faith and pacience continueth their troubles, yea and often tymes augmēteth them as the Iſraelites were now in leſſe hope of their liues then when thei were in Egypt. The fourth point is, that when the dangers are moſte great, then Gods helpe is moſte ready to ſuccour: for the Iſraelites had on ether ſide thē, huge rockes & mountaines, before them the Sea, behinde them moſte cruel ennemies, ſo that there was no way left to eſcape to mans iudgement.

11 And thei ſaid vnto Moſés, Haſt thou broght vs to dye in the wildernes, becauſe there were no graues in Egypt? wherefore haſt thou ſerued vs thus, to cary vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tel thee this thing in Egypt, ſaying, Let [g] vs be in reſt, that we may ſerue the Egyptians? for it had bene better for vs to ſerue the Egyptians, thē that we ſhulde dye in the wildernes.

g Suche is the impaciencie of the fleſh, that it can not abide Gods appointed time 13 Then Moſés ſaid to the people, Feare ye not, ſtand ſtil, and beholde [e] the ſaluacion of the Lord which he wil ſhewe to you this day. For the Egyptians, whome ye haue ſene this day, ye ſhal neuer ſe them againe.

e Or, deliuerāce.

14 The Lord ſhal fight for you: therefore [h] holde you your peace.

h Onely put your truſt in God without grudging or douting

15 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Wherefore [i] cryeſt thou vnto me? ſpeake vnto the children of Iſraél that thei go forwarde:

i Thus in tentations faith fighteth agaīſt the fleſh, and cryeth with inwarde groninges to the Lord.

16 And lift thou vp thy rod, & ſtretch out thine hand vpon the Sea & deuide it, and let the childrē of Iſraél go on drye groūde through the middes of the Sea.

17 And I, beholde I wil harden the heart of the Egyptians that thei may followe thē, and I wil get me honour vpon Pharaóh, & vpon all his hoſte, vpon his charets, & vpon his horſemen.

18 Then the Egyptians ſhal knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaóh, vpon his charets, & vpon his horſemen.

19 (And the Angel of God, which went before the hoſte of Iſraél, remoued & went behinde them: alſo the piller of the cloude went from before them, and ſtode behinde them, 20 And came betwene the campe of the Egyptians and the campe of Iſraél: it was bothe a cloude and darckenes, yet gaue it [k] light by night, ſo that all the night lōg the one came not at the other) k The cloude ſheweth light to the Iſraelites, but to the Egyptians it was darckues, ſo that their two hoſtes colde not ioyne together. Ioſh. 4,23. pſal. 114,3. Pſal. 78,13. 1 cor. 10,1. ebr. 11,29.

21 And Moſés ſtretched forthe his hād vpon the Sea, and the Lord cauſed the Sea to runne backe by a ſtrong Eaſt winde all the night, and made the Sea drye land: for the waters were * deuided.

22 Thē the * children of Iſraél wēt through the middes of the Sea vpon the drye groūde, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians purſued and went after them to the middes of the Sea, euen all Pharaohs horſes, his charets, and his horſemen.

24 Now in the morning [l] watche, whē the Lord loked vnto the hoſte of the Egyptians, out of the firy and cloudy piller, he ſtroke the hoſte of the Egyptians with feare.

l Which was about the thre laſt houres of the night.

25 For he toke of their charet wheles, and thei draue them with [o] muche a do: ſo that the Egyptiās euerie one ſaid, I wil flee frō the face of Iſraél: for the Lord fighteth for them againſt the Egyptians.

o Or, heauily.

26 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid to Moſés, Stretch thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may retume vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets and vpon their horſemen.

27 Then Moſés ſtretched forthe his hand vpon vpon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, & the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord [m] ouerthrewe the Egyptiãs in the middes of the Sea.

[m] So the Lord by the water saued his, and by the water drowned his enemies

28 So the water returned & couered ỹ charets and the horsemen, euen all the hoste of Phaiaóh that came into the Sea after thẽ: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Isiaél walked vpon drye land through the middes of the Sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, & on their left.

30 Thus ỹ Lord saued Israél the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians & Israél sawe ỹ Egyptiãs dead vpõ ỹ Sea bãcke.

"Or, or hand

31 And Isiaél sawe ỹ mighty "power, which the Lord shewed vpon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord and beleued ỹ Lord, and his [n] seruant Moses.

[n] That is, the doctrine ẅ he taught them in the Name of the Lord

CHAP. XV.

1 20 Moses with the men and women sing praises vnto God for their deliuerance. 23 The people murmure 25 At the prayer of Moses the bitter waters are swete 26 God teacheth the people obedience.

[a] Praising God for the ouerthrowe of his ennemies and their deliuerance Wisd.10, 24.

1 THẽ [a] sang *Moses & the childrẽ of Israél this song vnto the Lord, and said in this maner, I wil sing vnto the Lord: for he hathe triũphed gloriously: ỹ horse and him that rode vpõ him hathe he ouerthrowen in the Sea.

"Or, the occasion of my song of praise.

2 The Lord is my strength and "praise, and he is become my saluaciõ He is my God, and I wil [b] prepare him a tabernacle. he is my fathers God, and I wil exalt him.

[b] To worship him therein

[c] In battel he ouercommeth euer

3 The Lord is a [c] man of warre, his [d] Name is Iehouáh.

[d] Euer constãt in his promes.

4 Pharaohs charets & his hoste hath he cast into the Sea: his chosen captaines also were drowned in the red Sea.

5 The depths haue couered thẽ, they sancke to the bothome as a stone.

"Or, power.

6 Thy "right hãd, Lord, is glorious in power: thy right hand, Lord, hathe brused the ennemie.

[e] Those, that are ennemies to Gods people, are his ennemies

7 And in thy great glorie thou hast ouerthrowẽ them that rose against [e] thee: thou sentest forthe thy wrath, which consumed them as the stubble.

8 And by ỹ blast of thy nostrels the waters were gathered, the floods stode stil as an heape, the depths congeled together in the "heart of the Sea.

"Or, in the depth of the Sea.

9 The ennemie said, I wil pursue I wil ouertake them, I wil deuide the spoile, my lust shalbe satisfied vpõ them, I wil drawe my sworde, mine hand shal destroy them.

[f] For so, often times ỹ Scripture calleth the mightie men of the worlde

10 Thou bleweſt with thy winde, the Sea couered them, they sancke as lead in the mightie waters.

[g] Which ought to be prayed with all feare & reuerence

11 Who is like vnto thee, ô Lord, among the [f] gods! who is like thee so glorio" in holines, [g] fearful in praises, shewing wõders!

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hãd, the earth swalowed them.

13 Thou wilt by thy mercie carye this people, which thou deliueredst: thou wilt bring them in thy strength vnto thine holy [h] habitacion.

[h] That is, into the lãd of Canáan, or into mount Zion.

14 The people shal heare & be afraied: sorowe shal come vpon the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edóm shalbe amased, and trembling shal come vpon the great men of Moáb: all the inhabitants of Canáan shal waxe faint hearted.

16 *Feare & dread shal fall vpon them. because of the "greatnes of thine arme, they shalbe stil as a stone, til thy people passe, ô Lord: til this people passe, which thou hast purchased.

Deut.2,25. Iosh 2,9.

"Or, for thy great power

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountaine of thine [i] inheritãce, which is the place that thou hast prepared, ô Lord, for to dwel in, euẽ the sanctuarie, ô Lord, which thine hãds shal establish.

[i] Which was mount Zion, where afterward the Temple was buylt

18 The Lord shal reigne for euer and euer.

19 For Pharaohs horses went with his charets and horsmen into the Sea, and the Lord broght the waters of the Sea vpon them: but the children of Israél went on drye land in the middes of the Sea.

20 ¶And Miriám the propheteſſe sister of Aarón toke a timbrel in her hand, and all the women came out after her ẅ timbrels and [k] daunces.

[k] Signifiing their great ioye, which custome the Iewes obserued in certein solẽnities Iud.11, 34 & 21,21: but it ought not to be a cloke to couer our wanton dãces

21 And Miriám [l] answered the men, Sing ye vnto the Lord: for he hathe triũphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hathe he ouerthrowen in the Sea.

[l] By singing ỹ like song of thãkes giuig

22 Then Moses broght Israél from the red Sea, and they went out into the wildernes of Shur: and they went thre dayes in the wildernes, & founde no waters.

23 And whẽ they came to Maráh, they colde not drinke of the waters of Maráh, for they were bitter: therefore ỹ name of the place was called "Maráh.

"Or, Bitternes.

24 Thẽ the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shal we drinke?

25 And he cryed vnto the Lord, & ỹ Lord shewed him a * tre, which when he had cast into ỹ waters, the waters were swete: there he made them an ordinance & a lawe, and there he [m] proued them, Ecclo.38,5.

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearkẽ, o Israel, vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that, which is [n] right in his sight, and wilt giue eare vnto his commandements, and kepe all his ordinances, then wil I put none of these diseases vpõ thee, which I broght vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

[m] That is, God, or, Moses in Gods name

[n] Which is, to do that onely that God commandeth.

27 ¶*And they came to Elím, where were twelue fountaines of water & seuẽtie "palme trees, & they cãped there by ỹ waters.

Nom.33,9.

"Or, date trees.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Iſraelites come to the deſert of Sin, and murmure againſt Moſés and Aarón 13 The Lord ſendeth quailes and Mãna 27 The ſeuẽth day Manna colde not be foũde. 32 It is kept for a remembrance to the poſteritie

AFterward all the Cõgregacion of ỹ children of Iſraél departed from Elim, and came to the wildernes of [a] Sin, (which is betwene Elim and Sinái) the fifteenth day of the ſeconde moneth after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole Cõgregaciõ of the children of Iſraél murmured againſt Moſés and againſt Aaron in the wildernes.

3 For the children of Iſraél ſaid to them, Oh ỹ we had dyed by the hand of ỹ Lord in the land of Egypt, when we ſate by ỹ fleſh [b] pottes, when we ate bread our bellies ful: for ye haue broght vs out into this wildernes, to kil this whole companie with famine.

4 ¶ Then ſaid the Lord vnto Moſes, Beholde, I wil cauſe bread to raine fro̅ heauen to you, and the people ſhal go out, & gather that ỹ is ſufficient for euerie [c] day, that I may proue them, whether they wil walke in my Lawe or no.

5 But the ſixt day they ſhal prepare that, which they ſhal bring home, and it ſhalbe twiſe as muche as they gather daiely.

6 Then Moſés and Aarón ſaid vnto all the children of Iſraél, At euen ye ſhal knowe, that the Lord bro̅ght you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning ye ſhal ſe the glorie of ỹ Lord. [d] for he hathe heard your grudgings againſt the Lord: and what are we ỹ ye haue murmured againſt vs?

8 Againe Moſés ſaid, At euẽ ſhal the Lord giue you fleſh to eat, and in the morning your fil of bread: for ỹ Lord hathe heard your murmurings, which ye murmure agaĩſt him: for what are we? your murmurings are not againſt vs, but againſt the [e] Lord.

9 ¶ And Moſés ſaid to Aarón, Say vnto all the Cõgregacion of the childrẽ of Iſraél, Drawe nere before ỹ Lord: for he hathe heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aarón ſpake vnto the whole Cõgregacion of the children of Iſraél, they loked toward the wildernes, and beholde, ỹ glorie of the Lord appeared *i a cloude.

11 (For the Lord had ſpoken vnto Moſés, ſaying, 12 * I haue heard ỹ murmurings of the children of Iſraél: tel them therefore, & ſay, [f] At euen ye ſhal eat fleſh, and in the morning ye ſhalbe filled with bread, and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lord your God)

13 And ſo at euẽ the * quailes came & couered the campe: & in the morning ỹ dewe laye rounde about the hoſte.

14 * And when the dewe that was fallẽ was aſcended, beholde, a ſmale rounde thing was vpon the face of the wildernes, ſmale as the hore froſt on the earth.

15 And when the children of Iſraél ſawe it, they ſaid one to another, It is [f] MAN, for they wiſt not what it was. And Moſés ſaid vnto them, * This is the bread which the Lord hathe giuen you to eat 16 ¶ This is the thing which ỹ Lord hathe commanded: gather of it euerie man according to his eating [g] an Omer for [*] a mã according to the nombre of your perſones: euerie man ſhal take for thẽ which are in his tent.

17 And the children of Iſraél did ſo, & gathered, ſome more, ſome leſſe.

18 And when they did meaſure it with an Omer, * he that had gathered muche, had nothing ouer, & he that had gathered litle, had no [h] lacke: ſo euerie man gathered according to his eating.

19 Moſés then ſaid vnto them, Let no man reſerue thereof til morning.

20 Notwithſtãding thei obeid not Moſés: but ſome of them reſerued of it til morning, and it was ful of wormes, & [i] ſtanke: therefore Moſés was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it euerie morning, euerie mã accordig to his eating: for whẽ the heat of the ſune came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the ſixt day they gathered [k] twiſe ſo muche bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of the Congregacion came and tolde Moſés.

23 And he anſwered thẽ, This is that, which ỹ Lord hathe ſaid, To morowe is the reſt of the holy Sabbath vnto the Lord: bake that to daie which ye wil bake, and ſethe ỹ which ye wil ſethe, and all that remaineth, lay it vp to be kept til ỹ mornig for you.

24 And they laied it vp til the morning, as Moſés bade, and it ſtanke not, nether was there any worme therein.

25 Then Moſés ſaid, Eat that to day: for to day is the Sabbath vnto the Lord: to day ye ſhal not [l] finde it in the field.

26 Six dayes ſhal ye gather it, but in ỹ ſeuẽth day is the Sabbath: in it there ſhalbe none.

27 ¶ Notwithſtanding, there [m] went out ſome of the people in the ſeuenth day for to gather, and they founde none.

28 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, How lõg refuſe ye to kepe my commandements, & my lawes?

29 Beholde, how the Lord hathe giuẽ you the Sabbath: therefore he giueth you the ſixt day bread for two dayes: tary therefore euerie man in his place: let no man go out of his place the ſeuenth day.

30 So the people reſted the ſeuenth day.

31 And the houſe of Iſraél called the name of it a This is the eight place wherein they had camped: there is an other place called Zin, which was the 33 place, wherin they camped: and is alſo called Kadéſh Nom 33. 36

---

b So hard a thing it is to the fleſh not to murmure againſt God, when the belly is pinched

c To ſignifie, ỹ they ſhulde patiently depẽd vpõ Gods prouidẽce frõ day to day

d He gaue thẽ not Manna becauſe they murmured, but for his promes ſake e He that contemneth Gods miniſters contemneth God him ſelf.

Chap 13,21.

Ecclе 45.4.

Or in the euẽ tyde.

Nom 11,31.

Nomb 11,7. pſal 78,24. wiſd 16,20.

f Which ſignifieth a parte, portiõ, or gift alſo meat prepared Ioh 6,31.

1.cor 10,3.

g Which conteineth about a pottle of our meaſure "Ebr for an head

2 Cor 8.

h God is a riche feder of all, & none cã ſuffele cõplaine

i No creature is ſo pure, but being abuſed, it turneth to our deſtructiõ.

k Which portiõ ſhulde ſerue for the Sabbath and the day before.

l God toke away the occaſiõ from their labour, to ſignifie how holy he wolde haue the Sabbath kept.

m Their infidelitie was ſo great, that thei did expreſly againſt Gods cõmandemẽt of it, MAN. and it was like [a] to coriandre ſede, but white: and the taſte of it was like vnto wafers made with hony.

32 And Moſés ſaid, This is that which the Lord hathe commanded, Fil an Omer of it, to kepe it for your poſteritie: that they may ſe ỹ bread wherewith I haue fed you in wildernes, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 Moſés alſo ſaid to Aarón, Take a [o] pot and put an Omer ful of MAN therein, & ſet it before the Lord to be kept for your poſteritie.

34 As the Lord commanded Moſés: ſo Aarón laied it vp before the [p] Teſtimonie to be kept.

35 And the children of Iſraél did eat MAN * fourty yeres, vntil they came vnto a lād inhabited: they did eat MAN vntil they came to the borders of the land of Canáan.

36 The Omer [q] is the tenth part of the [q] Epháh.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The Iſraelites come into Rephidim and grudge for water 6 Water is giuen them out of the rocke 11 Moſés holdeth vp his hands, & thei ouercome the Amalekites.

1 AND all the Congregació of the children of Iſraél departed from the wildernes of Sin, by their iourneis at the "cō mandemēt of the Lord, & camped in [a] Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke.

2 * Wherefore the people contended with Moſés, and ſaid, Giue vs water that we may drinke. And Moſés ſaid vnto them, Why contend ye with me? wherefore do ye [b] tempt the Lord?

3 So the people thirſted there for water, & the people murmured againſt Moſés, and ſaid, Wherefore haſt thou thus brought vs out of Egypt to kil vs and our children & our cattel with thirſt?

4 And Moſés cryed to the Lord, ſaying, What ſhal I do to this people? for they be almoſt ready to [c] ſtone me.

5 And ỹ Lord anſwered to Moſés, Go before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Iſraél: and thy rod, wherewith thou * ſmoteſt the riuer, take in thine hād, and go:

6 * Beholde, I wil ſtād there before thee vpon the rocke in Horéb, & thou ſhalt ſmite on the rocke & water ſhal come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moſés did ſo in the ſight of the Elders of Iſraél.

7 And he called the name of the place, "Maſſáh and [f] Meribáh, becauſe of the contention of the children of Iſraél, and becauſe they had tempted the Lord, ſaying, Is the [d] Lord among vs, or no?

8 ¶ * Then came [e] Amalék and foght with Iſraél in Rephidim.

9 And Moſés ſaid to Ioſhúa, Chuſe vs out men, and go fight ẅ Amalék: tomorowe I wil ſtand on the top of the [f] hil with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Ioſhúa did as Moſés bade hī, & foght with Amalék: & Moſés, Aarón, and Hur, went vp to the top of the hil.

11 And when Moſés held vp his hand, Iſraél preuailed: but when he let his hand [g] downe, Amalék preuailed.

12 Now Moſés hāds were heauy: therefore they toke a ſtone and put it vnder him, & he ſate vpon it: and Aarón & Hur ſtaied vp his hands, the one on the one ſide, and the other on the other ſide: ſo his hands were ſteady vntil the going downe of the ſunne.

13 And Ioſhúa diſcomfited Amalék and his people with the edge of the ſworde.

14 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſaid to Moſés, Write this for a remembrance [h] in the boke, and "rehearſe it to Ioſhúa: for * I wil vtterly put out the remembrance of Amalék from vnder heauen.

15 (And Moſés buylte an altar and called the name of it, [i] Iehouáh-niſsi)

16 Alſo he ſaid, " The Lord hathe ſworne, that he wil haue warre with Amalék from generacion to generacion.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Iethró commeth to ſe Moſés his ſonne in lawe 8 Moſés telleth him of the wonders of Egypt 9 Iethró reioyceth and offreth ſacrifice to God. 24 Moſés obeyeth his counſel in appointing officers

1 WHen Iethró the * Prieſt of Midián Moſés father in lawe heard all that God had done for Moſés, and for Iſraél his people, & how the Lord had brought Iſraél out of Egypt,

2 Then Iethró the father in lawe of Moſés toke Zipporáh Moſés wife, (after he had [a] ſent her away)

3 And her two ſonnes, (whereof ỹ one was called Gerſhóm: for he ſaid, I haue bene an aliant in a ſtrange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliézer: for the God of my father, ſaid he, was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the ſworde of Pharaóh)

5 And Iethró Moſés father in lawe came with his two ſonnes, & his wife vnto Moſés into the wildernes, where he camped by the [b] mount of God.

6 And he [c] ſaid to Moſés, I thy father in lawe Iethró am come to thee, & thy wife and her two ſonnes with her.

7 ¶ And Moſés wēt out to mete his father in lawe, and did obeiſance and kiſſed him, and eche aſked other of his "welfare.

n In forme & figure, but not in colour, Nom 11,7 o Of this veſſel read, Ebr 9 4 p That is, the Arke of ỹ couenant: to wit, after that the Arke was made Ioſh.5,12. nehe.9,35. iudith 3,15.

q Which meaſure conteined about ten pottels

* Ebr as the mouthe

a Moſés here noteth not euerie place, where they camped, as Nom 33 but onely thoſe places where ſome notable thing was done Nom 20,4.

b Why diſtruſt you God? why loke you not for ſuccour of him without murmuring againſt vs?

c How readie the people are for their owne matters to ſlay ỹ true prophets, and how ſlow they are to reuenge Gods cauſe againſt his enemies and falſe prophets? Chap.7,20. Nomb 20, 9. wiſd.11,4. pſal 78,15. & 105,41 1 cor 10,4

Or, Tentation

Or, Strife

d When in aduerſitie we thinke God to be absent, we neglect his promes & make him a liere. Deut. 25,17. wiſd.11,3.

e Who came of Elipház, ſonne of Eſáu, Gen 36,12.

f That is, Horéb, which is alſo called Sināi.

g So that we ſe how dāgerous a thing it is to faynte in prayer.

h In the boke of ỹ lawe.

" Ebr put it in the eares of Ioſhua Nom 24, 20. 1.ſam 15,3.

i That is, the Lord is my bāner: as he declared by holding vp his rod and his hands.

"Ebr The hand of the Lord vpō the throne.

a It may ſeme ỹ he ſent her backe to her father for her impacience, leſt ſhe ſhulde be a let to his vocation, ẅ was ſo dangerous, chap 4,25

b Horéb is called ỹ moūt of God, becauſe God wroght many miracles there

c That is, he ſent meſſengers to ſay vnto him and they came into the tent.

" Ebr of peace.

8 Then Moſés tolde his father in law all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaóh, & to the Egyptians for Iſraels ſake, and all the trauaile that had come vnto them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered thē.

9 And Iethró reioyced at all the goodnes, which the Lord had ſhewed to Iſraél, and becauſe he had deliuered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

d Wherby it is euident that he worſhiped the true God, and therefore Moſés refuſed not to mary his daughter.

10 Therefore Iethró ſaid, [d] Bleſſed be the Lord who hathe deliuered you out of the hād of ỹ Egyptians, and out of ỹ hand of Pharaóh: who hathe alſo deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptiās.

11 Now I knowe that the Lord is greater then all the gods: * for as they haue dealt proudely with them, ſo are they [e] recompenſed.

Chap.1.10 alſo ver 16,22. chap.5.7. chap.14,18.

e For they, ỹ drowned the children of ỹ Iſraelites, periſhed them ſelues by water.

22 Then Iethró Moſés father in law toke burnt offringes and ſacrifices to offre vnto God. And Aarón and all the Elders of Iſraél came to eat bread with Moſés father in law [f] before God.

f They are in ỹ place, where the ſacrifice was offred: for parte was burnt and the reſt eaten.

13 ¶ Now on the morowe, when Moſés ſate to iudge the people, the people ſtode aboute Moſés from morning vnto euen.

14 And when Moſés father in lawe ſawe all that he did to the people, he ſaid, What is this that thou doeſt to the people? why ſitteſt thou thy ſelfe alone, and all the people ſtand about thee from morning vnto euen?

15 And Moſés ſaid vnto his father in lawe, Becauſe the people come vnto me to ſeke [g] God.

g That is, to knowe Gods wil, and to haue iuſtice executed.

16 Whē they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betwene one and an other, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

17 But Moſés father in law ſaid vnto him, The thing, which thou doeſt, is not wel.

*Ebr. thou wilt faint and fall.

18 Thou bothe* wearieſt thy ſelfe greatly, & this people that is ẅ thee: for the thing is to heauie for thee: thou art not able to do it thy ſelfe alone.

*Deu.1.9.

19 * Heare now my voyce, (I wil giue thee counſel, and God ſhalbe with thee) be thou for the people to [h] Godward, & reporte thou the cauſes vnto God,

*Or, counſel.

h Iudge thou in harde cauſes, which can not be decided but by conſulting with God.

20 And admoniſh them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, & ſhewe them the way, wherein they muſt walke, & the worke ỹ they muſt do.

21 Moreouer prouide thou among all the people [i] men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truely, hating couetouſnes: and appoint ſuche ouer them to be rulers ouer thouſandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tens.

i What maner of men ought to be choſen to beare office.

22 And let them iudge the people at all ſeaſons: but euerie great matter let thē bring vnto thee, & let them iudge all ſmale cauſes: ſo ſhal it be eaſier for thee, when they ſhal beare the burden with thee.

23 If thou do this thing, (and God ſo cōmāde thee) bothe thou ſhalt be able to endure, & all this people ſhal alſo go quietly to their place.

24 So Moſés [k] obeied ỹ voyce of his father in lawe, and did all that he had ſaid:

k Godlie cōſel ought euer to be obeied, thogh it come of our inferiors for to ſuche God oftē times giueth wiſdome to humble them, that are exalted.

25 And Moſés choſe men of courage out of all Iſraél, and made them heades ouer the people, rulers ouer thouſandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tens.

26 And they iudged the people at all ſeaſons, but they broght the hard cauſes vnto Moſés: for they iudged all ſmale matters them ſelues.

27 Afterward Moſés [l] let his father in lawe departe, and he went into his contrey.

l Read the occaſion, Nomb. 10,29.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The Iſraelites come to Sinái. 5 Iſraél is choſen from among all other nations. 8 The people promes to obey God. 12 He that toucheth the hil dyeth. 16 God appeareth vnto Moſés vpon the mount in thunder and lightening.

1 IN the [a] third moneth, after the childrē of Iſraél were gone out of the land of Egypt, the ſame [b] day came they into the wildernes of Sinái.

a Which was in ỹ begining of the monthe Siuan, conteining parte of May and parte of Iune.

b That they departed from Rephidim.

2 For they departed from Rephidím, and came to ỹ deſert of Sinái, & cāped in the wildernes: euen there Iſraél camped before the mount.

3 *But Moſés wēt vp vnto God, for ỹ Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou ſay to the houſe of [c] Iaakób, and tel the children of Iſraél, c God called Iaakób Iſraél: therefore the houſe of Iaakób, and the people of Iſraél ſignifie onely Gods people.

*Act.7.38.

4 *Ye haue ſene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caryed you vpon [d] egles wings, and haue broght you vnto me.

*Deut.29,2.

d For the egle by flying hie, is out of danger, and in caryng her birdes rather on her wings thē in her talants declareth her loue.

5 Now therefore * if ye wil heare my voyce in dede, & kepe my couenāt, thē ye ſhalbe my chief treaſure aboue all people, *thogh all the earth be mine.

*Deu.5.2. *Deu.10,14. *pſa.24,1. *1.Pet.2,9. *rev.1,6.

6 Ye ſhalbe vnto me alſo a kingdome of * Prieſtes, and an holy nation. Theſe are the wordes which thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the children of Iſraél.

*Chap.24,3. *deu.5,27. *and,26,17. *ioſh.24,16.

7 ¶ Moſés then came & called for the Elders of the people, and propoſed vnto thē all theſe things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people anſwered altogether, & ſaid, * All that the Lord hathe commāded, we wil do. And Moſés reported the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare, whiles I talke with thee, & that they may alſo beleue thee for euer. (for Moſés had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord)

10 Moreouer the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Go

e Teache thē to be pure in heart, as they ſhewe thē ſelues outwardly cleane by waſhing

Go to the people, and e ſanctifie them to daie and to morowe, and let them waſh their clothes.

11 And let thē be ready on the third daie: for the third daie the Lord wil come downe in the ſight of all the people vpon mount Sinái:

12 And thou ſhalt ſet markes vnto the people rounde about, ſaying, Take hede to your ſelues that ye go not vp to the moũt, nor touche the bordre of it: whoſoeuer toucheth the * mount, ſhal ſurely dye.

*Or 12,20.

13 No hand ſhal touche it, but he ſhal be ſtoned to death, or ſtricken through with dartes: whether it be beaſt or man, he ſhal not liue: when the f horne bloweth long, they ſhal come vp g into the mountaine.

f Or, trumpet

g Or, towarde.

14 ¶ Then Moſés went downe from the mount vnto the people, & ſanctified the people, and they waſhed their clothes.

15 And he ſaid vnto the people, Be ready on the third daie, and come not at your f wiues.

f But giue your ſelues to prayer and abſtinẽce, that you may at this time attẽd only vpon the Lord 1. Cor. 7.5.

16 And the third daie, whē it was morning, there was thũders & lightnings, & a thicke cloude vpon the mount, & the ſound of the trumpet exceding loude, ſo that all the people, that was in the campe, was afraid.

17 Then Moſés broght the people out of the tents to mete with God, & they ſtode in the nether part of the mount.

Deu. 4,11.

18 * And mount Sinái was all on ſmoke, becauſe the Lord came downe vpon it in fire, and the ſmoke thereof aſcended, as the ſmoke of a fornace, and all the mount g trembled excedingly.

g God vſed theſe fearful ſignes that his Lawe ſhuld be had in greater reuerence, and his maieſtie ẏ more feared 19 And when the ſound of the trũpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moſés ſpake, and God anſwered him by h voyce.

h He gaue autoritie to Moſés by plaine wordes, that ẏ people might vnderſtand hī

20 (For the Lord came downe vpon moũt Sinái on the top of the mount) and whē the Lord called Moſés vp into the top of the mount, Moſés went vp.

21 Then the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Go downe, charge ẏ people, that they breake not their boũdes, to go vp to the Lord to gaze, leſt manie of them periſh.

22 And let the i Prieſts alſo which come to the Lord be ſanctified, leſt the Lord k deſtroye them.

i Or, ſuiers

k Or, breake out vpon them

23 And Moſés ſaid vnto the Lord, The people can not come vp into the mount Sinái: for thou haſt charged vs, ſaying, Set markes on the mountaine, & ſanctifie it.

24 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Go, get thee downe, and come vp, thou, & Aarón with thee: but let not the l Prieſtes & the people breake their boũdes to come vp vnto the Lord, leſt he deſtroye them.

l Nether dignitie nor multitude haue autoritie to paſſe ẏ boũdes, that Gods worde preſcribeth 25 So Moſés went downe vnto the people, and tolde them.

CHAP. XX.

2 The commandements of the firſt table 12 The commãdements of the ſeconde. 18 The people afraid are cõforted by Moſes. 23 Gods of ſiluer and golde are againe forbiden. 24 Of what ſort the altar ought to be

1 THen God a ſpake all theſe wordes, ſaying, a WHē Moſes and Aaron were gone vp, or had paſſed the boundes of the people God ſpake thus out of ẏ mount Horeb, ẏ all the people heard Deu. 5,6.

2 *I am the Lord thy God, which haue brogt thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the houſe of m bondage.

m Or, ſeruants

3 Thou ſhalt haue none other gods b before me.

b To whoſe eies all thigs are open Leu 26,1.

4 *Thou ſhalt make thee no grauẽ image, nether anie ſimilitude of things that are in heauen aboue, nether that are in the earth beneth, nor that are in the waters vnder the earth.

Pſal 81,11.

5 Thou ſhalt not c bowe downe to them, nether ſerue them: for I am the Lord thy God, a d ielouſe God, viſiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, vpon the third generacion and vpon the fourth of them that hate me:

c By this outwarde geſture all kinde of ſeruice & worſhip to idoles is forbidden

d And will be reuenged of ẏ contemners of mine honour

6 And ſhewing mercie vnto e thouſandes to them that loue me and kepe my commandements.

e So ready is he gather to ſhewe mercie then to puniſh

Pſal 97,7.

7 * Thou ſhalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God inf vaine: for the Lord wil not holde him giltles that taketh his Name in vaine.

Leu 19,12. deu 5,12. mat 5,28.

f Ether by ſwearing falſely or raſhly or contẽning

8 Remembre the Sabbath daie, g to kepe it holy.

g Which is by meditating the ſpiritual reſt, by hearing Gods worde, and reſting frõ worldelie trauailes

9 * Six daies ſhalt thou labour, and do all thy worke,

Chap 23,12. ezek. 20,12.

10 But the ſeuenth daie is the Sabbath of ẏ Lord thy God: in it thou ſhalt not do anie worke, thou, nor thy ſõne, nor thy daughter, thy man ſeruant, nor thy maid, nor thy beaſt, nor thy ſtranger that is within thy n gates.

n Or, ſtis

11 *For in ſix daies the Lord made the heauen and the earth, the ſea, and all that in them is, & reſted the ſeuenth daie: therefore the Lord bleſsed the Sabbath daie, and hallowed it.

Gen 2,2. Deu 5,16. mat 15,4. ephe 6,2 12 ¶ *Honour thy h father and thy mother, that thy daies maie be pſolonged vpon ẏ land, w̃ the Lord thy God giueth thee.

h By ẏ which is mẽt all that haue autoritie ouer vs

Mat 5,16.

13 *Thou ſhalt not i kil.

i But loue and preſerue thy brothers life

14 Thou ſhalt not k commit adulterie.

k But be pure in heart, word and deede.

15 Thou ſhalt not l ſteale.

l But ſtudie to ſaue his goods

16 Thou ſhalt not beare falſe m witnes againſt thy neighbour.

m But further his good name, and ſpeake truth

17 *Thou ſhalt not n couet thy neighbours houſe, nether ſhalt thou couet thy neighbours wife, nor his man ſeruant, nor his maid, nor his oxe, nor his aſſe, nether any thing that is thy neighbours.

Rom 7,7.

n Thou muſt not ſo muche as wiſhe his hinderance in anie thing

18 ¶ And all the people o ſawe the thunders, and the p lightnings, and the ſound of the trumpet, and the mountaine ſmoking, and when the people ſawe it they fled and ſtode afarre of,

o Or, heard

p Ether fire kindle.

19 And ſaid vnto Moſes, *Talke thou with vs, and we will hea e: but let not God talke with vs, leſt we dye.
20 Then Moſes ſaid vnto the people, Feare not: for God is come to [o] proue you, and that his feare may be before you, that ye ſinne not.
21 So the people ſtode a far of, but Moſes drewe nere vnto the darckenes where God was.
22 ¶And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Thus thou ſhalt ſay vnto the children of Iſraél, Ye haue ſene that I haue talked with you from heauen.
23 Ye ſhal not make therefore with me gods of ſiluer, nor gods of golde: you ſhal make you none.
24 *An altar of earth ye ſhalt make vnto me, & thereon ſhalt offre thy burnt offrings, & thy * peace offrings, thy ſhepe, & thine oxen: in all places, where I ſhal put the remembrance of my Name, I wil come vnto thee, and bleſſe thee.
25 * But if thou wilt make me an altar of ſtone, thou ſhalt not buylde it of hewen ſtones: for if thou lift vp thy tole vpon them, thou haſt polluted "them.
26 Nether ſhalt thou go vp by ſteppes vnto mine altar, that thy [p] filthines be not diſcouered thereon.

Deut 5.24. & 18.16 ebr. 13.18.

[o] Whether you wil obey his precepts as you promiſed, chap 19.8

Chap 27.8. & 38.7. Leui.3.1.

Deut.27.5. Ioſh.8.31.

"Ebr it, that is, the ſtone

[p] Which might be by his ſtouping, or flying abroad of his clothes.

CHAP. XXI.

Temporal and ciuile ordinances, appointed by God, touching ſeruitude, murthers, and wronges: the obſeruatiõ whereof doeth not iuſtifie a man, but are giuen to bridel our corrupt nature, which els wolde breake out into all miſchief and crueltie.

1 NOw theſe are the lawes, which thou ſhalt ſet before them:
2 *If thou bye an Ebrewe ſeruant, he ſhal ſerue ſix yeres, and in the ſeuenth he ſhal go out free, [a] for nothing.
3 If he came [b] him ſelfe alone, he ſhal go out him ſelfe alone: if he were maried, thẽ his wife ſhal go out with him.
4 If his maſter hathe giuen him a wife, & ſhe hathe borne him ſonnes or daughters, the wife and her children ſhalbe her [c] maſters, but he ſhal go out him ſelf alone.
5 But if the ſeruant ſay thus, I loue my maſter, my wife and my children, I wil not go out free, 6 Then his maſter ſhal bring him vnto the "Iudges, and ſet him to the [d] dore, or to the poſte, and his maſter ſhal bore his eare through with a nawle, & he ſhal ſerue him for [e] euer.
7 ¶Likewiſe if a man [f] ſel his daughter to be a ſeruant, ſhe ſhal not go out as the mẽ ſeruants do.
8 If ſhe pleaſe not her maſter, who hathe betrothed her to him ſelfe, then ſhal [g] he cauſe to bye her: he ſhal haue no power to ſel her to a ſtrange people, ſeing he "deſpiſed her.
9 But if he hathe betrothed her vnto his ſonne, he ſhal deale with her [h] according to the cuſtome of the daughters.
10 If he take [i] him an other wife, he ſhal not diminiſh her fo.de, her rayment, and recompence of her virginitie.
11 And if he do not theſe [k] thre vnto her, thẽ ſhal ſhe go out free, paying no money.
12 ¶ * He that ſmiteth a man, and he dye, ſhal dye the death.
13 And if a man hathe not laied waite, but [l] God hathe offred him into his hãd, *then I wil appoite thee a place whither he ſhal flee.
14 But if a man come preſumpteouſly vpon his neighbour to ſlaie him with guile, thou ſhalt take him from mine [m] altar, that he may dye.
15 ¶ Alſo he that ſmiteth his father or his mother, ſhal dye the death.
16 ¶And he that ſtealeth a man, & ſelleth him, if it be founde with him, ſhal dye the death.
17 ¶ *And he that curſeth his father or his mother, ſhal dye the death.
18 ¶When men alſo ſtriue together, & one ſmite another with a [n] ſtone, or with the fiſt, & he dye not, but lieth in bed, 19 If he riſe againe and walke without vpon his ſtaffe, then ſhal he that ſmote him go [o] quite, ſaue onely he ſhal beare his charges [*] for his reſting, and ſhal pay for his healing.
20 ¶ And if a man ſmite his ſeruant, or his mayd with a rod, & he dye vnder his hand, he ſhal be ſurely puniſhed.
21 But if he continue a day, or two daies, he ſhal not [p] be puniſhed: for he is his money.
22 ¶Alſo if men ſtriue and hurt a woman with childe, ſo that her childe departe frõ her, & [q] death followe not, he ſhal be ſurely puniſhed according as the womans houſband ſhal appoint him, or he ſhal pay as the "Iudges determine.
23 But if death followe, thẽ thou ſhalt paye life for life, 24 *[r] Eie for eie, tothe for tothe, hand for hand, fote for fote, 25 Burning for burning, wonde for wõde, ſtripe for ſtripe.
26 ¶And if a man ſmite his ſeruant in the eie, or his maid in the eie, and hathe periſhed it, he ſhal let him go free for his eie.
27 Alſo if he ſmite [f] out his ſeruants tothe, or his maydes tothe, he ſhal let him go out free for his tothe.
28 ¶If an oxe gore a man or a woman, that he dye, the* oxe ſhalbe [t] ſtoned to death, and his fleſh ſhal not be eaten, but the owner of the oxe ſhal go quite.
29 If the oxe were wonte to puſh in times paſt

Leui 25.39. deut 15.12. ierem 34.14.

[a] Paying no money for his libertie.

[b] Not hauing wife nor children

[c] Til her time of ſeruitude was expired, which might be the ſeuenth yere or the fiftieth

"Ebr gods

[d] Where the iudges ſate

[e] That is, to the yere of Iubile, which was euerie fiftieth yere

[f] Conſtreined either by pouertie, or els, if the maſter ſhuld mary her

[g] By giuing another money to bye her of him

"Or, deflowred her.

[h] That is, he ſhal giue her dowrie

[i] For his ſonne.

Leui 24.17.

[k] Nether mary her him ſelfe, nor giue an other money to bye her, nor beſtowe her vpõ his ſonne

[l] Thogh a mã be killed at vnwares, yet it is Gods prouidẽce, that it ſhulue ſo be

Deut 19.2.

[m] The holines of the place oght not to defẽd the murther.

[n] Ether far of him or nere.

[o] By the ciuile iuſtice

"Or, leſing of his time

[p] By the ciuile Magiſtrate, but before God he is a murtherer.

[q] Of the mother, or childe.

"Or, arbitrers.

Leui 24.20. deut. 19.20. matt 5.38.

[r] The executiõ of this lawe onely belõged to the Magiſtrat, mat 5.38

[f] So God reuẽgeth crueltie in moſte leaſt things

Gen 9.5.

[t] If the beaſt be punished, muche more ſhal the murtherer.

paſt,& it hathe bene *told his maſter, & he hathe not kept him,and after he killeth a man or a woman,the oxe ſhal be ſtoned and his owner ſhal dye alſo.

30 If there be ſet to him a [a] ſumme of money,then he ſhal pay the raſon of his life, whatſoeuer ſhalbe laied vpon him.

31 Whether he hathe gored a ſonne,or gored a daughter,he ſhal be iudged after the ſame maner.

32 If the oxe gore a ſeruant or a mayd, he ſhal giue vnto their maſter thirty [x] ſhekles of ſiluer,and the oxe ſhalbe ſtoned.

33 ¶And when a man ſhal open a well, or when he ſhal dig a pit and couer it not, & an oxe or an aſſe fall therein, 34 The owner of the pit ſhal [y] make it good, and giue money to the owners therof,but the dead beaſt ſhalbe his.

35 ¶And if a mans oxe hurt his neighbours oxe that he dye, then their ſhal ſel the liue oxe, & deuide the money thereof, & the dead oxe alſo their ſhal deuide.

36 Or if it be knowen that the oxe hathe vſed to puſh in times paſt, and his maſter hathe not kept him, he ſhal pay oxe for oxe,but the dead ſhalbe his owne.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Of theft. 5 Dommage. 7 Lending. 14 Borrowing. 16 Intiſing of maides. 18 Witchcraft. 20 Idolatrie. 21 Support of ſtrangers,widows,and fatherles. 25 Vſurie. 28 Reuerence to Magiſtrates.

1 IF a man ſteale an [a] oxe or a ſhepe, and kil it or ſel it, he ſhal reſtore fiue oxen for the oxe,* & foure ſhepe for the ſhepe.

2 ¶If a thefe be founde [b] breaking vp, & be ſmitten that he dye, no blood ſhalbe ſhed for him.

3 But if it be"in the day light,[c] blood ſhalbe ſhed for him: for he ſhulde make ful reſtitutiō:if he had not wherewith,then ſhulde he be ſolde for his theft.

4 If the theft be founde "with him,aliue, (whether it be oxe, aſſe, or ſhepe) he ſhal reſtore the double.

5 ¶If a man do hurt field, or vineyarde, and put in his beaſt to fede in another mās field,he ſhal recompence of the beſt of his owne field,& of the beſt of his owne vineyarde.

6 ¶If fyre breake out, and catche in the thornes, and the ſtackes of corne, or the ſtanding corne,or the field be cōſumed, he that kindeled the fire ſhal make ful reſtitution.

7 ¶If a man deliuer his neighbour money or ſtuffe to kepe, and it be ſtollen out of his houſe, if the thefe be found, he ſhal paye the double.

8 If the thefe be not founde, then the maſter of the houſe ſhal be broght vnto the "Iudges to ſweare,whether he hathe [d] put his hād vnto his neighbours good,or no.

9 In all maner of treſpaſſe, whether it be for oxen, for aſſe,for ſhepe, for rayment, or for any maner of loſt thing,which an other chalengeth to be his, the cauſe of bothe parties ſhal come before the Iudges, & whome the Iudges condemne, he ſhal pay the double vnto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliuer vnto his neighbour to kepe aſſe,or oxe,or ſhepe,or any beaſt, and it dye,or be" hurt, or taken away by ennemies,& no man ſe it,

11 [e] An othe of the Lord ſhalbe betwene them twaine, that he hathe not put his hand vnto his neighbours good, and the owner of it ſhal take the othe,& he ſhal not make it good:

12 * But if it be ſtollen from him, he ſhal make reſtitutiō vnto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torne in pieces, he ſhal bring [f] recorde,& ſhal not make that good, which is deuoured.

14 ¶And if a mā borowe ought of his neighbour,and it be hurt,or els dye, the owner thereof not being by,he ſhal ſurely make it good.

15 If the owner thereof be by, he ſhal not make it good:for if it be an hired thing,it [g] came for his hire.

16 ¶*And if a mā entiſe a mayd that is not betrothed,&lye with her,he ſhal endowe her,and take her to his wife.

17 If her father refuſe to giue her to him, he ſhal pay money,according to the dowrie of virgines.

18 ¶Thou ſhalt not ſuffre a witche to liue.

19 ¶Whoſoeuer lieth with a beaſt,ſhal dye the death.

20 ¶* He that offreth vnto any gods, ſaue vnto the Lord onely,ſhalbe ſlaine.

21 ¶*Moreouer thou ſhalt not do iniurie to a ſtranger,nether oppreſſe him: for ye were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt.

22 ¶* Ye ſhal not trouble any widowe,nor fatherles childe.

23 If thou vexe or trouble ſuche, and ſo he call and crye vnto me, I wil ſurely heare his crye.

24 Then ſhal my wrath be kindeled, and I wil kil you with the ſworde,& your [h] wiues ſhal be widowes, and your children fatherles.

25 ¶*If thou lend money to my people, that is,to the poore with thée, thou ſhalt not be as an vſurer vnto him: ye ſhal not oppreſſe him with vſurie.

26 If thou take thy neighbours rayment to pledge, thou ſhalt reſtore it vnto him before the ſunne go downe:

27 For that is his couering onely,& this is his garment for his ſkin: wherein ſhal he ſlepe?therefore when he [i] cryeth vnto me, I wil heare him:for I am merciful.

*Or,ſanctified to him a By the next of the kinred of him that is ſo ſlayne

x Read Gen. 23,15

y This lawe forbiddeth not onely not to hurt,but to be-ware leſt any be hurt

a Ether great beaſt of the herd, or a ſmale beaſt of the flocke

2 Sam 12,6

b Breaking an houſe to entre in,or vndermining

"Ebr when the ſunne riſeth vpon him

c He ſhalbe put to death

"Ebr in his hand

"Ebr gods

d That is,whether he hathe ſtollen.

"Ebr.broken

e Thei ſhulde ſweare by the Name of the Lord

Gen 31,39.

f He ſhal ſhewe ſome parte of the beaſt

g He that hyred it ſhalbe fre by paying the hire.

Deut 22,28.

Deut.13,13. 1.mac.2,24.

Leui.19,33.

Zach 7,10.

h The iuſt plague of God vpon ỹ oppreſſers.

Leui 25,37. deut 23,19. pſal.15,5.

i For colde & neceſsitie

Act 23,5. 28 ¶*Thou ſhalt not raile vpó the Iudges, nether ſpeake euil of the ruler of thy people.

k Thine abundance of thy corne, oyle & wine 29 ¶Thine k abundance & thy licour ſhalt thou not kepe backe.* The firſtborne of thy ſonnes ſhalt thou giue me.

Chap 13.2. & 34,19. 30 Likewiſe ſhalt thou do with thine oxen and with thy ſhepe: ſeuen dayes it ſhalbe with his damme, & the eight day thou ſhalt giue it me.

Leui.22,8. ezek.44,31. 31 ¶Ye ſhalbe an holy people vnto me,*nether ſhal ye eat any fleſh that is torne of beaſtes in the field: ye ſhal caſt it l to the dog.

l And ſo haue nothing to do with it.

CHAP. XXIII.

2 Not to followe the multitude 13 Not to make mention of the ſtrange gods. 14 The thre ſolemne feaſtes. 20 23 The Angel is promiſed to leade the people. 25 What God promiſeth, if thei obey him 29 God wil caſt out the Canaanites by litle and litle, and why.

a Or, reporte a falſe tale 1 THou ſhalt not a receiue a falſe tale, nether ſhalt thou put thine hād with the wicked, to be a falſe wi.nes.

b Ebr aafuer a Do that ẏ is godlie thogh few do fauour it 2 ¶Thou ſhalt not followe a multitude to do euil, nether b agre in a controuerſie a to decline after many & ouerthrow the trueth.

3 ¶Thou ſhalt not eſteme a poore man in his cauſe.

b If we be bōde to do good to our enemies beaſt, muche more to our enemie him ſelfe, Mat 5. 44. 4 ¶If thou mete thine enemies oxe, or his aſſe going a ſtraye, thou ſhalt b bring him to him againe.

c If God commāde to helpe vp our enemies aſſe vnder his burden, wil he ſuffre vs to caſt downe our brethren with heauie burdens? 5 If thou ſe thine enemies c aſſe lying vnder his burden, wilt thou ceaſe to helpe him? thou ſhalt helpe him vp againe with it.

6 ¶Thou ſhalt not ouerthrowe the right of thy poore in his ſute.

d Whether ẏ be magiſtrate: or art commāded by the magiſtrate 7 Thou ſhalt kepe thee farre from a falſe matter, and ſhalt not ſlay the d innocent and the righteous: for I wil not iuſtifie a wicked man.

Deut.16,19. eccl.20,32. e Ebr. ſeing 8 ¶* Thou ſhalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the e wiſe, & peruerteth ẏ wordes of the righteous.

f For in that ẏ he is a ſtrāger, his heart is ſoriful ynough 9 ¶Thou ſhalt not oppreſſe a ſtranger: for ye knowe the f heart of a ſtranger, ſeing ye were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt.

Leui 25,3 & 26,43. deut. 15,1. 10 *Moreouer, ſix yeres thou ſhalt ſowe thy land, and gather the frutes thereof, 11 But the ſeuēth yere thou ſhalt let it reſt and lye ſtil, that the poore of thy people may eat, and what thei leaue, the beaſtes of the field ſhal eat. In like maner thou ſhalt do with thy vineyarde, & with thine oliue trees.

Chap.20,8. deut.5,12. 12 *Six daies thou ſhalt do thy worke, and in the ſeuēth day thou ſhalt reſt, that thine oxe, and thine aſſe may reſt, & the ſonne of thy maid and the ſtranger may be refreſhed.

g That is, Easter, in remembrāce that the Angel paſſed ouer & ſpared the Iſraelites, when he ſlewe the firſtborne of the Egyptians h Which is, Witſontide, in token that the Law was giuē 50 daies after they departed from Egypt.

i This is, the feaſt of tabernacles, ſignifiing that thei dwelled 40. yere vnder the tents or the tabernacles in wildernes k No leauened bread ſhalbe then in thine houſe.

f Nether by ſwearing by thē, nor ſpeaking of them, Pſal 16,4 eph. 5,3. 13 And ye ſhal take hede to all things that I haue ſaid vnto you: and ye ſhal make f no mencion of the name of other gods, nether ſhal it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶Thre times thou ſhalt kepe a feaſt vnto me in the yere.

g That is, Easter, in remembrāce that the Angel paſſed ouer & ſpared the Iſraelites, when he ſlewe the firſtborne of the Egyptians 15 Thou ſhalt kepe the feaſt g of vnleauened bread: thou ſhalt eat vnleauened bread ſeuen daies, as I cōmanded thee, in the ſeaſon of the moneth of Abib: for in it thou cameſt out of Egypt: & none ſhal appeare before me emptie:

h Which is, Witſontide, in token that the Law was giuē 50 daies after they departed from Egypt. 16 The h feaſt alſo of the harueſt of the firſt frutes of thy labours, which thou haſt ſowen in the field: and the i feaſt of gathering frutes in the end of the yere, when thou haſt gathered in thy labours out of the field.

i This is, the feaſt of tabernacles, ſignifiing that thei dwelled 40. yere vnder the tents or the tabernacles in wildernes 17 Theſe thre times in the yere ſhal all thy men children appeare before the Lord Iehouāh.

k No leauened bread ſhalbe then in thine houſe. 18 Thou ſhalt not offre the blood of my ſacrifice with k leauened bread: nether ſhal the fat of my ſacrifice remaine vntil the morning.

l Meanig that no frutes ſhulde be take before iuſt time: & hereby are brideled all cruel & wantō appetites. 19 The firſt of the firſt frutes of thy land thou ſhalt bring into ẏ houſe of the Lord thy God: yet ſhalt thou not ſeeth a kid in his l mothers milke.

m I wil giue him mine authoritie, and he ſhal gouerne you in my Name 20 ¶Beholde, I ſend an Angel before thee, to kepe thee in the way, and to bring thee to the place which I haue prepared.

21 Beware of him, and heare his voyce, & prouoke him not: for he wil not ſpare your miſdedes, becauſe my m Name is in him.

22 But if thou hearken vnto his voyce, and do all that I ſpeake, then I wil be an enemie vnto thine enemies, and wil afflict them that afflict thee.

Chap.33.2. deut.7,21. ioſh 24,11. 23 For mine Angel * ſhal go before thee, and bring thee vnto the Amorites, & the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites, and I wil deſtroye them.

n God commāndeth his not onely not to worſhip idoles, but to deſtroye them 24 Thou ſhalt not bowe downe to their gods, nether ſeiue them, nor do after the workes of thē: but n vtterly ouerthrowe them, and breake in pieces their images.

o That is, all things neceſſarie for this preſent life. Deut 7,14. 25 For ye ſhal ſerue the Lord your God, & he ſhal bleſſe thy o bread and thy water, & I wil take all ſickenes away frō the middes of thee.

26 ¶*There ſhal none caſt their frute nor be barren in thy land: the nombre of thy dayes wil I fulfil.

p I wil make them afraid at thy comming. 27 I wil ſend my p feare before thee, & wil deſtroy all the people amōg whome thou ſhalt go: and I wil make all thine enemies turne their backes vnto thee:

28 And I wil ſend hornets before thee, which ſhal driue out the Hiuites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from thy face.

29 I wil not caſt them out from thy face in one yere, leſt the land growe to a wildernes: and the beaſtes of the field multiplie againſt thee.

30 By

30 By litle and litle I wil driue them out from thy face vntil thou encreaſe, and inherite the land.

31 And I wil make thy coaſtes frō the red Sea vnto the ſea ‖ of the Philiſtims, and from the [r] deſert vnto the [ſ] Riuer: for I wil deliuer the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and thou ſhalt driue them out from thy face.

32 *Thou ſhalt make no couenant with thē, nor with their gods:

33 Nether ſhal they dwel in thy land, leſt they make thee ſinne againſt me: for if ỹ ſeruе them gods, ſurely it ſhal be thy "deſtruction.

‖ Called the ſea of Syria or Of Arabia called deſerta

[r] To wit, Euphrates

[ſ] To wit, the

*Chap 34,15. deu.7,2.

"Ebr offace, or ſtroy.

CHAP. XXIIII.

5 The people promis to obey God. 4 Moſés writeth the ciuile lawes 9,13 Moſés returneth vnto the mountaine. 14 Aarón and Hur haue the charge of the people. 18 Moſés was 40 daies & 40 nights in the mountaine.

1 NOw he had [a] ſaid vnto Moſés, Come vp to the Lord, thou, and Aarón, Nadáb, & Abihú, and ſeuenty of the Elders of Iſraél, & ye ſhal worſhip a far of.

2 And Moſés hímſelfe alone ſhal come nere to the Lord, but they ſhal not come nere, nether ſhal the people go vp with him.

3 ¶ [b] Afterward Moſés came and tolde the people all the wordes of the Lord and all the "lawes: and all the people anſwered with one voyce, and ſaid, *All the things which the Lord hathe ſaid, wil we do.

4 And Moſés wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and roſe vp early, and ſet vp an *altar [ſ] vnder the mountaine, and twelue pillers according to the twelue tribes of Iſraél.

5 And he ſent yong [c] men of the children of Iſraél, which offered burnt offrings of beues, & ſacrificed peace offrings vnto the Lord.

6 Thē Moſés toke halfe of the blood, and put it in baſens, and halfe of the blood he ſprinkled on the altar.

7 After he toke the "boke of the couenant, and read it in the audience of the people: who ſaid, All that the Lord hathe ſaid, we wil do, and be obedient.

8 Then Moſés toke the* blood, and ſprinkled it on the people, & ſaid, Beholde, the [d] blood of the couenant, which the Lord hathe made with you concerning all theſe things.

9 ¶ Then went vp Moſés and Aarón, Nadáb, and Abihú, and ſeuenty of the Elders of Iſraél.

10 And they [e] ſawe the God of Iſraél, and vnder his fete was as it were a "worke of a Saphir ſtone, & as the verie heauen whē it is cleare.

11 And vpon the nobles of the children of Iſraél he [f] laid not his hand: alſo they ſawe God, and [g] did eat & drinke.

a When he called him vp to the mountaine to giue him ỹ lawes, beginning at the 20 chap hitherto.

b Whē he had receiued theſe lawes i mount Sinái

"Ebr iudgements

Chap.19,8

Chap 20,24.

[ſ] Or, at the foote of the mountaine.

c For as yet the prieſthode was not giuen to Leui

"Or, the booke of the Liue

1 Pet 1,2. ebr 9,20.

d Which blood ſignifieth that the couenant broken can not be ſatisfied without bloud ſhedding

e As perfectly as their infirmities coude beholde his maieſtie

"Ebr bricke worke

f He made thē not afraid, nor puniſhed them

g That is reioyced.

12 ¶ And the Lord [h] ſaid vnto Moſés, Come vp to me into the mountaine, & be there, and I wil giue thee [i] tables of ſtone, and ỹ Lawe & the commandement, which I haue written, for to teache [k] them.

13 Then Moſés roſe vp & his miniſter Ioſhúa, & Moſés went vp into the mountaine of God, 14 And ſaid vnto the Elders, Taríe vs here, vntil we come againe vnto you: & beholde, Aarón, and Hur are w̄ you: whoſoeuer hathe anie matters, let him come to them.

15 Then Moſés went vp to the mount, and the cloude couered the mountaine, 16 And the glorie of the Lord abode vpon mount Sinái, & the cloude couered [ſ] it ſix daies: and the ſeuenth day he called vnto Moſés out of the middes of the cloude.

17 And the ſight of the glorie of the Lord was like [l] conſuming fire on the top of the mountaine, in the eies of the children of Iſraél.

18 And Moſés entred into the middes of the cloude, & went vp to the mountaine: & Moſés was in the *mount fourty dayes and fourty nightes.

h The ſecōde time i Signifiing ỹ hardenes of our hearts, except God do write his lawes therin by his Spirit Iere 31,33 ezek 11,19 2 cor.3, 3 ebr 8,10 & 10,16

k To wit, the people

[ſ] Or, him.

l The Lord appeareth like deuouring fire to carnal men but to them that he draweth with his Spirit, he is like pleaſant Saphir

Chap 34,28. deu.9,9.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The voluntarie gifts for the making of the Tabernacle. 10 The forme of the Arke 17 The Merciſeat. 23 The Table 31 The Cādelſtick 40 All muſt be done according to the patern.

1 THen the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 [a] Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, that they receiue an offring for me: of* euerie mā, whoſe heart giueth it frely, ye ſhal take the offring for me.

3 And this is ỹ offring which ye ſhal [b] take of them, golde, and ſiluer, and braſſe,

4 "And blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine linen, and goates heere.

5 And ramme ſkins coulored red, and the ſkins of badgers, and the wood [c] Shittím,

6 Oyle for the light, ſpices for [d] anointing oyle, & for the perfume of ſwete ſauour,

7 Onix ſtones, and ſtones to be ſet in the Ephod, and in the breſt plate.

8 Alſo they ſhal make me a [e] Sanctuarie, ỹ I may dwel among them.

9 According to all that I ſhewe thee, euen ſo ſhal ye make the forme of the Tabernacle, and the facion of all the inſtruments thereof.

10 ¶ They ſhal make alſo an *Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, & a cubite and an halfe broad, & a cubite and an halfe hie.

11 And thou ſhalt ouerlaie it with pure golde: within & without ſhalt thou ouerlaie it, and ſhalt make vpō it a "crowne of golde rounde about.

12 And thou ſhalt caſt foure rings of golde for it, and put them in the foure [ſ] corners

a After the moral and iudicial lawe he giueth them ỹ ceremonial lawes, that nothing ſhuld be left to mans inuention

Chap 35,5.

b For ỹ buylding and vſe of the Tabernacle

"Or yelow

c Which is thoght to be a kinde of cedar, which wil not rot

d Ordened for ỹ Prieſts

Chap 28,4.

Chap 26,31, &

e A place bothe to offre ſacrifice and to heare ỹ Lawe.

Chap 37,1.

"Or, a circle or a bordre.

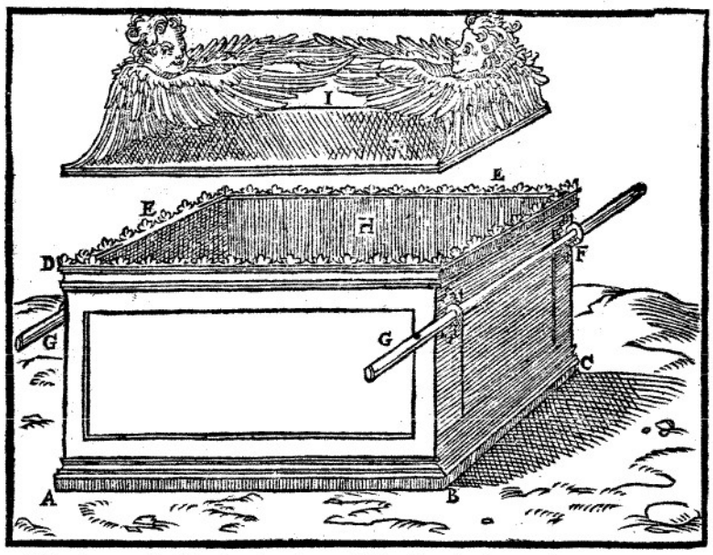
[ſ] Or, fete.

thereof: that is, two rings ſhalbe on ỹ one ſide of it, and two rings on the other ſide thereof.

13 And thou ſhalt make barres of Shittím wood, and couer them with golde.

14 Then thou ſhalt put the barres in the rings by the ſides of the Arke, to beare ỹ Arke with them.

THE ARKE OF THE TESTIMONIE.



A B The length, two cubites and an halfe.
C. The breadth a cubite and an halfe.
D The height a cubite and an halfe.
E E The golde crowne aboue the Arke.
F The foure rings of golde in the foure corners.
G The barres couered w golde to put through the rings to cary the Arke.
H The inner parte of the Arke where the Teſtimonie was put.
I The Mercie ſeate, w was the couering of the Arke: where were the two Cherubims, & whence ỹ oracle came.

15 The barres ſhal be in the rings of the Arke: they ſhal not be taken away from it.

f The ſtone tables, the rod of Aaron and Manna, which were a teſtimonie of Gods preſence.

16 So thou ſhalt put in the Arke the f Teſtimonie which I ſhal giue thee.

17 Alſo thou ſhalt make a g Merciſeat of pure golde, two cubites and an halfe lõg, and a cubite and an halfe broad.

18 And thou ſhalt make two Cherubíms of golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer ſhalt thou make them at ỹ two endes of the Merciſeat.

19 And the one Cherúb ſhalt thou make at the one end, & the other Cherúb at ỹ other end: of the matter of the Merciſeat ſhal ye make the Cherubíms, on the two endes thereof.

g Or, couering: or, propitiatorie.

20 And the Cherubíms ſhal ſtretch their wings on hie, couering the Merciſeat with their wings, & their faces one to an other: to the Merciſeat ward ſhal the faces of ỹ Cherubíms be.

21 And thou ſhalt put the Merciſeat aboue vpon the Arke, and in the Arke thou ſhalt put ỹ Teſtimonie, which I wil giue thee, 22 And there I wil h declare my ſelfe vnto thee, and from aboue the Merciſeat * betwene the two Cherubíms, which are vpõ the Arke of the Teſtimonie, I wil tel thee all things which I wil giue thee in cõmandement vnto the children of Iſraél.

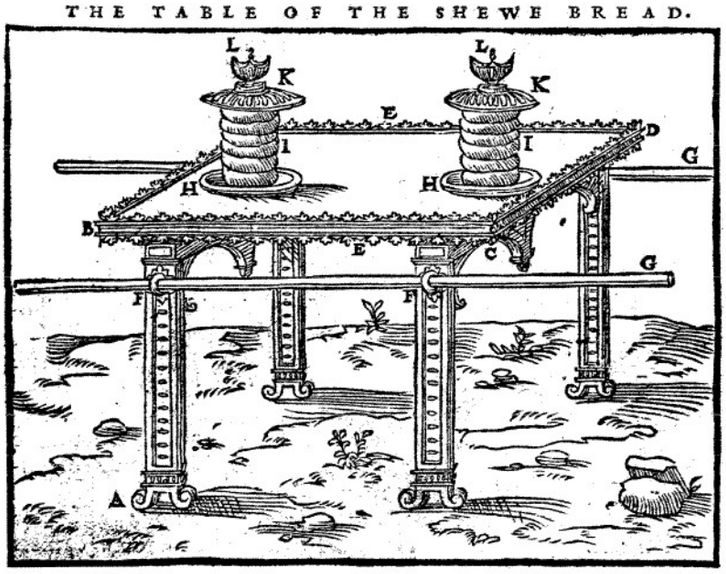
h Or, wil appeare with thee. Nom. 7. 89.

THE TABLE OF THE SHEWE BREAD.



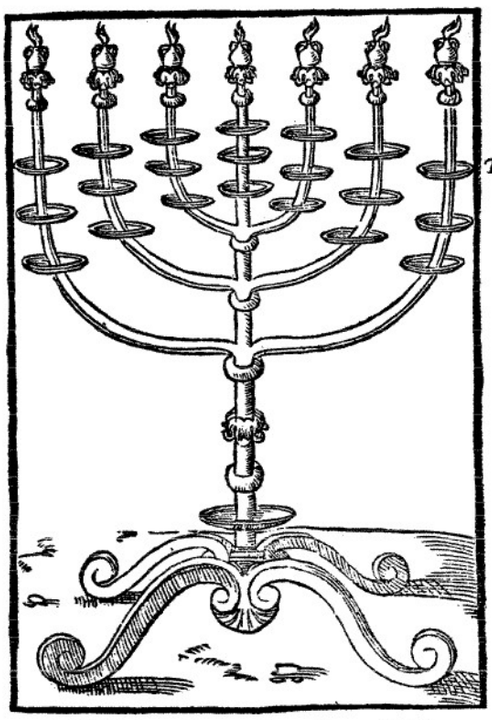
A B The height a cubite and an halfe.
B C The length two cubites.
C D The breadth a cubite.
E A crowne of golde rboue & beneth ſeparated the one frõ the other by a border of an hand breadth thicke, w declareth that the table was an hand breadth thicke.
F The foure rings.
G The barres to cary the table, which were put through ỹ rings.
H Diſhes wherein ỹ ſhewe bread was put.
I The twelue cakes or loaues called the ſhewe bread.
K The goblets or couerings.
L The incenſe cuppes.

Chap. 37.16. 23 ¶ * Thou shalt also make a table of Shittím wood, of two cubites long, & one cubite broad, and a cubite and an half hie:
24 And thou shalt couer it w̄ pure golde, and make thereto a crowne of golde rounde about.
25 Thou shalt also make vnto it a border of [g] foure fingers rounde about: and thou shalt make a golden crowne rounde about the border thereof.
26 After, thou shalt make for it foure rings of golde, & shalt put the rings in ye foure corners that are in the foure fete thereof:
27 Ouer against the border shal the rings be for places for barres, to beare the Table.
28 And thou shalt make the barres of Shittím wood, and shalt ouerlay them with golde, that ye Table may be borne with them.
29 Thou shalt make also [h] dishes for it, and incens cups for it and couerings for it, and goblets, wherewith it shalbe couered, euē of fine golde shalt thou make them.
30 And thou shalt set vpō the Table shewbread before me continually.

[g] Or, an hand breed

[h] To set the bread vpon.

THE CANDELSTICKE.



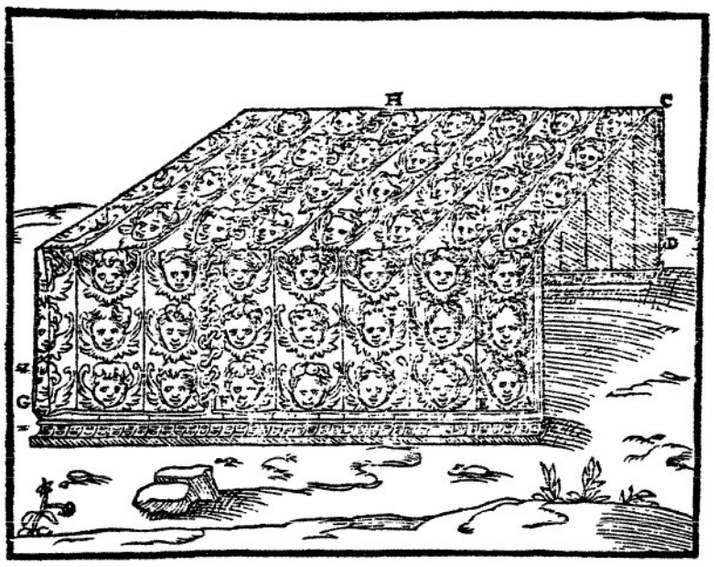
Because the facion of the candelstick is so plaine & euidēt, it nedeth not to describe the particular partes thereof according to the ordre of lettres Onely where as it is said in the 34 verse, that there shalbe foure bowles or cuppes in the cādelsticke, it must be vnderstād of the shaft or shāke: for there are but thre for euerie one of the other branches. Also the knoppes of the cādelstick are those which are vnder the brāches as thei issue out of the shaft on ether side.

Chap. 37.17. 31 ¶ * Also thou shalt make a Candelsticke of pure golde: of [i] worke beaten out w̄ the hāmer shal the Cādelsticke be made, his shaft, & his brāches, his bolles, his knops: and his sloures shal be of the same.
32 Six branches also shal come out of the sides of it: thre branches of the Candelsticke out of the one side of it, and thre branches of the Candelsticke out of the other side of it.
33 Thre bolles like vnto almondes, one knop and one floure in one branche: and thre bolles like almondes in the other brāche, one knop and one floure: so through out the six branches that come out of the Candelsticke.
34 And in the shaft of ye Candelsticke shalbe foure bolles like vnto almōdes, his knops & his sloures.
35 And there shalbe a knop vnder two branches made thereof: & a knop vnder two brāches made thereof: and a knop vnder two brāches made thereof according to the six branches comming out of the Candelsticke.
36 Their knops and their branches shalbe thereof. all this shalbe one beatē worke of pure golde.
37 And ye shalt make the seuen lāpes thereof, & ye lāpes thereof shalt ye put theron, to giue light toward that that is before it.
38 Also the snoffers & snoffedishes thereof shalbe of pure golde.
39 Of [k] a talēt of fine golde shalt thou make it with all these instruments.
40 * Loke therefore that thou make them after their facion, that was shewed thee in the mountaine.

[i] It shal not be molton, but beaten out of the lumpe of golde with ye hammer

[k] This was ye talent weight of the temple & waied fro pounde Ebr 8.9. act. 7.44.

THE FIRST COVERING OF THE TABERNACLE.



SOVTHE.

A B C D The ten curtaines, which were eight and twentie cubites long of Cherubin worke
A E The breadth of a curtaine was foure cubites, and ſo the ten were fourtie cubites broad F G Two curtaines & an halfe: ſo that ỹ whole laid together declareth that the tabernacle was thirtie cubites long and twelue broad F H Taches or hokes to tie the curtaines together.

CHAP. XXVI.

1. The forme of the Tabernacle and the appertinances, 33 The place of the Arke, of the Merciſeat, of the Table, and of the Candelſticke.

1 AFterward thou ſhalt make the Tabernacle with ten curtaines of fine twined linen, and blewe ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet: & in thē thou ſhalt make Cherubims of [a] broidred worke.

a That is, of moſte conning or fine werke.

2 The length of one curtaine ſhalbe eight and twentie cubites, & the breadth of one curtaine, foure cubites: euerie one of ỹ curtaines ſhal haue one meaſure.

3 Fiue curtaines ſhal be coupled one to another: and the other fiue curtains ſhalbe coupled one to an other.

4 And thou ſhalt make ſtrings of blewe ſilke vpō the edge of the one curtaine, which is in the ſeluedge[b] of the coupling: & likewiſe ſhalt ỹ make in ỹ edge of ỹ other curtaine in ỹ ſeluedge, in ỹ ſecōde couplig.

b On the ſide that the curtaines might be tied together

5 Fiftie ſtrings ſhalt thou make in one curtaine, and fiftie ſtrings ſhalt thou make in the edge of the curtaine, which is in the ſeconde coupling: ỹ ſtrings ſhalbe one right againſt an other.

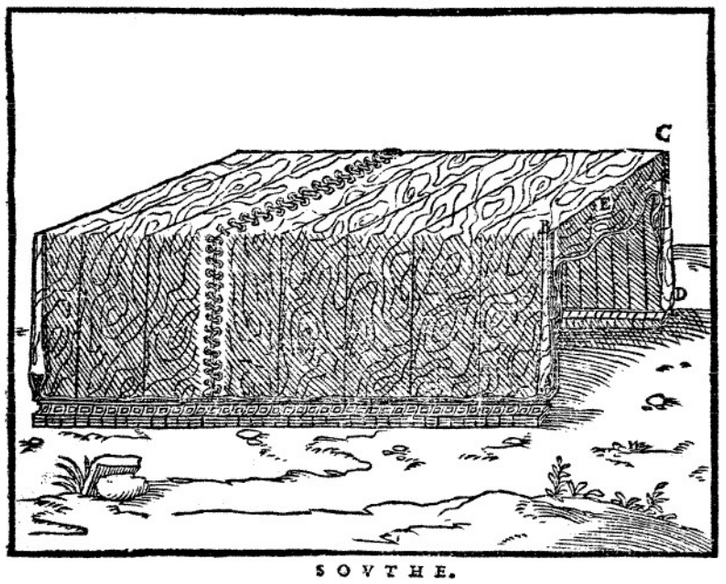
c In tying together both the ſides

6 Thou ſhalt make alſo fiftie [d] taches of golde, and couple ỹ curtaines one to another w̄ the taches, & it ſhalbe one [e] tabernacle.

d Or, hokes
e Or, pauilion

THE CVRTAINES OF GOATES HEERE.

NORTH.



SOVTHE.

These eleuen curtaines of goates heere were put aboue the other ten, and the eleuenth hanged before the entrie of the Tabernacle, loke E These also were 30 cubites long and the other but eight and twenty, and therefore on the Southe side thei were a cubite longer then the other, loke A. and also another on the North side, that the boardes might be couered.

7 ¶Also ye shalt make curtaines of goates heere, to be a [d] couering vpon the Tabernacle: thou shalt make them to the nomber of eleuen curtaines.

d Lest raine and wether shulde marre it.

8 The length of a curtaine shalbe thirtie cubites, & the breadth of a curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines shalbe of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple fiue curtaines by them selues, and the six curtaines by them selues: but thou shalt double the [e] sixt curtaine vpon the fore fronte of the couering.

e That is, fiue on ye one side, & fiue on the other, and the sixt shulde hang ouer the dore of ye Tabernacle

10 And thou shalt make fifty strings in the edge of one curtaine in the seluedge of the coupling, and fifty strings in the edge of the other curtaine in the seconde coupling.

11 Likewise thou shalt make fifty [f] taches of brasse, and fasten them on the strings, & shalt couple the couering together, that it may be one.

f Or, loke.

12 And the [f] renant that resteth in the curtaines of the couering, euen the halfe curtaine that resteth, shalbe left at the backe side of the Tabernacle, f For these curtaines were two cubites longer thē the curtaines of ye Tabernacle: so that thei were sider by a cubite on bothe sides.

13 That the cubite on the one side, and the cubite on the other side of that which is left in the length of the curtaines of the couering, may remaine on ether side of the Tabernacle to couer it.

14 Moreouer for that couering thou shalt make a [g] couering of rams skins died red, & a couering [h] of badgers skins aboue.

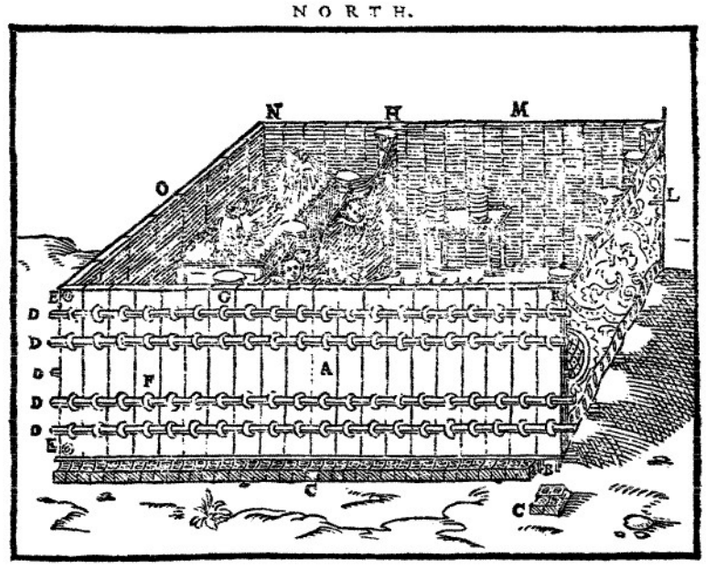
g To be put vpon the couering, ye was made of goates heere

h This was ye thirde couering for the Tabernacle

15 ¶Also thou shalt make boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand vp.

THE TABERNACLE.

NORTH.



WEST.

EAST.

SOVTHE.

A M Twentie boardes on the Southe side and twentie on the North side

B K The length of euerie one ten cubites, & the breadth a cubite and an halfe

E K & N I Declare that all the boardes ioyned together made thirtie cubites, which was the length of the Tabernacle Iosephus writeth that euerie boarde was an handful thicke 16 Ten cubites shalbe the length of a boarde, and a cubite and an halfe cubite the breadth of one boarde.

17 Two tenons shalbe in one boarde set in ordre as the fete of a ladder, one against an other: thus shalt thou make for all the boardes of the Tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make boardes for the Tabernacle, euen twentie boardes on the Southe side, euen ful Southe.

19 And thou shalt make fourtie [e] sockets of siluer vnder the twentie boardes, two sockets vnder one boarde for his two tenōs, & two sockets vnder an other boarde for his two tenons.

e Or, basse pieces, wherin were the mortises for the tenons.

20 In like maner on the other side of the Tabernacle towarde the North side shalbe twentie boardes, 21 And their fourtie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one boarde, and two sockets vnder a nother boarde.

22 And on the side of the Tabernacle, toward the West shalt thou make six boardes.

23 Also two boardes shalt thou make in the corners of the Tabernacle in ye two sides.

24 Also thei shalbe [i] ioyned beneth, & like-i The Ebrewe worde signifieth twinnes: declaring that thei shulde be so perfect and wel ioyned as were possible.

wiſe thei ſhalbe ioyned aboue to a ring: thus ſhal it be for them two: thei ſhalbe for the two corners.

25 So thei ſhalbe eight boardes hauing ſockets of ſiluer, euē ſixtene ſockets, that is, two ſockets vnder one boarde, & two ſockets vnder an other boarde.

26 ¶ Then thou ſhalt make fiue barres of Shittím wood for the boardes of one ſide of the Tabernacle, 27 And fiue barres for the boardes of the other ſide of the Tabernacle: alſo fiue barres for the boardes of the ſide of the Tabernacle towarde the Weſtſide.

28 And the midle barre ſhal go through the middes of the boardes, from end to end.

29 And thou ſhalt couer the boardes with golde, and make their rings of golde, for places for the barres, and thou ſhalt couer the barres with golde.

30 So thou ſhalt rere vp the Tabernacle * according to the facion thereof, which was ſhewed thee in the mount.

Chap 25.9. & 40. ebr 8.5. act.7.44.

31 ¶ Moreouer thou ſhalt make a vaile of blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen: thou ſhalt make it of broydred worke with Cherubims.

32 And thou ſhalt hang it vpō foure pillers of Shittím wood couered with golde, (whoſe [k] hokes ſhalbe of golde) ſtanding vpon foure ſockets of ſiluer.

[k] Some read, heades of the pillers

33 ¶ Afterward thou ſhalt hang the vaile [n] on the hokes, that thou maieſt bring in thither, that is (within ỹ vaile) the Arke of the Teſtimonie: and the vaile ſhal make you a ſeparacion betwene the Holy place and the [l] moſte Holy place.

[n] Ebr vnder the hokes: meaning that it ſhulde hang downeward from the hokes.

[l] Whereunto the hie Prieſt onely entred once a yere

34 Alſo thou ſhalt put the Merciſeat vpon the Arke of the Teſtimonie in the moſte Holy place.

35 And thou ſhalt ſet the Table [m] without the vaile, & the Candelſticke ouer againſt the Table on ỹ Southſide of the Tabernacle, and thou ſhalt ſet the Table on the Northſide.

[m] Meaning in ỹ holy place

36 Alſo thou ſhalt make an [n] hanging for the dore of the Tabernacle of blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen wroght with nedle.

[n] This hangig or vaile was betwene the holy place & there where ỹ people were.

37 And thou ſhalt make for the hanging fiue pillers of Shittím, and couer thē with golde: their heades ſhalbe of golde, & thou ſhalt caſt fiue ſockets of braſſe for them.

CHAP XXVII.

1 The altar of the burnt offring. 2 The courte of the Tabernacle. 10 The lampes continually burning.

1 MOreouer thou ſhalt make ỹ [a] altar of Shittím wood, fiue cubites long and fiue cubites broade (the altar ſhalbe foure ſquare) and the height thereof thre cubites.

[a] For ỹ burnt offring.

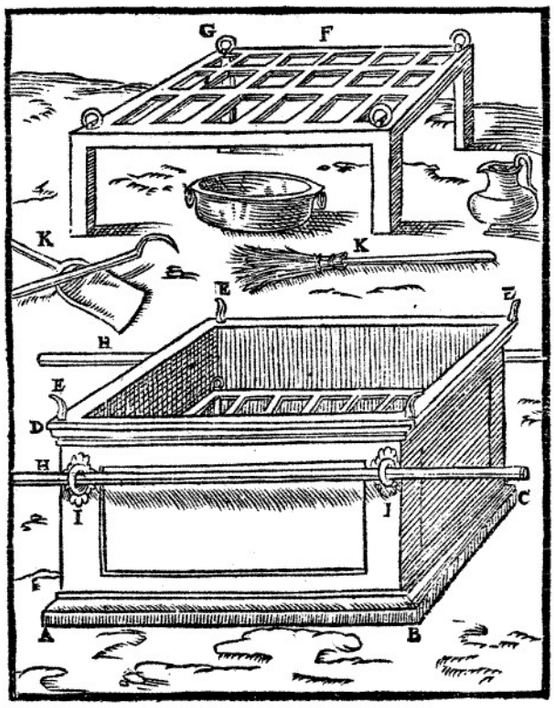
2 And thou ſhalt make it hornes in the foure corners thereof; the hornes ſhalbe of it [b] ſelfe, and thou ſhalt couer it with braſſe.

[b] Of the ſame wood & matter, not faſtened vnto it

3 Alſo thou ſhalt make his aſhpannes for his aſſhes and his beſoms, and his baſens, and his fleſhokes, & his [c] cenſers: thou ſhalt make all the inſtrumēts thereof of braſſe.

[c] Or, fire pānes.

THE ALTAR OF BVRNT OFFRING.



A B The length conteining fiue cubites.

A D The height thre cubites

B C The breadth aſmuche

E The foure hornes or foure corners.

F The grate, which was put within the altar, and whereupon the ſacrifice was burnt.

G Foure rings to lift vp the grate by, when thei auoided the aſſhes

H The barres to cary the altar.

I The rings through the which the barres were put K Aſhpans, beſoms, fleſhokes, baſens & ſuche inſtruments appertaining to the altar.

4 And thou shalt make vnto it a grate like networke of brasse: also vpon that "grate shalt thou make foure brasen rings vpon the foure corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it vnder the cōpasse of the altar beneth, that the grate may be in the middes of the altar.

6 Also thou shalt make barres for the altar, barres, I say, of Shittim wood, & shalt couer them with brasse.

7 And the barres thereof shalbe put in the rings, the which barres shalbe pō the two sides of the altar to beare it.

8 Thou shalt make ye altar holowe betwene the boardes: as God shewed thee in the mount, so shal they make it.

9 ¶Also thou shalt make the [c] courte of ye Tabernacle in the Southside, euen ful Southe: the courte shal haue curtaines of fine twined linen, of an hundreth cubites long, for one side, 10 And it shal haue twentie pillers, with their twentie sockets of brasse: the heades of the pillers, & their [d] filets shalbe siluer.

11 Likewise on the Northside in length there shalbe hangings of an hundreth cubites long, & the twētie pillers thereof wt their twentie sockets of brasse: the heades of ye pillers and the filets shalbe siluer.

12 ¶And the breadth of the courte on the Westside shal haue curtaines of fiftie cubites, with their ten pillers & their ten sockets.

13 And the breadth of the courte, Eastward ful East shal haue [e] fiftie cubites.

14 Also hangings of fiftene cubites shalbe on the one [f] side with their thre pillers and their thre sockets.

15 Likewise on the other side shalbe hangings of fiftene cubites, with their thre pillers, and their thre sockets.

16 ¶And in the gate of the courte shalbe a vaile of twentie cubites, of blewe silke, & purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen wroght with nedle, with the foure pillers thereof and their foure sockets.

17 All the pillers of the courte shal haue filets of siluer rounde about, with their heades of siluer, and their sockets of brasse.

18 ¶The length of the court shalbe an hundreth cubites, and the breadth fiftie "at ether end, and the height fiue cubites, and the hangings of fine twined linen, & their sockets of brasse.

19 All the vessels of the Tabernacle for all maner seruice thereof, & all the [g] pins thereof, & all the pins of the courte shalbe brasse.

20 ¶And thou shalt commande the childrē of Israél, that they bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue [h] beaten for the light, that the lampes may alwaye "burne.

21 In the Tabernacle of the Congregaciō without the vaile, which is before the Testimonie, shal Aarón and his sonnes dresse them from euening to morning before the Lord, for a statute for euer vnto their generacions to be obserued by the children of Israél.

"Ebr net.

c This was ye first entrie into the Tabernacle, where ye people abode

d They were certein hopes or circles for to beautifie ye piller.

e Meaning curtaines of fifty cubites

f Of the dore of the courte

"Ebr fifty in fifty

g Or stakes, wherewith ye curtaines were fastened to the grounde

h Suche as cōmeth from ye oliue, when it is first pressed or beaten

"Or, ascēde vp

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The Lord calleth Aarón & his sonnes to the Priesthode 4 Their garmēts 12 29 Aarón entreth in to the Sāctuarie in the name of the children of Israél 30 Vrim and Thummim 38 Aarón beareth the iniquitie of the Israelites offrings.

1 AND cause thou thy brother Aarón to come vnto thee and his sonnes wt him, from among the children of Israél, that he may serue me in the Priests office: I meane Aarón, Nadáb, and Abihú, Eleazár, and Ithamár Aaróns sonnes.

2 Also ye shalt make holy garments for Aarón thy brother, [a] glorious & beautiful.

3 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto all "cōning mē, whome I haue filled with the spirite of wisdome, that they make Aarons garments to [b] consecrate him, that he may serue me in the Priestes office.

a Whereby his office may be knowen to be glorious & excellent

"Ebr wise in heart

b Which is, to separat him from the rest.

THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST.

A The Ephod, or vpmost coate, which was like cloth of golde and was girded vnto him, wherein was the brest plate with the twelue stones, which was tied aboue with two cheines to two onix stones and beneth with two laces.

B The robe wt was next vnder the Ephod, whereunto were ioined the pomegranates and belles of golde.

C The tunicle or broydred coate, which was vnder ye robe and longer then it, and was also without sleues

4 Now these shalbe ye garmēts, wt thei shal make, a brest plate, & a Ephod, & a robe, &

c A short and streict coate without sleeues put vpmost vpon his garments to kepe thē close vnto him.

a broydred coat, a mitre, & a girdle. ſo the ſe holy garmẽts ſhal they make for Aarón thy brother, & for his ſonnes, that he may ſerue me in the Prieſts office.

5 Therefore they ſhal take golde, & blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, & fine linen,

6 ¶ And they ſhal make the Ephod of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, ſkarlet, & fine twined linen of broydred worke.

7 The two ſhulders thereof ſhalbe ioyned together by their two edges: ſo ſhal it be cloſed.

d Which wẽt about his vpmoſt coat. 8 And ẏ d embroydred garde of the ſame Ephod, which ſhalbe vpõ him, ſhalbe of ẏ ſelfe ſame worke and ſtuffe, euen of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou ſhalt take two onix ſtones, and graue vpon them the names of the children of Iſraél:

10 Six names of thẽ vpon the one ſtone, & the ſix names that remaine, vpõ the ſecõde ſtone, according to e their generaciõs.

e As they were in age, ſo ſhulde they be grauen in order. 11 Thou ſhalt cauſe to graue ẏ two ſtones accordig to the names of ẏ childrẽ of Iſraél by a grauer of ſignets, ẏ worketh and graueth in ſtone, and ſhalt make them to be ſet and emboſſed in golde.

12 And thou ſhalt put the two ſtones vpon the ſhulders of the Ephod, as ſtones of f remẽbrance of ẏ children of Iſraél: for Aarón ſhal beare their names before ẏ Lord vpõ his two ſhulders for a remẽbrance.

f That Aarón might remembre the Iſraelites to God warde.

13 So thou ſhalt make boſſes of golde, g Of the boſſes. 14 ¶ And two cheines of fine golde g at the ende, of wrethed worke ſhalt ẏ make them, & ſhalt faſten the wrethed cheines vpon the boſſes.

15 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt make the breſt plate of h iudgemẽt with broydred worke: like the worke of the Ephod ſhalt thou make it: of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, & fine twined linen ſhalt ẏ make it.

h It was ſo called, becauſe ẏ hie Prieſt colde not gyue ſentence or iudgement without that on his bre. The deſcription of the breſt plate.

16 i Foure ſquare it ſhalbe and double, an hand bred long and an hand bred broad.

17 Then thou ſhalt ſet it ful of places for ſtones, euen foure rowes of ſtones: ẏ ordre ſhalbe thus, a ᵏ ruby, a topaze, and a ˡ carbũcle in the firſt rowe.

ᵏ Or, ſardoine. ˡ Or, emeraude.

18 And in the ſeconde rowe thou ſhalt ſet an ˡ emeraude, a ſaphir, and a ᵐ diamond.

ˡ Or, carbuncle. ᵐ Or, jaſper.

19 And in ẏ third rowe a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite.

ⁿ Ebr. tarſhiſh. 20 And in the fourte rowe a ⁿ chryſolite, an onix, and a iaſper: and they ſhalbe ſet in golde in their emboſſements.

21 And the ſtones ſhalbe according to the names of the childrẽ of Iſraél, twelue, according to their names, grauen as ſignets, euerie one after his name, & they ſhalbe for the twelue tribes.

22 ¶ Then thou ſhalt make vpon the breſt Plate two cheines at the endes of wrethen worke of pure golde.

23 Thou ſhalt make alſo vpõ the breſt plate two rings of golde, and put the two rings on k the two endes of the breſt plate.

k Which are vpmoſt toward the ſhulder.

24 And thou ſhalt put the two wrethẽ cheines of golde in the two rings in the endes of the breſt plate.

25 And the other two endes of the two wrethen cheines, thou ſhalt faſten in the two emboſſements, and ſhalt put them vpõ the ſhulders of the Ephod on ẏ foreſide of it.

26 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt make two rings of golde, which thou ſhalt put in the l two other endes of the breſt plate, vpon the border thereof, toward ẏ inſide of ẏ Ephod.

l Which are beneth.

27 And two other rings of golde thou ſhalt make, & put them on the two ſides of the Ephod, beneth in the fore parte of it ouer againſt the coupling of it vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod.

28 Thus they ſhal binde the breſt plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, ẅ a lace of blewe ſilke, that it may be faſt vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod, & ẏ the breſt plate be not loſed frõ ẏ Ephod.

29 So Aarón ſhal m beare the names of the childrẽ of Iſraél in the breſt plate of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

m Aarón ſhal not entre into the holy place in his owne name, but in the name of all the children of Iſrael.

30 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt put in the breſt plate of iudgement the n Vrím & the Thúmím, ẅ ſhalbe vpõ Aarons heart, whẽ he goeth in before the Lord: and Aarón ſhal beare the iudgemẽt of the children of Iſraél vpon his heart before the Lord continually.

n Vrím ſignifieth light, and Thúmím perfectiõ: declaring that the ſtones of the breſt plate were moſte cleare, and of perfect beautie: by Vrim alſo is mẽt knolage, and Thũmim holynes, ſhewing what vertues are required in the Prieſts.

31 ¶ And thou ſhalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blewe ſilke.

32 And the hole for his heade ſhalbe in the middes of it, hauig an edge of wouẽ worke rounde about ẏ coller of it: ſo it ſhalbe as ẏ coller of an habergeõ that it rẽt not.

33 ¶ And beneth vpon the ſkirtes thereof ẏ ſhalt make pomgranates of blewe ſilke, & purple, & ſkarlet, round about the ſkirtes thereof and belles of golde betwene them round about:

34 That is, * a golden bel and a pomgranate, a golden bel and a pomgranate rounde about vpon the ſkirtes of the robe. Eccles. 45, 10.

35 So it ſhalbe vpon Aarón, when he miniſtreth, and his ſound ſhalbe heard, when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out, and he ſhal not dye.

o Holines appertaineth to the Lord for he is moſte holy, and nothig vnholy may appeare before him.

36 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt make a plate of pure golde, & graue therõ, as ſignets are grauẽ, ᵒ HOLINES TO THE LORD, 37 And ẏ ſhalt put it on a blewe ſilke lace, and it ſhalbe vpon the mitre: euen vpon ẏ fore fronte of the mitre ſhal it be.

p Their offrigs colde not be ſo perfect, but ſome faute wolde be therein: ẅ ſinne the hie Prieſt bare and pacified God.

38 So it ſhalbe vpon Aarons forehead, that Aarón may p beare the iniquitie of ẏ offrings frings, which the childrē of Iſraél ſhal offre in all their holy offrigs: & it ſhalbe alwaies vpon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewiſe thou ſhalt embroydre the fine linen coat, and thou ſhalt make a mitre of fine linen, but thou ſhalt make a girdel of nedle worke.

40 Alſo thou ſhalt make for Aarons ſonnes coates, & thou ſhalt make thē girdels, & bonets ſhalt thou make them for glorie and comelines.

41 And thou ſhalt put them vpon Aarón thy brother, & on his ſonnes with him, & ſhalt anoynt them, and q fil their hands, and ſanctifie them, ỹ they may miniſtre vnto me in the Prieſts office.

q That is, conſecrat thē, by giuing them things to offre, and therby admit them to their office

42 Thou ſhalt alſo make them linen breches to couer their priuities: frō the loynes vnto the thighs ſhal they reache.

43 And they ſhalbe for Aarón and his ſonnes when they come into the Tabernacle *of the Cōgregacion, or when they come vnto the altar to miniſter in ỹ holy place, that they r cōmit not iniquitie, & ſo dye. This ſhalbe a lawe for euer vnto him and to his ſede after him.

*Or, of the liuer

r In not hiding their nakednes.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The maner of conſecrating the Prieſts. 38 The continual ſacrifice. 45 The Lord promiſeth to dwel among the children of Iſraél.

1 THis thing alſo ſhalt thou do vnto thē when thou cōſecrateſt them to be my Prieſtes,* Take a yong calf, and two rams without blemiſh,

*Leui. 9, 2.

2 And vnleauened bread & cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, & wafers vnleauened anointed with oyle: (of fine wheat flower ſhalt thou make them) a To offre thē in ſacrifice.

3 Thē ỹ ſhalt put thē in one baſket, & a preſent them in the baſket with the calf and the two rams,

4 And ſhalt bring Aarón and his ſonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of ỹ Cō gregacion, and waſh them with water.

5 Alſo thou ſhalt take the garments, & put vpon Aarón the tunicle, and the robe of the bEphod, and the Ephod, and the breſt plate, and ſhalt cloſeth m to him with the broydred garde of the Ephod.

b Which was next vnder the Ephod

6 Then thou ſhalt put the mitre vpon his head, and ſhalt put the holy *crowne vpon the mitre.

*Chap. 28, 36.

*Chap. 30, 23.

7 And thou ſhalt take the anointing *oyle, and ſhalt powre vpon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou ſhalt bring his ſonnes, and put coates vpon them,

9 And ſhalt girde them with girdels, bothe Aarón & his ſonnes: and ſhalt put the bonets on them, and the Prieſtes office ſhalbe theirs for a perpetual lawe: thou *ſhalt alſo fil the hands of Aarón, and the hāds of his ſonnes.

*Chap 28, 41.

*Or, conſecrat them

10 After, thou ſhalt preſent the calf before the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, *and Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal cput their hāds vpon the head of the calf.

*Leuit 1, 4.

c Signifiing that the acrifice was alſo offred for them, and that they did approue it.

11 So thou ſhalt kil the calf before ỹ Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

12 Then thou ſhalt take of ỹ blood of the calf, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar with thy finger, and ſhalt powre all the reſt of the blood at the fote of the altar.

13 *Alſo thou ſhalt take all the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the kall, that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon thē, and ſhalt burne them vpon the altar.

*Leuit. 3, 3

14 But the fleſh of the calf, and his ſkin, and his doūg ſhalt thou burne with fire without the hoſte: it is a "ſinne offring.

"Ebr. ſhawt. 2 co. 5, 18.

15 ¶Thou ſhalt alſo take one ram, and Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

16 Then thou ſhalt kil the ram, and take his blood, and ſprinkle it round about vpon the altar, 17 And thou ſhalt cut the ram in pieces, and waſh ỹ inwardes of him and his legges, & ſhalt put them vpō the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

18 So thou ſhalt burne the whole ram vpon the altar. for it is a burnt offring vnto the Lord d for a ſwete ſauour: it is an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.

d Or a ſauour of reſt, which cauſeth the wrath of God to ceaſe

19 ¶And thou ſhalt take the other ram, and Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

20 Then ſhalt thou kil the ram, and take of his blood & put it evpon the lap of Aarōs eare, and vpon the lap of the right eare of his ſonnes, and vpon the thumbe of their right hand, & vpon the great toe of their right fote, and ſhalt ſprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

e Meaning the ſoft & nether parte of the eare.

21 And thou ſhalt take of the blood that is fvpon the altar, and of the anointing oyle, and ſhalt ſprinkle it vpon Aarón, and vpō his garments, and vpon his ſonnes, and vpon the garments of his ſonnes with him: ſo he ſhalbe halowed, and his clothes, and his ſonnes, and the garments of his ſonnes with him.

f Whereuith the altar muſt be ſprinkled

22 Alſo thou ſhalt take of the rams ỹ fat & the rompe, euen the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right ſhulder, (for it is the g ram of conſecration)

g Which is offred for the cōſecration of ỹ hie Prieſt.

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oyle, & one wafer, out of ỹ baſket of the vnleauened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And thou ſhalt put all this in the hāds of Aarón, and in the hāds of his ſonnes, and ſhalt ſhake them to and fro before ỹ Lord.

25 Againe, thou ſhalt receiue them of their hands, and burne them vpon the altar beſides the burnt offring for a ſwete ſauour before the Lord: for this is an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.
26 Likewiſe thou ſhalt take the breſt of the ram of the conſecracion, which is for Aarón, and ſhalt ſhake it to [h] and fro before the Lord, and it ſhalbe thy parte.
27 And thou ſhalt ſanctifie the breſt of the ſhaken offring, & the ſhulder of the [i] heaue offring, which was ſhaken to and fro, & which was heaued vp of the ram of the conſecracion, which was for Aarón, and which was for his ſonnes.
28 And Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal haue it by a ſtatute for euer, of the children of Iſraél: for it is an heaue offring, and it ſhalbe an heaue offring of the children of Iſraél, of their [k] peace offrings, euen their heaue offring to the Lord.
29 ¶ And the holy garmẽts, which apperteyne to Aarón, ſhalbe his ſonnes after him, to be anointed therein, and to be cõſecrat therein.
30 That ſonne that ſhalbe Prieſt in his ſtede, ſhal put them on ſeuen dayes, when he cometh into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion to miniſter in the holy place.
31 ¶ So thou ſhalt take the ram of ỹ cõſecracion, and ſethe his fleſh in the holy place.
32 *And Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal eat the fleſh of the ram, and the bread that is in ỹ baſket, at the dore of the Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacion.
33 So they ſhal eat theſe things, [l] whereby their atonemẽt was made, to cõſecrat thẽ, and to ſanctifie thẽ: but a ſtranger ſhal not eate thereof, becauſe they are holy things.
34 Now if ought of ỹ fleſh of the cõſecracio, or of ỹ bread remaine vnto the morning, then thou ſhalt burne the reſt with fire: it ſhal not be eatẽ, becauſe it is an holy thig.
35 Therefore ſhalt thou do thus vnto Aarón and vnto his ſonnes, according to all things, which I haue commanded thee: ſeuen daies ſhalt thou [n] conſecrat them, 36 And ſhalt offer euerie day a calf for a ſinne offring, for [m] reconciliation: and thou ſhalt clenſe ỹ altar, when thou haſt offred vpon it for reconciliation, & ſhalt anoint it, to ſanctifie it.
37 Seuen daies ſhalt thou clenſe the altar, and ſanctifie it, ſo the altar ſhalbe moſte holy: and whatſoeuer toucheth the altar, ſhalbe holy.
38 ¶ *Now this is ỹ which thou ſhalt preſent vpon the altar: euen two lãbes of one yere olde, day by day continually.
39 The one lambe thou ſhalt preſent in the morning, and the other lambe thou ſhalt preſent at euen.
40 And with ỹ one lãbe, a [n] tenth parte of fine floure mingled w̃ the fourte parte of an [o] Hin of beaten oile, and the fourte parte of an Hin of wine, for a drinke offring.
41 And the other lambe ỹ ſhalt preſent at euen: thou ſhalt do thereto according to the offring of the morning, & according to the drinke offring thereof, to be a burnt offring for a ſwete ſauoure vnto the Lord.
42 This ſhal be a continual burnt offring in your generatiõs at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion before ỹ Lord, where I wil [*] make appointment with you, to ſpeake there vnto thee.
43 There I wil appoint with the children of Iſraél, and the place ſhalbe ſanctified by my [p] glorie.
44 And I wil ſanctifie the Tabernacle of ỹ Cõgregacion & the altar: I wil ſanctifie alſo Aarón & his ſonnes to be my Prieſts, 45 And I wil *dwel among the children of Iſraél, and wil be their God.
46 Then ſhal they knowe that I am ỹ Lord their God, that broght them out of ỹ land of Egypt, that I might dwel among them: [q] I am the Lord their God.

h This ſacrifice the Prieſt did moue toward the Eaſt, Weſt, North and South.
i So called, becauſe it was not onely ſhakẽ to and fro, but alſo lifted vp k Which were offrigs of thãkes giuing to God for his benefites.
Leu 8,31, & 20,9 mat 12, 4.
l That is, by the ſacrifices Ebr fil their handes
m To appeaſe Gods wrath ỹ ſinne may be pardonned Num 28,3.
n That is, an Omer read chap 16,16.
o Which is about a pinte.
or, declare my ſelfe to you.
p Becauſe of my glorious preſence Leu 26,12 2 cor.6,16
q It is I the Lord, that am their God

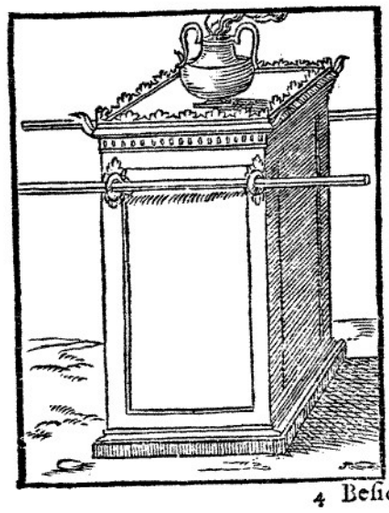
CHAP. XXX.

1 The Altar of incenſe 13 The ſumme that the Iſraelites ſhulde pay to the Tabernacle. 16 The braſen Lauer. 23 The anointing Oyle. 34 The making of the perfume.

1 FVrthermore thou ſhalt make an altar [a] for ſwete perfume, of Shittím wood thou ſhalt make it.
2 The length therof a cubite & ỹ breadth thereof a cubite (it ſhalbe foure ſquare) and the height thereof two cubites: the hornes thereof ſhalbe [b] of the ſame,
3 And ỹ ſhalt ouerlaie it with fine golde, bothe ỹ top thereof & ỹ ſides thereof roũd about, and his hornes: alſo thou ſhalt make vnto it [*] a crowne of gold roũde about.

a Vpon the ỹ the ſwete perfume was burnt. verſ 34
b Of the ſame wood & matter
Or, a circle & boarde.

THE ALTAR OF SWETE PERFVME.



This altar was one cubite long, and one cubite broad, and in height was two cubites: the reſt may be underſtãd by the ſame figures.

4 Beſides

4 Beſides this thou ſhalt make vnder this crowne two golden rings on ether ſide: euen on euerie ſide ſhalt thou make them, that thei may be as places for the barres to beare it with all.

5 The ẅ barres thou ſhalt make of Shittim wood, and ſhalt couer them ẅ golde.

c That is, in ỹ Sanctuarie, and not in the Holieſt of all.

6 After thou ſhalt ſet it [c]before the vaile, that is nere the Arke of Teſtimonie, before the Merciſeat that is vpon the Teſtimonie, where I wil appoint with thee.

d Meaning whē he trimmeth them, & refreſheth the oyle

7 And Aarón ſhal burne thereon ſwete incenſe euerie morning: when he [d] dreſſeth the lampes thereof, ſhal he burne it.

8 Likewiſe at euen, when Aarón ſetteth vp the lāpes thereof, he ſhal burne incēſe: this perfume ſhalbe perpetually before the Lord, throughout your generations.

e Otherwiſe made thē this, which is deſcribed

f But it muſt onely ſerue to burne perfume

9 Ye ſhal offre no [e] ſtrange incenſe thereon, nor burnt ſacrifice, nor offring, nether powre anie drinke offring [f] thereon.

10 And Aarón ſhal make recōciliation vpō ỹ hornes of it once in a yere ẅ the blood of the ſinne offring in the day of recōciliation: once in the yere ſhal he make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generations: this is moſte holy vnto the Lord.

11 ¶Afterward the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

12 *When thou takeſt the ſumme of ỹ children of Iſraél after their nōbre, then they ſhal giue euerie man [g] a redemption of his life vnto the Lord, whē thou telleſt them, that there be no plague among them whē thou counteſt them. Nom.1.2.

g Wherby he teſtified ỹ he redemed his life which he had forfait, as is declared by Dauid, 2 Sam. 24.1

13 This ſhal euerie mā giue, that goeth into the nombre, half a ſhekel, after the [h] ſhekel of the Sanctuarie: (* a ſhekel is twenty geráhs) the halfe ſhekel ſhalbe an offring to the Lord.

h This ſhekel valued two cō mune ſhekels: & ỹ geráh valued about 2. pence after 5. ſhill ſterl. the once of ſiluer. Leu.27.25. nom 3.47. ezek.45.12.

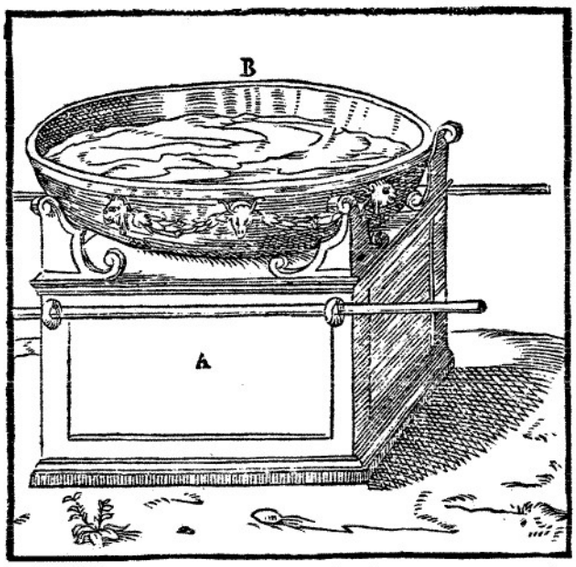
14 All that are nōbred fro twenty yere olde and aboue, ſhal giue an offring to ỹ Lord.

15 The riche ſhal not paſſe, and the poore ſhal not diminiſh from halfe a ſhekel, whē ye ſhal giue an offring vnto ỹ Lord, [i] for the redemption of your liues.

i That God ſhuld be merciful vnto you.

16 So thou ſhalt take the money of ỹ redēption of the children of Iſraél, and ſhalt put it vnto the vſe of the Tabernacle of ỹ Cōgregacion, that it may be a memorial vnto the children of Iſraél before ỹ Lord for the redemption of your liues.

THE LAVER OF BRASSE.



A The fundation or fote of the Lauer.

B The Lauer. Becauſe Moſes deſcribeth not the maner of this Lauer, this figure is made after the facion of Salomons, ẅ ſemeth to be moſte agreable to this, 1 King 7.38 ſaue in ſtede of wheles are put barres to beare it, as in the other figures alſo appeareth.

17 ¶Alſo ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

18 Thou ſhalt alſo make a lauer of braſſe, & his fote of braſſe to waſh, and ſhalt put it betwene ỹ Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacio & the altar, & ſhalt put water therein.

k Signifiing ỹ he that commeth to God, muſt be waſhed from all ſinne and corruption.

19 For Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal [k] waſh thei hands and their fete thereat.

20 When they go into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, or when they go vnto the altar to miniſter & to make ỹ perfume of the burnt offring to the Lord, they ſhal waſh thē ſelues with water, leſt they dye.

21 So they ſhal waſh their hāds & their fete ỹ they dye not: & this ſhalbe to thē an ordinance [l] for euer, bothe vnto him and to his ſede throughout their generacions.

l So long as ỹ priefthode ſhal laſt

22 ¶Alſo ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

23 Take thou alſo vnto thee, principal ſpices of ỹ moſte pure myrrhe fiue hūdreth [m] ſhekels, of ſwete cinamō halfe ſo muche, that is, two hundreth & fiftie, and of ſwete [n] calamus, two hundreth, and fiftie:

m Waying ſo muche.

n It is a kinde of reede of a very ſwete ſauour within, & is vſed in poudres & odours. Chap.30.40.

24 Alſo of caſsia fiue hundreth, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, and of oile oliue an* Hin.

25 So thou ſhalt make of it the oile of holy ointement, euen a moſte precious ointement after the arte of the apotecarie: this ſhalbe the oile of holy ointement.

o All things which appertein to the Tabernacle

26 And thou ſhalt anoint ỹ o Tabernacle of the Congregacion the ewith, & the Arke of the Teſtimonie:

27 Alſo the Table, and all the inſtruments therof, and the Candelſticke, with all ỹ inſtruments thereof, & the altar of incenſe:

28 Alſo the altar of burnt offring with all his inſtruments, and the lauer & his fote.

29 So thou ſhalt ſanctifie them, and they ſhalbe moſte holy: all ỹ ſhal touche them, ſhalbe holy.

30 Thou ſhalt alſo anoint Aarón and his ſonnes, and ſhalt conſecrat them, that they may miniſtre vnto me in the Prieſts office.

31 Moreouer thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto ỹ children of Iſraél, ſaying, This ſhal be an holy ointing oyle vnto me, throughout your generacions.

p Nether at their burialls nor other wiſe.

32 None ſhal anoint p mãs fleſh therewith, nether ſhal ye make any compoſition like vnto it: for it is holy, and ſhalbe holy vnto you.

q Ether a ſtrãger, or an Iſraelite, ſaue onely the Prieſts 33 Whoſoeuer ſhal make ỹ like ointemẽt, or whoſoeuer ſhal put any of it vpon q a ſtrãger, euẽ he ſhalbe cut of from his people.

r In Ebrewe, Shehéleth: ẅ is a ſweete kinde of gumme and ſhineth as the naile

34 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Take vn to thee theſe ſpices, pure myrhe & r cleare gũme and galbanum, theſe odoures with pure frankincenſe, of eche like weight:

35 Then thou ſhalt make of them perfume compoſed after the arte of the apotecary, mingled together, pure & holy.

36 And thou ſhalt beate it to pouder, and ſhalt put of it before the Arke of ỹ Teſtimonie in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, where I wil make appointement with thee: it ſhalbe vnto you moſte holy.

37 And ye ſhal not make vnto you any cõpoſition like this perfume, which thou ſhalt make: it ſhalbe vnto thee holy for the s Lord.

s Onely dedicat to the vſe of the Tabernacle

38 Whoſoeuer ſhal make like vnto that to ſmel thereto, euẽ he ſhal be cut of from his people.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 God maketh Bezaleél & Aholiáb mete for his worke. 13 The Sabbath day is the ſigne of our ſanctification. 18 The tables written by the finger of God.

1 AND ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayĩg, a I haue choſen and made mete Chap 35. 30

2 Beholde, I a haue called by name, Bezaleél, the ſonne of Vrí, the ſonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudáh,

3 Whome I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wiſdome, & in vnderſtanding & in knowledge & in all b workemanſhip:

b This ſheweth that hãdy crafts are the gifts of Gods Spirit, & therefore ought to be eſtemed.

4 To finde out curious workes to worke in golde, & in ſiluer, and in braſſe,

5 Alſo in the art to ſet ſtones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner of workemanſhip.

6 And beholde, I haue ioyned with hĩ Aholiáb the ſonne of Ahiſamah of the tribe of Dan, & in the heartes of all that are c wiſe hearted, haue I put wiſdome to make all ỹ I haue commanded thee:

c I haue inſtructed them, and increaſed their knowledge.

7 That is, ỹ Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacio, and the Arke of the Teſtimonie, and the Merciſeat that ſhalbe thereupon, with all inſtruments of the Tabernacle:

8 Alſo the Table and the inſtruments thereof, and the d pure Candelſticke with all his inſtruments, and the Altar of perfume:

d So called, becauſe of the coning and arteyſed therein, or becauſe the whole was beaten out of one piece

9 Likewiſe the Altar of burnt offring with all his inſtrumẽts, and the Lauer with his fote:

10 Alſo the garmentes of the miniſtration, and the holy garmẽts for Aarón ỹ Prieſt, and the garmẽts of his ſonnes, to miniſter in the Prieſts office, e Which onely was to annoint the Prieſts & ỹ inſtruments of the Tabernacle, and not to burne

11 And the e anointing oyle, and ſwete perfume for the Sanctuarie: according to all that I haue commãded thee, ſhal they do.

12 ¶ Afterward the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

13 Speake thou alſo vnto the children of Iſraél, & ſay, f Notwithſtading kepe ye my Sabbaths: for it is a ſigne betwene me and you in your generations, that ye may knowe that I the Lord do ſanctifie you.

f Thogh I cõmaude theſe workes to be done, yet wil I not that you breake my Sabbath daies. Chap 20,8. ezek.20,12

14 *Ye ſhal therefore kepe ỹ g Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, ſhal dye ỹ death: therfore whoſoeuer worketh therein, the ſame perſone ſhalbe euen cut of from among his people.

g God repeteth this point becauſe the whole keping of the Lawe ſtandeth in the true vſe of the Sabbath, ẅ is to ceaſe from our workes, & to obey the wil of God

15 Six dayes ſhal men worke, but in the ſeuenth day is the Sabbath of the holy reſt to the Lord: whoſoeuer doeth any worke in the Sabbath day, ſhal dye the death.

16 Wherefore the childrẽ of Iſraél ſhal kepe the Sabbath, that they may obſerue the h reſt through out their generations for an euerlaſting couenant.

h Or, Sabbath.

17 It is a ſigne betwene me and the children of Iſraél for euer: *for in ſix dayes ỹ Lord made the heauen and the earth, and in the ſeuenth day i he ceaſed, and reſted.

Gen.1,31. & 2,2.

i From creating his creatures, but not frõ gouerning & preſeruing them

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of cõmuning with Moſés vpon mount Sinái) *he gaue him two Tables k of the Teſtimonie, euen tables of ſtone, written with the finger of God.

Deut 9,10.

k Whereby he declared his will to his people.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The Iſraelites impute their deliuerance to the calf. 7 God is appeaſed by Moſes prayer 19 Moſes breaketh the Tables 27 He ſlayeth the idolaters. 32 Moſes zeale for the people.

a The rote of idolatrie is, whẽ mẽ thinke ỹ God is not at hand, except they ſe him carnally

1 BVt when the people ſawe, that Moſés taried lõg or he came downe from ỹ moũtaine, the people gathered thẽ ſelues togethe r againſt Aarón, & ſaid vnto him, Vp, a make vs gods to go before vs: for of this Moſés (the man that broght vs out of the land of Egypt) we knowe not what is become of him.

b Thinking ỹ they wolde rather forgo idolatrie, thẽ to reſigne their moſte precious iewels.

2 And Aarón ſaid vnto them, b Plucke of the the golden earings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your ſonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckte from thē [c] ſelues the golden earings, which were in their eares, and they broght them vnto Aarón.

c Suche is the rage of idolaters, that they ſpare no coſt to ſatiſfie their wicked deſires

4 * Who receiued them at their hands, and facioned it with the grauing tole, & made of it a [d] molten calf: then they ſaid, * Theſe be thy gods, ô Iſraél, [ẅ] broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

Pſal 106,19.

d Thei ſmelled of their leuē of Egypt, where thei ſawe calues, oxē, & ſerpēts worſhipped

5 When Aarón ſawe that, he made an altar before it: and Aarón proclaimed, ſaying, To morowe ſhalbe the holy day of the Lord.

1.King.12,28.

6 So they roſe vp the next day in the morning, and offred burnt offrings, & broght peace offrings: alſo *the people ſate them downe to eat and drinke, and roſe vp to playe.

1 Cor.10,7.

7 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, * Go, get the downe: for thy people which thou haſt broght out of the lad of Egypt, hathe corrupted their wayes.

e Whereby we ſe what neceſſitie we haue to pray earneſtly to God, to kepe vs in his true obedience and to ſend vs good guides

8 Thei [e] are ſone turned out of the way, which I commanded them for thei haue made them a molte calf, & haue worſhipped it, & haue offred thereto, ſayīg, * Theſe be thy gods, ô Iſaél, which haue broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

1 King 12,28 Chap 33 3 deut 9,13

9 Againe the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, * I haue ſene this people, and beholde, it is a ſtifnecked people.

f God meweth [ẏ] the prayers of the godly ſtay his puniſhment

10 Nowe [f] therefore let me alone, that my wrath may waxe hote againſt them, for I wil conſume them: but I wil make of thee a mightie people.

Pſal 106,23.

11 *But Moſés praied vnto [ẏ] Lord his God, and ſaid, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath waxe hote againſt thy people, which thou haſt broght out of the lād of Egypt, with great power and with a mightie hand?

Numb 14,13

12 *Wherefore ſhal the Egyptians ſpeake, and ſay, He hathe brogat them out maliciouſly for to ſlay them in the moūtaines, and to conſume them from the earth? turne from thy fearce wrath, and [ẗ] change thy minde from this euil toward thy people.

[e] Or, blaſpheme.

[ẗ] Or, repent.

g That is, thy promes made to Abraham

13 Remembre [g] Abrahám, Izhák, & Iſraél thy ſeruants, to whome thou ſwareſt by thine owne ſelfe, and ſaideſt vnto them, * I wil multiplie your ſede, as the ſtarres of the heauen, and all this land, that I haue ſpoken of, wil I giue vnto your ſede, and thei ſhal inheri it for euer.

Gen 12,7 & 15,5. & 48,16

14 Then the Lord changed his minde from the euil, which he threatened to do vnto his people.

15 So Moſés returned and went downe from the mountaine with the two Tables of the Teſtimonie in his hād: the Tables were writtē on bothe their ſides, euen on [ẏ] one ſide & on the other were thei written.

16 And theſe Tables were the worke of God, and [h] this writing was the writing of God grauen in the Tables.

h All theſe repetitiōs ſhewe how excellent a thīg thei defrauded them ſelues of by their idolatrie

17 And whē Ioſhúa heard the noiſe of the people, as thei ſhowted, he ſaid vnto Moſés, There is a noiſe of warre in the hoſte.

18 Who anſwered, It is not the noiſe of thē that haue the victorie, nor the noiſe of thē that are ouercome: but I do heare the noiſe of ſinging.

19 Nowe, aſſone as he came nere vnto the hoſte, he ſawe the calf and the dancing: ſo Moſés wrath waxed hote, and he cāſt the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneth the mountaine.

20 *After, he toke the caif, which they had made, & burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and ſtrowed it vpon the water, & made the childrē of Iſraél [i] drinke of it.

Deut.9,21.

i Partely to diſpite them of their idolatrie, & partely [ẏ] thei ſhulde haue none occaſiō to remēber it afterwarde.

21 Alſo Moſés ſaid vnto Aarón, What did this people vnto thee, [ẏ] thou haſt broght ſo great a ſinne vpon them?

22 Thē Aarón anſwered, Let not the wrath of my lord waxe fearce: thou knoweſt this people, that thei are euen ſet on miſchief.

23 And thei ſaid vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moſés (the man [ẏ] broght vs out of the land of Egypt.)

24 Thē I ſaid to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it of: and thei broght it me, and I [ẗ] did caſt it into the fire, and thereof came this calf.

25 Moſés therefore ſawe that the people were [k] naked (for Aarón had made them naked vnto their ſhame among their enemies)

k Bothe deſtitute or Gods fauour, & an occaſion to their enemies to ſpeake euil of their God

26 And Moſés ſtode in the gate of the cāp, and ſaid, Who perteineth to the Lord? let him come to me. And all the ſonnes of Leuí gathered them ſelues vnto him.

27 Then he ſaid vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, Put euerie man his ſworde by his ſide: go to and fro, frō gate to gate, through the hoſte, and [l] ſlay euerie man his brother, and euerie man his companion, & euerie man his neighbour.

l This fact did ſo pleaſe God, that he turned the curſe of Iaakób againſt Leuí, to a bleſſing, Deut 33,9 28 So the children of Leuí did as Moſés had commanded: and there fel of the people the ſame day about thre thouſand mē.

29 (For Moſés had ſaid, Conſecrat your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euerie man vpon his [m] ſonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a bleſſing this day)

m In renēging Gods glorie we muſt haue no reſpect to perſone, but put of all carnal affection

30 And whē the morning came, Moſés ſaid vnto the people, Ye haue cōmitted a grieuous crime: but now I wil go vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your ſinne.

31 Moſés therefore went againe vnto the Lord, and ſaid, Oh, this people haue ſin-ned a great ſinne and haue made thē gods of golde.

32 Therefore now if thou pardone their ſinne, thy mercie ſhal appeare: but if thou wilt not, I pray thee, raſe me [n] out of thy boke, which thou haſt written.

n So muche he eſtemed ỹ glorie of God, ỹ he preferred it euē to his owne ſaluacion.

33 Then the Lord ſaid to Moſes, Whoſoeuer hathe ſinned againſt me, I wil put him out of my [o] boke.

o I wil make it knowē that he was neuer predeſtinate in mine eternal coūſel to life euerlaſting.

34 Go now therefore, bring the people vnto the place which I commanded thee: beholde, mine Angel ſhal go before thee, but yet in the day of my viſitacion I wil [p] viſet their ſinne vpon them.

p This declareth how grieuous a ſinne idolatrie is, ſeing that at Moſes prayer God wolde not fully remitte it.

35 So the Lord plagued the people, becauſe they cauſed Aarón to make the calf which he made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

2 The Lord promiſeth to ſend an Angel before his people. 4 They are ſad becauſe the Lord demeth to go vp with them. 9 Moſes talketh familiarely with God. 13 He prayeth for the people. 18 And deſireth to ſe the glorie of the Lord.

1 AFterwarde the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Departe, [a] go vp frō hence, thou, and the people (which thou haſt brought vp out of the land of Egypt) vnto the lād wherof I ſware vnto Abrahám, to Izhák and to Iaakób, ſaying, *Vnto thy ſede wil I giue it.

a The land of Canaan was compaſſed with hilles: ſo they, that entred into it, muſt paſſe vp by the hilles Gen 12.7. exod 23.27. Ioſh.24.11. Deu.7.21.

2 And * I wil ſend an Angel before thee & wil caſt out the Canaanites, ỹ Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites:

3 To a lād, I ſay, that floweth with milke & hony: for I wil not go vp with thee, *becauſe thou art a ſtifnecked people, leſt I conſume thee in the way.

Chap 32.9. deut.9.13.

4 And when the people heard this euil tidings, they ſorowed, & no man put on his beſt rayment.

5 (For the Lord had ſaid to Moſes, Say vnto the children of Iſraél, Ye are a ſtifnecked people, I wil come ſodenly vpon thee, and conſume thee: therefore now put thy coſtly rayment frō thee, that I may knowe [b] what to do vnto thee.)

b That ether may ſhewe mercie, if thou repent, or els puniſh thy rebellion.

6 So the childrē of Iſraél laied their good rayment from them, after Moſes came downe from the mount Horéb.

7 Then Moſes toke his tabernacle, & pitched it without the hoſte far of from the hoſte, and called it [c] Ohel-moéd. And when anie did ſeke to the Lord, he wēt out vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, which was without the hoſte.

c That is, the Tabernacle of the Cōgregaciō: ſo called, becauſe the people reſorted thether, when they ſhulde be inſtructed of the Lords wil.

8 And when Moſes went out vnto the Tabernacle, all the people roſe vp, and ſtode euerie man at his tent dore, and loked after Moſes, vntil he was gone into the Tabernacle.

9 And aſſone as Moſes was entred into the Tabernacle, the cloudy piller deſcended and ſtode at the dore of the Tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moſes.

10 Now when all the people ſawe the cloudy piller ſtand at the Tabernacle dore, all the people roſe vp, & worſhipped euerie man in his tent dore.

11 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, [d] face to face, as a man ſpeaketh vnto his friend. After he turned againe into the hoſte, but his ſeruant Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun a yong man, departed not out of the Tabernacle.

d Moſte plainely & familiarely of all others, Numb. 12,7 12 ¶ Then Moſes ſaid vnto the Lord, Se, ỹ ſaieſt vnto me, Lead this people fourth, & thou haſt not ſhewed me whome thou wilt ſend with me: thou haſt ſaid moreouer, I knowe thee by [e] name, & thou haſt alſo founde grace in my ſight.

e I care for thee and wil preſerue thee in this thy vocation

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy ſight, ſhewe me now thy way, that I may knowe thee, and that I may finde grace in thy ſight: conſider alſo that this nacion is thy people.

14 And he anſwered, My [f] preſence ſhal go with thee, and I wil giue thee reſt.

f Ebr face. Signifying ỹ the Iſraelites ſhulde excel through Gods fauour all other people, verſ 16.

15 Then he ſaid vnto him, If thy preſence go not with vs, cary vs not hence.

16 And wherein now ſhal it be knowē, that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy ſight > ſhal it not be when thou goeſt with vs > ſo I, & thy people ſhal haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the earth.

17 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, I wil do this alſo that thou haſt ſaid: for thou haſt founde grace in my ſight, and I knowe thee by name.

18 Againe he ſaid, I beſeche thee, ſhewe me thy [g] glorie.

g Thy face, thy ſubſtance, and thy maieſtie

19 And he anſwered, I wil make all my [h] good go before thee, and I wil [i] proclaime the Name of the Lord before thee: * for I wil ſhewe [k] mercie to whome I wil ſhewe mercie, & wil haue compaſsion on whome I wil haue compaſsion.

h My mercie, & fatherlie care

i Read chap. 34, verſ 6,7 Rom.9,15.

20 Furthermore he ſaid, Thou cāſt not ſe my face, for there ſhal no man ſe me, and [l] liue.

k For finding nothing in mā that cā deſerue mercie, he wil frely ſaue his l For Moſes ſawe not his face in ful maieſtie, but as mans weakenes colde beare

21 Alſo the Lord ſaid, Beholde, there is a place by [m] me, and thou ſhalt ſtāde vpon the rocke:

m In mount Horēb

22 And while my glorie paſſeth by, I wil put thee in a cleft of the rocke, and wil couer thee with mine hand whiles I paſſe by.

23 After I wil take away mine hand, & thou ſhalt ſe my [n] backe partes: but my face ſhal not be ſene.

n So muche of my glorie as in this mortal life thou art able to ſe.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 The Tables are renued. 6 The deſcription of God. 12 All felowſhip with idolaters is forbidden. 18 The thre feaſts. 28 Moſes is 40 daies in the mount. 30 His face ſhineth, and he couereth it with a vaile.

1 ANd ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, *Hewe thee two Tables of ſtone, like vnto ỹ firſt firſt, and I wil write vpon the Tables the wordes that were in ỹ firſt Tables, which thou brakeſt in pieces.

Deut.10,2.

2 And be ready in the morning, that thou maieſt come vp early vnto the moũt of Sinái, and "waite there for me in the top of the mount.

"Ebr. ſtand to me.

3 But let no man come vp with thee, nether let anie man be ſene throughout all the mount, nether let the ſhepe nor cattel fede before this mount.

4 ¶ Thẽ Moſés 'hewed two Tables of ſtone like vnto the firſt, and roſe vp early in ỹ morning, and went vp vnto the mount of Sinái, as the Lord had cõmanded him, & toke in his hand two Tables of ſtone.

'Or, poliſhed.

5 And the Lord deſcended in the cloude, and ſtode with him there, and proclaimed the Name of the Lord.

6 So the Lord paſſed before his face, and a cryed, The Lord, ỹ Lord, ſtrong, mercifull, and gracious, ſlow to angre, & abundant in goodnes and trueth, a This ought to be referred to the Lord & not to Moſés proclaiming as chap 33 verſ 19 7 Reſeruing mercie for thouſands, forgiuing iniquitie, & tranſgreſsion and ſinne, and not "making the wicked innocent, *viſiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, and vpon childrens childrẽ, vnto the third and fourth generation.

"Ebr. not making innocent. Deut 5.9. Iere 32.18.

8 Then Moſes made haſte and bowed him ſelf to the earth, and worſhipped, 9 And ſaid, ô Lord, I praye thee, if I haue founde grace in thy ſight, that the Lord wolde now go w̃ vs (b for it is a ſtifnecked people) and pardone our iniquitie & our ſinne, and take vs for thine enheritance.

b Seing ỹ people are thus of nature, ỹ rulers haue nede to call vpõ God, that he wolde alwais be preſent with his Spirit Deu.5.2.

10 And he anſwered, Beholde, * I wil make a couenant before all thy people, and wil do meruels, ſuche as haue not bene done in all the world, nether in all nations: and all the people amõg whome thou art, ſhal ſe the worke of ỹ Lord: for it is a terrible thing that I wil do with thee.

11 Kepe diligently that which I commande thee this day. beholde, I wil caſt out before thee the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, & the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites.

Deu.7.12.

12 *Take hede to thy ſelf, that thou make no compact with the inhabitants of the land whither ỹ goeſt, leſt ther be the cauſe of c ruine among you:

c If thou followe their wickednes, and pollute thy ſelfe w̃ their idolatrie

13 But ye ſhal ouerthrowe their altars, and breake their images in pieces, and cut downe their d groues, d Which pleaſãt places ther choſen for their idoles. Chap.20.5.

14 (For thou ſhalt bowe downe to none other god, becauſe the Lord, whoſe Name is *Ielous, is a ielous God)

Chap 23.32. deu.7.2.

15 Leſt thou make a * compact with the inhabitants of the land, and when they go a whoring after their gods, and do ſacrifice vnto their gods ſome man call thee, and thou * eat of his ſacrifice:

1.Cor.8.10.

16 And leſt thou take of their * daughters vnto thy ſonnes, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy ſonnes go a whoring after their gods.

1.King 11 2.

17 Thou ſhalt make thee no gods of e metal.

e As golde, ſilue, braſſe, or any thing that is molten.

18 ¶ The feaſt of vnleauened bread ſhalt ỹ kepe: ſeuẽ dayes ſhalt thou eat vnleauened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the * moneth of Abíb: for in the moneth of Abíb thou cameſt out of Egypt.

Chap.13.4.

19 *Euerie male, that firſt openeth ỹ wombe ſhalbe mine: alſo all the firſt borne of thy flocke ſhalbe reconed mine, bothe of beues and ſhepe.

Chap.13.2. & 22.29. ezek.44.30.

20 But the firſt of the aſſe thou ſhalt bye out with a lambe: and if thou redeme him not, then thou ſhalt breake his necke: all the firſt borne of thy ſonnes ſhalt thou redeme, and none ſhal appeare before me f empty.

f With out offring ſome thing

21 ¶ Six dayes thou ſhalt worke, and in the ſeuẽth day thou ſhalt reſt: bothe in earing time, and in the harueſt thou ſhalt reſt.

22 ¶ * Thou ſhalt alſo obſerue the feaſt of wekes in the time of ỹ firſt frutes of wheat harueſt, and the feaſt of gathering frutes in g the end of the yere.

Chap.23.16.

g Which was in September, when ỹ sunne declined, which in the counte of political things ther called ỹ ende of ỹ yere.

23 ¶ Thrise in a yere ſhal all your mẽ childrẽ appeare before ỹ Lord Iehouáh God of Iſraél.

24 For I wil caſt out the nacions before thee, and enlarge thy coaſtes, ſo that no man ſhal h deſire thy land, whẽ thou ſhalt come vp to appeare before the Lord thy God thrise in the yere.

h God promiſeth to defend them & theirs, which obey his commandement.

25 Thou ſhalt not offer the blood of my ſacrifice with leauen, nether ſhal ought of the ſacrifice of the feaſt of Paſſeouer be left vnto the morning.

26 The firſt ripe frutes of thy land thou ſhalt bring vnto the houſe of the Lord thy God: yet ſhalt thou not i ſethe a kid in his mothers milke.

i Read chap. 23,19. deu. 14. 21

27 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Write thou theſe wordes: for after the tenoure of * theſe wordes I haue made a couenant with thee and with Iſraél.

Chap 24.18. deu 9.9.

28 So he was there with the Lord k fourtie daies and fourtie nights, and did nether eat bread nor drinke water: and he wrote in the Tables * the wordes of ỹ couenant, euen the ten 'commandements.

k This miracle was to cõfirme the autoritie of the Lawe, and ought no more to be followed then other miracles

29 ¶ So when Moſés came downe frõ moũt Sinái, the two Tables of the Teſtimonie were in Moſés hand, as he deſcended from the mount: (now Moſés wiſt not that ỹ ſkin of his face ſhone bright, after that God had talked with him)

Deu 4.13. 'Or, wordes.

30 And Aarón and all the childrẽ of Iſraél loked vpon Moſés, and beholde, the ſkin of his face ſhone bright, and they were l afraide to come nere him.

l Read 2 Cor. 3.7.

31 But Moſés called them: and Aarón and all the chief of the Congregacion returned vnto him: and Moſés talked with them.

32 And afterward all the childrē of Iſraél came nere, and he charged them with all that the Lord had ſaid vnto him in moūt Sinái.

33 So Moſés made an end of communing with them, * and had put a couering vpon his face. 2.Cor.3.13.

34 But, when Moſés came [m] before ỹ Lord to ſpeake with him, he toke of the couering vntil he came out: then he came out, and ſpake vnto the children of Iſraél that which he was commanded. [m] Which was in the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion.

35 And the children of Iſraél ſawe the face of Moſés, how the ſkin of Moſés face ſhone bright: therefore Moſés put the couering vpō his face, vntil he went to ſpeake with God.

CHAP. XXXV.

2 The Sabbath 5 The fre gifts are required. 21 The readines of the people to offer 30 Bezaleél & Aholiab are praiſed of Moſés.

1 THen Moſés aſſembled all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, and ſaid vnto thē, These are the wordes which the Lord hathe commāded, that ye ſhulde do them:

2 *Six dayes thou ſhalt worke, but the ſeuēth day ſhal be vnto you the holy [a] Sabbath of reſt vnto ỹ Lord: whoſoeuer doeth anie worke therein, ſhal dye. Chap 20.8. [a] Wherein ye ſhal reſt from all bodelie worke.

3 Ye ſhal kindle no fire throughout all your habitations vpon the Sabbath day.

4 ¶ Againe, Moſés ſpake vnto all the Congregacion of ỹ children of Iſraél, ſaying, This is the thing which the Lord commandeth, ſaying,

5 Take from among you an offring vnto the Lord: whoſoeuer is of a *willing heart, let him bring this offring to the Lord, namely golde, and ſiluer, and braſſe: Chap.25.2.

6 Alſo blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine linen, and goates heere,

7 And rams ſkins died red, and badgers ſkins with Shittím wood:

8 Alſo oyle for light, & ſpices for the anointing oyle, and for the ſwete incenſe,

9 And onix ſtones, and ſtones to be ſet in the Ephód, and in the breſt plate.

10 And all the wiſe [b] hearted among you, ſhal come & make all that the Lord hathe commanded: [b] Read Chap. 28,3 11 That is, the *Tabernacle, the pauillion thereof, & his couering, & his taches & his bordes, his barres, his pillers & his ſockets, Chap.26.31.

12 The Arke, and the barres thereof: the Merciſeat, & the vaile that [c] covereth it, [c] Which hanged before the Merciſeat that it colde not be ſeen.

13 The Table, and the barres of it, and all the inſtrumēts thereof, & the ſhewe bread:

14 Alſo the Cādelſticke of light and his inſtruments and his lampes with the oyle for the light:

15 *Likewiſe the Altar of perfume and his barres, and the anointing oyle, and the ſwete incenſe, and the vaile of the dore at the entring in of the Tabernacle, Chap 30,1.

16 The * Altar of burnt offring with his braſen grate, his barres and all his inſtruments, the Lauer and his fote, Chap.27.8

17 The hāgings of the courte, his pillers & his ſockets, and the vaile of ỹ gate of the courte,

18 The pins of the Tabernacle, and ỹ pins of the courte with their cordes, 19 The [d] miniſtring garments to miniſtre in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aarón the Prieſt, and the garments of his ſonnes, that they may miniſtre in the Prieſtes office. [d] Suche as appertaine to ỹ ſeruice of the Tabernacle.

20 ¶ Then all the Congregacion of ỹ children of Iſraél departed from the preſence of Moſés.

21 And euerie one, whoſe hearts [e] encouraged him, & euerie one, whoſe ſpirit made him willing, came and broght an offring to ỹ Lord, for the worke of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and for all his vſes, and for the holy garments. [e] Ebr. lifted him vp.

22 Bothe men & women, as many as were fre hearted, came and broght [f] taches and earings, and rings, and bracelets, all were iewels of golde: and euerie one that offred an offring of golde vnto the Lord: [f] Or, bodkins.

23 Euerie man alſo, which had blewe ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet, and fine linen, and goats heere, and rams ſkins died red, and badgers ſkins, broght them.

24 All that offred an oblatiō of ſiluer & of braſſe, broght ỹ offring vnto the Lord: & euerie one, ỹ [g] had Shittím wood for anie maner worke of ỹ miniſtracīō, broght it. [g] Eb. With who me was found.

25 And all the womē that were [h] wiſe hearted, did ſpin with their hādes, and broght the ſpun worke, eue the blewe ſilke, and the purple, the ſkarlet, and the fine linen. [h] Which were witty and expert

26 Likewiſe all the women, [i] whoſe heartes were moued with knowledge, ſpun goates heere. [i] That is, ỹ were good ſpinners.

27 And the rulers broght onix ſtones, and ſtones to be ſet in the Ephód, and in the breſt plate:

28 Alſo ſpice, and oyle for light, and for the *anointing oyle, and for the ſwete perfume. Chap.30.23.

29 Euerie man and woman of the childrē of Iſraél, whoſe hearts moued thē willingly to bring for all the worke which the Lord had commāded thē to make [k] by the hand of Moſés, broght a free offring to ỹ Lord. [k] Vſing Moſes as a miniſter thereof.

30 ¶ Then Moſés ſaid vnto the childrē of Iſraél. Beholde, * ỹ Lord hathe called by name Bezaleél the ſonne of Vrí, the ſonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudán, Chap 31.2.

31 And

31 And hathe filled him [f]with an excellent spirit of wisdome, of vnderstanding, and of knowledge, and in all maner worke, 32 To finde out curious workes, to worke in golde, and in siluer, and in brasse, 33 And in grauing stones to set thē, and in karuing of wood, euen to make anie maner of fine worke.
34 And he hathe put in his heart that he may teache other: bothe he, and Aholiáb ye sonne of Ahisamách of the tribe of Dan:
35 Them hathe he filled with wisdome of heart to worke all maner [h] of conning * & broydred, & nedle worke: in blewe silke, and in purple, in skarlet, and in fine linen & weauing, euen to do all maner of worke and subtile inuentions.

[f] Or, with the Spirit of God.

[h] Perteining to grauing, or karuing, or suche like. Chap. 26, 1.

CHAP. XXXVI.

5 The great readines of the people, insomuche that he cōmanded thē to cease. 8 The curtaines made 19 The couerings. 20 The boardes. 31 The barres, 35 And the vaile.

1 THen wroght Bezaleél, and Aholiáb, and all [a]conning men, to whome the Lord gaue wisdome, and vnderstanding, to knowe how to worke all maner worke for the seruice of the [a] Sanctuarie, according to all that the Lord had cōmanded.
2 For Mosés had called Bezaleél, & Aholiáb, and all the wise hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had giuē wisdome, euen as manie as their heartes encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it.
3 And they receiued of Mosés all ye offring which the children of Israél had broght for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuarie, to make it: also [b] they broght stil vnto him fre gifts euerie morning.
4 So all the wise men, that wroght all the holy worke, came euerie man frō his worke which they wroght,
5 And spake to Mosés, saying, The people bring to [c] muche, and more then ynough for the vse of the worke, which the Lord hathe commanded to be made.
6 Then Mosés gaue a commandemēt, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the hoste, saying, Let nether man nor woman prepare anie more worke for the oblacion of the Sanctuarie. So the people were stayed from offring.
7 For the stuffe they had, was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and to muche.
8 *All the conning men therefore among the workemen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linen, and of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: [d] Cherubims of broydred worke made they vpon them.
9 The length of one curtaine was twenty and eight cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubitis: and the curtaines were all of one cise.

[a] Ebr. wise in heart

[a] By the Sanctuarie he meaneth here all ye Tabernacle.

[b] Meaning ye Israelites.

[c] A rare exāple & notable to se the people so ready to serue God with their goods

Chap 26, 4.

[d] Which were litle pictures with wingges in the forme of children.

10 And he coupled fiue curtaines together, and other fiue coupled he together.
11 And he made strings of blewe silke by ye edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of ye coupling: likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine in the seluedge in the seconde coupling.
12 *Fiftie strings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the seconde coupling: the strings were set one against an other.
13 After, he made fiftie [e] taches of golde, & coupled the curtaines one to an other wt the taches: so was it one Tabernacle.
14 ¶Also he made curtaines of goates heere for the [e] couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the nomber of eleuen curtaines.
15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines were of one cise.
16 And he coupled fiue curtaines by them selues, and six curtaines by them selues:
17 Also he made fiftie strings vpon the edge of one curtaine in ye seluedge in the coupling, and fiftie strings made he vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the seconde coupling.
18 He made also fiftie taches of brasse to couple the couering that it might be one.
19 And he made a [e] couering vpon the pauillion of rams skins died red, & a couering of badgers skins aboue.
20 ¶Likewise he made the boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittím [f] wood to stād vp.
21 The length of a boarde was ten cubites, & the breadth of one boarde was a cubite, and an halfe.
22 One boarde had two tenons, set in ordre as the fete of a ladder, one against an other: thus made he for all the boardes of ye Tabernacle.
23 So he made twētie boardes for ye Southside of the Tabernacle, euen ful South.
24 And fourtie sockets of siluer made he vnder the twētie boardes, two sockets vnder one boarde for his two tenōs, & two sockets vnder another boarde for his two tenons.
25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle towarde the North, he made twentie boardes, 26 And their fourtie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one boarde, & two sockets vnder an other boarde.
27 Likewise towarde [g] the Westside of the Tabernacle he made six boardes.
28 And two boardes made he in the corners of the Tabernacle, for ether side, 29 And they were * ioyned beneth, and likewise were made sure aboue with a ring:

[e] Or, hokes.

[e] Or, pauillion.

[e] These two were aboue ye couering of goates heere.

[f] And to beare vp the curtaines of the Tabernacle.

[g] Or towarde the sea wt was the sea called mediterranēū westward frō Ierusalem

Chap 26, 24.

thus he did to bothe in bothe corners.

30 So there were eight boardes and their ſixtene ſockets of ſiluer, vnder euerie boarde two ſockets.

Chap.25.27. & 30.4. 31 ¶ After, he made *barres of Shittím wood, fiue for the boardes in the one ſide of the Tabernacle, 32 And fiue barres for the boardes in the other ſide of the Tabernacle, and fiue barres for the boardes of the Tabernacle on the ſide towarde the Weſt.

33 And he made the middeſt barre to ſhote through the boardes, from the one end to the other.

34 He ouerlaied alſo the boardes with golde, and made their rings of golde for places for the barres, and couered the barres with golde.

h Which was betwene ỹ Sanctuarie and ỹ Holieſt of all. 35 ¶ Moreouer he made a h vaile of blewe ſilke, and purple, and of ſkarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broydred worke made he it:

36 And made thereunto foure pillers of Shittím, and ouerlaied them with golde: whoſe hokes were alſo of golde, and he caſt for them foure ſockets of ſiluer.

or, heades.

i Which was betwene the court and the Sanctuarie. 37 And he made an i hanging for the Tabernacle dore, of blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen, and nedle worke, 38 And the fiue pillers of it with their hokes, and ouerlaied their chapiters & their *filets with golde, but their fiue ſockets were of braſſe.

or, graues bordes.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 The Arke. 6 The Merciſeat. 10 The Table. 17 The Candelſticke. 25 The Altar of incenſe.

Chap.25.10 1 AFter this, Bezaleél made the *Arke of Shittím wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broade, and a cubite and an halfe hie:

a Like battelments. 2 And ouerlaied it with fine golde within and without, and made a a crowne of golde to it round about,

3 And caſt for it foure rings of golde for ỹ foure corners of it: that is, two rings for ỹ one ſide of it, and two rings for the other ſide thereof.

4 Alſo he made barres of Shittím wood, & couered them with golde,

5 And put the barres in the rings by the ſides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

Chap.25.17. 6 ¶ And he made the * Merciſeat of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of golde, vpon the two ends of the Merciſeat: euen of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

b Of the ſelf ſame matter ỹ the Merciſeat was. 8 One Cherúb on ỹ one end, and an other Cherúb on the other end: b of the Merciſeat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And ỹ Cherubims ſpred out their wings on hie, and couered the Merciſeat ẅ their wings, and their faces were one towardes an other: toward the Merciſeat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Alſo he made the Table of Shittím wood: two cubites was the lẽgth thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he ouerlaied it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of golde round about.

12 Alſo he made thereto a border of an *hãd breadth round about, and made vpon ỹ border a crowne of golde round about.

or, foure fingers.

13 And he caſt for it foure rings of golde, and put the rings in the foure corners that were in the foure fete thereof.

14 Againſt the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And he made the barres of Shittím wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table.

Chap.25.29. 16 * Alſo he made the inſtruments for the Table of pure golde: diſhes for it, & incẽs cups for it, and goblets for it, & couerings for it, wherewith it ſhulde be couered.

17 ¶ Likewiſe he made the Candelſticke of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candelſticke: and his ſhaft, & his branche, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And ſix branches came out of the ſides thereof: thre branches of the Cãdelſticke out of the one ſide of it, and thre branches of the Candelſticke out of the other ſide of it.

19 In one branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and in an other branche thre bolles made like almõdes, a knop & a floure: and ſo throughout the ſix branches that proceded out of the Candelſticke.

20 And vpon the Candelſticke were foure bolles after the facion of almondes, the knops thereof and the floures thereof:

21 That is, vnder euerie two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop vnder the ſecõde branche thereof, and a knop vnder the third branche thereof, according to the ſix branches comming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the ſame: it was all one * beaten worke of pure golde. Chap.25.31.

23 And he made for it ſeuen lampes with ỹ ſnuffers, & ſnufdiſhes thereof of pure gold.

c Read chap. 25.39. 24 Of a c talent of pure golde made he it, with all the inſtruments thereof.

Chap. 30.34. 25 Furthermore he made the * perfume altar of Shittím wood: the length of it was a cubite, and the breadth of it a cubite (it was ſquare) and two cubites hie, and the hornes

hornes thereof was of the ſame.
26 And he couered it with pure golde, both the top and the ſides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of golde round about.
27 And he made two rings of golde for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two ſides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith.
28 Alſo he made the barres of Shittím wood, and ouerlaied them with golde.
Chap. 30, 35. 29 And he made the holy * anointing oyle, & the ſwete pure incenſe after the apotecaries arte.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

6 The Altar of burnt offrings. 8 The braſen Lauer. 9 The Courte. 24 The ſumme of that the people offred.

1 ALſo he made the altar of the burnt
Chap 27, 1. offring * of Shittím wood: fiue cubites was the length thereof, and fiue cubites the breadth thereof: it was ſquare and thre cubites hie.
2 And he made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the ſame, & he ouerlaied it with braſſe.
3 Alſo he made all the inſtruments of the Chap 27, 3. Altar: ỹ * aſhpans, & the beſomes, and the baſins, ỹ fleſhokes, & the "cenſers: all the inſtruments thereof made he of braſſe.
4 Moreouer he made a braſē grate wroght like a net to the Altar, vnder the compas of it beneth in the [a] middes of it, a So ỹ the grid yron or grate was halfe ſo hie as ỹ altar, & ſtode within it.
5 And caſt foure rings of braſſe for ỹ foure ends of the grate to put barres in.
6 And he made the barres of Shittím wood, and couered them with braſſe.
7 The which barres he put into the rings on the ſides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it holowe within ỹ boardes.
8 ¶Alſo he made the Lauer of braſſe, and the fote of it of braſſe of the [b] glaſſes of ỹ women that did aſſemble and came together at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
b R. Kimhi ſaith, that the women broght their loking glaſſes, which were of braſſe or fine metal and offred them freely vnto the vſe of the Tabernacle: ẅ was a bright thing & of great maieſtie.
9 ¶Finally he made ỹ courte on the South-ſide ful Southe: the hangings of the courte were of fine twined linen, hauing an hundreth cubites.
10 Their pillers were twentie, & their braſen ſockets twentie: the hokes of the pillers, and their filets were of ſiluer.
11 And on the Northſide the hangings were an hundreth cubites: their pillers twentie, & their ſockets of braſſe twētie, ỹ hokes of ỹ pillers & their filets of ſiluer.
12 On the Weſtſide alſo were hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillers with their ten ſockets: ỹ hokes of the pillers and their filets of ſiluer.
13 And toward the Eaſtſide, ful Eaſt, were hangings of fiftie cubites.
14 The hangings of the one ſide were fiftene cubites, their thre pillers, and their thre ſockets:
Chap 27, 14. 15 *And of the other ſide of the courte gate on bothe ſides were hangings of fiftene cubites, with their thre pillers and their thre ſockets.
16 All the hangings of the courte round about were of fine twined linen:
17 But the ſockets of the pillers were of braſſe: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of ſiluer, and the couering of their chapiters of ſiluer: and all the pillers of the courte were hooped about with ſiluer.
18 He made alſo the hanging of the gate of the courte of nedle worke, blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen euen twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites in height & breadth, "like the hāgings of the courte.
"Ebr. ouer ag gainſt.
19 And their pillers were foure with their foure ſockets of braſſe: their hokes of ſiluer, and the couering of their chapiters, and their filets of ſiluer.
Chap 27, 19. 20 But all the * pins of the Tabernacle and of the courte round about were of braſſe.
21 ¶Theſe are the partes of the Tabernacle, I meane, of the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie, which was appointed by the commandement of Moſés for the office of ỹ [c] Leuites by the hand of Ithamár ſonne to Aarón the Prieſt.
c That the Leuites might haue the charge therof, and miniſter in the ſame, as did Eleazér and Ithamár, Nōb. 3, 4 22 So Bezaleél the ſonne of Vrí the ſonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudáh, made all ỹ the Lord commanded Moſés.
23 And with him Aholiáb ſonne of Ahiſamách of the tribe of Dan, a [d] cūning workeman and an embroyderer and a woiker of nedle worke in blewe ſilke, and in purple, and in ſkarlet, and in fine linen.
d As a grauer or carpenter, chap 31, 4.
24 All the golde that was occupied in all ỹ woike wroght for the holy place (which was the golde of the offring) was nine & twentie talents, and ſeuen hundreth and thirtie ſhekels, according to the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie.
25 But the ſiluer of them that were nombred in the Cōgregacion, was an hūdreth talēts, and a thouſand ſeuen hundreth ſeuentie and fiue ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie.
26 A "portion for a man, that is, halfe a ſhekel after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, for all them that were nombred from twentie yere olde and aboue, among ſix hundreth thouſand, and thre thouſand, & fiue hundreth and fiftie men.
"Or, halfe a ſhekel
27 Moreouer there were an hundreth talents of ſiluer, to caſt the ſockets of the Sanctuarie, and the ſockets of the vaile: an hundreth ſockets of an hundreth talents, a talent for a ſocket.
28 But he made the hokes for the pillers of a thouſand ſeuen hundreth and ſeuētie & fiue ſhekels, and ouerlaied their chapiters, and made filets about them.

29 Alſo the braſſe of the offring was ſeuentie [e] talents, and two thouſand, and foure hundreth ſhekels.

[e] Read the weight of a talent, Chap. 25.39.

30 Wherof he made ỹ ſockets to the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion and the braſen Altar, & the braſen grate which was for it, with all the inſtruments of the Altar,

31 And the ſockets of the courte roũd about, and the ſockets for the courte gate, & all the* pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the courte round about.

Chap. 27.19.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The apparel of Aarón and his ſonnes 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made, and finiſhed 43 Moſés bleſſeth the people.

1 MOreouer they made [a] garments of miniſtration to miniſtre in the San ctuarie of blewe ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet: ther* made alſo the holy garments for Aarón, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

[a] As couerings for the Arke, ỹ Cãdelſticke, the Altars & ſuche like

Chap 31.10. & 35.19.

2 So he made the Ephód of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beate the golde into thin plates, and cut it into wiers, to worke it in the blewe ſilke & in the purple, and in the ſkarlet, & in the fine linen, with broydred worke.

4 For the which thei made ſhulders to couple together: for it was cloſed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broydred garde of his Ephód that was vpon him, was of the ſame ſtuffe, and of like worke: euen of golde, of blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

6 ¶And they wroght two* onix ſtones cloſed in ouches of golde, and graued, as [b] ſignets are grauen, with the names of the children of Iſraél,

Chap. 28.9.

[b] That is, of very fine and curious workmanſhip

7 And put thẽ on the ſhulders of ỹ Ephód, as ſtones for a* remembrance of the children of Iſraél, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

Chap. 28.12.

8 ¶Alſo he made the breſt plate of broydred worke like the worke of the Ephód: to wit, of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made the breſt plate double, and it was ſquare, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad: it was alſo double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of ſtones. The ordre was thus, a ruby, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the firſt rowe.

11 And in the ſeconde rowe, an emeraude, a ſaphir, and a diamond:

[c] Or a ligure, which ſtone autors write that it commeth of the vrine of the beaſt called Lynx.

12 Alſo in the third rowe, [c] a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite:

13 Likewiſe in the fourte rowe, a chryſolite, an onix, and a iaſper: cloſed and ſet in ouches of golde.

14 So the ſtones were according to the names of the children of Iſraél, euen twelue [d] after their names, grauen like ſignets eueric one after his name according to the twelue tribes.

[d] That is, euerie tribe had his name written in a ſtone.

15 After, they made vpon the breſt plate cheines at the endes, of wrethen worke & pure golde.

16 They made alſo two boſſes of golde, & two golde rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the breſt plate.

17 And they put thẽ two wrethen cheines of golde in the two rings, in the corners of the breſt plate.

18 Alſo the two other endes of the two wrethen cheines they faſtened in the two boſſes, and put them on the ſhulders of the Ephód vpon the fore fronte of it.

19 Likewiſe the, made two rings of golde, and put them in the two other corners of the breſt plate vpon the edge of it, which was on the inſide of the Epnód.

20 They made alſo two other golden rings, and put them on the two ſides of the Ephód, beneth on the foreſide of it and ouer againſt his coupling aboue the broydred garde of the Ephód.

21 Then they faſtened the breſt plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephód, with a lace of blewe ſilke, that it might be faſt vpon the broydred garde of the Ephód, and that the breſt plate ſhulde not be loſed from the Ephód, as the Lord had cõmanded Moſés.

22 ¶ Moreouer he made the robe of the [e] Ephód of wouen worke, altogether of blewe ſilke.

[e] Which was next vnder the Ephód

23 And [f] the hole of the robe was in the middes of it, as ỹ coller of an habergeon, with an edge about the coller, that it ſhulde not rent.

[f] Where he ſhulde put through his head.

24 And they made vpon the ſkirtes of the robe pomegranates, of blewe ſilke, & purple, and ſkarlet, and fine linen twined.

25 They made alſo *belles of pure golde, Chap. 28.33. & put the belles betwene the pomegranates vpon the ſkirtes of the robe roundc about betwene the pomegranates.

26 A bel & a pomegranate, a bel & a pomegranate round about the ſkirtes of the robe to miniſter in, as the Lord had cõmanded Moſés.

27 ¶After, they made coates of fine linẽ, of wouẽ worke for Aarón & for his ſonnes.

28 And the mitre of fine linen, and goodlie bonnets of fine linen, and linen* breches Chap. 28.42. of fine twined linen, 29 ¶And the girdel of fine twined linen, & of blewe ſilke, & purple, & ſkarlet, euen of nedle worke, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

30 Final-

30 ¶ Finally thei made the plate for the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it a ſuperſcription like to the grauing of a ſignet,* HOLINES TO THE LORD. Chap.28.36.

31 And thei tied vnto it a lace of blewe ſilke to faſten it on hye vpon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

32 ¶ Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, euen of the* Tabernacle of the Cógregacion finiſhed: & the children of Iſraél did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moſés: ſo did thei. Chap 27.21.

33 ¶ Afterwarde thei broght the Tabernacle vnto Moſés, the Tabernacle & all his inſtruments, his taches, his boardes, his barres, and his pillers, and his ſockets, 34 And the couering of rámes ſkins died red, & the couerings of badgers ſkinnes, and the g couering vaile.

g So called, beauſe it hãged before ỹ merciſeat & couered it frõ ſight chap.35.12.

35 The Arke of the Teſtimonie, and the barres thereof, and the Merciſeat, 36 The Table, with all the inſtruments thereof, and the ſhewe bread, 37 The pure Candelſticke, the lampes thereof, euen the lampes h ſet in ordre, and all the inſtruments thereof, and the oyle for light:

h Or, which Aaron dreſſed and refreſhed with oyle euerie mornig, chap.30.7.

38 Alſo the golden Altar & the anointing oyle, and the ſwete incens, and the hãging of the Tabernacle dore, 39 The braſen Altar with his grate of braſſe, his barres and all his inſtruments, the Lauer and his fote.

40 The curtaines of the court with his pillers, and his ſockets, & the hanging to the courte gate, & his cordes, and his pinnes, and all the inſtruments of the ſeruice of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

41 Finally, the miniſtring garments to ſerue in the Sanctuarie, & the holy garmẽts for Aarón the Prieſt, and his ſonnes garments to miniſter in the Prieſts office.

i Signifiyng ỹ in Gods matters man may nether adde nor diminiſh.

42 According to euerie point that the Lord had i commanded Moſés, ſo the children of Iſraél made all the worke.

k Praiſed God for ỹ peoples diligence and praied for thẽ.

43 And Moſés behelde all the worke, and beholde, thei had done it as the Lord had commanded: ſo had thei done: and Moſés k bleſſed them.

CHAP. XL.

The Tabernacle with the appertinances is reared vp. 34 The glorie of the Lord appeareth in the cloude couering the Tabernacle.

a After ỹ Moſés had bene 40. daies and 40 nights in ỹ mount, that is, frõ the begining of Auguſt to the 10. of Sept. he came downe, & cauſed this worke to be done: which being finiſhed, was ſet vp in Abib, which moneth cõteineth halfe Marche and halfe April.

THen the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 In the a firſt day of the firſt moneth in the very firſt of the ſame moneth ſhalt thou ſet vp the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion:

3 And thou ſhalt put therein the Arke of the Teſtimonie, and couer the Arke with the vaile.

4 Alſo thou ſhalt bring in the* Table, and ſet it in ordre as it doeth require: thou ſhalt alſo bring in the Candelſticke, and light his lampes, Read chap. 26.35.

5 And thou ſhalt ſet the incenſe Altar b of golde before the Arke of the Teſtimonie, and put the c hanging at the dore of the Tabernacle.

b That is, the altar of perfume, or to burne incenſe on.
c This hãging or vaile was betwene the Sanctuarie and the courte.

6 Moreouer thou ſhalt ſet the burnt offrig Altar before the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

7 And thou ſhalt ſet the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregacion & the Altar, and put water therein.

8 Then thou ſhalt appoint the courte roũd about, and hang vp the hanging at the courte gate.

9 After, thou ſhalt take the anointing oyle, and anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it with all the inſtruments thereof, that it may be holye.

10 And thou ſhalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offring, and all his inſtruments, and ſhalt ſanctifie the Altar, that it may be an altar moſte holy.

11 Alſo thou ſhalt anoint the Lauer and his fote, and ſhalt ſanctifie it.

12 Then thou ſhalt bring Aarón and his ſonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & waſh them with water.

13 And thou ſhalt put vpon Aarón the holy garments, and ſhalt anoint him, & ſanctifie him that he may miniſter vnto me in the Prieſts office.

14 Thou ſhalt alſo bring his ſonnes, and clothe them with garments,

15 And ſhalt anoint them as thou diddeſt anoint their father, that thei may miniſter vnto me in the Prieſts office: for their anointing ſhal be a ſigne, that ỹ prieſthode d ſhalbe euerlaſting vnto thẽ throughout their generacions.

d Til bothe ỹ prieſthode and ỹ ceremonies ſhulde ende, wch was at Chriſte comming.

16 So Moſés did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: ſo did he.

17 ¶* Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the firſt day of the firſt moneth in e the ſeconde yere. Nomb.7.1.

e After thei came out of Egypt, Nomb. 7.1.

18 Then Moſés reared vp the Tabernacle and faſtened his ſockets, and ſet vp the boardes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillers.

19 And he ſpred the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie aboue it, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

20 ¶ And he toke and put the f Teſtimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in the rings of the Arke, and ſet the Merciſeat on hie vpon the Arke.

f That is, the tables of the Lawe, chap. 31.18. & 34.29.

21 He broght alſo the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the *couering vaile, Chap.35.12.

and couered the Arke of the Teſtimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moſes, 22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion in the Northſide of the Tabernacle, without the vaile, 23 And ſet the bread in ordre before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

24 ¶ Alſo he put the Candelſticke in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion ouer againſt the Table towarde the Southſide of the Tabernacle.

f Or, ſet vp. 25 And he f lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

26 ¶ Moreouer he ſet the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion before the vaile, 27 And burnt ſwete incēſe thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

g Betweene the Sanctuarie and the courte. 28 ¶ Alſo he hāged vp the vaile at the g dore of the Tabernacle.

29 After, he ſet the burnt offring Altar without the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & offred the burnt offring and the ſacrifice thereon, as the Lord had cōmāded Moſes.

30 ¶ Likewiſe he ſet the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregacion & the Altar, and powred water therein to waſh with.

31 So Moſes, and Aarón, and his ſonnes, waſhed their hands & their fete thereat.

32 When thei went into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and when thei approched to the Altar, thei waſhed, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

33 Finally he reared vp the courte round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the courte gate: ſo Moſes finiſhed the worke.

34 ¶ *Then the cloude couered the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle. Nomb. 9.15. 1.king.8.10.

35 So Moſes colde not entre into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, becauſe the cloude abode thereon, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

36 Now when the cloude aſcēded vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Iſraél went forwarde in all their iourneis.

37 But if the cloude aſcended not, then thei iourneied not til the day that it aſcended.

38 For h the cloude of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the ſight of all the houſe of Iſraél, throughout all their iorneies.

h Thus the preſence of God preſerued & guided thē night and day til thei came to the land promiſed.

THE THIRD BOKE OF

Moſes, called * Leuiticus.

* Becauſe in this boke is chiefly intreated of ſ Leuites, and of things pertetning to their office.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS God daily by moſte ſingular benefites declared him ſelfe to be mindeful of his Church: ſo he wolde not that thei ſhulde haue anie occaſion to truſt ether in them ſelues, or to depend vpon others for lacke of temporal things, or ought that belonged to his diuine ſeruice and religion. Therefore he ordeined diuers kindes of oblations and ſacrifices, to aſſure them of forgiuenes of their offenſes. (if thei offred them in true faith and obedience) Alſo he appointed their Prieſts and Leuites, their apparel, offices, converſation and portion: he ſhewed what feaſtes thei ſhulde obſerue, and in what times. Moreouer he declared by theſe ſacrifices & ceremonies that the reward of ſinne is death, and that without the blood of Chriſt the innocent Lambe there can be no forgiuenes of ſinnes. And becauſe thei ſhulde giue no place to their owne inuentions (which thing God moſte deteſteth as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadáb and Abihú) he preſcribed euen to the leaſt things, what thei ſhulde do, as what beaſtes thei ſhulde offre and eat: what diſeaſes were contagious and to be auoyded: what ordre thei ſhulde take for all maner of filthines and pollution: whoſe companie thei ſhulde flee: what mariages were lauful: and what politike lawes were profitable. Which things declared, he promiſed fauour and bleſſing to them that kept his Lawes, and threatened his curſe to them that tranſgreſſed them.

CHAP. I.

2 Of burnt offrings for particular perſons. 3.10. & 14 The maner to offre burnt offrings aſwel of bullokes, as of ſhepe and birdes.

a Hereby Moſes declareth that he taught nothing to the people but ỹ, which he receiued of God

1 NOw the a Lord called Moſes, and ſpake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, & thou ſhalt ſay vnto thē, If anie of you offer a ſacrifice vnto the Lord, ye ſhal offer your ſacrifice of b cattel, as of beaues and of the ſhepe.

b So thei colde offre of none other ſort, but of thoſe which were commanded. ¶ Exod.29.10.

3 *If his ſacrifice be a burnt offring of the herde, he ſhal offer a male without blemiſh, preſenting him of his owne voluntary wil at the dore of the c Tabernacle of the Congregacion before the Lord.

c Meaning within ỹ courte of the Tabernacle.

4 And he ſhal put his hand vpon the head of the burnt offring and it ſhalbe accepted "to the Lord, to be his atonement.

"Ebr. to him.

d The Prieſt or Leuite.

5 And d he ſhal kil the bullocke before the Lord, and the Prieſtes Aarons ſonnes ſhal offer the blood, and ſhal ſprinkle it round about vpon the e altar, that is by the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

e Of the burnt offring, Exod 27, 1

6 Then ſhal he fley the burnt offring and cut it in pieces.

7 So the ſonnes of Aarón the Prieſt ſhal put fire vpon the altar, and lay the wood in ordre vpon the fire.

8 Then the Prieſtes Aarons ſonnes ſhal lay the partes in ordre, the head and the "kall vpon the wood that is in the fire which is vpon the altar.

"Or, the body of the beaſt or the fat.

9 But the inwardes thereof and the legs thereof he ſhal waſh in water, and the Prieſt ſhal burne all on the altar: for it is a burnt offring, an oblatiō made by fire, for a ſwete ſauour f vnto the Lord.

f Or a ſauour of reſt, which pacifieth the angre of the Lord

10 ¶ And if his ſacrifice for ỹ burnt offrīg be of the flockes (as of the ſhepe, or of ỹ goates) he ſhal offer a male without blemiſh,

g Read verſ 5

11 g And he ſhal kil it on the Northſide of the altar h before the Lord, & the Prieſtes Aarons ſonnes ſhal ſprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the Altar.

h Before the altar of the Lord

12 And he ſhal cut it in "pieces, ſeparating his head and his "kall, and the Prieſt ſhal lay them in ordre vpō the wood that lieth in the fire which is on the altar:

"Ebr. into his pieces
"Or, fat.

13 But he ſhal waſh the inwardes, and the legs with water, and the Prieſt ſhal offer the whole & burne it vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offring, an oblatiō made by fire for a ſwete ſauoure vnto the Lord.

14 ¶ And if his ſacrifice be a burnt offring to the Lord of the foules, thē he ſhal offer his ſacrifice of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons.

15 And the Prieſt ſhal bring it vnto the altar, and i wring the necke of it a ſunder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof ſhal be ſhed vpon the ſide of the altar.

i The Ebrew worde ſignifieth to pinch of with the nayle "Or, ſtrained, or preſſed.

16 And he ſhal plucke out his mawe ẅ his fethers, and caſt them beſide the altar on the k Eaſtparte in the place of the aſhes.

k On the ſide of the courte gate in ỹ pāes, which ſtode with aſhes, Exod 27, 3.

17 And he ſhal cleaue it with his wings, but not deuide it a ſundre: and the Prieſt ſhal burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in ỹ fire: for it is a burnt offring, an oblatiō made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 The meat offring is after thre ſortes: of fine floure vnbaken, 4 Of bread baken, 14 And of corne in the eare.

a Becauſe the burnt offring colde not be without the meat offring.

1 AND whē anie wil offer a a meat offrīg vnto the Lord, his offring ſhalbe of fine floure, and he ſhal poure oyle vpō it, and put incenſe thereon,

2 And ſhal bring it vnto Aarons ſonnes the Prieſts, and b he ſhal take thence his handful of the floure, and of the oyle with all the incenſe, and the Prieſt ſhal burne it for a c memorial vpon the altar: for it is an offring made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

b The Prieſt

c To ſignifie that God remēbreth him that offreth.

3 *But the remnant of the meat offring ſhal be Aarōs and his ſonnes: for it is d moſte holy of the Lords offrings made by fire.

Eccle 7, 34.

d Therefore none colde eat of it but the Prieſts

4 ¶ If thou bring alſo a meat offring baken in the oué, it ſhalbe an vnleauened cake of fine floure mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anointed with oyle.

5 ¶ But if thy e meat offring be an oblatiō of the fryyng pan, it ſhalbe of fine floure vnleauened, mingled with oyle.

e Which is a gift offred to God to pacifie him

6 And thou ſhalt paite it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: for it is a meat offring.

7 ¶ And if thy meat offring be an oblation made in the caudron, it ſhalbe made of fine floure with oyle.

8 After, thou ſhalt bring the meat offring (ỹ is made of theſe things) vnto ỹ Lord, & ſhalt preſent it vnto the Prieſt, and he ſhal bring it to the altar,

9 And the Prieſt ſhal take from the meat offring a * memorial of it, and ſhal burne it vpon the altar: for it is an oblation * made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

Verſ 2.
Exod 29, 18.

10 But ỹ which is left of the meat offring, ſhalbe Aarons and his ſonnes: for it is moſte holy of the offrings of the Lord made by fire.

11 All the meat offrings which ye ſhal offer vnto ỹ Lord, ſhalbe made without leauē: for ye ſhal nether burne leauen nor hony in any offring of the Lord made by fire.

12 ¶ In the oblation of the firſt frutes ye ſhal offer f them vnto the Lord, but they ſhal not be burnt g vpō the altar for a ſwete ſauour.

f That is, frutes, which are ſwete as hony, ye may offer.
g But reſerued for ỹ Prieſts.

13 (All the meat offrings alſo ſhalt thou ſeaſon with * ſalt, nether ſhalt thou ſuffre the ſalt of the h couenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offring, but vpon all thine oblations thou ſhalt offer ſalt)

Mar 9, 49.

h Which theis were bound (as by a couenāt) to vſe in all ſacrifices, Nōb. 18, 19 ezek. 43, 24: or it meaneth a ſure and pure couenant Chap. 23, 14.

14 If then thou offer a meat offring of thy firſt frutes vnto the Lord, thou ſhalt offer for thy meat offring of thy firſt frutes * eares of corne dried by the fire, and wheat beaten out of "the grene eares.

"Or, ful eares: for the worde ſignifieth a fruteful field.

15 After, thou ſhalt put oyle vpon it, and laie incenſe thereon: for it is a meat offring.

16 And the Prieſt ſhal burne the memorial of it, euen of that that is beaten and of the oyle of it with all the incenſe thereof: for it is an offring vnto the Lord made by fire.

CHAP. III.

1 The maner of peace offrings, and beasts for the same. 17 The Israelites may nether eat fat, nor blood.

a A sacrifice of thankesgiuing offred for peace & prosperitie, eyther generally or particularly

1 ALso if his oblation be a [a] peace offring, if he wil offer of ỹ droue (whether it be male or female) he shal offer suche as is without blemish, before ỹ Lord,

2 And shal put his hand vpon the head of his offring, and kil it at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: & Aarons sonnes the Priests shal sprinckle the blood vpon the altar round about.

b One parte was burnt, an other was to the Priests, & the third to hi that offred Exod 29. 29.

3 So he shal offer [b] parte of the peace offrigs as a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, euen the * fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

4 He shal also take away the two kidneis, and the fat that is on them, and vpon [c] the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

c Or, the which kidneis are ner the flanks

5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne it on the altar with the burnt offring, which is vpō the wood, that is on the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

6 ¶ Also if his oblation be a peace offring vnto the Lord out of the flocke, whether it be [c] male or female, he shal offer it without blemish.

c In the peace offring it was indifferent to offre ether male or female, but in ỹ burnt offring onely the male. so here can be offred no birdes, but in the burnt offring ther might: all there was consumed with fire, and in the peace offring but a parte

7 If he offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shal bring it before the Lord,

8 And lay his hand vpon the head of his offring, and shal kil it before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and Aarons sonnes shal sprinkle ỹ blood therof roūd about vpon the altar.

d The burnt offring was wholy consumed, and of ỹ offring made by fire onely the inwardes &c, were burnt: ỹ shulder & breast, with the two cliawes and ỹ mawe were ỹ Priests, & the rest his that offred Vers. 4.

9 After, of the peace offrings he shal offer [d] an offring made by fire vnto ỹ Lord: the shal take away the fat therof, & the rumpe altogether, hard by the backe bone, & the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

10 Also he shal take away the two kidneis, with the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the * flanks, & the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis.

11 Thē the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, as the meat of an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 ¶ Also if his offring be a goat, then shal he offer it before the Lord, e Meaning at the Northside of the altar, chap 1,11.

13 And shal put his hand vpon the head of it, and kil it before [e] the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, & the sonnes of Aarón shal sprinkle the blood therof vpō the altar round about.

14 Thē he shal offer therof his offring, euē an offring made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

15 Also he shal take away the two kidneis, & the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flanks & the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis.

16 So the Priest shal burne them vpon the altar, as ỹ meat of an offring made by fire for a swete sauour: * all ỹ fat is the Lords. Chap 7,25.

17 This shalbe a perpetual ordināce for your generacions, through out all your dwellings, so that ye shal eat nether [f] fat nor * blood.

f By eating fat, was ment to be carnal, and by blood eating, was signified cruelte

CHAP. IIII.

1 The offring for sinnes done of ignorāce, 3 For the Priest. 13 The Congregation, 22 The ruler, 27 And the priuate man.

Gene 9,4. leuit 3,23.

1 MOreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israél, saying, If [a] anie shal sinne through [a] ignorāce, in anie of the commandements of ỹ Lord (which oght not to be done) but shal do contrarie to anie of them, a Ebr a soule.

a That is, of negligēce or ignorance, specially of the ceremonial lawes: for otherwise the punishements for crimes are appointed according to the transgression, Nomb 15,22

3 If the [b] Priest that is anointed do sinne (according to the sinne of the people) thē shal he offer, for his sinne which he hathe sinned, a yong bullocke without blemish vnto the Lord for a sinne offring,

b Meaning the hie Priest

4 And he shal bring the bullocke vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion before the Lord, & shal put his hād vpon the bullocks head, and [c] kil the bullocke before the Lord.

c Hereby cōfessing that he deserued the same punishment which ỹ beast suffred.

5 And the Priest that is anointed shal take of the bullocks blood, and bring it into ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

6 Then the Priest shal dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seuen times before the Lord, before the vaile of the [d] Sanctuarie.

d Which was betwene the Holiest of all & ỹ Sactuarie.

7 The Priest also shal put some of the blood before the Lord, vpō the hornes of ỹ altar of swete incēs, which is in ỹ [e] Tabernacle of the Congregacion, then shal he powre * all the rest of the blood of the bullocke at the fote of ỹ altar of burnt offring, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

e Which was in the court: meanig by the Tabernacle ỹ Sanctuarie: & in the end of this verse it is taken for the court.

8 And he shal take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offring: to wit, ỹ fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is about the inwardes. Chap. 3. 3.

9 He shal take away also the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flanks, & the kall vpon the liuer with the kidneis,

10 As it was taken away from the bullocke of the peace offrings, and the Priest shal burne thē vpon the altar of burnt offring.

11 * But the skin of the bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head, and his legs, & his inwardes, and his doung shal he beare out. Exod 29,14. nomb 19,5.

12 So he shal cary the whole bullocke out of the * hoste vnto a cleane place, where ỹ ashes are powred, & shal burne him on ỹ wood in the fire: where the ashes are cast out, shal he be burnt. Ebr 13,11.

f The multitude of the people

13 ¶ And if the [f] whole Congregacion of Israel

Iſraél ſhal ſinne through ignorance, and the thing be * hid from the eies of the multitude, and haue done againſt anie of ỹ comandements of the Lord which ſhulde not be done, and haue offended:

Chap 5.2.

14 When the ſinne which they haue cõmitted ſhalbe knowen, then the Congregacio ſhal offre a yong bullocke for the ſinne, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion,

15 And the g Elders of the Congregacion ſhal put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and or, he ſhal kil the bullocke before the Lord, g For all the people colde not lay on their hands: therefore it was ſufficient that the Ancians of the people did it in ỹ name of all the Cõgregacion

16 Then the Prieſt that is anointed, ſhal bring of the bullocks blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion,

Or, the Prieſt.

17 And the Prieſt ſhall dip his finger in the blood, and ſprinkle it ſeuen times before the Lord, euen before the vaile.

18 Alſo he ſhal put ſome of the blood vpon the hornes of the altar, which is before the Lord, ỹ is in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: then ſhal he powre all the reſt of ỹ blood at ỹ fote of the altar of burnt offring, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, 19 And he ſhal take all his fat from him, & or, burne it vpon the altar.

Or, make a perfume with it.

20 And the Prieſt ſhal do with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his ſinne: ſo ſhal he do w̃ this: ſo the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for them, and it ſhalbe forgiuen them.

21 For he ſhal carie the bullocke without ỹ hoſte, and burne him as he burned the firſt bullocke: for it is an offring for the ſinne of the Congregacion.

22 ¶ When a ruler ſhal ſinne, & do through ignorance againſt anie of the commãdements of the Lord his God, which ſhulde not be done and ſhal offende,

23 If one ſhewe vnto him his ſinne which he hathe cõmitted, then ſhal he bring for his offring an or, he goat without blemiſh,

Or, the male goat of the folde

24 And ſhal lay his hand vpon the head of the he goat, & kil it in h the place where he ſhulde kil the burnt offring before the Lord: for it is a ſinne offring.

h That is, the Prieſt ſhal kil it: for it was not lawful for anie out of ỹ office to kil ỹ beaſt.

25 Then the Prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſinne offring with his finger, & put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offring altar, and ſhal powre the reſt of his blood at the fote of the burnt offring altar, 26 And ſhal burne all his fat vpõ the altar, as the fat of the peace offring: ſo ỹ Prieſt ſhal make an i atonement for him, concerning his ſinne, and it ſhal be forgiuẽ him.

i Wherein he repreſented Ieſus Chriſt

27 ¶ Likewiſe if anie of the k people of the land ſhal ſinne through ignorance in doing againſt anie of the commandements of the Lord, which ſhulde not be done, & ſhal offend,

Or, priuate perſon

28 If one ſhewe him his ſinne which he hathe cõmitted, then he ſhal bring for his offring or, a ſhe goat without blemiſh for his ſinne which he hathe committed,

Or, the female of the goates.

29 k And he ſhal lay his hand vpon the head of the ſinne offring, and ſlay the ſinne offring in the place of burnt offring.

k Read verſ 24

30 Then the Prieſt ſhal take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it vpõ the hornes of the burnt offring altar, & powre all the reſt of the blood thereof at the fote of the altar,

31 And ſhal take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offrings is taken away, and the Prieſt ſhal burne it vpõ the altar for a *ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, & the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him, and it ſhalbe forgiuen him.

Exod. 29.18.

32 And if he bring a lambe for his ſinne offring, he ſhal brig a female without blemiſh, 33 And ſhal lay his l hand vpon the head of the ſinne offring, and he ſhal ſlay it for a ſinne offring in the place where he ſhulde kil the burnt offring.

l Meaning ỹ ỹ puniſhmẽt of his ſinne ſhulde be laid vpon that beaſt, or, that he had receiued all things of God, and offred this willingly.

34 Then the Prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſinne offring with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offring altar, & ſhal powre all the reſt of the blood thereof at the fote of the altar.

35 And he ſhal take away all ỹ fat thereof, as the fat of the lambe of ỹ peace offrings is taken away: then the Prieſt ſhal burne it vpon the altar m with the oblatiõs of the Lord made by fire, & the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him cõcerning his ſinne that he hathe committed, and it ſhalbe forgiuen him.

m Or, beſides ỹ burnt offrings, which were daily offred to the Lord.

CHAP. V.

1 Of him that teſtifieth not the trueth, if he heare another ſweare falſely. 4 Of him that voweth raſhely. 15 Of him that by ignorance withdraweth anie thing dedicate to the Lord.

1 ALſo if "anie haue ſinned, that is, if or, he haue heard ỹ voyce of an othe, & he can be a witnes, whether he hathe ſene or a knowen of it, if he do not vtter it, he ſhal beare his iniquitie:

"Ebr. a ſoule

Or, if the iudge hathe taken an othe of anie other a Whereby it is cõmãded to beare witnes to the trueth and diſcloſe ỹ iniquitie of ỹ vngodly.

2 Either if one touche anie vncleane thing, whether it be a cariõ of an vncleane beaſt, or a carion of vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creping things, & is not ware of it, yet he is vncleane, & hathe offended:

3 Either if he touche anie vnclennes of mã (what ſoeuer vnclennes it be, that he is defiled with) and is not ware of it, and after commeth to the knowledge of it, he hathe ſinned:

4 Either if anie b ſweare, and pronounce w̃ his lippes to do euil, or to do good (whatſoeuer it be that a man ſhal pronoũce w̃ an othe & it be hid frõ him, & after knoweth ỹ he hathe offended in one of theſe points, b Or vowe raſhely without inſt examinatiõ or the circũſtãces, & not knowing what ſhalbe ỹ iſſue of the ſame.

5 When he hathe ſinned in anie of theſe c things, then he ſhal cõfeſſe that he hathe

c Which haue bene mẽcioned before in this chapter.

sinned therein.

6 Therefore shal he bring his trespasse offring vnto the Lord for his sinne which he hathe cõmitted, euen a female from ỹ flocke, be it a lambe or a she goat for a sinne offring, and the Priest shal make an atonemẽt for him, concerning his sinne.

*Or. if his hand can not reache, meaning for his pouertie,

7 But "if he be not able to bring a shepe, he shal bring for his trespasse which he hathe committed, two turtle doues, or two yõg pigeõs vnto the Lord, one for a sinne offring, and the other for a burnt offring.

8 So he shal bring them vnto the Priest, who shal offer the sinne offring first, and *wring ỹ necke of it a sundre, but not plucke it cleane of.

*Chap.1.15.

9 After he shal sprinkle of the blood of the sinne offring vpon the side of the altar, & the rest of the blood shal "be shed at the fote of the altar: for it is a sinne offring.

*Or. powred.

10 Also he shal offer the secõde for a burnt offring "as the maner is: so shal the Priest

*Or, according to the lawe.

d make an atonement for him (for his sinne which he hathe committed) and it shalbe forgiuen him.

d Or declare him to be purged of that sinne.

11 ¶ But if he * be not able to bring two turtle doues, or two yong pigeõs, then he ỹ hathe sinned, shal bring for his offring, the tẽth parte of an e Epháh of fine floure for a sinne offring, he shal put none f oyle thereto, nether put anie incẽse thereon: for it is a sinne offring.

*Vers.7.

e Which is about a pottel.

f As in the meatoffring, Chap.2,1.

12 Then shal he bring it to the Priest and ỹ Priest shal take his hãdeful of it for the * remẽbrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar * with the offrings of the Lord made by fire: for it is a sinne offring.

*Chap.2,2.
*Chap.4.35.

13 So the Priest shal make an atonemẽt for him, as touching his sinne that he hathe cõmitted in one of these points, and it shal be forgiuen him: and the remnant shalbe the Priests, as the meat offring.

14 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

15 If anie persone transgresse and sinne through ignorãce g by taking awaie things consecrated vnto the Lord, he shal then brĩg for his trespasse offring vnto ỹ Lord a ram without blemish out of the flocke, worthe two shekels of siluer h by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sãctuarie, for a trespasse offring.

g As touching the first frutes or tithes, due to the Priests and Leuites.

h By the estimation of the Priest, chap. 27,12.

16 So he shal restore ỹ wherein he hathe offended, in taking awaie of the holy thing, and shal put the fift parte more thereto, & giue it vnto the Priest: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespasse offring, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

*Chap.4.2.
i That is, afterward remẽbreth that he hathe sinned when his conscience doeth accuse him.

17 ¶ Also if anie sinne & * do against anie of the commandements of the Lord, which ought not to be done, & knowe not & i sinne and beare his iniquitie, 18 Then shal he bring a ram without blemish out of the flocke, in thy estimation worth * two shekels for a trespasse offring vnto ỹ Priest: and the Priest shal make an atonemẽt for him concerning his k ignorance wherein he erred, and was not ware: so it shal be forgiuen him.

*Exod.30,13.

k Els if his sinne against God come of malice he must die, Nõb.15,30.

19 This is the trespasse offring for the trespasse committed against the Lord.

CHAP. VI.

6 The offring for sinnes which are done willingly. 9 The lawe of the burnt offrings. 13 The fire must abide euermore vpon the altar. 14 The lawe of the meat offring. 20 The offrings of Aaron, and his sonnes.

1 AND ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, sayĩg,

2 If anie sinne and commit a trespasse against the Lord, & denie vnto his neighbour that, which was taken him to kepe, or ỹ which was put to him a of truste, or doeth by b robberie, or by violence oppresse his neighbour, a To bestowe & occupie for the vse of him that gaue it.

b By anie guile or vnlaueful meanes.

3 Or hathe found that which was lost, and denieth it, and sweareth falsely, * for anie of these things that a man doeth, c wherein he sinneth:

*Nomb.5,6.

c Wherein he can not but sinne, or wherein a mã accustometh to sinne by periurie or such like thig.

4 Whẽ, I say, he thus sinneth & trespasseth, he shal then restore the robbery that he robbed, or the thing taken by violence ẅ he toke by force, or the thing which was deliuered him to kepe, or the lost thing which he founde,

5 Or for whatsoeuer he hathe sworne falsely, he shal bothe restore it in the whole * summe, & shal adde the fift parte more thereto, and giue it vnto him to whome it perteineth, the same day that he offreth for his trespasse.

*Nomb.5,7.

6 Also he shal bring for his trespasse vnto the Lord, a ram without blemish out of the * flocke in thy estimation worthe two shekels for a trespasse offring vnto the Priest.

*Chap.5,17.

7 And the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord, & it shal be forgiuen him, whatsoeuer thing he hathe done, and trespassed therein.

8 ¶ Then ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, sayĩg,

9 Cõmãde Aarón and his sonnes, saying, This is the d lawe of the burnt offring, (it is the burnt offring becawse it burneth vpõ the altar all the night vnto the morning, and the fire burneth on the altar)

d That is, the ceremonies ẅ ought to be obserued therin.

10 And the Priest shal put on his linnẽ garment, and shal put on his linnen breches vpon e his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hathe consumed the burnt offring vpõ the altar, and he shal put them beside the f altar.

e Vpon his secret partes, Exod.28,43.

f In the ashepanes appointed for that vse.

11 After he shal put of his garments, & put on other raiment, & cary the ashes forthe without the hoste vnto a cleane place.

12 But ỹ fire vpon ỹ altar shal burne thereõ and neuer be put out: wherefore the Priest shal burne wood on it euerie mornĩg, & lay

ỹ

ỹ burnt offring in ordre vpon it, & he ſhal burne thereon the fat of ỹ peace offrings.

13 The fire ſhal euer burne vpon the altar, and neuer go out.

Chap 2,1. zomb.15,4. 14 ¶ *Alſo this is the lawe of ỹ meat offring, which Aarõs ſonnes ſhal offer in the preſence of the Lord, before the altar.

15 He ſhal euen take thence his handful of fine floure of the meat offring and of the oyle, and all the incens which is vpon the meat offring & ſhal burne it vpõ the altar

Chap.2,9. for a ſwete ſauour, as a * memorial therefore vnto the Lord:

16 But the reſt thereof ſhal Aarón and his ſonnes eat: it ſhal be eaten without leauen in ỹ holy place: in ỹ courte of the Tabernacle of the Congregaciõ they ſhal eat it.

g Or kned & ſeaũ and after b iken. 17 It ſhal not be g bakẽ with leauen: I haue giuen it for their porciõ of mine offrings made by fire: for it is as the ſinne offring and as the treſpaſſe offring.

18 All the males among the children of Aarón ſhal eat of it: It ſhalbe a ſtatute for euer in your generacions concerning the Exod.29,37. offrings of the Lord, made by fire:* whatſoeuer toucheth them ſhalbe holy.

19 ¶ Againe the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

20 This is ỹ offring of Aarón and his ſonnes, which they ſhal offer vnto the Lord in the day whẽ he is anointed: the tẽth parte

Exod.16,36. of an *Epháh of fine floure, for a meat offring h perpetual: halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

h So oft as the hie Prieſt ſhal be elected and anointed. 21 In the friyng pan it ſhalbe made with oyle: thou ſhalt bring it fried, and ſhalt offer the i baken pieces of the meat offring for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

i Or, fried k His ſonne that ſhal ſucceede him 22 And the Prieſt that is k anointed in his ſtede, among his ſonnes ſhal offer it: it is ỹ Lords ordinance for euer, it ſhal be burnt altogether.

23 For euerie meat offring of ỹ Prieſt ſhal be burnt altogether, it ſhal not be eaten.

24 ¶ Furthermore the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

25 Speake vnto Aarón, and vnto his ſonnes, and ſay, This is the lawe of the ſin offring, In the place where the burnt offring is killed, ſhal the ſin offring be killed before the Lord, for it is moſte holy.

26 The Prieſt that offreth this ſin offring, ſhal eat it: in the holy place ſhal it be eaten, in the courte of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

27 Whatſoeuer ſhal touche ỹ fleſh thereof ſhalbe holy: & when there droppeth of ỹ blood thereof vpõ a l garmẽt, ỹ ſhalt waſh ỹ whereon it droppeth in the holy place.

l Meaning the garment of ỹ Prieſt

28 Alſo the earthẽ pot that it is ſodden in, ſhalbe broken, but if it be ſoddẽ in a braſen pot, it ſhal bothe be ſcoured & waſhed with m water.

m Which was in the lauer, Exod.30,16

29 All the males among the Prieſts ſhal eat thereof, for it is moſte holy.

30 *But no ſin offrig, whoſe blood is broght in to the Tabernacle of ỹ Cõgregacion to make reccõciliacion in the holy place, ſhal be eaten, but ſhal be burnt in the n fire.

Chap.4,5. ebr.13,11.

n Out of the campe.

CHAP. VII.

1 The lawe of the treſpaſſe offring, 11 Alſo of the peace offrings 23 The fat & the blood may not be eaten.

1 LIkwiſe this is the lawe of the a treſpaſſe offring, it is moſte holy.

a Which is for the ſmaler ſinnes, & ſuch as are cõmitted by ignorance

2 In the place b where they kil the burnt offring, ſhal they kil the treſpaſſe offring, & the blood thereof ſhal he ſprinkle roũd about vpon the altar.

b At the courte gate.

3 All the fat thereof alſo ſhal c he offer, the rũpe & the fat that couereth the inwards.

c The Prieſt.

4 After he ſhal take away ỹ two kidneis, w̃ the fat that is on thẽ & vpon the flãks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

5 Then the Prieſt ſhal burne them vpõ the altar, for an offring made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a treſpaſſe offring.

6 All the males among the Prieſts ſhal eat thereof, it ſhalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is moſte holy.

7 As the ſin offring is, ſo is ỹ treſpaſſe offrig, one d lawe ſerueth for both, e ỹ wherewith the Prieſt ſhal make atonemẽt, ſhalbe his.

d The ſame ceremonies: notwithſtanding that this worde treſpaſſe ſignifieth leſſe then ſinne

8 Alſo the Prieſt that offreth anie mans burnt offring, ſhal haue the ſkin of the burnt offring which he hathe offred.

e Meaning the reſt which is left and not burnt.

9 And all the meat offring that is baken in the ouen, and that is dreſſed in ỹ pan, & in ỹ friyng pan, ſhalbe ỹ Prieſts ỹ offreth it.

10 And euerie meat offring mingled with oyle, and that is f drie, ſhal pertein vnto all the ſonnes of Aarón, to all alike.

f Becauſe it had no oyle nor licour.

11 Furthermore this is ỹ lawe of the peace offrigs, which he ſhal offer vnto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to g giue thãkes, thẽ he ſhal offer for his thankes offring, vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and fine floure fried with the cakes mingled with oyle.

g Peace offrigs conteine a cõfeſsion and thanks giuing for a benefite receiued, and alſo a vowe, & fre offring to receiue a benefite.

13 He ſhal offre alſo his offring with cakes of leauened bread, for his peace offrings, to giue thankes.

14 And of all the ſacrifice he ſhal offre one cake for an heaue offring vnto the Lord, & it ſhalbe the Prieſts that ſprinkleth ỹ blood of thẽ peace offrings.

15 Alſo the fleſh of his peace offrings, for thankes giuing, ſhalbe eaten the ſame day that it is offred: he ſhal leaue nothing thereof vntil the morning.

16 But if the ſacrifice of his offring be a h vowe, or a fre offring, it ſhalbe eaten ỹ ſame day that he offreth his ſacrifice: & ſo in ỹ morning ỹ reſidue thereof ſhalbe eatẽ.

h If he make a vowe to offre: for els the fleſh of the peace offrings muſt be eaten the ſame day.

17 But aſmuch of ỹ offred fleſh as remaineth vnto the third day, ſhalbe burnt with fire.

18 For if anie of ỹ fleſh of his peace offrings be eaten in ỹ third day, he ſhal not be accepted that offreth it, neither ſhal it be reckoned vnto him, but ſhalbe an abominacion: therefore the perſone that eateth of it ſhal i beare his iniquitie.

i The ſinne, wherefore he offred ſhal remaine.

19 The fleſh alſo that toucheth anie vnclean k thing, ſhal not be eatē, but burnt with fire: but l of this fleſh all that be cleane ſhal eat thereof.

k After it be ſacrificed.

l Of the peace offring, that is cleane.

20 But if anie eat of the fleſh of the peace offrings that perteineth to ỹ Lord, hauing his * vnclennes vpon him, euen the ſame perſone ſhal be cut of from his people.

Chap.15,3.

21 Moreouer when anie toucheth anie vncleane thing, as the vnclennes of man, or of an vncleane beaſt, or of anie filthie abominacion, and eat of the fleſh of the peace offrings, which perteineth vnto the Lord, euē that perſone ſhal be cut of from his people.

22 ¶ Againe the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying, Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, *Ye ſhal eat no fat of beues, nor of ſhepe, nor of goates:

Chap.3,17.

24 Yet the fat of the dead beaſt, and the fat of that, which is torne with beaſtes, ſhalbe occupied to anie vſe, but ye ſhal not eat of it.

25 For whoſoeuer eateth the fat of ỹ beaſt, of the which he ſhal offer an offring made by fire to the Lord, euen the perſone that eateth, ſhal be cut of from his people.

Gen.9,4. chap.17,14.

26 Nether * ſhal ye eat anie blood either of foule, or of beaſt in all your dwellings.

27 Euerie perſone that eateth anie blood, euē the ſame perſone ſhalbe cut of from his people.

28 ¶ And ỹ Lord talked w̄ Moſés, ſaying,

29 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, He that offreth his peace offrings vnto the Lord, ſhal bring his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offrings:

m And ſhulde not ſend it by another.

30 His m hands ſhal bring the offrings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fat with the breaſt ſhal he bring, that the breaſt may be * ſhaken to and fro before the Lord.

Exod.29,24.

31 Then the Prieſt ſhal burne the fat vpon the altar, and the breaſt ſhal be Aarons & his ſonnes.

32 And the right ſhulder ſhal ye giue vnto the Prieſt for an heaue offring, of your peace offrings.

33 The ſame that offreth the blood of the peace offrings, and the fat, among the ſonnes of Aarón, ſhal haue the right ſhulder for his parte.

34 For the breaſt ſhaken to and fro, and the ſhulder lifted vp, haue I takē of the childrē of Iſraél, euen of their peace offrings, and haue giuē them vnto Aarón ỹ Prieſt and vnto his ſonnes by a ſtatute for euer from among the children of Iſraél.

35 ¶ This is the n anointing of Aarón, and the anointing of his ſonnes, concerning the offrings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he preſented them to ſerue in the Prieſts office vnto the Lord.

n That is, his priuiledge, reward and portion.

36 The which portions the Lord commāded to giue them in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Iſraél, by a ſtatute for euer in their generacions.

37 This is alſo the lawe of ỹ burnt offring, of the meat offring, and of ỹ ſinne offring, & of the treſpaſſe offring, and of the o cōſecrations, and of the peace offrings, o Which ſacrifice was offred whē ỹ Prieſts were conſecrated, Exod. 29,22.

38 Which the Lord commanded Moſés in the mount Sinái, when he cōmanded the children of Iſraél to offer their gifts vnto the Lord in the wildernes of Sinái.

CHAP. VIII.

12 The anointing of Aarón, and his ſonnes, with the ſacrifice concerning the ſame.

1 AFterwarde the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 *Take Aarón and his ſonnes with him, & the garments and the * anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the ſin offring, and two rams, and a baſket of vnleauened bread,

Exod.28,4. Exod.30,24.

3 And aſſemble all the companie at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacio.

4 So Moſés did as the Lord had commanded him, and the companie was aſſembled at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion.

5 Then Moſés ſaid vnto the companie, *This is the thing which the Lord hathe commanded to do.

Exod.29,4.

6 And Moſés broght Aarón and his ſonnes, and waſhed them with water, 7 And put vpō him ỹ coat, & girded him with a girdel, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephód on him, which he girded with the broydred garde of the Ephód, & bonde it vnto him therewith.

8 After he put the breſt plate thereon, and put in the breſt plate * the Vrím and the Thummím.

Exod.28,30.

9 Alſo he put the mitre vpon his head, and put vpon the mitre on the fore fronte the golden plate, and the a holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

a So called becauſe this ſuperſcription Holines to the Lord, was grauen in it.

10 (Now Moſés had taken the anointing oyle, & anointed the b Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and ſanctified them, b That is, the Holieſt of all, the Sanctuarie and the court.

11 And ſprinkled thereof vpon the altar ſeuen times, & anointed the altar and all his inſtruments, and the lauer, and his fote, to ſanctifie them)

12 *And he powred of the anointing oyle vpon Aarons head, and anointed him, to ſanctifie him.

Eccleſ.45,22. pſal.133,2.

13 After, Moſés broght Aarons ſonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdels, and put bonets vpon their heades, as the Lord had cōmanded Moſés.

14 *Then

Exod 29,1. 14 *Then he broght the bullocke for the sin offring, & Aarón & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offring.
15 And Mosés slewe him, & toke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of the [c] Altar round about with his finger, and purified the Altar, and powred the rest of the blood at the fote of the Altar: so he sanctified [d] it, to make reconciliation vpon it.
16 Then he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer and the two kidneis, with their fat, which Mo-sés burned vpon the Altar.
17 But the bullocke and his [e] hide, and his flesh, and his doung, he burnt with fire without the hoste as the Lord had commanded Mosés.
18 ¶Also he broght the ram for the burnt offring, and Aarón & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ram.
19 So Mosés killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the Altar round about, 20 And Mosés cut ẏ ram in pieces, & burnt the head with the pieces, and the fat, 21 And washed the inwardes and the legs in water: so Mosés burnt the ram euerie whit vpon the Altar: for it was a burnt offring for a swete sauour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had cōmanded Mosés.
Exod.29,31. 22 ¶*After, he broght ẏ other ram, the ram of consecracions, and Aarón and his son-nes laied their hāds vpon the head of the ram, 23 Which Mosés [f] slewe, and toke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lap of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thombe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.
24 Then Mosés broght Aarons sonnes, & put of the blood on the lap of their right eares, & vpon the thumbes of their right hāds, & vpon the great toes of their right fete, and Mosés sprinkled the rest of the blood vpon the Altar round about.
25 And he toke the fat and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, & the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shulder.
26 Also he toke of the basket of the vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, one vnleauened cake and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shulder.
Exod 29,24. 27 So he put * all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes hands, and shoke it to and fro before the Lord.
28 After, Mosés toke thē out of their hāds, and burnt thē vpon the Altar for a burnt offring: for these were consecracions for a swete sauour which were made by fire vnto the Lord.

c Of the burnt offring

d To offre for the sinnes of the people

e In other burnt offrings, which are not of consecracion, or offring for him selfe, ẏ Priest hathe the skinne, Chap 7,8.

f Mosés did this because ẏ ẏ Priests were not yet established ī their office.

29 Likewise Mosés toke the breast of the ram of consecracions and shoke it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Mosés* por- Exod 29,26.
tion, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.
30 Also Mosés toke of the anointing oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the Altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aarón, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and on his sonnes garmēts with him: so he sanctified Aarón, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.
31 ¶Afterward Mosés said vnto Aarón & his sonnes, Sethe the flesh at the dore of the [g] Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and there * eat it with the bread that is in the basket of cōsecracions, as I commanded, saying, Aarón and his sonnes shal eat it, 32 But that which remaineth of the flesh & of the bread, shal ye burne with fire.
33 And ye shal not departe from the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion seuen daies, vntil the daies of your con-secracions be at an end: * for seuen daies, Exod 29,31.
said the Lord, shal he "consecrate you, 34 As [o] he hathe done this day: so the Lord hathe commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.
35 Therefore shal ye abide at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion day and night, seuen daies, and shal kepe the watch of the Lord, that ye dye not: for so I am commanded.
36 So Aarón and his sonnes did all things which the Lord had commanded by the [h] hand of Mosés.

g At the dore of the courte Exod 29,32. chap 28,9.

"Ebr fil your hands

[o] Or, as I haue done.

h By cōmissiō giuē to Mosés.

CHAP. IX.

8 The first offrings of Aarón 22 Aarón blesseth the people. 23 The glorie of the Lord is shewed. 24 The fire commeth from the Lord.

1 AND in the [a] eight day Mosés called Aarón and his sonnes, and the Elders of Israél:
2 *Then he said vnto Aarón, Take thee a yong calf for a [b] sinne offring, & a ram for a burnt offring, bothe without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.
3 And vnto the childrē of Israél thou shalt speake, saying, Take ye an he goate for a sinne offring, and a calf, & a lambe bothe of a yere olde, without blemish for a burnt offring:
4 Also a bullocke, and a ram for peace of-frings, to offer before the Lord, & a meat offring mingled with oyle: for to day the Lord wil appeare vnto you.
5 ¶Then thei broght that which Mosés commāded before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & all the assemblie drewe nere and stode before the [c] Lord.
6 (For Mosés had said, This is the thing, which the Lord commanded that ye shul-de do, and the glorie of the Lord shal apa After their cōsecraciō: for the seuen daies before, the Priests were consecrate Exod,29,1.

b Aarón ētreth into the possessiō of ẏ priesthode & offreth the foure principal sacrifices. the burnt offring, the sin offring, ẏ peace offrings, & ẏ meat offrig.

c Before the altar, where his glorie appeared.

peare vnto you)

7 Then Moſes ſaid vnto Aarón, Drawe nere to the Altar, & offer thy ſin offring, and thy burnt offring, and make an atonement for [d] thee and for the people: offer alſo the offring of the people, and make an atonemẽt for them, as the Lord hathe commanded.

d Read for the vnderſtandings of this place, Ebr 5,3. & 7. 27.

8 ¶Aarón therefore went vnto the Altar, & killed the calf of the ſin offring, which was for him ſelf.

9 And the ſonnes of Aarón broght the blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar, & powred the reſt of the blood at the fote of the Altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneis and the kall of the liuer of the ſin offring, he [e] burnt vpon the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

e That is, he laied them in ordre, and ſo thei were burnt whē the Lord ſēt downe fire.

11 The fleſh alſo and the hyde he burnt with fire without the hoſte.

12 After, he ſlewe the burnt offring, & Aarons ſonnes broght vnto him the blood, which he ſprinkled round about vpon the Altar.

13 Alſo thei broght the burnt offring vnto him with the pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them vpon the Altar.

14 Likewiſe he did waſh the inwardes and the legs, and [f] burnt them vpon the burnt offring on the Altar.

f All this muſt be vnderſtand of the preparacion of the ſacrifices which were burnt after, verſ. 24.

15 ¶Then he offred the peoples offring, & toke a goat, which was the ſin offring for the people, and ſlewe it, and offred it for ſinne, as the firſt:

16 So he offred the burnt offring, & prepared it, according to the maner.

17 He preſented alſo the meat offring, and filled his hand thereof, and * beſide the burnt ſacrifice of the morning he burnt this vpon the Altar.

Exod. 29, 38.

18 He ſlewe alſo the bullocke, and the ram for the peace offrigs, that was for the people, and Aarons ſonnes broght vnto him the blood, which he ſprinkled vpō the Altar round about,

19 With the fat of the bullocke, and of the ram, the rumpe, and that which coūereth the inwardes and the kidneis, and the kall of the liuer.

20 So thei laied the fat vpon the breaſts, and he burnt the fat vpon the Altar.

g Of the bullocke and the ram.

21 But the [g] breaſts and the right ſhulder Aarón ſhoke to and fro before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

h Becauſe the altar was nere the Sanctuarie which was ẏ vpper end, therefore he is ſaid to come downe.

22 So Aarón lift vp his hand towarde the people, and bleſſed them, & [h] came downe from offring of the ſinne offring, and the burnt offring, and the peace offrings.

i Or praied for ẏ people. 2. Mac. 2, 11.

23 After, Moſes and Aarón went into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion and came out, and [i] bleſſed the people, * & the glorie of the Lord appeared to all the people.

24 *And there came a fire out frō the Lord and conſumed vpon the Altar the burnt offring and the fat: ẅ when all the people ſawe, thei [k] gaue thākes, & fel on their faces.

Gen 4,4. 1.kyng.18,38. 2 chro.7,1. 2.mac.2,11.

k Or, gaue a ſhout for ioye.

CHAP. X.

2 Nadáb & Abihu, are burnt. 6 Iſraél murmeth for thē, but the Prieſts might not. 9 The Prieſts are forbidden wine.

1 BVt *Nadáb and Abihú, the ſonnes of Aarón, toke ether of them his cēſor, and put fire therein, and put incens thereupon, and offred [a] ſtrange fire before the Lord, which he had not commāded them.

Nomb. 3,4. & 26,61. 1.chro.24,2.

a Not taken of the altar, ẅ was ſent from heauen, & endured til the captiuitie of Babylon.

2 Therefore a fire wēt out from the Lord, & deuoured them: ſo thei dyed before the Lord.

3 Then Moſes ſaid vnto Aarón, This is it that the Lord ſpake, ſaying, I wil be [b] ſanctified in them that come nere me, & before all the people I wil be glorified: but Aarón helde his peace.

b I wil puniſh thē that ſerue me otherwiſe thē I haue cōmāded not ſparing the chief, that ẏ people may feare and praiſe my iugements.

4 And Moſes called Miſhaél and Elzaphán the ſonnes of Vzziél, the vncle of Aarón, and ſaid vnto them, Come nere, cary your brethren from before the Sanctuarie out of the hoſte.

Or, ceaſe.

5 Then thei went, & caryed them in their coates out of the hoſte, as Moſes had cōmanded.

6 After, Moſes ſaid vnto Aarón and vnto Eleazár and Ithamár his ſonnes, [c] Vncouer not your heades, nether rent your clothes, leſt ye dye, and leſt wrath come vpon all the people: but let your brethren, all the houſe of Iſraél bewaile the burning which the Lord hathe [d] kindled.

c As though ye lamented for them, preferring your carnal affection to Gods iuſt iugement, Deut. 14,1. & 33,9.

d In deſtroyīg Nadáb and Abihú ẏ chief, and menacing the reſt except thei repent.

7 And go not ye out from the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, leſt ye dye: for the anointing oyle of the Lord is vpon you: and thei did according to Moſes commandement.

8 ¶And ẏ Lord ſpake vnto Aarón, ſaying,

9 Thou ſhalt not drinke wine nor [e] ſtrong drinke, thou, nor thy ſonnes with thee, whē ye come into the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, leſt ye dye: this is an ordinance for euer throughout your generacions,

Or, drinke that maketh dronke.

10 That ye may put difference betwene the holy and the vnholy, and betwene the cleane and the vncleane, 11 And that ye may teache the children of Iſraél all the ſtatutes which the Lord hathe cōmanded thē by the [f] hand of Moſes.

Or, commiſſion.

12 ¶Then Moſes ſaid vnto Aarón & vnto Eleazár and to Ithamár his ſonnes that were left, Take the meat offring that remaineth of the offrings of the Lord, made by fire, & eat it without leauen beſide the altar: for it is moſte holy:

13 And ye ſhal eat it in the holy place, becauſe it is thy duetie & thy ſonnes duetie of

of the offrings of the Lord made by fire: for ſo I am commanded.

Exod 29,24 14 Alſo * the ſhaken breaſt and the heaue ſhulder ſhal ye eat in a cleane place: thou, and thy ſonnes, and thy e daughters with thee: for thei are giuen as thy d duetie and thy ſonnes duetie, of the peace offrings of the children of Iſraél.

a Or, where is no vncl. w. cc

e For ỹ breaſt and ſhulders of the peace offrings might be brought to their families ſo ỹ their daughters might eat of them, as alſo of the offrings of firſt frutes, the firſt borne, and the Eaſter lambe, read chap 22, 12

15 The heaue ſhulder, and the ſhakē breaſt ſhal they bring with the offrings made by fire of the fat, to ſhake it to and fro before the Lord, and it ſhalbe thine and thy ſonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hathe commanded.

d As litle fiſh ingendred of the ſlime

e As thei ỹ come of generation

16 ¶ * And Moſés ſoght ỹ goat that was offred for ſinne, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazár and Ithamár the ſonnes of Aarón, which were f left aliue, ſaying, b Or, right, or portion

2 Mac 2,11.

f Ano not conſumed as Nadab, & Abihú

17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the ſin offring in the holy place, ſeing it is moſte holy, and God hathe giuen it you, to beare the iniquitie of the Cōgregaciō, to make an atonement for them before the Lord.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not broght within the holy place: ye ſhulde haue eaten it in the holy place, * as I commāded.

Chap 6,26.

19 And Aarón ſaid vnto Moſés, Beholde, this day g haue they offred their ſin offring and their burnt offring before the Lord, and ſuche things as thou knowest are come vnto me: if I had eaten the ſin offring to day, ſhulde it haue bene accepted in the ſight of the Lord?

g That is, Nadab, & Abihú

h Moſés bare with his infirmitie conſidering his great ſorow, but doth not leaue an example to forgiue them ỹ maliciouſly tranſgreſſe the commādement of God.

20 So when Moſés heard it, he was h contēt.

CHAP. XI.

Of beaſtes, fiſhes and birdes, which be cleane, and which be vncleane.

1 AFter, the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés & to Aarón, ſaying vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, * Theſe are the beaſtes which ye a ſhal eat, among all the beaſtes that are on the earth.

Gene 7,2. deu 14,4. act 10,14.

a Or, whereof ye may eat.

3 Whatſoeuer parteth the b hoofe, and is clouen foted, and chaweth the cud among the beaſtes, that ſhal ye eat:

b He noteth foure ſortes of beaſtes ſome chewe the cud onely, and ſome haue onely the fote cleft: others nether chewe the cud nor haue the hoofe cleft: ỹ fourthe bothe chewe the cud and haue the hoofe deuided which may be eaten

4 But of them that chewe the cud, or deuide the hoofe onely, of them ye ſhal not eat: as the camel, becauſe he cheweth the cud, and deuideth not the hoofe, he ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.

5 Likewiſe the conie, becauſe he cheweth the cud & deuideth not ỹ hoofe, he ſhalbe vncleane to you.

6 Alſo the hare, becauſe he cheweth the cud, & deuideth not the hoofe, he ſhalbe vncleane to you.

2 Mac 6 18.

7 * And the ſwine, becauſe he parteth the hoofe and is clouen foted, but cheweth not the cud, he ſhalbe vncleane to you.

c God wolde that herby for a time thei ſhulde be diſcerned as his people from ỹ Gentiles.

8 Of their c fleſh ſhal ye not eat, and their carkeis ſhal ye not touche: for thei ſhalbe vncleane to you.

9 ¶ Theſe ſhal ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatſoeuer hathe finnes & ſkales in the waters, in the ſeas, or in the riuers, them ſhal ye eat.

10 But all that haue not fins nor ſkales in the ſeas, or in ỹ riuers, of all that d moueth in the waters & of all e liuing things that are in the waters, thei ſhalbe an abomination vnto you.

11 Thei, I ſay, ſhalbe an abomination to you: ye ſhal not eat of their fleſh, but ſhal abhoire their carkeis.

12 Whatſoeuer hathe not fins nor ſkales in the waters, that ſhalbe abomination vnto you.

13 ¶ Theſe ſhal ye haue alſo in abominaciō amōg the foules, thei ſhal not be eaten: for thei are an abomination, the egle, and the f goſhauke, and the oſprey:

f Or, gryphin, as it is in the greke.

14 Alſo the vultur, and the kite after his kinde,

15 And all rauens after their kinde:

16 The oſtriche alſo, and the night crowe, and the g ſeamewe, and the hauke after his kinde:

g Or, cuckow.

17 The litle owle alſo, and the cormorant, and the great owle.

18 Alſo the h redſhāke and the pelicane, and the ſwanne:

h Or, gryphin.

19 The ſtorke alſo, the heron after his kinde, and the lapwing, and the backe:

20 Alſo euerie foule that crepeth and goeth vpon all foure, ſuche ſhalbe an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet theſe ſhal ye eat: of euerie foule that crepeth, and goeth vpon all foure which h haue their fete and leggs all of one to leape withall vpon the earth,

h Or, haue no bending on their fete

22 Of them ye ſhal eat theſe, the graſhoper after his kinde, and the f ſolcan after his kinde, the hargol after his kinde, and the hagab after his kinde.

f Theſe were certeine kindes of graſhopers, which are not now properly knowen

23 But all other foules ỹ crepe & haue foure fete, thei ſhalbe abomination vnto you.

24 For by ſuche ye ſhalbe polluted. whoſoeuer toucheth their carkeis, ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euening.

25 Whoſoeuer alſo g beareth of their carkeis, ſhal waſh his clothes, and be vncleane vntil euen.

g Out of the campe

26 Euerie beaſt that hathe clawes deuided, and is h not clouen foted, nor cheweth the cud, ſuche ſhalbe vncleane vnto you: euerie one ỹ toucheth thē, ſhalbe vncleane.

h Or, hathe not the fote clouen in two 27 And whatſoeuer goeth vpon his pawes among all maner beaſtes that goeth on all foure, ſuche ſhalbe vncleane vnto you: whoſo doeth touche their carkeis ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

28 And he that beareth their carkeis, ſhal waſh his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen: for ſuche ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.

29 ¶Alſo theſe ſhalbe vncleane to you amõg the things that crepe and moue vpon the earth, the weaſel, and the mouſe, and h The grene frog that ſitteth on the bankes 30 the h frog, after his kinde: Alſo the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the ſtellio, and the molle.
*Or, crocodile
31 Theſe ſhalbe vncleane to you amõg all ỹ crepe: whoſoeuer doeth touche thẽ when thei be dead, ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euẽ.
32 Alſo whatſoeuer anie of the dead carkeiſes of them doeth fall vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, whether it be veſſel of wood, or rai ment, or i ſkin, or ſacke: whatſoeuer veſſel it be that is occupied, it ſhalbe put in the water as vncleane vntil the euen, and ſo be purified.
i As a bottel or bag
33 But euerie earthẽ veſſel, whereinto anie of them falleth, whatſoeuer is with in it
*Chap 6,28.
ſhal be vncleane, and *ye ſhal breake it.
34 All meat alſo that ſhalbe eaten, if anie ſuche water come vpon it, ſhalbe vncleane: and all drinke that ſhalbe dronke in all ſuche veſſels ſhalbe vncleane.
35 And euerie thing that thei carkeis fall vpon, ſhalbe vncleane: the fornais or the pot ſhalbe broken: for thei are vncleane, and ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.
36 Yet the fountaines & welles where there is plentie of water ſhal be cleane: but k So muche of the water as toucheth it that which k toucheth their carkeiſes ſhal be vncleane.
37 And if there fall of thei dead carkeis vpon anie ſede, which vſeth to be ſowen, it ſhal be cleane.
l He ſpeaketh of ſede, that is layed to ſtepe before it be ſowen.
38 But if anie l water be powred vpon the ſede, and there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.
39 If alſo anie beaſt, whereof ye may eat, dye, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.
40 And he that eateth of the carkeis of it, ſhal waſh his clothes and be vncleane vntil the euen: he alſo that beareth the carkeis of it, ſhal waſh his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen.
41 Euerie creping thing therefore that crepeth vpon the earth ſhalbe an abomination, and not be eaten.
42 Whatſoeuer goeth vpon the breaſt, and whatſoeuer goeth vpon all foure, or that hathe manie fete amõg all creping things that crepe vpon the earth, ye ſhal not eat of them, for thei ſhalbe abomination.
43 Ye ſhal not pollute your ſelues with anie thing ỹ crepeth, nether make your ſelues vncleane w̃ them, nether defile your ſelues thereby ye ſhal not, I ſay, be defiled by thẽ, m He ſheweth why God did chuſe them to be his people, 1 Pet 1 15 44 For I am the Lord your God: be ſanctified therefore, and be m holy, for I am holy, and defile not your ſelues with anie creping thing, that crepeth vpon the earth.
45 For I am the Lord that broght you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you ſhulde be holy, for I am holy.
46 This is the lawe of beaſtes, & of foules, and of euerie liuing thing that moueth in the waters, and of euerie thing that crepeth vpon the earth:
47 That there may be a difference betwene the vncleane and cleane, and betwene the beaſt that may be eaten, & the beaſt that oght not to be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

2 A lawe how women ſhulde be purged after their deliuerance.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, When a woman hathe broght forthe ſede, and borne a manchilde, ſhe ſhal be vncleane a ſeuẽ daies, like as ſhe is vncleane whẽ ſhe is put a parte for her *diſeaſe.
a So at her houſband for that time ſhe dothe not reſorte to her *Or, ſickneſs.
3 (* And in the eight day the foreſkin of the childes fleſh ſhalbe circumciſed)
Chap 12,3.
Luk 2,21.
Ioh 7,22
4 And ſhe ſhal continue in the blood of her purifiyng thre b and thirty daies: ſhe ſhal touche no c halowed thing, nor come in to the d Sanctuarie, vntil the time of her purifiyng be out.
b Beſides the firſt ſeuen daies c As ſacrifice or ſuche like d That is, into the courte gate, til after fourtie daies.
5 But if ſhe beare a maide childe, then ſhe ſhalbe vncleane two e wekes, as when ſhe hathe her diſeaſe: and ſhe ſhal continue in the blood of her purifiyng thre ſcore and ſix daies.
e Twiſe ſo lõg as if ſhe bare a man childe.
6 Now when the daies of her purifiyng are out, (whether it be for a ſonne or for a daughter) ſhe ſhal bring to the Prieſt a lambe of one yere olde for a burnt offring, and a yong pigeon or a turtle doue for a ſin offring, vnto ỹ dore of the f Tabernacle of the Congregacion, f Where the burnt offrings were wonte to be offred.
7 Who ſhal offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: ſo ſhe ſhalbe purged of the iſſue of her blood this is ỹ lawe for her ỹ hathe borne a male or female.
8 But if ſhe "be not able to bring a lãbe, ſhe "Or if her hãd ſide not the worthe of a lãbe Luk 2,24.
ſhal bring two *turtles, or two yong pigeons: the one for a burnt offring, and the other for a ſin offring: and the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for her: ſo ſhe ſhalbe cleane.

CHAP. XIII.

2 What conſiderations the Prieſt ought to obſerue in iudging the leproſie, 29 The blacke ſpot or ſkab, 47 and the leprie of the garment.

1 MOreouer the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, and to Aarón, ſaying,
2 The man that ſhal haue in the ſkin of his fleſh a ſwelling or a ſkab, or a white ſpot, ſo that in the ſkin of his fleſh a it be like ỹ plague of leproſie, then he ſhalbe broght vnto Aarón the Prieſt, or vnto one of his ſonnes the Prieſts,
a That it may be ſuſpected to be the leprie 3 And the Prieſt ſhal loke on the ſore in the ſkin of his fleſh: if the heere in the ſore be turned into white, and the ſore ſe-

me

me to be [b] lower thē the ſkin of his fleſh, it is a plague of leproſie: therefore the Prieſt ſhal loke on him, and "pronounce him vncleane.

4 But if the white ſpot be in ȳ ſkin of his fleſh, and ſeme not to be lower then the ſkin, nor the heere thereof be turned vnto white, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut vp him that hathe the plague, ſeuen daies.

5 After, the Prieſt ſhal loke vpon him the ſeuenth day: & if the plague ſeme "to him to abide ſtil, and the plague growe not in the ſkin, the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him vp yet ſeuen daies more.

6 Then the Prieſt ſhal loke on him againe the ſeuenth day, and if the plague [c] be darcke, and the ſore growe not in the ſkin, then the Prieſt ſhal "pronoūce him cleane, for it is a ſkab: therefore he ſhal waſh his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the ſkab growe more in the ſkin, after that he is ſene of the Prieſt, for to be purged, he ſhalbe ſene of the Prieſt yet againe.

8 Then the Prieſt ſhal conſider, and if the ſkab "growe in the ſkin, then the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him [d] vncleane: for it is leproſie.

9 ¶When the plague of leproſie is in a man, he ſhalbe broght vnto the Prieſt,

10 And the Prieſt ſhal ſe him: & if the ſwelling be white in the ſkin, & haue made ȳ heere white, & there be rawe fleſh in the ſwelling, 11 It is an olde leproſie in the ſkin of his fleſh: and the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him vncleane, and ſhal not ſhut him vp, for he is vncleane.

12 Alſo if the leproſie" breake out in the ſkin, and the leproſie couer all the ſkin of the plague, from his head euen to his fete, whereſoeuer the Prieſt loketh, 13 Then the Prieſt ſhal conſider: and if the leproſie couer all his fleſh, he ſhal pronoū ce ȳ plague to be [e] cleane, becauſe it is all turned into whitenes: ſo he ſhalbe cleane.

14 But if there be rawe fleſh on him when he is ſene, he ſhalbe vncleane.

15 For the Prieſt ſhal ſe the rawe fleſh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe fleſh is [f] vncleane, therefore it is the leproſie.

16 Or if the rawe fleſh change and be turned into white, then he ſhal come to the Prieſt, 17 And the Prieſt ſhal beholde him: and if the ſore be changed into white, then the Prieſt ſhal pronoūce the plague cleane, for it is cleane.

18 ¶The fleſh alſo in whoſe ſkin there is "a bile and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white ſwelling, or a white ſpot ſomewhat reddiſh, it ſhalbe ſene of the Prieſt.

20 And whē the Prieſt ſeeth it, if it appeare lower then the ſkin, and the heere thereof be changed into white, the Prieſt thē ſhal pronounce him [g] vncleane: for it is a plague of leproſie, broken out in the bile.

21 But if the Prieſt loke on it and there be no white heeres therein, & if it be not lower then the ſkin, but be darcker, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him vp ſeuen daies.

22 And if it ſpread abroade in the fleſh, the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him vncleane, for it is a ſore.

23 But if the ſpot continue in his place, & growe not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Prieſt ſhal declare him to be cleane.

24 ¶If there be anie fleſh, in whoſe ſkin there is an hote burning, and the quicke fleſh of the burning haue a [h] white ſpot, ſomewhat reddiſh or pale,

25 Then the Prieſt ſhal loke vpon it: and if the heere in that ſpot be chāged into white, and it appeare lower then the ſkin, it is a leproſie broke out in the burning: therefore the Prieſt ſhal pronoūce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leproſie.

26 But if the Prieſt loke on it, and there be no white heere in the ſpot, and be no lower thē the other ſkin, but be darcker, then the Prieſt ſhal ſhut him vp ſeuen daies.

27 After, the Prieſt ſhal loke on him the ſeuenth day: if it be growen abroade in the ſkinne, then the Prieſt ſhal pronoūce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leproſie.

28 And if the ſpot abide in his place, not growing in the ſkin, but is darcke, it is a" ri[e] ſing of the burning: the Prieſt ſhal therefore declare him cleane, for it is the drying vp of the burning.

29 ¶If alſo a man or woman hathe a ſore on the head or in the beard,

30 Then the Prieſt ſhal ſe the ſore: and if it appeare lower then the ſkin, and there be in it a ſmale yelowe heere, then the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him vncleane: for it is a blacke ſpot, and leproſie of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Prieſt loke on the ſore of the blacke ſpot, and if it ſeme not lower then ȳ ſkin nor haue anie blacke heere in it, thē the Prieſt ſhal ſhut vp him, that hathe the ſore of the blacke ſpot, ſeuen daies.

32 After, in the ſeuenth day the Prieſt ſhal loke on the ſore: and if ȳ blacke ſpot growe not, & there be in it no yelowe heere, and the blacke ſpot ſeme not lower then the ſkin, 33 Then he ſhalbe ſhauen, but the place of ȳ blacke ſpot ſhal he not ſhaue: but ȳ Prieſt ſhal ſhut vp him, that hathe the blacke ſpot, ſeuen daies more.

34 And the ſeuenth day the Prieſt ſhal loke on the blacke ſpot: and if the blacke ſpot

[b] That is, ſhronke in, & be lower then the reſt of the ſkin.

"Ebr. ſhal poſlute him.

"Ebr in his eies

[c] As hauing ȳ ſkin drawen together, or bl:ackiſh.

"Ebr ſhal cleanſe him.

"Or, be ſpred abroade.

[d] as touching his bodely diſeaſe for his diſeaſe was not imputed to him for ſin before God, thogh it were the puniſhement of ſinne.

"Or, bud.

[e] For it is not that cotagious lepric that infecteth, but a kinde of ſkirfe, which hathe not ȳ fleſh rawe as the leproſie.

[f] That is, declareth that ȳ fleſh is not founde, but is in danger to be leprous.

"Or, impoſtume.

[g] None were exempted, but if the Prieſt pronōced him vncleane, he was put out from among ȳ people: as appeareth by Marie the propheteſſe, Nōb. 12, 14, and by King Ozias. 2. Chro. 26, 20.

[h] If he haue a white ſpot in that place, where the burning was, and was after healed.

"Or, ſwelling.

[i] Which was not wont to be there, or els ſmaler then in any other parte of the body.

growe not in the ſkin, nor ſeme lower thē the other ſkin, then ỹ Prieſt ſhal cleāſe him, & he ſhal waſh his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the blacke ſpot growe abroade in the fleſh after his clenſing, 36 Then the Prieſt ſhal loke on it: and if the blacke ſpot growe in the ſkin, ỹ Prieſt ſhal not [k] ſeke for the yelowe heere: for he is vncleane.

k He ſhal not care whether the yelowe heere be there, or no.

37 But if the blacke ſpot ſeme to him to abide, and that blacke heere growe therein, the blacke ſpot is healed, he is cleane, and the Prieſt ſhal declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶Furthermore if there be manie white ſpots in ỹ ſkin of ỹ fleſh of man or womā, 39 Then the Prieſt ſhal cōſider: and if the ſpots in the ſkin of their fleſh be ſomewhat darcke and white withall, it is but a white ſpot broken out in the ſkin: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whoſe heere is fallen of his head and is balde, is cleane.

41 And if his head cloſe the [l] heere on the fore parte, & be balde before, he is cleane.

l By ſickenes, or anie other inconuenience.

42 But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde fore heade a white reddiſh ſore, it is a leproſie ſpringig in his balde head, or in his balde forehead.

43 Therefore the Prieſt ſhal loke vpon it, and if the riſing of the ſore be white reddiſh in his balde head, or in his balde fore head, appearing like leproſie in the ſkin of the fleſh, 44 He is a leper and vncleane: therefore the Prieſt ſhal pronounce him altogether vncleane: for the ſore is in his head.

45 The leper alſo in whome the plague is, ſhal haue his clothes [m] rent, and his head bare, and ſhal put a couering vpō his [n] lippes, and ſhal crye, I am vncleane, I am vncleane.

m In ſigne of ſorowe and lamentacion.
n Either in token of mourning, or for feare of infecting others.

46 As long as the diſeaſe ſhalbe vpon him, he ſhalbe polluted, for he is vncleane: he ſhal dwel alone, * without the campe ſhal his habitacion be.

Nomb.5.2. 2.kin.15.5.

47 ¶Alſo the garmēt that the plague of leproſie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of linen or of wollen, ether in a ſkin or in anie thing made of ſkin,

49 And if the ſore be grene or ſomewhat reddiſh in the garment or in the ſkin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thig that is made of [o] ſkin, it is a plague of leproſie & ſhalbe ſhewed vnto the Prieſt.

o Whether it be garment, veſſel, or inſtrument.

50 Then the Prieſt ſhal ſe the plague, and ſhut vp it that hathe the plague, ſeuē daies, 51 And ſhal loke on the plague the ſeuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the ſkin or in anie thing that is made of ſkin, that plague is a freating leproſie and vncleane.

52 And he ſhal burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen or linen, or anie thing that is made of ſkin, wherein the plague is: for it is a freating leproſie, therefore it ſhalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the Prieſt yet ſe that the plague [p] growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatſoeuer thing of ſkin it be,

p But abide ſtil in one place, as vers. 37.

54 Then the Prieſt ſhal commande them to waſh the thing wherein the plague is, & he ſhal ſhut it vp ſeuen dayes more.

55 Againe the Prieſt ſhal loke on the plague, after it is waſhed: and if the plague haue not changed his [q] colour, thogh the plague ſpred no further, it is vncleane: thou ſhalt burne it in ỹ fire, for it is a freat inwarde, [r] whether the ſpot be in the bare place of the whole, or in parte thereof.

q But remaine as it did before.
r Or whether it be in anie bare place before or behinde.

56 And if the Prieſt ſe that the plague be darcker, after that it is waſhed, he ſhal cut it out of the garment, or out of the ſkin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare ſtil in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing made of ſkin, it is a ſpreading lepre: thou ſhalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou haſt waſhed the garment or the warpe, or ỹ woofe, or whatſoeuer thing of ſkin it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then ſhal it be waſhed [s] the ſeconde time, and be cleane.

s To the intēt he might be ſure that the leproſie was departed and that all occaſion of infection might be takē away.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leproſie in a garment of wollen or linen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing of ſkin, to make it cleane or vncleane.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 The clenſing of the leper, 34 And of the houſe that he is in.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 *This is the [a] lawe of the leper in the day of his clenſing: that is, he ſhalbe broght vnto the Prieſt,

Mat.8.1. mar.1.40. luk.5.12.

a Or the ceremonie which ſhalbe vſed in his purgation.

3 And the Prieſt ſhal go out of the campe, and the Prieſt ſhal conſider him: and if the plague of leproſie be healed in the leper,

4 Then ſhal the Prieſt commande to take for him that is clenſed, two [c] ſparowes aliue and [b] cleane, and ceder wood and a ſkarlet lace, and hyſſope.

c Or, little birdes.
b Of birdes which were permitted to be eaten.

5 And the Prieſt ſhal commande to kil one of the birdes ouer [c] pure water in an earthen veſſel.

c Running water, or of ỹ fountaine.

6 After, he ſhal take the liue ſparowe with the cedar wood, and the ſkarlet lace, and the hyſſope, and ſhal dip them and the liuing ſparowe in the blood of the ſparowe ſlaine, ouer the pure water,

7 And he ſhal ſprinkle vpon him, that muſt be clenſed of his leproſie, ſeuen times, and clenſe clenſe him, and ſhal [d] let go the liue ſparowe into the broade field.

109/1224

8 Then he that ſhalbe clenſed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and ſhaue of all his heere, and waſh him ſelfe in water, ſo he ſhalbe cleane: after that ſhal he come into the hoſte, but ſhal tarie without his tent ſeuē dayes.

9 So in the ſeuenth day he ſhal ſhaue of all his heere, bothe his head, and his beard, & his eie browes: euen all his heere ſhal he ſhaue, & ſhal waſh his clothes & ſhal waſh his fleſh in water. ſo he ſhalbe cleane.

10 Then in the eight day he ſhal take two he lambes without [e] blemiſh, and an ewe lambe of an yere olde without blemiſh, and thre tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring, mingled with oyle, [f] and a pinte of oyle.

11 And the Prieſt that maketh him cleane ſhal bring the man which is to be made cleane, and thoſe things, before the Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion.

12 Then the Prieſt ſhal take one lambe, & offer him for a treſpaſſe offring, and the pinte of oyle, and* ſhake them to and fro before the Lord.

13 And he ſhal kil the lambe in the place where the ſinne offring and the burnt offring are ſlaine, euen in the holy place: for as the [*] ſin offring is the Prieſts, ſo is the treſpaſſe offring: for it is moſte holy.

14 So the Prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the treſpaſſe offring, and put it vpon the lap of the right eare of him that ſhalbe clenſed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.

15 The Prieſt ſhal alſo take of the pinte of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his left hand, 16 And the Prieſt ſhal dip his "right finger in the oyle that is in his left hād, & ſprinkle of the oyle with his finger ſeuen times before the Lord.

17 And of the reſt of the oyle that is in his hand, ſhal the Prieſt put vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clenſed, & vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote, " where the blood of the treſpas offring was put.

18 But the remnant of the oyle that is in the Prieſtes hand, he ſhal powre vpon the head of him that is to be clenſed: ſo the Prieſt ſhal make an atonemēt for him before the Lord.

19 And the Prieſt ſhal offer the ſin offring and make an atonement for him that is to be clenſed of his vnclennes: thē after ſhal he kil the burnt offring.

20 So the Prieſt ſhal offer the burnt offring & the meat offring vpon the altar: and the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him: ſo he ſhalbe cleane.

21 But if he be poore, & " not able, then he ſhal bring one lābe for a treſpas offring to be ſhakē, for his recōciliation, & a [g] tenth deale of fine floure mingled with oyle, for a meat offring, with a pinte of oyle.

22 Alſo two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one ſhalbe a ſin offring, and the other a burnt offring, 23 And he ſhal bring them the eight day for his clenſing vnto the Prieſt at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion before the Lord.

24 Then the Prieſt ſhal take the lambe of the treſpas offring, and the pinte of oyle, and the Prieſt ſhal [h] ſhake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 And he ſhal kil the lambe of the treſpas offring, & the Prieſt ſhal take of ỹ blood of the treſpas offring, and put it vpon the lap of his right eare that is to be clenſed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right fote.

26 Alſo the Prieſt ſhal powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne "left hand.

27 So the Prieſt ſhal with his right finger ſprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, ſeuen times before the Lord.

28 Then the Prieſt ſhal put of the oyle that is in his hand, vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clenſed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote: vpon the place [o] of the blood of the treſpas offring.

29 But ỹ reſt of the oyle that is in ỹ Prieſts hād, he ſhal put vpon the head of him that is to be clenſed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 Alſo he ſhal preſent one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, [i] as he is able:

31 Suche, I ſay, as he is able, the one for a ſin offring, and the other for a burnt offring [p] with the meat offring: ſo the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him that is to be clenſed before the Lord.

32 This is the [k] lawe of him which hathe ỹ plague of leproſie, who is not able in his clenſing to offre the whole.

33 ¶ The Lord alſo ſpake vnto Moſes and to Aarón, ſaying,

34 When ye be come vnto the land of Canáan which I giue you in poſſeſsion, if I [l] ſend the plague of leproſie in an houſe of the land of your poſſeſsion, 35 Then he that oweth the houſe, ſhal come and tel the Prieſt, ſaying, Me thinke there is like a plague of leproſie in the houſe.

36 Then the Prieſt ſhal commande thē to d Signifiing ỹ he that was made cleane, was ſet at liberrie, and reſtored to the companie of others.

e Which hath no imperfection in ane member f This meaſure i Ebrewe is called log, and conteineth ſix eggs in meaſure

Exod 29,24.

Chap 7,1.

* Or the finger of his right hand

" Ebr vpon the blood of the treſpas offring

" Ebr his hand can not take it.

g Which is an omer, read Exod 16,16

h Or ſhal offre them as ỹ offring that is ſhaken to and fro

" Ebr in to the palme of the Prieſts left hand

o Or, where the blood of the treſpas offring was put, as vers 17

i Whether of them he can get p Or, beſides the meat offring

k This ordre is appointed for the poore man

l This declareth that no plague nor puniſhement cōmeth to man without gods prouidence & his ſending.

empty the houſe before the Prieſt go into it to ſe the plague, that all that is in the houſe be not made vncleane, and then ſhal the Prieſt go in to ſe the houſe,

37 And he ſhal marke the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the houſe, and that there be [e] depe ſpots, greniſh or reddiſh, which ſeme to be lower thē the wall,

38 Then the Prieſt ſhal go out of the houſe to the dore of the houſe, and ſhal cauſe to ſhut vp the houſe ſeuen daies.

39 So ẏ Prieſt ſhal come againe the ſeuēth day: and if he ſe that the plague be increaſed in the walles of the houſe, 40 Then the Prieſt ſhal commande thē to take away ẏ ſtones wherein the plague is, and they ſhal caſt them into a [f] foule place without the citie.

41 Alſo he ſhal cauſe to ſcrape the houſe within round about, and powre the duſt, that they haue pared of, without the citie in [m] an vncleane place.

42 And they ſhal take other ſtones, and put thē in ẏ places of thoſe ſtones, & ſhal take other mortar, to plaiſter the houſe with.

43 But if the plague come againe and breake out in the houſe, after that he hathe taken away the ſtones, and after ẏ he hathe ſcraped and plaiſtred the houſe,

44 Then the Prieſt ſhal come and ſee: and if the plague growe in the houſe, it is a freating leproſie in the houſe: it is therefore vncleane.

45 And he ſhal [n] breake downe the houſe, with the ſtones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the [o] mortar of the houſe, and he ſhal carie them out of the citie vnto an vncleane place.

46 Moreouer he that goeth into the houſe all ẏ while that it is ſhut vp, he ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

47 He alſo that ſlepeth in the houſe ſhal waſh his clothes: he likewiſe that eateth in the houſe, ſhal waſh his clothes.

48 But if the Prieſt ſhal come and ſe, that the plague hathe ſpred no further in the houſe, after the houſe be plaiſtered, the Prieſt ſhal pronounce that houſe cleane, for the plague is healed.

49 Then ſhal he take to purifie the houſe, two ſparowes, and cedar wood, [p] & ſkarlet lace, and hyſſope.

50 And he ſhal kil one ſparowe ouer pure water in an earthen veſſel,

51 And ſhal take the cedar wood, and the hyſſope, and the ſkarlet lace with the liue ſparowe, and dip them in the blood of the ſlaine ſparowe, and in the pure water, and ſprinkle the houſe ſeuen times:

52 So ſhal he clenſe the houſe ẅ the blood of the ſparowe and with the pure water, and with the liue ſparowe, & with the cedar wood, and with the hyſſope, and with the ſkarlet lace.

53 Afterwarde he ſhal let go ẏ liue ſparowe out of the "towne into ẏ "broade fieldes: ſo ſhal he make atonement for the houſe, and it ſhalbe cleane.

54 This is the lawe for euerie plague of leproſie and *blacke ſpot, 55 And of the leproſie of the garment, and of the houſe, 56 And of the [t] ſwelling, and of the ſkab, & of the white ſpot.

57 This is the lawe of ẏ leproſie to teache "when a thing is vncleane, and when it is cleane.

CHAP. XV.

2. 19 The maner of purging the vncleane iſſues bothe of mē and women. 31 The children of Iſraél muſt be ſeparate from all vnclennes.

1 MOreouer the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, and to Aarón, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer hathe an iſſue from his [a] fleſh, is vncleane, becauſe of his iſſue.

3 And this ſhalbe his vnclēnes in his iſſue: when his fleſh auoideth his iſſue, or if his fleſh be ſtopped from his iſſue, this is his [b] vnclennes.

4 Euerie bed whereon he lieth that hathe ẏ iſſue, ſhalbe vncleane, & euerie thing whereon he ſitteth, ſhalbe vncleane.

5 Whoſoeuer alſo toucheth his bed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and waſh him ſelfe in water, and ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

6 And he ẏ ſitteth on anie thing, whereon he ſate that hathe the iſſue, ſhal waſh his clothes, & waſh him ſelfe in water, & ſhal be vncleane vntil the euen.

7 Alſo he that toucheth the fleſh of him that hathe the iſſue, ſhal waſh his clothes, & waſh him ſelfe in water, and ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

8 If he alſo, ẏ hathe the iſſue, ſpit vpō him that is cleane, [c] he ſhal waſh his clothes, & waſh him ſelfe in water, & ſhal be vncleane vntil the euen.

9 And what [d] ſaddle ſoeuer he rideth vpon, that hathe the iſſue, ſhalbe vncleane,

10 And whoſoeuer toucheth anie thing that was vnder him, ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen: and he that beareth thoſe things, ſhal waſh his clothes, and waſh him ſelfe in water, and ſhal be vncleane vntil the euen.

11 Likewiſe whomeſoeuer he toucheth ẏ hathe the iſſue (and hathe not waſhed his hands in water) ſhal waſh his clothes & waſh him ſelfe in water, & ſhal be vncleane vntil the euen.

12 *And the veſſel of earth that he toucheth, which hathe the iſſue, ſhalbe broken: and euerie veſſel of wood ſhalbe rinſed in water.

13 But

---

[e] Or, blackneſs, or hollow ſtraker.

[f] Or, polluted.

[m] Where carions were caſt, and other filth that the people might not be there with infected.

[n] That is, he ſhal commande it to be pulled downe, as ver. 40.

[o] Or, duſt.

[p] It ſemeth ẏ this was a lace or ſtring to binde ẏ hyſſope to ẏ wood, & ſo was made a ſprinkle: the Apoſtle to the Ebrewes calleth it ſkarlet wolle, Ebr. 9, 19.

[t] Or, viſi g.

"Ebr. citie.

"Ebr. on the face of the field.

Chap. 13. 30.

"Ebr. in the day of the vncleane, and in the day of the cleane.

a Whoſe ſede retein in ſteping, or els of weakenes of nature iſſueth at his ſecret parte.

b Or ẏ thing wherefore he ſhalbe vncleane.

c On whome the vncleane man ſpat.

d The worde ſignifieth euerie thing whereon a man ſitteth.

Chap. 6, 28.

e That is, be reſtored to his olde ſtate, and be healed thereof

13 But if he that hathe an iſſue, be e clenſed of his iſſue, then ſhal he count him ſeuen daies for his clenſing, and waſh his clothes, and waſh his fleſh in pure water: ſo ſhal he be cleane.

14 Then the eight day he ſhal take vnto him two turtle doues or two yong pigeõs, and come before the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & ſhal giue them vnto the Prieſt.

15 And the Prieſt ſhal make of the one of them a ſinne offring, and of the other a burnt offring: ſo the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his iſſue.

f Meaning all his bodie

16 Alſo if anie mans iſſue of ſede departe from him, he ſhal waſh all his f fleſh in water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

17 And euerie garment, and euerie ſkin whereupõ ſhalbe iſſue of ſede, ſhalbe euen waſhed with water, & be vncleane vnto the euen.

18 If he that hathe an iſſue of ſede, do lie with a woman, thei ſhal bothe waſh them ſelues with water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

Or, ſecret parte.

19 ¶Alſo when a woman ſhal haue an iſſue, and her iſſue in her g fleſh ſhalbe blood, ſhe ſhalbe put aparte ſeuen daies: & whoſoeuer toucheth hei, ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

g That is, whē ſhe hathe her floures, whereby ſhe is ſeparat frõ her houſbād, from the tabernacle and from touching of anie holy thing.

20 And whatſoeuer ſhe lieth vpon in h her ſeparacion, ſhalbe vncleane, and euerie thing ẏ ſhe ſitteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane.

21 Whoſoeuer alſo toucheth her bed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and waſh him ſelfe with water, & ſhal be vncleane vnto the euen.

22 And whoſoeuer toucheth anie thīg that ſhe ſate vpõ, ſhal waſh his clothes, & waſh him ſelfe in water, and ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen:

23 So that whether he touche her bed, or anie thing whereon ſhe hathe ſit, he ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

h If anie of her vnclennes did onely touche him in the bed: for els the man that companyed with ſuche a womā ſhulde dye, Chap 20,18 24 And if a man lie with her, and the floures of her ſeparacion h touche him, he ſhal be vncleane ſeuen daies, & all the whole bed whereon he lieth, ſhalbe vncleane.

Ebr pparaciõ

25 Alſo when a womans iſſue of blood runneth long time beſides the time of her i floures, or when ſhe hathe an iſſue, lõger then her floures, all the daies of the iſſue of her vnclennes ſhe ſhalbe vncleane, as in the time of her floures.

i Shalbe vncleane as the bed whereon ſhe lay when ſhe had her natural diſeaſe.

26 Euerie bed whereon ſhe lieth (as long as her iſſue laſteth) ſhalbe to her as hei k bed of her ſeparacion: and whatſoeuer ſhe ſitteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as her vnclennes when ſhe is put aparte.

27 And whoſoeuer toucheth theſe things, ſhalbe vncleane, & ſhal waſh his clothes, and waſh him ſelfe in water, & ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

28 But if ſhe be clenſed of her iſſue, then ſhe ſhal k counte her ſeuen daies, & after, ſhe ſhalbe cleane.

k After the time that ſhe is recouered

29 And in the eight day ſhe ſhal take vnto her two turtles or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Prieſt at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

30 And the Prieſt ſhal make of the one a ſinne offring, and of the other a burnt offring, & the Prieſt ſhal make an atonemēt for her before the Lord, for the iſſue of her vnclennes.

l Seing ẏ God requireth of his, puritie & clennes: we cā not be his, except our filth and ſinnes be purged with the blood of Ieſus Chriſt 31 Thus ſhal ye l ſeparate the children of Iſraël from their vnclennes, that thei dye not in their vnclennes, if thei defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of him that hathe an iſſue, & of him from whome goeth an iſſue of ſede whereby he his defiled:

33 Alſo of her that is ſicke of her floures, & of him that hathe a running iſſue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lieth with her which is vncleane.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Prieſt might not at all times come into the moſte holy place 8 The ſcape goat 14 The purging of the Sanctuarie 17 The clenſing of the Tabernacle 21 The Prieſt confeſſeth the ſinnes of the people. 29 The feaſt of clenſing ſinnes.

1 FVrthermore the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, * after the death of the two ſonnes of Aarón, when thei came to offer before the Lord, and dyed:

Chap 10,1.

2 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Speake vnto Aarón thy brother, * that he come not at a all times in to the Holy place within the vaile, before the Merciſeat, which is vpon the Arke, that he dye not: for I wil appeare in the cloude vpon the Merciſeat.

Exod 30,10. ebr. 9,7.

a The hie Prieſt entred into the Holieſt of all but once a yere, euen in ẏ moneth of September 3 After this ſort ſhal Aarón come into the Holy place: euen with a yong bullocke for a ſinne offring, and a ram for a burnt offring.

4 He ſhal put on the holy linen coat, and ſhal haue linen breches vpon his m fleſh, and ſhalbe girded with a linen girdel, and ſhal couer his head with a linen mitre: theſe are the holy garments: therefore ſhal he waſh his fleſh in water, when he doeth put them on.

m Or, priuities.

5 And he ſhal take of the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, two he goates for a ſinne offring, and a ram for a burnt offring.

6 Then Aarón ſhal offer the bullocke for his ſinne offring, * & make an atonement for him ſelfe, and for his houſe.

Ebr 9,7.

7 And he ſhal take the two he goates, and preſent them before the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

8 Then Aarón ſhal caſt lots ouer the two he goates: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the [b] Scape goat.

[b] In Ebrewe it is called Azazél, which some say is a mountaine nere Sinái whether this goat was sent: but rather it is called the scape goat because he was not offred, but sent into the desert, as vers 21

9 And Aarón shal offer the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shal fall, and make him a sinne offring.

10 But the goat, on which the lot shal fall to be the Scape goat, shalbe presented aliue before the Lord, to make reconciliacion by him, & to let him go (as a Scape goat) into the wildernes.

11 Thus Aarón shal offer the bullocke for his sinne offring, & make a reconciliacion for himselfe, and for his house, and shal kil the bullocke for his sinne offring.

12 And he shal take a censer ful of burning coles from of the Altar before the Lord, & his hādful of swete incens beatē small, and bring it within the [c] vaile;

[c] The Holiest of all.

13 And shal put the incens vpon the fire before the Lord, that the [d] cloude of the incens may couer the Merciseat that is vpon [e] the Testimonie: so he shal not dye.

[d] Or, the smoke.

[e] Or, Arke

14 And he shal [f] take of the blood of the bullocke, [g] and sprinkle it with his finger vpon the Merciseat [h] Eastward: and before the Merciseat shal he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seuen times.

[f] Ebr 1,13. & 10,4.

[g] Chap 4, 6.

[h] That is, on the side which was toward ỹ people: for the head of the Sāctuarie stode Westward.

15 ¶ Then shal he kil the goat that is the peoples sinne offring, & bring his blood within the vaile, and do with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullocke, & sprinkle it vpon the Merciseat, and before the Merciseat.

16 So he shal purge the Holy place from the vnclennes of the children of Israél, & from their trespasses of all their sinnes: so shal he do also for the Tabernacle of the Congregacion [i] placed with them, in the middes of their vnclennes.

[i] Placed amōg them which are vncleane

Luk. 1,10,17.

17 *And there shal be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, when he goeth in to make an atonemēt in the Holy place, vntil he come out, & haue made an atonement for him selfe, & for his houshold, and for all the Congregacion of Israél.

[f] Wherevpon ỹ swete incēse & perfume was offred.

18 After, he shal go out vnto the [f] Altar that is before the Lord, & make a reconciliacion vpon it, & shal take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goat, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar round about:

19 So shal he sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seuen times, and clense it, and halowe it from the vnclennes of the children of Israél.

20 ¶ Whē he hathe made an ēd of purging the Holy place, & the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and the altar, then he shal bring the liue goat:

21 And Aarón shal put bothe his hands vpō the head of the liue goat, and confesse ouer him all the iniquities of the childrē of Israél, & all their trespasses, in all their sinnes, putting thē [g] vpō the head of the goat, and shal send him away (by the hand of a man appointed) into the wildernes.

[g] Herein this goat is a true figure of Iesus Christ, who beareth the sinnes of the people. Ii 3 4.

22 So the goat shal beare vpon him all their iniquities into "the land that is not inhabited, and he shal let the goat go into the wildernes.

"Ebr the land of separacion.

23 After, Aarón shal come into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and put of the linen clothes, which he put on whē he went into ỹ Holy place, & leaue thē there.

24 He shal wash also his flesh with water in [h] the Holy place, and put on his owne raiment, and come out, and make his burnt offring, and the burnt offring of the people, and make an atonement for him self, and for the people.

[h] In the court where was ỹ Lauer, Exod. 30,18.

25 Also the fat of the sinne offring shal he burne vpon the Altar.

26 And he that caryed forthe the goat, called the Scape goat, shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shal come into the hoste.

27 Also the bullocke for the sinne offring, and the goat for the sinne offring (whose blood was broght to make a recōciliacō in ỹ Holy place) shal one *cary out without the hoste to be burnt in the fire, with their skins, and with their flesh, and with their doung.

*Chap. 6, 30. ebr 13,11.

28 And he that burneth them shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterwarde come into the hoste.

29 ¶ So this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto you: the tenth day of the [i] seuenth moneth, ye shal [k] humble your soules, and do no worke at all, whether it be one of ỹ same countrey or a straunger that soiourneth among you.

[i] Which was Tisri, & answereth to parte of Septēber & parte of October

[k] Meaning by abstinence and fasting

Chap 23,7.

30 For ỹ* day shal the Priest make an atonemēt for you to clēse you: ye shal be cleane from all your sinnes before the Lord.

31 This shalbe a [l] Sabbath of rest vnto you, and ye shal humble your soules, by an ordinance for euer.

[l] Or a rest ỹ ye shal kepe moste diligētly.

32 And the Priest [m] whome he shal anoint, and whome he shal cōsecrate (to minister in his fathers stede) shal make the atonement, and shal put on the linen clothes & holy vestments;

[m] Whome the Priest shal anoint by Gods commandemēt to succede in his fathers rowme.

33 And shal purge the holy Sanctuarie and the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & shal clense the Altar, & make an atonemēt for the Priests and for all the people of the Congregacion.

34 And this shalbe an euerlasting ordināce vnto you, to make an atonement for the childrē of Israél for all their sinnes* once a yere: and as the Lord cōmanded Moses, he did.

Exod 30,10. ebr. 9,7.

CHAP. XVII.

4 All sacrifices muste be broght to the dore of the Tabernacle bernacle 7 To deuils may they not offer 10 They may not eat blood.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto Aarón, and to his ſonnes, & to all the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, This is the thing which the Lord hathe [a]commanded, ſaying,
3 Whoſoeuer he be of the houſe of Iſraél that [b]killeth a bullocke, or lãbe, or goat in ỹ hoſte, or that killeth it out of the hoſte,
4 And bringeth it not vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion to offer an offring vnto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord, [c]blood ſhalbe imputed vnto that man: he hathe ſhed blood, wherefore that man ſhalbe cut of from among his people.
5 Therefore the children of Iſraél ſhal bring their offrings, which they wolde offer [d]abroad in the field, and preſent them vnto the Lord at ỹ dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion by the Prieſt, & offer thé for peace offrings vnto ỹ Lord.
6 Then the Prieſt ſhal ſprinkle the blood vpon the altar of the Lord before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and burne the fat for a *ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.
7 And they ſhal no more offer their offrigs vnto [e]deuils, after whome they haue gone a [f]whoring: this ſhalbe an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generacions.
8 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer he be of the houſe of Iſraél, or of the ſtrangers which ſoiourne among them, that offreth a burnt offring or ſacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion to offer it vnto the Lord, euẽ that man ſhal be cut of from his people.
10 ¶ Likewiſe whoſoeuer he be of the houſe of Iſraél or of the ſtrãgers that ſoiourne among them, that eateth anie blood, I wil euen ſet [g]my face againſt that perſone that eateth blood, & wil cut him of from among his people:
11 For the life of the fleſh is in the blood, & I haue giuen it vnto you to offer vpon the altar, to make an atonement for your ſoules: for this blood ſhal make an atonement for the ſoule.
12 Therefore I ſaid vnto the childrẽ of Iſraél, None of you ſhal eat blood: nether the ſtranger that ſoiourneth among you, ſhal eat blood.
13 Moreouer whoſoeuer he be of thé children of Iſraél, or of the ſtrangers that ſoiourne among them, which by hunting taketh anie beaſt or foule that maie be [h]eatẽ, he ſhal powre out ỹ blood thereof, and couer it with duſt:
14 For the life of all fleſh is his blood, it is ioyned with his life: therefore I ſaid vnto the children of Iſraél, * Ye ſhal eat the blood of no [i]fleſh: for the life of all fleſh is the blood thereof: whoſoeuer eateth it, ſhal be cut of.
15 And euerie perſone that eateth it which dyeth alone, or that which is torne with beaſtes, whether it be one of the ſame coũtrey or a ſtranger, he ſhal bothe waſh his clothes, & waſhe him ſelfe in water, & be vncleane vnto ỹ euen: after he ſhalbe [k]cleane.
16 But if he waſh them not, nor waſh his [l]fleſh, then he ſhal beare [m]his iniquitie.

Gen. 9,5.

[i] Or, liuing creature.

[k] Or, couered cleane

[l] Or, him ſelfe

[m] Or, the punishment of his ſinne.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 The Iſraelites ought not to follow the maners of the Egyptians and Canaanites 6 The mariages that are vnlawful

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, I am the Lord your God.
3 After the [a]doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, ſhal ye not do: & after the maner of the land of Canáan, whither I wil bring you, ſhal ye not do, nether walke in their ordinances,
4 But do after my iudgements, & kepe mine ordinances, to walke therein: I am the Lord your God.
5 Ye ſhal kepe therefore my ſtatutes, and my iudgements, * which if a man do, he ſhal then liue in them: [b] I am the Lord.
6 ¶ None ſhal come nere to anie of ỹ kinred of his fleſh to [c]vncouer her ſhame: I am the Lord.
7 Thou ſhalt not vncouer the ſhame of thy father, nor the ſhame of thy mother: for ſhe is thy mother, thou ſhalt not diſcouer her ſhame.
8 *The ſhame of thy fathers [d]wife ſhalt ỹ not diſcouer: for it is thy fathers ſhame.
9 Thou ſhalt not diſcouer the ſhame of thy [e]ſiſter the daughter of thy father, or the daughter of thy mother, whether ſhe be borne at home, or borne without: thou ſhalt not diſcouer their ſhame.
10 The ſhame of thy ſonnes daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, thou ſhalt not, I ſay, vncouer their ſhame: for it is thy [f]ſhame.
11 The ſhame of thy fathers wiues daughter, begotten of thy father (for ſhe is thy ſiſter) ỹ ſhalt not, I ſay, diſcouer her ſhame.
12 * Thou ſhalt not vncouer the [g]ſhame of thy fathers ſiſter: for ſhe is thy fathers kinſwoman.
13 Thou ſhalt not diſcouer the ſhame of thy mothers ſiſter: for ſhe is thy mothers kinſwoman.
14 *Thou ſhalt not vncouer the ſhame of thy [g] fathers brother: that is, thou ſhalt not go into his wife, for ſhe is thine [h] ante.
15 * Thou ſhalt not diſcouer the ſhame

Gen. 9,5.

[i] Or, liuing creature.

[k] Or, couered cleane

[l] Or, him ſelfe

[m] Or, the punishment of his ſinne.

3 The Iſraelites ought not to follow the maners of the Egyptians and Canaanites 6 The mariages that are vnlawful

Exod 29,18 chap 4,31.

Chap 20,11.

Chap. 20,18.

Chap 20,20.

Deut 27,22.

[a] Left they ſhulde practiſe that idolatrie, ſ they had learned among the Egyptians

[b] To make a ſacrifice or offring thereof e I do aſmuch abhorre it as though he had killed a man, as Iſa 66,3

[d] Whereſoeuer they were moued with tolith deuotiõ to offre it

[e] Meaning whatſoeuer is not the true God, 1 Cor 10 20 Pſal 95,5

[f] For idolatrie is ſpiritual whoredome: becauſe faith toward God is broken

[g] I wil declare my wrath by taking vengeãce on him, as Chap 20,3.

[h] Which the lawe permitteth to be eaten, becauſe it is cleane.

[a] Ye ſhal preſerue your ſelues from theſe abominations following, ỹ the Egyptians and Canaanites vſe

[b] Gal 3,12.

[c] And therefore ye ought to ſerue me alone, as my people

[c] That is, to lie with her, though it be vnder title of mariage

[d] which is, thy ſtepmother

[e] Either by father or mother, borne in mariage or otherwiſe

[f] Thei are her children whoſe ſhame thou haſt vncouered

[g] Which thine vncle doeth diſcouer

[h] Or thy father's brothers wife of thy daughter in lawe: for ſhe is thy ſonnes wife: therefore ſhalt thou not vncouer her ſhame.

16 *Thou ſhal not diſcouer ỹ ſhame of thy hbrothers wife: for it is thy brothers ſhame.

17 Thou ſhalt not diſcouer the ſhame of ỹ wife & of her daughter, nether ſhalt ỹ take her ſonnes daughter, nor her daughters daughter, to vncouer her ſhame: for they are thy kinſfolkes, & it were wickednes.

18 Alſo thou ſhalt not take a wife with her ſiſter, during her life, to vexe her, in vncouering her ſhame vpon her.

19 *Thou ſhalt not alſo go vnto a woman to vncouer her ſhame, as long as ſhe is put kaparte for her diſeaſe.

20 Moreouer, thou ſhalt not giue thy ſelfe to thy neighbours wife by carnal copulatiō, to be defiled with her,

21 *Alſo thou ſhalt not giue thy "children to °offer them vnto l Mólech, nether ſhalt thou defile the Name of thy God: for I am the Lord.

22 Thou ſhalt not lie with the male as one lieth with a woman: for it is abominacion.

23 *Thou ſhalt not alſo lie with anie beaſt to be defiled therewith, nether ſhal anie woman ſtand before a beaſt, to lie downe thereto: for it is °abominacion.

24 Ye ſhal not defile your ſelues in anie of theſe things: for in all theſe the nacions are defiled, which I wil caſt out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I wil mviſit the wickednes thereof vpon it, and the land nſhal vomet out her inhabitants.

26 Ye ſhal kepe therefore mine ordinances, and my iudgements, and commit none of theſe abominacions, aſwel he that is of the ſame countrey, as the ſtrāger that ſoiourneth among you.

27 (For all theſe abominacions haue the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled:

28 And ſhal not the land ſpue you out if ye defile it, as it o ſpued out the people ỹ were before you.)

29 For whoſoeuer ſhal commit anie of theſe abominacions, the perſones that do ſo, ſhal p be cut of from among their people.

30 Therefore ſhal ye kepe mine ordinances that ye do not anie of the abominable cuſtomes, which haue bene done before you, and that ye defile not your ſelues therein: for I am the Lord your God.

CHAP. XIX.

A repetition of ſondrie lawes and ordinances.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, *Ye ſhal be qholy, for I the Lord your God am holy.

3 ¶ Ye ſhal feare euerie man his mother & his father, and ſhal kepe my Sabbaths: for I am the Lord your God.

4 ¶ Ye ſhal not turne vnto idoles, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

5 ¶ And when ye ſhal offer a peace offring vnto the Lord, ye ſhal offer it b frely.

6 *It ſhalbe eaten the day ye offer it, or on the morowe: & that which remaineth vntil the third day, ſhal be burnt in the fire.

7 For if it be eaten the third day, it ſhalbe vncleane, it ſhal not be c accepted.

8 Therefore he that eateth it, ſhal beare his iniquitie, becauſe he hathe defiled the halowed thing of the Lord, and that perſone ſhal be cut of from his people.

9 ¶ *When ye reape ỹ harueſt of your land, ye ſhal not reape euerie corner of your field, nether ſhalt thou gather the r glainings of thy haruеſt.

10 Thou ſhalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyarde cleane, nether gather euery grape of thy vineyarde, but thou ſhalt leaue them for the poore and for the ſtranger: I am the Lord your God.

11 ¶ Ye ſhal not ſteale, nether d deale falſely, nether lie one to another.

12 ¶ *Alſo ye ſhal not ſweare by my Name falſely, nether ſhalt thou defile the Name of thy God: I am the Lord.

13 ¶ Thou ſhalt not do thy neighbour °wrōg, nether robbe him. *The worckemās hire ſhal not abide with thee vntil the morning.

14 ¶ Thou ſhalt not curſe the deafe, *nether put a ſtumbling blocke before the blinde, but ſhalt feare thy God: I am the Lord.

15 ¶ Ye ſhal not do vniuſtely in iudgement. *Thou ſhalt not fauour the perſone of the poore, nor honour the perſone of the mighty, but ỹ ſhalt iudge thy neighbour iuſtly.

16 ¶ Thou ſhalt not e walke about with tales among thy people. Thou ſhalt not f ſtād againſt the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord.

17 ¶ Thou ſhalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou ſhalt plainely rebuke thy neighbour, "and ſuffre him not to ſinne.

18 ¶ Thou ſhalt not auenge, nor be mindeful of wrong againſt the childrē of thy people, *but ſhalt loue thy neighbour as thy ſelfe: I am the Lord.

19 ¶ Ye ſhal kepe mine ordinances. Thou ſhalt not let thy cattel gendre with g others of diuers kides. Thou ſhalt not ſowe thy field with mingled ſede, nether ſhal a garment of diuers things, as of linen and wollen come vpon thee.

20 ¶ Whoſoeuer alſo lieth and medleth with a woman that is a bonde maid, affianced to a houſband, and not redemed, nor

---

Chap 20,21. h Becauſe the idolaters, among whome Gods people had dwelt & ſhulde dwel, were giuen to theſe horrible iacetts, God chargeth his to beware of the ſame

i By ſeing thine affection more bent to her ſiſter thē to her.

Chap.20,18. k Or whiles ſhe hathe her floures.

Chap 20,2. 2 kin.23,10. "Ebr. of thy ſede °Or, to make the paſſe

l Which was an idole of ỹ Ammonites, vnto whome they burned and ſacrificed their childrē, 2 King 23,10

Chap 20,15. °Or, to fulfou.

m I wil puniſhe the land where ſuch inceſtuous mariages & pollutions are ſuffered.

n He compareth the wicked to cuil humours and ſurfeting, which corrupt ỹ ſtomarke and oppreſſe nature, and therefore muſte be caſt out by vomet

o Bothe for their wicked mariages, vnnatural copulations, idolatrie or ſpiritual whoredome with Mólech, and ſuche like abominacions.

p Ether by ỹ ciuile ſworde, or by ſome plague that God wil ſend vpon ſuche.

Chap.11,44. & 20,7.1 pet. 1,16.

q That is, voide of all pollution, idolatrie, and ſuperſtition bothe of ſoule and body.

b Of your owne accorde Chap.7,16.

c To wit, of God.

Chap. 23,22. °Or, g the eringe & leauings.

d In that ỹ is committed to your credit Exod.20,7. deut.5,11. mat 5,34.

°Or, oppreſſe him by miſchief. Deu. 24,14. tob 4,15.

Deut.27,18.

Exod 23,3. deut.1,17. & 16,16. prou.24,23 ſam.2,2.

e As a ſlanderer, backbiter or quarelpicker

f By conſenting to his death, or conſpiring with the wicked

"Ebr ſuffre not ſinne vpon him.

Mat.5,45. rom 13,9. gal 5,14. iam.2,8.

g As a horſe to leape an aſſe, or a mule a mare.

115/1224

nor fredome giuen her, "ſhe ſhalbe ſcourged, but they ſhal not dye, becauſe ſhe is not made fre.

" Ebr. a beating ſhalbe. Some read they ſhalbe beaten.

21 And he ſhal bring for his treſpas offring vnto the Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, a ram for a treſpas offring.

22 Then the Prieſt ſhal make an atonemẽt for him with the ram of the treſpas offring before the Lord, cõcerning his ſinne which he hath done, and pardon ſhalbe giuen him for his ſinne which he hathe committed.

23 ¶Alſo when ye ſhal come into the land, and haue planted euerie tre for meat, ye h ſhal counte the frute thereof as vncircũciſed: thre yere ſhal it be vncircumciſed vnto you, it ſhal not be eaten:

h It ſhal be vncleane, as ſy thing which is not circumciſed.

24 But in the fourth yere all the frute thereof ſhal be holy to the praiſe of the Lord.

25 And in the fift yere ſhal ye eat of the frute of it that it may "yelde to you the encreaſe thereof: I am the Lord your God.

" Or, that God may multiplie

26 ¶Ye ſhal not eat the fleſh with the blood, ye ſhal not vſe witch craft, nor obſerue times.

i To measure luckie or vnluckie daies.

27 *Ye ſhal not k cut round the corners of your heades, nether ſhalt thou "marre the tuftes of thy beard.

Chap.21,5.

k As did the Gentiles in ſigne of mourning.

28 *Ye ſhal not cut your fleſh for the" dead, nor make anie printe of a l marke vpon you: I am the Lord.

" Or, cut, or ſeare Deut.14,1.

" Ebr. ſoule, or perſone.

l By whipping your bodies or burning markes therin As did the Cyprians, and Locrenſes.

29 ¶Thou ſhalt not make thy daughter commen, to cauſe her to be a m whore, leſt the land alſo fall to whoredome and the land be ful of wickednes.

30 ¶Ye ſhal kepe my Sabbaths and reuerence my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord.

31 ¶Ye ſhal not regarde them that worke w ſpirits, *nether ſothe ſaiers: ye ſhal not ſeke to them to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God.

1.Sam.28,8.

n In token of reuerence.

32 ¶Thou ſhalt n riſe vp before the horehed, and honour the perſone of the olde man, and dread thy God: I am the Lord.

33 ¶And if a ſtranger ſoiourne with thee in your land, ye ſhal not "vexe him.

"Or, do him wrong. Exod.22,21.

34 * But the ſtrãger that dwelleth with you, ſhalbe as one of your ſelues, & thou ſhalt loue him as thy ſelfe: for ye were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

35 ¶Ye ſhal not do vniuſtly in iudgement, in o line, in weight, or in meaſure.

o As in meaſuring the grounde. Prou.11,1.& 16,11.& 20,10

36 *You ſhal haue iuſte balances, true weightes, a true P Ephah, and a true Hin. I am ỹ Lord your God, which haue broght you out of the land of Egypt.

p By theſe two meaſures he meaneth all other of Ephah, read Exod 16,36, & of Hin Exod.29,40.

37 Therefore ſhal ye obſerue all mine ordinances, and all my iudgements, and do them: I am the Lord.

CHAP. XX.

2 They that giue of their ſede to Mólech, muſt dye. 6 They that haue recours to ſorcerers. 10 The man that committeth adulterie. 11 Inceſt, or fornicacion with the kinred or affinite. 24 Iſraél a peculiar people to the Lord.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Thou ſhalt ſay alſo to the children of Iſraél, *Whoſoeuer he be of the children of Iſraél, or of the ſtrãgers that dwel in Iſraél, that giueth his children vnto a Mólech, he ſhal dye the death, the people of the land ſhal ſtone him to death.

Chap.18,21.

a By Mólech he meaneth anie kinde of idole, Chap.18 21.

3 And I b wil ſet my face againſt that man and cut him of from among his people, becauſe he hathe giuen his childrẽ vnto Mólech, for to defile my Sanctuarie, and to pollute mine holy Name.

b Read Chap. 18,21.

4 And if the c people of the land hide their eyes, and winke at that man when he giueth his children vnto Mólech, and kil him not,

c Thogh the people be negligent to do their duetie & defend Gods right, yet he wil not ſuffre wickednes to go vnpuniſhed

5 Then wil I ſet my face againſt that man, and againſt his familie, & wil cut him of, and all that go a whoring after him to commit whoredome with Mólech, from among their people.

6 ¶If anie turne after ſuche as worke with ſpirits, & after ſothe ſaiers, to go a d whoring after them, then wil I ſet my face againſt that perſone, and wil cut him of from among his people.

d To eſteme ſorcerers or cõiurers is ſpirituall whoredome, or idolatrie.

7 ¶Sanctifie your ſelues therefore, *and be holy, for I am the Lord your God.

Chap.11,44. 1.pet.1,16.

8 Kepe ye therefore mine ordinances, and do them. I am the Lord which doeth ſanctifie you.

9 ¶*If there be anie that curſeth his father or his mother, he ſhal dye the death: ſeing he hathe curſed his father & his mother, e his blood ſhalbe vpon him.

Exod.21,17. pro.20,20. mat.15,4.

e He is worthy to dye.

10 ¶*And the man that committeth adulterie with another mans wife, becauſe he hathe committed adulterie with his neighbours wife, the adulterer and the adulteres ſhal dye the death.

Deu.22,22. ioh.8,4.

11 And the man that lieth with his fathers wife, becauſe he hathe vncouered his fathers* ſhame, thei ſhal bothe dye: their blood ſhal be vpon them.

Chap.18,8.

12 Alſo the man that lieth with his daughter in lawe, they bothe ſhal dye the death, they haue wroght "abominacion, their blood ſhal be vpon them.

"Or, confuſion.

13 *The mã alſo that lieth with the male, as one lieth with a woman, they haue bothe committed abominacion: they ſhal dye the death, their blood ſhal be vpon them.

Chap.18,22.

14 Likewiſe he that taketh a wife and her mother, f committeth wickednes: thei ſhal burne him and them with fire, that there be no wickednes among you.

f It is an execrable and deteſtable thing.

Chap.18.9.
15 *Alſo the man that lieth with a beaſt, ſhal dye the death, and ye ſhal ſlay the beaſt.
16 And if a woman come to anie beaſt, and lie therewith, then thou ſhalt kil the womā and the beaſt: they ſhal dye the death, their blood ſhalbe vpon them.
17 Alſo the mā that taketh his ſiſter, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and ſeeth her ſhame & ſhe ſeeth his ſhame, it is vilennie: therefore they ſhalbe cut of in the ſight "of their people, becauſe he hathe vncouered his ſiſters ſhame, he ſhal beare his iniquitie.
"Ebr. in the eies of the children of their people.
Chap.18.19.
18 *The man alſo that lieth with a woman hauing her [o] diſeaſe, & vncouereth her ſhame, & openeth her fountaine, and ſhe opē the fountaine of her blood, thei ſhalbe cuē bothe cut of from among their people.
o Or, floures.
19 Moreouer thou ſhalt not vncouer ỹ ſhame of thy mothers ſiſter, * nor of thy fathers ſiſter, becauſe he hathe vncouered his "Ebr. fleſh.
"kin: they ſhal beare their iniquitie.
20 Likewiſe the man that lieth with his fathers brothers wife, & vncouereth his vncles ſhame: they ſhal beare their iniquitie, & ſhal dye g childles.
g They ſhalbe cut of from their people, & their children ſhal be taken as baſtards: and not counted amōg the Iſraelites h Read Chap 18.16.
21 So the man that taketh his brothers wife, cōmitteth filthines, becauſe he hathe vncouered his brothers h ſhame: they ſhal be childles.
22 ¶Ye ſhal kepe therefore all mine *ordinances & all my iudgements, and do thē, that the land, whither I bring you to dwel therein, *ſpue you not out.
Chap.18.26.
Chap.18.28.
23 Wherefore ye ſhal not walke in the maners of this nacion which I caſt out before you: for they haue committed all theſe things, *therefore I abhorred them.
Deut.9.5.
24 But I haue ſaid vnto you, ye ſhal inherit their land, and I wil giue it vnto you to poſſeſſe it, euen a land that i floweth with milke & honie: I am the Lord your God, ẅ haue ſeparated you from other people.
i Ful of abundance of all things.
Chap.11.3. deut.14.4.
25 *Therefore ſhal ye put differēce betwene cleane beaſtes and vncleane, and betwene vncleane foules and cleane: nether ſhal ye k defile your ſelues with beaſtes & foules, nor with anie creeping thing, that ỹ groū de brīgeth forthe, which I haue ſeparated from you as vncleane.
k By eating them contrarie to my commandement.
'Ver.7.
26 Therefore ſhal ye be *holie vnto me: for I the Lord am holie, and I haue ſeparated you frō other people, ỹ ye ſhulde be mine.
Deut.18.7. 1.Sam.28.7.
27 ¶*And if a man or woman haue a ſpirit of diuinaciō, or ſothe ſaying in them, they ſhal dye the death: they ſhal ſtone thē to death, their blood ſhalbe vpon them.

CHAP. XXI.

a For whome the Priefts may lament. 6 How pure the Prieſts ought to be, bothe in them ſelues and in their familie.

1 AND the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Speake vnto the Prieſtes the ſonnes of Aarón, and ſay vnto them, Let none be a defiled by the dead among his people, a By touching the dead, lamenting, or being at their burial.
2 But by his kinſemā that is nere vnto him: to wit, by his mother, or by his father, or by his ſonne, or by his daughter, or by his brother,
3 Or by his ſiſter a b maid, that is nere vnto him, which hathe not had a houſband: for her "he may lament.
b For being maried ſhe ſeemed to be cut of from his familie.
"Ebr. he may be defiled.
4 He ſhal not lament for the c prince among his people, to pollute him ſelfe.
c Onely the Prieſt was permitted to mourne for his next kinred.
Chap.19.27.
5 Thei ſhal not make * balde partes vpon their head, nor ſhaue of the lockes of their beard, nor make anie cuttīgs in their fleſh.
6 They ſhal be holy vnto their God, and not pollute the Name of their God: for the ſacrifices of ỹ Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God thei do offer: therefore they ſhalbe holy.
7 Thei ſhal not take to wife an whore, or d done polluted, nether ſhal ther marie a woman diuorced from her houſband: for ſuche one is holy vnto his God.
d Which hathe an euil name or is defamed.
8 Thou ſhalt e ſanctifie him therefore, for he offreth the f bread of thy God: he ſhal be holy vnto thee: for I the Lord, which ſanctifie you, am holy.
e Thou ſhalt counte him holy and reuerence them.
f The ſhewbreads.
9 ¶If a Prieſts daughter fall to playe the whore, ſhe polluteth her father: therefore ſhal ſhe be burnt with fire.
10 ¶Alſo ỹ anie Prieſt among his brethren, (vpon whoſe head the anointing oyle was powred, and hathe conſecrated his hand to put on the garments) ſhal not g vncouer his head, nor rent his clothes, g He ſhal vſe no ſuche ceremonies as the mourners obſerued.
11 Nether ſhal he go to anie "dead body, nor make him ſelfe vncleane by his father or by his mother,
"Or, to the bewſes of the dead.
12 Nether ſhal he go out of the h Sanctuarie, nor pollute the holy place of his God: for the i croune of the anointing oyle of his God is vpon him: I am the Lord.
h To go to the dead.
i For by his annointing he was preferred to the other Prieſts, & therefore colde not lament the dead, leſt he ſhuld haue polluted his holy ointing.
13 Alſo he ſhal take a maid vnto his wife:
14 But a widowe, or a diuorced woman, or a polluted, or an harlot, theſe ſhal he not mary, but ſhal take a maid of his owne k people to wife:
k Not onely of his tribe but of all Iſrael.
15 Nether ſhal he defile his l ſede amōg his people: for I am the Lord ẅ ſanctifie him.
l By maryng anie vnchaſte or defamed woman.
16 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
17 Speake vnto Aarón, and ſay, Whoſoeuer of thy ſede in their generacions hathe anie blemiſhes, ſhal not preace to offer the bread of his God:
18 For whoſoeuer hathe anie blemiſh, ſhal not come nere: as a man blinde or lame, or that hathe m a flat noſe, or that hathe anie n miſſhapen membre, m Which is deformed or bruiſed.
n Or as not of equal proportiō, or hauing a nombre more or leſſe.
19 Or a man that hathe a broken fote, or a broken hand, 20 Or is croke backt, or bleare eied, o or hathe a blemiſh in his eie, or be ſkirfie, or ſkabbed o Or that hathe a wen, or perle.

skabbed, or haue his stones broken.
21 None of the sede of Aarón the Priest ỹ hathe a blemish, shal come nere to offer ỹ sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, hauing a blemish: he shal not preace to offer the p bread of his God.
22 The bread of his God, euen of the q moste holy, and r of the holy shal he eat:
23 But he shal not go in vnto the s vaile, nor come nere the altar, because he hathe able mish, lest he pollute my Sanctuaries: for I am the Lord that sanctifie them.
24 Thus spake Moses vnto Aarón, and to his sonnes, and to all the childre of Israél.

p As the shewe bread, and meat offrings q As of sacrifices for sinne r As of the tenthes & first frutes s In to the Sanctuarie

CHAP. XXII.

1 Who ought to abstaine from eating the things that were offred. 19 What oblacions shulde be offred.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto Aarón, and to his sonnes, that they be a separated from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they pollute not mine holy Name in those things, which they halowe vnto me: I am the Lord.
3 Say vnto them, Whosoeuer he be of all your sede among your generacions after you, that b toucheth the holy things which the childre of Israél halowe vnto ỹ Lord, hauing his vnclennes vpon him, euē that persone shal be cut of from my sight: I the Lord.
4 *Whosoeuer also of ỹ sede of Aarón is a leper, or hathe a rūning issue, he shal not eat of the holy things vntil he be cleane: and whoso toucheth anie that is c vncleane by reason of the dead, or a man whose issue of sede runneth from him,
5 Or the man that toucheth anie creping thing, whereby he may be made vncleane, or a man, by whome he may take vnclennes, "whatsoeuer vnclennes he hathe,
6 The persone that hathe touched suche, shal therefore be vncleane vntil thē euen, and shal not eat of the holy things, "except he haue washed his flesh with water.
7 But when the sunne is downe, he shal be cleane, and shal afterward eat of the holy things: for it is his "fode.
8 *Of a beast that dyeth, or is rent with beasts, whereby he may be defiled, he shal not eat: I am the Lord.
9 Let them kepe therefore mine ordinance, lest they beare their sinne for it, and dye for it, if they defile it: I the Lord sanctifie them.
10 There shal no d stranger also eat of the holy thing, nether e the geest of the Priest, nether shal an hired seruant eat of the holy thing:
11 But if the Priest bie anie with money, he shal eat of it, also he that is borne in his house: they shal eat of his meat.

a Meaning ỹ the Priests abstaine from eating, so long as they are polluted b To eat therof.
Chap 15.2.
c By touching anie dead thig or being at burial of ỹ dead.
"Ebr according to all his vncleanes "Or, vntil.
"Or, bread
Exod 22.31. ezek.44.31.
d Which is not of the tribe of Leui
e Some read, ỹ seruant which had his eare bored and wolde not go free, Exod.21.6.

12 If the Priests daughter also be maried vnto a f stranger, she may not eat of the holy offrings.
13 Notwithstanding if the Priests daughter be a widow or diuorced, and haue no childē, but is returned vnto hir fathers house, she shal eat of her fathers bread, as she did in her g youth: but there shal no stranger eat thereof.
14 ¶If a man eat of the holy thing vnwittingly, he shal put the h fifte parte thereunto, and giue it vnto the Priest with the halowed thing.
15 So they shal not defile the holy things of the children of Israél, which thei offer vnto the Lord.
16 Nether cause the people to beare the iniquitie of their i trespas, while they eat their holy thing: for I ỹ Lord do halow them.
17 ¶And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
18 Speake vnto Aarón, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israél, and say vnto them, Whosoeuer he be of the house of Israél, or of the strangers in Israél, that wil offer his sacrifice for all their vowes, and for all their fre offrings, w they vse to offer vnto the Lord for a burnt offring, 19 Ye shal offer of your fre minde a male without blemish of the beues, of the shepe, or of the goates.
20 Ye shal not offer anie thing ỹ hath a blemish: for ỹ shal not be acceptable for you.
21 *And whosoeuer bringeth a peace offring vnto the Lord to accomplish his vow, or for a fre offring, of the beues, or of ỹ shepe, his fre offring shal be perfect, no blemish shalbe in it.
22 Blinde, or broken, or maimed, or hauing a "wenne, or skirute, or skabbed: these shal ye not offer vnto the Lord nor make an offring by fire of these vpon the altar of the Lord.
23 Yet a bullocke, or a shepe that hathe *anie mēbre superfluous, or lacking, suche maiest thou present for a fre offring, but for a vowe it shal not be accepted.
24 Ye shal not offer vnto ỹ Lord that which is bruised or crushed, or broken, or cut away, nether shal ye make an offring therof in your land, 25 Nether i of the hand of a strāger shal ye offer the bread of your God of anie of these, because their corrupcion is in them, there is a blemish in thē: therefore shal they not be accepted for you.
26 ¶And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
27 Whē a bullocke, or a shepe, or a goat shal be broght forthe, it shalbe euē seuē daies vnder his damme: and from the eight day forthe, it shalbe accepted for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.
28 As for the cowe or the ewe, ye shal not *kil her, and her yong lothe in one day.

f Who is not of the Priests kinred g He shal giue that and ỹ fift parte ouer.
h For if they did not offer for their errour, the people by their exāple might commit the like offence.
Deut 15.20. eccles 35.14.
"Or, wart.
Chap.21.18.
i Ye shal not receiue anie vnperfect thig of a stranger, to make it the Lords offring: which he calleth the bread of the Lord.
Deut.22.6.

29 So when ye wil offer a thanke offring vnto the Lord, ye ſhal offer willingly.
30 The ſame day it ſhal be eaten, ye ſhal leaue * none of it vntil the morowe: I am the Lord.
Chap.7,15.
31 Therefore ſhal ye kepe my commandements and do them: for I am the Lord.
32 Nether ſhal ye [k] pollute mine holy Name, but I wil be halowed among the children of Iſraél I the Lord ſanctifie you, 33 Which haue brogt you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

[k] For whoſoeuer doeth otherwiſe then God commandeth, polluteth his name.

CHAP. XXIII.

2 The feaſts of the Lord 3 The Sabbath. 5 The paſſeouer. 6 The feaſt of vnleauened bread. 10 The feaſt of firſt frutes. 16 Whitſuntide. 24 The feaſt of blowing trompets. 34 The feaſt of tabernacles.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, The feaſts of the Lord which ye ſhal call the holy [o] aſſemblies, euen theſe are my feaſts.
[o] Or, conuocatiõs.
Exod 20,9.
3 *Six daies [o] ſhal worke be done, but in the ſeuenth day ſhalbe the Sabbath of reſt, an holy [o] conuocacion: ye ſhal do no worke therein, it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings.
[o] Or, ye may worke
[o] Or, aſſemblie.
4 ¶ Theſe are ỹ feaſts of the Lord, and holy conuocacions, which ye ſhal proclame in their [a] ſeaſons.
[a] For the Sabbath was kept euerie weke, & theſe other were but kept once euerie yere
5 In the firſt moneth, and in the fourteenth day of the moneth at euening ſhalbe the Paſſeouer of the Lord.
Exod 12,18.
Nom.28,16.
6 And on the fiftenth day of this moneth ſhalbe the feaſt * of vnleauened bread vnto the Lord: ſeuen daies ye ſhal eat vnleauened bread.
7 In the firſt day ye ſhal haue an holy conuocacion: ye ſhal do no [b] ſeruile worke therein.
[b] Or bodelie labour, ſaue about that ỹ one muſte eat, Exod 12,16.
8 Alſo ye ſhal offer ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord ſeuen daies, and in the [c] ſeuenth day ſhalbe an holy conuocacion: ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein.
[c] The firſt day of the feaſt & ỹ ſeuenth were kept holy: in the reſt thei might worke, except anie feaſt were itermedeled, as ỹ feaſt of vnleauened bread ỹ fiftēth day, & the feaſt of ſheaues the ſixtenth day
9 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto thē, When ye be come into the land, which I giue vnto you, and reape the harueſt thereof, thē ye ſhal bring [o] a ſheafe of the firſt frutes of your harueſt vnto the Prieſt,
[o] Or, an omer: made Deut 24, 19 ruth 2,15 pſal 129,7
11 And he ſhal ſhake the ſheafe before the Lord, that it may be acceptable for you: the morowe after the [d] Sabbath, the Prieſt ſhal ſhake it.
[d] That is, the ſeconde Sabbath of ỹ Paſſeouer.
12 And that day when ye ſhake the ſheafe, ſhal ye prepare a lambe without blemiſh of a yere olde, for a burnt offring vnto the Lord:
13 And the meat offring thereof ſhalbe two [e] tenth deales of fine floure mingled with oyle, for a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord of ſwete ſauour: and the drinke offring thereof the fourth part [f] of an Hin of wine.
[e] Which is, ỹ fift parte of an Ephāh or two omers read Exod.16,16.
[f] Read Exod. 29,40
14 And ye ſhal eat nether bread nor parched corne, nor [o] grene eares vntil the ſelfe ſame day that ye haue broght an offring vnto your God: this ſhal be a lawe for euer in your generacions and in all your dwellings.
[o] Or, ful eares.
15 ¶ Ye ſhal count alſo to you from the morowe after the [g] Sabbath, euen from the day that ye ſhal bring the ſheafe of the ſhake offring, ſeuen [o] Sabbaths, thei ſhalbe complete.
[g] That is, the ſeuēth day after the firſt Sabbath of the Paſſeouer.
[o] Or, weekes.
16 Vnto the morowe after the ſeuenth Sabbath ſhal ye nombre fifty daies: then ye ſhal bring a newe meat offring vnto the Lord.
17 Ye ſhal bring out of your habitacions bread for the ſhake offring: thei ſhalbe two loaues of two tenth deales of fine floure, which ſhalbe baken with [h] leauen for firſt frutes vnto the Lord.
[h] Becauſe the Prieſt ſhulde eat them, as chap 7,13, and they ſhulde not be offred to ỹ Lord vpon the altar
18 Alſo ye ſhal offer with the bread ſeuen lambes without blemiſh of one yere olde, and a yong bullocke and two rams: thei ſhal be for a burnt offring vnto the Lord, with their meat offrings and their drinke offrings, for a ſacrifice made by fire of a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.
19 Then ye ſhal prepare an he goat for a ſin offring, and two lambes of one yere olde for peace offrings.
20 And the Prieſt ſhal ſhake them to and fro with the bread of the firſt frutes before the Lord, and with the two lambes: thei ſhalbe holy to the Lord, for the [i] Prieſt.
[i] That is, offred to the Lord, and the reſt ſhuld be for ỹ Prieſts.
21 So ye ſhal proclame the ſame day, that it may be an holy conuocacion vnto you: ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein: it ſhal be an ordinance for euer in all your dwellings, throughout your generacions.
22 ¶ * And when you reape the harueſt of your land, thou ſhalt not rid cleane ỹ corners of thy fielde when thou reapeſt, nether ſhalt thou make anie aftergathering of thy harueſt, but ſhalt leaue them vnto the poore and to the ſtranger: I am the Lord your God.
Chap 19,9. deu. 24,19.
23 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
24 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, In the [k] ſeuēth moneth, and in the firſt day of the moneth ſhal ye [l] haue a Sabbath, for the remembrance of [m] blowing the trompets, an holy conuocacion.
[k] That is, about the end of September.
[l] Or an holyday to ỹ Lord.
[m] Which blowing was to put them in remembrance of the manifolde feaſts ỹ were in ỹ moneth, and of the Iubile
25 Ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein, but offer ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.
26 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
27 The * tenth alſo of this ſeuenth moneth ſhalbe a day of recōciliation: it ſhal be an holy conuocacion vnto you, and ye ſhal humble Chap 16 30. nom.29,7.

a By faſting. n humble your ſoules, & offer ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

28 And ye ſhal do no worke that ſame day: for it is a day of reconciliacion, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God.

29 For euerie perſone that humbleth not him ſelfe that ſame day, ſhal euen be cut of from his people.

30 And euerie perſone that ſhal do anie worke that ſame day, the ſame perſone alſo wil I deſtroye from amõg his people.

31 Ye ſhal do no maner worke therefore: this ſhalbe a lawe for euer in your generacions, throughout all your dwellings.

32 This ſhalbe vnto you a Sabbath of reſt, and ye ſhal hũble your ſoules: in the ninth day of the moneth at euen, from o euen to euen ſhal ye" celebrate your Sabbath.

o Which cõteineth a night and a day: yet they take it but for their natural day

33 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

34 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, *In the fiftiẽth day of this ſeuẽth moneth ſhalle for ſeuen daies the feaſt of Tabernacles vnto the Lord.

*Ebr reſt your Sabbath

Nomb 29,12. iohn 7,37.

35 In the firſt day ſhalbe an holy conuocacion: ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein.

36 Seuen daies ye ſhal offer * ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, and in the eight day ſhalbe an holy conuocacion vnto you, and ye ſhal offer ſacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord: it is the p ſolemne aſſemblie, ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein.

Exod 29,18.

p Or a day wherein the people are ſtayed from all worke

37 Theſe are ỹ feaſtes of the Lord (which ye ſhal call holy conuocacions) to offer ſacrifice made by fire vnto ỹ Lord, as burnt offring, and meat offring, q ſacrifice, and drinke offrings, euerie one vpon his day,

q Or peace offring

38 Beſide the Sabbaths of the Lord, & beſide your gifts, and beſide all your vowes, and beſide all your free offrings, which ye ſhal giue vnto the Lord.

39 But in the fiftienth day of the ſeuenth moneth, whẽ ye haue gathered in the frute of the land, ye ſhal kepe an holy feaſt vnto the Lord ſeuen daies: in the firſt day ſhalbe a r Sabbath: likewiſe in the eight day ſhalbe a Sabbath.

r Or a ſoléne feaſt

40 And ye ſhal take you in the firſt day the frute of goodlie trees, branches of palme trees, and the boughes of *thicke trees, & willowes of the broke, and ſhal reioyce before the Lord your God ſeuen daies.

*Or, of bowes thicke with leaues.

41 So ye ſhal kepe this feaſt vnto the Lord ſeuen daies in the yere, by a perpetual ordinance through your generacions: in the ſeuenth moneth ſhal you kepe it.

42 Ye ſhal dwel in boothes ſeuen daies: all that are Iſraelites borne, ſhal dwel in boothes, s In the wildernes, foraſmuch as they wolde not credit Ioſhúa and Caléb, when they returned from ſpying the land of Canáan.

43 That your poſteritie may knowe that I haue made the children of Iſraél to dwel in s boothes, when I broght them out of the lãd of Egypt: I am ỹ Lord your God.

44 So Moſes declared vnto the children of Iſraél the feaſtes of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 The oyle for the lampes. 5 The ſhewebread. 14 The blaſphemer ſhalbe ſtoned. 17 He that killeth ſhalbe killed.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 a Commande the children of Iſraél that they bring vnto thee pure oyle oliue beaten, for the light, to cauſe the lampes to burne continually.

a Read Exod 27,20.

3 Without the vaile b of the Teſtimonie, in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, ſhal Aarón dreſſe them, bothe euen and morning before the Lord alwaies: this ſhalbe a lawe for euer through your generacions.

b Which vaile ſeparated ỹ Holieſt of all, where was ỹ Arke of the teſtimonie, frõ the Sãctuarie

4 He ſhal dreſſe the lampes vpon the * pure Candelſticke before the Lord perpetually.

Exod 31,8.

5 ¶Alſo thou ſhalt take fine floure, & bake twelue * cakes thereof: two c tenth deales ſhal be in one cake.

Exod 25,30.

c That is, two Omers: read Exod 16,16.

6 And thou ſhalt ſet them in two rowes, ſix in a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord.

7 Thou ſhalt alſo put pure incenſe vpõ the rowes, that d in ſtede of the bread it may be for a remembrance, and an offring made by fire to the Lord.

d For it was burnt euerie Sabbath when the bread was taken away

8 Euerie Sabbath he ſhal put thẽ in rowes before the Lord euermore, receauing them of the childrẽ of Iſraél for an euerlaſting couenant.

9 *And the bread ſhalbe Aarons & his ſonnes, and thei ſhal eat it in the holy place: for it is moſte holy vntõ him of the offrings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual ordinance.

Exod 29,33. chap. 6,31. mat.12,4.

10 ¶And there went e out among the children of Iſraél the ſonne of an Iſraelitiſh woman, whoſe father was an Egyptian: & this ſonne of the Iſraelitiſh woman, and a man of Iſraél ſtroue together in the hoſte.

e Out of his tente

11 So the Iſraelitiſh womans ſonne f blaſphemed the Name of the Lord, and curſed, and they broght him vnto Moſes (his mothers name alſo was Shelomíth, ỹ daughter of Dibrí, of the tribe of Dan)

f By ſwearing & or diſpiting God

12 And they * put him in warde, til he tolde them the minde of the Lord.

Nomb.15,34

13 Then the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

14 Bring the blaſphemer without the hoſte, and let all that heard him, * put their hands vpon his head, and let all the Congregacion ſtone him.

Deu.13,9. & 17,7.

15 And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the children of Iſraél, ſaying, Whoſoeuer curſeth his God, ſhal g beare his ſinne.

g Shalbe punished

16 And he that blaſphemeth the Name of the Lord, ſhal he put to death: all the Cõgregacion ſhal ſtone him to death: aſwel the ſtranger, as he that is borne in the lãd: when he blaſphemeth the Name of the Lord, let him be ſlaine.

Exod.21,12. deut 19,4. 17 ¶ * He alſo that "killeth anie man, he ſhalbe put to death.

"Ebr. ſmiteth the ſoule of anie man "Ebr ſoule for ſoule.

18 And he that killeth a beaſt, he ſhal reſtore it, "beaſt for beaſt.

19 Alſo if a man cauſe anie blemiſh in his neighbour: as he hathe done, ſo ſhal it be done to him:

Exod 21,24. deut.19,21. mat.5,24. 20 * Breache for breache, eie for eie, tothe for tothe: ſuche a blemiſh as he hathe made in anie, ſuche ſhalbe repaied to him.

21 And he that killeth a beaſt ſhal reſtore it: but he that killeth a man ſhalbe ſlaine.

Exod 12,49. 22 Ye ſhal haue * one lawe: it ſhalbe aſwel for the ſtranger as for one borne in the countrey: for I am the Lord your God.

h Becauſe the puniſhment was not yet appointed by the Lawe for the blaſphemer, Moſes conſulted with the Lord, & tolde ỹ people what God commanded 23 ¶ Then h Moſes tolde the children of Iſraél, and thei broght the blaſphemer out of the hoſte, and ſtoned him with ſtones: ſo the children of Iſraél did as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Sabbath of the ſeuenth yere. 8 The Iubile in the fiftieth yere 14 Not to oppreſſe their brethren 23 The ſale, and redeming of lands, houſes and perſones.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes in mount Sinái, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, When ye ſhal come into the land which I giue you, the * land ſhal "kepe Sabbath vnto the Lord.

Exod.23,10.

"Ebr. ſhal reſt a reſt

a The Iewes begã the cõut of this yere in September: for then all the frutes were gathered 3 a Six yeres thou ſhalt ſowe thy field, and ſix yeres thou ſhalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the fiute thereof.

4 But the ſeuenth yere ſhalbe a Sabbath of reſt vnto the land: it ſhall e the Lords Sabbath: thou ſhalt nether ſowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyarde.

b By reaſon of the corne ỹ fel out of the eares the yere paſt

5 That which groweth of it b owne accorde of thy harueſt, thou ſhalt not reape, nether gather the grapes that thou haſte c left vnlaboured: for it ſhalbe a yere of reſt vnto the land.

c Or, which thou haſt ſeparated from thy ſelfe, and conſecrated to God for the poore

6 And the d reſt of the lãd ſhalbe meat for you, euen for thee, & for thy ſeruant, & for thy maid, & for thy hyred ſeruant, and for the ſtranger that ſoiourneth with thee:

d That which ỹ lãd bringeth forthe in her reſt.

7 And for thy cattel, and for the beaſtes that are in thy land ſhal all the increaſe thereof be meat.

"Or, weeke

8 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt nomber ſeuen "Sabbaths of yeres vnto thee, euen ſeuen times ſeuen yere: and the ſpace of the ſeuen Sabbaths of yeres wil be vnto thee nine and fourty yere.

e In the begining of the 50. yere was the Iubile, ſo called, becauſe the ioyful tidings of liberie was publikely proclaimed by the ſounde of a cornet.

9 e Then thou ſhalt cauſe to blowe the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the ſeuenth moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliacion ſhal ye make the trumpet blowe, through out all your land.

10 And ye ſhal halowe that yere, euen the fiftieth yere, and proclaime libertie in the land to all the f inhabitants thereof: it ſhal be the Iubile vnto you, and ye ſhal returne euerie man vnto his g poſſeſſion, and euerie man ſhal returne vnto his familie.

f Which were in bondage

g Becauſe the tribes ſhulde nether haue their poſſeſſions, or families diminiſhed nor cõfounded

11 This fiftieth yere ſhalbe a yere of Iubile vnto you: ye ſhal not ſowe, nether reape that which groweth of it ſelfe, nether gather the grapes thereof, that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it ſhal be holy vnto you: ye ſhal eat of the increaſe thereof out of the field.

13 In the yere of this Iubile, ye ſhal returne euerie man vnto his poſſeſſion.

14 And whẽ thou ſelleſt oght to thy neighbour, or byeſt at thy neighbours hand, ye ſhal h not oppreſſe one another:

h By deceit or otherwiſe.

15 But according to the nomber of i yeres after the Iubile thou ſhalt bye of thy neighbour: alſo according to the nombei of the yeres of the reuenues, he ſhal ſel vnto thee.

i If the Iubile to come be nere, thou ſhalt ſel better cheape: if it be farre of, dearer 16 According to the multitude of yeres, thou ſhalt encreaſe the price thereof, and according to the fewnes of yeres, thou ſhalt abate the price of it: for the nomber of k frutes doeth he ſel vnto thee.

k And not the ful poſſeſsion of the land.

17 Oppreſſe not ye therefore anie man his neighbour, but thou ſhalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye ſhal obey mine ordinãces, and kepe my lawes, and do them, and ye ſhal dwel in the land l in ſaftie.

"Or, boldely without feare.

19 And the land ſhal giue her frute, and ye ſhal eat your fil, and dwel therein in ſaftie.

20 And if ye ſhal ſay, What ſhal we eat the ſeuenth yere, for we ſhal not ſowe, nor gather in our increaſe?

"Ebr I will cõmande

21 I wil "ſend my bleſsing vpon you in the ſixt yere, and it ſhal bring forthe fiute for thre yeres.

22 And ye ſhal ſowe the eight yere, and eat of the olde fiute vntil the ninth yere: vntil the fiute thereof come, ye ſhal eat the olde.

l It colde not be ſolde for euer, but muſt returne to the familie in the Iubile 23 ¶ Alſo the land ſhal not be ſolde to be l cut of from the familie: for the land is mine, and ye be but ſtrangers and ſoiourners with me.

m Ye ſhal ſel it on condicio that it may be redemed.

24 Therefore in all the land of your poſſeſsion ye ſhal m grante a redempcion for the land.

"Or, kinſman

25 ¶ If thy brother be impouerished, & ſel his poſſeſsion, thẽ his redemer ſhal come, euen his nere kinſman, and bye out that which his "brother ſolde.

"Ebr his hand hathe gotten 26 And if he haue no redemer, but "hathe gotten and founde to bye it out,

27 Then

27 Then ſhal he [a] counte the yeres of his ſale, and reſtore the ouerplus to the man, to whome he ſolde it: ſo ſhal he returne to his poſſeſſion.

28 But if he can not get ſufficient to reſtore to him, then that which is ſolde, ſhal remaine in the hād of him that hathe boght it, vntil the yere of the Iubile: and in the Iubile it ſhal come [o] out, and he ſhal returne vnto his poſſeſſion.

29 Likewiſe if a man ſel a dwelling houſe in a walled citie, he may bye it out againe within a whole yere after it is ſolde: within a yere may he bye it out.

30 But if it be not boght out within the ſpace of a ful yere, then the houſe that is in the walled citie, ſhalbe ſtabliſhed, [p] as cut of from the familie, to him that boght it, throughout his generacions: it ſhal not go out in the Iubile.

31 But the houſes of villages, which haue no walles rounde about them, ſhalbe eſtemed as the field of the countrie: they may be boght out againe, and ſhal [*] go out in the Iubile.

32 Notwithſtanding, the cities of the Leuites, and the houſes of the cities of their poſſeſſion, may the Leuites redeme [] at all ſeaſons.

33 And if a mā purchaſe of the Leuites, the houſe that was ſolde, and the citie of their poſſeſſion ſhal go out in the Iubile: for ẏ houſes of the cities of ẏ Leuites are their poſſeſſion among the children of Iſraél.

34 But the field of the [q] ſuburbes of their cities, ſhal not be ſolde: for it is their perpetual poſſeſſion.

35 ¶Moreouer if thy brother be impoueriſhed, and [r] fallen in decay with thee, thou ſhalt releue him, and as a ſtrāger and ſoiourner, ſo ſhal he liue with thee.

36 *Thou ſhalt take no vſurie of him, nor vantage, but thou ſhalt feare thy God, that thy brōther may liue with thee.

37 Thou ſhalt not giue him thy money to vſurie, nor lend him thy vitailes for increaſe.

38 I am the Lord your God, which haue broght you out of the lād of Egypt, to giue you the land of Canáan, and to be your God.

39 ¶*If thy brother alſo that dwelleth by thee, be impoueriſhed, and be ſolde vnto thee, thou ſhalt not compel him to ſeruе as a bonde ſeruant, 40 But as an hyred ſeruant, and as a ſoiourner he ſhal be with thee: he ſhal ſerue thee vnto the yere of the Iubile.

41 Thē ſhal he departe from thee, both he, and his children with him, and ſhal returne vnto his familie, and vnto the poſſeſſion of his fathers ſhal he returne:

42 For they are my ſeruants, whome I broght out of the land of Egypt: they ſhal not [f] be ſolde as bonde men are ſolde.

43 *Thou ſhalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but ſhalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bonde ſeruant alſo, and thy bonde maid, which thou ſhalt haue, ſhal be of the heathen that are roūde about you: of thē ſhal ye bye ſeruants and maids.

45 And moreouer of the children of the ſtrangers, that are ſoiourners among you, of them ſhal ye bye, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your land: theſe ſhalbe your [t] poſſeſſion.

46 So ye ſhal take them as inheritance for your children after you, to poſſeſſe them by inheritance, ye ſhal vſe their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Iſraél ye ſhal not rule one ouer another with crueltie.

47 ¶If a [v] ſoiourner or a ſtranger dwelling by thee get riches, and thy brother by him be impoueriſhed, and ſel him ſelfe vnto the ſtranger or ſoiourner dwelling by thee, or to the ſtocke of the ſtrangers familie,

48 After that he is ſolde, he may be boght out: one of his brethren may bye him out, 49 Or his vncle, or his vncles ſōne may bye him out, or anie of the kinred of his fleſh among his familie, may redeme him: either if he can [u] get ſo muche, he may bye him ſelfe out.

50 Then he ſhal reken with his byer from the yere that he was ſolde to him, vnto the yere of Iubile: and the money of his ſale ſhalbe according to the nomber of [x] yeres: according to the time of an hyred ſeruant ſhal he be with him.

51 If there be manie yeres behinde, according to them he ſhal giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was boght for.

52 If there remaine but fewe yeres vnto the yere of Iubile, thē he ſhal coūte with him, and according to his yeres giue againe for his redemption.

53 He ſhalbe with him yere by yere as an hyred ſeruāt: he ſhal not rule cruelly ouer him in thy [y] ſight.

54 And if he be not redemed thus, he ſhal go out in the yere of Iubile, he, and his children with him.

55 For vnto me the children of Iſraél are ſeruants: they are my ſeruants, whome I haue broght out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

[a] Abating the money of the yeres paſt, and paying for the reſt of the yeres to come

[o] Frō his hādes that boght it

[p] That is, for euer read ver. 23

[*] Or, returne.

[] Ebr for euer.

[q] Where the Leuites kept their cattel

[r] In ebr it is, if his hād ſhake: meaning if he ſtretch forthe his hand for helpe as one in miſerie

Exod 22,25. deu 23,19 prouer 28,8. ezek 18,8 & 22,12.

Exod 21,2. deu 15,12. ier 34,14.

[f] Vnto perpetual ſeruitude

Eph 6 9. col 4,1.

[t] For theſe ſhal not be boght out at the Iubile

[v] Ebr If his hād take holde.

[u] If he be able

[x] Which remaine yet to the Iubile

[y] Thou ſhalt not ſuffre him to intreat him rigorouſly, if thou knowe it.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Idolatrie forbidden. 3 A bleſſing to them that kepe the cōmandemēts 14 The curſſe to thoſe that breake them. 42 God promiſeth to remembre his couenant.

1 YE ſhal make you none idoles nor grauen image, nether reare you vp anie piller, nether ſhal ye ſet [] anie image of ſtone in your lād to bowe downe to it: for Exod 20,4. deu.5,8 pſal 97,7.

[*] Or, ſtone hauing anie imagerie.

I am the Lord your God,

Chap 19,30. 2 Ye ſhal kepe my Sabbaths, and *reuerence my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord.

Deu 28,1. 3 ¶*If ye walke in mine ordinances, and kepe my commandements, and do them, a By promeſing abundance of earthly things he ſtirreth the mindes to conſider the riche treaſures of ſ ſpiritual bleſſings Iob 11,19.

4 I wil then ſend you [a] raine in due ſeaſon, and the land ſhal yelde her increaſe, and the trees of the field ſhal giue their frute.

5 And your threſhing ſhal reache vnto the vintage, and the vintage ſhal reache vnto ſowing time, and you ſhal eat your bread in plenteouſnes, and * dwel in your land ſafely.

6 And I wil ſend peace in the land, and ye ſhal ſlepe and none ſhal make you afraied: alſo I [b] wil rid euil beaſts out of the land, and the [b] ſworde ſhal not go through your land.

b Ebr. I wil cauſe the euil beaſt to ceaſe
b Ye ſhal haue no warre

7 Alſo ye ſhal chaſe your enemies, and they ſhal fall before you vpon the ſworde.

Ioſh 23,10. 8 *And fiue of you ſhal chaſe an hundreth, and an hundreth of you ſhal put ten thouſand to flight, and your enemies ſhal fall before you vpon the ſworde.

b Ebr I wil turne me to you
c Perfourme that which I haue promiſed

9 For [b] I wil haue reſpect vnto you, & make you encreaſe, & multiplie you, and [c] eſtabliſh my couenant with you.

10 Ye ſhal eat alſo olde ſtore, and cary out olde becauſe of the newe.

Exek.37,26. 2.cor 6,16.
d I wil be daily preſent with you.

11 *And I wil ſet my [d] Tabernacle among you, and my ſoule ſhal not lothe you.

12 Alſo I wil walke among you, and I wil be your God, and ye ſhal be my people.

13 I am the Lord your God which haue broght you out of the land of Egypt, that ye ſhulde not be their boadmen, and I haue broken the [e] bondes of your yoke, and made you go vpright.

e I haue ſet you at ful libertie, where as before ye were as beaſts tied in bādes

14 ¶*But if ye wil not obey me, nor do all theſe commandements, Deu 28,15. Lament 2,17. mal 2,2.

15 And if ye ſhal deſpiſe mine ordinances, ether if your ſoule abhorre my Lawes, ſo that ye wil not do all my commādemēts, but breake my [f] couenant, f Which I made with you in chooſing you to be my people

16 Then wil I alſo do this vnto you, I wil appoint ouer you [e] fearfulnes, a conſumption, and the burning ague to conſume the eies, and make the heart heauie, and you ſhal ſowe your ſede in vaine: for your enemies ſhal eat it:

e Or, an haſty plague.

g Read Chap. 17,10.

17 And I wil ſet [g] my face againſt you, and ye ſhal fall before your enemies, and they that hate you, ſhal reigne ouer you, * and ye ſhal flee when none purſueth you.

Prouer.28,1.

18 And if ye wil not for theſe things obey me, then wil I puniſh you [h] ſeuen times more, according to your ſinnes, h That is, more extremely.

19 And I wil breake the pride of your power, and I wil make your heauen as [i] yrō, & your earth as braſſe:

i Ye ſhal haue drought & barennes. Agge 1, 10
Or, labour.

20 And your [e] ſtrēgth ſhalbe ſpent in vaine: nether ſhal your land giue her increaſe, nether ſhal the trees of the land giue their frute.

21 ¶And if ye walke [k] ſtubbernely againſt me, and wil not obey me, I wil then bring ſeuen times mo plagues vpon you, according to your ſinnes.

k Or, as ſome read, by fortune, imputing my plagues to chāce and fortune

22 I wil alſo ſend wilde beaſtes vpon you, which ſhal [l] ſpoile you, and deſtroy your cattel, and make you fewe in nomber: ſo your hye [m] wayes ſhalbe deſolate.

l Of your children 2 King 17,25

m Becauſe none dare paſſe thereby for feare of beaſtes

23 Yet if by theſe ye wil not be reformed by me, but walke ſtubbernely againſt me,

24 Then wil I alſo walke * ſtubbernely againſt you, and I wil ſmite you yet ſeuen times for your ſinnes:

2.Sam 22,27. pſal 17,26.

25 And I wil ſend a ſworde vpon you, that ſhal auenge ſ quarel of my couenāt: and when ye are gathered in your cities, I wil ſend ſ peſtilence among you, and ye ſhalbe deliuered into the hand of the enemie.

26 When I ſhal breake the [n] ſtaffe of your bread, then ten womē ſhal bake you bread in one [o] ouen, and they ſhal deliuer your bread againe by weight, and ye ſhal eat, but not be ſatiſfied.

n That is, ſ ſtrēgth, wherby the life is ſuſteined. Ezek 4, 16 & 5,16

o One ouen ſhalbe ſufficient for ten families.

27 Yet if ye wil not for this obey me, but walke againſt me ſtubbernely, 28 Thē wil I walke ſtubbernely in mine angre againſt you, & I wil alſo chaſtice you ſeuē times more according to your ſinnes.

29 And ye ſhal eat the fleſh of your ſonnes, and the fleſh of your daughters ſhal ye deuoure.

30 I wil alſo deſtroye your hie places, and *cut away your images, and caſt your carkeiſes vpon the [p] bodies of your idoles, & my ſoule ſhal abhorre you.

2 Chro 34,7.
p Or, carcaſes.

31 And I wil make your cities deſolate, and bring your Sanctuarie vnto noght, and [q] wil not ſmel the ſauour of your ſwete odoures.

q I wil not accept your ſacrifices.

32 I wil alſo bring the land vnto a wilderines, & your enemies, which dwel therein, ſhal be aſtoniſhed thereat.

33 Alſo I wil ſcatter you among the heathē, and [r] wil drawe out a ſworde after you, and your land ſhalbe waſte, and your cities ſhalbe deſolate.

r Signifying that none enemie can come without Gods ſending

34 Then ſhal the lād enioye her *Sabbaths, as long as it lieth voyde, and ye ſhalbe in your enemies land: then ſhal the land reſt, and enioye her Sabbaths.

Chap.25,2.

35 All the daies that it lieth voyde, it ſhal reſt, becauſe it did not reſt in your [s] Sabbaths, when ye dwelt vpon it.

s Which I cōmaded you to keye

36 And vpon them that are left of you, I wil ſend euen a [t] faintenes into their hearts in the land of their enemies, & the ſounde of a leaſe ſhaken ſhal chaſe them, and they ſhal [f] flee as fleing from a ſworde, & they ſhal fall, no man purſuing them.

t Or, cowardnes.
f As if their enemies did chaſe them

37 They ſhal fall alſo one vpon an other, as before a ſworde, thogh none purſue them, and ye ſhal not be able to ſtand before fore your enemies:

38 And ye ſhal periſh among ỹ heathen, & the land of your enemies ſhal eat you vp.
39 And they that are left of you, ſhal pine away for their iniquitie, in your enemies lãds, & for the iniquities of their fathers ſhal they pine away with t them alſo.
c Forasmuche as they are culpable of their fathers faultes, they ſhalbe puniſhed aſwel as their fathers 40 Then thei ſhal confeſſe their iniquitie, and ỹ wickednes of their fathers for their treſpas, which they haue treſpaſed againſt me, and alſo becauſe thei haue walked ſtubbernely againſt me.
41 Therefore I wil walke ſtubbernely againſt thẽ, and bring them into the land of their enemies: ſo thẽ their vncircumciſed hearts ſhal be humbled, and thẽ they ſhal u willingly beare the puniſhmẽt of their iniquitie.
u Or, pray for their ſinne 42 Then I wil remembre my couenant with Iaakób, and my couenant alſo with Izhák, and alſo my couenant with Abrahám wil I remember, and wil remember the land.
s Whiles they are captiues, and without repentance 43 u The land alſo in the meane ſeaſon ſhalbe left of them, & ſhal enioye her Sabbaths while ſhe lieth waſte without them, but they ſhal willingly ſuffre the puniſhment of their iniquitie, becauſe thei diſpiſed my lawes, & becauſe their ſoule abhorred mine ordinances.
44 Yet notwithſtanding this, when they ſhall be in the land of their enemies, *I wil not caſt them away, neither wil I abhorre them, to deſtroy them vtterly, nor to breake my couenant with them: for I am the Lord their God:
*Deu 4,31 rom.11,29.
x Made to their forefathers:
45 But I wil remembre for them the x couenant of olde when I brought them out of ỹ land of Egypt in the ſight of the heathẽ that I might be their God: I am the Lord.
46 Theſe are the ordinances, & the iudgements, & the lawes, which the Lord made betwene him, and the children of Iſraél in mount y Sinái, by the hand of Moſés.
y Fifty daies after they came out of Egypt

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Of diuers vowes, and the redemption of the ſame. 28 A thing ſeparate from the vſe of man can not be ſolde, nor redemed, but remaineth to the Lord.

1 MOreouer the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying, z As of his ſonne or his daughter 2 Speake vnto ỹ childrẽ of Iſraél, & ſay vnto thẽ, If ane mã ſhal make a a vowe of a perſone vnto ỹ Lord, by b thy eſtimaciõ, b Which art the Prieſt.
3 Then thy eſtimacion ſhalbe thus: a male frõ twenty yere olde vnto ſixty yere olde ſhalbe by thy eſtimacion euẽ fifty c ſhekels of ſiluer, after the ſhekel of the Sactuarie.
c Read the value of the ſhekel, Exod 30, 13 4 But if it be a ſemale, then thy valuacion ſhalbe thirty ſhekels.
d He ſpeaketh of thoſe vowes whereby ỹ fathers dedicated their children to God, which were not of ſuche force, but thei might be redemed from thẽ
5 And from fiue yere olde to twenty yere olde thy valuacion ſhalbe for the male twẽty ſhekels, & for ỹ female ten ſhekels.
6 But from a d moneth olde vnto fiue yere olde, thy price of the male ſhalbe fiue ſhekels of ſiluer, and thy price of the female, thre ſhekels of ſiluer.
7 And from ſixty yere olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price ſhal be fiftene ſhekels, and for the female ten ſhekels.
8 But if he be poorer e then thou haſt eſtemed him, thẽ ſhal he preſent him ſelfe before the Prieſt, & the Prieſt ſhal value him, according to the abilitie of him ỹ vowed, ſo ſhal the Prieſt value him.
e If he be not able to pay after thy valuation.
9 And if it be a f beaſt, whereof men bring an offring vnto the Lord, all that one giueth of ſuche vnto the Lord, ſhal be holy.
f Which is cleane, Chap 11,2 10 He ſhal not alter it nor chãge it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beaſt for beaſt, then both this and ỹ, which was chãged for it, ſhalbe g holy.
g That is, conſecrate to the Lord
11 And if it be ane vncleane beaſt, of ẅ mẽ do not offer a ſacrifice vnto ỹ Lord, he ſhal then preſent the beaſt before the Prieſt.
12 And the Prieſt ſhal value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valueſt it, which art the Prieſt, ſo ſhal it be.
13 But if he wil bie it againe, then he ſhal giue the fift parte of it more, aboue thy valuacion.
14 ¶ Alſo whẽ a man ſhal dedicate his houſe to be holy vnto ỹ Lord, thẽ the Prieſt ſhal value it, whether it be good or bad, & as ỹ Prieſt ſhal priſe it, h ſo ſhal the value be.
h Ebr. ſo ſhal it ſtand 15 But if he that ſanctified it, wil redeme his houſe, then he ſhal giue thereto the fift parte of money more then thy eſtimacion, and it ſhalbe his.
16 If alſo a man dedicate to the Lord anie groũde of his inheritance, then ſhalt thou eſteme it according to the h ſede thereof: an i Homer of barlie ſede ſhalbe at fiftie ſhekels of ſiluer.
h valuing the price thereof, according to the ſede that is ſowen, or by, the ſede ỹ it doeth yelde i Homer is a meaſure conteining 10 Ephás: read of Ephá. Exod. 16,16.
17 If he dedicate his field immediately frõ ỹ yere of Iubile, it ſhal be worthe as thou doeſt eſtemeit.
18 But if he dedicate his field after ỹ Iubile, thẽ the Prieſt ſhal rekẽ him the money according to the yeres that remaine vnto the yere of Iubile, and it ſhalbe abated by thy eſtimacion.
19 And if he that dedicateth it, wil redeme the field, then he ſhal put the fift parte of the price, that thou eſtemedſt it at, thereunto, and it ſhal remaine his.
20 And if he wil not redeme the field, but the Prieſt k ſel the field to another man, it ſhalbe redemed nomore.
k For their owne neceſsitie or godlie vſes 21 But the field ſhalbe holie to the Lord, when it goeth out in the Iubile, as a field l ſeparate from commune vſe: the poſſeſſion thereof ſhalbe the Prieſtes.
l That is, ẅ is dedicate to the Lord ẅ a cure to him that doeth turne it to his priuate vſe No. 21,2. deut 15,15. 10ſh 6,17.
22 If a man alſo dedicate vnto the Lord a field which he hathe bought, which is not of the grounde of his inheritance, 23 Thẽ the Prieſt ſhal ſet the price to him,

Verſ 12.

m The Prieſts valuacion.

as*thou eſtemeſt it, vnto the yere of Iubile, and he ſhal giue m thy price the ſame day, as a thing holy vnto the Lord.

24 But in the yere of Iubile, the field ſhal returne vnto him, of whome it was bought: to him, I ſay, whoſe inheritãce ỹ land was.

25 And all thy valuacion ſhalbe according to the ſkekel of * the Sanctuarie: a ſhekel conteineth twenty gerahs.

Exod. 30. 13. nom 3. 47. ezek. 45. 12.

26 ¶*Notwithſtanding the firſt borne of ỹ beaſtes, becauſe it is the Lords firſt borne, none ſhal dedicate ſuche, be it bullocke, or ſhepe: for it is the n Lords.

Exod 13. 2. & 22, 29. nom. 3. 13.

n It was the Lords already 27 But if it be an vncleane beaſt, then he ſhal redeme it by thy valuacion, and giue the fifte parte more thereto: & if it be not redemed, then it ſhal be ſolde, according to thy eſtimacion.

28 *Notwithſtãding, nothing ſeparate frõ the cõmune vſe that a man doeth ſeparate vnto the Lord of all that he hathe (whether it be man or beaſt, or land of his inheritance) may be ſolde nor redemed: for euerie thing ſeperate from the cõmune vſe is moſte holy vnto the Lord.

Leui. 6. 29.

29 Nothing ſeparate from the cõmune vſe, which ſhalbe ſeparate frõ man, ſhal be redemed, but o dye the death.

o It ſhal remaine without redemption.

30 Alſo all the tithe of the land bothe of the ſede of the ground, and of the frute of the trees is the Lords: it is holy to the Lord.

31 But if a man wil redeme ame of his tithe, he ſhal adde the p fifte parte thereto.

p Beſides the value of the thing it ſelfe.

32 And euerie tithe of bullocke, and of ſhepe, and of all that goeth vnder the q rod, the tenth ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord.

q All that ỹ is nombred: that is, euerie tẽth, as he falleth by lot without acception or reſpect 33 He ſhal not loke if it be good or bad, neither ſhal he change it: els if he change it, bothe it, and that it was changed withall, ſhalbe holy, and it ſhal not be redemed.

34 Theſe are the cõmandements which the Lord commãded by Moſes vnto the children of Iſraél in mount Sinái.

THE FOVRTHE BOKE OF Moſes, called* Nombers.

*So called becauſe of the diuerſitie and multitude of nombrings ỹ are here chiefly conteined.

THE ARGVMENT.

For aſmuche as God hathe appointed that his Church in this worlde ſhalbe vnder the croſſe, bothe becauſe they ſhulde learne not to put their truſt in worldely things, and alſo fele his comforte, when all other helpe faileth: he did not ſtraight way bring his people, after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he promiſed them: but led them to and fro for the ſpace of fourtie yeres, and kept them in continual exerciſes before they enioyed it, to trye their faith, and to teache thẽ to forget the worlde and to depend on him. Which tryal did greately profit to diſcerne the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithful and true ſeruants of God, who ſerued him with pure heart, where as the other preferring their carnal affections to Gods glorie, and making religion to ſerue their purpoſe, murmured when they lacked to content their luſtes, and deſpiſed them whome God had appointed rulers ouer them. By reaſon whereof they prouoked Gods terrible iudgements againſt them, and are ſet forthe as a moſte notable example for all ages to beware how they abuſe Gods worde, preferre their owne luſtes to his wil, or deſpiſe his miniſters. Notwithſtanding God is euer true in his promes, and gouerneth his, by his holy Spirit, that ether they fall not to ſuche inconueniences, or els returne to him quickely by true repentance: and therefore he continueth his graces toward them, he giueth them ordinances and inſtructions, aſwel for religion as outward policie: he preſerueth them againſt all craft and conſpiracie, and giueth them maniſolde victories againſt their enemies. And to auoyd all controuerſies that might ariſe, he taketh away the occaſiõs, by diuiding among all the tribes, bothe the land, which they had wonne, & that alſo which he had promiſed, as ſemed beſt to his godlie wiſdome.

CHAP. I.

1 Moſes and Aarón with the twelue princes of the tribes are commanded of the Lord to nomber them that are able to go to warre. 49 The Leuites are exempted for the ſeruice of the Lord.

1 THe Lord ſpake againe vnto Moſes in ỹ wildernes of a Sinái, in the Tabernacle of the Congregaciõ, in the firſt day of ỹ b ſeconde moneth, in the ſeconde yere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, ſaying, a In that place of the wildernes ỹ was nere to mount Sinái.

b Which conteineth part of April, & parte of Maie.

2 *Take ye the ſumme of all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, after their families, and houſholdes of their fathers with the nomber of their names: to wit, all the males, "man by man:

Exod. 30. 12.

"Ebr. by their heades.

3 From twentie yere olde and aboue, all that go forthe to the warre in Iſraél, thou and Aarón ſhal nomber them, throughout their armies.

4 And with you ſhalbe c men of euerie tribe, ſuche as are the heads of the houſe of their fathers.

c That is, the chiefeſt mã of euerie tribe.

5 And theſe are the names of the men that d And aſsist you when ye nõber the people.

that ſhald ſtãd with you, of the tribe of Reubén, Elizúr, the ſonne of Shedeúr:
6 Of Simeón, Shelumiél the ſonne of Zuriſhaddái:
7 Of Iudáh, Nahſhón the ſonne of Amminadáb:
8 Of Iſſachár, Nethaneél, the ſonne of Zuár:
9 Of Zebulún, Eliáb, the ſonne of Helón:
10 Of the children of Ioſéph: of Ephráim, Eliſhamá the ſonne of Ammihúd: of Manaſſéh, Gamliél, the ſonne of Pedahzúr:
11 Of Beniamín, Abidán the ſonne of Gideoní:
12 Of Dan, Ahiézer, the ſonne of Ammiſhaddái:
13 Of Aſhér, Pagiél, the ſonne of Ocrán:
14 Of Gad, Eliaſáph the ſonne of Deuél:
15 Of Naphtalí, Ahirá the ſonne of Enán.
16 Theſe were famous in the Congregacion, e princes of the tribes of their fathers, & heades ouer thouſands in Iſraél.

e Or captaines, & gouernors.

17 ¶ Thé Moſés and Aarón toke theſe men which are expreſſed by their names.
18 And they called all the Congregacion together, in the firſt day of the ſecõde moneth, who declared f their kinreds by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, man by man.

f In ſhewing euerie mã his tribe, & his ancetors

19 As the Lord had commanded Moſés, ſo he nombred them in the wildernes of Sinái.
20 So were the ſonnes of ‖ Reubén Iſraels eldeſt ſonne by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, man by man, euerie male from twẽtie yere olde and aboue, as many as g went forthe to warre:

‖ Theſe are ỹ names of the twelue tribes, as firſt of Reuben

g Or, as were able to beare weapon

21 The nomber of them, I ſay, of the tribe of Reubén, was ſix & fourtie thouſand, & fiue hundreth.

‖ Simeón.

22 Of the ſonnes of ‖ Simeón by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, the ſumme thereof by the nomber of their names, man by mã, euerie male from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to warie:
23 The ſumme of them, I ſay, of the tribe of Simeón was nine and fiftie thouſand, & thre hundreth.

‖ Gad

24 ¶ Of the ſonnes of ‖ Gad by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to warre:
25 The nomber of them, I ſay, of the tribe of Gad was fiue and fourtie thouſand, and ſix hundreth and fiftie.

‖ Iudáh.

26 ¶ Of the ſonnes of Iudáh by their generacios, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to warre:
27 The nomber of them, I ſay, of the tribe of Iudáh was threſcore & fourtene thouſand, and ſix hundreth.

‖ Iſſachár

28 ¶ Of the ſonnes ‖ of Iſſachár by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde & aboue, all that wẽt forthe to warre:
29 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Iſſachár was foure and fiftie thouſand and foure hundreth.

‖ Zebulún

30 ¶ Of the ſonnes of ‖ Zebulún, by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to waire:
31 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Zebulún was ſeuen and fiftie thouſand & foure hundreth.

‖ Ephráim

32 ¶ Of the ſonnes of Ioſéph, namely of the ſonnes of ‖ Ephráim by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde & aboue, all that went forthe to warre:
33 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Ephráim was fourtie thouſand and fiue hundreth.

‖ Manaſſéh

34 ¶ Of the ſonnes of ‖ Manaſſéh by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to warre:
35 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Manaſſéh was two & thirtie thouſand and two hundreth.

‖ Beniamín.

36 Of the ſonnes of ‖ Beniamín by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nõber of their names, frõ twentie yere olde & aboue, all that wẽt forthe to waire:
37 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Beniamín was fiue and thirtie thouſand and foure hundreth.

‖ Dan.

38 Of the ſonnes of ‖ Dan by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde & aboue, all that went forthe to warre:
39 The nombér of them alſo of the tribe of Dan was threſcore and two thouſand and ſeuen hundreth.

‖ Aſhér.

40 ¶ Of the ſonnes of ‖ Aſhér by their generacios, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, according to the nõber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went forthe to warre:

41 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Aſhér was one and fourtie thouſand and fiue hundreth.

¶Naphtali 42 ¶Of the childrē of ¶Naphtalí, by their generacions, by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers "according to the nomber of their names, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that went to the warre.

43 The nomber of them alſo of the tribe of Naphtalí, was thre and fiftie thouſand, & foure hundreth.

Or, ſul counte 44 Theſe are the "ſummes which Moſés, & Aarón nombred, and the Princes of Iſraél: the twelue men, which were euerie one for the houſe of their fathers.

45 So this was all the ſumme of the ſonnes of Iſraél, by the houſes of their fathers, from twentie yere olde and aboue, all that wēt to the warre in Iſraél, 46 And all they were in nōber ſix hūdreth & thre thouſand, fiue hundreth and fiftie.

47 But the Leuites, after the tribes of their fathers were not nombred among g them.

g Which were warriers, but were appoited to the vſe of § Tabernacle.

48 For the Lord had ſpoken vnto Moſés, and ſaid,

49 Onely thou ſhalt not nomber the tribe of Leuí, nether take the ſumme of them among the children of Iſraél:

50 But thou ſhalt appoint the Leuites ouer the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie, and ouer all the inſtruments thereof, and ouer all things that belong to it: they ſhal beare the Tabernacle, and all the inſtruments thereof, and ſhal miniſter in it, and ſhal "dwel round about the Tabernacle.

"Or, the campe

THE FIGVRE OF THE TABERNACLE ERECTED, AND OF THE TENTES PITCHED ROVNDE ABOVT IT.

A B The lēgth of the court, of an hundreth cubites on the Southe ſide, which in this figure is called midi. in the § ſpace were twētie pillers of fiue cubites high, to § were tied § curtaines, to ſhut and cloſe vp § court: § North ſide called Septentrion was all alike.

C D The Weſtſide called Occident, was fiftie cubites broad, wherein were ten pillers of like height with the other, whereunto were faſtened the curtaines to cloſe that ſide The Eaſtſide alſo called Orient was fiftie cubites broad A B

Thus the court was fiftie cubites longer then it was broad Thei entred into the court on § Eaſtſide and before the gate was an hanging of twentie cubites long. F G faſtened on foure pillers, and on the ſides thereof to make it cloſe, were curtaines of fiftene cubites long, E F & G H, which on euerie ſide were faſtened on thre pillers, as this figure ſufficiētly declareth.

51 And

51 And when the Tabernacle goeth forthe, the Leuites ſhal take it downe: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Leuites ſhal ſet it vp: for the [h] ſtranger that cometh neie, ſhal be ſlaine.

52 Alſo the children of Iſraél ſhal pitch their tents, euerie man in his campe, and euerie man vnder his ſtãderd throughout their armies.

53 But the Leuites ſhal pitch round about the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie, leſt vengeance [i] come vpon the Congregacion of the children of Iſiaél, & the Leuites ſhal take the charge of the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie.

54 So the children of Iſraél did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moſés: ſo did thei.

h Whoſoeuer is not of the tribe of Leui i By not hauing due regard to ỹ Tabernacle of the Lord.

CHAP. II.

The ordre of the tents, and the names of the captaines of the Iſraelites.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, & to Aarón, ſaying,

2 [a] Euerie man of the childrẽ of Iſraél ſhal campe by his ſtanderd, and vnder the enſigne of their fathers houſe: farre of about the Tabernacle of the Congregaciõ ſhal thei pitch.

3 On the Eaſtſide towarde the riſing of the ſunne, ſhal thei of the ſtanderd of the hoſte of Iudáh pitch according to their armies: & Nahſhón the ſonne of Amminadáb ſhalbe [o] captaine of the ſonnes of Iudáh.

4 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were ſeuenty and foure thouſand and ſix hundreth.

5 Next vnto him ſhal thei of the tribe [b] of Iſſachár pitch, and Nethaneél the ſonne of Zuár ſhalbe the captaine of the ſonnes of Iſſachár:

6 And his hoſte, and the nomber thereof were foure and fiftie thouſand, and foure hundreth.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulún, and Eliáb the ſonne of Helón, captaine ouer the ſonnes of Zebulún:

8 And his hoſte, and the nomber thereof ſeuen and fiftie thouſand and foure hundreth:

9 The whole nomber of the [c] hoſte of Iudáh are an hundreth foure ſcore and ſix thouſand, & foure hundreth according to their armies: thei ſhal firſt ſet forthe.

10 ¶On the Southſide ſhalbe the ſtãderd of the hoſte [d] of Reubén according to their armies, & the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Reubén ſhalbe Elizúr the ſonne of Shedeúr.

11 And his hoſte, and the nomber thei eof ſix and fourtie thouſand & fiue hundreth.

12 And by him ſhal the tribe of Simeón pitch, and the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Simeón ſhalbe Shelumiél the ſonne of Zuriſhaddái:

13 And his hoſte, and the nomber of them, nine and fiftie thouſand & thre hundreth.

14 And the tribe of Gad, and the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Gad ſhalbe Eliaſáph the ſonne of [o] Deuél:

15 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were fiue and fourtie thouſand, ſix hũdreth and fiftie.

16 All the nomber of the campe of Reubén were an hundreth and one and fiftie thouſand, & foure hundreth and fiftie according to their armies, and thei ſhal ſet forthe in the ſeconde place.

17 ¶Then the Tabernacle of the Congregacion ſhal go with the hoſte of ỹ Leuites, in the [e] middes of the campe as thei haue pitched, ſo ſhal thei go forwarde, euerie man in his ordre according to their ſtanderds.

18 ¶[f] The ſtãderd of the cãpe of Ephráim ſhalbe toward the Weſt accordíg to their armies: and the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Ephráim ſhalbe Eliſhamá the ſonne of Ammihúd:

19 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were fourtie thouſand and fiue hundreth.

20 And by him ſhalbe the tribe of Manaſſéh, and the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Manaſſéh ſhalbe Gamliél the ſonne of Pedahzúr:

21 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were two & thirtie thouſand & two hundreth.

22 And the tribe of Beniamín, & the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Beniamín ſhalbe Abidán the ſonne of Gideoní:

23 And his hoſte, and the nomber of them were fiue and thirtie thouſand and foure hundreth.

24 All the nomber of the campe of Ephráim were an hundreth and eight thouſand and one hundreth according to their armies, and thei ſhal go in the third place.

25 ¶The ſtanderd of the hoſte of [g] Dan ſhalbe toward the North according to their armies: and the captaine ouer the children of Dan ſhalbe Ahiézer the ſonne of Ammiſhaddái:

26 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were two & thre ſcore thouſand and ſeuen hundreth.

27 And by him ſhal ỹ tribe of Aſhér pitch, and the captaine ouer the ſonnes of Aſhér ſhalbe Pagiél the ſonne of Ocrán.

28 And his hoſte and the nomber of them were one and fourtie thouſand and fiue hundreth:

29 ¶Thẽ the tribe of Naphtalí, & the captaine ouer the children of Naphtalí ſhalbe Ahirá the ſonne of Enán:

30 And his hoſte & the nomber of them a In the twelue tribes were foure principal ſtanderds, ſo that euerie thre tribes had their ſtanderd.

o Or, ſpirite.

b Iudáh, Iſſachár & Zebulún the ſones of Leáh were of the firſt ſtãderd.

c Of them ẅ were cõteined vnder that name.

d Reubén and Simeón ỹ ſonnes of Leáh, & Gad the ſonne of Zilpáh her maid, were of the ſeconde ſtanderd.

o Or, Reuil.

e Becauſe it might be in equal diſtance from eche one, and all indifferently haue recours thereunto f Becauſe Ephraim & Manaſſéh ſupplied ỹ place of Ioſéph their father, thei are taken to be Rahels children: ſo thei & Beniamín make the third ſtanderd.

g Dan & Naphtalí the ſonnes of Bilhá Raels maid, with Aſhér the ſonne of Zilpáh make ỹ fourth ſtanderd.

were thre and fiftie thouſand and foure hundreth.

31 All the nomber of the hoſte of Dan was an hundreth and ſeuen and fiftie thouſand and ſix hundreth: thei ſhal go hinmoſte with their ſtanderds.

h Which were of twentie yeres and aboue

32 ¶ Theſe are the h ſummes of the childrē of Iſraél by the houſes of their fathers, all the nomber of the hoſte, according to their armies, ſix hundreth and thre thouſand, fiue hundreth and fiftie.

33 But the Leuites were not nombred amōg the children of Iſraél, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

34 And the children of Iſraél did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moſés: ſo thei pitched according to their i ſtanderds, and ſo thei iourneyed euerie one with his families, according to the houſes of their fatheirs.

i For vnder euerie one of the foure principal ſtāderds were diuers ſignes to kepe euerie bande in ordre.

CHAP. III.

The charge and office of the Leuites. 12 35. Why the Lord ſeparated the Leuites for him ſelf. 16 Their nomber, families and captaines. 40 The firſtborne of Iſraél redemed by the Leuites. 47 The ouerplus redemed by money.

a Or, families & kinreds

1 THeſe alſo were the a generacions of Aarón & Moſés, in the day that the Lord ſpake with Moſés in mount Sinái.

2 So theſe are the names of the ſonnes of Aarón, * Nadáb the firſtborne, & Abihú, Eleazár, and Ithamár.

Exod 6,23.

3 Theſe are the names of the ſonnes of Aarón the anointed Prieſts, whome Moſes did * conſeciate to miniſter in the Prieſts office.

Exod.27,3.

Leui 10,1. chap 26,61. 1.chro 24,2 b Or, before the Altar.

Leui.9,24

4 * And Nadáb and Abihú dyed b before the Lord, when thei offred * ſtrange fire before the Lord in the wildernes of Sinái, and had no children: but Eleazár and Ithamár ſerued in the Prieſts office in the c Whiles their father lined c ſight of Aarón their father.

5 Thē the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying, d Offer them vnto Aarón for the vſe of the Tabernacle.

6 Bring the tribe of Leuí, and d ſet them before Aarón the Prieſt that thei may ſerue him,

7 And take the charge with him, euen the charge of the whole Congregacion e before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion to do the ſeruice of the Tabernacle.

e Which apperteined to ỹ executig of ỹ hie Prieſts cōmandement, to the ouer ſight of the people, & to the ſeruice of the Tabernacle.

8 Thei ſhal alſo kepe all the inſtrumēts of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & haue the charge of the children of Iſraél to do the ſeruice of the Tabernacle.

f Aarons ſonnes the Prieſts ſerued in the Sanctuarie in praying for ỹ people & offring ſacrifice: ỹ Leuites ſerued for the inferior vſes of the ſame

9 And thou ſhalt giue the Leuites vnto Aarón & to his f ſonnes: for thei are giuen him frely from among the children of Iſraél.

10 And thou ſhalt appoint Aarón and his ſonnes to execute their Prieſts office: and the g ſtranger that commeth nere, ſhal be ſlaine.

g Anie that wolde miniſter, not being a Leuite.

11 ¶ Alſo the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

12 Beholde, I haue euē taken ỹ Leuites frō among the children of Iſraél for all the firſtborne, that openeth the matrice amōg the children of Iſraél, & the Leuites ſhalbe mine, 13 Becauſe all the firſtborne are mine: for the ſame day, that I ſmote all the firſtborne in the land of Egypt, * I ſanctified vnto me all the firſtborne in Iſraél, bothe man and beaſt: mine thei ſhalbe: I am the Lord.

Exod 13,1. & 34,19. leus 27,26. chap 8,16. luk,2,23.

14 ¶ Moreouer the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes in the wildernes of Sinái, ſaying, 15 Nomber the children of Leuí after the houſes of their fathers, in their families: euerie male from a moneth olde & aboue ſhalt thou nomber.

16 * Then Moſés nombred them according to the worde of the Lord, as he was commanded.

Exod.6,17. chap 26,57. 1 chro.6,12. & 23,6.

17 And theſe were the ſonnes of Leuí by their names, * Gerſhón, and Kohát, and Merarí.

Gen 46,11.

18 Alſo theſe are the names of the ſonnes of Gerſhón by their families: Libní and Shimeí.

19 The ſonnes alſo of Kohát by their families: Amrám, and Izehár, Hebrón, and Vzziél.

20 And the ſonnes of Merarí by their families: Mahlí and Muſhí. Theſe are the families of Leuí, according to the houſes of their fathers.

21 Of Gerſhón came the familie of the Libnites & the familie of the Shimeites: theſe are the families of the Gerſhonites.

22 The ſumme whereof (h after the nōber of all the males from a moneth olde and aboue) was counted ſeuen thouſand and fiue hundreth.

h Onelie nōbring the male children.

23 ¶ The families of the Gerſhonites ſhal pitch behinde ỹ Tabernacle Weſtwarde.

24 The captaine and k ancient of the houſe of the Gerſhonites ſhalbe Eliaſáph the ſonne of Laél.

k Or, father.

25 And the charge of the ſonnes of Gerſhón in the Tabernacle of the Congregacio ſhalbe the l Tabernacle, & the pauilion, the couering thereof, & the vaile of the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, l Their charge was to carry ỹ couerigs & hangings of ỹ Tabernacle.

26 And the hanging of the courte, & the vaile of the dore of the courte, which is nere the Tabernacle, and nere the Altar round about, and the cordes of it for all the ſeruice thereof.

27 ¶ And of Kohát came the familie of the Amramites, & the familie of the Izharites, and the familie of the Hebronites, and the familie of the Vzzielites: theſe are the families of the Kohathites.

28 The nomber of all the males from a moneth olde & aboue was eight thouſand

and

and ſix hundreth, hauing the [k] charge of ỹ Sanctuarie.

29 The families of the ſonnes of Kohath ſhal pitch on the Southſide of the Tabernacle.

30 The captaine and ancient of the houſe, and families of the Kohathites ſhalbe Elizaphán the ſonne of Vzziél:

31 And their charge ſhalbe the [l] Arke, and the table, and the candelſticke, and the altars, and the inſtruments of the Sanctuarie that they miniſter with, and the vaile, and all that ſerueth thereto.

32 And Eleazár the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt ſhalbe [o] chief captaine of the Leuites, hauing the ouerſight of them that haue the charge of the Sanctuarie.

33 ¶ Of Merarí came the familie of the Mahlites, and the familie of the Muſhites: theſe are the families of Merarí.

34 And the ſumme of them, according to the nóber of all the males, from a moneth olde and aboue was ſix thouſand and two hundreth.

35 The captaine and the anciẽt of the houſe of the families of Merarí ſhalbe Zuriél the ſonne of Abihaíl: thei ſhal pitch on the Northſide of the Tabernacle.

36 And in the charge & cuſtodie of the ſonnes of Merarí ſhalbe [m] the boardes of the Tabernacle, and the barres thereof, & his pillers, & his ſockets, & all the inſtrumẽts thereof, and all that ſerueth thereto, 37 With the pillers of the court round about, with their ſockets, and their pins & their cordes.

38 ¶ Alſo on the foreſront of the Tabernacle toward the Eaſt, before the Tabernacle, I ſay, of the Cõgregacion Eaſtwarde ſhal Moſés and Aarón and his ſonnes pitch, hauing the charge of the Sanctuarie, [n] and the charge of the children of Iſraél: but the ſtranger that commeth nere, ſhalbe ſlaine.

39 The whole ſumme of the Leuites, ẅ Moſés & Aarón nombred at the commandement of the Lord throughout their families, euen all the males from a moneth olde & aboue, was two and twentie [o] thouſand.

40 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Nomber all the firſt borne that are males amõg the children of Iſraél, from a moneth olde and aboue, and take the nomber of their names.

41 And thou ſhalt take the Leuites to me [p] for all the firſt borne of the childrẽ of Iſraél (I am the Lord) and the cattel of the Leuites for all the firſt borne of the cattel of the children of Iſraél.

42 And Moſés nombred, as the Lord commãded him, all the firſt borne of the children of Iſraél.

43 And all ỹ firſt borne males rehearſed by name (from a moneth olde and aboue, according to their nõber were two & twẽtie thouſand, two hundreth ſeuentie & three.

44 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayĩg,

45 Take the Leuites for all the firſt borne of the children of Iſraél, and the cattel of the Leuites for their cattel, & the Leuites ſhalbe mine, (I am the Lord)

46 And for the redeming of the two hundreth ſeuentie and three, which are mo thẽ the Leuites of the firſt borne of the children of Iſraél)

47 Thou ſhalt alſo take fiue ſhekels for euerie perſone: after the weight of the Sãctuarie ſhalt thou take it: * the ſhekẽl conteineth twentie gerahs.

48 And ỹ ſhalt giue the money, wherewith the odde nomber of them is redemed, vnto Aarón and to his ſonnes.

49 Thus Moſés toke the redempcion of them that were redemed, being mo then the Leuites:

50 Of the [q] firſtborne of the children of Iſraél toke he the money: euen a thouſand three hundreth three ſcore and fiue ſhekels after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie.

51 And Moſés gaue the money of thẽ that were redemed, vnto Aarón & to his ſõnes according to the worde of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

CHAP. IIII.

[s] The offices of the Leuites, when the hoſte remoued 46 The nõber of the thre families of Kohath, Gerſhón, and Merari.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, and to Aarón, ſaying,

2 Take the ſumme of the ſonnes of Kohath frõ among the ſonnes of Leuí, after their families, & houſes of their fathers,

3 Frõ [a] thirtie yere olde & aboue euen vntil fiftie yere olde, all that entre into the aſſemblie to do the worke in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

4 This ſhalbe the office of the ſonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion about the Holieſt of all.

5 ¶ When the hoſte remoueth, then Aarón & his ſõnes ſhal come & take downe [b] the couering vaile, & ſhal couer the Arke of the Teſtimonie therewith.

6 And they ſhal put thereon a couering of badgers ſkins, and ſhal ſpread vpon it a cloth altogether of blewe ſilke, and put to [c] the barres thereof:

7 And vpon the * table of ſhewe bread they ſhal ſpread a cloth of blewe ſilke, and put thereon the diſhes, & ỹ incens cups, & goblets, & couerings to couer it [d] with, & the bread ſhalbe thereon continually:

8 And they ſhal ſpread vpon them a couering of ſkarlet, and couer the ſame with a couering of badgers ſkins, and put to, the barres thereof.

k Doing euerie one his ducrie in the Sanctuarie

l The chief things within the Sanctuarie were committed to the Kohathites o Or, prince of princes.

m The woodworke & ỹ reſt of the inſtruments were cõmitted to their charge.

n That none ſhulde entre into the Tabernacle contrarie to Gods appointemẽt

o So that ỹ firſt borne of the children of Iſraél were mo by 273

p So that now the Leuites ſhulde ſatiſfie vnto the Lord for the firſt borne of Iſraél, ſaue for the 273, which were mo then the Leuites, for whome they payed money.

q Of the two hundreth ſeuẽtie & thre, ẅ were more thẽ the Leuites.

s The offices of the Leuites.

a The Leuites were nombred after three ſorts: firſt at a moneth olde whẽ thei were conſecrate to the Lord, next at 25 yere olde whẽ they were apoĩted to ſerue in ỹ Tabernacle, & at 30 yere olde to beare the burthẽs of the Tabernacle

b Which deuided the Sanctuarie from ỹ Holieſt of all.

c That is, put thẽ vpon their ſhulders to carrie it for the barres of the Arke colde neuer be remoued, Exod 25. 15

Exod 25. 30.

d Meaning to couer ỹ bread.

Exod 30. 13. leu 27. 25 chap 18. 16 ezek. 45. 12.

9 Then they ſhal take a cloth of blewe ſilke, and couer the * candelſticke of light with his lampes and his ſnoffers,* and his ſnoffediſhes, and all the oyle veſſels thereof, which they occupie about it.
Exod 25,14. Exod. 25,38.

10 So they ſhal put it, and all the inſtrumẽts thereof in a couering of badgers ſkins, and put it vpon the [e] barres.
e The Ebrewe worde ſignifieth an inſtrument made of two ſtaues or barres 11 Alſo vpon the golden [f] altar they ſhal ſpreade a cloth of blewe ſilke, and couer it with a couering of badgers ſkins, & put to the barres thereof.

f Which was to burne incẽſe read Exod 30,1.

12 And they ſhal take all the inſtruments of the miniſterie wherewith they miniſter in the Sanctuarie, and put them in a cloth of blewe ſilke, and couer them with a couering of badgers ſkins, & put them on the barres.

13 Alſo they ſhal take away the aſhes from the [g] altar, & ſpread a purple cloth vpõ it, g Of the burnt offring.

14 And ſhal put vpon it all the inſtruments thereof, which they occupie about it: the cenſers, the fleſhhokes & the beſomes, and the baſens, euen all the inſtruments of the altar: & they ſhal ſpread vpõ it a couering of badgers ſkins, & put to the barres of it.

15 And whẽ Aarón & his ſonnes haue made an end of couering the [h] Sanctuarie, and all the inſtruments of the Sanctuarie, at the remouing of the hoſte, afterwarde the ſonnes of Kohath ſhal come to beare it, but they ſhal not [i] touche anie holy thing leſt thei dye. This is the charge of the ſonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
h That is, in folding vp the things of the Sanctuarie, as the Arke, &c.
i Before it be couered

16 ¶And to the office of Eleazár the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt perteineth the oyle for the light, and the * ſwete incens and the [k] dailie meat offring, and the * anointing oyle, with the ouerſight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sãctuarie & in all the inſtrumẽts thereof.
Exod 30, 34. k Which was offred at morning and euening. Exod. 30,23.

17 ¶And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés and to Aarón, ſaying,

18 Ye ſhal not [l] cut of the tribe of ỹ families of ỹ Kohathites from among ỹ Leuites:
l Committing by your negligence that the holy things be not wel wrapped, and ſo they by touching thereof periſh.

19 But thus do vnto them, that they may liue & not dye, when they come nere to the moſte holy things: let Aarón and his ſonnes come and appoint [m] them, euerie one to his office, and to his charge.
m Shewing what part euerie man ſhal beare.

20 But let them not go in, to ſe when the Sanctuarie is folden vp, leſt they dye.

21 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

22 Take alſo the ſumme of the ſonnes of Gerſhón, euerie one by ỹ houſes of their fathers throughout their families:

23 From thirtie yere olde and aboue, vntil fiftie yere olde ſhalt thou nõbre them, all that [n] entre into ỹ aſſemblie for to do ſeruice in ỹ Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacion.
n Which were receiued into the compaanie of them that miniſtred in the Tabernacle of the Congregaciõ.

24 This ſhalbe the ſeruice of the families of the Gerſhonites, to ſerue and to beare.

25 They ſhal beare ỹ curtaines of the Tabernacle, & the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion, his couering, and the couering of badgers ſkins, that is on hie vpon it, and ỹ vaile of the [o] dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion:
o Which vaile hãged betwene ỹ Sãctuarie and the court.

26 The curtaines alſo of the court, and the vaile of the entring in of the gate of the court, [p] which is nere the Tabernacle & nere the altar round about, with their cordes, and all the inſtrumentes for their ſeruice, and all that is made for them: ſo ſhal they ſerue.
p Which court cõpaſſed bothe the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion & ỹ altar of burnt offring.

27 At the commandement of Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal all the ſeruice of the ſonnes of ỹ Gerſhonites be done, in all their charges and in all their ſeruice, & ye ſhal appoint them to kepe all their charges.

28 This is the ſeruice of the families of ỹ ſonnes of the Gerſhonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & their watch ſhalbe vnder the [q] hand of Ithamár the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt.
q Vnder the charge and ouerſight.

29 ¶Thou ſhalt nomber the ſonnes of Merarí by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers:

30 From thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde ſhalt thou nõber them, all that entre into the aſſemblie, to do the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion.

31 And this is their office & charge according to all their ſeruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: the * boardes of the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillers, and his ſockets.
Exod.26,15.

32 And the pillers round about the court, with their ſockets and their pins, and their cordes, w̃ all their inſtrumentes, euen for all their ſeruice, & by [r] name ye ſhal rekẽ the inſtruments of their office & charge.
r Ye ſhal make an inuentorie of all the things, w̃ ye cõmit to their charge.

33 This is the ſeruice of the families of the ſonnes of Merarí, according to all their ſeruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregaciõ vnder the hãd of Ithamár the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt.

34 ¶Then Moſés and Aarón and the princes of the Congregacion nombred the ſonnes of ỹ Kohathites, by their families and by the houſes of their fathers, 35 Frõ thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde, all that entre into the aſſemblie for the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

36 So the [s] nombers of them throughout their families were two thouſand, ſeuen hundreth and fiftie.
s Ebr. The nombred of them.

37 Theſe are the nombers of the families of the Kohathites, all that ſerue in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, which Moſés and Aarón did nomber according to the commandemẽt of the Lord by the [t] hand of Moſés.
t God appointing Moſés to be ỹ miniſter & executer thereof.

38 Alſo

38 Alſo the nombers of the ſonnes of Gerſhón throughout their families and houſes of their fathers, 39 From thirtie yere olde and vpward, euen vnto fiftie yere olde: all that entre into the aſſemblie for the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
40 So the nombers of them by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers were two thouſand ſix hũdreth & thirtie.
41 Theſe are the nõbers of ỹ families of ỹ ſõnes of Gerſhón: of all that [z] did ſeruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, whome Moſés & Aarón did nõber according to the commandement of the Lord.
42 ¶ The nóbers alſo of the families of the ſonnes of Merari by their families, & by the houſes of their fathers, 43 Frõ thirtie yere olde & vpward, euẽ vnto fiftie yere olde: all that entre into ỹ aſſemblie for the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
44 So the nombers of them by their families were thre thouſand, & two hundreth.
45 Theſe are ỹ ſummes of ỹ families of the ſonnes of Merari, whome Moſés & Aarón nõbred according to the commandemẽt of the Lord, by the hand of Moſés.
46 So all the nombers of the Leuites, which Moſés, & Aarón, & the princes of Iſraél nombred, by their families & by the houſes of their fathers, 47 Frõ thirtie yere olde & vpward, euen to fiftie yere olde, euerie one that came to do [u] his duetie, office, ſeruice and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
48 So the nombers of them were eight thouſand fiue hundreth and foure ſcore.
49 According to the "cõmandement of ỹ Lord by ỹ hãd of Moſés did Aarón nõber thẽ, euerie one according to his ſeruice, & according to his charge. Thus were thei of that tribe nõbred, as the Lord commãded [x] Moſés.

CHAP. V.

The Leprous & the polluted ſhalbe caſt forthe 6 The purging of ſinne 15 The tryal of the ſuſpect wife.

1 AND ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayīg,
2 Commande the children of Iſraél ỹ they *put out of the hoſte euerie leper, and euerie one ỹ hathe * an iſſue, & whoſoeuer is defiled by * the dead.
3 Bothe male and female ſhal ye put out: [o] out of ỹ hoſte ſhal ye put thẽ, that they defile not their [a] tẽtes amõg whome I dwel.
4 And the children of Iſraél did ſo, and put thẽ out of ỹ hoſte, euen as ỹ Lord had cõmanded Moſés, ſo did ỹ childrẽ of Iſraél.
5 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
6 Speake vnto the childrẽ of Iſraél, *Whẽ a man or woman ſhal commit anie ſinne [b] that men commit, and trãſgreſſe againſt the Lord, when that perſone ſhal treſpas,
7 Then they ſhal cõfeſſe their ſinne which thei haue done, and ſhal reſtore the dommage thereof * with his principal, and put the fift parte of it more thereto, and ſhal giue it vnto him, againſt whome he hathe treſpaſſed.
8 But if the [c] man haue no kinſman, to whome he ſhulde reſtore the dommage, the dommage ſhalbe reſtored to the Lord for the Priests vſe, beſides the ram of the atonement, whereby he ſhal make atonement for him.
9 And euerie offring of all the [d] holy things of the childrẽ of Iſraél, which they bring vnto the Prieſt, ſhalbe *his.
10 And euerie mans halowed things ſhal be his: that is, whatſoeuer anie man giueth the Prieſt, it ſhalbe his.
11 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
12 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, If anie mãs [e] wife turne to euil, and commit a treſpas againſt him,
13 So that another man lie with her fleſhly, and it be hid frõ the eies of her houſbãd, and kept cloſe, and yet ſhe be defiled, and there be no witnes againſt her, nether ſhe taken with the maner,
14 "If he be moued with a ielous minde, ſo that he is ielous ouer his wife, which is defiled, or if he haue a ielous minde, ſo that he is ielous ouer his wife, which is not defiled,
15 Then ſhal the man bring his wife to the Prieſt, and bring her offring with her, the tenth parte of an Epháh of barly meale, but he ſhal not powre [f] oyle vpon it, nor put incens thereon: for it is an offring of ielouſie, an offring for a remembrãce, calling the ſinne to [g] minde:
16 And the Prieſt ſhal bring her, & ſet her before the Lord.
17 Then the Prieſt ſhal take [h] the holy water in an earthẽ veſſel, and of the duſt that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, euen the Prieſt ſhal take it and put it into the water.
18 After, the Prieſt ſhal ſet the woman before the Lord, and vncouer the womans hẽad, and put the offring of the memorial in her hands: it is the ielouſie offring, and the Prieſt ſhal haue bitter and [i] curſed water in his hand, 19 And the Prieſt ſhal charge her by an othe, and ſay vnto the woman, If no man haue lien with thee, nether thou haſt turned to vncleannes from thine houſband, be free from this bitter and curſed water.
20 But if thou haſt turned from thine houſband, and ſo art defiled, and ſome man hathe lien with thee beſide thine houſband, 21 (Then the Prieſt ſhal charge the womã with an othe of curſing, and the Prieſt ſhal ſay vnto the woman) The Lord make thee to be [k] accurſed, and deteſtable for z Which were of competent age to ſerue therein, that is, betwene 30. and 50.

u Whoſoeuer of the Leuites that had any maner of charge in the Tabernacle
" Eyther According to the mouthe, or worde x So that Moſés nether added nor diminiſhed from that which ỹ Lord commanded him.
Leuit. 13, 3. Leu 15, 2. Leu 21, 1.
o Or, in a place out of the hoſte a There were thre maner tẽtes, of ỹ Lord, of ỹ Leuites, & of the Iſraelites Leu 6, 3.
b Cõmit anie faure willigly.
c If he be dead, to whome the wrong is done, and alſo haue no kinſman.
d Or, things offred to the Lord, as firſtfrutes, &c Leu 10, 12.
e By breaking the band of mariage, and playing the harlot
" Eyther If the ſpirit of ielouſie come vpon him.
f Onely in the ſinne offring, & this offring of ielouſie were nether oyle nor incenſe offred.
g Or making the ſinne known, and not purging it h Which alſo is called the water of purification or ſprinkeling. read Chap 19, 9.
i It was ſo called by the effect, becauſe it declared the woman to be accurſed and turned to her deſtructiõ.
k Bothe becauſe ſhe had committed ſo hainous a faut, and forſware her ſelfe in denying the ſame.

the othe amõg thy people, & ỹ Lord cauſe thy thigh to *rott, and thy belly to ſwel:
22 And that this curſed water maie go into thy bowels, to cauſe thy belly to ſwel, and thy thigh to rott. Thẽ the woman ſhal anſwer, [l] Amen, Amen.
23 After, the Prieſt ſhal write theſe curſes in a boke, and ſhal [m] blot them out with the bitter water, 24 And ſhal cauſe the woman to drinke the bitter and curſed water, and the curſed water, turned into bitternes, ſhal entre into her.
25 Thẽ the Prieſt ſhal take the ielouſie offring out of the womans hand, & ſhal ſhake the offring before the Lord, and offer it vpon the altar.
26 And the Prieſt ſhal take an handful of the offring for a *memorial thereof, and burne it vpon the [n] altar, and afterward make ỹ woman drinke the water.
27 When he hathe made her drinke the water, (if ſhe be defiled and haue treſpaſſed againſt her houſbãd,) then ſhal the curſed water, turned into bitternes, entre into her, and her belly ſhal ſwel, and her thigh ſhal rott, & the woman ſhalbe accurſed amõg her people, 28 But if the woman be not defiled, but be *cleane, ſhe ſhal be fre and ſhal cõceiue & beare.
29 This is the lawe of ielouſie, when a wife turneth frõ her houſband & is defiled, 30 Or when a man is moued with a ielous minde being ielous ouer his wife, then ſhal he bring the woman before ỹ Lord, and the Prieſt ſhal do to her according to all this lawe, 31 And the man ſhalbe [o] fre from ſinne, but this woman ſhal beare her iniquitie.

CHAP. VI.

The lawe of the conſecracio of the Nazarites. 24 The maner to bleſſe the people.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, When a man or a woman doeth ſeparate thẽ ſelues to vowe a vowe of a [a] Nazarite to ſeparate him ſelfe vnto the Lord,
3 He ſhal abſteine frõ wine & ſtrõg drinke, and ſhal drinke no ſowre wine nor ſowre drinke, nor ſhal drinke anie licour of grapes, nether ſhal eat freſh grapes nor dried.
4 As long as his abſtinence endureth, ſhal he eat nothing ỹ is made of the wine of ỹ vine, nether the kernels, nor the huſke.
5 While he is ſeparate by his vowe, the *rasure ſhal not come vpõ his head, vntil the dayes be out, in the which he ſeparateth him ſelfe vnto the Lord, he ſhalbe holie, and ſhal let the lockes of the heere of his head growe.
6 During the time that he ſeparateth him ſelfe vnto the Lord, he ſhal come at no [b] dead body:
7 He ſhal not make him ſelfe vncleane at the death of his father, or mother, brother, or ſiſter: for the conſecracion of his God is vpon [c] his head.
8 All the dayes of his ſeparacion he ſhalbe holy to the Lord.
9 And if anie dye ſodẽly by him, or he beware, then the [d] head of his conſecracion ſhalbe defiled, and he ſhal ſhaue his head in the day of his clenſing: in the ſeuenth day he ſhal ſhaue it.
10 And in the eight day he ſhal bring two turtles, or two yong pigeõs to the Prieſt, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cõgregacion.
11 Then the Prieſt ſhal prepare the one for a ſin offring, and the other for a burnt offring, & ſhal make an atonemẽt for him, becauſe he ſinned by [e] the dead: ſo ſhal he halowe his head the ſame day, 12 And he ſhal [f] conſecrate vnto the Lord the daies of his ſeparacion, and ſhal bring a lambe of a yere olde for a treſpas offrig, and the firſt [g] daies ſhalbe voyde: for his conſecracion was defiled.
13 ¶ This then is the lawe of the Nazarite: When the time of his conſecracion is out, he ſhal come to the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion,
14 And he ſhal bring his offring vnto the Lord, an he lambe of a yere olde without blemiſh for a burnt offring, and a ſhe lãbe of a yere olde without blemiſh for a ſin offring, and a ram without blemiſh for peace offrings, 15 And a baſket of vnleauened bread, of *cakes of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread anoĩted with oyle, with their meat offring, and their drinke offrings:
16 The which the Prieſt ſhal bring before the Lord, and make his ſin offring and his burnt offring.
17 He ſhal prepare alſo the ram for a peace offring vnto the Lord, with the baſket of vnleauened bread, and the Prieſt ſhal make his meat offring, and his drinke offring.
18 And *ỹ Nazarite ſhal ſhaue the head [h] of his conſecracio at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and ſhal take the heere of the head of his conſecracion, and [i] put it in the fire, which is vnder the peace offring.
19 Then the Prieſt ſhal take the fodẽ ſhulder of the ram, and an vnleauened cake out of the baſket, & a wafer vnleauened, and put them vpon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hathe ſhauẽ his cõſecracio.
20 And the Prieſt ſhal *ſhake them to and f.o

[l] That is, be it ſo, as thou wiſheſt, as pſa 41,14 deu 27, 24
[m] Shal waſh the curſes, ẅ are writen, m to the water in the veſſel.
[n] Where the incẽſe was offred.
[o] The man might accuſe his wife and not be reproued.
[a] Which ſeparated them ſelues from the world, & dedicated them ſelues to God: ẅ figure was accompliſhed in Chriſt.
[b] As at buriales, or mournings.
[c] In that he ſuffred his heere to growe, he ſignified ỹ he was conſecrate to God.
[d] Which lõg heere is a ſigne that he is dedicate to God [e] By being preſent, where the dead was.
[f] Beginning at the eight day, when he is purified
[g] So that he ſhal beginne his vowe anewe.
[h] In token his vowe ended.
[i] For the heere, which was conſeciat to ỹ Lord, might not be caſt into anie prophane place.

*Ebr. in falle.
*Or, perfume.
*Or, innocent.
*Leu. 2, 1ſ.
*Exod. 29, 27.
*Iudg. 13, 5. 1 ſam. 1, 11.
*Act. 21, 24

fio before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Prieſt *besides the ſhaken breaſt, & beſides the heaue ſhulder: ſo afterward the Nazarite may drinke wine.

*Or, with the breaſt

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which he hathe vowed, and of his offring vnto the Lord for his conſecracion, k beſides that that he is able to bring: according to the vowe which he vowed, ſo ſhal he do after the lawe of his conſecracion.

k At the leaſt he ſhal do this, if he be able to offre no more

22 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

23 Speake vnto Aarón and to his ſonnes, ſaying, Thus ſhal ye l bleſſe the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, l That is, pray for them, Eccl 36.19

24 The Lord bleſſe thee, an kepe thee,

25 The Lord make his face ſhine vpō thee, and be merciful vnto thee, 26 The Lord lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

m They ſhal pray in my Name for them

27 So they ſhal put my m Name vpon the children of Iſraél, and I wil bleſſe them.

CHAP. VII.

2 The heades or princes of Iſraél offre at the ſetting vp of the Tabernacle, 10 And at the dedicacion of the altar. 89 God ſpeaketh to Moſes frō the Merciſeat.

1 NOw when Moſés had finiſhed the ſetting vp of the Tabernacle, and * anointed it and ſanctified it, and all the inſtruments thereof, and the altar with all the *inſtrumēts thereof, and had anointed them and ſanctified them,

* Exod 40.18.

*Or, veſſels

2 Then the princes of Iſraél, *heades ouer the houſes of their fathers (they were the princes of the tribes, who were ouer them that were nombred) offred,

*Or, captaines

3 And brought their offring before ỹ Lord, ſix a couered chariets, and twelue oxen: one chariet for two princes, and for euerie one an oxe, and they offred them before the Tabernacle.

a Like horſlitters to kepe the things, ỹ were caryed in them, from wether

4 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

5 Take theſe of them, that they may be to do the b ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and thou ſhalt giue them vnto the Leuites, to euerie man according vnto his office.

b That is, to carie things & ſtuffe in 6 So Moſés toke the chariets and the oxen, and gaue them vnto the Leuites:

7 Two chariets and foure oxen he gaue to the ſonnes of Gerſhón, according vnto their c office.

c For their vſe to cary with 8 And foure chariets and eyght oxen he gaue to ỹ ſonnes of Merari according vnto their office, vnder the hād of Ithamár the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt.

d The holie things of the Sanctuarie muſt be caryed vpō their ſhulders, and not drawen with oxē, Chap 4.15 9 But to the ſonnes of Kohath he gaue none, d becauſe the charge of the Sanctuarie belonged to them, which they did beare vpon their ſhulders.

e That is, whē the firſt ſacrifice was offred therupon by Aarón, Leuit. 9.1

10 ¶ The princes alſo offred in the e dedicacion for the altar in the day that it was anointed: then the princes offred their offring before the altar.

11 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, One prince one day, and another prince another day ſhal offer their offring, for the dedicacion of the altar.

12 ¶ So then on the firſt day did ‖ Nahſhón the ſonne of Amminadáb of the tribe of Iudáh offer his offring.

‖ The offring of Nahſhón.

13 And his offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a * meat offring,

* Leuit. 2.1.

14 An incens cup of golde of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,

15 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,

16 An he goat for a ſin offring,

17 And for peace offrings, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, & fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Nahſhón the ſonne of Amminadáb.

18 ¶ The ſecond day ‖ Nethaneél, the ſonne of Zuár, prince of the tribe of Iſſachár did offer:

‖ The offring of Nethaneél.

19 Who offred for his offring a ſiluer charger of an hūdreth & thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled wt oyle, for a meat offring,

20 An incens cup of golde of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,

21 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,

22 An he goat for a ſin offring,

23 And for peace offrings, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lābes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Nethaneél the ſonne of Zuár.

24 ¶ The third day ‖ Eliáb the ſonne of Helón prince of ỹ childrē of Zebulún offred.

‖ The offring of Eliáb

25 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meat offring,

26 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,

27 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,

28 An he goat for a ſin offring,

29 And for peace offrings, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Eliáb the ſonne of Helón.

30 ¶ The fourth day ‖ Elizúr ỹ ſonne of Shedéur prince of ỹ childrē of Reubén offred.

‖ The offring of Elizúr.

31 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hūdreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meat offring,

32 A goldē incēs cup of tē ſhekels, ful of incēs,

33 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
34 An he goat for a ſin offring,
35 And for a peace offring, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, and fiue lambes of an yere olde: this was the offring of Elizúr the ſonne of Shedeúr.

‖ The offring of Shelumiél. 36 ¶ The fife day ‖ Shelumiél the ſonne of Zuriſhaddái, prince of the children of Simeón offred.
37 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hũdreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sãctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
38 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels ful of incens,
39 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
40 An he goat for a ſin offring,
41 And for a peace offring, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lãbes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Shelumiél the ſonne of Zuriſhaddái.

‖ The offring of Eliaſáph. 42 ¶ The ſixt day ‖ Eliaſáph the ſonne of Deuél prince of the children of Gad offred.
43 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuentie ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
44 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels ful of incens,
45 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde, for a burnt offring,
46 An he goat for a ſin offring,
47 And for a peace offring, two bullocks, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Eliaſáph the ſonne of Deuél.

‖ The offring of Elíſhama. 48 ¶ The ſeuenth day ‖ Elíſhamá the ſonne of Ammiúd prince of the children of Ephráim offred.
49 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hũdreth, & thirtie ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuentie ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meat offring,
50 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,
51 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
52 An he goat for a ſin offring,
53 And for a peace offring, two bullocks, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Elíſhamá, the ſonne of Ammiúd.

‖ The offring of Gamliél. 54 ¶ The eyght day offred ‖ Gamliél the ſonne of Pedazúr, prince of the children of Manaſſéh.
55 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth & thirtie ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuentie ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sãctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
56 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,
57 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
58 An he goat for a ſin offring,
59 And for a peace offring, two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Gamliél the ſonne of Pedazúr.

‖ The offring of Abidán 60 ¶ The ninth day ‖ Abidán the ſonne of Gideoní prince of the children of Beniamín offred.
61 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
62 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,
63 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
64 An he goat for a ſin offring,
65 And for a peace offring two bullocks, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Abidán the ſonne of Gideoní.

‖ The offring of Ahiézer. 66 ¶ The tenth day ‖ Ahiézer the ſonne of Ammiſhaddái, prince of the children of Dan offred.
67 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
68 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels ful of incens,
69 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
70 An he goat for a ſin offring,
71 And for a peace offring, two bullocks, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Ahiézer the ſonne of Ammiſhaddái.

‖ The offring of Pagiél, or Phegiél. 72 ¶ The eleuenth day ‖ Pagiél the ſonne of Ocrán, prince of the childrẽ of Aſhér offred.
73 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth and thirty ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuenty ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sãctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle for a meat offring,
74 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,
75 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde for a burnt offring,
76 An he goat for a ſin offring,
77 And for a peace offring, two bullocks, fiue rams, fiue he goates, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Pagiél the ſonne of Ocrán.

78 ¶ The

‖ The offring of Ahirá.

78 ¶ The twelueth day ‖ Ahirá the ſonne of Enán, prince of the children of Naphtalí offred.

79 His offring was a ſiluer charger of an hundreth & thirtie ſhekels weight, a ſiluer boule of ſeuentie ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, bothe ful of fine floure, mingled with oyle, for a meat offring,

80 A golden incens cup of ten ſhekels, ful of incens,

81 A yong bullocke, a ram, a lambe of a yere olde, for a burnt offring.

82 An he goat for a ſinne offring,

83 And for peace offrings two bullockes, fiue rams, fiue he goats, fiue lambes of a yere olde: this was the offring of Ahirá, the ſonne of Enán.

f This was ỹ offring of the princes, when Aarón did dedicate the Altar.

84 This was the f dedicacion of the Altar by the princes of Iſraél, when it was anointed: twelue chargers of ſiluer, twelue ſiluer boules, twelue incens cups of golde, 85 Euerie charger, conteining an hundreth & thirtie ſhekels of ſiluer, and euerie boule ſeuentie: all the ſiluer veſſel contained two thouſand and foure hundreth ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie.

86 Twelue incens cups of golde ful of incēs, conteining ten ſhekels euerie cup, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie: all the golde of the incens cups was an hundreth and twentie ſhekels.

87 All the bullockes for the burnt offring were twelue bullockes, the rams twelue, the lambes of a yere olde twelue, with their meat offrings, and twelue he goats for a ſinne offring.

88 And all the bullockes for the peace offrings were foure & twentie bullockes, the rams ſixtie, the he goats ſixtie, the lambes of a yere olde ſixtie: this was the dedicacīō of the Altar, after that it was g anointed.

g By Aarón.

h That is, the Sanctuarie

89 And when Moſés wēt into the h Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, to ſpeake with God, he heard the voyce of one ſpeaking vnto him from the Merciſeat, that was vpon the Arke of the Teſtimonie i betwene the two Cherubíms, and he ſpake to him.

i Aecording as he had promiſed, Exod 25,22.

CHAP. VIII.

a The ordre of the lampes 6 The purifying and offring of the Leuites. 24 The age of the Leuites, when thei are receiued to ſeruice, and when thei are dimiſſed.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto Aarón, and ſay vnto him, When thou lighteſt the lampes, the ſeuen lampes ſhal giue light toward the a forefront of the Candelſticke.

a To that parte which is ouer against ỹ Candelſticke, Exod.25,37

3 And Aarón did ſo, lighting the lampes thereof toward the forefront of the Cāndelſticke, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

4 And this was the worke of the Candelſticke, euen of golde beaten out with the hammer, bothe the ſhaft, and the floures thereof * was beatē out with the hammer: according to the paterne, which the Lord had ſhewed Moſés, ſo made he the Candelſticke. Exod 25,18. b And not ſet together of diuers pieces

5 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Iſraél, and purifie them.

7 And thus ſhalt thou do vnto them, when thou purifieſt them, Sprinkle c water of purificacion vpon them, & let them ſhaue all their fleſh, and waſh their clothes: ſo thei ſhalbe cleane. c In Ebrewe, it is called the water of ſinne, becauſe it is made to purge ſinne, as Chap.19,9.

8 Then thei ſhal take a yong bullocke with his meat offring of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke ſhalt thou take for a ſinne offring.

9 Then thou ſhalt bring the Leuites before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and aſſemble d all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél. d That thou maieſt do this in preſence of them all.

10 Thou ſhalt bring the Leuites alſo before the Lord, & the e children of Iſraél ſhal put their hands vpon the Leuites. e Meanīg, certeine of them in the name of the whole.

11 And Aarón ſhal offer the Leuites before the Lord, as a ſhake offring of the childrē of Iſraél, that thei may execute the ſeruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites ſhal put their hands vpon the heades of the bullockes, and make thou the one a ſinne offring, & the other a burnt offring vnto the Lord, that thou maieſt make an atonemēt for the Leuites.

13 And thou ſhalt ſet the Leuites before Aarón and before his ſonnes, and offer them as a ſhake offring to the Lord.

14 Thus thou ſhalt ſeparate the Leuites from among the children of Iſraél, & the Leuites ſhalbe * mine. Chap. 3,45.

15 And afterward ſhal the Leuites go in, to ſerue in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and thou ſhalt purifie them and offer them, as a ſhake offring.

16 For thei are frely giuen * vnto me from among the children of Iſraél, for f ſuche as open anie wombe: for all the firſtborne of the children of Iſraél haue I taken thē vnto me. Chap.3,9. f That is, thei that are ỹ firſt borne 17 * For all the firſtborne of the children of Iſraél are mine, bothe of man and of beaſt: ſincē the day that I ſmote euerie firſtborne in the land of Egypt, I ſanctified them for my ſelf. Exod 13,2. luk.2,20.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the firſtborne of the children of Iſraél, 19 And haue giuen the Leuites as a gift vnto Aarón, and to his ſonnes from among the children of Iſraél, to do the ſeruice of the g children of Iſraél in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and to make g Which ſeruice the Iſraelites ſhulde els do.

an atonement for the children of Iſraél, that there be no plague among the children of Iſraél, when the children of Iſraél come nere vnto [h] the Sanctuarie.

h Becauſe the Leuites go into the Sanctuarie in their name.

20 ¶ Thē Moſés and Aarón & all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord had commanded Moſés concerning thē Leuites: ſo did the children of Iſraél vnto them.

21 So the Leuites were purified, and waſhed their clothes, & Aarón offred thē as a ſhake offring before the Lord, & Aarón made an atonemēt for thē, to purifie thē.

22 And after that, went the Leuites in to do their ſeruice in the Tabernacle of ỹ Cōgregacion, [i] before Aarón & before his ſonnes: as the Lord had commanded Moſés concerning the Leuites, ſo thei did vnto them.

i In their preſence, to ſerue them.

23 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

24 This alſo belongeth to the Leuites: from fiue and twentiē yere olde and vpwarde, thei ſhal go in, to execute their office in the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion.

25 And after the age of fiftie yere, thei ſhal ceaſe from executing the [k] office, and ſhal ſerue no more:

k Suche office as was peineful, as to beare burthens and ſuche like 26 But thei ſhal miniſter [l] with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregacō, to kepe things committed to their charge, but thei ſhal do no ſeruice: thus ſhalt thou do vnto the Leuites touching their charges.

l In ſinging pſalmes, inſtructing, counſeling and keping ỹ things in ordre.

CHAP. IX.

a The Paſſeouer is commanded againe. 9 The puniſhment of him that kepeth not the Paſſeouer. 15 The cloude conducteth the Iſraelites through the wildernes.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés in the wildernes of Sinái, in the firſt moneth of the ſecōde yere, after thei were come out of the land of Egypt, ſaying,

2 The childrē of Iſraél ſhal alſo celebrate the* Paſſeouer at the time appointed thereunto.

Exod 12,1. leui.23,5. numb.28,16. deut 16,1. Exod.12,6. deut.16,6.

3 In the fourteth day of this moneth at* euē, ye ſhal kepe it in his due ſeaſon: according to [a] all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof ſhal ye kepe it.

a Euen in all pointes as the Lord hathe inſtitute it.

4 Then Moſés ſpake vnto the children of Iſraél, to celebrate the Paſſeouer.

5 And thei kept the Paſſeouer in the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth at euen in ỹ wildernes of Sinái: according to all that the Lord had commanded Moſés, ſo did the childrē of Iſraél.

6 ¶ And certeine men were defiled [b] by a deadman, that thei might not kepe the Paſſeouer the ſame day: and thei came before Moſés and before Aarón the ſame day.

b By touching a corps, or being at the buriall.

7 And thoſe men ſaid vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe that we may not [c] offer an offring vnto the Lord in the time thereunto appointed among the children of Iſraél?

c Or celebrate the Paſſeouer the fourteneth day of the firſt moneth.

8 Then Moſés ſaid vnto them, Stand ſtil, and I wil heare what the Lord wil cōmande concerning you.

9 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay, If anie among you, or of your poſteritie ſhalbe vncleane by the reaſon of a corps, or be in a long iourney, [d] he ſhal kepe the Paſſeouer vnto the Lord.

d And can not come where ỹ Tabernacle is, when others kepe it 11 In the fourteth day of the [e] ſeconde moneth at euen thei ſhal kepe it: with vnleauened bread and ſowre herbes ſhal thei eat it.

e So that the vncleane, and thei that are not at home, haue a moneth longer grāted vnto them

12 They ſhal leaue none of it vnto the morning,* nor breake anie bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Paſſeouer ſhal thei kepe it.

Exod 12,46. iohn 19,36.

13 But the man that is cleane and is not in a [f] iourney, and is negligent to kepe the Paſſeouer, the ſame perſone ſhalbe cut of from his people: becauſe he broght not the offring of the Lord in his due ſeaſon, that man ſhal beare his [g] ſinne.

f When ỹ Paſſeouer is celebrate g Or, puniſhment of his ſinne.

14 And if a ſtranger dwel among you, and wil kepe the Paſſeouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Paſſeouer, & as the maner thereof is, ſo ſhal he do: *ye ſhal haue one lawe bothe for the ſtranger, & for him that was borne in the ſame land.

Exod.12,49.

15 ¶ *And whē the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie; & at euen there was vpon the Tabernacle, as the [g] appearance of fire vntil morning.

Exod 40,34.

g Like a pillerread Exod. 13,21.

16 So it was alwaie: the cloude couered it by day, & the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Iſraél iourneied: & in the place where the cloude abode, there the children of Iſraél pitched their tentes.

18 At the [h] commandement of the Lord the children of Iſraél iourneied, and at the commandement of the Lord thei pitched: as long as the cloude abode vpō the Tabernacle, * they [i] laye ſtil.

h Who taught thē what to do by the cloude.

1.Cor.10,1.

i Ebr. campted.

19 And when the cloude taryed ſtil vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Iſraél kept the [i] watch of the Lord, & iourneyed not.

i Thei waited whē the Lord wolde ſignifie either their departure, or their abiode by the cloude.

20 So when the cloude abode [k] a fewe daies vpon the Tabernacle, thei abode in their tents according to the commandement of the Lord: for thei iourneyed at the commandement of the Lord.

k Ebr dates of nombre.

21 And

137/1224

21 And thogh the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle from euen vnto the morning, yet if the cloude was taken vp in the morning, thē they iourneyed: whether by day or by night the cloude was taken vp, then they iourneyed.

22 Or if the cloude taried two dayes or a moneth, or a yere vpon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Iſraél *abode ſtil, and iourneied not: but when it was taken vp, they iourneyed.

*Exod. 40, 36.

23 At the commandemēt of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandement of the Lord they iourneyed, keping the watch of the Lord at the commandement of the Lord by the [k] hand of Moſés.

k Vnder the charge & gouernement of Moiés.

CHAP. X.

The vſe of the ſiluer trumpettes 11 The Iſraelites departe from Sinái 14 The captaines of the hoſte are nombred. 30 Hobáb refuſeth to go with Moſés his ſonne in lawe.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of ſiluer: of an [a] whole piece ſhalt thou make them, that thou maieſt vſe thē for the aſſembling of the Congregacion, and for the departure of the campe.

a Or of worke beaten out wt the hammer.

3 And whē they ſhal blowe with thē, all the Congregacion ſhal aſſemble to thee before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion.

4 But if they blowe with one, then the princes, or heads ouer the thouſands of Iſraél ſhal come vnto thee.

5 But if ye blowe an alarme, then the cāpe of thē that pitche on the [b] Eaſt parte, ſhal go forwarde.

b That is, the hoſte of Iudáh and they that are vnder his enſigne.

6 If ye blowe an alarme the ſeconde time, thē the hoſte of them ẏ lie on the [c] South ſide ſhal marche: for they ſhal blowe an alarme when they remoue.

c Meaning the hoſte of Reubén

7 But in aſſembling the Congregacion, ye ſhal blowe with out an alarme.

8 And the ſonnes of Aarón the Prieſt ſhal [d] blowe the trumpets, and ye ſhal haue thē as a lawe for euer in your generacions.

d So that onely the Prieſts muſt blowe ẏ trumpets, ſo long as the Prieſthode laſted

9 And when ye go to warre in your land againſt ẏ enemie that vexeth you, ye ſhal blowe an alarme wt the trūpets, and ye ſhal be remēbred before the Lord your God, and ſhal be ſaued from your enemies.

10 Alſo in the day of your [e] gladnes, and in your feaſt daies, and in the beginnmg of your monethes, ye ſhal alſo blowe the trūpets [f] ouer your burnt ſacrifices, and ouer your peace offrings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.

e When ye reioyce that God hathe remoued anie plague

f Or, when you offer burnt offrings

11 ¶ And in the ſeconde yere, in the ſecōde moneth, and in the twentieth day of the moneth the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie.

12 And the children of Iſraél departed on their [g] iourneis out of ẏ deſert of Sinái, and ẏ cloude reſted in the wildernes of Parán.

g Or, in keping this ordre in their iourneys.

13 So they [f] firſt toke their iourney at the cō māndemēt of the Lord, by ẏ hād of Moſés.

f Frō Sinái to Parán, Chap. 33, 1

14 ¶ * In the firſt place wēt the ſtanderd of the hoſte of the children of Iudáh, according to their armies: and * Nahſhón the ſonne of Amminadáb was ouer his bāde.

Chap. 2, 3.

Chap. 1, 7.

15 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Iſſachár was Nethaneél the ſonne of Zuár.

16 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Zebulún was Eliáb the ſonne of Helón.

17 When ẏ Tabernacle was taken downe, then the ſonnes of Gerſhón, and the ſonnes of Merarí wēt forwarde bearing [g] the Tabernacle.

g With all the appertinances thereof.

18 ¶ After, departed the ſtāderd of the hoſte of Reubén accordīg to their armies, & ouer his bāde was Elizúr ẏ ſōne of Shedeúr.

19 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the childrē of Simeón was Shelumiél the ſonne of Suriſhaddái.

20 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Gád was Eliaſáph the ſonne of Deuél.

21 The Kohathites alſo wēt forwarde and [h] bare the * Sanctuarie, & the [i] former did ſet vp the Tabernacle againſt they came.

h Vpon their ſhulders Chap 4, 4.

i The Merarites and Gerſhonites.

22 ¶ Then the ſtanderd of the hoſte of the children of Ephráim went forwarde according to their armies, and ouer his bāde was Eliſhamá the ſonne of Ammiúd.

23 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the ſonnes of Manaſſéh was Gamliél the ſonne of Pedazúr.

24 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the ſonnes of Beniamín was Abidán the ſonne of Gideoní.

25 ¶ Laſt, ẏ ſtāderd of the hoſte of ẏ childrē of Dan marched, [k] gatherīg all the hoſtes according to their armies: & ouer his bāde was Ahiézer the ſonne of Ammiſhaddái.

k Leauing none behind nor anie of ẏ former that fainted in ẏ way.

26 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Aſhér was Pagiél the ſonne of Ocrán.

27 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Naphtalí was Ahirá the ſonne of Enán.

28 [l] Theſe were the remouings of the children of Iſraél according to their armies, when they marched.

l This was ẏ ordre of their hoſte whē thes remoued

29 ¶ After, Moſés ſaid vnto [m] Hobáb the ſonne of Reuél ẏ Midianite, the father in lawe of Moſés, We go into the place, of wch ẏ Lord ſaid, I wil giue it you: Come thou with vs, and we wil do thee good: for the Lord hathe promiſed good vnto Iſraél.

m Some thīke that Reuél, Iethró, Hobáb, and Keni were all one: Kymhi ſaith ẏ Reuél was Iethros father: ſo Hobáb was Moſés father in law.

30 And he anſwered him, I wil not go: but I wil departe to mine owne countrey, and to my kinred.

31 Thē he ſaid, I praye thee, leaue vs not: for thou knoweſt our cāping places in the wil-
*Ebr. eyes vnto vs. dernes: therefore ỹ maieſt be *our guide.
32 And if thou go with vs, what goodnes ỹ Lord ſhal ſhewe vnto vs, the ſame wil we ſhewe vnto thee.
n Mount Sinai, or Horēb. 33 ¶So they departed from the n mount of the Lord, thre daies iourney: and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord wēt before them in the thre daies iourney, to ſearche out a reſting place for them.
34 And the cloude of the Lord was vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.
35 And when the Arke went forwarde, Moſés ſaid, *o Riſe vp, Lord, and let thine enemies be ſcatered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.
*Pſal.68,2. o Declare thy might and power.
36 And when it reſted, he ſaid, Returne, ô Lord, to the *manie thouſands of Iſraél.
*Ebr. to the ten thousand thousands.

CHAP. XI.

The people murmureth, and is puniſhed with fire. 4 The people luſteth after fleſh. 6 They lothe Manna. 11 The weake faith of Moſés. 16 The Lord deuideth the burthen of Moſés to ſeuenty of the Ancientes. 31 The Lord ſendeth quailes. 33 Their luſt is puniſhed.

1 WHē the people became *murmurers, *it diſpleaſed the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and * conſumed the vtmoſt parte of the hoſte.
*Ebr. as iniuſt complainers. *Ebr. it was euil in the eares of the Lord. *Pſal.78,21.
2 Then the people cryed vnto Moſés: and when Moſés prayed vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched.
*Or, burning. 3 And he called ỹ name of that place *Taberáh, becauſe the fire of the Lord burnt among them.
a Which were of thoſe ſtrāgers that came out of Egypt with them. Exod 12,38 b From God 4 ¶And a nomber of a people that was among them, fel a luſting, and b turned away, and the children of Iſraél alſo wept and ſaid, Who ſhal giue vs fleſh to eat?
c For a ſmale price, or good cheape. 5 We remember the fiſh which we did eat in Egypt for c naught, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the lekes, and the onions, and the garleke.
d For the greedy luſt of fleſh *Exod.16,31. *wiſd 16,20. *pſal.78,24. *ioh 6,31. 6 But now our ſoule is d dried away, we can ſe nothing but this MAN.
e Which is, a white perle or precious ſtone. 7 (The MAN alſo was as *coriāder ſede, & his coulour like the coulour of e bdeliū.
8 The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in milles, or bet it in morters, and baked it in a cauldron, and made cakes of it, and the taſte of it was like vnto the taſte of freſh oyle.
9 And when the dewe fel downe vpon the hoſte in the night, the MAN fel with it)
10 ¶Then Moſés heard the people wepe throughout their families, euerie man in the dore of his tente, and the wrath of the Lord was grieuouſly kindled: alſo Moſés was grieued.
11 And Moſés ſaid vnto ỹ Lord, Wherefore haſt thou *vexed thy ſeruant? and why haue I not founde f fauour in thy ſight, ſeing thou haſt put the charge of all this people vpon me?
*Or, euil intreated f Or, wherein haue I diſpleaſed thee.
12 Haue I g conceiued all this people? or haue I begotten them? that thou ſhuldeſt ſay vnto me, Cary them in thy boſome (as a nurſe beareth ỹ ſucking childe) vnto the h land, for the which thou ſwareſt vnto their fathers?
g Am I their father, that none may haue ỹ charge of thē but I? h Of Canáan promiſed by an othe to our fathers.
13 Where ſhulde I haue fleſh to giue vnto all this people? for they wepe vnto me, ſaying, Giue vs fleſh that we may eat.
14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heauie for me.
15 Therefore if thou deale thus with me, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy i ſight, kil me, that I beholde not my miſerie.
i I had rather dye, then to ſe my grief and miſerie thus daily increaſed by their rebellion.
16 ¶Then ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Gather vnto me ſeuenty men of the Elders of Iſraél, whome thou knoweſt, that they are the Elders of the people, & gouerners ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and let them ſtand there with thee, 17 And I wil come downe, & talke with thee there, k and take of the Spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they ſhal beare the burthē of the people with thee: ſo thou ſhalt not beare it alone.
k I wil diſtribute my Spirit amōg them, as I haue done to thee.
18 Furthermore thou ſhalt ſay vnto the people, l Be ſanctified againſt tomorowe, and ye ſhal eat fleſh: for you haue wept in the eares of the Lord, ſaying, Who ſhal giue vs fleſh to eat? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord wil giue you fleſh, and ye ſhal eat.
l Prepare your ſelues that ye be not vncleane.
19 Ye ſhal not eat one day nor two daies, nor fiue daies, nether ten daies, nor twenty daies, 20 But a whole moneth, vntil it come out at your noſtrels, and be lotheſome vnto you, becauſe ye haue m contemned the Lord, which is n among you, and haue wept before him, ſaying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?
m Or, caſt him of, becauſe ye refuſed Manna which he appointed as moſte mete for you n Who leadeth and gouerneth you.
21 And Moſés ſaid, Six hundreth thouſand fotemen are there of the people, o among whome I am: & thou ſaieſt, I wil giue thē fleſh, that they may eat a moneth long.
o Of whome I haue the charge.
22 Shal the ſhepe and the beues be ſlaine for them, to finde them? ether ſhal all the fiſh of the ſea be gathered together for them to ſuffiſe them?
23 And the Lord ſayd vnto Moſés, Is *the Lords hand ſhortened? thou ſhalt ſe now whether my worde ſhal come to paſſe vnto thee, or no.
*Iſa 50,2 & 59,1.
24 ¶So Moſés went out, and tolde the people the wordes of the Lord, and gathered ſeuenty men of the Elders of the people, and ſet thē round about the Tabernacle.
25 Then

25 Thē the Lord came downe in a cloude, and ſpake vnto him, and *toke of the Spirit, that was vpon him, and put it vpon the ſeuenty Anciēt men: and when the Spirit reſted vpon them, then they prophecied, and did not p ceaſe.

*Or, ſep rated, as verſ 17 p From that day the Spirit of prophecie did not faile them

26 But there remained two of the men in the hoſte: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit reſted vpon them, (for they were of them that were writtē, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) & they prophecied in the hoſte.

27 Then there ran a yong man, and tolde Moſés, and ſaid, Eldád and Medád do prophecie in the hoſte.

28 And Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun the ſeruant of Moſés one of his q yong men, anſwered and ſaid, My lord Moſés, r forbid them.

q Or, a yong mā whome he had choſen from his youthe r Suche blinde zeale was in the Apoſtles, Mar 9,38. Luk 9,49.

29 But Moſés ſaid vnto him, Enuyeſt thou for my ſake? yea, wolde God that all the Lords people were Prophetes, & that the Lord wolde put his Spirit vpon them.

30 And Moſés returned into the hoſte, he and the Elders of Iſraél.

31 Then there went forthe a winde from the Lord, and * broght quailes from the Sea, and let them fall vpon the campe, a daies iourney on this ſide, & a daies iourney on the other ſide, round about the hoſte, and they were about two cubites aboue the earth.

Exod 16,13. Pſal.78,26.

32 Then the people aroſe, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day and gathered the quailes: he that gathered the leaſt, gathered ten f Homers ful, and they ſpred them abroade for their vſe round about the hoſte.

f Of Homer read Leui 27, 16 alſo it ſignifieth an heape, as Exod 8,14 iudg 15,15

33 While the fleſh was yet betwene their tethe, before it was chewed, euē the wrath of the Lord was kindled againſt the people, and the Lord * ſmote the people with an exceading great plague.

Pſal.78,31.

34 So the name of the place was called, *Kibróth-hattaauáh: for there they buryed the people that fel a luſting.

*Or, graues of luſt.

35 Frō Kibróth-hattaauáh the people toke their iourney to Hazeróth, and abode at Hazeróth.

CHAP. XII.

1 Aarón and Miriám grudge againſt Moſés. 10 Miriám is ſtriken with leproſie, and healed at the prayer of Moſés.

*Or, murmured

A Fterward Miriám and Aarón *ſpake againſt Moſés, becauſe of the womā of Ethiopia whome he had maried (for he had maried a a woman of Ethiopia) a Zipporáh was a Midianite, and becauſe Midián bordered on Ethiopia, it is ſometime in the Scripture cōprehended vnder this name Eccle 45,4.

2 And they ſaid, What? hathe the Lord ſpoken but onely by Moſés? hathe he not ſpoken alſo by vs? and the Lord heard this.

3 (But Moſés was a very *b meke man, aboue all the men that were vpon the earth)

b And ſo bare w their griēdgigs, although he knewe thē

4 And by and by the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, & vnto Aarón, & vnto Miriám, Come out ye thre vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: and they thre came forthe.

5 Then the Lord came downe in the piller of the cloude, and ſtode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aarón and Miriám, and they bothe came forthe.

6 And he ſaid, Heare now my wordes, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I wil be knowen to him by a c viſion, & wil ſpeake vnto him by dreame.

c These were the two ordinarie meanes.

7 My ſeruāt Moſés is not ſo, who is faithful in d all mine houſe.

d In all Iſraél which was his Church Exod.33,11.

8 Vnto him wil I ſpeake *mouth to mouth, and by viſion, & not in darke wordes, but he e ſhal ſe ỹ ſimilitude of ỹ Lord. wherefore then were ye not afraied to ſpeake againſt my ſeruant, euen againſt Moſés?

e So farre as anie man was able to comprehende, w he calleth his backe partes, Exod.33,23

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with thē, and departed.

10 Alſo the cloude departed from the f Tabernacle: & beholde, Miriám was leprous like ſnowe: and Aarón loked vpō Miriám, and beholde, ſhe was leprous.

f Frō the dore of the Tabernacle.

11 Then Aarón ſaid vnto Moſés, Alas, my Lord, I beſeche thee, lay not the ſinne vpō vs, which we haue fooliſhly committed & wherein we haue ſinned.

12 Let her not, I pray thee, be as one g dead, of whome the fleſh is halfe conſumed, whē he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

g As a childe that commeth out of his mothers belly dead, hauing as it were but the ſkin.

13 Thē Moſés cryed vnto the Lord, ſaying, O God, I beſeche thee, heale her now.

14 ¶And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, If her father had h ſpit in her face, ſhulde ſhe not haue bene aſhamed ſeuen dayes? let her be *ſhut out of the hoſte ſeuen dayes, & after ſhe ſhal be receiued.

h In his diſpleaſure Leu 13,46.

15 So Miriám was ſhut out of the hoſte ſeuen dayes, and the people remoued not, til Miriám was broght in againe.

CHAP. XIII.

4 Certeine men are ſent to ſearche the land of Canáan. 24 They bring of the frute of the land. 31 Caléb comforteth the people againſt the diſcouraging of the other ſpies.

1 THen afterward the people remoued from Hazeróth, & pitched in the wildernes of a Paran.

a That is, in Rithmá, w was in Parán, Chap 33,18

2 ¶And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

3 b Sēd thou men out to ſearch the land of Canáan which I giue vnto the children of Iſraél: of euerie tribe of their fathers ſhal ye ſend a man, ſuche as are all rulers among them.

b After ỹ people had required it of Moſés, as it is Deu 1,22, then ỹ Lord ſpake to Moſés ſo to do

4 Thē Moſés ſent them out of the wildernes of Parán at the commandement of ỹ Lord: all thoſe men were *heades of the children of Iſraél.

*Or, rulers

5 Alſo their names are theſe: of the tribe of Reubén, Shāmúa the ſonne of Zaccúr:

6 Of the tribe of Simeón, Shaphát the ſonne of Horí:
7 Of the tribe of Iudáh, Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh:
8 Of the tribe of Iſſachár, Igál the ſonne of Ioſéph:
9 Of the tribe of Ephráim, [f] Oſhéa the ſonne of Nun:
10 Of the tribe of Beniamín, Palti the ſonne of Raphú:
11 Of the tribe of Zebulún, Gaddiél the ſonne of Sodí:
12 Of the tribe of Ioſéph, to wit, of the tribe of Manaſſéh, Gaddí the ſonne of Suſí:
13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiél the ſonne of Gemallí:
14 Of the tribe of Aſhér, Sethúr the ſonne of Michaél:
15 Of the tribe of Naphtalí, Nahbí the ſonne of Vophſí:
16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuél the ſonne of Machí.
17 Theſe are the names of the [c] mẽ, which Moſés ſent to ſpie out the land: and Moſés called the name of Oſhéa the ſonne of Nun Iehoſhúa.
18 So Moſés ſent them to ſpie out the land of Canáan, and ſaid vnto thẽ, Go vp this way toward the South, and go vp into [d] the mountaines, 19 And conſider the land what it is, and the people that dwel therein, whether they be ſtrong or weake, ether few or many,
20 Alſo what the land is that they dwel in, whether it be [e] good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwel in, whether they dwel in tentes, or in walled townes:
21 And what the land is: whether it be fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the frute of the land (for then was the time of the firſt ripe grapes)
22 ¶ So they went vp, & ſearched out the land, from the wildernes of [f] Zin vnto Rehób, to go to Hamáth, 23 And thei aſcẽded toward the South, and came vnto Hebrón, where were Ahimán, Sheſhái and Talmái, the ſonnes of [g] Anák. And [h] Hebrón was buylt ſeuen yere before Zoán in Egypt.
24 *Thẽ they came to the riuer of Eſhcól, and cut downe thence a branche with one cluſtre of grapes, and they bare it vpon a barre betwene two, and broght of the pomegranates and of the figges.
25 That place was called the [i] riuer Eſhcól becauſe of the cluſtre of grapes, which the children of Iſraél cut downe thence.
26 Then after fourtv daies they turned againe from ſearching of the land.
27 And they went and came to Moſés and to Aarón & vnto all the Cõgregacion of the children of Iſraél, in the wildernes of [k] Parán, to Kadéſh, and broght to them, and to all the Congregacion tidings, and ſhewed them the frute of the land.
28 And they tolde [l] him, and ſaid, We came vnto the land whether thou haſt ſente vs, & ſurely it floweth with * milke & honie: and here is of the frute of it.
29 Neuertheles the people be ſtrong that dwel in the land, and the cities are walled and exceading great: and moreouer, we ſawe the [m] ſonnes of Anák there.
30 The Amalekites dwel in ỹ Southecoũtrey, and the Hittites, and the Iebuſites, and the Amorites dwel in the moũtaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the Sea and by the coſte of Iorden.
31 Then Caléb ſtilled the people [n] before Moſés, & ſaid, Let vs go vp atonce, and poſſeſſe it: for vndoutedly we ſhal ouercome it.
32 But the men, that went vp with him, ſaid, We be not able to go vp againſt the people: for they are ſtronger then we.
33 So they broght vp an euil reporte of the lãd which they had ſearched for the children of Iſraél, ſaying, The land which we haue gone through to ſearche it out, is a land that [o] eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we ſawe in it, are men of great ſtature.
34 For there we ſawe gyãtes, the ſonnes of Anák, which come of the gyantes, ſo that we ſemed in our ſight like greſhoppers: and ſo we were in their ſight.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 The people murmure againſt Moſés 10 They wolde haue ſtoned Caléb and Ioſhúa 13 Moſés pacifieth God by his prayer. 45 The people that wolde entre into the land, contrarie to Gods wil, are ſlaine.

1 THen all the Congregacion lifted vp their voice, and cryed: and [a] the people wept that night,
2 And all the children of Iſraél murmured againſt Moſés and Aarón: and the whole aſſemblie ſaid vnto them, Wolde God we had dyed in the land of Egypt, or in this wildernes: wolde God we were dead.
3 Wherefore now hathe ỹ Lord broght vs into this lãd to fall vpon the ſworde? our wiues, and our children ſhal be [b] a praye: were it not better for vs to returne into Egypt?
4 And they ſaid one to another, Let vs make a captaine and returne into Egypt.
5 Then Moſés and Aarón [c] fel on their faces before all the aſſemblie of the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél.
6 *And Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh two of them that ſearched the land, [d] rent their clothes,

And

---

[f] Or, Ioſhúa.
[c] Which in nomber were twelue, according to the twelue tribes
[d] Or, high countrey.
[e] Plentiful or baren.
[f] Which were a kinde of gyantes
[g] Declaring ỹ antiquitie thereof: alſo Abrahám, Sará, Izhák & Iaakób were buryed there. Deu.1.24.
[h] Called alſo Kadeſh-barná
[i] Or, the valley of Eſhcal, that is, of grapes.
[k] Ahimán, Sheſhái, and Talmái, whome Caléb ſlewe afterward.
[l] That is, Moſés
[m] Exod.33.3.
[n] Or, murmuring againſt Moſés.
[o] I The gyantes were ſo cruel that they ſpoiled & killed one another, and thoſe that came to them
[a] Such as were affraied at the reporte of the ten ſpies.
[b] To our enemies the Canaanites.
[c] Lameting ỹ people & praying for them.
Eccle 46.9.
1.mac.2.56.
[d] For ſorowe hearing their blaſphemie.

7 And ſpake vnto all the aſſemblie of the children of Iſraél, ſaying, The land which we walked through to ſearche it, is a very good land.
8 If the Lord loue vs, he wil bring vs into this land, and giue it vs, which is a land that floweth with milke and honie.
9 But rebel not ye againſt the Lord, nether feare ye the people of the land: for they are but [e] bread for vs: their ſhielde is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not.

[e] We ſhal eaſely ouercome them

[f] This is the condition of thē that wolde perſuade in Gods cauſe, to be perſecuted of the multitude.

10 And all the multitude ſaid, [f] Stone thē with ſtones: but the glorie of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, before all the children of Iſrael.
11 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, How long wil this people prouoke me, and how long wil it be, yer they beleue me, for all the ſignes which I haue ſhewed among them?
12 I wil ſmite them with the peſtilence and deſtroy them, and wil make thee a greater nacion and mightier then they.
Exod. 32,12 13 But Moſés ſaid vnto the Lord, * When the Egyptians ſhal heare it, (for thou broughteſt this people by thy power from among them)
14 Then they ſhal ſay to the inhabitants of this land, (for they haue heard that thou, Lord, art amōg this people, & that thou, Lord, art ſene [m] face to face, and that thy cloude ſtandeth ouer them, and that thou [m] Ebr eye to eye.
Exod 13,21. * goeſt before them by day time in a piller of a cloude, and in a piller of fire by night)

[g] So that none ſhal eſcape.

15 That thou wilt kil this people as [g] one man: ſo the heathen which haue heard the fame of thee, ſhal thus ſay, Deut 9,28. 16 Becauſe the Lord was not * able to bring this people into the land, which he ſware vnto them, therefore hathe he ſlaine them in the wildernes.
17 And now, I beſeche thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou haſt ſpoken, ſaying, Exod 34,6. Pſal 103,8. Pſal 142,2. 18 The Lord is * ſlowe to angre, and of great mercie, and * forgiuing iniquitie, and ſinne, but not making the wicked innocent, & * viſiting the wickednes of the fathers vpon the children, in the third and fourth generacion:
Exod 20,5. & 34,7.
19 Be merciful, I beſeche thee, vnto the iniquitie of this people, according to thy great mercy, and as thou haſt forgiuen this people from Egypt, euen vntil nowe.

[h] In that he deſtroied not them vtterly, but left their poſteritie and certeme to enter.

20 And the Lord ſaid, I haue forgiuen [h] it, according to thy requeſt.
21 Notwithſtanding, as I liue, all the earth ſhalbe filled with the glorie of the Lord.
22 For all thoſe men which haue ſene my glorie, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wildernes, & haue tēpted me this [i] ten times, and haue not obeied my voyce,

[i] That is, ſondrie times and often.

23 Certeinely thei ſhal not ſe the land, whereof I ſware vnto their fathers: nether ſhal anie that prouoke me, ſe it.
24 But my ſeruant * Caléb, becauſe he had another [k] ſpirit, & hathe folowed me ſtil, euen him wil I bring into the land, whether he went, and his ſede ſhal inherit it.
Ioſh.14,6.

[k] A meke and obedient ſpirit and not rebellious.

25 Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites [l] remaine in the valley: wherefore turne backe tomorowe, and get you into the [m] wildernes, by the way of the red Sea.

[l] And lie in wayt for you.

[m] For I wil not defend you

26 ¶ After, the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés and to Aarón, ſaying, 27 *How long ſhal I ſuffre this wicked multitude to murmure againſt me? I haue heard the murmurings of the childrē of Iſraél, which they murmure againſt me.
Pſal 106,26.
28 Tel them, As * I liue (ſaieth the Lord) I wil ſurely do vnto you, euen as ye haue ſpoken in mine eares.
Chap. 26,65. & 32,10.
29 Your carkeiſes ſhal fall in this wildernes, & all you that were * counted through all your nombers, from twentie yere olde and aboue, which haue murmured againſt me,
Deut.1,35.
30 Ye ſhal not douteles come into the lād, for the which I * lifted vp mine hand, to make you dwel therein, ſaue Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh, and Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun.
Gen.14,22.
31 But your children, (which ye ſaid ſhulde be a praye) them wil I bring in, and they ſhal know the land which ye haue refuſed:
32 But euen your carkeiſes ſhal fall in this wildernes.
33 And your children ſhal [n] wander in the wildernes, fourtie yeres, & ſhal beare your [o] whoredomes, vntil your carkeiſes be waſted in the wildernes.

[n] The worde ſignifieth, to be ſhepherdes, or to wander like ſhepherdes to and fro.

[o] Your infidelitie and diſobedience againſt God

34 After the nomber of the dayes, in the which ye ſearched out the land, euen fourtie dayes, * euerie day for a yere, ſhal ye beare your iniquitie, for * fourtie yeres, and ye [p] ſhal fele my breache of promiſe.
Ezek.4,6. Pſal 95,10.

[p] Whether my promes be true or no.

35 I the Lord haue ſaid, Certeinely I wil do ſo to all this wicked companie, that are gathered together againſt me: for in this wildernes they ſhalbe conſumed, and there they ſhal dye.
36 And the men which Moſés had ſent to ſearche the land (which, when they came againe, made all the people to mur-mure againſt him, and broght vp a ſlander vpon the land)

37 Euē thoſe men that did bring vp that vile ſlander vpon the lād, *ſhal dye by a plague before the Lord.

*1.Cor.10,10. ebr.3,10. iude.5.

38 But Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh, of thoſe mē that went to ſearche the land, ſhal liue.

39 ¶ Then Moſés tolde theſe ſayings vnto all the children of Iſraél, and the people ſorowed greatly.

40 *And thei roſe vp earely in the morning, and gat them vp into the top of the mountaine, ſaying, Lo, we be ready, to go vp to the place which the Lord hathe promiſed: for we haue q ſinned.

*Deu.1,41.

q They confeſſe they ſinned by rebelling againſt God, but conſider not they offended in goig vp without Gods commādemēt.

41 But Moſes ſaid, Wherefore tranſgreſſe ye thus the commandement of the Lord? it wil not ſo come wel to paſſe.

42 Go not vp (for the Lord is not among you) leſt ye be ouerthrowen before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye ſhal fall by ỹ ſworde: for in as muche as ye are turned awaie from the Lord, the Lord alſo wil not be with you.

r They colde not be ſtaied by anie meanes.

44 Yet they preſumed r obſtinatly to go vp to the top of the mountaine: but the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and Moſés departed not out of the campe.

45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites, which dwelt in that mountaine, came downe and ſmote them, * and conſumed them vnto Hormáh.

*Deut.1,44.

CHAP. XV.

ỹ offrings which the Iſraelites ſhulde offer whē they came into the land of Canaan. 32 The puniſhemēt of him that brake the Sabbath.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, *When ye be come into ỹ a land of your habitacions, which I giue vnto you, a Into the lād of Canaan.

*Leu.23,10.

3 And wil make an offring by fire vnto the Lord, a burnt offrīg or a ſacrifice * to fulfil a vowe, or a fre offring, or in your feaſtes, to make a * ſwete ſauour vnto ỹ Lord of the heard, or of the flocke,

*Leu.22,21. *Or, ſeparate Exod.29,18.

4 Then * let him that offereth his offring vnto the Lord, bring a meat offring of a tenth deale of fine floure, mingled with ỹ fourth parte of an b Hin of oyle.

*Leu.2,1.

b Read Exod. 29,40.

5 Alſo thou ſhalt prepare the fourthe parte of an Hin of wine to be powred on a lambe, appointed for the burnt offring or anie offring.

6 And for a ram, thou ſhalt for a meat offring, prepare two téth deales of fine floure, mingled with the third parte of an Hin of oyle.

7 And for a c drinke offring, thou ſhalt offer the third parte of an Hin of wine, for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

c The licour was ſo called, becauſe it was powred on ỹ thing that was offred.

8 And whē thou prepareſt a bullocke for a burnt offring, or for a ſacrifice to fulfil a vowe or a peace offring to the Lord,

9 Thē let him offer with ỹ bullocke a meat offring of "thre téth deales of fine floure, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle.

"Or, thre Omers.

10 And thou ſhalt bring for a drīke offring halfe an Hin of wine, for an offring made by fire of a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

11 Thus ſhal it be done for a bullocke, or for a ram, or for a lambe, or for a kid.

12 According to the nomber d that ye prepare offer, ſo ſhal ye do to euerie one according to their nomber.

d Euerie ſacrifice of beaſtes muſt haue their meat offring & drinke offring, according to this proportion 13 All that are borne of the coūtrey ſhal do theſe things thus, to offer an offring made by fire of ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

14 And if a ſtranger ſoiourne with you, or whoſoeuer be among you in your generacions, and wil make an offring by fire of a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, as ye do, ſo he ſhal do.

15 *One ordinance ſhalbe bothe for you of the Congregacion, and alſo for the ſtranger that dwelleth with you, euen an ordinance for euer in your generacios: as you are, ſo ſhal the ſtranger be before the Lord.

*Exod 12,49. chap. 9,14.

16 One lawe and one maner ſhal ſerue bothe for you & for the ſtrāger that ſoiourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayīg,

18 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, When ye be come into ỹ land, to the which I bring you,

19 And when ye ſhal eat of the bread of the lād, ye ſhal offer an heaue offring vnto the Lord.

20 Ye ſhal offer vp a cake of the firſt of your e dowe for an heaue offring: * as the heaue offring of the barne, ſo ye ſhal lift it vp.

e Which is made of the firſt corne ye gather

*Leu.23,14.

21 Of the firſt of your dowe ye ſhal giue vnto ỹ Lord an heaue offring in your generacions.

22 ¶ And if ye f haue erred, & not obſerued all theſe cōmandementes, which the Lord hathe ſpoken vnto Moſés, f As by ouer ſighte or ignorance, read Leu 4,2.

23 Euen all that the Lord hathe commāded you by the hand of Moſés, from the firſt day that the Lord commanded Moſés, & henceforward among your generacions.

24 And if ſo be that ought be committed ignorātly of the g Cōgregacion, then all the Cōgregacion ſhal giue a bullocke for a burnt offring, for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, with the meat offring & drinke offring thereto, according to the * maner, and an he goat for a ſin offring.

g Some read, from the eyes of the Cōgregaciō that is, which is hid from the Cōgregacion.

*Leu.4,1.

25 And

25 And the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, and it ſhalbe forgiuen them: for it is ignorance: and thei ſhal bring their offring for an offring made by fire vnto the Lord, and their ſinne offring before the Lord for their ignorance.

26 Then it ſhalbe forgiuen all the Cõgregacion of the children of Iſraél, and the ſtranger that dwelleth among them: for all the people were in ignorance.

Leui.4.27. 27 ¶*But if anie one perſone ſinne through ignorance, then he ſhal bring a ſhe goat of a yere olde for a ſinne offring.

28 And the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for the ignorant perſone, when he ſinneth by ignorãce before the Lord, to make reconciliacion for him: & it ſhalbe forgiuen him.

29 He that is borne among the children of Iſraél, and the ſtranger that dwelleth amõg them, ſhal haue bothe one lawe, who ſo doeth ſinne by ignorance.

 Ebr. with an hie hand: that is, in cõtempt of God*

30 ¶But the perſone that doeth oght [n] preſumptuouſly, whether he be borne in the land, or a ſtranger, the ſame blaſphemeth the Lord: therefore that perſone ſhal be cut of from among his people, 31 Becauſe he hathe diſpiſed the worde of the Lord, and hathe broken his commandemẽt: that perſone ſhalbe vtterly cut of: his [h] iniquitie ſhalbe vpon him.

h He ſhal ſuſteine the puniſhmẽt of his ſinne.

32 ¶And while the children of Iſraél were in the wildernes, thei founde a man that gathered ſtickes vpon the Sabbath day.

33 And thei that foũde him gathering ſtickes, broght him vnto Moſés & to Aarón, and vnto all the Congregacion, Leui 24,12. 34 And thei put him in* warde: for it was not declared what ſhulde be done vnto him.

35 Then the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, This man ſhal dye the death: & let all the multitude ſtone him with ſtones without the hoſte.

36 And all the Congregacion broght him without the hoſte, and ſtoned him with ſtones, and he dyed, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

37 ¶And ẏ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying

Deut 22,12. mat.23,5. 38 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and byd them that thei * make them fringes vpõ ẏ borders of their garmẽts throughout their generacions, and put vpon the fringes of the borders a rybãde of blewe ſilke.

39 And he ſhal haue the fringes, that when ye loke vpon thẽ, ye may remẽber all the commandements of the Lord, & do thẽ: & that ye ſeke not after your owne heart, nor after your owne eies, after the which ye go a [i] whoring:

i By leauing Gods cõmandements and following your owne fãtaſies.

40 That ye may remember and do all my commandements, and be holy vnto your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, which broght you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord your God.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The rebellion of Kórah, Dathan and Abirám. 31 Kórah and his companie periſheth 41 The people the next day murmure. 49. 14700. are ſlaine for murmuring.

1 NOw *Kórah the ſonne of Izhár, the ſonne of Koháth, the ſonne of Leui [l] went a parte with Dathán, and Abirám the ſonnes of Eliáb, & On the ſonne of Péleth, the ſonnes of Reubén:

Chap 27,3. eccle 45,22. iude 11.

l Or, toke other with him

2 And thei roſe vp [m] againſt Moſés, with certeine of the children of Iſraél, two hundreth and fiftie captaines of the aſſemblie, * famous in the Congregacion & men of renoume.

m Or, before Moſes.

Chap.26,9.

3 Who gathered them ſelues together againſt Moſés, and againſt Aarón, and ſaid vnto them, [a] Ye take to muche vpon you, ſeing all the Congregacion is holy, [b] euerie one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye your ſelues aboue the Congregacion of the Lord?

a Or, let it ſuffice you: meaning to haue abuſed them thus long b All are a like holy: therefore none oght to be preferred aboue other: thus the wicked reaſon againſt Gods ordinance

4 But when Moſés heard it, he fel vpon his face,

5 And ſpake to Kórah & vnto all his companie, ſaying, Tomorowe the Lord wil ſhewe who is his, and who is holy, & who oght to approche nere vnto him: & whome he hathe [c] choſen, he wil cauſe to come nere to him.

c To be the Prieſt & to offer.

6 This do therefore, Take you cenſers, bothe Kórah, and all his companie,

7 And put fire therein, and put incens in them before the Lord tomorowe: and the man whome the Lord doeth choſe, the ſame ſhalbe holy: [d] ye take to muche vpon you, ye ſonnes of Leuí.

d He laieth ẏ ſame to their charge iuſtely, wherewith thei wrõgfully charged hĩ.

8 Againe Moſés ſaid vnto Kórah, Heare, I pray you, ye ſonnes of Leuí.

9 Semeth it a ſmall thing vnto you that the God of Iſraél hathe ſeparated you from the multitude of Iſraél, to take you nere to him ſelf, to do the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to ſtand before the Congregacion and to miniſter vnto them?

10 He hathe alſo taken thee to [e] him, and all thy brethren the ſonnes of Leui with thee, and ſeke ye the office of the Prieſt alſo?

e To ſerue in the Congregacion, as in the verſe before.

11 For which cauſe, thou, and all thy companie are gathered together againſt the Lord: and what is Aarón, that ye murmure againſt him?

12 ¶And Moſes ſent to call Dathán, and Abiram the ſonnes of Eliáb: who anſwered We wil not come vp.

13 Is it a ſmall thing that thou haſt broght vs out [f] of a land that floweth with milke and hony, to kil vs in the wildernes,excepte thou make thy ſelf Lord and ruler ouer vs alſo?

14 Alſo thou haſt not broght vs vnto a lād that floweth with milke and honie,nether giuen vs inheritance of fieldes and vineyardes: wilt thou [g] put out ỹ eies of theſe men?we wil not come vp.

15 Thē Moſes waxed verie angrie, & ſaid vnto the Lord, *Loke not vnto their offring,I haue not taken ſo muche as an aſſe frō thē,nether haue I hurte anie of thē.

16 And Moſes ſaid vnto Kórah,Be thou & all thy companie [h] before the Lord: bothe thou,thei,and Aarón tomorowe:

17 And take euerie man his cenſor,and put incens in them, and bring ye euerie man his cenſor before the Lord,two hundreth and fiftie cenſors:thou alſo and Aarón, euerie one his cenſor.

18 So thei toke euerie man his cenſor, and put fire in them,and laied incens thereon, and ſtode in the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion with Moſes &Aarón.

19 And Kórah gathered all the [i] multitude againſt them vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion:then the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto all the Cōgregacion.

20 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and to Aarón,ſaying, 21 Separate your ſelues frō amōg this Cōgregacion,ỹ I may conſume thē atonce.

22 And thei fel vpon their faces and ſaid, O God ỹ God of the ſpirits, [o]of all fleſh, hathe not one man onely ſinned, and wilt thou be wrath with all the Cōgregacion?

23 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

24 Speake vnto the Congregacion & ſay, Get you away frō about the Tabernacle of Kórah,Dathán and Abirám.

25 Then Moſes roſe vp, & went vnto Dathán and Abirám,and the Elders of Iſraél followed him.

26 And he ſpake vnto the Congregacion, ſaying,Departe,I pray you,frō the tentes of theſe wicked men,and touche nothing of theirs,leſt ye periſh [k]in all their ſinnes.

27 So thei gate them away frō the Tabernacle of Kórah, Dathán and Abirám on euerie ſide: and Dathán,& Abirám came out and ſtode in the dore of their tentes with their wiues,and their ſonnes,& their litle children.

28 And Moſes ſaid, Hereby ye ſhal knowe that ỹ Lord hathe ſent me to do all theſe workes: for I haue not done them of mine owne [l] minde.

29 If theſe mē dye the cōmune death of all men,or if thei be viſited after ỹ viſitacio of all men, the Lord hathe not ſent me.

30 But if the Lord make [m] a newe thing,& the earth open her mouth, & ſwalowe thē vp w all that thei haue, & thei go downe quicke into [n] ỹ pit,thē ye ſhal vnderſtād that theſe men haue prouoked the Lord.

31 ¶And aſſone as he had made an end of ſpeaking all theſe wordes,euen the groūde claue a ſunder that was vnder them, 32 And the earth * opened her mouthe,and ſwalowed them vp, with their families,& all the men that were with Kórah, and all their goods.

33 So thei & all that thei had, went downe aliue into the pit,& the earth couered thē: ſo thei periſhed from among the Cōgregacion.

34 And all Iſraél that were about thē,fled at the crye of thē:for thei ſaid, Let vs flee, leſt the earth ſwalowe vs vp.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and conſumed the two hundreth and fiftie men that offred the incens.

36 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazár, the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt,that he take vp the cenſers out of the burning,and ſkater the fire beyonde the altar:for thei are halowed, 38 The cenſers,I ſay,of theſe ſinners,that deſtroyed them ſelues:and let them make of them broad plates for a couering of the Altar:for they offred thē before the Lord, therefore thei ſhalbe holy,and thei ſhalbe [p] a ſigne vnto the children of Iſraél.

39 Then Eleazár the Prieſt toke the braſen cēſers,which thei,that were burnt,had offred, and made broad plates of them for a couering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance vnto the children of Iſraél,that no ſtranger which is not of the ſede of Aarón, come nere to offer incens before the Lord, that he be not like [q] Kórah and his companie, as the Lord ſaid to him by the hand of Moſes.

41 ¶But on the morowe all the multitude of the children of Iſraél murmured againſt Moſes and againſt Aarón, ſaying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Cōgregacion was gathered againſt Moſes & againſt Aarón, then thei [r] turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion:& beholde, the cloude couered it,& the glorie of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moſes and Aarón were come before the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacio.

44 ¶And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes,ſayīg,

45 Get you vp from among this Congregacion:for I wil conſume them quickely: then thei fel vpon their faces.

46 And Moſes ſaid vnto Aarón, Take the cenſer and put fire therein of the [s] Altar, & put therein incens, & go quickely vnto the Congregacion,& make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out frō the [f] Thus thei ſpake contēpteouſly,preterring Egypt to Canaan.

[g] Wilt thou make thē,that ſearched ỹ lād, beleue that thei ſawe not ỹ, which thei ſawe? Gen.44.

[h] At the dore of the Tabernacle.

[i] All that were of there faction.

[o] Or, of euerie creature.

[k] With them that haue committed ſo manie ſinnes

[l] I haue not forged thē of mine owne braine

[m] Or,ſhewe a ſtrange ſight.

[n] Or,hel.

[n] Or, depe & dārcke places of the earth.

Chap 27.3. deut 11.6. pſal 106.17.

[o] Which were the occaſiō of their owne death.

[p] Of Gods iudgements againſt rebelli.

[q] Who preſumed aboue his vocacion.

[r] Or,fled: towit, Moſes & Aaron.

[s] For it was not lauful to take ante other fire, but of the Altar of burnt offring. Leui 10 the Lord: the plague is begonne.

47 Then Aarón toke as Moſés commãded him, and ran into the middes of the Congregacion, and beholde, the f plague was begõne among the people, & he put in incens, & made an atonemẽt for the people.
48 And when he ſtode betwene the dead, & thẽ that were aliue, ỹ g plague was ſtayed.
49 So they dyed of this plague fourtene thouſand and ſeuen hundreth, beſide thẽ that dyed in the conſpiracie of Kórah.
50 And Aarón went againe vnto Moſés before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & the plague was ſtayed.

f God had begõne to punſhe ỹ people.
g God drewe backe his hãd & ceaſed to punſhe them.

CHAP. XVII.

2 The twelue rods of the twelue princes of the tribes of Iſraél. 9 Aarons rod buddeth, and beareth bloſſoms. 10 For a teſtimonie againſt the rebellious people.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto a Moſés, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the childrẽ of Iſraél, & take of euerie one of them a rod, after ỹ houſe of their fathers, of all their princes according to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue rods and thou ſhalt write euerie mans name vpon his rod.
3 And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leuí: for euerie rod ſhalbe for the head of the houſe of their fathers.
4 And thou ſhalt put thẽ in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, before the Arke of the Teſtimonie,* where I wil declare my ſelfe to you.
5 And the mans rod, whome I b choſe, ſhal bloſſom: and I wil make ceaſe from me the grudgings of the children of Iſraél, which grudge againſt you.
6 ¶ Then Moſés ſpake vnto the children of Iſraél, & all their princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euerie prince, according to ỹ houſes of their fathers, euen twelue rods, & the rod c of Aarón was amõg their rods.
7 And Moſés laid the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie.
8 And when Moſés on the morowe went into the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie, beholde, the rod of Aarón d for the houſe of Leuí was budded, and broght forthe buddes, & broght forthe bloſſoms & bare ripe almondes.
9 Then Moſés broght out all the rods fro before the Lord vnto all the children of Iſraél: and they loked vpon them, & toke euerie man his rod.
10 ¶ After, ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, *Bring Aarons rod againe before the Teſtimonie to be kept for a tokẽ to the rebellious children, & thou ſhalt cauſe their e murmurings to ceaſe fro me, ỹ they dye not.
11 So Moſés did as the Lord had commãded him: ſo did he.
12 ¶ And the children of Iſraél ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying, Beholde, f we are dead, we periſh, we are all loſt:
13 Whoſoeuer cõmeth nere, or approcheth to the Tabernacle of the Lord, ſhal dye: ſhal we be conſumed and dye?

Exod 25.22.
b To be the chief Prieſt
c Though Ioſephs tribe was deuided into two in ỹ diſtributiõ of the land, yet here it is but one, and Leui maketh a tribe
d To declare that God did choſe ỹ houſe of Leui to ſerue him in ỹ Tabernacle.
Ebr 9.4.
e Grudging ỹ Aarón ſhulde be hie Prieſt
f The Chalde text deſcribeth thus their murmuring: We dye by the ſworde: the earth ſwalowethvs vp, ỹ peſtilẽcedoeth conſume vs.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 7 The office of Aarón & his ſonnes. 2 With the Leuites. 8 The Prieſts parte of the offrings. 20 Gods their portion. 26 The Leuites haue the tithes, and offer the tenthes thereof to the Lord.

1 AND ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Aarón, Thou, & thy ſonnes and thy fathers houſe with thee, ſhal beare a the iniquitie of the Sanctuarie: bothe thou & thy ſonnes with thee ſhal beare ỹ iniquitie of your Prieſts office.
2 And bring alſo with thee thy brethren of the tribe of Leuí of the familie of thy father, which ſhalbe ioyned with thee, and miniſter vnto thee: but thou, and thy ſonnes with thee ſhal miniſter before the Tabernacle of the Teſtimonie.
3 And they ſhal b kepe thy charge, euen the charge of all ỹ Tabernacle: but they ſhal not come nere the inſtruments of the Sãctuarie, nor to the altar, leſt they dye, bothe they & you:
4 And they ſhal be ioyned with thee, & kepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion for all ỹ ſeruice of the Tabernacle: & no c ſtranger ſhal come nere vnto you.
5 Therefore ſhal ye kepe the charge of the Sanctuarie, and the charge of the altar: ſo there ſhal fall no more wrath vpon the children of Iſraél.
6 For lo, I haue *taken your brethren ỹ Leuites fro amõg ỹ children of Iſraél, which as a gift of yours, are giuẽ vnto the Lord, to do the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
7 But thou, & thy ſonnes with thee ſhal kepe your Prieſts office for all things of the altar, and within the vaile: therefore ſhal ye ſerue: for I haue made your Prieſts office "an office of ſeruice: therefore the ſtrãger that commeth nere, ſhal be ſlaine.
8 ¶ Againe ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Aarón, Beholde, I haue giuen thee the keping of mine d offrings, of all the halowed things of the childrẽ of Iſraél: vnto thee I haue giuen them for the anointings ſake, and to thy ſonnes, for a perpetual ordinance.
9 This ſhalbe thine of ỹ moſte holie thigs, reſerued from the e fire: all their offring of all their meat offring, and of all their ſin offring, and of all their treſpas offring, w they bring vnto me, that ſhalbe moſt holy vnto thee and to thy ſonnes.
10 In the moſt f holy place ſhalt thou eat it: euerie male ſhal eat of it, it is holy vnto thee.
11 This alſo ſhalbe thine: the heaue offring of their gift, with all the ſhake offrings of the children of Iſraél: I haue giuen them vnto thee & to thy ſonnes & to thy a If you treſpas in anie thing concerning the ceremonies of the Sanctuarie, or your office, you ſhalbe punished.

b That is, the things, which are cõmitted to thee: or, w thou doeſt enioyne them.
c Which was not of ỹ tribe of Leui.
*Or, a gift.
d As the firſt frute, firſtborne, & ỹ tithes.
e That w was not burned, ſhulde be the Prieſts.
f That is, in ỹ Sanctuarie, betwene ỹ court & the Holieſt of all.

g Read Leuit. 10,14.

g daughters w̄ thee, to be a duetie for euer: all the cleane in thine houſe ſhal eat of it.

h That is, the chiefeſt, or the beſt

12 All the h fat of the oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheat, which they ſhal offer vnto the Lord for their firſt frutes, I haue giuen them vnto thee.

13 And the firſt ripe of all that is in their lād, which they ſhal bring vnto the Lord, ſhalbe thine: all the cleane in thine houſe ſhal eat of it.

Leuit. 27,28.

14 *Euerie thing ſeparate from the cōmune vſe in Iſraél, ſhal be thine.

Exod. 13,2. & 22,29. leu. 27,26. chap. 3,13.

15 All that firſt openeth the* matrice of anie fleſh, which they ſhal offer vnto the Lord, of man or beaſt, ſhalbe thine: but the firſt borne of man ſhalt thou redeme, and the firſt borne of the vncleane beaſt ſhalt thou redeme.

16 And thoſe that are to be redemed, ſhalt ỹ redeme from the age of a moneth, according to thy eſtimation, for the money of fiue ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie, * which is twentie gerahs.

Exod. 30,13. leu. 27,25. chap. 3,47. ezek. 45,12.

i Becauſe they are appointed for ſacrifice.

17 But the firſt borne of a kowe, or the firſt borne of a ſhepe, or the firſt borne of a goat ſhalt thou not i redeme: for they are holy: thou ſhalt ſprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou ſhalt burne their fat: it is a ſacrifice made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

Exod 29, 26. leui. 7,30.

18 And the fleſh of them ſhalbe thine, * as the ſhake breaſt, and as the right ſhulder ſhalbe thine.

19 All the heaue offrings of the holy things which the children of Iſraél ſhal offer vnto the Lord, haue I giuen thee, & thy ſonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: it is a perpetual couenant k of ſalt before the Lord, to thee and to thy ſede with thee.

k That is, ſure, ſtable, & incorruptible

l Of Canaan.

20 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Aarón, Thou ſhalt haue none inheritance in their l land, nether ſhalt thou haue anie parte among them: *I am thy parte & thine inheritance among the children of Iſraél.

Deu. 10, 9. & 18 2. ioſh. 13,14. ezek. 44,28.

21 For beholde, I haue giuē the childrē of Leuí all the tenth in Iſraél for an inheritance, for their ſeruice which they ſerue in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

22 Nether ſhal the children of Iſraél anie more m come nere ỹ Tabernacle of the Cō gregacion, leſt they ſuſteine ſinne, & dye.

m To ſerue thereins for ỹ Leuites are put in their place.

23 But the Leuites ſhal do the ſeruice in ỹ Tabernacle of ỹ Cōgregaciō, & they ſhal beare n their ſinne: it is a lawe for euer in your generacions, ỹ among the childrē of Iſraél they poſſeſſe none enheritance.

n If they farlein their office, they ſhalbe punished.

24 For the tithes of the children of Iſraél, which they ſhal offer as an offring vnto ỹ Lord, I haue giuen the Leuites for an inheritance: therefore I haue ſaid vnto thē, Among the childrē of Iſraél ye ſhal poſſeſſe none inheritance.

25 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayīg,

26 Speake alſo vnto the Leuites & ſay vnto them, When ye ſhal take of the childrē of Iſraél the tithes, w̄ I haue giuen you of thē for your inheritance, then ſhal ye take an heaue offring of that ſame for the Lord, euen the tenth parte of the tithe.

27 And your heaue offrīg ſhalbe rekened vn to you, as the o corne of the barne, or as the abundance of the wine preſſe.

o As acceptable as ỹ frute of your owne groūde, or vineyard

28 So ye ſhal alſo offer an heaue offring vn to the Lord of all your tithes, which ye ſhal receiue of the children of Iſraél, and ye ſhal giue thereof the Lords heaue offring to Aarón the Prieſt.

29 Ye ſhal offer of all your p gifts all the Lords heaue offrings: of all ỹ q fat of the ſame ſhal ye offer the holy things thereof.

p Which ye haue receiued of the childrē of Iſraél q Read verſ. 12.

30 Therefore thou ſhalt ſay vnto thē, Whē ye haue offred the fat thereof, then it ſhalbe counted vnto the Leuites, as the encreaſe of the corne ſloore, or as ỹ encreaſe of the wine preſſe.

31 And ye ſhal eat it in all r places, ye, and your houſholds: for it is your wages for your ſeruice in the Tabernacle of the Cō gregacion.

r As is in the 11 verſ

32 And ye ſhal ſ beare no ſinne by the reaſon of it, when ye haue offred the fat of it: nether ſhal ye pollute the holy t things of the children of Iſraél, leſt ye dye.

ſ Ye ſhal not be puniſhed therefore.

t The offrings which the Iſraelites haue offred to God.

CHAP. XIX.

2 The ſacrifice of the red kowe. 9 The ſprinkling water. 11 He that toucheth the dead. 14 The man that dyeth in a tent.

1 AND the Lord ſpake to Moſés, and to Aarón, ſaying,

2 a This is the ordināce of the lawe, which the Lord hathe commāded, ſaying, Speake vnto the children of Iſraél that they bring thee a red kowe without blemiſh, wherein is no ſpot, vpon the which neuer came yoke.

a According to this lawe & ceremonie, ye ſhal ſacrifice ỹ red kowe.

3 And ye ſhal giue her vnto Eleazár the Prieſt, that he may bring her * without the hoſte, and cauſe her to b be ſlaine before his face.

Ebr. 13,11.

b By another Prieſt.

4 Then ſhal Eleazár the Prieſt take of her blood with his * finger, & ſprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion ſeuen times,

Ebr. 9,13.

5 And cauſe ỹ kowe to be burnt in his ſight: with her * ſkin, & her fleſh, and her blood, and her doung ſhal he burne her.

Exod. 29,13. leu. 4,11.

6 Then ſhal the Prieſt take ceder wood, & hyſſope and ſkarlet lace, and caſt them in the middes of the fire where the kowe burneth.

7 Then ſhal the c Prieſt waſh his clothes, and he ſhal waſh his fleſh in water, and then come into the hoſte, and the Prieſt ſhalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

c Meaning Eleazár.

8 Alſo he that d burneth her, ſhal waſh his clod The inferior Prieſt which killed her & burned her.

clothes in water, and waſh his fleſh in water, and be vncleane vntil euen.

9 And a man, that is cleane, ſhal take vp the aſhes of the kowe, & put them without the hoſte in a cleane place: and it ſhalbe kept for the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél for [e] a ſprinkling water: it is a ſinne offring.

10 Therefore he that gathereth the aſhes of the kowe, ſhal waſh his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntil euen: and it ſhalbe vnto the children of Iſraél, and vnto the ſtranger that dwelleth among them, a ſtatute for euer.

11 He that toucheth the dead bodie of anie man, ſhalbe vncleane euen ſeuen daies.

12 He ſhal purifie him ſelfe [f] therewith the third day, and the ſeuenth day he ſhalbe cleane: but if he purifie not him ſelfe the third day, then the ſeuenth day he ſhal not be cleane.

13 Whoſoeuer toucheth the corps of anie man that is dead, and purgeth not him ſelfe, defileth ỹ Tabernacle of the Lord, & that perſone ſhalbe [g] cut of from Iſraél, becauſe the ſprinkling water was not ſprinkled vpon him: he ſhalbe vncleane, and his vnclennes ſhal remaine ſtil vpon him.

14 This is the lawe, When a man dyeth in a tent, all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes,

15 And all the veſſels that be open, which haue no [m] couering faſtened vpō them, ſhal be vncleane.

16 Alſo whoſoeuer toucheth one that is ſlaine with a ſworde in ỹ fielde, or a dead perſone, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes.

17 Therefore for an vncleane perſone thei ſhal take of the burnt aſhes of the [h] ſin offring, and [i] pure water ſhal be put thereto in a veſſel.

18 And a [k] cleane perſone ſhal take hyſſope and dip it in the water, and ſprinkle it vpon the tent, and vpon all the veſſels, and on the perſones that were therein, and vpon him that touched the bone, or ỹ ſlaine, or the dead, or the graue.

19 And the cleane perſone ſhal ſprinkle vpon the vncleane the third day, and the ſeuenth day, and he ſhal purifie him ſelf the ſeuenth day, & [l] waſh his clothes, & waſh him ſelfe in water, & ſhalbe cleane at euē.

20 But the man that is vncleane and purifieth not him ſelfe, that perſone ſhalbe cut of from amōg the Congregacion, becauſe he hathe defiled the Sanctuarie of the Lord: and the ſprinkling water hathe not bene ſprinkled vpon him: therefore ſhal he be vncleane.

21 And it ſhalbe a perpetual lawe vnto thē, that he that ſprinkleth the ſprinkling water, ſhal waſh his clothes: alſo he that toucheth the ſprinkling water, ſhal be vncleane vntil euen.

22 And whatſoeuer the vncleane perſone toucheth, ſhal be vncleane: and the perſone that toucheth [m] him, ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

[e] Or the water of ſeperation, becauſe that they that were ſeparate for their vnclennes, were ſprinkled therewith & made cleane, Chap 8,7 It is alſo called holy water, becauſe it was ordeined to an holy vſe, Chap 5,17

[f] With the ſprinkling water.

[g] So that he ſhulde not be eſtemed to be of the holy people, but as a polluted & excōmunicate perſone

[m] By a couering of cloth.

[h] Of the red kowe burnt for ſinne

[i] Water of ỹ fountaine or riuer.

[k] One of the Prieſts which is cleane

[l] Becauſe he had bene amōg them that were vncleane: or els had touched the water, as ver. 21.

[m] That is vncleane

CHAP. XX.

1 Miriám dyeth 2 The people murmure. 8 They haue water out of the rocke. 14 Edóm denyeth the Iſraelites paſſage. 25. 28 The death of Aarón, in whoſe rowme Eleazár ſucceedeth.

1 THen the children of Iſraél came with the whole Congregacion to the deſert of Zín in the firſt [a] moneth, and the people abode at Kadéſh: where [b] Miriám dyed, and was buryed there.

2 But there was no water for the Congregacion, and they [c] aſſembled them ſelues againſt Moſés and againſt Aarón.

3 And the people chode with Moſés, and ſpake, ſaying, Wolde God we had periſhed, *when our brethren dyed before ỹ Lord.

4 *Why haue ye thus broght the Congregacion of the Lord vnto this wildernes, ỹ both we, and our cattel ſhulde dye there?

5 Wherefore now haue ye made vs to come vp frō Egypt, to bring vs into this miſerable place, which is no place of ſede, nor figs, nor vines, nor pomgranates? nether is there anie water to drinke.

6 Then Moſés and Aarón went from the aſſemblie vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and fel vpon their faces: and the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto them.

7 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

8 Take the [d] rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aarón the Congregacion together, and ſpeake ye vnto the rocke before their eies, & it ſhal giue forthe his water, and thou ſhalt bring them water out of the rocke: ſo thou ſhalt giue the Congregacion, and their beaſtes drinke.

9 Then Moſés toke the rod frō before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moſés and Aarón gathered ỹ Cōgregacion together before the rocke, and Moſes ſayd vnto them, Heare now, ye rebels: [e] ſhal we bring you water out of this rocke?

11 Then Moſés lift vp his hand, and with his rod he ſmote the rocke twiſe, and the water came out abundantly: ſo the Congregacion, and their beaſts dranke.

12 ¶Agayne the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés & to Aarón, Becauſe ye beleued me not, to [f] ſanctifie me in the preſence of the children of Iſraél, therefore ye ſhal not bring this Congregacion into the land which I haue giuen them.

13 This is the water [g] of Meribáh, becauſe the children of Iſraél ſtroue with ỹ Lord,

[a] This was fourtie yeres after their departure from Egypt

[b] Moſés and Aarons ſiſter

[c] Another rebellion was in Raphidim, Exod 17, and this was in Kadéſh Chap 11,33. Exod. 17,2.

[d] Wherewith thou dideſt miracles in Egypt, and dideſt deuide ỹ Sea

[e] The puniſhment, which followed hereof, declared that Moſés & Aaron beleued not the Lords promes, as appeareth verſ 12

[f] That ỹ children of Iſraél ſhulde beleue and acknowledge my power, & ſo honour me and he [h] was ſanctified in them.

[g] Or, ſtrife, & contencion.

14 ¶Then Moſés ſent meſſengers from Kadéſh vnto ỹ King of [i] Edóm, ſaying, Thus ſaith thy brother Iſraél, Thou knoweſt all the trauaile that we haue had,

15 How our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euil & our fathers.

16 But when we cryed vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and ſent an Angel, & hathe broght vs out of Egypt, & beholde, we are in ỹ citie Kadéſh, in thine vtmoſt border.

17 I pray thee that we may paſſe through thy countrey: we wil not go through the fieldes nor the vineyardes, nether wil we drinke of the water of the welles: we wil go by the [m] kings way, and nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntil we be paſt thy borders.

18 And Edóm anſwered him, [n] Thou ſhalt not paſſe by me, leſt I come out againſt thee with the ſworde.

19 Then the children of Iſraél ſaid vnto him, We wil go vp by the hie way: & if I and my cattel drinke of thy water, I wil then paye for it: I wil onely (without anie harme) go through on my fete.

20 He anſwered againe, Thou ſhalt not go through. Thē [o] Edóm came out againſt him with muche people, and with a mighty power.

21 Thus Edóm denied to giue Iſraél paſſage through his coūtrie: wherefore Iſraél [k] turned away from him.

22 ¶And when the children of Iſraél with all the Congregacion departed from *Kadeſh, they came vnto the mount Hor.

23 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés and to Aarón in the mount Hor nere the coſte of the land of Edóm, ſaying, 24 Aarón ſhalbe [l] gathered vnto his people: for he ſhal not entre into the land, wt I haue giuen vnto the children of Iſraél, becauſe ye [p] diſobeied my commandement at the water [q] of Meribáh.

25 Take *Aarón and Eleazár his ſonne, & bring them vp into the mount Hor, 26 And cauſe Aarón to put of his garmēts & put them vpon Eleazár his ſonne: for Aarón ſhal be gathered to his fathers, and ſhal dye there.

27 And Moſés did as the Lord had commāded: & they went vp into the mount Hor, in the ſight of all the Congregacion.

28 And Moſés put of Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazár his ſonne: *ſo Aarón dyed there in the top of the moūt: and Moſés and Eleazár came downe from of the mount.

29 When all the Congregacion ſawe that Aarón was dead, all the houſe of Iſraél wept [r] for Aarón thirtie dayes.

CHAP. XXI.

3 Iſraél vanquiſheth King Arád 6 The firy ſerpentes are ſent for the rebellion of the people 24 33 Sihon and Og are ouercome in battel.

1 WHen King *Arád the Canaanite, which dwelt toward the South, heard tel that Iſraél came by the [a] waie of the ſpies, then fogh he againſt Iſraél, and toke of them priſoners.

2 So Iſraél vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and ſaid, If thou wilt deliuer and giue this people into mine hand, then I wil vtterly deſtroye their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voyce of Iſraél, and deliuered them the Canaanites: & they vtterly deſtroyed them and their cities, & called the name of the place [e] Hormáh.

4 ¶After, they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the red Sea, to [b] compaſſe the land of Edóm: and the people were ſore grieued becauſe of the way.

5 And the people ſpake againſt God and againſt Moſés, ſaying, Wherefore haue ye broght vs out of Egypt, to dye in the wildernes? for here is nether bread nor water, and our ſoule *lotheth this light [c] bread.

6 *Wherefore the Lord ſent [d] firy ſerpentes among the people which ſtōg the people: ſo that manie of the people of Iſraél dyed.

7 Therefore the people came to Moſés and ſaid, We haue ſinned: for we haue ſpoken againſt the Lord, and againſt thee: praye to the Lord, that he take away the ſerpents from vs: and Moſés prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Make thee a firy ſerpent, and ſet it vp [f] for a ſigne, that as manie as are bitten, may loke vpon it, and liue.

9 * So Moſés made a ſerpent of braſſe, and ſet it vp for a ſigne: and when a ſerpent had bitten a man, then he loked to the ſerpent of braſſe, and [g] liued.

10 *And the children of Iſraél departed thence, and pitched in Obóth.

11 ¶And they departed from Obóth, and pitched [s] in Ie-abarím, in the wildernes, which is before Moáb on the Eaſtſide.

12 ¶They remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Záred.

13 ¶Thence they departed, and pitched on the other ſide of Arnón, which is in the wildernes, and commeth out of the coſtes of the Amorites: (for Arnón is the border of Moáb, betwene the Moabites and the Amorites)

14 Wherefore it ſhalbe ſpoken in the boke of [e] the battels of the Lord, [t] what thing he did in the red Sea, and in the riuers of Arnón,

15 And at the ſtreame of ỹ riuers that goeth downe to ỹ dwelling of Ar, and lieth vpō the h By ſhewing hi ſelf almighti & maiteyning his glorie

i Becauſe Iaakób or Iſraél was Eſaus brother, who was called Edóm.

*Or, hie way.

*Or, come not

*Or, the Edomites.

k To paſſe by another way

Chap 33 37.

l Read Gen 25.8

*Or, rebelled.

*Or, ſtrife

Chap. 33.38. deut. 32.50.

Deu. 10.6. & 32.50.

*Or, mourned.

a By that way which their ſpies, that ſearched the dangers, found to be moſte ſafe.

*Or, deſtruction.

b For they were forbidden to deſtroy it, Deut 2.5.

Chap. 11 6.

c Meaning Mānā, which they thought did not nourish Wiſd 16.3.

1 cor 10.9.

d For they ỹ were ſtōg ther with, were ſo inflamed with the heat thereof, that they dyed.

*Or, vpon a pole.

2 Kin. 18.4. ion. 3.14.

*Or, recouered.

Chap 33.47.

*Or, in the heapes of Abarim, or, hilles.

e Which ſeemeth to be the boke of the Iudges, or as ſome thinke, a boke which is loſt

*Or, (How God deſtroyed) Vaheb (the citie) with a whirle winde, and the vallies of Arnon.

the border of Moáb.

16 ¶And from thence they turned to Beér: the ſame is the well where the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Aſſemble the people, and I wil giue them water.

(a) Or, Spring

17 ¶Then Iſraél ſang this ſong, (a) Riſe vp well, f ſing ye vnto it.

f Ye that receiue the cõmoditie therof, giue praiſe for it.

18 The princes digged this well, ỹ captaines of the people digged it, euen the g lawegiuer, with their ſtaues. And from the wildernes they came to Mattanáh, g Moſés and Aarón heades of the people onely ſmote ỹ rocke with ỹ rod or ſtaffe, which gaue water as a well, that were depe digged.

19 ¶And from Mattanáh to Nahaliél, and from Nahaliél to Bamoth, 20 ¶And fr̃ Bamóth in the valley, that is in the plaine of Moáb, to the top of Piſgáh that loketh toward Ieſhimón.

21 ¶Then Iſraél ſent meſſengers vnto Sihón, King of the Amorites, ſaying, Deu.2.26. Iudg 11.19.

22 *Let me go through thy land: we wil not turne aſide into the fields, nor into the vineyardes, neither drinke of the waters of ỹ welles: we wil go by the kings way, vntil we be paſt thy countrei.

Deu.29.7.

23 *But Sihón gaue Iſraél no licence to paſſe through his countrey, but Sihón aſſembled all his people, and went out againſt Iſraél into the wildernes: and he came to Iahóz, and foght againſt Iſraél.

Ioſh 12.2. pſal 134.11. amos 2.9

24 *But Iſraél ſmote him with the edge of the ſworde, and conquered his land, from Arnón vnto h Iabók, euen vnto the childrẽ of Ammón: for the border of the children of Ammón was ſtrong.

h The riuer.

i For the people were talle and ſtrong like gyãts. Deu 2.20 25 And Iſraél toke all theſe cities, & dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Heſhbón and in all the "villages thereof.

"Eb. daughters

k For if it had bene the Moabites, the Israelites might not haue poſſeſſed it, Deu. 2.9

26 For k Heſhbón was the citie of Sihón the King of the Amorites, which had foght before time againſt the King of the Moabites, and had taken all his land out of his hand, euen vnto Arnón.

27 Wherefore they that ſpake in prouerbes, ſay, Come to Heſhbón, let the citie of Sihón be buylt and repared:

l Meaning, warre

28 For l a fire is gone out of Heſhbón, and a flame from the citie of Sihón, and hathe conſumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bamóth in Arnón.

m Chemóſh was the Idole of the Moabites, 1 Kin 11, 33 who was not able to defende his worſhippers, ỹ toke ỹ idole for their father 29 Wo be to thee, Moáb: ô people of m Chemóſh, thou art vndone: he hathe ſuffred his ſonnes to be purſued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie to Sihón the King of the Amorites.

"Ebr light.

30 Their "empire is loſt from Heſhbón vnto Dibón, and we haue deſtroyed them vnto Nóphah, which reacheth vnto Medebá.

31 ¶Thus Iſraél dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moſés ſent to ſearch out Iaazér, and they toke the townes belõging thereto, and roted out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶*And they turned and went vp toward Baſhán: & Óg the King of Baſhán came out againſt them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edréi.

Deu. 3.1. & 29.7.

34 Then the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand & all his people, and his land: * and thou ſhalt do to him as thou dideſt vnto Sihón the King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heſhbón.

Pſal.135.22.

35 They ſmote him therefore, and his ſonnes, and all his people, vntil there was none left him: ſo they conquered his land.

CHAP. XXII.

5 King Balák ſendeth for Balaám to curſe the Israelites. 12 The Lord forbiddeth him to go. 22 The Angel of the Lord meteth him, & his aſſe ſpeaketh. 38 Balaám proteſteth that he wil ſpeake nothing, but that which the Lord putteth in his mouthe.

1 AFter, the children of Iſraél departed and pitched in the plaine of Moáb on the a other ſide of Iordén from Ierichó.

a Being at Ierichó, it was beyonde Iordén: but where the Israelites were, it was on this ſide

2 ¶Now Balák the ſonne of Zippór ſawe all that Iſraél had done to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were ſore afraide of the people, becauſe they were manie, and Moáb "freated againſt the children of Iſraél.

"Or, was vexed.

4 Therefore Moáb ſaid vnto the b Elders of Midián, Now ſhal this multitude licke vp all that are rounde about vs, as an oxe licketh vp the graſſe of the field: and Balák the ſonne of Zippór was King of the Moabites at that time.

b Which were the heades & gouerners.

5 *He ſent menſſengers therefore vnto Balaám the ſonne of Beór to Pethór (which is by the c riuer of the land of the childrẽ of his folke) to call him, ſaying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couer the face of the earth, and lie ouer againſt me.

Ioſh.24.9.

c To wit, Euphrátes, vpon ỹ which ſtode this citie Pethor.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curſe me this people (for they are ſtronger then I) ſo it may be that I ſhal be able to ſmite thẽ and to driue them out of the lãd: for I knowe that he, whome thou bleſſeſt, is bleſſed, and he whome thou curſeſt, ſhalbe curſed.

7 And the Elders of Moáb, and the Elders of Midián departed, hauing d the rewarde of the ſoothſaying in their hand, and they came vnto Balaám, & tolde him the wordes of Balák.

d Thinking to bribe him ỹ giftes to curſe the Israelites.

8 Who anſwered them, Tary here this night, and I wil giue you an anſwer, as the Lord ſhal ſay vnto me So e the princes of Moáb abode with Balaám.

e Whome before he called Elders meaning, the gouerners, & after calleth thẽ ſeruantes: that is, ſubiectes to their King.

9 Then God came vnto Balaám, and ſaid, What men are theſe with thee?

10 And Balaám ſaid vnto God, Balák the ſonne of Zippór, King of Moáb hathe ſent vnto me, ſaying, 11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt and couereth the face of the earth: come nowe, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shal be able to ouercome them in battel, and to driue them out.

f He warned him by a dreame ỹ he shulde not consent to the kings wicked requeste

12 And God f said vnto Balaám, Go not thou with them, nether curse the people, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaám rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balák, Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hathe refused to giue g me leaue to go with you.

g Els he shewed him selfe willing, couetousnes had so blinded his heart.

14 So the princes of Moáb rose vp, and wẽt vnto Balák, and said, Balaám hathe refused to come with vs.

15 ¶ Balák yet sent againe mo princes, and more honorable then they.

16 Who came to Balaám, and said to him, Thus saieth Balák the sonne of Zippór, h Be not thou stayed, I pray thee, from cõming vnto me.

h The wicked seke by all meanes to forther their naughty enterprises, though thei knowe that God is against them

17 For I wil promote thee vnto great honour, and wil do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaám answered, and sayd vnto the seruantes of Balák, * If Balák wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not go beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to do lesse or more.

Chap 24.13.

19 But nowe, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord wil say vnto me i more.

i Because he tempted God to require hi cõtrary to his cõmandement, his petition was granted, but it turned to his owne cõdemnation.

20 And God came vnto Balaám by night, and said vnto him, If the mẽ come to call thee, rise vp, and go with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 So Balaám rose vp early, and sadled his asse, and went with the princes of Moáb.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he k went: & the Angel of the Lord stode in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruantes were with him.

k Moued rether with couetousnes, thẽ to obey God.

2. Pet. 2.16. Iude 11.

23 And * when the asse sawe the Angel of ỹ Lord stãd in the way, and his sworde drawen in his hand, the asse turned out of ỹ waie and went into the field, but Balaám smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

l The seconde time.

24 l Againe the Angel of the Lord stode in a path of the vineyardes, having a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dasht Balaams fote against the wall: wherefore he smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, ether to the right hand, or to the left.

rOr, fel.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she r lay downe vnder Balaám: therefore Balaám was very wrath, and smote the asse with a staffe.

28 Then the Lord m opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaám, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me nowe thre times?

m Gaue her powr to speake.

29 And Balaám said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I wolde there were a sworde in mine hand, for now wolde I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaám, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon n sincẽ thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed at anie time to do thus vnto thee? Who said, Nay.

n Since thou hast bene my master

31 And the Lord o opened the eies of Balaam, and he sawe the Angel of the Lord stãding in the way with his sworde drawẽ in his hand: then he bowed him selfe, and fel flat on his face.

o For whose eyes the Lord doeth not opẽ, they can nether se his angre, nor his loue.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse thre times? beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because thy p way is not straight before me.

p Bothe thy heart is corrupt and thine étreprise wicked.

33 But the asse sawe me, and turned fro me now thre times: for els, if she had not turned fro me, surely I had euẽ now slaine thee, and saued her aliue.

34 Then Balaám said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stodest in the way *against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I wil turne *home againe.

Or, before me, or, to mete me.*

Ebr I wil returne to me*

35 But the Angel said vnto Balaám, Go with the men: but q what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaám went with the princes of Balák.

q Because his heart was euil his charg was renued, that he shulde not pretend ignorãce.

36 And when Balák heard that Balaám came, he went out to mete him vnto a citie of Moáb, which is in the r border of Arnón, euen in the vtmost coste.

r Nere the place, where the Israelites camped.

37 Then Balák said vnto Balaám, Did I not send for thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not vnto me? am I not able in dede to promote thee vnto honour.

38 And Balaám made answer vnto Balák, Lo, I am come vnto thee, & can I now say s anie thing at all? the worde that God purteth in my mouth, that shal I speake.

s Of my selfe I can speake nothing: onely what God reueleth, ỹ wil I vtter, seme it good or bad 39 So Balaám went with Balák, and thei came vnto the citie of *Huzóth.

Or, of streetes: or, a populous citie.*

40 Then Balák offred bullockes, and shepe, and sent thereof to Balaám, and to ỹ princes that were with him.

41 And on the morow Balák toke Balaám, and broght him vp into the hie places of *Baál, that thence he might se the vtmost parte of the people.

t Where the idole Baál was worshiped.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Balaám causeth seuẽ Altars to be buylt. 5 God teacheth him what to answer 8 In stede of cursing he blesseth Israél. 19 God is not like man.

1 And

1 AND Balaám ſaid vnto Balák, Build me here ſeuen altars, and prepare me here ſeuen bullockes, and ſeuen rams.

a For among the Gentiles the Kings oft times vſed to ſacrifice, as did ‡ Priſts

2 And Balák did as Balaám ſaid, and a Balák and Balaám offred on euerie altar a bullocke and a ram.

3 Then Balaám ſaid vnto Balák, Stand by thy burnt offring, & I wil go, if ſo be that the Lord wil come and mete me: & whatſoeuer he ſheweth me, I wil tel thee: ſo he *went for the alone.

*Or, whether vp hier

b Appeared vnto him

4 And God b met Balaám, and Balaám ſaid vnto him, I haue prepared ſeuen altars, & haue offred vpon euerie altar a bullocke and a ram.

c Taught him what to ſay

5 And the Lord c put an anſwer in Balaãs mouth, and ſaid, Go againe to Balak, and ſay on this wiſe.

6 So when he returned vnto him, lo, he ſtode by his burnt offring, he, & all the princes of Moáb.

*Or, prophecie

7 Then he vttered his *parable, and ſaid, Balák the King of Moáb hathe broght me from *Aram out of the mountaines of the Eaſt, ſaying, Come, curſe Iaakób for my ſake: come, and d deteſt Iſraél.

*Or, Syria.

d Cauſe that all men may hate & deteſt them

8 How ſhal I curſe, where God hathe not curſed? or how ſhal I deteſt, where ‡ Lord hathe not deteſted?

9 For frõ the top of the rocks I did ſe him, and from the hils I did beholde him: lo, the people ſhal dwel by them ſelues, and ſhal not be rekened among the e nacions.

e But ſhal haue religion & lawes a parte

10 Who can tel the f duſt of Iaakób, and the nomber of the fourth parte of Iſraél? Let me g dye the death of the righteous, and let my laſt end be like his.

f The infinite multitude, as the duſt of the earth

g The feare of Gods iudgements cauſed him to wiſh to be ioyned to the houſholde of Abrahám 11 Then Balák ſaid vnto Balaám, What haſt thou done vnto me? I toke thee to curſe mine enemies, and beholde, thou haſt bleſſed them altogether.

thus ‡ wicked haue their conſciences woũded when they conſider Gods iudgements

12 And he anſwered, and ſaid, Muſt I not take hede to ſpeake that, which the Lord hathe put in my mouth?

13 And Balák ſaid vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with me vnto an other place, whence thou maieſt ſe them, and thou ſhalt ſe but the vtmoſt parte of them, and ſhalt not ſe them all: therefore curſe thẽ out of that place for my ſake.

*Or, into the field of the that ſpied: to wit, leſt the enemy ſhalde approche.

14 ¶ And he broght him into *Sede-ſophím to the top of Piſgáh and buylt ſeuen altars, & offred a bullocke, & a ram on euerie altar.

15 After, he ſaid vnto Balák, Stand here by thy burnt offring, and I wil mete the Lord yonder.

*Chap 22,35.

16 And the Lord met Balaám, and* put an anſwer in his mouth, and ſaid, Go againe vnto Balák, and ſaie thus.

17 And when he came to him, beholde, he ſtode by his burnt offring, and the princes of Moáb with him: ſo Balák ſaid vnto him, What hathe the Lord ſaid?

18 And he vttered his parable, & ſaid, Riſe vp, Balák, and heare: hearken vnto me, thou ſonne of Zippór.

h Gods enemies are cõpelled to confeſſe that his gouernement is iuſte, conſtant, & without chãge or repentance.

19 h God is not as man, that he ſhulde lie, nether as the ſonne of man that he ſhulde repent: hathe he ſaid, and ſhal he not do it? and hathe he ſpoken, and ſhal he not accompliſh it?

20 Beholde, I haue receiued commandement to bleſſe: for he hathe bleſſed, & I can not alter it.

21 He ſeeth none iniquitie in Iaakób, nor ſeeth no tranſgreſsion in Iſraél: the Lord his God is with him, & the i ioyful ſhoute of a King is among them.

i Thei triũphe as victorious Kings ouer their enemies.

22 God broght them out of Egypt: their ſtrength is as an vnicorne.

23 For there is no ſorcerie in Iaakób, nor ſoothſaying in Iſraél: k according to this time it ſhalbe ſaid of Iaakób and of Iſraél, What hathe God wroght?

k Conſiderieg what God ſhal worke this time for the deliuerãce of his people, all the worlde ſhal wonder.

24 Beholde, the people ſhal riſe vp as a liõ, and lift vp him ſelf as a yong lion: he ſhal not lie downe, til he eat of the praie, and til he drinke the blood of the ſlaine.

25 ¶ Then Balák ſaid vnto Balaám, Nether curſe, nor bleſſe them at all.

26 But Balaám anſwered, and ſaid vnto Balák, Tolde not I thee, ſaying, All that the Lord ſpeaketh, that muſt I do?

27 ¶ Againe Balák ſaid vnto Balaám, Come, I pray thee, I wil bring thee vnto another l place, if ſo be it wil pleaſe God, that thou maieſt thence curſe them for my ſake.

l Thus ‡ wicked imagine of God, that, that which he wil not graunte in one place, he wil do it in another.

28 So Balák broght Balaám vnto the top of Peór, that loketh toward Ieſhmón.

29 Then Balaám ſaid vnto Balák, Make me here ſeuen altars, and prepare me here ſeuen bullockes, and ſeuen rams.

30 And Balák did as Balaám had ſaid, and offred a bullocke and a ram on euerie altar.

CHAP. XXIIII

1 Balaám prophecieth of the great proſperitie that ſhulde come vnto Iſraél 17 Alſo of the cõming of Chriſt. 20 The deſtruction of the Amalekites, and of the Kenites.

1 WHen Balaám ſawe that it pleaſed the Lord, to bleſſe Iſraél, then he went not, * as certeine times before, to ſet diuinacions, but ſet his face toward the a wildernes.

*Chap.23,3.

a Where the Iſraelites cãped.

2 And Balaám lift vp his eies, and loked vpõ Iſraél, which dwelt accordĩg to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came vpon him.

3 * And he vttered his parable, and ſaid, Balaám the ſonne of Beór hathe ſaid, and the man, whoſe eies b were ſhut vp, hathe ſaid,

*Chap.23,7.

b His eies were ſhut vp before in reſpect of ‡ cleare viſions ‡ he ſawe after: ſome reade, were open.

4 He hathe ſaid, which heard the wordes of God, and ſawe the viſion of the Al-mightie, and c falling in a trance had his eies opened.

c Though he laye as in a slepe, yet the eies of his minde were open

5 ¶How goodlie are thy tẽts, ô Iaakób, & thine habitacions, ô Isráel?

6 As the valleis, are thei stretched forthe, as gardẽs by the riuers side, as the d aloe trees, which the Lord hathe planted, as the cedars, beside the waters.

d Heb. tentes.

d His prosperitie and posteritie shalbe verie great 7 The d water droppeth out of his bucket, and his sede shalbe in many waters, & his King shalbe hier then e Agág, & his kingdome shalbe exalted.

e Which name was commẽ to the Kings of Amalék.

8 God broght him out of Egypt: his strength shalbe as an vnicorne: he shal eat the nacions his enemies, and bruise their bones, and shoote them through with his arrowes.

Gen. 49. 9.

9 * He coucheth and lieth downe as a yong lyon, & as a lyon: who shal stirre him vp? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 Then Balák was verie angry ẅ Balaám, and f smote his hands together: so Balák said vnto Balaám, I sent for thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them now thre times.

f In token of anger.

11 Therefore now flee vnto thy place: I thoght surely to promote thee vnto honour, but lo, the g Lord hathe kept thee backe from honour.

g Thus ỹ wicked burden God, whẽ thei cã not compas their wicked enterprises.

12 Then Balaám answered Balák, Tolde I not also thy messengers, which thou sentest vnto me, saying,

13 If Balák wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not passe the commandement of the Lord, to do ether good or bad of mine owne minde: what the Lord shal cõmãde, that same wil I speake.

14 And now beholde, I go vnto my people: come, I wil [w] [h] aduertise thee what this people shal do to thy folke in the later daies.

w Ebr. counsel.

h He gaue also wicked coũsel to cause ỹ Israelites to sinne, that thereby God might forsake them. Chap 31, 16.

15 And he vttered his parable, and said, Balaám the sonne of Beór hathe said, and the man whose eies were shut vp, hathe said.

16 He hathe said that heard the wordes of God, & hathe the knowledge of the moste high, & sawe the vision of the Almightie, and falling in a trance had his eies opened:

17 I shal se him, but not now: I shal beholde him, but not nere: there shal come a [i] starre of Iaakób, and a scepter shal rise of Israél, and shal smite the [k] coastes of Moáb, and destroye all the sonnes of [l] Shéth.

i Meaning, Christ.

k That is, the princes

l He shal subdue all that resist: for of Shéth came Noáh, and of Noáh all the worlde.

18 And Edóm shalbe possessed, and Seír shalbe a possession to their enemies: but Israél shal do valiantly.

19 He also that shal haue dominiõ shalbe of Iaakób, and shal destroye the remnant of the [m] citie.

m Of the Edomites.

20 ¶And when he loked on Amalék, he vttered his parable, and said, Amalék was the [n] first of the nacions: but his later end shal come to destruction.

n The Amalekites first made warre against Israél, as Chap. 14, 45.

21 And he loked on the [o] Kenites, and vttered his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and [o] put thy nest in the rocke.

o Or, Midianites

o Make thy selt as strong as thou canst

22 Neuertheles, [p] the Kenite shalbe spoiled vntil Asshúr cary thee away captiue.

p Or, thou Kain shalt.

23 Againe he vttered his parable, and said, Alas, [p] who shal liue when God doeth this?

P Some read, Oh, who shal not perish, when the enemie, that is, Antichrist, shal set him self vp as God?

24 The shippes also shal come frõ the coastes of [q] Chittím and subdue Asshúr, and shal subdue Ebér, and [r] he also shal come to destruction.

q The Grecians, and Romains

r Meaning, Eber, or the Iewes, for rebelling against God.

25 Then Balaám rose vp, and went and returned to his place: and Balák also went his way.

CHAP. XXV.

a The people committeth fornicacion with the daughters of Moáb. 9 Phinehás killeth Zimri & Cozbi. 11 God maketh his couenant with Phinehás. 17 God commandeth to kil the Midianites.

1 NOw whiles Israél abode in Shittím, the people began to cõmit whoredome with the [a] daughters of Moáb:

a With ỹ woman.

2 Which called ỹ people vnto the sacrifice of their gods, & the people ate, & bowed downe to their gods.

3 And Israél [b] coupled him self vnto Báal Peór: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israél:

b Worshipped the idole of ỹ Moabites, ẅ was in the hil Peór

4 And the Lord said vnto Moses, * Take all the heades of the people, & hang them vp [c] before the Lord [c] against the sunne, that the indignacion of the Lords wrath may be turned from Israél.

Deut. 4. 3. Iosh. 22. 17.

c Or, to the Lord.

c Openly in ỹ sight of all

5 Then Moses said vnto the Iudges of Israél, Euerie one slay his [d] men that were ioyned vnto Báal Peór.

d Let him se execucio done of them that are vnder his charge.

6 ¶And beholde, one of the children of Israél came and broght vnto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregacion of the children of Israél, [e] who wept before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

e Repenting ỹ thei had offended God

7 *And when Phinehás the sonne of Eleazár the sonne of Aarón the Priest sawe it, he rose vp from the middes of the Congregacion, and toke a [f] speare in his hand, Psal 106. 30. 1. mac. 2. 54.

f Or, staueling.

8 And followed the man of Israél into the tent, & thrust them bothe through: to wit, the man of Israél, and the womã, [g] through her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israél.

g Or, in her tender Child & Greke, in her secrets.

9 * And there dyed in that plague, foure & twentie thousand.

1. Cor. 10. 8.

10 Then ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 *Phinehás ỹ sonne of Eleazár, the sonne of Aarón the Priest, hathe turned mine anger anger away from the children of Iſraél, while he f was zelous for my ſake among them: therefore I haue not conſumed the children of Iſraél in my zelouſie.

Psal 106. 30.

f He was zealous to maintein my glorie

Eccle 45,24. 1 mac.2,54.

12 Wherefore ſaye to him, Beholde,* I giue vnto him my couenant of peace, 13 And he ſhal haue it, and his ſede after him, euen the couenant of the Prieſts office for euer, becauſe he was zelous for his God, and hathe made an g atonement for the children of Iſraél.

g He hathe pacified Gods wrath.

14 And the name of the Iſraelite thus ſlayne, which was killed with the Midianitiſh woman, was Zimrí the ſonne of Salú, prince * of the familie of the Simeonites.

*Or of the house of the father

15 And the name of the Midianitiſh womã, that was ſlaine, was Cozbí the daughter of Zur, who was head ouer the people of his fathers houſe in Midián.

16 ¶Againe the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

Chap 31,2.

17 *Vexe the Midianites, and ſmite them:

h Causing you to cõmit both corporal and ſpiritual fornication by Balams counſel, Chap 31,16. Reu 2,14.

18 For they trouble you with their h wiles, wherewith they haue beguiled you as concerning Peór, & as concerning their ſiſter Cozbi the daughter of a prince of Midián, which was ſlaine in the day of the plague becauſe of Peór.

CHAP. XXVI.

2 The Lord cõmandeth to nomber the children of Iſraél in the plaine of Moáb, from twẽty yere olde & aboue. 57 The Leuites and their families 64 None of them, that were nombred in Sinai, go in to Canaan ſaue Caléb, and Ioſhua.

i Which came for their whoredome & idolatrie

1 AND ſo after the a plague, the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, & to Eleazar the ſonne of Aarón the Prieſt, ſaying,

2 Take the nomber of all the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél * from twẽty yere olde and aboue through out their fathers houſes, all that go forthe to warre in Iſraél.

Chap.1,3.

3 So Moſés & Eleazár the Prieſt ſpake vnto them in the plaine of Moáb, by Iordén b towarde Ierichó, ſaying, b Where the riuer is nere to Ierichó.

4 From twenty yere olde and aboue y^t ſhal nomber the people, as the * Lord had cõmanded Moſés, and the children of Iſraél, whẽ they came out of the land of Egypt.

Chap.1,1.

Gen 46,9. exod 6,14. 1 chro 5 1.

5 ¶*Reubén ŷ firſt borne of Iſraél: ŷ childrẽ of ‖Reubén were: Hanóch, of whome came the familie of the Hanochites, and of Pallú the familie of the Palluites:

‖Reubén.

6 Of Heſrón, the familie of the Heſronites: of Carmí, the familie of ŷ Carmites.

7 Theſe are ŷ families of the Reubenites: and they were in nomber thre & fourtie thouſand, ſeuen hundreth and thirty.

8 And the ſonnes of Pallú, Eliáb:

9 And the ſonnes of Eliáb, Nemuél, & Dathán, and Abirám: this Dathán and Abiram were famous in the Congregacion, and *ſtroue againſt Moſés and againſt Aarón in c the aſſemblie of Kórah, whẽ they ſtroue againſt the Lord.

Chap.16,2.

c In that rebelliõ where of Kórah was head.

10 And the earth opened her mouth, and ſwalowed them vp with Kórah, when the Congregacion dyed, what time the fire conſumed two hundreth and fifty men, who were d for a ſigne:

d That is, for an example ŷ other ſhulde not murmure and rebelle againſt Gods miniſters.

11 Notwithſtanding, all the ſonnes of Kórah dyed not.

12 ¶And the childrẽ of ‖Simeón after their families were: Nemuél, of whome came ŷ familie of the Nemuelites: of Iamín, the familie of the Iaminites: of Iachín, the familie of the Iachinites:

‖Simeón.

13 Of Zérah, the familie of the Zarhites: of Shaúl, the familie of the Shaulites.

14 Theſe are the families of the Simeonites: two and twenty thouſand and two hundreth.

15 ¶The ſonnes of ‖Gad after their families were: Zephón, of whome came ŷ familie of the Zephonites: of Haggí, the familie of the Haggites: of Shuni, the familie of the Shunites:

‖Gad.

16 Of Ozni, the familie of the Oznites: of Erí, the familie of the Erites:

17 Of Aród, the familie of the Arodites: of Arelí, the familie of the Arelites.

18 Theſe are the families of the ſonnes of Gad, according to their nombers, fourty thouſand and fiue hundreth.

19 ¶The ſõnes of ‖Iudáh, Er & Onán: but Er and Onan dyed in the land of e Canáan.

‖Iudáh

e Before Iaakób went into Egypt Gen. 38,3. & 7.

20 So were the ſonnes of Iudáh after their families: of Sheláh came the familie of the Shelanites: of Phárez, ŷ familie of ŷ Pharzites, of Zérah, the familie of ŷ Zarhites.

21 And the ſonnes of *Pharéz were: of Heſrón, the familie of ŷ Heſronites: of Hamúl, the familie of the Hamulites.

Gen.46,12.

22 Theſe are the families of Iudáh, after their nombers, ſeuẽty ad ſix thouſand and fiue hundreth.

23 ¶The ſonnes of ‖Iſſachár, after their families were: Tolá, of whome came the familie of the Tolaites: of Puá, the familie of the Punites:

‖Iſſachár.

24 Of Iaſhúb ŷ familie of ŷ Iaſhubites: of Shimrón the familie of the Shimronites.

25 Theſe are the families of Iſſachár, after their nombers, thre ſcore and foure thouſand and thre hundreth.

26 ¶The ſonnes of ‖Zebulún, after their families were: of Séred, the familie of ŷ Sardites: of Elón, the familie of the Elonites: of Iahleél, the familie of the Iahleelites.

‖Zebuléõ

27 Theſe are the families of the Zebulunites, after their nõbers, thre ſcore thouſand and fiue hundreth.

28 ¶The ſonnes of Ioſéph, after their families were ‖Manaſſéh and Ephráim.

‖Manaſſeh

29 The ſonnes of Manaſſéh were: of *Machír, ŷ familie of ŷ Machirites: & Machír begate Gileád: of Gileád came ŷ familie of the Giliadites.

Ioſh 17,1.

30 Theſe are the ſonnes of Giliád: of Iezér, the familie of the Iezerites: of Hélek, the familie of the Helekites:
31 Of Aſriél, the familie of the Aſrielites: of Shéché, the familie of the Shichmites.
32 Of Shemidá, the familie of the Shemidaites: of Hépher, the familie of the Hepherites.
Chap.27.1. 33 ¶And *Zelophehád ỹ ſonne of Hépher had no ſonnes, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehád were Mahláh, and Noáh, Hogláh, Milcáh and Tirzáh.
34 Theſe are the families of Manaſſéh, and the nomber of them, two and fifty thouſand and ſeuen hundreth.
‖Ephráim. 35 ¶Theſe are the ſonnes of ‖Ephráim after their families: of Shutheláh came ỹ familie of the Shuthalhites: of Bechér, the familie of the Bachrites: of Táhan, the familie of the Tahanites.
36 And theſe are the ſonnes of Shutheláh: of Erán the familie of the Eranites.
37 Theſe are ỹ families of the ſonnes of Ephráim after their nóbers, two and thirtie thouſand and fiue hundreth. theſe are the ſonnes of Ioſéph after their families.
‖Beniamín. 38 ¶Theſe are the ſonnes of ‖Beniamín after their families: of Belá came the familie of the Baleites: of Aſhbél, the familie of the Aſhbelites: of Ahirám, the familie of the Ahiramites:
39 Of Shuphám, the familie of the Shuphamites: of Huphám, the familie of the Huphamites.
40 And the ſonnes of Belá were Ard and Naamán: of Ard came the familie of the Ardites, of Naamán, the familie of the Naamites.
41 Theſe are the ſonnes of Beniamín after their families, and their nombers, fiue and fourty thouſand and ſix hundreth.
‖Dan 42 ¶Theſe are ỹ ſonnes of ‖Dan after their families: of Shuhám came the familie of the Shuhamites: theſe are the families of Dan after their houſeholdes.
43 All the families of the Shuhamites were after their nombers, thre ſcore and foure thouſand, and foure hundreth.
‖Aſhér. 44 ¶The ſonnes of ‖ Aſhér after their families were: of Iimnáh, the familie of the Iimnites: of Iſuí, the familie of thè Iſuites: of Beriáh, the familie of the Beriites.
45 The ſonnes of Beriáh were, of Hebér the familie of the Heberites: of Malchiél, the familie of the Malchielites.
46 And the name of the daughter of Aſhér was Sárah.
47 Theſe are the families of the ſonnes of Aſhér after their nombers, thre and fifty thouſand and foure hundreth.
‖Naphtalí. 48 ¶The ſónes of ‖Naphtalí, after their families were of Iahzeél, the families of the Iahzeelites: of Guní, the familie of the Gunites.
49 Of Iézer, the familie of the Izrites: of Shillém, the familie of the Shillemites.
50 Theſe are the families of Naphtalí accordíg to their houſholdes, & their nóber, fiue & fourty thouſand & foure húdreth.
51 Theſe are the *nombers of the children of Iſraél: ſix hundreth, and one thouſand, ſeuen hnndreth and thirty. f This is the third time ỹ they are nombred.
52 ¶And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
53 Vnto theſe the lánd ſhal be deuided for an inheritáce, according to ỹ nóber of *names. Or, perſons.
54 *To manie thou ſhalt giue the more inheritáce, and to fewe thou ſhalt giue léſſe inheritance: to euerie one according to his nomber ſhalbe giuen his inheritance. Chap 33.54.
55 Notwithſtáding, the land ſhal be* deuided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers thér ſhal inherit: Ioſh.11.23.
56 According to the lot ſhal the poſſeſſion thereof be deuided betwene manie & fewe.
57 ¶*Theſe alſo are the nóbers of the Leuites, after their families: of Gerſhón came the familie of the Gerſhonites: of Kohath the familie of the Kohathites: of Merarí the familie of the Merarites. Exod.6.17.
58 Theſe are the families of Leuí, the familie of the Libnites: the familie of ỹ Hebronites: the familie of the Mahlites: the familie of the Muſhites: the familie of the Korhites: and Kohath begate Amram.
59 And Amrás wife was called* Iochébed the daughter of Leuí, ẅ was borne vnto Leuí in Egypt: and ſhe bare vnto Amrám Aarón, & Moſés, and Miriám their ſiſter. Exod.2.2. & 6.20.
60 And vnto Aarón were borne Nadab, & Abihú, Eleazár, and Ithamár.
61 *And Nadáb and Abihú dyed becauſe they offred ſtrange fire before the Lord. Leu.10.2. chap 3.4
62 And their nombers were thre & twenty thouſand, all males from a moneth olde and aboue: for they were not nombred among the childrē of Iſraél, becauſe there was none inheritance giuen them among the children of Iſraél. 1 chro.24.2.
63 ¶Theſe are the nombers of Moſés and Eleazár the Prieſt which nombred the children of Iſraél in the plaine of Moáb, nere Iordén, toward Ierichó.
64 And among theſe there was not a man of them, *whome Moſés and Aarón the Prieſt nóbred, whē they tolde the childrē of Iſraél in the wildernes of Sinái. g Wherein appeareth the great power of God, that ſo wonderfully increaſed his people 65 For the Lord ſaid of them, *They ſhal dye in the wildernes: ſo there was not left a man of them, ſaue Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh, & Ioſhúa the ſonnē of Nun. Chap 14.28. 1.Cor.10.6.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The lawe of the heritage of the daughters of Zelophehád. 12 The land of promes is ſhewed vnto Moſés. 16 Moſés praieth for a gouerner to the people. 18 Ioſhua

18 Ieſhúa is appointed in his ſtede.

Chap 26,33. & 36,11. Ioſ 17,3. 1 THen came the daughters of * Zelophehád, the ſonne of Hépher, the ſonne of Gileád, the ſonne of Machír, the ſónne of Manaſſéh, of the familie of Manaſſéh, the ſonne of Ioſéph, (and the names of his daughters were theſe, Mahláh, Noáh, and Hogláh, and Milcáh, and Tirzáh)

2 And ſtode before Moſés, and before Eleazár the Prieſt, and before the princes, and all the aſſembly, at the dore of ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregacion, ſaying, Chap 16,1. & 31. 3 Our father * dyed in the wildernes, and he was not among the aſſemblie of them that were aſſembled againſt ỹ Lord in the cõpanie of Kórah, but dyed in his a ſinne, and had no ſonnes.

a According as all mẽ dye, forasmuche as they are ſinners.

4 Wherefore ſhulde the name of our father be taken away from among his familie, becauſe he hathe no ſonne? giue vs a poſſeſsion among the brethren of our father.

b That is, their matter to be iuged, to knowe what he ſhulde determine, as he did all hard matters

5 Then Moſés broght their b cauſe before the Lord.

6 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehád ſpeake right: thou ſhalt giue them a poſſeſſion to inherit among their fathers brethrẽ, and ſhalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them.

8 Alſo thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the children of Iſraél, ſaying, If a man dye & haue no ſonne, then ye ſhal turne his inheritance vnto his daughter.

9 And if he haue no daughter, ye ſhal giue his inheritance vnto his brethren.

10 And if he haue no brethren, ye ſhal giue his inheritance vnto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye ſhal giue his inheritãce vnto his next kinſeman of his familie, and he ſhal poſſeſſe it: and this ſhal be vnto the children of Iſraél a lawe of c iudgement, as the Lord hathe commanded Moſés.

c Meaning an ordinance to iudge by Deu.32,49. 12 ¶ Againe ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, * Go vp into this moũt of Abarím, and behold the land which I haue giuen vnto the children of Iſraél.

13 And when thou haſt ſene it, thou ſhalt be gathered vnto thy people alſo, * as Aarón thy brother was gathered.

Chap.20,24.

Chap.20,12. 14 For ye were * diſobedient vnto my worde in the deſert of Zín, in the ſtriſe of the aſſemblie, to ſanctifie me in the waters before their eyes. * That is the water of Exod 17,7. d Or, ſtrife. d Meribáh in Kadéſh in the wildernes of Zin.

15 ¶ Then Moſés ſpake vnto the Lord, ſaying, d Who as he hathe created ſo he gouerneth the hearts of all mẽ. 16 Let the Lord God of d the ſpirits of all fleſh appoint a man ouer the Congregacion, 17 Who may e go out and in before them, & lead them out and in, that the Congregacion of the Lord be not as ſhepe, which haue not a ſhepeherd.

e That is, gouerne them & do his duetie, as 2 chr 1,10.

18 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Moſés, Take thee Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, in whome is the Spirit, and f put thine hands vpon him, f And ſo appoint him gouernour.

19 And ſet him before Eleazár the Prieſt, and before all the Congregacion, and giue him a charge in their ſight.

20 And g giue him of thy glorie, that all ỹ Congregacion of the children of Iſraél may obeie.

g Cõmend him to ỹ people as mete for ỹ office, & appointed by God.

Exod.28,30. 21 And he ſhal ſtand before Eleazár the Prieſt, who ſhal aſke counſel for him * by the h iudgement of Vrím before the Lord: at his worde they ſhal go out, and at his worde they ſhal come in, bothe he, and all the children of Iſraél with him & all the Congregacion.

h According to his office: ſignifiing that ỹ ciuile magiſtrat colde execute nothing but that ẅ he knewe to be ỹ wil of God

22 So Moſés did as the Lord had commãded him, & he toke Ioſhúa, & ſet him before Eleazár the Prieſt, and before all the Congregacion

23 Then he put his hands vpon him, & gaue him a i charge, as the Lord had ſpoken by the hand of Moſés.

i How he ſhulde gouerne hĩ ſelfe in his office

CHAP. XXVIII.

4 The daiely ſacrifice 9 The ſacrifice of the Sabbath, 11 Of the Moneth, 16 Of the Paſſeouer, 26 Of the firſt frutes.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Commande the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, Ye ſhal obſerue to offer vnto me in their due ſeaſon mine offring & a my bread, for my ſacrifices made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto me.

a By bread, he meaneth all maner of ſacrifice

Exod.29,38. 3 Alſo thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, * This is ỹ offring made by fire which ye ſhal offer vnto the Lord, two lambes of a yere olde without ſpot, dayly, for a continual burnt offring.

4 One lambe ſhalt thou prepare in ỹ morning, and the other lambe ſhalt thou prepare at euen.

Exod 16,36. Leui 2,1. Exod. 29,40. 5 *And the tẽth parte of an * Ephah of fine floure for a * meatoffring mingled with ỹ fourth parte of an *Hin of beaten oyle.

6 This ſhalbe a dailie burnt offring, as was made in ỹ moũt Siná: for a ſwete ſauour: it is a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

7 And the drinkeoffring thereof ſhal be the fourth parte of an Hin for one lambe in the holy place cauſe to powre the drinke offring vnto the Lord.

8 And the other lambe thou ſhalt prepare at euẽ: as the meat offring of the morning and as ỹ drinke offring thereof ſhalt thou prepare this b for an offring made by fire of ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord.

b The meat offring & drinke offring of ỹ euening ſacrifice.

9 ¶ But on the Sabbath day ye ſhal offer two lambes of a yere olde, without ſpot, and two c tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring mingled with oyle, & the drinke offring thereof.

c Of one measure Ephah.

10 This is the burnt offring of euerie Sabbath, beſide the d continual burnt offring, and drinke offring thereof.

d Which was offred euerie day at morning and at euening

11 ¶And in the beginning of your monethes, ye ſhal offer a burnt offring vnto the Lord, two yong bullockes, and a ram, and ſeuē lambes of a yere olde, with out ſpot,

12 And thre tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring mingled with oyle for one bullocke, and two tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring, mingled with oyle for one ram, 13 And a tenth deale of fine floure mingled with oyle for a meat offring vnto one lābe, for a burnt offring of ſwete ſauour: it is an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.

e That is, the wine that ſhal be powred vpon the ſacrifice.

14 And their e drinke offrings ſhalbe halfe an Hin of wine vnto one bullocke, & the third parte of an Hin vnto a ram, and the fourth parte of an Hin vnto a lābe: this is ỹ burnt offring of euerie moneth, throughout the moneths of the yere.

15 And one he goat for a ſin offring vnto the Lord ſhalbe prepared, beſides the continual burnt offring, & his drinke offring.

Exod.12.18. & 23.15. Leu.23.5.

16 *Alſo the fourteneth day of the firſt moneth is the Paſſeouer of the Lord.

17 And in the fiftenth day of the ſame moneth is the feaſt: ſeuen daies ſhal vnleauened bread be eaten.

Leu.23.7.

f Or ſolemne aſſemblie.

18 In the* firſt day ſhalbe an holy f conuocacion, ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein.

19 But ye ſhal offer a ſacrifice made by fire for a burnt offring vnto the Lord, two yong bullockes, one ram, and ſeuē lambes of a yere olde: ſe that they be without blemiſh.

20 And their meat offring ſhal be of fine floure mingled with oyle: thre tenth deales ſhal ye prepare for a bullocke, and two tenth deales for a ram:

21 One tenth deale ſhalt thou prepare for euerie lambe, euen for the ſeuen lambes.

22 And an he goat for a ſin offring, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye ſhal prepare theſe, beſide the burnt offring in the morning, which is a continual burnt ſacrifice.

24 After this maner ye ſhal prepare through out all the ſeuen dayes, for the " maintening of the offring made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord: it ſhal be done beſide the continual burnt offring and drinke offring thereof.

" Or, bread.

25 And in the ſeuenth day ye ſhal haue an holy conuocacion, wherein ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke.

g In counting ſeuen wekes from the Paſſeouer to Witſontide, as Leuit 23.15.

26 ¶Alſo in ỹ day of your firſt frutes, when ye bring a newe meat offrīg vnto ỹ Lord, according to g your wekes ye ſhal haue an holy cōuocacion, and ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke in it:

27 But ye ſhal offer a burnt offring for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, two yōg bullockes, a ram, and ſeuen lambes of a yere olde,

28 And their meat offring of fine floure mingled with oyle, thre tenth deales vnto a bullocke, two tenth deales to a ram,

29 And one tenth deale vnto euerie lambe throughout the ſeuen lambes,

30 And an he goat to make an atonemēt for you:

31 (Ye ſhal do this beſides the cōtinual burnt offring, and his meat offring:) " ſe they be without blemiſh, with their drike offrīgs.

" Or, they ſhal be to you.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Of the thre principal feaſts of the ſeuenth moneth: to wit, the feaſt of trumpets, 7 The feaſt of reconciliacion, 12 And the feaſt of Tabernacles.

1 MOreouer in the firſt day of the a ſeuenth moneth ye ſhal haue an holy conuocacion: ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein: *it ſhalbe a day of blowing the trūpets vnto you.

a Which conteineth part of September, & parte of October Leu.23.24.

2 And ye ſhal make a burnt offring for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord: one yōg bullocke, one ram, & ſeuen lambes of a yere olde, without blemiſh.

3 And their meat offring ſhal be of fine floure mingled with oyle, thre tēth deales vnto the bullocke, and two tenth deales vnto the ram,

4 And one tenth deale vnto one lambe, for the ſeuen lambes,

5 And an he goat for a ſin offring to make an atonement for you,

6 Beſide the burnt offring of the b moneth, & his meat offring, and ỹ cōtinual c burnt offring, and his meat offring & the drinke offrings of the ſame, according to their maner, for a ſwete ſauour: it is a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

b Which muſt be offred in ỹ beginning of euerie moneth.
c Which is for morning & euening

7 ¶* And ye ſhal haue in the tenth day of ỹ ſeuenth moneth, an holy d cōuocacion: and ye ſhal humble your ſoules, and ſhal not do anie worke therein:

Leui.16.30. & 23.27.

d Which is ỹ feaſt of reconciliacion.

8 But ye ſhal offer a burnt offring vnto the Lord for a ſwete ſauour: one yong bullocke, a ram, and ſeuen lambes of a yere olde: ſe they he without blemiſh.

9 And their meat offring ſhal be of fine floure mingled with oyle, thre tenth deales to a bullocke, & two tenth deales to a ram,

10 One tēth deale vnto euerie lābe, through out the ſeuen lambes, 11 An he goat for a ſin offring, (beſide ỹ ſin offring to make the atonement and the continual e burnt offring and the meat offring thereof) & their drinke offrings.

e That is, offred euerie morning & euening

12 ¶And in the fiftenth day of the ſeuēth moneth ye ſhal haue an holy f cōuocacīō: ye ſhal f Meaning the feaſt of ỹ Tabernacles.

ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein, but ye ſhal kepe a feaſt vnto ỹ Lord ſeuen dayes.
13 And ye ſhal offer a burnt offring for a ſacrifice made by fire of ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, thirtene yong bullockes, two rams, & fourtene lambes of a yere olde: they ſhalbe without blemiſh.
14 And their meat offring ſhalbe of fine floure mingled with oyle, thre tenth deales vnto euery bullocke of ỹ thirtene bullockes, two tenth deales to ether of ỹ two rams, 15 And one tenth deale vnto eche of the fourtene lambes, 16 And one he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring, his meat offring and his drinke offring.
‖ The ſeconde day of ỹ feaſt of Tabernacles.
17 ¶ And the ‖ ſeconde day ye ſhal offer twelue yong bullockes, two rams, fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh, 18 With their meat offring & their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rams, & for the lambes according to their nomber, after the maner, 19 And an he goat for a ſin offring (beſide the continual burnt offring and his meat offring) and their drinke offrings.
‖ The third date.
20 ¶ Alſo the ‖ third day ye ſhal offer eleuen bullockes, two rams, and fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh, 21 With their meat offring & their drinke offrings, for the bullockes, for the rams, & for the lambes, after their nomber according to the ſ maner, ſ According to the ceremonies appointed thereunto.
22 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring, and his meat offring and his drinke offring.
‖ The fourthe day
23 ¶ And the ‖ fourth day ye ſhal offer tẽ bullockes, two rams, & fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh.
24 Their meat offrig & their drinke offrigs, for the bullockes, for the rams, and for the lambes according to their nomber after the maner,
25 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring, his meat offring and his drinke offring.
‖ The fift day.
26 ¶ In the ‖ fifth day alſo ye ſhal offer nine bullockes, two rams, and fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh,
27 And their meat offring and their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rams, & for the lambes according to their nomber, after the maner,
28 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring and his meat offring and his drinke offring.
‖ The ſixt day
29 ¶ And in the ‖ ſixt day ye ſhal offer eight bullockes, two rams, & fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh, 30 And their meat offring & their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rams, & for the lambes according to their nõber, after the maner, 31 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the cõtinual burnt offrig, his meat offring and his drinke offrings.
‖ The ſeuenth day.
32 ¶ In the ‖ ſeuenth day alſo ye ſhal offer ſeuen bullockes, two rams & fourtene lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh,
33 And their meat offring and their drinke offrings for the bullockes, for the rams, & for the lambes according to their nomber, after their maner,
34 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring, his meat offring and his drinke offring.
‖ The eight day Leui. 23. 36.
35 ¶ In the ‖ eight day, ye ſhal haue *a ſolemne aſſemblie: ye ſhal do no ſeruile worke therein,
36 But ye ſhal offer a burnt offring, a ſacrifice made by fire for a ſwete ſauour vnto the Lord, one bullocke, one ram, & ſeuen lambes of a yere olde without blemiſh, 37 Their meat offring and their drinke offrings for the bullocke, for the ram, & for the lambes according to their nomber, after the maner,
38 And an he goat for a ſin offring, beſide the continual burnt offring, and his meat offring, and his drinke offring.
39 Theſe things ye ſhal do vnto ỹ Lord in your feaſtes, beſide your h vowes, & your free offrings, for your burnt offrings, & for your meat offrings, & for your drinke offrings and for your peace offrings.
h Beſide ỹ ſacrifices ỹ you ſhal vowe or offer of your owne mindes.

CHAP. XXX.

3 Concerning vowes. 4 The Vowe of the maid, 7 Of the wife. 10 Of the widow, or deuorced.

1 THen Moſes ſpake vnto the childrẽ of Iſraél according to all that the Lord had commanded *him, *Ebr. Moſés.
2 Moſes alſo ſpake vnto the heades of the tribes a concerning the children of Iſraél, ſaying, This is the thing which the Lord hathe commanded, a Because thei might declare them to the Iſraelites.
3 Whoſoeuer voweth a vow vnto ỹ Lord, or ſweareth an othe to bide him *ſelfe by a bonde, he ſhal not breake his *promes, but ſhal do accordig to all that proceadeth out of his mouth.
*Ebr. his ſoule.
*Ebr. violate his worde.
4 If a woman alſo vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, & bide her ſelfe by a bõde, being in her fathers houſe, in ỹ time of her youth,
5 And her father heare her vowe & bõde, wherewith ſhe hathe bounde her ſelfe, and her father holde his b peace concerning her, then all her vowes ſhal ſtand & euerie bonde, wherewith ſhe hathe bounde her ſelfe, ſhall ſtand.
b For in ſo holding, he doeth approue her.
6 But if her c father diſalowe her the ſame daye that he heareth all her vowes & bondes, wherewith ſhe hathe bõũde her ſelfe, they ſhal not be of value, and the Lord wil forgiue her, becauſe her father diſalowed her.
c By not approuing or cõſenting to her vowe.

7 And if ſhe haue an houſbād whē ſhe vow-d Either by o-ther, or tokē promiſe eth or d pronounceth ought with her lippes, wherewith ſhe bindeth her ſelfe, 8 If her houſband heard it and holdeth his peace cōcerning her, the ſame day he heareth it, then her vowe ſhal ſtand, and her bondes wherewith ſhe bindeth her ſelfe ſhal ſtand in effect.
9 But if her houſband diſalowe her the ſame day that he heareth it, then ſhal he make her vowe which ſhe hathe made, & that that ſhe hathe pronoūced with her lippes, e For ſhe is in ſubiectiō of her houſbād, & can perfor-me nothing without his conſent wherewith ſhe bonde her e ſelfe, of none effect. and the Lord wil forgiue her.
10 But euerie vowe of a widowe, and of her that is deuorced (wherewith ſhe hathe bōde her ſelfe) ſhal ſtand in effect with her.
f For thei are not vnder ſ autoritie of ſ man 11 And if ſhe vowed in her houſbandes g Her houſbād being alue houſe, or bōde her ſelfe ſtrictly with an othe,
12 And her houſband hathe heard it, & held-de his peace concerning her, not diſalowing her, then all her vowes ſhal ſtand, & euerie bonde, wherewith ſhe boūd her ſelfe, ſhal ſtand in effect.
13 But if her houſband diſanulled them, the ſame day that he heard them, nothing
h Eyther the bōdes of her ſoule that proceaded out of her lippes concerning her vowes or concerning h her bōdes, ſhal ſtand in effect: for her houſband hathe diſanulled them. and the Lord wil forgiue her.
14 So euerie vowe, and euerie othe or bon-de, made to h humble the ſoule, her houſi To mortifie her ſelfe by abſtinence, or o-ther bodely exerciſes band may ſtabliſh it, or her houſband may breake it.
15 But if her houſband holde his peace cō k And warne her not the ſame day that he heareth it, as verſ 9.
cerning her fro day to day, thē he ſtabliſheth all her vowes and all her bondes which ſhe hathe made: he hathe cōfirmed them becauſe he held his peace concerning her the ſame day that he heard them.
l Not ſ ſame day he heard them, but ſo-me day after, ſ ſinne ſhalbe imputed to him & not to her.
16 But if he l breake them after that he ha-the heard them, then ſhal he beare her iniquitie.
17 Theſe are the ordināces which the Lord commanded Moſes, betwene a man & his wife, & betwene the father and his daughter, being yong in her fathers houſe.

CHAP. XXXI.

g Fiue Kings of Midiā & Balaām are ſlaine 18 Onely the maides are reſerued aliue 27 The praye is equally deuided 49 A preſent giuen of Iſraél.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
Chap.25,17. 2 *Reuenge the children of Iſraél of the Midianites, & afterward ſhalt thou be *gathered vnto thy people.
Chap 27,13. a As he had cō mānded, Chap. 25,17 declaring alſo that ſ iniurie done againſt his people is done againſt him.
3 And Moſes ſpake to the people, ſaying, Harnes ſome of you vnto warre, and let them go againſt Midiān, to execute the vengeance of the Lord a againſt Midiān.
4 A thouſad of euerie tribe through out all the tribes of Iſraél, ſhal ye ſend to the warre.
5 So there were taken out of the thouſands of Iſraél, twelue thouſand prepared vnto warre, of euerie tribe a thouſand.
6 And Moſes ſent them to the warre, euen
a thouſand of euerie tribe, and ſent b them b For his great Zeale, and loue to Gods cauſe, Chap 25,13 with Phinehas the ſonne of Eleazár the Prieſt to the warre & the holy inſtrumets:
that is, the trumpets to blowe were in his hand.
7 And they warred againſt Midiān, as the Lord had commanded Moſes, & ſlue all the males.
8 They ſlue alſo ſ Kings of Midiān amōg them that were ſlaine. *Euí and Rékem, & Zur, & Hur & Réba fiue kīgs of Midiān,
Ioſh.13,22.
and Balaám the ſonne of Beór
c The falſe ꝓphet who ga-ue counſel now to cauſe ſ Iſraelites to offend their God c ſlue with the ſworde:
9 But the children of Iſraél toke the womē of Midian priſoners, and their children & ſpoyled all their cattel, & all their flocks, and all their goods.
10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their d villages with d Or palaces & gorgeous buildings fire.
11 And they toke all the ſpoyle & all the praye both of men & beaſtes.
12 And they broght the e captiues and that e As the wo-men & little children.
which they had taken, and the ſpoyle vnto Moſes and to Eleazár the Prieſt, and vnto the Congregacion of the children of Iſraél, into the cāpe in the plaine of Moab, which was by Iordén toward Ierichó.
13 ¶ Then Moſes and Eleaza. the Prieſt, & all the princes of the Congregacion went out of the campe to mete them.
14 And Moſes was angry with the captai-nes of the hoſte, with the captaines ouer thouſands, & captaines ouer hundreds, which came from the warre and battel.
15 And Moſes ſaid vnto them, What f haue ye ſaued all the g women?
f As though he ſaid, Ye ought not haue ſpared 16 Beholde, * theſe cauſed the children.
Iſraél through the *counſel of Balaám, to commit a treſpas againſt the Lord, f as cō ceining Peór, and there came a plague among the Congregacion of the Lord.
Chap 25,2.
2 Pet 2,15.
f For worſhipping of Peór.
17 Now therefore, * ſlay all the males among the g children, & kil all the women that haue knowen man by carnal copulation.
Iudg.21,11.
g That is, all ſ mē children.
18 But all the women children that haue not knowen carnal copulation, kepe aliue for your ſelues.
19 And ye ſhal remaine without the hoſte ſeuē dayes, all that haue killed any perſone, * and all that haue touched anie dead,
Chap.19,4.
& purifie both your ſelues & your priſo-ners the third day and the ſeuenth.
20 Alſo ye ſhal purifie euerie garment and all that is made of ſkins & all worke of goates heere, & all things made of wood.
21 ¶ And

21 ¶ And Eleazár the Prieſt ſaid vnto the men of warre, which went to the battel, This is the ordinance of the lawe which the Lord* commanded Moſés,

*Or, concerned in the Lawe. Chap 19,12.

22 As for golde, and ſiluer, braſſe, yron, tynne, and lead:

23 Euen all that may abyde the fire, ye ſhal make it go through the fire, and it ſhalbe cleane: yet, it ſhalbe [h] purified with * the water of purificacion: and all that ſuffreth not the fire, ye ſhal cauſe to paſſe by the [i] water.

[h] The third daie & before it be molten Chap 19,9.

[i] It ſhalbe waſhed.

24 Ye ſhal waſh alſo your clothes the ſeuenth day, and ye ſhalbe cleane: and afterward ye ſhal come into the Hoſte.

25 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

26 Take the ſumme of the praie that was taken, bothe of perſones and of cattel, thou and Eleazár the Prieſt, & the chief fathers of the Congregacion.

‖ The praie is firſt deuided equally among all

27 And deuide the praie ‖ betwene the ſoldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregacion.

[k] Of the praie that falleth to the ſoldiers

28 And [l] ſhalt take a tribute vnto the Lord of the [k] men of warre, which went out to battel: one perſone of fiue hundreth, bothe of the perſones, and of the beues, & of the aſſes, and of the ſhepe.

29 Ye ſhal take it of their halfe and giue it vnto Eleazár [m] Prieſt, as an heaue offring of the Lord.

[l] The Iſraelites [w] had not bene at warre, of euerie fiftieth paied one to the Lord: & [y] ſoldiers, one of euerie fiue hundreth.

30 But of the halfe of the children of Iſraél thou ſhalt take [n] one, taken out of fiftie, bothe of the perſones, of the beues, of the aſſes, and of the ſhepe, euen of all the cattel: and thou ſhalt giue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moſés and Eleazár the Prieſt did as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

32 And [y] bootye, to wit, the reſt of the praie which the men of warre had ſpoiled, was [o] x hundreth ſeuentie and fiue thouſand ſhepe,

33 And [p] ſeuentie and two thouſand beues,

34 And thre ſcore and one thouſand aſſes,

35 And two and thirtie thouſand perſones, in all of women that had "lyen by no man.

"Ebr. not knowen the bed of man

36 And the halfe, to wit, the parte of them that went out to warre touching the nomber of ſhepe, was thre hundreth ſeuen and thirtie thouſand, and fiue hundreth.

[m] This is the portion that [y] ſoldiers gaue to the Lord

37 And the [m] Lords tribute of the ſhepe was ſix hundreth and ſeuentie and fiue.

38 And the beues were ſix and thirtie thouſand, whereof the Lords tribute was ſeuentie and two.

39 And the aſſes were thirtie thouſand and fiue hundreth, whereof the Lords tribute was thre ſcore and one:

[n] Meaning of the maides, or virgines which had not companied with man.

40 And [n] of perſones ſixtene thouſand, whereof [y] Lords tribute was two & thirtie perſones.

41 And Moſés gaue [y] tribute of the Lords offring vnto Eleazár the Prieſt, as [y] Lord had commanded Moſés.

[o] Of that part which was giuen vnto them, in deuiding [y] ſpoile.

42 And of the [o] halfe of the children of Iſraél, which Moſés deuided from the men of warre, 43 (For the halfe that perteined vnto the Congregacion) was thre hundreth thirtie and ſeuen thouſand ſhepe and fiue hundreth,

44 And ſix and thirtie thouſand beues,

45 And thirtie thouſand aſſes, and fiue hundreth,

46 And ſixtene thouſand perſones.

[p] Which had not bene at warre.

47 Moſés, I ſay, toke of the halfe that perteined vnto the [p] children of Iſraél, one taken out of fiftie, bothe of the perſones & of the cattel, and gaue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

48 ¶ Then the captaines which were ouer thouſands of the hoſte, the captaines ouer the thouſands, and the captaines ouer the hundreds came vnto Moſés:

49 And ſaid to Moſés, Thy ſeruants haue taken the ſumme of the men of warre which are vnder " our autoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs.

"Ebr. vnder our hands

[q] The captaines by this free offring acknowledge [y] great benefit of God in preſeruing his people.

50 ¶ We haue therefore broght a preſent vnto the Lord, what euerie man founde of iewels of golde, bracelets, and cheines, rings, eare rings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our ſoules before the Lord.

51 And Moſés and Eleazár the Prieſt toke the golde of them, and all wroght iewels.

52 And all the golde of [y] offring that thei offred vp to the Lord, (of the captaines ouer thouſands and hundreds) was ſixtene thouſand ſeuen hundreth & fiftie ſhekels,

53 (For the men of warre had ſpoiled, euerie man for [r] ſelf)

[r] And gaue not portion to their captaines.

54 And Moſés and Eleazár the Prieſt toke the golde of the captaines ouer the thouſands, and ouer the hundreds, and broght it into the Tabernacle of the Cógregacion, for a [ſ] memorial of the children of Iſraél before the Lord.

[ſ] That the Lord might remember [y] children of Iſraél.

CHAP. XXXII.

a The requeſt of the Reubenites and Gadites, 16 And their promes vnto Moſés 20 Moſés graunteth their requeſt 33 The Gadites, Reubenites, and halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh, conquer and buylde cities on this ſide Iordén

[a] Reubén came of Leáh, & Gad of Zilpáh her handmaide

1 NOw the children of [a] Reubén and the children of Gád had an exceading great multitude of cattel: and they ſawe the land of Iazér, and the land of [b] Gileád, that it was an apt place for cattel.

[b] Which moſteine was ſo named of the heape of ſtones [y] Iaakob made as a ſigne of the couenant betwene him & Labán, Gen 31,47

2 Then the children of Gád, and the children of Reubén came, & ſpake vnto Moſés and to Eleazár the Prieſt, and vnto the princes of the Congregacion, ſaying,

3 The land of Ataróth, and Dibón, and Iazér, and Nimráh, and Heſhbón, and Eleáleh, and Shebám, and Nebó, and Beón,

4 Which countrey the Lord ſmote before the Congregacion of Iſraél, is a land mete for cattel, and thy ſeruants haue cattel:

5 Wherefore, ſaid thei, If we haue founde grace in thy ſight, let this land be giuen vnto thy ſeruãts for a poſſeſsion, & bring vs not ouer Iordén.

6 And Moſés ſaid vnto the childrẽ of Gad, and to the children of Reubén, Shal your brethren go to warre, and ye tary here?

*Or, breake. 7 Wherefore now * diſcourage ye ẏ heart of the children of Iſraél, to go ouer into the land, which the Lord hathe giuen thẽ?

8 Thus did your fathers when I ſent them from Kadéſh-barnéa to ſe the land.

Chap. 13.24. 9 For * when they went vp euen vnto the *Or, valley. ryuer of Eſhcól, and ſawe the land: they diſcouraged the heart of the children of Iſraél, that thei wolde not go into the lãd, which the Lord had giuen them.

10 And the Lords wrath was kindled the ſame day, and he did ſweare, ſaying,

*Hebr if anie of the men. 11 * None of the men that came out of Egypt* from twentie yere olde and aboue, Chap 14.28 ſhal ſe the land for the which I ſware vnto Abrahám, to Izhák, and to Iaakób, becauſe thei haue not * wholie folowed me:

*Or, perſeuered & continued 12 Except Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh the Kenéſite, & Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun: for thei haue cõſtantly folowed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was verie angry with Iſraél, and made them wander in the wildernes fortie yeres, vntil all the generacion that had done e euil in the ſight of the Lord were conſumed.

e Becauſe thei murmured, neither wolde beleue their report, ẅ tolde ẏ trueth as concerning ẏ lãd. 14 And beholde, ye a e riſen vp in your fathers ſteade as an encreaſe of ſinneful mẽ, ſtil to augment the fearce wrath of the Lord, toward Iſraél.

15 For if ye turne away frõ following him, he wil yet againe leaue the people in ẏ wildernes, and d ye ſhal deſtroye all this folke.

d By your occaſion. 16 And thei went nere to him and ſaid, We wil buylde ſhepe foldes here for õ ſhepe, and for our cattel, and cities for our children.

17 But we our ſelues wil be ready armed to go before the children of Iſraél, vntil we e In the land of Canáan. haue broght them vnto their e place: but our children ſhal dwel in the defenced cities, becauſe of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We wil not returne vnto our houſes, vntil the children of Iſraél haue inherited, euerie man his inheritance.

19 Nether wil we inherit with thẽ beyõde Iordén and on that ſide, becauſe our inheritance is fallen to vs on this ſide Iordén Eaſtward.

20 ¶ * And Moſés ſaid vnto them, If ye wil Ioſh 1.13. do this thing, and go armed f before the Lord to warre:

f Before the Arke of the Lord. 21 And wil go euerie one of you in harnes ouer Iordén before the Lord, vntil he hathe caſt out his g enemies from his ſight:

g That is, the inhabitants of the land. 22 And vntil the land be ſubdued before the Lord, then ye ſhal returne and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Iſraél: and this land ſhalbe your poſſeſsion h before the Lord.

h The Lord wil grante you this land ẅ ye require. 23 But if ye wil not do ſo, beholde, ye haue ſinned againſt the Lord, and be ſure, that your ſinne i wil finde you out.

i Ye ſhal aſſuredly be puniſhed for your ſinne. 24 Builde you then cities for your children and foldes for your ſhepe, and do that ye haue ſpoken.

25 Then the children of Gad & the children of Reubén ſpake vnto Moſés, ſayīg, Thy ſeruants wil do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wiues, our ſhepe, and all our cattel ſhal remaine there in the cities of Gileád, 27 But * thy ſeruants wil go euerie one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lord ſayeth. Ioſh. 4.12.

28 So concerning them, Moſés k commanded Eleazár the Prieſt, & Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſraél:

k Moſés gaue charge ẏ his promes made to the Reubenites & others ſhulde be performed after his death, ſo that thei brake not their. 29 And Moſés ſaid vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reubén, wil go with you ouer Iordén, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is ſubdued before you, ye ſhal giue thẽ the land of Gileád for a poſſeſsion:

30 But if thei wil not go ouer with you armed, then thei ſhal haue their poſſeſsions among you in the land of Canáan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reubén anſwered, ſaying, As the l Lord hathe ſaid vnto thy ſeruants, ſo wil we do.

l That is attributed to the Lord which his meſſenger ſpeaketh 32 We wil go armed before the Lord into the land of Canáan: that the poſſeſsion of our inheritance may be to vs on this ſide Iordén.

33 * So Moſés gaue vnto thẽ, euen to the chil- Deut 3.12. Ioſh 13.8 & 22.4. dren of Gad, & to the children of Reubén, & to half the tribe of Manaſſéh the ſonne of Ioſéph, ẏ kingdome of Sihón King of the m Amorites, and the kingdome of Og, King of Bashán, the land with the cities thereof and coaſtes, euen the cities of the countrey round about.

m The Amorites dwelled on bothe ſides of Iordén: but here he maketh mencion of them that dwelt on this ſide: & Ioſh 10, 12. he ſpeaketh of them that inhabited beyonde Iordén. 34 ¶ Then the children of Gad buylt Dibón, and Ataróth, and Aroér, 35 And Atróth, Shophán, and Iazér, and Iogbehāh.

36 And

36 And Beth-nim-áh, and Beth-harán, defenced cities: also shepe foldes.
37 And the childrẽ of Reubén built Heshbón, and Elealéh, & Kiriatháim, 38 And Nebó, and Baal meon, and turned their names, and Shibmáh: & gaue other names vnto the cities which they built.
Gen 50,23. 39 And the children* of Machir the sonne of Manasséh went to Gileád, & toke it & put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.
40 Then Mosés gaue Gileád vnto Machir the sonne of Manasséh, and he dwelt therein.
Deut 3,14. 41 *And Iaír the sonne of Manasséh wẽt & toke the smal townes thereof, and called them [n] Hauóth Iaír.
n That is, ẏ villages of Iair.
42 Also Nobáh went & toke Kenáth, with the villages thereof and called it Nobáh, after his owne name.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Two & fourtie iourneis of Israel are nõbred 52 They are commanded to kil the Canaanites a From whence they departed, and whether they came.

1 THese are the [a] iourneis of the childrẽ of Israél, which went out of the land of Egypt according to their bandes vnder the hand of Mosés and Aaron.
2 And Mosés wrote their going out by their iourneyes according to the commãdement of the Lord: so these are the iourneies of their going out.
Exod 12,37. 3 Now they* departed frõ Ramesés ẏ first moneth, euen ẏ fiftẽth day of the first moneth, on the morowe after the Passeouer: & the children of Israél went out with an hie hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.
4 (For the Egyptians buried all their first borne, which the Lord had smitten amõg them: vpon their [b] gods also the Lord did execucion.)
b Ether meaning their idoles, or their men of autoritie.
5 And the children of Israél remoued from Ramesés, and pitched in Succóth.
Exod. 13, 20. 6 And they departed from* Succóth, & pitched in Ethám, which is in the edge of the wildernes.
7 And they remoued from Ethám, & turned againe vnto [c] Pi-hahiróth, which is before Baal-zephón, and pitched before Migdól.
c At ẏ commãdement of the Lord Exo, 14, 2
Exod. 15, 22. 8 And they departed from before Hahiróth, and* went through the middes of the Sea into the wildernes, and went thre dayes iourney in the wildernes of Ethám, and pitched in Maráh.
Exod. 15, 27. 9 And they remoued from Maráh, and came vnto* Elím, and in Elím were twelue fountains of water, and seuentie palme trees, and they pitched there.
10 And they remoued from Elím, and camped by the red Sea.
Exod. 16, 1. 11 And they remoued from the red Sea, & laye in the* wildernes of Sin.
12 And they toke their iourney out of the wildernes of Sín, and set vp their tentes in Dophkáh.
13 And they departed from Dophkáh and lay in Alúsh.
14 And they remoued from Alúsh, and lay in* Rephidim, where was no water for ẏ people to drinke. Exod 17, 1.
15 And they departed from Rephidím, and pitched in the* wildernes of Sinai. Exod. 19, 1.
16 And they remoued from the desert of Sinai, and pitched* in Kibróth Hattaauáh. Chap. 11, 34.
17 And they departed frõ Kibroth Hattaauáh, and lay at Hazeróth.
18 And they departed from Hazeróth, and pitched in Rithmáh.
19 And they departed from Rithmáh, and pitched at Rimmón Paréz.
20 *And they departed from Rimmón Parez, and pitched in Libnáh. Chap. 11, 35. & 13, 1.
21 And they remoued from Libnáh, & pitched in Rissáh.
22 And they iourneied from Rissáh, & pitched in Kehelathah.
23 And they went from Kehelatháh, & pitched in mount Shápher.
24 And they remoued frõ mount Shápher, and lay in Haradáh.
25 And they remoued from Haradáh, and pitched in Makhelóth.
26 And they remoued from Makhelóth, & lay in Taháth.
27 And they departed from Taháth, & pitched in Taráh.
28 And they remoued from Taráh, & pitched in Mithkáh.
29 And they wẽt from Mithkáh, & pitched in Hashmonáh.
30 And they departed from Hashmonáh, & lay in Moseróth.
31 And they departed from Moseróth, and pitched in Bene-iaakan, 32 And they remoued from Bene-iaakán, & lay in Hor-hagidgád.
33 And they went from Hor-hagidgád, & pitched in Iotbáthah.
34 And they remoued from Iotbáthah, & lay in Ebronáh.
35 And they departed from Ebronáh, and lay in Ezion-gáber.
36 And they remoued from Ezion-gaber, & pitched in the* wildernes of Zin, which is Kadésh. Chap. 20, 22.
37 And they remoued from Kadésh, & pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the lãd of Edóm.
38 *(And Aarón the Priest went vp in to mount Hor at the commandement of the Lord, and died there, in the fourtieth yere after the children of Israél were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the [d] fifth moneth. Chap 20, 22. deut 32, 50.
39 And Aarón was an hundreth, & thre and twẽtie yere olde, whẽ he died ĩ moũt Hor.
d Which ẏ Ebrewes call Ab, and answereth to part of Iulie & part of August.

Chap.21.1. 40 And *King Arád ỹ Canaanite, ẅ dwelt in the South of the land of Canáan, herard of the cõming of ỹ childrẽ of Iſraél)

Chap.21.10. 41 And they departed from mount* Hor, and pitched in Zalmonáh.

42 And they departed from Zalmonáh, & pitched in Punón.

43 And they departed from Punón, and pitched in Oboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth, & pitched in Ie-abarim, in ỹ borders of Moáb.

Num.21.4. 45 And they departed from *Iim, and pitched in Dibón-gad, 46 And thei remoued from Dibón-gad, & lay in Almón-diblathaim.

47 And they remoued from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mounteines of Abarim before Nebó.

48 And they departed from the mounteines of Abarim, and pitched in the *playne of Moáb, by Iordén toward Ierichó.

*Or, field.

49 And they pitched by Iordén, from Bethieſhimóth vnto *Abel-ſhittím in the plaine of Moáb.

Chap.25.1.

50 ¶And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés in the plaine of Moáb, by Iordén toward Ierichó, ſaying, 51 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, *When ye are come ouer Iordén to entre in to the land of Canáan, Deut.7.2. Ioſh.11.11.

52 Ye ſhal then driue out all ỹ inhabitants of the land before you, & deſtroy all their e pictures, and breake a ſunder all their images of metal, & plucke downe all their hie places.

e Which were ſet vp in their hie places to worſhip.

53 And ye ſhal poſſeſſe the land and dwel therein: for I haue giuen you the land to poſſeſſe it.

54 And ye ſhal inherit the land by lot according to your families: *to the more ye ſhal giue more inheritance, & to the fewer the leſſe inheritance. where the lot ſhal fall to anie mã, that ſhalbe his: according to the tribes of your fathers ſhal ye inherit.

Chap.26.53.

55 But if ye wil not driue out the inhabitants of the land before you, then thoſe ẅ ye let remaine of them, ſhal be *" prickes in your eies, and thornes in your ſides, and ſhal vexe you in the land wherein ye dwel.

Ioſh.23.13. Iudg.2.3. *Or, ſnares.

56 Moreouer, it ſhal come to paſſe, that I ſhal do vnto you, as I thoght to do vnto them.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

3 The coaſtes and borders of the land of Canáan. 17 Certeine men are aſſigned to deuide the land

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,

2 Commande the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, When ye come into the land of Canáan, this is the a land that ſhal fall vnto your inheritance: that is, the land of Canáan with the coaſtes thereof.

a Meaning the deſcription of the land.

3 *And your Southquarter ſhalbe from the wildernes of Zin, to the borders of Edóm: ſo that your Southquarter ſhalbe from the ſalt Sea coaſt Eaſtward:

Ioſh.15.1.

4 And the border ſhal compaſſe you from the Southe to Maaleh-akrabbím, and reache to Zin, & go out from the Southe to Kadeſh-barnéa: thence it ſhal ſtretch to Hazar-addár, and go along to Azmón.

*Or, aſcending vp of ſcorpions.

5 And the border ſhal compaſſe from Azmón vnto the b riuer of Egypt, and ſhal go out to the ſea.

b Which was Nilus, or, as ſo me thinke, Rhinocorura

6 And your Weſtquarter ſhal be the great c ſea: euen that border ſhalbe your Weſtcoaſt.

c Which is called Mediterraneum.

7 And this ſhal be your Northquarter: ye ſhal make out your border frõ the great ſea vnto mount d Hor.

d Which is a mõtaine nere Tyre & Sidón & not ỹ Hor in the wildernes, where Aarón dyed.

8 From mount Hor ye ſhal point out til it come vnto Hamáth, and the end of the coaſt ſhalbe at Zedád.

9 And ỹ coaſt ſhal reache out to Ziphrón, & go out at Hazar-enán. this ſhalbe your Northquarter.

10 And ye ſhal marke out your Eaſtquarter from Hazar-enán to Shephám.

11 And the coaſt ſhal go downe from Shephám to Ribláh, and from the Eaſtſide of Ain: and the ſame border ſhal deſcend & go out at the ſide of the Sea of e Chinnéreth Eaſtwarde.

e Which in ỹ Goſpel is called ỹ lake of Genuazereth.

12 Alſo that border ſhal go downe to Iordén, and leaue at the ſalt Sea. this ſhalbe your land with the coaſtes thereof round about.

13 ¶Then Moſés commanded the children of Iſraél, ſaying, This is the land which ye ſhal inherit by lot, which ỹ Lord commanded to giue vnto nine tribes and halfe the tribe.

14 *For the tribe of the children of Reubén, according to the houſholdes of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to their fathers houſholdes, and halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh, haue receiued their inheritance.

Chap.32.33. Ioſh.14.2.

15 Two tribes and an halfe tribe haue receiued their inheritãce on this ſide of Iordén toward Ierichó ful Eaſt.

16 ¶Againe the Lord ſpake to Moſés, ſaying,

17 Theſe are the names of the men which ſhal deuide the lãd vnto you: Eleazár the Prieſt, and Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun.

18 And ye ſhal take alſo a f prince of euerie tribe to deuide the land.

f One of the heãdes or chiefe men of euerie tribe.

19 The names alſo of the men are theſe: Of the tribe of Iudáh, Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh.

20 And of the tribe of the ſonnes of Simeón, Shemuél the ſonne of Ammihúd.

21 Of the tribe of Beniamín, Elidád the ſonne ſonne of Chiſlón.

22 Alſo of the tribe of the ſonnes of Dan, the prince Bukkí, the ſonne of Ioglí.
23 Of the ſonnes of Ioſeph: of the tribe of the ſonnes of Manaſſéh, the prince Hanniél the ſonne of Ephód.
24 And of the tribe of ỹ ſonnes of Ephráim, the prince Kemuél, ỹ ſonne of Shiphtán 25 Of the tribe alſo of ỹ ſonnes of Zebulún, he prince Elizaphán, ỹ ſonne of Parnách.
26 So of the tribe of ỹ ſonnes of Iſſachár, the prince Paltiél the ſonne of Azzán.
27 Of the tribe alſo of ỹ ſonnes of Aſhér, the prince Ahihúd the ſonne of Shelomí.
28 And of the tribe of the ſonnes of Naphtalí, the prince Pedahél, the ſonne of Ammihúd.
29 Theſe are they, whome the Lord commanded to g deuide the inheritance vnto the children of Iſraél, in the land of Canáan.

g And he iudges ouer euerie piece of grounde that ſhulde fall to anie by lot, to thintēt that all things might be done orderly & without contention.

CHAP. XXXV.

Vnto the Leuites are giuen cities and ſuburbes. 11 The cities of refuge. 16 The lawe of murther. 30 For one mans witnes ſhal no man be condemned.

1 AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés in ỹ plaine of Moáb by Iordén, toward Ierichó, ſaying,
2 *Commande the children of Iſraél, that they giue vnto the a Leuites of the inheritāce of their poſſeſsion, b cities to dwel in: ye ſhal giue alſo vnto the Leuites the ſuburbes of the cities round about them.
3 So they ſhal haue the cities to dwel in, & their ſuburbes ſhalbe for their cattel, and for their ſubſtance, & for all their beaſtes.
4 And the ſuburbes of the cities, which ye ſhal giue vnto the Leuites, from the wall of the citie outwarde, ſhalbe a thouſand cubites round about.
5 And ye ſhal meaſure without the citie of the Eaſtſide, c two thouſand cubites: and of the Southſide, two thouſand cubites: & of the Weſtſide, two thouſand cubites: & of the Northſide, two thouſand cubites: & the citie ſhalbe in the middes. this ſhalbe the meaſure of the ſuburbes of their cities.
6 And of the cities which ye ſhal giue vnto the Leuites, there ſhalbe ſix cities for refuge, which ye ſhal appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: & to them ye ſhal adde two and fourty cities mo.
7 All the cities which ye ſhal giue to ỹ Leuites, ſhalbe eight and fourtie cities: them ſhal ye giue with their ſuburbes.
8 And concerning the cities which ye ſhal giue, of the poſſeſsion of the children of Iſraél: of many ye ſhal take mo, and of fewe ye ſhal take leſſe: euerie one ſhal giue of his cities vnto the Leuites, according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth.

Ioſh 21,2.

a Becauſe they had no inheritance aſsigned them in ỹ lād of Canáan

b God wolde haue thē ſcatered through all ỹ lāno, becauſe ỹ people might be preſerued by thē in ỹ obediēce of God & his lawe

c So ỹ in all were thre thouſand: and in the compaſſe of theſe two thouſand they might plant & ſowe.

Deut 4,41. Ioſh.21,13.

9 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés, ſaying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Iſraél, and ſay vnto them, * When ye be come ouer Iordén into the land of Canáan, 11 Ye ſhal appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the ſlayer, which ſlayeth anie perſone vnwares, may flee thither.
12 And theſe cities ſhalbe for you a refuge from the d auenger, that he which killeth, dye not, vntil he ſtand before the Cōgregacion in iudgement.
13 And of the cities which ye ſhal giue, ſix cities ſhal ye haue for refuge.
14 Ye ſhal appoint thre e on this ſide Iordén, and ye ſhal appoint thre cities in the land of Canáan which ſhalbe cities of refuge.
15 Theſe ſix cities ſhalbe a refuge for the children of Iſraél, and for the ſtranger, and for him that dwelleth among " you, that euerie one which killeth anie perſone vnwares, may flee thither.
16 *And if one f ſmite an other with an inſtrument of yron that he dye, he is a murtherer, & the murtherer ſhal dye ỹ death.
17 Alſo if he ſmite him by caſting a g ſtone, wherewith he may be ſlaine, and he dye, he is a murtherer, and the murtherer ſhal dye the death.
18 Or if he ſmite him with an hād weapon of wood, wherewith he may be ſlaine, if he dye, he is a murtherer, and the murtherer ſhal dye the death.
19 The reuenger of the blood him ſelfe ſhal ſlay the murtherer: when he meteth him, he ſhal ſlay him.
20 But if he thruſt him *of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he dye, 21 Or ſmite him through enemitie with his hand, that he dye, he that ſmote him ſhal dye the death: for he is a murtherer: the reuenger of the blood ſhal ſlay the murtherer when he meteth him.
22 But if he puſhed him *vnaduiſedly, and *not of hatred, or caſt vpon him anie " thing, without laying of wait,
23 Or anie ſtone (whereby he might be ſlaine) and ſawe him not, or cauſed it to fall vpon him, and he dye, & was not his enemie, nether ſoght him anie harme,
24 Then the Congregacion ſhal iudge betwene the ſlayer & the h auenger of blood according to theſe lawes.
25 And the Congregacion ſhal deliuer the ſlayer out of the hand of the auenger of blood, and the Congregacion ſhal reſtore him vnto the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he ſhal abide there vnto the death of the i hie Prieſt, which is anointed with the holy oyle.

Exod. 21,13 deu.19,5. Ioſh.20,3 d Meaning, frō the next of ỹ kinred, who oght to purſue the cauſe

e Among the Reubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manaſſeh.

"Ebr among them.

Exod 21,14.

f Wittingly, and willingly.

g That is, ỹ a big and dangerous ſtone: in Ebr with a ſtone of his hand.

Deu.19,11.

"Or, ſodenly.

Exod 21,13.

"Ebr. inſtrumēt

h That is, his next kinſmā.

i Vnder this figure is declared, ỹ our ſinnes colde not be remitted, but by the death of the hie Prieſt Ieſus Chriſt, 26 But if the ſlayer come without the borders of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled,

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood ſlay the k murtherer, he ſhal be giltles,

k By the ſentence of the iudge

28 Becauſe he ſhulde haue remained in the citie of his refuge, vntil the death of the hye Prieſt: and after the death of the hie Prieſt: the ſlayer ſhal returne vnto ỹ land of his poſſeſsion.

l A lawe to iudge murthers done, ether of purpoſe or vnadviſedly

29 So theſe things ſhalbe a l lawe of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generacions in all your dwellings.

30 Whoſoeuer killeth anie perſone, the iudge ſhal ſlay the murtherer, through * witneſſes: but *one witnes ſhal not teſtifie againſt a perſone to cauſe him to die.

Deut 17.6. & 19.15 Mat 18.16. 2.cor.13 1.

31 Moreouer ye ſhal take no recompenſe for the life of ỹ murtherer, which is m worthie to die: but he ſhal be put to death.

m Which purpoſly hath cõmitted murther.

32 Alſo ye ſhal take no recompẽſe for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he ſhuld come againe, and dwel in the land, before the death of the hie Prieſt.

33 So ye ſhal not pollute the land wherein ye ſhal dwel: for blood defileth the land: and the land can not be n clenſed of the blood that is ſhed therein, but by ỹ blood of him that ſhed it.

Or murther

n So God is mindful of the blood wrongfully ſhed ỹ he maketh his domme creatures to demande vengeance thereof.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye ſhal inhabite, for I dwel in the middes therof: for I the Lord dwel among the children of Iſraél.

CHAP. XXXVI.

6 An ordre for the mariage of the daughters of Zelophehád 7 The inheritance colde not be giuen from one tribe to another.

a It ſemeth ỹ ỹ tribes contended who might mary theſe daughters to haue their inheritãce: and therefore the ſonnes of Ioſéph propoſed the matter to Moſes. Chap.27.1. Ioſh 17.3.

1 THen a the chief fathers of the familie of the ſonnes of Gileád, the ſonne of Machir the ſonne of Manaſſéh, of the families of the ſonnes of Ioſéph, came, and ſpake before Moſes, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Iſraél, b Meaning, Moſes.

2 And ſaid, * The Lord commanded b my lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Iſraél: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehád our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they be maried to anie of the ſonnes of the other tribes of the childrẽ of Iſraél then ſhal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritãce of our fathers, & ſhal be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they ſhalbe. ſo ſhal it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

c Signifying ỹ at no time ſhalde returne for ỹ iubile all things returned to their owne tribes.

4 Alſo when the c Iubile of the children of Iſraél commeth, then ſhal their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they ſhalbe ſo ſhal their inheritance be take away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moſes commanded the children of Iſraél, according to the worde of the Lord, ſaying, The tribe of the ſonnes of Ioſéph haue ſayd d wel.

d For the tribe ſhalde not haue cõmoued in the inheritance which was the maintenance therof, ſhulde haue ben abalienated to others.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hathe commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehád, ſaying, They ſhal be wiues, to whome they thinke beſt, onely to the familie of the tribe of their father ſhal they mary:

7 So ſhal not the inheritance of the children of Iſraél remoue from tribe to tribe, for euerie one of the children of Iſraél ſhal ioyne him ſelfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euerie daughter that poſſeſſeth anie e inheritance of the tribes of the children of Iſrael, ſhal be wife vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Iſraél may enioye euerie man the inheritance of their fathers.

e When there is no male to inherite.

9 Nether ſhal the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euerie one of the tribes of the children of Iſraél ſhal ſticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moſes, ſo did the daughters of Zelophehád.

11 For * Mahláh, Tirzáh, and Hogláh, and Milcáh, and Noáh the daughters of Zelophehád were maried vnto their fathers brothers ſonnes, Chap.27.8.

12 They were wyues to certeine of the families of the ſonnes of Manaſſéh the ſonne of Ioſéph: ſo their inheritance remained in the tribe of the familie of their father.

f Touching the ceremoniall and iudiciall lawes.

13 Theſe are the f commandements and lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moſes, vnto the children of Iſraél in the plaine of Moáb, by Iordén toward Ierichó.

THE

THE FIFTH BOKE OF

Moſés, called* Deuteronomie.

* That is, a ſeconde lawe: ſo called, becauſe the Lawe ẅ God gaue in mount Sinái, is here repeated, as though it were a newe Law and this boke is a commentarie or expoſition of the cõmandemẽts.

THE ARGUMENT.

The wonderful loue of God toward his Churche is liuely ſet forthe in this boke. For albeit through their vngratitude and ſundry rebellions againſt God, for the ſpace of forty yeres, Deu. 9, 7, they had deſerued to haue bene cut of from the nõber of his people, and for euer to haue bene deprined of the vſe of his holy worde, & ſacraments: yet he did euer preſerue his Church euen for his owne mercies ſake, and wolde ſtil haue his Name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canáan, deſtroyeth their enemies, giueth them their countrey, townes, and goodes, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whoſe infidelitie, idolatrie, adulteries, murmurings and rebellion, he had moſte ſharpely puniſhed) to feare and obey the Lord, to embrace and kepe his lawe without adding ther vnto or diminiſhing there from. For by his worde he wolde be knowẽ to be their God, and they his people: by his worde he wolde gouerne his Churche, and by the ſame they ſhulde learne to obey him. by his worde he wolde diſcerne the falſe Prophet from the true, light from darknes, error from knollage, and his owne people from all other nations and infideles: teaching them therely to refuſe and deteſt, deſtroy and aboliſh whatſoeuer is not agreable to his holy wil, ſeme it otherwiſe neuer ſo good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cauſe God promiſed to raiſe vp Kings and gouernours for the ſetting forthe of this worde and preſeruacion of his Churche: giuing vnto them an eſpecial charge for the executing thereof: whome therefore he willeth to exerciſe them ſelues diligently in the continuall ſtudie and meditaciõ of the ſame: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their ſubiects, abhorre couetouſnes and vice, and whatſoeuer offendeth the maieſtie of God. And as he had to fore inſtructed their fathers in all things apperteining, bothe to his ſpiritual ſeruice, and alſo for the maintenance of that ſocietie which is betwene men: ſo he preſcribeth here anewe, all ſuche lawes and ordinances, which ether concerne his Diuine ſeruice, or els are neceſſarie for a comon weale: appointing vnto euerie eſtate and degre their charge and dueties: aſwel, how to rule and liue in the feare of God, as to nouriſh friendeſhip towarde their neighbours, and to preſerue that ordre which God hathe eſtabliſhed among men: threatening with all, moſte horrible plagues to them that tranſgreſſe his commandements, and promiſing all bleſſings & felicitie to ſuche as obſerue and obey them.

CHAP. I.

1 A breſe reharſal of things done before, frõ Horéb vnto Kadéſh-bernea. 32 Moſes reproueth the people for their incredulite. 44 The Iſraelites are ouer come by the Amorites becauſe they fought againſt the commãdement of the Lord.

THESE be ỹ wordes which Moſés ſpake vnto all Iſrael, on [a] this ſide Iordén in the wildernes, in the plaine, [b] ouer againſt ỹ red Sea, betwene Parán & Tóphel, and Labán, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahább.

a In the coũtrey of Moáb b So that not wilderne ſ was betwene ỹ Sea and this plaine o. Moab.

2 There are eleuẽ daies iourney from [c] Horéb vnto Kadéſh-barnéa, by the way of mount Seír.

c In Horéb, or Sinái, forty yeres before this ỹ lawe was giuen: but becauſe all ỹ were then of age and iudgemẽt were now dead, Moſés repeateth the ſame to the youth which ether thẽ were not borne, or had not iudgement.

3 And it came to paſſe in the firſt day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fortieth yere, that Moſés ſpake vnto the children of Iſraél according vnto al that the Lord had giuẽ him in commandement vnto them,

4 After that he had ſlaine [d] *Sihón the King of ỹ Amorites which dwelt in Heſhbón, and Og King of Baſhán, which dwelt at Aſhtaróth in Edréi.

d By theſe examples of Gods fauour their mindes are prepared to receiue the Law. Nom. 21, 24.

5 On this ſide Iordén in the land of Moáb [e] begã Moſés to declare this Law, ſaying, e The ſeconde time.

6 The Lord our God ſpake vnto vs in [f] Horéb, ſaying, Ye haue dwelt long ynough in this mount, f In ỹ ſecõde yere, and ſecõde moneth, Nom 10.11.

7 Turne you and departe, and go vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, and vnto all places nere therunto: in the plaine, in the mountaine, or in the valley. bothe South ward, and to the ſea ſide, to the land of ỹ Canaanites, and vnto Lebanón: euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer [e] Peráth.

e Or, Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue ſet the land before you: go in and * poſſeſſe that land which the Lord ſware vnto your fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób, to giue vnto thẽ and to their ſede after them. Gen. 15, 18. & 17, 7.

9 ¶ And I ſpake [g] vnto you the ſame time, ſaying, I am not able to beare you my ſelfe alone:

g By the counſel of Iethro my father in lawe. Exod. 18, 19.

10 The Lord your God hathe [h] multiplied you: & beholde, ye are this day as the ſtarres of heauen in nomber:

h Not ſo much by ỹ cours of nature, as miraculouſly.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thouſand times ſo manie mo as ye are, and bleſſe you, as he hathe promiſed you)

12 How cã I alone [i] beare your cumbrance and your charge, and your ſtrife?

i Signifying how great a burden it is, to gouerne the people.

13 Bring you men of wiſdome and of vnderſtanding, and [k] knowen among your tribes, and I wil make them rulers ouer you:

k Whoſe godlines and vprightnes is knowen.

14 Then ye anſwered me & ſaid, The thing is good that thou haſt cõmanded vs to do.

15 So I toke the chief of your tribes [l] wiſe and knowen mẽ, and made thẽ rulers ouer l Declaring what ſort of men ought to haue a publike charge, read Exod. 18. 21.

you, captaines ouer thouſands, and captaines ouer hundreds, & captaines ouer fifty, and captaines ouer ten, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your iudges that ſame time, ſaying, Heare the controuerſies betwene your brethren, and *iudge righteouſly betwene euerie man and his brother, and the ſtranger that is with him.

Ioh.7,24.

17 Ye ſhal haue no reſpect of perſone in iudgement, * but ſhal heare the ſmall aſwel as the great: ye ſhal not feare the face of man: for the iudgemēt is [m] Gods: and the cauſe that is to hard for you, bring vnto me, and I wil heare it.

Leu.19,15. chap.16,19. 1.ſam.17,7. prou.24,23. eccle.42.5. 2.ſam.2,2.

[m] And you are his lieutenants.

18 Alſo I cōmanded you the ſame time all the things which ye ſhulde do.

19 ¶ Then we departed from Horéb, and went through all that great and terrible wildernes, (as ye haue ſene) by the way of ŷ mounteine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Kadeſh-barnéa.

20 And [n] I ſaid vnto you, ye are come vnto the mounteine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doeth giue vnto vs.

[n] So that the faute was in them ſelues ŷ they dyd not ſoner poſſeſſe the inheritāce promiſed.

21 Beholde, the Lord thy God hathe layed ŷ lād before thee: go vp & poſſeſſe it, as ŷ Lord ŷ God of thy fathers hathe ſaid vnto thee: feare not, nether be diſcouraged.

22 ¶ [o] Then ye came vnto me euerie one, & ſaid, We wil ſēd mē before vs, to ſearche vs out the land and to bring vs worde againe, what way we muſt go vp by, and vnto what cities we ſhal come.

[o] Read Nōb. 13.1.

23 So the ſaying pleaſed me wel, and I toke twelue men of you, of euerie tribe one.

24 *Who departed, and went vp into the moūteine, & came vnto the [q] riuer Eſhcól, and ſearched out the land.

Numb 13,24. [q] Or, valley of the cluſter of grapes.

25 And toke of the frute of the lād in their hands, and broght it vnto vs, and broght vs worde againe, and [p] ſaid, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doeth giue vs.

[p] To wit, Caléb, & Ioſhúa: Moſes preferreth the better part to ŷ greater, that is, two men.

26 Notwithſtanding, ye wolde not go vp, but were diſobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord your God, 27 And murmured in your tentes, and ſaid, Becauſe the Lord [q] hated vs, therefore hathe he broght vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs.

[q] Suche was the Iewes vnthankfulnes, that they coūted Gods eſpecial loue hatred.

28 Whether ſhal we go vp? our [r] brethrē haue diſcouraged our hearts, ſaying, The people is greater, and taller then we: the cities are great and walled vp to heauen: and moreouer we haue ſene the ſonnes of the * Anakims there.

[r] The other ten, not Caléb & Ioſhúa.

Nūb.13,29.

29 But I ſaid vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, [s] who goeth before you, he ſhal fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes,

[s] Declaring ŷ to renoūce our owne force, & conſtantly to followe our vocation, and depend on the Lord, is ŷ true boldenes, and agreable to God.

31 And in the wildernes, where thou haſt ſene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his ſonne, in all the way which ye haue gone, vntil ye came vnto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not beleue the Lord your God, 33 * Who went in the way before you, to ſearche you out a place to pitche your tētes in, in fire by night, ŷ ye might ſe what way to go, and in a cloude by day.

Exod.13,21.

34 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and ſware, ſaying,

35 *Surely there ſhal not one of theſe mē of this froward generacion, ſe ŷ good land, which I ſware to giue vnto your fathers,

Nom.14,23.

36 Saue Caléb the ſonne of Iephūnéh: he ſhal ſe it, * and to him wil I giue the land that he hathe troden vpon, and to his children, becauſe he hathe cōſtantly followed the Lord.

Ioſh.14,6.

37 *Alſo the Lord was angry with me for your ſakes, ſaying, * Thou alſo ſhalt not go in thither, Nom.20,12. & 27,14. Chap.3,26. & 4,21, & 34,4.

38 But Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun which ſtādeth [t] before thee, he ſhal go in thither: incourage him: for he ſhal cauſe Iſraél to inherit it.

[t] Which miniſtreth vnto thee.

39 Moreouer, your [u] children, which ye ſaid ſhulde be a pray, and your ſonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betwene good and euil, they ſhal go in thither, and vnto them wil I giue it, and they ſhal poſſeſſe it.

[u] Which were vnder twenty yere olde, as Nomb.14,31.

40 But as for you, turne backe, & take your iourney into the wildernes by the way of the red Sea.

41 Thē ye anſwered and ſaid vnto me, We haue ſinned againſt the Lord, [x] we wil go vp, and fight, according to all that ŷ Lord our God hathe commanded vs: and ye armed you euerie man to the warre, & were ready to go vp into the mounteine.

[x] This declareth mans nature, who wil do that which God forbiddeth, and wil not do that ẅ he cōmandeth.

42 But the Lord ſaid vnto me, Say vnto thē, Go not vp, nether fight, (for I am [y] not amōg you) leſt ye fall before your enemies.

[y] Signifying that man hath no ſtrength, but when God is at hand to helpe him.

43 And whē I tolde you, ye wolde not heare, but rebelled againſt the commandemēt of the Lord, and were preſumpteous, and went vp into the mounteine.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mounteine came out againſt you, & chaſed you (as bees vſe to do) and deſtroyed you in Seír, euen vnto Hormah.

45 And when ye came againe, ye wept before the Lord, but the Lord wolde not [z] heare your voyce, nor incline his eares vnto you.

[z] Becauſe ye rather ſhewed your hypocriſie, then true repentance: rather lāmēting ŷ loſſe of your brethren, thē repenting for your ſinnes.

46 So ye abode in Kadéſh a long time, according to the time that ye had remained before.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

1 Iſraël is forbidde to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 And Ammonites. 33 Sihón King of Heſhbón is diſcomfited.

1 THen [a] we turned, and toke our iourney into the wildernes, by the waie of ỹ red Sea, as the Lord ſpake vnto me: and we compaſſed mount Seír [b] long time.

2 And the Lord ſpake vnto me, ſaying,

3 Ye haue compaſſed this mountaine long ynough: turne you Northwarde.

4 And warne thou the people, ſaying, Ye ſhal go through the [c] coaſt of your brethren the children of Eſáu, which dwel in Seír, and they ſhal be afraid of you: take ye good hede therefore.

5 Ye ſhal not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land ſo muche as a fote breadth, * becauſe I haue giuē mount Seír vnto Eſáu for a poſſeſsion.

6 Ye ſhal bye meat of them for money to eat, and ye ſhal alſo procure water of thē for money to drinke.

7 For ỹ Lord thy God hathe [d] bleſſed thee in all ỹ woikes of thine hād: he knoweth thy walking through this great wildernes, & the Lord thy God hathe bene with thee this fortie yeie, and thou haſt lacked nothing.

8 And when we were departed frō our brethren the children of Eſáu which dwelt in Seír, through the way of the [e] plaine, from Eláth, & from Ezion-gáber, we turned and went by the way of the wildernes of Moáb.

9 Then the Lord ſaid vnto me, Thou ſhalt not [f] vexe Moáb, nether prouoke them to battel: for I wil not giue thee of their lād for a poſſeſsion, becauſe I haue giuen Ar vnto the children [e] of Lot for a poſſeſsiō.

10 The [f] Emíms dwelt therein in times paſt, a people great, & many, and tall, as the Anakíms.

11 They alſo were taken for gyantes as the Anakíms: whome the Moabites call Emíms.

12 The Horíms alſo dwelt in Seír before time, whome the children of Eſáu chaſed out and deſtroyed them before them, and dwelt in their ſtede: as Iſraél ſhal do vnto the land of his poſſeſsion, which the Lord hathe giuen them.

13 Now riſe vp, ſaid I, and get you ouer the riuer * Zeréd: and we went ouer the riuer Zeréd.

14 The [g] ſpace alſo wherein we came from Kadeſh-barnéa vntil we were come ouer the riuer Zeréd, was eight and thirtie yeres, vntil all the generacion of the men of warre were waſted out from among the hoſte, as the Lord ſware vnto them.

15 For in dede the [h] hand of the Lord was againſt them, to deſtroye them frō amōg the hoſte, til thei were conſumed.

16 ¶So when all the men of warre were conſumed and dead from among the people:

17 Then the Lord ſpake vnto me, ſaying,

18 Thou ſhalt go through Ar the coaſt of Moáb this day:

19 And thou ſhalt come nere ouer againſt the children of Ammón: but ſhalt not lay ſiege vnto them, nor moue warre againſt them: for I wil not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammón anie poſſeſsion: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a poſſeſsion.

20 That alſo was taken for a land [i] of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein a fore time, whome the Ammonites called Zamzummíms:

21 A people that was great, & many, & tall, as the Anakíms: but the Lord deſtroyed them before them, & thei ſucceded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their ſtede:

22 As he did to the children of Eſáu which dwel in Seír, when he deſtroyed the Horíms before them, & thei poſſeſſed them, and dwelt in their ſtede vnto this day.

23 And the Auíms which dwelt in Hazerím euen vnto [l] Azzáh, the Caphtoríms which came out of Caphtor deſtroyed them, and dwelt in their ſtede.

24 ¶ Riſe vp therefore, ſaid the Lord: take your iourney, and paſſe ouer the riuer Arnón: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihón: the [k] Amorite, King of Heſhbón, and his land: begin to poſſeſſe it and prouoke him to battel.

25 This day wil I [l] begin to ſend thy feare & thy dread, vpon all people vnder the heauens, which ſhal heare thy fame & ſhal tremble and quake before thee.

26 Then I ſent meſſengers out of the wildernes of Kedemóth vnto Sihón King of Heſhbón, with wordes of peace, ſaying, 27 ¶ * Let me paſſe through thy land: I wil go by the hie way: I wil nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou ſhalt ſel me meat for money, for to eat, and ſhalt giue me water for money for to drinke: onely I wil go through on my fote, 29 (As the [m] children of Eſáu which dwel in Seír, and the Moabites which dwel in Ar, did vnto me) vntil I be come ouer Iordén, into the land which ỹ Lord our God giueth vs.

30 But Sihón the King of Heſhbón wolde not let vs paſſe by him: for the Lord thy God had [n] hardened his ſpirit, and made his heart obſtinat, becauſe he wolde deliuer him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord ſaid vnto me, Beholde, I a They obeyed, after that God had chaſtiſed them.

b Eight and thirtie yere, as ver 14

c This was ỹ ſeconde time: for before thei had cauſed the Iſraelites to returne, Nōb. 20,21.

Gen 36,8.

d And giuen thee meanes wherewith ỹ maieſt make recompence: alſo God wil direct thee by his prouidēce, as he hathe done

e Or, wildernes.

f Or, beſiege.

e Which were the Moabites & Ammonites.

f Signifying ỹ as theſe gyāts were drue out for their ſinnes: ſo ỹ wicked whē their ſinnes are ripe can nor auoide Gods plagues

Nom 21,12.

g He ſheweth hereby, that as God is true in his promes: ſo his threatenigs are not in vaine

h His plague & punishment to deſtroye all ỹ were twentie yere olde and aboue.

i Who called thē ſelues Rephaims · that is, preſeruers, or phiſicians to heale & reforme vices: but were in dede Zamzūmíms, that is, wicked & abominable.

l Or, Gaza.

k According to his promes made to Abrahám, Gen 15,21

l This declareth that the hearts of men are in Gods hands ether to be made faint, or bolde

Nom 21,23.

m Becauſe nether intreaty nor exāples of others colde moue him, he colde not complaine of his iuſte deſtructiō

n God, in his electiō & reprobacion doeth not onelie appoint ỹ ends, but the meanes tending to the ſame haue begonne to giue Sinón and his land before thee: begin to poſſeſſe and inherit his land.

Nomb.21,23. 32 *Then came out Sihón to mete vs, him ſelf with all his people to fight at Iaház.

33 But the Lord our God deliuered him Hebr. before ye. " into our power, and we ſmote him, and his ſonnes, and all his people.

34 And we toke all his cities the ſame time, & deſtroyed euerie citie, mé, & o women, & children: we let nothing remaine.

o God had curſed Canáan & therefore he wolde not that anie of ỹ wicked race ſhulde be preſerued.

35 Onely the cattel we toke to our ſelues, & the ſpoile of the cities which we toke,

36 From Aroér, which is by the banke of the riuer of Arnón, & from ỹ citie that is vpō the riuer, euē vnto Gileád: there was not one citie that eſcaped vs: for the Lord our God deliuered vp all Or, into our hand. ' before vs.

37 Onely vnto the land of the children of Ammón thou cameſt not, nor vnto anie place of the Or, fourde. " riuer Iabbók, nor vnto the cities in the mountaines, nor vnto whatſoeuer the Lord our God forbade vs.

CHAP. III.

3 Og King of Bashán is ſlaine. 11 The bignes of his bed. 18 The Reubenites and Gadites are commanded to go ouer Iordén armed before their brethren. 21 Ioſhua is made captaine. 27 Moſes is permitted to ſe the land, but not to enter, albeit he deſired it.

THen we turned, and went vp by the way of Bashán: *and Og King of Bashán a came out againſt vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edréi.

Nomb.21,33. chap.29,7.

a Therefore beſide the cōmandement of the Lord, thei had inſte occaſiō of his parte to fight againſt him.

2 And the Lord ſaid vnto me, Feare him not, for I wil deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thine hand, & thou ſhalt do vnto him, as thou dideſt vnto *Sihón King of ỹ Amorites, which dwelt at Heſhbón.

Nomb.21,24.

3 So the Lord our God deliuered alſo vnto our hand, * Og the King of Bashan, & all his people: and we ſmote him, vntil none was left him aliue,

Nomb.21,33.

4 And we toke all his cities the ſame time, nether was there a citie which we toke not from them, euen thre ſcore cities, and all the countrey of Argób, the kingdome of Og in Bashán.

5 All theſe cities were fenced with hie walles, gates and barres, beſide b vnwalled townes a great many.

b As villages & ſmale townes.

6 And we ouerthrewe them, as we did vnto Sihón King of Heſhbón, deſtroying euerie citie, with men, c women, & children.

c Becauſe this was Gods appointemēt, therefore it may not be iudged cruel.

7 But all the cattel and the ſpoile of the cities we toke for our ſelues.

8 Thus we toke at that time out of the hād of two Kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this ſide Iordén from the riuer of Arnón vnto mount Hermón:

9 (Which Hermón the Sidoniās call Shirión, but the Amorites call it Shenír)

10 All the cities of the plaine and all Gileád, and all Bashán vnto Salcháh, and Edréi, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashán.

11 For onelie Og King of Bashán remained of the remnant of the gyants, d whoſe bed was a bed of yron: is it not at Rabbáth among the children of Ammón? the length thereof is nine cubites, and foure cubites the bredth of it, after the cubite of a man.

d The more terrible ỹ this gyant was, the greater occaſion had thei to glorifie God for ỹ victorie.

12 And this land which we poſſeſſed at that time, from Aroér, which is by the riuer of Arnón, and halfe mount Gileád, * and the cities thereof, gaue I vnto the Reubenites and Gadites.

Nomb.32,33.

13 And the reſt of Gileád, and all Bashán, the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the half tribe of Manaſſéh: euen all the coūtrey of Argób with all Bashán, which is called, The land of gyantes.

14 Iaír the ſonne of Manaſſéh toke all the countrey of Argób, vnto the coaſtes of Geſhurí, and called them after his owne name, Bashán, Hauoth Iaír vnto e this day.

e Meanig whē he wrote this hiſtorie.

15 And I gaue parte of Gileád vnto Machír.

16 And vnto the Reubenites and Gadites I gaue the reſt of Gileád, and vnto the riuer of Arnón, halfe the riuer and the borders, euen vnto the riuer f Iabbók, which is the border of the children of Ammón:

f Which ſeperateth ỹ Ammonites from the Amorites.

17 The plaine alſo and Iordén, & the borders from Chinnéreth euen vnto the Sea of the plaine, to wit, the ſalt Sea Or, at Aſdothpiſgáh. ' vnder the ſprings of Piſgáh Eaſtwarde.

18 ¶ And I commanded g you the ſame time, ſaying, The Lord your God hathe giuēn you this land to poſſeſſe it: ye ſhal go ouer armed before your brethren the children of Iſraél, all men of warre.

g That is, the Reubenites, Gadites, and halt Manaſſeh, as Nomb 32,28.

19 Your wiues onelie, & your children, & your cattel (for I knowe ỹ ye haue muche cattel) ſhal abide in your cities, which I haue giuen you,

20 Vntil the Lord haue giuē reſt vnto your brethren as vnto you, and that thei alſo poſſeſſe the land, which ỹ Lord your God hathe giuen them beyond Iordén: thē ſhal ye * returne euerie man vnto his poſſeſſiō, which I haue giuen you.

Ioſh.22,4.

21 ¶ * And I charged Ioſhúa the ſame time, ſaying, Thine eies haue ſene all that the h Lord your God hathe done vnto theſe two Kings: ſo ſhal the Lord do vnto all the kingdomes whither thou goeſt.

Nomb.27,18.

h So that the victories came not by your owne wiſdome ſtrength or multitude.

22 Ye ſhal not feare thē: for the Lord your God, he ſhal fight for you.

23 And I beſoght the Lord the ſame time, ſaying,

24 O Lord God, thou haſte begonne to ſhewe thy ſeruant thy greatnes and thy mightie hand: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can i do like thy workes, i He ſpeaketh according to ỹ common and corrupt ſpeeche of them ỹ attribute that power vnto idoles ỹ onelie appertaineth vnto God.

workes, and like thy power?
25 I pray thee let me go ouer and ſe the good land that is beyond Iordén, that goodlie [k] mountaine, and Lebanón.
26 But ỹ Lord was angry with me for your ſakes, and wolde not heare me: and ỹ Lord ſaid vnto me, Let it ſuffice thee, ſpeake no more vnto me of this matter.
27 [l] Get thee vp into the top of Piſgáh, and lift vp thine eyes Weſtward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eaſtward, & beholde it with thine eyes, for thou ſhalt not go ouer this Iordén:
28 But charge Ioſhúa, and incourage him, and bolden him: for he ſhal go before this people, and he ſhal deuide for inheritance vnto them, the land which thou ſhalt ſe.
29 So we abode in the valley ouer againſt Beth-Peór.

CHAP. IIII.

1 An exhortacion to obſerue the Lawe without adding thereto or diminiſhing. 6 Therein ſtandeth our wiſdome. 9 We muſt teache it to our children. 15 No image ought to be made to worſhip. 26 Threatenings againſt them that forſake the Law of God. 37 God chooſe the ſede becauſe he loued their fathers. 43 The three cities of refuge.

1 NOw therefore hearken, ô Iſraél, vnto the ordinances and to the lawes ẅ I teache you to [a] do, that ye may liue and go in, & poſſeſſe the land, which the Lord God of your fathers giueth you.
2 Ye ſhal [b] put nothing vnto the worde which I commande you, neither ſhal ye take [c] ought there from, that ye may kepe the commandements of the Lord your God which I commande you.
3 Your [d] eyes haue ſene what the Lord did becauſe of Baal-Peór, for all the men that followed Baal-Peór, the Lord thy God hathe deſtroyed euerie one frō amōg you.
4 But ye that did [e] cleaue vnto ỹ Lord your God, are aliue euerie one of you this day.
5 Beholde, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye ſhulde do euen ſo with in the land whither ye go to poſſeſſe it.
6 Kepe them therefore, and do them: for that is your [f] wiſdome, and your vnderſtanding in the ſight of the people, which ſhal heare all theſe ordinances, and ſhal ſay, [g] Onely this people is wiſe, and of vnderſtanding and a great nacion.
7 For what nacion is ſo great, vnto whome the gods come ſo neie vnto them, as the Lord our God is [g] nere vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for?
8 And what nacion is ſo great, that hathe ordinãces and lawes ſo righteous, as all this Lawe, which I ſet before you this day?
9 But take hede to thy ſelfe, and [h] kepe thy ſoule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue ſene, & that they departe not out of thine heart, all the daies of thy life: but teache the thy ſonnes, and thy ſonnes ſonnes:
10 Forget not the day that thou ſtodeſt before the Lord thy God in Horéb, when ỹ Lord ſaid vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I wil cauſe them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they ſhal liue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children:
11 Then came you nere & [x] ſtode vnder the mountaine & the mountaine [i] burnt with fire vnto the middes of heauen, and there was darcknes, cloudes and miſt.
12 And the Lord ſpake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but ſawe no ſimilitude, ſaue a voyce.
13 Then he declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to [k] do, euen the ten commandements, and wrote them vpon two tables of ſtone.
14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me that ſame time, that I ſhulde teache you ordinãces and lawes, which ye ſhulde obſerue in the land, whither ye go, to poſſeſſe it.
15 Take therefore good hede vnto your "ſelues: for ye ſawe no [l] image in the day that the Lord ſpake vnto you in Horéb out of the middes of the fire:
16 That ye corrupt not your ſelues, & make you a grauen image or repreſentacion of anie figure: whither it be the likenes of male or female,
17 The likenes of anie beaſt that is on earth or the likenes of anie fethered foule that flieth in the aire:
18 Or the likenes of anie thing that crepeth on the earth, or the likenes of anie fiſh that is in the waters beneth the earth,
19 And leſt thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou ſeeſt the ſunne and the moone and the ſtarres with all the hoſte of heauen, ſhuldeſt be driuen to worſhip them and ſerue them, which the Lord thy God hathe [m] diſtributed to all people vnder the whole heauen.
20 But the Lord hathe take you and brought you out of the [n] yron fornace: out of Egypt to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.
21 And the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and ſware that I ſhulde not go ouer Iordén, & that I ſhulde not go in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.
22 For I muſt dye in this land, and ſhal not go ouer Iordén: but [o] ye ſhal go ouer, and poſſeſſe that good land.
23 Take hede vnto your ſelues, leſt ye forget the couenant of the Lord your God ẅ he made with you, & leſt ye make you anie grauen image, or likenes of anie thing, as k He meaneth Zió, where ỹ temple ſhulde be buylt and God honored l As before he ſawe by the ſpirit of prophecie ỹ good mountaine, ẅ was Zion, ſo here his eyes were lifted vp aboue the order of nature to beholde all the plentiful lãd of Canáan.

Exod 19,18

*Or, wonders.

a For this doctrine ſtandeth not in bare knowledge, but in practiſe of life.
b Thinke not to be more wiſe then I am c God wil not be ſerued by halues, but wil haue ful obedience d Gods iudgements executed vpō other idolaters ought to ſerue for our inſtructiō.
e And were not idolaters.

f Becauſe all men naturally deſire wiſdome, he ſheweth how to attayne vnto it.
*Or, ſurely.

g Helping vs, and deliuering vs out of all dangers h He addeth all theſe wordes to ſhewe that we can neuer be careful ynough to kepe the lawe of God and to teache it to our poſteritie.

i The law was giuen with fearefulmiracles, to declare bothe that God was the autor thereof, & alſo that no fleſh was able to abide ỹ rigour of the ſame.

k God ioineth this condicion to his couenant.

"Ebr. ſoules.
l Signifying ỹ deſtruction is prepared for all them that make anie image to repreſent God.

m He hathe appointed thē for to ſerue mā n He hathe deliuered you out of moſte miſerable ſeruitude, and freely choſen you for his children.

o Moſes good affectiō appeareth in that that he, being depriued of ſuche an excellent treaſure, doeth not enuie them that muſt enioye it.

the Lord thy God hathe charged thee.

p To thoſe ỹ come not vnto him with loue and reuerence, but rebelle against him, Ebr 12,29

24 For the Lord thy God is a p conſuming fire, and a ielous God.

q Meaning hereby all ſuperſtition and corruption of the true ſeruice of God.

25 ¶ When thou ſhalt beget children and childrens children, and ſhalt haue remained long in the land, if ye q corrupt your ſelues, and make anie grauen image, or likenes of anie thing, and worke euil in the ſight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to angre, r Thogh men wolde abſolue you, yet the inſenſible creatures ſhalbe witneſſes of your diſobedience.

26 I r call heauen and earth to recorde againſt you this day, that ye ſhal ſhortely periſh from the land, whereũto ye go ouer Iordén to poſſeſſe it: ye ſhal not prolong your daies therein, but ſhal vtterly be deſtroyed.

ſ So that his curſe ſhal make his former bleſſings of none effect.

27 And the Lord ſhal ſ ſcatter you among the people, & ye ſhalbe left fewe in nomber among the nacions, whether the Lord ſhal bring you:

28 And there ye ſhal ſerue gods, euen the worke of mans hand, wood, & ſtone, which nether ſe, nor heare, nor eat, nor ſmel.

29 But if from thence thou ſhalt ſeke the Lord thy God, thou ſhalt finde him, if thou ſeke him with all thine t heart, and with all thy ſoule.

t Not ỹ outward ſhew or ceremonie, but with a true cõfeſſion, of thy fautes.

30 When thou art in tribulacion, and all theſe things are come vpon thee, " at the length, if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voyce,

"Ebr in the later dais.

31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he wil not forſake thee, nether deſtroye thee nor forget the couenant of thy fathers, which he u ſware vnto them.

u To certifie them the more of the aſſurance of their ſaluacion

32 For inquire now of the daies ỹ are paſt, which were before thee, ſince the day that God created man vpon the earth, and x aſke from the one end of heauẽ vnto the other, if there came to paſſe ſuche a great thing as this, or whether anie ſuche like thing hathe bene heard.

x Mans negligence is partely cauſe that he knoweth not God

33 Did euer people heare ỹ voyce of God ſpeakig out of the middes of a fire, as thou haſt heard, and liued?

34 Or hathe God aſſayed to go & take him a nacion from among nacions, by y tentacions, by ſignes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mighty hand, & by a ſtretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

y By ſo manifeſt proffes ỹ none colde doute thereof

35 Vnto thee it was ſhewed, that thou mighteſt z knowe, that the Lord he is God, and that there is none but he alone.

z He ſheweth the cauſe, why God wroght theſe miracles.

36 Out of heauẽ he made thee heare his voice to inſtruct thee, & vpõ earth he ſhewed thee his great fire, and thou heardeſt his voyce out of the middes of the fire.

a Frely, & not of their deſertes.

37 And becauſe a he loued thy fathers, therefore he choſe their ſede after them, and hathe broght thee out of Egypt in his ſight, by his mighty power,

38 To thruſt out nacions greater and mightier thẽ thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.

39 Vnderſtand therefore this day, and conſider in thine heart, that ỹ Lord, he is God in heauen aboue, and vpon the earth beneth: there is none other.

40 Thou ſhalt kepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandements which I cõmande thee this day, that it may b go wel with thee, and with thy childrẽ after thee, and that thou maieſt prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for euer.

b God promiſeth rewarde not for our merites, but to incourage vs, and to aſſure vs that our labour ſhal not be loſt

41 ¶ Then Moſés ſeparated thre cities on this ſide of Iordén towarde the ſonne riſing:

42 That the ſlayer ſhulde flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at vnwares, and hated him not in time paſt, might flee, I ſay, vnto one of thoſe cities, and liue:

43 That is, * Bézer in the wildernes, in the plaine countrey of the Reubenites: and Ramóth in Gileád among the Gadites: & Golán in Baſhán among them of Manaſſéh. Ioſh.20,8.

44 ¶ So this is the lawe which Moſés ſet before the children of Iſraél.

45 Theſe are the c witneſſes, and the ordinances, and the lawes which Moſés declared to the children of Iſraél after they came out of Egypt, c The articles and pointes of the couenant.

46 On this ſide Iordén, in the valey ouer againſt Beth-peór, in the land of Sihón King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heſhbón, whome Moſés and the children of Iſraél * ſmote, after they were come out of Egypt: Nomb.21,24. chap 1,4.

47 And they poſſeſſed his land, and the lãd of * Og King of Baſhán, two Kings of the Amorites, which were on this ſide Iordén toward the ſonne riſing: * Nomb 21,33. chap.3,3.

48 From Aroér, which is by the banke of the riuer Arnón, euen vnto mount Sión, which is Hermón, 49 And all the plaine by Iordén Eſtward, euen vnto d the Sea, of the plaine, vnder the * ſprings of piſgáh.

d That is, the ſalt Sea

* Chap.3,17.

CHAP. V.

5 Moſés is the meane betwene God and the people. 6 The Lawe is repeted. 23 The people are afraide at Gods voyce. 29 The Lord wiſheth that the people wolde feare him. 32 They muſt nether decline to the right hand nor left.

1 THen Moſés called all Iſraél, and ſaid vnto them, Heare ô Iſraél the ordinãces and the lawes which I "propoſe to you this day, that ye may learne them, and take hede to obſerue them.

"Ebr I ſpeake in your eares.

2 * The Lord our God made a couenant with vs in Horéb. Exod.19,5.

3 The

a Some read, God made not this couenant, that is, in ſuche ample ſort & with ſuche ſignes and wonders b So plainely that you nede not to doute thercof.

3 The Lord [a] made not this couenãt with our fathers, onely, but with vs, euen with vs all here aliue this day.
4 The Lord talked with you [b] face to face in the mount, out of the middes of the fire.
5 (At that time I ſtode betwene the Lord and you, to declare vnto you the worde of the Lord: for ye were afraide at the ſight of the fire, & went not vp into the mount) and he ſaid, Exod.20,2. Leu.16,1. pſal 96,7.

*Or, ſeruants.
c God bindeth vs to ſerue him onely, without ſuperſtition and idolatrie

6 ¶*I am the Lord thy God, which haue broght thee out of the land of Egypt, frõ the houſe of *bondage.
7 Thou ſhalt haue none [c] other gods before my face.
8 Thou ſhalt make thee no grauen image, or anie likenes of that ỹ is in heauen aboue, or which is in the earth beneth, or that is in the waters vnder the earth.
9 Thou ſhalt nether bowe thy ſelf vnto them, nor ſerue them: for* I the Lord thy God am a [d] ielous God, viſiting the iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generacion of them that hate me:

Exod 34,7. ier 32,18.
d That is, of his honour, not permitting it to be giuen to other.

10 And ſhewing mercie vnto thouſands of them that [e] loue me, and kepe my commandements.

e The firſt degre to kepe ỹ cõmandements is, to loue God

11 Thou ſhalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord wil not holde him giltles, that taketh his Name in vaine.
12 Kepe the Sabbath day, to ſanctifie it, as the Lord thy God hathe cõmanded thee.
13 Six daies [f] thou ſhalt labour, and ſhalt do all thy worke:

f Meaning, ſince God permitteth ſix dates to our labours, that we ought willingly to dedicat the ſeuẽth to ſerue him wholy.

14 But the ſeuẽth day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: ỹ ſhalt not do anie worke therein, thou, nor thy ſonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man ſeruante, nor thy maide, nor thine oxe, nor thine aſſe, nether anie of thy cattel, nor the ſtranger that is within thy gates: that thy man ſeruãt and thy maide may reſt aſwel as thou.
15 For, remember that thou waſt a ſeruant in the lãd of Egypt, and that the Lord the God broght thee out thence by a mighty hand and a ſtretched out arme: therefore the Lord thy God commãded thee to obſerue the Sabbath day.

g Not for a ſhewe, but w true obedience, and due reuerence.

16 ¶g Honour thy father & thy mother, as the Lord thy God hathe commãded thee that thy daies may be prolonged, and that it may go wel with thee vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

Matth 5,21.
17 * Thou ſhalt not kil.
Luk.18,20.
18 * Nether ſhalt thou commit adulterie.
Rom 13,9.
19 * Nether ſhalt thou ſteale.
Rom 7,7
20 Nether ſhalt thou beare falſe witnes againſt thy neighbour.

h He ſpeaketh not onely of ỹ reſolute will, but that there be no motion or affection

21 *Nether ſhalt [h] thou couet thy neighbours wife, nether ſhalt thou deſire thy neighbours houſe, his field, nor his man ſeruant, nor his maid, his oxe, nor his aſſe, nor oght that thy neighbour hathe.
22 ¶These wordes the Lord ſpake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the middes of the fire, the cloude & the darkenes, with a great voyce, and [i] added no more thereto: and wrote them vpon two tables of ſtone, and deliuered them vnto me.

i Teaching vs by his exaple to be conter w his worde & adde nothing thereto.

23 And when ye heard the voyce out of the middes of the darkenes, (for ỹ mountaine did burne with fire,) then ye came to me, all the chief of your tribes, and your Elders:
24 And ye ſaid, Beholde, the Lord our God hath ſhewed vs his glorie & his greatnes, & * we haue heard his voyce out of ỹ middes of the fire: we haue ſene this day that God doeth talke with man, and he* liueth.

Exod.19,19.
Chap. 4,33.

25 Now therefore, why ſhulde we dye: for this great fire wil conſume vs: if we heare the voyce of the Lord our God anie more, we ſhal dye.
26 For what *flesh was there euer, that heard the voyce of the liuing God ſpeaking out of the middes of the fire as we haue, & liued?

*Or, man.

27 Go thou nere and heare all that ỹ Lord our God ſaith: and declare thou vnto vs all that the Lord our God ſayeth vnto thee* and we wil heare it, and do it.

Exod 20,19.

28 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, when ye ſpake vnto me: and the Lord ſaid vnto me, I haue heard the voyce of the wordes of this people, which they haue ſpoken vnto thee: they haue wel ſaid, all that they haue ſpoken.
29 *Oh [k] that there were ſuch an heart in them to feare me, and to kepe all my commandementes alway: that it might go wel with them, and with their children for euer.

k He requireth of vs nothing but obediẽce, ſhewing alſo ỹ of our ſelues we are vnwilling therevnto

30 Go, ſay vnto them, Returne you into your tentes.
31 But ſtand thou here with me, & I wil tel thee all the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou ſhalt teache them: that they may do them in the land which I giue them to poſſeſſe it.
32 Take hede therefore, that ye do as the Lord your God hathe commanded you: l turne not aſide to the right hand nor to the left,

l Ye ſhal nether adde nor diminiſhe

33 Et walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may [m] liue, and that it may go wel with you: & that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye ſhal poſſeſſe.

m As by obedience, God giueth vs all felicitie: ſo of diſobeying God procede all our miſeries.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and kepe his commandemẽts, 5 Which is, to loue him with all thine heart 7 The ſame muſt be taught to the poſteritie. 16 Not to tempt God. 25 Righteouſnes is cõteined in the Lawe.

1 THeſe now are the cõmandements, ordinances, and *lawes, which the Lord your God commanded me to teache you, that ye might do them in the land whether ye go to poſſeſſe it:

*Or, iudgemẽts.

2 That thou mighteſt [a] feare the Lord thy God, and kepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I commãde thee, thou, and thy ſonne, and thy ſonnes ſonne all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged.

[a] A reuerent feare and loue of God, is the firſt beginning to kepe Gods cõmandemẽts.

3 Heare therefore, ô Iſraél, and take hede to do it, that it may go wel with thee, and that ye may increaſe mightely [b] in the land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hathe promiſed thee.

[b] Which hathe the abundance of all things apperteining to mans life.

4 Heare, ô Iſraél, The Lord our God is Lord onely,

5 And * thou ſhalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule, and with all thy might.

Mat 22,37. mar 12,29. luk 10,27.

6 * And theſe wordes which I commande thee this day, ſhalbe in thine heart.

*Chap.11,18.

7 And thou ſhalt [c] rehearſe them continually vnto thy children, and ſhalt talke of them when thou tarieſt in thine houſe, and as thou walkeſt by the way, and when thou lyeſt downe, and when thou riſeſt vp:

[c] Some read, ye ſhalt whet them vpon thy children: to wit, that they may printe thẽ more depely in memorie.

8 And thou ſhalt binde them for a ſigne vpon thine hand, and they ſhalbe [e] as frontelets betwene thine eyes.

*Or, ſignes of remembrance.

9 Alſo thou ſhalt write them vpõ the [d] poſtes of thyne houſe, and vpon thy gates.

[d] That when ye entreſt in, thou maieſt remember them.

10 And when the Lord thy God hathe broght thee into the land, which he ſware vnto thy fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób, to giue to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buyldedſt not,

11 And houſes ful of all maner of goods which thou filledſt not, and wels digged which thou diggedſt not, vineyardes and oliue trees which thou plantedſt not, and when thou haſt eaten and art ful, 12 [e] Beware leſt thou forget the Lord, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt, frõ the houſe of bondage.

[e] Let not welthe and eaſe cauſe thee forget Gods mercies, wherby thou waſt deliuered out of miſerie

13 Thou ſhalt feare the Lord thy God, and ſerue him, & ſhalt [f] ſweare by his Name.

[f] We muſt feare God, ſerue him onely, and confeſſe his Name, which is done by ſwearing lawfully.

14 Ye ſhal not walke after other gods, after anie of the gods of the people which are round about you, 15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you:) leſt the wrathe of the Lord thy God be kindeled againſt thee, and deſtroy thee from the face of the earth.

[g] By douting of his power refuſing lauful meanes, & abuſing his graces.

16 ¶ Ye ſhal not [g] tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Maſſáh:

17 But ye ſhal kepe diligently the commãdemẽts of the Lord your God, and his teſtimonies, and his ordinances which he hathe commanded thee,

18 And thou ſhalt do that which is right and good in the [h] ſight of the Lord: that thou maieſt proſper, and that thou maieſt go in, and poſſeſſe that good land which the Lord ſware vnto thy fathers, [h] Here he cõdemneth all mans good intentions.

19 To caſt out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hathe ſaid.

20 When [i] thy ſonne ſhal aſke thee in time to come, ſaying, What meane theſe teſtimonies, and ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord our God hathe commanded you?

[i] God requireth not onely ẏ we ſerue him all our life, but alſo ẏ we take paine ẏ our poſteritie may ſet forthe his glorie.

21 Then thou ſhalt ſay vnto thy ſonne, We were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord broght vs out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And the Lord ſhewed ſignes and wonders great & euil vpõ Egypt, vpon Pharaóh, and vpon all his houſholde, before our eyes, 23 And [k] broght vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the land which he ſware vnto our fathers.

[k] Nothing ought to moue vs more to true obedience thẽ ẏ great benefites ẏ we haue receiued of God.

24 Therefore the Lord hathe commanded vs, to do all theſe ordinances, & to feare ẏ Lord our God, that it may go euer wel with vs, & that he may preſerue vs a liue as at this preſent.

25 Moreouer, this ſhal be our [l] righteouſnes before the Lord our God, if we take hede to kepe all theſe commandements, as he hathe commanded vs.

[l] But becauſe none colde fully obey ẏ lawe, we muſt haue our recours to Chriſt to be iuſtified by faith.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Iſraelites may make no couenant with the Gentiles. 5 They muſt deſtroy the idoles. 8 The election depẽdeth on the free loue of God. 19 The experience of the power of God eght to confirme vs. 25 To auoide all occaſion of idolatrie.

1 WHen the Lord thy God ſhal bring thee into the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, * & ſhal roote out manie nacions before thee: the Hittites, and the Girgaſhites, & the Amorites, & the Canaanites, & the Perizzites, & the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites, ſeuen naciõs greater and mightier then thou,

*Chap.31,3.

2 And the Lord thy God ſhal giue them [a] before thee, then thou ſhalt ſmite them: thou ſhalt vtterly deſtroy thẽ: thou ſhalt make no * couenant with them, nor haue compaſsion on them,

[a] Into thy power.

*Exod 23,32. & 34,12.

3 Nether ſhalt thou make mariages with them, nether giue thy daughter vnto his ſonne nor take his daughter vnto thy ſonne.

4 For [c] they wil cauſe thy ſonne to turne away from me, & to ſerue other gods: then wil the wrath of the Lord waxe hote againſt you and deſtroy thee ſodenly.

*Or, anie of thẽ.

5 But thus ye ſhal deale with them, [b] Ye ſhal

[b] God wolde haue his ſeruice pure without all idolatrous ceremonies and ſuperſtitions.

ſhal ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillers, and ye ſhal cut downe their groues, & burne their grauen images with fire.

Chap 14,2. & 26,18. Exod.19,5. 1.pet.2,9.

6 *For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, *the Lord thy God hathe choſen thee, to be a precious people vnto him ſelfe, aboue all people that are vpon the earth.

7 The Lord did not ſet his loue vpon you, nor choſe you, becauſe ye were mo in nóber then anie people: for ye were the feweſt of all people:

c Freely, findig no cauſe in you more thé in others ſo to do.

8 But becauſe ẏ Lord cloued you, & becauſe he wolde kepe the othe which he had ſworne vnto your fathers, the Lord hathe brought you out by a mighty hand and deliuered you out of the houſe of bondage from the hand of Pharaóh King of Egypt,

d And ſo put difference betwene him & ſnoles

9 That thou maieſt knowe, d that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God ẅ kepeth couenant and mercie vnto them that loue him and kepe his commandements, euen to a thouſand generacions, e Meanig, manifeſtly, or in this life.

10 And rewarderh e them to their face that hate him, to bring them to deſtruction: he wil not deferre to rewarde him that hateth him, to his face.

11 Kepe thou therefore the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which I commande thee this day to do them.

12 ¶ For if ye hearken vnto theſe lawes, and obſerue and do them, then the Lord thy God ſhal kepe with thee the couenant, & the f mercy which he ſware vnto thy fathers.

f This couenãt is grounded vpon his free graceth: therefore in recompenſing th it obedience he hathe reſpect to his mercie & not to their merites.

13 And he wil loue thee, and bleſſe thee, & multiplie thee: he wil alſo bleſſe the frute of thy wombe, and the frute of thy land: thy corne and thy wine, and thine oyle & the increaſe of thy kine, and the flockes of thy ſhepe in the land, which he ſware vnto thy fathers to giue thee.

14 Thou ſhalt be bleſſed aboue all people: Exod.23,26. *there ſhalbe nether male nor female barẽ among you, nor among your cattel.

15 Moreouer, the Lord wil take away from thee all infirmities, and wil put none of the euil diſeaſes of *Egypt (which ẏ knoweſt) vpon thee, but wil ſend them vpon all that hate thee. Exod.9,14.

16 Thou ſhalt therefore conſume all people which the Lord thy God ſhal giue thee: g thine eie ſhal not ſpare them, nether ſhalt thou ſerue their gods, for that ſhalbe thy *deſtruction.

g We ought not to be merciful where God cõmandeth ſeuerite Exod 23,33.

17 If thou ſay in thine heart, Theſe nacions are mo then I, how can I caſt them out?

18 Thou ſhalt not feare them, but remember what ẏ Lord thy God did vnto Pharaóh, and vnto all Egypt:

19 The great 'tentacions which thine eyes ſawe, and the ſignes and wonders, and the mightie hand & ſtretched out arme, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: ſo ſhal the Lord thy God do vnto all the people, whoſe face thou feareſt. 'Or plagues or trials, as Chap. 29,3. exod 15,26 & 16,4.

20 *Moreouer, the Lord thy God wil ſend h hornettes among them vntil they that are left, and hide them ſelues from thee, be deſtroied. Exod 23,28. Ioſh 24,12.

h There is not ſo ſmale a creature, ẅ I wil not arme to fight on thy ſide againſt them

21 Thou ſhalt not feare them: for the Lord thy God is among you, a God mighty & dreadful.

22 And the Lord thy God wil roote out theſe nacions before thee by litle and litle: thou maiſt not conſume them at once, leſt the i beaſtes of the field increaſe vpõ thee.

i So ẏ it ſo your cõmoditie ẏ God accompliſh not his promes ſo ſone as you wolde wiſh.

23 But the Lord thy God ſhal giue them before thee, and ſhal deſtroy them with a mighty deſtruction, vntil they be brought to noght.

24 And he ſhal deliuer their Kĩgs into thine hand, and thou ſhalt deſtroy their name from vnder heauen: there ſhal no man be able to ſtand before thee, vntil thou haſt deſtroied them.

25 The grauen images of their gods ſhal ye burne with fire, and *couet not the ſiluer and golde, that is on them, nor take it vnto thee, leſt thou k be ſnared therewith: for it is an abominacion before the Lord thy God. Ioſh.7,1. 2.mac 12,40.

k And be intiſed to idolatrie.

26 Bring not therefore abominacion into thine houſe, leſt thou be accurſed like it, but vtterly abhorre it, and counte it moſte abominable: for it is *accurſed. Leui 27,28. Iomb.21,3.

CHAP. VIII.

2 God humbleth the Iſraelites to trie what they haue in their heart. 5 God chaſticeth them as his childrẽ 14 The heart ought not to be proude for Gods benefites 19 The forgetfulnes of Gods benefites cauſeth deſtruction.

1 YE ſhal kepe all the commandements ẅ I cõmande thee this day, for a to do thẽ: that ye may liue, & be multiplied, and go in, and poſſeſſe the land which the Lord ſware vnto your fathers.

a Shewing ẏ it is not ynough to heare ẏ worde, except we expreſſe it by exãple of life.

2 And thou ſhalt remember all the way which ẏ Lord thy God led thee this fourty yere in the wildernes, for to humble thee and to b proue thee, to knowe what was in thine heart, whether thou wolde ſt kepe his commandements or no.

b Which is declared in affliõs, either by pacience, or by grudging againſt Gods viſitation.

3 Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hungry, & fed thee with MAN which thou knewe ſt not, nether did thy fathers knowe it, that he might teache thee that man liueth not by c bread onely, but by euerie worde that proceadeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doeth a man liue.

c Man liueth not by meate, but by ẏ power of God, ẅ giueth it ſtrength to nouriſh vs dAs they ẏ go bare foted.

4 Thy raymẽt waxed not olde vpon thee, nether did thy fote d ſwel thoſe fourtie yeres.

5 Knowe therefore in thine heart, that as a man nourtereth his ſonne, ſo the Lord thy God [e] nourtereth thee.

[e] So ỹ his afflictiõs are ſignes of his fatherly loue towarde vs

6 Therefore ſhalt thou kepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, that thou maieſt walke in his wayes, and feare him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a lãd in the which are riuers of water and fountaines, & [f] depthes that ſpring out of valeis and mountaines:

[f] Or, meres.

8 A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyardes, and figtrees, & pomgranates: a lãd of oyle oliue and honey:

9 A lãd wherein thou ſhalt eat bread without ſcarcetie, nether ſhalt thou lacke anie thing therein: a lãd [f] whoſe ſtones are yrõ, & out of whoſe mountains thou ſhalt digge braſſe.

[f] Where there are mines of metal

10 And when thou haſt eaten and filled thy ſelf, thou ſhalt [g] bleſſe the Lord thy God for the good land, which he hath giuen thee.

[g] For to receiue Gods benefites, & not to be thankful, is to cõfũe God anthem.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keping his commandemẽts, and his lawes, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day:

12 Leſt when thou haſt eaten and filled thy ſelfe, & haſt buylt goodly houſes & dwelt therein,

13 And thy beaſtes, and thy ſhepe are increaſed, and thy ſiluer and golde is multiplied, & all that thou haſt is encreaſed, [h] By attributing Gods benefites to thine owne wiſdome & labour, or to good fortune.

14 Then thine heart [h] be lifted vp and thou forget the Lord thy God, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage, 15 Who was thy guide in the great and terrible wildernes (wherein were firy ſerpẽts, and ſcorpions, and drought, where was no water, *who broght forthe water for thee, out of the rocke of flinte:

Numb. 20, 11.

Exod. 16, 15.

16 Who fed thee in ỹ wildernes with *MAN, which thy fathers knewe not,) to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might do thee good at thy latter end.

17 Beware leſt thou ſay in thine heart, My power, and the ſtrength of mine owne hãd hathe prepared me this abundance.

18 But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which [i] giueth thee power to get ſubſtance to eſtabliſh his couenãt which he ſware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

[i] If things concerning this life procede onely of Gods mercie: muche more ſpirituall gifts & life euerlaſting

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, & ſerue them, and worſhip them, I [k] teſtifie vnto you this day that ye ſhal ſurely periſh.

[k] Or, take to witnes ỹ heauen & ỹ earth, as Chap 4, 26

20 As the naciõs which the Lord deſtroyeth before you, ſo ye ſhal periſh, becauſe ye wolde not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

CHAP. IX.

4 God doeth them not good for their owne righteouſnes, but for his owne ſake 7 Moſes putteth them in remembrance of their ſinnes 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moſes prayeth for the people.

1 HEare ô Iſraél, Thou ſhalt paſſe ouer Iordén [a] this day, to go in & to poſſeſſe nacions greater & mightier then thy ſelfe, & cities great & walled vp to heauen,

[a] Meaning, ſhortely.

2 A people great and tall, euen the children of the Anakims, whome thou knoweſt, and of whome thou haſt [b] heard ſay, Who can ſtand before the children of Anák?

[b] By ỹ report of the ſpies, Nomb 13, 29.

3 Vnderſtand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which [c] goeth ouer before thee as a conſuming fire: he ſhal deſtroy them, and he ſhal bring them downe before thy face: ſo thou ſhalt caſt thẽ out and deſtroy them ſodenly, as ỹ Lord hathe ſaid vnto thee.

[c] To guide thee & gouerne thee

4 Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath caſt them out before thee) ſaying, For my [d] righteouſnes ỹ Lord hathe broght me in, to poſſeſſe this land: but for ỹ wickednes of theſe nacions the Lord hathe caſt them out before thee.

[d] Man of him ſelfe can deſerue nothing but Gods angre, & if God ſpare anie it cõmeth of his great mercie.

5 For thou entreſt not to inherit their land for thy righteouſnes, or for thy vpright heart, but for the wickednes of thoſe natiõs, the Lord thy God doeth caſt thẽ out before thee, and that he might perfourme the worde which the Lord thy God ſware vnto thy fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, and Iakób.

6 Vnderſtand therefore, that the Lord thy God giueth thee not this good land to poſſeſſe it for thy righteouſnes: for thou art a [e] ſtifnecked people.

[e] Like ſtubberne oxen ẅ will not endure their maſters yoke

7 ¶Remember, & forget not, how ỹ prouokedſt the Lord thy God to angre in the wilderne: [f] ſince the day that thou dideſt depart out of the land of Egypt, vntil ye came vnto this place ye haue rebelled againſt the Lord.

[f] He proueth by ỹ legth of time, ỹ their rebellió was more great, & intolerable.

8 Alſo in Horéb ye prouoked the Lord to angre ſo that ỹ Lord was wroth with you, euen to deſtroy you.

9 When I was gone vp in to the mount, to receiue the tables of ſtone, the tables, I ſay, of ỹ couenãt, which the Lord made with you: and *I abode in the moũt forty dayes and fortie nightes, & I nether ate bread nor yet dranke water:

Exod 24, 18. & 34 28.

10 *Then the Lord deliuered me two tables of ſtone, written with the [g] finger of God, and in them was contained according to all the wordes which the Lord had ſaid vnto you in the mounte out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the aſſemblie.

Exod 31, 18.

[g] That is miraculouſly, & not by ỹ hand of men.

11 And when the fortie dayes and fortie nightes were ended, the Lord gaue me the two tables of ſtone, the tables, I ſay, of the couc-couenant.

Exod 32,7. 12 And the Lord ſaid vnto me, *Ariſe, get thee downe quickely from hence: for thy people which thou haſt broght out of Egypt, haue [h] corrupt their wayes: thei are ſone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: thei haue made thē a molten image.

h So ſone as man declineth from the obedience of God, his waies are corrupt.

13 Furthermore, the Lord ſpake vnto me, ſaying, I haue ſene this people, and beholde, it is a ſtifnecked people.

[i] Signifying ỹ the prayers of ỹ faithful are a barre to ſtaie Gods angre, ỹ he cōſume not all.

14 [i] Let me alone, that I may deſtroye thē, and put out their name from vnder heauē, and I wil make of thee a mightie nacion, and greater then thei be.

15 So I returned, and came downe from the Mount (& the Mount burnt with fire, and the two Tables of the couenāt were in my two hands)

16 Then I loked, & beholde, ye had ſinned againſt the Lord your God: for ye had made you a moltē calf, and had turned quickely out of the [k] way which the Lord had commanded you.

k That is, frō the Lawe wherein he declareth what is ỹ cauſe of our perdition.

17 Therefore I toke the two Tables, & caſt them out of my two hands, and brake thē before your eies.

18 And I fel downe before the Lord, fortie daies, and fortie nights, as before: I nether ate bread nor dranke water, becauſe of all your ſinnes, which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the ſight of ỹ Lord, in that ye prouoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraied of the wrath and indignacion, wherewith the Lord was moued againſt you, euen to deſtroye you) yet the Lord heard me at that time alſo.

20 Likewiſe the Lord was verie angry with Aarón, euen to [l] deſtroye him: but at that time I praied alſo for Aarón.

l Whereby he theweth what dāger ther are in, ỹ haue authoritie, & reſiſt not wickednes

21 And I toke your ſinne, I meane the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and ſtamped him and grounde him ſmale, euen vnto verie duſt: and I caſt the duſt thereof into the riuer, that deſcended out of the [m] Mount.

m Horēb, or Sinái. Nomb.11,3. Exod.17,7. Nomb.11,34.

22 Alſo *in Taberáh, and in Maſſáh and in Kibrothhattaauáh ye prouoked ỹ Lord to angre.

23 Likewiſe when the Lord ſent you from Kadeſh-barnéa, ſaying, Go vp, and poſſeſſe the land which I haue giuen you, thē ye [n] rebelled againſt the commandemēt of the Lord your God, and bekued him not, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

n At the returne of ỹ ſpies.

24 Ye haue bene rebellious vnto the Lord, ſince the daie that I knewe you.

o Whereby is ſignified that God requireth earneſt continuāce in praier.

25 Then I fel downe before the Lord [o] fortie daies and fortie nights, as I fel downe before, becauſe the Lord had ſaid, that he wolde deſtroye you.

26 And I praied vnto the Lord, and ſaid, O Lord God, deſtroye not thy people & thine inheritance, which thou haſt redemed through thy greatnes whome ỹ haſt broght out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

27 [p] Remember thy ſeruants Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób: loke not to the ſtuburnes of this people, nor to their wickednes, nor to their ſinne, p The godlie in their praiers groūde on Gods promes, & cōfeſſe their ſinnes.

28 Leſt the countrey, whence thou broghteſt them, ſay, *Becauſe the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promiſed them, or becauſe he hated them, he caried them out, to ſlaye them in the wildernes. Nom.14,16.

29 Yet thei are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broghteſt out by thy mightie power, and by thy ſtretched out arme.

CHAP. X

1 The ſeconde tables put in the Arke. 8 The tribe of Leui is dedicate to the ſeruice of the Tabernacle. 12 What the Lord requireth of vs. 16 The circumciſion of the heart. 17 God regardeth not the perſone. 21 The Lord is the praiſe of Iſraél.

1 IN the ſame time the Lord ſaid vnto me, *Hewe thee two Tables of ſtone lyke vnto the firſt, and come vp vnto me into the Mount, and make thee an Arke of wood, Exod.34,1.

2 And I wil write vpon ỹ Tables the wordes that were vpon the firſt Tables, which thou brakeſt, and thou ſhalt put them in the Arke.

3 And I made an Arke of [a] ſhittím wood, and hewed two Tables of ſtone like vnto the firſt, and went vp into the Mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand.

a Which wood is of long continuance.

4 Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the firſt writing (the ten commādements, which the Lord ſpake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the daye of the [b] aſſemblie) and the Lord gaue them vnto me.

b When you were aſſēbled to receiue the Lawe.

5 And I departed, and came downe frō the Mount, & put the Tables in ỹ Arke which I had made: and there thei be, as the Lord commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Iſraél toke their iourney from Beeróth of the children of Iaakán to [c] Moſerá, where Aarón dyed, & was buryed, and Eleazár his ſonne became Prieſt in his ſteade.

c This mountaine was alſo called Hor. Nomb.20,28.

7 ¶ From thence thei departed vnto Gudgodáh, and from Gudgodáh to Iotbáth a land of running waters.

8 ¶ The ſame time the Lord ſeparated the tribe of Leuí to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and to ſtand before the Lord, to [d] miniſter vnto him, and to bleſſe in his Name vnto this day.

d That is, to offer ſacrifices & to declare ỹ Lawe to the people.

9 Wherefore Leuí hathe no parte nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his [e] inheritance, as the Lord thy God hathe promiſed him.

e So God turned ỹ curſe of Iaakób, Gen. 49,7, vnto bleſſing.

10 And I taried in the Mount, as at the firſt time, fortie daies and fortie nights, and the Lord heard me at that time alſo, and the Lord wolde not deſtroye thee.
11 But the Lord ſaid vnto me, Ariſe, go forthe in the iourney before the people, that thei may go in and poſſeſſe the land, which I ſware vnto their fathers to giue vnto them.
12 ¶ And now, Iſraél, what doeth the Lord thy God f require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his waies, and to loue him, and to ſerue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule?
13 That thou kepe the commandements of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day, for thy welth?
14 Beholde, he auen, and the heauen of heauens g the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.
15 g Notwithſtanding, the Lord ſet his delite in thy fathers to loue them, and dyd choſe their ſede after them, euen you aboue all people, as appeareth this day.
16 h Circumciſe therefore the foreſkin of your heart, and harden your neks no more.
17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mightie, & terrible, which accepteth no * perſones nor taketh rewarde:
18 Who doeth right vnto the fatherles and widowe, and loueth the ſtranger, giuing him fode and rayment.
19 Loue ye therefore the ſtranger: for ye were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt.
20 *Thou ſhalt feare the Lord thy God: thou ſhalt ſerue him, and thou ſhalt cleaue vnto him, and i ſhalt ſweare by his Name.
21 He is thy praiſe, and he is thy God, that hathe done for thee theſe great and terrible things, which thine eies haue ſene.
22 Thy fathers went downe into Egypt * with ſeuentie perſones, & now the Lord thy God hathe made thee, as the * ſtarres of the heauen in multitude.

f For all our ſinnes & tranſgreſsions God requireth nothing but to turne to him & obey him.
g Although he was Lord of heauē & earth, yet wolde he chuſe none but you.
h Cut of all your euil affectiōs, Iere. 4.4 2 Chro 19.7. iob. 34.19. rom. 2.11.
Chap 6.13. mat. 4.10.
i Read Chap 6.13.
Gen. 46.27. exod. 1.5. Gen. 15.5.

CHAP. XI.

1 An exhortacion to loue God, and kepe his Lawe. 10 The praiſes of Canaan. 18 To meditate continually the worde of God. 19 To teache it vnto the children. 26 Bleſsing and curſing.

1 THerefore thou ſhalt loue the Lord thy God, and ſhalt kepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his Lawes, and his commandements alwaie.
2 And a conſider this day (for I ſpeake not to your children, which haue neither knowne nor ſene) the chaſtiſemēt of the Lord your God, his greatnes, his mightie hand, and his ſtretched out arme,
3 And his ſignes, and his actes, which he did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaóh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land:
4 And what he did vnto the hoſte of the Egyptians, vnto their horſes and to their charets, when he cauſed the waters of the red Sea to ouerfloe them, as thei purſued after you, and the Lord deſtroyed them vnto this day:
5 And b what he did vnto you in the wildernes, vntil ye came vnto this place:
6 And what he did vnto Dathán and Abirám the ſonnes of Eliáb the ſonne of Reubén, when the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed them with their houſeholdes and their tents, and all their ſubſtance that "thei had in the middes of all Iſraél.
7 For your eies haue ſene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.
8 Therefore ſhal ye kepe c all the commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye may be ſtrong, and go in and poſſeſſe the land whether ye go to poſſeſſe it:
9 Alſo that ye may prolong your daies in the land, which the Lord ſware vnto your fathers, to giue vnto them and to their ſede, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.
10 ¶ For the land whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, is not as the land of Egypt, fróm whence ye came, where thou ſowedſt thy ſede, and watereſt it with f thy d fete as a garden of herbes:
11 But the land whether ye go to poſſeſſe it, u a land of mountaines and valleis, & drinketh water of the raine of heauen.
12 This land doeth the Lord thy God care for: the eies of the Lord thy God are alwaies vpon it, from the beginning of the yere, euen vnto the end of the yere.
13 ¶ If ye ſhal hearken therefore vnto my commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye loue the Lord your God & ſerue him with all your heart, and with all your ſoule, 14 I alſo wil giue raine vnto your land in due time, e the firſt raine and the latter, that thou maieſt gather in thy wheat, and thy wine, and thine oyle.
15 Alſo I wil ſed graſſe in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou maieſt eat, and haue ynoúgh.
16 But beware leſt your heart f deceaue you, and leſt ye turne aſide, and ſerue other gods, and worſhip them, 17 And ſo ỹ angre of the Lord be kindled againſt you, and he ſhut vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your land yelde not her frute, & ye periſh quickely from a Ye, which haue ſene Gods graces w your eies, ought rather to be moued, thē your children, w haue onely heard of thē.

b Aſwel cōcerning his benefites, as his correctiōs.
"Hebr. was at their fete.
c Because ye haue felt both his chaſtiſements and his benefites.
d As by making gutters for the water to come out of the riuer Nilus to water the land.
e In the ſede time, & toward haruest.
f By diuiſing to your ſelues fooliſh deuociōs according to your owne fantaſies.

177/1224

from the good land, which the Lord giueth you.

18 ¶ Therefore ſhal ye lay vp theſe my wordes in your heart & in your ſoule, & *binde them for a ſigne vpon your hand, ẏ they maie be as a frontelet betwene your eyes,

Chap.6.6.

Chap 4.10. & 6.6.

19 And ye ſhal *teache them your children, ſpeaking of thē, when thou ſitteſt in thine houſe, and when thou waikeſt by the waie, and when thou lieſt downe, and when thou riſeſt vp.

20 And thou ſhalt write them vpon the poſtes of thine houſe, & vpon thy gates, 21 That your dayes maie be multiplied, & the dayes of your children, in the land ẅ the Lord ſware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as ‖ the heauens are aboue the earth.

‖ As long as the heauens endure.

22 ¶ For if ye kepe diligently all theſe commandements, which I commande you to do: that is, to loue the Lord your God to walke in all his waies, & to cleaue vnto hī, 23 Then wil the Lord caſt out all theſe nacions before you, and ye ſhal poſſeſſe greater nacions and mightier then you.

Ioſh 1.3.

24 *All the places whereō the ſoles of [h] your fete ſhal treade, ſhalbe yours: your coaſt ſhalbe from the wildernes and from Lebanón, and from the Riuer, euen the riuer Peráth, vnto the vttermoſt [i] Sea.

h This was accomplish din Dauids & Salomons time i Called mediterraneum.

25 No man ſhal ſtand againſt you: for the Lord your God ſhal caſt the feare and dread of you vpon all the lād that ye ſhal tread vpon, as he hathe ſaid vnto you.

26 ¶ Beholde, I ſet before you this day a bleſsing and a curſe:

Chap 28.2. & 30.1.

27 *The bleſsing, if ye obey the cōmādements of the Lord your God which I cō mande you this day:

28 And ẏ curſe, if ye wil not obey the cōmandements of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I commande you this day, to go after other gods, ẅ ye haue not [k] knowen.

k He reputeth ẏ malice of mē ẅ leaue that ẅ is certeine, to follow that ẅ is vncertein

29 ¶ Whē the Lord thy God therefore hathe broght thee into the land, whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it, then thou ſhalt put the *bleſsing vpon mount Gerizím, and the curſe vpon mount Ebál.

Chap. 27.13. Ioſh 8.33.

30 Are they not beyonde Iordén on ẏ parte, [l] where the ſunne goeth downe in the land of the Canaanites, which dwel in the plaine ouer againſt Gilgál, beſide the groue of Moréh?

l Meaning in Samaria.

Or, plaine.

31 For ye ſhal paſſe ouer Iordén, to go in to poſſeſſe the land, which the Lord your God giueth you, and ye ſhal poſſeſſe it, & dwel therein.

Chap. 5.32.

32 Take hede therefore that ye * do all the commandements and the lawes, which I ſet before you this day.

CHAP. XII.

1 To deſtroy the idolatrous places. 5, 8 To ſerue God where he commandeth and as he commandeth, and not as men fantaſie. 19 The Leuites muſt be nouriſhed. 31 Idolaters burnt their children to their gods. 32 To adde nothing to Gods worde.

1 THeſe are the ordinances & the lawes, which ye ſhal obſerue and do in the land (which the Lord God [a] of thy fathers giueth thee to poſſeſſe it) as long as ye liue vpon the earth.

a Whereby they are admoniſhed to seke none other God.

2 * Ye ſhal vtterly deſtroy all the places wherein the nacions which ye ſhal poſſeſſe, ſerued their gods vpon the hie mountains & vpon the hilles, and vnder euerie grene tre.

Chap 7.5.

3 *Alſo ye ſhal ouerthrowe their altars, & breake downe their pillers, & burne their [b] groues with fire: & ye ſhal hewe downe the grauen images of their gods, & aboliſh their names out of that place.

Iudg.2.2.

b Wherein they ſacrificed to their idoles.

4 Ye ſhal [c] not ſo do vnto the Lord your God, c Ye ſhal not ſerue ẏ Lord ẅ ſuperſtitiōs.

5 But ye ſhal ſeke the place which the Lord your God ſhal * choſe out of all your tribes, to put his Name there, & there to dwel, and thether thou ſhalt come,

1. Kin.8.29. 2 chro 6.5. & 7.12.

6 And ye ſhal brīg thether your burnt offrings, and your ſacrifices, & your tithes, & the [d] offring of your hands, & your vowes, & your free offrings & the firſt borne of your kine & of your ſhepe.

d Meaning the firſt frutes.

7 And there ye ſhal eat [e] before the Lord your God, and ye ſhal reioyce in all that ye put your hād vnto, bothe ye, & your houſholdes, becauſe the Lord thy God hathe bleſſed thee.

e Where his Arke ſhalbe.

8 Ye ſhal not do after all theſe things ẏ we do [f] here this day: that is, euerie man whatſoeuer ſemeth him good in his owne eyes.

f Not ẏ they ſacrificed after their fantaſies, but ẏ God wolde be ſerued more purely in ẏ lād of Canáan.

9 For ye are not yet come to reſt, & to ẏ inheritāce ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee.

10 But when ye go ouer Iordén, & dwel in the land, which the Lord your God hathe giuen you to inherit, & when he hathe giuen you [g] reſt from all your enemies rounde about, & ye dwel in ſafetie, g It had not bene ynough to cōquer, except God had maiteined thē in reſt vnder his protectiō.

11 When there ſhalbe a place which ẏ Lord your God ſhal choſe, to cauſe his Name to dwel there, thether ſhal ye bring all that I commāde you: your burnt offrings, & your ſacrifices, your tithes, and the offring of your hands, and all your [m] ſpecial vowes which ye vow vnto the Lord:

Or, that which ye chuſe out for your vowes.

12 And ye ſhal reioyce before ẏ Lord your God, ye, & your ſonnes & your daughters, & your ſeruants, and your maidens, and ẏ Leuite that is within your gates: * for he hathe no parte nor inheritance with you.

Chap 10.9.

13 Take hede that thou offer not thy burnt offrings in euerie place that thou ſeeſt:

14 But in the place which the Lord ſhal [h] choſe in one of thy tribes, there thou ſhalt offer thy burnt offrings, and there thou ſhalt do all that I commande thee.

h As was declared euer by ẏ placing of ẏ Arke, as in Shiloh 243 yeres, or as ſome write, more thē 300 yeres, & in other places til the temple was buyld.

15 Notwithſtanding thou maiſt kil and eat fleſh in all thy gates, whatſoeuer thine heart deſireth, according to the [i] bleſsing of the Lord thy God which he hathe gi-uen thee: bothe the vncleane and the cleane may eat thereof, [k] as of the roe bucke, & [k] Euerie one might eat at home aſwel ỹ beaſt appointed for ſacrifice as ỹ other.
of the hart.
16 Onely ye ſhal not eat ỹ blood, but pow-re it vpon the earth as water.
17 ¶ Thou maieſt not eat within thy gates the [l] tithe of thy corne, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oyle, nor ỹ firſt borne of thy kine, nor of thy ſhepe, nether anie of thy vowes which thou voweſt, nor thy fre of-frings, nor the offring of thine hands, 18 But thou ſhalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which ỹ Lord thy God ſhal choſe, thou, and thy ſonne, and thy daughter, and thy ſeruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite, that is within thy gates: and thou ſhalt reioyce before ỹ Lord thy God, in all that thou putteſt thine hand to.
Eccleſ.7.32. 19 *Beware, that thou forſake not the Leuite, as long as thou liueſt vpon the earth.
20 ¶ When the Lord thy God ſhal enlar-Gen.28.14. chap.19.8. ge thy border, *as he hathe promiſed thee, and thou ſhalt ſay, I wil eat fleſh, (becauſe thine heart lõgeth to eat fleſh) thou maiſt eat fleſh, what ſoeuer thine heart deſireth.
21 If the place which the Lord thy God hathe choſe to put his Name there, be far from thee, thẽ thou ſhalt kil of thy bullockkes, and of thy ſhepe which the Lord ha-the giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, & thou ſhalt eat in thy gates, what ſoeuer thine heart deſireth.
22 Euen as the roe bucke and the hart is eaten, ſo thou ſhalt eat them: bothe the vncleane & the cleane ſhal eat of thẽ alike.
[n] Ebr be ſtrong or conſtant. 23 Onely be [n] ſure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood [m] is the life, and ỹ maiſt not eat the life with the fleſh.
24 Therefore thou ſhalt not eat it, but pow-
re it vpon the earth as water.
25 Thou ſhalt not eat it, that it may go wel with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou ſhalt do that which is right in the ſight of the Lord:
[n] That which thou wilt offer in ſacrifice. 26 But thine [n] holy things which thou haſt, and thy vowes thou ſhalt take vp, and come vnto ỹ place which ỹ Lord ſhal choſe.
27 And thou ſhalt make thy burnt offrings of the fleſh, and of the blood vpon the altar of the Lord thy God; and the blood of thine offrings ſhal be powred vpon the altar of the Lord thy God, & thou ſhalt eat the fleſh.
28 Take hede, and heare all theſe wordes
[o] God by pro-mes bindeth him ſelfe to do good to thẽ that obey his worde. which I command thee, ỹ it may go [o] wel with thee, and with thy children after thee for euer, when ỹ doeſt that which is good & right in the ſight of the Lord thy God.
29 ¶ When the Lord thy God ſhal deſtroy the nacions before thee, whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe them, & thou ſhalt poſſeſſe them and dwel in their land, 30 Beware, leſt thou be taken in [p] a ſnare after thẽ, after that they be deſtroyed before thee, & leſt thou aſke after their gods, ſaying, How did theſe nacions ſerue their gods, that I may do ſo likewiſe?
31 Thou ſhalt not do ſo vnto the Lord thy God: for all abomination, which the Lord hateth, haue they done vnto their gods: for they haue [q] burned bothe their ſonnes and their daughters with fire to their gods.
32 Therefore whatſoeuer I commande you, take hede you do it: * thou ſhalt put nothing thereto, nor take oght therefrom.

[p] By following their ſuperſtitions & idolatries, & thinking to ſerue me thereby.

[q] They thoght nothing to dear to offer to their idoles.

Chap.4.2. ioſh.1.7. prou.30.6. reu.22.18.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The inticers to idolatrie muſt be ſlaine, ſeme they neuer ſo holy. 6 So nere of kinred or frẽdſhip. 12 Or great in multitude or power.

1 IF there ariſe among you a prophet or a dreamer of [a] dreames, (& giue thee a ſigne or wondre,
2 And the ſigne and the wondre, which he hathe tolde thee, come to paſſe) ſaying, [b] Let vs go after other gods, which thou haſt not knowen, and let vs ſerue them, 3 Thou ſhalt not hearken vnto the wordes of ỹ prophet, or vnto that dreamer of dre-mes: for ỹ Lord your God [c] proueth you, to knowe whether ye loue the Lord your god w̃ all your hea t, and w̃ all your ſoule.
4 Ye ſhal walke after the Lord your God & feare him, and ſhal kepe his commandements, and hearken vnto his voyce, and ye ſhal ſerue him, & cleaue vnto him.
5 But that prophet, or ỹ dreamer of dreames he ſhal [d] be ſlaine, becauſe he hathe ſpoken to turne you away from the Lord your God (w̃ brought you out of the land of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the houſe of bõdage) to thruſt thee out of the way, wherein the Lord thy God commã-ded thee to walke: ſo ſhalt thou take the euil away forthe of the middes of thee.
6 ¶ If [e] thy brother, the ſonne of thy mother, or thine owne ſonne, or thy daughter, or the wife, that lieth in thy boſome, or thy frende, which is as thine owne [f] ſoule, entice thee ſecretly, ſaying, Let vs go and ſerue other gods, (which thou haſt not knowen, thou, I ſay, nor thy fathers) 7 Ane of the gods of the people which are rownde about you, nere vnto thee or far from thee, from the one end of ỹ earth vnto the other:
8 Thou ſhalt not cõſent vnto him, nor heare him, nether ſhal thine eye pitie him, nor ſhewe mercie, nor kepe him ſecret:
9 But ỹ ſhalt euẽ kil him: [g] thine hãd ſhal-be firſt vpõ him to put him to death, & thẽ
the

[a] Which ſaith, that he hathe things reuealed vnto him in dreames.

[b] He ſheweth whereunto ỹ falſe prophets tend

[c] God ordeineth all theſe things ỹ he may be knowen.

[d] Being cõuict by teſtimonies & cõdemned by the iudge.

[e] All natural affections muſt giue place to Gods honour.

[f] Whome thou loueſt as thy life.

[g] As ỹ witnes is charged. Chap.17.7.

the hands of all the people.

10 And thou ſhalt ſtone him with ſtones, ỹ he dye (becauſe he hathe gone about to thruſt thee away frō the Lord thy God, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage)

Chap.17.13. 11 That *all Iſraél may heare & feare, & do no more anie ſuche wickednes as this among you.

12 ¶ If thou ſhalt heare ſay (concerning anie of thy cities which the Lord thy God hathe giuen thee to dwel in)

Or children of Belial 13 "Wicked men are gone out from amōg you, & haue drawen away ỹ inhabitāts of their citie, ſaying, Let vs go & ſerue other gods, which ye haue not knowen, h Which are appointed to ſe fautes punished. 14 Then h thou ſhalt ſeke, & make ſearche & enquire diligently: and if it be true, & the thing certeine, that ſuche abomination is wroght among you, 15 Thou ſhalt euē ſlaye the inhabitāts of ỹ citie with the edge of the ſworde: deſtroy it vtterly, & all that is therein, & the cattel thereof with the edge of the ſworde.

i Signifying ỹ no idolatrie is ſo execrable, nor more grieuouſly to be puniſhed, then of them which once profeſſed God 16 And i thou ſhalt gather all the ſpoile of it into the middes of the ſtrete thereof, & burne with fire the citie & all the ſpoile thereof euerie whit, vnto the Lord thy God: and it ſhalbe an heape for euer: it ſhal not be buylt againe.

k Of ỹ ſpoyle of y idolatrous & curſed citie, Read Chap.7.26. 17 And there ſhal cleaue nothing of ỹ k dāned thing to thine hād, ỹ the Lord maie turne from the fearcenes of his wrath, & ſhewe thee mercie, and haue compaſsion on thee and multiplie thee, as he hathe ſworne vnto thy fathers:

18 *When thou ſhalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, and kepe all his commandements which I commāde thee this day, that thou do that which is right in ỹ eies of the Lord thy God.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The maners of the Gentiles in marking thē ſelues for the dead, may not be folowed. 4 What meates are cleane to be eaten, and what not. 29 The tithes for the Leuite, ſtranger, fatherles, and widowe.

Leuit.19.28. 1 YE are the children of the Lord your God. *Ye ſhal not cut your ſelues, nor make you ane baldnes betwene your eies for the dead.

Chap.7.6. & 26.18. 2 *For thou art an holy people vnto ỹ Lord thy God, & the Lord hathe choſen thee to be a a precious people vnto him ſelfe, aboue all the people that are vpon the earth.

a Therefore ỹ oghteſt not to followe ỹ ſuperſtitions of the Gentils. 3 ¶ Thou ſhalt eat no maner of abomination.

b This ceremonial Lawe inſtructed ỹ Iewes to ſeke a ſpiritual pureties, euen in their meat & drinke. 4 b These are the beaſts, which ye ſhal eat, the beſe, the ſhepe, and the goat,

5 The hart, & the roe bucke, and ỹ bugle, and the wilde goat, & the vnicorne, & the wilde oxe, and the chamois.

6 And euerie beaſt ỹ parteth the hoofe, and cleaueth ỹ clift into two clawes, and is of ỹ beaſts that cheweth ỹ cud, that ſhal ye eat.

7 But theſe ye ſhal not eat, of them that chewe the cud, and of them that deuide & cleaue ỹ hoofe onely: the camel, nor the hare, nor the cony: for they chewe the cud, but deuide not the hoofe: therefore they ſhalbe vncleane vnto you:

8 Alſo the ſwine, becauſe he deuideth the hoofe, & cheweth not the cud, ſhalbe vncleane vnto you: ye ſhal not eat of their fleſh, nor touche their dead carkeiſes.

Leuit.11.2. 9 ¶ * Theſe ye ſhal eat, of all that are in the waters: all that haue finnes and ſcales ſhal ye eat.

10 And whatſoeuer hathe no finnes nor ſcales, ye ſhal not eat: it ſhalbe vncleane vnto you.

11 ¶ Of all cleane birdes ye ſhal eat:

12 But theſe are thei, whereof ye ſhal not eat: ỹ egle, nor ỹ goſhawke, nor ỹ oſprey,

13 Nor the glead nor the kite, nor the vulture, after their kinde,

14 Nor all kinde of rauens,

15 Nor the oſtriche, nor ỹ nightcrowe, nor ỹ "ſemeaw, nor the hawke after her kinde,

"Or, cuckowe

16 Nether the lytle owle, nor the great owle, nor the redſhanke,

17 Nor the pellicane, nor the ſwāne, nor ỹ cormorant:

18 The ſtorcke alſo, and the heron in his kinde, nor the lapwing, nor * the backe.

Leuit.11.20

19 And euerie creping thing ỹ flieth, ſhalbe vncleane vnto you: it ſhal not be eaten.

20 But of all cleane foules ye may eat.

c Becauſe their blood was not ſhed, but remaneth in them. d Which is not of thy religion. 21 Ye ſhal eat of nothing that c dyeth alone, but thou ſhalt giue it vnto the d ſtranger that is within thy gates, that he may eat it: or thou maieſt ſel it vnto a ſtrāger: for thou art an holy people vnto ỹ Lord thy God. Thou ſhalt not * ſeeth a kid in his mothers milke.

Exod.23.19. and 34.26.

e The tithes were ordeined for the maintenance of the Leuites, which had none inheritance. 22 Thou ſhalt e giue the tithe of all the increaſe of thy ſede, that commeth forthe of the field yere by yere.

23 And thou ſhalt eat before the Lord thy God (in the place which he ſhal choſe to cauſe his Name to dwel there) the tithe of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thine oyle, and the firſt borne of thy kyne and of thy ſhepe, that thou maieſt learne to feare the Lord thy God alway.

f When he ſhal giue thee abilitie 24 And if the way be to long for thee, ſo that thou art not able to cary it, becauſe the place is far from thee, where the Lord thy God ſhal choſe to ſet his Name, f whē the Lord thy God ſhal bleſſe thee.

"Or, binde vp. 25 Then ſhalt thou make it in money, and "take the money in thine hand, and go vnto the place which the Lord thy God ſhal choſe.

26 And thou ſhalt beſtowe the money for what ſoeuer thine heart deſireth: whether it be oxe, or ſhepe, or wine or ſtrong drinke, or whatſoeuer thine heart deſireth: and ſhalt eat it there before ỹ Lord thy God, and reioyce, bothe thou, & thine houſholde.

g After the Prieſt hathe receiued ỹ Lords parte.

27 And the Leuite that is within thy gates, ſhalt thou not forſake: for he hathe nether parte nor inheritance with thee.

h Beſides the yerely tithes that were giuē to ỹ Leuites, theſe were laide vp in ſtore for ỹ poore.

28 ¶ At the end of thre yere ỹ ſhalt h bring forthe all the tithes of thine encreaſe of ỹ ſame yere, & lay it vp within thy gates.

29 Then the Leuite ſhal come, becauſe he hathe no parte nor inheritance with thee, & the ſtranger, and the fatherles, and the widowe, which are within thy gates, and ſhal eat, and be filled, that the Lord thy God may bleſſe thee in all the worke of thine hand which thou doeſt.

CHAP. XV.

ỹ yere of releaſing of debts. 7 God bleſſeth them that kepe his commandements. 7 To helpe the poore. 12 The fredome of ſeruants. 19 The firſt borne of the cattel muſt be offred to the Lord.

1 AT the terme of ſeuen yeres thou ſhalt make a fredome.

2 And this is the maner of ỹ fredome: euerie a creditour ſhal quite the lone of his hād ẅ he hathe lent to his neighbour: he ſhal not aſke it againe of his neighbour, nor of his brother: for the yere of ỹ Lords fredome is proclamed.

a He ſhal onely releaſe his debtors, ẅ are not able to pay for ỹ yere

3 Of a ſtranger thou maiſt require it: but ỹ which thou haſt with thy brother, thine hand ſhal remit:

b For if thy debtor be rich, he may be cōſtrained to pay.

4 b Saue when there ſhalbe no poore with thee: for the Lord ſhal bleſſe thee in the lād, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, for an inheritance to poſſeſſe it:

5 So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of ỹ Lord thy God to obſerue & do all theſe commandements, which I commāde thee this day.

6 For ỹ Lord thy God hathe bleſſed thee, as he hathe promiſed thee: & * thou ſhalt lend vnto manie nacions, but thou ſhalt not borowe, & thou ſhalt reigne ouer manie nacions, and they ſhal not reigne ouer thee. Chap. 28.12.

7 ¶ If one of thy brethrē with thee be poore c within anie of thy gates in thy land, ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou ſhalt not harden thine heart, nor ſhut thine hād from thy poore brother:

c Or, anie of thy cities.

8 *But thou ſhalt open thine hād vnto him, and ſhalt lend him ſufficient for his nede which he hathe. Matt. 5.42 luke 6.34

9 Beware ỹ there be not a wicked thoght in thine heart, to ſay, The ſeuenth yere, ỹ yere of fredome is at hand: therefore " it grieueth thee to loke on thy poore brother, and thou giueſt him noght, & he crie vnto the Lord agaīſt thee, ſo that ſinne be in thee:

"Ebr. thyne eie be euil.

10 Thou ſhalt giue him, & let it not grieue "thine heart to giue vnto him: for becauſe of this ỹ Lord thy God ſhal bleſſe thee in all thy workes, & in all that thou putteſt thine hand to.

"Ebr. let not thine heart be euil.

11 c Becauſe there ſhalbe euer ſome poore in the land, therefore I commande thee, ſaying, Thou ſhalt d open thine hand vnto thy brother, to thy nedie, and to thy poore in thy land.

c To trie your charitie, Mat. 26.11

d Thou ſhalt be liberal.

12 ¶ *If thy brother an Ebrewe ſel him ſelfe to thee, or an Ebrewe eſſe, and ſerue thee ſix yere, euē in the ſeuenth yere thou ſhalt let him go fre from thee. Exod 21.2. ie 34.14

13 And when thou ſendeſt him out fre frō thee, ỹ ſhalt not let him go away emptie, 14 But ſhalt e giue him a liberal rewarde of thy ſhepe, & of thy corne, & of thy wine: thou ſhalt giue him of that wherewith the Lord thy God hathe bleſſed thee.

e In token ỹ thou doeſt acknowledg the benefite which God hathe giuen thee by his labours.

15 And remember that thou waſt a ſeruant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God deliuered thee: therefore I commande thee this thing to day.

16 And if he ſay vnto thee, I wil not go away from thee, becauſe he loueth thee & thine houſe, & becauſe he is wel with thee, 17 *Then ſhalt thou take a naule, and perce his eare through againſt the dore, and he ſhal be thy ſeruāt f for euer: and vnto thy mayd ſeruant thou ſhalt do likewiſe. Exod. 21.6.

f To the yere of Iubile, Leuit 25.40.

18 Let it not grieue thee, when thou letteſt him go out fre frō thee: for he hathe ſerued thee ſix yeres, which is the double worthe of g an hired ſeruant: & the Lord thy God ſhal bleſſe thee in all ỹ thou doeſt.

g For the hired ſeruāt ſerued but thre yeres, and he ſix

19 ¶ All the firſt borne males that come of thy cattel, & of thy ſhepe, thou ſhalt ſanctifie vnto the Lord thy God. h Thou ſhalt do no worke with thy firſt borne bullocke, nor ſheare thy firſt borne ſhepe. Exod 34.19.

h For they are the Lords.

20 Thou ſhalt eat it before the Lord thy God yere by yere, in the place which the Lord ſhal choſe, bothe ỹ, & thine houſhold.

21 *But if there be anie blemiſh therein, as if it be lame, or blinde, or haue anie euil faut, ỹ ſhalt not offer it vnto ỹ Lord thy God, Leui. 22.20. chap 17.1. eccl. 35.14.

22 But ſhalt eat it within thy gates: the vncleane, and the cleane ſhal eat it alike, i as the roe bucke, and as the heart.

i. Thou ſhalt aſwel eat thē, as ỹ roe bucke, and other wilde beaſts.

23 Onely thou ſhalt not eat the blood thereof, but powre it vpon ỹ groūde as water.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of Eaſter. 10 Whitſuntide. 13 And the feaſt of tabernacles. 18 What officers ought to be ordeined. 21 Idolatrie forbidden.

1 THou ſhalt kepe ỹ moneth of * Abīb & thou ſhalt celebrate the Paſſeouer vnto the Lord thy God: for in the moneth of Abīb the Lord thy God brought thee out of Egypt by night.

2 Read Exod. 12.4.

2 Thou ſhalt therefore b offer the Paſſeouer vnto the Lord thy God, of ſhepe and bullockes * in the place where the Lord ſhal b Thou ſhalt eat the Eaſter Lambe. Chap 12.5.

ſhal chooſe to cauſe his Name to dwel.

Exod.12,14. 3 Thou * ſhalt eat no leauened bread with it: but ſeuen dayes ſhalt thou eat vnleauened bread therewith, euen the bread of c tribulacion: for thou cameſt out of the land of Egypt in haſte, that thou maieſt remember the day when thou cameſt out of ỹ land of Egypt, all ỹ dayes of thy life.

c Which ſignified that affliction, which ỹ haddeſt in Egypt.

4 And there ſhal be no leauen ſene with thee in all thy coaſtes ſeuen dayes long: nether ſhal there remaine the night anie of the fleſh vntil the morning which thou offiedſt the firſt day at euen.

d This was chiefly accõpliſhed, when the tẽple was buylt. 5 Thou maieſt d not offer the Paſſeouer within anie of thy gates, which the Lord thy God giueth thee:

6 But in the place which ỹ Lord thy God ſhal chooſe to place his Name, there thou ſhalt offer the e Paſſeouer at euen, about the going downe of the ſunne, in the ſeaſon that thou cameſt out of Egypt.

e Which was inſtituted to put them in remẽbrãce of their deliuerãce out of Egypt: & to continue them in the hope of Ieſus Chriſt, of whome this lãbe was a figure 7 And thou ſhalt roſte and eat it in ỹ place which the Lord thy God ſhal chooſe, and ſhalt returne on the morow, and go vnto thy tentes.

8 Six dayes ſhalt thou eat vnleauened bread, and the ſeuenth day ſhalbe a ſolemne aſſemblie to the Lord thy God: thou ſhalt do no worke therein.

f Beginning at the next morning after the Paſſeouer, Leuit 23,15 exo. 23,4 9 ¶Seuen wekes ſhalt thou f nomber vnto thee, and ſhalt begin to nomber the ſeuen wekes, when thou beginſt to put the ſickel to the corne:

Or, as thou art able, willingly. 10 And thou ſhalt kepe the feaſt of wekes vnto the Lord thy God, euen a fre gift of thine hãd, which thou ſhalt giue vnto the Lord thy God, as the Lord thy God hathe bleſſed thee.

11 And thou ſhalt reioyce before the Lord thy God, thou and thy ſonne, and thy daughter, and thy ſeruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite that is within thy gates, & the ſtranger, and the fatherles, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which ỹ Lord thy God ſhal chooſe to place his Name there, 12 And thou ſhalt remẽber that thou waſt a ſeruant in Egypt: therefore thou ſhalt obſerue and do theſe ordinances.

g That is, the 15 day of the ſeuẽth mõth, Leu 23,34 13 ¶Thou ſhalt g obſerue the feaſt of the Tabernacles ſeuen daies, when thou haſt gathered in thy corne, and thy wine.

14 And ỹ ſhalt reioyce in thy feaſt, thou, and thy ſonne, and thy daughter, and thy ſeruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite, and the ſtranger, and the fatherles, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seuen daies ſhalt ỹ kepe a feaſt vnto the Lord thy God in the place which ỹ Lord ſhal chooſe: whẽ ỹ Lord thy God ſhal bleſſe thee in all thine increaſe, & in all ỹ workes of thine hãds, ỹ ſhalt in anie caſe be glad.

Exod 23.15. & 34.20. Leuiticus 16 6. 16 ¶*Thre times in the yere ſhal all ỹ males appeare before the Lord thy God in ỹ place which he ſhal chooſe: in ỹ feaſt of the vnleauened bread, & in ỹ feaſt of ỹ wekes, & in the feaſt of the Tabernacles: & they ſhal not appeare before the Lord empty.

17 Euerie man ſhal giue according to the gift of his h hand, and according to the bleſſing of the Lord thy God, which he hathe giuen thee.

h According to the abilitie that God hathe giuen him.

i He gaue authoritie to that people for a time to chuſe them ſelues magiſtrates. 18 ¶ i Iudges and officers ſhalt thou make thee in all thy cities, ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee, throughout thy tribes: & they ſhal iudge ỹ people ẅ righteo' iudgemẽt.

19 Wreſt not thou the Lawe, nor reſpect anie perſone, nether take rewarde: for the rewarde blindeth the eyes of the wiſe, & peruerteth the wordes of the iuſt.

k The magiſtrat muſt conſtãtly follow the tenor of the Lawe, and in nothing decline from iuſtice. 20 That ẅ k iuſt and right ſhalt thou followe, that thou maieſt liue, & poſſeſſe the lãd which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

21 ¶Thou ſhalt plãt thee no groue of anie trees nere vnto the altar of the Lord thy God, which thou ſhalt make thee.

Or, image. 22 Thou ſhalt ſet thee vp no * piller, which thing the Lord thy God hateth.

CHAP. XVII.

2 The puniſhment of the idolater. 9 Hard controuerſies are brought to the Preſt and the iudge. 12 The contemner muſt dye 15 The election of the King. 16 & 17 What things he ought to auoide. 18 And what he ought to embrace.

1 THou ſhalt offer vnto ỹ Lord thy God no bullocke nor ſhepe wherein is a ble miſh or anie euil fauored thing: for that is an abominaciõ vnto ỹ Lord thy God.

a Thou ſhalt not ſerue God for factious ſake, as hypocrites do.

2 ¶If there be found amõg you in anie of thy cities, which ỹ Lord thy God giueth thee, man or b woman that hathe wroght wickednes in the ſight of the Lord thy God, in tranſgreſſing his couenant, b Shewing that the crime can not be excuſed by the frailtie of the perſone.

3 And hathe gone & ſerued other gods, & worſhipped thẽ: as the ſunne, or the moone, or anie of the hoſte of heauen, which I haue not c commanded, c Whereby he condẽneth all religion and ſeruing of God which he hathe not commanded.

4 And it be tolde vnto thee, and thou haſt heard it, then ſhalt thou inquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing certeine, ỹ ſuche abomination is wroght in Iſraél,

5 Then ſhalt thou bring forthe that mã, or that woman (which haue committed that wicked thing) vnto thy gates, whether it be man or woman, and ſhalt ſtone them with ſtones, til they dye.

Nom.35,30. chap 19 15. mat 18,16. 2 cor 13,1. 6 *At ỹ mouth of two or thre witneſſes ſhal he that is worthy of death, dye: but at the mouth of one witnes, he ſhal not dye.

d Whereby they declared that they teſtified ỹ trueth 7 The hands of the d witneſſes ſhalbe firſt vpõ him, to kil him: and afterwarde the hands of all the e people: ſo thou ſhalt take the wicked away from among you.

e To ſignifie a commune conſent to maintein Gods honour and true religion.

8 ¶If there riſe a matter to hard for thee in iudgement betwene blood and blood, betwene plea and plea, betwene plague and plague, in the matters of controuerſie within thy gates, then ſhalt thou ariſe, and go vp vnto the place which the Lord thy God ſhal choſe, 9 And thou ſhalt come vnto the Prieſts of the Leuites, & vnto the [f] iudge that ſhal-be in thoſe dayes, and aſke, and thei ſhal ſhewe thee the ſentence of iudgement, 10 And thou ſhalt do according to ỹ thing which they of that place (which the Lord hathe choſen) ſhewe thee, and thou ſhalt obſerue to do according to all that they informe thee..

11 According to the Lawe, which they ſhal teach thee, and according to the iudgemẽt which thei ſhal tel thee, ſhalt [g] thou do: thou ſhalt not decline from the thing which they ſhal ſhewe thee, nether to the right hand, nor to the left.
12 And that man that wil do preſumpte-ouſly, not hearkening vnto the Prieſt (that ſtãdeth before the Lord thy God to [h] miniſter there) or vnto the iudge, that man ſhal dye, and thou ſhalt take away euil frõ Iſraél.
13 So all the people ſhal heare and feare, and do no more preſumpteouſly.
14 ¶When thou ſhalt come vnto the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, and ſhalt poſſeſſe it, and dwel therein, if thou ſay, I wil ſet a King ouer me, like as all the nacions that are about me, 15 Then thou ſhalt make him King ouer thee, whome the Lord thy God ſhal choſe: from among thy brethren ſhalt thou make a King ouer thee: thou ſhalt not ſet a [i] ſtranger ouer thee, ẃ is not thy brother.
16 In anie wiſe he ſhal not prepare him manie horſes, nor bring the people againe to [k] Egypt for to increaſe the nõber of hor-ſes, ſeing the Lord hathe ſaid vnto you, Ye ſhal henſforthe go no more again that way.
17 Nether ſhal he take him manie wiues, leſt his heart [l] turne away, nether ſhal he gather him muche ſiluer and gold.
18 And when he ſhal ſit vpon the throne of his kingdome, then ſhal he write him this [m] Lawe repeted in a boke, by the [n] Prieſts of the Leuites.
19 And it ſhalbe with him, and he ſhal read therein all dayes of his life, that he may learne to feare the Lord his God, & to kepe all the wordes of this Lawe, and theſe ordinances, for to do them:
20 That his heart be not lifted vp aboue his [o] brethren, and that he turne not from the commandement, to the right hand or to the left, but that he may prolong his dayes in his kingdome, he, and his ſonnes in the middes of Iſraél.

f Who ſhal giue ſentence as the Prieſts cõſel him by the Lawe of God.

g Then ſhalt obey their ſentence that the controuerſie may haue an end.

h So long as he is the true miniſter of God, and pronõuceth according to his worde.

i Who is not of thy nacion, leſt he change true religion into idolatrie, and bring thee to ſaueric k To reuenge their iniuries, and to take thẽ of their beſt horſes, 1 King 10,28.

l From the Lawe of God.

m Meaning ỹ Deuteronomie.

n He ſhal cauſe it to be writ by them, or, he ſhal write it by their example.

o Whereby is meãt, that Kigs ought ſo to loue their ſubiects, as nature bindeth one brother to loue another.

CHAP. XVIII.

The portion of the Leuites. 6 Of the Leuite comming from another place. 9 To auoyde the abomination of the Gentiles. 15 God wil not leaue thẽ without a true Prophet. 20 The falſe prophet ſhalbe ſlaine. 22 How he may be knowen.

1 THe Prieſts of the Leuites, and all the tribe of Leuí * ſhal haue no parte nor inheritance with Iſraél, * but ſhal eat the offrings of the Lord made by fire, and his [a] inheritance.
2 Therefore ſhal they haue no inheritance amõg their brethren: for the Lord is their inheritance, as he hathe ſaid vnto them.
3 ¶And this ſhalbe ỹ Prieſts duetie of the people, that they, which offer ſacrifice, whether it be bullocke or ſhepe, ſhal giue vnto the Prieſt the [b] ſhulder, and the two chekes, and the mawe.
4 The firſt frutes alſo of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thine oyle, and the firſt of the fleece of thy ſhepe ſhalt thou giue him.
5 For the Lord thy God hathe choſen him out of all thy tribes, to ſtand and miniſter in the Name of the Lord, him, & his ſon-nes for euer.
6 ¶Alſo when a Leuite ſhal come out of anie of thy cities of all Iſraél, where he remained, and come with [c] all the deſire of his heart vnto the place, which the Lord ſhal choſe,
7 He ſhal then miniſter in the Name of ỹ
Lord his God, as all his brethren the Le-uites, which remaine there before the Lord.
8 They ſhal haue like porciõs to eat [d] be-ſide that which commeth of his ſale of his patrimonie.
9 When thou ſhalt come into ỹ land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou ſhalt not learne to do after the abominacions of thoſe nacions.
10 Let none be founde among you that maketh his ſonne or his daughter to [e] go through the fire, or that vſeth witchcraft, or a regarder of times, or a marker of the flying of foules, or a ſorcerer, 11 Or * a charmer, or that counſelleth with ſpirits, or a ſothe ſayer, or that * aſketh counſel at the dead.
12 For all that do ſuche things are abomi-naciõ vnto the Lord, and becauſe of the-ſe abominacions the Lord thy God doeth caſt them out before thee.
13 Thou ſhalt be [f] vpright therefore with the Lord thy God.
14 For theſe nacions which thou ſhalt poſſeſſe, hearken vnto thoſe that regarde the times, & vnto ſorcerers: " as for thee, the Lord thy God hathe not ſuffered thee ſo.
15 ¶ * The Lord thy God wil raiſe vp vnto thee a [g] Prophet like vnto me, frõ amõg you, euen of thy brethrẽ: vnto him ye ſhal hearken,
16 According to all that thou deſiredſt of the Lord thy God in Horéb, in the day of a That is, the Lords parte of his inheritance.

b The right ſhulder, Num. 18,18.

c Meaning, to ſerue God vnfainedly, and not to teke eaſe.

d Not cõſtrei-ned to liue of him ſelfe.

e Signifying they were purged by this ceremonie of paſſing betwene two fires.

Leu. 20,27.

1. Sam. 28,8.

f Without hypocriſie, or mixture of falſe religion.

" Ebr. but thou not ſo

Act. 7,37.

g Meaning a continual ſucceſſiõ of Prophets, til Chriſt ỹ end of all Prophetes come.

the

Exod.20.19. the aſſemblie, when thou ſaideſt, * Let me heare the voyce of my Lord God no more, nor ſe this great fire anie more, that I dye not.

17 And the Lord ſaid vnto me, Thei haue wel ſpoken.

Ioſh.1.45. act.3.21 18 *I wil raiſe thē vp a Prophet from amōg their brethren like vnto thee, and wil put my wordes in his h mouth, and he ſhal ſpeake vnto them all that I ſhal commande him.

h Which promes is not onely made to Chriſt, but to all ỹ teache in his Name, Iſa.59.21.

19 And whoſoeuer wil not hearken vnto my wordes, which he ſhal ſpeake in my Name, I wil i require it of him.

i By executing punishmēt vpon him.

20 But the prophet that ſhal preſume to ſpeake a worde in my Name, which I haue not cōmanded him to ſpeake, or that ſpeaketh in the name of other gods, euen the ſame prophet ſhal dye.

21 And if thou thinke in thine heart, How ſhal we knowe the worde which the Lord hathe not ſpoken?

22 When a prophet ſpeaketh in the Name of the Lord, if the thing k followe not nor come to paſſe, that is the thing which the Lord hathe not ſpokē, but the prophet hathe ſpokē it preſumpteouſly: thou ſhalt not therefore be afrayed of him.

k Vnder this fare note he comprehēth all ỹ other tokēs

CHAP. XIX.

1 The frāchiſed townes. 14 Not to remoue thy neighbours bondes. 16 The puniſhment of him that beareth falſe witnes.

Chap.12.29. 1 WHē the Lord thy God *ſhal roote out the nacions, whoſe lād the Lord thy God giueth thee, and thou ſhalt poſſeſſe them, and dwel in their cities, and in their houſes, Exod.21.13. numb.35.9. ioſh.20.2. 2 *Thou ſhalt ſeparate thre cities for thee in the middes of thy land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to poſſeſſe it.

a Make an opē & readie way.

3 Thou ſhalt a prepare thee the waie, & deuide the coaſtes of the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit, into thre partes, that euerie b manſlayer may flee thether.

b Which killeth agaīſt his wil & bare no hatred in his heart.

4 ¶ This alſo is ỹ cauſe wherefore the māſlaier ſhal flee thether, and liue: whoſo killeth his neighbour ignorantly, & hated him not in time paſſed:

5 As he that goeth vnto the wood with his neighbour to hewe wood, and his hand ſtriketh with the axe to cut downe the tre, if the head ſlip from the helue, and hitte his neighbour that he dyeth, ỹ ſame c ſhal flee vnto one of the cities, & liue, c That murther be not cōmitted vpon murther Numb.35.12.

6 Leſt the * auenger of the blood followe after the māſlaier, while his heart is chafed, and ouertake him, becauſe the way is long, & ſlay him, although he be not *or, can not be iudged to death worthy of death, becauſe he hated him not in time paſſed.

7 Wherefore I cōmande thee, ſayīg, Thou ſhalt appoint out thre cities for thee.

8 And when the Lord thy God d enlargeth thy coaſtes (as he hathe ſworne vnto thy fathers) and giueth thee all the land which he promiſed to giue vnto thy fathers, d When thou goeſt ouer Iorden to poſſeſſe the whole lād of Canaan

9 (If thou kepe all theſe commandements to do them, which I commande thee this day: to wit, that thou loue the Lord thy God, and walke in his waies for euer) *thē ſhalt thou adde thre cities mo for thee beſides thoſe thre,

Ioſh.20.7.

10 That innocent blood be not ſhed within thy land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit, e leſt blood be vpon thee.

e Leſt thou be punished for innocēt blood

11 ¶ But if a man hate his neighbour, and laie waite for him, and riſe againſt him, & ſmite any man that he dye, and flee vnto any of theſe cities, 12 Then the f Elders of his citie ſhal ſend and fet him thence, and deliuer him into the hands of the auenger of the blood, that he may dye.

f The Magiſtrates.

13 Thine g eie ſhal not ſpare him, but thou ſhalt put away the crye of innocent blood from Iſraél, that it may go wel with thee.

g Then whoſoeuer pardoneth murther, offēdeth againſt the worde of God.

14 ¶ Thou ſhalt not remoue thy neighbours marke, which thei of olde time haue ſet in thine inheritance, that thou ſhalt inherit in the lād, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to poſſeſſe it.

15 ¶ *One witnes ſhal not riſe againſt a mā for any treſpas, or for any ſinne, or for any faute that he offendeth in, but at the mouth of two witneſſes or at the mouth of thre witneſſes ſhal the matter be ſtabliſhed.

Chap.17.6. mat.18.16. ioh.8.17. 2.Cor.13.1. ebr.10.28.

16 ¶ If a falſe witnes riſe vp againſt a man to accuſe him of treſpaſſe,

17 Then bothe the men which ſtriue together, ſhal ſtand before the h Lord, euen before the Prieſts and the Iudges, which ſhalbe in thoſe daies, h Gods preſence is where his true miniſters are aſſembled.

18 And the Iudges ſhal make diligent inquiſicion: and if the witnes be founde falſe, and hathe giuen falſe witnes againſt his brother, 19 * Then ſhal ye do vnto him as he had thoght to do vnto his brother: ſo thou ſhalt take euil away forthe of the middes of thee.

Prou.19.5. dan.13.62.

20 And the reſt ſhal heare this, and feare, and ſhal henceforthe cōmit no more any ſuche wickednes among you.

21 Therefore thine eie ſhal haue no compaſsion, but * life for life, eie for eie, tothe for tothe, hand for hand, fote for fote.

Exod.21.23. leui.24.20. mat.5.38.

CHAP. XX.

3 The exhortacion of the Prieſt when the Iſraelites go to battel. 5 The exhortacion of the officers ſhewing who ſhulde go to battel. 10 Peace muſt firſt be proclamed. 19 The trees that beare frute muſt not be deſtroyed.

a Meaning, vpō iuſte occaſion: for God permitteth not his people to fight whē it ſeemeth good to them

1 WHen a thou ſhalt go forthe to warre againſt thine enemies, & ſhalt ſe horſes and charets, and people mo then thou, be not afraied of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And whē ye are come nere vnto the battel, then the Prieſt ſhal come forthe to ſpeake vnto the people,

3 And ſhal ſay vnto them, Heare, ô Iſraél: ye are come this day vnto battel againſt your enemies: * let not your hearts faint, nether feare, nor be amaſed, nor adread of them.

Chap 28.7.

b Is preſent to defend you w his grace and power.

4 For the Lord your God b goeth with you, to fight for you againſt your enemies, and to ſaue you.

5 ¶And let the officers ſpeake vnto ỹ people, ſaying, What man is there that hathe buylt a newe houſe, and hathe not c dedicate it? let him go and returne to his houſe leſt he dye in the battel, and an other man dedicate it.

c For when thei ētred firſt to dwel in an houſe, thei gaue thankes to God, acknowledging ỹ they had that benefite by his grace

6 And what man is there that hathe plāted a vineyard, and hathe d not eaten of the frute? let him go and returne againe vnto his houſe, leſt he dye in the battel, & another eat the frute.

d The Ebrewe worde ſignifieth to make cōmune or prophane, Leui. 19.23.

7 And what man is there that hathe betrothed a wife, and hathe not taken her? let him go and returne againe vnto his houſe, leſt he dye in battel, and another man take her.

8 And let the officers ſpeake further vnto the people, & ſay, * Whoſoeuer is afraied and faint hearted, let him go and returne vnto his houſe, leſt his brethrens heart faint like his heart.

Iudg.7.3.

9 And after ỹ the officers haue made an end of ſpeaking vnto the people, thei ſhal make captaines of the armie to gouerne the people.

10 ¶When thou comeſt nere vnto a citie to fight againſt it, * thou ſhalt offer it peace.

Numb.21.22. chap.2.26.

e If it accept peace.

11 And if it anſwer thee againe e peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is founde therein, be tributaries vnto thee, and ſerue thee.

12 But if it wil make no peace with thee, but make warre againſt thee, then thou ſhalt beſiege it.

13 And the Lord thy God ſhal deliuer it into thine hands, and thou ſhalt ſmite all the males thereof with the edge of the ſworde.

14 Onely the women, and the children, * and the cattel, and all that is in the citie, euen all the ſpoile thereof ſhalt thou take vnto thy ſelf, and ſhalt eat the ſpoile of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hathe giuen thee.

Iuſh.8.2.

15 Thus ſhalt thou do vnto all the cities, which are a great way of from thee, which are not of the cities of theſe f nacions here.

f For God had appointed that ỹ Canaanites ſhulde be deſtroyed, & made ỹ Iſraelites executers of his wil, Chap. 7.1.

16 But of ỹ cities of this people, which the Lord thy God ſhal giue thee to inherit, thou ſhalt ſaue no perſone aliue,

17 But ſhalt vtterly deſtroye them: to wit, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, & the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites, as the Lord thy God hathe commanded thee, 18 That they teache you not to do after all their abominacions, which thei haue done vnto their gods, and ſo ye ſhulde ſinne againſt the Lord your God.

19 ¶When thou haſt beſieged a citie long time, and made warre againſt it to take it, deſtroye not the trees thereof, by ſmiting an axe into them: for thou maieſt eat of them: therefore thou ſhalt not cut them downe to further thee in the ſiege (for the g tre of the field is mans life)

g Some read, For man ſhalbe in ſtede of the tre of ỹ field, to come out in ỹ ſiege againſt thee.

20 Onely thoſe trees, which thou knoweſt are not for meat, thoſe ſhalt thou deſtroye & cut downe, and make fortes againſt the citie that maketh warre with thee, vntil thou ſubdue it.

CHAP. XXI.

2 Inquiſicion for murther 11 Of the woman taken in warre 15 The birthright can not be changed for affecton 18 The diſobedient childe. 23 The bodie may not hang all night.

a This Lawe declareth how horrible a thig murther is, ſeing ỹ for one man a whole countrey ſhal be puniſhed, except a remedy be founde.

1 IF one be founde a ſlayne in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to poſſeſſe it, lying in the field, and it is not knowen who hathe ſlayne him,

2 Then thine Elders and thy Iudges ſhal come forthe, and meaſure vnto the cities that are round about him that is ſlayne:

3 And let the Elders of that citie, which is next vnto the ſlayne man, take out of the droue an heifer that hathe not bene put to labour, nor hathe drawen in the yoke.

4 And let the Elders of that citie bring the heifer vnto a Or, ſtrigh. ſtonie b valley, which is nether eared nor ſowen, and ſtrike of the heifers necke there in the valley.

b That the blood ſhed of the innocent beaſt in a ſolitarie place, might make them abhorre the fact.

5 Alſo the Prieſts the ſonnes of Leui (whome the Lord thy God hathe choſen to miniſter, and to bleſſe in the Name of the Lord) ſhal come forthe, and by their worde ſhal all ſtriſe and plague be tryed.

6 And all the Elders of that citie that came nere to the ſlayne man, ſhal waſh their hands ouer the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And ſhal teſtifie, and ſay, Our hands haue not ſhed this blood, nether haue our eies ſene it.

8 c O Lord, be merciful vnto thy people Iſraél, whome thou haſt redemed, and lay no innocent blood to ỹ charge of thy people Iſraél, & ỹ blood ſhalbe forgiuē them.

c This was the prayer, which ỹ Prieſts made in the audiēce of the people.

9 So ſhalt ỹ take away the crye of innocent blood blood from thee, when thou ſhalt do that which is right in the ſight of the Lord.

10 ¶When thou ſhalt go to warre againſt thine enemies, and the Lord thy God ſhal deliuer them into thine hands, and thou ſhalt take them captiues,

11 And ſhalt ſe among the captiues a beautiful woman, and haſt a deſire vnto her, & woldeſt take her to thy wife,

12 Then thou ſhalt bring her home to thine houſe, [d] and ſhe ſhal ſhaue her head, and pare her nailes, 13 And ſhe ſhal put of the garment that ſhe was taken in, and ſhe ſhal remaine in thine houſe, [e] and bewaile her father & her mother a moneth lõg: and after that ſhalt thou go in vnto her, and marry her, and ſhe ſhal be thy [f] wife.

14 And if thou haue no fauour vnto her, then ÿ maieſt let her go whether ſhe wil, but thou ſhalt not ſel her for money, nor make marchandiſe of her, becauſe thou haſt humbled her.

15 ¶If a man haue two wiues, one loued and an other [g] hated, and they haue borne him children, bothe the loued and alſo the hated: if the firſt borne be the ſonne of the hated,

16 Then when the time cõmeth, that he appointeth his ſonnes to be heyres of that which he hathe, he may not make the ſonne of the beloued firſt borne [h] before the ſonne of the hated, which is ÿ firſt borne:

17 But he ſhal acknowledge the ſonne of ÿ hated for ÿ firſt borne, & giue him [h] double porcion of all that he hathe: for he is the firſt of his ſtrength, and to [i] him belongeth the right of the firſt borne.

18 If anie man haue a ſonne that is ſtubburne and diſobedient, which wil not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, nor the voyce of his [k] mother, and they haue chaſtened him, and he wolde not obey them,

19 Then ſhal his father and his mother take him, and bring him out vnto the Elders of his citie, and vnto the gate of the place where he dwelleth,

20 And ſhal ſay vnto the Elders of his citie, This our ſonne is ſtubburne and diſobedient, and he wil not obey our admonicion, he is a ryotour, and a dronkard.

21 Then all the men of his citie ſhal [l] ſtone him with ſtones vnto death: ſo thou ſhalt take away euil from among you, that all Iſraél may heare it and feare.

22 ¶If a man alſo haue cõmitted a treſpas worthy of death, and is put to death, & thou hangeſt him on a tre,

23 His body ſhal not remaine [m] all night vpõ ÿ tre, but thou ſhalt bury him ÿ ſame day: for the *curſe of God is on him that is hãged. Defile not therefore thy land, ÿ ÿ Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit.

CHAP. XXII.

1 He commandeth to haue care of our neighbours goods. 5 The woman may not weare mans apparel, nor man the womans. 6 Of the dam and her yong birdes. 8 Why thes ſhulde haue batelments. 9 Not to mixe diuers kinds together. 13 Of the wife not being founde a virgine. 22 The puniſhement of adulterie.

1 THou * ſhalt not ſe thy brothers oxe nor his ſhepe go aſtray, and [a] withdrawe thy ſelfe from them, but ſhalt bring them againe vnto thy brother. Exod 23,4.

2 And if thy brother be not [b] nere vnto thee, or if thou knowe him not, then ÿ ſhalt bring it into thine houſe, and it ſhal remaine with thee, vntil thy brother ſeke after it: then ſhalt thou deliuer it to him againe.

3 In like maner ſhalt ÿ do with his [c] aſſe, and ſo ſhalt thou do with his raiment, and ſhalt ſo do with all loſte things of thy brother, which he hathe loſte: if thou haſt found them, thou ſhalt not withdrawe thy ſelfe from them.

4 ¶Thou ſhalt not ſe thy brothers aſſe nor his oxe fall downe by the way, and withdrawe thy ſelfe from them, but ſhalt liſte them vp with him.

5 ¶The [d] woman ſhal not weare that which pertaineth vnto the man, nether ſhal a man put on womans raiment: for all that do ſo, are abominacion vnto the Lord thy God.

6 ¶If thou finde a birdes neſt in the way, in anie tre, or on the ground, whether they be yong or egges, and the dam ſitting vpõ the yong, or vpon the egges, [e] thou ſhalt not take the dam with the yong,

7 But ſhalt in anie wiſe let the dam go and take the yong to thee, ÿ thou maieſt proſper and prolong thy dayes.

8 ¶Whẽ thou buyldeſt a newe houſe, thou ſhalt make a batelment on thy roof, that thou lay not blood vpon thine houſe, if anie man fall thence.

9 ¶Thou ſhalt not [f] ſowe thy vineyard with diuers kĩdes of ſedes, leſt thou defile the increaſe of the ſede which thou haſt ſowen, and the frute of the vineyarde.

10 ¶Thou ſhalt not plowe with an oxe and an aſſe together.

11 ¶Thou ſhalt not weare a garment of diuers ſortes, as of wollẽ and linẽ together.

12 ¶*Thou ſhalt make thee fringes vpon the foure quarters of thy veſture, wherewith thou coureſt thy ſelfe. Nom. 15,38.

13 ¶If a man take a wife, and when he hathe lien with her, hate her,

14 And lay ſlanderous things vnto her charge, and bring vp an euil name vpon her, and ſay, I toke this wife, and when I came to her I found her not a maid,

15 Then ſhal the father of the maid and her mother take the tokens of the maid and a As though thou ſaweſt it not.

b Shewing, ÿ brotherly affectiõ muſt be ſhewed, not onely to them that dwelnere vnto vs, but alſo to them which are farre of c Muche more art thou bõde to do for thy neighbours perſone.

d For that were to alter ÿ ordre of nature, & to deſpite God.

e If God deteſt cruelnes done to litle birdes, how muche more to man, made according to his image?

f The tenor of this Lawe is, to walke in ſimplicitie, & not to be curious of newe inuentions.

g That is, be an occaſion ÿ ſhe is ſlãdred.

d Signifying that her former life muſt be chãged before ſhe colde be ioyned to the people of God

e As hauing renounced parents and countrey

f This onely was permitted in the warres: otherwiſe the Iſraelites colde not mary ſtrangers.

g This declareth that the pluralitie of wiues came of a corrupt affection.

h Or, while the ſonne of the hated liueth

h As muche as to two of the others

i Except he be vnworthy, as was Reubẽ Iaakobs ſonne.

k For it is the mothers dueties alſo to inſtruct her children.

l Which death was alſo appointed for blaſphemers and idolaters: ſo that to diſobey the parentes is moſte horrible.

m For Gods Lawe by his death is ſatiſfied, and nature abhorreth cruelnes Gal 3,13.

maides virginitie vnto the Elders of the citie to the gate.

16 And the maides father ſhal ſay vnto the Elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this mā to wife, and he hateth her:

17 And lo, he laieth ſlanderous things vnto her charge, ſayīg, I foūd not thy daughter a maid: lo, theſe are the tokens of my daughters virginitie: and they ſhal ſpreade ȳ [h] veſture before the Elders of the citie.

18 Thē the Elders of the citie ſhal take that man and chaſtice him, 19 And ſhal condemne him in an hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer, and giue them vnto the father [i] of ȳ maid, becauſe he hathe brogh̄t vp an euil name vpō a maid of Iſraél: & ſhe ſhalbe his wife, & he may not put her away all his life.

20 ¶But if this thing be true, that the maide be not found a virgin, 21 Then they ſhal bring forthe the maide to the dore of her fathers houſe, and the men of her citie ſhal ſtone her with ſtones to death: for ſhe hathe wrogh̄t follie in Iſraél, by playing the whore in her fathers houſe: ſo thou ſhalt put euil away from among you.

Leuit.20,10. 22 ¶*If a man be found lying with a womā maried to a man, then they ſhal dye euen bothe twaine: to wit, the man that lay with the wife, and the wife: ſo thou ſhalt put away euil from Iſraél.

23 ¶If a maide be betrothed vnto an houſband, and a man finde her in the towne and lie with her,

24 Then ſhal ye bring them bothe out vnto ȳ gates of the ſame citie, and ſhal ſtone them with ſtones to death: the maide becauſe ſhe cryed not, being in the citie, and ȳ man, becauſe he hathe [l] humbled his neighbours wife: ſo thou ſhalt put away euil from among you.

25 ¶But if a man finde a betrothed maide in the field, and force her, and lye with her, then the man that lay with her, ſhal dye alone:

26 And vnto the maide thou ſhalt do nothing, becauſe there is in the maide no [m] cauſe of death: for as when a man riſeth againſt his neighbour and wondeth him to death, ſo [k] is this matter.

27 For he found her in the fields: the betrothed maide cryed, and there was no man to ſuccour her.

Exod.22,16. 28 ¶*If a man finde a maide that is not betrothed, and take her, and lye with her, & they be founde, 29 Then the man that lay with her, ſhal giue vnto the maides father fifty ſhekels of ſiluer: and ſhe ſhal be his wife, becauſe he hathe humbled her: he can not put her away all his life.

30 ¶ No man ſhal [l] take his fathers wife, nor ſhal vncouer his fathers ſkirt.

[h] Meaning the ſheete, wherein the ſignes of her virginitie were.

[i] For the faute of the childe redoundeth to ȳ ſhame of the parents: therefore he was recompēced when ſhe was faultles.

[l] Or, defiled.

[m] Or, no ſinne worthy death.

[k] Meaning, ȳ the innocent can not be puniſhed.

[l] He ſhal not lye with his ſtepmother: meaning hereby all other degrees forbidden. Leu. 18.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 What men might not be admitted to office. 9 What they ought to auoide when they go to warre. 15 Of the fugitiue ſeruant. 17 To flee all kinde of whoredome. 19 Of vſurie. 21 Of vowes. 24 Of the neighbours Vine and corne.

1 NOne that is hurt by burſting, or that hathe his priuie mēbre cut of, [a] ſhal entre into the Congregacion of the Lord.

2 [b] A baſtard ſhal not entre into the Congregacion of the Lord: euen to his tenth generacion ſhal he not entre into the Cōgregacion of the Lord.

3 * The Ammonites and the Moabites ſhal not entre into the Congregacion of the Lord: euen to their tenth generacion ſhal they not entre into the Congregacion of the Lord for euer,

4 Becauſe they [c] met you not with bread and water in the way, when ye came out of Egypt, and becauſe they hired againſt thee Balaám the ſonne of Beór, of Pethór in Aram-naharáim, to curſe thee.

5 Neuertheles, the Lord thy God wolde not hearken vnto Balaám, but the Lord thy God turned the curſe to a bleſſing vnto thee, becauſe the Lord thy God loued thee.

6 Thou [d] ſhalt not ſeke their peace nor their proſperitie all thy daies for euer.

7 ¶Thou ſhalt not abhorre an Edomite: for he is thy brother, nether ſhalt thou abhorre an Egyptian, becauſe thou waſt a ſtranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten [e] of thē in their third generacion, ſhal entre into the Congregacion of the Lord.

9 ¶When thou goeſt out with the hoſte againſt thine enemies, kepe thee then from all wickednes.

10 ¶If there be among you anie that is vncleane by that which commeth to him by night, he ſhal go out of the hoſte, and ſhal not entre into the hoſte, 11 But at euen he ſhal waſh him ſelfe with water, and when the ſunne is downe, he ſhal entre into the hoſte.

12 ¶Thou ſhalt haue a place alſo without the hoſte whether thou ſhalt [f] reſorte, 13 And thou ſhalt haue a paddle among thy weapōs, and when thou woldeſt ſit downe without, thou ſhalt dig therewith, and returning thou ſhalt [g] couer thine excrements.

14 For the Lord thy God walketh in the middes of thy campe to deliuer thee, and to giue thee thine enemies before thee: therefore thine hoſte ſhalbe holy, that he ſe no filthy thing in thee and turne away from thee.

15 ¶Thou ſhalt not [h] deliuer the ſeruant vnto his maſter, which is eſcaped from his maſter

[a] Ether to beare office, or tomary a wife.

[b] This was to cauſe them to liue chaſtely, that their poſteritie might not be reiected Nom.22,5. nehem.13,1.

[c] Hereby he condēneth all, that further not the childrē of God in their vocatiō.

[d] Thou ſhalt haue nothing to do with them.

[e] If the fathers haue renounced their idolatrie, and receiued circumciſion.

[f] For the neceſſitie of nature.

[g] Meaning hereby, that his people ſhulde be pure bothe in ſoule and body.

[h] This is ment of the heathē who fled for their maſters crueltie and imbraced the true religion.

maſter vnto thee.

16 He ſhal dwel with thee, euen amõg you, in what place he ſhal choſe, in one of thy [n] cities where it liketh him beſt: thou ſhalt not vexe him.

[n] Or gates

17 ¶ There ſhalbe no whore of the daughters of Iſraél, nether ſhal there be a whorekeper of the ſonnes of Iſraél.

[i] Forbidding hereby that anie gaine gotten of euil things, ſhulde be applied to the ſeruice of God, Mic 1,7. Exod 22,25. Leu 25,36.

18 Thou ſhalt nether bring the [i] hire of a whore, nor ỹ price of a dog into the houſe of the Lord thy God for anie vowe: for euen bothe theſe are abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

19 ¶* Thou ſhalt not giue to vſurie to thy brother: as vſurie of money, vſurie of meat, vſurie of anie thing that is put to vſurie.

[k] This was permitted for a time for the hardenes of their heart

20 Vnto a [k] ſtranger thou maieſt lend vpõ vſurie, but thou ſhalt not lend vpon vſurie vnto thy brother, that the Lord thy God may [l] bleſſe thee in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand to, in the lãd whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it.

[l] If thou ſhewe thy charitie to thy brother, God wil declare his loue toward thee.

21 ¶ When thou ſhalt vowe a vow vnto ỹ Lord thy God, thou ſhalt not be ſlacke to pay it: for the Lord thy God wil ſurely require it of thee, and ſo it ſhulde be ſinne vnto thee.

22 But when thou abſteineſt from vowing, it ſhalbe no ſinne vnto thee.

23 That which is gone out of thy lippes, thou ſhalt [m] kepe and performe, as thou haſt vowed it willingly vnto the Lord thy God: for thou haſt ſpokẽ it with thy mouth.

[m] If the vowe be laurul and godly

[n] Being hired for to labour.

24 ¶ When thou cõmeſt vnto [n] thy neighbours vineyard, then thou maieſt eat grapes at thy pleaſure, as muche as thou wilt: but thou ſhalt put none in thy [o] veſſel.

[o] To bring home to thine houſe. Mat.12,1.

25 Whẽ thou cõmeſt into thy neighbours corne * thou maieſt plucke the eares with thine hand, but thou ſhalt not moue a ſickle to thy neighbours corne.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Diuorcement is permitted 5 He that is newly maried is exempted from warre. 6 Of the pledge. 14 Wages muſt not be retained. 16 The good muſt not be puniſhed for the bad 17 The care of the ſtranger, fatherles and widowe.

1 WHen a mã taketh a wife, and marieth her, if ſo be ſhe finde no fauour in his eyes, becauſe he hathe eſpied ſome filthines in her, [a] then let him write her a bil of diuorcemẽt, and put it in her hand, and ſend her out of his houſe.

[a] Hereby God approueth not that light diuorcemẽt, but permitteth it to auoide further inconuenience, Matth. 19,7.

2 And whẽ ſhe is departed out of his houſe, and gone her way, and mary with an other man,

3 And if the later houſband hate her, and write her a letter of diuorcement, and put it in her hãd, and ſend her out of his houſe, or if the later man dye which toke her to wife:

Then her firſt houſband, which ſent her away, may not take her againe to be his wife, after that ſhe is [b] defiled: for that is abomination in the ſight of the Lord, and thou ſhalt not cauſe ỹ lãd to ſinne, which ỹ Lord thy God doeth giue thee to inherit.

[b] Seing that by dimitting her, he iudged her to be vncleane and defiled

5 ¶ When a man taketh a newe wife, he ſhal not go a warfare, [c] nether ſhalbe charged with anie buſines, but ſhalbe fre at home one yere, and reioyce with his wife which he hathe taken.

[c] That they might learne to ãoide one anothers condicions and ſo afterward liue in godly peace

6 ¶ No man ſhal take the nether nor ỹ vpper [d] milſtone to pledge: for this gage is his liuing.

[d] Nor anie thig wherby a man getteth his liuing.

7 ¶ If anie man be found ſtealing anie of his brethren of the children of Iſraél, and maketh marchãdiſe of him, or ſelleth him, that thefe ſhal dye. ſo ſhalt thou put euil away from among you.

8 ¶ Take hede of the [e] plague of leproſie, that thou obſerue diligently, & do according to all that the Prieſts of the Leuites ſhal teache you: take hede ye do as I commanded them. 1 cui 13,8.

9 Remember what the Lord thy God did vnto * Miriám by the way after that ye were come out of Egypt. Num.12,10.

10 ¶ When ỹ ſhalt aſke againe of thy neighbour anie thing lent, thou ſhalt not go [e] into his houſe to fet his pledge.

[e] As though ỹ wordeſt appoint what to haue, but ſhalt receiue what he may ſpare.

11 But thou ſhalt ſtand without, and the mã that borowed it of thee, ſhal bring ỹ pledge out of the dores vnto thee.

12 Furthermore if it be a poore bodie, thou ſhalt not ſlepe with his pledge, 13 But ſhalt reſtore him the pledge when ỹ ſunne goeth downe, ỹ he may ſlepe in his rayment, & bleſſe thee: & it ſhalbe righteouſnes vnto thee, [f] before ỹ Lord thy God.

[f] Thogh he wolde be vnthãkeful, yet God wil not forget it.

14 ¶ Thou ſhalt not oppreſſe an hired ſeruant that is nedy and poore, nether of thy brethren, nor of the ſtranger that is in thy land within thy gates.

15 * Thou ſhalt giue him his hire for his day, nether ſhal the ſunne go downe vpon it: for he is poore, & therewith ſuſteineth his life: leſt he crye againſt thee vnto the Lord, and it be ſinne vnto thee. Leui.19,13. tob.4,15.

16 ¶* The fathers ſhal not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers, but euerie man ſhalbe put to death for his owne ſinne. 2 King 4,1. 2 chro 25,4. iere 31,29. ezech 18,20.

17 ¶ Thou ſhalt not peruert the right of the [g] ſtranger, nor of the fatherles, nor take a widowes raiment to pledge.

[g] Becauſe the world do leaſt eſteme theſe ſortes of people, therefore God hathe moſte care ouer them.

18 But remember that thou waſt a ſeruant in Egypt, & how the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence. therefore I commande thee to do this thing.

19 ¶* When ỹ cutteſt downe thine harueſt in thy field, & haſt forgotten a ſheafe in the field, thou ſhalt not go againe to fet it, but it ſhalbe for the ſtranger, for the fatherles, for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bleſſe thee in all the workes Leu 19,9. & 23,22.

of thine hands.

*Or, gatherest thine olives.

20 Whē thou* beatest thine oliue tre, thou shalt not go ouer the boughes againe, but it shalbe for the stranger, for ỹ fatherles, and for the widow.

*Or, the grapes of thy vineyard

21 When thou gatherest thy * vineyard, thou shalt not gather the grapes cleane after thee, but thei shalbe for the stranger, for the fatherles and for the widow.

h God iudged thē not mindeful of his benefite, except they were beneficial vnto others.

22 And remember that thou wast h a seruāt in the land of Egypt: therefore I cōmāde thee to do this thing.

CHAP. XXV.

3 The beating of the offenders. 5 To raise vp sede to the kinseman. 11 In what case a womans hand must be cut of. 13 Of iust weights, and measures. 19 To destroy the Amalekites.

1 WHen there shal be strife betwene men, & they shal come vnto iudgement, a and sentēce shalbe giuen vpon them, and the righteous shalbe iustified, and the wicked condemned, a Whether there be a plaintife or none, ỹ magistrates ought to trie out faultes and punishe according to the crime.

2 Then if so be the wicked be worthy to be beaten, the iudge shal cause him to lye downe, b and to be beaten before his face, according to his trespas, vnto a certeine nomber.

b When the crime deserueth not death

c The Iewes of superstition afterward toke one awaie, 2.Cor 11,24.

3 c Forty stripes shal he cause him to haue and not past, lest if he shulde excede and beat him aboue that with manie stripes, thy brother shulde appeare despised in thy sight.

1.Cor.9,9. 1.tim 5,18.

4 ¶ * Thou shalt not mosel the oxe that treadeth out the corne.

Ruth 4,3. matt 22,24. mar 12,19. luk.20,27

5 ¶ * If brethren dwel together, and one of thē dye & haue no childe, the wife of the dead shal not marry without: that is, vnto a stranger, but his d kinseman shal go in vnto her, and take her to wife, and do the kinsmans office to her.

d Or, vnto the Ebrues worde signifieth not ỹ natural brother, & the worde, that signifieth a brother, as take also for a kinseman: it semeth that it is not ment that the 6 And the first borne which she beareth, shal succede in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israél.

natural brother shuld mary his brothers wife, but some other of ỹ kinred, ỹ was in what degre ỹ might mary.

7 And if the man wil not take his kinswoman, then let his kinswoman go vp to the gate vnto the Elders, and say, My kinsmā refuseth to raise vp vnto his brother a name in Israél: he wil not do the office of a kinsman vnto me.

8 Thē the Elders of his citie shal call him, and comen with him: if he stand and say, I wil not take her,

9 Then shal his kinswomā come vnto him in the presence of the Elders, and lose his shooe from his fote, & spit in his face, and answer, and say, So shal it be done vnto that man, that wil not buyld vp his brothers house.

e This lawe importeth, ỹ godly shamefastnes be preserued: for it is an horrible thing to se a woman past shame.

10 And his name shalbe called in Israél, The house of him whose shooe is put of.

11 ¶ e When men striue together, one with another, if the wife of the one come nere, for to rid her housband out of the hands of him that smiteth him, and put forthe her hand, and take him by his priuities, 12 Then thou shalt cut of her hand: thine eie shal not spare her.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not haue in thy bagge two maner of "weightes, a great & a small,

"Ebr, Eoue and Eone

14 Nether shalt thou haue in thine house diuerse "measures, a great and a small:

"Ebr. Ephāh & ephah: read Exod 16,36.

15 But thou shalt haue a right & iust weight: a perfit & a iust measure shalt thou haue, that thy dayes may be lengthened in ỹ lād, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

16 For all that do suche things, and all that do vnrighteously, are abominacion vnto the Lord thy God.

Exod.17,8.

17 ¶ *Remēber what Amalék did vnto thee by ỹ way, whē ye were come out of Egypt:

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of you, all that were feble behind thee, when thou wast fainted and weary, and he feared not God.

19 Therefore, when the Lord thy God hathe giuen thee rest from all thine enemies round about in the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance to possesse it, then thou shalt put out the f remembrance of Amalék from vnder heauen: forget not.

f This was partely accomplished by Saúl, about 450 yeres after wards.

CHAP. XXVI.

3 The offring of the first frutes 5 What they must protest when they offer them 12 The tithe of the third yere. 13 Their protestation in offring it 19 To what honour God preferreth them which acknowledge him to be their Lord.

1 ALso when thou shalt come into the lād which the Lord thy God giueth thee for inheritance, & shalt possesse it & dwel therein,

2 a Then shalt thou take of the first of all ỹ frute of the earth, and bring it out of the land that the Lord thy God giueth thee, & put it in a basket, & go vnto the place, which the Lord thy God shal chose to b place his Name there.

a By this ceremonie they acknowledged ỹ they receiued the lād of Canáan as a free gift of God.

b To be called vpō, serued, & worshiped spiritually, Chap.12,5.

3 And thou shalt come vnto the Priest, ỹ shalbe in those daies, and say vnto him, I acknowledge this day vnto the Lord thy God, ỹ I am come vnto the coūtrey ẅ the Lord sware vnto our fathers for to giue vs.

4 Then the Priest shal take the basket out of thine hand, & set it downe before the altar of the Lord thy God.

5 And thou shalt answer & say before the Lord thy God, a c Syrian was my father, who being ready to perish for hungre, went downe into Egypt, and sojourned there ẅ a smale companie, and grewe there vnto a naciō great, mighty, d & ful of people.

c Meaning Iakób who serued 20 yeres in Syria.

d Only by Gods mercie, & not by their fathers deseruings

6 And the Egyptians vexed vs, and troubled vs, and laded vs with cruel bondage.

7 But when we e cryed vnto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voyce, and e Alledging ỹ promises made to our fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, & Iaakób.

189/1224

and loked on our aduerſitie, and on our labour, and on our oppreſsion.

8 And the Lord broght vs out of Egypt in a mightie hand, and a ſtretched out arme, with great terriblenes, bothe in ſignes & wonders.

9 And he hathe broght vs into this place, and hathe giuen vs this land, euen a land that floweth with milke and hony.

f In token of a thankful hart, & mindful of this benefite.

10 And now, lo, I f haue broght the firſt frutes of the land which thou, ô Lord, haſt giuen me, and thou ſhalt ſet it before the Lord thy God, and worſhip before ỹ Lord thy God:

11 And thou ſhalt reioyce in all the good things which ỹ Lord thy God hathe giuen vnto thee and to thine g houſholde, ỹ and the Leuite, and the ſtranger that is among you.

g Signifiing ỹ God giueth vs not goods for our ſelues oue ly, but for their vſes alſo, which are committed to our charge.

12 ¶When thou haſt made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increaſe, the third yere, which is the yere of tithing, and haſt giuen it vnto the Leuite, to the ſtranger, to the fatherles and to the widowe, that they may eat within thy gates, and be ſatiſfied, h Without hy pocriſie.

13 Then thou ſhalt h ſay before the Lord thy God, I haue broght the halowed thing out of mine houſe, & alſo haue giuẽ it vnto ỹ Leuites & to the ſtrangers, to the fatherles, and to the widowe, according to all thy *commandements which thou haſt commanded me: I haue i tranſgreſſed none of thy commandements, nor forgotten them.

Chap 14.27.

i Of malice & contempt.

k Or, for anie neceſsitie

l By putting them to anie prophane vſe.

14 I haue not eaten thereof in my k mourning, nor ſuffred ought to periſh l through vnclennes, nor giuen ought thereof for the dead, but haue hearkened vnto ỹ voyce of the Lord my God: I haue done m after all that thou haſt commanded me.

m As farre as my ſinneful nature wolde ſuffer: for els, as Dauid & Paul ſay, there is not one iuſt, Pſal 14,4. rom 3,10.

15 Loke downe from thine holy habitaciõ, euen from heauen, & bleſſe thy people Iſraél, and the land which thou haſt giuen vs (as thou ſwareſt vnto our fathers) the lãd that floweth with milke and honie.

16 ¶This day the Lord thy God doeth cõmande thee to do theſe ordinances, and lawes: kepe them therefore, and do them with n all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule.

n With a good & ſimple conſcience

Chap. 7.6. & 14.2.

17 *Thou haſt ſet vp the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walke in his wayes, and to kepe his ordinances, and his commandements, and his lawes, and to hearken vnto his voice.

o Signifiing ỹ there is a mutuall bõde betweene God & his people.

18 o And the Lord hathe ſet thee vp this day, to be a precious people vnto him (as he hathe promiſed thee) & that thou ſhuldeſt kepe all his commandements, Chap 4.7. Chap 7.6. ver 13.11.

19 And to make thee *high aboue all nacions (which he hathe made) in praiſe, & in name and in glorie, *& that thou ſhuldeſt be an holie people vnto the Lord thy God, as he hathe ſaid.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 They are cõmanded to write the Law vpon ſtones for a remembrãce, 5 Alſo to buylde an altar. 13 The curſings are giuen on mount Ebál

1 AThen Moſés with the Elders of Iſraél a commanded the people, ſaying, Kepe all the commandements, which I commande you this day.

a As Gods miniſter & charged ẅ the ſame

2 And when ye ſhal paſſe ouer Iordén vnto the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou ſhalt ſet thee vp great ſtones, & plaiſter them with plaiſter, b God wolde ỹ his Law ſhulde be ſet vp in the borders of the lãd of Canaán, that all ỹ loked thereon might know what ỹ land was dedicate to his ſeruice.

3 b And ſhalt write vpon thẽ all the wordes of this Lawe, when thou ſhalt come ouer, that thou maieſt go into the land ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee: a lad that floweth with mylke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hathe p omiſed thee.

4 Therefore when ye ſhal paſſe ouer Iordén, ye ſhal ſet vp theſe ſtones, which I cõmande you this day in moũt Ebál, & thou ſhalt plaiſter them with plaiſter.

5 *And there ſhalt thou buyld vnto ỹ Lord thy God an altar, euen an altar of ſtones: ỹ ſhalt lift none c yron inſtrument vpon thẽ.

Exod 20,25. Ioſh 8.31.

c The altar ſhulde not be curiouſly wrought, becauſe it ſhulde cõtinewe but for a time: for God wolde haue but one altar in Iudáh.

6 Thou ſhalt make the altar of ỹ Lord thy God of whole ſtones, and offer burnt offrings thereon vnto the Lord thy God.

7 And thou ſhalt offer peace offrings, and ſhalt eat there and reioyce before ỹ Lord thy God:

8 And thou ſhalt write vpon the ſtones all the wordes of this Lawe, d wel, and plainly.

d That euerie one may wel read it and vnderſtand it.

9 ¶And Moſés & the Prieſts of the Leuites ſpake vnto all Iſraél, ſaying, Take hede & heare, ô Iſraél: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou e ſhalt hearken therefore vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and do his cõmandements and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day.

e This condiciõ God hathe boũde thee vnto, that if ỹ wilt be his people, thou muſt kepe his Lawes.

11 ¶And Moſés charged the people the ſame day, ſaying, 12 Theſe ſhal ſtand vpon moũt Gerizzím, to bleſſe the people when ye ſhal paſſe ouer Iordén: Simeón, & Leuí, & Iudáh, & Iſſachár, & f Ioſéph, & Beniamín.

f Meaning Ephráim & Manaſſéh

13 And theſe ſhal ſtand vpon mount Ebál to g curſe: Reubén, Gád, & Aſher, & Zebulún, Dan, & Naphtalí.

g Signifying, that if they wolde not obey God for loue, they ſhulde be made to obey for fear.

14 And the Leuites ſhal anſwer & ſay vnto all the men of Iſraél with a loude voyce, 15 ¶Curſed be ỹ mã ỹ ſhal make anie carued or moltẽ h image, which is an abomination vnto ỹ Lord, the worke of ỹ hãds of ỹ craftesmã, & putteth it in a ſecret place: And all the people ſhal anſwer, & ſay: So be it.

h Vnder this he condemneth all ỹ corruptiõ of Gods ſeruice, & the tranſgreſsion of ỹ firſt table 16 Curſed be he that i curſeth his father & his mother: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

i Or, contemneth & this appertaineth to ỹ ſecõd table.

17 Curſed be he that remoueth his neighbours [k] marke: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

[k] He condemneth all iniuries & extorſions

18 Curſed be he that maketh the [l] blinde go out of the way: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

[l] Meanig, that helpeth not & conſeleth not his neighbour

19 Curſed be he that hindreth the right of the ſtranger, the fatherles, & the widowe: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

20 Curſed be he that lieth with his fathers wife: for he hathe vncouered his fathers [m] ſkirt: And all ỹ people ſhal ſay: So be it.

[m] In committing vilenie againſt him.

21 Curſed be he that lieth with anie beaſt: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

22 Curſed be he that lieth with his ſiſter, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

[n] Meaning his wiues mother.

23 Curſed be he that lieth with his [n] mother in lawe: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

[o] For God, ỹ ſeeth in ſecret, wil reuenge it. Exod. 22, 12.

24 Curſed be he that ſmiteth his neighbour [o] ſecretly: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

25 *Curſed be he that taketh a rewarde to put to death innocent blood: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

Gala 3, 10.

26 *Curſed be he that confirmeth not all ỹ wordes of this Lawe, to do them: And all the people ſhal ſay: So be it.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The promiſes to them that obey the commandements. 15 The threatenings to the contrarie

Leu 26, 3.

1 IF *thou ſhalt obey diligently the voyce of the Lord thy God, and obſerue and do all his commandemẽts, which I commande thee this day, then the Lord thy God wil [a] ſet thee on high aboue all the nacions of the earth.

[a] He wil make thee the moſte excellẽt of all people

[b] When thou thinkeſt thy ſelfe ſafe & ſure.

2 And all theſe bleſſings ſhal come on thee, and [b] ouertake thee, if thou ſhalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

[c] Thou ſhalt liue wealthely.

3 Bleſſed ſhalt thou be in the [c] citie, & bleſſed alſo in the field.

[d] Thy children & ſucceſſion.

4 Bleſſed ſhalbe the [d] frute of thy body, & the frute of thy ground, and the frute of thy cattel, the increaſe of thy kine, & the flockes of thy ſhepe.

5 Bleſſed ſhalbe thy baſket and thy dough.

[e] All thine enterpriſes ſhal haue good ſucceſſe.

6 Bleſſed ſhalt thou be, when [e] thou comeſt in, and bleſſed alſo when thou goeſt out.

7 The Lord ſhal cauſe thine enemies that riſe againſt thee, to fall before thy face: they ſhal come out againſt thee one way, & ſhal flee before thee [f] ſeuen wayes.

[f] Meaning, many waies

8 The Lord ſhal commande the bleſſing to be with thee in thy ſtore houſes, & in all that thou ſetteſt thine [g] hand to, and wil bleſſe thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

[g] God wil bleſſe vs, if we do our ductie, & not be ydle.

9 The Lord ſhal make thee an holy people vnto him ſelfe, as he hathe ſworne vnto thee, if thou ſhalt kepe the commãdemẽts of the Lord thy God, and walke in his waies.

10 Thẽ all people of the earth ſhal ſe that ỹ Name of the Lord is [h] called vpon ouer thee, and they ſhalbe afraid of thee.

[h] In that he is thy God and thou art his people.

11 And the Lord ſhal make thee plenteous in goods, in the frute of thy body, & in the frute of thy cattel, and in the frute of thy ground, in the land which the Lord ſware vnto thy fathers, to giue thee.

12 The Lord ſhal open vnto thee his good treaſure, euen the [i] heauẽ to giue rayne vnto thy land in due ſeaſon, and to bleſſe all the worke of thine hands: and thou ſhalt lend vnto many nacions, but ſhalt not borowe thy ſelf.

[i] For nothing in the earth is profitable, but whẽ God ſendeth his bleſſings from heauen

13 And the Lord ſhal make thee the head, and not the [p] tayle, and thou ſhalt be aboue onely, and ſhalt not be beneth, if thou obey the commandements of the Lord thy God, which I commãde thee this day, to kepe and to do them.

[p] Or, the loweſt.

14 But thou ſhalt not decline from anie of the wordes, which I commande you this day, either to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to ſerue them.

15 ¶ *But if thou wilt not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, to kepe and to do all his commandements & his ordinances, w̃ I commmande thee this day, thẽ all theſe curſes ſhal come vpon thee, and ouertake thee.

Leu 26, 14. lament. 2, 17. mala 2, 2. baru 1, 20.

16 Curſed ſhalt thou be in the towne, and curſed alſo in the field.

17 Curſed ſhal thy baſket be, & thy [q] dough.

[q] Or, ſtore.

18 Curſed ſhalbe ỹ frute of thy body, and ỹ frute of thy land, the increaſe of thy kine, & the flockes of thy ſhepe.

19 Curſed ſhalt thou be when thou comeſt in, and curſed alſo when thou goeſt out.

20 The Lord ſhal ſend vpon thee curſing, trouble, and [r] ſhame, in all that which thou ſetteſt thine hand to do, vntil thou be deſtroyed, and periſh quickely, becauſe of ỹ wickednes of thy workes whereby thou haſt forſaken me.

[r] Or, rebuke.

21 The Lord ſhal make the peſtilence cleaue vnto thee, vntil he hathe cõſumed thee from the land, whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it.

22 *The Lord ſhal ſmite thee with a conſumption, and with ỹ feauer, and with a burning ague, and with feruent heat, [s] and with the ſword, and with blaſting, and with the mildewe, and they ſhal purſue thee vntil thou periſh.

Leui. 26, 16.

[s] Or, drought.

23 And thine heauẽ that is ouer thine head, ſhalbe [k] braſſe, and the earth that is vnder thee, yron.

[k] It ſhal giue thee nomore moyſture, then if it were of braſſe.

24 The Lord ſhal giue thee for the raine of thy land, duſt and aſhes: euen from [t] heauen ſhal it come downe vpon thee, vntil thou be deſtroyed.

[t] Or, out of the aire, as duſt raiſed with winde.

25 And

25 And the Lord ſhal cauſe thee to fall before thine enemies: thou ſhalt come out one way againſt them, and ſhalt flee ſeuen wayes before them, and ſhalt be [l] ſcatered through all the kingdomes of the earth.

[l] Some read, ỹ ſhalt be a terrour & feare, when thei ſhal heare how God hathe plagued thee.

26 And thy [m] caikeis ſhal be meat vnto all foules of the ayre, and vnto the beaſtes of the earth, and none ſhal fray them away.

[m] Thou ſhalt be curſed both in thy life and in thy death: for ỹ buryal is a teſtimonie of the reſurrection, & ſigne for thy wickednes ỹ ſhalt lacke

27 The Lord wil ſmite thee with ỹ botche of Egypt, and with the emeroides, & with the ſkab, and with the itche, that thou canſt not be healed.

28 And the Lord ſhal ſmite thee with madnes, and with blindnes, & with aſtonying of heart.

29 Thou ſhalt alſo grope at noone daies, as the [n] blinde gropeth in darckenes, & ſhalt not proſper in thy waies: thou ſhalt neuer but be oppreſſed with wrong, & be poulled euermore & no man ſhal ſuccour thee.

[n] In things moſte euident & cleare thou ſhalt lacke diſcretion & iudgement.

30 Thou ſhalt betrothe a wife, & another man ſhal lie with her: thou ſhalt buylde an houſe, and ſhalt not dwel therein: thou ſhalt plant a vineyarde and ſhalt not [o] eat the frute.

[o] Ebr. make it common.

31 Thine oxe ſhal be ſlayne before thine eies, and thou ſhalt not eat thereof: thine aſſe ſhalbe violently take away before thy face, and ſhal not be reſtored to thee: thy ſhepe ſhalbe giuen vnto thine enemies, & no man ſhal reſcue them for thee.

32 Thy ſonnes and thy daughters ſhalbe giuen vnto another people, and thine eies [o] ſhal ſtil loke for them, euen til they fall out, and there ſhal be no power in thine hand.

[o] When they ſhal returne from their captiuitie

33 The frute of thy land & all thy labours ſhal a people, which thou knoweſt not, eat, and thou ſhalt neuer but ſuffer wrong, and violence alway:

34 So that thou ſhalt be mad for the ſight which thine eies ſhal ſe.

35 The Lord ſhal ſmite thee in the knees, & in the thighes, with a ſore botche, that thou canſt not be healed: euen frō the ſole of thy fote vnto the top of thine head.

36 The Lord ſhal bring thee & thy [p] King (which thou ſhalt ſet ouer thee) vnto a nacion, which nether thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, and there thou ſhalt ſerue other gods: euen wood and ſtone,

[p] As he did Manaſſeh, Ioachim, Zedechias & others

Iere 24.9. & 25.9. 37 And thou ſhalt *be a wonder, a prouerbe & a cōmune talke among all people, whether the Lord ſhal cary thee.

Mich 6.15. Hag. 1.6. 38 * Thou ſhalt cary out muche ſede into ỹ field, and ſhalt gather but litle in: for the greſhoppers ſhal deſtroye it.

39 Thou ſhalt plante a vineyarde and dreſſe it, but ſhalt nether drinke of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the wormes ſhal eat it.

40 Thou ſhalt haue oliue trees in all thy coaſtes, but ſhalt not anoint thy ſelf with the oyle: for thine oliues ſhal [q] fall.

[q] Or, be ſhaken, before tors be ripe.

41 Thou ſhalt beget ſonnes, and daughters, but ſhalt not haue them: for thei ſhal go into captiuitie.

42 All thy trees and frute of thy lād [q] ſhal the greſhopper conſume.

[q] Vnder one kinde he conteineth all the vermine, ẅ. deſtroye the frutes of the land. and this is an euident token of Gods curſe.

43 The ſtranger that is among you, ſhal clime aboue thee vp on hye, & thou ſhalt come downe beneth alowe.

44 He ſhal lend thee, and thou ſhalt not lend him: he ſhalbe the head, & thou ſhalt be the taile.

45 Moreouer, all theſe curſes ſhal come vpon thee, and ſhal purſue thee and ouertake thee, til thou be deſtroyed, becauſe thou obeyedſt not the voyce of the Lord thy God, to kepe his commandements, & his ordinances, which he commanded thee:

46 And thei ſhalbe vpon [r] thee for ſignes and wonders, and vpon thy ſede for euer,

[r] Gods plagues ſhalbe euident ſignes ỹ he is offended with thee

47 Becauſe thou ſeruedſt not the Lord thy God with ioyfulnes & with a good heart for the abundance of all things.

48 Therefore thou ſhalt ſerue thine enemies which the Lord ſhal ſend vpon thee, in honger and in thurſt, and in nakednes, and in nede of all things: & he ſhal put a yoke of yron vpon thy necke vntil he haue deſtroyed thee.

49 The Lord ſhal bring a nacion vpō thee from far, euen from the end of the worlde, flying ſwift as an egle: a nacion whoſe tongue thou ſhalt not vnderſtand:

50 A nacion of a [q] fierce countenāce, which wil not regarde the perſone of the olde, nor haue compaſsion of the yong.

[q] Or, barbarous, cruel, or impudent

51 The ſame ſhal eat the frute of thy cattel, and the frute of thy land vntil thou be deſtroied, and he ſhal leaue thee nether wheat, wine, nor oyle, nether the [q] increaſe of thy kyne, nor the flockes of thy ſhepe, vntil he haue broght thee to noght.

[q] Or, firſtborne of thy bullockes.

52 And he ſhal beſiege thee in all thy cities, vntil thine hye and ſtrong walles fail downe, wherein ỹ truſtedſt in all the land: and he ſhal beſiege thee in all thy [q] cities throughout all thy land, which the Lord thy God hathe giuen thee.

[q] Or, gates.

53 *And thou ſhalt eat the frute of thy bodie: euen the fleſh of thy ſonnes and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hathe giuen thee, during the ſiege and ſtraitnes wherein thine enemie ſhal incloſe thee:

Leui 26.29. 2 King 6.29. Iamen 4.10. Baruk 2.3.

54 So that the man (that is tender and exceding deintie among you) *ſhalbe grieued at his brother and at his wife, that lyeth in his boſome, & at the remnant of his children which he hathe yet left;

Chap 13.6.

55 For feare of giuing vnto anie of them of the fleſh of his children, whome he ſhal eat, becauſe he hathe nothing left him in that ſiege, and ſtraitnes, wherewith thine enemie ſhalbeſiege thee in all thy cities.

f As came to paſſe in ỹ daies of Iorám, King of Iſraél, 2 King.6,29, and when the Romains beſieged Ieruſalem.

56 The tender and deintie f woman among you, which neuer wolde venture to ſet the ſole of hei fote vpon the grounde (for her ſoftnes and tẽdernes) ſhalbe grieued at her houſband, that lyeth in her boſome, and at her ſonne, & at her daughter, t Hungre ſhal ſo bite her, ỹ ſhe ſhal be ready to eat her childe before it be deliuered.

57 And at her t afterbyrth (that ſhal come out from betwene her fete) and at her children, which ſhe ſhal beare: for whē all things lacke, ſhe ſhal eat them ſecretly, during the ſiege and ſtraitnes, wherewith thine enemie ſhal beſiege thee ī thy cities.

u For he that offendeth in one, is giltie of all, Iam 2,10.

58 ¶If thou wilt not kepe and do u all the wordes of this Lawe (that are written in this boke) & feare this glorious & feareful Name THE LORD THY GOD, 59 Then the Lord wil make thy plagues wonderful, & the plagues of thy ſede, euen great plagues and of long continuance, & ſore diſeaſes, and of long duranee.

60 Moreouer, he wil bring vpō thee all the diſeaſes of Egypt, whei eof thou waſt afraied, and thei ſhal cleaue vnto thee.

61 And euerie ſickenes, and euerie plague, x Declaring ỹ God hathe infinite meanes to plague the wicked, beſides them that are ordinarie or written Chap.10,22.

which is not x written in the boke of this Lawe, wil the Lord heape vpon thee, vntil thou be deſtroyed.

62 And ye ſhalbe left fewe in nomber, where ye were as the * ſtarres of heauē in multitude, becauſe thou woldeſt not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

63 And as the Lord hathe reioyced ouer you, to do you good, & to multiplie you, ſo he wil reioyce ouer you, to deſtroye you, and bring you to noght, and ye ſhalbe rooted out of the land, whether thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it.

y Signifying ỹ it is a ſingular gift of God to be in a place where as we may worſhip God purely & declare our faith & religion.

64 And the Lord ſhal y ſcatter thee amōg all people, frō the one end of the worlde vnto the other, and there thou ſhalt ſerue other gods, which thou haſt not knowen nor thy fathers, euen wood and ſtone.

65 Alſo amōg theſe nacions thou ſhalt finde no reſt, nether ſhal the ſole of thy fote haue reſt: for the Lord ſhal giue thee there a trembling heart, and loking to returne til thine eies fall out, & a ſorouful minde.

*Or, thou ſhalt be in dout of thy life.

66 And thy life ſhal * hang before thee, and thou ſhalt feare bothe night and day, and ſhalt haue none aſſurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou ſhalt ſay, Wolde God it were euening, and at euening thou ſhalt ſay, Wolde God it were morning, for the feare of thine heart, which thou ſhalt feare, and for the ſight of thine eies, which thou ſhalt ſe.

z Becauſe thei were vnmideful of that miracle, whē the Sea gaue place for thē to paſſe through.

68 And the Lord ſhal bring thee into Egypt againe with z ſhippes by the way, whereof I ſaid vnto thee, Thou ſhalt ſe it no more againe; & there ye ſhal ſel your ſelues vnto your enemies for bondemen and bonde women, & there ſhalbe no byer.

CHAP. XXIX.

a The people are exhorted to obſerue the cōmandements. 10 The whole people from the heeſt to the loweſt are cōpreheded vnder Gods couenāt. 19 The puniſhmēt of him that flatereth him ſelfe in his wickednes. 24 The cauſe of Gods wrath againſt his people.

1 THeſe are the a wordes of the couenant which the Lord cōmanded Moſés to make with the children of Iſraél in the lād of Moáb beſide the couenāt which he had made with them in b Horéb.

a That is, the articles, or cōditions.

b At the firſt giuing of the Lawe, which was fourtie yeres before.

2 ¶And Moſés called all Iſraél, & ſaid vnto them, Ye haue ſene all that the Lord did before your eies in the land of Egypt vnto Pharaóh and vnto all his ſeruants, & vnto all his land, c The profes of my power.

3 The c great tentacions which thine eies haue ſene, thoſe great miracles and wonders:

d He ſheweth that it is not in mās power to vnderſtand the myſteries of God, if it be not giuen him from aboue.

4 Yet the Lord hathe not d giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eies to ſe, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yere in the wildernes: your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, nether is thy ſhooe waxed olde vpon thy fote.

e Made by mans arte, but manna, which is called the bread of Angels.

6 Ye haue eaten no e bread, nether dronke wine, nor ſtrong drinke, that ye might knowe, how that I am ỹ Lord your God.

7 After ye came vnto this place, and Sihón King of Heſhbón, and Og King of Baſhán came out againſt vs vnto battel, and we ſlewe them,

8 And toke their land, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Reubenites, and to ỹ Gadites, & to the half tribe of Manaſſéh.

9 *Kepe thei efore the wordes of this couenāt & do them, that ye may proſper in all that ye ſhal do. Chap.4,6.

10 Ye ſtand this day euerie one of you before the Lord your f God: your heades of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, euen all the men of Iſraél:

f Who knoweth your hartes, & therefore ye may not thinke to diſſemble w̄ him.

11 Your children, your wiues, & thy ſtranger that is in thy campe frō the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou ſhuldeſt g paſſe into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his othe which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day, g Alluding to them, ỹ when they made a ſure couenant, deuided a beaſt in twaine, and paſt betwene the partes deuided, Gen 15,10.

13 For to eſtabliſh thee this day a people vnto him ſelf, & that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hathe ſaid vnto thee, and as he hathe ſworne vnto thy fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób.

14 Nether make I this couenant, and this othe with you onely, 15 But aſwel with him that ſtandeth here with vs this day before ỹ Lord our God, as with him h that is not here with vs this day.

h Meaning, their poſteritie.

16 For ye knowe, how we haue dwelt in the land land of Egypt, and how we paſſed through the middes of the nacions, which ye paſſed by.

193/1224

17 And ye haue ſene their abominacions & their idoles (wood, and ſtone, ſiluer & golde) which were among them,

18 That there ſhulde not be amõg you mã nor woman, nor familie, nor tribe, which ſhulde turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go & ſerue the gods of theſe nacións, & that there ſhulde not be amõg you [1] ante roote that bringeth fourth gall and wormewood, 19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curſe, he [m] bleſſe him ſelfe in his heart, ſaying, I ſhal haue peace, although I walke according to the ſtubbernes of mine owne heart, thus adding [k] dronkennes to thirſt.

20 The Lord wil not be merciful vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his ielouſie ſhal ſmoke againſt that man, and euerie curſe that is written in this boke, ſhal light vpon him, and the Lord ſhal put out his name from vnder heauen, 21 And the Lord ſhal ſeparate him vnto euil out of all the tribes of Iſraél, according vnto all the curſes of the couenant, that is written in the boke of this Lawe.

22 So that the [l] generacion to come, euen your children, that ſhal riſe vp after you, and the ſtranger that ſhal come from a far land, ſhal ſay, when they ſhal ſe the plagues of this land, and the diſeaſes thereof, wherewith the Lord ſhal ſmite it:

23 (For all that lãd ſhal burne with brimſtone and ſalt: it ſhal not be ſowen, nor bring fourth, nor anie graſſe ſhal growe therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of * Sodom, & Gomorãh, Admãh, & Zeboím, which the Lord ouerthrewe in his wrath and in his angre)

24 Then ſhal all nacions ſay, *Wherefore hathe the Lord done thus vnto this land? how fearce is this great wrath?

25 And they ſhal anſwer, Becauſe they haue forſaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he broght them out of the lãd of Egypt,

26 And went and ſerued other gods & worſhipped them: euen gods which they knewe not, & [n] which had giuen them nothing, 27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hote againſt this land, to bring vpon it euerie curſe that is written in this boke.

28 And the Lord hathe rooted them out of their land in angre, and in wrath, and in great indignacion, and hathe caſt them into another land, as appeareth this day.

29 The [m] ſecret things belong to the Lord our God, but ỹ things reueiled belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this Lawe.

1 Suche ſinne, as the bitter frute thereof might choke & deſtroye you Or, ſlaſſer.

k For as he ỹ is thirſty, deſireth to drinke muche, ſo he ỹ followeth his appetites, ſeketh by all meanes, & yet can not be ſatisfied.

l Gods plagues vpon thẽ that rebell againſt him, ſhal be ſo ſtrange, that all ages ſhalbe aſtonied

Gene. 19, 25.

1 King. 9, 8. per. 22, 8.

Or, which had not giuen them a land to poſſeſſe

m Moſes herby reproueth their curioſitie, which ſeke thoſe things ỹ are only knowen to God: & their negligẽce, that regarde not that, wherwith God hath reueiled vnto them, as the Lawe.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Mercie ſhewed when thei repent. 6 The Lord doeth circumciſe the heart. 11 All excuſe of ignorance is taken away. 19 Life and death is ſet before thẽ. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

1 NOw whẽ all theſe things ſhal come vpon thee, ether the bleſsing or the curſe which I haue ſet before thee, and ỹ ſhalt [a] turne into thine heart, among all ỹ nacions whether the Lord thy God hathe driuen thee,

2 And ſhalt returne vnto ỹ Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commãde thee this day: thou, & thy children with all thine [b] heart and with all thy ſoule,

3 Then ỹ Lord thy God wil cauſe thy captiues to returne, and haue compaſsion vpon thee, & wil returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where ỹ Lord thy God had ſcatered thee.

4 Thogh thou wereſt caſt vnto the vtmoſt parte of [c] heauen, from thence wil ỹ Lord thy God gather thee, & from thence wil he [d] take thee,

5 And the Lord thy God wil bring thee into the land which thy fathers poſſeſſed, and thou ſhalt poſſeſſe it, and he wil ſhewe thee fauour, and wil multiplie thee aboue thy fathers.

6 And the Lord thy God wil [e] circumciſe thine heart, and the heart of thy ſede, that thou maiſt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule, that thou maiſt liue.

7 And the Lord thy God wil lay all theſe curſes vpon thine enemies, and on them, that hate thee, and that perſecute thee.

8 [f] Returne thou therefore, & obey the voice of the Lord, & do all his commandements, which I commande thee this day.

9 And ỹ Lord thy God wil make thee plẽteous in euerie worke of thine hand, in ỹ frute of thy body, and in the frute of thy cattel, and in the frute of the land for thy welth: for ỹ Lord wil turne againe & [g] reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers,

10 Becauſe thou ſhalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keping his commãdements, & his ordinãces, which are written in the boke of this Lawe, when thou ſhalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart & with all thy ſoule.

11 ¶For this commandement which I commande thee this day, is [h] not hid frõ thee, nether is it farre of.

12 It is not in heauẽ, that thou ſhuldeſt ſay, *Who ſhal go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cauſe vs to heare it, that we may do it?

13 Nether is it beyonde the [i] ſea, that thou a By calling to remẽbrãce, both his mercies & his plagues

b In true repẽtance is none hypocriſie.

c Euen to the worldes end.

d And bring thee into thy countrey.

e God wil purge all thy wicked affections: ẅ thing is not in thine owne power to do.

f If we wil haue God to worke in vs with his holy Spirit, we muſt turne againe to him by repentance.

g He meaneth not that God is ſubiect to theſe paſsiõs, to reioyce or to be ſad: but he vſeth this maner of ſpeache to declare the loue ỹ he beareth vnto vs.

h The Law is ſo euident that none can pretẽd ignorance.

Rom. 10, 6.

i By heauen & ỹ ſea he meaneth places moſt farre diſtant.

shuldest say, Who shal go ouer the sea for vs, & bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may do it?

14 But the [k] worde is verie nere vnto thee: euen in thy mouth & in thine heart, for to [l] do it.

15 Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life & good, death and euil.

16 In that I commande thee this day, [m] to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, & to kepe his commandements, & his ordinances, & his lawes ỹ thou maiest [n] liue & be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whether thou goest to possesse it.

17 But if thine heart turne away, so that ỹ [n] wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced & worship other gods, and serue them,

18 I pronounce vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish, ye shal not prolõg your dayes in the lãd whether thou passest ouer Iordén to possesse it.

19 *I call heauen & earth to recorde this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing, therfore [o] chose life, that both thou & thy sede may liue, 20 By louing the Lord thy God, by obeyīg his voyce, & by cleauing vnto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy dayes: that thou maist dwel in the land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abrahám, Izhák and Iaakób, to giue them.

CHAP. XXXI.

2,7 Moses preparing him selfe to dye, appointeth Ioshua to rule the people 9 He giueth the Lawe to the Leuites, that they shulde read it to the people 19 God giueth thẽ a song as a witnes betwene him & them 23 God confirmeth Ioshúa 29 Moses sheweth them that they wil rebel after his death

1 THen Moses went & spake these wordes vnto all Israél,

2 And said vnto them, I am an hundreth & twentie yere olde this day: I [a] can no more go out & in: also ỹ Lord hathe said vnto me, *Thou shalt not go ouer this Iordén.

3 The Lord thy God he wil go ouer before thee: he wil destroy these nacions before thee, & thou shalt possesse them *Ioshúa, he shal go before thee, as the Lord hathe said.

4 And the Lord shal do vnto thẽ, as he dyd to *Sihón & to Og Kings of the Amorites, & vnto their lãd whome he destroyed.

5 And the Lord shal giue thẽ [b] before you that ye may do vnto them according vnto euerie *commandement, which I haue commanded you.

6 Plucke [c] vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afrayd of them: for the Lord thy God him selfe doeth go with thee: he wil not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ¶And Moses called Ioshúa, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israél, Be [c] of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt go with this people vnto the land which the Lord hathe sworne vnto their fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherit it.

8 And the Lord him selfe doeth [d] go before thee: he wilbe with thee: he wil not fayle thee, nether forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomforted.

9 ¶And Moses wrote this Lawe, and deliuered it vnto the Priestes ỹ sonnes of Leuí, (which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) and vnto all the Elders of Israél,

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, * Euerie seuenth yere *whẽ ỹ yere of fredome shalbe in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israél shal come to appeare [e] before the Lord thy God, in the place which he shal chose, thou shalt read this Lawe before all Israél that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together: men, & women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and kepe, and obserue all ỹ wordes of this Lawe,

13 And that their children which [f] haue not knowen it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as ye liue in the land, whether ye go ouer Iordén to possesse it.

14 ¶Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, thy dayes are come, that thou must dye: Call Ioshúa, & stãd ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion that I may giue him a [g] charge. so Moses & Ioshúa wẽt, and stode in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

15 And the Lord appeared in ỹ Tabernacle, in the piller of a [g] cloude: & the piller of the cloude stode ouer the dore of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶And ỹ Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, thou shalt slepe with thy fathers, and this people wil rise vp, and go a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whether they go) to dwel therein, & wil forsake me, and breake my couenant which I haue made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath wil waxe hote against them at ỹ day, & I wil forsake them, & wil [h] hide my face frõ them: then they shalbe consumed, and many aduersities & tribulacions shal come vpon them: so then they wil say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I wil surely hide my face in ỹ day, because of all the euil, which they shal cõmit, in ỹ they are turned vnto other gods.

19 Now

---

k Euen the Lawe & the Gospel

l By faith in Christ

m So that to loue & obey God, is onely life & felicitie n He addeth these promises to signifie that it is for our profit ỹ we loue him, & not for his.

o That is, Loue & obey God: which thing is not in mãs power, but Gods spirit onely worketh it in his elect.

a I can no longer execute mine office

Nomb 20,12.

chap.3,26.

Nom.27,18.

Nom. 21,24.

b Into your handes.

Chap.7,2.

c Or, be of good courage

d Signifying that man can neuer be of good courage, except he be perswaded of Gods fauour & assistance.

Nehem 8, 8.

Chap 15,1.

e Before ỹ Arke of the couenãt, which was the signe of Gods presence, & the figure of Christ.

f Which were not borne whẽ the Lawe was giuen g Or, commandement.

g In a cloude that was facioned like a piller.

h That is, I wil take my fauour frõ them as to turne his face toward vs, is to shewe vs his fauour.

e For he that must gouerne ỹ people, hathe nede to be valiant to resist vice, & constant to maintaine vertue

19 Now therefore write ye this [i] ſong for you, and teache it the children of Iſraél: put it in their mouthes, that this ſong may be my witnes againſt the children of Iſraél.

20 For I wil bring them into the lãd (which I ſware vnto their fathers) that floweth with milke and honie, and they ſhal eat, and fil them ſelues, and waxe fat: [k] then ſhal they turne vnto other gods, and ſerue them, and contemne me, & breake my couenant.

21 And then when manie aduerſities and tribulacions ſhal come vpon them, this ſong ſhal [l] anſwer them to their face as a witnes: for it ſhal not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their poſteritie: for I knowe their imaginacion, which they go about euen now, before I haue broght thẽ into the land which I ſware.

22 ¶ Moſés therefore wrote this ſong the ſame day and taught it the children of Iſraél.

23 And God gaue Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun a charge, and ſaid, *Be ſtrong, and of a good courage: for thou ſhalt bring the children of Iſraél into the land, which I ſware vnto them, and I wil be with thee.

24 ¶ And when Moſés had made an end of writing the wordes of this Lawe in a boke vntil he had finiſhed them,

25 Then Moſés commanded the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of ỹ Lord, ſaying, 26 Take the boke of this Law, and put ye it in the ſide of the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a [m] witnes againſt thee.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion and thy ſtiffe necke: beholde, I being yet aliue with you this day, ye are rebellious againſt the Lord: how muche more then after my death?

28 Gather vnto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your [n] officers, that I may ſpeake theſe wordes in their audience, and call heauen and earth to recorde againſt them.

29 For I am ſure that after my death ye wil vtterly be corrupt and turne from the way, which I haue commanded you: therefore euil wil come vpon you at the length, becauſe ye wil commit euil in the ſight of ỹ Lord, by prouoking him to angre through the [o] worke of your hãdes.

30 Thus Moſés ſpake in the audiẽce of all the Congregacion of Iſraél the wordes of this ſong, vntil he had ended them.

i To preſerue you and your childrẽ frõ idolatrie, by remẽbring Gods benefites k For this is the nature of fleſh, no lõger to obey God, when it is vanquet the rod l That theſe euils are come vpon them, be cauſe they for ſoke me.

*Ioſh 1.6.

m Of thine Idolatrie, whẽ ỹ ſhalt turne away frõ the doctrine contemned herei n As gouernors, iudges, & magiſtrates

o By idolatrie, worſhiping images, ỹ are the worke of your hãds.

to the childrẽ: 49 God forewarneth Moſés of his death.

1 HEarken, ye [a] heauẽs, and I wil ſpeake: and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

2 My [b] doctrine ſhal drop as the raine, and my ſpeache ſhal ſtil as doeth the dewe, as the ſhowre vpon the herbes, and as the great raine vpon the graſſe.

3 For I wil publiſhe the Name of ỹ Lord: giue ye glorie vnto our God.

4 Perfect is ỹ worke of the [c] mighty God: for all his wayes are iudgement. God is true, and without wickednes: iuſt, & righteous is he.

5 They haue corrupted them ſelues toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a frowarde and crooked generacion.

6 Do ye ſo rewarde ỹ Lord, ô fooliſh people and vnwiſe? is not he thy father, that hathe boght thee? he hathe [d] made thee, and proportioned thee.

7 ¶ Remember the dayes of olde: conſider the yeres of ſo manie generaciõs: aſke thy father, and he wil ſhewe thee: thine Elders, and they wil tel thee.

8 Whẽ the moſt hie God deuided to the nacions their inheritance, when he ſeparated ỹ ſonnes of Adám, he appointed the borders of the [e] people according to the nomber of the children of Iſraél.

9 For the Lords porcion is his people: Iaakób is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He founde him in the land of the wildernes, in a waſte, and roaring wildernes: he led him about, he taught him, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an egle ſtereth vp her neſt, [f] flotereth ouer her birdes, ſtretcheth out her wings, taketh them, and beareth them on her wings, 12 So the Lord alone led him and there was no [g] ſtrange god with him.

13 He caried him vp to the hie places of the [g] earth, that he might eat ỹ frutes of the fields, and he cauſed him to ſucke [h] hony out of the ſtone and oyle out of the hard rocke:

14 Butter of kine, and milke of ſhepe with fat of the lambs, and rams fed in Baſhán, and goates, with the fat of the graines of wheat, and the red [i] licour of the grape haſt thou dronke.

15 ¶ But he that ſhulde haue bene [k] vpright, when he waxed fat, ſpurned with his hele: thou art fat, thou art groſſe, thou art laden with fatnes: therefore he forſoke God that made him, and regarded not the ſtrõg God of his ſaluacion.

16 They prouoked him with [l] ſtrange gods: they prouoked him to angre with abominacions.

17 They offred vnto deuils, not to God, but to gods whome they knewe not: [m] newe a As witneſſes of this peoples ingratitude.

b He deſireth that he may ſpeake to Gods glorie, & that the people, as the grene graſſe, may receiue the dewe of his doctrine c The Ebrewe worde is rocke: noting ỹ God onelie is mightie, faithful, and conſtãt in his promes.

d Not according to ỹ cõmune creacio, but by a new creature by his Spirit

e When God by his prouidence deuided the worlde, he lẽt for a time that portiõ to the Canaanites, which ſhulde after be an inheritãce for all his people Iſraél f To teache them to flie.

g Meaning of the lãd of Canáan, which was hie, in reſpect of Egypt which is, abũdance of all things euen in the very rockes

h Ebr oyle

i Ebr blood

k He ſheweth what is the principal end of our vocacion

l By chãging his ſeruice for their ſuperſtitions

m Scripture calleth newe, what ſocuer cõmmeth, be the error neuer ſo olde, gods that came newly vp, whome their fathers feared not.

18 Thou haſt forgotten the mightie God, that begate thee, & haſt forgottē God that formed thee.

19 The Lord then ſawe it, and was angry, for the prouocacion of his [m] ſonnes and of his daughters.

m He calleth thē Gods children, not to honour them, but to ſhewe them from what dignitie they are fallen.

20 And he ſaid, I wil hide my face frō thē; I wil ſe what their end ſhalbe: for they are a frowarde generacion, childrē in whome is no faith.

21 They haue moued me to ielouſie with that which is not God: they haue prouoked me to angre with their vanities: * and I wil moue them to ielouſie with thoſe which are no [n] people: I wil prouoke them to angre with a fooliſh nacion.

Rom.10,19.

n Which I haue not fauoured, nor giuen my Lawes vnto them.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, & ſhal burne vnto the bothome of hel, & ſhal cōſume the earth with her increaſe, & ſet on fire the fundacions of the mountaines.

23 I wil ſpend plagues vpon them: I wil beſtowe mine arrowes vpon them.

24 They ſhalbe burnt with hunger, and conſumed with heat, and with bitter deſtruction: I wil alſo ſend the teeth of beaſtes vpon them, with the venime of ſerpents creping in the duſt.

25 The ſworde ſhal [o] kil them without, and in the chambers feare bothe the yong mā and the yong woman, the ſuckeling with the man of graye heere.

o They ſhalbe ſlaine bothe in the field & at home.

26 I haue ſaid, I wolde ſcatter thē abroade: I wolde make their remembrance to ceaſe from among men, 27 Saue that I feared the furie of the enemie, leſt their aduerſaries ſhulde [p] waxe proude, & leſt they ſhulde ſay, Our hye hand & not the Lord hathe done all this.

p Reioycing to ſe the godly afflicted, & attributing that to them ſelues & is wroght by Gods hād.

28 For they are a nacion voyde of counſel, nether is there anie vnderſtanding in thē.

29 Oh that they were wiſe, then they wolde vnderſtād this: they wolde cōſider their later end.

q They wolde conſider ỹ ſelicitie, that was prepared for them, if they had obeyed God

30 Howe ſhulde one chaſe a thouſand, and two put tē thouſād to flight, except their ſtrong God had ſolde them, & the Lord had [q] ſhut them vp?

Or, deliuered them to their enemie.

31 For their god is not as our God, euen our enemies being iudges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, & of the vines of Gomorāh: their grapes are grapes of gall, their cluſters be bitter.

33 Their [r] wine is the poyſon of dragons, and the cruel gall of aſpes.

r The frutes of the wicked are as poyſon, deteſtable to God and dangerous for man Eccleſ.28,2. rom.12,19. chr.10,30.

34 Is not this laid in ſtore with me, & ſealed vp among my treaſures?

35 *Vengeance and recompenſe are mine: their fote ſhal ſlide in due time: for the daye of their deſtruction is at hand, and the things that ſhal come vpon them, make haſte.

36 For the Lord ſhal iudge his people, and [s] repent toward his ſeruants, when he ſeeth that their power is gone, and none [t] ſhut vp in holde nor left abroad.

Or, change his minde.

t Whether ſtrōg nor weake in a maner remaine.

37 When men ſhal ſay, Where are their gods, their mightie God in whome they truſted?

38 Which did eat the fat of their ſacrifices, and did drinke the wine of their drinke offring? let them riſe vp, and helpe you: let him be your refuge.

39 Beholde now, for I, I am he, and there is no gods with me: * I kil, and giue life: I wounde, & I make whole: * nether is there anie that can deliuer out of mine hand.

1.King.2,6. tob 13,2. Wiſd 16,13.

40 For I [u] lift vp mine hand to heauen, & ſay, I liue for euer.

u That is, I ſweare, read Gen.14,22.

41 If I whet my glittering ſworde, and mine hand take holde on iudgement, I wil execute vengeance on mine enemies, and wil rewarde them that hate me.

42 I wil make mine arrowes dronke with blood, (and my ſworde ſhal eat fleſh) for the blood of the ſlaine, & of the captiues, when I beginne to take vengeance of the enemie.

43 *Ye nations, praiſe his people: for he wil auenge the [w] blood of his ſeruants, and wil execute vengeance vpon his aduerſaries, and wil be merciful vnto his land, and to his people.

Rom.15,10.

w Whether ỹ blood or Gods people be ſhed for their ſinnes, or trial of their faith, he promiſeth to reueng it.

44 ¶ Then Moſés came and ſpake all the wordes of this ſong in the audience of the people, he and [x] Hoſhéa the ſunne of Nun.

x Or, Ioſhua.

45 When Moſés had made an end of ſpeaking all theſe wordes to all Iſraél, 46 Then he ſaid vnto them, * Set your hearts vnto all the wordes which I teſtifie againſt you this day, that ye may cōmande them vnto your childrē, that they may obſerue and do all the wordes of this Lawe.

Chap.6,6. & 11,18.

47 For it is no [y] vaine worde concerning you, but it is your life, and by this worde ye ſhal prolong your dayes in the land, whether ye go ouer Iordén to poſſeſſe it.

y For I wil performe my promes vnto you, Iſa.55,10.

48 *And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſés the ſelfe ſame day, ſaying,

Nom.27,12.

49 Go vp into this mountaine of Abarím, vnto ỹ mount Nebó, which is in the land of Moáb, that is ouer againſt Icrichó: and beholde the land of Canáan, which I giue vnto ỹ children of Iſraél for a poſſeſſion,

50 And dye in the mōūt which thou goeſt vp vnto, and thou ſhalt be * gathered vnto thy people, * as Aarón thy brother dyed in mōūt Hor, and was gathered vnto his people,

Gen.25,8. Nom.20,28. & 33,38. Nom.20,12. & 27,14.

51 Becauſe ye * treſpaſſed againſt me amōg the children of Iſraél, at the waters [z] of Meribáh, at Kadéſh in the wildernes of Zin: for ye ỹ ſanctified me not among the children

Or, of ſtrife:

y Ye were not earneſt and cōſtant to maintein mine honour.

children of Iſraél.

52 Thou ſhalt therefore ſe the land before thee, but ſhalt not go thither, I meane, into ỹ land which I giue the childrē of Iſraél.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Moſés before his death bleſſeth all the tribes of Iſraél. 26 There is no God like to the God of Iſraél. 29 Nor anie people like vnto his.

a This bleſſing cōcerneth not onely a ſimple prayer, but an aſſurance of the effect thereof

1 NOw this is the a bleſſing wherewith Moſés the man of God bleſſed the childrē of Iſraél before his death, & ſaid,

2 The Lord came from Sinái, and roſe vp from Seír vnto them, and appeared clearely from mount Parán, and he came with ten b thouſands of Saintes, and at his right hand a firy Lawe for them.

b Meaning, innumerable Angels.

c Ebr his Saintes, that is the childrē of Iſraél

d As thy diſciples

3 Thogh he loue the people, yet c all thy Saintes are in thine hands: & they are humbled at d thy fete, to receiue thy wordes.

e To vs and our ſucceſſors.

4 Moſés commāded vs a Lawe for an e inheritāce of the Cōgregacion of Iaakób.

f Or, Moſés
g Or, Iſraél.

5 Thē f he was among the g righteous people, as King, when the heades of the people, and the tribes of Iſraél were aſſembled.

f Reubē ſhalbe one of the tribes of Gods people, though for his ſinne his honour be diminiſhed & his familie but ſmale

6 ¶Let f Reubén liue, and not dye, thogh his men be a ſmall nomber.

g Signifying that he ſhulde hardely obteine Iaakobs ꝓmes Gen 49,8 Exod.28,30.

7 ¶And thus he bleſſed Iudáh, & ſaid, Heare, ô Lord, the voice of Iudáh, & bring him vnto his people: his hands ſhalbe g ſufficient for him, if thou helpe him againſt his enemies.

8 ¶And of Leuí he ſaid, Let thy *Thúmím & thine Vrím be w thine holy one, whome thou dideſt proue in Maſſáh, and dideſt cauſe him to ſtriue at ỹ waters of Meribáh.

h He preferred Goos cloſer to all natural affection, Exod 32,29.

9 Who ſaid vnto his father and to his mother, h I haue not ſene him, nether knewe he his brethren, nor knewe his owne children: for they obſerued thy worde, & kept thy couenant.

10 Thei ſhal teache Iaakób thy iudgemēts, and Iſraél thy Lawe: they ſhal put incens before thy face, & the burnt offring vpon thine altar.

i He declareth that the miniſters of God haue manie enemies, & therefore naue nede to be prayed for k Becauſe the temple ſhulde be buylt in Zion, w was in the tribe of Beniamín, he ſheweth that God ſhulde dwel with him there

l Or, fountaines

11 Bleſſe, ô Lord, his ſubſtance, and accept the worke of his hands: i ſmite through the loines of thē that riſe againſt him, and of them that hate him, that they riſe not againe.

12 ¶Of Beniamín he ſaid, The beloued of the Lord ſhal k dwel in ſafety by him: the Lord ſhal couer him all the day long, and dwel betwene his ſhulders.

13 ¶And of Ioſéph he ſaid, Bleſſed of the Lord is his land for the ſwetenes of heauē, for the dewe, and l for the depth lying beneth,

14 And for the ſwete increaſe of the ſunne, and for the ſwete increaſe of the moone,

15 And for the ſwetenes of the top of the ancient mountaines, and for the ſwetenes of the olde hilles,

16 And for the ſwetenes of the earth, & abūdance thereof: & the good wil of him that dwelt in the l buſhe, ſhal come vpon the head of Ioſéph, and vpon the top of the head of him that was *ſeparated from his brethren.

l Which was, God appearing vnto Moſés, Exod 3,2. Gen.49,26.

17 His beautie ſhalbe like his firſt borne bullocke, and m his hornes as the hornes of an vnicorne: with them he ſhal ſmite the people together, euen the ends of the worlde: theſe are alſo the ten thouſands of Ephráim, and theſe are the thouſands of Manaſſéh.

m Or, ſtrength

18 ¶And of Zebulún he ſaid, Reioyce, Zebulún, in thy n going out, and thou, Iſſhachár, in thy tentes.

n In thy proſperous viages vpon the ſea, Gen 49,13

19 They ſhal call the people vnto the o mountaine: there they ſhal offer the ſacrifices of righteouſnes: for p they ſhal ſucke of the abundance of the ſea, and of the treaſures hid q in the ſand.

o Or, mont Zíon.

p The tribe of Zebulún.

20 ¶Alſo of Gad he ſaid, Bleſſed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, that catcheth for his pray ỹ arme w the head.

21 And he loked to him ſelfe at the beginning, becauſe there was a porcion of the r Lawegiuer hid: yet he ſhal come with the heads of the people, to execute the iuſtice of the Lord, & his iudgements with Iſraél.

r So that the portion of the Gadites, and others on this ſide Iordén was Gods, thogh it was not ſo knowē.

22 ¶And of Dan he ſaid, Dan is a lions whelpe: he ſhal leape from Baſhán.

23 ¶Alſo of Naphtalí he ſaid, ô Naphtalí, ſatiſfied with fauour, and filled with the bleſſing of the Lord, poſſeſſe s the Weſt and the South.

s Meaning, nere the ſea.

24 ¶And of Aſhér he ſaid, Aſhér ſhalbe bleſſed with children: he ſhalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and ſhal dip his fote in oyle.

25 Thy ſhooes ſhalbe t yron and braſſe, and thy ſtrength ſhal continue as long as thou liueſt.

t Thou ſhalt be ſtrong, or thy countrey ful of metal. It ſeemeth that Simeon is left out becauſe he was vnder Iudáh & his portiō of his inheritāce, Ioſh. 19.9

26 ¶There is none like God, ô righteous people, which rideth vpon the heauens for thine helpe, & on ỹ cloudes in his glorie.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and vnder his armes thou arte for euer: he ſhal caſt out the enemie before thee, and wil ſay, Deſtroy them.

u Who was plentiful in iſſue as a fountaine.

28 Thē Iſraél u the fōuteine of Iaakób ſhal dwel alone in ſafety in a land of wheat & wine: alſo his heauēs ſhal drop the dewe.

29 Bleſſed art thou, ô Iſraél: who is like vnto thee, ô people ſaued by the Lord, ỹ ſhylde of thine helpe, & which is ỹ ſworde of thy glorie? therefore x thine enemies ſhalbe in ſubiection to thee, & thou ſhalt tread vpō their hie places.

x Thine enemies for feare ſhal lie & fayne to be in ſubiection.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 Moſés ſeeth all the land of Canáan. 5 He dyeth. 8 Iſraél wepeth 9 Ioſhúa ſuccedeth in Moſés rowme. 10 The praiſe of Moſés.

1 THen Moſés went from the plaine of Moáb vp into mount [a] Nebó vnto the top of Piſgáh that is ouer againſt Ieríchó: and the Lord ſhewed him *all the lād of Gileád, vnto Dan,

2 And all Naphtalí and the land of Ephraim and Manaſſéh, and all the land of Iudáh, vnto the vtmoſt [b] ſea:

3 And the South, and the plaine of the valley of Ieríchó, the citie of palmetrees, vnto Zoár.

4 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, * This is ỹ land which I ſware vnto Abrahám, to Izhák & to Iaakób, ſaying, I wil giue it vnto thy ſede: I haue cauſed thee to ſe it with thine eyes, but ỹ ſhalt not go ouer thither.

5 So Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord dyed there in the land of Moáb, according to ỹ worde of the Lord.

6 And [c] he buryed hī in a valley in ỹ lād of Moáb ouer againſt Beth-peór, but no mā knoweth of his ſepulchre vnto [d] this day.

7 Moſés was now an hūdreth & twēty yere olde whē he dyed: his eye was not dimme, nor his natural force abated.

8 And the children of Iſraél wept for Moſés in the plaine of Moáb thirty dayes: ſo the dayes of weping and mourning for Moſés were ended.

9 And [e] Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun was ful of the ſpirit of wiſdome: for Moſés had put his hands vpon him. And the children of Iſraél were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lord had commanded Moſés.

10 But there aroſe not a Prophet ſince in Iſraél like vnto Moſés (whome the Lord knewe [f] face to face)

11 In all the miracles and wonders which the Lord ſent him to do in the land of Egypt before Pharaóh and before all his ſeruants, and before all his land, 12 And in all that mighty [g] hand and all that great feare, which Moſés wroght in the ſight of all Iſraél.

a Which was a parte of mount Abarim, Nomb. 27,12. Chap. 3,27. 2. mac. 2,4.

b Called, Mediterraneum.

Gen. 12,7. & 13,15.

c To wit, the Angel of the Lord, Iude 9.

d That the Iewes might not haue occaſion thereby to cōmit idolatrie.

e Hereby appeareth the ſauour of God that leaueth not his Churche deſtitute of a gouernour.

f Vnto whome the Lord did reueile him ſelfe ſo plainely.

g Meaning, the power of God working by Moſés in the wildernes.

THE BOKE OF IOSHVA.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this boke the holy Goſt ſetteth moſte liuely before our eyes the accompliſhement of Gods promes, who as he promiſed by the mouthe of Moſes, that a Prophet ſhulde be raiſed vp vnto the people like vnto him, whome he willeth to obey, Deut. 18,15: ſo he ſheweth him ſelfe here true in his promes, as at all other times, and after the deathe of Moſes his faithful ſeruant, he raiſeth vp Ioſhúa to be ruler and gouernour ouer his people, that nether they ſhulde be diſcouraged for lacke of a captaine, nor haue occaſion to diſtruſt Gods promiſes hereafter. And becauſe that Ioſhúa might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people alſo might haue none occaſion to grudge, as though he were not approued of God: he is adorned with moſte excellent gifies and graces of God, bothe to gouerne the people with counſel, and to defend them with ſtrength, that he lacked nothing which ether belonged to a valiant captaine or a faithful miniſter. So he ouercometh all difficulties and bringeth them in to the land of Canáan: the which according to Gods ordinance he deuideth among the people & appointeth their borders: he eſtabliſheth lawes and ordinances, and putteth them in remembrāce of Gods manifolde benefites, aſſuring them of his grace and fauour, if they obey God, and contrariewiſe of his plagues and vengeance, if they diſobey him. This hiſtorie doeth repreſent Ieſus Chriſt the true Ioſhúa, who leadeth vs into eternal felicitie, which is ſignified vnto vs by this land of Canáan. From the beginning of the Geneſis to the end of this boke are conteined 2597 yeres. For from Adám vnto the flood are 1656. from the flood vnto the departure of Abrahám out of Caldea, 363. and from thence to the death of Ioſeph 290. So that the Geneſis conteineth 2390. Exodus 140. the other thre bokes of Moſes 40. Ioſhúa 27. So the whole maketh 2597 yeres.

CHAP. I.

1 The Lord incourageth Ioſhúa to inuade the lād. 4 The borders and limites of the lād of the Iſraelites. 5 The Lord promiſeth to aſſiſt Ioſhua, if he obey his worde. 11 Ioſhúa commandeth the people to prepare thē ſelues to paſſe ouer Iordén. 12 And exhorteth the Reubenites to execute their charge a The beginning of this boke dependeth on the laſt chap. of Deut. which was written by Ioſhúa as a preparatiō to his hiſtorie.

NOw after ỹ [a] death of Moſés the ſeruāt of the Lord, ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, Moſés miniſter, ſaying,

2 Moſés my ſeruāt is dead: now therefore ariſe, go ouer this Iordén, thou, and all this people, vnto the land which I giue them, that is, to the children of Iſraél.

3 *Euerie place that the ſole of your fote ſhal tread vpon, haue I giuē you, as I ſaid vnto Moſés. Chap. 14,9.

4 * Frō the [b] wildernes and this Lebanón euen vnto ỹ great Riuer, the riuer Peráth: all the land of the [c] Hittites, euen vnto the great [d] ſea toward the going downe of the ſunne, ſhal be your coaſt. Deut. 11,24.

5 There ſhal not a man be able to withſtād thee all the dayes of thy life: as I was with Moſés, ſo wil I be with thee: * I wil not leaue thee, nor forſake thee. Ebr. 13,5.

b Of Zin, called Kadéſh & Paran.

c Or, Euphrates.

d Meaning the whole land of Canáan.

e Called, Mediterraneum.

6 Be

6 Be ſtrong and of a good courage: for vnto this people ſhalt thou deuide the land for an inheritance, which I ſwaie vnto their fathers to giue them.

*Or, greue ſtr. & be 7 ger & ſtraiger

7 Onely be thou ſtrong, *and of a moſte valiant courage, that thou maieſt obſerue and do according to all the Lawe which Moſés my ſeruant hathe commãded thee: *thou ſhalt not turne away from it to the right hãd, nor to the left, that thou maieſt

*Deut 5,32.

c He ſheweth wherein conſiſteth true proſperitie, euen to obey the worde of God ſ Shewig that it was not poſſible to gouerne wel without cõtinual ſtudie of Gods worde c proſper whethersoeuer thou goeſt.

8 Let not this boke of the Lawe departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and f night, that thou maieſt obſerue & do according to all that is written therein: for then ſhalt thou make thy way proſperous, & then ſhalt thou g haue good ſucceſſe.

*Or, ſtudie.

*Or, gouernor wiſely.

9 Haue not I commanded thee, ſaying, Be ſtrong and of a good courage, feare not nor be diſcouraged: for I the Lord thy God wilbe with thee, whethersoeuer thou goeſt.

10 ¶ Then Ioſhúa commanded the officers of the people, ſaying, 11 Paſſe through the hoſte, and commande the people, ſaying, Prepare you vitailes: for g after thre daies ye ſhal paſſe ouer this Iordén, to go in to poſſeſſe the land, which the Lord your God giueth you to poſſeſſe it.

g Meaning frõ the day ỹ this was proclaimed.

12 ¶ And vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh ſpake Ioſhúa, ſaying, 13 *Remember the worde, which Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord commãded you, ſaying, The Lord your God hathe giuen you reſt, and hathe giuen you this h land.

*Numb 32,20.

h Which belonged to Sihón the King of the Amorites, & Og King of Bashan

14 ¶ Your wiues, your childrẽ, & your cattel ſhal remaine in the land which Moſés gaue you on i this ſide Iordén: but ye ſhal go ouer before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, & ſhal helpe them,

*Or, beyonde Iordan ſrõ Iericho

15 Vntil the Lord haue giuen your brethrẽ reſt, aſwel as to you, & vntil they alſo ſhal poſſeſſe the land, which k the Lord your God giueth them: then ſhal ye returne vnto the land of your poſſeſſion and ſhal poſſeſſe it, which land Moſés the Lords ſeruant l gaue you on this ſide Iordén towarde the ſunne riſing.

i By your requeſt, but yet by Gods ſecret appointemẽt, Deut 33,21

16 Then they anſwered Ioſhúa, ſaying, All that thou haſt commanded vs, we wil do, and whithersoeuer thou ſendeſt vs, we wil go.

k The do not onely promiſe to obey him ſo lõg as God is w him, but to helpe to punish all that rebelle against him.

17 As we obeyed Moſés in all things, k ſo wil we obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee as he was with Moſés.

18 Whoſoeuer ſhal rebelle againſt thy cõmandement, and wil not obey thy wordes in all that thou commandeſt him, let him be put to death: onely be ſtrõg & of good courage.

CHAP. II.

1 Ioſh. ſendeth mẽ to ſpie Iericho, whome Raháb hideth. 11 She confeſſeth the God of Iſraél 12 She requireth a ſigne for her deliuerance 21 The ſpies returne to Ioſhua with comfortable tidings.

1 THen Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun ſent out of a Shittím two men to ſpie ſecretly, ſaying, Go, vewe the land, and alſo Iericó: and they went, and *came into an b harlots houſe, named Raháb, and lodged there.

a Which place was in the plaine of Moáb nere vnto Iordén.

Ebr 11,31. Iam 2,25.

*Or, tauerne or houſe, or hoſtes.

2 Then reporte was made to the King of Iericho, ſaying, Beholde, there came men hether to night, of the children of Iſraél, to ſpie out the countrey.

3 And the King of Iericó ſent vnto Raháb, ſaying, b Bring forthe the mẽ that are come to thee, and w are entred into thine houſe: for they be come to ſearche out all the land.

b Thogh the wicked ſe the hand of God vpon them, yet they repẽt not, but ſeke how they may by their power reſiſt his meanes.

4 (But the woman had taken the two men and hid them) Therefore ſaid ſhe thus, There came men vnto me, but I wiſt not whence they were.

5 And whẽ they ſhut the gate in the darcke, the men went out, whether the men went I wote not: followe ye after thẽ quickely, for ye ſhal ouertake them.

6 (But ſhe had broght thẽ vp to the c roofe of the houſe, & hyd them with the ſtalkes of flaxe, which ſhe had ſpread abroade vpon the roofe)

c Meaning, vpon the houſes for then their houſes were flat aboue, ſo ỹ they might do their buſines thereupõ.

7 And certeine men purſued after them, the way to Iordén, vnto the fourdes, and aſſone as they which purſued after them, were gone out, they ſhut the gate.

8 ¶ And before they were aſlepe, ſhe came vp vnto them vpon the roofe, 9 And ſaid vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hathe giuen you the land, and that the d feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint becauſe of you.

d For ſo God promiſed, Deut 28,7 chap. 5,1.

10 For we haue heard, how the Lord *dryed vp the water of the read Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two Kings of the Amorites, that were on the other ſide Iordén, vnto *Sihón and to Og, whome ye vtterly deſtroyed:

*Exod. 14,22.

*Numb 21,24.

11 And when we hearde it, our heartes *did faint, and there remained no more *courage in anie becauſe of you: for e the Lord your God, he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneth.

*Or, melted.

*Or, ſpirit

e Herein appeareth the great mercie of God, ỹ in this commune deſtruction he wolde drawe a moſte miſerable ſinner to repẽt & confeſſe his Name.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, ſweare vnto me by the Lord, that as I haue ſhewed you mercie, ye wil alſo ſhewe mercie vnto my fathers houſe, and giue me a true token,

13 And that ye wil ſaue aliue my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my ſiſters, and all that they haue: & that ye wil deliuer our [f] soules from death.

[f] Or, liues.

[f] We warrant you on peine of our liues.

14 And the mē answered her, [f] Our life for you to dye, if ye vttei not this our busines: and when the Lord hathe giuen vs the land, we wil deale mercifully and truely with thee.

15 Then she let them downe by a corde through the windowe: for her house was vpon the towne wall, and she dwelt vpon the wall.

16 And she said vnto them, Go you into the [g] mountaine, lest the pursuers mete with you, & hyde your selues there thie daies, vntil the pursuers be returned: thē afterward may ye go your way.

[g] Which was nere vnto the citie.

[h] We shal be discharged of our othe, if ỹ doest performe this condicion that foloweth: for so shalt ỹ & thine be deliuered.

17 And the men said vnto her, [h] We wil be blameles of this thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare.

18 Beholde, when we come into the land, thou shalt binde this corde of red threde in the windowe, whereby thou letteſt vs downe, and thou shalt bring thy father & thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy fathers housholde home to thee.

19 And whosoeuer then doeth go out at the dores of thine house into the ſtreat, [i] his blood shal be vpon his head, and we wil be gylteles: but whosoeuer shal be with thee in the house, his blood shalbe on our head, if anie hand touche him:

[i] He shal be giltie of his owne death.

[k] So ỹ others shulde thinke to escape by the same meanes.

20 And if thou vtter this our [k] matter, we wil be quit of thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare.

21 And she answered, Accordīg vnto your wordes so be it: then she sent them away, and they departed, and she bounde the [l] red corde in the windowe.

[l] Or, scarlet coulored.

22 ¶ And they departed, and came into the mountaine, & there abode thre daies, vntil the pursuers were returned: & the pursuers soght them throughout all the way, but founde them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, & passed [l] ouer, and came to Ioshúa the sonne of Nun, & tolde him all things that came vnto them.

[l] To wit, the riuer Iordén.

24 Also they said vnto Ioshúa, Surely the Lord hathe deliuered into our hands all the land: for euē all the inhabitants of the countrey faint becaus of vs.

CHAP. III.

3 Ioshúa commandeth them to departe whē the Arke remoueth. 7 The Lord promiseth to exalt Ioshúa before the people. 9 Ioshuas exhortacion to the people. 16 The waters parte asunder whiles the people passe.

1 THen Ioshúa rose verie early, & they [a] remoued from Shittím, and came to Iordén, he, & all the children of Israél, & lodged there, before they went ouer.

[a] Which according to the Ebrewes was in Marche, and about 40 daies after Moses death.

2 And after [b] thre daies the officers went throughout the hoste,

[b] Which time was giuen for to prepare thē vitailes, Chap. 1, 11.

3 And commāded the people, saying, Whē ye se ỹ Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Leuites bearing it, ye shal departe from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shalbe a space betwene you & it, about [a] two thousand cubites by measure: ye shal not come nere vnto it, that ye may knowe the way, by the which ye shal go: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

[a] Or, a myle.

5 (Now Ioshúa had said vnto the people, * Sanctifie your selues: for tomorowe the Lord wil do wonders among you)

Leui. 20, 7. nomb. 11, 18.

6 Also Ioshúa spake vnto the Priests, saying, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, and go ouer before the people: so thei toke vp the Arke of the couenant, and went before the people.

1. sam 16, 5. chap 7, 13.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Ioshúa, This day wil I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israél, which shal knowe, that * as I was with Moses, so wil I be with thee.

Chap. 1, 5.

8 Thou shalt therefore cōmāde the Priests that beare thē Arke of the couenant, saying, When ye are come to the brinke of the waters of Iordén, ye shal stand stil [c] in Iordén.

[c] Euen in the chanel, where ỹ streame had runne, as vers. 17

9 ¶ Then Ioshúa said vnto the children of Israél, Come hether, and heare the wordes of the Lord your God.

10 And Ioshúa said, [d] Hereby ye shal knowe that the liuing God is among you, & that he wil certeinly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hiuites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergashites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

[d] By this miracle in deuiding ỹ water.

11 Beholde, the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of all the worlde passeth before you into Iordén.

12 Now therefore take from among you [e] twelue men out of the tribes of Israél, out of euerie tribe a man.

[e] Which shulde set vp twelue stones in remembrance of the benefite.

13 And assone as the soles of the fete of the Priests (that beare the Arke of the Lord God the Lord of all the worlde) shal stay in the waters of Iordén, the waters of Iordén shalbe cut of: for the waters that come from aboue, * shal stand stil vpon an heape.

Psal. 114, 3.

14 ¶ Then when the people were departed from their tentes to go ouer Iordén, the Priests bearing the * Arke of the couenāt, went before the people.

Act 7, 45.

15 And as thei that bare the Arke came vnto Iordén, and the fete of the Priests that bare the Arke were dipped in the brinke of the water, (* for Iordén vseth to fil all his [f] bankes all the time of harueſt)

Eccl 24, 36.

[f] Because the riuer was accustomed at this time to be ful, the miracle is so muche ỹ greater.

16 Then the waters that came downe from aboue, stayed and rose vpon an heape and departed far frō the citie of Adám, ỹ was beside Zaretán: but the waters that came downe downe towarde the Sea of the wildernes, euen the ſalt Sea, ſailed, and were cut of: ſo ỹ people went right ouer againſt Ierichó.

17 But the Prieſts that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, ſtode drye within Iordén s ready prepared, and all the Iſraelites went ouer drye, vntil all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iordén.

s Ether tarying til the people were paſt, or, as ſome read, ſure, as though they had bene vpõ ane drye land

CHAP. IIII.

God cõmãded Ioſh a to ſet vp twelue ſtones in Iordén. 18 The waters returne to their olde courſe. 20 Other twelue ſtones are ſet vp in Gilgál. 21 This miracle muſt be declared to the poſteritie.

1 AND when all the people were wholly gone * ouer Iordén, (after the Lord had ſpoken vnto Ioſhúa, ſaying,

Deut.27.2.

2 Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euerie tribe a man,

3 And commande you them, ſaying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordén, out of the place where the Prieſts ſtode in a a readines, twelue ſtones, which ye ſhal take away with you, and leaue them in the b lodging, where you ſhal lodge this night)

a As Chap 3. 17

b Meaning, ỹ place where they ſhulde campe.

4 Then Ioſhúa called the twelue mẽ, whome he had prepared of the children of Iſraél, out of euerie tribe a man,

5 And Ioſhúa ſaid vnto them, Go ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euẽ through the middes of Iordén, & take vp euerie man of you a ſtone vpõ his ſhulder according vnto the nomber of the tribes of the children of Iſraél,

6 That this may be a ſigne among you, that when your c children ſhal aſke their fathers in time to come, ſaying, What meane you by theſe ſtones?

c God cõmãdeth, that not only we our ſelues profit by his wonderful workes, but that our poſteritie may knowe ỹ cauſe thereof & glorifie his Name.

7 Then ye may anſwer them, That the waters of Iordén were cut of before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord: for whẽ it paſſed through Iordén, the waters of Iordén were cut of: therefore theſe ſtones are a memorial vnto the children of Iſraél for euer.

8 Then the children of Iſraél did euẽ ſo, as Ioſhúa had cõmanded, & toke vp twelue ſtones out of the middes of Iordén, as the Lord had ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, according to the nõber of the tribes of the children of Iſraél, & caried thẽ away with them vnto the lodging, and layed them downe there.

d Beſides the twelue ſtones which were caried by the tribes and ſet vp in Gilgál

9 And Ioſhúa ſet vp d twelue ſtones in the middes of Iordén, in the place where the fete of the Prieſts, which bare the Arke of the couenant, ſtode, and there haue they continued vnto this day.

10 ¶ So the Prieſts, ẅ bare the Arke, ſtode in the middes of Iordén, vntil euerie thing was finiſhed that the Lord had cõmanded Ioſhúa to ſay vnto the people, according to all that Moſés charged Ioſhúa: then the people haſted and went ouer.

11 When all the people were cleane paſſed ouer, the Arke of the Lord went ouer alſo, and the Prieſts e before the people.

e Meaning, in the preſence or ſight of the people

12 * And the ſonnes of Reubén, & the ſonnes of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh went ouer before the children of Iſraél armed, as Moſés had charged them.

Numb 32.25.

13 Euen fourty thouſand prepared for warre, went before the f Lord vnto battel, into the plaine of Ierichó.

f That is, the Arke

14 That day the Lord magnified Ioſhúa in the ſight of all Iſraél, & they g feared him, as they feared Moſés all dayes of his life.

g Or, reuerenced him.

15 And the Lord ſpake vnto Ioſhúa, ſaying,

16 Commande the Prieſts that beare the g Arke of the Teſtimonie, to come vp out of Iordén.

g Becauſe the Arke teſtified Gods preſence, and the tables of the Law cõteined therein, ſignified Gods will toward his people.

17 Ioſhúa therefore cõmanded the Prieſts, ſaying, Come ye vp out of Iordén.

18 And when the Prieſts that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord were come vp out of the middes of Iordén, and aſſone as ỹ ſoles of the Prieſts fete were ſet on the drye land, the waters of Iordén returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bankes thereof, as they did before.

19 ¶ So the people came vp out of Iordén the tenth day of the h firſt moneth, and pitched in Gilgál, in the Eaſtſide of Ierichó.

h Called Abib or Niſán, conteining parte of Marche, and parte of April.

20 Alſo the twelue ſtones, which they toke out of Iordén, did Ioſhúa pitche ĩ Gilgál.

21 And he ſpake vnto the children of Iſraél ſaying, When your children ſhal aſke their fathers in time to come, and ſay, What meane theſe ſtones?

22 Thẽ ye ſhal ſhewe your childrẽ, and ſay, Iſraél came ouer this Iordén on drye lãd:

23 For ỹ Lord your God dryed vp the waters of Iordén before you, vntil ye were gone ouer, as the Lord your God did the red Sea, * which he dryed vp before vs, til we were gone ouer,

Exod.14.21.

24 That all the people of the i world may know that the hãd of the Lord is mightie, that ye might feare the Lord your God continually.

i Gods benefits ſerue for a forther condemnation to the wicked & ſtirre vp his to reuerence him, and obey him.

CHAP. V.

1 The Canaanites are afraide of the Iſraelites 2 Circumciſion is commanded the ſeconde time. 10 The Paſſeouer is kept. 12 Manna ceaſeth. 13 The Angel appeareth vnto Ioſhúa.

1 NOw whẽ all ỹ Kings of the a Amorites, which were beyonde Iordén Weſtward, and all the Kings of the Canaanites, which were by ỹ Sea, heard that the Lord had dryed vp ỹ waters of Iordén before the childrẽ of Iſraél vntil they were gone ouer, their heart fainted: and there was no courage in them anie more becauſe of the children of Iſraél.

a The Amorites were on bothe ſides Iordén, where of two Kings were ſlaine already on the ſide toward Moáb b For now they had left it about 40 yeres.

Exod.4.23.

2 ¶ That ſame time ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, * Make thee ſh returne, and circumciſe the ſonnes of Iſraél the ſecond time.

3 Then Ioſhúa made him ſharpe knyues & circumciſed the ſonnes of Iſraél in [c] the hil of the foreſkinnes.

[c] Gilgál was ſo called, becauſe they were there circumciſed.

4 And this is the cauſe why Ioſhúa circúciſed all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt, becauſe all the men of warre were dead in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out were circumciſed: but all the people that were borne in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt, were [d] not circúciſed.

[d] For they loked daily to remoue or the Lords cõmandement which thing they ỹ were newe circúciſed, colde not do without great danger

6 For the children of Iſraél walked fourty yeres in the wildernes, til all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were conſumed, becauſe they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whome the Lord ſware, that he wolde not ſhewe thẽ the land, * which the Lord had ſworne vnto their fathers, that he wolde giue vs, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.

Nom.14,23.

7 So their ſonnes whome he raiſed vp in their ſteade, Ioſhúa circumciſed: for they were vncircúciſed, becauſe they circumciſed them not by the way.

8 And when they had made an end of circúciſing all the people, they abode in the places in the cãpe til they [e] were whole.

[e] For their ſore was ſo grieuous, that they were not able to remoue

9 After, the Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, This day I haue taken away the [f] ſhame of Egypt from you: wherefore he called the name of that place Gilgál, vnto this day.

[f] By bringing you into this promiſed land cõtrary to the wicked opiniõ of the Egyptians or the foreſkin, whereby you were like to the Egyptians.

10 ¶So the childrẽ of Iſraél abode in Gilgál, and kept the feaſt of the Paſſoeuer the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen in the plaine of Ierichó.

11 And they did eat of the corne of the lãd, on the morow after the Paſſeouer, vnleauened bread, and parched corne in the ſame day.

12 And the MAN ceaſed on the morowe after they had eaten of the corne of the land, nether had the children of Iſraél MAN anie more, but did eat of the fruite of the land of Canáan that yere.

13 ¶And when Ioſhúa was by Ierichó, he lift vp his eyes and loked: and beholde, there ſtode a * man againſt him, hauing a ſworde drawen in his hand: and Ioſhúa went vnto him, & ſaid vnto him, Art thou on our ſide, or on our aduerſaries?

Exod.23,23.

14 And he ſaid, Nay, but as a captaine of the hoſte of the Lord am I now come: thẽ Ioſhúa fel on his face to the earth, and [g] did worſhip, and ſaid vnto him, What ſaith my Lord vnto his ſeruant?

[g] In that that Ioſhúa worſhipeth him, he acknollageth him to be God: & in that that he calleth him ſelfe ỹ Lords captaine, he declareth him ſelfe to be Chriſt.

15 And the captaine of the Lords hoſte ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, * Loſe thy ſhooe of thy fote: for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt, is holy: and Ioſhúa did ſo.

Exod.3,5. ruth 4,7. act.7,33.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Lord inſtructeth Ioſhúa what he ſhulde do, as touching Ierichó. 6 Ioſhúa commandeth the Prieſts and warriers what to do. 20 The walles fall. 22 Raháb is ſaued. 24 All is burnt ſaue golde and metal. 26 The curſe of him that buyldeth the citie.

1 NOw Ierichó was [a] ſhut vp, & [b] cloſed, [c] becauſe of the children of Iſraél. none might go out nor entre in.

[a] That noone colde go out.
[b] That none colde come in.
[c] For feare of the Iſraelites.

2 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, Beholde, I haue giuen into thine hand Ierichó and the King thereof, and the ſtrong men of warre.

3 All ye therefore that be men of warre, ſhal compaſſe the citie, in going round about ỹ citie [d] once: thus ſhal you do ſix dayes:

[d] Euerie day.

4 And ſeuen Prieſts ſhal beare ſeuen trompets of [e] rams hornes before the Arke: & the ſeuenth day ye ſhal compaſſe the citie ſeuen times, and the Prieſts ſhal blowe with the trompets.

[e] That the cõqueſt might not be aſſigned to mãs power, but to ỹ mercie of God, which ỹ moſt weake things can ouercome that, which ſemeth moſte ſtrong.

5 And when they make a lõg blaſt with the rams horne, & ye heare the ſounde of the trompet, all the people ſhal ſhoute with a great ſhoute: then ſhal the wall of the citie fall downe flat, and the people ſhal aſcend vp, euerie man ſtreight before him.

6 ¶Then Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun called the Prieſts & ſaid vnto them, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, & let ſeuen Prieſts beare ſeuen trompets of rams hornes before the Arke of the Lord.

7 But he ſaid vnto the people, [f] Go and compaſſe the citie: and let him that is armed, go forthe before ỹ Arke of the Lord.

[f] This is chiefely ment by the Reubenites Gadites, & halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh.

8 ¶And when Ioſhúa had ſpoken vnto the people, the ſeuen Prieſts bare the ſeuen trompets of rams hornes, and went forthe before the Arke of the Lord, and blewe with the trõpets, and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶And the men of armes wẽt before the Prieſts, that blewe the trompets: then the [g] gathering hoſte came after the Arke, as they went and blewe the trompets.

[g] Meaning the rerewarde, wherein was ỹ ſtãderd of the tribe of Dan, Nomb 10,25.

10 (Now Ioſhúa had commãded the people, ſaying, Ye ſhal not ſhoute, nether make anie noyſe with your voice, nether ſhal a worde procede out of your mouth, vntil the day that I ſay vnto you, Shoute, then ſhal ye ſhoute)

11 So the Arke of the Lord compaſſed the citie, and went aboute it [h] once: then they returned into the hoſte, and lodged in the campe.

[h] For that day

12 And Ioſhúa roſe early in the morning, & the Prieſts bare the Arke of the Lord:

13 Alſo ſeuen Prieſts baie ſeuen trompets of rams hornes, and went before the Arke of the Lord, and going blewe with the trompets: and the men of armes went before them, but the [i] gathering hoſte came after after the Arke of the Lord, as they went and blewe the trompets.

[i] The tribe of Dã was ſo called, becauſe it marched laſt, and gathered vp whatſoeuer was left of others.

14 And the ſecond day thei compaſſed the citie once, and returned into the hoſte: thus they did ſix dayes.

15 And when the ſeuẽth day came, they roſe early, euẽ with the dawning of the day, and compaſſed the citie after the ſame maner [k] ſeuen times. onely that day they compaſſed the citie ſeuen times.

k Beſides euerie day once for the ſpace of ſix dayes

16 And when the Prieſts had blowen the trompets the ſeuẽth time, Ioſhúa ſaid vnto the people, Shoute: for the Lord hathe giuen you the citie.

17 And ẏ citie ſhalbe [l] an execrable thing, bothe it, and all that are therein, vnto the Lord: onely Raháb the harlot ſhal liue, ſhe, and all that are with her in the houſe: for ſhe* hid the meſſengers that we ſent.

l That is, appointed wholly to be deſtroyed

Chap.2,4.

18 Notwithſtãding be ye ware of the execrable thing, leſt ye make your ſelues execrable, & in taking of the execrable thing, make alſo the hoſte of Iſraél * execrable, and trouble it.

Leu.27,21. nom 21,2. deut 13 15.

19 But all ſiluer, and golde, and veſſels of braſſe, and yron ſhalbe [m] conſecrate vnto the Lord, and ſhal come into the Lords treaſurie.

m And therefore cã not be put to anie priuate vſe, but muſt be firſt molten, & then ſerue for the Tabernacle 20 So the people ſhouted, when they had blowen trompets: for whẽ the people had heard the ſounde of the trompet, they ſhouted with a great ſhoute: and the[y] wall fel downe flat: ſo the people went vp into the citie, euerie man ſtreight before him: * and they toke the citie.

Ebr.11,30.

6.Moſe,12,15.

21 And they vtterly deſtroyed all that was in the citie, bothe man and woman, yong, and olde, and oxe, and ſhepe, and aſſe, with the edge of the ſworde.

22 But Ioſhúa had ſaid vnto the two men that had ſpied out the countrey, Go into the harlots houſe, and bring out thence the woman, and all that ſhe hathe, * as ye ſware to her.

Chap 2,14. ebr 11,31.

23 So the yong men that were ſpies,* went in, and broght out Raháb, and her father and her mother, and her b[r]ethren, and all that ſhe had: alſo they broght out all her familie, and put them [n] without the hoſte of Iſraél.

n For it was not lauful for ſtrangers to dwel among ẏ Iſraelites, til they were purged 24 After they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein. onely the ſiluer and the golde, and the veſſels of braſſe and yron, they put vnto the treaſure of the [o] houſe of the Lord.

o Meaning, ẏ Tabernacle

25 So Ioſhúa ſaued Raháb the harlot, and her fathers houſholde, & all that ſhe had, & ſhe [p] dwelt in Iſraél euẽ vnto this day, becauſe ſhe had hid the meſſengers, which Ioſhúa ſent to ſpie out Ierichó.

p For ſhe was maried to Salmón, prince of the tribe of Iudáh, Mat 1,5 26 ¶ And Ioſhúa ſware at ẏ time, ſaying, Curſed be the man before the Lord, that riſeth vp, and buyldeth this citie Ierichó: [q] he ſhal lay the fundacion thereof in his eldeſt ſonne, & in his yõgeſt ſonne ſhal he ſet vp the gates of it.

q He ſhal build it to the deſtruction of all his ſtocke, ẅ thing was fulfilled in Hiél of Beth él, 1 King 16,34.

27 So the Lord was with Ioſhũa, and he was famous through all the worlde.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Lord is angry with Achán. 4 They of Aí put the Iſraelites to flight. 6 Ioſhúa prayeth to the Lord. 16 Ioſhúa inquireth out him that ſinned, and ſtoneth him & all his.

1 BVt the children of Iſraél committed a treſpaſſe in the [a] excommunicate thing: for *Achán the ſonne of Carmí, the ſonne of Zabdí, the ſonne of Zérah of ẏ tribe of Iudáh toke of the excõmunicate thing: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled againſt the children of Iſraél.

a In taking ẏ ẅ was cõmanded to be deſtroied Chap 22,20. 1 chro 2,7.

2 And Ioſhúa ſent men from Ierichó to [b] Aí, which is beſide Bethauẽn, on the Eaſt ſide of Beth-él, and ſpake vnto them, ſaying, Go vp, and vewe the countrey. And the men went vp, and vewed Aí, b This was a citie of the Amorites for there was another ſo called among the Ammonites, Iere 49,3 The firſt Ai is called Aiath, Iſa 10,28

3 And returned to Ioſhúa, and ſaid vnto hĩ, Let not all ẏ people go vp, but let as it were two or thre thouſand mẽ go vp, & ſmite Aí, and make not all the people to labour thether, for they are fewe.

4 So there went vp thether of the people about thre thouſand men, & they fled before the men of Aí.

5 And the [c] men of Aí ſmote of them vpon a thirtie and ſix men: for they chaſed them from before the gate vnto Shebarím, and ſmote them in the going downe: wherefore the heartes of the people melted away like water.

c God wolde by this ouerthrowe make thẽ more earneſt to ſearch out and puniſh the ſinne committed.

6 ¶ Then Ioſhúa rent his clothes, and fel to the earth vpon his face before the Arke of the Lord, vntil the euentide, he, and the Elders of Iſraél, and put duſt vpon their heades.

7 And Ioſhúa ſaid, Alas, ô Lord God, wherefore haſt thou broght this people ouer Iordén, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs? wolde God we had bene contẽt to dwel on the [d] other ſide Iordén.

d This infirmitie of his faith ſheweth how we are inclined of nature to diſtruſt

8 Oh Lord, what ſhal I ſay, whẽ Iſraél turne their backes before their enemies?

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land ſhal heare of it, and ſhal compaſſe vs, and deſtroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou do vnto thy mightie [e] Name?

e When thine enemies ſhal blaſpheme thee, & ſay, ẏ thou waſt not able to defende vs from them.

10 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, Get thee vp. wherefore lieſt thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Iſraél hathe ſinned, and they haue tranſgreſſed my couenant, which I commãded them. for thei haue euẽ taken of the excõmunicate thing, and haue alſo ſtollen, and diſſembled alſo, & haue put it euen with their owne ſtuffe.

12 Therefore the childrē of Iſraél can not ſtande before their enemies, but haue turned their backes before their enemies, becauſe they be execrable: neither wil I be with you anie more, except ye [f] deſtroy the excommunicate from among you.

f Then, to ſuffre wickednes vnpuniſhed is, to refuſe God willingly 13 Vp therefore, ſanctifie the people, and ſay, Sāctifie your ſelues against tomorowe. for thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, There is an execrable thing among you, ô Iſraél, therefore ye can not ſtand againſt your enemies, vntil ye haue put the [g] execrable thing from among you.

g Meaning the man that toke of the thing forbidden.

14 In the morning therefore ye ſhal come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, ſhal come according to the families: & the familie which the Lord ſhal take, ſhal come by the houſholds: & the houſholde which the Lord ſhal take, ſhal come man by man.

h That is, foūde gyltie, either by lottes, or by the iudgement of Vrim, Nomb 27,21.

15 And he that is [h] taken with the excommunicate thing, ſhalbe burnt with fire, he, & all that he hathe, becauſe he hathe trāſgreſſed the couenant of the Lord, and becauſe he hathe wroght foly in Iſrael.

16 ¶So Ioſhúa roſe vp early in ỹ morning & broght Iſraél by their tribes: & the tribe of Iudah was taken.

17 And he broght the families of Iudáh, & toke the familie of the Zarhites, and he broght the familie of the Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdí was taken.

18 And he broght his houſholde, man by man, and Achan the ſonne of Carmí, the ſonne of Zabdí, the ſonne of Zérah of the tribe of Iudáh was taken.

19 Then Ioſhúa ſaid vnto Achán, My ſonne I beſeche thee, giue glorie to the Lord God of Iſraél, and [i] make confeſſion vnto him, and ſhewme now what thou haſt done: hide it not from me.

i By declaring the trueth for God is glorified when the trueth is confeſſed 20 And Achán anſwered Ioſhúa, and ſaid, In dede, I haue ſinned againſt the Lord God of Iſraél, and thus, and thus haue I done.

k Suche a riche garmēt as the kings of Babylon did weare

21 I ſawe among the ſpoyle a goodly [k] Babyloniſh garmēt, & two hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer, and a wedge of golde of fyfte ſhekels weight, and I coueted them, and toke them: and beholde, they lye hid in the earth in the middes of my tent, & the ſiluer vnder it.

*Or, nrarwe

l Some read, a plate others, a rod, and ſome a tongue m This iudgement onely appertaineth to God, and to whome he wil reuele it to man ne hathe cōmanded not to punishe the childe for the fathers faute, Deut. 24,16.

22 ¶Then Ioſhúa ſent meſſengers, which ran vnto the tent, and beholde, it was hid in his tent, and the ſiluer vnder it.

23 Therefore they toke them out of the tēt, and broght them vnto Ioſhúa, and vnto all the children of Iſraél, and layed them before the Lord.

24 Then Ioſhúa toke Achán the [l] ſonne of Zérah, and the ſiluer, & the garment and the [l] wedge of golde and his [m] ſonnes, & his daughters, and his oxen, and his aſſes, and his ſhepe, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Iſraél with him broght them vnto the valley of Achór.

25 And Ioſhúa ſaid, [n] In as muche as thou haſt troubled vs, the Lord ſhal trouble thee this day: and all Iſraél threwe ſtones at him, and burned them with fire, & ſtoned them with ſtones.

n He declareth ỹ this is Gods iudgemēt, becauſe he had offended, and cauſed others to be ſlaine.

26 And they caſt vpon him a great heape of ſtones vnto this day: and ſo the Lord turned from his fearce wrath: therefore he called the name of that place, The valley of Achór, vnto this day.

CHAP. VIII.

3 The ſiege, 19 And winning of Aí. 29 The King thereof is hanged. 30 Ioſhúa ſetteth vp an altar. 32 He writeth the Lawe vpon ſtones. 35 And readeth it to all the people.

1 AFter, ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, *Feare not, neither be thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee and ariſe, go vp to Aí: beholde, I haue giuen into thine hād the King of Aí, and his people, and his citie, and his land. *Deut 7.18. & 21,23.

2 And thou ſhalt do to Aí and to the King thereof, as thou didſt vnto *Ierichó and to the King thereof. neuertheles ỹ ſpoyle thereof and *the cattel thereof ſhal ye take vnto you for a pray: thou ſhalt lie in waite againſt the citie on the [a] backſide thereof. *Chap. 6.22. *Deut. 20,14. a Meaning on the Weſtſide, as verſ 9.

3 ¶Then Ioſhúa aroſe, and all the men of warre to go vp againſt Aí: and Ioſhúa choſe out thirtie thouſand ſtrong men, and valiant, and ſent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, ſaying, Beholde, ye [b] ſhal lye in wait againſt the citie on the backſide of the citie: go not very far frō the citie, but be ye all in a readines.

b God wolde not deſtroy Aí by miracle, as Iericho, to the intent that other nations might feare ỹ power & policie of his people.

5 And I and all the people that are with me, wil approche vnto the citie: and when they ſhal come out againſt vs, as they did at the firſt time, then wil we flee before them.

6 For they wil come out after vs, til we haue broght them out of the citie: for they wil ſay, They flee before vs as at the firſt time: ſo we wil flee before them.

7 Then you ſhal riſe vp from lying in wait and [o] deſtroy the citie: for the Lord your God wil deliuer it into your hand.

*Or, haue ayn (the inhabitāts) of the citie.

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye ſhal ſet it on fire: according to the commādement of the Lord ſhal ye do: beholde, I haue charged you.

9 ¶Ioſhúa then ſent them forthe, and they went to lie in wait, and abode betwene Beth-él and Aí, on the Weſtſide of Aí: but Ioſhúa lodged that night [c] among the people.

c With ỹ reſt of the armie.

10 And

10 And Ioſhúa roſe vp early in ỹ morning, and [d] nombred the people: and he and the Elders of Iſraél went vp before the people against Aí.

d That is, vewed them & ſet them in a ray.

11 Alſo all the men of warre that were with him wẽt vp & drue nere, and came againſt the citie, & pitched on the Northſide of Aí: and there was a valley betwene them and Aí.

12 And he toke about fiue thouſand men, [e] & ſet them to lie in wayt betwene Bethél & Aí, on the Weſtſide of the citie.

e He ſent theſe fewe, that the other ỹ lay in ãbuſhe, might not be diſcoue red 13 And the people ſet all the hoſte that was on the Northſide againſt the citie, & the liers in wayte on the Weſt, againſt the citie: & Ioſhúa went the ſame night into ỹ [f] middes of the valley.

f To the intẽt that if ỹ citie might ỹ better diſcouer his aſſaute.

14 ¶ And whe the King of Aí ſawe it, then the men of the citie haſted & roſe vp early, and went out againſt Iſraél to battel, he & all his people at the time appointed, before the plaine: for he knewe not that ame lay in waite againſt him on the backſide of the citie.

15 Then Ioſhúa and all Iſraél [g] as beaten before thẽ, fled by the way of the wildernes.

g As ỹ fained it for feare.

16 And all the people of the citie were called together, to purſue after them: & they purſued after Ioſhúa, and were drawen away out of the citie,

17 So that there was not a man left in Aí, nor in Beth-él, that went not out after Iſraél: and they left the citie open, & purſued after Iſraél.

18 Thẽ the Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, [h] Stretche out the ſpeare that is in thine hand towarde Aí: for I wil giue it into thine hand: and Ioſhúa ſtretched out the ſpeare that he had in his hand, towarde the citie.

h Or, lift vp ỹ ſpeare, to ſignifie when they ſhal inuade ỹ citie.

19 And thei that lay in waite, aroſe quickly out of their place, & ran aſſone as he had ſtretched out his hand, and they entred into the citie, and toke it, and haſted, and ſet the citie on fire.

20 And the men of Aí loked behinde thẽ, & ſawe it: for lo, the ſmoke of the citie aſcended vp [i] to heauen, and they had no [i] power to flee this way or that way: for ỹ people that fled to the wildernes, turned backe vpon the purſuers.

*Or, towarde the heauen Or, place.

21 When Ioſhúa and all Iſraél ſawe that they that lay in wait, had take the citie, & that the ſmoke of the citie mounted vp, then they turned againe and ſlewe the mẽ of Aí.

22 Alſo the [k] other iſſued out of the citie againſt thẽ: ſo were they in the middes of Iſraél, theſe being on ỹ one ſide, & ỹ reſt on ỹ other ſide. & they ſlewe thẽ, ſo that they let none of them [l] remaine nor eſcape.

k Which came out of the ambuſhe.

Deut 7,2.

23 And the King of Aí they toke aliue, & broght him to Ioſhúa.

24 And when Iſraél had made an end of ſlaying all the inhabitãts of Aí in ỹ field, that is, in ỹ wildernes, where they chaſed them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the ſword, vntil they were conſumed, all the Iſraelites returned vnto Aí, & [k] ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde.

k For the fire, ỹ they had before ſet in the citie, was not to conſume it, but to ſignifie vnto Ioſhua ỹ they were entred

25 And all that fel that day, bothe of men and women, were twelue thouſand, euen all the men of Aí.

26 For Ioſhúa drewe not his hand backe againe which he had ſtretched out with the ſpeare, vntil he had vtterly deſtroyed all ỹ inhabitants of Aí.

27 [*] Onely the cattel & the ſpoyle of this citie, Iſraél toke for a pray vnto them ſelues, according vnto the worde of ỹ Lord, which he commanded Ioſhúa.

Nomb. 30,22.

28 And Ioſhúa burnt Aí, and made it an heape for [l] euer, & a wildernes vnto this day.

l That it ſolde neuer be buylt ageine.

29 And ỹ King of Aí he hanged on a tre, vnto the euening. And aſſone as ỹ ſunne was downe, Ioſhúa cõmanded [m] that they ſhulde take his caikeis downe frõ the tre, and caſt it at the entring of the gate of the citie, and [*] lay thereon a great heape of ſtones, that remaineth vnto this day.

m According as it was commanded, Deut 21,23

Chap 7,25.

30 ¶ Then Ioſhúa buylt an altar vnto the Lord God of Iſraél, in mount Ebál, 31 As Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord had commanded the children of Iſraél, as it is written in ỹ [*] boke of the Lawe of Moſés, an altar of whole ſtone, ouer which no mã had lift an yron and they offred thereon burnt offrings vnto the Lord, & ſacrificed peace offrings.

Exod.20,25. deu 27,5.

32 Alſo he wrote there vpon the ſtones, a [n] rehearſal of the Lawe of Moſés, which he wrote in the preſence of the children of Iſraél.

n Meaning the ten commandements, ỹ are the ſumme of ỹ whole Law.

33 And all Iſraél (and their Elders, and officers & their iudges ſtode on this ſide of the Arke, and on that ſide, before the Prieſts of the Leuites, which baie the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) aſwel the ſtranger, as he that is borne in the countrey: halfe of them were ouer againſt mount Gerizím, and halfe of them ouer againſt moũt Ebál, [*] as Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord had commanded before, that they ſhulde bleſſe the people of Iſraél.

Deut.11,29. & 27,12.

34 Then afterward he red all the wordes of the Lawe, the bleſsings and curſings, according to all that is written in the boke of the Lawe.

35 There was not a worde of all that Moſés had commanded, which Ioſhúa red not before all the Congregacion of Iſraél, [o] aſwel before the women and the children, as [p] the ſtranger that was conuerſant among them.

Deut 31,12.

o So neither yong nor olde, man nor wo, mã were excẽpted from hearing ỹ worde of the Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Diuers Kings aſſemble them ſelues againſt Ioſhúa. 3 The craft of the Gibeonites is Ioſhua maketh a league with them 23 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual ſeruitude.

1 AND when all the Kings ſ̄ a were beyond Iordén, in the mountaines & in thé valleis, and by all the coaſtes of the b great Sea ouer againſt Lebanón (as the Hittites, & ſ̄ Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, & the Iebuſites) heard thereof,

2 They gathered them ſelues together, to fight againſt Ioſhúa, & againſt Iſraél with one "accord.

3 ¶ *But the inhabitants of Gibeón heard what Ioſhúa had done vnto Ierichó, and to Aí.

4 And therefore they wroght craftely: for they went, and fained them ſelues embaſſadours and toke olde ſackes vpon their aſſes, and olde bottels for wine, bothe rent & c bounde vp,

5 And olde ſhooes and clouted vpon their fete: alſo the raiment vpon them was olde, & all their prouiſion of bread was dried, & mouled.

6 So they came vnto Ioſhúa into the hoſte to Gilgál, & ſaid vnto him, and vnto the men of Iſraél, We be come from a farre countrey: now therefore make a league with vs.

7 Thē the men of Iſraél ſaid vnto the d Hiuites, It may be that thou dwelleſt among vs, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, We are thy ſeruāts. Then Ioſhúa ſaid vnto thē, Who are ye? & whence come ye?

9 And they anſwered him, From a very far countrey thy ſeruants are come for e the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard: his fame & all that he hathe done in Egypt,

10 And all that he hathe done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordén, to Sihón King of Heſhbón, & to Og King of Baſhán, which were at Aſhtaróth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our coūtrey ſpake to vs, ſaying, Take vitailes "with you for the iourney, & go to mete them, & ſay vnto them, We are your ſeruants: now therefore make ye a league with vs.

12 This our f bread we toke it hot with vs for vitailes out of our houſes, the day we departed to come vnto you: but now beholde, it is dried, and it is mouled.

13 Alſo theſe bottels of wine which we filled, were new, and lo, they be rent, and theſe our garments and our ſhooes are olde, by reaſon of the exceding great iourney.

14 ¶ And the g mē accepted their talk cōcerning their vitailes, & counſeled not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Ioſhúa made peace with them, & made a league with thē, that he wolde ſuffer them to liue: alſo the Princes of the Congregacion ſware vnto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of thre daies, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Iſraél toke their h iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeón, & Chephirāh, & Beeróth & Kiriathiearím.

18 And the children of Iſraél ſlewe them not, becauſe the Princes of the Congregacion had ſworne vnto them by the Lord God of Iſraél: wherefore all the Congregacion i murmured againſt the Princes.

19 Then all the princes ſaid vnto all the Congregacion We haue ſworne vnto thē by the Lord God of Iſraél: now therefore we may not touche them.

20 But this we wil do to them, & let them liue, leſt the wrath be vpon vs becauſe of the k othe which we ſware vnto them.

21 And the Princes ſaid vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they ſhal hewe wood, & drawe water vnto all the Congregacion, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Ioſhúa then called them, and talked w̄ them, and ſaid, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, ſaying, We are verie farre from you, when ye dwel among vs?

23 Now therefore ye are curſ̄d, and there ſhal none of you be freed frō being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for l the houſe of my God.

24 And they anſwered Ioſhúa and ſaid, Becauſe it was tolde thy ſeruants, that the Lord thy God had * commanded his ſeruant Moſés to giue you all the land, and to deſtroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your ſight, therefore we were exceding ſore afraid for our liues at the preſence of you, & haue done this thing:

25 And beholde now we are in thine hand: do as it ſeemeth good & right in thine eies to do vnto vs.

26 Euen ſo did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the m hand of the children of Iſraél, that they ſlewe them not.

27 And Ioſhúa appointed them that ſame daie to be hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the Congregacion, & for the n altar of the Lord vnto this day, in ſ̄ place which he ſhulde chuſe.

a In reſpect of the plaine of Moáb.

b The maigne Sea called Mediterraneum

"Eb. one mouth the 2. Sam. 21, 1.

c Becauſe they were all worne.

d For ſ̄ Gibeonites and the Hiuites were all one people.

e Euen the idolaters for feare of death wil pretend to honor ſ̄ true God & receiue his religiō

"Eb. in your hand.

f The wicked lacke no art nor ſpare no lies to ſet forth their policie, when they wil deceiue ſ̄ ſeruants of God.

g Some thinke that ſ̄ Iſraelites ate of their vitailes, & ſo made a league with them h Frō Gilgal.

i Fearing leſt for their raſhe the plague of God ſhuld haue light vpon them all.

k This doeth not eſtabliſh raſh othes, but ſheweth Gods mercie toward his, ſ̄ wolde not puniſh thē for this cauſe.

l For the vſes of the Tabernacle, & of the temple when it ſhalbe buylt Deut. 7. 2.

m Who were minded to put them to death for feare of Gods wrath.

n That is for ſ̄ ſacrifices.

CHAP. X.

1 Fiue Kings make warre againſt Gibeón whome Ioſhúa diſcomfiteth. 11 The Lord rained haileſtones and ſlewe manie 12 The ſunne ſtandeth at Ioſhuas prayer 26 The fiue Kings are hanged. 29 Manie mo cities & Kings are deſtroyed.

1 Now

1 NOw whē Adoni-zédek King of Ieruſalém had heard how Ioſhúa had Chap 6.17. taken Aí and had deſtroyed it, (*for as he had done to Ierichó and to the King Chap.8.3. thereof, ſo he had done to * Aí and to the King thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeón had made peace with Iſraél, and were among them,

2 Then thei feared excedingly · for Gibeón was a great citie, as one of the roial cities: for it was greater then Aí, and all the men thereof were mightie.

a That is, Lord of iuſtice & ſo tyrāts take to thē ſelues glorious names, when ti deue thei be verie enemies againſt God and all iuſtice. 3 Wherefore a Adoni-zédek King of Ieruſalém ſent vnto Hohám King of Hebrón, and vnto Pirám King of Iarmúth, and vnto Iapía King of Lachíſh, and vnto Debír King of Eglón, ſaying, 4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may ſmite Gibeón: for thei haue made peace with Ioſhúa and with the children of Iſraél.

5 Therefore the fiue Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ieruſalém, the King of Hebrón, the King of Iarmúth, the King of Lachíſh, and the King of Eglón gathered them ſelues together, & went vp, thei with all their hoſtes, & beſieged Gibeón, and made b warre againſt it.

b So enuious & wicked are, when any departe frō their bandes. 6 And the mē of Gibeón ſent vnto Ioſhúa, euē to the hoſte to Gilgál, ſaying, Withdrawe not thine hand frō thy ſeruants: come vp to vs quickely, and ſaue vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwel in the mountaines, are gathered together againſt vs.

7 So Ioſhúa aſcended from Gilgál, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

c Leſt Ioſhúa ſhulde haue thoght ỹ God had ſent this great power againſt him for his vnlauful league with ỹ Gibeonits, y Lord here ſtrengtheneth him. 8 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, c Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them ſhal ſtand againſt thee.

9 Ioſhúa therefore came vnto them ſodenly: for he went vp from Gilgál all ỹ night.

10 And the Lord diſcomfited them before Iſraél, & ſlewe them with a great ſlaughter at Gibeón, and chaſed them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horón, and ſmote them to Azekáh and to Makkedáh.

11 And as thei fled frō before Iſraél, & were in the going downe to Beth-horón, ỹ Lord caſt downe great ſtones from heauē vpō them, vntil Azekáh, & thei dyed: thei were more that dyed with the d hayleſtones, then they whome the children of Iſraél ſlewe with the ſworde.

d So we ſe ỹ all thirgs ſerue to execute Gods vengeāce againſt the wicked. 12 ¶ Then ſpake Ioſhúa to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Iſrael, and he ſaid in the ſight of Iſraél, * Sunne, ſtaie thou in Gibeón, and thou moone, in the valley of Aiálon.

Iſa.28.21. eccleſ.46.5. 13 And the ſunne abode, & the moone ſtode ſtil, vntil the people auenged them ſelues vpō their enemies: (Is not this written in the boke of e Iaſhér) ſo the ſunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and haſted not to go downe for a whole day.

e Some read, in the boke of the righteous, meaning Moſes. The Chalde texte readeth in ỹ boke of the Lawe. but it is like ỹ it was a boke thus named ỹ is now loſt.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord f fought for Iſraél.

f By taking away ỹ enemies heartes & deſtroying them with haileſtones. 15 ¶ After, Ioſhúa returned, and all Iſraél with him vnto the campe to Gilgál:

16 But the fiue Kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedáh.

17 And it was tolde Ioſhúa, ſaying, The fiue Kings are foūde hyd in a caue at Makkedáh.

18 Then Ioſhúa ſaid, Roule great ſtones vpon the mouthe of the caue, and ſet men by it for to kepe them.

19 But ſtand ye not ſtil: followe after your enemies, and " ſmite all the hindemoſt, ſuffre them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hathe giuen them into your hand.

"Ebr cut off all their traine, or reare.

20 And when Ioſhúa and the children of Iſraél had made an end of ſlaying them with an exceding great ſlaughter til they were conſumed, and the reſt that remained of them were entred into walled cities, 21 Then all the people returned to the cāpe, to Ioſhúa at Makkedáh in g peace: no man moued his tongue againſt the children of Iſraél.

g Or, In ſafetie ſo that none gaue them as muche as an euil worde.

22 After, Ioſhúa ſaid, Open the mouthe of the caue, & bring out theſe fiue Kings vnto me fo the mouthe of the caue.

23 And thei did ſo, and broght out thoſe fiue Kings vnto him forthe of the caue, euen the King of Ieruſalém, the King of Hebrón, the King of Iarmúth, the King of Lachíſh, and the King of Eglón.

24 And when thei had broght out thoſe Kings vnto Ioſhúa, Ioſhúa called for all the men of Iſraél, and ſaid vnto the chief of ỹ men of warre, which went with him, Come nere, ſet your fete vpō the h neckes of theſe Kings: & thei came nere and ſet their fete vpon their neckes.

h Signifying what ſhulde become of the reſt of Gods enemies, ſeing ỹ kings them ſelues were not ſpared.

25 And Ioſhúa ſaid vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, but be ſtrong and of a good courage: for thus wil the Lord do to all your enemies, againſt whome ye fight.

26 So then Ioſhúa ſmote them, and ſlewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees, and thei hanged ſtil vpon the trees vntil the euening.

27 And at the going downe of the ſunne, Ioſhúa gaue commandement, that thei ſhulde take * them downe of the trees, & caſt them into the caue (wherein thei had bene hid) and thei layed great ſtones vpō the caues mouthe, which remaine vntil this day.

Deut 21.23. chap.8.29.

‖Ioshúa taketh Makkedáh

28 ¶And that ſame day Ioshúa toke ‖ Makkedáh and ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, & the King thereof deſtroyed he with them, and [e] all the ſoules that were therein, he let none remayne: for he did to the King of Makkedáh* as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

[e] Or, euery perſone

*Chap. 6, 21.

29 Then Ioshúa went from Makkedáh, and all Iſraél with him vnto Libnáh, & fought againſt Libnáh.

‖ Libnáh is taken.

30 And the Lord gaue ‖ it alſo & the King thereof into the hād of Iſraél: & he ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, & all the [f] ſoules ŷ were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the King thereof, as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

[f] Or, perſone.

31 ¶And Ioshúa departed from Libnáh, & all Iſraél with him vnto Lachíſh, and beſieged it, and aſſalted it.

‖Lachíſh is taken.

32 And the Lord gaue ‖ Lachíſh into ŷ hand of Iſraél, which toke it the ſeconde day, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and all the ſoules that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnáh.

‖The King of Gézer is ſlayne.

33 ¶Then Horám King of ‖ Gézer came vp to helpe Lachíſh: but Ioshúa ſmote him and his people, vntil none of his remained.

‖Eglón is taken.

34 ¶And from Lachíſh Ioshúa departed vnto ‖ Eglón, and all Iſraél with him, and thei beſieged it, and aſſalted it, 35 And they toke it the ſame day, & ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and all the ſoules ŷ were therein he vtterly deſtroyed the ſame day, according to all that he had done to Lachíſh.

36 Then Ioshúa went vp from Eglón, and all Iſraél with him vnto Hebrón, & they fought againſt it.

‖Hebrón is taken.

37 And when they had take ‖ it, they ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, & all the ſoules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglón: for he deſtroyed it vtterly, and all the ſoules that were therein.

38 ¶So Ioshúa returned, and all Iſraél with him to Debír, and fought againſt it.

‖Debír is taken.

39 And when he had taken ‖ it, & the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, they ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde, & vtterly deſtroyed all the ſoules ŷ were therein, he let none remaine: as he did to Hebrón, ſo he did to Debír, & to the King thereof, as he had alſo done to Libnáh, & to the King thereof.

40 ¶So Ioshúa ſmote all the hyl coūtreis, and the Southcountreis, and the valleis, and the [i] hil ſides, & all their Kings, & let none remaine, but vtterly deſtroyed euery ſoule, as the Lord God of Iſraél had commanded.

[i] Some read, Aſhedoth, & ſignifieth the deſcentes of ŷ hilles.

41 And Ioshúa ſmote them from Kadeſh-barnéa euen vnto Azzáh, and all the countrey of Goſhén, euen vnto Gibeón.

42 And all theſe Kings, and their land did Ioshúa take at [k] one time, becauſe the Lord God of Iſraél fought for Iſraél.

[k] In one battel

43 Afterwarde, Ioshúa and all Iſraél with him returned vnto the campe in [l] Gilgál.

[l] Where ŷ Arke was, there to giue thākes for their victories.

CHAP. XI.

1 Diuers Kings and cities, and countreis ouercome by Ioshúa. 15 Ioshúa did all that Moſes had commanded him. 20 God hardeneth the enemies heartes that they might be deſtroyed.

1 AND when Iabín King of Hazór had heard this, then he [a] ſent to Lobáb King of Madón, and to the King of Shimrón, and to the King of Achſháph,

[a] The more ŷ Gods power appeareth, the more ŷ wicked rage againſt it.

2 And vnto the Kings that were by the North in the mountaines, and plaines towarde the Southſide of [b] Cinneróth, and in the valleis, and in the borders of Dor Weſtwarde,

[b] Which the Euangeliſtes call the lake of Génezereth, or Tiberias

3 And vnto the Canaanites, bothe by Eaſt, and by Weſt, and vnto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Iebuſites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hiuites vnder [c] Hermón in the land of Mizpéh.

[c] Which was mount Sihón, as Deut. 4, 48.

4 And they came out and all their hoſtes with them, many people as the ſand that is on the ſeaſhore for multitude, with horſes and charets exceding many.

5 So all theſe Kings met together, & came and pitched together at the waters of Meróm, for to fight againſt Iſraél.

6 ¶Then the Lord ſaid vnto Ioshúa, Be not afraid for them: for to morowe about this time wil I deliuer them all ſlayne before Iſraél: thou ſhalt [d] hough their horſes, & burne their charets with fire.

[d] That neither they ſhuld ſerue to the vſe of warre, nor the Iſraelites ſhulde put their truſt in them.

7 Then came Ioshúa and all the men of warre with him againſt them by the waters of Meróm ſodenly, and fel vpon them.

8 And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Iſraél: and they ſmote them, and chaſed them vnto great Zidón, and vnto [e] Miſrephóthmaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpéh Eaſtwarde, & ſmote them vntil thei had none remaining of them.

[e] Which ſignifieth, hot waters, or according to ſome, brine pittes.

9 And Ioshúa did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horſes, and burnt their charets with fire.

10 ¶At that time alſo Ioshúa turned backe, and toke Hazór, and ſmote the King thereof with the ſworde: for Hazór beforetime was the head of all thoſe kingdomes.

11 Moreouer thei ſmote all the [f] perſones that were therein with the edge of the ſworde, vtterly deſtroying all, leauing none aliue, and he burnt Hazór with fire.

[f] Bothe men, wome & children.

12 So all the cities of thoſe Kings, and all the Kings of them did Ioshúa take, and ſmote thē with the edge of the ſworde, & vtterly

209/1224

Nom 33. 52. deu 7.2. vtterly deſtroyed them, *as Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Iſraél burnt none of the cities that ſtode ſtil in their ſtrength, ſaue Hazór onely, that Ioſhúa burnt.

g Which were ſtrong by ſituation & not hurt by warre.

14 And all the ſpoyle of theſe cities and the cattel the children of Iſraél toke for their praye, but they ſmote eucrie [h]man with the edge of ỹ ſwoorde vntil they had deſtroyed them, not leauing one a liue.

h All mānkīde.

Exod 34.11. Deu.7.2. 15 ¶As the Lord * had commanded Moſés his ſeruāt, ſo did Moſés *cōmande Ioſhúa, & ſo did Ioſhúa: he left nothīg vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moſés.

16 So Ioſhúa toke all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all the lād of Goſhén and the lowe countrey, and the plaine, & the [i] mountaine of Iſraél, and the lowe countrey of the ſame,

i That is, Samaria

k So called, becauſe it is bare & without trees

17 From the mount [k] Halák, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto [e] Baal-gád in ỹ valley of Lebanón, vnder mount Hermón: and all their Kings he toke, and ſmote them, and ſlewe them.

e Or, the valley of God.

18 Ioſhúa made warre long time with all thoſe Kings,

19 Nether was there any citie that made peace with the children of Iſraél, *ſaue thoſe Hiuites that inhabited Gibeón: all other they toke by battel.

Chap. 9.3.

l That is, to giue thē ouer to tuē ſelues: and therefore thei colde not but rebelle against God & take their owne deſtruction.

20 For it came of the Lord, to [l] harden their heartes that they ſhulde come against Iſraél in battel to the intent that they ſhulde deſtroy them vtterly, and ſhewe them no mercy, but that they ſhulde bring them to noght: as the Lord had cōmanded Moſés.

21 ¶And that ſame ſeaſon came Ioſhúa, and deſtroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: as out of Hebrón, out of Debír, out of Anáb, and out of all the mountaines of Iudáh, and out of all the mountaines of Iſraél: Ioſhúa deſtroyed them vtterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Iſrael: onely in Azzáh, [m] in Gath, and in Aſhdód wēre they left.

x Out of the ỹ came Goliat 1.Sam. 17.4.

23 So Ioſhúa toke the whole land, according to all that the Lord had ſaid vnto Moſés: and Ioſhúa gaue it for an inheritance vnto Iſraél * according to their porcions through their tribes: then the land was at reſt without warre.

Nom.26.53.

CHAP. XII.

1. 7. What Kings Ioſhúa and the childrē of Iſraél killed on bothe ſides of Iordén, 24 Which were in nomber thirtie and one.

1 AND theſe are the Kings of the land, which the children of Iſraél ſmote and poſſeſſed their land, on the [a] other ſide Iordén toward ỹ riſing of the ſunne, frō the riuer Arnón, vnto moūt Hermón, and all the plaine Eaſtward.

a From Gilgāl where Ioſhua lāmped.

2 *Sihón King of the Amorites, that dwelt in Heſhbón, hauing dominion from Aroér, which is beſide the riuer of Arnón, and from the middle of the riuer, & from halfe Gileád vnto the riuer Iabbók, in the border of the children of Ammón.

Nom.21.24. deu.3.6.

3 And frō the plaine vnto the ſea of Cinneróth Eaſtward, and vnto the Sea of the [o] plaine, euē the ſalt Sea Eaſtward, the way to Bethieſhimóth, & from the South vnder the [p] ſprings of *Piſgáh.

o Or, wilderneſſe. p Or, hil ſides.

4 ¶ They conquered alſo the coaſt of Og King of Baſhán of the * remnant of the gyātes, ẅ dwelt at Aſhtaróth, & at Edréi, Deu.3.17. & 4.49. Deu 3.13. chap.13.12.

5 And reigned in mount Hermón, and in Salcáh, and in all Baſhán, vnto the border of the Geſhurites, and the Maachathites, & halfe Gileád, euen the border of Sihón King of Heſhbón.

6 Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord, and the children of Iſraél ſmote them: * Moſés alſo the ſeruāt of the Lord gaue their land for a poſſeſſiō vnto ỹ Reubenites, & vnto the Gadites, and to halfe ỹ tribe of Manaſſéh.

Nom 32.25 deu 3.12. chap.13.8.

7 ¶ Theſe alſo are the Kings of the countrey, ẅ Ioſhúa and the children of Iſraél ſmote on this ſide Iordén, Weſtward, frō Baal-gád in ỹ valley of Lebanón, euē vnto ỹ mount [b] Halák ỹ goeth vp to Seír, & Ioſhúa gaue it vnto ỹ tribes of Iſraél for a poſſeſſion, according to their porciōs:

b Read Chap. 11.verſ 17

8 In the mountaines, and in the valleis, & in the plaines, & in the [q] hil ſides, & in the wildernes, & in the Southe, where were the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, ỹ Perizzites, ỹ Hiuites, & ỹ Iebuſites.

q Or, in Aſhdiſh.

9 ¶ * The King of Ierichó was one: * the King of Aí which is beſide Beth-él, one.

Chap.8.29.

10 The * King of Ieruſalém, one: the King of Hebrón, one:

Chap.10.23

11 The King of Iarmúth, one: the King of Lachíſh, one:

12 The King of Eglón, one: the * King of Gezer, one:

Chap.10.33.

13 The * King of Debír, one: the King of Géder, one:

Chap.10 39.

14 The King of Hormáh, one: the King of Arád, one.

15 The * King of Libnáh, one: the King of Adullám, one:

Chap 10.30.

16 The * King of Makkedáh, one: the King of Beth-él, one:

Chap 10.28. chap.10.26.

17 The King of Tappuáh, one: the King of Hépher, one:

18 The King of Aphék, one: the King of Laſharón, one:

19 The King of Madón, one: the * King of Hazór, one:

Chap.11.10.

20 The King of Shimron merón, one: the King of Achſháph, one:

21 The King of Taanach, one: the King of Megiddó, one:

22 The King of Kedéſh, one: the King of Iokneam of "Carmél, one:
23 The King of Dor, in the countrey of Dor, one: the *King of the nacions of Gilgál, one:
24 The King of Tirzáh, one. all the Kings were thirty and one.

"Or, ouer vnto Carmel.
*Gen. 14.1.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The borders and coastes of the land of Canáan 8 The possession of the Reubenites, Gadites, and of halfe the tribe of Manaſſeh 14 The Lord is the inheritance of Leu. 22 Balaam was slaine.

1 NOw when Ioshúa was olde, & [a] striken in yeres, the Lord said vnto him, Thou art olde & "grown in age, & there remaineth exceding much land to be [b] possessed:
2 This is the land that remaineth, all the [c] regions of the Philistíms, & all Geshurí,
3 From "Nilus which is "in Egypt, euē vnto the borders of Ekrón Northward: this is counted of the Canaanites, euen fiue lordeshippes of the Philistíms, the Azzithites, and the Ashdodites, the Eshkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, and ỹ Auites:
4 From the Southe, all the land of the Canaanites, and the "caue that is beside the Sidonians, vnto Aphék, and to the borders of the Amorites:
5 And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanón, towarde the sunne rising from [f] Bahal-gád vnder mount Hermón, vntil one come to Hamáth.
6 All the inhabitants of the mountaines frō Lebanón vnto [e] Misrephothmáim, & all the Sidonians, I wil cast them out frō before the children of Israél: onely deuide thou it by lot vnto the Israelites, to inherit, as I haue commanded thee.
7 Now therefore deuide this land to inherit, vnto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh.
8 For with halfe thereof the Reubenites and the Gadites haue receiued their inheritāce, *which Moſés gaue them beyond Iordén Eastward, euen as Moſés the seruant of the Lord had giuen them,
9 From Aroér that is on the brinke of the riuer Arnón, and from the citie that is in the middes of the [g] riuer, and all the plaine of Medebá vnto Dibón,
10 And all the cities of Sihón King of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbón, vnto the borders of the childrē of Ammón, 11 And Gileád, & the borders of the Geshurites & of the Maachathites, & all mount Hermón, with all Bashán vnto Salcáh:
12 All the kingdome of Og in Bashán, ẅ reigned in Ashtaróth and in Edréi: (who remained of the *rest of the gyantes) for these did Moſés smite, and cast them out.

a Beig almoste an hūdreth & ten yere olde. "Ebr commen into yeres.
b After that ỹ enemies are ouercome
c Or, borders.
"Ebr. Shihor
"Ebr vpon the face of Egypt.
"Ebr. Mearah.
f Or, the plaine of Gad
e Read Chap. 11,8
g Or, valley.
*Num. 32, 33. deu. 3, 13. chap. 22, 4.
*Deu. 3, 11. chap. 12, 4.

13 But the childrē of Israél [d] expelled not ỹ Geshurites nor the Maachathites: but ỹ Geshurites & ỹ Maachathites dwel amōg the Israelites euen vnto this day.
14 Onely vnto the tribe of Leuí he gaue none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israél are [e] his inheritance, as he said vnto him.
15 ¶Moſés then gaue vnto the tribe of the children of Reubén inheritance, according to their families.
16 And their coast was from Aroér, that is on the brinke of the riuer Arnón, & frō the citie that is in the middes of the riuer, & all the plaine which is by Medebá:
17 Heshbón with all the cities thereof, that are in the plaine: Dibón and [f] Bamoth-bál, and Beth-baal-meón:
18 And Iahazáh, & Kedemóth and Mephá-ath:
19 Kiriathaím alſo, & Sibmáh, & Zereth-shahár in the mount of [g] Emek:
20 And Beth-peór, & *Ashdoth pisgáh, & Beth-ieshimóth:
21 And all the cities of the plaine: and all the kingdome of Sihón King of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbón, whome Moſés smote* with the Princes of Midián, Euí, and Rekém, and Zur, and Hur, and Réba, the dukes of Sihón, dwelling in the countrey.
22 And [h] Balaám the sonne of Beór ỹ southsayer did the children of Israél slaye with the sworde, among them that were slaine.
23 And the border of the children of Reubén was Iordén with the coastes. this was the inheritance of the children of Reubén according to their families, with the cities and their villages.
24 ¶Alſo Moſés gaue inheritance vnto the tribe of Gad, euen vnto the children of Gád according to their families.
25 And their coastes were Iazér, and all the cities of Gileád and halfe the land of the children of Ammón vnto Aroér, which is before Rabbáh:
26 And from Heshbón vnto Ramóth, Mizpéh, and Betonim and from Mahanáim vnto the borders of Debír.
27 And in the valley Beth-aram, and Beth-nimráh, and Succóth, and Zaphón, the rest of the kingdome of Sihón King of Heshbón, vnto Iordén and the borders euen vnto the Sea coast of Cinéreth, [i] beyonde Iordén Eastward.
28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad, after their families, with the cities and their villages.
29 ¶Alſo Moſés gaue inheritance vnto the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh: and this belonged to the halfe tribe of the children of Manaſſéh according to their families.

d Because that destroyed not all as God hād cōmāded, they that remained, were snares & pricks to hurt thē, Nō 33,55 chap 23,13. iudg 2,3 e Leuí shal liue by ỹ sacrifices, Nō 18,21.
*Or, his places of Baal.
*Or, the valley. Deu. 3, 17.
Num 31,8
f So that bothe they, ẅ obeyed wicked counsel & the wicked counseller perished by ỹ iust iudgemēt of God.
i That is, in ỹ land of Moáb.

30 And

30 And their border was from Mahanáim, euen all Baſhán, to wit, all the kingdome of Og King of Baſhán, and all the townes of Iair which are in Baſhán, threſcore cities, 31 And halfe Gileád, & Aſhtaróth, & Edréi, cities of the kingdome of Og in Baſhán, Nom 32. 39. *were giuen vnto the [h] children of Machír the ſonne of Manaſſéh, to halfe of the children of Machír after their families.

[h] Meaning, his nephewes and poſteritie.

32 Theſe are the heritages, which Moſés did diſtribute in the plaine of Moáb beyonde Iordén, towarde Ierichó Eſtwarde.

Chap 18.7. 33 *But vnto the tribe of Leuí Moſés gaue none inheritance for the Lord God of Iſraél is their inheritance, * as he ſaid vnto them.

Nom.18. 20.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 The land of Canáan was deuided among the nine tribes and the halfe. 6 Caléb requireth the heritage that was promiſed him. 13 Hebrón was giuen him.

1 THeſe alſo are the places which the children of Iſraél inherited in the lánd of Canáan, *which Eleazár the Prieſt, and Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſraél, diſtributed to them,

Nom 34. 17.

2 *By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moſés, to giue to the nine tribes, and the halfe tribe.

Nom 26.55. & 33.54.

3 For Moſés had giuen inheritance vnto [a] two tribes and an halfe tribe, beyonde Iordén: but vnto the Leuites he gaue none inheritance among them.

[a] As Reubén & Gad & halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh.

[b] So though Leui lacked, yet were there ſtil twelue tribes by this meanes.

4 For the children of Ioſéph were [b] two tribes, Manaſſéh and Ephráim: therefore they gaue no parte vnto the Leuites in the lánd, ſaue cities to dwel in, with the ſuburbes of the ſame for their beaſtes and their ſubſtance.

Nom 35.2. 5 *As the Lord had commanded Moſés, ſo the children of Iſraél did whē they deuided the land.

6 ¶Then the children of Iudáh came vnto Ioſhúa in Gilgál: and Caléb the ſonne of Iephúnéh the Kenezite ſaid vnto him, Thou knoweſt what the Lord ſaid vnto Moſés the man of God, concerning [c] me and thee in Kadeſh-barnéa.

[c] Which was, that they two onely ſhulde enter into the lánd, Nū 14.24.

7 Fourty yere olde was I, when Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord ſent me from Kadeſh-barnéa to eſpy the land, & I brought him worde againe, as I thought in mine heart.

[d] Which were ten other ſpies.

8 But my [d] brethren that went vp with me, diſcouraged the heart of the people: yet I followed ſtil the Lord my God.

9 Wherefore Moſés ſware the ſame day, ſaying, Certeinly the land whereon thy fete haue troden, ſhal be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for euer, becauſe thou haſt followed conſtantly the Lord my God.

10 Therefore beholde now, the Lord hathe kept me aliue, as he promiſed: this is the fourty and fift yere ſince the Lord ſpake this thing vnto Moſés, while the children of Iſraél wandred in the wildernes: and now lo, I am this day fourſcore and fiue yere olde:

11 And yet am as * ſtrong at this time, as I was whē Moſés ſent me: as ſtrong as I was then, ſo ſtrong am I now, either for warre, or [e] for gouernement.

Eccle.46.11.

[e] Ebr is goyng, and comming.

12 Now therefore giue me this mountaine whereof the Lord ſpake in ỹ day (for thou heardeſt in that daie, how the [f] Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled) [g] if ſo be the Lord wil be with me, that I may driue them out, as the Lord ſaid.

[f] Or, gyants.

[g] This he ſpake of modeſtie & not of doubting

13 Then Ioſhúa bleſſed him, and gaue vnto Caléb the ſonne of Iephúnéh, Hebrón for an inheritance.

14 * Hebrón therefore became ỹ inheritāce of Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh the Kenezite, vnto this day: becauſe he followed cōſtantly the Lord God of Iſraél.

1.Mac.2.56.

15 And the name of * Hebrón was beforetime, Kiriath-arbá: which Arbá was a [f] great man among the Anakims: thus the land ceaſed from warre.

Chap 15.13.

[f] Ether for his power or poſſeſſione.

CHAP. XV.

1 The lotte of the children of Iudáh, and the names of the cities and villages of the ſame. 13 Calebs portion. 18 The requeſt of Achſah.

1 THis then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudáh by their families: euen * to the border of Edóm and the wildernes of * Zin, Southward on the Southcoaſt.

Nomb.34.3. Nom 33.36.

2 And their Southborder was the ſalt Sea coaſt, from [a] the point that loketh Southward.

[a] The Ebrewe worde ſignifieth tongue, whereby is ment either the arme of the Sea that commeth into the land, or a rocke or capetha goeth into the Sea.

3 And it went out on the Southſide toward Maaleth-akrabbím, and went along to Zin, and aſcended vp on the Southſide vnto Kadeſh-barnéa, and went along to Hezrón, and went vp to Adár, and fet a compaſſe to Karkáa.

4 From thence went it a long to Azmón, & reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the end of that coaſt was on the Weſtſide: this ſhalbe your Southcoaſt.

5 Alſo the Eaſtborder ſhalbe the ſalt Sea, vnto the [b] end of Iordén: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, ena from the end of Iordén.

[b] Meaning the mouth of the riuer where it runneth into ỹ ſalt Sea.

6 And this border goeth vp to Beth hoglá, and goeth along by the Northſide of Beth-arabah: ſo the border from thence goeth vp to the [c] ſtone of Bohán the ſonne of Reubén.

[c] Which was a marke to parte their countreyes.

7 Againe this border goeth vp to Debír frō the valley of Achór, & Northwarde, turning toward Gilgál, that lyeth before the going vp to Adummím, which is on ỹ Southſide of the riuer: alſo this border goeth vp to the waters of [d] En-ſhémeſh, & endeth at * En-rogél.

8 Then this border goeth vp to the valley of the ſonne of Hinnóm, on the Southſide of the Iebuſites. the ſame is Ieruſalém. alſo this border goeth vp to the top of the mountaine that lieth before the valley of Hinnóm Weſtward, which is by the end of the valley of the "gyátes Northward.

9 So this border compaſſeth from the top of the mountaine vnto the founteine of ỹ water of Nephtóah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephrón. and this border draweth to Baalah, which is [e] Kiriath-iearím.

10 Then this border compaſſeth from Baaláh Weſtward vnto mount Seír, & goeth along vnto the ſide of mount Iearím, which is Cheſalón on the Northſide: ſo it commeth downe to Beth-ſhémeſh, and goeth to Timnáh.

11 Alſo this border goeth out vnto the ſide of Ekrón Northward: and this border draweth to Shicrón, and goeth along to mount Baaláh, & ſtretcheth vnto Iabneél: & the endes of this coaſt are to the [f] Sea.

12 And the Weſt border is to the great Sea: ſo this border ſhalbe the bondes of the childrē of Iudáh round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And vnto Caléb the ſonne of Iephūnéh did Ioſhúa giue a parte amōg the childrē of Iudáh, as the Lord commanded him, euen * Kiriath-arbá of the father of Anák, which is Hebrón.

14 And Caléb [g] droue thence thre ſonnes of Anák, Sheſhái, and Ahimán, and Talmái, the ſonnes of Anák.

15 And he went vp thence to the inhabitāts of Debír: and the name of Debír before time was Kiriath-ſépher.

16 Thē Caléb ſaid, He ỹ ſmiteth Kiriath-ſépher, & taketh it, euē to him wil I giue Achſáh my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniél, the ſonne of Kenáz, the "brother of Caléb toke it: and he gaue him Achſáh his daughter to wife.

18 And as ſhe wēt in tohim, ſhe moued him, to aſke of her father a field: [h] & ſhe lighted of her aſſe, & Caléb ſaid vnto her, What wilt thou.

19 Thē ſhe anſwered, [i] Giue me a bleſſing: for thou haſt giuē me the South coūtrei: giue me alſo ſprīgs of water. And he gaue her ỹ ſprings aboue & the ſprīgs benethe.

20 This ſhalbe the inheritance of the tribe of ỹ children of Iudáh according to their families.

21 And the vtmoſt cities of the tribe of ỹ children of Iudáh, toward the coaſtes of Edóm Southward were Kabzeél, and Eder, and Iagúr,

22 And Kinah, and Dimonáh, & Adadáh,

23 And Kédeſh, and Hazór, and Ithnán,

24 Ziph, and Télem, and Bealóth,

25 And Hazór, Hadattah, & Kerióth, Heſron (which is Hazór)

26 Amám, and Shemá, and Moladáh,

27 And Hazár, Gaddáh, & Heſhmón, and Beth-pálet,

28 And Haſar-ſhuál, and Beerſhéba, and Biziothiáh,

29 Baaláh, and Iím, and Azem,

30 And Eltolád, & Cheſil, [k] and Hormáh,

31 And Ziklág, and Madmannáh, and Sanſannáh,

32 And Lebaóth, and Shilhím, and Aín, & Rimmón: all theſe cities are twenty & nine with their villages.

33 ¶ In the lowe countrey were Eſhtaól, and Zoreáh, and Aſhnáh,

34 And Zanoáh, & En-ganním, Tappúah, and Enám,

35 Iarmúth, & Adullám, Socóh, & Azekáh,

36 And Sharáim, & Adithaim, & Gederáh, and Gederothaim: fourtene cities with their villages.

37 Zenám, & Hadaſhāh, and Migdal-gád,

38 And Dileám, and Mizpéh, and Ioktheél,

39 Lachiſh, and Bozkáth, and Eglón,

40 And Cabbón, & Lahmám, & Kithliſh,

41 And Gederóth, Beth-dagón, and Naamáh, and Makkedáh: ſixtene cities with their villages.

42 Lebnáh, and Ether, and Aſhán,

43 And Iphtáh, and Aſhnáh, and Nezíb,

44 And Keilah, and Aczib, and Mareſhāh: nine cities with their villages.

45 Ekrón with her "townes & her villages,

46 From Ekrón, euen vntō the Sea, all that lieth about Aſhdód with their villages.

47 Aſhdód with her townes and her villages: Azzáh with her townes and her villages, vnto the [l] riuer of Egypt, and the great ſea was their coaſt.

48 ¶ And in the mountaines were Shamír, and Iattír, and Socóh,

49 And Dannáh, and [m] Kiriath-ſannáh, (which is Debír)

50 And Anáb, and Aſhtemóh, and Aním,

51 And Góſhen, and Holón, & Giloh: eleuen cities with their villages.

52 Aráb, and Dumáh, and Eſhean,

53 And Ianúm, and Beth-tappuáh, and Aphekáh,

54 And Humtáh, and * Kiriath-arbá (which is Hebrón) & Zióh: nine cities with their villages.

55 Maón, Cármel, and Ziph, and Iuttáh,

56 And Izreél, and Iokdeám, and Zanóah,

57 Káin, Gibeáh, and Timnáh: ten cities with their villages.

58 Halhúl, Beth-zur, and Gedór,

59 And

[d] Or, the fountaine of the ſunne. 1. King 1,9.

* Ebr. Rephāim.

[e] Or, the citie of woods.

* Chap. 14,15.

[f] Meaning toward Syria.

[g] This was done after the death of Ioſhua, Iud 1,10.

[h] Or, ſate ſo.

[i] Or, Grante me this preſent. [k] Becauſe her country was barren, ſhe deſired of her father a field ỹ hadſprings.

[k] Which before was called Zephāth, Iud. 1,17.

[l] Meaning Nilus, as chap. 13,3.

[m] Which is alſo called Kiriath-ſépher, verſ. 15.

* Chap. 14,15.

59 And Maaráh, and Beth-anóth, and Elteкón ſix cities with their villages.
60 Kiriath-báal, which is Kiriath-iearím, & Rabbáh. two cities with their villages.
61 ¶In the wildernes were Beth-arabáh, Middín, and Secacáh, f Of this citie the firſt Sabbaths reſt hath name. 62 And Nibſhán, and the f citie of ſalt, and En-gedí ſix cities with their villages.
63 Neuertheles, the Iebuſites that were the inhabitants of Ieruſalém, colde not the children of Iudáh caſt m out, but the Iebuſites dwel with the children of Iudáh at Ieruſalém vnto this day.
m That is, vtterly, though they ſlewe the moſte parte, & burne their citie Iudg 1,8

CHAP. XVI.

The lot or parte of Ephráim. 10 The Canaanite dwelled among them.

a That is, to Ephraim and his children for Manaſſehs porcion followeth
AND the lot fel to the a children of Ioſéph frō Iordán by Ierichó vnto the water of Ierichó Eaſtwarde, & to the wildernes that goeth vp from Ierichó by the mount Beth-él.
Iudg 1,26. 2 And goeth out from Beth-él to* Luz, and runneth alōg vnto the borders of Archiatároth, 3 And goeth downe Weſtward to the coaſte of Iphletí, vnto the coaſt of Beth-horón the nether, and to Gézer: and the ends b thereof are at the Sea.
b Of their inheritance 4 So the children of Ioſeph, Manaſſeh and Ephráim c toke their inheritance.
c Severally, firſt Ephráim, and then Manaſſeh.
5 ¶Alſo the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, euen the borders of their inheritáce on ỹ Eaſtſide were Ataróth adár, vnto Beth-horón the vpper.
6 And this border goeth out to the Sea vnto Michmethah on the Northſide, & this border returneth Eaſtwarde vnto Taanáth ſhilóh, and paſſeth it on the Eaſtſide vnto Ianóhah, d For ſo farre the coaſts reache. 7 And goeth downe from Ianóhah to Atároth, and Naaráth, and cometh to Ierichó, d and goeth out at Iordén.
8 And this border goeth from Tappúah Weſtward vnto the riuer Kanáh, and the ends thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephráim by their families.
e Because Ephraims tribe was farre greater then Manaſſeh therefore he had mo cities 9 And the e ſeparate cities for the childrē of Ephráim were among the inheritance of the children of Manaſſéh. all the cities with their villages.
10 And they caſt not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gézer, but the Canaanite dwelleth amōg the Ephraimites vnto this day, and ſerue vnder tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

The portion of the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh. 3 The daughters of Zelophehad 13 The Canaanites are become tributaries 14 Manaſſeh and Ephraim require a greater portion of heritage.

Genes 46,14. 1 THIS was alſo the lot of the tribe of Manaſſeh: for he was the* firſt borne of Ioſéph, to wit, of Machir ỹ firſt borne of Manaſſéh, and the father of Gileád: now becauſe he was a man of warre, he had Gileád and Baſhán.
Num 26,29. a For the other halfe tribe had their portion beyonde Iordē. 2 And alſo* of the a reſt of the ſonnes of Manaſſéh by their families, euen of the ſonnes of Abiézer, and of the ſonnes of Hélek, and of the ſonnes of Azriél, and of the ſonnes of Shéchem, and of the ſonnes of Hépher, and of the ſonnes of Shemidá: theſe were the males of Manaſſéh, the ſonne of Ioſéph according to their families.
Num 26,33. & 27,1. and 36,2. 3 ¶*But Zelophehád the ſonne of Hépher, the ſonne of Gileád, the ſonne of Machír, & the ſonne of Manaſſéh, had no ſonnes, but daughters: and theſe are the names of his daughters, Malháh, and Noáh, Hogláh, Milcháh and Tirzáh:
4 Which came before Eleazár the Prieſt, and before Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and before the princes, ſaying, The Lord cōmanded Moſés to giue vs an inheritance among our b brethren: therefore according to the cōmandement of the Lord he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.
b Among the of our tribe.
5 And there fel ten porcions to c Manaſſen, beſide the land of Gileád and Baſhán, which is on the other ſide Iordén, c In the land of Canáan fiue to the males, and other fiue to the daughters of Zelophehád.
6 Becauſe the daughters of Manaſſéh did inherit among his ſonnes: and Manaſſehs other ſonnes had the land of Gileád.
7 ¶So the borders of Manaſſeh were from Aſhér to Michmethah ỹ lieth before Shechém, & this border goeth on ỹ right hād, euen vnto the inhabitats of En-tappúah.
8 The land of Tappúah belonged to Manaſſéh, but d Tappúah beſide the border of Manaſſéh belongeth to the ſonnes of Ephráim.
d Meaning, the citie it ſelfe.
9 Alſo this border goeth downe vnto the e riuer Kanáh Southward to the riuer. theſe cities of Ephráim are among the cities of Manaſſéh: and the border of Manaſſéh is on the Northſide of the riuer, and the ends of it are at the e Sea, e Or, the brooke of reedes.
10 The South perteineth to Ephráim, and the North to Manaſſéh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in f Aſhér Northward, and in Iſſachár Eaſtward.
f In the tribe of Aſhér, and tribe of Iſſachár.
11 And Manaſſéh had in Iſſachar and in Aſher, Beth-ſhean & her townes, & Ibleam, & her townes, & the inhabitants of Dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dó: with the townes thereof, & the inhabitants of Thaanách with her townes, & the inhabitants of Megiddó wᵗʰ the townes of the ſame, euen three cōtreis.
12 Yet the childrē of Manaſſé g colde not deſtroy thoſe cities, but the Canaanites dwelled ſtil in that land.
g For at the firſt they lacked courage, & after agreed with them on condition, contrary to Gods commandement 13 Neuertheleſs, when the children of Iſraél were ſtrong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but caſt thē not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Ioséph ſpake vnto Ioshúa, ſaying, Why haſt thou giuen me but one lot, and one porcion to inherit, ſeing I am a great people, for as muche as the Lord hathe [h] bleſſed me hetherto?

h According to my father Iaakobs prophecie, Geneſ. 48,19.

15 Ioshúa then anſwered them, If thou be muche people, get thee vp to the wood, & cut trees for thy ſelfe there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the gyâts, [i] if moût Ephráim be tonarowe for thee.

i If this moût be not large ynough, why doeſt not thou get more by deſtroying Gods enemies, as he hathe cõmanded?

16 Then the children of Ioséph ſaid, The mountaine wil not be ynough for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwel in the lowe countrey haue charets of yron, aſwel they in Beth-ſheán, and in the townes of the ſame, as they in the valley of Izreél.

17 And Ioshúa ſpake vnto the houſe of Ioséph, to Ephráim, & to Manaſséh, ſaying, Thou art a great people, and haſt great power, and ſhalt not haue one lot.

18 Therefore the mountaine ſhalbe thine: for it is a wood, and thou ſhalt cut it downe: and the ends of it ſhalbe thine, [k] & thou ſhalt caſt out the Canaanites, thogh they haue yron charets, and thogh they be ſtrong.

k So that thou ſhalt enlarge thy portion thereby.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Tabernacle ſet in Shilóh. 4 Certeine are ſent to deuide the land to the other ſeuen tribes. 11 The lot of the children of Beniamin.

1 AND the whole Congregacion of the children of Iſraél came together at Shilóh: for they ſet vp the [a] Tabernacle of the Congregacion there, after the land was ſubiect vnto them.

a For they had now remoued it from Gilgál and ſet it vp in Shilóh

2 Now there remained among the childrẽ of Iſraél ſeuen tribes, to whome [b] they had not deuided their inheritance.

b As Eleazár, Ioshúa & the heades of the tribes had done to Iudáh, Ephráim and halfe of Manaſséh.

3 Therefore Ioshúa ſaid vnto the children of Iſraél, How long are ye ſo ſlacke to entre and poſſeſſe the land which the Lord God of your fathers hathe giuen you?

4 Giue from among you for euerie tribe thre men, that I may ſend them, and that they may riſe, and walke through the lãd, and diſtribute it according to [c] their inheritance, and returne to me.

c That is, into ſeuen portions, to euerie tribe one.

5 And that they may deuide it vnto them into ſeuen partes, (Iudáh ſhal abide in his coaſt at the South, and the houſe of Ioséph ſhal [d] ſtand in their coaſtes at the North)

d For theſe had their inheritance already appoynted.

6 Ye ſhal deſcribe the land therefore into ſeuen partes, & ſhal bring them hether to me, & I wil caſt lottes for you here before the [e] Lord our God.

e Before the Arke of the Lord.

7 But the Leuites ſhal haue no part among you: for the [f] Prieſthode of the Lord is their inheritance: alſo Gad and Reubén & halfe the tribe of Manaſséh haue receiued their inheritãce beyõde Iordén Eaſtward, which Moſés the ſeruãt of the Lord gaue them.

f That is, the ſacrifices and offrings, Chap. 13,14.

8 ¶Then the men aroſe, and went their way: and Ioshúa charged them that went to deſcribe the land, ſaying, Departe, and go through the land, and deſcribe it, and returne to me, that I may here caſt lots for you before the Lord in Shilóh.

g By writing the names of euerie coũtrey and citie.

9 So the men departed, and paſſed through the land, and deſcribed it by cities into ſeuen partes in a boke, and returned to Ioshúa into the campe at Shilóh.

10 ¶Then Ioshúa [h] caſt lots for them in Shilóh before the Lord, and there Ioshúa deuided the lãd vnto the children of Iſraél, according to their porcions:

h That euerie one ſhulde be contẽt w Gods appointment.

11 ¶And the lot of the tribe of the childrẽ of Beniamín came forthe according to their families, and the coaſt of their lot lay [i] betwene the children of Iudáh, and the children of Ioséph.

i Their inheritance bordered vpon Iudah and Ioséph.

12 And their coaſt on the Northſide was from Iordén, and the border went vp to the ſide of Ierichó on the Northpaite, & went vp through the mountaines Weſtward, and the endes thereof are in the wildernes of Beth-auén:

13 And this border goeth along from thẽce to Luz, euen to the Southſide of Luz (the ſame is [k] Beth-él) and this border deſcendeth to Atroth-addár, nere the moût, that lieth on the Southſide of Beth-horón the nether.

k Which was in the tribe of Ephráim another Beth-él was in the tribe of Beniamín.

14 So the border turneth, and compaſſeth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the moût that lieth before Beth-horón Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kiriath-báal (which is Kiriath-iearím) a citie of the children of Iudáh: this is the Weſt-quarter.

15 And the Southquarter is from the end of Kiriath-iearím, and this border goeth out [l] Weſtward, and cometh to the fountein of waters of Nephtóah.

l Or to the Sea.

16 And this border deſcendeth at the end of the mountaine, that lieth before the valley of Bẽ-hinnóm, which is in the valley of the [m] gyantes Northward, & deſcẽdeth into the valley of Hinnóm by the ſide of [n] Iebuſi Southward, and goeth downe to En-rogél, m Or, Rephaim.

n Or, Ieruſalem.

17 And compaſſeth from the North, and goeth forthe to [o] En-ſhémeſh, & ſtretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummím, and goeth downe to the * ſtone of Bóhan the ſonne of Reubén.

o Which is in the tribe of Ephráim.

Chap. 15,6.

18 So it goeth alõg to the ſide ouer againſt the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the ſide of Beth-hogláh Northward: & the ends thereof, that is, of the border, reache to the point of the ſalt Sea Northward, and to thẽ [m] end of Iordén Southward: this is the Southcoaſt.

m To the wery ſtreit, where the riuer runneth into ſ ſalt Sea.

20 Alſo

20 Also Iordén is the border of it on the Eastside: this is the inheritance of the children of Beniamín by the coastes thereof round about according to their families.
21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Beniamín according to their families, are Ierichó, and Beth-hogláh, and the valley of Kezíz, 22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaráim, and Beth-él,
23 And Auím, and Paráh, and Ophráh,
24 And Chephár, Ammonái, and Ophní, & Gabá: twelue cities with their villages.
25 Gibeón, and Ramáh, and Beeróth,
26 And Mizpéh, and Chephiráh, and Mozáh,
27 And Rékem, and Irpeél, and Taraláh, 28 And Zelá, Eléph, and Iebusi, (which is [n] Ierusalém) Gibeáth, and Kiriáth: fourtene cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Beniamín according to their families.

n Which was not wholly in the tribe of Beniamin, but part of it was also in ỹ tribe of Iudán.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The porcion of Simeón, 10 Of Zebulun, 17 Of Issachár, 24 Of Asher, 32 Of Naphtali, 40 Of Dan 49 The possession of Ioshua.

1 AND the seconde lot came out to Simeón, euen for the tribe of the children of Simeón according to their families: and their inheritãce was in the [a] middes of the inheritance of the children of Iudáh.
2 Now thei had in their inheritance, Beer-shéba, & Shéba, and Moladáh,
3 And Hazar-shuál, and Baláh, and Azem,
4 And Eltolád, and Bethúl, and Hormah,
5 And Ziklág, and Beth-marcabóth, and Hazar susáh,
6 And Beth-lebaóth, and Sharuhén: thirtene cities with their villages.
7 Ain, Remmón, and Ether, & Ashán: foure cities with their villages.
8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, vnto Baalathbeér, and [a] Rámath Southwarde. this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeón according to their families.
9 Out of the porcion of the children of Iudáh came the inheritance of the childrẽ of Simeón: for the parte of the children of Iudah was to [b] muche for them: therefore the children of Simeón had their inheritance within their inheritance.
10 ¶ Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulún according to their families: and the coastes of their inheritãce came to Saríd, 11 And their border goeth vp [c] Westwarde, euen to Maraláh, and reacheth to Dabbásheth, & meteth with the riuer that lyeth before Iokneám, 12 And turneth from Saríd Eastwarde towarde the sunne rising vnto the border of Chislóth tabór, & goeth out to Daberáth, and ascendeth to Iaphía, 13 And from thence goeth along Eastwarde towarde the sunne rising to Gittáh hépher to Ittáh kazín, and goeth forthe to Rimmón, and turneth to Neáh.
14 And this border compasseth it on the Northside to Hannathón, and the ends thereof are in the valley of Iiphtah-él, 15 And Kattáth, and Nahallál, and Shimrón, and Idaláh, and [d] Beth-léhem: twelue cities with their villages.
16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulún according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.
17 ¶ The fourthe lot came out to Issachár, euen for the children of Issachár according to their families.
18 And their coast was Izreélah, and Chesullóth, and Shuném, 19 And Hapharáim, and Shión, and Anaharáth, 20 And Harabbíth, & Kishión, and Abez,
21 And Reméth, and [e] En-ganním, and En haddáh, and Beth-pazzéz.
22 And this coast reacheth to Tabór, and Shahazimáth, and Beth-shémesh, and the ends of their coast reache to Iordén: sixtene cities with their villages.
23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the childrẽ of Issachár according to their families: that is, the cities, and their villages.
24 ¶ Also the fifte lot came out for the tribe of the children of Ashér according to their families.
25 And their coast was Helcáth, and Halí, and Beten, and Achsháph, 26 And Alammélech, and Amád, & Misheál, and came to Carmél Westwarde, and to Shihór libnáth, 27 And turneth towarde the sunne rising to Beth-dagón, and commeth to [f] Zebulún, and to the valley of Iiphtah él, towarde the Northside of Beth-emék, and Neiél, and goeth out on the left side of Cabúl, 28 And to Ebrón, and Rehób, and Hammón, and Kanáh vnto great Zidón.
29 Then the coast turneth to Ramáh & to the strong citie of [g] Zor, and this border turneth to Hosáh, and the endes thereof are at the Sea from Hebél to Achzíb, 30 Vmmáh also and Aphék, and Rehób: two and twentie cities with their villages.
31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ashér according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.
32 ¶ The sixt lot came out to the childrẽ of a According to Iaakobs prophecie, that he shulde be scattered among ỹ other tribes, Gen 49.7.

a Ramathbeer.

b But this large porciõ was given them by Gods prouidẽce, to declare their increase in time to come c Meaning, towarde the great Sea.

d There was another Beth-lehem in the tribe of Iudah

e There was another citie of this name in the tribe of Iudah for vnder diuers tribes certeine cities had all one name, and were distincted by the tribe onely.

f Iometh to ỹ tribe of Zebulun, which lay more Eastwarde g Which was Tyrus a strong citie in ỹ Sea.

Náphtalí, euen to the children of Naphtalí according to their families.

33 And their coaſt was from [h] Héleph, and from Allón in Zaananním, and Adamínékeb, and Iabneél, euen to Lakúm, & the ends thereof are at Iordén.

34 So this coaſt turneth Weſtwarde to Aznoth tabór, and goeth out from thence to Hukkók, and reacheth to Zebulún on the Southſide, & goeth to Aſhér on the Weſtſide, and to Iudáh [a] by Iordén toward the ſunne riſing.

35 And the ſtrong cities are Ziddím, Zer, & Hammáth, Rakkáth, and [i] Cinnéreth, 36 And Adamáh, & Ramáh, and Hazór,

37 And Kédeſh, and Edréi, and En-hazór,

38 And Irón, and Migdal-él, Horém, and Beth-anáh, and Beth-ſhémeſh: nine tene cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of ỹ childrẽ of Naphtalí according to their families: that is, the cities & their villages.

40 ¶ The ſeuẽth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan acco. ding to their families.

41 And the coaſt of their inheritance was, Zoráh, and Eſhtaól, and Ir-ſhémeſh, 42 And Shaalabbín, and Aialón, & Ithláh,

43 And Elón, and Temnáthah, and Ekrón,

44 And Eltekéh, & Gibbethón, & Baaláh,

45 And Iehúd, and Bene-berák, and Gath-rimmón,

46 And Me-iarkón, and Rakkón, with the border that lyeth before [k] Iápho.

47 But the coaſtes of the children of Dan fel out to litle for them: therefore the childrẽ of Dan went vp to [l] fight againſt Léſhem, and toke it, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and poſſeſſed it, and dwelt therein, and called Léſhem, * Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families: that is, theſe cities and their villages.

49 ¶ When thei had made an end of deuiding the land by the coaſtes thereof, then the children of Iſraél gaue an inheritãce vnto Ioſhúa ỹ ſonne of Nun among thẽ.

50 According to the worde of the Lord thei gaue him the citie which he aſked, euẽ * Timnath-ſeráh in mount Ephráim: and he buylt the citie and dwelt therein.

51 *Theſe are the heritages which Eleazár the Prieſt, and Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſraél deuided by lot in Shilóh before the Lord at the dore of ỹ Tabernacle of the Cõgregació: ſo thei made an end of deuiding the countrey.

CHAP. XX.

a The Lord commandeth Ioſhúa to appoint cities of refuge. 3 The uſe thereof. 7 And their names.

1 THe Lord alſo ſpake vnto Ioſhúa, ſaying,

2 Speake to the children of Iſraél, and ſay, *Appoint you cities of refuge, whereof I ſpake vnto you by the hand of Moſés,

3 That the ſlayer ỹ killeth any perſone [a] by ignorance, and vnwittingly, may flee thether, & thei ſhal be your refuge from the auenger of blood.

4 And he that doeth flee vnto one of thoſe cities, ſhal ſtand at the entring of the gate of the citie, and ſhal ſhewe his cauſe "to the Elders of the citie: and thei ſhal receiue him into the citie vnto them, and giue him a place, ỹ he may dwel w̃ them.

5 And if the [b] auenger of blood purſue after him, thei ſhal not deliuer the ſlayer into his hand becauſe he ſmote his neighbour ignorantly, nether hated he him beforetime:

6 But he ſhal dwel in ỹ citie vntil he ſtand before the Congregacion in [c] iudgement, or vntil the death of the hye Prieſt that ſhalbe in thoſe daies: then ſhal the ſlayer retuine, and come vnto his owne citie, and vnto his owne houſe, euen vnto the citie from whence he fled.

7 ¶ Then thei appointed Kédeſh in [d] Galíl in mount Naphtalí, & Shechém in mount Ephráim, and Kiriath-arbá, (which is Hebrón) in the mountaine of Iudáh.

8 And on the other ſide Iordén towarde Ierichó Eaſtwarde, thei appointed * Bézer in the wildernes vpon the plaine, out of ỹ tribe of Reubén, & Ramóth in Gileád, out of the tribe of Gad, and Golán in Baſhán, out of the [d] tribe of Manaſſéh.

9 Theſe were the cities appointed for all the children of Iſraél, and for the ſtranger that ſoiourned among them, that whoſoeuer killed any perſone ignorantly, might flee thether, & not dye by the hand of the auenger of blood, vntil he ſtode before the [e] Congregacion.

CHAP. XXI.

a1 The cities giuen to the Leuites, in nõber eight & fourtie. 44 The Lord according to his promes gaue the children of Iſraél reſt.

1 THẽ came the [a] principal fathers of the Leuites vnto Eleazár the Prieſt, and vnto Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, and vnto the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſraél,

2 And ſpake vnto thẽ at Shilóh in the land of Canáã, ſayīg, * The Lord cõmãded [a] by the hãd of Moſés, to giue vs cities to dwel in, w̃ the ſuburbes thereof for our cattel.

3 So the children of Iſraél gaue vnto the Leuites, out of their inheritãce at the cõmandement of the Lord theſe cities with their ſuburbes.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the [b] Kohathites: & the childrẽ of Aarón the Prieſt, which were of the Leuites, had by h Theſe cities were in the countrey of Zaananním.

a Or, euen vnto Iorden.

i Of the which ỹ lake of Gẽnezaréth had his name.

k Called Ioppe.

l According as Iaakób had prophecied, Gen 49,17.

Iud. 18,29.

Chap. 24,30.

Nomb. 34,17

a Or, euen vnto Iorden.

" Ebr. in the eares of the Elders.

b That is, the nereſt kinſmã of him that is ſlayne.

c Til his cauſe were proued Nomb. 35,25.

d Or, Galile.

Deut. 4,43. chap. 20,8.

d Out of the half tribe of Manaſſeh beyonde Iordén.

e Before the Iudges.

a Or, the chief of the fathers.

Nomb. 35, 2.

a By Moſes, by whoſe miniſterie God ſhewed his power.

b He meaneth thẽ that were Prieſts for ſome were but Leuites.

by lot, out of the tribe of Iudáh, and out of the tribe of Simeón, and out of the tribe of Beniamín c thirtene cities.

c Fuerie tribe gaue mo or fewer cities according as their inheritance was great or litle, Num. 35,8.

5 And the reſt of the children of Kohát had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephráim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh, ten cities.

6 Alſo the children of Gerſhón had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Iſſachár, and out of the tribe of Aſhér, and out of the tribe of Naphtalí, and out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh in Baſhán, thirtene cities.

7 The children of Merarí according to their families had out of the tribe of Reubén, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulún, twelue cities.

8 So the childrē of Iſraél gaue by lot vnto the Leuites theſe cities with their ſuburbes, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moſes.

9 ¶ And they gaue out of ẏ tribe of ẏ childrē of Iudáh, & out of the tribe of the childrē of Simeón, theſe cities ẅ are here named.

d For Aarón came of Kohát, and therefore the Prieſts office remained in ẏ familie.

10 And they were the childrens of d Aarón being of the families of the Kohathites, & of the ſonnes of Leuí, (for theirs was the firſt lot)

11 So they gaue thē Kiriath-arbá of the father of Anók (which is Hebrón) in the mountaine of Iudáh, with the ſuburbes of the ſame round about it.

12 (But the land of the citie, and the villages thereof, gaue they to * Caléb the ſonne of Iephunnéh to be his poſſeſſion)

Chap. 14,14. 1 chro 6,56.

e That is, the Prieſt of the familie of the Kohathites, of whome Aaron was chief.

13 ¶ Thus they gaue to the e childrē of Aarón the Prieſt, a citie of refuge for the ſlayer, euen Hebrón with her ſuburbes, & Libnáh with her ſuburbes,

14 And Iattir with her ſuburbes, and Eſhtemóa and her ſuburbes,

15 And Holón with her ſuburbes, and Debír with her ſuburbes, 16 And Aín with her ſuburbes, and Iuttáh ẅ her ſuburbes, Beth-ſhémeſh ẅ her ſuburbes: nine cities out of thoſe two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Beniamín they gaue Gibeón with her f ſuburbes, Géba with her ſuburbes, f The ſuburbes were a thouſand cubites from the wall of ẏ citie rounde about, Num. 35,4.

18 Anathóth with her ſuburbes, and Almón with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aarón Prieſts, were thirtene cities with their ſuburbes.

g That were not Prieſts.

20 ¶ But to the families of the children of Kohát of the Leuites, g which were the reſt of the children of Kohát (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephráim)

h Hebrón and Shechém were the two cities of refuge vnder the Kohatites.

21 They gaue them the citie of refuge for the ſlayer, h Shechém with her ſuburbes in mounte Ephráim, and Gézer with her ſuburbes, 22 And Kibzáim with her ſuburbes, & Bethhorón with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

23 And out of ẏ tribe of Dan, Eltekéh with her ſuburbes, Gibethón ẅ her ſuburbes, 24 Aialón with her ſuburbes, Gath-rimmón with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

25 And out of the i halfe tribe of Manaſſéh, Tanách with her ſuburbes, & Gath-rimmón with her ſuburbes: two cities.

i Which dwelt in Canáan.

26 All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohát were ten with their ſuburbes.

27 ¶ Alſo vnto the children of Gerſhón of the families of the Leuites, they gaue out of ẏ halfe tribe of Manaſſéh, the citie of refuge for ẏ ſlayer, k Golán in Baſhán with her ſuburbes, & Beeſhteráh with her ſuburbes: two cities.

k Golan and Kedeſh were the cities of refuge vnder the Gerſhonites.

28 And out of the tribe of Iſſachár, Kiſhón with her ſuburbes, Daberéh with her ſuburbes, 29 Iarmúth with her ſuburbes, En-ganním with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Aſhér, Miſhál ẅ her ſuburbes, Abdón with her ſuburbes, 31 Helkáh with her ſuburbes, and Rehób with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

32 And out of ẏ tribe of Naphtalí, the citie of refuge for the ſlayer, Kédeſh in l Galíl with her ſuburbes, & Hammoth-dór with her ſuburbes, and Kartán with her ſuburbes: thre cities.

l Or, Gal'le.

33 All the cities of the Gerſhonites according to their families, were thirtene cities with their ſuburbes.

34 ¶ Alſo vnto the families of the children of Merarí the l reſt of the Leuites, they gaue out of ẏ tribe of Zebulún, Iokneam with her ſuburbes, and Kartáh with her ſuburbes, l They are here called the reſt, becauſe they are laſt numbred: and Merari was ẏ yongeſt brother, Geneſ. 46,11

35 Dimnáh with her ſuburbes, Nahalál with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

36 And out of ẏ tribe of Reubén, m Bézer ẅ her ſuburbes, and Iahazáh ẅ her ſuburbes, m Bézer and Ramóth were the cities of refuge vnder the Merarites and beyonde Iordan, Chap. 20,8.

37 Kedemóth with her ſuburbes, and Mephaáth with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad they gaue for a citie of refuge for the ſlayer, Ramóth in Gileád with her ſuburbes, and Mahanáim with her ſuburbes, 39 Heſhbón with her ſuburbes, and Iazér with her ſuburbes: foure cities in all.

40 So all the cities of the children of Merarí according to their families (which were the reſt of the families of the Leuites) were by their lot, twelue cities.

n Thus according to Iacobs prophecie, they were ſcattered throughout ẏ countrey, which God vſed to this end, that his people might be inſtructed in the true religion

41 And all the cities of the Leuites n with in the poſſeſſion of the children of Iſraél were eight and fourtie with their ſuburbes.

42 Theſe cities lay euerie one ſeuerally with their ſuburbes rounde about them: ſo were all theſe cities.

43 ¶So the Lord gaue vnto Iſraél all the land, which he had ſworne to giue vnto their fathers: and they poſſeſſed it, and dwelt therein.

44 Alſo the Lord gaue them reſt round about according to all that he had ſworne vnto their fathers: and there ſtode not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord deliuered all their enemies into their hand.

Chap 23,15. 45 * There failed nothing of all the good things, which the Lord had ſaid vnto the houſe of Iſraél, but all came to paſſe.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Reubén, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſeh are ſent againe to their poſſeſſions. 10 They buyld an altar for a memorial 15 The Iſraelites reproue thē. 21 Their anſwer for defenſe of the ſame.

a After that ỹ Iſraelites enioyed the land of Canáan.

1 THen a Ioſhúa called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh,

2 And ſaid vnto thē, Ye haue kept all that Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord b commáded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you:

b Which was to go armed before their brethrē, Nom. 32,29.

3 Ye haue not forſaken your brethren this long ſeaſon vnto this day, but haue diligently kept the commandement of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hathe giuen reſt vnto your brethren as he promiſed them: therefore now returne ye and go to your tētes, to the land of your poſſeſſion, which Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord *hathe giuen you beyonde Iordén.

Nom 32,33. chap 13,8.

5 But take diligent hede, to do the commandement and Lawe, which Moſés the ſeruant of the Lord commanded you: that is, *that ye c loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and kepe his commandements, and cleaue vnto him, and ſerue him with all your heart and with all your ſoule.

Deut 10,12.

c He ſheweth wherein conſiſteth the fulfilling of the Lawe.

d He commēded thē to God & prayed for them.

6 So Ioſhúa d bleſſed them and ſent them away, and they went vnto their tents.

7 ¶Now vnto one halfe of the tribe of Manaſſéh Moſés had giuen a poſſeſſion in Bashán and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Ioſhúa among their brethren on this ſide Iordén Weſtward: therefore whē Ioſhúa ſent them away vnto their tētes, and bleſſed them,

8 Thus he ſpake vnto thē, ſaying, Returne with muche riches vnto your tentes, and with a great multitude of cattel, with ſiluer and with golde, with braſſe and with yron, and with great abundāce of raimēt: deuide the ſpoyle of your enemies with your e brethren.

e Which remained at home and went not to the warre, Nom 31,27.

9 ¶So the children of Reubén, & the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manaſſéh returned, and departed from the children of Iſraél from Shilóh (which is in the land of Canáan) to go vnto the countrey of Gileád to the land of their poſſeſſion, which they had obteined, according to the worde of the Lord by the hand of Moſés.

10 ¶And when they came vnto "the borders of Iordén (w are in the land of Canáā) then the children of Reubén, and the children of Gad, & the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh, buylt f there an altar by Iordén, a great altar to ſe to.

"Ebr Gelilóth, which countrey alſo was called Cānān becauſe the Amorites dwelt g there were called Canaanites f That is, beyonde Iorden: for ſome time the whole countrey on bothe ſides of Iordén is ment by Canáan.

11 ¶Whē the children of Iſraél heard ſaie, Beholde, the children of Reubén, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh haue buylt an altar in the forefront of the land of Canáan vpō the borders of Iordén at the paſſage of the children of Iſraél:

12 When the children of Iſraél heard it, then the whole Congregacion of the children of Iſrael gathered them together at Shilóh to go vp g to warre againſt them.

g Suche zeale was their zeale, that they wolde rather loſe their liues, then ſuffer the true religiō to be chāged or corrupted.

13 Then the children of Iſraél ſent vnto the children of Reubén, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh into the land of Gileád, Phinehás the ſonne of Eleazár the Prieſt, 14 And with him ten princes, of euerie chief houſe a prince, according to all the tribes of Iſraél. for euerie one was chief of their fathers houſholde among the h thouſandes of Iſraél.

h Or, multitude.

15 ¶So they wēt vnto the children of Reubén, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manaſſéh, vnto the land of Gileád, and ſpake with them, ſaying, 16 Thus ſaith i ỹ whole Congregacion of the Lord, What tranſgreſſion is this that ye haue tranſgreſſed againſt the God of Iſraél, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue buylt you an altar for to rebel this day againſt the Lord?

i Not only of ỹ princes, but alſo of the cōmune people.

17 Haue we to little for the wickednes * of Peór, whereof we are not k clenſed vnto this day, thogh a plague came vpon the Congregacion of the Lord?

Nom.25,4.

k Meaning, God is not fully pacified, for as muche as no punishement cā be ſufficiēt for ſuche wickednes & idolatrie

18 Ye alſo are turned away this day from the Lord: & ſeing ye rebel to day againſt the Lord, euen tomorowe he wilbe wrath with all the Congregacion of Iſraél.

19 Notwithſtanding if the lād of your poſſeſſion be l vncleane, come ye ouer vnto the land of the poſſeſſiō of the Lord, wherein the Lords Tabernacle dwelleth, and take poſſeſſion among vs: but rebel not againſt the Lord, nor rebel not againſt vs in buylding you an altar, beſide the altar of the Lord our God.

l To vſe vnto other ſeruice then God hathe appointed, is to rebel againſt God, 1. Sam 15,23.

20 Did not Achán the ſonne of Zérah treſpaſſe grieuouſly in the execrable thing, & wrath fel on * all the Congregacion of Chap 7,1.

Iſraél?

Iſraél? and this man alone [m] periſhed not in his wickednes.

21 ¶Then the children of Reubén and the children of Gad, & halfe the tribe of Manaſſeh anſwered, and ſaid vnto the heades ouer the thouſandes of Iſraél, 22 The Lord God of gods, ỹ Lord God of gods, he knoweth, and Iſraél him ſelfe ſhal knowe: if by rebellió, or by tranſgreſſion againſt the Lord we haue done it, ſaue thou vs not this day.

23 If we haue buylt vs an altar, to returne away from the Lord, ether to offer thereó burnt offring, or meat offring, or to offer peace offrings thereon, let ỹ Lord [n] him ſelfe require it:

24 And if we haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, ſaying, In time to come your children might ſay vnto our childré, What haue ye to do with the Lord God of Iſraél?

25 For ỹ Lord hathe made Iordén a border betwene vs and you, ye children of Reubén, & of Gad: therefore ye haue no parte in the Lord: ſo ſhal your children make our children [o] ceaſe from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we ſaid, We wil now go about to make vs an altar, not for burnt offring, nor for ſacrifice, 27 But for a * witnes betwene vs and you, and betwene our generacions after vs, to execute the ſeruice of the Lord before him in our burnt offrings, and in our ſacrifices, and in our peace offrings, and that your children ſhulde not ſay to our children in time to come, Ye haue no parte in the Lord.

28 Therefore ſaid we, If ſo be that they ſhulde ſo ſay to vs or to our [p] generacions in time to come, thé wil we anſwer, Behold the facion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt offring nor for ſacrifice, but it is a witnes betwene vs and you.

29 God forbid, that we ſhulde rebel againſt the Lord, and turne this day away from the Lord to buyld an altar for burnt offring, or for meat offring, or for ſacrifice, ſaue the altar of the Lord our God, that is before his Tabernacle.

30 ¶And when Phinehás the Prieſt, and the princes of the Congregacion and heades ouer the thouſandes of Iſraél which were with him, heard the wordes, that the children of Reubén, and children of Gad, and the children of Manaſſéh ſpake, " they were wel content.

31 And Phinehás the ſonne of Eleazár the Prieſt ſaid vnto the children of Reubén and to ỹ children of Gad, & to the childrē of Manaſſéh, This day we perceiue, that ỹ Lord is [q] among vs, becauſe ye haue not done this treſpas againſt the Lord: now ye [r] haue deliuered the children of Iſraél out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶Then Phinehás the ſonne of Eleazár the Prieſt with the princes returned from the childrē of Reubén, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gileád, vnto the land of Canáan, to the children of Iſraél, and broght them anſwer.

33 And the ſaying pleaſed the children of Iſraél: and the children of Iſraél [t] bleſſed God, and "minded not to go againſt thē in battel, for to deſtroy the land, wherein the children of Reubén, and Gad dwelt.

34 Then the children of Reubén, and the children of Gad called the altar [u] Ed: for it ſhalbe a witnes betwene vs, that the Lord is God.

m Signifying, that it manie offred for one mans faute, for the faute of manie all ſhulde ſuffre n Let him purſue vs.

o Or, to turne backe frō the ſeue God.

Gen. 31, 48. Ioſuap 24, 27.

p They ſignifie a wonderful care that they bare towarde their poſteritie, that they might liue in the true ſeruice of God

q By preſerming vs & gouerning vs.

r Whome if ye had offended, he wolde haue puniſhed with you

t Or, praiſed

" Ebr ſaid.

u Or, witnes.

CHAP. XXIII.

Ioſhúa exhorteth the people, that they ioyne not thē ſelues to the Gentiles. 7 That they name not their idoles. 14 The promes, if they feare God. 15 And threateninges, if they forſake him.

1 AND a long ſeaſon after that ỹ Lord had giuen reſt vnto Iſraél from all their enemies round about, & Ioſhúa was olde, and "ſtriken in age,

" Ebr. comen into yeres.

2 Then Ioſhúa called all Iſraél, & their Elders, and their heades, and their iudges, and their officers, and ſaid vnto them, I am olde, & ſtriken in age.

3 Alſo ye haue ſene all that the Lord your God hathe done vnto all theſe nacions [a] before you, how the Lord your God him ſelfe hathe fought for you.

4 Beholde, I haue [v] deuided vnto you by lot theſe nacions that remaine, to be an inheritáce according to your tribes, from Iordén, with all the nacions that I haue deſtroyed, euē vntó ỹ great Sea "Weſtward.

5 And the Lord your God ſhal expel [b] thē before you, & caſt them out of your ſight, and ye ſhal poſſeſſe their land, as the Lord your God hathe ſaid vnto you.

6 Be ye therefore of a valiant courage, to obſerue and do all that is written in the boke of the Lawe of Moſes, *that ye turne not therefrom to the right hand nor to the left,

7 Nether company with theſe nacions: that is, with them which are [c] left with you, nether make *mencion of the name of their gods, [d] nor cauſe to ſweare by them, nether ſerue them nor bowe vnto them:

8 But ſticke faſt vnto the Lord your God, as ye haue done vnto this day.

9 For the Lord hathe caſt out before you great nacions and mighty, and no man hathe ſtand before your face hetherto.

10 *One man of you ſhal chaſe a thouſand: for the Lord your God, he fighteth for you, as he hathe promiſed you.

11 Take good hede therefore vnto your a Your eyes bearing witnes

v Or, ouerth rewē theſe nacions.

" Ebr at the ſame ſet.

b Which yet remaine & are not ouercome, as Chap 13, 1

Deut 5, 32. & 28, 14.

c And not yet ſubdued

Pſal. 16, 4.

d Let not the Iudges admit another, & ame ſhal ſweare by their idoles

Leu 26, 8. deu 32, 30.

"Ebr. soules.

"ſelues, that ye loue the Lord your God.
12 Els, if ye go backe, and cleaue vnto the reſt of theſe nacions: that is, of them that remaine with you, and ſhal [v] make mariages with them, and [w] go vnto them, & they to you,
13 Knowe ye for certeine, that the Lord your God wil caſt out no more of theſe nacions from before you: * but they ſhal be a ſnare and deſtruction vnto you, and a whip on your ſides, and thornes in your [x] eyes, vntil ye periſh out of this good land, which the Lord your God hathe giuen you.
14 And beholde, this day do I [y] entre into the way of all the world, and ye knowe in all your [z] heartes and in all your ſoules, that * nothing hathe failed of all the good things which the Lord your God promiſed you, but all are come to paſſe vnto you: nothing hathe failed thereof.
15 Therefore as all [a] good things are come vpon you, which the Lord your God promiſed you, ſo ſhal the Lord bring vpon you euerie [b] euil thing, vntil he haue deſtroyed you out of this good land, which the Lord your God hathe giuen you.
16 When ye ſhal [h] tranſgreſſe the couenant of the Lord your God, which he cõmanded you, and ſhal go, and ſerue other gods, and bowe your ſelues to them, then ſhal the wrath of ỹ Lord waxe hote againſt you, and ye ſhal periſh quickly out of the good land which he hathe giuen you.

v Or, be of their affinitie w Or haue conuerſacion with thẽ.

Exod 23.33 nom 33.55. deut 7.16.

x Meaning, they ſhalbe a cõtinual grief vnto you, and ſo the cauſe of your deſtruction y I dye according to ỹ courſe of nature z Moſte certeinly.
Chap 21.45.

a Or, promiſes.

b Or, threatninges.

h He ſheweth that no euil cõme vnto man, except he offend God by diſobedience.

CHAP. XXIIII.

Ioſhúa rehearſeth Gods beneſites, 14 And exhorteth the people to feare God. 25 The league renued betwene God and the people. 29 Ioſhua dyeth. 32 The bones of Ioſeph are buryed 33 Eleazár dyeth.

1 AND Ioſhúa aſſembled againe all the [a] tribes of Iſrael to Shechém, & called the Elders of Iſraél, and their heades, and their iudges, and their officers, & they preſented them ſelues before [b] God.
2 Then Ioſhúa ſaid vnto all the people, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, * Your fathers dwelt beyonde the [c] flood in olde time, euen Térah the father of Abrahám, and the father of Nachór, and ſerued other gods.
3 And I toke your father Abrahám from beyõde the flood, & brought him through all the land of Canáan, and multiplied his ſede, and * gaue him Izhák.
4 And I gaue vnto Izhák, Iaakób & Eſáu: and I gaue vnto * Eſáu mount Seír, to poſſeſſe it: but * Iaakób and his children wẽt downe into Egypt.
5 * I ſent Moſes alſo and Aarón, and I plagued Egypt. & whẽ I had ſo done among them, I brought you out.
6 So I * brought your fathers out of Egypt, & ye came vnto the Sea, & the Egyptiãs purſued after your fathers with charrets and horſemen vnto * the red Sea.
7 Then they cryed vnto the Lord, and he put [d] a darcknes betwene you & the Egyptians, and brought the Sea vpon them, and couered them: ſo your eyes haue ſene what I haue done in Egypt: alſo ye dwelt in the wildernes [d] a long ſeaſon.
8 After I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyonde Iordén, * and they fought with you: but I gaue thẽ into your hand, and ye poſſeſſed their countrey, and I deſtroyed them out of your ſight.
9 * Alſo Balák the ſonne of Zippór King of Moáb aroſe and warred againſt Iſraél, and ſent to call Balaám the ſonne of Beór for to curſe you,
10 But I wolde not heare Balaám: therefore he bleſſed you, and I deliuered you out of his hand.
11 And ye went ouer Iordén, and came vnto Ierichó, and the [e] mẽ of Ierichó fought againſt you, the Amorites, & the Perizzites, & ỹ Canaanites, and the Hittites and the Girgaſhites, the Hiuites and the Iebuſites, and I deliuered them into your hand.
12 And I ſent * hornets before you, which caſt them out before you, euen the two Kings of the Amorites, & not with thy ſworde, nor with thy bowe.
13 And I haue giuen you a land, wherein ye did not labour, and cities which ye buylt not, & ye dwel in them, & eat of the vineyardes and oliue trees, which ye planted not.
14 Now therefore [f] feare the Lord, & ſerue him in vprightenes and in trueth, and put away the gods, which your fathers ſerued beyonde the flood and in Egypt, and ſerue ye the Lord.
15 And "if it ſeme euil vnto you to ſerue the Lord, chuſe you this day [g] whome ye wil ſerue, whether ỹ gods which your fathers ſerued (that were beyonde the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whoſe land ye dwel: * but I and mine houſe wil ſerue the Lord.
16 Then the people anſwered and ſaid, God forbid, that we ſhulde forſake the Lord, to ſeruе other gods.
17 For the Lord our God, he brought vs and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage, and he did thoſe great miracles in our ſight, and preſerued vs in all the way that we went, and among all the people through whome we came.
18 And the Lord did caſt out before vs all the people, euẽ the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore wil we alſo ſerue the Lord, [h] for he is our God.

19 And

Exod.14.9.

c Euphrátes in Meſopotamia, Gen 11.26.

Gen.21.2. & 25.26.
Gen.36.8.
Gen.46.6.

Exod 3.10.

Exod.12.37.

d Euen fourtie yeres.

Nom.21.29.

Nom.22.5. deut.23.4.

e Becauſe it was the chief citie, vnder it he conteineth all the countrey, els they of the citie fought not. Chap.3.14.

Exod.23.28. deut.7.20. chap.11.20.

f This is the true vſe of Gods benefites, to learne thereby to feare & ſerue him with an vpright conſcience

"Ebr if it be euil in your ſight.

g This teacheth vs ỹ if all ỹ worlde wolde go frõ God, yet euerie one of vs particularly is bonde to cleaue vnto him.

h How muche more are we bonde to ſerue God in Chriſt, by whom we haue receiued ỹ redemption of our ſoules?

19 And Ioſhúa ſaid vnto the people, Ye can not ſerue ỹ Lord: for he is an holy God: he is a ielous God: he wil not pardō your iniquitie nor your ſinnes.

20 If ye forſake the Lord and ſerue ſtrange gods, *thē he wil returne & bring euil vpō you, and conſume you, after that he hathe done you good.

*Chap 23, 15.

21 And the people ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, Nay, but we wil ſerue the Lord.

22 And Ioſhúa ſaid vnto the people, Ye are witneſſes [i] againſt your ſelues, that ye haue choſen you the Lord, to ſerue him: & they ſaid, We are witneſſes.

i If you do ỹ cōtrarie, your owne mouthes ſhal condemne you.

23 Then put away now, ſaid he, the ſtrange [k] gods which are among you, & bow your hearts vnto the Lord God of Iſraél.

k Out of your hearres and otherwiſe.

24 And the people ſaid vnto Ioſhúa, The Lord our God wil we ſerue, and his voyce wil we obey.

25 So Ioſhúa [l] made a couenant with the people the ſame day, and gaue them an ordinance and lawe in Shechém.

l By ioyning God and the people together: alſo he repeated the promiſes and threatenings out of ỹ Lawe.

26 And Ioſhúa wrote theſe wordes in the boke of the Lawe of God, and toke a great ſtone, and pitched it there vnder an [o]oke that was in the Sanctuarie of the Lord.

oOr, elme.

27 And Ioſhúa ſaid vnto all the people, Beholde, this ſtone ſhalbe a witnes vnto vs: for it [m] hathe heard all the wordes of the Lord which he ſpake with vs: it ſhalbe therefore a witnes againſt you, leſt ye deny your God.

m Rather thē mans diſsimulation ſhulde not be puniſhed, the dūme creatures ſhal crye for vengeance.

28 Thē Ioſhúa let the people departe, euerie man vnto his inheritance.

29 And after theſe things Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun, the ſeruant of the Lord dyed, being an hundreth and ten yeres olde.

30 And they buryed him in ỹ border of his inheritance in *Timnath-ſeráh, which is in mount Ephráim, on the Northſide of mount Gáaſh.

*Chap. 19, 50.

31 And Iſraél [n] ſerued the Lord all the dayes of Ioſhúa, and all the dayes of the Elders that ouerliued Ioſhúa, & which had knowen all the workes of the Lord that he had done for Iſraél.

n Suche are ỹ people cōmōly as their rulers are.

32 And the *bones of Ioſéph, which the children of Iſraél broght out of Egypt, buryed they in Shechém in a parcel of grounde which Iaakób boght of the *ſonnes of Hamór the father of Shechém, for an hundreth pieces of ſilver, and the children of Ioſéph had them in their inheritance.

*Gen 50, 25. exod. 13, 19.

*Gen. 33, 19.

33 Alſo Eleazár the ſonne of Aarón dyed, whome they buryed in [p] the hil of Phinehás his ſonne, which was giuen him in mount Ephráim.

pEb. Gibeath Phinehás.

THE BOKE OF IVDGES.

THE ARGVMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing ſo diſpleaſant and heinous that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Iſraelites were entred into the land of Canáan, and ſawe the trueth of Gods promes performed, in ſtead of acknowledging his great beneſites and giuing thankes for the ſame, they fell to moſte horrible oblivion of Gods graces, contrarie to their ſolēmne promes made vnto Ioſhúa, and ſo prouoked his vengeance (as muche as in them ſtode) to their vtter deſtruction. Whereof as they had moſte euident ſignes by the mutabilitie of their ſtate: for he ſuffered them to be moſte cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants: he pulled them from libertie, and caſt them into ſlaueric, to the intent they might fele their owne miſeries and ſo call vnto him and be deliuered. Yet to ſhewe that his mercies indure for euer, he raiſed vp from time to time ſuche as ſhulde deliuer them and aſſure them of his fauour and grace, if they wolde turne to him by true repentance. And theſe deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, becauſe they were executers of Gods iudgements, not choſen of the people nor by ſucceſſion, but raiſed vp, as it ſemed beſt to God, for the gouernance of his people. They were twelue in nomber beſides Ioſhúa, and gouerned from Ioſhúa vnto Saúl the firſt King of Iſrael. Ioſhúa and theſe vnto the tyme of Saúl ruled 336 yeres. In this boke are manie notable points declared, but two eſpecially: firſt, the battel that the Church of God hathe for the maintenance of true religion againſt idolatrie and ſuperſtition: next, what great danger that commune wealth is in, when as God giueth not a magiſtrate to reteine his people in the pureties of religion and his true ſeruice.

CHAP. I.

1 After Ioshúa was dead, Iudáh was constitute captaine. 6 Adoni-bézek is take. 14 The request of Achsáh. 16 The children of Kení. 19 The Canaanites are made tributaries, but not destroyed.

1 AFter ỹ Ioshúa was dead, ỹ childrẽ of Isráel [a] asked the Lord, saying, [b] Who shal go vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight first against them?

a By the iudgement of Vrim: read Exo. 28,30. nom. 27, 21. 1 Sam. 28, 6.
b Who shalbe our Captaine?

2 And the Lord said, Iudáh shal go vp: beholde, I haue giuen the land into his hand.

3 And Iudáh said vnto Simeón his [c] brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise wil go with thee into thy lot: so Simeón went with him.

c For the tribe of Simeon had their inheritãce within ỹ tribe of Iudáh, Ioth. 19, 1.

4 Then Iudáh went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slewe of them in Bézek ten thousand men.

5 And they foũde [d] Adoni-bézek in Bézek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

d Or, the lord of Bézek.

6 But Adoni-bézek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and [e] cut of the thumbes of his hands and of his fete.

e This was Gods iust iudgement, as the tyrant him self confesseth, ỹ as he had done, so did he receiue, Leuit. 24, 19.

7 And Adoni-bézek said, Seuentie Kings hauing the thumbes of their hands and of their fete cut of, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hathe rewarded me. so they broght him to Ierusalém, and there he dyed.

8 (Now the children of Iudáh had fought against Ierusalém, and had takẽ it & smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the [f] citie on fire)

f Which was afterward buylt againe, & possessed by ỹ Iebusites, 2. Sam. 5, 6.

9 ¶Afterwarde also the children of Iudáh went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in ỹ mountaine, and toward the South, and in the lowe countrey.

10 And Iudáh wẽt against the Canaanites, that dwelt in Hebrón, which Hebrón beforetime was called * Kiriath-arbá: and they slewe [g] Sheshái, and Ahimán & Talmái.

Iosh. 15, 14.

g These thre were gyãts, & the children of Anák.

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debír, and the name of Debír in olde time was Kiriath-sépher.

12 And Caléb said, He ỹ smiteth Kiriath-sépher, & taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsáh my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniél the sonne of Kenáz Calebs yonger brother toke it, to whome he gaue Achsáh his daughter to wife.

14 And whẽ she came to him, she moued him to aske of her father a field, [g] and she lighted of her asse, and Caléb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

g Read Iosh. 15, 18.

15 And she answered him, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me a South countrey, giue me also springs of water: and Caléb gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneth.

16 ¶And the children of [h] Kení Mosés father in lawe went vp out of the citie of the palmetrees with the children of Iudáh, into the wildernes of Iudáh, that lieth in the South of Arád, and went and dwelt among the people.

h This was one of the names of Mosés father in law, read Nom. 10, 29.

17 But Iudáh went with Simeón his brother, and they slewe the Canaanites that inhabited Zephátb, and vtterly destroyed it, and called the name of the citie * Hormáh.

Nom. 21, 3.

18 Also Iudáh toke [i] Azzáh with the coastes thereof, & Askelón with the coastes thereof, and Ekrón with the coastes thereof.

i These cities & others were afterward possessed of the Philistims, 1. Sam. 6, 17.

19 And the Lord was with Iudáh, and he possessed the mountaines: for he colde not driue out the inhabitants of the valleys, because they had charets of yron.

20 And they gaue Hebrón vnto Caléb, as * Mosés had said, and he expelled thence the thre sonnes of Anák.

Nom. 14, 24. Iosh. 14, 13. & 15, 14.

21 But the children of Beniamín did not cast out the Iebusites, that [k] inhabited Ierusalém: therefore the Iebusites dwel with the children of Beniamín in Ierusalém vnto this day.

k For after ỹ the tribe of Iudáh had burnt it, they built it againe.

22 ¶They also that were of the house of Ioséph, went vp to Beth-él, and the Lord was with them,

23 And the house of Ioséph caused to vewe Beth-él (and the name of the citie beforetime was * Luz)

Gen. 28, 19.

24 And the spies sawe a man come out of the citie, & they said vnto him, Shewe vs, we pray thee, the way into the citie, * and we wil shewe thee mercie.

Iosh. 2, 14.

25 And when he had shewed them the way into the citie, they smote the citie with ỹ edge of the sword, but they let the man & all his housholde departe.

26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and buylt a citie, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof vnto this day.

27 ¶*Nether did Manásséh destroy Beth-sheán with her townes, nor Taanách with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Ibleám with her townes, nether the inhabitants of Megiddó with her townes: [l] but the Canaanites dwelled stil in that land.

Iosh. 17, 12.

l Wherefore God permitted the Canaanites to dwel stil in ỹ land, read Chap. 3, 4.

28 Neuertheles when Isráel was strog, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

29 ¶*Likewise Ephráim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gézer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gézer among them.

Iosh. 16, 10.

30 ¶Nether did [m] Zebulún expel the inhabitants of Kitrón, nor the inhabitants of m That is the tribe of Zebulun, as is also to be vnderstãd of ỹ rest.

of Nahaláł, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 ¶Nether did Aſhér caſt out the inhabitants of Acchó, nor the inhabitants of Zidón, nor of Ahláb, nor of Achzíb, nor of Helbáh, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehób, 32 But the Aſherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: for thei did not driue them [n] out.

n But made them pay tribut as y others did.

33 ¶Nether did Naphtalí driue out the inhabitants of Beth-ſhémeſh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anáth, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitãts of the lãd: neuertheles the inhabitants of Beth-ſhémeſh, and of Beth-anáth became tributaries vnto them.

*Or, afflicted them.

34 And the Amorites *droue the children of Dan into the mountaine: ſo that thei ſuffred them not to come downe to the valley.

*Or, wolde dwel

35 And the Amorites * dwelt ſtil in mount Héres in Aialón, and in Shaalbim, and when the o hand of Ioſephs familie preuailed, thei became tributaries:

o Meaning, when he was ſtronger than they.

36 And the coaſt of the Amorites was from Maaleh-akrabbím, euen from p Sélah and vpwarde.

p Which was a citie in Arabia, or, as ſome reade, from the rocke.

CHAP. II.

1 The Angel rebuketh the people, becauſe thei had made peace with the Canaantes. 11 The Iſraelites fel to idolatrie after Ioſhuas death. 14 Thei are deliuered into the enemies hands. 16 God deliuereth them by Iudges. 22 Why God ſuffred idolaters to remaine among them.

a That is, meſſenger, or Prophet, as ſome think, Phinehás.

AND an [a] Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgál to Bochím, & ſaid, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, & haue brought you vnto the land which I had ſwoine vnto your fathers, and ſaid, I wil neuer breake my couenant with you.

*Deut 7.2.
*Deut.12.3.

2 *Ye alſo ſhal make no couenant with the inhabitants of this land, * but ſhal breake downe their altars: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce. Why haue ye done this?

*Ioſh.23.13.

3 Wherefore, I ſaid alſo, I wil not caſt thẽ out before you, but thei ſhalbe * as thornes vnto your ſides, and their gods ſhalbe *your deſtruction.

*Or, ſnare.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord ſpake theſe wordes vnto all the children of Iſraél, the people lift vp their voyce, and wept.

5 Therefore thei called the name of that place, *Bochím, and offred ſacrifices there vnto the Lord.

*Or, weeping

b After that he had deuided to euery man his portion by lot, Ioſh 14.28.

6 ¶Now when Ioſhúa had [b] ſent the people away, the children of Iſraél went euerie mã into his inheritance to poſſeſſe the land.

7 And the people had ſerued the Lord all the daies of Ioſhúa, and all the daies of the Elders that outlyued Ioſhúa, which had ſene all the great [c] workes of the Lord that he did for Iſraél.

c Meaning, the wonders & miracles.

8 But Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun the ſeruãt of the Lord dyed, when he was an húdreth and ten yeres olde:

9 And thei buryed him in the coaſtes of his inheritance, in [d] Timnath-héres in mount Ephráim, on the Northſide of mount Gáaſh.

d Héres by turnig the letters backward is Serẽh, as Ioſh.24.30.

10 And ſo all that generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, and an other generacion aroſe after them, which nether knewe the Lord, nor yet the workes, which he had done for Iſraél.

11 ¶Thé the children of Iſraél did wickedly in the ſight of the Lord, and ſerued [e] Baalím, e That is, a maner of idoles.

12 And forſoke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, & followed other gods, eũ the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto them, & prouoked the Lord to angre.

13 So thei forſoke the Lord, & ſerued Báal and [f] Aſhtaróth.

f These were idoles, which had the forme of an ewe or ſhepe among the Sidonians.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hote againſt Iſraél, and he deliuered them into the hãds of ſpoilers, that ſpoiled them, & he *ſolde them into the hands of their enemies roũd about thẽ, ſo that thei colde no longer ſtand before their enemies.

*Pſal 44.13.
*Iſa 50.1.

15 g Whether ſocuer thei went out, the [h] hãd of the Lord was ſore againſt them, as the Lord had ſaid, & as the Lord had ſworne vnto them: ſo he puniſhed them ſore.

g To all their enterpriſes h The vengeance.

16 ¶Notwithſtanding, the Lord raiſed vp Iudges, which "deliuered them out of the hands of their oppreſſers.

*Or, Did iudge them
"Ebr ſaued.

17 But yet thei woide not obey their Iudges: for thei went a whoring after other gods, and worſhipped them, & turned quickely out of the [i] way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandements of the Lord: thei did not ſo.

i Meaning, frõ the true religion.

18 And when the Lord had raiſed them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the daies of the Iudge (for the Lord "had compaſſion of their gronings, [k] because of them that oppreſſed them & tormented them)

"Ebr repented
k Seing their cruelte.

19 Yet * whẽ the Iudge was dead, thei returned, and "did worſe then their fathers, in following other gods to ſerue them and worſhip them: thei ceaſed not from their owne inuencions, nor from their rebellious way.

*Chap 3.12.
"Ebr corrupted themſelues.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſraél, & he ſaid, Becauſe this people hatne tranſgreſſed my couenant, which I commanded their fathers, & hathe not obeyed my voyce,

21 Therefo e wil I no more caſt out before them any of the [l] nacions, which Ioſhúa left when he dyed, l As the Hittites, Iebuſites, Amorites, &c.

[m] So ỹ bothe outwarde enemies and falſe Prophets are but a tryal to proue o taten, Deut. 13.

22 That through them I may [m] proue Iſraél, whether they wil kepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or nor.

23 So the Lord left thoſe nacions, & droue them not out immediatly, nether deliuered them into the hand of Ioſhúa.

CHAP. III.

1 The Canaanites were left to tryc Iſraél. 9 Othniél deliuereth Iſraél. 12 Ehúd killeth King Eglón. 31 Shamgar killeth the Philiſtims.

1 THeſe now are the nacions which the Lord left, that he might proue Iſraél by them (euen as many of Iſrael as had not knowen all the [a] warres of Canáan,

[a] Which were achcued by ỹ hand of God, and not by the power of man.

2 Onely to make the generacions of the children of Iſraél to knowe, and to teache them warre, which douteles their predeſſeſſors knewe [b] not)

[b] For thei truſted in God & he fought for them.

3 Fiue princes of the Philiſtims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuites that dwelt in mount Lebanón, from mount Báal hermón vnto one come to Hamath.

4 And theſe remained to proue Iſraél by them, to wit, whether thei wolde obey the commandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moſes.

5 And the children of Iſraél dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and Iebuſites, [c] Contrary to Gods commãdement, Deut. 7.3.

6 And thei toke [c] their daughters to be their wiues, and gaue their daughters to their ſonnes, and ſerued their gods.

7 ¶So ỹ children of Iſraél did wickedly in the ſight of the Lord, & forgate the Lord their God, & ſerued Baalím, and [d] Aſheróth.

[d] Trees or woods erected for idolatrie.

8 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſraél, and he ſolde them into the hãd of Chuſhán riſhathaím King of [e] Arám-naharáim, & the childrẽ of Iſraél ſerued Chuſhán riſhathaím eight yeres.

[e] Or, Meſopotamia.

9 ¶And when the children of Iſraél cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord ſtirred vp a ſauiour to the children of Iſraél, and he ſaued them, euen Othniél the ſonne of Kenáz, Calebs yonger brother.

[e] He was ſtirred vp by the Spirit of the Lord.

10 And the [e] Spirit of the Lord came vpõ him, and he iudged Iſraél, and went out to warre: & the Lord deliuered Chuſhán riſhathaim King of [f] Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed againſt Chuſhán riſhathaím.

[f] Or, Syria.

[g] That is, 32. vnder Ioſhua, & 8. vnder Othniél.

11 So the land had reſt [g] fourtie yeres, and Othniél the ſonne of Kenáz dyed.

[g] So ỹ the enemies of Gods people haue no power ouer them, but by Gods appointement.

12 ¶Thẽ the children of Iſraél againe cõmitted wickednes in ỹ ſight of the Lord: & the Lord [g] ſtrengthened Eglón King of Moáb againſt Iſraél, becauſe ther had committed wickednes before the Lord.

13 And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammón, and Amalék, and went and ſmote Iſraél, and thei poſſeſſed the citie of palmetrees.

14 So the children of Iſraél ſerued Eglón King of Moáb eightẽe yeres.

15 But when the children of Iſraél cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord ſtirred them vp a ſauiour, Ehúd the ſonne of Gerá the ſonne of [f] Iemini, a man [f] lame of his right hand: and the children of Iſraél ſent a preſent by him vnto Eglon King of Moáb.

[f] Or, Beniamin. [f] Or, ſtiff handed.

16 And Ehúd [f] made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did girde it vnder his raymẽt vpon his right thigh,

[f] Or, caused a dagger to be made.

17 And he preſented the gift vnto Eglon King of Moáb (and Eglón was a very fat man)

18 And whẽ he had now preſented the preſent, he ſent away the people that bare the preſent, 19 But he turned againe from the [h] quarris, that were by Gilgál, and ſaid, I haue a ſecret errand vnto thee, ô King. Who ſaid, Kepe [i] ſilence: and all that ſtode about him, went out from him.

[h] Or, as ſome reade, from the places of idoles

[i] Til all be departed.

20 Then Ehúd came vnto him, (& he ſate alone in a ſomer parler, which he had) & Ehúd ſaid, I haue a meſſage vnto thee frõ God. Then he aroſe out of his throne,

21 And Ehúd put forthe his left hand, and toke the dagger from his right thigh, and thruſt it into his belly, 22 So that the hafte went in after the blade: and the fat cloſed about the blade, ſo that he colde not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehúd gate him out [f] into the porche, and ſhut the dores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

[f] Or, hauld.

24 And when he was gone out, his ſeruants came: who ſeing that ỹ dores of the parler were locked, thei ſaid, [n] Surely he doeth his eaſement in his ſomer chambre.

[n] Ebr. hee couereth his feet.

25 And thei taryed til thei were aſhamed: and ſeing he opened not the dores of the parler, thei toke the keye, and opened thẽ, and beholde, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 So Ehúd eſcaped (while thei taryed) and was paſſed the quarris, and eſcaped vnto Seirath.

27 And when he came home, [f] he blewe a trumpet in mount Ephráim, and the children of Iſraél went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

[f] Or, caused the trumpet to be blowen, Numb. 10.2.

28 Then ſaid he vnto them, Followe me: for the Lord hathe deliuered your enemies, euen Moáb into your hand. So they went downe after him, and toke the paſſages sages of Iordén toward Moáb, and suffered not a man to passe ouer.

29 And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand mẽ, all *fed men, and all were warriours, and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moáb was "subdued that day, vnder the hand of Israél: and the [k] land had rest foure score yeres.

31 ¶ And after him was Shamgár the sonne of Anath, which slewe of the Philistims sixe hundreth men with an oxe [l] goade, & he also deliuered Israél.

*Or, high, big bodied

"Ebr humbled

k Meaning, the Israelites l So that it is not the nóber, nor ẏ meanes ẏ God regardeth, when one will get the victorie.

CHAP. IIII.

Israél sinne and are giuẽ into the hands of Iabin. 4 Deborah iudgeth Israél and exhorteth Barák to deliuer the people 15 Sisera fleeth, 17 And is killed by Iaél

1 AND the children of Israel" began againe to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehúd was dead.

"Ebr added, or I continued to do euil.

2 And the Lord solde them into the hand of [a] Iabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazór, whose chief captaine was called Siserá, which dwelt in [b] Harosheth of the Gentiles.

a There was another Iabin, whome Ioshúa killed & burnt his citie Hazór, Iosh 11.13.

b That is, in a wood, or strog place.

3 Then the children of Israél cryed vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundreth charets of yron, and twentie yeres he had vexed the children of Israél very sore)

4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetesse the wife of Lapidóth [c] iudged Israél.

c By ẏ Spirit of prophecie, resoluing of controuersies, & declaring ẏ will of God.

5 And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palme tre, betwene Ramáh and Beth-él in moút Ephraim, & the children of Israél came vp to her for iudgement.

6 Then she sent and called Barák the sonne of Abinóam out of Kédesh of Naphtali, and said vnto him, Hathe not ẏ Lord God of Israél [d] commanded, saying, Go, and drawe toward mount Tabór, & take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

d And reuelled vnto me by ẏ Spirit of prophecie.

7 And I wil drawe vnto thee to the *[e] riuer Kishón Siserá, the captaine of Iabins armie with his charets, and his multitude, & wil deliuer him into thine hand.

*Psal. 83.10.
*Or, valley

8 And Barák said vnto her, [e] If thou wilt go with me, I wil go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I wil not go.

e Fearing his owne weakenes & his enemies power, he desireth ẏ Prophetesse to go with him to assure him of Gods wil from time to time

9 Then she answered, I wil surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shal not be for thine honour: for ẏ Lord shal sel Sisera into ẏ hãd of a womã. And Deborah arose and went w Barák to Kédesh.

10 ¶ And Barák called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kédesh, & [f] he went vp on his fete with ten thousand men, and Deborah wẽt vp with him.

*Or, he led after him 10000 men.

11 (Now Hebei the Kenite, which was of the "children of *Hobáb the father in law of Moses, was departed from the" Kenites, and pitched his tent [f] vntil the plaine of Zaanaim, which is by Kédesh)

*Or posterity. Num 10, 29
"Ebr sons of Reuel

f Meaning, ẏ he possessed a great parte of that countrey.

12 Thẽ they shewed Siserá, ẏ Barák ẏ sonne of Abinóã was gone vp to moút Tabór.

13 And Sisera called for all his charets, euen nine hundreth charets of yron, & all the people that were with him fró Harosheth of the Gentiles, "vnto the riuer Kishón.

14 Then Deborah said vnto Barák, [g] Vp: for this is ẏ day that the Lord hathe deliuered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? so Barák went downe from mount Tabór, and ten thousand men after him.

g She stil encourageth hĩ to this enterprise by assuring him of Gods fauour & aide.

15 And the Lord destroyed Sisera and all his charets, & all his hoste with the edge of the sworde, before Barák, so that Sisera lighted downe of his charet, and fled away on his fete.

16 But * Barák pursued after the charets, Psal 83.11. & after the hoste vnto Harosheth of the Gẽtiles: & all ẏ hoste of Sisera fel vpon ẏ edge of ẏ sworde: there was not a mã left.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his fete to the tent of Iaél the wife of [h] Hebér the Kenite: (for peace was betwene Iabin the King of Hazór, and betwene the house of Hebér the Kenite) h Whose ancestors were strãgers, but worshiped ẏ true God, & therefore were ioyned w Israél.

18 And Iael wẽt out to mete Sisera, & said vnto him, Turne in, my Lord, turne into me: feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, she couered him with a [g] mantel.

*Or, al cater.

19 And he said vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke: for I am thirsty. And she opened * a bottle of milke & gaue him drinke, and couered him.

*Chap 5.25.

20 Againe he said vnto her, Stande in the dore of the tent, and when anie man doeth come and enquire of thee, saying, Is anie man here? thou shalt say, Nay.

i To wit, Sisera.

21 Then Iaél Hebers wife toke a [k] nayle of the tent, and toke an hammer in her hand, and went softly vnto him, and smote the naile into his temples, and fastened it into the grounde, (for he was fast a slepe, and wearie) and so he dyed.

k That is, the pinne or stake, wherby it was fastened to the ground.

22 And beholde, as Barák pursued after Sisera, Iaél came out to mete him, and said vnto him, Come, and I wil shewe thee the mã, whome thou seekest: and whẽ he came into her tent, beholde, Sisera lay [l] dead, and the naile in his temples.

l So he sawe ẏ a woman had the honour, as Deborah prophecied 23 So God broght downe Iabin the King of Canáan that day before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel "prospered, and preuailed against Iabin the King of Canáan, vntil they had destroyed Iabin King of Canaan.

"Ebr went and was strog.

CHAP. V.

1 The song and thanksgiuing of Deborah and Barák after the victorie

1 THen ſang Deboráh, and Barák the ſonne of Abinóam the ſame day, ſaying,

2 Praiſe ye the Lord for the auenging of Iſraél, & for the [a] people that offred thē ſelues willingly.

[a] To wit, the two tribes of Zebulún and Naphtalí.

3 Heare, ye Kings, hearken ye princes: I, euen I wil ſing vnto ŷ Lord: I wil ſing praiſe vnto the Lord God of Iſraél.

Deu. 4,11. 4 Lord, * when thou wenteſt out of Seír, when thou departedſt out of the field of Deu 2,1. *Edóm, the earth trembled, & the heauēs rained, the cloudes alſo dropped water.

Pſal 97,5. 5 *The mountaines melted before ŷ Lord, Exod.19,18. as did that Sinái before the Lord God of Iſraél.

Chap 3,31. 6 In the dayes of *Shamgár the ſonne of Chap 4,18. Anáth, in ŷ dayes of *Iaél the hye wayes [b] For feare of the enemies. were [b] vnoccupied, and the trauelers walked through bywayes.

7 The townes were not inhabited: they decayed, I ſay, in Iſraél, vntil I Deboráh came vp, which roſe vp a [c] mother in Iſraél.

[c] Miraculouſly ſtirred vp of God to pitie them & deliuer them

8 They choſe newe gods: then was warre in the gates. Was there a [d] ſhilde or ſpeare ſene among fourtie thouſand of Iſraél?

[d] They had no heart to reſiſt their enemies.

9 Mine heart is ſet on the gouerners of Iſraél, & on them that are willing among ŷ people: praiſe ye the Lord.

[e] Ye gouerners

10 Speake ye that ride on [e] white aſſes, ye ŷ [f] As in dāger of your enemies dwel [f] by Middin, and that walke by the waye.

11 For the noyſe of the archers appaiſed amōg the [g] drawers of water: there ſhal thei rehearſe ŷ righteouſnes of the Lord, his righteouſnes of his townes in Iſraél: then did the people of the Lord go downe to the gates.

[g] For now you may drawe water without feare of your enemies

12 Vp Deboráh, vp, ariſe, & ſing a ſong: ariſe Barák, & lead [h] thy captiuitie captiue, thou ſonne of Abinóam.

[h] To wit, thē ŷ kept thy people in captiuitie.

13 For they that remaine, haue dominiō ouer the mightie of the people: the Lord hathe giuen me dominion ouer the ſtrong.

[i] Ioſhúa firſt fought againſt Amalék, and Saul deſtroyed him.

14 Of Ephráim [i] their roote aroſe againſt Amalék & after thee, Ben-iamin ſhal fight againſt thy people, ó Amalek: of Machír came rulers, and of Zebulún they that handle the penne of the [k] writer.

[k] Euen ŷ learned did helpe to fight.

15 And the Princes of Iſſachár were with Deboráh, & [l] Iſſachár, and alſo Barák: he was ſet on his fete in the valley: for the diuiſions of Reubén were great [m] thoghtes of heart.

[l] Euē ŷ whole tribe

[m] They merueiled, ŷ they came not ouer Iordén to helpe them

16 Why abodeſt thou among the ſhepefoldes, to heare the bleatings of the flockes? for the diuiſions of Reubén were great thoghtes of heart.

[n] She reproueth all them that came not to helpe their brethren in their neceſsitie

17 [n] Gilcád abode beyonde Iordén: & why doeth Dan remaine in ſhippes? Aſhér ſate on the ſeaſhore, and taried in his [o] decayed places.

[o] Ether by beating of the ſea, or by mining

18 But the people of Zebulún and Naphtalí haue ieoparde their liues vnto the death in the hye places of the field.

19 The Kings came & fought: thē fought the Kings of Canáan in Taanách by the waters of Megiddó: they receiued no gaine of [p] money.

[p] They wanne nothing, but loſt all

20 They fought from heauen, euen the ſtarres in their courſes fought againſt Siſerá.

21 The riuer Kiſhón [q] ſwept them away, that ancient riuer the riuer Kiſhón. ô my ſoule, thou haſt marched valiantly.

[q] As a beſome doeth ŷ filth of ŷ houſe.

22 Then were the horſehoufes broken with the oft beating together of their mighty men.

23 Curſe ye [r] Meróz: (ſaid the Angel of the Lord) curſe the inhabitants thereof, becauſe they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord againſt the mightie.

[r] It was a citie nere Tabor, where thei fought.

24 Iaél the wife of Hebér the Kenite ſhal be bleſſed aboue other women: bleſſed ſhal ſhe be aboue women dwelling in tents.

25 He aſked water, & ſhe gaue him milke: ſhe broght forthe [f] butter in a lordly diſh.

[f] Some read, churned milke in a great cup.

26 She put her hand to the naile, and her right hand to the workemans hammer: with the hammer ſmote ſhe Siſerá: ſhe ſmote of his head, after ſhe had wounded, & pearſed his temples.

27 He bowed him downe at her fete, he fel downe, & lay ſtil: at her fete he bowed him downe, and fel: and when he had ſonke downe, he lay there "dead.

"Ebr deſtroyed.

28 The mother of Siſerá loked out at a windowe, and cryed through the latteſſe, Why is his charet ſo long a cōming? why tary the 'wheles of his charets?

'Or, feet

29 Her wiſe ladyes anſwered her, Yea. [t] She anſwered her ſelfe with her owne wordes, [t] That is, ſhe comforted her ſelfe.

30 Haue they not gotten, & they deuide the ſpoyle? euerie man hathe a maide or two. Siſerá hathe a praye of diuers coulours, a praye of ſondry coulours made of nedle woike: of diuers coulours of nedle woike on bothe ſides, [u] for the chief of the ſpoyle.

[u] Becauſe he was chief of ŷ armie

31 So let all thine enemies periſh, ô Lord: but they that loue him, ſhal be as the [x] ſunne when he riſeth in his might. and the lād had reſt fortie yeres.

[x] Shal growe daily more & more in Gods fauour

CHAP. VI.

1 Iſraél is oppreſſed of the Midianites for their wickednes. 14 Gideon is ſent to be their deliuerer. 37 He aſketh a ſigne.

1 AFterward the children of Iſraél committed wickednes in the ſight of the Lord, and the Lord gaue thē into the handes of Midián ſeuen yeres.

2 And the hand of Midián preuailed againſt Iſraél, [a] & becauſe of the Midianites the children of Iſraél made them dē-

[a] For feare of ŷ Midianites they fled into ŷ dennes of the mountaines nes

dennes in the mountaines, and caues, and ſtrong holdes.

3 When Iſraél had ſowen, then came vp the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the (Or, of kedém) East, and came vpon them,

4 And camped by them, and deſtroyed the frute of the earth, euen til thou come vnto (b Azzáh), & left no foode for Iſraél, nether ſhepe, nor oxe, nor aſſe.

b Euen almoſt ỹ whole cõtrey

5 For they wẽt vp, and their cattel, and came with their tentes as greſhoppers in multitude: ſo that they and their camels were without nomber: and they came into the land to deſtroye it.

6 So was Iſraél excedingly impoueriſhed by the Midianites: therefore the (c children of Iſraél cryed vnto the Lord.

c This is the end of Gods punishemẽts, to call his to repentance ỹ they may seke for helpe of him.

7 ¶ And when the children of Iſraél cryed vnto the Lord becauſe of the Midianites,

8 The Lord ſent vnto the children of Iſraél a Prophet, who ſaid vnto them, Thus ſayeth the Lord God of Iſraél, I haue broght you vp frõ Egypt & haue broght you out of the houſe of bondage,

9 And I haue deliuered you out of the hãd of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppreſſed you, and haue caſt them out before you, and giuen you their land.

10 And I ſaid vnto you, I am the Lord your God: * fear not the gods of the Amorites in whoſe land you dwel: but you haue not obeyed my voyce.

2 King. 17, 38 Ier. 10, 2.

11 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord came, and ſate vnder the oke which was in Ophráh, that perteined vnto Ioáſh the father of the Ezrites, and his ſonne Gideón threaſhed wheat by the winepreſſe, (f to hide it from the Midianites.

f Or, to prepare his flight

12 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and ſaid vnto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

13 To whome Gideón anſwered, (d Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why then is all this come vpon vs? and where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and ſaid, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt? but now the Lord hathe forſaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hand of the Midianites.

d This came not of diſtruſt, but of weakenes of faith, ẃ is in ỹ moſte perfect: for no man in this liſt can haue a perfect faith, but the children of God haue a true faith, whereby they be iuſtified 14 And the (e Lord loked vpon him, and ſaid, Go in this thy (f might, & thou ſhalt ſaue Iſraél out of the hands of the Midianites: haue not I ſent thee?

e That is, Christ appearing in visible forme f Which I haue giuen thee.

15 And he anſwered him, Ah my Lord, whereby ſhal I ſaue Iſraél? beholde, my (f father is poore in Manaſſéh, and I am the leaſt in my fathers houſe.

f Or, familie.

16 Then the Lord ſaid vnto him, I wil therefore be with thee, and thou ſhalt ſmite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he anſwered him, I pray thee, if I haue foũde fauour in thy ſight, then ſhewe me a ſigne, that thou talkeſt with me.

g So that we ſe how the fleſh is enemie vnto Gods vocatiõ, which can not be perſuaded without ſignes

18 Departe not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and bring mine offring, & lay it before thee. And he ſaid, I wil tary vntil thou come againe.

19 ¶ Then Gideón went in, & made ready a kid, & vnleauened bread of an (h Epháh of floure, and put the fleſh in a baſket, and put the broth in a pot, and broght it out vnto him vnder the oke, and preſented it.

h Of Epháh read Exode 16, 36.

20 And the Angel of God ſaid vnto him, Take the fleſh and the vnleauened bread, and lay them vpon this ſtone, and powre out the broth: and he did ſo.

21 ¶ Thẽ the Angel of the Lord put forthe the end of the ſtaffe that he held in his hand, and touched the fleſh & the vnleauened bread: and there aroſe vp fire (i out of the ſtone, and conſumed the fleſh & the vnleauened bread: ſo the Angel of the Lord departed out of his ſight.

i By ỹ power of God onely. as in ỹ ſacrifice of Helias, 1 King 18, 38.

22 And when Gideón perceiued that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideón then ſaid, Alas, my Lord God: * for becauſe I haue ſene an Angel of the Lord face to face, I ſhal dye.

Exod 33, 20. chap 13, 22.

23 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou ſhalt not dye.

24 Then Gideón made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, (f Iehouáh ſhalóm: vnto this day it is in Ophráh, of the father of the Ezrites.

f Or, the Lord of peace.

25 ¶ And the ſame night the Lord ſaid vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, & another bullocke (k of ſeuen yeres olde, and deſtroy the altar of Baal that thy father hathe, and cut downe the groue that is by it, k That is, as the Chalde text writeth, fed ſeuen yeres.

26 And buylde an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpõ the top of this rocke, in a plaine place: and take the ſeconde bullocke, and offer a burnt offring with the wood of the (l groue, which thou ſhalt cut downe.

l Which growed about Baals altar

27 Then Gideón toke ten men of his ſeruants, and did as the Lord bade him: but becauſe he feared to do it by day for his fathers houſholde and the men of the citie, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the citie aroſe early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Báal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the (m ſeconde bullocke offred vpon the altar that was made.

m Meaning ỹ fat bul, which was kept to be offred vnto Báal.

29 Therefore they ſaid one to another, Who hathe done this thing? & when they inquired and aſked, they ſaid, Gideón the ſonne of Ioáſh hathe done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie ſaid vnto Ioáſh, Bring out thy ſonne, that he may dye: for he hathe deſtroyed the altar of Báal, & hathe alſo cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Ioáſh ſaid vnto all that ſtode by him, Wil ye pleade Baals cauſe? or wil ye ſaue him? [n] he that wil contend for hī, let him dye or the morning. If he be God, let him pleade for him ſelfe againſt him that hathe caſt downe his altar.

n Thus we ought to iuſtifi the, that are zelous of Gods cauſe, though all the multitude be againſt vs 32 And in that day was Gideon called Ieruboáal, ỹ is, Let Baal plead for him ſelfe becauſe he hathe broken downe his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites & the Amalekites and they of the Eaſt, were gathered together, and went & pitched in the valley of Izreel.

"Ebr. clad Gideon Num 10,3. chap 3,27.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord "came vpon Gideón,* & he blewe a trumpet, & [o] Abiézer was ioyned with him.

o The familie of Abiezer, whereof he was.

35 And he ſent meſſengers through out all Manaſſéh, which alſo was ioyned with hī, and he ſent meſſengers vnto Aſhér, and to Zebulún and to Naphtali, and they came vp to mete them.

p This requeſt proceded not of infidelitie, but ỹ he might be confirmed in his vocatiō

36 Then Gideon ſaid vnto God, [p] If thou wilt ſaue Iſraél by mine hād, as thou haſt ſaid, 37 Beholde, I wil put a fleece of wolle in ỹ threſhing place: if the dewe come on the fleece onely, and it be drye vpon all the earth, then ſhal I be ſure, that ỹ wilt ſaue Iſraél by mine hand, as thou haſt ſaid.

38 And ſo it was: for he roſe vp early on ỹ morowe, & thruſt the fleece together, and wringed the dewe out of the fleece, and filled a bowle of water.

39 Againe Gideón ſaid vnto God, Be not angry with me, that* I may ſpeake once more: let me proue once againe, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be drye onely vpon the fleece, and let dewe be vpō all the grounde.

Gen.18,32.

40 And God did ſo that ſame night: for it was [q] drye vpon the fleece onely and there was dewe on all the grounde.

q Whereby he was aſſured ỹ it was a miracle of God.

CHAP. VII.

2 The Lord commandeth Gideón to ſend away a great parte of his compame. 22 The Midianites are diſcomfited by a wonderous ſort. 25 Oreb and Zeib are ſlaine.

Chap.8,35.

1 THen* Ierubbaal (who is Gideón) roſe vp early and all the people that were with him, and pitched beſide "the well of Haród, ſo that the hoſte of the Midianites was on the Northſide of them in the valley by the hil of "Moréh.

"Ebr. En-haród.

"Ebr. Hammoréh.

2 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Gideón, The people that are with thee, are to manie for me to giue the Midianites into their handes, leſt Iſrael make their [a] vante againſt me, and ſay, Mine hand hathe ſaued me.

a God wil not that anie creature diſpriue him of his glorie

Deu.20,5. 1.Mac.3,56.

3 Now therefore proclayme in the audience of the people, & ſay,* Whoſo is timerous or fearefull, let him returne, and departe early from moūt Gilead And there returned of the people which were at mount Gileád, two and twentie thouſand. ſo ten thouſand remained.

4 And the Lord ſaid vnto Gideón, The people are yet to manie: bring thē downe vnto the water, and I wil [b] trye them for thee there: and of whome I ſay vnto thee, This man ſhal go with thee, the ſame ſhal go with thee. and of whomeſoeuer I ſay vnto thee, This man ſhal not go with thee, the ſame ſhal not go.

b I wil giue thee a proofe to know thē, that ſhal go with thee.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water. And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto Gideón, As manie as lappe the water with their tongues as a dog lappeth, them put by them ſelues, & euerie one that ſhal bowe downe his knees to [c] drinke, put aparte.

c Let thē departe, as vnmete for this enterprise.

6 And the nombet of them that lapped ly putting their hands to their mouthes, were thre hundreth men: but all the remnant of the people kneled downe vpō their knees to drinke water.

7 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid vnto Gideón, By theſe thre hundreth men that lapped, wil I ſaue you, and deliuer the Midianites into thine hand. and let all the other [d] people go euerie man vnto his place.

d That is, the one and thirtie thouſand, and 700

8 ¶ So the people toke vitailes "with thē, and their trumpets: and he ſent all the reſt of Iſraél, euerie man vnto his tent, [e] & reteined the thre hundreth men: and the hoſte of Midian was beneth him in a valley.

"Ebr. in their hand.

[e] Or, incouraged.

9 ¶ And the ſame night the Lord ſaid vnto him, Ariſe, [e] get thee downe vnto the hoſte: for I haue deliuered it into thine hād.

e That ỹ Lord by diuers meanes doth ſtrēgthen him that he faint not in ſo great an enterpriſe.

10 But if thou feare to go downe, then go thou, & Phurah thy ſeruant downe to the hoſte, 11 And thou ſhalt hearken, what they ſay, and ſo ſhal thine hands be ſtrong to go downe vnto ỹ hoſte. Thē went he downe and Phurāh his ſeruāt vnto the outſide of the ſouldiars that were in the hoſte.

12 ¶ And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all* they of the Eaſt, lay in the valley like graſhoppers in multitude, & their camels were without nombet, as the ſand which is by the ſeaſide for multitude.

Chap 6.33.

13 And when Gideón was come, beholde, a man tolde a dreame vnto his neighbour, and ſaid, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, & lo, a [f] cake of barley bread tombled from aboue into the hoſte of Midián, and came vnto a tent, and ſmote it that it fel, and ouerturned it, that the tent fel downe.

f Some read, a trembling noiſe of barley bread meaning in it one of no reputacion ſhulde make their great armie to trēble.

14 And his fellowe anſwered, and ſaid, This is nothing els ſaue the ſworde of Gideón the ſonne of Loaſh a man of Iſrael. for into his hād hathe God deliuered Midián and all the hoſte.

15 ¶ When Gideón heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretacion of the ſame, he worſhipped, and returned vnto the hoſte of Iſraél, & ſaid, Vp: for the Lord hathe deliuered into your hād ỹ hoſte of Midiā.

g Or, gaue God thākes, as it is in the Chalde text

16 And he deuided the thre hundreth men into

into three bandes, and gaue euerie man a trumpet in his hād with emptie pitchers, and *lampes b within the pitchers.

17 And he said vnto them, Loke on me, and do likewise, whē I come to the side of the hoste: euen as I do, so do you.

18 When I blowe with a trumpet and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on euerie side of the hoste, and say, c For the Lord, and for Gideón.

19 ¶So Gideón and the hundreth men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste in the beginning of the middle watche, and they raised vp the watchemē, and they blewe with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hāds.

20 And the three companies blewe with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lampes in their left hands, and the trūpets in their right hands to blowe withall: and they cryed, The k sworde of the Lord and of Gideón.

21 And they stode, euerie man in his place rounde about the hoste: and all the hoste 'ranne, and cryed, and fled.

22 And the three hūdreth blewe with trumpets, & * the Lord set euerie mans sworde vpon his l neighbour, and vpon all the hoste: so the hoste fled to Beth-hashittáh in Zereráh, and to the border of Abél meholáh vnto Tabbáth.

23 Then the men of Israél being gathered together out of Naphtalí, & out of Asher, and out of all Manassēh pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideón sent messengers vnto all mount Ephráim, saying, Come downe against the Midianites, and take before thē the m waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iordén. Then all the men of Ephráim gathered together and toke the waters vnto Beth-baráh, and Iordén.

25 And they toke two *princes of the Midianites, Oréb and Zeeb, and slewe Oreb vpon the rocke Oréb, and slewe Zeéb at n the winepresse of Zeéb, and pursued the Midianites, and broght the heades of Oréb & Zeéb to Gideón beyonde Iordén.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Ephráim murmureth against Gideón. 2 Who appeaseth them. 4 He passeth the Iordén 16 He reuengeth him selfe on them of Succóth and Penuél 27 He maketh an Ephód which was the cause of idolatrie. 30 Of Gideons sonnes and of his death

1 THen the men of Ephráim said vnto him, a Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chode with him sharpely.

2 To whome he said, What haue I now done in comparison of b you? is not c the gleaning of grapes of Ephráim better, thē the vintage of Abiézer?

3 God hathe deliuered into your hands the princes of Midián, Oréb and Zeéb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶And Gideón came to Iordén to passe ouer, he, and the three hundreth men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succóth, Giue, I pray you, d moisels of bread vnto the people "that followe me (for they be weary) that I may followe after Zébah, & Zalmunna Kings of Midián.

6 And the princes of Succóth said, Are the e hands of Zébah and Zalmunná now in thine hāds, that we shulde giue bread vnto thine armie?

7 Gideón then said, Therefore when the Lord hathe deliuered Zébah & Zalmunná into mine hand, I wil "teare your flesh with thornes of the wildernes and with breers.

8 ¶And he went vp thence to Penuél, and spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Penuél answered him, as the men of Succóth answered.

9 And he said also vnto the men of Penuél, When I come againe f in peace, I wil breake downe this towre.

10 ¶Now Zébah and Zalmunná were g in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousand, all that were left of all ȳ hostes of them of the East: for there was slayne an hundreth and twentie thousand men, that drewe swordes.

11 ¶And Gideón went through them that dwelt in h tabernacles on the Eastside of Nóbah & Iogbeháh, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was careles.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunná fled, he followed after them, & toke the two Kings of Midián, Zébah and Zalmunná, and discomfited all the hoste.

13 ¶So Gideón ȳ sonne of Ioásh returned from battel, i the sunne being yet hie, 14 And toke a seruant of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he "wrote to him the princes of Succóth & the Elders thereof, euen seuentie and seuen men.

15 And he came vnto the men of Succóth, and said, Beholde Zébah and Zalmunná, by whome ye vpbraided me, saying, Are ȳ hands of Zébah & Zalmunna already in thine hāds, that we shulde giue bread vnto thy weary men?

16 Then he toke the Elders of the citie, & thornes of the wildernes & breers, & "did teare the men of Succóth with them.

17 Also he brake downe the towre of *Penuél, and slewe the men of the citie.

18 ¶Then said he vnto Zébah & Zalmunná, What maner of mē were they, whome ye slew at Tabór? and they answered, "As thou art, so were they: euerie one was like

*Or, the heads. a These words make mēs God vsed, to signifie that ȳ whole victorie came of him
b These were lampes
1 That is, the victorie shalbe the Lords and Gideons his seruaūt k Shal destroy the enemies.
Or, brake their array.
Isa. 9.4.
l The Lord caused the Midianites to kil one another.
m Meaning, ȳ passages or the foordes, that they shulde not escape.
*Psal. 83.12. Isa. 10.26.
n These places had their names of the actes that were done there.
a They began to cauil, because he had the glorie of the victorie.
b Which haue slaine two princes, Oréb and Zeéb
c This last act of the whole tribe is more famous, then the whole enterprise of one man of one familie d Or, some smale portiō.
"Ebr. that are at my feet.
e Because thou hast ouercome an handful, thinkest thou to haue ouercome ȳ whole.
"Ebr. beat the flesh.
f Hauing gotten the victorie g A citie Eastward beyonde Iordén.
h He went by the wildernes where the Arabias dwelt in tentes.
i Some read, before ȳ sunne rose vp Or, dejected.
"Ebr. brake in pieces, as one threshcth corne
1 King. 12.25
"Or, they were like vnto thee.

the children of a King.

19 And he ſaid, They were my brethren, euen my k mothers children: as the Lo. d liueth, if ye had ſaued their liues, I wolde not ſlay you.

k We came all out of one belly: therefore I wil be reuenged.

20 Then he ſaid vnto Iéther his firſt borne ſonne, Vp, and ſlay them: but the boy drewe not his ſworde: for he feared, becauſe he was yet yong.

21 Then Zébah and Zalmunná ſaid, Riſe thou, and fall vpon vs: for l as the man is, ſo is his ſtrength. And Gideón aroſe and ſlewe Zébah and Zalmunná, & toke away the m ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

l Meaning, that they wolde be rid out of their paine at once, or els to haue a valiant man to put thē to death.

m Or, collers

22 ¶ Then the men of Iſraél ſaid vnto Gideón, Reigne thou ouer vs, bothe thou, & thy ſonne, & thy n ſonnes ſonne: for thou haſt deliuered vs out of ỹ hād of Midián.

n That is, thy poſteritie

23 And Gideón ſaid vnto them, I wil not reigne ouer you, nether ſhal my childe reigne ouer you, but the Lord ſhal o reigne ouer you.

o His intent was to ſhewe him ſelfe thākeful for this victorie by reſtoring of religiō, which, becauſe it was not according as God had cōmāded, turned to their deſtruction.

24 Againe Gideón ſaid vnto them, I wolde deſire a requeſt of you, that you wolde giue me euerie man the earings of his praye (for they had golden earings becauſe they were Iſmaelites)

25 And they anſwered, We wil giue them. And they ſpred a garmēt, & did caſt therein euerie man the earings of his praye.

26 And the weight of the golden earings that he required, was a thouſand and ſeuen hundreth ſhekels of golde, beſide collers, p and iewels, and purple raiment that was on the Kings of Midián, and beſide the cheines, that were about their camels neckes.

p Or, ſwete balles.

27 And Gideón made an q Ephód thereof, and put it in Ophráh his citie: & all Iſraél wēt a whoring there after it, which was the deſtruction of Gideón and his houſe.

q That is, ſuche things as pertained to ỹ vſe of the tabernacle.

28 Thus was Midián broght lowe before ỹ childrē of Iſraél, ſo that they lift vp their heads nomore: and the countrey was in quietnes forty yeres in the dayes of Gideón.

29 ¶ Thé Ierubbáal the ſonne of Ioáſh wēt, and dwelt in his owne houſe.

r Ebr which came out of his thigh.

30 And Gideón had ſeuentie ſonnes r begottē of his body: for he had manie wiues.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechém, bare him a ſonne alſo, whoſe name he called Abimélech.

32 So Gideón the ſonne of Ioáſh dyed in a good age, and was buryed in the ſepulchre of Ioáſh his father in Ophráh, of the s fāther of the Ezrites.

s Which citie belonged to the familie of the Ezrites.

33 But when Gideón was dead, the children of Iſraél turned away and wēt a whoring after Baalím, and made t Baal-beríth their god.

t That is Baal, to whome they had bounde them ſelues by couenant.

34 And the children of Iſraél remembred not the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the hands of all their enemies on euerie ſide.

35 Nether u ſhewed they mercie on the houſe of Ierubbáal, or Gideón, according to all the goodnes which he had ſhewed vnto Iſraél.

u They were vnmindeful of God, and vnkynde to ward him, by whome they had receyued ſo great a benefite.

CHAP. IX.

1 Abimélech vſurpeth the kingdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Iothám propoſeth a parable. 23 Hatred betwene Abimélech & the Shechemites. 26 Gaál conſpireth againſt him, and is ouercome. 53 Abimélech is wounded to death by a woman.

1 THen Abimélech the ſonne of Ierubbáal went to Shechém vnto his a mothers brethren, and cōmuned with them, and with all the familie, and houſe of his mothers father, ſaying, a To practiſe with his kinſfolkes for the attaining of ỹ kingdome.

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechém, whether is better for you, that all ỹ ſonnes of Ierubbáal, which are ſeuentie perſones, reigne ouer you, ether that one reigne ouer you? Remember alſo, that I am your b bone, and your fleſh.

b Of your kinſred by my mothers ſide.

3 Then his mothers brethren ſpake of him in the audiēce of all the men of Shechém, all theſe wordes: and their heartes were moued to followe Abimélech. for ſaid they, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him ſeuentie pieces of ſiluer out of the houſe of Baal-beríth, wherewith Abimélech hired c vaine and light fellowes which followed him.

c Or, idle felowes and vacabōdes.

5 And he went vnto his fathers houſe at Ophráh, and d ſlewe his brethren, the ſonnes of Ierubbáal, about ſeuenty perſones vpon one ſtone: yet Iothám the yongeſt ſonne of Ierubbáal was left: for he hid him ſelfe.

d Thus tyrātes to eſtabliſhe their vſurped power ſpare not the innocent blood, 1. King 10, 7. 2. chro 21, 4.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechém gathered together with all the houſe of e Milló, and came and made Abimélech King in the plaine, where the ſtone was erected in Shechém.

e Which was as the towne houſe or cōmōhal, which he calleth the towre of Shechém verſ 49.

7 And when they tolde it to Iothám, he went and ſtode in the top of mount Gerizím, and lift vp his voyce, and cryed, and ſaid vnto them, Hearken vnto me, you men of Shechém, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 f The trees wēt forthe to anointe a King ouer them, and ſaid vnto the oliue tre, Reigne thou ouer vs.

f By this parable he declareth, that thoſe that are not ambitious, are moſte worthy of honour, and that the ambitious abuſe their honour bothe to their owne deſtruction and others.

9 But the oliue tre ſaid vnto them, Shulde I leaue my fatnes, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to auance me aboue the trees?

10 Then the trees ſaid to the fig tre, Come thou, and be King ouer vs.

11 But the fig tre anſwered them, Shulde I forſake my ſwetenes, and my good frute, and go to auance me aboue the trees?

12 Then

231/1224

12 Then ſaid the trees vnto the vine, Come thou & be King ouer vs.
13 But the vine ſaid vnto them, Shulde I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare God and man, and go to auance me aboue the trees?
14 Thē ſaid all the trees vnto the Or, thiſtel, or breere. bramble, Come thou and reigne ouer vs.
15 And the bramble ſaid vnto the trees, If ye wil in dede anoint me King ouer you, come, & put your truſt vnder my ſhadow: and if not, the f fire ſhal come out of the bramble, and conſume the cedres of Lebanón.
f Abimélech ſhal deſtroye the nobles of Shechém 16 Now therefore, if ye do truely and vncorruptly to make Abimélech King, & if ye haue dealt wel with Ierubbáal & with his houſe, & haue done vnto him according to the deſeruing of his hands, Ebr. he caſt his life farre from him. 17 (For my father fought for you, and Ebr. aduentured his life, & deliuered you out of the hands of Midián.
18 And ye are riſen vp againſt my fathers houſe this day, and haue ſlayne his children, about ſeuentie perſones vpon one ſtone, & haue made Abimélech the ſonne of his maideſeruant, King ouer the men of Shechém, becauſe he is your brother) 19 If ye then haue delt truely and purely with Ierubbáal, and with his houſe this day, then g reioyce ye with Abimélech, and let him reioyce with you.
g That he is your King, and you his ſubiectes.
20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimélech, and conſume the men of Shechém and the houſe of Milló: alſo let a fire come forth frō the men of Shechém, & from the houſe of Milló, and conſume Abimélech.
21 And Iothám ranne away, and fled, & wēt to Beér and dwelt there for feare of Abimélech his brother.
22 So Abimélech reigned thre yere ouer Iſraél.
h Becauſe the people conſented with the King in ſhedīg innocēt blood: therefore God deſtroyeth bothe the one & the other.
23 But God h ſent an euil ſpirit betwene Abimélech, and the men of Shechém: and the mē of Shechém brake their promes to Abimélech, 24 That the crueltie towarde the ſeuentie ſonnes of Ierubbáal & their blood might come and be laide vpon Abimélech their brother, which had ſlayne them, and vpon ỹ men of Shechém, which had aided him to kil his brethren.
25 So ỹ men of Shechém ſet men in waite for him in the tops of the mountaines: who robbed all that paſſed that way by them: and it was tolde Abimélech.
26 Then Gáal the ſonne of Ebéd came with his brethren, and they went to Shechém: and the men of Shechém put their confidence in him.
i Before they were afrayed of Abimelechs power, & durſt not go out of the citie.
27 Therefore they i went out into the field, & gathered in their grapes & troade them, and made mery, and went into the houſe of their gods, and did eat & drinke, and curſed Abimélech.
28 Thē Gáal the ſonne of Ebéd ſaid, Who is Abimélech? and who is Shechém, that we ſhulde ſerue him? Is he not the ſonne of Ierubbáal? & Zebúl is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamór the father of Shechém: for why ſhulde we ſerue him?
29 Now wolde God this people were vnder mine hād: then wolde I put away Abimélech. And he ſaid to k Abimélech, Increaſe thine armie, and come out.
k Braggingly as though he had bene preſent, or to his captaine Zebúl.
30 ¶ And when Zebúl the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gáal the ſonne of Ebéd, his wrath was kindled.
31 Therefore he ſent meſſengers vnto Abimélech Ebr. craftely. priuely, ſaying, Beholde, Gáal the ſonne of Ebéd and his brethren be come to Shechém, and beholde, they fortifie the citie againſt thee.
32 Now therefore ariſe by night, thou and ỹ people that is with thee, & lie in wayte in the field.
33 And riſe early in the morning as ſoone as the ſunne is vp, and aſſalt the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, ſhal come out againſt thee, do to him Ebr. what thine hand can finde what thou canſt.
34 ¶ So Abimélech roſe vp, & all the people that were with him by night: and they laie in waite againſt Shechém in foure bandes.
35 Then Gáal the ſonne of Ebéd went out and ſtode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimélech roſe vp, and the folke that were with him, frō liyng in waite.
36 And when Gáal ſawe the people, he ſaid to Zebúl, Beholde, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebúl ſaid vnto him, The l ſhadowe of the mountaines ſeme men vnto thee.
l Thou art afrayed of a ſhadowe
37 And Gáal ſpake againe, & ſaid, Se, there come folke downe Ebr. by the nauel by the middle of the land, & an other band cometh by the way of the plaine of Or, charmers. m Meonenim.
38 Then ſaid Zebúl vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that ſaid, Who is Abimélech, that we ſhulde ſerue him? Is not this the people that thou haſt deſpiſed? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them.
39 And Gáal n went out before the men of Shechém, and fought with Abimélech.
n As their captaine.
40 But Abimélech purſued him, & he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.
41 And Abimélech dwelt at Arumáh: and Zebúl thruſt out Gáal and his brethren that they ſhulde not dwel in Shechém.
42 ¶ And on the morowe, the people went out into the field: which was tolde Abimélech.
43 And he toke the o people, and deuided them into thre bandes, and laid waite in o Which were of his compaine.

the fields, and loked, & beholde, the people were come out of the citie, & he roſe vp againſt them, and ſmote them.
44 And Abimélech, and the bandes that were with him, ruſſhed forwarde, & ſtode in the entring of the gate of ỹ citie: and ỹ two other bãdes ranne vpon all the people that were in the field and ſlewe them.
45 And whẽ Abimélech had fought againſt the citie all that day, he toke the citie, and ſlewe the people that was therein, & deſtroyed the citie and ſowed [o] ſalt in it.
[o] That it ſhulde be vnfruteful and neuer ſerue to any vſe.
46 ¶ And when all the men of the towre of Shechém heard it, thei entred into an holde of the houſe of the god [p] Beríth.
[p] That is, of Baal-berith, as Chap. 9. 43.
47 And it was tolde Abimélech, that all the men of the towre of Shechém were gathered together.
48 And Abimélech gate him vp to mount Zalmón, he and all the people that were with him: and Abimélech toke axes with him and cut downe boughes of trees and toke them, and bare them on his ſhulder, and ſaid vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue ſene me do, make haſte, and do like me.
49 Thẽ all the people alſo cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimélech, & put them to the holde, and ſet the holde on fire w̃ them: ſo all the men of the towre of Shechém [q] dyed alſo, about a thouſand men and women.
[q] Meaning ỹ all were deſtroyed, aſwel ther in ỹ towre as the other.
50 ¶ Then went Abimélech to Tebéz, and beſieged Tebéz, and toke it.
51 But there was a ſtrong towre within the citie, and thether fled all the men and women, and all the chief of the citie, and ſhut it to them, and went vp to the top of the towre.
52 And Abimélech came vnto the towre & fought againſt it, and went hard vnto the dore of the towre to ſet it on fire.
2. Sam. 11, 21. 53 But a certaine woman * caſt a piece of a milſtone vpon Abimelechs head, & brake his braine pan.
54 Thẽ Abimélech called haſtely his page that bare his harnes, and ſaid vnto him, Drawe thy ſworde & ſlay me, that mẽ ſay not of me, A woman ſlewe him. And his page [r] thruſt him through, and he dyed.
[r] Thus God by ſuche miſerable death taketh vengeance on tyrats euen in this life.
55 And when the men of Iſraél ſawe that Abimélech was dead, thei departed euery man vnto his owne place.
56 Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimélech, which he did vnto his father, in ſlaying his ſeuenty brethren.
57 Alſo all the wickednes of the mẽ of Shechém did God bring vpon their heades. So vpon thẽ came the [f] curſe of Iothám the ſonne of Ierubbáal.
[f] For making a tyrant their king.

CHAP. X.

1 Tolá dyeth. 3 Iaír alſo dyeth. 17 The Iſraelites are puniſhed for their ſinne: 10 Thei crye vnto God, 16 And he hathe pitie on them.

1 AFter Abimélech there aroſe to defend Iſraél, Tolá, the ſonne of Puáh, the ſonne of [t] Dodó, a man of Iſſachár which dwelt in Shamír in mount Ephráim.
[t] Or, his vncle.
2 And he [u] iudged Iſraél thre and twentie yere and dyed, & was buryed in Shamír.
[u] Or, gouerned.
3 ¶ And after him aroſe Iaír a Gileadite, & iudged Iſraél two and twentie yere.
4 And he had thirtie ſonnes that [a] rode on thirty aſſecoltes, & thei had thirty cities, which are called [v] Hauoth-Iaír vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.
[a] Signifying, thei were men of autoritie.
[v] Or, the townes of Iaír, as Deu. 3, 14.
5 And Iaír dyed, & was buryed in Kamón.
6 ¶ * And the childrẽ of Iſraél wroght wickednes againe in the ſight of the Lord, & ſerued Baalím and * Aſhtaróth, and the gods of [w] Arám, and the gods of Zidón, and the gods of Moáb, and the gods of the children of Ammón, and the gods of the Philiſtíms, and forſoke the Lord and ſerued not him.
Chap. 2, 11. & 3, 7. & 4, 1. & 6, 1. & 13, 1. Chap. 2, 13.
[w] Or, Syria.
7 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſraél, and [x] he ſolde them into the hands of the Philiſtíms, and into the hands of the children of Ammón:
[x] Or, deliuered.
8 Who from that yere vexed and oppreſſed the children of Iſraél eightene yeres, [b] euen all the children of Iſraél that were beyonde Iordén, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gileád.
[b] As the Reubenites, Gadites, & halt the tribe of Manaſſéh.
9 Moreouer the children of Ammón went ouer Iordén to fight againſt Iudáh, and againſt Beniamín, and againſt the houſe of Ephráim: ſo ỹ Iſraél was ſore tormented.
10 Then the children of Iſraél [c] cryed vnto the Lord, ſaying, We haue ſinned againſt thee, euẽ becauſe we haue forſaken our owne God, and haue ſerued Baalím.
[c] Thei prayed to the Lord & confeſſed their ſinnes.
11 And the Lord [d] ſaid vnto the children of Iſraél, did not I deliuer you from the Egyptiãs & frõ the Amorites, frõ the childien of Ammón & from the Philiſtíms?
[d] By ſtirring them vp ſome Prophet, as Chap. 6, 8.
12 The Zidonians alſo, and the Amalekites, and the Maobites did oppreſſe you, & ye cryed to me and I ſaued you out of their hands.
13 Yet ye * haue forſaken me, and ſerued other gods: wherefore I wil deliuer you nomore.
Deut. 32, 15. Ierem. 2, 13.
14 Go, and crye vnto the gods which ye haue choſen. let them ſaue you in the time of your tribulacion.
15 And the children of Iſraél ſaid vnto the Lord, We haue ſinned: do thou vnto vs whatſoeuer pleaſe thee: onely we pray thee to deliuer vs [e] this day.
[e] That is, frõ this preſent danger.
16 Then they put away ỹ ſtrange gods frõ among thẽ & [f] ſerued ỹ Lord. & his ſoule was grieued for the miſerie of Iſraél.
[f] This is true repentance to put away the euil, & to ſerue God aright.
17 Then the childrẽ of Ammón gathered thẽ ſelues together, & pitched in Gileád: and the children of Iſraél aſſembled them ſelues, ſelues, and pitched in Mizpéh.

28 And the people and princes of Gileád ſaid one to an other, Whoſoeuer wil begin the battel againſt the childrē of Ammón, the ſame ſhal be *head ouer all the inhabitants of Gileád.

Chap.11,6.

CHAP. XI.

2 Iphtáh being chaſed away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Iſraél. 30 He maketh a raſhe vowe. 32 He vanquiſheth the Ammonites. 39 And ſacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

1 THen Gileád begate Iphtáh, & Iphtáh the Gileadite was "a valiant man, but the ſonne of an' harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him ſonnes, and when ỹ womās childrē were come to age, they thruſt out Iphtáh, and ſaid vnto him, Thou ſhalt not inherit in our fathers houſe: for thou art ỹ ſonne of a [a] ſtrāge womā.

3 Then Iphtáh fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of [b] Tob: and there gathered ydle fellowes to Iphtáh, and [c] went out with him.

4 ¶ And in proceſſe of time the children of Ammón made warre with Iſraél.

5 And whē the children of Ammón fought with Iſraél, [d] the Elders of Gileád went to fet Iphtáh out of the land of Tob.

6 And they ſaid vnto Iphtáh, [e] Come and be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammón.

7 Iphtáh then anſwered the Elders of Gileád, Did not ye hate me, and [f] expel me out of my fathers houſe? how then come you vnto me now in time of your tribulacion?

8 Then the Elders of Gileád ſaid vnto Iphtáh, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou maieſt go with vs, & fight againſt the children of Ammón, & be our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gileád.

9 And Iphtáh ſaid vnto the Elders of Gileád, If ye bring me home againe to fight againſt ỹ children of Ammón, if the Lord giue them before me, ſhal I be your head?

10 And ỹ Elders of Gileád ſaid to Iphtáh, The Lord " be witnes betwene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

11 Then Iphtáh went with the Elders of Gileád, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtáh rehearſed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpéh.

12 ¶ Then Iphtáh ſent meſſengers vnto the King of the children of Ammón, ſaying, What haſt thou to do with me, that thou art come againſt me, to fight in my land?

13 And the King of the children of Ammón anſwered vnto the meſſengers of Iphtáh, *Becauſe Iſraél toke my lād, whē they came vp frō Egypt, from Arnón vnto Iabbók, and vnto Iordén: now therefore reſtore thoſe lands " quietly.

Numb.21,13.

14 Yet Iphtáh ſent meſſengers againe vnto the King of the children of Ammón, 15 And ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith Iphtáh, *Iſraél toke not the land of Moáb, nor the land of the children of Ammón.

Deut.2,9.

16 But when Iſraél came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernes vnto the red Sea, then they came to Kadéſh.

17 *And Iſraél ſent meſſengers vnto the King of Edóm, ſaying, Let me, I pray thee, go through thy lād: but the King of Edóm wold not conſent: and alſo they ſent vnto the King of Moáb, but he wolde not: therefore Iſraél abode in Kadéſh.

Num.20,21.

18 Then they went through the wildernes, and compaſſed the land of Edóm, and the land of Moáb, and came by the Eaſtſide of ỹ lād Moáb, and pitched on the other ſide of Arnón, *and came not within ỹ coaſt of Moáb: for Arnón was ỹ border of Moáb.

Numb.21,13. & 22,24.

19 Alſo Iſraél *ſent meſſengers vnto Sihón, King of the Amorites, the King of Heſhbón, & Iſraél ſaid vnto him, Let vs paſſe, we pray thee, by thy lād vnto our " place.

Deut.2,26.

20 But Sihón [g] cōſented not to Iſraél, that he ſhulde go through his coaſt: but Sihón gathered all his people together, and pytched in Iahāz, and fought with Iſraél.

21 And the Lord God of Iſraél gaue Sihón and all his folke into the hands of Iſraél, and they ſmote thē: ſo Iſraél poſſeſſed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey:

22 And they poſſeſſed *all the coaſt of the Amorites, from Arnón vnto Iabbók, and from the wildernes euen vnto Iordén.

Deut.2,36.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Iſraél hathe caſt out the Amorites before his people Iſraél, & ſhuldeſt thou poſſeſſe it?

24 Woldeſt not thou poſſeſſe that which Chemóſh thy god giueth thee to poſſeſſe? So whomeſoeuer the [h] Lord our God driueth out before vs, them wil we poſſeſſe.

25 *And art thou now farre better then Balák the ſonne of Zippor King of Moáb? did he not ſtriue with Iſraél and fight againſt them, Num.22,2. deut.23,4. Ioſh.24,9.

26 When Iſraél dwelt in Heſhbón and in her townes, and in Aroér & in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coaſts of Arnón, thre hundreth yeres? why did ye not then recouer [i] them in that ſpace?

27 Wherefore, I haue not offēded thee: but thou doeſt me wrōg to warre againſt me. The Lord the Iudge [k] be iudge this day betwene the children of Iſraél, and the children of Ammón.

28 Howebeit the King of the children of Ammón hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iphtáh, which he had ſent him.

29 ¶ Then the [l] Spirit of the Lord came vpon Iphtáh, & he paſſed ouer to Gileád and to Manaſſéh, and came to Mizpéh in a That is, of an harlot, as ver. 1 b Where the gouernour of the countrey was called Tob.

c Ioyned with him, as ſome thinke, againſt his brethren.

d Or, ambaſſadours, ſent for that purpoſe.

e Men oft times are conſtrained to deſire helpe of them, whome before they haue refuſed.

f Oft tymes thoſe thīgs, whē rest, God choſeth to do great enterpriſes by.

" Ebr. be the hearer.

" Ebr. in peace.

g He mated thē not to go through his countrey.

h For we ought more to beleue and obey God, the thē thine idoles. Num.22,2. deut.23,4. Ioſh.24,9.

i Meaning their townes.

k To puniſhe the offender.

l That is, the ſpirit of ſtrength and zeale.

Gileád, and from Mizpéh in Gileád he went vnto the children of Ammón.

30 And Iphtáh [m] vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and ſaid, If thou ſhalt deliuer the 31 Thé that thing that commeth out of the dores of mine houſe to mete me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammón, ſhal be the Lords, and I wil offer it for a burnt offring.

32 And ſo Iphtáh went vnto the children of Ammón to fight againſt them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

33 And he ſmote them from Aroér euē til [u] come to Minnith, twentie cities, and ſo forthe to [v] Abél of the vineyardes, with an exceding great ſlaughter. Thus the childrē of Ammón were humbled before the children of Iſraél.

34 ¶ Now whē Iphtáh came to Mizpéh vnto his houſe, beholde, his daughter came out to mete him with [n] timbrels and dances, which was his onely childe: he had none other ſonne, nor daughter.

35 And when he ſawe her, he [o] rent his clothes, and ſaid, Alas my daughter, thou haſt broght me low, & art of thē that trouble me: for I haue opened my mouthe vnto the Lord, and can not go backe.

36 And ſhe ſaid vnto him, My father, if thou haſte opened thy mouthe vnto the Lord, do with me as thou haſt promiſed, ſeing that the Lord hathe auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammón.

37 Alſo ſhe ſaid vnto her father, Do thus muche for me: ſuffre me two monethes, that I may go to the moútaines, and [p] bewaile my virginitie, I and my fellowes.

38 And he ſaid, Go: and he ſent her away two monethes: ſo ſhe went with her compamons, and lamented her virginitie vpō the mountaines.

39 And after the end of two monethes, ſhe turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vowe which he had vowed, and ſhe had knowen no man, and it was a cuſtome in Iſraél.

40 The daughters of Iſraél went yere by yere to lament the daughter of Iphtáh the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yere.

m As the Apoſtle commēdeth Iphtáh for his worthy entrepriſe in deliuering the people, Ebr. 11, 32: ſo by his raſhe vowe & wicked perfor mance of the ſame, his victorie was defaced: and here we ſe that the ſinnes of the godly do not vtterly extinguiſh their faith.

u Or, the plaines

n According to the maner after the victorie.

o Being ouercome w blinde zeale, and not conſidering whether the vowe was lauful or no.

p For it was counted as a ſhame in Iſraél, to dye without children, and therefore they reioyced to be maryed.

CHAP. XII.

6 Iphtáh killeth two & fortie thouſand Ephraimites. 8 After Iphtáh ſuccedeth Ibzán, 11 Elón, 13 And Abdón.

1 ANnd the men of Ephráim gathered thē ſelues together, and went [a] Northward and ſaid vnto Iphtáh, Wherefore wenteſt thou to fight againſt the children of Ammón, and dideſt not call [b] vs to go with thee? we wil therefore burne thine houſe vpon thee with fire.

2 And Iphtáh ſaid vnto thē, I and my people were at great ſtrife with the children of Ammón, and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their hands.

3 So when I ſawe ỹ ye deliuered me not, [c] I put my life in mine hāds, & went vpon the children of Ammón: ſo ỹ Lord deliuered them into mine hands. Wherefore thē are ye come vpō me now to fight againſt me?

4 Then Iphtáh gathered all the men of Gileád, and fought with Ephráim: & the men of Gileád ſmote Ephráim, becauſe they ſaid, Ye Giliadites are runagates of Ephráim [d] among the Ephraimites, and among the Manaſſites.

5 Alſo the Giliadites toke the paſſages of Iordén before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were eſcaped, ſaid, Let me paſſe, then the men of Gileád ſaid vnto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he ſaid, Nay,

6 Thē ſaid they vnto him, Say now [e] Shibbóleth: and he ſaid, Sibbóleth: for he colde not ſo pronounce: then they toke him, and ſlewe him at the paſſages of Iordén: and there fel at that time of the Ephraimites two and forty thouſand.

7 And Iphtáh iudged Iſraél ſix yere: then dyed Iphtáh the Giliadite, and was buryed in one of the cities of Gileád.

8 ¶ After him [f] Ibzán of Beth-léhem iudged Iſraél, 9 Who had thirtie ſonnes and thirtie daughters, which he ſent out, and toke in thirtie daughters from abroad for his ſonnes. and he iudged Iſraél ſeuen yere.

10 Then Ibzán dyed, and was buryed at Beth-léhem.

11 ¶ And after him iudged Iſraél Elón, a Zebulonite, and he iudged Iſraél ten yere.

12 Then Elón the Zebulonite dyed, & was buryed in Aiialón in the countrey of Zebulún.

13 ¶ And after him Abdón ỹ ſonne of Hillél the Pirathonite iudged Iſraél.

14 And he had fortie ſonnes & thirtie [m] neuews that rode on ſeuentie [n] aſſecoltes: and he iudged Iſraél eight yeres.

15 Then dyed Abdón the ſonne of Hillél ỹ Pirathonite, and was buryed in Pirathón, in the land of Ephráim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

a After they had paſſed Iordén.

b Thus ambicion enuieth Gods worke in others, as they did alſo againſt Gideón, Chap 8, 1.

c That is, I ventured my life, and when mā ſhe pe fayled, I put my truſt onely in God.

d Ye ran frō vs, and chooſe Gileád, & now in reſpect of vs, ye are nothing.

e Which ſignifieth, the fall of waters, or an eare of corne.

f Some thinke that this was Boáz ỹ husband of Ruth.

m Ebr. ſonnes ſonnes.

n Or, buſſecoltes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Iſraél for their wickednes is oppreſſed of the Philiſtims. 3 The Angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 16 The Angel commandeth him to ſacrifice vnto the Lord. 24 The birth of Samſón.

1 BVt the children of Iſraél continued to commit * wickednes in the ſight of the Lord, and the Lord deliuered them into the hands of the Philiſtims fortie yere.

2 ¶ Then there was a man in Zoráh of the familie of the Danites, named Manóah, whoſe wife was [a] baren, and bare not.

3 And

* Chap. 2, 11. & 3, 7. & 4, 1. & 6, 1. & 10, 6.

a Signifying ỹ their deliuerā ce came onely of God & not by mās power.

3 And the Angél of the Lord appeared vnto the woman, and ſaid vnto her, Beholde now, thou art baren, and beareſt not: but thou ſhalt conceiue, and beare a ſonne.

Numb 6,2. 4 And nowe therefore beware * that thou drinke no wine, nor ſtrong drinke, nether eat anie vncleane thing.

5 For lo, thou ſhalt conceiue and beare a ſonne, & no raſor ſhal * come on his head: for the childe ſhalbe a [b] Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he ſhal begin to ſaue Iſraél out of the hands of the Philiſtíms.

1.Sam 1,11.

b Meaning, he ſhulde be ſegerate from the worlde and dedicate to God.

6 ¶ Then the wife came, & tolde her houſband, ſaying, A man of God came vnto me, and the facion of him was like the facion of ỹ Angel of God exceding [c] fearful, but I aſked him not whence he was, nether tolde he me his name, c If fleſh be not able to abide the ſight of an Angel, how much leſſe the preſence of God?

7 But he ſaid vnto me, Beholde, thou ſhalt conceiue, and beare a ſonne, and now thou ſhalt drinke no wine, nor ſtrong drinke, nether eat anie vncleane thing: for the childe ſhal be a Nazarite to God from his byrth to the day of his death.

d He ſheweth him ſelfe ready to obey Gods wil, and therefore deſireth to knowe farther.

8 Then Manóah [d] prayed to the Lord and ſaid, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whome thou ſenteſt, come againe now vnto vs, and teache vs what we ſhal do vnto the childe when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manóah, & the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as ſhe ſate in the field, but Manóah her houſband was not with her.

10 ¶ And the wife made haſte & ranne, and ſhewed her houſband and ſaid vnto him, Beholde, the man hathe appeared vnto me, that came vnto me [e] to day.

e It ſemeth ỹ the Angel appeared vnto her twiſe in one day

11 And Manóah aroſe and went after his wife, and came to the [f] man, and ſaid vnto him, Art thou the man that ſpakeſt vnto the woman? and he ſaid, Yea.

f He calleth him man, becauſe he ſo ſemed, but he was Chriſt the eternal worde, which at his time appointed became man.

12 Then Manóah ſaid, Now let thy ſaying come to paſſe: but how ſhal we ordre the childe, and do vnto him?

13 And ỹ Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto Manóah, The woman muſt beware of all that I ſaid vnto her.

14 She may eat of nothing that cometh of the vinetre: ſhe ſhal not drinke wine nor ſtrong drinke, nor eat anie [g] vncleane thing: let her obſerue all that I haue commanded her.

g Anie thing forbidden by the Lawe

15 Manóah then ſaid vnto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs reteine thee, vntil we haue made ready a kid for thee.

16 And the Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto Manóah, Thogh thou make me abide, I wil not eat of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offring, offer it vnto the [h] Lord: for Manóah knewe not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

h Shewing ỹ he ſoght not his owne honor, but Gods, whoſe meſſenger he was.

17 Againe Manóah ſaid vnto ỹ Angel of ỹ Lord, What is thy name, ỹ whē thy ſaying is come to paſſe, we may honour thee?

18 And ỹ Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto him, Why aſkeſt ỹ thus after my name, which is [i] ſecret?

i Or, meruelous

19 Then Manóah toke a kid with a meat offring, and offred it vpon a ſtone vnto the Lord: and the Angel did [k] wonderouſly, whiles Manóah and his wife loked on.

k God ſent fire from heauē to conſume their ſacrifice, to confirme their faith in his promes.

20 For when the flame came vp towarde heauen from the altar, the Angel of the Lord aſcended vp in the flame of the altar, and Manóah and his wife beheld it, & fel on their faces vnto the ground.

21 (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manóah and his wife) Thē Manóah knewe that it was an Angel of ỹ Lord.

22 And Manóah ſaid vnto his wife, * We ſhal ſurely dye, becauſe we haue ſene God.

Exod 33,20. chap 6,22.

23 But his wife ſaid vnto him, If the Lord wolde kil vs, he wolde not haue receiued a [k] burnt offring, and a meat offring of our hands, nether wolde he haue ſhewed vs all theſe things, nor wolde now haue tolde vs anie ſuche.

k Theſe graces ỹ we haue receiued of God, & his accepting of our obedience, are ſure tokens of his loue toward vs, ſo ỹ nothing can hurt vs

24 ¶ And the wife bare a ſonne, and called his name Samſón: and the childe grewe, & the Lord bleſſed him.

25 And the Spirit of ỹ Lord began to [l] ſtrēgthē him in the hoſte of Dan, betwene Zoráh, and Eſhtaól.

l Or, to come vpō him at diuers times.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 Samſón deſireth to haue a wife of the Philiſtims. 6 He killeth a lyon. 12 He propoundeth a riddle. 19 He kylleth thirtie. 20 His wife forſaketh him and taketh another.

1 NOw Samſón went downe to Timnáth, and ſawe a woman in Timnáth of the daughters of the Philiſtíms,

2 And he came vp and tolde his father and his mother, and ſaid, I haue ſene a woman in Timnáth of the daughters of the Philiſtíms: now therefore [m] giue me her to wife.

m Or, take her for me to wife.

3 Thē his father and his mother ſaid vnto him, Is there [a] neuer a wife amōg ỹ daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou muſt go to take a wife of the vncircūciſed Philiſtíms? And Samſón ſaid vnto his father, Giue me her, for ſhe pleaſeth me wel.

a Thogh his parēts did iuſtely reproue him, yet it appeareth ỹ this was ỹ ſecret worke of the Lord, verſ. 4 4 But his father and his mother knewe not that it came of the Lord, that he ſhulde ſeke an occaſion againſt the [b] Philiſtíms: for at that time the Philiſtíms reigned ouer Iſraél.

b To fight againſt thē for the deliuerāce of Iſraél.

5 ¶ Then went Samſón and his father and his mother downe to Timnáth, and came to ỹ vineyardes [n] at Timnáth: & beholde, a yong lyon roared vpon him.

6 And the Spirit of the Lord [c] came vpon him, and he tare him, as one ſhulde haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, nec Whereby he had ſtrength & boldēes.

ther tolde he his father nor his mother what he had done.

7 And he went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samſon.

8 ¶ And within a fewe dayes, whē he returned [a] to receiue her, he went aſide to ſe the carkeis of the lyon: and beholde, there was a ſwarme of bees, and hony in the body of the lyon.

[a] Or, to take her to his wife.

9 And he toke therof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eat: but he tolde not them, that he had taken the hony out of the bodie of ỹ lyon.

10 So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samſon made there a [d] feaſt: for ſo vſed the yong men to do.

[d] Meaning, when he was maried.

11 And when [e] they ſawe him, they broght thirtie companions to be with him.

[e] That is, her parents or frendes.

12 Then Samſon ſaid vnto them, I wil now put forthe a ridle vnto you: & if you can declare it me within ſeuen dayes of the feaſt, and finde it out, I wil giue you thirtie ſhetes, and thirtie [f] change of garmēts.

[f] To weare at feaſtes or ſolemne dayes.

13 But if you cānot declare it me, then ſhal ye giue me thirtie ſhetes and thirtie change of garments. And they anſwered him, Put forthe thy ridle, that we may heare it.

14 And he ſaid vnto them, Out of the eater came meat, and out of the ſtrong came ſwetenes: & they colde not in thre dayes expounde the ridle.

[g] Or, drewe nere: for it was ỹ fourthe day.

15 And when the ſeuenth day was [g] come, they ſaid vnto Samſons wife, Entiſe thyne houſband, that he may declare vs the ridle, leſt we burne thee and thy fathers houſe with fire. Haue ye called vs, [*] to poſſeſſe vs? is it not ſo?

[*] Or, to impouriſhe vs.

16 And Samſons wife wept before him, and ſaid, Surely thou hateſt me and loueſt me not: for thou haſt put forthe a ridle vnto the [h] children of my people, and haſt not tolde it me. And he ſaid vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolden it my father, nor my mother, and ſhal I tel it thee?

[h] Vnto them, which are of my nacion.

17 Then Samſons wife wept before him [i] ſeuen dayes, while their feaſt laſted: and when the ſeuenth day came, he tolde her, becauſe ſhe was importunate vpon him: ſo ſhe tolde the ridle to the children of her people.

[i] Or, to the ſeuenth day, begynning at the fourthe.

18 And the men of the citie ſaid vnto him the ſeuenth day before the ſonne went downe, What is ſweter, then honie? and what is ſtronger then a lyon? Then ſaid he vnto them, [k] If ye had not plowed w̄ my heiffer, ye had not founde out my ridle.

[k] If ye had not vſed the helpe of my wife.

19 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe [l] to Aſhkelón, and ſlewe thirtie men of them & ſpoiled thē, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the ridle: & his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers houſe.

[l] Which was one of the fiue chief cities of the Philiſtims.

20 Thē Samſons wife was giuen to his companion, whome he had vſed as his frend.

CHAP. XV.

4 Samſon tieth firebrādes to the foxe tailes. 6 The Philiſtims burnt his father in lawe & his wife. 15 With the iawebone of an aſſe he killeth a thouſand men. 19 Out of a great tothe in the iawe God gaue him water.

1 BVt within a while after, in the time of wheat harueſt, Sāſon viſited his wife with a kid, ſaying, I wil [a] go into my wife into the chāber: but her father wolde not ſuffre him to go in.

[a] That is, wil vſe her as my wife.

2 And her father ſaid, I thoght that thou haddeſt hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companion. Is not her yonger ſiſter fairer then ſhe? take her, I pray thee, in ſtead of the other.

3 Thē Samſon ſaid vnto them, Now am I more [b] blameles thē the Philiſtims: therefore wil I do them diſpleaſure.

[b] For through his father in lawes occaſion, he was moued againe to take vengeance of ỹ Philiſtims.

4 ¶ And Samſon went out, & toke thre hūdreth foxes, and toke firebrands, & turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in the middes betwene two tailes.

5 And when he had ſet the brandes on fier, he ſent them out into the ſtanding corne of the Philiſtims, and burnt vp bothe the [c] riekes & the ſtanding corne with the vineyardes & oliues.

[c] Or, that w̄ was reaped & gathered.

6 Then the Philiſtims ſaid, Who hathe done this? And they anſwered, Samſon the ſonne in lawe of the [d] Timnite, becauſe he had taken his wife, & giuen her to his cōpanio. Then the Philiſtims came vp and [e] burnt her and her father with fire.

[d] Or, ỹ citizē of Timnath.

[e] So ỹ wicked punith not vice for loue of iuſtice, but for feare of dāger, w̄ els might come to them.

7 And Samſon ſaid vnto them, Thogh ye haue done this, yet wil I be auenged of you, and then I wil ceaſe.

8 So he ſmote them [*] hippe and thigh with a mighty plague: then he went and dwelt in the toppe of the rocke Etām.

[*] Or, horſemē & footmen.

9 ¶ Then ỹ Philiſtims came vp, & pitched in Iudáh, & [*] were ſpred abroad in Léhi.

[*] Or, camped.

10 And the men of Iudáh ſaid, Why are ye come vp vnto vs? And they anſwered, To [f] binde Samſon are we come vp, and to do to him as he hathe done to vs.

[f] And ſo beīg our priſoner, to puniſhe hi.

11 Then thre thouſand men of Iudáh wēt to the toppe of the rocke Etām, and ſaid to Sāſon, Knoweſt thou not that ỹ Philiſtims are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then haſt ỹ done thus vnto vs? And he anſwered thē, As they did vnto me, ſo haue I done vnto thē.

[g] Suche was their groſſe ignorāce, that they iudged Gods great benefite to be a plague vnto them.

12 Againe they ſaid vnto hī, We are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hand of the Philiſtims. And Samſon ſaid vnto them, Sweare vnto me, that ye wil not fall vpon me your ſelues.

[h] Thus they had rather betray their brother, then vſe ỹ meanes that God had giuē for their deliuerance.

13 And they anſwered him, ſaying, No, but we wil binde thee and [h] deliuer thee vnto their hand, but we wil not kil thee.

And

And they bound him with two newe cordes, and broght him from the rocke.

14 When he came to Léhi, the Philiſtíms ſhouted againſt him, and the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire: for the bandes loſed from his hands.

i That is, of an aſſe lately ſlaine.

15 And he found a [i] newe iawebone of an aſſe, and put forthe his hand, and caught it, and ſlewe a thouſand men therewith.

16 Then Samſón ſaid, With the iawe of an aſſe are heapes vpon heapes: ẅ the iawe of an aſſe haue I ſlayne a thouſand men.

17 And when he had left ſpeaking, he caſt away the iawebone out of his hand, & called that place, [e]Ramath-Léhi.

e Or, the lifting vp of the iawe.

18 And he was ſore a thirſt, and [k] called on the Lord, and ſaid, Thou haſt giuen this great deliuerance into the hand of thy ſeruant: and now ſhal I dye for thirſt, and fall into the hands of the vncircumciſed?

k Wherby appeareth, ỹ he did these thigs in faith, & so ẅ a true zeal to glorifie God & deliuer his countrey.

19 Then God brake the cheeke tothe, that was in the iawe, and water came thereout: and when he had dronke, his Spirit came againe, and he was reuiued: wherefore the name thereof is called, [e] En-hakkoré, ẅ is in Léhi vnto this day.

e Or, the fountaine of him that prayed.

20 And he iudged Iſraél in the dayes of ỹ Philiſtíms twentie yeres.

CHAP. XVI.

Samſón carieth away the gates of Azzáh. 18 He was deceiued by Deliláh. 30 He pulleth downe the houſe vpon the Philiſtims, and dyeth with them.

a One of ỹ. 5. chief cities of ỹ Philiſtims.

1 THen went Samſón to [a] Azzáh, & ſawe there [e] an harlot, & [b] went in vnto her.

e Or, victailer.

b That is, he lodged ẅ her.

2 And it was tolde to the Azzathites, Samſón is come hether. And they went about, & layed wait for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the night, ſaying, Abide [e] til the morning earely, and we ſhal kil him.

e Or, to the light of the morning.

3 And Samſón ſlept til midnight, & aroſe at midnight, and toke the dores of the gates of the citie, and the two poſtes and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his ſhulders, and caried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebrón.

4 ¶ And after this he loued a woman by ỹ [o] riuer of Sorék, whoſe name was Deliláh:

o Or, plaine.

5 Vnto whome came the princes of ỹ Philiſtíms, and ſaid vnto her, Entiſe him, and ſe wherein his great ſtrength lieth, and by what meane we may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and puniſhe him, and euerie one of vs ſhal giue thee eleuen hundreth [c] ſhekels of ſiluer.

c Of ỹ value of a ſhekel read Gen. 23, 15

6 ¶ And Deliláh ſaid to Samſón, Tel me, I pray thee, wherein thy great ſtrength lieth, and wherewith thou mighteſt be bounde, to do thee hurt.

7 Samſón then anſwered vnto her, If they binde me with ſeuen greene cordes that were neuer dryed, thẽ ſhal I be weake, and be as an other man.

e Or, new wiche.

8 And the princes of ỹ Philiſtíms broght her ſeuẽ greene cordes that were not drye, and ſhe bound him therewith.

9 (And ſhe had [d] men lying in wayte ẅ her in ỹ chãber) Then ſhe ſaid vnto him, The Philiſtíms be vpon thee, Samſón. And he brake the cordes, as a thread of towe is broken, when [e] it feleth fire: ſo his ſtrẽgth was not knowen.

d Certeine Philiſtims in a ſecret chamber.

e Whẽ fire cõmeth nere it.

10 ¶ After Deliláh ſaid vnto Samſón, Se, ỹ haſt mocked me and tolde me lies. I pray thee now, [f] tel me wherewith ỹ mighteſt be bound.

f Thogh her falſehood tended to make him, loſe his life, yet his affection ſo blinded him ỹ he colde not beware.

11 Then he anſwered her, If they binde me with newe ropes ỹ neuer were occupied, then ſhal I be weake, and be as another man.

12 Deliláh therefore toke newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and ſaid vnto him, The Philiſtíms be vpon thee, Samſón: (& men lay in wait in the chãber) & he brake them from his armes, as a threade.

13 ¶ Afterward Deliláh ſaid to Samſón, Hetherto thou haſt beguiled me, and tolde me lies: tel me how thou mighteſt be bound. & he ſaid vnto her, If thou plattedſt ſeuen lockes of mine head with the threades of the woufe.

g It is impoſsible, if we giue place to our wicked affections, but ar legth we ſhal be deſtroied.

14 And ſhe faſtened it with a pinne, & ſaid vnto him, The Philiſtíms be vpon thee, Samſón. And he awoke out of his ſlepe, and went away with the [e] pinne of ỹ webbe and the woufe.

e Or, beame.

15 Againe ſhe ſaid vnto him, How canſt thou ſay, [h] I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou haſt mocked me theſe thre times, and haſt not tolde me wherein thy great ſtrength lieth.

h For this Sãſón vſed to ſaye, I loue thee.

16 And becauſe ſhe was importunate vpon him with her wordes cõtinually, and vexed him, his ſoule was pined vnto ỹ death.

17 Therefore he tolde her all his [i] heart, & ſaid vnto her, There neuer came raſor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God frõ my mothers wombe: therefore if I be ſhauen, my ſtrength wil go from me, & I ſhal be weake, & be like all other men.

i Thus his immoderate affectiõs towarde a wicked womã cauſed him to loſe Gods excellent gifts, & become ſlaue vnto thẽ, whome he ſhulde haue ruled.

18 And whẽ Deliláh ſawe that he had tolde her all his heart, ſhe ſent, & called for the Princes of ỹ Philiſtíms, ſaying, Come vp once againe: for he hathe ſhewed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philiſtíms came vp vnto her, and broght the money in their hands.

19 And ſhe made him ſlepe vpõ her knees, & ſhe called a man, & made him to ſhaue of ỹ ſeuen lockes of his head, & ſhe begã to vexe hĩ, & his ſtrength was [k] gone frõ hĩ.

k Not for the loſſe of his heere, but for ỹ contempt of ỹ ordinance of God, ẅ was ỹ cauſe ỹ God departed from him.

20 Then ſhe ſaid, The Philiſtíms be vpõ thee, Sãſón. And he awoke out of his ſlepe, and thoght, I wil go out now as at other times, & ſhake my ſelfe, but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philiſtíms toke him, and put out his eies, and broght him downe to Azzáh, and bound him with fetters: and he did grinde in the priſon houſe.

l Yet had he not his ſtrégth againe, til he had called vpon God, and reconciled his ſelfe.

22 And the heere of his head begā to l growe againe after that it was ſhauen.

23 Then the princes of the Philiſtíms gathered them together for to offer a great ſacrifice vnto Dagón their god, and to reioyce: for they ſaid, Our god hathe deliuered Samſón our enemie into our hāds.

24 Alſo when the people ſaw him, they praiſed their god: for they ſaid, Our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemie and deſtroier of our countrey, & hathe ſlaine manie of vs.

25 And when their heartes were mery, they ſaid, Call Samſón, that he may make vs paſtime. So they called Samſón out of the priſon houſe, and he m was a laughing ſtocke vnto them, and they ſet him betwene the pillers.

m Thus by Gods iuſt iudgements they are made ſlaues to infidels, which neglect their vocation in defending the faithful.

26 Then Samſón ſaid vnto the ſeruant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touche the pillers that the houſe ſtandeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 (Now the houſe was ful of men & women, and there were all the princes of the Philiſtíms: alſo vpon the roofe were about thre thouſand men & women that behelde while Samſón n played)

n Or, was mocked

28 Then Samſón called vnto the Lord, and ſaid, ô Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me: ô God, I beſeche thee, ſtrengthen me at this time onely, that I maye be "at once o auenged of the Philiſtíms for my two eyes.

" Ebr. take me vengeance.
o According to my vocation, which is to execute Gods iudgements vpon the wicked.

29 And Samſón layed holde on the two middle pillers whereupō the houſe ſtode, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

p He ſpeaketh not this of diſpaire, but hūbling hī ſelfe for neglecting his office & ỹ offence thereby giuen.

30 Then ſaid Samſón, p Let me loſe my life with the Philiſtíms: and he bowed him w̄ all his might, and the houſe fel vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein. ſo the dead which he ſlue at his death were mo then they which he had ſlayne in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the houſe of his father came downe and toke him, and broght him vp & buryed him betwene Zoráh and Eſhtaól, in the ſepulchre of Manóah his father: now he had iudged Iſraél twentie yeres.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Michahs mother according to her vowe made her ſonne two idoles. 5 He made his ſonne a Prieſt for his idoles, 10 And after he hired a Leuite.

1 THere a was a man of mount Ephráim, whoſe name was Michah, a Some thike this hiſtorie was in ỹ time of Othniél, or as Ioſephus writeth, immediatly after Ioſhúa.

2 And he ſaid vnto his mother, The eleuen hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer that were taken from thee, for the which thou curſedſt, & ſpakedſt it, euē in mine hearing, beholde, the ſiluer is with me, I toke it. Then his mother ſaid, Bleſſed be my ſonne of the Lord.

3 And when he had reſtored the eleuen hūdreth ſhekels of ſiluer to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had dedicate ỹ ſiluer to ỹ Lord of mine hand for my ſonne, to make b a grauen and molten image. Now therefore I wil giue it thee againe.

b Contrary to the commaundement of God and true religion practiſed vnder Ioſhúa, they forſoke ỹ Lord and fel to idolatrie.

4 And whē he had reſtored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauē and molten image, and it was in the houſe of Michāh.

5 And this man Michāh had an houſe of gods, & made an *c Ephód, & *Teraphím, and "conſecrated one of his ſonnes, who was his Prieſt.

*Chap. 8. 27.
c He wolde ſerue bothe God & idoles.
Gen. 31. 19.
oſe. 3. 4.
"Ebr. filled the hand of one.

6 In thoſe daies there was no d King in Iſraél, but euerie man did that, which was good in his owne eies.

d For where there is no magiſtrat fearing God, there can be no true religion, nor order

7 ¶ There was alſo a yong mā out of Bethléhem Iudáh, e of the familie of Iudáh: who was a Leuite, and ſoiourned there.

e Which Bethléhem was in the tribe of Iudáh.

8 And the man departed out of the citie, euē out of Beth-léhem Iudáh, to dwel where he colde finde a place: and as he iourneied, he came to mount Ephráim to the houſe of Michāh.

9 And Michāh ſaid vnto him, Whence cōmeſt thou? And the Leuite anſwered him, f I come from Beth-léhem Iudáh, and go to dwel where I may finde a place.

f For in thoſe daies ỹ ſeruice of God was corrupt in all eſtates and the Leuites were not loked vnto.

10 Then Michāh ſaid vnto him, Dwel w̄ me, and be vnto me a father and a Prieſt, and I wil giue thee ten ſhekels of ſiluer by yere, and a ſute of apparel, & thy meat and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was g content to dwel w̄ the man, and the yong man was vnto him as one of his owne ſonnes.

g Not cōſidering that he forſoke ỹ true worſhiping of God for to mainteine his owne belly.

12 And Michāh conſecrated the Leuite, & the yong man was his Prieſt, and was in the houſe of Michāh.

13 Then ſaid Michāh, Now I knowe that ỹ Lord wil be h good vnto me, ſeing I haue a Leuite to my Prieſt.

h Thus ỹ idolaters perſuade thē ſelues of Gods fauour, when in deede he doeth deteſt thē.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 The children of Dan ſend men to ſearche the land. 31 Then come the ſix hundreth & take the gods, and the Prieſt of Michāh awaie. 27 They deſtroy Laiſh. 28 Thei buyld it againe, 30 And ſet vp idolatrie.

1 IN thoſe dayes there was no a King in Iſraél, and at the ſame time the tribe of Dan ſoght them an inheritāce to dwel in; for a Meaning no ordinarie Magiſtrat, to puniſhe vice according to Gods worde.

for vnto that time all their inheritãce had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israél.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie, fiue men out of their coastes, euen men expert in warre, out of Zoráh & Eshtaól, to vewe the land and searche it out, and said vnto them, [b] Go, and searche out the land. Then they came to mount Ephráim to the house of Micháh and lodged there.

[b] For the portion ỹ Iothua gaue them, was not sufficient for all their tribe.

3 When they were in the house of Micháh, they knewe the [c] voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and being turned in thether, they said vnto him, Who broght thee hether? or what makest thou in this place? & what hast thou to do here?

[c] They knewe him by his speache that he was a strãger there.

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micháh with me, and hathe hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 Againe they said vnto him, Aske counsel now of god, that we may knowe whether the way which we go, shal be prosperous.

[d] Thus God granteth the idolaters sometime their requests to their destruction that delite in errors.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, [d] Go in peace: for ỹ Lord guideth your way which ye go.

7 Then the fiue men departed and came to Laísh, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt careles, after the maner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man "made any trouble in the land, or vsurped any dominion: also they were far from the Zidonians, and had no busines with other men.

"Ebr made thẽ ashamed.

8 ¶ So they came againe vnto their brethrẽ to Zoráh and Eshtaól: and their brethren said vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may go vp against them: for we haue sene the land, and surely it is very good, and [e] do ye sit stil? be not slouthful to go and enter to possesse the land.

[e] Lose ye this good occasion through your slouthulnes?

10 (If ye wil go, ye shal come vnto a careles people, and the countrey is large) for God hathe giuen it into your hand. It is a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the worlde.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the familie of the Danites, from Zoráh and from Eshtaól, six hũdreth men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, & pitched in Kiriáth iearím in Iudáh: wherefore they called that place, "Mahaneh-Dan vnto this day: and it is behinde Kiriáth iearim.

"Or, the tentes of Dan.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephráim, and came to the house of Micháh.

[f] Because they before had had good successe, that it wolde ỹ their brethrẽ shulde be encouraged by hearing ỹ same tidings.

14 Then answered the fiue men, that wẽt to spie out the countrey of Laísh, and said vnto their brethren, [f] Knowe ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephód, & Teraphím, and a grauen and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye haue to do.

15 And they turned thetherwarde and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Michah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the six hundreth men appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stode by the entring of the gate.

17 Then the fiue men that went to spie out the land, went in thether, and toke the [g] grauen image and the Ephód, and the Teraphím, and the molten image: and the Priest stode in the entring of the gate with the six hundreth men, that were appointed with weapons of warre, [g] So superstition blinded them, that they thoght Gods power was in these idoles, & ỹ they shulde haue good successes by them, thogh by violence & robbery they did take them awaye.

18 And the other went into Michahs house and fet the grauen image, the Ephód, and the Teraphím, and the molten image. Then said the Priest vnto them, What do ye?

19 And they answered him, Holde thy peace: laye thine hand vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto the house of one man, or that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israel?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and he toke the Ephód and the Teraphím, and the grauen image, and went among the [h] people.

[h] With the six hundreth men.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children and the cattel, and the substãce [i] before them.

[i] Suspecting them that wold pursue them.

22 ¶ When they were farre of frõ the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses nere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cryed vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said vnto Michah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcrye?

24 And he said, Ye haue taken away my [k] gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your waies: & what haue I more? how then say ye vnto me, What aileth thee?

[k] This declareth what opinion the idolaters haue of their idoles.

25 And the children of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard amõg vs, lest "angry fellowes runne vpon thee, & thou lose thy life with the liues of thine housholde.

"Ebr who bear their hearts bitter

26 So the children of Dan went their waies: and when Michah sawe that they were to strong for him, he turned, & went backe vnto his house.

27 And they toke the [l] things which Michah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Laísh, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, and smote thẽ with the edge of the sworde, & burnt

[l] Meaning, the idoles, as vers. 18.

the citie with fire:

28 And there was none to [f] helpe, becauſe [m] Laiſh was farre from Zidón, and they had no buſines with other men: alſo it was in the valley that lyeth by Beth-rehob. After, they buylt the citie, & dwelt therein,

29 *And called the name of the citie Dan, after the name of Dan their father which was borne vnto Iſraél: howbeit the name of the citie was Laiſh at the beginning.

30 Then the children of Dan ſet them vp the [n] grauen image: and Ionathan the ſonne of Gerſhóm, the ſonne of Manaſſén and his ſonnes were the Prieſts in the tribe of the Danites vntil the day of the [o] captiuitie of the land.

31 So they ſet them vp the grauen image, which Micháh had made, all the while the houſe of God was in Shilóh.

CHAP. XIX.

1 A Leuites wife being an harlot, forſoke her houſband, and he toke her againe. 25 At Gibeah ſhe was moſte vilenouſly abuſed to the death. 29 The Leuite cutteth her in pieces and ſendeth her to the twelue tribes.

1 ALſo in thoſe daies, * when there was no King in Iſraél, a certaine Leuite dwelt on the ſide of mount Ephráim, and toke to wife a * concubine out of Beth-léhem Iudah,

2 And his concubine played the whore [p] there, and went away from him vnto her fathers houſe to Beth-léhem Iudáh, and there cõtinued the ſpace of foure moneths.

3 And her houſband aroſe and went after her, to ſpeake [q] friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe: he had alſo his ſeruant with him, and a couple of aſſes: and ſhe broght him vnto her fathers houſe, and when the yong womans father ſawe him, he reioyced [r] of his comming.

4 And his father in lawe, the yong womans father reteined him: and he abode with him three daies: ſo they did eat & drinke, and lodged there.

5 ¶And when the fourth day came, thei aroſe early in the morning, & [s] he prepared to departe: then the yong womans father ſaid vnto his ſonne in lawe, [t] Comforte thine heart with a morſel of bread, and then go your way.

6 So they ſate downe, & did eat and drinke bothe of them together. And the [a] yõg womans father ſaid vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tary all night, & let thine heart be mery.

7 And when the mã roſe vp to departe, his father in lawe [u] was earneſt: therefore he returned, and lodged there.

8 And he aroſe vp early the fifte day to departe, & the yong womans father ſaid, [b] Comforte thine heart, I pray thee: and they taryed vntil after midday, and they bothe did eat.

9 Afterwarde when the man aroſe to departe with his concubine and his ſeruant, his father in lawe, the yong womans father ſaid vnto him, Beholde now, the day [x] draweth towarde euen: I pray you, tary all night: beholde the ſunne goeth to reſt: lodge here, that thine heart may be mery, & tomorowe get you early vpon your way, and go to thy [c] tent.

10 But the man wolde not tary, but aroſe and departed, & came ouer againſt Iebús, (which is Ieruſalém) and his two aſſes laden, and his concubine were with him.

11 When thei were nere to Iebús, the day [y] was ſore ſpent, and the ſeruant ſaid vnto his maſter, Come, I pray thee, & let vs turne into this citie of the Iebuſites, & lodge all night there.

12 And his maſter anſwered him, [d] We wil not turne into the citie of ſtrangers that are not of the children of Iſraél, but we wil go forthe to Gibeah.

13 And he ſaid vnto his ſeruant, Come, and let vs drawe nere to one of theſe places, that we may lodge in Gibeáh or in Ramáh.

14 So they went forwarde vpon their way, and the ſunne went downe vpõ them nere to Gibeáh, which is in Beniamín.

15 ¶Then thei turned thether to go in and lodge in Gibeáh: and when he came, he ſate him downe in a ſtrete of the citie: for there was no man that [z] toke them into his houſe to lodging.

16 And beholde, there came an olde man from his worke out of the field at euen, and the man was of mount Ephráim, but dwelt in Gibeáh: and the men of the place were the children of [e] Ieminí.

17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, he ſawe a [f] wayfaring mã in the ſtretes of the citie: then this olde man ſaid, Whether goeſt thou, and whence cameſt thou?

18 And he anſwered him, We came from Beth-léhem Iudah, vnto the ſide of moũt Ephráim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-léhem Iudáh, and go now to the [g] houſe of the Lord: and no man receiueth me to houſe, 19 Althogh we haue ſtrawe and prouandre for our aſſes, and alſo bread and wine for me and thine handmayd, and for the boy that is with thy ſeruant: we lacke nothing.

20 And the olde man ſaid, [h] Peace be with thee: as for all that thou lackeſt, ſhalt thou finde with me: onely abide not in the ſtrete all night.

21 ¶So he broght him into his houſe, and gaue foddre vnto the aſſes: & thei waſhed their fete, & did eat and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts mery,

---

[f] Or, deliuer the.

[m] Which after was called Ceſarea Philippi.

Ioſh. 19, 47.

[n] Thus in ſtede of giuing glorie to God, thei attributed the victorie to their idoles, & honored them therefore.

[o] That is, til the Arke was taken, 1. Sam. 5, 1.

Chap. 17, 6. & 18, 1.

Gen. 25, 6.

[p] Ebr. beſides him: to wit, with others.

[q] Ebr. to her heart.

[r] Or, at his meeting.

[s] Ebr. roſe vp.

[t] Or, ſtrengthen.

[a] That is, his concubines father.

[u] Or, compelled him.

[b] Meanig, that he ſhulde refreſh him ſelfe with meate, as verſ. 5.

[x] Ebr. is weake.

[y] Or, the day lodgeth.

[c] To wit, to ſ towne or citie where he dwelt.

[z] Or, gathered them.

[d] Thogh in theſe daies there were moſt horrible corruptiõs, yet very neceſsitie colde not cõpel thẽ to haue to do with them that profeſſed not the true God.

[e] That is, of ſ tribe of Beniamin.

[f] Or, a man walking.

[g] To Shilóh or Mizpéh, where the Arke was.

[h] Or, be of good comfort.

mery, beholde, the men of the citie, "wicked men beſet the houſe round about, and ſmote at the dore, and ſpake to this olde man the maſter of the houſe, ſaying, Bring forthe the man that came into thine houſe that we may knowe him.

23 And * this man the maſter of the houſe, went out vnto them, and ſaid vnto them, Naye my brethren, do not ſo wickedly, I pray you: ſeing that this man is come into mine houſe, do not this vilanie.

24 Beholde, here is my daughter, a virgine, and his concubine: them wil I bring out now, and humble them, and do with thē what ſemeth you good: but to this man do not this vilenie.

25 But the men wolde not hearken to him: therefore the man toke his concubine, and broght her out vnto them: and they knewe her and abuſed her all the night vnto the morning: & whē the day began to ſpring, they let her go.

26 So ỹ woman came in the dawning of the day, & fel downe at the dore of the mās houſe where her lord was, til the light day.

27 And her lord aroſe in the morning, & opened the dores of the houſe, and went out to go his way, and beholde, the woman his concubine was dead at the dore of the houſe and her hands lay vpon the threſholde.

28 And he ſaid vnto her, Vp and let vs go: but ſhe anſwered not. Then he toke her vp vpon the aſſe, and the man roſe vp, and went vnto his place.

29 And when he was come to his houſe, he toke a knife, and laid hand on his concubine, and deuided her in pieces with her bones into twelue partes, and ſent her through all quarters of Iſraél.

30 And all that ſawe it, ſaid, There was no ſuche thing done or ſene ſince the time that the children of Iſraél came vp from the land of Egypt vnto this day: conſidre the matter, conſult and giue ſentence.

CHAP. XX.

1 The Iſraelites aſſemble in Miz̄péh, to whome the Leuite declareth his wrong. 13 They ſent for them that did the vilenie. 25 The Iſraelites are twiſe ouercome. 46 And at length get the victorie

1 THen * all the childrē of Iſraél wēt out and the Congregacion was gathered togethe as one man, from Dan to Beér ſhéba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the Lord in Mizpéh.

2 And the chief of all the people and all the tribes of Iſraél aſſembled in the Congregacio of the people of God foure hūdreth thouſand fotemen ỹ drewe ſword.

3 (Now the children of Beniamin heard that the childrē of Iſraél were gone vp to Mizpéh) Then the children of Iſraél ſaid, How is this wickednes committed?

4 And the ſame Leuite, the womans houſband that was ſlaine, anſwered and ſaid, I came vnto Gibeah that is in Beniamín with my concubine to lodge,

5 And the mē of Gibeáh aroſe againſt me, and beſet the houſe round about vpon me by night, thinking to haue ſlaine me, and haue forced my cōcubine that ſhe is dead.

6 Then I toke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and ſent her through out all the countrey of the inheritance of Iſraél: for they haue committed abominacion and vilenie in Iſraél.

7 Beholde, ye are all children of Iſraél: giue your aduiſe, and counſel herein.

8 Thē all ỹ people aroſe as one mā, ſaying, There ſhal not a man of vs go to his tent, nether anie turne into his houſe.

9 But now this is that thing which we wil do to Gibeáh: we wil go vp by lot againſt it,

10 And we wil take ten men of the hūdreth throughout all the tribes of Iſraél, and an hundreth of the thouſand, and a thouſand of ten thouſand to bring vitaile for the people that they may do (when they come to Gibeáh of Beniamín) according to all the vilenie, that it hathe done in Iſraél.

11 ¶So all the men of Iſraél were gathered againſt the citie, knit together, as one mā.

12 And the tribes of Iſraél ſent mē through all the tribe of Beniamín, ſaying, What wickednes is this ỹ is cōmitted amōg you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs thoſe wicked men which are in Gibeáh, that we may put them to death, and put away euil from Iſraél: but the children of Beniamin wolde not obey the voyce of their brethren the children of Iſraél.

14 But the children of Beniamín gathered them ſelues together out of the cities vnto Gibeáh, to come out and fight againſt the children of Iſraél.

15 ¶And the children of Beniamín were nombred at that time out of the cities ſix and twentie thouſand men that drewe ſworde, beſide the inhabitants of Gibeáh, which were nombred ſeuen hundreth choſen men.

16 Of all this people were ſeuen hundreth choſen men, being * left handed: all theſe colde ſling ſtones at an heere breadth, and not faile.

17 ¶Alſo ỹ men of Iſraél, beſide Bēiamín, were nōbred foure hundreth thouſand mē that drewe ſworde, euen all men of warre.

18 And the children of Iſraél aroſe, & wēt vp to the houſe of God, & aſked of God, ſaying, Which of vs ſhal go vp firſt to fight againſt the children of Beniamín? And the Lord ſaid, Iudáh ſhal be firſt.

19 Then the childrē of Iſraél aroſe vp early and camped againſt Gibeah.

" Ebr men of Belial: that is geue to all wicked. es
g To the intēt they might breake it.
Gen 19,8.
h That is, abuſe them.
i She fell downe dead, as verſ 27
Or, husband
Or, fallen.
k Meaning, home vnto mount Ephrāim
l For this was like the ſin of Sodō, for the ✠ God rained downe fire & brimſtone from heauen Oſee 10,9.
a That is, all with one conſent
b To aſke counſel Ebr corners
c Meaning mē able to handle their weapon
d To the Leuite.
Or, chiefs, or lords.
e That is, her pieces, to euerie tribe a piece, Chap. 19,9.
f Before we haue reuenged this wickednes.
g Theſe onely ſhulde haue ỹ charge to prouide for vitaile for the reſt.
h That is euerie families of the tribe.
i Becauſe they wolde not ſuffre the wicked to be punished, they declared themſelues to maintaine thē in their euil, & therefore were all iuſtely punished.
Chap 3,15.
k That is, to ỹ Arke, which was in Shiloh: ſome thinke, in Mizpéh, as verſ 1.

20 And the men of Iſraél went out to battel againſt Beniamín, and the men of Iſraél put thē ſelues in array to fight againſt them beſide Gibeáh.

21 And the children of Beniamín came out of Gibeáh, & ſlewe downe to the grounde of the Iſraelites that day [l] two and twentie thouſand men.

This God permitted, becauſe the Iſraelites partely truſted to muche in their ſtrength, and partely God wolde by this meanes puniſh their ſinnes.

22 And the people, the men of Iſraél plucked vp their hearts, and ſet their battel againe in array in the place where they put them in array the firſt day.

23 (For the children of Iſraél had gone vp and wept before the Lord vnto ỹ euening, and had aſked of the Lord, ſaying, Shal I go againe to battel againſt the children of Beniamín my brethren? & the Lord ſaid, Go vp againſt them)

24 ¶ Then the children of Iſraél came nere againſt the children of Beniamín the ſeconde day.

25 Alſo the ſeconde day Beniamín came forthe to mete thē out of Gibeáh, & ſlewe downe to the groūde of the childrē of Iſraél againe eightene thouſand men: [m] all they colde handle the ſworde.

[m] Ebr all they drawing the worde.

26 Then all the children of Iſraél went vp & all the people came alſo vnto the houſe of God, & wept and ſate there before the Lord & faſted that day vnto the euening, and offred burnt offrings & peace offrings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Iſraél aſked the Lord (for [m] there was the Arke of the couenant of God in thoſe dayes, [m] To wit, in Shiloh.

28 And Phinehás the ſonne of Eleazár, the ſonne of Aarón [n] ſtode before it at that time) ſaying, Shal I yet go anie more to battel againſt the childrē of Beniamín my brethren, or ſhal I ceaſe? And the Lord ſaid, Go vp: for tomorowe I wil deliuer them into your hand.

[n] Or, ſerued in the Prieſts office at thoſe dates: for the Iewes write, that he lined thre hundreth yeres.

29 And Iſraél ſet men to lye in wait round about Gibeáh.

30 And the children of Iſraél went vp againſt the children of Beniamín the third day, and put them ſelues in array againſt Gibeáh, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Beniamín comming out againſt the people, were [o] drawē from the citie: and they began to ſmite of the people and kil as at other times, euen by the wayes in the field (whereof one goeth vp to the houſe of God, & the other to Gibeáh) vpon a thirtie men of Iſraél.

[o] By the policie of the children of Iſraél.

32 (For the childrē of Beniamín ſaid, They are fallen before vs, as at the firſt. But the children of Iſraél ſaid, Let vs flee & plucke them away from the citie vnto the hie [p] wayes)

[p] Meaning, croſſe wayes or, paths to diuers places.

33 And all the men of Iſraél roſe vp out of their place, & put them ſelues in array at Baál tamár: and the men that lay in waite of the Iſraelites came forthe of their place, euen out of the medowes of Gibeáh, 34 And they came ouer againſt Gibeáh, ten thouſand choſen men of all Iſraél, & the battel was ſore: for they knewe not that the [q] euil was nere them.

[q] They knewe not, that Gods iudgemēt was at hand to deſtroy them.

35 ¶ And ỹ Lord ſmote Beniamín before Iſraél, and the children of Iſraél deſtroyed of the Beniamites the ſame day fiue and twentie thouſand and an hundreth men: all they colde handle the ſworde.

36 So the childrē of Beniamín ſawe that they were ſtriken downe: for the men of Iſraél [r] gaue place to the Beniamites, becauſe they truſted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beſide Gibeáh.

[r] Retired, to drawe them after.

37 And they that lay in waite haſted, and brake forthe towarde Gibeáh, and the embuſhment [s] drewe them ſelues along, and ſmote all the citie with the edge of the ſworde.

[s] Or, made alōg ſounde with a trumpet.

38 Alſo the men of Iſraél had appointed a certaine time with the embuſhmēts, that they ſhulde make a great flame, and ſmoke riſe vp out of the citie.

39 And whē the men of Iſraél retired in the battel, Beniamín began to [t] ſmite and kil of the men of Iſraél about thirtie perſones: for they ſaid, Surely they are ſtriken downe before vs, as in the firſt battel.

[t] For they were waxen hardy by the two former victories.

40 But when the flame began to ariſe out of the citie, as a piller of ſmoke, the Beniamites loked backe, and beholde, the flame of the citie began to aſcende vp to heauen.

41 Then ỹ men of Iſraél turned [u] againe, and the men of Beniamín were aſtonied: for they ſaw that euil was nere vnto thē.

[u] And withſtode their enemies.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Iſraél vnto the way of the wildernes, but the battel ouertoke them: alſo they which came out of the cities, ſlewe them [x] among them.

[x] For they were cōpaſſed in on euerie ſide

43 Thus they compaſſed the Beniamites about, and chaſed them [y] at eaſe, and ouerran them, euen ouer againſt Gibeáh on the Eaſtſide.

[y] Or, droue them frō their reſte.

44 And there were ſlaine of Beniamín eightene thouſand men, which were all men of warre.

45 And they turned and fled to the wildernes vnto the rocke of Rimmón: and the Iſraelites [z] glained of them by the way fiue thouſand mē, & purſued after thē vnto Gidóm, & ſlewe two thouſand mē of thē,

[z] They ſlewe them by one & one, as they were ſcatered abroad

46 So that all that were ſlaine that day of Beniamín, were [a] fiue and twentie thouſand men that drewe ſworde, which were all men of warre:

[a] Beſides eleuen hundreth that had bene ſlaine in the former battelles.

47 But ſix hundreth men turned & fled to the wildernes, vnto the rocke of Rimmón and abode in the rocke of Rimmón foure moneths.

48 Then

48 Then the men of Iſraél returned vnto the children of Beniamín, and ſmote thē with the edge of the ſworde fro the mē of the citie vnto the beaſts, and all that came to hand: alſo they ſet on fire all the [z] cities that they colde come by.

[z] If they belonged to the Beniamites

CHAP. XXI.

1 The Iſraelites ſweare that they wil not mary their daughters to the Beniamites. 10 They ſlay them of Iabéſh Gileád, and giue their virgines to the Beniamites 21 The Beniamites take the daughters of Shilóh.

1 MOreouer the men of Iſraél [a] ſware in Mizpéh, ſaying, None of vs ſhal giue his daughter vnto the Beniamites to wife.

[a] This othe came of raſhenes and not of iudgement: for after they brake it, in ſhewing ſecretly the meanes to mary with certaine of their daughters.

2 And the people came vnto the houſe of God & abode there til euen before God, and lift vp their voices, and wept with great lamentacion,

3 And ſaid, ô Lord God of Iſraél, why is this come to paſſe in Iſraél, that this day one tribe of Iſraél ſhulde want?

4 ¶ And on the morowe the people roſe vp and made there an [b] altar, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings.

[b] According to their cuſtome, when they wolde conſult with the Lord.

5 Then the children of Iſraél ſaid, Who is he amōg all ỹ tribes of Iſraél, that came not vp with the Congregacion vnto the Lord? for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpéh, ſaying, Let him dye the death.

[c] Or, repented that they had deſtroied their brethren, as appeareth verſ. 15.

6 And the children of Iſraél [c] were ſorie for Beniamín their brother, & ſaid, There is one tribe cut of from Iſraél this day.

7 How ſhal we do for wiues to them that remaine, ſeing we haue ſworne by ỹ Lord, that we wil not giue them of our daughters to wiues?

[d] Condemning thē to be fauters of vice, which wolde not put their hand to puniſh it.

8 Alſo they ſaid, Is there anie of the tribes of Iſraél that [d] came not vp to Mizpéh to the Lord? and beholde, there came none of Iabéſh Gileád vnto the hoſte and to the Congregacion.

9 For when the people were vewed, beholde, none of the inhabitants of Iabéſh Gileád were there.

[e] Ebr. children of ſtrength.

10 Therefore the Congregacion ſent thether twelue thouſand men of the [e] moſte valiant, and commanded them, ſaying, Go, and ſmite the inhabitants of Iabéſh Gileád with the edge of the ſworde, bothe women and children.

*Numb. 31.17.

11 *And this is it that ye ſhal do: ye ſhal vtterly deſtroy all the males and all the women that haue lien by men.

12 And they founde among the inhabitants of Iabéſh Gileád foure hundreth maides, virgins that had knowen no man by lying with anie male: and they broght them vnto the hoſte to Shilóh, which is in the land of Canáan.

[e] To wit, about four moneths after ỹ diſcomfiture, Chap. 20.47

13 ¶ Thē the whole Congregacion [e] ſent & ſpake with the children of Beniamín that were in the rocke of Rimmón, and called [f] peaceably vnto them:

[f] Or, friendly.

14 And Beniamín came againe at ỹ time, & they gaue them wiues which they had ſaued aliue of the women of Iabéſh Gileád: but they had not [f] ſo ynough for thē.

[f] For there lacked two hundreth

15 And the people were ſory for Beniamín, becauſe the Lord had made a breache in the tribes of Iſraél.

16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregacion ſaid, How ſhal we do for wiues to the remnant [g] for the women of Beniamín are deſtroyed.

[g] Beniamin muſt be reſerued to haue ỹ twelfe portiō in ỹ inheritāce of Iaakób.

17 And they ſaid, There muſt be an [g] inheritance for them that be eſcaped of Beniamín, that a tribe be not deſtroyed out of Iſraél.

18 Howbeit we may not giue them wiues of our daughters: for the children of Iſraél had ſworne, ſaying, Curſed be he, that giueth a wife to Beniamín.

19 Therefore they ſaid, Beholde, there is a feaſt of the Lord euerie yere in Shilóh in a place, which is on the [h] Northſide of Beth-él, and on the Eaſtſide of the way that goeth vp from Beth-él to Shechém, and on the South of Lebonáh.

[h] He deſcribeth the place where the maides vſed yerely to dance, as ỹ maner then was, & to ſyng Pſalmes and ſongs of Gods workes emongs them.

20 Therefore they commanded the childrē of Beniamín, ſaying, Go, and lye in waite in the vineyardes.

21 And when ye ſe that the daughters of Shilóh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyardes, and catche you euery man a wife of the daughters of Shilóh, & go into the land of Beniamín.

[i] Thogh they thoght hereby to perſuade men that they kept their oth, yet before God it was broken

22 And [i] when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we wil ſay vnto them, Haue pitie on thē for our ſakes, becauſe we reſerued not to eche man his wife in the warre, and becauſe ye haue not giuen vnto them hetherto, ye haue ſinned.

[k] Meaning, two hūdreth.

23 And the children of Beniamín did ſo, and toke wiues of them that dāced according to their [k] nomber: which they toke, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities & dwelt in them.

24 So the childrē of Iſraél departed thēce at that time, euery man to his tribe, and to his familie, and went out from thence euerie man to his inheritance.

*Chap. 17.6. & 18.1. & 19.1.

25 *In thoſe dayes there was no King in Iſraél, but euerie man did that which was good in his eyes.

THE BOKE OF RVTH.

THE ARGVMENT.

This boke is intitled after the name of Ruth: which is the principal perſone ſpoken of in this treatiſe. Wherein alſo figuratiuely is ſet forthe the ſtate of the Church which is ſubiect to manifolde afflictions, and yet at length God giueth good and ioyfull iſſue: teaching vs to abide with pacience til God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein alſo is deſcribed howe Ieſus Chriſt, who according to the fleſh ought to come of Dauid, proceded of Ruth, of whome the Lord Ieſus did vouchesaue to come, notwithſtanding ſhe was a Moabite of baſe condicion, and a ſtranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles ſhulde be ſanctified by him and ioyned with his people, and that there ſhulde be but one ſheepefolde, and one ſhepherde. And it ſemeth that this hiſtorie apperteineth to the time of the Iudges.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimélech goeth with his wife and childrē into the lād of Moáb. 3 He and his ſonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-léhem.

IN the time that the iudges "ruled, there was a dearth in the a land, and a mā of Beth-léhem b Iudáh went for to ſoiourne in the coūtrei of Moáb, he, and his wife, and his two ſonnes.

"Ebr. iudged.

a In the land of Canáan.

b In ỹ tribe of Iudáh, which was alſo called Beth-léhé Ephrathah, becauſe there was another citie ſo called in the tribe of Zebulún.

2 And the name of the mā was Elimélech, and the name of his wife, Naomí: and the names of his two ſonnes, Mahlón, & Chilión, Ephrathites of Beth-léhem Iudáh: and when they came into the land of Moáb, they continued there.

3 Then Elimélech the houſbād of Naomí dyed, & ſhe remained with her two ſonnes, c By this wōderful prouidence of God Ruth became one of Gods houſholde, of whome Chriſt came.

4 Which toke them wiues of the c Moabites: the ones name was Orpáh, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlón and Chilión dyed alſo bothe twaine: ſo the woman was left deſtitute of her two ſonnes, & of her houſbād.

6 ¶Then ſhe aroſe with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moáb: for ſhe had heard ſay in the countrei of Moáb, that the Lord had d viſited his people, and giuen them bread.

d By ſending them plentie againe.

7 Wherefore ſhe departed out of the place where ſhe was, and her two daughters in lawe with her, and they wēt on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudáh.

8 Thē Naomí ſaid vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go, returne eche of you vnto her owne mothers houſe: ỹ Lord ſhewe fauour vnto you, as ye haue done with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grante you, that you may finde e reſt, either of you in the houſe of her houſband. And when ſhe kiſſed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept.

e Hereby it appeareth that Naomi by dwellig amōg idolaters was waxen colde in ỹ true zeale of God, & rather hathe reſpect to the eaſe of ỹ body then to ỹ comfort of ỹ ſoule.

10 And they ſaid vnto her, Surely we wil returne with thee vnto thy people.

11 But Naomí ſaid, Turne againe, my daughters: for what cauſe wil you go with me? are there anie mo ſonnes in my wombe, that they may be your houſbands?

12 Turne againe, my daughters: go your way: for I am to olde to haue an houſbād. if I ſhulde ſaie, I haue hope, & if I had an houſband this night: yea, if I had borne ſonnes, 13 Wolde ye tary for them, til they were of age? wolde ye be differred for them from taking of houſbands? nay my daughters: for it grieueth me f muche for your ſakes ỹ the hād of ỹ Lord is gone out againſt me.

f Or, more then you.

14 Then they lift vp their voyce, and wept againe, and Orpáh f kiſſed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode ſtil with her.

f When ſhe toke leaue & departed.

15 And Naomí ſaid, Beholde, thy ſiſter in lawe is gone backe vnto her people & vnto her gods: g returne ỹ after thy ſiſter in law.

g No perſuaſions can preuaile to turne thē backe frō God whome he hathe choſen to be his.

16 And Ruth anſwered, Intreat me not to leaue thee, nor to departe from thee: for whither thou goeſt, I wil go: and where thou dwelleſt, I wil dwel: thy people ſhalbe my people, and thy God my God.

17 Where ỹ dyeſt, wil I dye, and there wil I be buryed. the Lord do ſo to me & more alſo, if ought but death departe thee & me.

18 ¶When ſhe ſawe that ſhe was ſtedfaſtly minded to go with her, ſhe left ſpeaking vnto her.

19 So they went bothe vntil they came to Beth-léhē: & whē they were come to Beth-léhem, it was h noiſed of them through all the citie, and thei ſaid, Is not this Naomi?

h Whereby appeareth ỹ ſhe was of a great familie & of good reputation.

20 And ſhe anſwered thē, Call me not Naomí, but call me *Marā: for the Almightie hathe giuen me muche bitternes.

*Or, beautifull.

*Or, bitter.

21 I wēt out ful, & ỹ Lord hathe cauſed me to returne empty: why call ye me Naomí, ſeing the Lord hath hūbled me, & the Almighty hathe broght me vnto aduerſitie.

22 So Naomí returned and Ruth ỹ Moabiteſſe her daughter in law with her, when ſhe came out of the countrei of Moab: & they came to Beth-léhem in the beginning of i barly harueſt.

i which was in the moneth Niſan, that cōtemeth part of March & parte of April.

CHAP. II.

1 Ruth gathereth corne in the fields of Bóaz. 15 The gētleneſs of Bóaz toward her.

1 THen Naomis houſband had a kinſman, one of great a power of the familie of Elimélech, & his name was Bóaz.

a Bothe for vertue, authoritie and riches.

And

2 And Ruth ỹ Moabitesse ſaid vnto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to ỹ field, & [b] gather eares of corne after hī, in whoſe ſight I fynd fauour. And ſhe ſaid vnto her, Go my daughter.

[b] This her humilitie declareth her great affection toward her mother in lawe, for as muche as ſhe ſpareth no painful diligence to get bothe their liuinges.

3 ¶ And ſhe went, & came & gleaned in ỹ field after the reapers, & it came to paſſe, that ſhe met w̄ the portion of the field of Bóaz, who was of ỹ familie of Elimélech.

4 And beholde, Bóaz came from Beth-léhem, and ſaid vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you: & they answered him, The Lord bleſſe thee.

5 Thē ſaid Bóaz vnto his ſeruāt ỹ was appointed ouer ỹ reapers, Whoſe maid is this?

6 And the ſeruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and ſaid, It is the Moabitiſh mayd, that came with Naomí out of the countrey of Móab:

7 And ſhe ſaid vnto vs, I pray you, let me gleane and gather after the reapers [a] amōg the ſheaues: ſo ſhe came, and hathe continued from that time in the morning vnto now, ſaue ỹ ſhe taried a litle in the houſe.

[a] Or, certaine handefuls.

8 ¶ Then ſaid Bóaz vnto Ruth, Heareſt thou, my daughter? go to none other ſield to gather, neither go from hence: but abide here by my maidens.

[c] That is, Take hede in what field they do reape

9 [c] Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and go thou after the maidēs. Haue I not charged the ſeruants, that they touche thee not? Moreouer when thou art a thirſt, go vnto the veſſels and drinke of that which the ſeruants haue drawen.

10 Then ſhe fell on her face, and bowed her ſelf to the ground, & ſaid vnto him, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that ỹ ſhuldeſt knowe me, ſeing I am [d] a ſtrāger?

[d] Euen of the Moabites, w̄ are enemies to Gods people.

11 And Bóaz answered, and ſaid vnto her, All is tolde and ſhewed me that ỹ haſt done vnto thy mother in law, ſince ỹ death of thine houſbād, and how thou haſt left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou waſt borne, and art come vnto a people w̄ thou kneweſt not in time paſt.

12 The Lord recompence thy worke and a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Iſraél, vnder whoſe [e] wings thou art come to truſt.

[e] Signifiing ỹ ſhe ſhal neuer want anie thig if ſhe put her truſt in God & liue vnder his protectiō.

13 Then ſhe ſaid, Let me finde fauour in thy ſight, my lord: for ỹ haſt cōforted me, and ſpoken comfortably vnto thy maid, thogh I be not like to one of thy maids.

14 And Bóaz ſaid vnto her, At ỹ meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, & dip thy morſel in ỹ vinegre. And ſhe ſate beſide the reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and ſhe did eat, and was ſuffiſed, and [f] left thereof.

[f] Which ſhe broght home to her mother in lawe

15 ¶ And when ſhe aroſe to gleane, Bóaz cō māded his ſeruants, ſaying, Let her gather among ỹ ſheaues, and do not rebuke her.

16 Alſo let fall ſome of the ſheaues for her, & let it lie, that ſhe may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 So ſhe gleaned in the field vntil euening, and ſhe threſhed that ſhe had gathered, and it was about an *Ephāh of barly.

*Exod. 16. 36.

18 ¶ And ſhe toke it vp, & went into the citie, and her mother in lawe ſawe what ſhe had gathered: alſo ſhe [g] toke forthe, and gaue to her that which ſhe had reſerued, when ſhe was ſuffiſed.

[g] To wit, of her bagge, as it is in the Chalde texte.

19 Then her mother in lawe ſaid vnto her, Where haſt thou gleaned to day? & where wroghteſt thou? bleſſed be he, that knewe thee. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in lawe, with whome ſhe had wroght, & ſaid, The mans name with whome I wroght to day, is Bóaz.

20 And Naomí ſaid vnto her daughter in lawe, Bleſſed be he of the Lord: for he ceaſeth not to do good to the liuing and to the [h] dead. Againe Naomí ſaid vnto her, The mā is nere vnto vs, & of our affinitie.

[h] To my houſband & childrē, whē they were aliue, & now to vs

21 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſaid, He ſaid alſo certainly vnto me, Thou ſhalt be w̄ my ſeruāts, vntil they haue ended all mine haruеſt.

22 And Naomí answered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is beſt, my daughter, that thou go out with his maids, that thei [*] mete thee not in an other field.

*Or, fall vpon thee.

23 Thē ſhe kept her by the maids of Bóaz, to gather vnto the end of barly haruеſt, & of wheat haruеſt, and [*] dwelt with her mother in lawe.

*Or, returned to her mother in lawe.

CHAP. III.

1 Naomí giueth Ruth counſel. 3 She ſtepeth at Bóaz fete. 12 He acknowledgeth him ſelfe to be her kinſeman.

1 AFterward Naomi her mother in law ſaid vnto her, My daughter, ſhal not I ſeke [a] reſt for thee, that ỹ maieſt proſper?

[a] Meaning, ỹ ſhe wolde prouide her of an houſband, w̄ whome ſhe might liue quietly.

2 Now alſo is not Bóaz our kinſman, with whoſe maids ỹ waſt, beholde, he winoweth barly to night in the [*] floore.

*Or, in the barne

3 Waſh thy ſelfe therefore, & anoint thee, & put thy raiment vpō thee, and get thee downe to ỹ floore: let not ỹ [b] mā knowe of thee, vntil he haue left eating & drinking.

[b] Bóaz, nor yet anie other

4 And when he ſhal ſlepe, marke the place where he layeth him downe, & go, & vncouer the place of his fete, and lay thee downe, & he ſhal tel thee what ỹ ſhalt do.

5 And ſhe answered her, All that thou biddeſt me, I wil do.

6 ¶ So ſhe went downe vnto the floore, & did according to all ỹ her mother in lawe bade her.

7 And when Bóaz had eaten, and dronkē, & [c] cheared his heart, he went to lie downe at the end of the heape of corne, & ſhe came ſoftely, & vncouered the place of his fete, & lay downe.

[c] That is, he refreſhed him ſelfe amōg his ſeruants

8 And at midnight the man was afraied [*] & caught holde: & lo, a womā lay at his fete.

*Or, turned him ſelfe from one ſide to another.

9 Then he ſaid, Who art thou? And ſhe anſwered, I am Ruth thine hādmaide: ſpread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine hādmaid: for thou art the kinſman.

10 Then ſaid he, Bleſſed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: ỹ haſt [d] ſhewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as muche as thou folowedſt not yong men, were they poore or riche.

11 And now, my daughter, feare not: I wildo to thee all that thou requireſt · for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a vertuous woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am̄ thy kinſman, howbeit there is a kinſeman nearer then I.

13 Tary to night, & when morning is come, if he [e] wil do the duetie of a kinſeman vnto thee, wel, let him do the kinſmans duetie: but if he wil not do the kinſemans parte, then wil I do the duetie of a kinſmā, as ỹ Lord liueth: ſlepe vntil the morning.

14 ¶ And ſhe lay at his fete vntil the morning: & ſhe aroſe before one colde knowe another: for he ſaid, Let no man knowe, that a woman came in to the floore.

15 Alſo he ſaid, bring the [f] ſhete that thou haſt vpon thee, and holde it. And when ſhe helde it, he meaſured ſix meaſures of barly, and laied them on her, & went into the citie.

16 And whē ſhe came to her mother in law, ſhe ſaid, [f] Who art ỹ, my daughter? And ſhe tolde her all ỹ the mā had done to her, 17 And ſaid, Theſe ſix meaſures of barly gaue he me: for he ſaid to me, Thou ſhalt not come empty vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then ſaid ſhe, My daughter, ſit ſtil, vntil thou knowe how the thing wil fall: for the man wil not be in reſt, vntil he hathe finiſhed the matter this ſame day.

d Thou ſheweſt thy iuſtice frō time to time more vertuous.

e If he wil take ones to be his wife by ỹ title of affinitie, according to Gods law, Deu. 25, 5.

f Or, mantel.

f Perceyuing by her coming home, that he had not taken her to his wife, ſhe was aſtonied.

CHAP. IIII.

Bóaz ſpeaketh to Ruths next kinſeman touching her mariage. 7 The anciēt cuſtome in Iſraél. 10 Bóaz maryeth Ruth, of whome he begetteth Obéd. 18 The generation of Phárez.

1 THen went Bóaz vp to the [a] gate, and ſate there, and beholde, the kinſeman, of whome Bóaz had ſpoken, came by: and he ſaid, [b] Ho, ſuche one, come, ſit downe here. And he turned, and ſate downe.

2 Then he toke ten men of the Elders of ỹ citie, & ſaid, Sit ye downe here. And they ſate downe.

3 And he ſaid vnto ỹ kinſman, Naomí, that is come againe out of ỹ coūtrei of Moáb, wil ſel a parcel of lād, which was our brother Elimélechs.

4 And I thoght to aduertiſe thee, ſaying, Bye it before the [a] aſſiſtans, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeme it, redeme it: but if thou wilt not redeme it, tel me: for I knowe that there is none [c] beſides thee to redeme it, & I am after thee. Then he anſwered, I wil redeme it.

5 Then ſaid Bóaz, What day thou byeſt ỹ field of the hand of Naomí, thou muſt alſo bye it of Ruth ỹ Moabiteſſe the wife of the dead, to ſterre vp the name of the dead, vpon his [d] inheritance.

6 And the kinſman anſwered, I can not redeme it, leſt I deſtroy mine owne inheritāce: redeme my right to thee, for I cā not redeme it.

7 Now this was the maner beforetime in Iſraél, concerning redeming and chāging, for to ſtabliſh all things: a man did plucke of his ſhooe, and gaue it his neighbour, and this was a ſure [e] witnes in Iſraél.

8 Therefore the kinſman ſaid to Bóaz, Bye it for thee: and he drue of his ſhooe.

9 And Bóaz ſaid vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witneſſes this day, that I haue boght all ỹ was Elimélechs, and all that was Chilións & Mahlóns, of the hand of Naomí.

10 And moreouer, Ruth the Moabiteſſe the wife of Mahlón, haue I boght to be my wife, to ſterre vp the name of ỹ dead vpō his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his [f] place: ye are witneſſes this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, & the Elders ſaid, We are witneſſes: the Lord make the wife that cometh into thine houſe, like Rahél and like Leáh, which twaine did buyld the houſe of Iſraél: and that thou maieſt do worthely in [g] Ephráthah, and be famous in Beth-léhem, 12 And that thine houſe be like ỹ houſe of Phárez (*whome Thamár bare vnto Iudáh) of the ſede which the Lord ſhal giue thee of this yong woman.

13 ¶ So Bóaz toke Ruth, and ſhe was his wife: and when he went in vnto her, the Lord gaue, that ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne.

14 And the women ſaid vnto Naomí, Bleſſed be ỹ Lord, which hathe not left thee this day without a kinſman, & [h] his name ſhalbe continued in Iſraél.

15 And this ſhal bring thy life againe, and cheriſh thine olde age: for thy daughter in lawe which loueth thee, hathe borne vnto him, and ſhe is better to thee then [i] ſeuen ſonnes.

16 And Naomí toke the childe, and layed it in her lap, and became nource vnto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gaue it a name, ſaying, There is a childe borne to Naomí, and called the name thereof Obéd: the ſame was the father of Iſhái, the father of Dauid.

18 ¶ Theſe

a Which was ỹ place of iudgement.

b The Ebrewes here vſe two wordes which haue no propre ſignification, but ſerue to note a certaine perſone: as we ſay, ho, ſyrray, or ho, ſuche one.

a Or, inhabitāts.

c For thou art the next of ỹ kinne.

d That his inheritance might beare his name that is dead.

e That he had reſigned his right, Deut. 25, 9.

f Or, of ỹ citie where he remained.

g Ephráthah & Beth-léhem are bothe one.

Gen. 38, 29.

h He ſhal leaue a continuall poſteritie.

i Meaning, manie ſonnes.

18 ¶ Theſe now are the generacions of
* k Phárez: Phárez begate Hezrón, 19 And Hezrón begate Ram, & Ram begate Amminadáb, 20 And Amminadáb begate Nahſhón, and Nahſhón begate Salmáh,
21 And Salmón begate Bóaz, and Bóaz begate Obéd, 22 And Obéd begate Iſhái, and Iſhái begate Dauid.

1.Chro 2,4. mat.1,3 k This genealogie is brought in to proue that Dauid by ſucceſsiō came of the houſe of Iudáh.

THE FIRST BOKE OF Samuél.

THE ARGVMENT.

According as God had ordeined Deut. 17,14. that when the Iſraelites ſhulde be in the land of Canáan, he wolde appoint them a King: ſo here in the firſt boke of Samuel is declared the ſtate of this people vnder their firſt King Saúl, who not content with that ordre, which God had for a time appointed for the gouernement of his Church, demanded a King, to the intent thei might be as other nacions & in a greater aſſurance as thei thoght: not becauſe thei might the better thereby ſerue God, as being vnder the ſafegarde of him, which did repreſent Ieſus Chriſt the true deliuerer: therefore he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the perſone of a King is not ſufficient to defend them, except God by his power preſerue and kepe them. And therefore he puniſheth the ingratitude of his people & ſendeth thē continual warres bothe at home and abroad. And becauſe Saúl, whome of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a King, did not acknowledge Gods mercie toward him, but rather diſobeied the worde of God and was not zealous of his glorie, he was by the voyce of God put downe from his ſtate, and Dauid the true figure of Meſsiáh placed in his ſteade, whoſe patience, modeſtie, conſtancie, perſecucion by open enemies, fained friends, and diſſembling flatterers are left to the Church and to euery member of the ſame, as a paterne and example to beholde their ſtate ad vocacion.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Elkanáh father of Samuél. 2 His two wiues. 5 Hannáh was baren and praied to the Lord. 15 Her anſwer to Elí. 20 Samuél is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

THere was a man of one of the two a Ramathaím Zophím, of moũt Ephráim, whoſe name was Elkanáh the ſonne of Ieróhám, the ſonne of Elihú, the ſonnne of Tóhu, the ſonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

a There were two Ramaths, ſo that in this eistle in mount Ephráim were Zophím: that is, the learned men and Prophets.

2 And he had two wiues: the name of one was Hannáh, and the name of the other Peninnáh: and Peninnáh had childrē, but Hannáh had no children.

Deut.16,16. 3 * And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worſhip & to ſacrifice vnto the Lord of hoſtes in b Shilóh, where were the two ſonnes of Elí, Hophní and Phinehás Prieſts of the Lord.

¶ For the Arke was there at that time.

4 And on a day, whē Elkanáh ſacrifiſed, he gaue to Peninnáh his wife and to all her ſonnes and daughters porcions, c Some read: a porcion with an heauy chere.

5 But vnto Hānáh he gaue a worthy c porcion: for he loued Hannáh, and the Lord had made her baren.

6 ¶ And her aduerſatie vexed her ſore, for aſmucheas ſhe vpbraided her, becauſe the Lord had made her baren.

7 (And ſo did he yere by yere) & as oft as ſhe wēt vp to the houſe of ỹ Lord, thus ſhe vexed her, that ſhe wept and did not eat.

8 Then ſaid Elkanáh her houſbād to her, Hannáh, why wepeſt thou? and why eateſt thou not? & why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten d ſonnes?

d Let this ſuffice thee, that I loue thee no leſſe, then if ỹ hadeſt many children.

9 So Hannáh roſe vp after that they had eaten and dronke in Shilóh (and Elí the Prieſt ſate vpō a ſtole by one of ỹ poſtes of the e Temple of the Lord) e That is, of ỹ houſe, where the Arke was.

10 And ſhe was troubled in her minde, and praied vnto the Lord, and wept ſore:

11 Alſo ſhe vowed a vowe, & ſaid, O Lord of hoſtes, if thou wilt loke on the trouble of thine handmayd, and remēber me, and not forget thine handmayd, but giue vnto thine handmayd a manchilde, then I wil giue him vnto the Lord all the daies of his life, * and there ſhal no raſer come vpon his head.

Nomb 6,5. iudg.13,5.

12 And as ſhe cōtinued praying before the Lord, Elí marked hei mouth.

13 For Hánáh ſpake in her heart: her lippes did moue onely, but hei voyce was not heard: therefore Elí thoght ſhe had bene dronken.

14 And Elí ſaid vnto hei, How long wilt thou be dronkē? Put away "thy dronkēnes from thee.

"Ebr. thy wine.

15 Then Hannáh anſwered and ſaid, Nay my lord, but I am a woman "troubled in ſpirit: I haue dróke neithei wine nor ſtrōg drinke, but haue * powred out my ſoule before the Lord.

"Ebr. of an hard ſpirit.

Pſal.42,5.

16 Count not thine handmaid "for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grief haue I ſpoken hitherto.

17 Then Elí anſwered, and ſaid, Go in peace, and the God of Iſraél grant thy peticion that thou haſt aſked of him.

18 She ſaid againe, Let thine handmayd finde [f] grace in thy ſight: ſo the woman went her way, and did eat, and loked no more ſad.

19 ¶ Then they roſe vp early, and worſhiped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their houſe to Ramáh. Now Elkanáh knewe Hannáh his wife, and the Lord [g] remembred her.

20 For in proceſſe of time Hannáh cõceiued, and bare a ſonne, and ſhe called his name Samuél, Becauſe, ſaid ſhe, I haue aſked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man [h] Elkanáh & all his houſe went vp to offer vnto ỹ Lord the yerelie ſacrifice, and his vowe:

22 But Hannáh went not vp: for ſhe ſaid vnto her houſbãd, I wil tary vntil the childe be weined, then I wil bring him that he may appeare before the Lord, & there abide for euer.

23 And Elkanáh her houſband ſaid vnto her, Do what ſemeth thee beſt: tary vntil thou haſt weined him: onely the Lord accompliſh his [i] worde. So the woman abode, and gaue her ſonne ſucke vntil ſhe weined him.

24 ¶ And whẽ ſhe had weined him, ſhe toke him with her with thre bullockes and an *Ephán of floure and a bottle of wine, and broght him vnto the houſe of the Lord in Shilóh, and the childe was " yong.

25 And thei ſlewe a bullocke, and broght the childe to Elí.

26 And ſhe ſaid, Oh my lord, as thy [k] ſoule liueth, my lord, I am the womã that ſtode with thee here praying vnto the Lord.

27 I praied for this childe, and the Lord hathe giuen me my deſire which I aſked of him.

28 Therefore alſo I haue " giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth he ſhalbe giuen vnto the Lord: and he [l] worſhiped the Lord there.

CHAP. II.

1 The ſong of Hannáh 12 The ſonnes of Elí, wicked. 13 The newe cuſtome of the Prieſts 18 Samuél miniſtreth before the Lord 20 Elí bleſſeth Elkanáh and his wife 23 Elí reproueth his ſonnes 27 God ſendeth a Prophet to Elí. 31 Elí is menaced for not chaſtiſing his children.

AND Hannáh [a] praied, & ſaid, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord, mine [b] horne is exalted in ỹ Lord: my mouth is [c] enlarged ouer mine enemies, becauſe I reioyce in thy ſaluacion.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none beſides thee, & there is no God like our God.

3 Speake [d] no more preſumpteouſly: let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterpriſes are eſtabliſhed.

4 The bowe & the mightie men are broken, and the weake haue girde them ſelues with ſtrength.

5 Thei that were ful, are hired forthe for [e] bread, & the hongrie are no more hired, ſo that the baren hathe borne [f] ſeuen: and ſhe that had many children, is feble.

6 * The Lord killeth and maketh aliue: bringeth downe to the graue and raiſeth vp.

7 The Lord maketh poore and maketh riche: bringeth lowe, and exalteth.

8 *He reiſeth vp the poore out of the duſt, and lifteth vp the begger from the donghil, to ſet them among [f] princes, and to make them inherit the ſeat of glorie: for the pillers of the earth are the [g] Lords, and he hathe ſet the worlde vpon them.

9 He wil kepe the fete of his Sainctes, and the wicked ſhal kepe ſilence in darckenes: for in his owne might ſhal no man be ſtrong.

10 The Lords aduerſaries ſhal be deſtroyed, and out of heauen ſhal he * thunder vpon them: the Lord ſhal iudge the ends of the worlde, and ſhal giue power vnto his [h] King, and exalte the horne of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanáh went to Ramáh to his houſe, and the childe did miniſter vnto the Lord [i] before Elí the Prieſt.

12 ¶ Now the ſonnes of Elí were wicked men & [k] knewe not the Lord.

13 For the Prieſts cuſtome toward the people was this: when any mã off ed ſacrifice, the Prieſts [l] boy came, while the fleſh was ſething and a fleſhoke with thre teth in his hand,

14 And thruſt it into the kettle, or into the caldren, or into the pan, or into ỹ pot: all that ỹ fleſhoke broght vp, the Prieſt toke for him ſelf: thus thei did vnto all the Iſraelites, that came thether to Shilóh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the [m] fat, the Prieſts boy came and ſaid to the man that offred, Giue me fleſh to roſt for ỹ Prieſt: for he wil not haue ſodden fleſh of thee, but rawe.

16 And if any man ſaid vnto him, Let them burne the fat according to the [o] cuſtome, then take as muche as thine heart [n] deſireth: then he wolde anſwer, No, but thou ſhalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I wil take it by force.

17 Therefore the ſinne of the yong mẽ was very

"Ebr for a daughter of Beliál.

f That is, pray vnto the Lord for me

g According to her peticiõ

h This Elkanáh was a Leuite, 1 Chro 6, 27. and as ſome write, once a yere thei accuſtomed to appeare before the Lord wt their families.

i Becauſe her praier toke effect, therefore it was called ỹ Lords promes.

*Exod. 16, 36.

"Ebr a childe.

k That is, more certeinly.

"Ebr lente.

l Meaning, Eli gaue thãkes to God for her.

a After that ſhe had obteined a ſonne by prayer, ſhe gaue thankes

b I haue recouered ſtrength & glorie by ỹ benefite of the Lord

c I can anſwer them, that reproue my barennes.

d In that ye condemne my barennes, ye ſhewe your pride againſt God.

e Thei ſet their labours for neceſſarie, fode

f Or, many

*Deut 32, 39. wiſd 16, 13. tob. 13, 2.

*Pſal. 113, 7.

f He preferreth to honour and putteth downe according to his owne wil, thogh mans iudgement be contrary.

g Therefore he may diſpoſe all things according to his wil

*Chap. 7, 10.

h She groũded her prayer on Ieſus Chriſt ỹ was to come.

i In all ỹ Elí cõmãded him.

k That is, thei neglected his ordinance.

l Or, ſonne.

l Trãſgreſsing the o dre appointed in the Lawe, Leui 7, 31, for their beſt lies take.

m Which was cõmanded firſt to haue bene offred to God.

o Or, Lawe

n Not paſsing for their owne profite ſo that God might be ſerued aright.

very great before the Lord: for men [o] abhorred the offring of the Lord.

[o] Seing ỹ horrible abuse thereof.

18 ¶Now Samuél being a yong childe miniſtred before the Lord, girded with a linnen * Ephód.

*Exod.28,4.

19 And his mother made him a litle coate, and broght it to him from yere to yere, when ſhe came vp with her houſband, to offer the yerely ſacrifice.

20 And Elí bleſſed Elkanáh and his wife, & ſaid, The Lord giue thee ſede of this woman, for [p] the petition that ſhe aſked of the Lord: and they departed vnto their place.

[p] Or, for the thig that ſhe hathe lēt the Lord: 1.Sam.1.

21 And the Lord viſited Hannáh, ſo that ſhe conceiued, and bare thre ſonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuél grewe before the Lord.

22 ¶So Elí was very olde, & heard all that his ſonnes did vnto all Iſraél, & how they laye with the women that [q] aſſembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

[q] Which was (as the Ebrewes write) after their tranſlacion, when they came to be purified, read Exod 38,8, Leu 12,6

23 And he ſaid vnto thē, Why do ye ſuche things? for of all this people I heare euil reportes of you.

24 Do no more, my ſonnes: for it is no good reporte that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to [r] treſpaſſe.

[r] Because they cōtemne their ductie to God, verſ.17

25 If one man ſinne againſt an other, the iudge ſhal iudge it: but if a man ſinne againſt the Lord, who wil pleade for him? Notwithſtāding thei obeied not the voyce of their father, becauſe ỹ Lord [s] wolde ſlaye them.

[s] So that to obey good admonitions is Goas mercie, & to diſobey them, is his iuſt iudgement for ſinne.

26 ¶(Now the childe Samuél profited and grewe and was in fauour bothe with the Lord, and alſo with men)

27 And there came a mā of God vnto Elí and ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaieth the Lord, Did not I plainely appeare vnto ỹ houſe of thy [t] father, when they were in Egypt in Pharohs houſe?

[t] To wit, Aarón

28 And I choſe him out of all the tribes of Iſraél to be my Prieſt, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incence, and to weare an Ephód before me, and * I gaue vnto the houſe of thy father all the offrings made by fire of the children of Iſraél.

*Leu.10,14.

29 Wherefore haue you [u] kiked againſt my ſacrifice and mine offring, which I cōmanded in my Tabernacle, and honoreſt thy children aboue me, to make your ſelues fat of the firſt frutes of all the offrings of Iſraél my people?

[u] Why haue you cōtemned my ſacrifices, and as it were trod them vnder fete.

30 Wherefore ỹ Lord God of Iſraél ſayth, I ſaid, ỹ thine houſe & the houſe of thy father ſhulde walke before me for euer: but nowe the Lord ſaith, [x] It ſhal not be ſo: for them that honour me, I wil honour, and they that deſpiſe me, ſhal be deſpiſed.

[x] Gods promiſes are onely effectual to ſuche as he giueth conſtancie vnto, to feare and obey him

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I wil cut of thine [y] arme, and the arme of thy fathers houſe, that there ſhal not be an olde man in thine houſe.

[y] Thy power and autoritie.

32 And thou [z] ſhalt ſe thine enemie in the habitation of the Lord in all things wherewith God ſhal bleſſe Iſraél, and there ſhal not be an olde man in thine houſe for euer.

[z] Thy poſteritie ſhal ſe the glorie of the chief Prieſthod tranſlated to another, whome they ſhal enuie, 1.King. 2,27.

33 Neuertheles, I wil not deſtroy euery one of thine frō mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, & to make thine heart ſorowful: and all the multitude of thine houſe ſhal [a] dye when they be men.

[a] Or, When they come to mans age

34 And this ſhalbe a ſigne vnto thee, that ſhal come vpon thy two ſonnes Hophní and Phinehás: in one day they ſhal dye bothe.

35 And I wil ſterre me vp a [b] faithful Prieſt, that ſhal do according to mine heart and according to my minde: and I wil buylde him a ſure houſe, and he ſhal walke before mine Anoynted for euer.

[b] Meaning, Zadók, who ſucceded Abiathár, and was the figure of Chriſt

36 And all that are left in thine houſe, ſhal come and [c] bowe downe to him for a piece of ſiluer and a morſel of bread, and ſhal ſay, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the Prieſts offices, that I may eat a morſel of bread.

[c] That is, ſhal be inferior vnto him

CHAP. III.

1 There was no manifeſt viſiō in the time of Elí. 4 The Lord calleth Samuél thre times, 11 And ſheweth what ſhal come vpon Elí and his houſe. 18 The ſame declareth Samuél to Elí.

1 NOw the childe Samuél miniſtred vnto the Lord [a] before Elí: and the worde of the Lord was [b] precious in thoſe dayes: for there was no manifeſt viſion.

[a] The Chalde text readeth, whiles Elí liued

[b] Becauſe there were very fewe Prophetes to declare it

2 And at that time, as Elí laye in his [c] place, his eyes began to waxe dimme that he colde not ſe.

[c] In the court next to the Tabernacle

3 And yer the [d] light of God went out, Samuél ſlept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was.

[d] That is, the lampes watch burnt in the night

4 Then the Lord [e] called Samuél: and he ſaid, Here I am.

[e] Ioſephus writeth that Samuél was twelue yere olde, when ỹ Lord appeared to him

5 And he ran vnto Elí, and ſaid, Here am I, for thou calledſt me. But he ſaid, I called thee not: go againe and ſlepe. And he went and ſlept.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuél. And Samuél aroſe, and went to Elí, & ſaid, I am here: for thou dideſt call me. And he anſwered, I called the not, my ſonne: go againe and ſlepe.

7 Thus did Samuél, before he knewe [f] the Lord, and before the worde of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

[f] By viſion.

8 And the Lord called Samuél againe the third time: and he aroſe, and went to Elí, and ſaid, I am here: for thou haſt called me. Then Elí [g] perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

[g] Suche was the corruption of thoſe times that the chief Prieſt was become dul and negligent to vnderſtād the Lords appearing

9 Therefore Elí ſaid vnto Samuél, Go and ſlepe: and if he call thee, then ſay, Speake

Lord, for thy ſeruant heareth. So Samuél went, and ſlept in his place.

10 ¶ And the Lord came, & ſtode, and called as at other times, Samuél, Samuél. Thē Samuél anſwered, Speake, for thy ſeruant heareth.

11 ¶ Thē the Lord ſaid to Samuél, Beholde, I wil do a thing in Iſraél, whereof whoſoeuer ſhal heare, his two eares ſhal [h] tingle.

[h] God declareth what ſodē feare ſhal come vpon mē whē they ſhal heare that the Arke is taken and alſo ſe Elis houſe deſtroyed.

12 In that day I wil raiſe vp againſt Elí all things which I haue ſpoken concerning his houſe: when I begin, I wil alſo make an end.

13 And I haue tolde him that I wil iudge his houſe for euer, for the iniquitie which he knoweth, becauſe his ſonnes ran into a ſlander, and he ſtayed them not.

14 Now therefore I haue ſworne vnto the houſe of Elí, that the wickednes of Elis houſe, ſhal not be purged with ſacrifice nor offring [i] for euer.

[i] Meaning, that his poſteritie ſhulde neuer enioye ỹ chief Prieſts office

15 Afterwarde Samuél ſlept vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the houſe of the Lord, and Samuél feared to ſhewe Elí the viſion.

16 ¶ Then Elí called Samuél, and ſaid, Samuél my ſonne. And he anſwered, Here I am.

17 Thē he ſaid, What is it, that the Lord ſaid vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God [k] do ſo to thee, and more alſo, if thou hide anie thing from me, of all that he ſaid vnto thee.

[k] God puniſhe thee after this and that ſort, except thou tel me trueth, Ruth 1,17.

18 So Samuél tolde him euerie whit, & hid nothing from him. Then he ſaid, It is the Lord: let him do what ſemeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuél grewe, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his wordes [l] fall to the ground.

[l] The Lord accompliſhed whatſoeuer he had ſaid.

20 And all Iſraél from Dan to Beerſhéba knewe [e] that faithful Samuél was the Lords Prophet.

[e] Or that Samuél was the faithful Prophet of the Lord

21 And the Lord appeared againe in Shilóh: for the Lord reueiled him ſelfe to Samuél in Shilóh by [m] his worde.

[m] Ebr by the worde of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iſraél is ouercome by the Philiſtims. 4 They do fet the Arke, wherefore the Philiſtims do feare 10 The Arke of the Lord is taken 11 Eli and his childrē dye. 19 The death of the wife of Phinehas the ſonne of Eli.

[f] From the departure of the Iſraelites out of Egypt vnto the time of Samuél are a bout 390 yere

1 AND Samuél ſpake vnto all Iſraél: [f] & Iſraél went out againſt ỹ Philiſtims to battel and pitched beſide [e] Ebén ézer: and the Philiſtims pitched in Aphék.

[e] Or, ſtone of helpe, chap. 7,12.

2 And ỹ Philiſtims put them ſelues in array againſt Iſraél: and when they ioyned the battel, Iſraél was ſmitten downe before the Philiſtims: who ſlewe of the armie in the field about foure thouſand men.

[a] For it may ſeme that this warre was vndertaken by Samuels commandement

3 So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Iſraél ſaid, [a] Wherefore hathe the Lord ſmitten vs this day before the Philiſtims? let vs bring ỹ Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shilóh vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may ſaue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Thē the people ſent to Shilóh, & broght from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hoſtes, who [b] dwelleth betwene the Cherubims: and there were the two ſonnes of Elí, Hophní, & Phinehás, with the Arke of the couenant of God.

[b] For he vſed to appeare to the Iſraelites betwene the Cherubims ouer the Arke of the couenant, Exod 25, verſ 17

5 And when the Arke of the couenāt of the Lord came into the hoſte, all Iſraél ſhowted a mihgty ſhowte, ſo that the earth rāg againe.

6 And when the Philiſtims heard the noiſe of the ſhowte, they ſaid, What meaneth the ſounde of this mighty ſhowte in the hoſte of the Ebrewes? & they vnderſtode, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoſte.

7 And the Philiſtims were afraid, and ſaid, God is come into the hoſte: therefore ſaid thei, [c] Wo vnto vs: for it hathe not bene ſo heretofore.

[c] Before we fought againſt men and now God is come to fight againſt vs

8 Wo vnto vs, who ſhal deliuer vs out of the hand of theſe mighty Gods? theſe are the Gods that ſmote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the [d] wildernes.

[d] For in the red Sea in ỹ wildernes the Egyptians were deſtroyed, which was ỹ laſt of all his plagues Iudg 13,1.

9 Be ſtrong and play the men, ô Philiſtims, that ye be not ſeruāts vnto the Ebrewes, * as they haue ſerued you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philiſtims fought, and Iſraél was ſmitten downe, and fled euerie man into his tent: and there was an exceding great ſlaughter: for there fel of Iſraél [e] thirtie thouſand fotemen.

[e] Dauid alluding to this place Pſal 77, 63 ſaieth they were cōſumed with fire: meaning they were ſodenly deſtroyed

11 And the Arke of God was taken, and the two ſonnes of Elí, Hophní and Phinehas dyed.

12 And there ran a man of Beniamín out of the armie, and came to Shilóh the ſame day with his clothes [f] rent, and earth vpon his head.

[f] In token of ſorrowe and mourning

13 And when he came, lo, Elí ſate vpon a ſeate by the wayſide, waiting: for his heart [g] feared for the Arke of God: and when the man came into the citie to tel it, all the citie cryed out.

[g] Leſt it ſhulde be taken of the enemies.

14 And when Elí heard the noiſe of the crying, he ſaid, What meaneth this noiſe of the tumult? and the mā came in haſtely, and tolde Elí.

15 (Now Elí was foureſcore and eightene yere olde, and * his eyes were dimme that he colde not ſe)

Chap. 3,2.

16 And the man ſaid vnto Elí, I came from the armie, and I fled this day out of the hoſte: and he ſaid, What thing is done, my ſonne?

17 Then the meſſenger anſwered and ſaid, Iſraél is fled before the Philiſtims, and there hathe bene alſo a great ſlaughter among among the people: and moreouer thy two ſonnes, Hophní and Phinehás [h] are dead, and the Arke of God is taken.

[h] According, as God had afore ſaid.

18 ¶ And whē he had made mencion of the Arke of God, Eli fel from his ſeate backwarde by the ſide of the gate, & his necke was broken, and he dyed: for he was an olde mā and heauye: and [*] he had iudged Iſraél fortie yeres.

[*] Or, gouerned.

19 And his daugter in lawe Phinehás wife was with childe nere [†] her trauel: and when ſhe heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe & her houſband were dead, ſhe [i] bowed her ſelfe, and traueled: for her paines came vpon her.

[†] Or, to crye out

[i] And ſerled her body toward her trauel

20 And about the time of her death, the women that ſtode about her, ſaid vnto her, Feare not: for thou haſt borne a ſonne: but ſhe anſwered not, nor regarded it.

21 And ſhe named the childe [*] Ichabód, ſaying, The glorie is departed from Iſraél, becauſe the Arke of God was taken, & becauſe of her father in lawe and her houſband.

[*] Or, No glorie, or, where is the glorie

22 She ſaid againe, [k] The glorie is departed frō Iſraél: for the Arke of God is takē.

[k] She vttered her great ſorowe by repeting her woraes.

CHAP. V.

1 The Philiſtims bring the Arke into the houſe of Dagón, which idole fel downe before it 6 The men of Aſhdód are plagued. 8 The Arke is caryed into Gath and after to Ekrón.

1 THen the Philiſtíms toke the Arke of God and caryed it from Ebén ézer vnto [a] Aſhdód,

[a] Which was one of the fiue principal cities of the Philiſtims

2 Euen the Philiſtíms toke the Arke of God, and broght it into the houſe of [b] Dagón, and ſet it by Dagón.

[b] Which was their chief idole, & as ſome write, from ſ nauil downwarde was like a fiſhe, and vpwarde like a man

3 And when they of Aſhdód roſe the next day in the morning, beholde, Dagón was fallen vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, and they toke vp Dagón, and ſet him in his place againe.

4 Alſo they roſe vp early in the morning the next day, & beholde, Dagón was fallē vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagón and the two palmes of his hands were cut of vpon the threſholde: onely the ſtumpe of Dagón was left to him.

5 Therefore the Prieſts of Dagón, and all that come into Dagons houſe [c] treade not on the threſholde of Dagón in Aſhdód, vnto this day.

[c] Thus in ſteade of acknowledging ſ true God by this miracle, they fall to a farther ſuperſtition

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauy vpō them of Aſhdód, and deſtroyed them, and ſmote them with [*] emerods, bothe Aſhdód, and the coaſtes thereof.

Pſal 78,66.

7 And whē the men of Aſhdód ſawe this, they ſaid, Let not the Arke of the God of Iſraél abide with vs: for his hand is ſore vpon vs and vpon Dagón our god.

8 They ſent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philiſtíms vnto them, and ſaid, [d] What ſhal we do with the Arke of the God of Iſraél? And they anſwered, Let the Arke of the God of Iſraél be caried about vnto Gath: & thei caried the Arke of the God of Iſraél about.

[d] Though thei had felt Gods power & were affraied thereof, yet they wolde farther trie hī, which thing God turned to their deſtruction & his glorie.

9 And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was againſt the citie with a very great deſtruction, and he ſmote the men of the citie bothe ſmall and great, & they had emerods in their ſecret paites.

10 ¶ Therefore they ſent the Arke of God to Ekrón: and aſſone as the Arke of God came to Ekrón, the Ekronites cryed out, ſaying, They haue broght the Arke of ȳ God of Iſraél to vs to ſlay vs and our people.

11 Therefore they ſent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philiſtíms and ſaid, Send [e] away the Arke of the God of Iſraél, and let it returne to his owne place, that it ſlay vs not and our people: for there was a deſtruction & death through out all the citie, & the hād of God was very ſore there.

[e] The wicked, when they fele the hand of God, grudge & reiecte him, where ſ godly humble them ſelues & crye for mercie

12 And the men that dyed not, were ſmittē with the emerods: and the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

CHAP. VI.

1 The time that the Arke was with the Philiſtims which they ſent againe with a gift 12 It commeth to Beth-ſhémeſh. 17 The Philiſtims offer golden emerods 19 The men of Beth-ſhémeſh are ſtricken for loking into the Arke.

1 SO the Arke of the Lord was in ȳ countrey of the Philiſtíms [a] ſeuen monethes.

[a] Thei thoght by continuace of time ȳ plague wolde haue ceaſed and ſo wolde haue kept ȳ Arke ſtil

2 And the Philiſtíms called the Prieſtes & the ſothſayers, ſaying, What ſhal we do w̄ the Arke of the Lord? tel vs wherewith we ſhal ſend it home againe?

3 And they ſaid, If you ſend away the Arke of ȳ God of Iſraél, ſend it not away emptie, but giue vnto it [b] a ſinne offring: then ſhal ye be healed, and it ſhalbe knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

[b] The idolaters confeſſe there is a true God who puniſheth ſinne iuſtely.

4 Then ſaid they, What ſhalbe the ſinne offring, which we ſhal giue vnto it? And they anſwered, Fiue golden emerods and fiue golden mice, according to the nomber of ȳ Princes of the Philiſtíms: for one plague was on you all, & on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye ſhal make the ſimilitudes of your emerods, and the ſimilitudes of your mice that deſtroye the lād: ſo ye ſhal giue glorie vnto the God of Iſraél, that he may take his hād from you, and from your [c] gods, and from your land.

[c] This is Gods iudgement vpō the idolaters, that knowing the true God thei worſhip him not aright.

6 Wherefore then ſhulde ye harden your heartes, as the Egyptians and Pharaóh hardened their heartes, when he wroght

Exod.12,31. wonderfully among them, * did they not let them go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a newe carte, and take two melche kine, on whome there hathe come no yoke: & tye the kine to the carte, and bring the calues home from them.

8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and ſet it vpon the carte, and put the [d] iewels of golde which ye giue it for a ſinne offring in a coffer by the ſide thereof, and ſend it away, that it may go.

d Meaning ỹ goldē emerods and the golden mice.

9 And take hede, if it go vp by the way of his owne coaſt to Beth-ſhémeſh, it is [e] he that did vs this great euil: but if not, we ſhal knowe then, that it is not his hād that ſmote vs, but it was a [f] chance that happened vs.

e The God of Iſraél.

f The wicked attribute almoſt all thigs to fortune and chance, whereas in dede there is nothing done without Gods prouidence & decree.

10 And the men did ſo: for they toke two kine that gaue milke, and tyed them to the carte and ſhut the calues at home.

11 So they ſet the Arke of the Lord vpon the carte, and the coffer with the mice of golde, and with the ſimilitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the ſtreight way to Beth-ſhémeſh, & kept one path and lowed as they went, & turned nether to the right hand nor to the left: alſo the princes of the Philiſtíms went after [g] thē, vnto the borders of Beth-ſhémeſh.

g For the trial of the matter

13 Now they of Beth-ſhémeſh were reaping their wheat harueſt in the valley, & they lift vp their eyes, and ſpyed the Arke, and reioyced when they ſawe it.

14 ¶ And the carte came into the fielde of Ioſhúa a Bethſhemite, & ſtode ſtil there. there was alſo a great ſtone, and [h] they claue the wood of the carte and offred the kine for a burnt offring vnto the Lord.

h To wit, the men of Beth-ſhémeſh, ẃ were Iſraelites.

15 And the Leuites toke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of golde were, & put them on the great ſtone, and the men of Beht-ſhémeſh offred burnt offring, and ſacrificed ſacrifices that ſame day vnto the Lord.

16 And when the fiue princes of the Philiſtíms had ſene it, they returned to Ekrón the ſame day.

17 ¶ So theſe are the goldē emerods, which the Philiſtíms gaue for a ſinne offring to the Lord: for [i] Aſhdód one, for Gazá one, for Aſkelón one, for Gath one, & for Ekrón one, i Theſe were the fiue principal cities of the Philiſtims which were not all cōquered vnto the time of Dauid.

18 And goldē mice, according to the nomber of all the cities of the Piliſtíms, belōging to the fiue princes, bothe of walled townes and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great ſtone of [l] Abél, whereon they ſet the Arke of the Lord: which ſtone remaineth vnto this day in the field of Ioſhúa the Bethſhemite.

l Or, the plaine, or lamentacion.

19 And he ſmote of the men of Beth-ſhémeſh, becauſe they [k] had loked in the Arke of the Lord: he ſlewe euen among the people fiftie thouſand men and thre ſcore and ten men. and the people lamented, becauſe the Lord had ſlaine ỹ people with ſo great a ſlaughter.

k For it was not lauful to anie ether to touche or to ſe it, ſaue onely to Aarón & his ſonnes, Nom. 4,15 & 20.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth-ſhémeſh ſaid, Who is able to ſtand before this holy Lord God? and to whome ſhal he go from vs?

21 And they ſent meſſengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-iearím, ſaying, The Philiſtíms haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe & take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Arke is broght to Kiriath-iearím. 3 Samuél exhorteth the people to forſake their ſinnes and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philiſtims fight againſt Iſraél & are ouercome 16 Samuél iudgeth Iſraél.

1 THen the men of [a] Kiriath-iearím came, and toke vp the Arke of the Lord, and broght it into the houſe of Abinadáb in the hil: and they ſanctified Eleazár his ſonne, to kepe the Arke of the Lord.

a A citie in ỹ tribe of Iudáh, called alſo Kiriath báal, Ioſh. 15,60.

2 (For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-iearím, the time was long, for it was twēntie yeres) and all the houſe of Iſraél lamented [b] after the Lord.

b Lamented for their ſinnes & followed the Lord.

3 ¶ Thē Samuél ſpake vnto all the houſe of Iſraél, ſaying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your hearte, * put away the ſtrange gods frō among you, & *Aſhtaróth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and ſerue him * onely, and he ſhal deliuer you out of the hand of the Philiſtíms.

*Ioſh 24,15.
*Iudg 2,13.
*Deut.6.4.
*mat.4,10.

4 Then the children of Iſraél did put away *Baalím and Aſhtaróth, and ſerued the Lord onely.

*Iudg.2,11.

5 And Samuél ſaid, Gather all Iſraél to [c] Mizpéh, and I wil pray for you vnto ỹ Lord.

c For Shilōh was now deſolate, becauſe the Philiſtíms had takē thence the Arke.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpéh, and [d] drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and faſted the ſame day, & ſaid there, We haue ſinned againſt the Lord And Samuél iudged the children of Iſraél in Mizpéh.

d The Chalde text hathe, ỹ thei drewe water out of their heart: that is, wept abūdātly for their ſinnes.

7 When the Philiſtíms heard that the children of Iſraél were gathered together to Mizpéh, the princes of the Philiſtíms wēt vp againſt Iſraél: and when the children of Iſraél heard that, they were afraied of the Philiſtíms.

8 And the children of Iſraél ſaid to Samuél, Ceaſe not to [e] crye vnto the Lord our God for vs, that he may ſaue vs out of the hand of the Philiſtíms.

e Signifying ỹ in the prayers of the godlie there ought to be a vehemēt zeale.

9 Then Samuél toke a ſucking lambe, and offred it all together for a burnt offring vnto vnto the Lord, and Samuél cryed vnto the Lord for Iſraél, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuél offred the burnt offring, the Philiſtíms came to fight againſt Iſraél: but the Lord [f] thundred with a great thundre that day vpon the Philiſtíms, & ſcatred them: ſo they were ſlaine before Iſraél.

11 And the men of Iſraél went from Mizpéh and purſued the Philiſtims, and ſmote them vntil they came vnder Beth-car.

12 Then Samuél toke a ſtone and pitched it betwene Mizpéh and [g] Shen, and called ỹ name thereof, Ebén ézer, and he ſaid, Hitherto hathe the Lord holpen vs.

13 ¶So ỹ Philiſtims were broght vnder, & they came nomore againe into the coaſtes of Iſraél: and the hand of the Lord was againſt the Philiſtíms all the dayes of Samuél.

14 Alſo the cities which the Philiſtíms had taken from Iſraél, were reſtored to Iſraél, from Ekrón euen to Gath: & Iſraél deliuered the coaſtes of the ſame out of the hands of the Philiſtíms: & there was peace betwene Iſraél & the [h] Amorites.

15 And Samuél iudged Iſraél all the dayes of his life,

16 And went about yere by yere to Beth-él, and Gilgál and Mizpéh, and iudged Iſraél in all thoſe places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramáh: for there was his houſe, & there he iudged Iſraél: alſo he buylt an [i] altar there vnto the Lord.

f Accordig to the prophecie of Hannáh Samuels mother, Chap 2,10.

g Which was a great rocke ouer againſt Mizpéh.

h Meaning, ỹ Philiſtims.

i Which was not cõtrarie to the Lawe: for as yet a certein place was not appointed

CHAP. VIII.

1 Samuél maketh his ſones iudges ouer Iſraël, who followe not his ſteppes 5 The Iſraelites aſke a King 11 Samuél declareth in what ſtate they ſhulde be vnder the King 19 Notwithſtanding they aſke one ſtil, & the Lord willeth Samuél to grant vnto them.

1 WHē Samuel was now become old, he [a] made his ſonnes iudges ouer Iſraél.

2 (And the name of his eldeſt ſonne was [b] Ioél, and the name of the ſeconde Abiáh) euen iudges in Beer-ſhéba.

3 And his ſonnes walked not in his waies but turned aſide after lucre and * toke rewardes, and peruerted the iudgement.

4 ¶Wherefore all the Elders of Iſraél gathered them together, & came to Samuél vnto [c] Ramah,

5 And ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thou art old, and thy ſonnes walke not in thy waies: * make vs now a King to iudge vs like all nacions.

6 But the thing [d] diſpleaſed Samuél, when they ſaid, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuél prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord ſaid vnto Samuél, Heare the voice of the people in all that they ſhal ſay vnto thee: for they haue not caſt thee away, but they haue caſt me away, that I ſhulde not reigne ouer them.

8 As thei haue euer done ſince I broght thē out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forſaken me, and ſerued other gods) euen ſo do they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearkē vnto their voyce: howbeit yet [e] teſtifie vnto them & ſhewe thē the maner of the King that ſhal reigne ouer them.

10 ¶So Samuél tolde all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that aſked a King of him.

11 And he ſaid, This ſhalbe the [f] maner of the King that ſhal reigne ouer you: he wil take your ſonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his horſmen, and ſome ſhal runne before his charet.

12 Alſo he wil make them his captaines ouer thouſandes and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his grounde, and to reape his harueſt, & to make inſtruments of warre, and the things that ſerue for his charets.

13 He wil alſo take your daughters and make them apoticaries, and cookes and bakers.

14 And he wil take your fieldes, and your vineyardes, and your beſt oliue trees, and giue them to his ſeruants.

15 And he wil take the tenth of your ſede, and of your vineyardes, and giue it to his [g] Eunuches, and to his ſeruants.

16 And he wil take your men ſeruants and your maid ſeruants, and the chief of your yong men, and your aſſes, and put them to his worke.

17 He wil take the tenth of your ſhepe, and ye ſhalbe his ſeruants.

18 And ye ſhal crye out at that day, becauſe of your King, whome ye haue choſen you, and the Lord wil not [g] heare you at that day.

19 But ỹ people wolde not heare the voyce of Samuél, but did ſay, Nay, but there ſhalbe a King ouer vs.

20 And we alſo wil be like all other nacións, and our King ſhal iudge vs, & go out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuél heard all the wordes of the people, he rehearſed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord ſaid to Samuél, [g] Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a King And Samuél ſaid vnto the men of Iſraél, Go euerie man vnto his citie.

e To proue if they wil forſake their wicked purpoſe.

f Not ỹ Kings haue this auctoritie by their office, but that ſuche as reigne in Gods wrath ſhulde vſurpe this ouer their brethren cõtrary to the Law. Deu 17,20.

g Or, chief office.

a Becauſe he was not able to beare the charge

b Who was alſo called Vaſhni, 1 Chro 6,28

c For there his houſe was, Chap 7,17

d Becauſe thei were not content with the ordre ỹ Godhad appointed, but wolde be gouerned as were ỹ Gentiles.

Deut 16, 19.

Oſe 13,10. act 13,21.

g Becauſe ye repent not for your ſinnes, but becauſe ye ſmart for your afflictions, wherevnto ye caſt your ſelues willingly.

g Or, graunt their requeſt

CHAP. IX.

3 Saúl ſeking his fathers aſſes, by the counſel of his ſeruant goeth to Samuél. 9 The Prophets called Seers. 15 The Lord reueileth to Samuél Sauls comming, commanding him to annoint him King. 22 Samuél bringeth Saul to the feaſt.

1 THere was now a man of Beniamín [a] mightie in power named * Kiſh the ſonne of Abiél, the ſonne of Zerór, ỹ ſonne of Bechoráth, the ſonne of Aphíah, the ſonne of a man of Ieminí.

2 And he had a ſõne called Saúl, a [b] goodly yong man and a faire: ſo that among the children of Iſraél there was none goodlier then he: from the ſhulders vpward he was hier then anie of the people.

3 And the aſſes of Kiſh Saules father were loſt: therefore Kiſh ſaid to Saúl his ſonne, Take now one of the ſeruants with thee, and ariſe, go, and [c] ſeke the aſſes.

4 So he paſſed through mount Ephráim & went through the land of Shaliſháh, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shalím, and there they were not: he went alſo through the land of Ieminí, but they found them not.

5 When they came to the land of [d] Zuph, Saúl ſaid vnto his ſeruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, leſt my father leaue the care of aſſes, and take thoght for vs.

6 And he ſaid vnto him, Beholde now, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he ſaieth commeth to paſſe: let vs now go thither, if ſo be that he can ſhewe vs what way we may go.

7 Then ſaid Saúl to his ſeruant, Wel then, let vs go: but what ſhal we bring vnto the man? For the' bread is ſpent in our veſſels, and there is no preſent to bring to the mã of God: what haue we?

8 And the ſeruant anſwered Saúl againe, & ſaid, Beholde, I haue found about me the fourth parte of a [e] ſhekle of ſiluer: that wil I giue the man of God, to tel vs our way.

9 (Beforetime in Iſraél when a man went to ſeke an anſwer of God, thus he ſpake, Come, & let vs go to the [f] Seer: for he that is called now a Prophet, was in ỹ olde time called a Seer)

10 Thẽ ſaid Saúl to his ſeruant, Wel ſaid, come, let vs go: ſo they went into the citie where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as thei were going vp the hie way to the citie, they founde maydes that came out to drawe water, and ſaid vnto thẽ, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they anſwered them, and ſaid, Yea: lo, he is before you. make haſte now, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an [g] offring of the people this day in the hie place.

13 When ye ſhal come into the citie, ye ſhal finde him ſtreight way yer he come vp to the hie place to eat: for the people wil not eat vntil he come, becauſe he wil [h] bleſſe ỹ ſacrifice: and then eat they that be bidden to the feaſt: now therefore go vp: for euẽ now ſhal ye finde him.

14 Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuél came out againſt them, to go vp to the hie place.

15 ¶ *But the Lord had reueiled to Samuél "ſecretly (a day before Saúl came) ſaying, 16 Tomorowe about this time I wil ſend thee a man out of the land of Beniamín: him ſhalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Iſraél, ỹ he may [i] ſaue my people out of the hands of the Philiſtíms: for I haue loked vpon my people, & their crye is come vnto me.

17 When Samuél therefore ſawe Saúl, the Lord anſwered him, Se, this is the man whome I ſpake to thee of, he ſhal rule my people.

18 Then went Saúl to Samuél in the middes of the gate, and ſaid, Tel me, I pray thee, where the Seers houſe is.

19 And Samuél anſwered Saúl, and ſaid, I am the Seer: go vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye ſhal eat with me to day. and tomorowe I wil let thee go, & wil tel thee all that is in thine [k] heart.

20 And as for thine aſſes ỹ were loſt thre dayes ago, care not for them: for they are founde. and [l] on whome is ſet all the deſire of Iſraél? is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers houſe?

21 ¶ But Saúl anſwered, and ſaid, Am not I the ſonne of Ieminí of the ſmaleſt tribe of Iſraél? & my familie is the leaſt of all the families of ỹ tribe of Beniamín. Wherefore then ſpeakeſt thou ſo to me?

22 And Samuél toke Saúl and his ſeruant, and broght them into the [m] chamber, and made them ſit in the chiefeſt place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie perſones.

23 And Samuél ſaid vnto the cooke, Bring ſo: the the portion which I gaue thee, & whereof I ſaid vnto thee, Kepe it with thee.

24 And the cooke toke vp the ſhoulder, & that ẅ was [n] vpon it, & ſet it before Saúl. And Samuel ſaid, Beholde, that which is left, ſet it before thee & eat: for hitherto hathe it bene kept for thee, ſaying, Alſo I haue called the people. So Saúl did eat with Samuél that day.

25 And whẽ they were come downe frõ the hie place into ỹ citie, he communed with Saúl vpon the top of the houſe:

26 And whẽ they aroſe early about ỹ ſpring of ỹ day, Samuél called Saúl to the [p] top of the houſe, ſaying Vp, that I may ſend thee away. And Saúl aroſe, and they went out, bothe he, and Samuél.

27 And when they were come downe to the end of the citie, Samuél ſaid to Saúl, Bid the ſeruant go before vs, (and he went) but a That is, bothe valiant & riche

Chap 14. 51. 1.chro.8.33.

b So that it might ſeme ỹ God approued their requeſt in appointing out ſuche a perſone.

c All theſe circũſtãces were meanes to ſerue vnto Gods ꝓuidẽce, whereby Saúl (thogh not approued of God) was made King.

d Where was Ramath-Zophim ỹ citie of Samuél.

Or, vitailes.

e Which is about fiue pence, read Gen 23.15

f So called, becauſe he foreſawe things to come.

g That is, a feaſt after the offring, which ſhulde be kept in an hie place of ỹ citie appointed for ỹ vſe.

h That is, giue thaukes, & diſtribute the meat accordig to their cuſtome.

Chap 15.2. act 13.21.

"Ebr in his eare.

i Not withſtãding their wickednes, yet God was euer mindful of his inheritance k Meaning, all that ỹ deſireſt to knowe.

l Whome doeth Iſraél deſire to be their King but thee.

m Where the feaſt was.

n That is, the ſhoulder ẅ ỹ breaſt, ẅ the Prieſt had for his familie in all peace offrings, Leu 10, 14.

o That bothe by ỹ aſſẽbling of the people, & by ỹ meat prepared for thee, ỹ mighteſt vnderſtãde ỹ I knewe of thy comming.

p To ſpeake ẅ him ſecretely: for ỹ houſes were flat aboue.

but ſtand thou ſtil now, that I may ſhewe thee q the worde of God.

q Gods commandement as concerning thee.

CHAP. X.

6 Saúl is anointed King by Samuél. 9 God changeth Sauls heart and he prophecieth. 17 Samuél aſſembleth the people, and ſheweth them their ſinnes. 21 Saúl is choſen King by lot. 25 Samuél writeth the Kings office.

1 THen Samuél toke a viole of a oyle and powred it vpon his head, & kiſſed him, and ſaid, Hathe not the Lord anointed thee to be gouernour ouer his inheritance?

a In the Iawe this anointing ſignified the gifts of ỹ holy Goſt, whiche were neceſſarie for them ỹ ſhulde rule.

2 When thou ſhalt departe from me this day, thou ſhalt finde two men by *Rahels ſepulchre in the border of Beniamin, euẽ at Zelzáh, & thei wil ſay vnto thee, The b aſſes which ỹ wenteſt to ſeke, are foũde: & lo, thy father hathe left the care of the aſſes, and ſoroweth for you, ſaying, What ſhal I do for my ſonne?

*Gen 35.20.

b Samuél confirmeth him by theſe ſignes ỹ God hathe appoited him King

3 Then ſhalt thou go forthe from thence and ſhalt come to the "plaine of Tabór, and there ſhal mete thee thre mẽ going vp to God to Beth-el: one caryīg thre kiddes, & another carying thre loaues of bread, and another carying a bottle of wine:

"Or, elte.

4 And thei wil aſke thee "if all be wel, and wil giue thee the two loaues of bread, which thou ſhalt receiue of their hands.

"Ebr of peace.

5 Aftei that ſhalt thou come to the c hil of God, where is the gariſons of the Philiſtíms: and when thou art come thether to the citie, thou ſhalt mete a companie of Prophets comming downe from the hye place with a viole, and a tymbrel, and a pipe, and an harpe before them, and thei ſhal prophecie.

c Which was an hie place in the citie Kiriath-iearim, where the Arke was, Chap. 7.

6 Then the Spirit of the Lord wil come vpon thee, and thou ſhalt prophecie with thẽ, & ſhalt be turned into another man.

7 Therefore when theſe ſignes ſhal come vnto thee, do as occaſion ſhal ſerue: for God is with thee.

8 And thou ſhalt go downe before me to Gilgál: and I alſo wil come downe vnto thee to offer burnt offrings, & to ſacrifice ſacrifices of peace. * Taiy for me ſeuen daies, til I come to thee and ſhewe thee what thou ſhalt do.

*Chap. 13.8.

9 And whẽ he had turned his "backe to go from Samuél, God gaue him another d heart: & all thoſe tokens came to paſſe that ſame day.

"Ebr ſhoulder

d He gaue him ſuche vertues as were mete for a King.

10 ¶And whẽ thei came thether to the hil, beholde, the companie of Prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came vpon him, and he e prophecied among them.

e Or, ſang praiſes

11 Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when thei ſawe that he prophecied among the Prophets, ſaid eche to other? What is come vnto the ſonne of Kíſh? *is Saúl alſo among the Prophets?

*Chap. 19.24.

12 And one of the ſame place anſwered, and ſaid, But who is their f father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saúl alſo among the f Prophets?

e Meanig, that prophecie cõmeth not by ſucceſsion, but is giuen, to whome it pleaſeth God

f Noting thereby him that from lowe degre commeth ſodenly to honour.

13 And when he had made an end of prophecying, he came to the hie place.

14 And Sauls vncle ſaid vnto him, and to his ſeruãt, Whether went ye? And he ſaid, To ſeke the aſſes: and when we ſawe that thei were no where, we came to Samuél.

15 And Sauls vncle ſaid, Tel me, I pray thee, what Samuél ſaid vnto you.

16 Then Saúl ſaid to his vncle, He tolde vs plainely that the aſſes were founde: but concerning the kingdome whereof Samuél ſpake, tolde he him nor.

17 ¶And Samuél g aſſembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpéh, g Bothe to declare vnto thẽ their faute in aſking a King, & alſo to ſhew Gods ſentence therein.

18 And he ſaid vnto the children of Iſraél, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, I haue broght Iſraél out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hands of all kingdomes that troubled you.

19 But ye haue this day caſt away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduerſities and tribulacions: and ye ſaid vnto him, Nay, but appoint a Kig ouer vs. Now therefore ſtand ye before the Lord according to your tribes and according to your thouſands.

20 And when Samuél had gathered together all the tribes of Iſraél, the tribe of Beniamín was h taken.

h That is, by caſting of lot.

21 Afterwarde he aſſembled the tribe of Beniamín according to their families, & the familie of Matri was taken. So Saúl the ſonne of Kíſh was taken, and when thei ſoght him, he colde not be founde.

22 Therefore thei aſked the Lord againe, if that man ſhulde yet come thether. And the Lord anſwered, Behold, he i hathe hid him ſelfe among the ſtuffe.

i As though he were vnworthy and vnwilling.

23 And thei ranne, and broght him thence: and when he ſtode among the people, he was hier then any of the people from the ſhoulders vpward.

24 And Samuél ſaid to all the people, Se ye not him, whome the Lord hathe choſen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people ſhowted and ſaid, "God ſaue the King.

"Ebr liu the King

25 Then Samuél tolde the people k the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a boke, and layed it vp before the Lord, & Samuél ſent all the people away euery man to his houſe.

k As it is written in Deuteronomie Chap. 17.15.

26 Saúl alſo went home to Gibeáh, & there followed him a band of men, whoſe heart God had touched,

27 But the wicked men ſaid, How ſhal he ſaue vs? So thei deſpiſed him, and broght him no preſentes: but he l held his tõgue.

l Bothe to auoide ſedition, and alſo to winne them by patience.

CHAP. XI.

1 Nahásh the Ammonite warreth against Iabésh Gilead, who asketh helpe of the Israelites 6 Saul promiseth helpe 11 The Ammonites are slayne. 14 The kingdome is renued.

a After that Saul was chosen King: for feare of whome they asked a King. as Chap 12,12.

1 THen Nahásh the Ammonite [a] came vp, and besieged Iabésh Gilead: and all the men of Iabésh said vnto Nahásh, Make a couenant with vs, and we wil be thy seruants.

2 And Nahásh the Ammonite answered them, On this condicion wil I make a couenant with you, that I may thrust out all your [b] right eyes, & bring that shame vpon all Israél.

b This declareth, that the more nere that tyrants are to their destruction, the more cruel they are.

3 To whome ỹ Elders of Iabésh said, Giue vs seuen daies respet, that we may send messengers vnto all the coastes of Israél: & then if no man deliuer vs, we wil come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeáh of Saúl, & tolde these tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people list vp their voyces and wept.

5 And beholde, Saúl came following the cattel out of the field, & Saúl said, What ayleth this people, ỹ they wepe? And they tolde him the tidings of the mẽ of Iabésh.

c God gaue him the spirit of strength & courage to go against this tyrant.

6 Then the Spirit of God [c] came vpon Saúl, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceding angry,

7 And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coastes of Israél by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoeuer commeth not forthe after Saúl, and after [d] Samuél, so shal his oxẽ be serued. And the feare of the Lord fel on the people, and they came out "with one consent.

d He addeth Samuél, because Saúl was not yet approued of all.

"Ebr as a c mã.

8 And when he nombred them in Bezék, the children of Israél were thre hundreth thousand men: and the men of Iudáh thirty thousand.

g Meaning, Saúl & Samuél.

9 Then [e] they said vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabésh Gilead, Tomorowe by then the sunne be hote, ye shal haue helpe And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabesh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Iabésh said, Tomorowe we wil come out vnto [f] you, & ye shal do with vs all that pleaseth you.

f That is, to ỹ Ammonites, dissembling that they had hope of aide.

11 ¶ And when the morowe was come, Saúl put the people in thre bands, & they came in vpõ the hoste in the morning watch, & slewe the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuél, [g] Who is he that said, Shal Saúl reigne ouer vs? bring those mẽ that we may slaye them.

g By this victorie the Lord wõne ỹ hearts of the people to Saúl 13 But Saúl said, There shal no man [h] dye this day: for to day the Lord hathe saued Israél.

h By shewing mercie he thoght to ouercome their malice.

14 ¶ Then said Samuél vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgál, & renue the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgál, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgál: and there they offred [i] peace offrings before the Lord: and there Saúl & all the mẽ of Israél reioyced excedingly.

i In signe of thankesgiuing for ỹ victorie.

CHAP. XII.

1 Samuél declaring to the people his integritie, reproueth their ingratitude. 19 God by miracle causeth the people to confesse their sinne. 20 Samuél exhorteth the people to followe the Lord.

1 SAmuél then said vnto all Israél, Beholde, I haue [a] hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye said vnto me, & haue appointed a King ouer you.

a I haue granted your petition

2 Now therefore beholde, your King walketh [b] before you, and I am olde & graye headed, and beholde, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childehode vnto this day.

b To gouerne you in peace & warre

3 Beholde, here I am: * beare recorde of me before the Lord and before his Anoynted. [c] Whose oxe haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whome haue I done wrõg to? or whom haue I hurte? or of whose hand haue I receiued any bribe, to blinde mine eies therwith, & I wil restore it you?

*Eccles. 46,22.

c God wolde that this confession shulde be a patterne for all them ỹ are any chage or office.

4 Then they said, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, nether hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

5 And he said vnto them, The Lord is witnes against you, and his [d] Anoynted is witnes this day, that ye haue foũde nought in mine hands. And they answered, He is witnes d Their King, who is anoynted by the cõmandement of the Lord.

6 Then Samuél said vnto the people, It is the Lord that *made Moses and Aarón, & that broght your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

*Or, exalted.

7 Now therefore stand stil, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all ỹ righteousnes of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to your fathers.

*Or, bestowed.

8 * After ỹ Iaakób was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed vnto the Lord, then ỹ Lord *sent Moses and Aarón which broght your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwel in this place.

*Gen. 46,5.

*Exod. 4,16.

9 *And when they forgate the Lord their God, he solde them into the hand of Sisera [e] captaine of the hoste of Hazór and into the hand of the Philistims, and into the hand of the King of Moáb, and they foght against them.

*Iudg. 4,2.

e Captaine of Iabins hoste King of Hazor.

10 And they cryed vnto the Lord, and said, We haue sinned, because we haue forsakẽ the Lord, and haue serued Baalím & Ashtaróth. Now therefore deliuer vs out of the the hands of our enemies, and we wil ſerue thee.

f That is, Samſon, Iudg 13,25 Iudg 7,32. Iudg 11,1. Chap 4,1.

11 Therefore the Lord ſent Ierubbáal f & Bedan &*Iphtáh,& *Samuél,& deliuered you out of the hands of your enemies on euerie ſide,and ye dwelled ſafe.

12 Notwithſtanding when you ſawe, that Nahásh the King of the children of Ammón came againſt you, ye ſaid vnto me, g No,but a King ſhal reigne ouer vs: whé yet the Lord your God was your King.

g Leauing God to ſeke helpe of man, Chap 8,5.

13 Now therefore beholde ỹ King whome ye haue choſen and whome ye haue deſired: lo therefore, ỹ Lord hathe ſet a King ouer you.

14 If ye wil feare the Lord and ſerue him, and heare his voyce, and not diſobey the worde of the Lord,bothe ye, & the King that reigneth ouer you, ſhal h followe the Lord your God.

h Ye ſhal be preſerued as tnev ỹ follow the Lords wil

15 But if ye wil not obey the voyce of the Lord,but diſobey the Lords mouth, then ſhal the hand of the Lord be vpon you, & on your i fathers.

i Meaning, the gouernours.

16 Now alſo ſtand and ſe this great thing which the Lord wil do before your eyes.

17 Is it not nowe wheate harueſt? I wil call vnto the Lord, and he ſhal ſend thundre and raine, that ye may perceiue and ſe, how that your wickednes is k great,which ye haue done in the ſight of the Lord in aſking you a King.

k In that ye haue forſaken him, who hath all power in his hand,for a mortale man 18 Then Samuél called vnto the Lord,and the Lord ſent thundre and raine the ſame day:and all the people feared the Lord & Samuél excedingly.

19 And all the people ſaid vnto Samuél, Pray for thy ſeruants vnto the Lord thy God,that we dye not:for we haue ſinned in aſking vs a King,beſide l all our other ſinnes.

l Not onely at other times, but now chiefly 20 ¶ And Samuél ſaid vnto ỹ people, Feare not. (ye haue in dede done all this wicked nes, m yet departe not from following the Lord,but ſerue ỹ Lord with all your heart, m He ſheweth that there is no ſinne ſo great, but it ſhal be forgiuen,if the ſinner turne againe to God.

21 Nether turne ye backe:for that ſhulde be after vaine things which can not profit you,nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie)

22 For the Lord wil not forſake his people for his great Names ſake:becauſe it hathe pleaſed ỹ Lord to make you n his people.

n Of his frē mercie, & not of your merites,and therefore he wil not forſake you.

23 Moreouer God forbid, that I ſhulde ſinne againſt the Lord,and ceaſe praying for you,but I wil ſhewe you the good and right way.

24 Therefore feare you the Lord,and ſerue him in the trueth with all your o hearts, and conſider how great things he hathe done for you.

o Vnfainedly and without hypocriſie.

25 But if ye do wickedly, ye ſhal periſh, bothe ye,and your King.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The Philiſtims are ſmittē of Saúl & Ionathán. 13 Saúl being diſobedient to Gods commandement is ſhewed of Samuél that he ſhal not reigne. 19 The great ſlaueric, wherein the Philiſtims kept the Iſraelites.

1 SAúl now had bene King a one yere,& he reigned b two yeres ouer Iſraél.

a Whiles theſe things were done

b Before he toke vpon him the ſtate of a King.

2 Then Saúl choſe him thre thouſand of Iſraél: & two thouſand were with Saúl in Michmásh, and in mount Beth-él, and a thouſand were with Ionathán in Gibeáh of Beniamín: and the reſt of the people he ſent euerie one to his tent.

3 And Ionathán ſmote the gariſon of the Philiſtíms,that was in the c hil:and it came to the Philiſtíms eares:and Saúl blewe the d trumpet throughout all the land, ſaying,Heare, ô ye Ebrewes.

c Of Kiriath-icarím, where the Arke was, Chap 10,5 d That euerie one thulde prepare them ſelues to warre.

4 And all Iſraél heard ſay, Saúl hathe deſtroyed a gariſon of the Philiſtims: wherefore Iſraél was had in abominació with the Philiſtíms: and the people gathered together after Saúl to Gilgál.

5 ¶ The Philiſtíms alſo gathered them ſelues together to fight with Iſraél, thirtie thouſand charets and ſix thouſand horſemē:for the people was like the ſand which is by the ſeas ſide in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmásh Eaſtwarde from e Beth-áuen.

e Which was alſo called Beth-él,in the tribe of Beniamin.

6 And whē the men of Iſraél ſawe that they were in a ſtraite (for the people were in diſtreſſe) the people hid thē ſelues in caues, & in holdes,& in rockes,& towres,& in pittes.

7 And ſome of the Ebrewes went ouer Iordén vnto the land of f Gad & Gileád: and Saúl was yet in Gilgál, and all the people for feare followed him.

f Where the two tribes & the halfe remained.

8 And he taried ſeuē dayes, according vnto the time that Samuél had appointed: but Samuél came not to Gilgál,therefore the people were g ſcatred from him.

g Thinking ỹ the abſence of ỹ Prophet was a signe, that they ſhulde loſe the victorie

9 And Saúl ſaid, Bring a burnt offring to me and peace offrings: and he offred a burnt offring.

10 And aſſone as he had made an end of offring the burnt offring,beholde,Samuél came. and Saúl went forthe to mete him, to "ſalute him.

"Ebr. bleſſe him

11 And Samuél ſaid,What haſt thou done? Then Saúl ſaid, Becauſe I ſawe that the people was h ſcatred from me, and that thou cameſt not within the dayes appointed, and that the Philiſtims gathered thē ſelues together to Michmásh, h Thogh theſe cauſes ſeme inſufficiēte in mans iudgemēt: yet becauſe they had not the worde of God,they turned to his deſtruction.

12 Therefore ſaid I, The Philiſtíms wil come downe now vpon me to Gilgál,and I haue not made ſupplicacion vnto the Lord.I was bolde therefore and offred a burnt offring

13 And Samuél ſaid to Saúl, Thou haſt done fooliſhly: thou haſt not kept the commandement of the Lord thy i God,which i Who willed thee to obey him and reſt vpon the wordes ſpoken by his Prophet.

he commãded thee: for the Lord had now ſtabliſhed thy kingdome vpon Iſraél for euer.

14 But now thy kingdome ſhal not continue: the Lord hathe ſoght him a [k] man after his owne heart, and ỹ Lord hathe cõmãded him to be gouernour ouer his people, becauſe thou haſt not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuél aroſe, and gate him vp frõ Gilgál in [l] Gibeáh of Beniamín: & Saúl nombred the people that were foũde with him, about ſix hundreth men.

16 And Saúl and Ionathán his ſonne, & the people that were founde with them, had their abiding in Gibeáh of Beniamín: but the Philiſtíms pitched in Michmáſh.

17 And there came out of the hoſte of the Philiſtíms [*] thre bãdes to deſtroy, one bãde turned vnto the way of Ophráh vnto the land of Shuál,

18 And another bande turned toward the way to Beth-horón, and the [m] thirde bãde turned toward the way of the coaſt that loketh toward the valley of Zeboím, toward the wildernes.

19 Thẽthere was no ſmith founde through out all the land of Iſraél: for the Philiſtíms ſaid, Leſt the Ebrewes make them ſwordes or ſpeares.

20 Wherefore all the Iſraelites wẽt downe to the Philiſtíms, to ſharpen euerie man his ſhare, his mattocke, & his axe and his weding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the ſhares, and for the mattockes, and for the pickeforkes, & for the axes and for to ſharpen the goades.

22 So when the day of battel was come, there was nether [n] ſworde nor ſpeare founde in the hands of anie of the people that were with Saúl & with Ionathán: but onely with Saúl and Ionathán his ſonne was there founde.

23 And the gariſon of the Philiſtíms came out to the paſſage of Michmáſh.

CHAP. XIIII.

Ionathán and his armour bearer put the Philiſtims to flight. 24 Saúl bindeth the people by an othe, not to eat til euening. 32 The people eat with the blood. 38 Saúl wolde put Ionathán to death. 45 The people deliuer him.

1 THen on a day Ionathán the ſonne of Saúl ſaid vnto the yong man that bare his armour, [a] Come and let vs go ouer toward the Philiſtíms gariſon, that is yonder on the otherſide, but he tolde not his father.

2 And Saúl taryed in the border of Gibeáh vnder a pomegranate tre, which was in Migrón, and the people that were with him, were about ſix hundreth men.

3 And Ahiáh the ſonne of Ahitúb, * Ichabods brother, the ſonne of Phinehás, the ſonne of Elí, was the Lords Prieſt in Shilóh, and ware an Ephód: and the people knewe not that Ionathán was gone.

4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Ionathán ſoght to go ouer to ỹ Philiſtíms gariſon, there was a [*] ſharpe rocke on the one ſide, and a ſharpe rocke on the other ſide: the name of the one was called Bozéz, & the name of the other Séneh.

5 The one rocke ſtretched frõ the North toward Michmáſh, & the other was from the South toward Gibeáh.

6 And Ionathán ſaid to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs go ouer vnto the gariſon of theſe [b] vncircumciſed: it may be that the Lord wil worke with vs: for it is [*] not hard to the Lord * to ſaue with manie, or with fewe.

7 And he that bare his armour, ſaid vnto him, do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaſeth thee: beholde, [c] I am with thee as thine heart deſireth.

8 Then ſaid Ionathán, Beholde, we go ouer vnto thoſe men, and wil ſhewe our ſelues vnto them.

9 [d] If they ſay on this wiſe to vs, Tarie vntil we come to you, then we wil ſtand ſtil in our place, and not go vp to them.

10 But if they ſay, Come vp vnto vs, then we wil go vp: for * the Lord hathe deliuered them into our hand: and this ſhalbe a ſigne vnto vs.

11 So they bothe ſhewed them ſelues vnto the gariſon of the Philiſtíms: and the Philiſtíms ſaid, Se, the Ebrewes come out of ỹ [e] holes wherein they had hid thẽ ſelues.

12 And the men of the gariſon anſwered Ionathán, & his armour bearer, and ſaid, Come vp to vs: for we wil ſhewe you a thing. Then Ionathán ſaid vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hathe deliuered them into the hand of Iſraél.

13 So Ionathán went vp vpon [f] his hands and vpon his fete, and his armour bearer after him: and ſome fel before Ionathán, & his armour bearer ſlewe others after him.

14 So the [g] firſt ſlaughter which Ionathán and his armour bearer made, was about twentie mẽ within that cõpaſſe, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plowe.

15 And there was a feare in the hoſte, and in the field, and amõg all the people: the gariſon alſo, and they that went out to ſpoile, were afrayed them ſelues: and the earth [h] trembled: for it was ſtricken with feare by God.

16 ¶ Thẽ the watchmen of Saúl in Gibeáh of Beniamín ſawe: and beholde, the multitude was diſcomfited, and ſmitten as they went.

17 Therefore ſaid Saúl vnto the people that k That is, David.

And went to his citie Ramáh.

Or, the deſtroyers: ye wot, the captaine came out with three bandes

m So that to mans iudgemẽt theſe thre armies wold haue ouerrunne the whole countrey.

n To declare that the victorie onely came of God & not by their force.

a By this exãple God wold declare to Iſraél that the victorie did not conſiſt in multitude or armour, but onely came of his grace.

Chap. 4, 21.

Or, like a tap.

b To wit, the Philiſtims

Or, none can let the Lord

2 Chro. 14, 11.

c I wil follow thee whetherſoeuer thou goeſt.

d This he ſpake by the Spirit of prophecie, foraſmuche as hereby God gaue him aſſurance of the victorie

1. Mac. 4, 30.

e Thus they ſpake cõtemptuouſly, and by deriſion.

f That is, he crept vp, or went vp with all haſt

g The ſeconde was whẽ they ſlewe one another, and the third when ỹ Iſraelites chaſed them.

h In that the inſenſible creatures tremble for feare of Gods iudgement, it declareth how terrible his vengeance ſhalbe againſt his enemies.

that were with him, Search now & ſe, who is gone from vs. And whē they had nombred, beholde, Ionathán and his armour bearer were not there.

18 And Saúl ſaid vnto Ahiáh, Bring hither the Arke of God (for ỹ Arke of God was at that time with the children of Iſraél)

19 ¶ And while Saúl talked vnto the Prieſt, the noiſe, that was in the hoſte of the Philiſtíms, ſpred farther abroade, & encreaſed: therefore Saúl ſaid vnto the Prieſt, [i] Withdrawe thine hand.

[i] Let the Ephód alone: for I haue no leaſure nowe to aſke counſel of God, Nomb 27,21 Iudg 7,21. 1 chro,20,33

20 And Saúl was aſſembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battel: & beholde, * euerie mans ſworde was againſt his fellowe, and there was a very great diſcomfiture.

21 Moreouer ỹ Ebrewes that were with the Philiſtíms before time, & were come with them into all partes of the hoſte, euē they alſo turned to be with the [k] Iſraelites that were with Saúl and Ionathán.

[k] Thogh before for feare of the Philiſtims they declared them ſelues as enemies to their brethren.

22 Alſo all the men of Iſraél which had hid them ſelues in mount Ephráim when they heard, that the Philiſtíms were fled, they followed after them in the battel.

23 And ſo the Lord ſaued Iſraél that day: and the battel continued vnto Beth-áuen.

24 ¶ And at that time the men of Iſraél were preſſed with hunger: for Saúl charged the people with an othe, ſaying, [l] Curſed be the man ỹ eateth "foode til nyght, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: ſo none of the people taſted ane ſuſtenance.

[l] Suche was his hypocricie & arrogancie, ỹ he thoght to attribute to his policie ỹ, which God had gmen by the hand of Ionathán

"Ebr bread

25 And all they of the lād came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, & beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hād to his mouth: for the people feared the [m] othe.

[m] That is, the puniſhement, if they brake their othe

27 But Ionathán heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forthe the end of the rod that was in his hād, and dipt it in an hony cōbe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his [n] eyes receyued ſight.

[n] Which were dimme before for wearines and hungre.

28 Then anſwered one of the people, and ſaid, Thy father made ỹ people to ſweare, ſaying, Curſed be the man that eateth ſuſtenance this day: and the people were [o] faint.

[o] Or, wearie.

29 Then ſaid Ionathán, My father hathe [p] troubled the land: ſe now how mine eyes are made cleare, becauſe I haue taſted a litle of this hony:

[p] By making this cruel lawe.

30 How muche more, if the people had eatē to day of the ſpoile of their enemies which they founde? for had there not bene now a greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtíms?

31 ¶ And thēy ſmote ỹ Philiſtíms that day, from Michmáſh to Aiialón: and the people were exceding faint.

32 So the people turned to the ſpoyle, and toke ſhepe, & oxen, and calues, & ſlewe thē on the ground, and the people did eat thē *with the blood.

Leu.7,26. & 19,26. deu.12, 16.

33 Then men told Saúl, ſaying, Beholde, the people ſinne againſt the Lord, in that thei eat with the blood. And he ſaid, Ye haue treſpaſſed: [p] roule a great ſtone vnto me this day.

[p] That the blood of the beaſts ỹ ſhal be ſlaine, may be preſſed out vpon it.

34 Againe Saúl ſaid, Go abroade among ỹ people, & bid them bring me euerie man his oxe, and euery mā his ſhepe, and ſlaye them here, and eate and ſinne not againſt the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people broght euery man his oxe in his hand that night and ſlewe them there.

35 Then Saúl made an altar vnto the Lord, & that [q] was the firſt altar that he made vnto the Lord.

[q] Or, of that time he began he to buylde an altar.

36 ¶ And Saúl ſaid, Let vs go downe after the Philiſtíms by night, and ſpoyle them vntil the morning ſhine, and let vs not leaue a mā of them. And they ſaid, Do whatſoeuer thou thinkeſt beſt. Then ſaid the Prieſt, Let vs [q] draw nere hither vnto God.

[q] To aſke counſel of him.

37 So Saúl aſked of God, ſaying, Shal I go downe after the Philiſtíms? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Iſraél? But he anſwered him not at that time.

38 ¶ And Saúl ſaid, *All "ye chief of ỹ people, come ye hither, and knowe, and ſe by whome this ſinne is done this day.

Iudg.20,2. "Ebr. corners.

39 For as the Lord liueth, which ſaueth Iſraél, thogh it be done by Ionathán my ſonne, he ſhal dye the death. But none of all the people anſwered him.

40 Then he ſaid vnto all Iſraél, Be ye on one ſide, & I and Ionathán my ſonne wil be on the other ſide. And the people ſaid vnto Saúl, Do what thou thinkeſt beſt.

41 Then Saúl ſaid vnto the Lord God of Iſraél, Giue [r] a perfet lot. And Ionathán & Saúl were taken, but the people eſcaped.

[r] Cauſe ỹ lot to fall on him ỹ hathe broke the othe: but he doeth not conſider his preſumptiō in commanding the ſame othe.

42 And Saúl ſaid, Caſt lot betwene me and Ionathán my ſonne. And Ionathán was taken.

43 Then Saúl ſaid to Ionathán, Tel me what thou haſt done. And Ionathán told him, and ſaid, I taſted a litle hony with ỹ end of the rod, that was in mine hand, & lo, I muſt dye.

44 Againe Saúl anſwered, God do ſo and more alſo, vnles ỹ dye ỹ death, Ionathán.

45 And the people ſaid vnto Saúl, [s] Shal Ionathán dye, who hathe ſo mightely deliuered Iſraél? God forbid. As ỹ Lord liueth there ſhal not one heere of his head fall to the ground: for he hathe wroght [t] w God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathán that he dyed not.

[s] The people thoght it their duetie to reſcue him, who of ignorance, had but broken a raſhe lawe, and by whome they had receiued ſo great a benefite.

46 Thē Saúl came vp from the Philiſtíms: & the Philiſtíms wēt to their owne place.

47 ¶ So Saúl helde the kingdome ouer Iſraél, and foght againſt all his ennemies on euerie ſide, againſt Moáb, and againſt the children of Ammón, and againſt Edóm, and againſt ỹ Kings of Zobáh, & againſt the Philiſtíms: & whether ſocuer he went, he *handled them as wicked men.

*Or, ouercame them.

48 He gathered alſo an hoſte & ſmote † Amalék, & deliuered Iſraél out of the hãds of them that ſpoiled them.

† As the Lord had commanded, Deu. 25, 17.

49 Now the ſonnes of Saúl were Ionathán, ‖ and Iſhui, and Malchiſhúa: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Meráb, and the yonger was named ‖ Michál.

‖ Called alſo Abinadáb, Chap 31, 2.

‖ Which was the wife of David, Chap 18, 27.

50 And ỹ name of Sauls wife was Ahinóam the daughter of Ahimáaz: and the name of his chief captaine was ‖ Abnér the ſonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

‖ Whome Ioáb the captaine of David ſlewe, 2 Sam. 3, 27

51 And Kiſh was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abnér was the ſonne of Abiél.

52 And there was ſore warre againſt the Philiſtíms all the dayes of Saúl: & ‖ whomeſoeuer Saul ſawe to be a ſtrong man, & mete for the warre, he toke him vnto him.

‖ As Samuél had forewarned Chap 8, 11.

CHAP. XV.

3 Saúl is commanded to ſlay Amalék. 9 He ſpareth Agág & the beſt things. 19 Samuél reproueth him. 28 Saúl is reiected of the Lord, and his kingdome giuen to another. 33 Samuél heweth Agág in peces.

1 AFterwarde Samuél ſaid vnto Saúl, * The Lord ſent me to anoint thee King ouer his people ouer Iſraél: nowe therefore ‖ obey the voyce of the wordes of the Lord.

* Chap 9, 16.

‖ Becauſe he hathe preferred thee to this honour, thou art bound to obey him.

2 Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, I remember what Amalék did to Iſraél, * how they layed wait for them in the way, as they came vp from Egypt.

* Exod. 17, 14. Numb. 24, 20.

3 Nowe therefore go, and ſmite Amalék, & deſtroye ye all that perteineth vnto them, and haue no cõpaſſion on them, but ‖ ſlay bothe man and woman, bothe infant and ſuckeling, bothe oxe, and ſhepe, bothe camel, and aſſe.

‖ That this might be an exaple of Gods vengeance againſt thẽ that deale cruelly with his people.

4 ¶And Saúl aſſembled the people, and *nombred them in Telaím, two hundreth thouſand fotemen, and ten thouſand men of Iudáh.

*Or, knewe their number by the lambes, which they broght

*Or, fogut in the valley.

5 And Saúl came to a citie of Amalék, *and ſet watch at the riuer.

6 And Saúl ſaid vnto the ‖ Kenites, Go, departe, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, leſt I deſtroy you with them: for ye ſhewed ‖ mercy to all the children of Iſraél, when they came vp frõ Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

‖ Which were the poſterirte of Iethrò Moſes father in lawe

‖ For Iethrò came to viſit them and gaue them good counſel, Exod. 18, 19.

7 So Saúl ſmote the Amalekites from Haúiláh as thou commeſt to Shur, that is before Egypt,

8 And toke Agág King of the Amalekites aliue, and deſtroyed all the people with the edge of the ſworde.

9 But Saúl and the people ſpared Agág, & the better ſhepe, and the oxen, and the fat beaſtes, and the lambes, and all that was good, & they wolde not deſtroye thẽ: but euery thing that was vile & noght worthe, that they deſtroyed.

10 ¶Thẽ came the worde of the Lord vnto Samuél, ſaying, 11 It ‖ repenteth me that I haue made Saúl King: for he is turned frõ me, & hathe not perfourmed my commandements. And Samuél was moued, & cryed vnto the Lord all night.

‖ God in his eternal coũſel neuer chãgeth nor repenteth, as verſ. 29. thogh he ſemeth to vs to repent, whẽ any thing goeth contrary to his temporal election.

12 And whẽ Samuél aroſe early to mete Saúl in the morning, one tolde Samuél, ſaying, Saul is gone to Carmél: and beholde, he hathe made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgál.

13 ¶Thẽ Samuél came to Saúl, & Saúl ſaid vnto him, Bleſſed be ỹ of the Lord, I haue fulfilled the ‖ cõmandement of the Lord.

‖ This is ỹ nature of hypocrites, to be impudẽt againſt the trueth, to condemne others, & iuſtifie thẽ ſelues.

14 But Samuél ſaid, What meaneth then ỹ bleating of the ſhepe in mine eares, & the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

15 And Saúl ãſwered, Thei haue broght thẽ from the Amalekites: for the people ſpared the beſt of the ſhepe, and of the oxen to ſacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we deſtroyed.

16 Againe Samuél ſaid to Saúl, Let me tell thee what the Lord hathe ſaid to me this night. And he ſaid vnto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuél ſaid, When thou waſt ‖ litle in thine owne ſight, waſt ỹ not made the head of the tribes of Iſraél? for the Lord anointed thee King ouer Iſraél.

‖ Meaning of baſe cõditiõ, as Chap 9, 21.

18 And the Lord ſent thee on a iourney, & ſaid, Go, and deſtroye thoſe ſinners the Amalekites, and fight againſt them, vntil thou deſtroye them.

19 Now wherefore haſt thou not obeyed ỹ voyce of the Lord, but haſt turned to the praye, and haſt done wickedly in the ſight of the Lord?

20 And Saúl ſaid vnto Samuél, Yea, I ‖ haue obeyd ỹ voyce of the Lord, & haue gone ỹ way which the Lord ſent me, and haue broght Agág the King of Amalék, & haue deſtroyed the Amalekites.

‖ He ſtandeth moſt impudẽtly in his owne defenſe bothe againſt God & his owne cõſcience.

21 But ỹ people toke of the ſpoyle, ſhepe, & oxen, & the chiefeſt of the things which ſhulde haue bene deſtroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgál.

22 And Samuél ſaid, Hathe ỹ Lord as great pleaſure in burnt offrings & ſacrifices, as whẽ the voyce of ỹ Lord is obeied? beholde, * to obey is better then ſacrifice, and to hearken is better then the fat of rammes.

* Eccleſ. 4, 17. oſe 6, 7. mat 9, 13. & 22, 7.

23 For ‖ rebellion is as the ſinne of witchcraft, and tranſgreſion is wickednes and idolatrie. Becauſe thou haſt caſt away the worde of the Lord, therefore he hathe caſt away thee from being King.

‖ God hateth nothing more then the diſobedience of his commãdement, thogh ỹ intent ſeme alter ſo good to man.

24 Then Saúl ſaid vnto Samuél, I haue ſin ned

ned: for I haue tranſgreſſed the cõmandement of the Lord, & thy wordes, becauſe
I feared the people, & obeied their voyce.
25 Now therefore, I pray thee, take away my k ſinne, and turne againe with me, that I may worſhip the Lord.
26 But Samuél ſaid vnto Saúl, I wil not returne with thee: for thou haſt caſt awaye the worde of the Lord, & the Lord hathe caſt away thee, that thou ſhalt not be Kīg ouer Iſraél.
27 And as Samuél turned him ſelfe to go away, he caught ỹ lap of his coat, & it rēt.
28 Then Samuél ſaid vnto him, The Lord hathe rent the kingdome of Iſraél from thee this day, & hathe giuen it to thy l neighboúr, that is better then thou.
29 For m dede the m ſtrength of Iſraél wil not lie nor repent: for he is not a man that he ſhulde repent.
30 Then he ſaid, I haue ſinned: but honour me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, & before Iſraél, & turne againe w̄ me, that I may worſhip the Lord thy God.
31 ¶ So Samuél turned againe, and followed Saúl: and Saúl worſhiped the Lord.
32 Thē ſaid Samuél, Bring ye hither to mé
Agág ỹ King of the Amalekites: & Agág came vnto him n pleaſantly, and Agág ſaid, Truely the n bitterneſs of death is paſſed.
33 And Samuél ſaid, * As thy ſwoorde hathe made women childeles, ſo ſhal thy mother be childeles among other womē. And Sa-muél hewed Agág in pieces before the Lord in Gilgál.
34 ¶ So Samuél departed to o Ramáh, and Saúl went vp to his houſe to Gibeah of Saúl.
35 And Samuél came nomore to p ſe Saúl vntil ỹ day of his death: but Samuél mour ned for Saúl, and the Lord q repented that he made Saúl King ouer Iſraél.

k This was not true repẽtance, but diſ-ſimulation, fea ring ỹ loſſe of his kingdome

l That is, to Dauid

m Meaning God, who maintaineth & preferreth his.

Or, In bondes.

n He ſuſpected nothing leſſe then death, or as ſome write, he paſſed not for death

Exod 17,11.

Iomb 14, 45

o where his houſe was p Though Saúl came where Samuél was, Chap 19,22.

q As ver. 11

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samuél is reproued of God, & is ſent to anoint Dauid. 7 God regardeth the heart 13 The Spirit of the Lord commeth vpon Dauid. 14. The wicked ſpirit is ſent vpon Saúl. 19 Saúl ſendeth for Dauid.

1 THe Lord thē ſaid vnto Samuél, How r long wilt ỹ mourne for Saúl, s ſeing
I haue caſt him away from reigning ouer
Iſraél? fil thine horne with oyle and come,
I wil ſend thee to Iſhái the Bethlehemite:
for I haue prouided me a King among his ſonnes.
2 And Samuél ſaid, How can I go? for if Saúl ſhal heare it, he wil kil me. Then the Lord anſwered, Take an heifer "w̄ thee, & ſay, I am come t to do ſacrifice to ỹ Lord.
3 And call Iſhái to the ſacrifice, and I wil ſhewe thee what ỹ ſhalt do, & ỹ ſhalt anoīt vnto me him whome I name vnto thee.
4 So Samuél did ỹ the Lord bade him, & came to Beth-léhem, and the Elders of the towne were x aſtonied at his comming, & ſaid, Commeſt thou peaceably?
5 And he anſwered, Yea: I am come to do ſacrifice vnto the Lord: ſanctifie your ſelues, & come with me to the ſacrifice. And he ſanctified Iſhái and his ſonnes, and called them to the ſacrifice.
6 And when they were come, he loked on Eliáb, and ſaid, Surely the Lords y Anointed is before him.
7 But the Lord ſaid vnto Samuél, Loke not on his coũtinance, nor on the height of his ſtature, becauſe I haue refuſed him: for God ſeeth not as man ſeeth: for man loketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the * heart.
8 Then Iſhái called Abinadáb, & made hī come before Samuél. And he ſaid, Nether hathe the Lord choſen this.
9 Thē Iſhái made Shámáh come. And he ſaid, Nether yet hathe ỹ Lord choſen hī.
10 Againe Iſhái made his ſeuen ſonnes to come before Samuél: & Samuél ſaid vnto Iſhái, The Lord hath choſē none of theſe.
11 Finally Samuél ſaid vnto Iſhái, " Are there no more children but theſe? And he ſaid, There remaineth yet a litle one be-hinde, ỹ kepeth the ſhepe. Then Samuél ſaid vnto Iſhái, * Send and fet him: for we wil not ſit downe, til he be come hither.
12 And he ſent, and broght him in: and he was ruddie, and of a good countinance, & comelie viſage. And ỹ Lord ſaid, Ariſe, & anoint him: for this is he.
13 Thēn Samuél toke the horne of oyle, & anointed him in the middes of his brethren. And the * Spirit of the Lord z came vpon Dauid, from that day forwarde: thē Samuél roſe vp, and went to Ramáh.
14 ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saúl, and an a euil ſpirit ſent of the Lord vexed him.
15 And Sauls ſeruāts ſaid vnto hī, Beholde now, ỹ euil ſpirit of God vexeth thee.
16 Let our lord therefore commande thy ſeruants, that are before thee, to ſeke a man, that is a conning player vpon the harpe:
that when the euil ſpirit of God commeth vpon thee, he may playe with his hand, & thou maieſt be eaſed.
17 Saúl then ſaid vnto his ſeruāts, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that can play wel, & bring him to me.
18 Then anſwered one of his ſeruants, and ſaid, Beholde, I haue ſene a b ſonne of Iſhái, a Bethlehemite, that can playe, & is ſtrōg, valiāt & a mā of warre & wiſe in matters,
& a comely perſone, & ỹ Lord is with hī.
19 ¶ Wherefore Saúl ſent meſſengers vnto Iſhái, & ſaid, Send me Dauid thy ſonne, which is with the ſhepe.
20 And Iſhái toke an aſſe laden with bread & a flagon of wine & a kid, & ſent thē by c Fearing, leſt ſome grieuous crime had bene commited, becauſe ỹ Prophet was not wonte to come thether.

d Thinking, ỹ Eliáb had bene appointed of God to be made King

1 Chro 28,29.
ver.11,20.
& 17,10.
& 20,12.
Pſal.7,10.

Ebr. are the children ended?

2.Sam.7,8.
Pſal 78,71.
& 89,21.

Act 7,46.
& 13,22
Or, proſpered.

e The wicked ſpirits are at Gods commandement to execute his will againſt ỹ wicked.

f Though Dauid was now anointed King by ỹ Prophet, yet God wolde exerciſe him in ſondry ſorres before he had the vſe of his kingdome.

Ebr. In the hand

b That is, to make a peace offring, which might be done though ỹ Arke was not there.

the hand of Dauid his ſonne vnto Saúl.

Or, ſerued him. 22 And Dauid came to Saúl, and *ſtode before him: and he loued him very wel, and he was his armour bearer.

23 And ſo when the euil ſpirit of God came vpon Saúl, Dauid toke an harpe and plaied with his hand, & Saúl was g refreſhed, & was eaſed: for the euil ſpirit departed from him.

g God wolde ỹ Saúl ſhulde receiue this benefite as at Dauids hãd, ỹ his cõdemnation might be the more euident, for his cruel hate towarde him.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The Philiſtims make warre againſt Iſraél. 10 Goliáth defieth Iſraél. 17 Dauid is ſent to his brethren. 34 The ſtrength and boldenes of Dauid. 47 The Lord ſaueth not by ſworde nor ſpeare. 50 Dauid killeth Goliáth and the Philiſtims flee.

1 NOw the Philiſtíms gathered their armies to battel, and came together to Shochóh, which is in Iudáh, & pitched betwene Shochóh and Azekáh, c in the coaſt of Dammím.

c Or, in Ephes dammim.

2 And Saúl, and the men of Iſraél aſſembled, and pitched in the valley d of Eláh, & put themſelues in battel array to mete the Philiſtíms.

d Or, of the ok.

3 And the Philiſtíms ſtode on a mountaine on the one ſide, and Iſraél ſtode on a mountaine on the other ſide: ſo a valley was betwene them.

e Betwene the two campes.

4 ¶ Then came a mã betwene them e out of the tentes of the Philiſtíms, named Goliáth of Gath: his height was ſix cubits and an hand breadth, f Or, caſte of plate.

5 And had an helmet of braſſe vpõ his head, and a f brigandine vpon him: and the weight of his brigandine was fiue thouſand h ſhekels of braſſe.

h That is, 156 lib 4 onces, after halfe an ounce the ſhekel & 600 ſhekels weight amounteth to 28 lib 3 quarters i Or, greaues.

6 And he had i bootes of braſſe vpõ his legges, & a ſhilde of braſſe vpõ his ſhoulders.

7 And the ſhafte of his ſpeare was like a weauers beame: and his ſpeare head weyed ſix hundreth ſhekels of yron: and one bearing a ſhilde went before him.

8 And he ſtode, and cryed againſt the hoſte of Iſraél, and ſaid vnto them, Why are ye come to ſet your battel in array? am not I a Philiſtím, and you ſeruãts to Saúl? choſe you a mã for you, & let him come downe to me.

k Hebr. finite me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and k kil me, then wil we be your ſeruants: but if I ouercome him, and kil him, then ſhal ye be our ſeruants, and ſerue vs.

10 Alſo the Philiſtím ſaid, I defie the hoſte of Iſraél this day: giue me a man, that we may fight l together.

l Or, hãd to hãd.

11 When Saúl and all Iſraél heard thoſe wordes of the Philiſtím, they were diſcouraged, and greatly afrayed.

Chap. 16, 1.

12 ¶ Now this Dauid was the * ſonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-léhem Iudáh, named Iſhái, which had eight ſonnes: and m this mã was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saúl.

m Or, he was eſteemed among thē that bare office.

13 And the thre eldeſt ſonnes of Iſhái went and followed Saúl to the battel: and the names of his thre ſonnes that wẽt to battel, were Eliáb the eldeſt, & the next Abinadáb, and the third Shammáh.

14 So Dauid was the leaſt: and the thre eldeſt went after Saúl.

15 Dauid alſo n went, but he returned from Saúl to fede his fathers ſhepe in Beth-léhem.

n To ſerue Saúl, as chap 16, ver. 19.

16 And the Philiſtím drewe nere in ỹ morning, and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Iſhái ſaid vnto Dauid his ſonne, o Take now for thy brethren an Epháh of this parched corne, and theſe ten cakes, and runne to the hoſte to thy brethren.

o Though Iſhái ment one thig, yet Gods prouidence directed Dauid to another end.

18 Alſo cary theſe ten freſh cheſes vnto the captaine, and loke how thy brethren fare, and receiue their p pledge.

p If they haue laied ame thig to gage for their neceſsitie, redeme it out.

19 (Then Saúl and they, and all the men of Iſraél were in the valley of Eláh, fighting with the Philiſtíms)

20 ¶ So Dauid roſe vp early in the mornig, and left the ſhepe with a keper, and toke and went as Iſhái had commanded him, & came within the compaſſe of the hoſte: & the hoſte went out in array, and ſhowted in the battel.

21 For Iſraél and the Philiſtíms had put them ſelues in array, armie againſt armie.

22 And Dauid left the things, which he bare, vnder the hands of the keper of the q cariage, and ran into the hoſte, & came, and aſked his brethren r how they did.

q Hebr. veſſelat. r Hebr. of peace.

23 And as he talked with them, beholde, the man that was betwene the two armies, came vp, (whoſe name was Goliáth the Philiſtím of Gath) out of the s armie of the Philiſtíms, and ſpake t ſuche wordes, & Dauid heard them.

s Or, valleye.

t As are aboue rehearſed ver. 8, & 9.

24 And all the men of Iſraél, when they ſawe the man, ran away from him, & were ſore afrayed.

25 For euery man of Iſraél ſaid, Sawe ye not this man that cometh vp? euen to reuile Iſraél is he come vp: and to him that killeth hĩ, wil the King giue great riches, and wil giue him his * daughter, yea, and make his fathers houſe u fre in Iſraél.

Ioſh. 15, 16.

u From taxes & paymentes.

26 ¶ Then Dauid ſpake to the men that ſtode with him, and ſaid, What ſhalbe done to the man that killeth this Philiſtím, and taketh away the x ſhame from Iſraél? for who is this vncircumciſed Philiſtím, that he ſhulde reuile the hoſte of the liuing God?

x This diſhonour ỹ he doeth to Iſraél.

27 And the people anſwered him after this maner, ſaying, Thus ſhal it be done to the

the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliáb his eldeſt brother heard whē he ſpake vnto the men, & Eliáb was very angry with Dauid, and ſaid, Why cameſt thou downe hether? and with whome haſt ỹ left thoſe fewe ſhepe in the wildernes? I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine hea t, that thou art come downe to ſe the battel.

29 Then Dauid ſaid, What haue I now done? Is there not a [i] cauſe?

i For his fathers ſending was a iuſte occaſion, & alſo he felt him ſelf inwardly moued by Gods Spirit.

30 And he departed from him into the preſence of another, and ſpake of the ſame maner, and the people anſwered him according to the former wordes.

31 ¶And thei that heard the wordes which Dauid ſpake, rehearſed them before Saúl, which cauſed him to be broght.

32 So Dauid ſaid to Saúl, Let no mās heart faile him, becauſe of him: thy ſeruant wil go, and fight with this Philiſtim.

33 And Saúl ſaid to Dauid, Thou art not [k] able to go againſt this Philiſtím to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth.

k Here Satan aſſaieth Dauids faith by the infidelitie of Saul.

34 And Dauid anſwered vnto Saúl, Thy ſeruant kept his fathers ſhepe, and there came a [l] lyon and likewiſe a beare, and toke a ſhepe out of the flocke, l Dauid by the experience ỹ he hathe had in time paſt of Gods helpe, nothing douteth to ouercome this dāger, ſeing he was zealous for Gods honour.

35 And I went out after him & ſmote him, & toke it out of his mouth: and when he aroſe againſt me, I caught him by the bearde, and ſmote him, and ſlewe him.

36 So thy ſeruant ſlewe bothe the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vncircumciſed Philiſtím ſhalbe as one of them, ſeing he hath railed on ỹ hoſte of the liuing God.

37 ¶Moreouer Dauid ſaid, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of the lyon, and out of the pawe of the beare, he wil deliuer me out of the hand of this Philiſtím. Then Saúl ſaid vnto Dauid, [m] Go, and the Lord be with thee.

m For by theſe examples he ſawe that the power of God was w̄ him.

38 And Saúl put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of braſſe vpō his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Thē girded Dauid his ſworde vpon his rayment, and [n] began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid ſaid vnto Saúl, I can not go with theſe: for I am not accuſtomed, wherefore Dauid put them of him.

n Or, aſſayed

40 Then toke he his [o] ſtaffe in his hand, and choſe him fiue ſmothe ſtones out of a brooke, and put them in his ſhepherdes bag or ſkrippe, & his ſling was in his hād, and he drewe nere to the Philiſtím.

o To ỹ intent that by theſe weake meanes God might only be knowē to be ỹ autor of this victorie.

41 ¶And the Philiſtím came & drewe nere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the ſhield went before him.

42 Now when the Philiſtím loked about and ſawe Dauid, he diſdeined him: for he was but yong, ruddy & of a comely face.

43 And the Philiſtím ſaid vnto Dauid, Am I a dog, that thou commeſt to me with ſtaues? And the Philiſtim [p] curſed Dauid by his gods.

p He ſware by his gods that he wolde deſtroye him.

44 And ỹ Philiſtim ſaid to Dauid, Come to me, and I wil giue thy fleſh vnto the foules of the heauēn, and to the beaſtes of the field.

45 ¶Thē ſaid Dauid to ỹ Philiſtím, Thou commeſt to me with a ſworde, and with a ſpeare, and with a ſhield; but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hoſtes, the God of the hoſte of Iſraél, whome thou haſt railed vpon.

46 This [q] day ſhal the Lord cloſe thee in mine hand, and I ſhal ſmite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carkeiſes of the hoſte of the Philiſtims this day vnto the foules of the heauen, & to the beaſtes of the earth, ỹ all the worlde may knowe that Iſraél hathe a God, q Dauid being aſſured bothe of his cauſe & of his calling, prophecieth of the deſtruction of the Philiſtims.

47 And that all this aſſemblie may knowe, that the Lord ſaueth not with ſworde nor with ſpeare (for the battel is the Lords) & he wil giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philiſtím aroſe to come and drawe nere vnto Dauid, Dauid [r] haſted & ran to fight againſt the Philiſtím.

r Beīg moued with a feruent zeale to be reuenged vpon this blaſphemer of Gods Name.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bag, and toke out a ſtone, & ſlang it and ſmote the Philiſtím in his forehead, that the ſtone ſticked in his forehead, and he fel groueling to the earth.

50 So Dauid * ouercame the Philiſtím with a ſling and with a ſtone, & ſmote the Philiſtím, & ſlewe him, when Dauid had no ſworde in his hand.

*Eccleſ. 47. 4. 1. Mac. 4. 30.

51 Then Dauid ran, and ſtode vpon the Philiſtím, and toke his ſworde & drewe it out of his ſheath, and ſlewe him, & cut of his head therewith. So whē the Philiſtims ſawe, that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Iſraél and Iudáh aroſe, and ſhowted, and followed after the Philiſtims, vntil thei came to the [s] valley, and vnto the gates of Ekrón: and the Philiſtims fel downe wounded by the way of Shaaráim, euen to Gath and to Ekrón.

s Or, Gai, the citie.

53 And the children of Iſraél returned frō purſuing the Philiſtims, and ſpoiled their tents.

54 And Dauid toke the head of the Philiſtím, and broght it to Ieruſalém, and put his armour in his [t] tent.

t Or, houſe at Beth léhem.

55 ¶When Saúl ſawe Dauid go forthe againſt the Philiſtím, he ſaid vnto Abnér the captaine of his hoſte, Abnér, [u] whoſe ſonne is this yong man? and Abnér anſwered, As thy ſoule liueth, ô King, I can not tel.

u That is, of what familie & tribe is he? or els, he had forgotten Dauid, albeit he had receiued ſo great a benefit by him.

56 Thē the King ſaid, Enquire thou whoſe ſonne this yong man is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of ỹ Philistím, thẽ Abner toke him, & broght him before Saúl with the head of the Philistím in his hand.

58 And Saúl said to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? And Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Ishái the Bethlehemite.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The amitie of Ionathán and Dauid. 8 Saúl enuieth Dauid for the práise that the womẽ gaue him 11 Saúl wolde haue slayne Dauid 17 He promiseth him Merab to wife, but giueth him Michal 27 Dauid deliuereth to Saúl two hundreth foreskinnes of the Philistims. 29 Saúl feareth Dauid, seing that the Lord is with him.

1 AND when he had made an end of speaking vnto Saúl, the [a] soule of Ionathán was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathán loued him, as his owne soule.

a His affection was fully bent toward him

2 And Saúl toke him that day, and wolde not let him returne to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathán and Dauid made a couenant: for he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathán put of the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it Dauid, and his garments, euen to his sworde, & to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whethersoeuer Saúl sent him, & behaued him selfe [b] wisely: so that Saúl set him ouer the mẽ of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants.

b That is, he prospered in all his doings.

6 ¶ When they came againe, and Dauid returned from the slaughter of the [c] Philistím, the women came out of all cities of Israél, singing and dansing to mete King Saúl, with timbrels, with instrumẽts of ioye, and with rebecks.

c To wit, Goliáth.

7 And the women [*] sang by cours in their playe, & said, * Saúl hathe slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand.

*Or answered, playing Chap. 21, 11. & 29, 5 ecclꝰ 47, 7.

8 Therefore Saúl was exceding wrath, and the saying displeased him, & he said, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, & to me they haue ascribed but a thousand, & what can he haue more saue the kingdome?

9 Wherefore Saúl [d] had an eye on Dauid from that day forwarde.

d Because he bare him ẽuie & hatred.

10 ¶ And on the morowe, the euil spirit of God came vpon Saúl, & he [e] prophecied in the middes of the house: and Dauid played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a speare in Sauls hand.

e That is, spake as a mã beside him selfe: for so the people abused this worde, when they colde not vnderstand.

11 And Saúl toke the speare, and said, I wil smite Dauid through to ỹ wall. But Dauid auoyded twise out of his presence.

12 And Saúl was afraied of Dauid, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saúl.

13 Therefore Saúl put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, and he went [f] out and in before the people.

f Meaning, he was captaine ouer ỹ people.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his waies: for the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saúl sawe that he was very wise, he was afraied of him.

16 For all Israél and Iudáh loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ Thẽ Saúl said to Dauid, Beholde mine eldest daughter Merab, her I wil giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, and [g] fight the Lords battels: for Saúl thoght, Mine hand shal not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistims shalbe vpon him.

g Fight against them ỹ warre against Gods people

18 And Dauid answered Saúl, What am I? and what is my life, or the familie of my father in Israél, that I shulde be sonne in lawe to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab Sauls daughter shulde haue bene giuẽ to Dauid, [h] she was giuẽ vnto Adriél a Meholathite to wife.

h By whome he had fiue sonnes, which Dauid put to death at the request of the Gibeonites, 2 Sam 21, 8.

20 ¶ Then Michál Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they shewed Saúl, & the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saúl said, I wil giue him her, that she may be a [i] snare to him, and that the hãd of the Philistíms may be against hĩ. Wherefore Saúl said to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in lawe in the one of the twaine.

i So his hypocrisie appeareth: for vnder pretence of fauour he ought his destructiõ.

22 And Saúl cõmanded his seruants, Speake with Dauid secretly, and say, Beholde, the King hathe a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said, [k] Semeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings sonne in lawe, seing that I am a poore man and of small reputacion?

k Meaning, ỹ he was not able to endowe his wife with riches.

24 And then Sauls seruants broght him worde againe, saying, Suche wordes spake Dauid.

25 And Saúl said, This wise shal ye say to Dauid, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hũdreth foreskinnes of the Philistims, to be auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saúl thoght to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philistims.

26 And when his seruãts tolde Dauid these wordes, it pleased Dauid wel, to be the [l] Kings sonne in lawe: and the daies were not expired.

l Because he thoght him selfe able to compasse the Kings request.

27 Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistims two hundreth men: and Dauid broght their foreskinnes, and [m] they gaue them wholy to the King that he might be the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saúl gaue him Michál his daughter to wife.

m Meaning, Dauid and his soldiers

28 Then Saul sawe, & vnderstode that the Lord was with Dauid, & that Michál the daughter of Saúl loued him.

29 Thẽ Saúl was more & more [n] afraied of n To be depriued of his kingdome.

Dauid, and Saúl became alway Dauids enemy.

30 And when the princes of the Philistíms went forthe, at their going forthe [o] Dauid behaued him selfe more wisely then all the seruantes of Saúl, so that his name was muche set by.

o That is, Dauid had better successe against the Philistíms then Sauls mẽ.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Ionathán declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saúl 11 Michál his wife saueth him 18 Dauid commeth to Samuél. 23 The Spirit of prophecie commeth on Saúl.

1 THen Saúl spake to Ionathán his sonne, and to all his seruants, that they shulde [a] kil Dauid: but Ionathán Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Dauid.

2 And Ionathán tolde Dauid, saying, Saúl my father goeth about to slaye thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take hede vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy selfe.

3 And I wil go out, and stand by my father in the field where thou [b] art, and wil cõmune with my father of thee, and I wil se what he saith and wil tel thee.

4 ¶And Ionathán spake good of Dauid vnto Saúl his father, and said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruãt, against Dauid: for he hathe not sinned against thee, but his workes haue bene to thee very good.

5 For he "did* put his life in danger, and slewe the Philistím, and the Lord wroght a great saluation for all Israél: thou sawest it, and thou reioysedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, & slaye Dauid without a cause?

6 Then Saúl hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathán, and Saúl [c] sware, As the Lord liueth, he shal not dye.

7 So Ionathán called Dauid, and Ionathán shewed him all those wordes, & Ionathán broght Dauid to Saúl, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶Againe the warre began, and Dauid wẽt out and foght with the Philistims, and slewe them with a great slaughter, & they fled from him.

9 ¶And the euil Spirit of the Lord was vpõ Saúl, as he sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and Dauid [d] played with his hand.

10 And Saúl entended to smite Dauid to the wall with the speare: but he turned aside out of Sauls presence, and he smote the speare against the wall: but Dauid fled, and escaped the same night.

11 Saúl also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watche him, and to slaye him in the morning: & Michál Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy self this night, tomorowe thou shalt be slaine.

12 So Michál [e] let Dauid downe through a windowe: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

a Before Saúl soght Dauids life secretly, but now his hypocrisie bursteth forth to open cruelties b That I may giue thee warning what to do.

Ebr he put his soule in his hand Iudg 12,3. 1 sam 27,21. psal 119,109.

c Whatsoeuer he pretended outwardly, yet his heart was ful of malice

d He plaide on his harpe to mitigate ỹ rage of the euil Spirit, as Chap 16,23

e Thus God moued bothe the sonne and daughter of this tyrant to fauour Dauid against their father.

13 Then Michál toke an image and layed it in the bed, and put a pillowe stuffed with goates heere vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saúl sent messengers to take Dauid, she said, He is sicke.

15 And Saúl sent the messengers againe to se Dauid, saying, Bring him to me in the [f] bed, that I may slaye him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde, an image was in the bed, with a pillowe of goates heere vnder the head of it.

17 And Saúl said vnto Michál, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michál answered Saúl, He said vnto me, Let me go, or els I wil kil thee.

18 ¶So Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuél to Ramáh, and tolde him all that Saúl had done to him: and he and Samuél went and dwelt in [g] Naióth.

19 But one tolde Saúl, saying, Beholde, Dauid is at Naióth in Ramáh.

20 And Saúl sent messengers to take Dauid: and when they sawe a companie of Prophets prophecying, and Samuél standing [h] as appointed ouer them, the Spirit of God fel vpon the messengers of Saúl, and they also [i] prophecied.

21 And whẽ it was tolde Saúl, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: againe Saúl sent the third messengers, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him self to Ramáh, and came to a great wel that is in Sechú, and he asked, and said, Where are Samuél and Dauid? and one said, Beholde, they be at Naióth in Ramáh.

23 And he [k] went thither, euen to Naióth in Ramáh, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntil he came to Naióth in Ramáh.

24 And he stript of his [l] clothes, and he prophecied also before Samuél, and fel [m] downe naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, * Is Saúl also among the Prophetes?

f Beholde, how ỹ tyrãts to accomplish their rage, nether regarde othe nor frẽdship, God nor man.

g Naióth was a schole where the worde of God was studyed, nere to Ramáh.

h Being their chief instructer

i Chãged their mindes and praised God.

k With a minde to persecute them.

l His kingly apparel

m He hũbled him selfe as other did Chap 10,11.

CHAP. XX.

2 Ionathán comforteth Dauid 3 They renue their league 33 Saúl wolde haue killed Ionathan 38 Ionathán aduertiseth Dauid by thre arrowes of his fathers fury.

1 ANd Dauid [a] fled from Naióth in Ramáh, and came and said before Ionathán, What haue I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that he seketh my life?

2 And he said vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not dye: beholde, my father wil do a For Saúl was stayed, & prophecied a day & a night by Gods prouidence, that Dauid might haue time to escape nothing great nor ſmale, but he wil *ſhew it me: and why ſhulde my father hide this thing from me? he wil not do it.

3 And Dauid ſware againe and ſaid, Thy father knoweth that I haue founde grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Ionathán ſhal not knowe it, leſt he be ſory: but in dede, as the Lord liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, there is but a b ſteppe betwene me and death.

4 Then ſaid Ionathán vnto Dauid, Whatſoeuer thy ſoule *c requireth, that I wil do vnto thee.

5 And Dauid ſaid vnto Ionathán, Beholde, tomorowe is the d firſt day of the moneth, and I ſhulde ſit with the King at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my ſelfe in the fields vnto the third day at euen.

6 If thy father make mencion of me, then ſay, Dauid aſked leaue of me, ỹ he might go to Beth-léhē to his owne citie: for there is a e yerely ſacrifice for all that familie.

7 And if he ſay thus, It is wel, thy ſeruant ſhal haue peace: but if he be angry, be ſure that wickednes is concluded of him.

8 So ſhalt thou ſhewe mercy vnto thy ſeruant: * for thou haſt ioyned thy ſeruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, & if there be in me iniquitie, ſlaye thou me: for why ſhuldeſt thou bring me to thy father?

9 ¶And Ionathán anſwered, God kepe ỹ from thee: for if I knewe that wickednes were f concluded of my father to come vpon thee, wolde not I tel it thee?

10 Thē ſaid Dauid to Ionathán, Who g ſhal tel me? how ſhal I knowe, if thy father anſwere thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathán ſaid to Dauid, Come and let vs go out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Ionathán ſaid to Dauid, O Lord God of Iſraél, when I haue groped my fathers minde tomorowe at this time, or with in this thre dayes, & if it be wel with Dauid, and I then ſend not vnto thee, and ſhewe it thee,

13 The Lord h do ſo & muche more vnto Ionathán: but if my father haue minde to do thee euil, I wil ſhewe thee alſo, & ſend thee away, that thou mayeſt go in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hathe bene with my father.

14 Likewiſe I require not whiles I liue: for I dout not but thou wilt ſhewe me the mercy of the Lord, i that I dye not.

15 But I require that thou cut not of thy mercie from mine houſe for euer: no, not whē the Lord hathe deſtroyed the enemies of Dauid, euerie one from the earth.

16 So Ionathán made a bonde with the houſe of Dauid, ſaying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Ionathán ſware vnto Dauid, becauſe he loued him (for he loued him as his owne ſoule)

18 Thē ſaid Ionathán to him, Tomorowe is ỹ firſt day of the moneth: and thou ſhalt *be looked for, for thy place ſhalbe empty.

19 Therefore thou ſhalt hide thy ſelfe thre dayes, then thou ſhalt go downe quickely and come to the place where thou dideſt hide thy ſelfe, when this matter was in hand, & ſhalt remaine by the ſtone "Ezél.

20 And I wil ſhoote thre arrowes on the ſide thereof, as thogh I ſhot at a marke.

21 And after I wil ſend a boy, ſaying, Go, ſeke the arrowes. If I ſay vnto the boy, Se, ỹ arrowes are on this ſide thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is "wel with thee and no hurt, as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I ſay thus vnto the boy, Beholde, the arrowes are beyonde thee, go thy way: for the l Lord hathe ſent thee away.

23 As touching the thing which thou and I haue ſpoken of, beholde, the Lord be betwene thee and me for euer.

24 ¶So Dauid hid him ſelfe in the field: & when the firſt day of the moneth came, the King ſate to eat meat.

25 And the King ſate, as at other times vpō his ſeat, euen vpon his ſeat by the wall: & Ionathán aroſe, and Abnér ſate by Sauls ſide, but Dauids place was empty.

26 And Saúl ſaid nothing that day: for he thoght, Some thing hathe befallen him, thogh he were k cleane, or els becauſe he was not purified.

27 But on the morow which was the ſecōd day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saúl ſaid vnto Ionathán his ſonne, Wherefore commeth not the ſonne of Iſhái to meat, nether yeſterday nor to day?

28 And Ionathán anſwered vnto Saúl, Dauid required of me, that he might go to Bethléhem.

29 For he ſaid, Let me go, I pray thee: for our familie offreth m a ſacrifice in the citie, and my brother hathe ſent for me: therefore now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, & ſe my n brethrē: this is the cauſe that he cōmeth not vnto the Kings table.

30 Then was Saúl angry with Ionathán, & ſaid vnto him, Thou o ſonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I knowe, that thou haſt choſen the ſonne of Iſhái to thy confuſion and to the confuſion and ſhame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the ſonne of Iſhái liueth vpon the earth, thou ſhalt not be ſtabliſhed, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now ſend and fet him vnto me, for he "ſhal ſurely dye.

32 And Ionathán anſwered vnto Saúl his father,

* Ebr reueile it in mine eare.
" Ebr ſayeth.
b I am in great danger of death.
c At what time there ſhulde be a ſoléne ſacrifice, Nōb. 28, 11: to the ẅ they added peace offrings and feaſts.
d Read Chap. 1, 21.
e That he were fully determined.
f If thy father do fauour me.
g The Lord puniſhe me moſte grieuouſly.
h I knowe ỹ if thou were ſt now preferred to ỹ kyngdome, thou woldeſt not deſtroy me, but ſhewe thy ſelfe friendly to my poſteritie.
i Chap. 18, 16. & 23, 18.
k Yet he might haue ſome buſines to let him.
l Thus he ſpeaketh contempteouſly of Dauid.
m That is a peace offring.
n Meaning all his kinſfolke.
o Thou art euer contrary vnto me as thy mother is.
" Ebr. ſonne of death.
" Ebr of the way, becauſe it ſerued as a ſigne to ſhewe the way to thē that paſſed by
" Ebr. peace.
l The Lord is the autour of thy departure.
* Or, mentioned.

father, and ſaid vnto him, Wherefore ſhal he [p] dye? what hathe he done?

p For it were to great tyránie to put one to death and not to ſhewe ſ cauſe why 33 And Saúl caſt a ſpeare at him to hit him, whereby Ionathán knewe, that it was determined of his father to ſlaye Dauid.

34 ¶ So Ionathán aroſe from the table in a great angre, and did eat no meat the ſecõd day of the moneth: for he was ſory for Dauid, and becauſe his father had reuiled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Ionathán went out into the field, [q] at the time appointed with Dauid, and a litle boy with him.

q For this was the third day, as it was agreed vpon, vers 5.

36 And he ſaid vnto his boy, Runne now, ſeke the arrowes which I ſhoote, & as the boy ran, he ſhot an arrowe beyonde him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Ionathán had ſhot, Ionathán cryed after the boy, & ſaid, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

r By theſe wordes he admoniſhed Dauid what he ought to do

38 And Ionathán cryed after the boy, [r] Make ſpede, haſte and ſtand not ſtil: and Ionathãs boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his maſter, 39 But the boy knewe nothing: onely Ionathán and Dauid knewe the matter.

*Ebr inſtruments.

40 Then Ionathán gaue his "bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, & ſaid vnto him, Go, carie them into the citie.

41 ¶ Aſſone as the boy was gone, Dauid aroſe out of a place that was towarde the [ſ] South, and fel on his face to the ground, and bowed him ſelfe thre times: and they kyſſed one an other, and wept bothe twaine, til Dauid exceded.

ſ It ſemeth ſ he had ſhot on the Northſide of the ſtone, leſt the boy ſhulde haue eſpied Dauid 42 Therefore Ionathán ſaid to Dauid, Go in peace: that which we haue [t] ſworne bothe of vs in the Name of the Lord, ſaying, The Lord be betwene me & thee, and betwene my ſeede and betwene thy ſeede, let it ſtand for euer.

t Which othe he calleth in the eight verſe the couenãt of the Lord.

43 And he aroſe and departed, and Ionathán went into the citie.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimélech the Prieſt. 6 He getteth of him the ſhewbread to ſatiſfie his hungre. 7 Doég Sauls ſeruant was preſent. 10 Dauid fleeth to King Achiſh. 13 And there faineth him ſelfe mad.

1 THen came Dauid to [a] Nob, to Ahimélech the Prieſt, and Ahimélech was aſtonyed at the meting of Dauid, and ſaid vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no mã with thee?

a Whete the Arke thẽ was, to iſke coũſel of the Lord

2 And Dauid ſaid to Ahimélech the Prieſt, The [b] King hathe commanded me a certeine thing, and hathe ſaid vnto me, Let no man knowe whereabout I ſend thee, & what I haue commanded thee, and I haue appointed my ſeruants to ſuche and ſuche places.

b Theſe infirmities that we ſe in the ſaints of God, teache vs that none hathe his iuſtice in him ſelfe, but receiueth it of Gods mercie.

3 Now therefore if thou haſt ought vnder thine hand, giue me fiue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Prieſt anſwered Dauid, & ſaid, There is no commune bread vnder mine hand, but here is *halowed bread, if ỹ yong men haue kept them ſelues, at leaſt from [c] women.

*Exod 25,30. leu 24,5. mat 12,3.

c If they haue not companied w̃ their wiues.

5 Dauid then anſwered the Prieſt, and ſaid vnto him, Certeinly women haue bene ſeparate frõ vs theſe two or thre dayes ſince I came out: and the [d] veſſels of ỹ yong men were holy, thogh the way were prophane, & how muche more then ſhal euery one [e] be ſanctified this day in the veſſel?

d That is, their bodies.

e Shalbe more careful to kepe his veſſel holy, when he ſhal haue eatẽ of this holy foode?

6 So the Prieſt gaue him halowed bread: for there was no bread there, ſaue the ſhewbread that was takẽ from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the ſame day one of the ſeruãts of Saúl [f] abiding before the Lord, named Doég the Edomite, the [g] chiefeſt of Sauls herdemen) f Tarying to worſhip before the Arke. g Or, maſter of them that kepe Sauls cattel.

8 And Dauid ſaid vnto Ahimélech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a ſpeare or a ſworde? for I haue nether broght my ſworde nor mine haines with me, becauſe the Kings buſines required haſte.

9 And ỹ Prieſt ſaid, The ſworde of Goliáth the Philiſtím, whome thou ſleweſt in the *valley of Eláh, beholde, it is wrapt in a clothe behinde the [g] Ephód: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other ſaue that here, & Dauid ſaid, There is none to that, giue it me.

*Chap 17,2.

g Behide that place, where ỹ hie Prieſts garment lay.

10 And Dauid aroſe & fled the ſame day from the [h] preſence of Saúl, & went to Achiſh the King of Gath.

h That is, out of Sauls dominion

11 And the ſeruants of Achiſh ſaid vnto hĩ, Is not this Dauid the *King of the land? did they not ſing vnto him in dances, ſaying, *Saúl hathe ſlaine his thouſand, & Dauid his ten thouſand?

*Chap.17,9. *Chap 18,7. & 29,5. eccleſ 47,7.

12 And Dauid "conſidered theſe wordes, & was ſore afraid of Achiſh the King of Gath.

"Eor, put theſe wordes in his heart.

13 And he chãgèd his behauiour before thẽ, and fained him ſelfe mad in their hands, & [i] ſcrabled on the dores of the gate, & let his ſpetle fall downe vpon his beарde.

i By making markes and toyes.

14 Then ſaid Achiſh vnto his ſeruants, Lo, ye ſe the mã is beſide him ſelfe, wherefore haue ye broght him to me?

15 Haue I nede of mad men, that ye haue broght this fellowe to play the mad man in my preſence? [k] ſhal he come into mine houſe?

k Is he mete to be in a Kings houſe?

CHAP. XXII.

1 Dauid hideth him ſelfe in a cave. 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him. 9 Doég accuſeth Ahimélech. 18 Saúl cauſeth the Prieſts to be ſlaine. 20 Abiathár eſcapeth.

1 DAuid therefore departed thence, and a Which was in the tribe of Iudáh and nere to Beth-lé-hem.
saued him ſelfe in the caue a of Adullám: and when his brethren and all his fathers houſe heard it, they went downe thither to him.
2 And there gathered vnto him all mẽ that were in trouble and all men that were in det, & all thoſe that were vexed in minde, and he was their b prince, and there were with him about foure hundreth men.
b Or, captaine.
3 ¶And Dauid went thence to Mizpéh in b For there was another ſo called in Iudáh.
b Moáb, and ſaid vnto the King of Moáb, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, til I knowe what God wil do for me.
c For he feared the rage of Saúl againſt his houſe.
d That is, in Mizpéh, which was a ſtrong holde.
4 And he c broght them before the King of Moáb, and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid kept him ſelfe in d the holde.
5 And the Prophet Gad ſaid vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but departe & go into the lãd of Iudáh. Thẽ Dauid departed and came into the foreſt of Háreth.
e That a great brute went on him.
6 ¶And Saúl heard that Dauid was e diſcouered, and the men that were with him, and Saúl remained in Gibeáh vnder a tre in Ramáh, hauing his ſpeare in his hand, and all his men ſtode about him.
f Ye that are of my tribe & lin̄age.
7 And Saúl ſaid vnto his ſeruãts that ſtode about him, Heare now, ye ſonnes f of Iemíni, wil the ſonne of Iſhái giue euerie one of you fields and vineyardes? wil he make you all captaines ouer thouſands, & captaines ouer hundreths?
g Hereby he wolde perſuade thẽ ẏ this conſpiracie was moſte horrible, where the ſonne conſpired againſt the father, and the ſeruant againſt his maſter.
8 That all ye haue cõſpired againſt me, and there is none that telleth me that my ſonne hathe made a couenant with ẏ ſonne of Iſhái? & there is none of you that is ſory for me, or ſheweth me, that my g ſonne hathe ſtirred vp my ſeruant to lye in wait againſt me, as appeareth this day.
9 ¶Thẽ anſwered Doég the Edomite (who was appointed ouer the ſeruants of Saúl) and ſaid, I ſawe the ſonne of Iſhái when he came to Nob, to Ahimélech the ſonne of Ahitúb, 10 Who aſked counſel of the Lord for him & gaue him vitails, and he gaue him alſo the ſworde of Goliáth the Philiſtím.
h Which were the remnant of the houſe of Elí, whoſe houſe God threatened to punihe.
11 Then the King ſent to call Ahimélech the Prieſt the ſonne of Ahitúb, and all his fathers houſe, to wit, h the Prieſts that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.
12 And Saúl ſaid, Heare now, thou ſonne of Ahitúb. And he anſwered, Here I am, my lord.
13 Then Saúl ſaid vnto him, Why haue ye conſpired againſt me, thou and the ſonne of Iſhái, in that thou haſt giuen him vitaile, and a ſworde, and haſt aſked counſel of God for him, that he ſhulde riſe againſt me, & lye in waite as appeareth this day?
14 ¶And Ahimélech anſwered the King, & ſaid, Who is ſo faithful among all thy ſeruãts as Dauid, being alſo the Kings ſonne in lawe, & goeth at thy commandement, and is honorable in thine houſe?
i Haue I not at other times alſo, whẽ he had great affaires, conſulted w the Lord for him?
15 i Haue I this day firſt begon to aſke counſel of God for him? be it far frõ me, let not the King impute any thing vnto his ſeruant, nor to all the houſe of my father: for thy ſeruant knewe nothing of all this, leſſe nor more.
16 Then the King ſaid, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, Ahimélech, thou, and all thy fathers houſe.
*Or, ſeruers.
17 And the King ſaid vnto the *ſergents that ſtode about him, Turne, & ſlaye the Prieſts of the Lord, becauſe their hand alſo is with Dauid, and becauſe they knewe when he fled, and ſhewed it not to me. But the ſeruãts of the King k wolde not moue their hands to fall vpon the Prieſts of the Lord.
k For thei knewe ẏ thei ought not to obey ẏ wicked cõmandement of the King in ſhẏng ẏ innocents.
18 Thẽ the King ſaid to Doég, Turne thou and fall vpon the Prieſts. And Doég the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Prieſts, and ſlewe that ſame day foure ſcore and fiue perſones that did weare a linen Ephód.
19 Alſo Nob the citie of the Prieſts ſmote he with the edge of the ſworde, bothe man and woman, bothe childe and ſuckling, bothe oxe and aſſe, and ſhepe with the edge of the ſworde.
20 But one of the ſonnes of Ahimélech the ſonne of Ahitúb (whoſe name was Abiathár) l eſcaped and fled after Dauid.
l This was Gods prouidence, who according to his promes preſerued ſome of the houſe of Eli, Chap. 2. 33.
21 And Abiathár ſhewed Dauid, that Saúl had ſlaine the Lords Prieſts.
22 And Dauid ſaid vnto Abiathár, I knewe it the ſame day, when Doég the Edomite was there, that he wolde tel Saúl. I am the cauſe of the death of all the perſones of thy fathers houſe.
*Or, he that ſeketh thy life, ſhal ſeke thine alſo 23 Abide thou with me, & feare not: for *he that ſeketh my life, ſhal ſeke thy life alſo: for with me thou ſhalt be in ſauegarde.

CHAP. XXIII.

5 Dauid chaſteth the Philiſtims from Keiláh. 13 Dauid departeth from Keiláh, and remaineth in the wildernes of Ziph. 16 Ionathán comforteth Dauid. 28 Sauls entrepriſe is broken in purſuing Dauid.

1 THen they tolde Dauid, ſaying, Beholde, the Philiſtims fight againſt a Keiláh, and ſpoyle the barnes.
a Which was a citie in the tribe of Iudáh, Ioſh 15. 44 2 Therefore Dauid aſked coũſel of ẏ Lord, ſaying, Shal I go and ſmite theſe Philiſtims? And the Lord anſwered Dauid, Go and ſmite the Philiſtims, and ſaue Keiláh.
b That is, in ẏ middes of Iudáh, muche more whẽ we come to ẏ borders againſt our enemies.
3 And Dauids men ſaid vnto him, Se, we be afraied here in b Iudáh, how muche more if we come to Keiláh againſt the hoſte of the the Philiſtíms?

4 Then Dauid aſked counſel of the Lord againe. And the Lord anſwered him, and ſaid, Ariſe, go downe to Keiláh: for I wil deliuer the Philiſtíms into thine hand.

5 ¶So Dauid and his men went to Keiláh, and foght with the Philiſtíms, and broght away theyr cattel, and ſmote them with a great ſlaughter: thus Dauid ſaued the inhabitants of Keiláh.

6 (And whē Abiathár the ſonne of Ahimélech * fled to Dauid to Keiláh, he broght an c Ephód "with him)

Chap 22,20.
c By Gods prouidence the Ephód was preſerued & kept w Dauid the true King
"Ebr in his hād

7 ¶And it was tolde Saúl that Dauid was come to Keiláh, and Saúl ſaid, God hathe deliuered him into mine hand: for he is ſhut in, ſeing he is come into a citie that hathe gates and barres.

8 Thē Saúl cálled all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keiláh, and to beſiege Dauid and his men.

9 ¶And Dauid haumg knowledge that Saúl imagined miſchief againſt him, ſaid to Abiathár the Prieſt, d Bring the Ephód.

d To conſult w the Lord by Vrim & Thūmim

10 Then ſaid Dauid, O Lord God of Iſraél, thy ſeruant hathe heard, that Saúl is about to come to Keiláh to deſtroy the citie for my ſake.

11 Wil the lords of Keiláh deliuer me vp into his hād? and wil Saúl come downe, as thy ſeruant hathe heard? O Lord God of Iſraél, I beſeche thee, tel thy ſeruant. And the Lord ſaid, He wil come downe.

12 Thē ſaid Dauid, Wil the "lords of Keiláh deliuer me vp and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saúl? And the Lord ſaid, They wil deliuer thee vp.

"Or, gouernours

13 ¶Then Dauid and his men, which were about ſix hundreth, aroſe, and departed out of Keiláh, and went "whither they colde. And it was tolde Saúl, that Dauid was fled from Keiláh, and he left of his iourney.

"Or, to & fro, as hauing no certeine place to go to.

14 And Dauid abode in the wildernes in "holdes, and remained in a mountaine in the wildernes of Ziph. And Saúl ſoght him euerie day, but God e deliuered him not into his hand.

"Or, ſtrōg places

e No power nor policie cā preuaile againſt Gods childrē, but when he appointeth ỹ time

15 And Dauid ſawe that Saúl was come out for to ſeke his life: & Dauid was in the wildernes of Ziph in the wood.

16 ¶And Ionathán Sauls ſonne aroſe and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted "him in God,

"Ebr his hāde.

17 And ſaid vnto him, Feare not: for the hād of Saúl my father ſhal not finde thee, and thou ſhalt be f King ouer Iſrael, and I ſhalbe next vnto thee. and alſo Saúl my father knoweth it.

f Ionathán aſſureth Dauid, that God wil accōpliſh his promes & ỹ his father ſtriueth againſt his owne cōſcience.

18 So they twaine made a couenant before the Lord. and Dauid did remaine in the wood: but Ionathán went to his houſe.

19 ¶Then came vp the Ziphims to Saúl to Gibeáh, ſayīg, Doeth not Dauid hide him ſelfe by vs in holdes, in the wood in the hil of Hachiláh, which is on the right ſide "of Ieſhimon?

"Or, of the wilderneſs.

20 Now therefore ô King, come downe according to all that thine heart can deſire, & our parte ſhalbe to deliuer him into the Kings hands.

21 Then Saúl ſaid, g Be ye bleſſed of the Lord: for ye haue had compaſsion on me.

g The Lord recompence this friendſhip

22 Go, I pray you, and prepare yet better: knowe and ſe his place where he "hanteth, and who hathe ſene him there: for it is ſaid to me, He is ſubtile, and crafty.

"Ebr where his foote hath bene

23 Se therefore, and knowe all the ſecret places where he hideth him ſelfe, & come ye againe to me with the certentie, and I wil go with you: and if he be in the h land, I wil ſearche him out throughout all the thouſands of Iudáh.

h In your cōtrey of Ziph, w is in Iudah.

24 Thē they aroſe and went to Ziph before Saúl, but Dauid and his men were in the wildernes of Maón, in the plaine on the right hand of Ieſhimón.

25 Saúl alſo and his men went to ſeke him, and they tolde Dauid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernes of i Maón. And when Saúl heard that, he followed after Dauid in ỹ wildernes of Maón.

i Which was also in ỹ tribe of Iudah, Ioſh. 15,55.

26 And Saúl and his men went on the one ſide of the mountaine, and Dauid and his men on the other ſide of the mountaine: and Dauid made haſte to get from the preſence of Saúl: for Saúl and his men cō paſſed Dauid & his men round about, to take them.

27 But there came a k meſſenger to Saúl, ſaying, Haſte thee, and come: for the Philiſtíms haue inuaded the land.

k Thus ỹ Lord cā pul "backe the bridel of the tyrants, & deliuer his out of the lions mouthe.

28 Wherefore Saúl returned from purſuing Dauid, and went againſt the Philiſtíms. Therefore they called that place, l Sela-hammáhlekoth.

l That is, the ſtone of diuiſion, becauſe there they deuided thē ſelues one from another.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Dauid hid in a caue ſpareth Saúl 10 He ſheweth to Saúl his innocēcie 18 Saul acknowledgeth his faute 22 He cauſeth Dauid to ſweare vnto him to be fauorable to his.

1 AND Dauid went thence, and dwelt in a holdes at En-gédi.

a That is, in ſtrong places, w were weteneſed by nature.

2 When Saúl was returned from the Philiſtíms, they tolde him, ſaying, Beholde, Dauid is in the wildernes of b En-gédi.

b a citie of Iudáh, Ioſh. 15,62.

3 Then Saúl toke thre thouſand choſen men out of all Iſraél, and went to ſeke Dauid and his men vpon the rockes among the wilde goates.

4 And he came to the ſhepecoates by the way where there was a caue and Saúl wēt in "to do his eaſement: and Dauid and his men ſate in the "inward partes of the caue.

"Ebr to couer his feete
"Ebr in the ſides.

5 And the men of Dauid ſaid vnto him, Se, the day is [c] come, wherof the Lord ſaid vnto thee, Beholde, I wil deliuer thine enemie into thine hand, and thou ſhalt do to him as it ſhal ſeme good to thee. Then Dauid aroſe and cut of the lappe of Sauls garment priuely.

[c] Here we ſe how ready we are to haſten Gods promes, if ỹ occaſion ſerue neuer ſo litle.

6 And afterward Dauid [d] was touched in his heart, becauſe he had cut of the lappe which was on Sauls garment.

[d] For ſeing it was his owne priuate cauſe, he repented ỹ he had touched his enemie.

7 And he ſaid vnto his mẽ, The Lord kepe me from doing that thing vnto my maſter the Lords Anointed, to lay mine hand vpon him: for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So Dauid ouercame his ſeruants w̃ theſe wordes, & ſuffred them not to ariſe againſt Saúl: ſo Saúl roſe vp out of the caue & wẽt away.

9 ¶ Dauid alſo aroſe afterward, & went out of the caue, and cryed after Saúl, ſaying, O my Lord ỹ King And when Saúl loked behinde him, Dauid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed him ſelfe.

[e] Contrary to ỹ falſe report of them ỹ ſaid, Dauid was Sauls enemie, he proueth hi ſelfe to be his frend.

10 And Dauid ſaid to Saúl, [e] Wherefore gieueſt thou an eare to mẽs wordes, that ſay, Beholde, Dauid ſeketh euil againſt thee?

11 Beholde, this day thine eyes haue ſene, that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand in the caue, and ſome bade me kil thee, but I had compaſsiõ on thee, and ſaid, I wil not lay mine hand on my maſter: for he is the Lords Anointed.

12 Moreouer my father, beholde: beholde, I ſay, the lappe of thy garmẽt in mine hãd: for whẽ I cut of the lappe of thy garmẽt, I killed thee not. Vnderſtand and ſe, that there is nether euil nor wickednes in me, nether haue I ſinned againſt thee, yet thou hunteſt after my ſoule to take it.

13 The Lord be iudge betwene thee & me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

[a] Or, the prouerbe of an ancient man.

14 According as the [a] olde prouerbe ſaith, Wickednes procedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee.

15 After whome is the King of Iſraél come out? after whome doeſt thou purſue? after a dead dog, & after a flye?

16 The Lord therefore be iudge, & iudge betwene thee and me, and ſe, and pleade my cauſe, and [b] deliuer me out of thine hand.

[b] Ebr. iudge.

17 When Dauid had made an end of ſpeaking theſe wordes to Saúl, Saúl ſaid, [f] Is this thy voyce, my ſonne Dauid? and Saúl lift vp his voyce, and wept, [f] Thogh he was a moſte cruel enemie to Dauid, yet by his great gentlenes his conſcience cõpelled him to yelde.

18 And ſaid to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou haſt rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euil.

19 And thou haſt ſhewed this day, that thou haſt dealt wel with me: foraſmuch as whẽ the Lord had cloſed me in thine hands, thou killedſt me not.

20 For who ſhal finde his enemy, and let him departe [b] frẽ wherefore the Lord rendre thee good for that thou haſt done vnto me this day.

[b] Ebr. a good way

21 For now beholde, I [g] knowe that ỹ ſhalt be King, and that the kingdome of Iſraél ſhalbe ſtabliſhed in thine hand.

[g] Thogh this tyrant law and confeſſed the fauour of God toward Dauid, yet he ceaſeth not to perſecute him againſt his owne conſcience.

22 Sweare now therefore vnto me by the Lord, that ỹ wilt not deſtroy my ſeede after me, and that thou wilt not aboliſh my name out of my fathers houſe.

23 So Dauid ſware vnto Saúl, and Saúl wẽt home: but Dauid and his men went vp vnto the holde.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuél dyeth. 3 Nabál & Abigáil. 38 The Lord killeth Nabál. 43 Abigáil & Ahinóam Dauids wiues. 44 Michal is gruen to Phalti.

1 THen * Samuél dyed, and all Iſraél aſſembled, and mourned for him, & buryed him in his [a] owne houſe at Ramáh. And Dauid aroſe and went downe to the wildernes of Parán.

* Chap 28.3. eccleſ. 46.23.

[a] That is, amõg his owne kinred

2 Now in [b] Maón was a man, who had his poſſeſsion in Carmél, and the man was exceding mighty and had thre thouſand ſhepe, and a thouſand goates: and he was ſhering his ſhepe in Carmél.

[b] Maón and Carmél were cities in ỹ tribe of Iuuah. Carmél y moũteine was in Galile

3 The name alſo of the man was Nabál, & the name of his wife Abigáil, and ſhe was a woman of ſingular wiſdome, and beautiful, but the man was churliſh, and euil cõditioned, and was of the familie of Caléb.

4 And Dauid heard in the wildernes, that Nabál did ſhere his ſhepe.

5 Therefore Dauid ſent ten yong men, & Dauid ſaid vnto the yong men, Go vp to Carmél, and go to Nabál, and aſke him in my name [b] how he doeth.

[b] Ebr of peace.

6 And thus ſhal ye ſay [c] [b] for ſalutation, Bothe ỹ, and thine houſe, and all that thou haſt, be in peace, welth, and proſperitie.

[c] Some read, ſo maieſt thou liue in proſperitie the next yere, bothe thou, &c

[b] Ebr for life.

7 Beholde, I haue heard, that thou haſt ſherers: now thy ſhepherds were with vs, and we did them no hurt, nether did they miſſe anie thing all the while they were in Carmél.

8 Aſke thy ſeruants & they wil ſhewe thee. Wherefore let theſe yõg mẽ finde fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good ſeaſon) giue, I praye thee, whatſoeuer [d] cometh to thine hand vnto thy ſeruants, & to thy ſonne Dauid.

[d] Whatſoeuer ỹ haſt ready for vs.

9 ¶ And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabal all thoſe wordes in the name of Dauid, and helde their peace.

[e] Thus ỹ couetous wretches, in ſtede of releuing ỹ neceſſitie of Gods children, vſe to reuile their perſonnes and condẽne their cauſe.

10 Then Nabál anſwered Dauids ſeruãts, and ſaid, Who is Dauid? and who is the [e] ſonne of Iſhái? there is manie ſeruants now a dayes, that breake awaye euery mã from his maſter.

11 Shal

11 Shal I then take my bread,& my water, & my fleſh that I haue killed for my ſhe-rers,and giue it vnto mẽ,whome I knowe not whence thei be?

12 ¶So Dauids ſeruants turned their way, and went againe,and came,and tolde him all thoſe things.

13 And Dauid ſaid vnto his men, Girde e-uery man his ſworde about him. And they girded euery man his ſworde:Dauid alſo girded his ſworde. And about foure hun-dreth men went vp after Dauid, and two hundreth abode by the" carriage.

14 Now one of the ſeruants tolde Abigáil Nabals wife,ſaying,Beholde, Dauid ſent meſſengers out of the wildernes to ſalute our maſter,and he"rayled on them.

15 Notwithſtanding the men were very good f vnto vs,and we had no diſpleaſure, nether miſſed we any thing as long as we were conuerſant with them,when we were in the fields.

16 Thei were as a wall vnto vs bothe by night and by day, all the while we were with them keping ſhepe.

17 Now therefore take hede, and ſe what thou ſhalt do: for euil" wil ſurely come vpon our maſter,and vpon all his familie: for he is ſo wicked ỹ a man can not ſpeake to him.

18 ¶Then Abigáil made haſte, and toke two hundreth" cakes, and two bottles of wine,and fiue ſhepe ready dreſſed, & fiue meaſures of parched corne, and an hun-dreth f trailes of raiſins, and two hun-dreth of figges,and laded them on aſſes.

19 Then ſhe ſaid vnto her ſeruants, Go ye before me:beholde, I wil come after you: yet ſhe tolde g not her houſband Nabál.

20 And as ſhe rode on her aſſe, ſhe came downe by a ſecret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe againſt her,and ſhe met them.

21 And Dauid ſaid,In dede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellowe had in the wil-dernes, ſo that nothing was miſſed of all that perteined vnto him: for he hathe re-quited me euil for good.

22 So and more alſo do God vnto the ene-mies of Dauid: for ſurely I wil not leaue of all that he hathe, by the dawning of the day,any that h piſſeth againſt the wall.

23 And when Abigáil ſawe Dauid, ſhe ha-ſted and lighted of her aſſe, & fel before Dauid on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, 24 And fel at his fete,& ſaid, Oh, my lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee,let thine handmaid ſpeake"to thee,& heare thou the wordes of thine hãdmayd.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regarde this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is,ſo is he:" Nabál is his name, and foly is with him: but I thine handmayd ſawe not the yong men of my lord whome ỹ ſenteſt.

26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord li-ueth,and as thy ſoule liueth(the Lord, I ſay,that hathe withholdẽ thee from com-ming to ſhed blood,and that i thine hand ſhulde not ſaue thee)ſo now thine enemies ſhalbe as Nabál, and thei that intende to do my lord euil.

27 And now, this "bleſsing which thine handmayd hathe broght vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yongmẽ,that"fol-lowe my lord.

28 I pray thee,forgiue the treſpaſſe of thi-ne handmayd: for the Lord wil make my lord a k ſure houſe,becauſe my lord fig-hteth the battels of the lord and none euil hathe bene founde in thee "in all thy life.

29 Yet l a man hathe riſen vp to perſecute thee,and to ſeke thy ſoule, but the ſoule of my lord ſhalbe bounde in the m bundel of life with the Lord thy God:and the ſoule of thine enemies ſhal God caſt out, as out of the midle of a ſling.

30 And when the Lord ſhal haue done to my lord all the good that he hathe promi-ſed thee, and ſhal haue made thee ruler ouer Iſraél, 31 Then ſhal it be no grief vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hathe not ſhed blood cauſeles, nor that my lord hathe n not preſeued him ſelfe:& whẽ the Lord ſhal haue dealt wel with my lord,remember thine handmayd.

32 Then Dauid ſaid to Abigáil, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſraél, which ſent thee this day to mete me.

33 And bleſſed be thy counſel, and bleſſed be thou, which haſte kept me this day frõ comming to ſhed blood, o and that mine hand hathe not ſaued me.

34 For in dede, as the Lord God of Iſraél liueth, p who hathe kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddeſt haſted and met me,ſurely there had not bene left vnto Nabál by the dawning of the day, any that piſſeth againſt the wall.

35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which ſhe had broght him, & ſaid to her, Go vp in peace to thine houſe:beholde, I haue heard thy voyce,and haue "granted thy petition.

36 ¶So Abigáil came to Nabál,& beholde, he made a feaſt in his houſe,like the feaſt of a King, and Nabals heart was mery within him,for he was very drõken: whe-refore ſhe tolde him q nothing, nether leſſe nor more, vntil the morning aroſe.

37 Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabál, his wife tolde him thoſe wordes, & his heart dyed with-in him,and he was like r a ſtone.

38 And about ten daies after, the Lord

"Ebr veſſel.

"Ebr droue thẽ away

f When we kept our ſhepe in the wilder-nes of Paran

"Ebr is accom-pliſhed.

"Ebr. bread.

f Or,cluſters.

g Becauſe ſhe knewe his crooked natu-re, ỹ he wolde rather haue periſhed,then conſented to her enterpriſe.

h Meaning by this prouerbe, that he wolde deſtroye bothe ſmale & great

"Ebr in tilne eanee.

"Or fole.

i That is,that thou ſhalde ſt not be reuenged of thine ene-mie.

"Or preſent

"Ebr walke at the feete.

k Cõfirme his kingdome to his poſteritie.

"Ebr.from thy daies

l To wit,Saúl.

m God ſhal preſerue thee lõg in his ſer-uice and deſ-troye thine e-nemies.

n That he hathe not auẽ-ged him ſelfe, which things wolde haue tormented his conſcience.

o Read verſ 26

p He attribu-teth it to the Lords mercie, & not to him ſelf ỹ he was ſtaied.

"Ebr receiued thy face.

q For he had no raiſon to conſider, or giue thankes for this great benefite of de-liuerance

r For feare of ỹ great danger ſmote Nabál, that he dyed.

39 ¶Now when Dauid heard, that Nabál was dead, he ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord that hathe *or, reuenged. "iudged the cauſe of my rebuke of the hand of Nabál, & hathe kept his ſeruant from euil: for the Lord hathe recompenſed the wickednes of Nabál vpon his owne head. Alſo Dauid ſent to commune with Abigáil to f take her to his wife.

f For he had experience of her great godlines, wiſdome & humilitie.

40 And when the ſeruants of Dauid were come to Abigáil to Carmél, they ſpake vnto her, ſaying, Dauid ſent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And ſhe aroſe, and bowed her ſelf on her face to the earth, & ſaid, Beholde, let thy handmayd be a ſeruant to waſh the fete of the ſeruants of my lord.

42 And Abigáil haſted, and aroſe, and rode vpon an aſſe, & her fiue maids "followed her, and ſhe went after the meſſengers of Dauid, and was his wife.

*Ebr. went at her fete.

*Iosh.15,55. 43 Dauid alſo toke Ahinóam of * Izreél, & thei were bothe his wiues.

*2.Sam.3,15. 44 Now Saúl had giue * Michál his daughter Dauids wife to Phaltí the ſonne of Láiſh, which was of t Gallím.

t Which was a place bordering on the countrey of ỹ Moabites.

CHAP. XXVI.

Dauid was diſcouered vnto Saúl by the Ziphims. 12 Dauid taketh awaye Sauls ſpeare, and a pot of water that ſtode at his head. 21 Saúl cõfeſſeth his ſinne.

1 AGaine the Ziphims came vnto Saúl to Gibeáh, ſaying, * Doeth not Dauid hide him ſelfe "in the hil of Hachiláh before "Ieſhimón?

*Chap.23,19. *Or, in Gibeah. *Or, the wilderues.

2 Then Saúl aroſe, and went downe to the wildernes of Ziph, hauing thre thouſand a choſen men of Iſraél with him, for to ſeke Dauid in the wildernes of Ziph.

a That is, of ỹ moſte ſkilful and valiant ſoldiers.

3 And Saúl pitched in the hil of Hachiláh, which is before Ieſhimón by the waye ſide. Now Dauid abode in the wildernes, and he ſawe that Saúl came after him into the wildernes.

4 (For Dauid had ſent out ſpies, & vnderſtode, that Saúl was come "in very dede)

*Or, to a certeine place.

5 Then Dauid aroſe, and came to the place where Saúl had pitched, and when Dauid beheld the place where Saúl lay, & * Abnér the ſonne of Ner which was his chief captaine, (for Saúl lay in the forte, and the people pitched round about him)

*Chap.14,50. & 17,55.

6 Then ſpake Dauid, & ſaid to Ahimélech the b Hittite, and to Abiſhái the ſonne of Zeruiáh, brother to c Ioáb, ſaying, Who wil go downe with me to Saúl to the hoſte? Then Abiſhái ſaid, I wil go downe with thee.

b Who was a ſtranger & not an Iſraelite.
c Who afterwarde was Dauids chief captaine.

7 So Dauid & Abiſhái came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saúl laye ſleping within the forte, & his ſpeare did ſticke in the grounde at his "head: and Abnér and the people lay round about him.

*Or, bolſter.

8 ¶Thẽ ſaid Abiſhái to Dauid, God hathe cloſed thine enemie into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me ſmite him once with a ſpeare to ỹ earth, and I wil not ſmite him d againe.

d Meaning, he wolde make him ſure at one ſtroke.

9 And Dauid ſaid to Abiſhái, Deſtroye him not: for who can lay his hand e on the Lords anointed, and be giltles?

e To wit, in his owne priuate cauſe: for Iehu ſlew two Kings at Gods appointment, 2.King.9,24.

10 Moreouer Dauid ſaid, As the Lord liueth, ether the Lord ſhal ſmite him, or his day ſhal come to dye, or he ſhal deſcende into battel, and periſh.

11 The Lord kepe me from laying mine hand vpõ the Lords anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the ſpeare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs go hence.

12 So Dauid toke the ſpeare and the pot of water from Sauls head, & thei gate them away, and no man ſawe it, nor marked it, nether did any awake, but thei were all aſlepe: for "the Lord had ſent a dead ſlepe vpon them.

"Ebr. the heauy ſlepe of the Lord was fallen vpõ them.

13 Then Dauid went into the other ſide, & ſtode on ỹ toppe of an hil a far of, a great ſpace being betwene them.

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abnér the ſonne of Ner, ſaying, "Heareſt thou not Abnér? Then Abnér anſwered, and ſaid, Who art thou that cryeſt to the King?

"Ebr. anſwereſt.

15 ¶And Dauid ſaid to Abnér, Art not ỹ a f man? and who is like thee in Iſraél? wherefore then haſt thou not kept thy lord the King? for there came one of the folke in to deſtroye the King thy lord.

f Eſteemed moſte valiant, and mete to ſaue the King?

16 This is not wel done of thee: as the Lord liueth, ye are "worthy to dye, becauſe ye haue not kept your maſter the Lords Anointed: and now ſe where the Kings ſpeare is, and the pot of water that was at his head.

"Ebr. ſonnes of death.

17 And Saúl knewe Dauids voyce, & ſaid, Is this thy voyce, g my ſonne Dauid? And Dauid ſaid, It is my voyce, my lord ô King.

g Hereby it appeareth, ỹ the hypocrite perſecuted Dauid againſt his owne conſciẽce, and contrary to his promes.

18 And he ſaid, Wherefore doeth my lord thus perſecute his ſeruant? for what haue I done? or what euil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I beſeche thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his ſeruant. If the Lord haue ſtirred thee vp againſt me, h let him ſmel the ſauour of a ſacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, curſed be thei before the Lord: for thei haue caſt me out this day frõ abiding in the inheritãce of the Lord, ſaying, Go, ſerue other i gods.

h Let his angre towarde vs be pacified by a ſacrifice.

i As muche as laye in them, they cõpelled him to idolatrie, becauſe they forced hi to flee to the idolaters.

20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Iſraél is come out to ſeke a flye, as one wolde hunt a partriche in the mountaines.

21 Then

21 Then ſaid Saúl, I haue ſinned: come againe, my ſonne Dauid: for I wil do thee nomore harme, becauſe my ſoule was [k] precious in thine eyes this day: beholde, I haue done fooliſhly, and haue erred exceedingly.

k Becauſe thou ſauedſt my life this day

22 Then Dauid anſwered, & ſaid, Beholde the Kings ſpeare, let one of the yong mẽ come ouer and fet it.

23 And let the Lord rewarde euerie man according to his [l] righteouſnes & faithfulnes: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine hãds this daie, but I wolde not lay mine hand vpon the Lords anoynted.

l Thus he proteſteth his innocencie toward Saúl not defending his iuſtice in the ſight of God, in whoſe preſence none is righteous, Pſal 14,3, and 130,3.

24 And beholde, like as thy life was muche ſet by this day in mine eyes: ſo let my life be ſet by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulacion.

25 Then Saúl ſaid to Dauid, Bleſſed art thou, my ſonne Dauid: for thou ſhalt do great things, and alſo preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saúl returned to his [m] place.

m To Gibeáh of Beniamín

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achíſh King of Gath, who giueth him Ziklág. 8 Dauid deſtroyeth certeine of the Philiſtims. 10 Achíſh is deceyued by Dauid.

1 AND Dauid ſaid in his heart, I ſhal now [a] periſh one day by the hand of Saúl: is it not better for me that I ſaue my ſelfe in the land of the Philiſtims, and that Saúl may haue no hope of me to ſeke me anie more in all the coaſtes of Iſraél, and ſo eſcape out of his hand?

a Dauid diſtruſteth Gods protection, and therfore fleeth vnto the idolaters, who were enemies to Gods people

2 Dauid therefore aroſe, and he, and the ſix hundreth men that were with him, wẽt vnto Achíſh the ſonne of Maóch King of Gáth.

3 And Dauid [b] dwelt with Achíſh at Gath, he, and his men, euerie man with his houſholde, Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinóam the Izreelite, and Abigáil Nabals wife the Carmelite.

b Thus God by his prouidence chãgeth the enemies hearts & maketh them to fauour his, in their neceſſitie

4 And it was tolde Saúl that Dauid was fled to Gath: ſo he ſoght nomore for him.

5 And Dauid ſaid vnto Achíſh, If I haue now founde grace in thine eyes, [c] let them giue me a place in ſome other citie of the countrey, that I may dwel there: for why ſhulde thy ſeruant dwel in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

c Let thine officers appoint me a place.

6 Then Achíſh gaue him Ziklág that ſame day: therefore Ziklág perteineth vnto the Kings of Iudáh vnto this day.

7 ¶ And [n] the time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philiſtims, was foure moneths and certeine dayes.

n Heb. the nũber of the dayes

8 Then Dauid and his men went vp, and inuaded the [d] Geſſhurites, and the Girzites and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way, as thou goeſt to Shur, euen vnto the land of Egypt.

d These were the wicked Canaanites, whome God had appointed to be deſtroyed.

9 And Dauid ſmote the land, & left nether man nor woman aliue, and toke ſhepe, & oxen, and aſſes, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achíſh.

10 And Achíſh ſaid, [o] Where haue ye beẽ a rouing this day? And Dauid anſwered, Againſt the Southe of Iudáh, and againſt ỹ Southe of the [e] Ierameelites, & againſt the Southe of the Kenites.

o Or, againſt whome.

e Which were a familie of ỹ tribe of Iudáh, 1.Chro 2,9.

11 And Dauid ſaued nether man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, ſaying, Leſt they ſhulde tel on vs, and ſay, So did Dauid, and ſo wil be his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philiſtims.

12 And Achíſh beleued Dauid, ſaying, [p] He hathe made his people of Iſraél vtterly to abhorre him: therefore he ſhalbe my ſeruant for euer.

p Or, he doeth ſurely abhorre his people.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Dauid hathe the chef charge promiſed about Achíſh. 8 Saúl conſulteth with a witche, and ſhe cauſeth him to ſpeake with Samuél. 18 Who declareth his ruine.

1 NOw at that time the Philiſtims aſſembled their bandes and armie to fight with Iſraél: therefore Achíſh ſaid to Dauid, [a] Be ſure, thou ſhalt go out with me to the battel, thou, and thy men.

a Albeit it was a great grief to Dauid to fighte againſt ỹ people of God, yet ſuche was his infirmitie, he durſt not deny him

2 And Dauid ſaid to Achíſh, Surely thou ſhalt knowe what thy ſeruant can do. And Achíſh ſaid to Dauid, Surely I wil make thee keper of mine head for euer.

3 * (Samuél was then dead, and all Iſraél had lamented him, and buryed him in Ramáh his owne citie: and Saúl had [b] put away the ſorcereis, and the ſothe ſayers out of the land.) Chap 25,1.

b According to the commãdemẽt of God, Exod 22,18 & deut 18,10.

4 Then the Philiſtims aſſembled them ſelues, and came, and pitched in Shuném: and Saúl aſſembled all Iſraél, & they pitched in Gilbóa.

5 And when Saúl ſawe the hoſte of the Philiſtims, he was afrayed, and his heart was ſore aſtonied.

6 Therefore Saúl aſked counſel of ỹ Lord, & the Lord anſwered him not, nether by dreames, nor by [c] Vrim, nor yet by Prophetes.

c Meaning ỹ hie Prieſt, Exod 28,30.

7 ¶ Then ſaid Saúl vnto his ſeruants, Seke me a woman that hathe a familiar ſpirit, that I may go to her, and aſke of her. And his ſeruants ſaid to him, Beholde, there is a woman at En-dor that hathe a familiar ſpirit.

8 Then Saúl [d] changed him ſelfe, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two mẽ with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he ſaid, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar ſpirit, and bring me him vp whome I ſhal name vnto thee.

d He ſeketh not to God in his miſerie, but is led by Satã to vnlawful meanes, which in his conſcience he condemneth

9 And the woman ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thou knoweſt what Saúl hathe done, how he hathe deſtroyed the ſorcereis, and the ſo the ſayers out of the land: wherefore thē ſekeſt thou to take me in a ſnare to cauſe me to dye?

10 And Saúl ſware to her by the Lord, ſaying, As the Lord liueth, no *harme ſhal come to thee for this thing.

*Or, paníſhmēt.

11 Then ſaid the womā, Whome ſhal I bring vp vnto thee? And he anſwered, Bring me vp [e] Samuél.

e He ſpeaketh according to his groſſe ignorance, not conſidering ye ſtate of the Saints after this life, and howe Satan hathe no power ouer thē

12 And when the woman ſawe Samuél, ſhe cryed with a loude voyce, and the woman ſpake to Saúl, ſaying, Why haſt thou deceiued me? for thou art Saúl.

13 And the King ſaid vnto her, Be not afrayed: for what ſaweſt thou? And the woman ſaid vnto Saúl, I ſawe *gods aſcēding vp out of the earth.

*Or, an excellēt perſon.

14 Then he ſaid vnto her, What facion is he of? And ſhe anſwered, An olde man cometh vp lapped in a mantel: and Saúl knewe that it was [f] Samuél, and he enclined his face to the ground, & bowed him ſelfe.

f To his imaginacio, albeit it was Satan, who to blinde his eyes toke vpon him the forme of Samuél as he cā do of an Angel of light 15 ¶ And Samuél ſaid to Saúl, Why haſt ỹ diſquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saúl anſwered, I am in great diſtreſſe: for the Philiſtíms make warre againſt me, & God is departed frō me, and anſwereth me nomore, nether "by Prophetes nether by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayeſt tel me, what I ſhal do.

"Ebr by the hād of Prophets

16 Then ſaid Samuél, Wherefore thē doeſt thou aſke of me, ſeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemie?

17 Euen the Lord hathe done to [g] him, as he ſpake *by mine hand: for the Lord wil rent the kingdome out of thine hand, and giue it thy neighbour Dauid.

g That is, to Dauid. Chap 15,28. *Or, miniſterio

18 Becauſe thou obeiedſt not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedſt his fearce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hathe the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 Moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Iſraél with thee into the hāds of the Philiſtíms: [h] and tomorowe ſhalt thou and thy ſonnes be with me, & the Lord ſhal giue the hoſte of Iſraél into the hands of the Philiſtíms.

h Ye ſhal be dead, Chap 31,6

20 Then Saúl fel ſtreyght way all along on the earth, and was ſore [i] afrayed becauſe of the wordes of Samuél, ſo that there was no ſtrength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

i The wicked, whē they heare Gods iudgements, tremble and diſpaire, but can not ſeke for mercie by repentance.

21 Then the woman came vnto Saúl, and ſawe that he was ſore troubled, and ſaid vnto him, Se, thine handmayd hathe obeyed thy voyce, & I [k] haue put my ſoule in mine hand, and haue obeyed thy wordes which thou ſaideſt vnto me.

k I haue ventured my life.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou alſo vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, and let me ſet a morſel of bread before thee, that thou mayeſt eat & get thee ſtrength, and go on thy iourney.

23 But he refuſed, and ſaid, I wil not eat: but his ſeruants and the woman together cōpelled him, & he obeied their voyce. ſo he aroſe from the earth, and ſate on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the houſe, and ſhe haſted, and killed it, and toke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it [l] vnleauened bread.

l Becauſe it requireth haſte.

25 Then ſhe brogt them before Saúl, and before his ſeruants: and when they had eaten, they ſtode vp, and went away the ſame night.

CHAP. XXIX.

4 The princes of the Philiſtims cauſe Dauid to be ſent backe from the battel againſt Iſraél, becauſe they diſtruſted him.

1 SO the Philiſtíms were gathered togeTher with all their armies in Aphék: & the Iſraelites pitched *by the founteine, which is in Izreél.

*Or, in Aſia.

2 And the *princes of the Philiſtíms went forthe by [a] hundreths and thouſands, but Dauid and his men came behinde with Achíſh.

*Or, captaines.

a According to their bandes, or enſignes.

3 Then ſaid the princes of the Philiſtíms, What do theſe Ebrewes here? And Achíſh ſaid vnto the princes of the Philiſtíms, Is not this Dauid ỹ ſeruant of Saúl the King of Iſraél, who hathe bene with me theſe dayes, [b] or theſe yeres, and I haue foūde nothing in him, ſince he "dwelt with me vnto this day?

b Meaning, a long tyme, ỹ is foure monethes and certeine dayes, Chap 27,7. "Ebr fell, as Gen. chap 25,18. 1 Chro 12,19.

4 But the princes of the Philiſtíms were wrothe with him, & the princes of the Philiſtíms ſaid vnto him, *Send this fellowe backe, that he may go againe to his place which thou haſt appointed him, & let him not go downe with vs to battel, leſt that in the battel he be an aduerſarie to vs: for wherewith ſhulde he obteine the fauour of his maſter? ſhulde it not be with the [c] heads of theſe men?

c Wolde not Saúl receiue him to fauour, if he colde betraye vs? Chap 18,7. & 21,11.

5 Is not this Dauid, of whome they ſang in dances, ſaying, *Saúl ſlewe his thouſand, and Dauid his ten thouſand?

6 ¶ Thē Achíſh called Dauid, & ſaid vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou haſt bene vpright and good in my ſight, when thou [d] wenteſt out and in with me in the hoſte, nether haue I founde euil with thee, ſince ỹ cameſt to me vnto this daye, but "the princes do not fauour thee.

d That is, was conuerſant ỹ me "Ebr thou art not good in the eyes of the princes.

7 Wherefore now returne, and go in peace, that thou diſpleaſe not the princes of the Philiſtíms.

8 ¶ And Dauid ſaid vnto Achíſh, But what haue I done? and what haſt thou founde in thy ſeruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may [e] not go & fight againſt the enemies of my lord the King?

e This diſſimulacion can not be excuſed: for it grieued him to go againſt ỹ people of God.

9 Achíſh thē anſwered, and ſaid to Dauid, I knowe thou pleaſeſt me, as an Angel of God:

God: but the princes of the Philiſtíms haue ſaid, Let him not go vp wt vs to battel.

10 Wherefore now riſe vp early in ỹ morning with thy [f] maſters ſeruants that are come with thee: and when ye be vp early, aſſone as ye haue light, departe.

11 So Dauid and his men roſe vp early to departe in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philiſtíms: & the Philiſtíms went vp to Izreél.

f With them that ſeed vnto euce frō Saúl.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklág. 5 Dauids two wiues are taken priſoners 6 The people wolde ſtone him. 8 He aſketh counſel of the Lord and purſuing his enemies, recouereth the praye. 24 He deuideth it equally, 26 And ſendeth parte to his friends.

1 BVt when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklág [a] the third day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklág, and had [b] ſmitten Ziklág, and burnt it with fire, a After that he departed from Achiſh.

b That is, deſtroyed ỹ citie.

2 And had taken the women that were therein priſoners, bothe ſmall and great, and ſlewe not a man, but caryed them away, and went their wayes.

3 ¶So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, and their [c] wiues, and their ſonnes, and their daughters were taken priſoners.

c For theſe onely remained in the citie, when the mē were gone to warre.

4 Then Dauid & the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntil they colde wepe nomore.

5 Dauids two wiues were taken priſoners alſo, Ahinóam the Izreélite, and Abigáil the wife of Nabál the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great ſorowe: for the people [d] entended to ſtone him, becauſe the heartes of all the people were vexed euerie mā for his ſonnes and for his daughters: but Dauid comforted him ſelfe in the Lord his God.

d Thus we ſe, ỹ in troubles & aduerſitie we do not conſider Gods prouidēce, but like raging beaſtes forget bothe our owne duetie and contēne Gods appointment ouer vs.

7 ¶And Dauid ſaid to Abiathár the Prieſt Ahimelechs ſonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephód. And Abiathár broght the Ephód to Dauid.

8 Then Dauid aſked counſel at the Lord, ſaying, Shal I followe after this companie? ſhal I ouertake them? And he anſwered him, Followe: for thou ſhalt ſurely ouertake them, and [e] recouer all.

e Thogh God ſeme to leaue vs for a time, yet if we truſt in him, we ſhal be ſure to finde comforte.

9 ¶So Dauid and the ſix hundreth mē that were with him, wēt, and came to the riuer Beſór, where a parte of them abode:

10 But Dauid and foure hundreth men followed (for two hundreth abode behinde, being to wearye to go ouer ỹ riuer Beſór)

11 And they founde an Egyptiā in the field, and broght him to Dauid, and gaue him [f] bread and he did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke.

f God by his prouidēce bothe prouided for the neceſſitie of this poore ſtrāger, and made him a guide to Dauid to accōpliſhe his enterpriſe.

12 Alſo they gaue him a fewe figs, and two cluſters of raiſins: and when he had eaten, his ſpirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor dronke anie water in thre dayes, and thre nights.

13 ¶And Dauid ſaid vnto him, To whome belongeſt thou? and whence art thou? And he ſaid, I am a yong mā of Egypt, and ſeruant to an Amalekite: and my maſter left me thre daies ago, becauſe I fel ſicke.

14 We roued vpon the South of Chéreth, & vpon the coaſt belonging to Iudáh, and vpon the South of Caléb, and we burnt Ziklág with fire.

15 And Dauid ſaid vnto him, Canſt thou bring me to this companie? And he ſaid, [g] Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt nether kil me, nor deliuer me into the [h] hands of my maſter, and I wil bring thee to this companie.

g For othes were in all ages had in moſte reuerence euen amōg the heathen

16 ¶And when he had broght him thither, beholde, they lay ſcatered abroade vpon all the earth, [h] eating and drinking, & danſing, becauſe of all ỹ great pray that thei had taken out of the land of ỹ Philiſtíms, and out of the land of Iudáh.

h The wicked in their pōpe and pleaſures conſider not ỹ iudgement of God, which is thē at hand to ſmite them.

17 And Dauid ſmote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening [i] of the next morowe, ſo that there eſcaped not a man of them, ſaue foure hundreth yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

i Some reade, & vnto ỹ morowe of ỹ two euenings: that is, thre daies.

18 And Dauid recouered all that ỹ Amalekites had takē: alſo Dauid reſcued his two wiues.

19 And thei lacked nothing, ſmall or great, ſonne or daughter, or of the ſpoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all.

20 Dauid alſo toke all the ſhepe, and the oxē, & they draue them before his cattel, and ſaid, This is Dauids [k] praye.

k Which the Amalekites had taken of others, & Dauid from thē beſides the goods of Ziklág.

21 ¶And Dauid came to the two hundreth mē that were ſo wearie for to followe Dauid: whome they had made alſo to abide at the riuer Beſór: and they came to mete Dauid, and to mete the people that were with him: ſo when Dauid came nere to the people, he ſaluted them.

22 Then anſwered all the euil and wicked of the mē that went with Dauid, and ſaid, Becauſe they went not with vs, therefore wil we giue them none of the praye, that we haue recouered, ſaue to euery man his [l] wife and his children: therefore let them cary them away and departe.

l Vnder theſe are comprehēded the cattel and goods, & apperteined to euerie man.

23 Then ſaid Dauid, Ye ſhal not do ſo, my brethren, with that which the Lord hathe giuen vs, who hathe preſerued vs, and deliuered the companie that came againſt vs, into our handes.

24 For who wil obey you in this matter? but as his parte is that goeth downe to the battel, ſo ſhal his parte be, that tarieth by the ſtuffe: they ſhal parte alike.

m Some referre theſe wordes to Dauid, that he lledged an oldecu ſtome & law, as if it were writ, It is bothe now and hathe bene euer.

25 [m] So from that day forward hee made it a ſtatute and a lawe in Iſraél, vntil this day.

26 ¶When Dauid therefore came to Ziklág, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudáh & to his friends, saying, Se, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.
27 He sent to them of Beth-él, and to them of South Ramóth, and to them of Iattír, 28 And to them of Aroér, and to them of Siphmóth, and to them of Eshtemóa, 29 And to them of Rachál, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to thē of the cities of the Kenites, 30 And to them of Hormáh, & to them of Chor-ashán, and to them of Athách, 31 And to them of Hebrón, and [n] to all the places where Dauid and his men had hanted.

n Shewing him selfe mindeful of their benefites towards him.

CHAP. XXXI.

4 Saúl killeth him selfe. 6 His children are slaine in the battel. 12 The men of Iabésh toke downe his body, which was hanged on the wall.

1 NOw * the Philistíms foght against Israél, and the men of Israél sled away from the Philistíms, & their fel downe [o] wounded in mount Gilbóa.
2 And the Philistíms preassed sore vpon Saúl and his sonnes, and slewe Ionathán, and Abinadáb, and Malchishúa Sauls sonnes.
3 And when the battel went sore against Saúl, the archers and bowemen [n] hit him, and he was sore [o] wounded of the archers.
4 Then said Saúl vnto his armour bearer, [a] Drawe out thy sworde, and thrust me through therewith, lest the vncircumcised come and thrust me through and mocke me: but his armour bearer wolde not, for he was sore afrayed. Therefore Saúl toke a sworde and fel vpon it.
5 And when his armour bearer sawe that Saúl was dead, he fel likewise vpon his sworde, and dyed with him.
6 So Saúl dyed, and his thre sonnes, and his armour bearer, and all his men that same day together.
7 ¶And when the mē of Israél that were on the otherside of the [b] valley, and they of the otherside [c] Iordén sawe that the men of Israél were put to flight, and that Saúl and his sonnes were dead, thē their left the cities, and ran away: & the Philistíms came and dwelt in them.
8 ¶And on the morowe when the Philistíms were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they founde Saúl and his thre sonnes lying in mount Gilbóa, 9 And they cut of his head, and stripped him out of his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistíms on euerie side, that they shulde [d] publish it in the temple of their idoles, and among the people.
10 And they layed vp his armour in ye house of Ashtaróth, but they hāged vp his body on the wall of Beth-shan.
11 ¶When the inhabitants of [e] Iabésh Gileád heard, what the Philistíms had done to Saúl, 12 Thē they arose (as manie as were strong men) & went all night and toke the body of Saúl, & the bodies of his sonnes, from the wall of Beth-shan, & came to Iabésh, and * burnt them there, 13 And toke their bones & * buryed thē vnder a tre at Iabésh, & [f] fasted seuen dayes.

1. Chro. 10, 1.
o Or, slaine.
n Ebr. found him
o Or, afraied.
a So we se that his cruel life hathe a desperate end, as is comonly sene in them, that persecute the children of God.
b Nere to Gilbóa.
c The tribes of Reubén and Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh d In token of victorie and triumphe.
e Whome he had deliuered from their enemies, Chap. 11, 11
Ier 34, 5.
2 Sam 2, 4.
f According to the custome of mourners.

THE SECONDE BOKE of Samuél.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis boke and the former beare the title of Samuel, because they conteine the conception, natiuitie and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and actes of two Kings, to wit, of Saúl and Dauid, whome he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first boke conteineth those things, which God broght to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel and Saúl: so this seconde boke declareth the noble actes of Dauid, after the death of Saúl, when he began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles & dangers, which he susteined bothe within his house and without: what horrible & dangerous insurrections, vprores, & treasons were wroght against him, partely by false counselers, fained friends & flatterers, and partely by some of his owne children and people and how by Gods assistance he ouercame all difficulties, and enioyed his kingdome in rest and peace. In the persone of Dauid the Scripture setteth forthe Christ Iesus the chief King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on euery side with outward and inward enemies, aswel in his owne persone, as in his members, but at length he ouercometh all his enemies and giueth his Church victorie against all power bothe spiritual & temporal: and so reigneth with them, King for euermore.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

4 It was tolde Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He cauſeth him to be ſlaine that broght the tydings 19 He lamenteth the death of Saúl and Ionathán.

1 AFter the death of Saúl, when Dauid was returned from the *ſlaughter of the Amalekites and had bene two dayes in Ziklág,

2.Sam 30,17.

2 Beholde, a man came the third day out of the hoſte from Saúl with his [a] clothes rēt, and earth vpon his head: & when he came to Dauid, he fel to the earth, and did obeiſance.

[a] Seming to lament ỹ ouerthrowe of the people of Iſrael

3 Then Dauid ſaid vnto him, Whence cōmeſt thou? And he ſaid vnto him, Out of the hoſte of Iſraél I am eſcaped.

4 And Dauid ſaid vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tel me. Thē he ſaid, ỹ the people is fled from the battel, and many of ỹ people are ouerthrowen, and dead, and alſo Saúl and Ionathán his ſonne are dead.

5 And Dauid ſaid vnto the yong man, that tolde it him, How knoweſt thou that Saúl and Ionathán his ſonne be dead?

6 Then the yong man that tolde him, anſwered, [b] As I came to mount Gilbóa, beholde, Saúl leaned vpon his ſpeare. and lo, the charets and *horſemen followed hard after him.

[b] As I fled in the chaſe

Or, captaines

7 And whē he loked backe, he ſawe me, and called me And I anſwered, Here am I.

8 And he ſaid vnto me, Who art thou? And I anſwered him, I am an [c] Amalekite.

[c] He was an Amalekite borne, but renounced his cōtrey & ioyned with the Iſraelites

9 Then ſaid he vnto me, I pray thee, come vpon me, and ſlaye me: for anguiſh is come vpon me, becauſe my [d] life is yet whole in me.

[d] I am ſory, becauſe I am yet alive.

10 So [e] I came vpon him, and ſlewe him, & becauſe I was ſure that he colde not liue, after that he had fallen, I toke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and broght thē hither vnto my lord.

[e] Ebr I ſtode vpon him

11 Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, *& rent them, and likewiſe all the men that were with him.

Chap 3,31. & 13,31.

12 And they mourned and wept, and faſted vntil euen, for Saúl and for Ionathán his ſonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the houſe of Iſraél, becauſe they were ſlaine with the ſworde.

[e] After the lamentation he examined him againe

13 ¶ [e] Afterward Dauid ſaid vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And he anſwered, I am the ſonne of a ſtrāger an Amalekite.

Pſal 105, 15.

14 And Dauid ſaid vnto him, * How waſt thou not afraied, to put forthe thine hand to deſtroy the Anoynted of the Lord?

15 Then Dauid called one of his yong mē, & ſaid, Go nere, and fall vpō him. And he ſmote him that he dyed.

16 Thē ſaid Dauid vnto him, [f] Thy blood be vpon thine owne head. for thine owne mouth hathe teſtified againſt thee, ſaying, I haue ſlaine the Lords Anointed.

[f] Thou art iuſtly punished for thy faute.

17 ¶ Then Dauid mourned with this lamētation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionatnán his ſonne, 18 (Alſo he bade them teache the children of Iudáh to [g] ſhoote, as it is written in ỹ boke of * [h] Iaſhér)

[g] That they might be able to match their enemies the Philiſtims in that arte

Ioſh 10,13.

[h] Meaning Saúl

Mich 1,10.

19 O noble Iſraél, [h] he is ſlaine vpon thy hie places: how are the mighty ouerthrowen?

[h] Or, righteous.

20 *Tel it not in Gath, nor publiſh it in the ſtretes of Aſhkelón, leſt the daughters of the Philiſtims reioyce, leſt the daughters of the vncircumciſed triumphe.

21 Ye mountaines of Gilbóa, vpon you be nether dewe nor raine, nor [i] be there fields of offrings: for there the ſhield of the mightie is caſt downe, the ſhield of Saúl, as though he had not bene anoynted with oyle.

[i] Let their fertile fieldes be baren, & bring forth no frute to offre to the Lord.

22 The bowe of Ionathán neuer turned backe, nether did the ſworde of Saúl returne empty from the blood of the ſlaine, and from the fat of the mighty.

23 Saúl and Ionathán were louely and pleaſant in their liues, and in their deathes they were not [k] deuided: they were ſwifter the negles, they were ſtrōge then lions.

[k] They dyed bothe together in Gilboa

24 Ye daughters of Iſraél, wepe for Saúl, which clothed you in ſcarlet, [l] with pleaſures, and hanged ornaments of golde vpon your apparel.

[l] As riche garments, & coſtly iewels.

25 How were the mighty ſlaine in the middes of the battel? ô Ionathán, thou waſt ſlaine in thine hie places.

26 Wo is me for thee, my brother Ionathán: very kinde haſt thou bene vnto me: thy loue to me was wonderful, paſſing ỹ loue of [m] women: how are the mighty ouerthrowen, and the weapons of warre deſtroyed?

[m] Ether toward their houſbandes, or their children

CHAP. II.

4 Dauid is anoynted King in Hebrón 9 Abnér maketh Iſh-boſheth King ouer Iſraél 15 The battel of the ſeruants of Dauid and Iſh-boſheth. 32 The buryal of Aſahél

1 AFter this Dauid [a] aſked counſel of the Lord, ſaying, Shal I go vp into anie of the cities of Iudáh? And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Go vp. And Dauid ſaid, Whither ſhal I go? He thē anſwered, Vnto [b] Hebrón.

[a] By the meanes of the hie Prieſt, as 1 Sam 23,2 & 2.Sam 5,19.

[b] Which citie was alſo called Kiriath árba, Ioſh, 14,15.

2 So Dauid went vp thither & his two wiues alſo, Ahinóam the Izreelite, and Abigáil Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And Dauid broght vp the men that were with [c] him, euerie man with his houſholde, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

[c] In the time of his perſecution.

4 ¶ Then the men of Iudáh came, and there they anoïted Dauid King ouer the houſe of Iudáh. And they tolde Dauid, ſaying, 1 Sam. 31, 12. *that the men of Iabéſh Gileád buryed Saúl.

5 And Dauid ſent meſſengers vnto the mẽ of Iabéſh Gileád, & ſaid vnto them, Bleſſed are ye of ỹ Lord, that ye haue ſhewed ſuche kindenes vnto your lord Saúl, that you haue buryed him.

6 Therefore now the Lord ſhewe mercie and [d] trueth vnto you: and I wil recompence you this benefite, becauſe ye haue done this thing.

[d] According to his promes, which is to recompẽce them that are merciful.

7 Therefore now let your hands be ſtrõg, and be you valiant: albeit your maſter Saúl be dead, yet neuertheleſſe the houſe of Iudáh hathe anointed me [e] King ouer them.

[e] So ỹ you ſhal not want a captaine & a defender.

8 ¶ But Abnér the ſonne of Ner that was captaine of Sauls hoſte, toke Iſh-bóſheth the ſonne of Saúl, and brogt him to Mahanáim, 9 And made him King ouer Gileád, and ouer the Aſhurites, and ouer Izreél, and ouer Ephráim, and ouer Beniamín, and ouer [f] all Iſraél.

[f] Ouer ỹ eleuen tribes.

10 Iſh-bóſheth Sauls ſonne was fourty yere olde when he began to reigne ouer Iſraél, and reigned two yere: but the houſe of Iudáh followed Dauid.

11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebrón ouer the houſe of Iudáh, was ſeuẽ yere and ſix [g] monethes)

[g] After this time was expired, he reigned ouer all ỹ coũtrey 33 yeres, Chap. 5, 5.

12 ¶ And Abnér the ſonne of Ner, and the ſeruants of Iſh-bóſheth the ſonne of Saúl went out of Mahanáim to Gibeón.

13 And Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh, and the ſeruants of Dauid went out and met one an other by the poole of Gibeón: and they ſate downe, the one on the one ſide of the poole, and the other on the other ſide of the poole.

14 Then Abnér ſaid to Ioáb, Let the yong men now ariſe, and [h] playe before vs. And Ioáb ſaid, Let them ariſe.

[h] Let vs ſe how they can handle their weapons.

15 Then there aroſe and went ouer twelue of Beniamín by nomber, which perteined to Iſh-bóſheth the ſonne of Saúl, and twelue of the ſeruants of Dauid.

16 And euerie one caught [i] his fellowe by the head, & thruſt his ſworde in his fellowes ſide, ſo they fel downe together: wherefore the place was called [k] Helkath-hazzurím which is in Gibeón.

[i] Meaning, his aduerſarie.

[k] Or, the field of ſtrong men.

17 And the battel was exceding ſore that ſame day: for Abnér and the men of Iſraél [k] fel before the ſeruants of Dauid.

[k] After that thefe foure & twentie were ſlaine.

18 And there were thre ſonnes of Zeruiáh there, Ioáb, and Abiſhái, and Aſahél. And Aſahél was as light on foote as a wilde roe.

19 And Aſahél followed after Abnér, & in going he turned nether to the right hand nor to the left from Abnér.

20 Then Abnér loked behinde him, & ſaid, Art thou Aſahél? And he anſwered, Yea.

21 Then Abnér ſaid, Turne thee ether to ỹ right hand or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his [l] weapons: but Aſahél wolde not depart from him.

[l] Or, ſpoile.

22 And Abnér ſaid to Aſahél, Departe frõ me: [l] wherefore ſhulde I ſmite thee to the groũde? how thẽ ſhulde I be able to holde vp my face to Ioáb thy brother?

[l] Why doeth ỹ prouoke me to kil thee?

23 And when he wolde not departe, Abnér with the hindre end of the ſpeare ſmote him vnder the [m] fift rib, that the ſpeare came out behinde him: and he fel downe there, and dyed in his place. And as manie as came to the place where Aſahél fel downe and dyed, ſtode ſtil.

[m] Some read, in thoſe partes, where as the liuely partes lye: as the heart, the lunge, ỹ liuer, the milt, and the gall.

24 Ioáb alſo and Abiſhái purſued after Abnér: and the ſunne went downe, when they were come to ỹ hil Ammáh, that lieth before Gíah, by the way of the wildernes of Gibeón.

25 And the children of Beniamín gathered them ſelues together after Abnér, & were on an heape and ſtode on the top of an hil.

26 Then Abnér called to Ioáb, and ſaid, Shal the [n] ſworde deuoure for euer? knoweſt thou not, that it wil be bitternes in the latter end? how long thẽ ſhal it be, or thou bid the people returne frõ following their brethren?

[n] Shal we not make an end of murthering?

27 And Ioáb ſaid, As God liueth, if thou haddeſt not [o] ſpoken, ſurely euen in the morning the people had departed euerie one backe from his brother.

[o] If ỹ haddeſt not prouoked thẽ to battel, as verſ 14.

28 ¶ So Ioáb blewe a trumpet, and all the people ſtode ſtil, and purſued after Iſraél nomore, nether foght they anie more.

29 And Abnér and his men walked all that night through the [o] plaine, & wẽt ouer Iordén, & paſt through all Bithrón til they came [o] to Mahanáim.

[o] Or, wildernes.

[o] Or, to the tẽte.

30 Ioáb alſo returned backe from Abnér: & whẽ he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids ſeruants nine-tene men and Aſahél.

31 But the ſeruãts of Dauid had ſmitten of Beniamín, and of Abners men, ſo that thre [p] hundreth and threſcore men dyed.

[p] Thus God wolde confirme Dauid in his kingdome by the deſtruction of his aduerſaries.

32 And they toke vp Aſahél, and buryed hĩ in the ſepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-léhem: and Ioáb and his men wẽt all night, and when they came to Hebrón, the daie aroſe.

CHAP. III.

1 Long warre betwene the houſes of Saúl and Dauid. 2 The children of Dauid in Hebrón. 12 Abnér turneth to Dauid. 27 Ioáb killeth him.

1 THere was then [a] long warre betwene the houſe of Saúl and the houſe of Dauid:

[a] That is, without termiſsiõ, induring two yeres, which was the whole reigne of Iſh-bóſheth.

Dauid: but Dauid waxed ſtronger, & the houſe of Saúl waxed weaker.

2 ¶And vnto Dauid were children borne in Hebrón: and his eldeſt ſonne was Amnón of Ahinóam the Izreelite, b Who is called alſo Daniel, 1. Chro 3, 1.

3 And his ſecõde, was b Chileáb of Abigáil the wife of Nabál the Carmelite: and the third, Abſalóm the ſonne of Maacáh the daughter of Talmái the King of Geſhúr,

4 And the fourth, Adoniiáh the ſonne of Aggíth, and the fifth, Shephatiáh the ſonne of Abitál,

5 And the ſixt, Ithreám by Egláh Dauids wife: theſe were borne to Dauid in c Hebrón.

c Within ſeuẽ yeres and ſix moneths.

6 ¶Now while there was warre betwene the houſe of Saúl and the houſe of Dauid, Abnér made all his power for ỹ houſe of Saúl.

7 And Saúl had a concubine named Rizpáh, the daughter of Aiiáh. And Iſh-bóſheth ſaid to Abner, Wherefore haſt thou gone in to my fathers concubine?

8 Thẽ was Abnér very wrothe for the wordes of Iſh-bóſheth, & ſaid, Am I a d dogs head, which againſt Iudáh do ſhewe mercy this day vnto the houſe of Saúl thy father, to his brethren, & to his neighbours, and haue not deliuered thee into the hand of Dauid, that thou chargeſt me this day with a faute concerning this woman?

d Doeſt thou eſteme me no more then a dog, for all my ſeruice done to thy fathers houſe?

9 e So do God to Abnér, and more alſo, except, as the Lord hathe ſworne to Dauid, euen ſo I do to him, e We ſe how the wicked cã not abide to be admoniſhed of their faultes, but ſeke their diſpleaſure, ẅ go about to bring them frõ their wickednes.

10 To remoue the kingdome frõ the houſe of Saúl, that the throne of Dauid may be ſtabliſhed ouer Iſraél, and ouer Iudáh, euen from Dan to Beer ſhéba.

11 And he durſt nomore anſwer to Abnér: for he feared him.

12 ¶Then Abnér ſent meſſengers to Dauid f on his behalfe, ſaying, Whoſe is the land? Who ſhulde alſo ſay, Make couenant with me, & beholde, mine hand ſhalbe with thee, to bring all Iſraél vnto thee.

f Or, ſecretly.

13 Who ſaid, Wel, I wil make a couenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that ỹ ſe not my face except thou bring Michál Sauls daughter when thou commeſt to ſe me.

14 ¶Then Dauid ſent meſſengers to Iſh-bóſheth Sauls ſonne, ſaying, Deliuer me my wife Michál, which I maried for * an hundreth foreſkinnes of the Philiſtims.

*1. Sam. 18, 27.

15 And Iſh-bóſheth ſent, and toke her from her houſbãd * Phaltiél the ſonne of Láiſh.

*1. Sam. 25, 44.

16 And her houſband went with her, and came weping behinde her, vnto Bahurím: then ſaid Abnér vnto him, Go, & returne. So he returned.

f Rather for malice that he bare towarde Iſh-bóſheth, then for loue he bare to Dauid.

17 ¶And Abnér had f communicaciõ with the Elders of Iſraél, ſaying, Ye ſoght for Dauid in times paſt, that he might be your King.

18 Now then do it: for the Lord hathe ſpoken of Dauid, ſaying, By the hand of my ſeruant Dauid I wil ſaue my people Iſraél out of the hands of the Philiſtims, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 Alſo Abnér ſpake "to Beniamín, and afterward Abnér went to ſpeake with Dauid in Hebrón, concerning all that Iſraél was content with, and the whole g houſe of Beniamín.

"Ebr. in the eares of Beniamin g Who chalẽged the kingdome, becauſe of their father Saúl.

20 So Abnér came to Dauid to Hebrón, hauing twenty men with him, and Dauid made a feaſt vnto Abnér, and to the men that were with him.

21 Then Abnér ſaid vnto Dauid, I wil ariſe vp, and go gather all Iſraél vnto my lord ỹ King, that they may make a couenãt with thee, & that thou maieſt reigne ouer all that thine heart deſireth. Then Dauid let Abnér departe, who went *in peace.

*Or, without harme

22 ¶ And beholde, the ſeruants of Dauid and Ioáb came h from the cãpe, & broght a great pray with them (but Abnér was not with Dauid in Hebrón for he had ſẽt him away, and he departed in peace)

h From warre againſt the Philiſtims.

23 When Ioáb, and all the hoſte that was with him were come, men tolde Ioáb, ſaying, Abnér the ſonne of Ner came to the King, and he hathe ſent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Ioáb came to the King, and ſaid, i What haſt thou done? beholde, Abnér came vnto thee, why haſt thou ſent him away, and he is departed?

i Here appeareth the malicious mide of Ioáb, who wolde haue had the King to ſlay Abnér for his priuate grudge.

25 Thou knoweſt Abnér the ſõne of Ner: for he came to diſceiue thee, & to knowe thy outgoing and ingoing, and to knowe all that thou doeſt.

26 ¶And when Ioáb was gone out frõ Dauid, he ſent meſſẽgers after Abnér, which broght him againe frõ the well of Siriáh vnknowing to Dauid.

27 And when Abnér was come againe to Hebrón, * Ioáb toke him aſide in the gate to ſpeake with him *peaceably, and ſmote him vnder the fifth ry', that he dyed, for the blood of * Aſahél his brother.

* 1 King. 2, 5.
*Or, ſecretly
*Chap 2, 23.

28 ¶And when afterward it came to Dauids eare, he ſaid, I and my kingdome are k giltles before the Lord for euer, cõcerning the blood of Abnér the ſonne of Ner.

k The Lord knoweth that I did not conſent to his death

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Ioáb, and on all his fathers houſe, that the houſe of Ioáb be neuer without ſome ỹ haue running yſſues, or lepre, or that leaneth on a ſtaffe, or that doeth fall on the ſworde, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Ioáb and l Abiſhái his brother ſlewe Abnér, becauſe he had ſlayne their brother Aſahél at Gibeón in battel) l Abiſhai is ſaid to ſlay hi ẅ Ioáb, becauſe he cõſented to ỹ murther.

31 And Dauid ſaid to Ioáb, and to all the people that were with him, Rét your clothes, and put on ſackecloth, and mourne m before Abnér: and King Dauid him ſelf followed the beare.

m Meaning, before ỹ corps.

32 And when thei had buryed Abnér in Hebrón, the King lift vp his voyce, & wept beſide the ſepulchre of Abnér, and all the people wept.

33 And the King lamented ouer Abnér, and n ſaid, Dyed Abnér as a foole dyeth?

n Iſh declareth that Abnér dyed not as a wretch or vile perſone, but as a valiant man might do, beig traiterouſly deceiued by ỹ wicked

34 Thine hands were not bounde, nor thy feete tyed in fetters of braſſe: but as a mã falleth before wicked men, ſo dideſt thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

35 Afterwarde all the people came to cauſe Dauid eat o meat while it was yet day, but Dauid ſware, ſaying, So do God to me & more alſo, if I taſte bread, or oght els til the ſunne be downe.

o According to their cuſtome, which was to banket at buryals p It is expedient ſometime not onely to conceiue inwarde ſorrow, but alſo that it may appeare to others to the intent that they may be ſatiſfied.

36 And all the people knewe it, & it p pleaſed them: as whatſoeuer the King did, pleaſed all the people.

37 For all the people and all Iſraél vnderſtode that day, how that it was not the Kings dede that Abnér the ſonne of Ner was ſlayne.

38 And the King ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Knowe ye not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Iſraél?

39 And I am this day weake and newely anointed King: and theſe men the ſonnes of Zeruiáh be to q hard for me: ỹ Lord reward the doer of euil according to his wickednes.

q Or, cruel.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Baanáh and Rechab ſlaye Iſh-bóſheth the ſonne of Saúl. 12 Dauid commandeth them to be ſlayne.

1 AND whẽ Sauls a ſonne heard ỹ Abnér was dead in Hebrón, then his hands were b feble, and all Iſraél was afrayed, a That is, Iſh bóſheth

b Meaning, ỹ he was diſcouraged.

2 And Sauls ſonne had two men that were captaines of bands: the one called Baanáh, and the other called Rechab, the ſonnes of Rimmón a Beerothite of the children of Beniamín. (for c Beeróth was reckened to Beniamín, c The citie Beeróth was in the tribe of Beniamin, Ioſh 18,25

3 Becauſe the Beerothites fled to d Gittáim, and ſoiourned there, vnto this day)

d After the death of Saúl, for feare of ỹ Philiſtims.

4 And Ionathán Sauls ſonne had a ſonne that was lame on his feete: he was fiue yere olde when the tidings came of Saúl and Ionathán out of Iſraél: then his nourſe toke him, and fled away. And as ſhe made haſte to flee, the childe fell, and began to halt, and his name was Mephibóſheth.

5 And the ſonnes of Rimmón the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanáh went and came in the heate of the day to the houſe of Iſh-bóſheth (who ſlept on a bed at noone)

6 And beholde, Rechab and Baanáh his brother came into the middes of the houſe, as they e wolde haue wheat, and they f ſmote him vnder the fift rib, and fled.

e Thei diſguiſed thẽ ſelues as marchants, which came to bye wheat.

f There is nothing ſo vile & dangerous, ỹ wicked will not enterpriſe in hope of lucre & fauour.

7 For when they came into the houſe, he ſlept on his bed in his bedchamber, and they ſmote him, and ſlewe him, and beheaded him, and toke his head, and gate them away through the g plaine all the night.

g Or, wildernes.

8 And thei broght the head of Iſh bóſheth vnto Dauid to Hebrón, and ſaid to the King, Beholde the head of Iſh bóſheth Sauls ſonne thine enemie, who ſoght after thy life: and the Lord hathe auenged my lord the King this day of Saúl and of his ſeed.

9 Then Dauid anſwered Rechab and Baanáh his brother, the ſonnes of Rimmón the Beerothite, and ſaid vnto them, As the Lord liueth, who hathe deliuered my ſoule out of all aduerſitie,

10 When one * tolde me, and ſaid that Saúl was dead, (thinking to haue broght good tidings) I toke him and ſlewe him in Ziklág, who thoght that I wolde haue giuen him a reward for his tidings:

Chap.1,15.

11 How h muche more, when wicked men haue ſlayne a righteous perſone in his owne houſe, & vpon his bed? ſhal I not now therefore require his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth?

h Forasmuche as nether the exãple of him that ſlew Saúl, nor duetie to their maſters, nor ỹ innocencie of the perſone, nor reuerence of the place, nor time did moue thẽ, they deſerued moſt grieuous puniſhment.

12 Then Dauid commanded his yong men, and they ſlewe thẽ, and cut of their hands and their feete, & hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebrón: but they toke the head of Iſh-bóſheth, and buryed it in the ſepulchre of * Abnér in Hebrón.

Chap.3,32.

CHAP. V.

1 Dauid is made King ouer all Iſraél. 7 He taketh the forte of Zion. 19 He aſketh counſel of the Lord, 20 And ouercometh the Philiſtims twiſe.

1 THen * came all the tribes of Iſraél to Dauid vnto Hebrón, & ſaid thus, Beholde, we are thy a bones and thy fleſh.

1.Chro.11,1.

a We are of thy kinred, & moſt nere ioyned vnto thee.

2 And in time paſt when Saúl was our King, thou leddeſt Iſraél in and out: and the Lord hathe ſaid to thee, * Thou ſhalt feede my people Iſraél, and thou ſhalt be a captaine ouer Iſraél.

Pſal 78,71.

3 So all the Elders of Iſraél came to the King to Hebrón: and King Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebrón b before the Lord: and they anointed Dauid King ouer Iſraél.

b That is, taking the Lord to witnes: the Arke was as yet in Abinadabs houſe.

4 ¶ Dauid was thirty yere olde when he began to reigne: and he reigned fourty yere.

5 In Hebrón he reigned ouer Iudáh * ſeuẽ yere, and ſix moneths: and in Ieruſalém he reigned thirty and thre yeres ouer all Iſraél and Iudáh.

Chap 2,11.

6 ¶ The King alſo and his men went to Ieruſalém vnto the Iebuſites, ỹ inhabitãts of of the land: who ſpake vnto Dauid, ſaying, Except thou take away the [c] blinde and the lame, thou ſhalt not come in hither: thinking ỹ Dauid colde not come thither.

7 But Dauid toke the forte of Zión: this is the citie of Dauid.

8 Now Dauid had ſaid ỹ ſame day, Whoſoeuer ſmiteth the Iebuſites, & getteth vp to the gutters & ſmiteth the lame & blinde, which Dauids ſoule hateth, I wil preferre him: * therefore they ſaid, The blinde and the lame ſhal not [d] come into that houſe.

9 So Dauid dwelt in that fórte, and called it the citie of Dauid, and Dauid buylt roũd about it, from [e] Milló, and inwarde.

10 And Dauid proſpered and grewe: for the Lord God of hoſtes was with him.

11 ¶Hirám alſó King of "Tyrus ſent meſſẽgers to Dauid, and cedar trees, and carpẽters, and maſons for walles: and they buylt Dauid an houſe.

12 Then Dauid knewe, that the Lord had ſtabliſhed him King ouer Iſraél, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Iſraels ſake.

13 And Dauid toke him mo * concubines & wiues out of Ieruſalém, after he was come from Hebrón; and mo ſonnes and daughters were borne to Dauid.

14 *And theſe be the names of the ſonnes that were borne vnto him in Ieruſalém: Sammúa, and Shobáb, and Náthán, and Sólomón,

15 And Ibhár, and Eliſhúa; and Népheg, and Iaphía, 16 And Eliſhamá; & Eliadá, and Eliphálet.

17 ¶*But when the Philiſtíms heard that they had anointed Dauid King ouer Iſraél, all the Philiſtíms came vp to ſeke Dauid: and when Dauid heard, he wẽt downe to a forte.

18 But the Philiſtíms came, and ſpred them ſelues in the valley of Rephaím.

19 Then Dauid [f] aſked coũſel of the Lord, ſaying, Shal I go vp to the Philiſtíms? wilt thou deliuer them into mine hands? And the Lord anſwered Dauid, Go vp: for I wil doutles deliuer the Philiſtíms into thine hands.

20 ¶*Then Dauid came to Baal perazím, and ſmote them there, & ſaid, The Lord hathe deuided mine enemies aſondre before me, as waters be deuided aſondre: therefore he called the name of that place, "Baal-perazím."

21 And there they left their images, & Dauid and his men * burnt them.

22 Againe the Philiſtíms came vp, & ſpred them ſelues in the valley of [g] Rephaím.

23 And when Dauid aſked counſel of the Lord, He anſwered, Thou ſhalt not go vp, but turne about behinde thẽ, & come vpon them ouer againſt the mulbery trees.

24 And whẽ thou heareſt the noyſe of one going in the toppes of the mulbery trees, then remoue: for then ſhal the Lord go out before thee, to ſmite the hoſte of the Philiſtims.

25 Then Dauid did ſo as the Lord had cõmanded him, and ſmote the Philiſtims frõ Géba, vntil thou come to [h] Gázer.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Arke is broght forthe of the houſe of Abinadáb 7 Vzzah is ſtriken, & dyeth. 14 Dauid dãceth before it. 16 And is therefore deſpiſed of his wife Michal.

1 AGaine Dauid gathered together all the [e] choſen men of Iſraél, euen thirtie thouſand,

2 *And Dauid aroſe & went wt all the people that were with him [a] frõ Baalé of Iudáh to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whoſe name is called by the Name of the Lord of hoſtes, that dwelleth vpon it betwene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Arke of God vpon a newe carte, and broght it out of the houſe of Abinadáb that was in [b] Gibeáh. And Vzzáh and Ahió the ſonnes of Abinadáb did driue the newe carte.

4 And when they broght the Arke of God out of the houſe of *Abinadáb, that was at Gibeáh, Ahió went before the Arke,

5 And Dauid and all the houſe of Iſraél [c] played before the Lord on all inſtruments made of firre, and on harpes, and on pſalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶*And whẽ they came to Nachons threſhíng floore, Vzzáh put his hãd to the Arke of God, & helde it: for ỹ oxẽ did ſhake it.

7 And the Lord was very wrothe wt Vzzáh, & God [d] ſmote him in ỹ ſame place for his faute, & there he dyed by ỹ Arke of God.

8 And Dauid was diſpleaſed, becauſe the Lord had " ſmitten Vzzáh: and he called the name of the place "Pérez Vzzáh vntil this day.

9 Therefore Dauid that day feared the Lord, and ſaid, How ſhal the Arke of the Lord come to me?

10 So Dauid wolde not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the citie of Dauid, but Dauid caryed it into the houſe of Obed-edóm [e] a Gittite.

11 And the Arke of the Lord continued in the houſe of Obed-edóm the Gittite, three moneths, and the Lord bleſſed Obed-edóm, and all his houſholde.

12 ¶And one tolde King Dauid, ſaying, *The Lord hathe bleſſed the houſe of Obed-edóm, and all that he hathe, becauſe of the Arke of God: therefore Dauid went and [f] broght the Arke of God from the houſe of Obed-edóm, into the citie of Dauid with gladnes.

13 And when they that bare the Arke of the c The childrẽ of God called idoles blinde and lame guides: therefore the Iebuſites ment, that their ſhulde proue that their gods were nether blinde nor lame

1 Chro. 11, 6.

d The idoles ſhulde entre no more into that place

e He buylt from the towne houſe rounde about to his owne houſe, 1. Chro 11, 8

"Ebr Tzr

1 Chro. 3, 9.

2. Chro 3, 5.

2. Chro 14, 8. & 11, 16.

f By Abiathár the Prieſt.

Iſa. 28, 21.

"Or the plaine of diuiſion

1 Chro. 14, 12.

g Meaning, the valley of gyants, which Dauid called Baal perazim becauſe of his victorie h Which was in the tribe of Beniamin, but the Philiſtims did poſſeſſe it.

"Or, chief.

1 Chro. 13, 5.

a This was a citie in Iudáh called alſo Kiriath iearim, Ioſh 15, 9.

b Which was an hie place of the citie of Baalé.

1. Sam 7, 2.

c Praiſed God, and ſang pſalmes

1 Chro. 13, 10.

d Here we ſe what danger it is to followe good intentiõs, or to do anie thing in Gods ſeruice without his expreſſe worde.

"Ebr made a breache

"Or the diuiſion of Vzzáh.

e Who was a Leuite, & had dwelt in Gitthaim, 1 Chro. 15, 21

1 Chro 15, 25.

f Meaning, he cauſed ỹ Leuites to beare it, according to the Lawe.

Lord had gone ſix ſpaces, he offred an oxe, and a fat beaſt.

14 And Dauid dáced before the Lord with all his might, and was girded with a linen g Ephód.

g With a garment like to ỹ Prieſts garmẽt.

15 So Dauid and all the houſe of Iſraél, broght the Arke of the Lord with ſhowting, and ſounde of trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michál Sauls daughter loked through a windowe, and ſawe King Dauid leape, and dance before the Lord, and ſhe h deſpiſed him in her heart.

h The worldlings are not able to cõprehend the motions that moue the childrẽ of God

17 And when they had broght in the Arke of the Lord, they ſet it in his place, in the middes of the tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: thẽ Dauid offred burnt offrings, & peace offrings before the Lord.

18 And aſſone as Dauid had made an end of offring burnt offrings & peace offrings, he * bleſſed the people in the Name of the Lord of hoſtes,

*1. Chro. 16, 2.

19 And gaue among all the people, euen among the whole multitude of Iſraél, aſwel to the women as men, to euerie one a cake of bread, and a piece of fleſh, and a bottel of wine: ſo all the people departed euerie one to his houſe.

i That is, to pray for his houſe, as he had done for the people.

20 ¶Then Dauid returned to i bleſſe his houſe, and Michál the daughter of Saúl came out to mete Dauid, and ſaid, O how glorious was the King of Iſraél this day, which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his ſeruants, as a foole vncouereth him ſelfe.

k It was for no worldely affection; but onely for that zeale that I bare to Gods glorie.

21 Then Dauid ſaid vnto Michál, k It was before the Lord, which choſe me rather then thy father, and all his houſe, and cõmanded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, euen ouer Iſraél: and therefore wil I play before the Lord, 22 And wil yet be more vile then thus, and wil be lowe in mine owne ſight, and of the very ſame maidſeruants, which thou haſt ſpoken of, ſhal I be had in honour.

l Which was a puniſhment, becauſe ſhe mocked ỹ ſeruant of God.

23 Therefore Michál the daughter of Saúl had l no childe, vnto the day of her death.

CHAP. VII.

Dauid wolde buylde God an houſe, but is forbidden by the Prophet Nathan: God putteth Dauid in minde of his benefites: 12 He promiſeth continuance of his kingdome and poſteritie.

*1. Chro. 17, 2.

1 AFterwarde * whẽ the King ſate in his houſe and the Lord had giuen him reſt round about from all his enemies,

2 The King ſaid vnto Nathán the Prophet, Beholde, now I dwel in an houſe of cedar trees, and the Arke of God remaineth within the a curtaines.

a Within the Tabernacle couered w̃ ſkinnes. Exo 26, 7.

3 Then Nathán ſaid vnto the King, Go, and do all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 ¶And the ſame night the worde of the Lord came vnto Nathán, ſaying, 5 Go, and tel my ſeruãt Dauid, Thus ſaieth the Lord, b Shalt thou buyld me an houſe for my dwelling?

b Meaning, he ſhulde not: yet Nathán ſpeaking accordíg to más iudgement and not by the Spirit of prophecie, permitted him.

6 For I haue dwelt in no houſe ſince the time that I broght the children of Iſraél out of Egypt vnto this day, but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I haue walked with all the children of Iſraél, ſpake I one worde with anie of the tribes of c Iſraél when I commanded the iudges to fede my people Iſraél, & ſaid I, Why buyld ye not me an houſe of cedar trees?

c As concerning the buylding of an houſe: meanig that without Gods expreſſe worde nothing ought to be attempted 1 Sam 16, 12. Pſal. 78, 70.

8 Now therefore ſo ſay vnto my ſeruant Dauid, Thus ſayeth the Lord of hoſtes, * I toke thee from the ſhepecote following the ſhepe, that thou mighteſt be ruler ouer my people, ouer Iſraél.

9 And I was with thee whereſoeuer thou haſt walked, and haue deſtroyed all thine enemies out of thy ſight, and haue made thee a d great name, lyke vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

d I haue made thee famous through all ỹ worlde

10 (Alſo I wil appoint a place for my people Iſraél, and wil plant it, that they may dwel in a place of their owne, and moue e no more, nether ſhal wicked people trouble them anie more as before time, e He promiſeth thẽ quietnes, if they wil walke in his feare and obedience.

11 And ſince the time that I ſet iudges ouer my people of Iſraél) and I wil giue thee reſt from all thine enemies: alſo the Lord telleth thee, ỹ he wil make thee an houſe.

12 * And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou ſhalt ſlepe with thy fathers, & I wil ſet vp thy ſeede after thee, which ſhal procede out of thy body, and wil ſtabliſh his kingdome.

*1. King. 8, 20.

13 * He ſhal buyld an houſe for my Name, and I wil ſtabliſh the throne of his kingdome for euer.

* 1 King 5, 5. & 6, 12 1 chro 22, 10.

14 * I wil be his father, & he ſhalbe my ſonne: & * if he ſinne, I wil chaſten him with the f rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

* Ebr 1, 5. Pſal 89, 27.

f That is, gentely, as fathers vſe to chaſtice their childrẽ.

15 But my mercy ſhal not departe away frõ him, as I toke it from Saúl whome I haue put away before thee.

16 And thine houſe ſhalbe ſtabliſhed and thy kingdome for euer before thee, euen thy throne ſhalbe g ſtabliſhed for euer.

g This was begon in Salomõ as a figure, but accõpliſhed in Chriſt.

17 According to all theſe wordes, and according to all this viſion, Nathán ſpake thus vnto Dauid.

18 Then King Dauid went in, and ſate before the Lord, & ſaid, Who am I, ô Lord God, and what is mine houſe, that thou haſt broght me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a ſmall thing in thy ſight, ô Lord God, therefore thou haſt ſpokẽ alſo of thy ſeruãts houſe for a great while: but " doeth this appertein to h mã, ô Lord God?

" Ebr is this the lawe of man?

h Cometh not this rather of thy tre mercie, then of anie worthines that can be in man?

20 And

20 And what can Dauid ſay more vnto thee? for thou, Lord God, knoweſt thy ſeruant.
21 For thy wordes ſake, and according to thine owne heart haſt thou done all theſe great things, to make them knowen vnto thy ſeruant.
22 Wherefore thou art great, ô Lord God: for there is none like thee, nether is there anie god beſides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.
Deu. 4,7. 23 *And what one people in ỹ earth is like thy people, like Iſraél? whoſe God went & redemed thé to him ſelfe, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, & do for [i] you great things, and terrible for thy [k] lád, ô Lord, euen for thy people, whome thou redemeſt to thee out of Egypt, from the [l] nacions, and their gods?
24 For thou haſt [m] ordeined thy people Iſraél to be thy people for euer: and thou Lord art become their God.
25 Now therefore, ô Lord God, confirme for euer the worde that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſeruant and his houſe, and do as thou haſt ſaid.
26 And let thy Name be magnified for euer by them that ſhal ſay, The Lord of hoſtes is the God ouer Iſraél: and let the [n] houſe of thy ſeruant Dauid be ſtabliſhed before thee.
27 For thou, ô Lord of hoſtes, God of Iſraél, haſt reueiled vnto thy ſeruant, ſaying, I wil buyld thee an houſe: therefore hathe thy ſeruant "bene bolde to pray this praier vnto thee.
28 Therefore now, ô Lord God, (for thou art God, and thy wordes be true, and thou haſt tolde this goodnes vnto thy ſeruãt)
29 Therefore now let it pleaſe thee to bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruant, that it may cõtinue for euer before thee: for thou, ô Lord God, haſt [o] ſpoken it: and let the houſe of thy ſeruant be bleſſed for euer, with thy bleſſing.

i O Iſraél
k And inheritance, which is Iſraél.
l From the Egiptians and their idoles m He ſheweth that Gods free election is the onely cauſe, why the Iſraelites were choſen to be his people n This praier is moſte effectual, whẽ we chiefly ſeke Gods glorie, and the accõpliſhment of his promes
"Ebr founde his heart diſpoſed
o Therefore I firmely beleue it ſhal come to paſſe.

CHAP. VIII.

Dauid ouercommeth the Philiſtims, and other ſtrange nacions, and maketh them tributaries to Iſraél.

1 Chro. 18,1. pſal 60,2. 1 AFter this now, Dauid ſmote the Philiſtims, and ſubdued them, & Dauid toke "the bridle of bondage out of [a] the hand of the Philiſtims.
2 And he ſmote Moáb, and meaſured them with a corde, and caſt them downe to the ground: he meaſured them with [b] two cordes to put them to death, & with one ful corde to kepe them aliue: ſo became the Moabites Dauids ſeruants, and broght gifts.
3 ¶Dauid ſmote alſo Hadadézer the ſonne of Rehób King of Zobáh as he went to "recouer his border at ỹ riuer "Euphrátes.
4 And Dauid toke a thouſand and ſeuen hundreth horſemen, and twẽtie thouſand fotemen, and "deſtroyed all the charets, but he reſerued an hundreth charets of them
5 ¶Then came "the Aramites of "Dam méſek to ſuccour Hadadézer King of Zobáh, but Dauid ſlewe of the Aramites two and twentie thouſand men.
6 And he put a gariſon in Arám of Dámeſek: and the Aramites became ſeruants to Dauid, [d] and broght giftes. And the Lord ſaued Dauid whereſoeuer he went.
7 And Dauid toke the ſhields of golde that belonged to the ſeruants of Hadadézer, and broght them to [e] Ieruſalém.
8 And out of Bétah, and Berothái (cities of Hadadézer) Dauid broght exceding muche braſſe.
9 ¶Then Tói King of Hamáth heard how Dauid had ſmitten all the hoſte of Hadadézer, 10 Therefore Tói ſent Iorám his ſonne vnto King Dauid, "to ſalute him, and to "[f] reioyce with him becauſe he had foght againſt Hadadézer, and beaten him (for Hadadézer had warre with Tói) who "broght with him veſſels of ſiluer, and veſſels of golde & veſſels of braſſe.
11 And King Dauid did dedicate them vnto the Lord with the ſiluer and golde that he had dedicate of all the nacions, which he had ſubdued:
12 Of "Arám, & of Moáb, and of the children of Ammón, & of the Philiſtims, and of Amalék, and of the ſpoyle of Hadadézer the ſonne of Rehób King of Zobáh.
13 So Dauid gate a name after that he returned, and had ſlaine of the Aramites in the "valley of ſalt eightene thouſand men.
14 And he put a gariſon in Edóm: throughout all Edóm put he ſoldiers, and all they of Edóm became Dauids ſeruants: and ỹ Lord kept Dauid "whether ſoeuer he wẽt.
15 Thus Dauid reigned ouer all Iſraél, and executed [g] iudgement and iuſtice vnto all his people.
16 And Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh was ouer the hoſte, and Ioſhaphát the ſonne of Ahilúd was "recorder.
17 And Zadók the ſonne of Ahitúb, and Ahimélech the ſonne of Abiathár were ỹ Prieſts, and Seraiáh the ſcribe.
18 And Benaiahú the ſonne of Iehoiadá "& the [h] Cherethites & the Pelethites, & Dauids ſonnes were chief rulers.

Or, hoght the horſes of the charets
Or, the Syriãs. Ur, of Damaſcus that is, which dwelt nere Damaſcus.
c In that part of Syria, where Damaſcus was.
d They payed yerely triboute.
e For the vſe of the tẽple.
Or, Aaniochia.
"Ebr. to aſke peace
"Ebr bleſſe him
f For ſeing Dauid victorious, he was glad to intreat of peace
"Ebr. ca hu hãd
Or Syria, or Caloſyria.
Or, in Ge-mẽ-lah
Or, in all his enterpriſes
g He gaue iudgement in controuerſies, and was merciful towarde the people Or, writer of Chronicles.
Or, was ouer the Cherethites h The Cherethites & Pelethites were as the Kigs garde, and had charge of his perſone

CHAP. IX.

Dauid reſtoreth all the landes of Saúl to Miphibóſheth the ſonne of Ionathán. 10 He appointeth Ziba to ſe to the profit of his landes.

9 AND Dauid ſaid, Is there yet any man leſt of the houſe of Saúl, that I may ſhewe him mercy for [a] Ionathans ſak?
2 And there was of the houſholde of Saúl a Becauſe of mine oth and promes made to Ionathan. 1 Sam 20,15 a ſeruant whoſe name was Zibá, & when they had called him vnto Dauid, ỹ King ſaid vnto him, Art thou Zibá? And he ſaid, I thy ſeruant am he.

3 Then the King ſaid, Remaineth there yet none of the houſe of Saúl, on whome I may ſhewe the [b] mercy of God? Zibá then anſwered the King, Ionathán hathe yet a ſonne * lame of his feete.

[b] Suche mercie, as ſhal be acceptable to God

Cpab 4.4.

4 Then the King ſaid vnto him, Where is he? And Zibá ſaid vnto ỹ King, Beholde, he is in the houſe of Machír the ſonne of Ammiél of Lo-debár.

5 ¶Then King Dauid ſent, and toke him out of the houſe of Machír the ſonne of [c] Ammiél of Lo-debár.

[c] Who was alſo called Eliám, ỹ father of Bath ſheba Dauids wife

6 Now when Mephibóſheth the ſonne of Ionathán, the ſonne of Saúl was come vnto Dauid, he fell on his face, and did reuerence. And Dauid ſaid, Mephibóſheth? And he anſwered, Beholde thy ſeruant.

7 Then Dauid ſaid vnto him, Feare not: for I wil ſurely ſhewe thee kindenes for Ionathán thy fathers ſake, and wil reſtore thee all the [e] fields of Saúl thy father, and thou ſhalt eat bread at my table continually.

[e] Or, lands.

8 And he bowed him ſelfe, and ſaid, What is thy ſeruãt, that thou ſhuldeſt loke vpon ſuche [d] a dead dog as I am?

[d] Meaning, a deſpiſed perſone.

9 Then the King called Zibá Sauls ſeruãt, and ſaid vnto him, I haue giuen vnto thy maſters [e] ſonne all that perteined to Saúl and to all his houſe.

[e] Or, nephewe.

10 Thou ther fore and [e] thy ſonnes, and thy ſeruants ſhal till the land for him, and bring in that thy maſters ſonne may haue foode to eat. And Mephibóſheth thy maſters ſonne ſhal eat bread alway at my table (now Zibá had fiftene ſonnes, and twentie ſeruants)

[e] Be ye prouident ouerſeers and gouerners of his lãds that they may be profitable.

11 Then ſaid Zibá vnto the King, According to all ỹ my lord the King hathe commanded his ſeruant, ſo ſhal thy ſeruãt do, [f] that Mephibóſheth may eat at my table, as one of the Kings ſonnes.

[f] That Mephibóſheth may haue all things at commandement as becõmeth a Kings ſonne.

12 Mephibóſheth alſo had a yõg ſonne named Michá, & all that dwelled in ỹ houſe of Zibá, were ſeruants vnto Mephibóſheth.

13 And Mephibóſheth dwelt in Ieruſalém: for he did eat cõtinually at the Kings table, and was lame on bothe his feete.

CHAP. X.

4 The meſſengers of Dauid are vilainouſly entreated of the King of Ammón. 7 Ioáb is ſent againſt the Ammonites.

3.Chro.19.2. 1 After this, the * King of the children of Ammón dyed, & Hanún his ſonne reigned in his ſtede.

2 Then ſaid Dauid, I wil ſhewe kindenes vnto Hanún the ſonne of Nahásh, as his father [a] ſhewed kindenes vnto me. And Dauid ſent his ſeruãts to cõfo te him for his father. So Dauids ſeruants came into the land of the children of Ammón.

[a] The children of God are not vnmindeful of a benefit receiued

3 And the princes of the children of Ammón ſaid vnto Hanún their lord, "Thinkeſt thou ỹ Dauid doeth honour thy father, that he hathe ſent comforters to thee? hathe not Dauid rather ſent his ſeruants vnto thee, [b] to ſearche the citie, and to ſpie it out, and to ouerthrowe it?

"Ebr. In their eyes doth Dauid

[b] Their arrogant malice wolde not ſuffer them to ſe the ſimplicitie of Dauids heart: therefore their counſel turned to the deſtruction of their cõtrey.

4 Wherefore Hanún toke Dauids ſeruants, and ſhaued of the halfe of their bearde, & cut of their garments in the middle, euen to their buttockes, and ſent them away.

5 ¶When it was tolde vnto Dauid, he ſent to mete them (for the men were exceedigly aſhamed) and the King ſaid, Tarie at Ierichó, vntil) our beardes be growen, then retu rne.

6 ¶And when the children of Ammón ſawe that they [c] ſtanke in the ſight of Dauid, the children of Ammón ſent and hired the [d] Aramites of the houſe of Rehób, and the Aramites of Zobá, twentie thouſand footemen, and of King Maacáh a thouſand men, & of Iſh-tób twelue thouſand men.

[c] That they had deſerued Dauids diſpleaſure, for ỹ iniurie done to his ambaſſadours

[d] Or, Syriane.

7 And when Dauid heard of it, he ſent Ioáb, and all the hoſte of the ſtrong men.

8 And the children of Ammón came out, & put their armie in array at the entring in of the gate: & the Aramites of [d] Zobá, and of Rehób, and of Iſh-tób, and of Maacáh were by them ſelues in the field.

[d] Theſe were diuers parts of the coũtrey of Syria, whereby appeareth that the Syrias ſerued, where their might haue interteinement, as now the Swetzers do.

9 When Ioáb ſawe that the fronte of the battel was againſt him before and behinde, he choſe of all the choiſe of Iſraél, and put them in array againſt the Aramites.

10 And the reſt of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abiſhái his brother, that he might put them in array againſt the children of Ammón.

11 And he ſaid, If the Aramites be ſtrõger then I, thou ſhalt helpe me, & if the children of Ammón be to ſtrong for thee, I wil come and ſuccour thee.

12 Be ſtrong and let vs be valiant for [e] our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

[e] Here is declared wherefore warre ought to be vndertaken: for the defence of true religion and Gods people.

13 Then Ioáb, & the people that was with him, ioyned in battel with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammón ſawe that the Aramites fled, they fled alſo before Abiſhái, and entred into the citie. ſo Ioáb returned from the children of Ammón, and came to Ieruſalém.

15 ¶And when the Aramites ſawe that thei were ſmitten before Iſraél, they gathered them together.

16 And

16 And [f]Hadarézer ſent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyonde the [f]Riuer: & they came to Helám, and Shobách ỹ captaine of the hoſte of Hadarézer went before them.

17 When it was ſhewed Dauid, then he gathered [f] all Iſraél together, and paſſed ouer Iordén and came to Helám: and the Aramites ſet thé ſelues in array againſt Dauid, and foght with him:

18 And the Aramites fled before Iſraél: & Dauid deſtroyed ſeuen hundreth charets of the Aramites, & fourtie thouſand horſemen, and ſmote Shobách the captaine of his hoſte, who dyed there.

19 And when all the Kings, that were ſeruáts to Hadarézer, ſawe that they fell before Iſrael, they made peace with Iſraél, and ſerued them. and the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammón anie more.

[f] Or Hadadézer
[f] Or, Euphrates
[f] Meaning, the greateſt parte
[g] Which were ỹ chiefeſt & moſte principall for in all the deſtroyed 7000, as 1 Chro 19.18. or, the ſoldiers which were in 700 charets.

CHAP. XI.

The citie Rabbah is beſieged 4 Dauid committeth adulterie 17 Vriah is ſlaine 27 Dauid marieth Bath-ſhéba.

1 AND when the yere was [a] expired in ỹ time when Kings go forthe to battel, Dauid ſent Ioáb, and his ſeruants with him, & all Iſraél, who deſtroyed the children of Ammón, and beſieged Rabbáh: but Dauid remained in Ieruſalém.

2 ¶ And when it was euening tide, Dauid aroſe out of his [b] bed, and walked vpon the roofe of the Kings palace: and frō the roofe he ſawe a woman waſhing her ſelfe: and the womā was very beautiful to loke vpon.

3 And Dauid ſent and inquired what woman it was: and one ſaid, Is not this Bethſhéba ỹ daughter of Eliám, wife to Vriáh the Hittite?

4 Then Dauid ſent meſſengers, and toke her away: and ſhe came vnto him and he lay with her (now ſhe was [*] purified from her vncleannes) and ſhe returned vnto her houſe.

5 And ỹ womā cōceiued: therefore ſhe ſent & [d] tolde Dauid & ſaid, I am with childe.

6 ¶ Then Dauid ſent to Ioáb, ſaying, Send me Vriáh the Hittite. And Ioáb ſent Vriáh to Dauid.

7 And when Vriáh came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioáb did, & how the people fared, and how the warre proſpered.

8 Afterwarde Dauid ſaid to Vriáh, [e] Go downe to thine houſe, and waſh thy feete. So Vriáh departed out of the Kings palace, & the King ſent a preſent after him.

9 But Vriáh ſlept at the dore of the Kings palace with all the ſeruants of his lord, and went not downe to his houſe.

10 Then they tolde Dauid, ſaying, Vriáh went not downe to his houſe: and Dauid ſaid vnto Vriáh, Comeſt thou not from thy iourney? why dideſt thou not go downe to thine houſe?

11 The Vriáh anſwered Dauid, [f] The Arke of Iſraél, and Iudáh dwel in tents: and my lord Ioab and the ſeruants of my lord abide in the open fields. ſhal I then go in to mine houſe to eat and drinke, and lie with my wife? by thy life, & by the life of thy ſoule, I wil not do this thing.

12 Then Dauid ſaid vnto Vriáh, Tarie yet this daye, and tomorowe I wil ſend thee awaie. So Vriáh abode in Ieruſalém that day, and the morowe.

13 Then Dauid called him, & he did eat and drinke before him, & he made him [g] droke: & at euen he went out to lie on his couche with the ſeruants of his lord, but went not downe to his houſe.

14 And on the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioáb, and ſent it by the hand of Vriáh.

15 And he wrote [h] thus in the letter, Put ye Vriáh in the foreféte of the ſtrength of the battel, & recule ye backe from him, that he may be ſmitten, and dye.

16 ¶ So whē Ioáb beſieged ỹ citie, he aſſigned Vriáh vnto a place, where he knewe that ſtrong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, and foght with Ioáb: & there fell of the people of the ſeruants of Dauid, & Vriáh the Hittite alſo dyed.

18 Then Ioáb ſent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre,

19 ¶ And he charged the meſſenger, ſaying, When thou haſt made an end of telling the matters of the warre vnto the King, 20 [f] And if the King angre ariſe, ſo that he ſay vnto thee, Wherefore approched ye vn to ỹ citie to fight? knewe ye not that they wolde hurle from the wall?

21 Who ſmote Abimélech ſonne of [i] Ierubéſheth? did not a woman caſt a piece of a milſtone vpon him from the wall, and he dyed in Thebéz? why went you nye the wall? Then ſay thou, Thy ſeruant Vriáh the Hittite is alſo dead.

22 ¶ So the meſſenger went, and came and ſhewed Dauid all that Ioáb had ſent him for.

23 And the meſſenger ſaid vnto Dauid, Certeinly the men preuailed againſt vs, and came out vnto vs vnto the field, but we [l] purſued them vnto the entring of the gate.

24 But ỹ ſhooters ſhot frō the wall againſt thy ſeruants, and ſome of the Kings ſeruants be dead: and thy ſeruant Vriáh the Hittite is alſo dead.

25 Then Dauid ſaid vnto the meſſenger, [k] Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto Ioab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for the ſworde de-

[a] The yere following about the ſpring time 2 Chro 20.1.
[b] Whereupon he vſed to reſt at after noone, as was red of Iſh-bóſheth, Chap 4.7
[c] Who was not an Iſraelite borne, but converted to the true religion Leuit 15.19. & 18.19.
[d] Fearing leſt ſhe ſhulde be ſtoned according to the Law.
[e] Dauid thought that if Vriáh lay with his wife his faute might be cloked.
[f] Hereby God wolde touche Dauids conſcience that ſeing the fidelitie & religiō of his ſeruāt, he wolde declare him ſelfe ſo forgetful of God and injurious to his ſeruant
[g] He made him drunke more liberally thē he was wonte to do, thinking hereby he wolde haue lyen by his wife.
[h] Either ſeeing he knewe God cōtinually vpholde vs with his mightie Spirit, ỹ moſte perfect & fall head ong into all vice & abomination [f] Or, Thou ſhalt do thus, if [i] Meaning Gideón, Iudg 9.53
[l] For were againſt them
[k] He diſſembleth with the meſſenger to ỹ intent that rather his cruel cōmaūdemēt, nor Ioabs wicked obedience might be eſpied.

"Eb. ſo and ſo.

uoureth "one aſwel as another: make thy battel more ſtrong againſt the citie & deſtroy it, & encourage thou him.

26 ¶And when the wife of Vriáh heard that her houſband Vriáh was dead, ſhe mourned for her houſband.

27 So when the mourning was paſt, Dauid ſent & toke her into his houſe, and ſhe became his wife, and bare him a ſonne: but the thing that Dauid had done, "diſpleaſed the Lord.

"Ebr. was euil in the eyes of the Lord.

CHAP. XII.

1 Dauid reproued by Nathán confeſseth his ſinne. 13 The childe cõceiued in adulterie, dyeth. 24 Salomón is borne. 26 Rabbáh is taken. 31 The citizens are grieuouſly puniſhed.

1 THen the Lord [a] ſent Nathán vnto Dauid, who came to him, and ſaid vnto him, There were two men in one citie, the one riche, and the other poore.

a Becauſe Dauid lay nowe drowned in ſinne, the louing mercie of God, whichſuffreth not his to periſh, waketh his conſcience by this ſimilitude, and bringeth him to repentance

2 The riche man had exceding many ſhepe and oxen:

3 But the poore had none at all, ſaue one litle ſhepe which he had boght, & nouriſhed vp: and it grewe vp with him, and with his children alſo, and did eat of his owne morſels, & dranke of his owne cup, and ſlept in his boſome, and was vnto him as his daughter.

"Or, wayfaring man. "Or, ſpared.

4 Now there came a" ſtranger vnto the riche mã, who" refuſed to take of his owne ſhepe, and of his owne oxen to dreſſe for the ſtranger that was come vnto him, but toke the poore mans ſhepe, and dreſſed it for the man that was come to him.

"Ebr. The anger of Dauid was kindeled.

5 Thé "Dauid was exceding wrothe with the mã, and ſaid to Nathán, As the Lord liueth, the man that hathe done this thing,

"Ebr. is the childe of death.

"ſhal ſurely dye,

6 And he ſhal reſtore the lãbe * foure folde, becauſe he did this thing, and had no pitie thereof.

Exod. 22,1.

7 Then Nathán ſaid to Dauid, Thou art the man. Thus ſayth the Lord God of Iſraél, * I anoynted thee King ouer Iſraél, and deliuered thee out of the hand of Saúl,

2 Sam. 16,13.

b For Dauid ſucceded Saúl in his kingdome.

8 And gaue thee thy lords [b] houſe, and thy lords [c] wiues into thy boſome, and gaue thee the houſe of Iſraél, and of Iudáh, & wolde moreouer (if that had bene to litle) haue giuen thee [d] ſuche and ſuche things.

c The Iewes vnderſtãd this of Egláh and Michal, or of Rizpáh and Michál.

d That is, greater things thé theſe: for Gods loue and benefites increaſe toward his, if by their ingratitude they ſtay him not.

9 Wherefore haſt thou deſpiſed the commandement of the Lord, to do euil in his ſight? thou haſt killed Vriáh the Hittite with the ſworde, and haſt taken his wife to be thy wife, and haſt ſlaine him with the ſworde of the [e] children of Ammón.

e Thou haſt moſte cruelly giuen him into the hands of Gods enemies.

10 Now therefore the ſworde ſhal neuer departe from thine houſe, becauſe thou haſt deſpiſed me, and taken the wife of Vriáh the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus ſaith the Lord, Beholde, I wil raiſe vp euil againſt thee out of thine owne houſe, and wil *take thy wiues before thine eyes, & giue them vnto thy neighbour, and he ſhal lye with thy wiues in the ſight of this [f] ſunne.

Deu. 28,30. chap. 16,22.

f Meaning, openly, as at none dayes.

12 For thou dideſt it ſecretly: but I wil do this thing before all Iſraél, and before the ſunne.

13 Then Dauid ſaid vnto Nathán, *I haue ſinned againſt ỹ Lord. And Nathán ſaid vnto Dauid, The Lord alſo hathe [g] put away thy ſinne, thou ſhalt not dye.

Eccleſ. 47,23.

g For the Lord ſeketh but ỹ ỹ ſinner wolde turne to him.

14 Howbeit becauſe by this dede thou haſt cauſed the enemies of the Lord to [h] blaſpheme, the childe that is borne vnto thee ſhal ſurely dye.

h In ſaying, that the Lord hathe appointed a wicked man to reigne ouer his people.

15 ¶So Nathán departed vnto his houſe: and the Lord ſtroke the childe that Vriahs wife bare vnto Dauid, and it was ſicke.

16 Dauid therefore beſoght God for the childe, and faſted and [i] went in, and laye all night vpon the earth.

i To wit, to his priuie chãber.

17 Then the Elders of his houſe aroſe to come vnto him, and to cauſe him to riſe from the grounde: but he wolde not, nether did he eat [k] meat with them.

k Thinking by his inſtãt praier that God wolde haue reſtored his childe, but God had otherwiſe determined.

18 So on the ſeuenth day the childe dyed: & the ſeruants of Dauid feared to tel him that the childe was dead: for thei ſaid, Beholde, while the childe was aliue, we ſpake vnto him, and he wolde not hearken vnto our voyce: how then ſhal we ſay vnto him, The childe is dead, "to vexe him more?

"Ebr. & he will do him ſelfe euil.

19 But when Dauid ſawe that his ſeruants whiſpered, Dauid perceiued that ỹ childe was dead: therefore Dauid ſaid vnto his ſeruãts, Is the childe dead? And they ſaid, He is dead.

20 Then Dauid [l] aroſe from the earth, & waſhed and anoynted him ſelfe, and changed his apparel, and came into the houſe of the Lord, and worſhiped, & afterward came to his owne houſe, and bade that thei ſhulde ſet bread before him, and he did eat.

l Shewing that our lamentations ought not to be exceſsiue, but moderate: and ỹ we muſt praiſe God in all his doings.

21 Then ſaid [m] his ſeruãts vnto him, What thing is this, that thou haſt done? thou dideſt faſt and wepe for the childe, while it was aliue, but whé the childe was dead, thou dideſt riſe vp, and eat meat.

m As they ỹ conſidered not that God graunteth manie things to the ſobbes & teares of ỹ faithful.

22 And he ſaid, While the childe was yet aliue, I faſted, and wept: for I ſaid, Who can tel whether God wil haue mercie on me, that the childe may liue?

23 But now being dead, wherefore ſhulde I now faſt? [n] Can I bring him againe anie more? I ſhal go to him, but he ſhal not returne to me.

n By this conſideration appaiſed his ſorrowe.

24 ¶And Dauid comforted Bath-ſhéba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, *and ſhe bare a ſonne, [o] & he called his name Salomón: alſo ỹ Lord loued hĩ,

Mat. 1,6. o To wit, the Lord, 1 Chro. 22,9.

25 *Therefore

25 For the Lord had ſent by Nathán the p To call him Salomón
q Meaning, Dauid
1 Chro 22.9
p Prophet: therefore q* he called his name Iedidiáh, becauſe the Lord loued him.
Or, the chief citie
26 ¶ Then Ioáb foght againſt Rabbáh of the children of Ammón, and toke the ″ citie of the kingdome.
27 Therefore Ioáb ſent meſſengers to Dauid, ſaying I haue foght againſt Rabbáh, and haue taken the citie of r waters.
r That is, the chief citie, & wh re all the cõduits are, is as good as taken 28 Now therefore gather the reſt of the people together, and beſiege the citie, that thou maieſt take it, leſt ″ the victorie be attributed to me.
Ebr my name be called vpõ it 29 So Dauid gathered all the people together, and went againſt Rabbáh, and beſieged it, and toke it.
2 Chro. 20. 2.
30 *And he toke their Kings crowne from his head, (which wayed a t talent of golde, with precious ſtones) & it was ſet on Dauids head: and he brought away the ſpoile of the citie in exceding great abundance.
t That is, threſcore pounde after ỹ weight of the cõmune talent 31 And he caryed away the people that was therein, and put them vnder u ſawes, and vnder yron harowes, and vnder axes of yron, and caſt them into the tyle kylne: euen thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammón. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ieruſalém.
u Signifying, ỹ as thei were malicious enemies of God, ſo he put them to cruel death.

CHAP. XIII.

24 Amnón Dauids ſonne defileth his ſiſter Tamár.
19 Tamár is comforted by her brother Abſalóm.
29 Abſalóm therefore killeth Amnón.

1 NOw after this ſo it was, that Abſalóm the ſonne of Dauid hauing a faire ſiſter, whoſe name was a Tamár, Amnón the ſonne of Dauid loued her.
a Tamár was Abſalõs ſiſter both by father & mother, and Amnons onely by father 2 And Amnón was ſo ſore vexed, that he fel ſicke for his ſiſter Tamár: for ſhe was a b virgin, & it ſemed harde to Amnón to do any thing to her.
b And therefore kept in her fathers houſe, as virgins were accuſtomed.
3 But Amnón had a friend called Ionadáb, the ſonne of Shimeáh Dauids brother: and Ionadáb was a very ſubtile man.
4 Who ſaid vnto him, Why art thou the Kings ſonne ſo leane fr̃ day to day ↄ wilt thou not tel me? Then Amnón anſwered him, I loue Tamár my brother Abſalõs ſiſter.
5 And Ionadáb ſaid vnto him, c Lye downe on thy bed, and make thy ſelfe ſicke: and when thy father ſhal come to ſe thee, ſay vnto him, I pray thee, let my ſiſter Tamár come, and giue me meat, and let her dreſſe meat in my ſight, that I may ſe it, and eat it of her hand.
c Here we ſe that there is no enterpriſe ſo wicked, ỹ can lacke coũſel to further it 6 ¶ So Amnón laye downe, & made him ſelfe ſicke: and when the King came to ſe him, Amnón ſaid vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamár my ſiſter come, & make me a couple of d cakes in my ſight, that I may receiue meat at her hand.
d Meaning, ſome delicate & dentie meat
7 Then Dauid ſent home to Tamár, ſaying, Go now to thy brother Amnõs houſe, and dreſſe him meat.
8 ¶ So Tamár went to her brother Amnons houſe, and he laye downe: and ſhe toke ″ flour, and knead it, and made cakes in his ſight, and did bake the cakes.
Or, paſte.
9 And ſhe toke a panne, & e powred them out before him, but he wolde not eat. Thẽ Amnón ſaid, Cauſe ye euery man to go out from f me: ſo euery man went out fr̃ him.
e That is, ſhe ſerued them on a diſhe.
f For ỹ wicked are aſhamed to do that before mẽ, which thei are not afrayed to cõmit in ỹ ſight of God.
10 Then Amnón ſaid vnto Tamár, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamár toke the cakes which ſhe had made, and broght them into the chamber to Amnón her brother.
11 And when ſhe had ſet them before him to eat, he toke her, and ſaid vnto her, Come, lye with me, my ſiſter.
12 But ſhe anſwered him, Naye, my brother, do not force me: for no ſuche thing *ought to be done in Iſraél: commit not this folie.
Leui. 18, 9.
13 And I, ″ whether ſhal I cauſe my ſhame to go: and thou ſhalt be as one g of the fooles in Iſraél: now therefore, I pray thee, ſpeake to the King, for he wil not denye me vnto thee.
Or, How ſhal I put away my ſhame
g As a lewde & wicked perſone.
14 Howbeit he wolde not hearkẽ vnto her voyce, but being ſtronger then ſhe, forced her, and lay with her.
15 Then Amnón hated her excedingly, ſo that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue, wherewith he had loued her: and Amnón ſaid vnto her, Vp, get thee hence 16 And ſhe anſwered him, ″ There is no cauſe: this euil (to put me away) is greater then the other that thou dideſt vnto me: but he wolde not heare her,
Or, for this cauſe.
17 But called his ″ ſeruant that ſerued him, and ſaid, Put this woman now out from me, and locke the dore after her.
Or, boye.
18 (And ſhe had a garment of h diuers coulers vpon her: for with ſuche garmẽts were the Kings daughters that were virgins, appareled) Then his ſeruant broght her out, and locked the dore after her.
h For ỹ which was of diuers coulers or pieces in thoſe dayes was had in greateſt eſtimaciõ, Gen 37, 3 marg 5, 30.
19 And Tamár put aſſhes on her head & rent the garment of diuers coulers which was on her, and layed her hand on her head, & went her way crying.
20 And Abſalóm her brother ſaid vnto her, Hathe Amnón thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be i ſtyl, my ſiſter: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamár remained deſolate in her brother Abſaloms houſe.
i For though he conceiued ſoden vẽgeãce in his heart, yet he diſſembled it til occaſion ſerued, and comforted his ſiſter.
21 ¶ But when King Dauid heard all theſe things, he was very wrothe.
22 And Abſalóm ſaid vnto his brother Amnón nether good nor bad: for Abſalóm hated Amnón, becauſe he had forced his ſiſter Tamar.

23 ¶And after the time of two yeres, Abſalóm had ſhepeſherers in *Baal-hazór, which is beſide Ephráim, and k Abſalóm called all the Kings ſonnes.

24 And Abſalóm came to the King & ſaid, Beholde now, thy ſeruant hathe ſhepeſherers: I pray thee, that the King with his ſeruants wolde go with thy ſeruant.

25 But the King anſwered Abſalóm, Naye my ſonne, I pray thee, let vs not go all, leſt we be chargeable vnto thee. Yet Abſalóm laye ſore vpō him: howbeit he wolde not go, but "thanked him.

26 Thē ſaid Abſalóm, But, I pray thee, ſhal not my brother l Amnón go with vs? And the King anſwered him, Why ſhulde he go with thee?

27 But Abſalóm was inſtant vpon him, and he ſent Amnón with him, & all the Kings children.

28 ¶Now had Abſalóm commanded his ſeruants, ſaying, Marke now when Amnōs heart is mery with wine, and when I ſay vnto you, Smite Amnón, kil him, feare not, for haue not m I commanded you? be bolde therefore, and play the men.

29 And the ſeruants of Abſalóm did vnto Amnón, as Abſalóm had commanded: & all the Kings ſonnes aroſe, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶And while thei were in the way, tidīgs came to Dauid, ſaying, Abſalóm hathe ſlayne all the Kings ſonnes, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the King aroſe, and tare his garments, and lay on the n grounde, and all his ſeruants ſtode by with their clothes rent.

32 And Ionadáb the ſonne of Shimeáh Dauids brother anſwered and ſaid, Let not my lord ſuppoſe that thei haue ſlayne all the yong men the Kings ſonnes: for Amnón onely is dead, "becauſe Abſalóm had reported ſo, ſince he forced his ſiſter Tamár.

33 Now therefore let not my lord ỹ King p take ỹ thing ſo grieuouſly, to thinke that all the Kings ſonnes are dead: q for Amnón onely is dead.

34 ¶Then Abſalóm fled: & the yong man that kept the watche, lift vp his eyes, and loked, & beholde, there came muche people by the way of the hil ſide r behinde him.

35 And Ionadáb ſaid vnto the King, Beholde, the Kings ſonnes come: as thy ſeruant ſaid, o ſo it is.

36 And aſſone as he had left ſpeaking, beholde, the Kings ſonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept: and the King alſo and all his ſeruants wept exceedingly ſore.

37 But Abſalóm fled away, and went to p Talmai the ſonne of Ammihúr King of Geſhúr: and Dauid mourned for his ſonne euery day.

38 So Abſalóm fled, and went to Geſhúr, & was there thre yeres.

39 And King Dauid s deſired to go forthe vnto Abſalóm, becauſe he was pacified concerning Amnón, ſeing he was dead.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 Abſalóm is reconciled to his father by the ſubteltie of Ioab. 24 Abſalóm may not ſe the Kings face 25 The beautie of Abſalóm. 30 He cauſeth Ioabs corne to be burnt, and is broght to his fathers preſence.

1 THen Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh perceiued, that the Kings a heart was towarde Abſalóm,

2 And Ioáb ſent to Tekóah, and broght thence a t ſubtile woman, & ſaid vnto her, I pray thee, faine thy ſelfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparel, & b anoint not thy ſelfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the King, and ſpeake of this maner vnto him (for Ioáb "taught her whar ſhe ſhulde ſay.)

4 ¶Then the woman of Tekóah ſpake vnto the King, and fel downe on her face to the grounde, & did obeiſance, and ſaid, "Helpe, ô King.

5 Then the King ſaid vnto her, What ayleth thee? And ſhe anſwered, I am in dede a "widowe, and mine houſband is dead:

6 And thine hādmayd had two c ſonnes, & they two ſtroue together in the field: (and there was none to parte them) ſo the one ſmote the other, and ſlewe him.

7 And beholde, the whole familie is riſen againſt thine handmayd, & thei ſaid, Deliuer him that ſmote his brother, that we may kil him for the d ſoule of his brother whome he ſlewe, that we may deſtroy the heire alſo: ſo they ſhal quenche my ſparkle which is left, and ſhal not leaue to mine houſbād nether name nor poſteritie vpon the earth.

8 And the King ſaid vnto the woman, Go to thine houſe, and I wil giue a charge for thee.

9 Then the woman of Tekóah ſaid vnto the King, My lord, ô King, this e treſpaſſe be on me, and on my fathers houſe, & the King and his throne be "giltles.

10 And ỹ King ſaid, Bring him to me that ſpeaketh againſt thee, and he ſhal touche thee nomore.

11 Then ſaid ſhe, I pray thee, let the King f remember the Lord thy God, that thou woldeſt nōt ſuffer many reuēgers of blood to deſtroy, leſt thei ſlaye my ſōne. And he anſwered, As the Lord liueth, there ſhal not one heere of thy ſonne fall to ỹ earth.

12 Then the woman ſaid, I pray thee, let thine hādmaid ſpeake a worde to my lord the

*Or, in the plaine of Hatzór

k To wit, to a banket, thinking thereby to fulfil his wicked purpoſe

"Ebr bleſſed.

l Pretending to the King, ỹ Amnón was moſte deare vnto him.

m Suche is the pride of the wicked maſters, that in all their wicked commandements they thinke to be obeyed.

n Lamenting, as he that felt the wrath of God vpon his houſe, Chap. 12, 10.

"Ebr becauſe it was put in Abſaloms mouthe.

p Or, take it to heart.

q Or, but.

r Or, one after an other.

o That onely Amnón is dead.

p For Maachāh his mother was the daughter of this Talmai, Chap 3, 3 a That ỹ King fauoured him.

t Or, wiſe.

b In token of mourning: for thei vſed anointing to ſeme chearefull.

"Ebr. put words in her mouthe.

"Ebr. Saue.

"Ebr a widowe woman

c Vnder this parable ſhe deſcribeth the death of Amnón by Abſaloms.

d Becauſe he hathe ſlayne his brother, he ought to be ſlayne according to the Lawe, Gen 9, 6 exod 21, 12.

e As touching the breache of ỹ Lawe vt puniſheth blood, let me beare the blame s Or, ceaſed.

f Sweare that thei ſhal not reuenge the blood, which are many nomber.

the King. And he ſaid, Say on.

13 Then the woman ſaid, Wherefore then haſt thou s thoght ſuche a thing againſt the people of God? or why doeth ỹ King, as one which is fautie, ſpeake this thing, that he wil not bring againe his baniſhed?

14 For we muſt nedes dye, & we are as water ſpilt on the grounde, which can not be gathered vp againe: nether doeth God ſpare anie perſone, yet doeth he appoint h meanes, not to caſt out from him him that is expelled.

15 Now therefore that I am come to ſpeake of this thing vnto my lord the King, the cauſe is that the people i haue made me afraide: therefore thine handmaid ſaid, Now wil I ſpeake vnto ỹ King: it may be that the King wil performe the requeſt of his handmaid.

16 For the King wil heare, to deliuer his handmaid out of the hand of the man that wolde deſtroye me, and alſo my ſonne frō the inheritance of God.

17 Therefore thine handmaid ſaid, The worde of my lord the King ſhal nowe be "comfortable: for my lord the King is euen as an k Angel of God in hearing of good & bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the King anſwered, and ſaid vnto the woman, Hide not frō me, I pray thee, the thing that I ſhal aſke thee. And ỹ womā ſaid, Let my lord ỹ King now ſpeake.

19 And the King ſaid, Is not l the hand of Ioáb with thee in all this? Then the woman anſwered, & ſaid, As thy ſoul liueth, my lord the King, I wil not turne to the right hand nor to the left from ought that my lord the King hathe ſpoken: for euen thy ſeruāt Ioáb bade me, & he put all theſe wordes in ỹ mouthe of thine handmaid.

20 For to the intent that I ſhulde m change the forme of ſpeache, thy ſeruant Ioáb hathe done this thīg: but "my lord is wiſe according to the wiſdome of an Angel of God to vnderſtand all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And ỹ King ſaid vnto Ioáb, Beholde now, I haue n done this thing: go then, & bring the yong man Abſalóm againe.

22 And Ioáb fel to the grounde on his face, and bowed him ſelfe, and "thanked the King. Then Ioáb ſaid, This day thy ſeruant knoweth, that I haue founde grace in thy ſight, my lord the King, in that the King hathe fulfilled the requeſt of his ſeruant.

23 ¶ And Ioáb aroſe, and went to Geſhúr, and broght Abſalóm to Ieruſalém.

24 And the King ſaid, Let him o turne to his owne houſe, and not ſe my face. So Abſalóm turned to his owne houſe, and ſawe not the Kings face.

25 Now in all Iſraél there was none to be ſo muche praiſed for beautie as Abſalóm: from the ſole of his foote euen to the top of his head there was no blemiſh in him.

26 And whē he polled his head, (for at euerie yeres end he polled it: becauſe it was to heauy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the heere of his head at two hundreth p ſhekels by the Kings weight.

27 And Abſalóm had thre ſonnes, and one daughter named Tamár, which was a faire woman to loke vpon.

28 ¶ So Abſalóm dwelt ỹ ſpace of two yeres in Ieruſalém, & ſawe not the Kings face.

29 Therefore Abſalóm ſent for Ioáb to ſend him to the King, but he wolde not come to him: and when he ſent againe, he wolde not come.

30 Therefore he ſaid vnto his ſeruants, Beholde, Ioáb hathe a "field by my place, & hathe barly therein: go, & ſet it q on fire: & Abſaloms ſeruants ſet the field on fire.

31 Then Ioáb aroſe, and came to Abſalóm vnto his houſe, and ſaid vnto him, Wherefore haue thy ſeruants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Abſalóm anſwered Ioáb, Beholde, I ſent for thee, ſaying, Come thou hither, and I wil ſend thee to the King for to ſay, Wherefore am I come from Geſhúr? It had bene better for me to haue bene there ſtil: now therefore let me ſe ỹ Kings face: and r if there be anie treſpaſſe in me, let him kil me.

33 Then Ioáb came to the King, and tolde him: and he called for Abſalóm, who came to the King, and bowed him ſelfe to the grounde on his face before the King, and the King kiſſed Abſalóm.

CHAP. XV.

2 The practiſes of Abſalóm to aſpire to the kingdome. 14 Dauid and his flee. 31 Dauids prayer. 34 Huſhái is ſent to Abſalóm to diſcouer his counſel.

1 AFter this, Abſalóm "prepared him charets and horſes, and fiftie men to a runne before him.

2 And Abſalóm roſe vp early, and ſtode hard by the entring in of the gate: & euerie mā that had anie "matter, & came to ỹ King for iudgement, him did Abſalóm call vnto him, and ſaid, Of what citie art thou? And he anſwered, Thy ſeruant is of one of the b tribes of Iſraél.

3 Thē Abſalóm ſaid vnto him, Se, thy matters are good & righteous, but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee.

4 Abſalóm ſaid moreouer, c Oh ỹ I were made iudge in the land, that euerie man w hathe anie matter or controuerſie, might come to me, that I might do him iuſtice.

5 And when anie man came nere to him, and did him obeiſance, he put forthe his hand, and toke him, and kiſſed him.

g Why doeſt thou giue contrary ſentence in thy ſonne Abſalóm?

Or, accept.

h God hathe prouided waies (as ſanctuaries) to ſaue thē oft times, whome man iudgeth worthy death i For I thoght they wolde kil this mine heir.

Ebr reſt

k Is of great wiſdome to diſcerne right from wrong

l Haſt not thou done this by ỹ counſel of Ioáb?

m By ſpeaking rather in a parable thē plainely.

Or, none can bide oght from the King

n I haue grāted thy requeſt.

Ebr bleſſed.

o Couering hereby his affection, and ſhewing ſome parte of iuſtice to pleaſe ỹ people.

p Which weighed 6 l. 4 onces after halfe an once the ſhekel.

Or, poſſeſſion.

q The wicked are impacient in their affections, & ſpare no vnlawful meanes to cōpaſſe them.

r If I haue offended by reuenging my ſiſters diſhonour: thus the wicked iuſtifie them ſelues as their euil

Ebr made him a Which were as a garde to ſet forthe his eſtate

Or, controuerſie.

b That is, noting of what citie or place he was c Thus by ſlander, flatterie, and faire promiſes the wicked feme preferrement

6 And on this maner did Abſalóm to all Iſraél, that came to the King for iudgement: ſo Abſalóm [d] ſtale the heartes of the men of Iſraél.

[d] by intiſing them from his father to him ſelfe

7 ¶ And after [e] fortie yeres, Abſalóm ſaid vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebrón, and rendre my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord.

[e] Counting from the time that the Iſraelites had asked a King of Samuél.

8 For thy ſeruant vowed a vowe when I remained in Geſhúr, in Arám, ſaying, If the Lord ſhal bring me againe in dede to Ieruſalém, I wil [f] ſerue the Lord.

[f] By offring a peace offring, wh was lawful to do in ame place

9 And the King ſaid vnto him, Go in peace. So he aroſe, and went to Hebrón.

10 ¶ Then Abſalóm ſent ſpies throughout all the tribes of Iſraél, ſaying, When ye heare the ſounde of the trumpet, ye ſhal ſay, Abſalóm reigneth in Hebrón.

11 ¶ And with Abſalóm went two hundreth men out of Ieruſalém, that were [g] called: and they wēt in their ſimplicitie, knowing nothing.

[g] And byd to his feaſt in Hebrō.

12 Alſo Abſalóm ſent for Ahithóphel the Gilonite Dauids counſeler, from his citie Gilóh, while he offred ſacrifices: and the treaſon was great: for the people [*] encreaſed ſtil with Abſalóm.

[*] Ebr went and increaſed

13 ¶ Then came [a] a meſſenger to Dauid, ſaying, The hearts of the men of Iſraél are turned after Abſalóm.

14 Then Dauid ſaid vnto all his ſeruants that were with him at Ieruſalém, Vp, and let vs flee: for we ſhal not eſcape frō [h] Abſalóm: make ſpede to departe, leſt he come ſodenly and take vs, & bring euil vpō vs, and ſmite the citie with the edge of the ſworde.

h Whoſe heart he ſawe that Satan had ſo poſſeſſed, that he wolde leaue no miſchief vnattēpted

15 And the Kings ſeruants ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thy ſeruāts are ready to do according to all that my lord the King ſhal [*] appoint.

[*] Ebr chooſe

16 So the King departed and all his houſholde [*] after him, and the King left ten concubines to kepe the houſe.

[*] Ebr at his feete.

17 And the King went forthe and all the people after him, and taryed in a [*] place [i] farre of.

[*] Or, houſe

i To wit, frō Ieruſalém

18 And all his ſeruāts went about him, and all the [k] Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all ỹ Gittites, euen ſixe hūdreth men which were come after him frō Gath, went before the King.

k Theſe were as the Kings garde, or as ſome write, his counſelers.

19 Then ſaid the King to [l] Ittái the Gittite, Wherefore commeſt thou alſo with vs? Returne and abide with the King, for thou art a ſtranger: departe thou therefore to thy place.

l Who, as ſome write, was the Kings ſonne of Gath

20 Thou cameſt yeſterday, and ſhulde I cauſe thee to wander to day and go with vs? I wil go whither I can: therefore returne thou, and cary againe thy [m] brethren: mercie and [n] trueth be with thee.

m Meaning, them of his familie n God requite thee thy friēdſhip and fidelitie.

21 And Ittái anſwered the King, and ſaid, As the Lord liueth, & as my lord the King liueth, in what place my lord the King ſhalbe, whether in death or life, euen there ſurely wil thy ſeruant be.

22 Then Dauid ſaid to Ittái, Come, & go forwarde. And Ittái the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and [o] all the people went forward, but the King paſſed ouer the brooke Kidrón: and all the people wēt ouer towarde the way of the wildernes.

o To wit, the ſix hundreth men.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadók alſo was there, and all the Leuites with hym, [p] bearing the Arke of the couenant of God: & they ſet downe ỹ Arke of God, and Abiathár wēt [q] vp vntil the people were all come out of the citie.

p Which was the charge of the Kohathites, Nomb 4.4

q To ſtand by the Arke.

25 Then the King ſaid vnto Zadók, Carie the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I ſhal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, he wil bring me againe, & ſhewe me both it, and the [*] Tabernacle thereof.

[*] Or, his tabernacle

26 But if he thus ſay, I haue no delite in thee, beholde, [r] here am I, let him do to me as ſemeth good in his eyes.

r The faithful in all their afflictions ſhewe them ſelues obedient to Gods wil. 1. Sam 3.18.

27 The King ſaid againe vnto Zadók the Prieſt, Art not thou a [*] Seer? returne into the citie in peace, & your two ſonnes with you: to wit, Ahimáaz thy ſonne, and Ionathán the ſonne of Abiathár.

28 Beholde, I wil tarie in the fieldes of the wildernes, vntil there come ſome worde from you to be tolde me.

29 Zadók therefore and Abiathár caryed the Arke of God againe to Ieruſalém, and they taried there.

30 And Dauid went vp the mount of oliues and wept as he went vp, and had his head [s] couered, and wēt barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euerie man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

s With aſhes & duſt in ſigne of ſorrowe

31 Then one tolde Dauid, ſaying, Ahithóphel is one of them that haue conſpired with Abſalóm: and Dauid ſaid, ô Lord, I pray thee, turne the [t] counſel of Ahithóphel into fooliſhnes.

t The counſel of the crafty worldelings doeth more harme thē the open force of the enemie.

32 ¶ Then Dauid came to the toppe of the mount where he worſhiped God: and beholde, Huſhái the Architе came againſt him with his coate torne, & hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whome Dauid ſaid, If thou go with me, thou ſhalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and ſay vnto Abſalóm, I wil be thy [u] ſeruant, o King; (as I haue bene in time paſt thy fathers ſeruant, ſo wil I now be thy ſeruant) then thou maieſt bring me the counſel of Ahithóphel to noght.

u Thogh Huſhái diſſembled here at the Kings requeſte, yet may we norvie this exāple to excuſe our diſſimulacion.

35 And haſt thou not there with thee Zadók and Abiathár the Prieſts? therefore whatſoeuer whatſoeuer thou ſhalt heare out of the Kings houſe, thou ſhalt ſhewe to Zadók and Abiathár the Prieſts.

36 Beholde, there are with them their two ſonnes: Ahimáaz Zadoks ſonne, and Ionathán Abiathars ſonne: by them alſo ſhal ye ſend me euerie thing that ye can heare.
37 So Huſhái Dauids friend went into the citie: and Abſalóm came into Ieruſalém.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The infidelitie of Zibá. 5 Shimeí curſeth Dauid. 16 Huſhái cometh to Abſalóm. 21 The counſel of Ahithóphel for the concubines.

1 WHen Dauid was a litle paſt the [a] toppe of the hil, beholde, Zibá the ſeruant of Mephibóſheth met him with a couple of aſſes ſadled, and vpon them two hundreth cakes of bread, and one hundreth bunſhes of raiſins, & an hundreth of [f] dryed figges, and a bottel of wine.
2 And ỹ King ſaid vnto Zibá, What meaneſt thou by theſe? And Zibá ſaid, They be [b] aſſes for the Kings houſholde to ride on, and bread and dryed figges for the yong men to eat, and wine, that the faint may drincke in the wildernes.
3 And the King ſaid, But where is thy maſters ſonne? Thē Zibá anſwered the King, Beholde, he remaineth in Ieruſalém: for he ſaid, This day ſhal the houſe of Iſraél reſtore me the kingdome of my father.
4 Then ſaid the King to Zibá, Beholde, thine are all that pertein vnto Mephibóſheth. And Zibá ſaid, [h] I beſeche thee, let me finde grace in thy ſight, my lord, ô King.
5 ¶ And when King Dauid came to [c] Bahurím, beholde, thence came out a man of the familie of the houſe of Saúl, named Shimeí the ſonne of Gerá: and he came out, and curſed.
6 And he caſt ſtones at Dauid, and at all the ſeruants of King Dauid: and all the people, and all the men of warre were on his [d] right hand, and on his left.
7 And thus ſaid Shimeí when he curſed, Come forthe, come forthe thou [m] murtherer, and [m] wicked man.
8 The Lord hathe broght vpon thee all the [e] blood of the houſe of Saúl, in whoſe ſtead thou haſt reigned: and the Lord hathe deliuered the kingdome into the hand of Abſalóm thy ſonne: and beholde, thou art taken in thy wickednes, becauſe thou art a murtherer.
9 Then ſaid Abiſhái the ſonne of Zeruiáh vnto the King, Why doeth this * dead dogge curſe my lord the King? let me go, I pray thee, and take away his head.
10 ¶ But the King ſaid, What haue I to do with you, ye ſonnes of Zeruiáh: for he curſeth, euen becauſe the Lord hathe [f] bidden him curſe Dauid: who dare then ſay, Wherefore haſt thou done ſo?
11 And Dauid ſaid to Abiſhái, & to all his ſeruants, Beholde, my ſonne ẅ came out of mine owne bowels, ſeketh my life: then how muche more now may this ſonne of Ieminí? Suffre him to curſe: for the Lord hathe bidden him.
12 It may be that the Lord wil loke on [g] mine affliction, and do me good for his curſing this day.
13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Shimeí went by the ſide of the mōũtaine ouer againſt him, and curſed as he went, and threwe ſtones againſt him, and caſt duſt.
14 Then came ỹ King & all the people that were with him weary, and refreſhed them ſelues [h] there.
15 ¶ And Abſalóm, and all the people, the men of Iſraél came to Ieruſalém, & Ahithóphel with him.
16 And when Huſhái the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Abſalóm, Huſhái ſaid vnto Abſalóm, [n] God ſaue the King, God ſaue the King.
17 Then Abſalóm ſaid to Huſhái, Is this thy kindenes to thy [i] friend? Why wenteſt thou not with thy friend?
18 Huſhái then anſwered vnto Abſalóm, Nay, but whome the Lord, & this people, and all the men of Iſraél chuſe, his wil I be, and with him wil I dwell.
19 And [n] moreouer vnto whome ſhal I do ſeruice? not to his ſonne? as I ſerued before thy father, ſo wil I before thee.
20 ¶ Then ſpake Abſalóm to Ahithóphel, Giue counſel what we ſhal do.
21 And [k] Ahithóphel ſaid vnto Abſalóm, Go in to thy fathers cōcubines, which he hathe left to kepe the houſe: and when all Iſraél ſhal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, ſhalbe ſtrong.
22 So they ſpred Abſalóm a tent vpon the top of the houſe, and Abſalóm went in to his fathers concubines in the ſight of all Iſraél.
23 And the counſel of Ahithóphel which he counſeled in thoſe dayes, was like as one had aſked [l] counſel at the oracle of God: ſo was all the coũſel of Ahithóphel bothe with Dauid and with Abſalóm.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Ahithophels counſel is ouerthrowen by Huſhái 14 The Lord had ſo ordeined. 19 The Priests ſonnes are hid in the well. 22 Dauid goeth ouer Iordén. 23 Ahithóphel hangeth him ſelfe. 27 They bring vitails to Dauid

1 MOreouer Ahithóphel ſaid to Abſalóm, [a] Let me chuſe out now twelue thouſand men, and I wil vp and follow after Dauid this night, 2 And I wil come vpō him: for he is weary, a Which was the hil of olites, Chap 15. 30.

f Or, fig cakes.
b Cōmunely there are no viler traitours then they, ẅ vader pretence of friendſhip accuſe others.
h Ebr I worſhip.
c Which was a citie in the tribe of Benjamin d That is, rounde about him m Ebr. man of blood
f Ebr. man of Belial
e Reproching him as though by his meanes Iſh bóſheth & Abner were ſlaine
* 2 Sam 24, 13. & chap 3, 8.
f Dauid felt ỹ this was the iudgement of God for his ſinne, & therefore humbleth him ſelfe to his rod g Meaning, ỹ the Lord wil ſend cōfort to his when they are oppreſſed.
h To wit, at Bahurim
n Ebr Let the King liue
i Meaning, Dauid.
n Ebr the ſecōd time.
k Suſpecting ỹ change of the kingdome, and ſo his owne ouerthrowe, he giueth ſuche counſel as might moſte hindre his fathers reconciliation and alſo declare to the people ỹ Abſalom was in hieſt autoritie l It was ſo eſteemed for the ſucceſſe thereof.
a The wicked are ſo gredy to execute their malice, that they leaue none occaſion, that may further the ſame.

and weake handed: so I wil feare him, and all the people that are with him, shal flee, and I wil smite the King onely,

3 And I wil bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shal returne, (b the man whome thou sekest being slaine) all the people shalbe in peace.

4 And the saying "pleased Absalóm wel, and all the Elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalóm, Call now Hushái the Archite also, and let vs heare likewise "what he sayeth.

6 So when Hushái came to Absalóm, Absalóm spake vnto him, saying, Ahithóphel hathe "spoken thus: shal we do after his saying, or not? tel thou?

7 Hushái then answered vnto Absalóm, The counsel that Ahithóphel hathe giuē, is not c good at this time.

8 For, said Hushái, thou knoweſt thy father, and his men, that they be strong mē, and are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriar, and wil not "lodge with the people.

9 Beholde, he is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and thogh some of them be ouerthrown at the first, yet the people shal heare, and say, The people that followe Absalóm, be "ouerthrowen.

10 Then he also that is valiant whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shal "shrinke and faint: for all Israél knoweth, that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stowte men.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israél be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-shéba as the sand of the sea in nomber, and that thou go to battel in thine owne persone.

12 So shal we come vpō him in some place, where we shal finde him, and "we wil vpō him as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we wil not leaue him one.

13 Moreouer if he be gotten into a citie, then shal all the men of Israél bring ropes to that citie, and we wil drawe it into the riuer, vntil there be not one smale stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalóm and all the men of Israél said, The counsel of Hushái the Archite is better, then the counsel of Ahithóphel: for the Lord had "determined to destroy the d good coūsel of Ahithóphel, that the Lord might e bring euil vpon Absalóm.

15 Then said Hushái vnto Zadók and to Abiathár the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithóphel and the Elders of Israél counsel Absalóm: and thus and thus haue I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tary not this night in the fieldes of the wildernes, but rather get thee f ouer, least the King be deuoured & all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Ionathán and Ahimáaz abode by En-rogél: (for they might not be sene to come into the citie) and a maid went, and tolde them, and they went and shewed King Dauid.

18 Neuertheles a yong man sawe them, and tolde it to Absalóm. therefore they bothe departed quyckly, & came to a mās house in Bahurím, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And h the wife toke and spred a couering ouer the welles mouthe, and spred grounde corne thereon, that the thing shulde not be knowen.

20 And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimáaz and Ionathán? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the i broke of water. And when they had soght them, and colde not finde them, they returned to Ierusalém.

21 And assone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde King Dauid, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quyckly ouer the water: for k suche counsel hathe Ahithóphel giuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iordén l vntil the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iordén.

23 ¶ Now whē Ahithóphel sawe that his counsel was not followed, he sadled his asse, and arose, and he went home vnto his citie, and put his housholde in ordre, and m hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buryed in his fatners graue.

24 ¶ Then Dauid came to Mahanáim. And Absalóm passed ouer Iordén, he, and all the men of Israél with him.

25 And Absalóm made Amasá captaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioáb: which Amasá was a mans sonne named Ithrá an Israelite, that wēt in to Abigál the daughter of n Nahásh, sister to Zeruiáh Ioabs mother.

26 So Israél and Absalóm pitched in the land of Gileád.

27 ¶ And when Dauid was come to Mahanáim, Shobí the sonne of Nahásh out of Rabbáh of the children of Ammón, and Machír the sonne of Ammiél out of Lodebár, and Barzelái the Gileadite out of Rogél

28 o Broght beds, and basens, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barly, and floure, and parched corne, & beanes, and lentils, and parched corne,

29 And

b Meaning, Dauid.

"Ebr. was right in the eyes of Absalóm.

"Ebr what is in his mouthe.

c Or, Giuen suche counsel.

d Hushái sheweth him selfe faithful to Dauid, in that he reproueth this wicked counsel and purpose.

e Or, tary all night.

"Ebr. haue a breache, or ruine.

"Ebr. melt.

"Or, we wil cast it against him.

f Or, determined.

g That counsel which seemed good at the first to Absalóm, vers. 4.

e For by the coūsel of Hushái he went to the battel where he was destroyed.

f That is, ouer Iordén.

Or, the well of Regél.

g Meaning, the message from their fathers.

h Thus God sendeth succour to his in their greatest dangers.

i The Chalde text readeth, now they haue passed the Iordén.

k To wit, to pursue thee w all haste.

l They trauelled all night, & by morning had all their companie passed ouer.

m Gods iuste vengeance euē in this life is powred on them, which are enemies, traitours, or persecuters of his Church.

n Who was also called Ishái Dauids father.

o Or, Broght beds, and basens, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barly, and floure, and parched corne, & beanes, and lentils, and parched corne.

p God sheweth his selfe moste liberale to his, when they seme to be vtterly destitute.

29 And they brought hony, and butter, and ſhepe, and cheſe of kine for Dauid and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they ſaid, The people is hungry, & weary, and thirſty in the wildernes.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Dauid deuideth his armie into thre partes. 9 Abſalóm is hanged ſlaine, and caſt in a pit. 33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Abſalóm.

1 THen Dauid [a] nōbred the people that were with him, & ſet ouer them captaines of thouſands and captaines of hundreths.

a For certein of ỹ Reubenites, Gadites, & of the halfe tribe, colde not beare the inſolencie of ỹ ſoane againſt ỹ father, & therefore ioyned with Dauid

2 And Dauid ſent forthe the third parte of the people vnder the hand of Ioáb, and the third parte vnder the hand of Abiſhái Ioabs brother the ſonne of Zeruiah: and the other third parte vnder the hād of Ittái the Gittite. & the King ſaid vnto the people, I wil go with you my ſelfe alſo.

3 But the people anſwered, Thou ſhalt not go forthe: for if we flee away, they wil not regarde vs, nether wil they paſſe for vs, thogh halfe of vs were ſlaine: but thou [b] art now worthe tē thouſand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou ſuccour vs out of the citie.

b Signifying, ỹ a good gouernour ought to be ſo deare vnto his people, that they wil rather loſe their liues, thē ỹ oght ſhulde come vnto hi.

4 Then the King ſaid vnto them, What ſemeth you beſt, that I wil do. So ỹ King ſtode by the gate ſide, and all the people came out by hundreths and by thouſands.

5 And the King commanded Ioáb and Abiſhái, and Ittai, ſaying, Entreate the yong man Abſalóm gently for my ſake. and all the people hearde when the King gaue all the captaines charge concerning Abſalóm.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Iſraél, & the battel was in ỹ [c] wood of Ephraim:

c So called becauſe ỹ Ephraimites (as ſome ſay) fed their cattel beyōde Iordén in this wood.

7 Where the people of Iſraél were ſlaine before the ſeruants of Dauid: ſo there was a great ſlaughter that day, euen of twentie thouſand.

8 ¶ For the battel was ſkatred ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured muche more people that day, then did the ſworde.

9 ¶ Now Abſalóm met the ſeruants of Dauid, and Abſalóm rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp ‖ betwene the heauen and the earthe: & the mule that was vnder him went away.

‖ This is a terrible example of Gods vengeance againſt them that are rebels or diſobedient to their parents

10 And one that ſawe it, tolde Ioáb, ſaying, Beholde, I ſawe Abſalóm hanged in an oke.

11 Then Ioáb ſaid vnto the man that tolde him, And haſt thou in dede ſene? why then dideſt not thou there ſmite him to the ground, and I wolde haue giuen thee ten ỹ ekel of ſiluer, and a girdle?

Gen 23.15

12 Then the man ſaid vnto Ioáb, Thogh I ſhulde "receiue a thouſand ſhekels of ſiluer in mine hād, yet wolde I not lay mine hād vpon the Kings ſonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abiſhái, & Ittái, ſaying, Beware, leſt anie touche the yong man Abſalóm.

"Ebr weigh vpō mine hand.

13 If I had done it, it had bene the "danger of my life: for nothing can be hid frō the King: yea, ỹ thy ſelfe woldeſt haue bene againſt me.

"Ebr a lye against my ſoule.

14 Then ſaid Ioáb, I wil not thus tary with thee. And he toke three dartes in his hand, & thruſt them "through Abſalóm, while he was yet aliue in the middes of the oke.

"Ebr in the heart of Abſalóm.

15 And ten ſeruāts that bare Ioabs armour, compaſſed about and ſmote Abſalóm, and ſlewe him.

16 Then Ioáb [d] blewe the trumpet, and the people returned from purſuing after Iſraél: for Ioáb helde backe the people.

d For he had pitie of ỹ people, which was ſeduced by Abſaloms flatterie.

17 And they toke Abſalóm, and caſt him into a great [e] pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of ſtones vpon him: and all Iſraél fled euerie one to his tent.

e Thus God turned his vaine glorie to ſhame.

18 Now Abſalóm in his life time had take and reared him vp a piller, which is in the *Kings dale: for he ſaid, I haue no [f] ſonne to kepe my name in remembrance. & he called ỹ piller after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Abſaloms place.

Gen.14.17.

f It ſemeth ỹ God had puniſhed hī, in taking away his children, Chap 14.27.

19 ¶ Then ſaid Ahimáaz the ſonne of Zadók, I pray thee, let me runne, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hathe "deliuered him out of the hand of his enemies.

"Ebr. iudged.

20 And Ioáb ſaid vnto him, Thou [g] ſhalt not be ỹ meſſenger to day, but thou ſhalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou ſhalt beare none: for the Kings ſonne is dead.

g For Ioáb bare a good affection to Ahimaaz, & doubted how Dauid wold take the reporte of Abſaloms death.

21 Thē ſaid Ioáb to Cuſhí, Go, tel the King what thou haſt ſene. And Cuſhi bowed him ſelfe vnto Ioáb, and ran.

22 Thē ſaid Ahimáaz the ſonne of Zadók againe to Ioáb, What, I pray thee, if I alſo runne after Cuſhi? And Ioáb ſaid, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my ſonne, ſeing that thou haſt no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then he ſaid vnto him, Rūne. So Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cuſhí.

24 Now Dauid ſate betwene ỹ two [h] gates. And the watcheman went to the toppe of the gate vpon the wall, & lift vp his eyes, and ſawe, and beholde, a man came rūning alone.

h He ſate in the gate of ỹ citie of Mahanaim.

25 And the watcheman cryed, & tolde the King And the King ſaid If he be alone, "he bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drewe nere.

"Ebr tidings are in his mouth.

26 And the watcheman ſawe an other man running, and the watcheman called vnto the porter, and ſaid, Beholde, another man runneth alone. And the King ſaid, He alſo bringeth tidings.

"Ebr. I ſe the running.

27 And the watcheman ſaid, "Me thinketh the running of the formoſt is like the running of Ahimáaz the ſonne of Zadók. Then the King ſaid, He is a[1] good man, & commeth with good tidings.

[1] He had had experience of his fidelitie, Chap 17,21.

28 And Ahimáaz called, and ſaid vnto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fel downe to the earth vpon his face before ỹ King, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord thy God, who hathe [o]ſhut vp the men that lift vp their hands againſt my lord the King.

[o] Or, deliuered vp

29 And the King ſaid, Is the yong man Abſalóm ſafe? And Ahimáaz anſwered, Whē Ioáb ſent the Kings [k] ſeruant, and me thy ſeruāt, I ſawe a great tumulte, but I knewe not what.

[k] To wit, Chuſhi, who was an Ethiopian

30 And the King ſaid vnto him, Turne aſide, & ſtand here. ſo he turned aſide and ſtode ſtil.

31 And beholde, Cuſhí came, and Cuſhí ſaid, "Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hathe deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all that roſe againſt thee.

"Ebr tidings is breght

32 Then the King ſaid vnto Cuſhí, Is the yong man Abſalóm ſafe? And Cuſhí anſwered, The enemies of my lord ỹ King, & all that riſe againſt thee to do thee hurt, be as that yong man is.

33 And the King was [l]moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: & as he went, thus he ſaid, O my ſonne Abſalóm, my ſonne, my ſonne Abſalóm: wolde God I had dyed for thee, ô Abſalóm, my ſonne, my ſonne.

[l] Becauſe he conſidered bothe the iudgemēt of God againſt his ſinne, & colde not otherwiſe hyde his fatherly affectiō toward his ſonne.

CHAP. XIX.

Ioáb encourageth the King. 8 Dauid is reſtored. 23 Shimei is pardoned. 24 Mephibóſheth meeteth the King. 39 Barzelái departeth. 41 Iſraél ſtriueth with Iudáh.

AND it was tolde Ioáb, Beholde, the King wepeth and mourneth for Abſalóm.

"Ebr ſaluation, or, deliuerance.

2 Therefore the "victorie of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard ſay that day, The King ſorroweth for his ſonne.

3 And the people wēt that day into the citie [p] ſecretly, as people confounded hide them ſelues when they flee in battel.

[p] Or, by ſtealthe.

[a] As they do that mourne.

4 So the King [a] hid his face, and the King cryed with a lowde voyce, My ſonne Abſalóm, Abſalóm my ſonne, my ſonne.

[b] At Mahanáim.

5 ¶ Then Ioáb came into [b] the houſe to the King & ſaid, Thou haſt ſhamed this day the faces of all thy ſeruāts, which this day haue ſaued thy life, and the liues of thy ſonnes and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and thē liues of thy concubines,

6 In that thou loueſt thine enemies, & hateſt thy friendes: for thou haſt declared this day, that thou regardeſt nether thy "princes nor ſeruants: therefore this day I perceiue, that if Abſalóm had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that thē it wolde haue" pleaſed thee wel.

"Or, captaines.

"Ebr bear right in thine eyes

7 Now therefore vp, come out, and ſpeake "cōfortably vnto thy ſeruāts: for I ſweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there wil not tary one man with thee this night: and that wil be worſe vnto thee, then all ỹ euil that fel on thee from thy youthe hetherto.

"Ebr to the heart of thy ſeruants

8 Then the King aroſe, & ſate in the [c] gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, ſaying, Beholde, the King doeth ſit in the gate: & all the people came before the King: for Iſraél had fled euerie man to his tent.

[c] Where the moſte reſorte of the people hanted.

9 ¶ Then all the people were at [d] ſtrife throughout all the tribes of Iſraél, ſaying, The King ſaued vs out of the hād of our enemies, & he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philiſtims, and now he is fled out of the land for Abſalóm.

[d] Euerie one blamed another & ſtrone who ſhulde firſt bring him home.

10 And Abſalóm, whome we anoīte d ouer vs, is dead in battel: therefore why are ye ſo ſlowe to bring the King againe?

11 But King Dauid ſent to Zadók and to Abiathár the [e] Prieſts, ſaying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudáh and ſay, Why are ye behind to bring ỹ King againe to his houſe, (for the ſaying of all Iſraél is come vnto the King, euen to his houſe)

[e] That they ſhulde reproue the negligence of ỹ Elders, ſeing the people were ſo forwarde.

12 Ye are my brethren: my bones and my fleſh are ye: wherefore then are ye the laſt that bring the King againe?

13 Alſo ſay ye to Amaſá, Art thou not my bone and my fleſh? God do ſo to me and more alſo, if thou be not captaine of the hoſte to me for euer in ỹ [f] roume of Ioáb.

[f] By this policie Dauid thoght ỹ by winning of the captaine, he ſhulde haue ỹ hearts of all the people.

14 So he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iudáh, as of one man: therefore they ſent to the King, ſaying, Returne thou with all thy ſeruants.

15 ¶ So the King returned, & came to Iordén. And Iudáh came to Gilgál, for to go to meete the King, & to conduct him ouer Iordén.

16 ¶ And [g] Shimeí ỹ ſonne of Gerá, the ſonne of Ieminí, which was of Bahurím, haſted & came downe with the men of Iudáh to meete King Dauid,

[g] Who had before reuiled him, Chap. 16,13

17 And a thouſand men of Beniamín with him, and *Zibá the ſeruant of the houſe of Saúl, and his fiftene ſonnes and twentie ſeruants with him: and they wēt ouer Iordén before ỹ King.

Chap. 16.

18 And there wēt ouer a bote to carie ouer the Kings houſholde, and to do him pleaſure. Then Shimeí the ſonne of Gerá fel before the King, when he was come ouer Iordén,

19 And

19 And ſaid vnto ỹ King, Let not my lord impute * wickednes vnto me, nor remember the thing that thy ſeruant did h wickedly when my lord the King departed out of Ieruſalém, that ỹ King ſhulde take it to his heart.

Chap.16,15.

h For in his aduerſitie he was his moſte cruel enemie, & now in his proſperitie ſeketh by flatterie to crepe into fauour.

20 For thy ſeruãt doeth knowe, that I haue done amiſſe: therefore beholde, I am the firſt this day of all the houſe of i Ioſéph, that am come to go downe to meete my lord the King.

i By Ioſéph he meaneth Ephráim, Manaſſéh, and Benia min (whereof he was) becauſe theſe thre were vnder one ſtanderd, Nomb 2,18

21 But Abiſhái the ſonne of Zeruiáh anſwered, and ſaid, Shal not Shimeí dye for this, becauſe he curſed the Lords anointed?

22 And Dauid ſaid, What haue I to do with you, ye ſonnes of Zeruiáh, that this day ye ſhulde be aduerſaries vnto me? ſhal there anie man dye this day in Iſrael? for do not I know, that I am this day King ouer Iſráél?

23 Therefore the King ſaid vnto Shimeí, Thou ſhalt not dye, and the King ſware vnto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibóſheth the ſonne of Saúl came downe to meete the King, and had nether waſhed his feete, nor dreſſed his bearde, nor waſhed his clothes from the time the King departed, vntil he returned in peace.

k When Mephibóſheth being at Ieruſalém had met the King.

25 And when k he was come to Ieruſalém, & met the King, the King ſaid vnto him, Wherefore wenteſt not thou with me, Mephibóſheth?

26 And he anſwered, My lord the King, my ſeruant diſceiued me: for thy ſeruant ſaid, I wolde haue mine aſſe ſadled to ride thereon for to go with the King, becauſe thy ſeruant is lame.

Chap.16,3.

27 And he hathe * accuſed thy ſeruant vnto my lord the King: but my lord ỹ King is as an l Angel of God: do therefore thy pleaſure.

l Able for his wiſdome to iudge in all matters.

28 For all my fathers houſe were m but dead men before my lord the King, yet dideſt thou ſet thy ſeruant among them ỹ did eat at thine owne table: what right therefore haue I yet to crye anie more vnto the King?

m Worthy to dye for Sauls crueltie towarde thee.

29 And the King ſaid vnto him, Why ſpeakeſt thou anie more of thy matters? I haue ſaid, Thou, and Zibá deuide the n lands.

n Dauid did euil in taking his lands from him before he knewe ỹ cauſe, but muche worſe, that knowing the trueth, he did not reſtore them.

30 And Mephibóſheth ſaid vnto ỹ King, Yea, let him take all, ſeing my lord the King is come home in peace.

31 ¶ Then Barzillái the Gileadite came downe from Rogelím, and went ouer Iordén with the King, to conduct him ouer Iordén.

32 Now Barzillái was a very aged man, euẽ foureſcore yere olde, and he had prouided the King of ſuſtenance, while he lay at Mahanáim: for he was a man of very great ſubſtance.

33 And the Kĩg ſaid vnto Barzillái, Come ouer with me, & I wil feede thee with me in Ieruſalém.

34 And Barzillái ſaid vnto ỹ King, "How long haue I to lyue, that I ſhulde go vp with the King to Ieruſalém?

"Ebr how many dates are the yeres of my life?

35 I am this day foureſcore yere olde: and cã I diſcerne betwene good or euil? Hathe thy ſeruant anie taſte in that I eat or in ỹ I drinke? Can I heare anie more the voice of ſinging men and women? wherefore then ſhulde thy ſeruant be anie more a o burthen vnto my lord the King?

o He thoght it not meete to receiue benefites of him to whome he was not able to do ſeruice againe.

36 Thy ſeruant wil go a litle way ouer Iordén with the King, and why wil the King recompence it me with ſuche a rewarde?

37 I pray thee, let thy ſeruant turne backe againe, that I may dye in mine owne citie, and be buryed in the graue of my father and of my mother: but beholde thy ſeruãt p Chimhám, let him go with my lord the King, & do to him what ſhal pleaſe thee.

p My ſonne

38 And the King anſwered, Chimhám ſhal go with me, and I wil do to him that thou ſhalt be content with: & whatſoeuer thou ſhalt q require of me, that wil I do for thee.

q Or, chuſe.

39 So all the people went ouer Iordén: and the King paſſed ouer: and the King kiſſed Barzillái, and r bleſſed him, and he returned vnto his owne place.

r Or, bade him fare wel

40 ¶ Then the King went to s Gilgál, and Chimhám went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the King, and alſo halfe the people of t Iſraél.

s Where the tribe of Iudáh taryed to receiue him

t Which had taken parte w the King.

41 And beholde, all the men of Iſraél came to the King, & ſaid vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudáh ſtolen thee away, and haue brought the King and his houſholde, and all Dauids men with him ouer u Iordén?

u Towarde Ieruſalém.

42 And all the men of Iudáh anſwered the men of Iſraél, Becauſe the King is nere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eatẽ of the Kings coſt, or haue we taken anie bribes?

43 And the men of Iſraél anſwered the mẽ of Iudáh, and ſaid, We haue ten partes in the King, and haue alſo more right to Dauid then ye, Why then did ye deſpiſe vs, x that our aduiſe ſhulde not be firſt had in reſtoring our King? And the wordes of the men of Iudáh were fearcer then the wordes of the men of Iſraél.

x Or, haue not we firſt ſpoken to bring home the King? verſ 11

CHAP. XX.

1 Shéba raiſeth Iſraél againſt Dauid 10 Ioáb killeth Amaſá traiterouſly 22 The head of Shéba is deliuered to Ioab. 23 Dauids chief officers.

1 THen there was come a thither a wicked man (named Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí, a man of Iemini) and he blewe the trumpet, and ſaid, We haue no parte in a Where the ten tribes contended againſt Iudáh.

b As thei of Iudáh say

b Dauid, nether haue we inheritance in ỹ ſonne c of Iſhái: euery man to his tents, ô Iſraél.

c He thoght by ſpeaking contéptcouſly of the King, to ſtirre ỹ people rather to ſedicion.

2 So euery man of Iſraél went from Dauid and followed Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí: but the men of Iudáh claue faſt vnto their King, from d Iordén euen to Ieruſalém.

d Frō Gilgál, which was nere Iordén

3 When Dauid then came to his houſe to Ieruſalém, the King toke the ten women his * concubines, that he had left behinde him to kepe the houſe, & put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were encloſed vnto ỹ day of their death, liuing in widowhode.

Chap 16.22.

e Who was his chief captaine in Ioabs roume, Chap 19.13

4 ¶Thē ſaid the King to e Amaſá, Aſſemble me the mē of Iudáh within thre daies, and be thou here preſent.

5 So Amaſá wēt to aſſemble Iudáh, but he taried longer then the time which he had appointed him.

6 Then Dauid ſaid to Abiſhái, Now ſhal Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí do vs more harme thē did Abſalóm: take thou therefore thy f lords ſeruants and followe after him, leſt he get him walled cities, & eſcape vs.

f Ether them which had bene vnder Ioáb, or Dauids mē Chap 8.19.

7 And there went out after him Ioabs mē, and the * Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mightie men: & thei departed out of Ieruſalém, to followe after Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí.

8 Whē thei were at the great ſtone, which is in Gibeón, Amaſá went before them, & Ioabs g garment, that he had put on, was girded vnto him, & vpon it was a ſworde girded, which hanged on his loines in the ſheath, & as he went, it vſed to falle out.

g Which was his coat, that he vſed to weare in the warres 9 And Ioáb ſaid to Amaſá, Art thou m "health, my brother? & Ioáb toke Amaſá by the beard with ỹ right hād to kiſſe him.

"Ebr. peace.

10 But Amaſá toke no hede to the ſworde that was in Ioabs hand: for therewith he ſmote him in the fift rib, and ſhed out his bowels to the grounde, & "ſmote him not the ſeconde time: ſo he dyed. then Ioáb & Abiſhái his brother followed after Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí.

"Ebr doubled not his ſtroke h He ſtode by Amaſá at Ioabs appointement.

11 And one of Ioabs men h ſtode by him, & ſaid, He that fauoreth Ioáb, & he that is of Dauids parte, let him go after Ioáb.

12 And Amaſá wallowed in blood in the middes of the way: & when the man ſawe that all the people ſtode ſtil, he remoued Amaſá out of the way into ỹ field, & caſt a cloth vpon him, becauſe he ſawe that euery one that came by him, ſtode ſtil.

13 ¶When he was remoued out of the way, euery man went after Ioáb, to followe after Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí.

i Vnto the citie Abél, which was nere to Bethmaachāh.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Iſraél vnto Abél, and i Bethmaachāh and all places of Berím: and thei gathered togethe, and went alſo after him.

15 So thei came, and beſieged him in Abél, nere to Bethmaachāh: and thei caſt vp a mount againſt the citie, & the people therof ſtode on the ramper, and all the people that was with Ioáb, k deſtroyed and caſt downe the wall.

k That is, he went about to ouerthrowe it.

16 Then cryed a wiſe woman out of the citie, Heare, heare, I pray you, ſay vnto Ioáb, Come thou hither, that I may ſpeake with thee.

17 And when he came nere vnto her, the womā ſaid, Art thou Ioáb? And he anſwered, Yea. And ſhe ſaid to him, Heare the wordes of thine handmayd. And he anſwered, I do heare.

18 Then ſhe ſpake thus, l Thei ſpake in the olde time, ſaying, Thei ſhulde aſke of Abél. and ſo haue thei continued.

l She ſheweth that the olde cuſtome was, not to deſtroie a citie, before peace was offred, Deut. 20. 11

19 I am m one of them, that are peaceable & faithful in Iſraél: and thou goeſt about to deſtroye a citie, and a mother in Iſraél: why wilt thou deuoure the inheritance of the Lord?

m She ſpeaketh in the name of ỹ citie.

20 And Ioáb anſwered, & ſaid, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I ſhulde deuoure, or deſtroye it.

21 The n matter is not ſo, but a mā of moūt Ephráim (Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí by name) hathe lift vp his hand againſt the King, euen againſt Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, & I wil departe from the citie. And the woman ſaid vnto Ioáb, Beholde, his head ſhalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall.

n Hearing his faute tolde hī, he gaue place to reaſon and required onely him that was autor of the treaſon.

22 Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wiſdome, and thei cut of the head of Shéba the ſonne of Bichrí, & caſt it to Ioáb: then he blewe the trumpet, and " thei retired from the citie, euery man to his tent: and Ioáb returned to Ieruſalém vnto the King.

"Ebr thei were ſcattered

23 ¶* Thē Ioáb was ouer all the hoſte of Iſraél, and Banaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá ouer the Cherethites & ouer ỹ Pelethites,

Chap 8.16.

24 And Adorám ouer the tribute, and Ioſhaphát the ſonne of Ahilúd the recorder,

25 And Sheiá was ſcribe, and Zadók and Abiathár the Prieſts, 26 And alſo Irá the Iairite was o chief about Dauid.

o Ether in dignitie, or familiaritie.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Thre deare yeres 9 The vengeance of the ſinnes of Saūl lighteth on his ſeuē ſonnes, which are hāged 15 Foure great battels, which Dauid had againſt the Philiſtims

1 THen there was a famine in the daies of Dauid, thre yeres " together: and Dauid" aſked counſel of the Lord, & the Lord anſwered, It is for Saúl, and for his bloodie houſe, becauſe he ſlewe the a Gibeonites.

"Ebr yere after yere

"Ebr ſought the face of the Lord

a Thinking to gratifie ỹ people, becauſe theſe were not of the ſeede of Abrahám. Ioſh 9.3.

2 Then the King called the Gibeonites, & ſaid vnto thē (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Iſraél, but * a remnant of the Amorites, vnto whome the children of Iſraél had ſworne: but Saúl ſoght ſoght to ſlaye thé for his zeale toward the children of Iſraél and Iudáh)

2971224

3 And Dauid ſaid vnto the Gibeonites, b What ſhal I do for you, and wherewith ſhal I make the atonement, that ye may bleſſe the inheritance of the Lord?

4 The Gibeonites then anſwered him, We wil haue no ſiluer nor gold of Saúl nor of his houſe, nether for vs ſhalt thou kil c anie man in Iſraél. And he ſaid, What ye ſhal ſay, that wil I do for you.

5 Then they anſwered the King, The man that conſumed vs and that imagined euil againſt vs, ſo that we are deſtroyed from remaining in anie coaſte of Iſraél,

6 Let ſeuen men of his d ſonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and we wil hang them vp e vnto the Lord in Gibeáh of Saúl, the Lords choſen. And the King ſaid, I wil giue them.

7 But the King had compaſſion on Mephibóſheth the ſóne of Ionathán the ſonne of Saúl, becauſe of the * Lords othe, that was betwene them, euen betwene Dauid and Ionathan the ſonne of Saúl.

8 But the King toke the two ſonnes of Rizpáh the daughter of Aiah, whome ſhe bare vnto Saúl, euen Armoní & Mephibóſheth and the fiue ſonnes of f Michál, the daughter of Saúl, whome ſhe bare to Abriél the ſonne of Barziliái the Meholathite.

9 And he deliuered them vnto the hands of the Gibeonites, which hãged them in the moũtaine before the Lord: ſo they " dyed all ſeuen together, and they were ſlaine in the time of harueſt: in the g firſt dayes, & in the beginning of barly harueſt.

10 Then Rizpáh the daughter of Aiáh toke h ſackcloth & hãged it vp for her vpõ the rocke, from the beginning of harueſt, vntil i water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and ſuffred nether the birdes of the aire to " light on them by day, nor beaſtes of the field by night.

11 ¶ And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpáh the daughter of Aiáh the concubine of Saúl had done.

12 And Dauid went and toke the bones of Saúl and the bones of Ionathán his ſonne from the citizens of Iabéſh Gileád, which had k ſtollen them from the ſtrete of Bethſhán, where the Philiſtíms had * handged them, when the Philiſtíms had ſlaine Saúl in Gilbóa.

13 So he brought thence the bones of Saúl and the bones of Ionathán his ſonne, and ther gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saúl and of Ionathán his ſonne buryed they in the countrei of Beniamín in Zeláh, in the graue of Kiſh his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then l appeaſed with the land.

15 ¶ Againe the Philiſtíms had warre with Iſraél: and Dauid went downe, and his ſeruants with him, and they fought againſt the Philiſtíms, and Dauid fainted.

16 Then Iſhi benób which was of the ſonnes of m Haraphàh (the head of whoſe ſpeare waied three hundreth n ſhekels of braſſe) euẽ he being girded with a newe ſword, thoght to haue ſlaine Dauid.

17 But Abiſhái the ſonne of Zeruiah ſuccoured him, and ſmote the Philiſtim, and killed him. Then Dauids men ſware vnto him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt go no more out with vs to battel, leſt thou quenche the o light of Iſraél.

18 ¶ And after this alſo there was a battel with the Philiſtíms at p Gob, then Sibbechái the Huſhathite ſlewe Saph, which was one of the ſonnes of Haraphàh.

19 And there was yet another battel in Gob with the Philiſtíms, where Elhanáh the ſonne of Iaare-oregím, a Bethlehemite ſlewe q Goliáth the Gittite: the ſtaffe of whoſe ſpeare was like a weauers beame.

20 Afterwarde there was alſo a battel in Gath, where was a man of a great ſtature, and had on euerie hand ſix fingers, and on euerie foote ſix toes, foure and twentie in nomber: who was alſo the ſonne of Haraphàh.

21 And when he reuiled Iſraél, Ionathán the ſonne of * Shimá the brother of Dauid ſlewe him.

22 Theſe foure were borne to Haraphàh in Gath, and dyed by the hand of Dauid and by the hands of his ſeruants.

CHAP. XXII.

2 Dauid after his victories praiſeth God. 8 The angre of God toward the wicked. 44 He propheciẽth of the reſection of the Iewes, and vocacion of the Gentiles.

1 AND Dauid ſpake the wordes of this a ſong vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saúl.

2 And he ſaid, * The Lord is my b rocke and my fortereſſe, and he that deliuereth me.

3 God is my " ſtrength, in him wil I truſt: my ſhield, and the ho ne of my ſaluacion, my hie towre and my refuge: my ſauiour, thou haſt ſaued me from violence.

4 I wil call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praiſed, ſo ſhal I be ſafe from mine enemies.

5 For the c pangs of death haue compaſſed me: the floods of vngodlines haue made me afraide.

6 The ſorowes of the graue compaſſed me about: the ſnares of death ouertoke me.

b Wherewith may your wrath be appeaſed, & you may pray to God to remoue this plague from his people.

c Saue onely of Sauls ſtocke d Of Sauls kinſemen.

e To pacifie & Lord.

2. Sam. 18,3.

f Here Michál is named for Merábs Adriels wife as appeareth 1 Sam 18, 19. for Michál was the wife of Paltiel, 1 Sam 25.44, & neuer had childe, 2 Sam 6,23

" Ebr fil

g Which was in the moneth Abíb or Niſan, which conteineth parte of Marche and parte of April.

h To make her a tẽt, wherein ſhe prayed to God to turne away his wrath

i Becauſe drought was & cauſe of this famine, God by ſending of raine ſhewed & he was pacified.

" Or, reſt.

2. Sam. 31,10.

k For where & magiſtrat ſuffreth ſinnes vnpuniſhed, there the plague of God lyeth vpõ the land l That is, of & race of Gyãts.

m Which amounte to nine pounde thre quarters.

n For the glorie and welth of the cõtrey ſtandeth in the preſeruacion of the godly magiſtrate

o Called Gézer, and Zaph is called Zippái, 1 Chro 20, 4 p That is, Lahmi the brother of Goliáth, whome Dauid ſlewe, 1 Chro 20,5

1. Sam. 16,9.

Pſal 18,2.

b By the diuerſitie of theſe cõuert ble names, he ſheweth how his faith was ſtrengthened in all tentacions

" Or, rocke

c As Dauid (who was the figure of Chriſt) was by Gods power deliuered frõ all dangers: ſo Chriſt and his Church ſhal euercom moſte grieuous dãgers tyrannie and vsage

7 But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and crye to my God, & he did heare my voice out of his temple, & my crye did enter into his eares.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the fundacions of the heauens moued, and ſhoke, becauſe he was angry.

9 [d] Smoke went out at his noſtrels, and cõſuming [e] fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat.

10 He [f] bowed the heauens alſo, and came downe, and darkenes was vnder his feete.

11 And he rode vpon [g] Cherúb and did flye, and he was ſene vpon the wings of the winde.

12 And he made darknes a tabernacle rounde about him, euen the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the aire.

13 At the brightnes of his preſence [h] the coles of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundred from heauen, & the moſte hye gaue his voyce.

15 He ſhot arrowes alſo, and ſcatred them: to wit, lightning, and deſtroyed them.

16 The [i] chanels alſo of the ſea appeared, euen the fundacions of the worlde were diſcouered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blaſt of the breath of his noſtrels.

17 He ſent from aboue, and toke me: he drewe me out of manie waters.

18 He deliuered me from my ſtrong enemie, and from thẽ that hated me: for they were to ſtrong for me.

19 They [k] preuented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my ſtay, 20 And broght me forthe into a large place: he deliuered me, becauſe he fauored me.

21 The Lord rewarded me according to my [l] righteouſnes: according to the purenes of mine hands he recompenced me.

22 For I kept the wayes of the Lord, and did not [m] wickedly againſt my God.

23 For all his lawes were before me, and his ſtatutes: I did not departe therefrom.

24 I was vpright alſo towarde him, and haue kept me from my wickednes.

25 Therefore the Lord did rewarde me, according to my righteouſnes, according to my purenes before his eyes.

26 With ẏ godlie thou wilt ſhewe thy ſelfe godlie: with the vpright man thou wilt ſhewe thy ſelfe vpright.

27 With the pure thou wilt ſhewe thy ſelfe pure, and with the [n] frowarde thou wilt ſhewe thy ſelfe frowarde.

28 Thus thou wilt ſaue the poore people: but thine eyes are vpon the hautie to hũble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, ô Lord: and the Lord wil lighten my darkenes.

30 For by thee haue I broken through an hoſte, and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall.

31 The wáy of God is [o] vncorrupt: the worde of the Lord is tryed in the fire: he is a ſhield to all that truſt in him.

32 For who is God beſides the Lord? and who is mighty, ſaue our God?

33 God is my ſtrength in battel, and maketh my way vpright.

34 He maketh my feete like [p] hindes feete, and hathe ſet me vpon mine hie places.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, ſo that a bowe of [q] braſſe is broken with mine armes.

36 Thou haſt alſo giuen me the ſhield of thy ſaluacion, and thy louing kindenes hathe cauſed me to increaſe.

37 Thou haſt enlarged my ſteppes vnder me, and mine heeles haue not ſlid.

38 I haue purſued mine enemies and deſtroyed them, and haue not turned againe vntil I had conſumed them.

39 Yea, I haue conſumed them and thruſt them through, and they ſhal not ariſe, but ſhal fall vnder my feete.

40 For thou haſt [q] girded me with power to battel, and them that aroſe againſt me, haſt thou ſubdued vnder me.

41 And thou haſt giuen me the neckes of mine enemies, that I might deſtroy them that hate me.

42 They loked about, but there was nòne to ſaue them, euen vnto the [r] Lord, but he anſwered them not.

43 Then did I beate thẽ as ſmall as the duſt of the earth: I did tread them flat as the clay of the ſtreete, and did ſpread them abroad.

44 Thou haſt alſo deliuered me from the contẽcions of my [ſ] people: thou haſt preſerued me to be the head ouer nacions: the people which I knewe not, do ſerue me.

45 Strangers [t] ſhalbe in ſubiection to me: aſſone as they heare, they ſhal obey me.

46 Strangers ſhal ſhrinke away, and feare in their priuie chambers.

47 Let the Lord liue, [u] and bleſſed be my ſtrength: and God, euen the force of my ſaluacion be exalted.

48 It is God that giueth me power to reuẽge me, and ſubdue the people vnder me, 49 And reſcueth me from mine enemies: (ẏ alſo haſt lift me vp from them that roſe againſt me, thou haſt deliuered me from the cruel man.

50 Therefore I wil praiſe thee, ô Lord, among the * nacions, and wil ſing vnto thy Name) Rom 15,9.

51 He is the towre of ſaluaciõ for his King, and ſheweth mercy to his Anointed, euen to Dauid, and to his ſeede * for euer. Chap.7,13.

d That is, cloudes, and vapors.
e Lightening & thũdering.
f So it ſemeth when the aire is darcke
g To flie in a moment through the worlde.
h By this deſcription of a tempeſt he declareth the power of God againſt his enemies
i He alludeth to the miracle of the red Sea.
k I was ſo beſet, that all meanes ſemed to faile.
l Toward Saul and mine enemies
m I attempted nothing without his commandement n Their wickednes is cauſe, that thou ſemeſt to forget thy wonted mercie o The maner ẏ God vſeth to ſuccour his, neuer faileth p He vſeth extraordinarie meanes to make me winne moſte ſtrong holdes q Or, ſteele.
q He acknowledgeth that God was the autor of his victories, who gaue him ſtrength.
r The wicked in their neceſſitie are compelled to flie to God, but it is to late.
ſ Meaning, of ẏ Iewes, who conſpired againſt me t Not willingly obeyig me, but diſſemblingly.
u Let him ſhewe his power, that he is the gouernour of all the worlde

CHAP XXIII.

1 The laſt wordes of Dauid. 6 The wicked ſhalbe plucke pluckt vp as thornes. 8 The names and facts of his mighty men 15 He desired water and wolde not drinke it.

1 THese also be the [a] last wordes of Dauid, Dauid the sonne of Ishái saith, euen the man who was set vp on hie, the Anointed of the God of Iaakób, and the swete singer of Isráél saith,

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his worde was in my [b] tongue.

3 The God of Isráél spake to me, ỹ stregth of Israél said, Thou shalt beare rule ouer mẽ, being iust, and ruling in the feare of God.

4 Euen as the morning light when ỹ sunne riseth, the morning, I say, without clouds, so shal mine house be, and not as the [c] grasse of the earth is by the bright raine.

5 For so shal not mine house be with God: for he hathe made with me an euerlasting couenãt, perfit in all points, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that he wil not make it [d] growe so.

6 But the wicked shal be euerie one as thornes thrust away, because they can not be taken with hands.

7 But the man that shal touche them, must be defensed with yron, or with the shaft of a speare. & they shal be burnt with fire in the same place.

8 ¶These be the names of the mighty men whome Dauid had. He that sate in ỹ seate of [e] wisdome being chief of the princes, was Adinó of Ezní, he slewe eight hundreth at one time.

9 And after him was * Eleazár the sonne of Dodó, the sonne of Ahohí, one of the thre worthies with Dauid, when they [f] defied ỹ Philistíms gathered there to battel, when the men of Israél were [g] gone vp.

10 He arose and smote the Philistíms vntil his hand was weary, and his hand [g] claue vnto the sworde: and the Lord gaue great victorie the same day, and the people returned after him onely to spoile.

11 After him was * Shammáh the sonne of Agé the Hararite: for ỹ Philistíms assembled at a towne, where was a piece of a field ful of lentils, and the people fled frõ the Philistíms.

12 But he stode in the middes of the field, and defended it, and slewe the Philistíms: so the Lord gaue [h] great victorie.

13 ¶Afterward thre of the thirty captaines went downe, and came to Dauid in the haruest time vnto the caue of Adullám, & the hoste of the Philistíms pitched in the valley [f] of Rephaím.

14 And Dauid was then in an holde, and the garison of the Philistíms was then in Beth-léhem.

15 And Dauid [i] longed, and said, Oh, that on wolde giue me to drinke of the water of the well of Beth-léhem, which is by the gate.

16 Thẽ the thre migty brake into the hoste of the Philistíms, and drewe water out of the well of Beth-léhem that was by the gate, and toke & broght it to Dauid, who wolde not drinke thereof, but [k] powred it for an offring vnto the Lord,

17 And said, O Lord, be it far from me, that I shulde do this. Is not this ỹ blood of the men that wẽt in ieopardy of their liues? therefore he wolde not drinke it. These things did these thre mighty men.

18 ¶*And Abishái the brother of Ioáb, the sonne of Zeruiáh, was chief among ỹ thre, and he lifted vp his speare against thre hundreth, [l] and slewe them, and he had the name among the thre.

19 For he was moste excellent of the thre, and was their captaine. but he atteined not vnto the first thre.

20 And Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá the sonne of [m] a valiant man, which had done many actes, & was of Kabzeél, slewe two strong men of Moáb: he went downe also, and slewe a lion in the middes of a pit in the time of snowe.

21 And he slewe an Egyptian a [n] mã of great stature, and the Egyptian had a [o] speare in his hand: but he went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptiás hand, & slewe him with his owne speare.

22 These things did Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, & had the name amõg the thre worthies.

23 He was honorable among [p] thirty, but he atteined not to the first thre: and Dauid made him of his counsel.

24 ¶*Asahél the brother of Ioáb was one of the thirty: Elhanán the sonne of Dodó of Beth-léhem:

25 Shammáh the Harodite: Eliká the Harodite:

26 Hélez the * [q] Paltite: Iirá the sonne of Ikkésh the Tekoite:

27 Abiézer the Anethothite: [r] Mebunnái ỹ Husathite:

28 Zalmón an Ahohite: Maharái the Netophathite:

29 Héleb the sonne of Baanáh a Netophathite: Ittái the sonne of Ribái of Gibeáh of the children of Beniamín.

30 Benaiáh the Pirathonite: Hiddái of the riuer of Gaásh:

31 Abi-álbon the Arbathite: Azmáueth the Barhumite:

32 Eliahbá the Shaalbonite: of the sonnes of Iashén, Ionathán:

33 Shammáh the Hararite: Ahiám the sonne of Sharár the Hararite:

34 Eliphélet the sonne of Ahasbái the sonne of Maachathi: Eliám the sonne of Ahithóphel the Gilonite:

a Which he spake after ỹ he had made the Psalmes b Meaning, he spake nothing but by the motion of Gods Spirit.

c Which groweth quickely and fadeth sone

d But that my kingdome may continue for euer according to his promes e As one of ỹ Kings counsel.

1 Chro 11,12.

f Or, assailed with dager of their liues

f Meaning, fled from the battel

g By a crãpe which came of wearines and straining.

1 Chro 11,27.

h Who hathe neither respect to many nor fewe, when he wil shewe his power

f Or, Gyaats

i Being ouercome vi wearines & thirst

k Bridelig his affection, and also desiring God not to be offended for ỹ rash enterprise.

1 Chro 11,20.

l Ebr. staine.

m Or, a comely man n Which was bigge as a weauers beame, 1 Chro 11,23.

o Before Chap 2,18.

m He was more valiant thẽ ỹ 30 that follow, and not so valiant as the 6 before

1 Chro 11,27.

q Or, Peleatte.

r Diuers of these had two names, as appeareth 1 Chro 11 and also many more are there mencioned.

35 Hezrái the Carmelite: Paarái the Arbite:
36 Igál the ſonne of Nathán of Zobáh: Baní the Gadite:
37 Zélek the Ammonite: Naharái the Beerothite, the armour bearer of Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh:
38 Irá the Ithrite Garéb the Ithrite:
39 Vriáh the Hittite, ° thirty and ſeuen in all.

° Theſe came to Dauid and helped to reſtore him to his kingdome

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Dauid cauſeth the people to be nombred. 10 He repenteth, and chuſeth to fall into Gods hands 15 Seuentie thouſand periſh with the peſtilence.

1 AND the wrath of the Lord was [a] againe kindled againſt Iſraél, and [b] he moued Dauid againſt them, in that he ſaid, Go, nomber Iſraél and Iudáh.
2 For the King ſaid to Ioáb the captaine of the hoſte, which was with him, Go ſpedely now through all the tribes of Iſraél, from Dan euen to Beer-ſhéba and nomber ye the people, that I may knowe the [c] nomber of the people.
3 And Ioáb ſaid vnto the King, The Lord thy God increaſe the people an hundreth folde mo then they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King maye ſe it: but why doeth my lord the King deſire this thing?
4 Notwithſtanding the Kings worde preuailed againſt Ioáb & againſt the captaines of the hoſte: therefore Ioáb & the captaines of the hoſte went out from the preſence of the King, to nomber the people of Iſraél.
5 ¶And they paſſed ouer Iordén, and pitched in Aroér at the right ſide of the citie that is in the middes of the [d] valley of Gad and toward Iazér.
6 Then they came to Gileád, and to [e] Tahtim hodſhi, ſo they came to Dan Iaán, & ſo about to Zidón;
7 And came to the fortereſſe of Tyrus and to all the cities of the Hiuites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudáh, euen to Beer-ſhéba.
8 So when they had gone about all the lánd, they returned to Ieruſalém at the end of nine moneths and twentie dayes.
9 ¶And Ioáb deliuered the nomber and ſumme of the people vnto the King: and there were in Iſraél [d] eight hundreth thouſand ſtrong men that drewe ſwordes, and the men of Iudáh were [e] fiue hundreth thouſand men.
10 The Dauids heart ſmote him, after that he had nombred the people: and Dauid ſaid vnto the Lord, I haue ſinned excedingly in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beſeche thee, take away the treſpaſſe of thy ſeruant: for I haue done very fooliſhly.
11 ¶And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids [f] Seer, ſaying, 12 Go, and ſay vnto Dauid, Thus ſayth the Lord, I offre thee thre things, chooſe thee which of them I ſhal do vnto thee.
13 So Gad came to Dauid, and ſhewed hi; and ſaid vnto him, Wilt thou that [g] ſeuen yeres famine come vpon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee thre moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be thre daies peſtilence in thy land: now aduiſe thee, and ſe, what anſwer I ſhal giue to him that ſent me.
14 ¶And Dauid ſaid vnto Gad, I am in a wonderful ſtraite: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hād of man.
15 So the Lord ſent a peſtilence in Iſraél, from the morning euen to the time appointed: and there dyed of the people fro [h] Dan euen to Beer-ſhéba ſeuentie thouſand men.
16 And when the Angel ſtretched out his hand vpon Ieruſalém to deſtroy it, the Lord *repéted of the euil, and ſaid to the Angel that deſtroyed the people, It is ſufficient, [i] holde now thine hand And the Angel of the Lord was by the threſhing place of Araunáh the Iebuſite.
17 And Dauid ſpake vnto the Lord (when he ſawe the Angel that ſmote the people) & ſaid, Beholde, I haue ſinned, yea, I haue done wickedly: but theſe ſhepe, what haue they [k] done? let thine hand, I praye thee, be againſt me & againſt my fathers houſe.
18 ¶So Gad came the ſame day to Dauid, and ſaid vnto him, Go vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threſhing floore of Araunáh the Iebuſite.
19 And Dauid (according to the ſaying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded.
20 And Araunáh loked, and ſawe the King and his ſeruants comming towarde him, and Araunáh went out, and bowed him ſelfe before the King on his face to the grounde, 21 And [l] Araunáh ſaid, Wherefore is my lord the King come to his ſeruant? Then Dauid anſwered, To bye the threſhing floore of thee, for to buylde an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may ceaſe from the people.
22 Then Araunáh ſaid vnto Dauid, Let my lord the King take and offer what ſemeth him good in his eyes: beholde the oxen for the burnt offring, and charets, and the inſtruments of the oxen for wood.
23 All theſe things did Araunáh [m] as a King giue vnto the King: & Araunáh ſaid vnto the King, The Lord thy God be fauorable vnto thee.
24 Then

[a] Before they were plagued with famine, Chap 21.1
[b] The Lord permitted Satan, as 1 Chro. 21,1
[c] Becauſe he did this to trie his power and ſo to truſt therein, it offended God, els it was lawful to nōber ỹ people, Exod.30 12. Nomb 1,2 [d] Or, plaine.
[e] Or, to the nether ſide ne vly inhabited
[f] Whome God had appoinred for Dauid and his time
[g] For 3 yeres of famine were paſt for the Gibeonites matter: this was ỹ 4 yere, to the which ſhulde haue bene added other 3. yeres more, 1 Chro 21,12.
[h] Frō the one ſide of the countrey to ỹ other.
[i] The Lord ſpared this place, becauſe he had choſen it to buylde his temple there.
[k] Dauid ſawe not ỹ iuſt cauſe, why God plagued ỹ people & therefore he offreth him ſelfe to Gods corrections, as the onely cauſe of this euil.
[l] Called alſo Ornan, 1. Chro. 21,20.
[m] That is, abſolutely, for as ſome write, he was King of Ieruſalém before Dauid wāne ỹ towne.

[d] Accordīg to Ioabs counte: for in all there were eleuen hūdreth thouſand, 1 Chro 21,5
[e] Concluding vnder the the Beniamites: for els they had but foure hundreth & ſeuentie thouſand, 1 Chro 21,5

24 Thē the King ſaid vnto Araunáh, Not ſo, but I wil by it of thee at a price, & wil not offer burnt offrīng vnto the Lord my God of that which doeth coſt me nothīg. So Dauid boght the threſhing floore, and the oxen for [n] fiftie ſhekels of ſiluer.

25 And Dauid buylt there an altar vnto the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings, & the Lord was appeaſed toward the land, & the plague ceaſed from Iſraél.

n Some write, that euery tribe gaue 50, ẅ make 600, or ẏ afterwarde he boght as muche as came to 550 ſhekels, 1. Chron. 21, 25.

THE FIRST BOKE OF the Kings.

THE ARGVMENT.

BEcauſe the children of God ſhulde loke for no continual reſt and quietnes in this worlde, the holy Goſt ſetteth before our eyes in this boke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Iſraél from the death of Dauid, Salomón and the reſt of the Kings, vnto the death of Aháb, declaring how that floriſhing kingdomes, except they be preſerued by Gods protection, (who then fauoreth them when his worde is truely ſet forthe, vertue eſtemed, vice puniſhed and concorde maintened) fall to decay and come to naught: as appeareth by the diuiding of the kingdome vnder Robohám, and Ierobohám, which before were but all one people, and now by the iuſte puniſhment of God were made two, whereof Iudáh and Beniamín clawe to Robohám: and this was called the kingdome of Iudáh, and the other ten tribes helde with Ierobohám, and this was called the kingdome of Iſraél. The King of Iudáh had his throne in Ieruſalém, and the King of Iſraél in Samaria, after it was buylte by Amri Ahabs father. And becauſe our Sauiour Chriſt according to the fleſh ſhulde come of the ſtocke of Dauid, the genealogie of the Kings of Iudáh is here deſcribed, from Salomón to Iorám the ſonne of Ioſaphát, who reigned ouer Iudáh in Ieruſalém, as Aháb did ouer Iſraél in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

3 Abiſhág keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adoniiáh vſurpeth the kingdome. 20 Salomón is anounted King. 50 Adoniiáh fleeth to the altar.

1 NOw when King Dauid was [a] olde, and ſtriken in yeres, they couered him ẅ clothes, but no [b] heate came vnto him.

a He was about 70 yere olde, 2. Sam. 5. 4.

b For his natural heate was worne away with trauels.

2 Wherefore his ſeruāts ſaid vnto him, Let there be ſoght for my lord the King a yong virgin, and let her [c] ſtand before the King, and cheriſh him: & let her lye in thy boſome, that my lord the King may get heate.

c Or, ſerue him.

3 So they ſoght for a faire yong maid throughout all the coaſtes of Iſrael, and founde one Abiſhág [c] a Shunammite, and broght her to the King.

c Which citie was in the tribe of Iſſachár.

4 And the maid was exceding faire, & cheriſhed the King, and miniſtred to him, but the King knewe her not.

5 ¶ Then Adoniiáh the ſonne of Haggíth exalted him ſelfe, ſaying, I wil be King. And he gate him charets and horſemen, & [d] fifty men to runne before him.

d Read, 2. Sam. 15. 1.

6 And his father wolde not diſpleaſe him frō his [e] childehode, to ſay, Why haſt thou done ſo? And he was a very goodly mā, & his mother bare him next after Abſalóm.

e Or, daies.

7 And [f] he toke counſel of Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh, and of Abiathár the Prieſt: & f Ebr, his wordes were with Ioáb.

they [e] helped forward Adoniiáh.

e They toke his part & followed him.

8 But Zadók the Prieſt, and Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá, and Nathán the Prophet, & Shimei, & Reí, & ẏ men of might ẅ were with Dauid, were not ẅ Adoniiáh.

9 Then Adoniiáh ſacrificed ſhepe & oxen, and fat cattel by the ſtone of Zohéleth, which is by [g] En-rogél, and called all his brethren the Kings ſonnes, & all the men of Iudáh the Kings ſeruants, g Or, the fountaine.

10 But Nathán the Prophet, & Benaiáh, and the [f] mighty men, and Salomón his brother he called not.

f As the Cherethites & Pelethites.

11 Wherefore Nathán ſpake vnto Bath-ſhéba the mother of Salomón, ſaying, Haſt thou not heard, that Adoniiáh the ſonne *of Haggíth doeth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

*2. Sam. 3. 4.

12 Now therefore come, & I wil now giue thee counſel, how to ſaue thine owne [g] life, and the life of thy ſonne Salomón.

g For Adoniiah wil deſtroy thee and thy ſonne, if he reigne.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, & ſay vnto him, dideſt not thou, my lord, ô King, ſweare vnto thine hādmaid, ſayīg, Aſſuredly Salomón thy ſonne ſhal reigne after me, and he ſhal ſit vpon my throne? why is then Adoniiáh King?

14 Beholde, while ẏ yet talkeſt there with the King, I alſo wil come in after thee, & [h] comfirme thy wordes.

h By declaring ſuche things, as may further the ſame.

15 ¶ So Bath-ſhéba went in vnto the King into ẏ chāber, & the King was very olde, and Abiſhág the Shunammite miniſtred vnto the King.

16 And Bath-ſhéba bowed and made obeiſance vnto the King. And the King ſaid, What is thy matter?
17 And ſhe anſwered hī, My lord, thou ſwareſt by the Lord thy God vnto thine hādmaid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Salomón thy ſonne ſhal reigne after me, and he ſhal ſit vpon my throne.
18 And beholde, now is Adonīáh King, & now, my lord, ô King, thou knoweſt it not.
19 And he hathe offred many oxen, and fat cattel, and ſhepe, and hathe called all the ſonnes of the King, & Abiathár ỹ Prieſt, & Ioáb the captaine of the hoſte: but Salomón thy ſeruant hathe he not bidden.
20 And thou, my lord, ô King, knoweſt that the eyes of all Iſraél are on thee, that thou ſhuldeſt tel them, who ſhulde ſit on the throne of my lord the King after him.
21 For els whē my lord the King ſhal ſlepe with his fathers, I and my ſonne Salomón ſhalbe [k] reputed "vile.
22 And lo, while ſhe yet talked with the King, Nathán alſo the Prophet came in.
23 And they tolde the King, ſaying, Beholde, Nathán the Prophet. And when he was come in to ỹ King, he made obeiſance before the King vpon his face [l] to the grounde.
24 And Nathán ſaid, My lord, ô King, haſt thou ſaid, Adonīáh ſhal reigne after me, and he ſhal ſit vpon my throne?
25 For he is gone downe this day, & hathe ſlaine many oxen, and fat cattel and ſhepe, and hathe called all the Kings ſonnes, & the captaines of the hoſte, & Abiathár the Prieſt and beholde, they eat & drinke before him, and ſay, "God ſaue King Adonīáh.
26 But me thy ſeruāt, and Zadók the Prieſt and Benaiah the ſonne of Iehoiadá, and thy ſeruant Salomón hathe he not called.
27 Is this thing done by my lord the King, & thou haſt not ſhewed it vnto thy [m] ſeruant, who ſhulde ſit on the throne of my lord the King after him?
28 ¶ Then King Dauid anſwered, & ſaid, Call me Bath ſheba. And ſhe came into ỹ Kings preſence, and ſtoode before the King.
29 And the King ſware, ſaying, As ỹ Lord liueth, who hathe redemed my ſoule out of all aduerſitie, 30 That as I [n] ſware vnto thee by the Lord God of Iſraél, ſaying, Aſſuredly Salomón thy ſonne ſhal reigne after me, and he ſhal ſit vpon my throne in my place, ſo wil I certeinly do this day.
31 Then Bath-ſhéba bowed her face to the earth, & did reuerēce vnto ỹ Kīg, & ſaid, God ſaue my lord King Dauid for euer.
32 ¶ And King Dauid ſaid, Call me Zadók the Prieſt, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiah the ſonne of Iehoiadá. And they came before the King.
33 Then the King ſaid vnto them, Take with you the [o] ſeruants of your lord, and cauſe Salomón my ſonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, & cary him downe to Gihón.
34 And let Zadók the Prieſt and Nathán the Prophet anoint him there King ouer Iſraél, and blowe ye the trumpet, and ſay, God ſaue King Salomón.
35 Then come vp after him, that he may come and ſit vpon my throne: and he ſhal be King in my ſteade: for I haue "appointed him to be prince ouer Iſraél and ouer Iudah.
36 Then Benaiah the ſonne of Iehoiadá anſwered the King, & ſaid, So be it, & the Lord God of my lord the King "ratifie it.
37 As the Lord hathe bene with my lord ỹ King, ſo be he with Salomón, & exalt his throne aboue the throne of my lord King Dauid.
38 So Zadók the Prieſt, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiah the ſonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites & the Pelethites wēt downe, and cauſed Salomón to ride vpon King Dauids mule, and brogh him to Gihón.
39 And Zadók the Prieſt toke an horne of [p] oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomón and "blewe the trumpet, and all the people ſaid, God ſaue King Salomón.
40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes & reioyced with great ioye, ſo that the earth "rāg with the ſounde of them.
41 ¶ And Adonīáh and all the geſtes that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Ioáb heard the ſounde of the trumpet, he ſaid, What meaneth this noiſe & vproie in the citie?
42 And as he yet ſpake, beholde, Ionathán the ſonne of Abiathár the Prieſt came: & Adonīáh ſaid, Come in: for ỹ art "a worthy man, and bringeſt [q] good tidings.
43 And Ionathán anſwered, and ſaid to Adonīáh, Verely our lord King Dauid hathe made Salomón King.
44 And the King hathe ſent with him Zadók the Prieſt, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiah the ſonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue cauſed him to ride vpon the Kings mule.
45 And Zadók the Prieſt, and Nathán the Prophet haue anointed him King in Gihón: and thei are gone vp frō thence with ioye, and the citie is moued: this is the noiſe

1 The King being worne with age, cold not attend to ỹ affaires of the realme, & alſo Adonīáh had many flatterers which kept it fro the King.
k And ſo put to death as wicked tranſgreſſers "Ebr ſinners l Acknowledging him to be ỹ true & worthy King appointed of God as the figure of his Chriſt.
"Ebr let the King Adonīáh liue.
m Meaning, ỹ he ought in ſuche affaires enterprise nothing except he had conſulted with the Lord.
n Moued by ỹ Spirit of God ſo to do, becauſe he foreſawe that Salomón ſhulde be ỹ figure of Chriſt.
o Meaning, the Kings ſeruants & ſuche as were of his garde.
"Ebr cōmāded.
"Ebr ſay ſo.
p Wherewith they accuſtomed to anoint the Prieſtes & the holy inſtruments, Exod. 30, 23.
"Ebr. brake.
"Ebr a man of power
q He praiſed Ionathán thim king to haue heard cōfortable newes, but God wroght things cōtrary to his expectation, and ſo did beat downe his pride.

noiſe that ye haue heard.

46 And Salomón alſo ſitteth on the throne of the kingdome.

47 And moreouer the Kings ſeruants came [r] to bleſſe our lord King Dauid, ſaying, God make the name of Salomón more famous then thy name, & exalt his throne aboue thy throne: therefore the King worſhiped vpon the [f] bed.

48 And thus ſaid the King alſo, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſraél, who hathe made one to ſit on my throne this day, euen in my ſight.

49 Then all the geſtes that were with Adoniiáh, were afraied, and roſe vp, & went euery man his waye.

50 ¶ And Adoniiáh fearing the preſence of Salomón, aroſe and went, and toke holde on the hornes of the [t] altar.

51 And one tolde Salomón, ſayīg, Beholde, Adoniiáh doeth feare King Salomón: for lo, he hathe caught holde on the hornes of ỹ altar, ſaying, Let King Salomón ſweare vnto me this day, that he wil not ſlaye his ſeruant with the ſworde.

52 Thē Salomón ſaid, If he wil ſhewe him ſelfe a worthy man, there ſhal not an heere of him fall to the earth, but if wickednes be found in him, he ſhal dye.

53 Thē King Salomón ſent, & thei broght him from the altar, and he came and did obeiſance vnto King Salomón. And Salomón ſaid vnto him, Go to thine houſe.

r To ſalute him & to pray & praiſe God for him

f He gaue God thākes for the good ſucceſſe t Which Dauid his father had buylt in ỹ floore of Aranuáh.

CHAP. II.

Dauid exhorteth Salomón, and giueth charge as concerning Ioáb, Barzillái, and Shimei. 10 The death of Dauid. 17 Adonijah aſketh Abiſhag to wife. 25 He is ſlayne. 35 Zadók was placed in Abiathars rowme.

1 THen the daies of Dauid drewe nere that he ſhulde dye, and he charged Salomón his ſonne, ſaying,

2 I go the [a] waie of all the earth: be ſtrong therefore, and ſhewe thy ſelfe a man,

3 And take hede to ỹ [b] charge of the Lord thy God, to walke in his waies, & kepe his ſtatutes, & his cōmandements, & his iudgemēts, & his teſtimonies, as it is written in the Lawe of Moſēs, that thou maieſt *[c] proſper in all that thou doeſt, and in euery thing whereunto thou turneſt thee,

4 That the Lord may confirme his worde which he ſpake vnto me, ſayīg, If thy ſonnes take hede to their way, that thei walke before me in [c] trueth, with all their hearts, and with all their ſoules, *[c] thou ſhalt not (ſaid he) want one of thy poſteritie vpon the throne of Iſraél.

5 Thou knoweſt alſo what Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh did to me, and what he did to the two captaines of the hoſtes of Iſraél, vnto * Abnér the ſonne of Ner, and vnto * Amaſá the ſonne of Iethér: whome he ſlewe, and [d] ſhed blood of battel in peace, a I am ready to dye, as all men muſt.

b He ſheweth how hard a thing it is to gouerne, and that none can do it wel, except he obey God

Deut. 29,9. Ioſh. 1,7.

c Or, do wiſely

c And without hypocriſie

2 Sam. 7,12.

c Ebr. a man ſhal not be cut of to thee from of the throne

2 Sam. 3,27.

2 Sam. 20,10.

d He ſhed his blood in time of peace, as if there had bene warre.

and [e] put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his ſhooes that were on his feete.

e He put the bloody ſworde into his ſheathe.

6 Do therefore according to thy wiſdome, and let thou not his hoare head go downe to the graue in peace.

7 But ſhewe kindenes vnto the ſonnes of * Barzillái the Gileadite, and let them be among them that eat at thy table: [f] for ſo thei came to me when I fled from Abſalóm thy brother.

2 Sam. 19,31.

f That is, they delt mercifully with me

8 ¶ And beholde, with thee * [g] Shimeí the ſonne of Gerá, the ſonne of Ieminí, of Bahurím, which curſed me with an horrible curſe in ỹ day when I went to Mahanáim: but he came downe to meete me at Iordén, and I ſware to him by the Lord, ſaying, * I wil not ſlaye thee with the ſworde.

2 Sam. 16,5.

2 Sam. 19,23.

9 But thou ſhalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wiſe man, and knoweſt what thou oghteſt to do vnto him: therefore ỹ ſhalt cauſe his hoare head to go downe to the graue with [g] blood.

g Let him be puniſhed with death

10 So * Dauid ſlept with his fathers, & was buryed in the citie of Dauid.

Act 2,29. & 13,36

11 And the daies which Dauid * reigned vpon Iſraél, were fourtie yeres: ſeuen yeres reigned he in Hebrón, and thirty & thre yeres reigned he in Ieruſalém.

2 Sam. 5,4.

12 ¶ * Thē ſate Salomón vpō the throne of Dauid his father, and his kingdome was ſtabliſhed mightely.

2 Chro. 29,23

13 And Adoniiáh the ſonne of Haggíth came to Bath-ſhéba the mother of Salomón: and ſhe ſaid, [h] Commeſt thou peaceably? And he ſaid, Yea.

h For ſhe feared, leſt he wolde worke treaſon againſt the King.

14 He ſaid moreouer, I haue a ſute vnto thee. And ſhe ſaid, Say on.

15 Then he ſaid, Thou knoweſt that the kingdome was mine, and that all Iſraél ſet [i] their faces on me, that I ſhulde reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, & is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord.

i In ſigne of their fauour & conſent

16 Now therefore I aſke thee one requeſt, * refuſe me not. And ſhe ſaid vnto him, Say on.

Ebr. cauſe not my face to turne away

17 And he ſaid, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomón the King, (for he wil not ſay thee naye) that he giue me Abiſhág the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-ſhéba ſaid, Wel, I wil ſpeake for thee vnto the King.

19 ¶ Bath-ſhéba therefore went vnto King Salomón, to ſpeake vnto him for Adoniiáh: and the King roſe to meete her, and [k] bowed him ſelfe vnto her, & ſate downe on his throne: and he cauſed a ſeat to be ſet for the Kings mother, and ſhe ſate at his right hand.

k In token of reuerence, and that others by his example might haue her in greater honour.

20 Then ſhe ſaid, I deſire a ſmale requeſt of thee, ſay me not naye. Then the King ſaid vnto her, Aſke on, my mother: for I wil not ſay thee naye.

21 She ſaid thē, Let Abiſhág the Shunāmite be giuē to Adoniiáh thy brother to wife.

22 But King Salomón anſwered and ſaid vnto his mother, And why doeſt ÿ aſke Abiſhág ÿ Shunāmite for Adoniiáh? aſke for him the [l] kingdome alſo: for he is mine elder brother, & hathe for him bothe Abiathár the Prieſt, and Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh.

[l] Meaning, that if he ſhulde haue granted Abiſhág, ÿ was ſo deare to his father, he wolde afterwarde haue aſpired to the kingdome.

23 Thē King Salomón ſwaie by the Lord, ſaying, God do ſo to me and more alſo, if Adoniiáh hathe not ſpoken this worde againſt his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the Lord liueth, who hathe eſtabliſhed me, and ſet me on the throne of Dauid my father, who alſo hathe made me an houſe, as he *promiſed, Adoniiáh ſhal ſurely dye this day.

*2. Sam. 7, 16.

25 And King Salomón ſent by the hand of Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá, and he [o] ſmote him that he dyed.

[o] Or, fel vpō him

26 ¶ Then the King ſaid vnto Abiathár the Prieſt, Go to Anathóth vnto thine owne [p] fields: for thou art [q] worthy of death: but I wil not this day kil thee, becauſe thou [m] bareſt the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, & becauſe thou haſt ſuffred in all, wherein my father hathe bene afflicted.

[p] Or, poſſeſſions. [q] Eot a man of death

[m] When he fled before Abſalóm, 2 Sam. 15, 24.

27 So Salomón caſt out Abiathár from being Prieſt vnto the Lord, that he might *fulfil the wordes of the Lord, which he ſpake againſt the houſe of Elí in Shilóh.

*1. Sam. 2, 31.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Ioáb: (for Ioáb had [n] turned after Adoniiáh, but he turned not after Abſalóm) and Ioáb fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, & caught holde on the hornes of the altar.

[n] He toke Adoniiahs parte whē he wolde haue vſurped the kingdome, Chap 1, 7.

29 And it was tolde King Salomón, that Ioáb was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, & beholde, he is by the [o] altar. Thē Salomón ſent Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá, ſaying, Go, fall vpon him.

[o] Thinking to be ſaued by ÿ holines of the place.

30 And Benaiáh came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, & ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the King, Come out. And he ſaid, Naye, but I wil dye here. Then Benaiáh brought the King worde againe, ſaying, Thus ſaid Ioáb, and thus he anſwered me.

31 And the King ſaid vnto him, Do as he hathe ſaid, and [p] ſmite him, & buiye him, ÿ thou maieſt take away the blood, which Ioáb ſhed cauſeles, from me and from the houſe of my father.

[p] For it was lawful to take ÿ wilful murtherer frō the altar, Exod 21, 14.

32 And the Lord ſhal bring his blood vpō his owne head: for he ſmote two mē more righteous & better then he, & ſlewe them with the ſworde, and my father Dauid knewe not: to wit, * Abnér ÿ ſonne of Ner, captaine of the hoſte of Iſraél, and * Amaſá the ſonne of Iethér captaine of the hoſte of Iudáh.

*2. Sam. 3, 27.
*2. Sam. 20, 10.

33 Their blood ſhal therefore returne vpō the [q] head of Ioáb, and on the head of his ſede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his ſede, and vpon his houſe, and vpon his throne ſhal there be peace for euer frō the Lord.

[q] Ioáb ſhalbe iuſtely puniſhed for the blood that he hathe cruelly ſhed.

34 So Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá went vp, and ſmote him, and ſlewe him, and he was buryed in his owne houſe in the wildernes.

35 And the King put Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá in his roume ouer ÿ hoſte: & the King ſet Zadók the [r] Prieſt in the roume of Abiathár.

[r] And ſo toke the office of ÿ hie Prieſt frō the houſe of Eli, & reſtored it to ÿ houſe of Phinehas.

36 ¶ Afterwarde the King ſent, and called Shimeí, and ſaid vnto him, Buylde thee an houſe in Ieruſalém, and dwel there, & departe not thence anie whether.

37 For that day that thou goeſt out, & paſſeſt ouer the riuer of Kidrón, knowe aſſuredly, that thou ſhalt dye the death: thy blood ſhalbe vpon thine owne head.

38 And Shimeí ſaid vnto the King, The thing is good: as my lord the King hathe ſaid, ſo wil thy ſeruāt do. So Shimeí dwelt in Ieruſalém many dayes.

39 And after thre yeres two of the [s] ſeruāts of Shimeí fled away vnto Achíſh ſonne of Maachāh King of Gath: & thei tolde Shimeí, ſaying, Behold, thy ſeruants be in Gath.

[s] Thus God appointeth the waies & meanes to bring his iuſte iudgements vpon the wicked.

40 And Shimeí aroſe, and ſadled his aſſe, and went to Gath to Achíſh, to ſeke his ſeruants: and [t] Shimeí went, and broght his ſeruants from Gath.

[t] His coueteous minde moued him rather to venture his life thē to loſe his worldely profit, which he had by his ſeruants.

41 And it was tolde Salomón, that Shimeí had gone from Ieruſalém to Gath, & was come againe.

42 And the King ſent and called Shimeí, & ſaid vnto him, Did I not make thee to ſweare by ÿ Lord, & proteſted vnto thee, ſaying, That day that thou goeſt out, and walkeſt anie whether, knowe aſſuredly ÿ thou ſhalt dye the death? And thou ſaideſt vnto me, The thing is good, that I haue heard.

43 Why then haſt thou not kept the othe of the Lord, & the cōmandement wherewith I charged thee?

44 The King ſaid alſo to Shimeí, [u] Thou knoweſt all the wickednes whereunto thine heart is priuie, that thou dideſt to Dauid my father: the Lord therefore ſhal bring thy wickednes vpon thine owne head.

[u] For though ÿ woldeſt denie, yet thine owne cōſcience wold accuſe thee, for reuiling & doing wrōg to my father, 2 Sam 16, 5.

45 And let King Salomón be bleſſed, and the throne of Dauid ſtabliſhed before the Lord for euer.

46 So the King commanded Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiada: who went out & ſmote him that he dyed. And the kingdome was [x] ſtabliſhed in the hand of Salomón.

[x] Becauſe all his enemies were deſtroied.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

1 Salomón taketh Pharaohs daughter to wife. 5 The Lord appeareth to him, & giueth him wiſdome. 17 The pleating of the two harlottes, and Salomons ſentence therein.

2. Chro. 1, 1. 1 SAlomón * thē made affinitie with Pharaóh King of Egypt, and toke Paraohs daughter, and broght her into the [a] citie of Dauid, vntil he had made an end of buylding his owne houſe, and the houſe of the Lord, and the wall of Ieruſalém roúd about.

a Which was Beth-léhem.

[b] Where altars were appointed before the Temple was buylt to offer vnto the Lord.

2 Onely the people ſacrificed in [b] the hie places, becauſe there was no houſe buylt vnto the Name of the Lord, vntil thoſe dayes.

[c] For his father had commāded him to obey the Lord & walke in his wayes, Chap. 2, 3

3 And Salomón loued the Lord, walking in the ordināces of Dauid his [c] father: onely he ſacrificed and offred incenſe in the hie places.

[d] For there ỹ Tabernacle was, 2 Chro. 1, 3.

4 And the King wēt to [d] Gibeón to ſacrifice there, for that was the chief hie place: a thouſand burnt offrings did Salomón offer vpon that altar.

5 In Gibeón the Lord appeared to Salomón in a dreame by night: and God ſaid, Aſke what I ſhal giue thee.

Or, as he walked.

[e] Thou haſt performed thy promes.

6 And Salomón ſaid, Thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruant Dauid my father great mercy, * when he walked before thee in trueth, & in righteouſnes, and in vprightnes of heart with thee: & thou haſt [e] kept for him this great mercy, and haſt giuen him a ſonne, to ſit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

7 And now, ô Lord, my God, thou haſt made thy ſeruant King in ſtead of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, and knowe not how to [f] go out and in.

[f] That is, to behaue my ſelfe in executing this charge of ruling.

8 And thy ſeruant is in the middes of thy people, which ỹ haſt choſen, euen a great people which cannot be tolde nor nombred for multitude.

2. Chro. 1, 10.

Or, obedient.

9 * Giue therefore vnto thy ſeruant an * vnderſtāding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may diſcerne betwene good & bad: for who is able to iudge this thy [g] mighty people?

[g] Which are ſo manie in nomber.

10 And this pleaſed the Lord wel, that Salomón had deſired this thing.

11 And God ſaid vnto him, Becauſe thou haſt aſked this thing, & haſt not aſked for thy ſelfe long life, nether haſt aſked riches for thy ſelfe, nor haſt aſked ỹ life of thine [h] enemies, but haſt aſked for thy ſelfe vnderſtanding to heare iudgement, [h] That is, that thine enemies ſhulde dye.

12 Beholde, I haue done according to thy wordes: lo, I haue giuen thee a wiſe and an vnderſtanding heart, ſo that there hathe bene none like thee before thee, nether after thee ſhal ariſe the like vnto thee.

Matt. 6. 33. wiſd. 7, 11.

13 And I haue alſo * giuen thee that, which thou haſt not aſked, bothe riches and honour, ſo that among the Kings there ſhal be none like vnto thee all thy dayes.

Or, hathe bene none.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to kepe mine ordinances and my commandements, * as thy father Dauid did walke, I wil prolong thy dayes.

Chap. 15, 5.

15 And when Salomón awoke, beholde, it was [i] a dreame, and he came to Ieruſalém, and ſtode before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and made peace offrings, and made a feaſt to all his ſeruants.

[i] He knewe that God had appeared vnto him in a dreame.

Or, vitailers.

16 ¶ Then came two * harlottes vnto the King, and [k] ſtode before him.

[k] By this exāple it appeareth that God kept promes with Salomón in granting him wiſdome.

17 And the one woman ſaid, Oh my lord, I & this woman dwel in one houſe, & I was deliuered of a childe with her in ỹ houſe.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered alſo: and we were in the houſe together: no ſtranger was with vs in the houſe, ſaue we twaine.

19 And this womās ſonne dyed in the night: for ſhe ouerlay him.

[l] She ſtale the quicke childe away, becauſe ſhe might both auoide ỹ ſhame and puniſhement.

20 And ſhe roſe at midnight, and [l] toke my ſonne from my ſide, while thine hādmaid ſlept, & layed him in her boſome, & layed her dead ſonne in my boſome.

21 And when I roſe in the morning to giue my ſonne ſucke, beholde, he was dead: and when I had wel cōſidered him in the morning, beholde, it was not my ſonne, whome I had borne.

22 Then the other woman ſaid, Nay, but my ſonne liueth, and thy ſonne is dead: againe ſhe ſaid, No, but thy ſōne is dead, & mine aliue: thus they ſpake before ỹ King.

23 Thē ſaid the King, She ſayth, this that liueth is my ſonne, & the dead is thy ſonne: and ỹ other ſaith, Naye, but the dead is thy ſonne, and the liuing is my ſonne.

[m] Except God giue iudges vnderſtāding, the impudēcie of the vnrepacer ſhal ouerthrowe ỹ iuſt cauſe of the innocent.

24 Then ỹ King ſaid, [m] Bring me a ſworde: & they broght out a ſworde before ỹ King.

25 And the King ſaid, Deuide ye the liuing childe in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

[n] Her motherly affectio herein appeareth that ſhe had rather endure the rigour of the law, then ſhe ſhulde ſee the childe cruelly ſlaine.

26 Then ſpake the woman, whoſe the liuing childe was, vnto the King, for her compaſſion was kindled toward her ſonne, & ſhe ſaid, Oh my lord, giue her the liuing childe, and [n] ſlay him not: but the other ſaid, Let it be nether mine nor thine, but deuide it.

27 Then the King anſwered & ſaid, Giue her the liuing childe, and ſlay him not: this is his mother.

28 And all Iſraél heard ỹ iudgement, which the King had iudged, and they feared the King: for they ſawe that the wiſdome of God was in him to do iuſtice.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The princes and rulers vnder Salomón. 22 The purueyance for his vitailes. 26 The nombar of his horſes. 32 His bokes and writings.

1 AND King Salomón was King ouer all Iſraél.
2 And theſe were [a] his princes, [b] Azariáh the ſonne of Zadók the Prieſt, 3 Elihóreph and Ahiáh the ſonnes of Shiſhá ſcribes, Iehoſhaphát the ſonne of Ahilúd, the recorder,
4 And Benaiáh the ſonne of Iehoiadá was ouer the hoſte, and Sadók and [c] Abiathár Prieſts,
5 And Azariáh the ſonne of Nathán was ouer the officers, and Zabúd the ſonne of Nathán Prieſt was the Kings friend,
6 And Ahiſhár was ouer the houſholde: & *Adonirám the ſonne of Abdá was ouer the tribute.
7 ¶And Salomón had twelue officers ouer all Iſraél, which prouided vitailes for the King and his houſholde: eche man had a moneth in the yere to prouide vitailes.
8 And theſe are their names: the ſonne of Hur in mount Ephraim:
9 The ſonne of Dekár in Makáz, and in Shaalbím and Beth-ſhémeſh, and [e] Elón and Beth-hanán:
10 The ſonne of Héſed in Arubóth, to whome perteined Sochóh, & all the land of Hépher:
11 The ſonne of Abinadáb in all the regiõ of Dor, which had Taphath the daughter of Salomón to wife.
12 Baaná the ſonne of Ahilúd in Taanách, and Megiddó, & in all Beth-ſheán, which is by Zartánah beneth Izreél, from Beth-ſheán [f] to Abel-meholáh, euen til beyonde ouer againſt Iokmeám:
13 The ſonne of Géber in Ramóth Gilead, & his were the townes of [d] Iair, the ſonne of Manaſſéh, which are in Gilead, and vnder him was the regiõ of Argób which is in Baſhán: threſcore great cities with walles and barres of braſſe.
14 ¶Ahinadáb the ſonne of Iddó had to Mahanáim:
15 Ahimáaz in Naphtalí, and he toke Baſmáth the daughter of Salomón to wife:
16 Baanáh the ſonne of Huſhái in Aſhér and in Alóth:
17 Iehoſhaphát the ſonne of Parúah in [e] Iſſachár.
18 Shimeí the ſonne of Eláh in Beniamín:
19 Gébér the ſonne of Urí in the countrei of Gilead, the land of Sihón King of the Amorites, and of Og King of Baſhán, and was officer alone in the land.
20 Iudáh and Iſraél were manie, as the ſand of the ſea in nomber, [f] eating, drinking, and making meary.
21 *And Salomón reigned ouer all kingdomes, from the [g] Riuer vnto the land of the Philiſtims, and vnto the border of Egypt, and they broght preſentes, and ſerued Salomón all the dayes of his life.
22 And Salomons vitailes for one day were thirtie "meaſures of fine floure, and threſcore meaſures of meale:
23 Ten fat oxen, and twentie oxen of the paſtures, and an hundreth ſhepe, beſide hartes, and buckes, and bugles, and fat foule.
24 For he ruled in all the region on the other ſide of the Riuer, from Tiphſáh euen vnto "Azzáh, ouer all the [h] Kings on the other ſide the Riuer: & he had peace roũde about him on euerie ſide.
25 And Iudáh and Iſraél dwelt without feare, euerie man vnder his vine, and vnder his figtre, from [i] Dan, euen to Beer-ſhéba, all the dayes of Salomón.
26 ¶And Salomón had *fortie thouſãd ſtalles of horſes for his charets, and twelue thouſand horſemen.
27 And theſe officers prouided vitaile for King Salomón, and for all that came to King Salomons table, euerie man his moneth, and they ſuffred to lacke nothing.
28 Barly alſo and ſtrawe for the horſes and mules broght they vnto the place where the officers were, euerie man according to his charge.
29 ¶* And God gaue Salomón wiſdome and vnderſtanding exceding muche, and a [k] large heart, euen as the ſand that is on the ſea ſhore.
30 And Salomons wiſdome excelled the wiſdome of all [l] the children of the Eaſt and all the wiſdome of Egypt.
31 For he was wiſer then anie man, yea, ther were Ethán the Ezrahite, then Hemán, then Chalcól, then Dardá the ſonnes of Mahól: and he was famous throughout all nacions rounde about.
32 And Salomón ſpake thre thouſãd [m] prouerbes: and his ſongs were a thouſand and fiue.
33 And he ſpake of trees, from the cedar tre that is in Lebanón, euen vnto the [n] hyſſope that ſpringeth out of the wall: he ſpake alſo of beaſtes, and of foules, and of creping things, and of fiſhes.
34 And there came of all people to heare the wiſdome of Salomón, frõ all Kings of the earth, which had heard of his wiſdome.

CHAP. V.

1 Hirám ſendeth to Salomón, and Salomón to him, purpoſing to buylde the houſe of God. 6 He prepareth ſtuffe for the buylding. 13 The nomber of the workemẽ.

1 AND Hiram King of Tyrus ſent his ſeruants vnto Salomón, (for he had heard, that they had anoynted him King in the roume of his father) becauſe Hirám had euer loued Dauid.
2 *Alſo Salomón ſent to Hirám, ſaying,
3 Thou knoweſt that Dauid my father colde not buylde an houſe vnto the Name of the Lord his God, for the warres a That is, his chief officers.

b He was the ſonne of Achimaas and Zadoks nephew.
c Not Abiathár, whome Salomón had put from his office, Chap 2. 27, but another of that name.
Chap. 5. 14.
e Or, Elti in Beth-anán.
f Or, to the plaine.
d Which townes bare Iairs name, becauſe he toke them of the Canaanites, Nomb. 32. 41.
e Salomón obſerued not the diuiſion that Ioſhúa made, but deuided it as might beſt ſerue for his purpoſe.
f They liued in all peace & ſecuritie Eccleſ. 47. 15.
g Which is Euphrates.
"Ebr Corim.
"Or, Gaza
h For they were all tributaries vnto him i Throughout all Iſrael.
2 Chro. 9. 25.
k Meaning, great vnderſtanding and able to comprehend all things l To wit the philoſophers & aſtronomers, which were iudged moſte wiſe.
m Which for the moſt parte are thoght to haue periſhed in the captiuitie of Babilón n From the hieſt to the loweſt.
"Or, Tyre
2. Chro. 2. 3.

which were about him on euerie ſide, vntil the Lord had put *them vnder the ſoles of his feete.

*Or, his enemies

4 But now the Lord my God hathe giuen me [a] reſt on euerie ſide, ſo that there is nether aduerſarie, nor euil to reſiſte.

a He declareth that he was bounde to ſet forthe Gods glorie, forasmuche as the Lord had ſent him reſt and peace. 2.Sam.7.13. 1.chro 22.10.

5 And beholde, I purpoſe to buylde an houſe vnto the Name of the Lord my God, *as the Lord ſpake vnto Dauid my father, ſaying, Thy ſonne, whome I wil ſet vpon thy throne for thee, he ſhal buylde an houſe vnto my Name.

6 Now therefore cõmande, that they hewe me cedar trees out of Lebanón, and my ſeruants ſhalbe with thy ſeruants, and vnto thee wil I giue the [b] hire for thy ſeruants, according to all that thou ſhalt appoint: for thou knoweſt that there are none amõg vs, that can hewe timbre like vnto the Sidonians.

b This was his equitie, ỹ he wolde not receiue a benefite without ſome recompence.

7 ¶ And when [c] Hirám heard the wordes of Salomón, he reioyced greatly, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord this day, which hathe giuen vnto Dauid a wiſe ſonne ouer this mightie people.

c In Hirám is prefigurate ỹ vocacion of ỹ Gentiles, who ſhulde helpe to buylde the Spiritual temple.

8 And Hirám ſent to Salomón, ſaying, I haue conſidered the things, for the which thou ſenteſt vnto me, and wil accompliſh all thy deſire, concerning the cedar trees and firre trees.

9 My ſeruãts ſhal bring them downe from Lebanón to the ſea: and I wil conueie thẽ by ſea *in rafts vnto the place that thou ſhalt ſhewe me, and wil cauſe them to be diſcharged there, and thou ſhalt receyue them: now thou ſhalt do me a pleaſure to miniſter foode for [d] my familie.

*Or, floten.

d While my ſeruãts are occupied about thy buſines

10 So Hirám gaue Salomón cedar trees & firre trees, euen his ful deſire.

11 And Salomón gaue Hirám twẽtie thouſand *meaſures of wheat for foode to his houſholde, and twentie meaſures of *beaten oyle. Thus muche gaue Salomón to Hirám yere by yere.

*Ebr Corros. *Or, pure.

12 ¶ And ỹ Lord gaue Salomón wiſdome as he *promiſed him. And there was peace betwene Hirám and Salomón, and they [e] two made a couenant.

*Chap.3.12.

e As touching the furniture of wood, and vitailes

13 ¶ And King Salomón raiſed a ſumme out of all Iſraél, and the ſumme was thirty thouſand men:

14 Whome he ſent to Lebanón, ten thouſand a moneth by courſe: they were a moneth in Lebanón, & two moneths at home. And *Adonirám was ouer the ſumme.

*Chap.4.6.

15 And Salomón had ſeuentie thouſand that bare burdens, & foureſcore thouſand maſons in the mountaine, 16 Beſides the *princes, whome Salomón appointed ouer the worke, euen three thouſand and three hundreth, which ruled the people that wroght in the worke.

*Or, maſters of the worke.

17 And the King commanded them, & they broght great ſtones and coſtly ſtones to make the fundacion of the houſe, euen hewed ſtones.

18 And Salomons workemen, & the workemen of Hirám, and the [f] maſons hewed & prepared timbre and ſtones for the buylding of the houſe.

f The Ebrewe worde is, Giblim, which ſome ſay, were excellent maſons

CHAP. VI.

1 The buylding of the Temple and the forme thereof. 12 The promes of the Lord to Salomón.

1 AND *in the foure hundreth and foure ſcore yere (after the children of Iſraél were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yere of the reigne of Salomón ouer Iſraél, in the moneth [a] Zif, (which is the ſeconde moneth) he buylt the [b] houſe of the Lord.

*2.Chro.3.1.

a Which moneth cõmeth parte of April & parte of May. b whereby is ment the temple & the oracle

2 And the houſe which Kig Salomón buylt for the Lord, was thre ſcore cubites long, & twentie broade, and thirty cubites hie.

3 And the [c] porche before the Temple of the houſe was twentie cubites long according to the breadth of the houſe, and ten cubites broade before the houſe.

c Or the court where ỹ people prayed, ẅ was before the place where ỹ altar of burnt offrings ſtode.

4 And in the houſe he made windowes, [d] broade without, and narowe within.

d Or to open & to ſhut

5 And by the wall of the houſe he made [e] galleries rounde about, euen by the walles of the houſe rounde about the Tẽple and [d] the oracle, and made chambres rounde about.

e Or, lofts. d Whẽce God ſpake betwene ỹ Cherubims, called alſo the moſte holy place

6 The nethermoſt galletie was fiue cubites broade, and the middlemoſt ſix cubites broade, & the thirde ſeuẽ cubites broade: for he made [e] reſtes rounde about without the houſe, that the beames ſhulde not be faſtened in the walles of the houſe.

e Which were certeine ſtones comming out of ỹ wall, as frayes for the beames to reſt vpon.

7 And whẽ the houſe was buylt, it was buylt of ſtone perfit, before it was broght, ſo that there was nether hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of yron heard in the houſe, while it was in buylding.

8 The dore of the middle [e] chambre was in the right ſide of the houſe, & men went vp with winding ſteires into the middlemoſt, and out of the middlemoſt into the third.

e Or, galleríe.

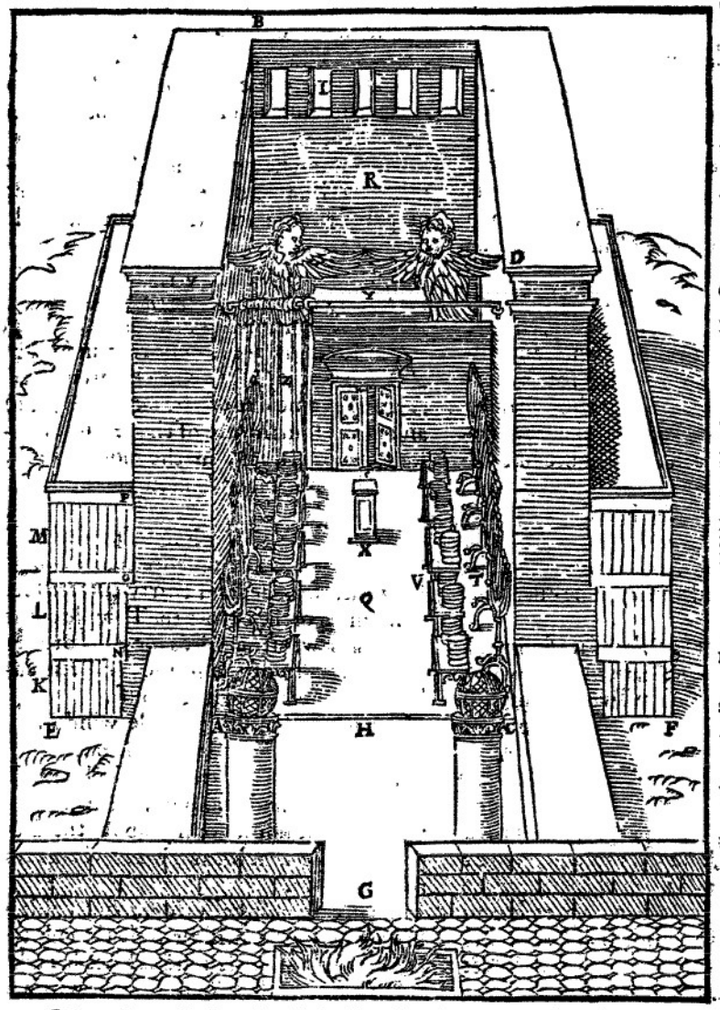
9 So he buylt the [f] houſe and finiſhed it, & cieled the houſe being vawted with cieling of cedar trees.

f In Exodus it is called the Tabernacle: & the temple is there called ỹ ſanctuarie, and the oracle the moſte holy place.

10 And he buylt the galleries vpon all the wall of the houſe of fiue cubites heigth, & they were ioyned to the houſe with beames of cedar.

11 And the worde of the Lord came to Salomón, ſaying,

THE TEMPLE VNCOVERED.



The cause why we vncouered and ſet open the Tẽple, without ſetting forth the wall that is before it, is, that the ordre of thoſe things that are within, might be ſene more liuely.

A B The length of the Temple of threſcore cubites

A C The breadth of twẽtie cubites within, and not meaſuring the thickenes of the walles. This alſo was the length of ỹ porche without ỹ Tẽple.

C D. The height of thirtie cubites

E F The chambers of the Prieſts, which cõpaſſed about the Tẽple on thre ſides, South, Weſt and North, and were of thre heights.

G H. The breadth of the porche, ten cubites.

I The Windowes of the Temple

K The firſt chamber was fiue cubites broad

L The ſeconde ſix.

M The third ſeuen

N O P. The reſts or ſtayes of the walle, which bare vp the poſtes that did ſeparate chamber from chamber.

Q. The holy place

R. The holieſt of all, where the Arke of the couenant was.

S. The gate to enter into the moſte holy place

T. The fiue Candelſtickes on euerie ſide of the Tẽple

V The ten tables on bothe ſides for the ſhewe bread.

X. The incenſe altar.

12 Cõcerning this houſe which thou buyldeſt, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinãces, and execute my iudgements, and kepe all my commandements, to walke in them, then wil I performẽ vnto thee my promes, *which I promiſed to Dauid thy father.

*2 Sam. 7. 13.

13 And I wil ‖ dwel among the children of Iſraél, and wil not forſake my people Iſraél.

‖ According as he promiſed vnto Moſes, Exo 25. 22.

14 So Salomón buylt the houſe and finiſhed it,

15 And buylt the walles of the houſe within, with bordes of cedre tre from the pauement of the houſe vnto † the walles of the cieling, and within he couered them with wood and couered the floore of the houſe with plankes of firre.

† Meaning vnto the roofe, which was alſo ceyled.

16 And he buylt twentie cubites in the ſides of the houſe with bordes of cedre, frõ the floore to the walles, and he prepared a place within it for ỹ oracle, euen the moſte holy place.

17 But the ‖ houſe, that is, the temple before it was fourtie cubites long.

‖ For when he ſpeke of the houſe in ỹ firſt verſe, he ment bothe the oracle & the tẽple.

18 And the cedre of the houſe within was kerued with *knoppes, and grauen with flowres: all was cedre, ſo that no ſtone was ſene.

*Or, wilde cucumers.

19 ¶ Alſo he prepared the place of the oracle in the middes of the ‖ houſe within, to ſet the Arke of the couenant of the Lord there.

‖ That is, in ỹ moſte inwarde place of the houſe.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites hie, and he couered it with pure golde, and couered the altar with cedre.

21 So Salomón couered the houſe within with pure golde: and he *ſhut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde, and couered it with golde.

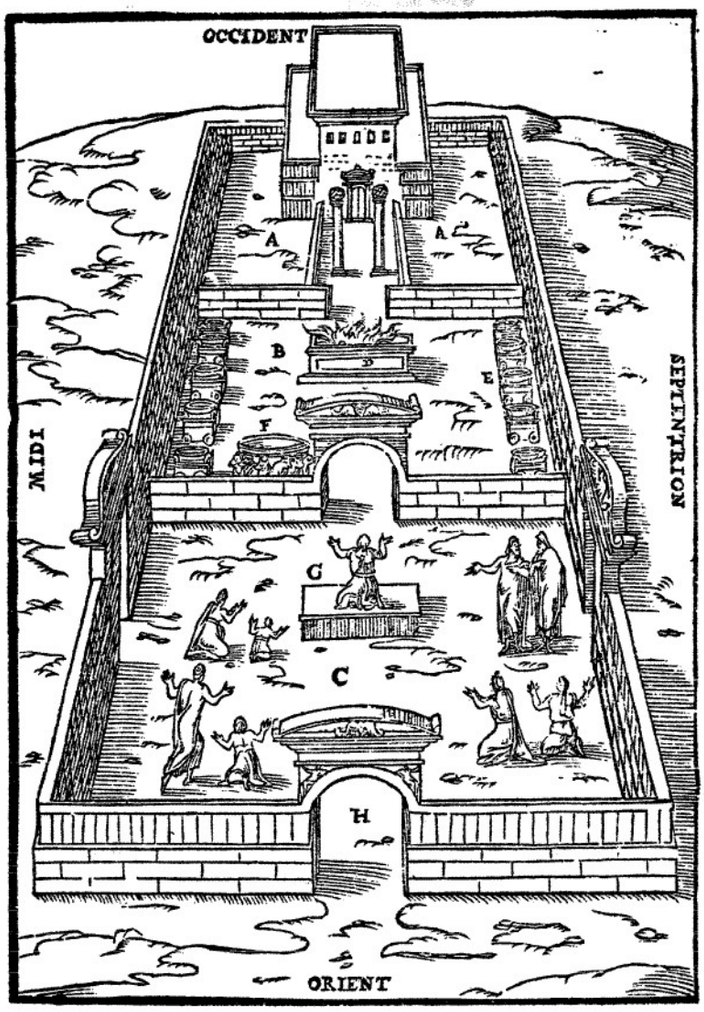
*Ebr. he drew through chaines of golde before.

22 And he ouerlaied the houſe with golde, ‖ vntil all the houſe was made perfit. alſo he couered ỹ whole altar, that was before the oracle, with golde.

‖ Meaning the altar of incenſe, Exod 30. 1.

23 And

THE TEMPLE COVERED.



This figure repreſenteth the great court ſeparated into thre partes, whoſe ſeparatiō was made of thre orders of hewē ſtone & one of cedre bordes In the firſt court towarde the Weſt was the Tēple A. The ſeconde court B was for the Prieſts, called the inner court In this ſtode the altar of burnt offring D which was twē tee cubites long and aſmuche broad, & ten of length 2 Chr 4,1. There was alſo ten caldrons fiue on the one ſide, and fiue on the other E and on the Southe ſide ſtode the Sea. F 2 Chro. 4, 2. C the court of the people, which 2 Chro 4,9 is called the great porche, and Act 3, 11 the porche of Salomon. This court is oft in the newe Teſtamēt taken for the Temple, Matt 21, 23. act. 3, 2 In this court Chriſt preached, & chaſed thence thē that boght and ſolde. G. A ſkaffolde of braſſe, whereon Salomon praied that the people might ſe him, & the better vnderſtand him: it was fiue cubites long, fiue cubites broad, & thre of height. 2. Chro 6. 13. H the gate on the eaſt ſide, called the gate of Sur or Seir 2 King 11,6 and the gate of the fundation 2 Chro 23,5 It is alſo called beautiful Act 3,2 becauſe the Prince entred onely thereat into the court, and not the people. Ezek. 44,3. for the people entred in by the Southe gate and North gate.

23 And within the oracle he made two Cherubíms of [a]oliue tre, ten cubites hie.

[a] Or, pine tree.

24 The wing alſo of the one Cherúb was fiue cubites, & the wing of the other Cherúb was fiue cubites: from the vttermoſt parte of one of his wings vnto the vttermoſt parte of the other of his wings, were ten cubites.

25 Alſo the other Cherúb was of ten cubites: bothe ỹ Cherubíms were of one meaſure and one ſyſe.

26 For the height of the one Cherúb was ten cubites, and ſo was the other Cherúb.

27 And he put the Cherubíms within the inner houſe, [*] and the Cherubíms ſtretched out their wings, ſo that the wing of ỹ one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherúb touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the middes of the houſe.

28 And he [m] ouerlaied the Cherubíms with golde.

29 And he carued all the walles of ỹ houſe round about with grauen figures of Cherubíms and of palme trees, and grauen flowres within and without.

30 And the floore of the houſe he couered with golde within and without.

31 And in the entring of the oracle he made two dores of oliue tre: and the vpper poſte & ſide poſtes were fiue ſquare.

32 The two dores alſo were of oliue tre, & he graued them with grauing of Cherubíms and palme trees, and grauen flowres, and couered thē with golde, & laied [n] thin golde vpon the Cherubíms and vpon the palme trees.

33 And ſo made he for the dore of the Temple poſtes of oliue tre foure ſquare.

34 But the two dores were of fyre tre, the two ſides of the one dore were [*] rounde, & the two ſides of ỹ other dore were roūd.

Exod. 25, 20.

m For the other ỹ Moſes made of beatē golde, were take away with the other iewels by their enemies, whom God permitted diuers times to ouercome thē for their great ſinnes.

n So that the faction of the carued worke might ſtil appeare.

[*] Or, folding.

35 And he graued Cherubims, and palme trees and carued flowres and couered the carued worke with golde, finely wroght.

o Where the Priests were, & was thus called in respect of the great court & is called Act 3.11 & porche of Salomon, where & people vsed to pray 36 ¶ And he buylt the court within with thre rowes of hewed stone, and one rowe of beames of cedar.

37 In the fourth yere was the fundacion of the house of the Lord laied in the moneth of Zif.

p Which conteineth part of October and parte of November.

38 And in the eleuenth yere in the moneth of p Bul, (which is the eight moneth) he finished the house with all the furniture thereof, and in euerie point: so was he seuē yere in buylding it.

CHAP. VII.

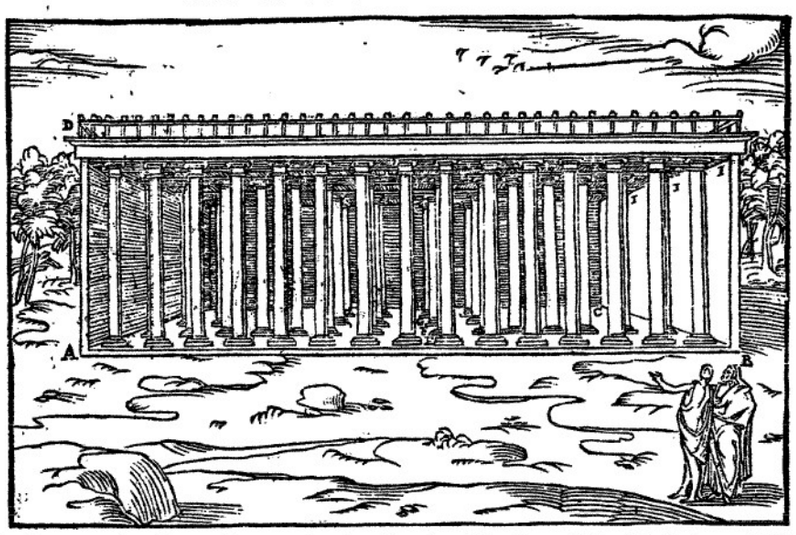
1 The buylding of the houses of Salomon. 15 The excellent workemanship of Hiram in the pieces which he made for the Temple.

1 BVt Salomon was buylding his owne house * thirtene yeres, and a finished all his house.

Chap 9.10.

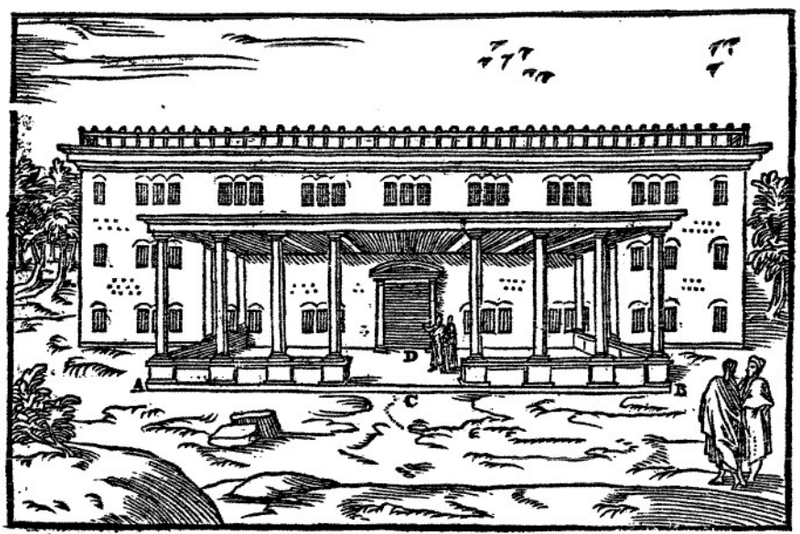
a After he had buylt the Temple.

THE FIRST FIGVRE OF THE KINGS HOVSE IN THE VVOOD OF LEBANON.



This figure is made without wall or porche, that the ordre of the pillers within might be sene. A. B. The length of an hundreth cubites. B. C. The breadth of fifty. A. D. The height of thirtie. E. F. G. H. The foure rowes of pillers. I. The postes which stayed on the pillers.

THE SECONDE FIGVRE OF THE SAME HOVSE.



This seconde figure sheweth the maner of the house without, and the porche thereof, which was fiftie cubites long. A. B. and thirtie broad. C. D.

2 He buylt alſo an houſe [b] called the foreſt of Lebanón, an hundreth cubites lõg, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hie, vpon foure rowes of cedre pillers, and cedre beames were laied vpon the pillers.

3 And it was couered aboue with cedre vpõ the beames, that lay on the fourtie & fiue pillers, fiftene in a rowe.

4 And the windowes were in thre rowes, & windowe was [c] againſt windowe in thre rankes.

5 And all the dores, and the ſide poſtes wit) the windowes were foure ſquare, & windowe was ouer againſt windowe in thre rankes.

6 And he made a porche of pillers fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade, and the porche was before [d] them, euen before them were thirtie pillers.

7 ¶Then he made a porche [e] for the throne, where he iudged, euen a porche of iudgement, & it was cieled with cedre from pauement to pauement.

8 And in his houſe, where he dwelt, was another hall more inwarde then the porche w̃ was of the ſame worke. Alſo Salomón made an houſe for Pharaohs daughter (*whome he had taken to wife) like vnto this porche.

9 All theſe were [f] of coſtely ſtones, hewed by meaſure, and ſawed with ſawes within and without, from the fundacion vnto [f] the ſtones of an [g] hand breadth, & on the outſide to the great courte.

10 And the fundaciõ was of coſtely ſtones, & great ſtones, euen of ſtones of ten cubites, and ſtones of eight cubites.

11 [g] Aboue alſo were coſtely ſtones, ſquared by rule, and boardes of cedre.

12 ¶And the great courte round about was with thre rowes of hewed ſtones, and a rowe of cedre beames: [h] ſo was it to the inner courte of the houſe of the Lord, & to the porche of the houſe.

13 ¶Then King Salomón ſent, and fet one Hirám out of [i] Tyrus.

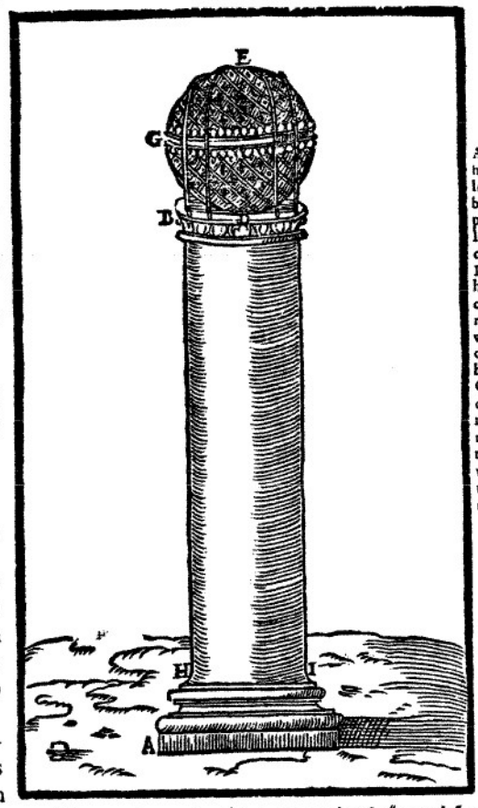
14 He was a widowes ſonne of the tribe of Naphtalí, his father being a mã of Tyrus, and wroght in braſſe: [i] he was ful of wiſdome, and vnderſtãding, & knowledge to worke all maner of worke in braſſe: who came to King Salomón, and wroght all his worke.

15 ¶For he caſt two pillers of braſſe: the height of a piller was eightene cubites, & a threade of twelue cubites did compaſſe [n] ether of the pillers.

16 And he made two [o] chapiters of molten braſſe to ſet on the toppes of the pillers: the height of one of the chapiters was fiue cubites, and the height of the other chapiter was fiue cubites.

THE FORME OF THE PILLER.



A B The height of a piller eighten cubites: the compaſſe of a piller was twelue cubites
D E The height of the chapiter or rounde balle vpõ the piller of fiue cubites height.
G Ia ſ̃ maddes were two rowes of pomegranates: ſ̃ reſt is the network & flowre delices of roſes.

17 He made grates like networke, & [p] writhẽ worke like chaines for the chapiters that were on the toppe of the pillers, euen ſeuen for the one chapiter, & ſeuen for the other chapiter.

18 So he made the pillers and two rowes of pomegranates rounde about in the one grate to couer the chapiters that were vpon the toppe. And thus did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were on ſ̃ toppe of the pillers were after [k] lilye worke in the porche, foure cubites.

20 And the chapiters vpon the two pillers had alſo aboue, [q] ouer againſt the bellie [r] within ſ̃ networke pomegranates: for two hundreth pomegranates were in the two rankes about vpõ [s] ether of the chapiters.

21 And he ſet vp the pillers in the [l] porche of ſ̃ Temple. And when he had ſet vp the right piller, he called the name thereof [m] Iachín: and when he had ſet vp the left piller, he called the name thereof [n] Bóaz.

22 And vpon the top of the pillers was worke of lilyes: ſo was the workemanſhip of the pillers finiſhed.

23 ¶And he made a molten [o] ſea ten cubites wide from brim to brim, round in compaſſe, and fiue cubites hie, and a line of thirtie cubites did compaſſe it about.

b For ſ̃ beautie of the place and great abundance of cedre trees ſ̃ went to the buylding thereof, it was cõpared to mouſt Lebanón in Syria: this houſe he vſed in ſõmer for pleaſure & recreacion c There were as many, & like proporcion on the one ſide as on ſ̃ other, & at euery end euen thre in a rowe one a boue another.

d Before the pillers of the houſe.

e For his houſe, which was at Ieruſalẽm.

Chap. 3. 1.

f Which were reſts & ſtaies for the beames to lie vpon.

g Frõ the fundaciõ vpward

h As the Lords houſe was buylt, ſo was this: onely the great courte of Salomons houſe was vncouered.

i Thus when God wil haue his glorie ſet forthe, he raiſeth vp men & giueth them excellent gifts for the accompliſhement of ſ̃ ſame, Exod 31. 2 k As was ſene communely wroght in coſtelie porches.

l Which was in the inner court betwene the Temple & the oracle

m That is, he wil eſtabliſh, to wit, his graces towarde this houſe n That is, in ſtrength: meaning, ſ̃ power thereof ſhal continue.

o So called for the hugenes of the veſſel.

[a] Or, precium.

[p] Or, cordes like chaines.

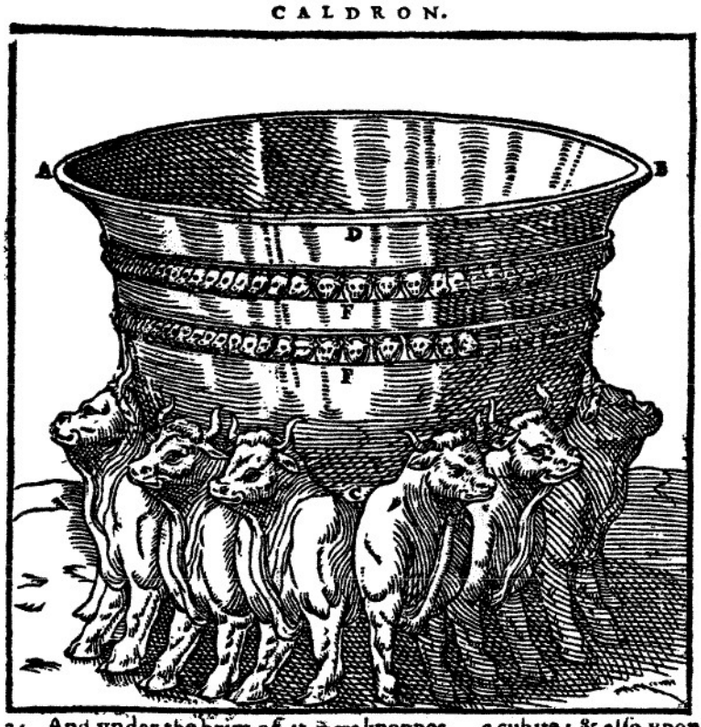
[q] Or, rũde about the middes.

[r] Or, beyonde.

[s] Ebr the ſecõde

[t] Or, pummels.

THE SEA OR GREAT CALDRON.



A B Ten cubites frō one side to the other
C D The height of fiue cubites
F The two rowes, which cōpassed ỹ vessel about, and were garnished w bulles heades, wherein were pipes to anoyde the water.

24 And vnder the brim of it were knoppes like wilde cucumers compaſsing it roũde about, ten in one cubite, compaſsing the a Chro 4.3. ſea* rounde about: and the two rowes of knoppes were caſt, when it was molten.
25 It ſtode on twelue bulles, thre loking towarde the North, and thre towarde the Weſt, and thre towarde the South, & thre towarde the Eaſt: and the ſea ſtode aboue vpon them, & all their hinder partes were inwarde.
t Or, a ſpanne. 26 It was ' an hand breadth thicke, and the brim thereof was ' like the worke of the brim of a cup with flowres of lilies: it cōteined two thouſand ? Baths.
p Bath and Ephah ſeme to be bothe one meaſure, Ezek 45.11 euery Bath cōteined about ten pottels.
27 ¶And he made ten baſes of braſſe, one baſe was foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade, and thre cubites hie.
28 ¶And ỹ worke of the baſes was on this maner, Thei had borders, and the borders were betwene the ledges:
29 And on the borders that were betwene the ledges, were lyons, bulles and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a baſe aboue: and beneth the lyons, and bulles were addicions made of thinne worke.
30 And euery baſe had foure braſen wheles, and plates of braſſe: and the foure corners had " vnderſetters: vnder the caldrō were vnderſetters molten at the ſide of euery addicion.
" Or, ſholders.
q The mouth of the great baſe or frame entred into ỹ chapiter, or piller ỹ bare vp ỹ caldron.
31 And q the mouth of it was within the chapiter and aboue to meaſure by the cubite: for the mouth thereof was rounde made like a baſe, & it was a cubite & halfe a cubite: & alſo vpon the mouth thereof were grauen workes, whoſe borders were foure ſquare, & not rounde.
32 And vnder the borders were foure wheles, and the axeltrees of the wheles ioyned to the baſe; and the height of a whele was a cubite and halfe a cubite.
33 And the facion of the wheles was like the facion of a charet whele, their axeltrees, and their naues and their ' felloes, & their ſpokes were all molten.
' Or, ringe.
34 And foure vnderſetters were vpon the foure corners of one baſe: & the vnderſetters thereof were of the baſe it ſelfe.
35 And in the toppe of the baſe was a roũde ' compaſſe of halfe a cubite hie roũde about: and vpon the toppe of the baſe the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the ſame.
r Which was called the pillers, chapiter, or ſmale baſe, wherein the caldron ſtode.
36 And vpon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did graue Cherubims, lyons and palmetrees, on the ſide of euery one, and addicions rounde about.
37 Thus made he the ten baſes, Thei had all one caſting, one meaſure, and one ſyſe.
38 ¶Thē made he ' ten caldrons of braſſe, one caldron conteined fourtie Baths: and euery caldron was foure cubites, one caldron was vpon one baſe throughout the ten baſes.
f To kepe waters for ỹ vſe of the ſacrifices.
39 And he ſet the baſes, fiue on the right ſide of the houſe, & fiue on the left ſide of the houſe. And he ſet the ſea on the right ſide of the ' houſe Eaſtwarde towarde ỹ South t To wit, of ỹ Tẽple or Sanctuarie

40 ¶And

40 ¶ And Hirám made caldrons, and beſomes and baſens, & Hirám finiſhed all the worke that he made to King Salomón for the houſe of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillers and two bowles of the chapiters that were on the toppe of the two pillers, and two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapiters which were vpon the toppe of the pillers, 42 And foure hundreth pomegranates for the two grates, euē two rowes of pomegranates for euerie grate to couer the two bowles of the chapiters, that were vpon the pillers.

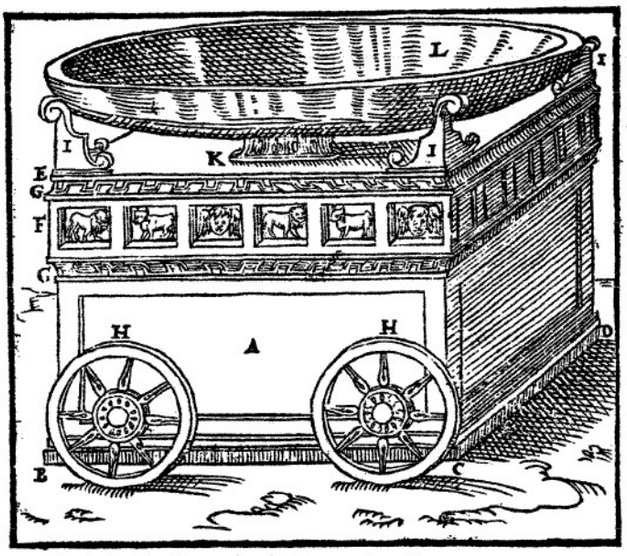
43 And the ten baſes, & ten caldrons vpon the baſes,

THE FORME OF THE CALDRONS.



A B C The baſe whereupon ſtode the caldrons which were thre cubites long.
C B Foure cubites broade.
B E Thre cubites high
F The imboſſement and figures of lions, bulles, Cherubims.
G The border of workemanſhip folding to and fro.
H The foure wheles, which had a cubite and an halfe of height
I The foure ſtayes or vpholds, which were vpon the baſe whereupon the caldron ſtode
K The rounde bothom of a cubite and halfe long, which did vpholde the caldron in the middes.
L The caldron

44 And the ſea, & twelue bulles vnder that ſea,

45 And pottes, and beſoms and baſens: & all theſe veſſels, which [u] Hirám made to King Salomón for the houſe of the Lord, were of ſhining braſſe.

[u] By this name alſo Hiram the King of Tyrus was called.

46 In the plaine of Iordén did ỹ King caſt thē in [w] clay betwene Succóh & Zarthán.

[w] Or, thicke earth.

47 And Salomón left to weigh all the veſſels becauſe of the exceeding abundance, nether colde the weight of the braſſe be counted.

48 So Salomón made all the veſſels that perteined vnto the houſe of the Lord, the [x] golden altar, and the golden table, whereon the ſhewbread was,

[x] This was done according to the forme ỹ the Lord preſcribed vnto Moſés in Exodus.

49 And the candelſtickes, fiue at the right ſide, and fiue at the left, before the oracle of pure golde, and the flowres, and the lāpes, and the ſnoffers of golde,

[y] Some take this for ſome inſtrument of muſike

50 And the bowles, [y] and the hookes, and the baſens, & the ſpoones, & the aſhpannes of pure golde, and the hinges of golde for the dores of the houſe within, euen for the moſt holy place, and for the dores of the houſe, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was finiſhed all the worke that King Salomón made for ỹ houſe of the Lord, and Salomón broght in the things which *Dauid his father had dedicated: ỹ ſiluer, and the golde and the veſſels, and layed them among the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord.

*2. Chro. 5. 1.

CHAP. VIII.

4 The Arke is borne into the Tēple. 10 A cloude filleth the Temple. 15 The King bleſſeth the people.

1 THen* King Salomón aſſembled the Elders of Iſraél, euen all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the childrē of Iſraél vnto [z] him in Ieruſalém, for to [a] bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zión.

*2 Chro 5. 2.

[z] Ebr Salomón.

[a] For Dauid broght it frō Obed-edom & placed it in ỹ Tabernacle w he had made for it, 2 Sam. 6. 17

2 And all the mē of Iſraél aſſembled vnto King Salomón at the feaſt in the moneth of [b] Ethanim, which is the ſeuēth moneth.

[b] Conteining part of Septēber and parte of October, in the which moneth they held thre ſolemne feaſts, Nom. 29. 1

3 And all the Elders of Iſraél came & the Prieſts toke the Arke.

4 They bare the Arke of the Lord, and thei bare ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & all the holy veſſels that were in the Tabernacle: thoſe did the Prieſts & Leuites bring vp.

5 And King Salomón and all the Congregacion of Iſraél, that were aſſembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, offring ſhepe & beeues, which colde not be tolde, nor nombred for multitude.

6 So the [c] Prieſts broght the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the houſe, into ỹ moſte holy place, euē vnder ỹ wings of ỹ Cherubims.

[c] That is, the Kohathites, Nom 4. 5

7 For the Cherubims ſtretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, & the barres thereof aboue.

d They drewe thē onely out ſo farre as they might be ſene: for they might not pul them altogether out, Exo 25,15.

8 And they d drew out the barres, that the ends of the barres might appeare out of the Sanctuarie before the oracle, but they were not ſene without: and there they are vnto this day.

e For it is like that the enemies, when they had the Arke in their hands, toke away the rod of Aarón and the pot with Man Exod.40,34.

9 Nothing was in the Arke e ſaue the two tables of ſtone which Moſés had put there at Horéb, where the Lord made a couenāt with the children of Iſraél, whē he broght them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Prieſts were come out of the Sanctuarie, the * cloude filled the houſe of the Lord, 11 So that the Prieſts colde not ſtand to miniſter, becauſe of the cloude: for the glorie of the Lord had filled the houſe of the Lord.

2.Chro 6,1. 12 Then ſpake Salomón, The Lord * ſaid, that he wolde dwel in the darcke cloude.

f He ſpake according to the tenor of Gods promes, which was cōditionally, ỹ they ſhulde ſerue him aright.

13 I haue buylt thee an houſe to dwel in, an habitacion for thee to abide in for f euer.

14 ¶And the King turned his face, & bleſſed all the Congregacion of Iſraél: for all the Congregacion of Iſraél ſtode there.

15 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſraél, who ſpake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hathe with his hād fulfilled it, ſaying, 16 Since the day that I broght my people Iſraél out of Egypt, I choſe no citie of all ỹ tribes of Iſraél, to buylde an houſe that my Name might be there: but I haue choſen * Dauid to be ouer my people Iſraél.

2.Sam.7,11.

17 And it was in the heart of Dauid my father to buyld an houſe to the Name of the Lord God of Iſraél.

18 And the Lord ſaid vnto Dauid my father, Where as it was in thine heart to buylde an houſe vnto my Name, thou dideſt wel, that thou waſt ſo minded:

19 Neuertheles thou ſhalt not buylde the houſe, but thy ſonne, that ſhal come out of thy loynes, he ſhal buylde the houſe vnto my Name.

"Ebr confirmed.

20 And the Lord hathe made "good his worde that he ſpake: and I am riſen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and ſit on ỹ throne of Iſraél, as the Lord promiſed, and haue buylt the houſe for the Name of the Lord God of Iſraél.

g The two tables wherein the articles of the couenant were writen 2.Chro.6,13.

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the g couenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, whē he broght thē out of ỹ lād of Egypt.

22 ¶Then Salomón ſtode before * the altar of the Lord in the ſight of all the Congregaciō of Iſraél, and ſtretched out his hands towarde heauen,

2.Mac.2,8.

23 And ſaid, *O Lord God of Iſraél, there is no god like thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneth, thou that kepeſt couenāt & mercy with thy ſeruants that walke before thee with h all their heart, h Vnfaynedly and without all hypocriſie.

24 Thou that haſt kept with thy ſeruant Dauid my father, that thou haſt promiſed him: for thou ſpakeſt with thy mouth & haſt fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.

25 Therefore now, Lord God of Iſraél, kepe with thy ſeruāt Dauid my father that thou haſt promiſed him, ſaying, * Thou ſhalt not want a man in my ſight to ſit vpon ỹ throne of Iſraél: ſo that thy children take hede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou haſt walked in my ſight. Chap.2,4.

26 And now, ô God of Iſrael, I pray thee, let thy worde be verified, which thou ſpakeſt vnto thy ſeruant Dauid my father.

i He is raviſhed with the admiracion of Gods mercies, who being incomprehēſible and Lord ouer all, wil becōme familiar with men.

27 i Is it true in dede that God wil dwel on the earth? beholde, the heauens, & the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: how muche more vnable is this houſe that I haue buylt?

28 But haue thou reſpect vnto the prayer of thy ſeruant, and to his ſupplicacion, ô Lord, my God, to heare the crye & prayer which thy ſeruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this houſe, night and day, euen towarde the place whereof thou haſt ſaid, * My Name ſhal be there: that thou mayeſt hearken vnto the prayer which thy ſeruāt prayeth in this place. Deut.12,11.

'Or, from.

30 Heare thou therefore the ſupplicacion of thy ſeruant, and of thy people Iſraél, which pray in this place, and heare thou 'in the place of thine habitacion, euen in heauen, and when thou heareſt, haue mercy.

k To wit the iudge, or neighbour "Ebr the othe.

31 ¶When a man ſhal treſpaſſe againſt his neighbour, and k he lay vpon him an othe to cauſe him to ſweare, and "the ſwearer ſhal come before thine altar in this houſe, l That is, make it knowen.

32 Then heare thou in heauen, and l do & iudge thy ſeruants, that thou cōdemne the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, & iuſtifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteouſnes.

m Acknowledge thy iuſt iudgement, & praiſe thee.

33 ¶When thy people Iſraél ſhalbe ouerthowen before the enemie, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee, and turne againe to thee, and m confeſſe thy Name, and pray and make ſupplicacion vnto thee in this houſe, 34 Then heare thou in heauen, and be merciful vnto the ſinne of thy people Iſraél, and bring thē againe vnto the land, which thou gaueſt vnto their fathers.

nSo that there be a drought to deſtroy the frutes of the land.

35 ¶When heauē ſhalbe n ſhut vp, & there ſhalbe no raine becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee, and ſhal pray in this place, and confeſſe thy Name, and turne from their ſinne, when thou doeſt afflict them,

36 Then heare thou in heauen, & pardone the ſinne of thy ſeruants and of thy people Iſraél (when thou haſt taught them the good

good way wherein they may walke) and giue raine vpon the land that thou haſt giuen to thy people to inherit.

37 ¶ When there ſhalbe famine in the lãd, when there ſhalbe peſtilence, when there ſhalbe blaſting mildewe, grieſhopper or caterpiller, when their enemie ſhal beſiege them in the "cities of their land, or anie plague or anie ſickenes,

"Ebr in the lãd of their gates.

38 Then what prayers, and ſupplicacion ſoeuer ſhalbe made of anie man or of all thy people Iſraél, when euerie one ſhal knowe the plague in his owne ° heart, & ſtretch forthe his hands in this houſe,

° For ſuche are moſt mete to receiue Gods mercies

39 Heare thou then in heauen, in thy dwelling place, and be merciful, and do, and giue euerie mã according to all his wayes, as thou knoweſt his heart (for thou onely knoweſt the hearts of all the children of men)

40 That they may feare thee as lõg as they liue in the land, which thou gaueſt vnto our fathers.

p He meaneth ſuche as ſhulde be turned frõ their idolatrie to ſerue the true God

41 Moreouer as touching the p ſtranger that is not of thy people Iſraél, who ſhal come out of a farre countrei for thy Names ſake,

42 (Whẽ they ſhal heare of thy great Name, and of thy mighty hand, and of thy ſtretched out arme) and ſhal come & pray in this houſe, 43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the ſtranger calleth for vnto thee: that all ỹ people of the earth may knowe thy Name, & feare thee, as do thy people Iſraél: and that they may knowe, that thy q Name is called vpon in this houſe which I haue buylt.

q That this is the true religion wherewith ỹ wile be worſhiped.

44 ¶ When thy people ſhal go out to battel againſt their enemie by the way that thou ſhalt ſend them, and ſhal pray vnto the Lord towarde* the way of ỹ citie which thou haſt choſen, & towarde the houſe that I haue buylt for thy Name,

Dan.6,4.*

45 Heare thou then in heauen their prayer and their ſupplicacion, and "iudge their cauſe.

"Or, maínteine their right.

46 If they ſinne againſt thee (* for there is no man that ſinneth not) & thou be angry with them, & deliuer them vnto the enemies, ſo that they carie them away priſoners vnto the land of the enemies, ether faire or nere,

2.Chro 6,36. eccleſ 7,21. 1 Ioh.1,7.

"Or, if they repent

47 Yet "if they turne againe vnto their heart in the land (to the which they be caryed away captiues) and returne and pray vnto thee r in the land of them that caryed them away captiues, ſaying, We haue ſinned, we haue tranſgreſſed, and done wickedly, r Thogh the Temple was ỹ chief place of prayer, yet he ſecludeth not them, that being let with neceſſitie call vpon him in other places.

48 If they turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and with all their ſoule in the land of their enemies, which led thẽ away captiues, and pray vnto thee towarde ſ the way of their land, which thou gaueſt vnto their fathers, & towarde ỹ citie which thou haſt choſen, and the houſe, which I haue buylt for thy Name, ſ As Daniẽl did, Dan 6, 10.

49 Then heare thou their prayer and their ſupplicacion in heauẽ thy dwelling place, and "iudge their cauſe,

"Or, auẽge their wrong.

50 And be merciful vnto thy people that haue ſinned againſt thee, & vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue tranſgreſſed againſt thee) and cauſe that thei, which led them away captiues, may t haue pitie and compaſsion on them:

t He vnderſtãde by faithe ỹ God of enemies wolde make friends vnto them ỹ did conuert vnto him.

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broghteſt out of Egypt from the middes of the yron fornace.

52 Let thine eies be open vnto the prayer of thy ſeruant, and vnto the praier of thy people Iſraél, to hearken vnto them, in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou dideſt ſeparate them to thee from among all people of the earth for an inheritãce, as thou ſaideſt by the hand of Moſés thy ſeruant, whẽ thou broghteſt our fathers * out of Egypt, ô Lord God.

Exod.19,6.

54 And when Salomón had made an end of praying all this u prayer and ſupplicacion vnto the Lord, he aroſe from before the altar of the Lord, from kneling on his knees, and ſtretching of his hands to heauen, u Salomón is a figure of Chriſt, who cõtinually is the Mediator betwene God and his Church.

55 And ſtode and bleſſed all the Congregacion of Iſraél with a loude voice, ſaying, 56 Bleſſed be the Lord that hathe giuen reſt vnto his people Iſraél, according to all ỹ he promiſed: there hathe not failed one worde of all his good promes which he promiſed by the hand of Moſés his ſeruant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, that he forſake vs not, nether leaue vs, 58 That he may x bowe our hearts vnto hĩ, that we may walke in all his waies, & kepe his commandements, and his ſtatutes, and his lawes, which he commanded our fathers.

x He concludeth that man of him ſelfe is enemie vnto God, and ỹ all obedience to his lawe proceedeth of his mere mercie

59 And theſe my wordes, wt I haue praied before ỹ Lord, be nere vnto the Lord our God day and night, that he defende the cauſe of his ſeruant, and the cauſe of his people Iſraél "alway as the matter requireth,

"Ebr the thing of a day in hys day.

60 That all the people of the earth may knowe, that the Lord is God, & none other.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfit with the Lord our God to walke in his ſtatutes,

& to kepe his commandemẽts, as this day.

62 ¶Thẽ the King & all Iſraél with him offred ſacrifice before the Lord.

2 Chro. 7,3. 63 *And Salomón offred a ſacrifice of peace offrings which he offred vnto the Lord, to wit, two & twentie thouſand beeues, and an hundreth & twentie thouſand ſhepe: ſo the King and all the children of Iſraél dedicated the y house of the Lord.

y Before the oracle, where the Arke was 64 The ſame day did the King halowe the midle of the courte, that was before the house of ỹ Lord: for there he offred burnt offrings, and the meat offrings, and the fat of the peace offrings, becauſe the *braſen altar that was before the Lord, was to litle to receiue the burnt offrings, and the meat offrings, and the fat of the peace offrings.

2 Chro. 7,7.

65 And Salomón made at that time a feaſt and all Iſraél with him, a very great Cõgregaciõ, euen frõ the entring in of z Hamáth vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God, a ſeuen dayes and ſeuen dayes, euen fourtene dayes.

z That is, frõ North to South: meaning all the countrey.

a Seuen dayes for the dedicacion, and ſeuen for the feaſt

66 And the eight day he ſent the people away: and they "thanked the King and went vnto their tentes ioyous and with glad heart, becauſe of all the goodnes that the Lord had done for Dauid his ſeruant, and for Iſraél his people.

" Ebr. bleſſed.

CHAP. IX.

1 The Lord appeareth the ſeconde time to Salomón. 11 Salomón giueth cities to Hirám. 20 The Canaanites become tributaries. 28 He ſendeth forthe a nauie for golde.

2 Chro. 7,11. 1 WHen * Salomón had finiſhed the buylding of the house of ỹ Lord, and the Kings palace, and all that Salomón deſired and minded to do,

2 Then the Lord appeared vnto Salomón ỹ ſeconde time, as he *appeared vnto him at Gibeón.

Chap. 3,5.

3 And ỹ Lord ſaid vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer and thy ſupplicacion, that thou haſt made before me: I haue halowed this house (which thou haſt buylt) to *put my Name there for euer, and mine eyes, and mine heart ſhal be there perpetually.

Chap. 8,29. deut. 12,11.

a If ỹ walke an my feare, & withdrawe thy ſelfe from the commune maner of men which follow their ſenſualitie.

4 And a if thou wilt walke before me (as Dauid thy father walked in purenes of heart, & in righteouſnes) to do according to all that I haue commãded thee, and kepe my ſtatutes, and my iudgements,

5 Then wil I ſtabliſh the throne of thy kingdome vpõ Iſraél for euer, as I promiſed to Dauid thy father, ſaying, * Thou ſhalt not want a man vpon the throne of Iſraél.

2 Sam 7,12. 2 chro. 22,10.

b God declareth that diſobedience againſt him is ỹ cauſe of his diſpleaſure, & ſo of all miſerie.

6 But if ye and your children turne away from me, and wil b not kepe my commãdemẽts, and my ſtatutes, (which I haue ſet before you) but go and ſerue other gods, and worſhip them,

7 Then wil I cut of Iſraél from the land, which I haue giuen them, and the house which I haue halowed *for my Name, wil I caſt out of my ſight, and Iſraél ſhalbe a c prouerbe, and a cõmune talke among all p ople.

Ier 7,14

c The worlde ſhal make of you a mocking ſtocke for the vile contempt and abuſing of Gods moſt liberal benefite.

8 Euen this hie house ſhalbe ſo euerie one that paſſeth by it, ſhal be aſtonied, and ſhal hiſſe, and they ſhal ſay, * Why hathe the Lord done thus vnto this land and to this house?

Deut 29,24. Ier. 22,8.

9 And they ſhal anſwer, Becauſe they forſoke the Lord their God, which brogt their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and haue taken holde vpon other gods, and haue worſhiped them, and ſerued them, therefore hathe the Lord brogt vpon them all this euil.

10 *And at the end of twentie yeres, when Salomón had buylded the two houſes, the house of the Lord, and the Kings palace,

2 Chro. 8,1.

11 (For the which Hirám the King of Tyrus had brogt to Salomón timber of cedre, and fir tres, and golde, and what ſoeuer he deſired) then King Salomón gaue to Hirám twẽtie cities in the lãd of d Galil.

d Or, Galilé.

12 And *Hirám came out from Tyrus to ſe the cities which Salomón had giuen him, and they pleaſed him not.

13 Therefore he ſaid, What cities are theſe which thou haſt giuen me, my brother? And he called them the land of e Cabúl vnto this day.

e Or, dirtie, or, bare.

14 And Hirám had ſent the Kíg d ſix ſcore e talents of golde.

d For his tribute towarde the buylding

15 ¶And this is the cauſe of ỹ tribute why Kig Salomón raiſed tribute, to wit, to buylde ỹ house of the Lord, & his owne houſe, and f Milló, and the wall of Ieruſalém, & Hazór, and Megiddó, and Gézer.

e The commõ talent was about threſcore poũde weight.

f Milló was as ỹ towne houſe or place of aſſemblie which was open aboue.

16 Pharaóh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gézer, and burnt it with fire, & ſlewe the Canaanites, that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a preſent vnto his daughter Salomons wife.

17 (Therefore Salomón buylt Gézer and Beth-horón the nether,

18 And Baaláth and Tamór in the wilderneſ of the land,

19 And all the cities g of ſtore, that Salomón had, euen cities for charets, and cities for horſemen, and all that Salomón deſired & wolde buyld in Ieruſalém, and in Lebanón and in all the land of his dominion)

g Cities for his munitions of warre.

20 All the people that were h left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hiuites, & Iebuſites, which were not of the childrẽ of Iſraél:

h Theſe were as bondmen & payed, what was required, either labour or money.

21 To wit, their children that were left after them them in the land, whome the children of Israél were not able to destroye, those did Salomón make tributaries vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israél did Salomón *make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his seruants, and his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charets and his horsemen.

Leui. 25, 39.

23 These were the princes of the officers, that were ouer Salomons worke: euen [i] fiue hundreth and fiftie, and they ruled ẏ people that wroght in the worke.

[i] The ouerseers of Salomons workes were deuided into 3 partes. the first cõteined 3300 ẏ seconde 300 and ẏ 3,250, which were Israelites: so here are conteined the two last parts, which make 550.

24 ¶And Pharaohs daughter came vp frõ the citie of Dauid vnto the house which Salomón had buylt for her: thẽ did he buylde Milló.

25 And thrise a yere did Salomón offer burnt offrings and peace offrings vpon the altar which he buylt vnto the Lord: & he burnt incense vpon the altar, that was before the Lord, when he had finished the house.

26 ¶Also King Salomón made a nauie of shippes in Ezeon-géber, which is beside Elóth, and the brincke of the red Sea, in the land of Edóm.

27 And Hirám sent with the nauie his seruants, ẏ were mariners, & had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Salomón.

28 And they came to Ophír and fet from thence [k] foure hundreth and twenty talẽts of golde, & broght it to King Salomón.

[k] In ẏ 2. Chro 8, 18 as made mencion of thirtie mo, ẃ seme to haue bene employed for their charges

CHAP. X.

1 The quene of Sabá commeth to heare the wisdome of Salomón 18 His royal throne 23 His power and magnificence

1 AND the *quene of [a] Shebá hearing the fame of Salomón (concerning the Name of the Lord) came to proue him with hard questions,

2 Chro. 9, 1. mat 12, 42. luk 11, 31

[a] Iosephus saith that she was quene of Etiropi, and ẏ Sheba was the name of ẏ chief citie of Meroe, which is an yland of Nilus.

2 And she came to Ierusalém with a very great traine, & camels that bare swete odors, and golde exceding muche, & precious stones: and she came to Salomón, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Salomón declared vnto her all her questions: nothing was hid frõ the King, which he expounded not vnto her.

4 Then the quene of Shebá sawe all Salomons wisdom, and the house that he had buylt.

5 And the [b] meat of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, and the ordre of his ministers, & their apparel, & his drinking vessels, and his burnt offrings, that he offred in the house of the Lord, and "she was greatly astonied.

[b] That is, the whole ordre, and trade of his house

"Ebr there was no more spirit in her

6 And she said vnto the King, It was a true worde that I heard in mine owne land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdome.

7 Howbeit I beleued not this reporte, til I came, and had sene it with mine eyes: but lo, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thou hast more wisdome and prosperitie, thẽ I haue heard by reporte.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy seruants, which stand euer before thee, and heare thy [c] wisdome.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which [d] loued thee, to set thee on the throne of Israél, because the Lord loued Israél for euer and made thee King, to do [e] equitie and righteousnes.

[c] But muche more happie are they, ẃ heare the wisdome of God reueiled in his worde

[d] It is a chief signe of Gods fauour, when godlie & wise rulers sit in ẏ throne of iustice

[e] This is the cause, why Kings are appointed.

10 And she gaue the King six score talents of golde, and of swete odors exceding muche, and precious stones. There came no more suche abũdance of swete odors, as the quene of Shebá gaue to King Salomón.

11 The nauie also of Hirám (that caried golde from Ophír) broght likewise great plenty of * Almuggím trees from Ophír and precious stones.

2. Chro. 9, 10

12 And the King made of the Almuggím trees pillers for the house of the Lord, & for the Kings palace, and made harpes & psalteries for singers. There came no more suche Almuggím trees, nor were anie more sene vnto this day.

13 And King Salomón gaue vnto the quene of Shebá, what soeuer she wolde aske, besides that, which Salomón gaue her "of his kinglie liberalitie: so she returned & went to her owne countrey, bothe she, and her seruants.

"Ebr by the hãd of the King.

14 ¶Also the weight of golde, that came to Salomón in one yere, was six hundreth thre score and six * talents of golde, 15 Besides that he had of marchant men and of the marchandises of them that solde spices, and of all the Kings of Arabia, & of the princes of the [f] countrey.

Exod 25, 39.

[f] To wit, of Arabia, which for the great abundance of all things was called, happy.

16 And King Salomón made two hundreth targats of beaten golde, six hundreth shekels of golde went to a targat:

17 And thre hundreth shields of beaten golde, thre pounde of golde went to one shield: and the King put them in ẏ * house of the wood of Lebanón.

Chap. 7, 2.

18 ¶Then the King made a great throne of yuerie, and couered it with the best golde.

19 And the throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behinde, & there were [g] stayes on ether side on the place of the throne, and two lions standing by the stayes.

[g] As the chairebowes, or places to leane vpon.

20 And there stode twelue lions on the six steps on ether side: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

THE ROYAL THRONE OF SALOMON.

21 And all King Salomons drinking vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanón were of pure golde. none were of siluer: for it was nothing estemed in the daies of Salomón.

22 For the King had on the sea the nauie of Tharshísh with the nauie of Hirám: once in thre yere came ẏ nauie of [h] Tharshish, & broght golde and siluer, yuerie, & apes and peacockes.

h By Tharshísh is ment Cilicia, ẃ was abundant in varietie of precious things.

23 So King Salomón exceded all ẏ Kings of the earth bothe in riches and in wisdome.

24 And all the worlde soght to se Salomón, to heare his wisdome, which God had put in his heart,

25 And thei broght euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and raiment, and armour, and swete odors, horses and mules, from yere to yere.

a Chro 1, 14. 26 Then Salomón gathered together *charets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and foure hundreth charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whome he placed in the charet, cities, and with the King at Ierusalém.

*Or, he made siluer as pleateous as stones.

27 And the King [o] gaue siluer in Ierusalém as stones, and gaue cedres as the wilde figtrees that growe abundantly in the plaine.

28 Also Salomón had horses broght out of Egypt, and fine linen: [o] the Kings marchants receiued the linen for a price.

*Or, for the companie of the Kings marchãts did receiue a number at a price.

29 There came vp and went out of Egypt some charet, worthe six hundreth shekels of siluer: that is, one horse, an hundreth and fiftie. and thus they broght horses to all the Kings of the Hittites and to the Kings of Arám by their [n] meanes.

[n] Ebr. handes.

CHAP. XI.

1 Salomón hathe a thousand wiues and concubines, which bring him to idolatrie. 14 His God raiseth vp aduersaries against him. 43 He dyeth.

1 BVt Kig Salomón loued *many [a] outlandish women: bothe the daughter of Pharaóh, & the women of Moáb, Ammón, Edóm, Zidón and Heth, Deu. 17, 17. eccles 47, 2.

a Which were idolaters.

2 Of the nacions, whereof the Lord had said vnto the children of Israél, *Go not ye in to them, nor let thẽ come in to you: for surely they wil turne your hearts after their gods. to them, I say, did Salomón ioyne in loue.

Exod 34, 16.

3 And he had seuen hundreth wiues, that were [o] princesses and thre hundreth [b] concubines, and his wiues turned away his heart.

*Or, queenes

b To whome apperteined no dowry

4 For when Salomón was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other gods, so ẏ his heart was not [c] perfit with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

c He serued not God with a pure heart.

5 For Salomón followed* Ashtaróth the god of ẏ Zidonians, & [d] Milcóm the abominacion of the Ammonites.

Iudg 2, 13.

d Who was also called Molech ver 7. read 2. King. 23, 10.

6 So Salomón wroght wickednes in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

7 Then did Salomón buylde an hie place for for Chemóſh the [e] abominaciō of Moáb, in the mountaine that is ouer againſt Ieruſalém, and vnto Mólech the abomination of the children of Ammón.

8 And ſo did he for all his outlādiſh wiues, which burnt incenſe and offred vnto their gods.

9 Therefore the Lord was angry with Salomón, becauſe he had turned his heart from the Lord God of Iſraél, *which had appeared vnto him twiſe,

Chap 3,5.& 9.3.

Chap.6,12.

10 And had giuen him a* charge concerning this thing, that he ſhulde not followe other gods: but he kept not that, which the Lord had commanded him.

11 Wherefore the Lord ſaid vnto Salomón, Forasmucheas [f] this is done of thee, and thou haſt not kept my couenant, and my ſtatutes (which I commanded thee) *I wil ſurely rent the kingdome frō thee, and wil giue it to thy ſeruant.

Chap 12,15.

12 Notwithſtanding in thy daies I wil not do it, becauſe of Dauid thy father, but I wil rent it out of the hand of thy ſonne:

13 Howbeit I wil not rent all ȳ kingdome, but wil giue one [g] tribe to thy ſonne, becauſe of Dauid my ſeruant, and becauſe of Ieruſalém, which I haue choſen.

14 ¶ Then the Lord ſtirred vp an aduerſarie vnto Salomón, euen Hádád the Edomite, of the Kings [h] ſeede, which was in Edóm.

15 *For when Dauid was in Edóm, & Ioáb the captaine of the hoſte had ſmitten all the males in Edóm, and was gone vp to bury the [i] ſlayne,

2 Sam 8,14.

16 (For ſix moneths did Ioáb remaine there, and all Iſraél, til he had deſtroyed all the males in Edóm)

17 Then this Hadad [k] fled and certeine other Edomites of his fathers ſeruants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a litle childe.

18 And they aroſe out of Midián, & came to Parán, and tooke men with them out of Parán, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaóh King of Egypt, which gaue him an houſe, and appointed him vitailes, and gaue him land.

19 So Hadád [l] founde great fauour in the ſight of Pharaóh, & he gaue him to wife the ſiſter of his owne wife, euen the ſiſter of Tahpenés the quene.

20 And the ſiſter of Tahpenés bare him Genubáth his ſonne, whome Tahpenés wayned in Pharaohs houſe: & Genubáth was in Pharaohs houſe among the ſonnes of Pharaóh.

21 And when Hadád heard in Egypt, that Dauid ſlept with his fathers, & that Ioáb the captaine of the hoſte was dead, Hadád ſaid to Pharaóh, Let me departe, that I may go to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaóh ſaid vnto him, What haſt thou lacked with me, that thou woldeſt thus go to thine owne countrey? And he anſwered, Nothing, but in any wiſe let me go.

23 ¶ *And God ſtirred him vp another aduerſarie, Rezón the ſonne of Eliadáh, which [m] fled from his lord Hadadézer King of Zobáh.

2 Sam 8,3.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, & had bene captaine ouer the companie, when Dauid ſlewe them. And they went to Damaſcus, and dwelt there, [n] and they made him King in Damaſcus.

25 Therefore was he an aduerſarie to Iſraél all the daies of Salomón: beſides the euil that Hadád did, he alſo abhorred Iſraél, and reigned ouer Arám.

26 ¶ *And Ieroboám ȳ ſonne of Nebát an Ephrathite of Zeréda Salomons ſeruant (whoſe mother was called Zeruáh a widowe) lift vp his hand againſt the King.

2.Chro.13,6.

27 And this was the cauſe that he lift vp his hand againſt the King, When Salomón buylt Milló, he repared the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this man Ieroboám was a man of ſtrength and courage, and Salomón ſeing that the yong mā was mete for the worke, he made him [o] ouerſeer of all the laboure of the houſe of Ioſéph.

29 And at that time, when Ieroboám went out of Ieruſalém, the Prophet Ahiiáh the Shilonite founde him in the way, hauing a newe garment on him, and they two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahiiah caught the newe garment that was on him, and [p] rent it in twelue pieces, 31 And ſaid to Ieroboám, Take vnto thee ten pieces: for thus ſayth the Lord God of Iſraél, Beholde, I wil rēt the kingdome out of the hands of Salomón, & wil giue ten tribes to thee.

32 But he ſhal haue one tribe for my ſeruāt Dauids ſake, and for Ieruſalém the citie, which I haue choſen out of all the tribes of Iſraél, 33 Becauſe they haue forſaken me, and haue worſhiped Aſhtaroth the god of the Zidonians, & Chemóſh the god of the Moabites, and Milcóm the god of the Ammonites, & haue not walked in my wayes (to *do right in mine eyes, and my ſtatutes, & my lawes) as did Dauid his father.

34 But I wil not take the whole kingdome out of his hād: for I wil make him prince all his life long for Dauid my ſeruants ſake, whome I haue choſen, & who kept my commandements and my ſtatutes.

35 *But I wil take the kingdome out of his ſonnes hand, and wil giue it vnto thee, euē the ten tribes.

Chap.12,20.

R.i.

[e] Thus the Scripture termeth, whatſoeuer man doeth reuerence and ſerue as God

[f] That thou haſt forſaken me & worſhiped idoles.

[g] Becauſe the tribes of Iudáh & Beniamin had their poſſeſsiōs mixed, they are here taken as one tribe

[h] Of the King of Edoms ſtocke

[i] Of the Edomites

[k] Thus God reſerued this idolater to be a ſcourge to puniſhe his peoples ſinnes.

[l] God broght him to honour that his power might be more able to cōpaſſe his enterprises againſt Salomōs houſe.

[m] Whē Dauid had diſcōfited Hadadézer & his armie.

[n] To wit, the mē, whome he had gathered vnto him

[o] He was ouerſeer of Salomōs workes for the tribe of Ephraim and Manaſſeh

[p] By theſe viſible ſignes ȳ Prophetts wolde more depely printe their meſſage into their hearts, to whome they were ſent

*Or, to do that, that pleaſeth me

36 And vnto his ſonne wil I giue one tribe, that Dauid my ſeruant maye haue a light alwaie before me in Ieruſalém the citie, which I haue choſen me, to put my Name there.

¶ He hathe reſpect vnto hꝛ Meſsiáh, ẅ ſhulde be the bright ſtarre ẏ ſhulde ſhine through all ẏ worlde.

37 And I wil take thee, & thou ſhalt reigne, "euen as thine heart deſireth, & ſhalt be King ouer Iſraél.

"Ebr. in all that thy ſoule.

38 And if thou hearkē vnto all that I commande thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and do right in my ſight, to kepe my ſtatutes and my commandements, as Dauid my ſeruant did, then wil I be with thee, & buylde thee a ſure houſe, as I buylt vnto Dauid, and wil giue Iſraél vnto thee.

39 And I wil for † this afflict the ſeede of Dauid, ‡ but not for euer.

† For this ido latrie that Salomón hathe committed ‡ For ẏ whole ſpirtual kigdome was reſtored in Meſsiáh

40 ¶ Salomón ſoght therefore to kil Ieroboám, and Ieroboám aroſe, and fled into Egypt vnto Shiſhák King of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntil the death of Salomón.

41 And the reſt of the wordes of Salomón, & all that he did, and his wiſdome, are thei not writen in the † boke of the actes of Salomón?

† Which boke, as is thoght, was loſt in their captiuitie.

42 The time that Salomón reigned in Ieruſalém ouer all Iſraél, was fourtie yere.

43 And Salomón ſlept with his fathers and was buryed in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboám his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboám ſuccedeth Salomón. 3 He refuſeth the counſel of the Ancient. 20 Ieroboám reigneth ouer Iſraél. 21 God commandeth Rehoboám not to fight. 28 Ieroboám maketh golden calues.

2.Chro 10.1. 1 AND * Rehoboám went to Shechém: for all Iſraél were come to Shechém, to make him King.

2 And when Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát heard of it (who was yet in Egypt) * whether Ieroboám had fled from King Salomón, and ‡ dwelt in Egypt,

Chap.11,40. ‡ Or, returned from Egypt

3 Then thei ſent and called him: and Ieroboám and all the Congregacion of Iſraél came, and ſpake vnto Rehoboám, ſaying, Chap.4,7. 4 Thy father made our * yoke grieuous: now therefore make thou the grieuous ſeruitude of thy father, and his ſore yoke which he put vpon vs, † lighter, & we wil ſerue thee.

† Oppreſſe vs not ẅ ſo great charges, which we are not able to ſuſteine.

5 And he ſaid vnto them, Departe yet for thre dayes, then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboám toke counſel with the olde men that ‡ had ſtande before Salomón his father, while he yet liued, and ſaid, What counſel giue ye, that I may make an anſwer to this people?

‡ Or, had beue of hꝛ ancliene cōſellers.

7 And thei ſpake vnto him, ſaying, If thou be a § ſeruant vnto this people this day, and ſerue them, and anſwer them, and ſpeake kinde wordes to them, thei wil be thy ſeruants for euer.

§ Thei ſhewed him that there was no way to winne ẏ peoples hearts, but to grante thē their iuſte petition.

8 But he forſoke the counſel that the olde men had giuen him, and aſked counſel of the yong men, that had bene broght vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And he ſaid vnto them, ‖ What counſel giue ye, that we may anſwer this people, which haue ſpoken to me, ſaying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

‖ There is no thing harder for them, that are in autoritie, thē to bridel their affections, and followe good counſel.

10 Then the yong men that were broght vp with him, ſpake vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto this people, that haue ſpoken vnto thee, and ſaid, Thy father hathe made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: euē thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto thē, My ‡ leaſt parte ſhalbe § bigger then my fathers loynes.

‡ Or, litle finger. § I am muche more able to kepe you in ſubiection thē my father was 11 Now where as my father did burdē you with a grieuous yoke, I wil yet make your yoke heauier: my father hathe chaſtiſed you with rods, but I wil correct you with ‡ ſcourges.

‡ Or, ſcorpions.

12 ¶ Then Ieroboám and all the people came to Rehoboám the third day, as the King had ‖ appointed, ſaying, Come to me againe the third day.

‖ The people declare their obedience in this, that they wolde attempt nothing before ẏ King had giuen the iuſte occaſion

13 And the King anſwered the people ſharpely, and left the olde mens counſel that thei gaue him,

14 And ſpake to them after the counſel of the yong men, ſaying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I wil make your yoke more grieuous: my father hathe chaſtiſed you with rods, but I wil correct you with ſcourges.

15 And the King hearkened not vnto the people: for † it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might performe his ſaying, which the Lord had ſpoken by * Ahiiáh the Shilonite vnto Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát.

† Or, the lord was the cauſe. Chap.11,11.

16 So when all Iſraél ſawe that the King regarded them not, the people anſwered the King thus, ſaying, What portiō haue we in ‡ Dauid? we haue none inheritance in the ſonne of Iſhái. To your tents, ô Iſraél: now ſe to thine owne houſe, Dauid. So Iſraél departed vnto their tents.

‡ Thogh their cauſe were good, yet it is moſte hard for the people to bridel their affectiōs, as theſe vile wordes declare

17 Howbeit ouer the children of Iſraél, which dwelt in the cities of Iudáh, did Rehoboám reigne ſtil.

18 ¶ Now the King Rehoboám ſent Adorám the receiuer of the tribute, and all Iſraél ſtoned him to death: then King Rehoboám † made ſpede to get him vp to his chariet, to flee to Ieruſalém.

† Ebr. ſtrengthened him ſelfe.

19 And Iſraél rebelled againſt the houſe § of Dauid vnto this day.

§ By the iuſte iudgement of God for Salomons ſinnes.

20 ¶ And when all Iſraél had heard that Ieroboám roboám was come againe, they ſent and called him vnto the aſſemblie, and made him King ouer all Iſraél: none followed the houſe of Dauid, but the tribe of Iudáh *onely.

Chap 11,13.

21 And whē Rehoboám was come to Ieruſalém, he [h] gathered all the houſe of Iudáh with the tribe of Beniamín an hundreth and four ſcore thouſand of choſen men (which were good warriours) to fight againſt the houſe of Iſraél & to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboám the ſonne of Salomón.

[h] For as yet he perceiued not that the Lord had ſo appointed it.

2 Chro 11,2.

22 *But the worde of God came vnto Shemaiáh the [1] man of God, ſaying, [1] That is, the Prophet.

23 Speake vnto Rehoboám the ſonne of Salamón King of Iudáh, and vnto all the houſe of Iudáh and Beniamín, and the remnant of the people, ſaying, [k] Who of his iuſt iudgemēt wil puniſhe ỹ treſpaſſer, and of his mercie ſpare the innocent people.

24 Thus ſayth the [k] Lord, Ye ſhal not go vp, nor fight againſt your brethrē the children of Iſraél: returne euerie man to his houſe: for this thing is done by me. They obeied therefore the worde of the Lord and returned, and departed, according to the worde of the Lord.

25 ¶ Then Ieroboám buylt Shechém in mount Ephráim, and dwelt therein, & wēt from thence, and buylt Penuél.

26 And Ieroboám thoght in his heart, Now ſhal the kingdome returne to the houſe of Dauid.

[l] He feared leſt his people ſhulde haue by this meanes bene entiſed to rebelle againſt him

27 If this people go vp and do ſacrifice in the houſe of the Lord [l] at Ieruſalém, thē ſhal the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lord, euen to Rehoboám King of Iudáh: ſo ſhal they kil me and go againe to Rehoboám King of Iudáh.

[m] So craftie are the carnal perſuaſions of princes, when they wil make a religion to ſerue to their appetite.

28 Whereupon the King toke counſel, and made two calues of golde, and ſaid vnto them, [m] It is to muche for you to go vp to Ieruſalém: beholde, ô Iſraél, thy gods, which broght thee vp out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he ſet the one in Beth-él, and the other ſet he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to ſinne: for the people wēt (becauſe of ỹ one) euē to Dan.

[n] That is, a temple, where altars were buylt for idolatrie

31 And he made an [n] houſe of hye places, and made Prieſts of the loweſt of the people, which were not of the ſonnes of Leuí.

[o] Becauſe he wolde the more binde the peoples deuotiō to his idolatrie, he made a newe holy day, beſides thoſe that the Lord had appointed in ỹ Lawe.

32 And Ieroboám made a feaſt the [o] fiftēth day of the eight moneth, lyke vnto ỹ feaſt that is in Iudáh, and offred on the altar. So did he in Beth-él and offred vnto the calues that he had made: and he placed in Beth-él the Prieſts of the hie places, which he had made.

33 And he offred vpon the altar, which he had made in Beth-él, the fiftēth day of the eight moneth (euen in the moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) & made a ſolēne feaſt vnto the childrē of Iſrael: & he went vp to the altar, to burne incenſe.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Ieroboám is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand dryeth vp 15 The Prophet is ſeduced, 24 And is killed of a lyon. 33 The obſtinacie of Ieroboám.

1 AND beholde, there came [a] a man of God out of Iudáh (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto [b] Beth él, and Ieroboám ſtode by the altar to offer incenſe.

[a] That is, a Prophet.

[b] Not that ỹ was called Luz in Beniamin, but another of that name.

2 And he cryed againſt the altar by the cōmandemēt of the Lord, and ſaid, O altar, altar, thus ſayth ỹ Lord, Beholde, a childe ſhal be borne vnto the houſe of Dauid, *Ioſiáh by name, and vpon thee ſhal he ſacrifice the Prieſts of the hie places that burne incenſe vpon thee, and they ſhal burne mens bones vpon thee.

2 King 23,15

3 And he gaue a ſigne ỹ ſame time, ſaying, This is the [c] ſigne, that the Lord hathe ſpoken, Beholde, the altar ſhal rent, and the aſſhes that are vpon it, ſhal [p] fall out.

[c] By this ſigne ye ſhal knowe that ỹ Lord hathe ſent me

[p] Or, be powred out.

4 And whē the King had heard the ſaying of the man of God, which he had cryed againſt ỹ altar in Beth-él, Ieroboám ſtretched out his hand from the altar, ſaying, [d] Lay holde on him: but his hād which he put forthe againſt him, dryed vp, & hē colde not pull it in againe to him.

[d] The wicked rage againſt ỹ Propheres of God, whē they declare them Gods iudgements.

5 The altar alſo claue aſundre, & the aſſhes fel out from the altar, according to the ſigne, which the man of God had giuen by the [q] commandement of the Lord.

[q] Ebr. mouthe.

6 Then the King anſwered, and ſaid vnto the man of God, [e] I beſeche thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make interceſſion for me, that mine hand may be reſtored vnto me. And the man of God beſoght the Lord, and the Kings hand was reſtored, and became as it was afore.

[e] Thogh the wicked humble thē ſelues for a time, whē they fele Gods iudgemēts, yet after they returne to their olde malice & declare that they are but vile hypocrites

7 Thē the King ſaid vnto the mā of God, Come home with me, that thou maiſt [r] dine, and I wil giue thee a reward.

[r] Or, ſup.

8 But the man of God ſaid vnto the King, If thou woldeſt giue me halfe thine houſe, I wolde not go in with thee, nether wolde I eat bread nor drinke water in this place.

9 For ſo [s] was it charged me by the worde of the Lord, ſaying, [f] Eat no bread nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the ſame way that thou cameſt.

[s] Or, he charged me: to wit, an Angel

[f] Seing he had the expreſſe worde of God, he ought not to haue declined there from, nether for the perſuaſion of man nor Angel

10 So he went another way & returned not by the way that he came to Beth-él.

11 ¶ And an olde Prophet dwelt in Beth-él & his ſonnes came, & tolde him all ỹ workes, ỹ the mā of God had done that day in Beth-él, & the wordes which he had ſpokē vnto the King, tolde they their father.

12 And their father ſaid vnto them, What way went he? and his ſonnes [t] ſhewed him what way the man of God went, which came from Iudáh.

[t] Ebr. ſawe.

13 And he said vnto his sonnes, Sadle me the asse. Who sadled him the asse, and he rode thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and founde him sitting vnder an oke: and he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God that cameſt frō Iudáh? And he said, "Yea.

"Ebr. I am

g This he did of a simple minde, thinking it his duetie to declare friendship to a Prophet.

15 Then he said vnto him, g Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor go in with thee, nether wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou wenteſt.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an h Angel spake vnto me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drinke water: but he lied vnto him.

h His faute is here double: first in y he suffreth not the Prophete to obey Gods expresse cōmandement: and next, that he farneth to haue a reuelacion to the cōtrary

19 So he went againe with him, and did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe.

21 And he cryed vnto the man of God that came from Iudáh, saying, Thus saith the Lord, i Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandemēt which the Lord thy God commanded thee, i God wolde reproue his folý by him, who was the occasion to bring him into error.

22 But cameſt backe againe, and hast eaten bread & dronke water in the place (whereof he did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drinke anie water) thy carkeis shal not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And when he had eaten bread and dróke, he sadled him the asse, to wit, to the Prophet whome he had brought againe.

k By this fearefull exāple, God setteth forthe, how dangerous a thing it is for men to behaue them selues coldely, or deceitfully in their charge whereunto God hathe called them.

24 And when he was gone, k a lyon met him by the way, and slewe him, and his bodie was cast in the way, and the asse stode thereby: the lyon stode by the corps also.

25 And beholde, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the lyon standing by the corps: and they came and tolde it in the towne where the olde Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet, that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hathe bene disobedient vnto the commandemēt of the Lord: therefore the Lord hathe deliuered him vnto the lyon, which hathe rent him and slaine him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake vnto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Sadle me the asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went and founde his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lyon stode by the corps: and the lyon had l not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

l To declare that this was onely the iudgemēt of God: for if the lyon had done it for hūgre, he wolde also haue deuoured the body.

29 And ý Prophet toke vp the body of the man of God, and layed it vpon the asse, and broght it againe, and the olde Prophet came to the citie, to lament and bury him.

30 And he layed his body in his m owne graue, & they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother.

m Which he had prepared for him selfe.

31 And when he had buryed him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buryed: laye my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cryed by the worde of the Lord against the altar that is in Beth él, and against all the houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shal surely come to passe.

33 Howbeit after this, Ieroboám n conuerted not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who wolde, might "cōsecrate him selfe, and be of the Priests of the hie places.

n So the wicked profit not by Gods threatnings, but go backewarde & become worse and worse, 2. Tim 3, 13

"Ebr fil his hand.

34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboám, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

CHAP. XIIII.

z Ieroboám sendeth his wife disguised to Ahiáh the Prophet, who declareth vnto him the destruction of his house. 22 Iudáh is punished by Shishák.

1 AT that time Abiiáh the sonne of Ieroboám fel sicke.

2 And Ieroboám said vnto his wife, Vp, I pray thee, a & disguise thy selfe, that they knowe not that thou art the wife of Ieroboám, and go to Shilóh: for there is Ahiiáh the Prophet, which tolde me * that I shulde be King ouer this people, a His owne cōscience bare him witnes, ý the Prophet of God wolde not satisfie his affectiōs which was a wicked man

Chap. 11, 31.

"Ebr in thine hand

3 And take "with b thee ten loaues and craknels, and a bottel of hony, and go to him: he shal tel thee what shal become of the yong man.

b According to the custome whē they wēt to aske coūsel of Prophetes, 1. Sam. 9, 7.

4 And Ieroboams wife did so, and arose, & went to Shilóh, and came to the house of Ahiiáh: but Ahiiáh colde not se, for his "sight was decayed for his age.

"Ebr. eyes stode.

5 Thē the Lord said vnto Ahiiáh, Beholde, the wife of Ieroboám commeth to aske a thing of thee for her sonne, for he is sicke: thus and thus shalt thou say vnto her: for when she cōmeth in, she shal feine her selfe to be c another.

c Then the wife of Ieroboam

6 Therefore when Ahiiáh heard the sound of her fete as she came in at the dore, he said, Come in, thou d wife of Ieroboám: why feinest ý thus thy selfe to be another? I am sent to thee with heauy tidings.

d For God oft times discloseth vnto his the craft and subtelte of his wicked.

7 Go,

7 Go, tel Ieroboám, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, Foraſmuche as I haue exalted [e] thee from among the people, and haue made thee prince ouer my people Iſraél, e Which waſt but a ſeruant.

8 And haue rent the kingdome away from the houſe of Dauid, and haue giuē it thee, and thou haſt not bene as my ſeruant Dauid, which kept my commandements, and followed me with all his heart, and did onely that which was right in mines eyes,

9 But haſt done euil aboue all that were before thee (for thou haſt gone and made thee other gods, and [f] molten images, to prouoke me, and haſt caſt me behinde thy backe)

f To wit, two calues.

10 Therefore beholde, I wil bring euil vpō the houſe of Ieroboám, and wil cut of frō Ieroboám him that * [g] piſſeth againſt the wall, aſwel him that [h] is ſhut vp, as him that is left in Iſraél, & wil ſwepe away the remnant of the houſe of Ieroboám, as a man ſwepeth away doung, til it be all gone.

Chap. 21, 21. & 2. king. 9, 8.

g Euery male euen to the dogs, 1 Sam 25, 22

h Aſwel him that is in the ſtrong holde, as him that is abroad

11 The dogs ſhal eat him of Ieroboams ſtocke that dyeth in the citie, and the foules of the aire ſhal eat him that dyeth in the field: [i] for the Lord hathe ſaid it.

i They ſhal lacke the honour of buryal in token of Gods malediction.

12 Vp therefore & get thee to thine houſe: for whē thy feete entre into the citie, the childe ſhal dye.

13 And all Iſraél ſhal mourne for him, and bury him: for he onely of Ieroboám ſhal come to the graue, becauſe in him there is founde [k] ſome goodnes toward ỹ Lord God of Iſraél in the houſe of Ieroboám.

k In the middes of ỹ wicked God hath ſome, on whome he doeth beſtowe his mercies 14 Moreouer, the Lord ſhal ſtir him vp a King ouer Iſraél, which ſhal deſtroy the houſe of Ieroboám in that day: [l] what? yea, euen now.

l The Lord wil begynne to deſtroy it out of hand.

15 For the Lord ſhal ſmite Iſraél, as when a rede is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhal wede Iſraél out of this good land, which he gaue to their fathers, and ſhal ſcatre them beyonde the [m] Riuer, becauſe they haue made them groues, prouoking the Lord to angre.

m Meaning, Euphrates.

16 And he ſhal giue Iſraél vp, becauſe of the ſinnes of Ieroboám, who did ſinne, and [n] made Iſraél to ſinne.

n The people ſhal not be excuſed, when they do euil at ỹ comaundemēt of their gouernours.

17 ¶And Ieroboams wife aroſe, and departed, and came to Tirzáh, and when ſhe came to the threſholde of the houſe, the yōg man dyed,

18 And they buryed him, and all Iſraél lamented him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he ſpake by the hand of his ſeruant Ahiiáh the Prophet.

19 And the reſt of Ieroboams actes, how he warred, & how he reigned, beholde, they are writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboám reigned, were two and twentie yere: and he [o] ſlept with his fathers, & Nadáb his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

o The Lord ſmote him ỹ he dyed, 2 Chro. 13, 20.

21 ¶Alſo Rehoboám the ſonne of Salomón reigned in Iudáh. Rehoboám was one and fourtie yere olde, when he begā to reigne, and reigned ſeuentene [p] yere in Ieruſalém the citie, which the Lord did chuſe out of all the tribes of Iſraél, to put his Name there: and his mothers name was Naamáh an Ammonite.

p And dyed before Ieroboám about 4. yeres.

22 And Iudáh wroght wickednes in the ſight of the Lord: & they prouoked him more w̄ their ſinnes, which thei had committed, [q] then all that which their fathers had done.

q Or, beſides all that their fathers had done by their ſinne.

23 For they alſo made them hie places, and images, and groues on euery hye hil, and vnder euerie grene tre.

24 There were alſo Sodomites [r] in ỹ land. they did according to all the abominacions of the nacions, which the Lord had caſt out before the children of Iſraél.

r Where idolatrie reigneth, all horrible vices are committed, til at length Gods iuſt iudgemēt deſtroy them vtterly.

25 ¶And in the fift yere of King Rehoboám, Shiſhák King of Egypt came vp againſt Ieruſalém, 26 And toke the treaſures of the houſe of ỹ Lord, & the treaſures of the Kings houſe, and toke away all: alſo he caried away all the ſhields of golde * which Salomón had made.

Chap. 10, 16.

27 And King Rehoboám made for them braſen ſhields, and committed them vnto the hands of the chief of the garde, which waited at the dore of the Kings houſe.

28 And when the King went into the houſe of the Lord, the garde bare them, and broght them againe into the garde chamber.

29 And the reſt of ỹ actes of Rehoboám, & all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

r Which bokes were called the bokes of Shemaiáh and Iddō the Prophetes, 2 Chro 12, 15 30 And there was warre betwene Rehoboám and Ieroboám [s] continually.

s That is, all ỹ dayes of Rehoboams life.

31 And Rehoboám ſlept with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: his mothers name was Naamáh an [t] Ammonite. And Abiiám his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

t Whoſe idolatrie Rehoboám her ſonne followed

CHAP. XV.

1 Abiiám reigneth ouer Iudáh. 9 Aſá ſucceedeth in his roume 16 The battel betwene Aſá and Baaſha 24 Iehoſhaphát ſucceedeth Aſá 25 Naadáb ſucceaeth Ieroboam 28 Baaſha killeth Nadáb.

1 AND in the eightene yere of King * Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, reigned Abiiám ouer Iudáh. 2.Chro.11,22.

2 Thre yere reigned he in Ieruſalém, and his mothers name was Maacháh ỹ daughter of [a] Abiſhalóm.

a Some thinke that this was Abſalóm Salomons ſonne.

3 And he walked in all the ſinnes of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfit with the Lord his God as the heart of Dauid his father.

4 But for Dauids ſake did ỹ Lord his God giue him a [b] light in Ieruſalém, and ſet vp his ſonne after him, and eſtabliſhed Ieruſalém,

5 Becauſe Dauid did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commanded him, all the dayes of his life, *ſaue onely in the matter of Vriáh the Hittite.

6 And there was warre betwene Rehoboám and Ieroboám as long as he liued.

7 The reſt alſo of the actes of Abiiám, and all that he did, are they not writen in the *boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh? there was alſo warre betwene Abiiám, and Ieroboám.

8 And Abiiám ſlept with his fathers, & they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: & Aſá his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

9 ¶*And in the twentie yere of Ieroboám King of Iſraél reigned Aſá ouer Iudáh.

10 He reigned in Ieruſalém one & fourtie yere, and his [c] mothers name was Maachá, the daughter of Abiſhalóm.

11 And Aſá did right in ỹ eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

12 And he toke away the Sodomites out of the land, and put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And he [d] put downe Maachá his mother alſo from her eſtate, becauſe ſhe had made an idole in a groue: & Aſá deſtroyed her idoles, & burnt thẽ by the broke Kidrón.

14 But they put not downe the hie places. Neuertheles Aſas heart was [e] vpright with the Lord all his dayes.

15 Alſo he brogh̃t in the holy veſſels of his father, & the things that he had dedicate vnto the houſe of the Lord, ſiluer, & golde and veſſels.

16 ¶And there was warre betwene Aſá and Baaſhá King of Iſraél all their dayes.

17 Then Baaſhá King of Iſraél went vp againſt Iudáh, and buylt [f] Ramáh, ſo that he wolde let none go out or in to Aſá King of Iudáh.

18 Then Aſá toke all the ſiluer & the gold ỹ was left in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the Kings houſe, and deliuered them into the hands of his ſeruants, and King Aſá ſent them to Ben-hadád the ſonne of Tabrimón, the ſonne of Hezrón King of [] Arám that dwelt at Damaſcus, ſaying, 19 There is a couenant betwene me and thee, and betwene my father and thy father: beholde, I haue ſent vnto thee a preſent of ſiluer, and golde: come, breake thy couenant with Baaſhá King of Iſraél, that he may [g] depaite from me.

20 So Ben-hadád hearkened vnto King Aſá, and ſent the captaines of the hoſtes, which he had againſt the cities of Iſraél, and ſmote Iión, and Dan, and Abélbethmaachá, and all Cinneróth, with all the land of Naphtalí.

21 And when Baaſhá heard thereof, he left buylding of Ramáh, and dwelt in Tirzáh.

22 Then King Aſá [] aſſembled all Iudáh, [] none excepted. & they toke the ſtones of Ramáh, & the timber thereof, wherewith Baaſhá had buylt, & King Aſá buylt with them Géba of Beniamín and Mizpáh.

23 And the reſt of all the actes of Aſá, and all his might and all that he did, and the cities which he buylt, are they not writẽ in the boke of the Chronicles of ỹ Kings of Iudáh? but in his olde age he was diſeaſed in his [h] feete.

24 And Aſá ſlept with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his [i] father. And Iehoſhaphát his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

25 And Nadáb the ſonne of Ieroboám began to reigne ouer Iſraél the ſecõde yere of Aſá King of Iudáh, and reigned ouer Iſraél two yere.

26 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, & in his ſinne wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne.

27 And Baaſhá the ſonne of Ahiiáh of the houſe of Iſſachár conſpired againſt him, & Baaſhá ſlewe him at Gibbethón, which belonged to the Philiſtíms: for Nadab & all Iſraél laied ſiege to Gibbethón.

28 Euen in the third yere of Aſá King of Iudáh did Baaſhá ſlay him, and reigned in his ſteade.

29 And when he was King, he [k] ſmote all the houſe of Ieroboam, he left non aliue to Ieroboám, vntil he had deſtroyed him, according to the *worde of ỹ Lord which he ſpake by his ſeruant Ahiiáh the Shilonite, 30 Becauſe of ỹ ſinnes of Ieroboám which he committed, and wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne, by his [l] prouocation, wherewith he prouoked the Lord God of Iſraél.

31 And the reſidue of the actes of Nadáb and all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

32 And there was warre betwene Aſá & Baaſhá King of Iſraél, all their dayes.

33 In the third yere of Aſá King of Iudáh, began Baaſhá the ſonne of Ahiiáh to reigne ouer all Iſraél in [m] Tirzáh, and reigned foure and twentie yeres.

34 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, walking in the way of Ieroboám, & in his ſinne, wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne.

CHAP.

[b] Meaning, a ſonne to reigne ouer Iudáh.

2 Sam 11,4. & 12,9.

2 Chro. 13,3.

2 Chro. 14,2.

[c] That is, his grand mother, as Dauid is oftetimes called father of the, whoſe grand father he was.

[d] Neither kinred nor autoritie ought to be regarded, when they blaſpheme God & become idolaters, but muſt be punished

[e] For in that that he ſuffred them to worſhip God in other places, then he had appointed, it came of ignorance and not of malice.

[f] Of the ſame purpoſe that Ieroboám did becauſe the people ſhulde not go vp to Ieruſalém leſt they ſhulde followe Aſá.

2 Chro 16,2.

*Or, Syria.

[g] And vexe me no longer.

*Or, made a proclamation *Ebr none innocent.

[h] He had the goute & put his truſt rather in phiſitians thẽ in the Lord, 2 Chro 16,12.

[i] His great grãde father.

[k] So God ſtirred vp one tyrant to puniſh the wickednes of another Chap 14,10.

[l] By cauſing ỹ people to commit idolatrie with his calues, & ſo prouoking God to angre.

[m] Which was ỹ place where the Kings of Iſraél remained.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Of Baaſhá,6 Eláh, 9 Zimrí, 16 Omrí. 31 Achâb marieth Iezebél.34 Ierichó is buylt againe.

1 THen the worde of the Lord came to Iehú the ſonne of Hanáni againſt Baaſhá, ſaying, a Thus ſpake Iehu toBaaſha in the Name of the Lord

2 a Foraſmucheas I exalted thee out of the duſt, & made thee captaine ouer my people Iſraél,and thou haſt walked in the way of Ieroboám, and haſt made my people Iſraél to ſinne, to prouoke me with their ſinnes,

3 Beholde,I wil take away the poſteritie of Baaſhá, and the poſterirrie of his houſe, and wil make b thine houſe like the* houſe of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát.

b Meanig, the houſe of Baaſhá

Chap. 15, 29

4 *He that dyeth of Baaſhas ſtocke in the citie,him ſhal the dogs eat: and that man of him which dyeth in the fields, ſhal the foules of the ayre eat.

Chap 14,11.

5 And the reſt of the actes of Baaſhá and what he did,and his "power, are they not writen in the boke of the* Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

"Or,valiãcnes

2 Chro 16, 1.

6 So Baaſhá ſlept with his fathers, & was buryed in Tirzáh,& Eláh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

c That is, the Prophet did his meſſage

7 And c alſo by the hand of Iehú the ſonne of Hanáni the Prophet came the worde of the Lord to Baaſhá, & to his houſe, that he ſhulde be like the houſe of Ieroboám, euen for all the wickednes that he did in the ſight of the Lord,in prouoking him with the worke of his hands,and becauſe he killed d him.

d Meaning,Nadáb Ieroboams ſonne

8 ¶In the ſix and twentie yere of Aſá Kíg of Iudáh began Eláh the ſonne of Baaſhá to reigne ouer Iſraél in Tirzáh,& reigned two yere.

9 And his ſeruant Zimrí,captaine of halfe his chariets conſpired againſt him, as he was in Tirzáh drinking,til he was dronken in the houſe of e Arzá ſtuarde of his houſe in Tirzáh.

e The Chalde text hathe thus,Drinking til he was drõken in the temple of Arzá ỹ idole by his houſe in Tirzáh.

10 And Zimrí came & ſmote him & killed him in the ſeuen and twenty yere of Aſá King of Iudáh,& reigned in his ſteade.

11 ¶And when he was King,and ſate on his throne, he ſlewe all ỹ houſe of Baaſhá,not leauing thereof one to piſſe againſt a wall, nether of his kinſfolkes nor of his friends.

12 So did Zimrí deſtroy all the houſe of Baaſhá,according to the worde of ỹ Lord which he ſpake againſt Baaſhá by the hãd of Iehú the f Prophet, f Bothe Hanáni his father and he were Prophetes

13 For all the ſinnes of Baaſhá, and ſinnes of Eláh his ſonne, which they ſinned and made Iſraél to ſinne, and prouoked the Lord God of Iſraél with their vanities.

14 And the reſt of the actes of Eláh, and all that he did,are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

15 ¶In the ſeuen and twentie yere of Aſá King of Iudáh did Zimrí reigne ſeuen dayes in Tirzáh,and the people was then in the hoſte g beſieging Gibbethón,which belonged to the Philiſtims.

g Which ſiege had continued from the time of Nadáb Ieroboãs ſonne.

16 And the people of the hoſte heard ſay, Zimrí hathe conſpired,& hathe alſo ſlaine the Kíg. Wherefore all Iſraél made Omrí the captaine of the hoſte King ouer Iſraél that ſame day,euen in the hoſte.

17 Then Omrí went vp from Gibbethón, and all Iſraél with him,and they beſieged h Tirzáh.

h Where Zimri kept hi ſelfe in holde.

18 And whẽ Zimrí ſawe,that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of the Kings houſe,and "burnt him ſelfe and the Kings houſe with fire,& ſo dyed,

"Ebr burnt the Kigs houſe vpon him.

19 For his ſinnes which he ſinned, in doing that which is euil in the ſight of the Lord,in walking in the way of Ieroboám, and in his ſinnes which he did, cauſing Iſraél to ſinne.

20 And the reſt of the actes of Zimrí, and his treaſon that he wroght, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

21 Thẽ were ỹ people of Iſraél deuided into two partes: for i halfe ỹ people followed Tibní the ſonne of Gináth to make him King, & the other halfe followed Omrí.

i That is,the people which were not at ỹ ſiege of Gibbethón for chere they had choſen Omrí.

22 But the people that followed Omrí,preuailed againſt the people that followed Tibní the ſonne of Gináth:ſo Tibní dyed,and Omrí reigned.

23 In the one and thirtie yere of Aſá King of Iudáh began Omrí to reigne ouer Iſraél,& reigned twelue yere. Six yere reigned he in Tirzáh.

24 And he boght the mõtaine "Samaria of one Shémer for two talents of ſiluer, and buylt in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he buylt, after the name of Shémer, lord of the mountaine Samaria.

"Or,Shemerõn.

25 But Omrí did euil in the eyes of the Lord,and did k worſe then all that were before him.

k For ſuche is the nature of idolatrie, ỹ the ſuperſtitiõ thereof doeth daily increaſe, & the elder it is, the more abominable it is before God and his Church.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát,and in his ſinnes wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne in prouoking the Lord God of Iſraél with their vanities.

27 And the reſt of the actes of Omrí, that he did,and his ſtrẽgth that he ſhewed, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

28 And Omrí ſlept with his fathers, & was buryed in l Samaria: and Aháb his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

l He was the firſt King that was buryed in Samaria, after that the Kigs houſe was burnt in Tirzáh.

29 Now Aháb the ſonne of Omrí began to reigne ouer Iſraél, in the eight and thirtie yere of Aſá King of Iudáh:

and Aháb ỹ ſonne of Omrí reigned ouer Iſraél in Samaria two and twentie yere.

30 And Aháb the ſonne of Omrí did worſe in the ſight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, except he toke Iezebél alſo the daughter of Eth-báal King of the Zidonians to [m] wife, and went and ſerued Baal, and worſhiped him?

32 Alſo he reared vp an altar to Báal in the houſe of Báal, which he had buylt in Samaria.

33 And Aháb made a groue, and Aháb proceded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Iſraél more then all the Kings of Iſraél that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiél the Bethelite buylde [n] Ierichó: he laied the fundacíó thereof in Abirám his eldeſt ſonne, and ſet vp the gates thereof in his yongeſt ſonne Segúb, according to ỹ worde of the Lord which he ſpake [o] by Ioſhúa the ſonne of Nun.

m By whoſe meanes he fel to all wicked, & ſtrange idolatrie, & cruel perſecution.

n Read Ioſh. 6.26.

o Ebr. by the hãd of Ioshua.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Eliáh forewarneth of the famine to come. 4 He is fed of rauens. 9 He is ſent to Zarephath, where he reſtoreth his hoſteſſe ſonne to life.

1 AND Eliáh the Tiſhbite one of the inhabitants of Gileád ſaid vnto Aháb, *As the Lord God of Iſraél liueth, before whome I [a] ſtãd, there ſhalbe nether dewe nor rayne theſe yeres, but [b] accordíg to my worde.

*Eccleſ 48.3. Iam 5.16.

a That is, whome I ſerue

b But as I ſhal declare it by Gods reuelation.

2 ¶ And the worde of the Lord came vnto him, ſaying,

3 Go hence, and turne thee Eaſtwarde, and hide thy ſelfe in the [p] riuer Cherith, that is ouer againſt Iordén,

4 And thou ſhalt drinke of the riuer: and I haue commanded the [c] rauens to feede thee there.

5 So he went and did according vnto the worde of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the riuer Cherith that is ouer againſt Iordén.

6 And the rauens broght him bread & fleſh in the morning, and bread and fleſh in the euening, and he dranke of the riuer.

7 And after a while, the riuer dryed vp, becauſe there fel no raine vpon the earth.

8 ¶ And the [d] worde of the Lord came vnto him, ſaying,

9 *Vp, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Zidón, and remaine there: beholde, I haue commanded a widowe there to ſuſtaine thee.

10 So he aroſe, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde, the widowe was there [e] gathering ſtickes: & he called her, & ſaid, Bring me, I pray thee, a litle water in a veſſel, that I may drinke.

11 And as ſhe was going to fet it, he called to her, and ſaid, Bring me, I pray thee, a morſel of bread in thine hand.

12 And ſhe ſaid, As the Lord thy God liueth, I haue not a cake, but euen an handeful of meale in a barel, and a litle oyle in a cruſe: and beholde, I am gathering [q] a fewe ſtickes for to go in, and dreſſe it for me & my ſonne, that we may eat it, and [f] dye.

13 And Eliáh ſaid vnto her, Feare not, come, do as thou haſt ſaid, but make me thereof a litle cake firſt of all, and bring it vnto me, and afterwarde make for thee, and thy ſonne.

14 For thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, [g] The meale in ỹ barel ſhal not be waſted, nether ſhal the oyle in the cruſe be dimmiſhed, vnto the time that the Lord ſend raine vpon the earth.

15 So ſhe went, and did as Eliáh ſaid, and ſhe did eat: ſo did he and her houſe [h] for a certeine time.

16 The barel of the meale waſted not, nor the oyle was ſpent out of the cruſe, according to the worde of the Lord, which he ſpake by the hand of Eliáh.

17 ¶ And after theſe things, the ſonne of the wife of the houſe fel ſicke, and his ſicknes was ſo ſore, [r] that there was no [i] breath left in him.

18 And ſhe ſaid vnto Eliáh, What haue I to do with thee, ô thou man of God? art thou come vnto me to call my ſinne to remembrance, and to ſlaye my ſonne?

19 And he ſaid vnto her, Giue me thy ſonne. and he toke him out of her boſome, & carried him vp into a chamber, where he abode, and laied him vpon his owne bed.

20 Thẽ he called vnto the Lord, & ſaid, O Lord my God, haſt thou [k] puniſhed alſo this widowe, with whome I ſoiourne, by killing her ſonne?

21 And he ſtretched him ſelfe vpon the childe thre times, and called vnto ỹ Lord, and ſaid, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this childes ſoule come into him againe.

22 Thẽ the Lord heard the voyce of Eliáh, and the ſoule of the childe came into him againe, and he reuiued.

23 And Eliáh toke the childe, and broght him downe out of the chamber into the houſe, and deliuered him vnto his mother, and Eliáh ſaid, Beholde, thy ſonne liueth.

24 And the woman ſaid vnto Eliáh, Now [l] I knowe that thou art a man of God, and that the worde of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Eliáh is ſent to Aháb. 3 Obadiáh hideth an hundreth

Prop Or, breake.

c To ſtrengthen his faith againſt perſecution, God promiſeth to fede him miraculouſly.

d As the troubles of the Saints of God are many, ſo his mercie is euer at hand to deliuer thẽ.

*Luk. 4.25.

e All this was to ſtrengthen the faith of Eliáh to the intent that he ſhulde loke vnon nothing worldely, but onely truſt on Gods promeſes.

q Ebr. twe.

f For there is no hope of any more ſuſtenance.

g God receiueth no benefite for the vſe of his, but he promiſeth a meſte ample recõpenſe for the ſame

h That is, til he had raine & foode on the earth.

r Or, that he dyed

i God wolde trye whether ſhe had learned by his merciful prouidẽce to make him her onely ſtaye and comforte.

k He was afraide, leſt Gods Name ſhuld haue ben blaſphemed and his miniſters contemned, except he ſhulde haue continued his mercies, as he had begonne thẽ, ſpecially while he there remained.

l So hard a thing it is to depend on God, except we be confirmed by miracles.

327/1224

Prophetes 40 Eliiáh killeth all Baals prophetes 45 He obteaneth raine.

1 AFter many daies, the worde of the Lord came to Eliiáh, in the [a] third yere, ſaying, Go, ſhewe thy ſelfe vnto Aháb, and I wil ſend raine vpon the earth.

2 And Eliiáh went to ſhewe him ſelfe vnto Aháb, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Aháb called Obadiáh the gouernour of his houſe: (and Obadiáh [b] feared God greatly)

4 For when Iezébel deſtroyed the Prophetes of the Lord, Obadiáh toke an hũdreth Prophetes, & hid them, by fiftie in a caue, and he fed them with bread and water.

5 And Aháb ſaid vnto Obadiáh, Go into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, and vnto all the riuers, if ſo be that we may finde graſſe to ſaue the horſes & the mules aliue, leſt we depriue the land of the beaſtes.

6 And ſo thei deuided the land betwene them to walke through it. Aháb went one way by him ſelfe, and Obadiáh went another way by him ſelfe.

7 ¶And as Obadiáh was in the way, beholde, Eliiáh [c] met him: & he knewe him, and fel on his face, and ſaid, Art not thou my lord Eliiáh?

8 And he anſwered him, Yea, go tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliiáh is here.

9 And he ſaid, What haue I ſinned, that thou wold'eſt deliuer thy ſeruant into the hand of Aháb, to ſlaye me?

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no natiõ or kĩgdome, whether my lord hathe not ſent to ſeke thee: and when thei ſaid, He is not here, he toke an othe of ỹ kingdome and nacion, if thei had not founde thee.

11 And now thou ſaiſt, Go, tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliiáh is here.

12 And when I am gone frõ thee, the Spirit of the Lord ſhal cary thee into ſome place that I do not knowe: ſo when I come and tel Aháb, if he can not finde thee, then wil he kil me: but I thy ſeruant [d] feare the Lord from my youth.

13 Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezébel ſlewe the Prophetes of the Lord, how I hidde an hundreth men of the Lords Prophetes by fifties in a caue, & fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou ſaieſt, Go, tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliiáh is here, that he may ſlaye me.

15 And Eliiáh ſaid, As the Lord of hoſtes liueth, before whome I ſtand, I wil ſurely ſhewe [e] my ſelfe vnto him this day.

16 ¶So Obadiáh went to mete Aháb, and tolde him: and Aháb wẽt to mete Eliiáh.

17 And when Aháb ſawe Eliiáh, Aháb ſaid vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Iſraél?

18 And he anſwered, I haue not troubled Iſraél, but [f] thou, and thy fathers houſe, in that ye haue forſaken the cõmandements of the Lord, and thou haſt followed Baalím.

19 Now therefore ſend, and gather to me all Iſraél vnto mount Carmél, and the prophetes of Báal foure hũdreth & fiftie, & the prophetes of the groues foure hundreth, which eat at Iezebels table.

20 ¶So Aháb ſent vnto all the children of Iſraél, & gathered the prophetes together vnto mount Carmél.

21 And Eliiáh came vnto all the people, & ſaid, How long [g] halt ye betwene two opinions? If the Lord be God, followe him. but if Báal be he, then go after him. And the people anſwered him not a worde.

22 Then ſaid Eliiáh vnto ỹ people, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophetes are foure hundreth & fiftie mẽ.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two bullocks, and let them chuſe the one, and cut him in pieces, and laye him on the wood, but put no fyre vnder, and I wil prepare the other bullocke, and laye him on the wood, and wil put no fyre vnder.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I wil call on the Name of the Lord: and thẽ the God that anſwereth [h] by fyre, let him be God. And all the people anſwered, and ſaid, It is wel ſpoken.

25 And Eliiáh ſaid vnto the prophetes of Báal, Chuſe you a bullocke, and prepare him firſt, (for ye are many) & call on the name of your gods, but put no fyre vnder.

26 So thei toke the one bullocke, ỹ was giuen them, & thei prepared it, & called on ỹ name of Báal, from morning to noone, ſaying, O Báal, heare vs: but there was no voyce, nor anie to anſwer: and thei [i] leapt vpon the altar that was made.

27 And at noone Eliiáh mocked them, and ſaid, Crye loud: for he is a [k] god: either he talketh or purſueth his enemies, or is in his iourney, or it may be that he ſleepeth, and muſt be [l] awaked.

28 And they cryed loude, and cut them ſelues as their maner was, with knives and lancets, til the blood guſſhed out vpon them.

29 And when mydday was paſſed, and thei had prophecied vntil the offring of the euening ſacrifice, there was nether voyce, nor one to anſwer, nor anie that regarded.

30 And Eliiáh ſaid vnto all the people, Come to me. And all ỹ people came to him. And he repared the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Eliiáh toke twelue ſtones, accordĩg to the nomber of the tribes of the ſonnes a After that he departed from the riuer Cherith.

S.i.

b God had begõne to worke his feare in his heart, but had not yet broght him to that knowledge, & is alſo requiſit of the godly: ỹ is, to profeſſe his Name openly c God pitieth oft times the wicked for ỹ godly ſake, & cauſeth Eliiáh to mete with Obadiáh, that the benefite might be knowen to be granted for Gods children ſake.

d I am none of the wicked perſecuters, ỹ thou ſhuldeſt procure vnto me ſuche diſpleaſure, but ſerue God and fauour his children.

e By my preſence I wil declare ỹ thou haſt tolde him the trueth.

f The true miniſters of God ought not onely not to ſuffer ỹ trueth to be vniuſtely ſklãdered, but to reproue boldly ỹ wicked ſklãderers without reſpect of perſone.

g Be conſtant in religion, & make it not as a thing indifferẽt whether ye followe God or Báal, or whether ye ſerue God wholly or in parte h By ſending downe fire frõ heauẽ to burne ỹ ſacrifice.

i As men rauiſhed wt ſome ſtrange ſpirit.

k You eſteme him as a god.

l He mocket their beaſtly madnes, which thinke that by anie inſtance or ſute ỹ dead & vile idoles cã helpe them worſhipers in their neceſsities.

of Iaakób; (vnto whome the worde of the Lord came, ſaying, * Iſraél ſhalbe thy name)

Gen 32,28. 2.king.17,34.

32 And with the ſtones he buylt an altar in the Name of the Lord: & he made a ditche rounde about the altar, as great as wolde conteine two "measures of ſede.

"Hebr. Sats, which ſome thinke conteine about three potets & a third parte a piece.

33 And he put the wood in order, & hewed the bullocke in pieces, and layed him on the wood, 34 And ſaid, Fil foure barels with water, & powre it on the burnt offring and on the wood. Againe he ſaid, Do ſo againe. And thei did ſo the ſeconde time. And he ſaid, Do it the third time. And thei did it the third time.

35 And the water ran rounde about the altar: & [m] he filled the ditche [w] water alſo.

m Hereby he declared the excellēt power of God, who contrary to nature coldewnake [ſ] fyre burne euen in the water, to the intent thei ſhulde haue none occaſion to doute, that he is [ſ] onelie God.

36 And when they ſhulde offer the euening ſacrifice, Eliiáh the Prophet came, & ſaid, Lord God of Abrahám, Izhák and of Iſraél, let it be knowen this day, that thou art the God of Iſraél, and that I am thy ſeruant, and that I haue done all theſe things at thy commandement.

37 Heare me, ô Lord, heare me, and let this people knowe that thou art [ſ] Lord God, and that thou haſt turned their heart againe [a] at the laſt.

a Thogh God ſuffer his to runne in blindenes & error for a time, yet at the length he calleth thē home to him by ſome notorious ſigne & worke.

38 Then the fyre of the Lord fel, and conſumed the burnt offring, and the wood, & the ſtones, and the duſt, and licked vp the water that was in the ditche.

39 And when all the people ſawe it, thei fel on their faces, and ſaid, The Lord is God, the Lord is God.

40 And Eliiáh ſaid vnto them, Take the prophetes of Báal, let [o] not a man of them eſcape. And they toke them, and Eliiáh broght them to the broke Kiſhón, & ſlewe them there.

o He commanded them that as they were truely perſuaded to confeſſe [ſ] onely God: ſo thei wolde ſerue him [w] all their power & deſtroye the idulaters his enemies.

41 ¶ And Eliiáh ſaid vnto Aháb, Get thee vp, eat and drinke, for there is a ſounde of muche raine.

42 So Aháb went vp to eat and to drinke, and Eliiáh went vp to the top of Carmél: and he crouched vnto the earth, and put his face betwene his knees, 43 And ſaid to his ſeruant, Go vp now and loke towarde the way of the Sea. And he went vp, and loked, and ſaid, There is nothing. Againe he ſaid, Go againe [p] ſeuen times.

p As Gods Spirit moued him to pray, ſo was he ſtrengthened by the ſame, that he did nōt faint, but continued ſtil til he had obteined.

44 And at [ſ] ſeuenth time he ſaid, Behold, there ariſeth a litle cloude out of the ſea like a mans hand. Then he ſaid, Vp, and ſay vnto Aháb, Make readie thy charet, and get thee downe, that the raine ſtay thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes & winde, & there was a great raine. Then Aháb went vp & came to Izreél.

'Or here and there.

46 And the hād of the Lord was on Eliiáh, and he girded vp his loynes, and ran [q] before Aháb til he came to Izreél.

q He was ſo ſtrengthened [w] Gods Spirit, that he ran faſter then the charet was able to runne.

CHAP. XIX.

ſ Eliiáh fleing from Iezébel, is nouriſhed by the Angel of God 15 He is commanded to anoint Hazaél, Iehu, and Eliſhá.

1 NOw Aháb [q] tolde Iezébel all that Eliiáh had done, & how he had ſlayne all the [a] prophetes with the ſworde.

a To wit, of Báal.

2 Then Iezébel ſent a meſſenger vnto Eliiáh, ſaying, [b] The gods do ſo to me and more alſo, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morowe this time.

b Thogh the wicked rage againſt Gods children, yet he holdeth them backe [ſ] they can not execute their malice

3 ¶ When he ſawe that, he aroſe, and went [r] for his life, & came to Beer-ſhéba, which is in Iudáh, and left his ſeruant there.

r Or, whether his maiſter led him.

4 But he went a daies iourney into the wildernes, and came and ſate downe vnder a iuniper tre, & deſired that he might dye, and ſaid, It is now ynough: ô Lord, [c] take my ſoule, for I am no better, then my fathers.

c So hard a thing it is to bridel our impaciēce in affliction that [ſ] ſaincts colde not ouercome the ſame.

5 And as he laie and ſlept vnder the iuniper tre, beholde now, an Angel touched him, and ſaid vnto him, Vp, & eat.

6 And when he loked about, beholde, there was a cake baken on the coles, and a pot of water at his head: ſo he did eat and drinke, and returned and ſlept.

7 And the Angel of the Lord came againe the ſeconde time, and touched him, and ſaid, Vp, & eat: for [d] thou haſt a great iourney.

d He declareth [ſ] except God had nouriſhed him miraculouſly, it had not bene poſſible for him to haue gone this iourney.

8 ¶ Then he aroſe, and did eat and drinke, and walked in the ſtrength of that meat fourtie daies & fourtie nights, vnto Horéb the mount of God.

9 And there he entred into a caue, & lodged there: and beholde, the Lord ſpake to him, and ſaid vnto him, What doeſt thou here, Eliiáh?

10 And he anſwered, I haue [e] bene very ielous for the Lord God of hoſtes: for the children of Iſraél haue forſaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, and ſlayne thy Prophetes with the ſworde, * & I onely am left, and thei ſeke my life to take it away.

e He complaineth, that the more zealous [ſ] he ſhewed him ſelf to maintene Gods glorie, the more cruelly was he perſecuted. Rom.11,10.

11 And he ſaid, Come out, and ſtand vpon the mount before the Lord. And beholde, the Lord went by, and a mightie ſtrong winde rent the mountaines, and brake the rockes before the Lord: but the Lord was [f] not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

f For the nature of man is not able to come nere vnto God, if he ſhulde appeare i his ſtrēgth & ful maieſtie, & therefore of his mercie he ſubmitteth him ſelfe to our capacitie.

12 And after the earthquake came fyre: but the Lord was not in the fyre: & after the fyre came a ſtil and ſoft voyce.

13 And whē Eliiáh heard it, he couered his face with his mantel, & went out, & ſtode in the entring in of the caue: & beholde,

there

there came a voyce vnto him, and ſaid, What doeſt thou here, Eliiáh?

14 And he anſwered, I haue bene very ieloús for ỹ Lord God of hoſtes, g becauſe the children of Iſraél haue forſakē thy couenant, caſt downe thine altars and ſlaine thy Prophetes with the ſworde, & I onely am left, and they ſeke my life to take it away.

g We ought not to depend on the multitude in maintening Gods glorie, but becauſe our duetie ſo requireth, we ought to do it.

15 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Go, returne by the wildernes vnto Damaſcus, and when thou commeſt there, anoynt Hazaél King ouer f Arám.

f Or, Syria.

16 And Iehú the ſonne of Nimſhí ſhalt thou anoint King ouer Iſraél: & Eliſhá the ſonne of Shaphat of Abél Meholáh ſhalt thou anoynt to be Prophet in thy roume.

17 And * him that eſcapeth frō the ſworde of Hazaél, ſhal Iehú ſlaye: and him that eſcapeth from the ſworde of Iehú, ſhal Eliſha ſlay.

2. King. 9, 2. eccleſ. 48, 8.

18 Yet wil * I leaue ſeuē thouſand in Iſraél, euen h all the knees that haue not bowed vnto Báal, and euerie mouthe that hathe not kiſſed him.

Rom. 11, 4.

h He declareth that wicked diſſemblers and idolaters are not his.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and founde Eliſhá ỹ ſōne of Shaphát who was plowing with twelue yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelft: & Eliiáh went towards him, and caſt his mantel vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, & ran after Eliiáh, and ſaid, i Let me, I pray thee, kiſſe my father and my mother, and then I wil followe thee. Who anſwered him, Go, returne: for what haue I done to thee?

i Thogh this natural affection is not to be cōtemned, yet it ought not to moue vs whē God calleth vs to ſerue him.

21 And when he wēt backe againe frō him, he toke a couple of oxen, and ſl we them, and ſod their fleſh with the k inſtruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, & they did eat: then he aroſe and went after Eliiáh, and miniſtred vnto him.

k He wolde not ſtay till wood was brought, ſo great was his deſire to followe his vocation.

CHAP. XX.

Samaria is beſieged. 13 The Lord promiſeth the victorie to Ahāb by a Prophet. 31 The King of Iſraél made peace with Ben-hadād, and is reproued therefore by the Prophet.

1 THen Bē-hadād the King of f Arám aſſembled all his armie, and two and thirtie a Kings with him, with horſes, & charets, and went vp, and beſieged f Samaria, and foght againſt it.

f Or, Syria.

a That is, gouernours, and rulers of prouinces

2 And he ſent meſſengers to Ahāb King of Iſraél, into the citie, f Or, Shomrōn.

3 And ſaid vnto him, Thus ſayeth Ben-hadād, Thy ſiluer and thy golde his mine: alſo thy women, and thy faire children are mine.

4 And the King of Iſraél anſwered, and ſaid, My lord King, according to thy ſaying, b I am thine, and all that I haue.

b I am contēt to obey and pay tribute.

5 And when the meſſengers came againe, they ſaid, Thus comandeth Ben-hadād, & ſayth, When I ſhal ſend vnto thee, and cōmande, thou ſhalt deliuer me thy ſiluer & thy golde, & thy women, & thy childrē,

6 c Or els I wil ſend my ſeruants vnto thee by to morow this time: and they ſhal ſearche thine houſe, and the houſes of thy ſeruants: and what ſoeuer is pleaſant in thine eyes, they ſhal take it in their hands, and bring it away.

c He wolde not accept his anſwer, except he did out of hand deliuer whatſoeuer he ſhulde aſke: for he ſoght an occaſion, how to make warre againſt him.

7 Then the King of Iſraél ſent for all the Elders of the land, and ſaid, Take hede, I pray you, and ſe how he ſeketh miſchief: for he ſent vnto me for my wiues, and for my children, and for my ſiluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not.

8 And all the Elders, & all the people ſaid to him, Hearkē d not vnto him, nor cōſēt.

d They thogh it their duetie rather to venter their liues, then to grant to that thing which was not lawful, onely to ſatiſfie the luſt of a tyrāt.

9 Wherefore he ſaid vnto the meſſengers of Ben-hadād, Tel my lord the King, All that thou dideſt ſend for to thy ſeruant at the firſt time, that I wil do, but this thig I may not do. And the meſſengers departed, and broght him an anſwer.

10 And Ben-hadād ſent vnto him, & ſaid, The gods do ſo to me & more alſo, if the e duſt of Samaria be ynough to all ỹ people ỹ followe me, for euerie mā an hādful

e Muche leſſe ſhal there be founde anie pray, that is worthe anie thing, when they ſhalbe ſo manie

11 And the King of Iſraél anſwered, and ſaid, Tel him, Let not him that girdeth his harnes, boaſt hī ſelfe, as he ỹ f putteth it of.

f Boaſt not before the victorie be gotten.

12 And when he heard ỹ tidings, as he was with the Kings drinking in the pauilions, he ſaid vnto his ſeruāts, Bring forthe g your engines, and thei ſet them againſt the citie.

g Or, Put your ſelues in ordre.

13 ¶ And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Aháb King of Iſraél, ſaying, Thus ſaith ỹ Lord, Haſt thou ſene all this great multitude? beholde, I wil deliuer it into thine hand this day, that ỹ maieſt knowe, h that I am the Lord.

h Before God went about ỹ ſignes and miracl s to oul Aháb frō his impietie, and now againe ỹ wonderful victories.

14 And Aháb ſaid, By whome? And he ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, By the ſeruants of the princes of the prouinces. He ſaid againe, Who ſhal ordre the battel? And he anſwered, Thou.

15 ¶ Then he nombred the ſeruants of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundreth, two and thirtie: & after thē he nombred the whole people of all the children of Iſraél, euen ſeuen thouſande.

16 And they wēt out at noone: but Ben-hadād did drinke til he was dronken in the tents, bothe he & the Kings: for two & thirtie Kings helped him.

17 So the i ſeruants of the princes of the prouinces went out firſt: & Ben hadād ſent out, and they ſhewed him, ſaying, There are men come out of Samaria.

i That is, ỹ men trained in the ſeruice of princes.

18 And he ſaid, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet aliue.

19 So they came out of the citie, to wit, the ſeruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoſte which followed them.

20 And they ſlewe euerie one his "enemie: and the Aramites fled, and Iſraél purſued them: but Ben-hadád the King of Arám eſcaped on an horſe with his horſemen.

21 And the King of Iſraél went out, and ſmote the horſes and charets, and with a great ſlaughter ſlewe he the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the King of Iſraél, & had ſaid vnto him, Go, be of good courage, and conſider, and take hede what thou doeſt: for when the yere is gone about, the King of Arám wil come vp againſt thee)

23 ¶ Thé the ſeruants of the King of Arám ſaid vnto him, Their [k] gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight againſt them in the plaine, and douteles we ſhal ouercome them.

24 And this do, Take the Kings away, euerie one out of his place, and place captaines for them.

25 And nomber thy ſelfe an armie, like the armie that thou haſt loſt, with ſuche horſes, and ſuche charets, and we wil fight againſt them in the plaine, and douteles we ſhal ouercome thē: and he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did ſo.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Ben-hadád nombred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphék to fight againſt Iſraél.

27 And the children of Iſraél were nombred, and were all [l] aſſembled and went againſt them, and the children of Iſraél pitched before them, like two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and ſpake vnto the King of Iſraél, ſaying, Thus ſayth the Lord, Becauſe the Aramites haue ſaid, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleis, therefore wil I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye ſhal knowe that [m] I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer againſt the other ſeuen dayes, & in the ſeuēth day the battel was ioyned: and the children of Iſraél ſlewe of the Aramites an hundreth thouſand fotemen in one day.

30 But the reſt fled to Aphék into the citie: and there fel a wall vpon ſeuen & twentie thouſand men that were left: and Ben hadád fled into the citie, and came into "a ſecret chamber.

31 ¶ And his ſeruantes ſaid vnto him, Beholde now, we haue heard ſay that the Kings of the houſe of Iſraél are merciful Kings: we pray thee, let vs put ſackecloth about our [o] loynes, and ropes about our heades, and go out to the King of Iſraél: it may be that he wil ſaue thy life.

32 Thé they girded ſackecloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heades, and came to the King of Iſraél, and ſaid, Thy ſeruant Ben-hadád ſaith, I pray thee, let me liue: and he ſaid, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

33 Now the men toke diligent hede, "if they colde catche anie thing of him, and made haſte, & ſaid, Thy brother [o] Ben-hadád. And he ſaid, Go, bring him So Bē hadád came out vnto him, and he cauſed him to come vp vnto the charet.

34 And Ben-hadád ſaid vnto him, The cities, which my father toke frō thy father, I wil reſtore, and thou ſhalt make ſtretes for thee in [p] Damaſcus, as my father did in Samaria. Then ſaid Ahāb, I will let thee go with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him go.

35 ¶ Then a certeine man of the "children of the Prophetes ſaid vnto his neighbour by the cōmandemēt of the Lord, [q] Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refuſed to ſmite him.

36 Then ſaid he vnto him, Becauſe thou haſt not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, beholde, aſſone as thou art departed from me, a lyon ſhal [r] ſlay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and ſlewe him.

37 Then he found another man, and ſaid, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man ſmote him, and in ſmiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and diſguyſed him ſelfe with aſſhes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cryed vnto the King, and ſaid, [s] Thy ſeruant went into the middes of the battel: and beholde, there went away a man, whome another man broght vnto me, & ſaid, Kepe this man: if he be loſt, and want, thy life ſhal go for his, or els thou ſhalt paye a talent of ſiluer.

40 And as thy ſeruant had here and there to do, he was gone: and the King of Iſraél ſaid vnto him, So ſhal thy iudgement be: thou haſt giuen ſentence.

41 And he haſted, and toke the aſſhes away from his face: & the King of Iſraél knew him that he was of the Prophetes:

42 And he ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, *Becauſe thou haſt let go out of thine hands a man whome I appointed to dye, thy life ſhal go for his life, and thy people for his people. Chap. 22.34.

43 And the King of Iſraél went to his houſe heauy and in diſpleaſure, and came to "Samaria.

CHAP. XXI.

Iezébel commandeth to kil Naboth, for the Vineyard, that he refuſed to ſel to Ahāb. 19 Eliiah repreueth Ahab, and he repenteth.

After

"Ebr man.

"Or, Syrians.

i With them ỹ were appointed for the preſeruacīō of his perſone.

k Thus ỹ wicked blaſpheme God ih their furie, whome notwithſtādinghe ſuffreth not vnpuniſhed.

l All they, ẅ were in ỹ battel of the former yere, ver. 25.

m Who am of like power an the valley, as I am on the hills, and can aſwel deſtroy a multitude ẅ fewe as with manie.

"Ebr from chāber to chamber.

n In ſigne of ſubmiſſion, and that we haue deſerued death, if he wil puniſhe vs ẅ rigour.

"Or, and caught it of him.

o He is aliue

p Thou ſhalt appoint in my chief citie what thou wilt, and I wil obey thee

"Or, of the diſciples.

q By this external ſigne he wolde more liuely touche ỹ Kings heart.

r Becauſe thou haſt tranſgreſſed the commandement of the Lord.

s By this parable he maketh Ahāb cōdemne him ſelfe, who made a couenant with Gods enemie, and let him eſcape, whome God had appointed to be ſlaine.

"Or, Shomeron.

331/1224

a Or, at that time.

1 AFter theſe things Nabóth the Izreelite had a vineyarde in Izreél, hard by the palace of Aháb King of Samaria.

2 And Aháb ſpake vnto Nabóth, ſaying, a Thogh Ahabs tyrannie be condemned by the holy Spirit, yet he was not ſo rigorous that he wolde take from another man his right without ful recompence a Giue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a garden of herbes thereof, becauſe it is nere by mine houſe: and I wil giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or if it pleaſe thee, I wil giue thee the worthe of it in money.

3 And Nabóth ſaid to Aháb, The Lord kepe me from giuing the inheritãce of my fathers vnto thee.

4 Then Aháb came into his houſe heauy & in diſpleaſure, becauſe of the worde which Nabóth the Izreelite had ſpokẽ vnto him. for he had ſaid, I wil not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay b vpon his bed and turned his face and wolde eat no bread.

b Thus ỹ wicked conſider not what is iuſt & lawful, but fret inwardely, when they can not haue their inordinate appetites ſatiſfied.

5 Then Iezébel his wife came to him and ſaid vnto him, Why is thy ſpirit ſo ſad ỹ thou eateſt no bread?

6 And he ſaid vnto her, Becauſe I ſpake vnto Nabóth the Izreelite, and ſaid vnto him, Giue me thy vineyarde for money, or if it pleaſe thee, I wil giue thee another vineyarde for it: but he anſwered, I wil not giue thee my vineyarde.

7 Then Iezébel his wife ſaid vnto him, c As though ſhe ſaid, Thou knoweſt not what it is to reigne. Commande, and intreat not c Doeſt thou now gouerne the kingdome of Iſraél? vp, eat bread, and "be of good chere, I wil giue thee the vineyard of Nabóth the Izreelite.

*Ebr let thine heart be mery.

8 ¶So ſhe wrote letters in Ahabs name, & ſealed them with his ſeale, and ſent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling w Nabóth.

9 And ſhe wrote in the letters, ſaying, Proclaime a d For thẽ they vſed to inquire of mẽs fauttes: for none cold faſt truely that were notorious ſinners

d faſt, and ſet Nabóth amõg the chief of the people,

10 And ſet two wicked men before him, and let thẽ witnes againſt him, ſaying, Thou dideſt blaſpheme God and the King: thẽ cary him out, and ſtone him that he may dye.

e Thus the worldlelings contrary to Gods cõmãdemẽt, who willeth not to cõſent to the ſhedingof innocẽt blood, obey rather ỹ wicked commandemẽts of princes then the iuſt Lawes of God

11 And the e men of his citie, euen the Elders and gouernours, which dwelt in his citie, did as Iezébel had ſent vnto them: as it was writtẽ in the letters, which ſhe had ſent vnto them.

*Ebr bleſſe.

12 They proclaimed a faſt, and ſet Nabóth among the chief of the people, 13 And there came two wicked men, & ſate before him: and the wicked men witneſſed againſt Nabóth in the preſence of the people, ſaying, Nabóth did "blaſpheme God and the King. Thẽ they caryed him away out of the citie, and ſtoned him with ſtones, that he dyed.

14 Then they ſent to Iezébel, ſaying, Nabóth is ſtoned and is dead.

15 ¶And when Iezébel heard that Nabóth was ſtoned and was dead, Iezébel ſaid to Aháb, f Vp, & take poſſeſsion of the vineyard of Nabóth the Izreelite, which he refuſed to giue thee for money: for Nabóth is not aliue, but is dead.

f This example of monſtreo⁹ cruelte the holy Goſt leaueth to vs to the intent ỹ we ſhulde abhorre all tyrannie, and ſpecially in them, whome nature & kinde ſhulde moue to be pitiful and inclined to mercie.

16 And when Aháb heard that Nabóth was dead, he roſe to go downe to the vineyard of Nabóth the Izreelite, to take poſſeſsion of it.

17 ¶And the worde of the Lord came vnto Eliiáh the Tiſhbite, ſaying, 18 Ariſe, go downe to mete Aháb King of Iſraél, which is in Samaria. lo, he is in the vineyarde of Nabóth, whether he is gone downe to take poſſeſsion of it.

19 Therefore ſhalt thou ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, g Haſt thou killed, and alſo gotten poſſeſsion? And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſayth the Lord, h In the place where dogs licked the blood of Nabóth, ſhal dogs licke euẽ thy blood alſo.

g Doeſt thou thinke to haue anie aduantage by murthering of an innocent?

h This was fulfilled in Ioram his ſonne, as 2. Kin. 9. 25

20 And Aháb ſaid to Eliiáh, Haſt thou founde me, ô mine enemie? And he anſwered, I haue founde thee: for thou haſt ſolde thy ſelfe to worke wickednes in the ſight of the Lord.

21 * Beholde, I wil bring euil vpon thee, & wil take away thy poſteritie, and wil cut of from Aháb him that *piſſeth againſt ỹ wall, aſwel him that is * ſhut vp, as him that is left in Iſraél,

*Chap. 14. 10. 2 king 9. 8.

*1 Sam 25. 22.

*Chap. 14. 10.

22 And I wil make thine houſe like ỹ houſe of *Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, & like the houſe of *Baaſhá the ſonne of Ahiiáh, for the prouocacion wherewith thou haſt prouoked, and made Iſraél to ſinne.

*Chap. 15. 29.

*Chap 16. 3.

23 And alſo of Iezébel ſpake the Lord, ſaying, *The dogs ſhal eat Iezébel, "by the wall of Izreél.

*2. Kin. 9. 33.

"Or, for ſeaſe, or, poſſeſsion.

24 The dogs ſhal eat him of Ahabs ſtocke, that dyeth in the citie: and him that dyeth in the fields, ſhal the foules of the ayre eat.

25 But there was none like Aháb, who did i ſell him ſelfe, to worke wickednes in the ſight of the Lord: whome Iezébel his wife prouoked.

i By the wicked counſel of his wife, he became a vile idolater and cruel murtherer, as one that gaue him ſelfe wholly to ſerue ſinne.

26 For he did excedĩg abominably in following idoles, accordĩg to all that the Amorites did, whome the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſraél.

27 Now when Aháb heard thoſe wordes, he rent his clothes, and put ſackecloth vpõ "him and faſted, and lay in ſackecloth and went k ſoftely.

*Ebr. hue fleſh.

k In token of mourning or, as ſome read, bare foted.

28 And the worde of the Lord came to Eliiáh the Tiſhbite, ſaying, 29 Seeſt thou how Aháb is humbled before me? becauſe he ſubmitteth him ſelfe before me, I wil not bring that euil in his dayes, but in his l ſonnes dayes wil I bring euil vpon his houſe.

l Meaning, in Iorams time, 2. Kin 9. 26.

CHAP. XXII.

Iehoſhaphát & Aháb fight againſt the King of Syria. 15 Micháiah ſheweth the King what ſhalbe the ſucceſſe of their enterpriſe. 24 Zedkiiáh the falſe prophet ſmiteth him. 34 Aháb is ſlaine. 40 Ahazia his ſonne ſucceedeth. 42 The reigne of Iehoſhaphát. 51 and Ioram his ſonne.

2.Chro.18.1. 1 And * they continued [a] thre yere without warre betwene Arám and Iſráel.

a Ben-hadád the King of Syria and Ahab made a peace, which indured thre yeres

2 And in the third yere did Iehoſhaphát the King of Iudáh [b] come downe to the King of Iſráel.

b To ſe and viſite him

3 (Then the King of Iſráel ſaid vnto his ſeruáts, Knowe ye not that [c] Ramóth Gileád was ours? and we ſtaye, and take it not out of the hand of the King of Arám?)

c The Kings of Syria kept Ramoth before this league was made by Ben-hadad: therefore he thoght not him ſelfe boũde thereby to reſtore it

4 And he ſaid vnto Iehoſhaphát, Wilt thou go with me to battel againſt Ramóth Gileád? And Iehoſhaphát ſaid vnto the King of Iſráel, [d] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horſes as thine horſes.

d I am ready to ioyne & go with thee, and all mine is at thy commandement.

5 Then Iehoſhaphát ſaid vnto the King of Iſráel, [e] Aſke counſel, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.

e He ſemed ỹ he wolde not go to the warre, except God approued it: yet when Micháh coũſeled the contrarie, he wolde not obey

6 Then the King of Iſráel gathered the [f] Prophetes vpon a foure hundreth men, and ſaid vnto them, Shal I go againſt Ramóth Gileád to battel, or ſhal I let it alone? And they ſaid, Go vp: for the Lord ſhal deliuer it into the hands of the King.

f Meaning, the falſe prophetes, which were flatterers, & ſerued for lucre, whome Iezebel had aſſembled and kept after the death of thoſe whome Elias ſlewe, 7 And Iehoſhaphát ſaid, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the [g] Lord more, that we might inquire of him?

g Iehoſhaphát did not acknowledge ỹ falſe Prophetes to be Gods miniſters, but did contemne them

8 And the King of Iſráel ſaid vnto Iehoſhaphát, There is yet one man (Micháiah the ſonne of Imláh) by whome we may aſke counſel of the Lord, but [h] I hate him: for he doeth not prophecie good vnto me, but euil. And Iehoſhaphát ſaid, Let not the King ſay ſo.

h Whereby we ſe that the wicked cã not abide to heare the truth, but hate the Prophetes of God & moleſt the.

9 Then the King of Iſráel called an [i] Eunuche, & ſaid, Call quickely Micháiah the ſonne of Imláh.

i Read Geneſ. 39.36.

10 And the King of Iſráel & Iehoſhaphát the King of Iudáh ſate either of them on his throne in their [k] apparel in the voyde place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophetes prophecied before them.

k In their kinglie apparel.

11 And Zidkiiáh the ſonne of Chenaanáh made him [l] hornes of yron, & ſaid, Thus ſayth the Lord, With theſe ſhalt thou puſh the Aramites, vntil thou haſt conſumed them.

l The true Prophetes of God were accuſtomed to vſe ſignes for the confirmacion of their doctrine. Iſa. 20, 2 iere 7, 2. Wherein the falſe Prophetes did imitate them, thinking thereby to make their doctrine more commẽdable.

12 And all the Prophetes prophecied ſo, ſaying, Go vp to Ramóth Gileád, & proſper: for the Lord ſhal deliuer it into the Kings hand.

13 ¶ And the meſſenger that was gone to call Micháiah ſpake vnto him, ſaying, Beholde now, the wordes of the Propheres declare good vnto the King with [m] one accorde: let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of one of them, & ſpeake thou good.

m This is the commune argument of ỹ wicked, who thinke that none ſhulde ſpeake againſte a thing, if the greater parte approue it, be they neuer ſo vngodlie.

14 And Micháiah ſaid, As the Lord liueth, whatſoeuer the Lord ſayth vnto me, that wil I ſpeake.

15 ¶ So he came to the King, and the King ſaid vnto him, „Micháiah, ſhal we go againſt Ramóth Gileád to battel, or ſhal we leaue of? And he anſwered him, [n] Go vp, & proſper: and the Lord ſhal deliuer it into the hand of the King.

n He ſpeaketh this in deriſiõ, becauſe ỹ Kig attributed ſo muche to the falſe prophetes, meaning ỹ by experience he ſhulde trye that thei were but flatterers.

16 And the King ſaid vnto hi, How oft ſhal I charge thee, that thou tel me nothig but that which is true in the Name of ỹ Lord.

17 Then he ſaid, I ſawe all Iſráel ſcatred vpon the moũtaines, as ſhepe that had no ſhepherd. And the Lord ſaid, [o] Theſe haue no maſter, let euery man returne vnto his houſe in peace.

o It is better thei returne home, thẽ to be puniſhed and ſcatred, becauſe thei take warre in hand without Gods counſel & approbacion.

18 (And the King of Iſráel ſaid vnto Iehoſhaphát, Did I not tel thee, that he wolde prophecie no good vnto me, but euil?)

19 Againe he ſaid, Heare thou therefore ỹ worde of the Lord. I ſawe the Lord ſit on his throne, & all the [p] hoſte of heauen ſtode about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

p Meaning, his Angels.

20 And the Lord ſaid, Who ſhal entiſe Aháb that he may go and fall at Ramóth Gileád? And one ſaid on this maner, and another ſaid on that maner.

or, perſuade & deceiue.

21 Then there came forthe a ſpirit, & [q] ſtode before the Lord, and ſaid, I wil entiſe him. And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Wherewith?

q Here wefe ỹ thogh ỹ deuil be euer readie to bring vs to deſtructiõ, yet he hathe no further power then God giueth him.

22 And he ſaid, I wil go out, and be a [r] falſe ſpirit in the mouthe of all his prophetes. Thẽ he ſaid, Thou ſhalt entiſe him, & ſhalt alſo preuaile: go forthe, and do ſo.

r I wil cauſe all his prophetes to tel lies.

23 Now therefore beholde, the Lord hathe put a lying ſpirit in the mouthe of all theſe thy prophetes, and the Lord hathe appointed euil againſt thee.

24 Then Zidkiiáh ỹ ſonne of Chenaanáh came nere & ſmote Micháiah on ỹ cheke, and ſaid, [s] When went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to ſpeake vnto thee?

2.Chro.18.23.

s Thus ỹ wicked wolde ſeme that none were in ỹ fauour of God, but they, and ỹ God hathe giuen his graces to none ſo muche as to thẽ.

25 And Micháiah ſaid, Beholde, [t] ỹ ſhalt ſe in that day, when thou ſhalt go from chãber to chamber to hide thee.

t Let him be pyced away w hunger & be fed w a ſmale portion of bread & water.

26 And the King of Iſráel ſaid, Take Micháiah, & cary hi vnto Amón ỹ gouernour of ỹ citie, and vnto Ioáſh the Kings ſonne, 27 And ſay, thus ſayth the King, Put this man in the priſon houſe, & fede him with [u] bread of affliction, & with water of affliction, vntil I returne in peace.

u That when ye ſhal ſe theſe things come to paſſe, ye may giue God the glorie & knowe that I am his true Prophet.

28 And Micháiah ſaid, If [x] ỹ returne in peace, the Lord hathe not ſpoken by me. And he ſaid, [y] Hearken all ye people.

29 So the King of Iſráel & Iehoſhaphát the King

Kíg of Iudáh wēt vp to Ramóth Gileád.
30 And the King of Iſraél ſaid to Iehoſhaphát, I wil change mine apparel, and wil entre into the battel, but put thou on thine apparel. And the King of Iſraél changed him ſelfe, and went into the battel.
31 And the King of Arám commanded his two & thirtie captaines ouer his charrets, ſaying, Fight nether with ſmal, nor great, ſaue onely againſt the King of Iſraél.
32 And when the captaines of the charets ſawe Iehoſhaphát, they ſaid, Surely it is ỹ King of Iſraél, & they turned to fight againſt him: and Iehoſhaphát [x] cryed.
33 And when the captaines of the charets ſawe that he was not the King of Iſraél, they turned backe from him.
34 Then a certeine man drue a bowe [o] mightely and ſmote the King of Iſraél betwene the ioyntes [n] of his brigádine. Wherefore he ſaid vnto his charet man, Turne thine hád & cary me out of the hoſte: for I am [n] hurt.
35 And the battel encreaſed that day, and the [y] King ſtode ſtil in his charet againſt the Aramites, and dyed at euen: and the blood ran out of the woũde into the middes of the charet.
36 And there went a proclamatiõ through out ỹ [z] hoſte about the going downe of the ſunne, ſaying, Euery man to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrei.
37 So the King dyed, and was broght to Samaria, & they buryed ỹ King in Samaria.
38 And one waſhed the charet in the poole of Samaria & the doggs licked vp his blood (& [o] they waſhed his armoure) accordig [o] vnto the worde of the Lord ẅ he ſpake.
39 Cõcerning the reſt of the actes of Aháb & all that he did, & ỹ yuorie houſe, which he buylt, & all the cities that he buylt, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?
40 So Aháb ſlept with his fathers, & Ahaziáh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.
41 ¶ [*] And Iehoſhaphát the ſonne of Aſá began to reigne vpon Iudáh in the fourth yere of Aháb King of Iſraél.
42 Iehoſhaphát was fiue and thirtieyere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned fiue and twentie yere in Ieruſalém. And his mothers name was Azubáh the daughter of Shilhí.
43 And he walked in all the wayes of Aſá his father, and declined not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Neuertheles [a] the hie places were not taken away: for the people offred ſtil and burnt incenſe in the [o] hie places.
44 And Iehoſhaphát made peace with the King of Iſraél.
45 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehoſhaphát, and his worthie dedes that he did, and his battels which he foght, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?
46 And the Sodomites, which remained in the dayes of his father Aſá, he put cleane out of the land.
47 There was then no King in Edóm: the [b] deputie was King.
48 Iehoſhaphát made ſhippes of [c] Tharſhíſh to ſaile to [d] Ophír for golde, but they wẽt not, for the ſhippes were broken at Eziõn Gáber.
49 Then ſaid Ahaziáh the ſonne of Aháb vnto Iehoſhaphát, Let my ſeruãts go with thy ſeruãts in ỹ ſhippes. But Iehoſhaphát wolde not.
50 And Iehoſhaphát did ſlepe with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father and Iehorám his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.
51 ¶ Ahaziáh the ſonne of Aháb began to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, the ſeuententh yere of Iehoſhaphát King of Iudáh, & reigned two yeres ouer Iſraél.
52 But he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, & in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, which made Iſraél to ſinne.
53 For he ſerued Báal and worſhipped him, & prouoked the Lord God of Iſraél vnto wrath, [o] according vnto all that his father had done.

x That is, to ỹ Lord for helpe.
o Or, in his ſimplicitie & ignorantly.
n Ebr. & betwene the brigandine.
n Ebr. ſicke.
y To wit, Aháb King of Iſraél.
z Of the Iſraelites.
o Or, the harlots waſhed it. Chap. 21, 19.
2. Chro. 20, 31.
a Meaning, ỹ he was led ẅ an error, thinking that they might ſtil ſacrifice to the Lord in thoſe places, aſwel as thei did before the Temple was buylt.
b In the time of this King Ioumea was ſubiect to Iudáh & was gouerned, by whome thei of Iudáh appointed.
c By Tharſhíſh the Scripture meaneth Cilicia & all ỹ Sea called Mediterraneum d Ioſephus writeth that Ophír is in India, where the Egyptians & Arabians traffike for golde.
o Or, in all pointes as his father did.

THE SECONDE BOKE
of the Kings.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis ſeconde boke conteineth the actes of the Kings of Iudáh and Iſraél: to wit, of Iſraél, from the death of Aháb vnto the laſt King Hoſhéa, who was impriſonned by the King of Aſſyria, & his citie Samaria taken, & the tẽ tribes ly the iuſte plague of God for their idolatrie & diſobedience to God led into captiuitie. And alſo of Iudáh, frõ the reigne of Iehorám ſonne of Iehoſhaphát vnto Zedechiá who for contemning the Lords cõmandement by his Prophetes, & neglecting his ſundry admonitions, by famine & other meanes was taken by his enemies, ſawe his ſonnes moſte cruelly ſlaine before his face, & his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: and alſo by the iuſte vengeance of God for contempt of his worde Ieruſalém was deſtroyed, the Temple burnt, and he and all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this boke are notable examples of Gods fauour towardes thoſe rulers and people which obey his Prophetes and imbrace his worde: and contrary wiſe of his plagues towardes thoſe commune weales which neglect his miniſters and do not obey his commandements.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahaziáh by a fall falleth ſicke & cõſulteth with Baal-zebúb 3 He is reproued by Eliiáh. 10 The captaines ouer fiftie were ſent to Eliiáh, whereof two were burnt with fire frõ heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahaziáh dyeth, and Iehorám his brother ſuccedeth him.

1 THen Moáb rebelled agaīſt Iſraél after the death of Aháb:

2 And [a] Ahaziáh fel through the latteſſe wīdowe in his vpper chāber which was in Samaria: ſo he was ſicke: thē he ſent meſſengers, to whome he ſaid, Go, & enquire of [b] Baal-zebúb the god of Ekrón, if I ſhal recouer of this my diſeaſe.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord ſaid to Eliiáh the Tiſhbite, Ariſe, & go vp to mete the meſſengers of the King of Samaria, and ſaye vnto them, [c] Is it not becauſe there is no God in Iſraél, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebúb the god of Ekrón?

4 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lord, Thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt dye the death. So Eliiáh departed.

5 And the meſſengers returned vnto him, to whome he ſaid, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they anſwered him, There came a man and met vs, and ſaid vnto vs, Go, and returne vnto the King which ſent you, and ſay vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lord, [d] Is it not becauſe there is no God in Iſraél, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Baal-zebúb the god of Ekrón? Therefore thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

7 And he ſaid vnto them, What maner of man was he which came and met you, and tolde you theſe wordes?

8 And they ſaid vnto hī, He was an [e] heerie man, aīd girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then ſaid he, It is Eliiáh the Tiſhbite.

9 Therefore the King ſent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie with his fifty men, who went vp vnto him: for behoſde, he ſatē on the tōppe of a mountaine, & he ſaid vnto him, O man of God, the King hathe commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliiáh anſwered, & ſaid to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fyre come downe frō the heauē, and deuoure thee and thy fyftie. So fyre came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Againe alſo he ſent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fifty. Who ſpake, and ſaid vnto him, [h] O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliiáh anſwered & ſaid vnto them, [i] If I be a man of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fyre came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 ¶ Yet againe he ſent the third captaine ouer fifty ẅ his fifty. And the third captaine ouer fifty went vp & came, & fel on his knees before Eliiáh, & beſoght him, & ſaid vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my [k] life and the life of theſe thy fifty ſeruantes be [l] precious in thy ſight.

14 Beholde, there came fyre downe from the heauen and deuoured the two former captaines ouer fifty with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy ſight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord ſaid vnto Eliiáh, Go downe ẅ him, be [m] not afrayd of his preſence. So he aroſe, and wēt downe with him vnto the King.

16 And he ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Becauſe thou haſt ſent meſſengers to inquire of Baal-zebúb the God of Ekrón, (was it not becauſe there was no God in Iſraél to inquire of his worde) therefore thou ſhalt not come downe of the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

17 So he dyed according to the worde of ẏ Lord which Eliiáh had ſpoken. And [n] Iehorám begā to reigne in his ſteade, in the ſeconde yere of Iehorám the ſonne of Iehoſhaphát King of Iudáh, becauſe he had no ſonne.

18 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Ahaziáh, that he did, are thei not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

CHAP. II.

1 Eliiáh deuideth the waters with his cloke 11 He is taken vp into heauen 13 Eliſhá taketh his cloke & deuideth Iordén 20 The bitter and venemous waters are healed 23 The children that mocke Eliſhá, are rent in pieces with beares.

1 ANd when the Lord wolde take vp Eliiáh into heauē by a whirle wind, Eliiáh went with Eliſhá from [a] Gilgál.

2 Then Eliiáh ſaid to Eliſhá, Tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hathe ſent me to Beth-él. But Eliſhá ſaid, As the Lord liueth, & as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-él.

3 And

a So that he was punished for his idolatrie after two ſortes: for the Moabites, ẅ were wonte to pay him tribute, rebelled, & he fel downe at a grate ẅ was vpon his houſe to giue light beneathe.

b The Philiſtims, ẅ dwelt at Ekrón, worſhipped this idole, ẅ ſignifieth ẏ god of flies, thinking that he cokle preſerue them from the bitig of flies: or els he was ſo called, becauſe flies were ingēdred in great abundance of the blood of ẏ ſacrifices that were offred to that idole.

c He ſheweth that idolaters knaue not the true God, for els they wolde ſeke to none but to him alone.

d Ignorance is the mother of error and idolatrie.

e Some thinke ẏ this is ment of his garmēts ẅ were rough & made of heere.

f To wit, Carmel.

g He declareth what power Gods worde hathe in the mouthe of his ſeruants, when they threaten God iudgmēts against the wicked.

h He ſpake this in mockery, & therefore prouoked Gods wrath ſo muche the more.

i Meaning, that God wolde ſhewe by effect, whether he was a true Prophet or not.

k Which humble my ſelfe before God & his ſeruant.

l That is, ſpare my life & let me not dye as the other two.

m Thus ẏ Lord giueth boldenes to his that they feare not the threatnigs of tyrants, ẅ otherwiſe of them ſelues are afraide to do Gods meſſage.

n Iehoſhaphát going to battel againſt the Syrians, made his ſonne Iehorám King in the 17 yere of his reigne: and in the 18 yere, ẅ was the ſeconde yere of his ſonne, Iehorám ẏ ſonne of Aháb reigned in Iſraél: and in the fifthe yere of this Iehorám Iehoſhaphát dyed and the kingdome of Iudáh was cōfirmed to his ſonne.

a Which was ẏ place where the childrē of Iſraél were circumciſed after they came ouer Iordén & had bene fourtie yeres in ẏ wildernes, as Ioſh 5.9.

3 And the [b] children of the Prophetes that were at Beth-él, came out to Eliſhá, and ſaid vnto him, Knoweſt thou that ŷ Lord wil take thy maſter from [c] thine head this day? And he ſaid, Yea, I [d] knowe it: holde ye your peace.

4 Againe Eliiáh ſaid vnto him, Eliſhá, tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hathe ſent me to Ieríchó. But he ſaid, As ŷ Lord liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So thei came to Ierichó.

5 And the children of the Prophetes that were at [e] Ieríchó, came to Eliſha, & ſaid vnto him, Knoweſt thou, that the Lord wil take thy maſter from thine head this day? And he ſaid, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace.

6 Moreouer Eliiáh ſaid vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hathe ſent me to Iordén. But he ſaid, As the Lord liueth, & as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they went bothe together.

7 And fiftie men of the ſonnes of the Prophetes went and ſtode on thē other ſide afarre of, and thei two ſtode by Iordén.

8 ¶ Then Eliiáh toke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and ſmote the [f] waters, and they were deuided hether and thether, & thei twaine went ouer on the drye land.

9 Now when thei were paſſed ouer, Eliiáh ſaid vnto Eliſhá, Aſke what I ſhal do for thee before I be taken from thee. And Eliſhá ſaid, I pray thee, Let thy Spirit [g] be double vpon me.

10 And he ſaid, Thou haſt aſked an hard thing: yet if thou ſe me when I am taken from thee, thou ſhalt haue it ſo: & if not, it ſhal not be.

11 And as thei went walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a charet of fyre, and horſes of fyre, and did ſeparate them twaine. * So Eliiáh went vp by a whyrlewinde into [h] heauen.

12 And Eliſhá ſawe it, and he cryed, My father, my father, the charet of Iſraél, and the horſemen thereof: & he ſawe him no more: and he toke his owne clothes, & rent them in two pieces.

13 ¶ He toke vp alſo the cloke of Eliiáh that fel from him, and returned, and ſtode by the banke of Iordén.

14 After, he toke the cloke of Eliiáh, that fel from him, and ſmote the waters, and ſaid, Where is the Lord God of Eliiáh, and he him ſelfe? Againe alſo he ſmote the waters, and thei were ſeparated this waye and that waye: and Eliſhá went ouer.

15 And when the children of the Prophetes, which were at Ierichó, ſawe him on the otherſide, they ſaid, [i] The Spirit of Eliiáh doeth reſt on Eliſhá: and they came to mete him, & fel to the grounde before him,

16 And ſaid vnto him, Beholde now, there be with thy ſeruants fiftie ſtrong men: let them go, we pray thee, and ſeke thy [k] maſter, if ſo be the Spirit of the Lord hathe taken him vp, and caſt him vpon ſome mountaine, or into ſome valley. But he ſaid, [l] Ye ſhal not ſend.

17 Yet they were inſtant vpon him, til he was aſhamed: wherefore he ſaid, Send. So thei ſent fiftie mē, which ſoght thre daies, but founde him not.

18 Therefore thei returned to him, (for he taried at Ierichó) and he ſaid vnto them, Did not I ſay vnto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the citie ſaid vnto Eliſhá, Beholde, we pray thee: the ſituacion of this citie is pleaſant, as thou, my lord, ſeeſt, but the water [m] is noght, & the grouńde [n] baren.

20 Then he ſaid, Bring me a newe cruſe, & put ſalt therein. And they broght it to him.

21 And he went vnto the ſpring of the waters, and caſt there [m] the ſalt, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death ſhal no more come thereof, nether barennes to the grounde.

22 So the waters were healed vntil this day, according to ŷ worde of Eliſhá which he had ſpoken.

23 ¶ And he wēt vp from thēce vnto Beth-él. And as he was going vp the waye, litle children came out of the citie, and mocked him, and ſaid vnto him, Come vp, thou balde head, come vp, thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe & loked on them, and [n] curſed them in the Name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the foreſt, and tare in pieces two and fourtie children of them.

25 So he went from thence to mount Carmél, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAP. III.

1 The reigne of Iehorám. 6 He and Iehoſhaphát go to warre againſt Moáb, which rebelled. 13 Eliſha reproueth him, 17 And gueth them water. 24 The Moabites are ouercome. 27 Their King ſacrificeth his ſonne.

1 NOw Iehorám the ſonne of Aháb began to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, the [a] eightenth yere of Iehoſhaphát King of Iudah & reigned twelue yeres.

2 And he wrought euil in the ſight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he toke away the image of Báal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheles, he cleaued vnto [b] the ſinnes of Ieroboám, the ſonne of Nebát, ẅ made Iſraél to ſinne, & departed not therefrō.

4 ¶ Then [c] Meſhá King of Moáb had ſtore of ſhepe, and rendred vnto the King of Iſraél an hundreth thouſand lambes, b So called becauſe they are begotten as it were a newe by the heauenlie doctrine

c That is, frō being any more thine head: for to be as ŷ head, is to be the maſter, as to be at the fete, is to be a ſcholar

d For ŷ Lord had reuciled it vnto him

e Not onely at Beth-él, but at Ierichó and other places were there Prophetes, ẅ had ſcholars, whome they inſtructed and broght vp in ŷ true feare of God.

f To wit, of Iordén.

g Let thy Spirit haue double force in me, becauſe of theſe dāgerous times or let me haue twiſe ſo muche as ŷ reſt of the Prophetes: for thy ſpirit beig deuided into thre partes, let me haue two Eccleſ 48,13.

1 mac 2,58.

h Thus God hathe left a teſtimonie in all ages bothe before the Lawe, in the Lawe, & in the time of the Goſpel of ỏ reſurrectiō i The Spirit of prophecie is giuen to him, as it was to Eliiáh.

k Meaning, Eliiáh: for they thoght his bodie had bene caſt in ſome mountaine l Becauſe the fact was extraordinarie, thei douted where he was becōme, but Eliſhá was aſſured ŷ he was taken vp to God.

m Or, killeth the inhabitants.

n Thus God gaue him power, cuē cōtrary to nature, to make that water profitable for mās vſe, ẅ before was hurtful.

a Perceiuing their malicious heart againſt the Lord and his worde, he deſireth God to take vengeance of that iniurie done vnto him.

a Read the annotatiō in the 1 Chap & 17. verſe

b He ſacrificed to ŷ goldē calues, that Ieroboam had made c This was done after ŷ Dauid had made the Moabites tributaries to his ancēſtors.

& an hundreth thouſand rams w̃ the woll.
5 But when Ahāb was deade, the King of Moāb rebelled againſt the King of Iſraél.
6 Therefore King Iehorám went out of Samaria the ſame ſeaſon, and nombred all Iſraél, 7 And went, and ſent to Iehoſhaphát King of Iudáh, ſaying, The Kīg of Moāb hathe rebelled againſt me: wilt thou go with me to battel againſt Moāb? And he anſwered, I wil go vp: for [d] I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine horſes as thine horſes.
8 Then ſaid he, What way ſhal we go vp? And he anſwered, The way of the wildernes of Edóm.
9 ¶So went the King of Iſraél & the King of Iudáh, and the [e] King of Edóm, and when they had compaſſed the way ſeuen daies, thei had no water for the hoſte, nor for the cattel that "followed them.
10 Therefore the King of Iſraél ſaid, Alas, that ỹ Lord hathe called theſe thre Kīgs, to giue them into the hand of Moāb.
11 But Iehoſhaphát ſaid, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the King of Iſraels ſeruants anſwered, & ſaid, Here is Eliſhá ỹ ſonne of Shaphát, which [f] powred water on the hands of Eliiáh.
12 Then Iehoſhaphát ſaid, [g] The worde of the Lord is with him. Therefore the King of Iſraél, and Iehoſhaphát, and the King of Edóm went downe to him.
13 And Eliſhá ſaid vnto the King of Iſraél, [h] What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the Prophetes of thy father and to the Prophetes of thy mother. And the King of Iſraél ſaid vnto him, [i] Naye: for the Lord hathe called theſe thre Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moāb.
14 Then Eliſhá ſaid, As the Lord of hoſtes liueth, in whoſe ſight I ſtand, if it were not, that I regarde the preſence of Iehoſhaphát the King of Iudáh, I wolde [k] not haue loked towarde thee, nor ſene thee.
15 But now bring me a minſtrel. And when the minſtrel [l] played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.
16 And he ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, Make this valley ful of dyches.
17 For thus ſaith the Lord, Ye ſhal nether ſe winde nor ſe raine, yet the valley ſhal be filled with water, that ye may drinke, bothe ye and your cattel, and your beaſtes.
18 But this is a [m] ſmall thing in the ſight of the Lord: for he wil giue Moāb into your hand.
19 And ye ſhal ſmite euerie ſtrong towne and euerie chief citie, and ſhal fel euerie fayre tre, and ſhal ſtop all the fountaines of water, and [n] marre euerie good field with ſtones.
20 And in the morning when the meat offring was offred, beholde, there came water by the way of Edóm: and the countrey was filled with water.
21 And when all the Moabites heard that the Kings were come vp to fight againſt them, thei gathered all that was able "to put on harnes, and vpwarde, and ſtode in their border.
22 And thei roſe early in the morning, whē the ſunne aroſe vpō the water, & the Moabites ſawe the water ouer againſt them, as red as blood.
23 And thei ſaid, [o] This is blood: ỹ Kings are ſurely ſlayne, and one hathe ſmiten another: now therefore, Moāb, to ỹ ſpoile.
24 And when thei came to the hoſte of Iſraél, the Iſraelites aroſe vp, and ſmote the Moabites, ſo that thei fled before them, but they [p] inuaded them, and ſmote Moāb.
25 And they deſtroyed the cities: and on all the good field euerie mā caſt his ſtone, & filled them, & thei ſtopte all the fountaines of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in [q] Kir-haráſeth left they the ſtones thereof: howbeit thei wēt about it with ſlings, and ſmote it.
26 And when the King of Moāb ſawe that the battel was to ſore for him, he toke with him ſeuen hundreth men that drewe the ſworde to breake through vnto the King of Edóm: but thei colde not.
27 Thē he toke his eldeſt ſonne, that ſhulde haue reigned in his ſteade, & [r] offred him for a burnt offring vpon the wall: ſo that Iſraél was ſore grieued, and thei departed from him, and returned to their countrey.

d Read 1. King. 22,4.
e Meaning, the Viceroy or Lieutenant of the King of Iudáh, read 1 King 22,48
"Ebr that were at their feet.
f That is, who was his ſeruāt.
g He is able to inſtruct vs what is Gods wil in this point.
h He knewe ỹ this wicked King wolde haue but vſed his counſel to ſerue his turne, & therefore he diſdained to anſwer him.
i The wicked eſteme not the ſeruants of God, but when they are drīē by very neceſſitie & feare of ỹ preſent danger.
k God ſuffreth his worde to be declared to the wicked, becauſe of the goldlie that are among thē.
l He ſig ſongs to Gods glorie, and ſo ſtirred vp ỹ Prophetes heart to prophecie m He wil not onely miraculouſly giue you waters, but your enemies alſo into your hand.
n Thogh God beſtowe his benefites for a time vpon his enemies, yet he hathe his ſeaſons, whon he wil take them away, to the intent thei might ſe his vengeance, & is prepared againſt them.
o The ſodeine ioye of the wicked is but a preparacion to their deſtructiō, which is at hand.
p Meaning, they followed them into the townes.
q Which was one of the principal cities of the Moabites, wherein they left nothing but ỹ walles.
r Some referre it to ỹ King of Edōs ſonne, whome they ſay he had taken in ỹ ſkirmiſh, but rather it ſemed to be his owne ſonne, whome he offred to his gods to pacifie them, which barbarous cruelnes moued the Iſraelites hearts of pitie to departe.

CHAP. IIII.

4 God increaſeth the oyle to the poore widowe by Eliſhá. 12 He obteineth for the Shunammite a ſonne at Gods hand 28 Who dying. 32 He raiſeth him vp againe. 40 He maketh ſwete the pottage. 42 And multiplieth the loaues.

1 AND one of the wiues [a] of the ſonnes of the Prophetes cryed vnto Eliſhá, ſaying, Thy ſeruāt mine houſband is dead, and thou knoweſt, that thy ſeruant did [b] feare the Lord: and the creditour is come to take my two ſonnes to be his [c] bondemen.
2 Then Eliſhá ſaid vnto her, What ſhal I do for thee? tel me, what haſt thou at home. And ſhe ſaid, Thine handmayd hathe nothing at home, ſaue a [d] pytcher of oyle.
3 And he ſaid, Go, and borowe thee veſſels abroade of all thy neighbours, emptye veſſels, & ſpare not.
4 And when thou art come in, thou ſhalt ſhut the dore vpon thee & vpon thy ſonnes, and powre out into [e] all thoſe veſſels and ſet aſide thoſe that are ful.

a Read Chap. 2,3.
b And therefore fel not into det by vnthriftines or prodigalitie, but by the hand of the Lord.
c Becauſe I am poore and not able to pay.
d Thus God ſuffreth his many times to be broght to extreme neceſſitie, before he ſuccor them, that afterwarde they may ỹ more praiſe his mercie e The Prophet declareth hereby vnto her, that God neuer faileth to prouide for his ſeruants, their wiues & children, if they truſt in him.

5 So

5 So ſhe departed from him, and ſhut the dore vpon her, and vpon her ſonnes. And they brought to her, and ſhe powred out.
6 And when the veſſels were ful, ſhe ſaid vnto her ſonne, Bring me yet a veſſel. And he ſaid vnto her, There is no mo veſſels. And the oyle [f] ceaſed.
7 Then ſhe came and tolde the man of God. And he ſaid, Go, and ſel the oyle, & pay them that thou art in det vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the [g] reſt.
8 ¶And on a time Eliſhá came to Shunē, & there a woman of great eſtimation cōſtrained him to eat bread: and as he paſſed by, he turned in thether to eat bread.
9 And ſhe ſaid vnto her houſbād, Beholde, I knowe now, that this is an holie man of God that paſſeth by vs continually.
10 Let vs make [h] him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs ſet him there a bed and a table & a ſtole, and a cādleſticke, that he may turne in thether whē he commeth to vs.
11 ¶And on a day, he came thether and turned into the chamber, and laye therein, 12 And ſaid to Gehazí his ſeruāt, Call this Shunammite: and when he called her, ſhe ſtode before him.
13 Then he ſaid vnto him, Say vnto her now, Beholde, thou haſt had all this great care for vs, [i] what ſhal we do for thee? Is there anie thing to be ſpokē for thee to the King or to the captaine of the hoſte? And ſhe anſwered, I [k] dwel among mine owne people.
14 Againe he ſaid, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazí anſwered, In dede ſhe hathe [l] no ſonne, and her houſband is olde.
15 Thē ſaid he, Call her. And he called her, and ſhe ſtode in the dore.
16 And he ſaid, *At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou ſhalt embrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſaid, Oh my lord, thou man of God, do not lye vnto thine handmaid.
17 So the womā conceiued, and bare a ſonne at that ſame ſeaſon, according to the time of life, that Eliſhá had ſaid vnto her.
18 ¶And when the childe was growen, it fel on a day, that he went out to his father, & to the reapers.
19 And he ſaid to his father, [m] Mine head, mine head. Who ſaid to his ſeruant, Beare him to his mother.
20 And he toke him and brought him to his mother, & he ſate on her knees til noone, and dyed.
21 Then ſhe went vp, and layed him on the bed of the man of God, and ſhut the dore vpon him, and went out.
22 ¶Then ſhe called to her houſband, and ſaid, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong mē & one of the aſſes: for I wil haſte to the man of God, and come againe.
23 And he ſaid, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is nether [n] newe moone nor Sabbath day. And ſhe anſwered, "All ſhalbe wel.
24 Then ſhe ſadled an aſſe, and ſaid to her ſeruant, Dryue, and go forwarde: ſtay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.
25 ¶So ſhe went, & came vnto the man of God to mount Carmél. And whē the man of God ſaw her [o] ouer againſt him, he ſaid to Gehazí his ſeruant, Beholde, the Shunammite.
26 Runne now, I ſay, to mete her, and ſay vnto her, Art thou in helthe? is thine houſband in helthe? & is the childe in helthe? And ſhe anſwered, We are in helthe.
27 And when ſhe came to the man of God vnto the mountaine, ſhe [p] caught him by his fete: and Gehazí went to her, to thruſt her away: but the man of God ſaid, Let her alone: for her ſoule is "vexed within her, and the Lord hathe hid it from me, and hathe not tolde it me.
28 Then ſhe ſaid, Did I deſire a ſonne of my lord? did I not ſay? Deſceiue me not.
29 Thē he ſaid to Gehazí, Girde thy loynes, and take my ſtaffe in thine hand, and go thy way: [q] if thou mete anie, ſalute him not: and if anie ſalute thee, anſwer him not: and lay my ſtaffe vpon the face of the childe.
30 And the mother of the childe ſaid, As the Lord liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. Therefore he aroſe, and followed her.
31 But Gehazí was gone before thē, & had layed the ſtaffe vpō the face of the childe, but he nether ſpake nor heard: wherefore he returned to mete him, and tolde him, ſaying, The childe is not waken.
32 ¶Then came Eliſhá into the houſe, and beholde, the childe was dead, and layed vpon his bed.
33 He went in therefore, and ſhut the dore vpon them twaine, and prayed vnto the Lord.
34 After he went vp, and [r] lay vpon the childe, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his hands vpon his hands, and ſtretched him ſelfe vpon him, & the fleſh of the childe waxed warme.
35 And he wēt from him, and walked vp and downe in the houſe, & went vp and ſpred him ſelfe vpon him: then the childe neeſed [s] ſeuen times, and opened his eyes.
36 Then he called Gehazi, and ſaid, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in vnto him. And he ſaid vnto her, Take thy ſonne.
37 And ſhe came, and fel at his fete, and f To augment and increaſe in the veſſels g God here did not onely prouide for his ſeruāt, that his dets ſhulde be payed, & ſo kept his doctrine and profeſſiō without ſlāder, but alſo for his wife and children h Which ſhulde be ſeparate from the reſt of the houſe, that he might more cōmodiouſly giue him ſelfe to ſtudy and prayers.

i Thus the ſeruants of God are not vnthankful for ỹ benefites they receyue k I am contēt with that that God hathe ſēt me, and can want nothing that one cā do for another l Which then was a reproche & therefore he wolde ỹ his maſter ſhulde pray to God for her that ſhe might be fruteful Gen.18,10.
m His head aked ſore, and therefore he cryed thus.
n For at ſuche times the people were wōte to reſorte to ỹ Prophetes for doctrine and conſolacion "Ebr peace.
o Or, farre off
p In token of humilitie and ioy that ſhe had met with him "Ebr. her ſoule is in bitternes.
q Make ſuche ſpede that nothing may let thee in ỹ way, Luk.10,4.
r The like did Eliuā to the widowes ſōne at Sarephta 1. King 17,21 and S Paul Act.20, to ſignifying ỹ care that ought to be in them, that beare the worde of God and are diſtributers of the ſpiritual life.
s Meaning oftentimes.

bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, and toke vp her ſonne, and went out.

38 Afterwarde Eliſhá returned to Gilgál, and a famine was in the [f] land, and the childrē of the Prophetes dwelt with him. And he ſaid vnto his ſeruant, Set on the great pot, and ſeethe pottage for the children of the Prophetes.

39 And one went out into the field, to gather herbes, and founde, as it were, a wilde vine, and gathered thereof [t] wilde gourdes his garment ful, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knewe it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eat: and when they did eat of the pottage, they cryed out, and ſaid, O thou man of God, [u] death is in the pot: and they colde not eat thereof.

41 Thē he ſaid, Bring meale. And he caſt it into the pot, and ſaid, Powre out for the people, that they may eat: & there was none euil in the pot.

42 ¶ Then came a man from Baal-ſhalíſha, and broght the man of God bread of the firſt frutes, euen twentie loaues of barly, & ful eares of corne in ỹ huſke. And he ſaid, Giue vnto the people, that they may eat.

43 And his ſeruant anſwered, How ſhulde I ſet this before an hundreth men? He ſaid againe, Giue it vnto the people that they may eat: for thus ſayth the Lord, They ſhal eat, and there [x] ſhal remaine.

44 So he ſet it before them, and thei did eat, and left ouer, according to the worde of the Lord.

f That is, in the land of Iſraél.

t Which the Apoticaries call colloquintida, and is moſte vehement and dangerous in purging.

u They feared ỹ they were poyſoned, becauſe of the bitternes.

x It is not the quantitie of bread that ſatisfieth, but ỹ bleſſing that God giueth

CHAP. V.

1 Naamán the Syrian is healed of his leproſie. 16 Eliſha refuſeth his gifts 27 Gehazí is ſtriken with leproſie, becauſe he toke money, & raimēt of Naamán.

1 NOw was there one Naamán captaine of the hoſte of the King of Arám, a great man, and honorable in the ſight of his lord, becauſe that by him ỹ Lord had [a] deliuered the Aramites. He alſo was a mightie man and valiant, but a lepre.

2 And the Aramites had gone out by bandes, & had taken a litle maid of the land of Iſraél, and ſhe "ſerued Naamans wife.

3 And ſhe ſaid vnto her maſtres, Wolde God my lord were with the [b] Prophet that is in Samaria, he wolde ſoone deliuer him of his leproſie.

4 And [c] he went in, and tolde his lord, ſaying, Thus and thus ſaith the maid that is of the land of Iſraél.

5 And the King of Arám ſaid, Go thy way thether, and I wil ſend a letter vnto the King of Iſraél. And he departed, and [d] toke "with him ten talents of ſiluer, and ſix thouſand pieces of golde, and ten chāge of raiments,

6 And broght the letter to the King of Iſraél to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderſtād, that I haue ſent thee Naamán my ſeruāt, that thou mayeſt heale him of his leproſie.

7 And when the King of Iſraél had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſaid, Am I God, to kil and to giue life, that he doeth ſend to me, that I ſhulde heale a man from his leproſie? wherefore conſidre, I pray you, and ſe how he ſeketh a quarel againſt me.

8 But when Eliſhá the man of God had heard that the King of Iſraél had rent his clothes, he ſent vnto the King, ſaying, [e] Wherefore haſt thou rēt thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he ſhal knowe, that there is a Prophet in Iſraél.

9 ¶ Then Naamán came with his horſes, & with his charets, and ſtode at the dore of the houſe of Eliſhá.

10 And Eliſhá ſent a meſſenger vnto him, ſaying, Go and waſh thee in Iordén ſeuen times, and thy fleſh ſhal come againe to thee, and thou ſhalt be cleanſed.

11 But Naamán was [f] wroth & went away, and ſaid, Beholde, I thoght with my ſelfe, He wil ſurely come out, and ſtand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God & put his hand on the place, and heale the leproſie.

12 Are not Abanáh and Pharpár, riuers of Damaſcus, better then all the waters of Iſraél? may I not waſh me in them, and be cleanſed? So he turned, and departed in diſpleaſure.

13 But his ſeruants came, and ſpake vnto him, and ſaid, [g] Father, if the Prophet had cōmāded thee a great thing, wouldeſt thou not haue done it? how muche rather then, whē he ſaith to thee, Waſh, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and *waſhed him ſelfe ſeuen times in Iordén, according to the ſaying of the mā of God: and his fleſh came againe, like vnto the fleſh of a litle childe, and he was cleane.

15 ¶ And he turned againe to the man of God, he, and all his companie, and came & ſtode before him and ſaid, Beholde, now I know that there is no God in all ỹ worlde, but in Iſraél: now therefore, I pray thee, take "a rewarde of thy ſeruant.

16 But he ſaid, As the Lord liueth (before whome I ſtād) I wil not receiue it. And he wolde haue conſtrained him to receiue it, [h] but he refuſed.

17 Moreouer Naamán ſaid, Shal there not be giuē to thy ſeruant two mules loade of this earth? for thy ſeruant wil hence forth offer neither burnt ſacrifice, nor offring vnto anie other god, ſaue vnto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord be [i] merciful vnto thy ſeruant, that when my maſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmón, to worſhip there, and a Here appeareth that amōg the infideles God hath his, and alſo that the infideles haue them in eſtimation, ẅ do good to their coūtrey.

"Ebr. ſhe was before.

b Meaning, Eliſhá.

c That is, Naamán tolde it to the King of Syria.

d To giue this as a preſent to the Prophet

"Ebr in his hand.

e The Prophet rebuketh the King becauſe he did not cōſider that God was true in his promes & therefore wolde not leaue his Church deſtitute of a Prophet, whoſe prayers he wolde heare, and to whome other ſhulde haue recourſe for comforte.

f Mans reaſon murmureth, when it conſidereth onely the ſignes and outwarde things & hathe not regarde to the worde of God, which is there conteined.

g This declareth that ſeruants ought to reuerence and loue their maſters as childrē their fathers, and likewiſe maſters to ward their ſeruants muſte be affectioned as towarde their children

Luk.4.27.

"Ebr bleſſing.

h So the Lord commandeth that they that receiue freely ſhulde giue alſo freely

i He feleth his conſcience woūded in being preſent at idoles ſeruice, and therefore deſireth God to forgiue hī, leſt others by his example might fall to idolatrie: for as for his owne parte he cōfeſſeth that he wil neuer ſerue anie, but the true God.

and leaneth on mine hand, and I bowe my ſelfe in the houſe of Rimmón: when I do bowe downe, I ſay, in the houſe of Rimmón, the Lord be merciful vnto thy ſeruant in this point.

k The Prophet did not approue his act, but after ſ commune maner of ſpeche, he biddeth him fare wel.

19 Vnto whome he ſaid, k Go in peace. So he departed frō him about halfe a daies iourney of grounde.

20 And Gehazí the ſeruant of Eliſhá the mā of God ſaid, Beholde, my maſter hathe ſpared this Aramite Naamán, receiuing nōt thoſe things at his hād that he broght: as the Lord liueth, I wil run after him, and take ſomewhat of him.

21 So Gehazí followed ſpedely after Naamán. And when Naamán ſawe him running after him, l he light downe from the charet to mete him, and ſaid, Is all wel?

l Declaring thereby what honour and affectiō he bare to the Prophet his maſter.

22 And he anſwered, All is wel: my maſter hathe ſent me, ſaying, Beholde, there be come to me, euen now from mounte Ephráim two yong men of the children of the Prophetes: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of ſiluer, and two chāge of gaimēts.

23 And Naamán ſaid, Yea, take two talēts: and he compelled him, and bounde two talents of ſiluer in two bags, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his ſeruāts, that they might beare them before him.

m Or, forteresse, or, secret place.

24 And when he came to m the towre, he toke them out of their hāds, and layed them in the houſe, and ſent away the men: m and they departed.

m Naamans ſeruants.

25 ¶ Then he went in, and ſtode before his maſter. And Eliſhá ſaid vnto him, Whēce commeſt thou, Gehazí? And he ſaid, Thy ſeruant went no whether.

n Was not I preſent with thee in ſpirit?

26 But he ſaid vnto him, n Went not mine heart with thee when the man turned againe from his charet to mete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, o and oliues, and vineyardes, and ſhepe, and oxen, and men ſeruants, and maid ſeruants?

o That is, money to by poſſeſſions with: meaning, ỹ it is deteſtable in the ſeruants of God to haue couetous mindes 27 The leproſie therefore of Naamán ſhal cleaue vnto thee, & p to thy ſede for euer. And he wēt out from his preſence a lepre white as ſnowe.

p To be an example to all ſuche, as by whoſe couetouſnes Gods worde might be ſlandered.

CHAP. VI.

Eliſhá maketh yrō to ſwimme aboue the water 8 He diſcloſeth the King of Syrias counſel to the King of Iſraél 13 Who ſending certeine to take him, were kept faſt in Samaria. 24 Samaria is beſieged and endureth extreme famine.

1 AND the childrē of the Prophetes ſaid vnto Eliſhá, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwel with thee, is to litle for vs.

2 Let vs now go to Iordén, that we may take thence euerie man a a beame, and make vs a place to dwel in. And he anſwered, Go.

a Or a piece of wood fit to buylde with 3 And one ſaid, vouchſafe, I pray thee, to go with thy ſeruants. And he anſwered, I wil go.

4 So he went with them, and when they came to Iordén, they cut downe wood.

o Or, the axe head.

5 And as one was felling of a tre, the o yron fel into the water: thē he cryed, & ſaid, Alas maſter, it was but borowed.

6 And the man of God ſaid, Where fel it? And he ſhewed him the place. Then he cut downe a piece of wood, and caſt in thether, and he cauſed the yron to b ſwimme.

b God wroght this miraculouſly to confirme the autoritie of Eliſhá, to whome he had giuen ſuche abundāce of his Spirit.

7 Then he ſaid, Take it vp to thee. And he ſtretched out his hand, and toke it.

8 Then the King of Arám warred againſt Iſraél and toke counſel with his ſeruants, and ſaid, In c ſuche and ſuche a place ſhal be my campe.

c Meaning, ỹ he wolde lie in ambuſhe & take the Iſraelites at vnwares

9 Therefore the man of God ſent vnto the King of Iſraél, ſaying, Beware thou go not ouer to ſuche a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

10 So the King of Iſraél ſent to the place which the man of God tolde him, & warned him of, and d ſaued him ſelfe from thence, not once, nor twiſe.

d The wicked conſpire nothing ſo craftily, but God can reueile it to his ſeruāts & cauſe their counſel to be diſcloſed.

11 And the heart of the King of Arám was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his ſeruants and ſaid vnto them, Wil ye not ſhew me, which of vs bewraieth our counſel to the King of Iſraél?

12 Then one of his ſeruants ſaid, None, my lord, ô King, but Eliſhá the Prophet that is in Iſraél, telleth the King of Iſraél, euen the woordes that thou ſpeakeſt in thy e priuie chamber.

e There is nothing ſo ſecret that thou canſt go about, but he knoweth it, & diſcouereth it vnto his King.

13 And he ſaid, Go, and eſpie where he is, that I may ſend and fetch him. And one tolde him, ſayīg, Beholde, he is in Dothán.

14 ¶ So he ſent thether horſes, and charets, and a f mightie hoſte: and they came by night, and compaſſed the citie.

f Thogh it had bene nothing in mans iudgment to haue taken Eliſhá, yet ỹ wicked euer doute & thīke thei are neuer able to prepare power ynoug, though it be but againſt one, or a fewe

15 And when the ſeruant of the mā of God aroſe early to go out, beholde, an hoſte compaſſed the citie with horſes and charets. Then his ſeruant ſaid vnto him, Alas maſter, how ſhal we do?

16 And he anſwered, g Feare not: for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.

g For he was aſſured of Gods helpe, & that millions of Angels camped about the godlie to deliuer them 17 Then Eliſhá prayed, & ſaid, Lord, I beſeche thee, opē his eyes, h that he maie ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the ſeruāt, & he loked, & beholde, the mountaine was ful of horſes & charets of fyre round about Eliſhá.

h That he may beholde how thou haſt prepared an armie to reſcue vs

18 So i they came downe to him, but Eliſhá prayed vnto the Lord, & ſaid, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindenes. And he ſmote them with blindenes, according to the worde of Eliſhá.

i Meaning, the Syrians his enemies, which came downe, thinking them ſelues ſure of him.

19 And Eliſhá ſaid vnto them, This is not the way, nether is this the citie: followe me, and I wil lead you to the man whome ye ſeke. But he [k] led them to Samaria.

20 And when they were come to Samaria, Eliſhá ſaid, Lord, opē their eyes that they may ſe. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they ſawe, and beholde, they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the King of Iſraél ſaid vnto Eliſhá when he ſawe them, [l] My father, ſhal I ſmite them, ſhal I ſmite them?

22 And he anſwered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: doeſt thou not ſmite them that thou haſt taken with thy ſworde, & with thy bowe? but ſet bread and water before thē, that they may eat and drinke and go to their maſter.

23 And he made great preparacion for thē: & when they had eaten & dronken, he ſent them away: and they went to their maſter. So the bands of Arám came [m] nomore into the land of Iſraél.

24 But afterwarde Ben-hadád King of Arám gathered all his hoſte, and went vp, & beſieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for lo, they beſieged it vntil an aſſes head was at foure ſcore pieces of ſiluer, and the fourth parte of a kab of dooues [n] doung at fiue pieces of ſiluer.

26 And as the King of Iſraél was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, ſaying, Helpe, my lord, ô King.

27 And he ſaid, Seing the Lord doeth not ſuccour thee, how ſhulde I helpe thee with the [o] barne, or with the wine preſſe?

28 Alſo ỹ King ſaid vnto her, What aileth thee? And ſhe anſwered, This woman ſaid vnto me, Giue thy ſonne, that we may eat him to day, and we wil eat my ſonne tomorowe.

29 *So we ſod my ſonne, and did eat him: and I ſaid to her the day after, Giue thy ſonne, that we may eat him, but ſhe hathe hid her ſonne.

30 And when the King had heard ỹ wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, (and as he went vpon the wall, the people loked, and beholde, he had ſackecloth [p] within vpon his fleſh)

31 And he ſaid, God do ſo to me and more alſo, if the head of Eliſhá the ſōne of Shaphát ſhal ſtand on him this day.

32 (Now Eliſhá ſate in his houſe, and the Elders ſate with him) And the King ſent a man before him: but before the meſſenger came to him, he ſaid to the Elders, Se ye not how this [q] murtherers ſonne hathe ſent to take away mine head? take hede when the meſſenger commeth, & ſhut the dore, and hādle him roughly at the dore: is not the ſound of his maſters fete behind him?

33 While he yet talked with thē, beholde, the meſſenger came downe vnto him, & ſaid, Beholde, this euil cōmeth of ỹ Lord: [r] ſhulde I attend on the Lord any longer?

CHAP. VII.

1 Eliſhá prophecieth plentie of vitaile and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians runne away, and haue no man following them. 17 The prince that wolde not beleue the worde of Eliſhá is troden to death.

1 THen Eliſhá ſaid, Heare ye the worde of the Lord: thus ſaith the Lord, [a] Tomorowe this time a meaſure of fine floure ſhalbe ſolde for a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barly for a ſhekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a prince, on whoſe hand the King [b] leaned, anſwered the man of God, and ſaid, Thogh the Lord wolde make [c] windowes in the heauē, colde this thing come to paſſe? And he ſaid, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſe it with thine eyes, but ỹ ſhalt not [d] eat therof.

3 Now there were foure leprouſe men at ỹ [e] entring in of ỹ gate: and they ſaid one to another, Why ſit we here vntil we dye?

4 If we ſay, We wil entre into the citie, the famine is in the citie, & we ſhal dye there: and if we ſit here, we dye alſo. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if thei ſaue our liues, we ſhal liue: & if they kil vs, we are but dead.

5 So they roſe vp in the twilight, to go to the campe of the Aramites: and when thei were come to the vtmoſte parte of the campe of the Aramites, lo, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had cauſed the campe of ỹ Aramites to heare a [f] noiſe of chariets & a noiſe of horſes, & a noiſe of a great armie, ſo ỹ they ſaid one to another, Beholde, the King of Iſraél hathe hired againſt vs the Kings of the Hittites, & the Kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they aroſe, and fled in the twilight, & left their tentes & their horſes, & their aſſes, euen the campe as it was, and [g] fled for their liues.

8 And when theſe lepers came to ỹ vtmoſt part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eat and drinke, and caried thence ſiluer and golde, and raiment, and went and hid it: after they returned, and entred into another tent, & caried thence alſo, and went, and hid it.

9 Then ſaid one to another, We do not wel: this day is a day of good tidings, and we holde our peace. if we tary til day light, ſome [s] miſchief wil come vpon vs. Now therefore come, let vs go, and tel the Kings houſholde.

10 So they came, & called vnto the porters of the citie, & tolde thē, ſaying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, & lo, there was no man there, nether voyce of mā, but ho-ſes k Thus he did being led by the Spirit of God & not becauſe he ſoght his owne reuengance, but onely to ſet forthe ỹ glorie of God.

---

l The wicked vſe reuerent & graue wordes towardes the ſeruāts of God, when they thinke to haue ante cōmoditie by them, thogh in their heart they cā not abyde thē.

m For this gētle intreatie & the miracle wroght by the Prophet, did more preuaile for commune quietnes, then if they had bene ouercome in battel: for they returned no more at that time to fight againſt Iſraél, or in that Kings dayes n The Ebrewes write, ỹ they burned it in ỹ ſiege for lacke of wood o Meaning, anie kinde of vitaile, as corne and wine, &c.

Deut. 28. 57.

Or, vnder his clothes

p Thus hypocrites, when they ſele Gods iudgements, thinke to pleaſe hī with outward ceremonies, whome in proſperitie, they wil not knowe.

q Meaning, Iehorám Achabs ſonne who killed the Prophetes & cauſed Naboth to be ſtoned.

r So the wicked fall into a rage & deſperation, if they finde not ſo deme remedy againſt their afflictions.

a The godlie are euer aſſured of Gods helpe in their neceſsities, but the times and houres are onely reueled by Gods Spirit b To whome the King gaue the charge & ouerſight of things, as verſ 17.

c He mocketh at ỹ Prophetes wordes, ſaying that if God ſhuld rained downe corne frō heauen ỹ this colde not come to paſſe.

d Thy infidelitie ſhalbe puniſhed herein, whē thou ſhalt ſe this miracle & yet not be partaker thereof

e For it was commanded in the Lawe that they ſhulde dwel aparte & not amōg there brethren, Leui. 13. 46

f Thus God nedeth no great preparation to deſtroy the wicked, thogh they be neuer ſo many for he can ſcater them with a ſmale noiſe or ſhaking of a leafe.

g The wicked nede no greater enemie thē their owne cōſcience to put. fite them.

s Or, we ſhalbe punished for our faults.

341/1224

horſes tyed and aſſes tyed: and the tentes are as they were.

11 And the porters cryed and declared to the Kings houſe within.

12 Then the King aroſe in the night, and ſaid vnto his ſeruants, [h] I wil ſhewe you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They knowe that we are aſſamiſhed, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide them ſelues in the field, ſaying, When thei come out of the citie, we ſhal catche them aliue, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his ſeruants anſwered, and ſaid, Let men take now fiue of the horſes that remaine, & are left in the citie, (behold, they are euen as all the [i] multitude of Iſraél that are left therein: beholde, I ſay, they are as the multitude of the Iſraelites that are cõſumed) & we wil ſend to ſe.

14 So they toke [k] two chaiets of horſes, and the King ſent after the hoſte of the Aramites, ſaying, Go and ſe.

15 And they went after them vnto Iordén, and lo, all the way was ful of clothes and veſſels which the Aramites had caſt from them in their haſte: & the meſſengers returned, and tolde the King.

16 Then the people went out and ſpoiled the campe of the Aramites: ſo a meaſure of fine floure was at a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barly at a ſhekel [k] according to ỹ wo1de of the Lord.

17 And the King gaue the prince (on whoſe hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, & the people [l] trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed, as the man of God had ſaid, which ſpake it, when the King came downe to him.

18 And it came to paſſe, as the man of God had ſpoken to the King, ſayīg, Two meaſures of barly at a ſhekel and a meaſure of fine floure ſhalbe at a ſhekel, tomorowe about this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 But the prince had anſwered the man of God, and ſaid, Thogh the Lord wolde make windowes in the heauen, colde it come ſo to paſſe? And he ſaid, Beholde, ỹ ſhalt ſe it with thine eies, but thou ſhalt not eat thereof.

20 And ſo it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

h He miſtruſted ỹ Prophetes wordes, & therefore colde beleue nothing, as thei which are more politike then god. Sic euer caſt more perils then nedeth i There are no more left, but thei, or the reſt are conſumed with the famine as the reſt of the people.

k Or, two horſes of the charet, which were accuſtomed to drawe in the charet.

l As the people preaſed out of ỹ gate to runne to ỹ Syrians tentes where they had heard was meat, & great ſpoile left.

CHAP. VIII.

Eliſhá prophecieth vnto the Shunammite the dearth of ſeuen yere 12 He prophecieth to Haz aél that he ſhalbe King of Syria 15 He reigneth after Benhadád. 16 Iehoram reigneth ouer Iudáh. 20 Edóm falleth from Iudáh Ohoziáh ſuccedeth Iehorám.

1 THen ſpake Eliſhá vnto the woman, * whoſe ſonne he had reſtored to life, ſaying, Vp, and go, thou, and thine houſe, and ſoiourne where thou [a] canſt ſoiourne: for the Lord hathe called for a famine, & it cõmeth alſo vpon the land ſeuen yeres.

Chap 4.38.

a Where thou canſt finde a commodious place to dwel, where as is plentie.

2 And the woman aroſe, and did after the ſaying of the man of God, and went bothe ſhe & her houſholde and ſoiourned in the land of the Philiſtíms ſeuen yeres.

3 ¶ And at the ſeuen yeres end, the woman returned out of the land of the Philiſtíms and went out [b] to call vpon the King for her houſe and for her land.

b That is to complaine on thē which had taken her poſſeſſiõs whiles ſhe was abſēt.

4 And the King talked with Gehazí the ſeruāt of the man of God, ſaying, Tel me, I praye thee, all the great actes, that Eliſhá hathe done.

5 And as he tolde [c] the King, how he had reſtored one dead to life, beholde, the woman, whoſe ſonne he had raiſed to life, called vpon the King for her houſe & for her land. Then Gehazí ſaid, My lord, ô King, this is the woman, and this is her ſonne, whome Eliſhá reſtored to life.

c Gods wõderful prouidence appeareth in this that he cauſed ỹ King to be deſirous to heare of hī, whome before he contemned, & alſo hereby prepared an entrance to the poore widowes ſute.

6 And when the King aſked the womā, ſhe tolde him: ſo the King appointed her an Eunuche, ſaying, Reſtore thou all that are hers, and all the [d] frutes of her landes ſince ỹ day ſhe left the land, euē vntil this time.

d The King cauſed that to be iuſtely reſtored which was wrongfully holden frō her 7 ¶ Then Eliſhá came to Damaſcus, & Benhadád the King of Arám was ſicke. & one tolde him, ſaying, The man of God is come hether.

8 And the King ſaid vnto Hazaél, Take a preſent in thine hand, and go mete the man of God, that thou maieſt inquire of the Lord by him, ſaying, Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

9 ¶ So Hazaél went to mete him, and toke the preſent in his hand, and of euerie [e] good thing of Damaſcus, euen the burden of fourty camels, and came and ſtode before him, and ſaid, Thy ſonne Ben-hadád King of Arám hathe ſent me to thee, ſaying, Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

e Of all the chiefeſt & precious things of ỹ coūtrey.

10 And Eliſhá ſaid to him, Go, & ſay vnto him, Thou ſhalt [f] recouer: howbeit ỹ Lord hathe ſhewed me, that he ſhal ſurely dye.

f Meanīg that he ſhulde recouer of this diſeaſe: but he knewe ỹ this meſſenger Hazaél ſhulde ſlaie him to obteine the kingdome.

11 And he loked vpon him ſtedfaſtely til Haz aél was aſhamed, and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazaél ſaid, Why wepeth my lord? And he anſwered, Becauſe I knowe the euil that thou ſhalt do vnto the children of Iſraél: for their ſtrong cities ſhalt thou ſet on fyre, and their yõg men ſhalt thou ſlay with the ſworde, and ſhalt daſhe their infants againſt the ſtones, & rent in pieces their women with childe.

13 Then Hazaél ſaid, What? is thy ſeruant a [g] dog, that I ſhulde do this great thing? And Eliſhá anſwered, The Lord hathe ſhewed me, ỹ thou ſhalt be Kīg of Arám.

g That I ſhulde be without all humanitie and pitie.

14 ¶ So he departed from Eliſhá, and came to his maſter, who ſaid to him, What ſaid Eliſhá to thee? And he anſwered, He tolde me that thou ſhuldeſt recouer.

15 And on the morow he toke a thicke cloth and dipt it in water, and h ſpread it on his face, and he dyed: & Hazaél reigned in his ſteade.

h Vnder pretence to refreſh or eaſe him, he ſtyfled him with this cloth

16 ¶ * Now in the fifte yere of Iorám the ſonne of Aháb King of Iſraél, and of Iehoſhaphát King of Iudáh, i Iehorám the ſonne of Iehoſhaphát King of Iudáh began k to reigne.

2 Chro 21, 4

i Read Chap 1,17

k He was cõfirmed in his kingdome after his fathers death

17 He was two and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne: and he reigned eight yere in Ieruſalém.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the Kíngs of Iſraél, as did the houſe of Aháb: for ỹ l daughter of Aháb was his wife, and he did euil in the ſight of the Lord.

l The holy Goſt ſheweth hereby what danger it is to ioyne with infideles 19 Yet the Lord wolde not deſtroy Iudáh, for Dauid his ſeruants ſake, * as he had promiſed him to giue him a light & to his children for euer.

2. Sam. 7, 13.

m Which had bene ſubiect from Dauids time vntil this time of Iehorám.

20 ¶ In thoſe dayes Edóm m rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudáh, & made a King ouer them ſelues.

21 Therefore Iorám went to Zaír, and all his charets with him: & he aroſe by night, and ſmote the Edomites which were about him with the captaines of the charets, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 So Edóm rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudáh vnto this day. then n Libnáh rebelled at that ſame time.

n This was a citie in Iudáh giuen to the Leuites, Ioſh 21, 13, and after turned from King Iehorám becauſe of his idolatrie.

23 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iorám and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

24 And Iorám ſlept with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And * Ahaziáh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

2 Chro. 22, 2.

25 ¶ In the twelfte yere of Iorám the ſonne of Aháb King of Iſraél did Ahaziáh the ſonne of Iehorám King of Iudáh begin to reigne.

o Which is to be vnderſtand, that he was made King, when his father reigned, but after his fathers death he was confirmed King, whē he was fourtie two yere olde, as 2 Chr 22, 2.

26 o Two and twentie yere olde was Ahaziáh when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yere in Ieruſalém, & his mothers name was Athaliáh ỹ daughter of Omrí King of Iſraél.

27 And he walked in the way of the houſe of Aháb, and did euil in the ſight of the Lord, like the houſe of Aháb: for he was the ſonne in lawe of the houſe of Aháb.

28 And he went with Iorám the ſonne of Aháb to warre agaīſt Hazaél King of Arám in p Ramóth Gileád, and the Aramites ſmote Iorám.

p Which was a citie in ỹ tribe of Gad, beyonde Iordén

29 And King Iorám returned to be healed in q Izreél of the wounds which the Aramites had giuen him at Ramáh, when he fought againſt Hazaél King of Arám. And Ahaziáh the ſonne of Iehorám King of Iudáh went downe to ſe Iorám the ſonne of Aháb in Izreél, becauſe he was ſicke.

q This is a citie belonging to the tribe of Iſſachar.

CHAP. IX.

6 Iehú is made King of Iſraél. 24 And killeth Iehorám the King thereof. 27 And Ahaziáh, otherwiſe called Ochozias, the King of Iudáh, 33 And cauſeth Iezébel to be caſt downe out of a window, and the dogs did eat her.

1 THen Eliſhá the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophetes, and ſaid vnto him, * a Girde thy loynes and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramóth Gileád.

1. Kin. 19, 17.

a Prepare thy ſelfe to go diligently about thy buſineſſe: for in thoſe countreis they vſed long garments, which they tucked vp, when they wēt about earneſt buſines

2 And when thou commeſt thether, loke where b Iehú the ſonne of Iehoſhaphát, the ſonne of Nimſhi, and go, and make him ariſe vp from among his brethren, & lead him" to a ſecret chamber.

b Ebr from chamber to chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, & ſay, Thus ſayeth the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Iſraél. then open the dore, and flee without anie tarying.

4 So the ſeruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramóth Gileád.

5 And whē he came in, beholde, the captaines of the armie were ſitting And he ſaid, I haue a meſſage to thee, ô captaine. And Iehú ſaid, Vnto which of all vs? And he anſwered, To thee, ô captaine.

6 And he aroſe, and went into the houſe, and he powred the oyle on his head, and ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, I haue c anointed thee for King ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Iſraél.

c This annointing was for Kings, Prieſts & Prophetes, which were all figures of Meſsiáh, in whome theſe thre offices were accomplished

7 And thou ſhalt ſmite the houſe of Aháb thy maſter, that I may auenge the blood of my ſeruants the Prophetes, & the blood of all the ſeruants of the Lord * of the hand of Iezébel.

1 Kin. 25, 21.

8 For the whole houſe of Aháb ſhalbe deſtroyed: and * I wil cut of from Aháb, him that maketh water againſt the wall, aſwel him that is ſhut vp, as him that is left in Iſraél.

1 Kin 14, 10. & 21, 21.

9 And I wil make the houſe of Aháb like the houſe * of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, & like the houſe * of Baaſhá the ſonne of Ahiiáh.

1 Kin 14, 10. & 21, 30.

1 King 16, 3.

c That is, the reſt of the armie, whome he called before, his brethren vers. 2.

10 And the dogs ſhal eat Iezébel in the field of Izreél, and there ſhalbe none to burye her. And he opened the dore, and fled.

d In this eſtimation the worlde hathe the miniſters of God. notwithſtādīg for aſmuche as ỹ worlde hathe euer ſlandered the children of God, (yea they called ỹ ſonne of God a deceiuer & ſaid he had ỹ deuil) therefore they ogh̄t not to be diſcouraged.

11 ¶ Then Iehú came out to the d ſeruants of his lord. And one ſaid vnto him, Is all wel? wherefore came this * mad fellowe to thee? And he ſaid vnto them, Ye knowe the man, and what his talke was.

12 And thei ſaid, It is falſe, tel vs it now. Then he ſaid, Thus and thus ſpake he to me, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Iſraél.

13 Then

13 Then they made haſte, and toke euerie man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the ſtaires, and blewe the trumpet, ſaying, Iehú is King.

14 So Iehú the ſonne of Iehoſhaphát the ſonne of Nimſhí cõſpired againſt Iorám (Now Iorám kept Ramóth Gileád, he & all Iſraél becauſe of Hazaél Kíg of Arám.

Chap 8,29. 15 And * King Iorám returned to be healed in Izreél of the woundes, which the Aramites had giuen him, when he fought with Hazaél King of Arám) and Iehú ſaid, If it be your mindes, let no man departe and eſcape out of the citie, to go & tel in Izreél.

16 So Iehú gate vp into a charet, and went to Izreél: for Iorám laye there, and [e] Aházíáh King of Iudáh was come downe to ſe Iorám.

17 And the watcheman that ſtode in the towre in Izreél, ſpyed the companie of Iehú as he came, and ſaid, I ſe a companie. And Iehorám ſaid, Take a horſeman and ſend to mete them, that he may ſay, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horſebacke to mete him, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the King, Is it peace? And Iehú ſaid, What haſt thou to do with peace? [f] turne behinde me. And the watchemã tolde, ſaying, The meſſenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then he ſent out another on horſebacke, which came to them, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the King, Is it peace? And Iehú anſwered, What haſt thou to do with peace? turne behinde me.

20 And the watchman tolde, ſaying, He came to them alſo, but commeth not againe, and the marching [g] like the marching of Iehú the ſonne of Nimſhí: for he marcheth [f] furiouſly.

21 ¶ Then Iehorám ſaid, Make readie: and his charet was made readie. And Iehorám King of Iſrael and Ahaziáh King of Iudáh went out ether of them in his charet againſt Iehú, and met him in the field of Nabóth the Izreelite.

22 And when Iehorám ſawe Iehú, he ſaid, Is it peace, Iehú? And he anſwered, What [g] peace? the whoredomes of thy mother Iezébel, and her witchcraftes are yet in great nomber.

23 Then Iehorám turned his hand, & fled, and ſaid to Ahaziáh, O Ahaziáh, there is treaſon.

24 But Iehú toke a bowe in his hand, and ſmote Iehorám betwene the ſhulders, that the arowe went through his heart: and he fel downe in his charet.

25 Thẽ ſaid Iehú to Bidkár a captaine, Take, & caſt him in ſome place of the field of Nabóth the Izreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Aháb his father, the Lord [h] layed this burden vpon him.

26 * Surely I haue ſene yeſterday the blood of Nabóth, and the blood of his [i] ſonnes, ſaid the Lord, and I wil render it thee in this field, ſaith the Lord: now therefore take and caſt him in the field, according to the worde of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziáh the King of Iudáh ſawe this, he fled by the way of the gardẽ houſe: and Iehú purſued after him, & ſaid, Smite him alſo in the charet: & thei ſmote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleám. And he fled to [k] Megiddó, and there dyed.

28 And his ſeruants caryed him in a charet to Ieruſalém, & buryed him in his ſepulchre with his fathers in ỹ citie of Dauid.

29 ¶ And in the [l] eleuenth yere of Iorám the ſonne of Aháb, begã Ahaziáh to reigne ouer Iudáh.

30 And when Iehú was come to Izreél, Iezébel heard of it, and peinted her face, and tired her hed, [m] & loked out at a wyndow.

31 And as Iehú entred at the gate, ſhe ſaid, Had [m] Zimrí peace, [n] ẽ ſlewe his maſter?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and ſaid, Who is on my ſide, who? Then two or thre of her [o] Eunuches loked vnto him.

33 And he ſaid, Caſt her downe: and they caſt her downe, [p] and he ſprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horſes, and he trode her vnder fote.

34 And whẽ he was come in, he did eat and drinke, and ſaid, Viſite now yonder curſed woman, and bury her: for ſhe is a [o] Kings daughter.

35 And thei went to bury her, but thei foũde no more of her then the ſkul & the fete, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe and tolde him. And he ſaid, This is the worde of the Lord, which he ſpake [q] by his ſeruãt Eliiáh the Tiſhbite, ſaying, * In the field of Izreél ſhal the dogs eat the fleſh of Iezébel.

37 And the carkeis of Iezébel ſhalbe as doung vpõ the grounde in the field of Izreél, ſo ỹ none ſhal ſay, [r] This is Iezébel.

CHAP. X.

6 Iehú cauſeth the ſeuentie ſonnes of Aháb to be ſlayne, 13 And after that fourty and two of Ahaziahs brethren 25 He killeth alſo all the prieſts of Baal 35 After his death his ſonne reigneth in his ſteade.

1 AHáb had now ſeuentie [a] ſonnes in Samaria. And Iehú wrote letters, & ſent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Izreél, & to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs children, to this effect,

2 Now when this letter commeth to you, (for ye haue with you your maſters ſonnes, ye haue with you bothe chariets and e God had thus ordeined, as is red 2 Chro 22,7. ỹ this wicked & idolatrous King, who was more ready to gratifie wicked Iorám, thẽ to obey ỹ wil of God, ſhulde periſh w̃ him, by whoſe meanes he thoght to haue bene ſtronger.

f Or, followe me.

f As one that went earneſtly about his enterpriſe.

g Meaning that foraſmuche as God is their enemie becauſe of their ſinnes, that he wil euer ſtirre vp ſome to reuẽge his cauſe.

h Or, ſpake this prophecie againſt him.

1 King 21,29

h By this place it is euident, that Iezébel cauſed bothe Nabóth & his ſonnes to be put to death ỹ Aháb might enioye his vineyarde more quietly: for elſ his children might haue claimed poſſeſsion

i After that he was wounded in Samaria he fled to Megiddó, which was a citie of Iudáh k That is, eleuen whole yeres: for Chap. 8,25 before, when he ſaid that he began to reigne the twelfte yere of Iorám, he taketh parte of ỹ yere for the whole

l Being of an haute & cruel nature, ſhe wolde ſtil retein her princelie ſtate and dignitie m As though ſhe wolde ſay, Can any traitor, or any ỹ riſeth againſt his ſuperior, haue good ſucceſs? read 1 King 16,10.

n Or, chief ſeruaunt.

n This he did by the motion of the Spirit of God, ỹ her blood ſhulde be ſhed, that had ſhed the blood of innocents, to be a ſpectacle and example of Gods iudgements to all tyrants

o To wit, of ỹ Kíg of Zidón, 1 King. 16,31

p Ebr by the hand of

1 King 21,23

p Thus Gods iudgements appeare euen in this worlde againſt thẽ that ſuppreſſe his worde & perſecute his ſeruants a The Scripture vſeth to call thẽ ſonnes ẅ are ether children, or nephewes.

horſes, and a defenſed citie, and armour)

3 Cõſider therefore which of your maſters ſonnes is beſt and moſte mete, &[b] ſet him on his fathers throne, and fight for your maſters houſe.

[b] He wrote thus to proue them whether thei wolde take his parte or no.

4 But thei were excedingly afraied, & ſaid, Beholde, two Kings colde not ſtand before him, how ſhal we then ſtand?

5 And he that was gouernour of Ahabs houſe, and he that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the childrē ſent to Iehú, ſaying, We are thy ſeruants, and wil do all that thou ſhalt byd vs: we wil make no King: do what ſemeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then he wrote another letter to them, ſayīg, If ye be mine, & wil obey my voice, [c] take the heades of the men that are your maſters ſonnes, and come to me to Izreél by tomorowe this time. (Now the Kings ſonnes, euen ſeuenty perſones were with the great men of the citie, which broght them vp)

[c] God as a iuſte iudge puniſheth the wicked children of wicked parents vnto the thirde & fourt generacion.

7 And when the letter came to them, they toke the Kings ſonnes, and ſlewe the ſeuenty perſones, and laied their heades in baſkets, and ſent them vnto him to Izreél.

8 ¶ Then there came a meſſenger & tolde him, ſaying, Thei haue broght the heades of the Kings ſonnes. And he ſaid, Let thē lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntil the morning.

9 And whē it was day, he went out, & ſtode & ſaid to all the people, Ye be [d] righteous: beholde, I conſpired againſt my maſter, & ſlewe him: but who ſlewe all theſe?

[d] Ye can not iuſtely cõdēne me: for the Kings death, ſeing ye haue done the like to his poſteritie: for ỹ Lord commanded me, and moued you to execute this his iudgement

10 Knowe now that there ſhal fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lord, which the Lord ſpake concerning ỹ houſe of Ahāb: for the Lord hathe broght to paſſe the things that he ſpake " by his ſeruant * Eliiáh.

"Ebr. by the hand of

* King 21,29

11 So Iehú ſlewe all that remayned of the houſe of Ahāb in Izreél, and all that were great with him, and his familiars and his [e] prieſts, ſo that he let none of his remaine.

[e] Meaning, ỹ were the idolatrous prieſts

12 ¶ And he aroſe, and departed and came to Samaria. And as Iehú was in the waye by an houſe where the ſhepherdes did ſhere, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziáh King of Iudáh and ſaid, Who are ye? And thei anſwered, We are the brethren of Ahaziáh, & go downe to ſalute the children of the King and the children of the quene.

14 And he ſaid, Take them aliue. And thei toke them aliue, & ſlewe them at the well beſide the houſe where ỹ ſhepe are ſhorne, euen two and fourtie men, and he [f] left not one of them.

[f] Thus Gods vengeance is vpon thē that haue any parte or familiaritie with the wicked.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he met with Iehonadáb the ſonne of Rechāb comming to mete him, and he [g] "bleſſed him, and ſaid to him, Is thine heart vpright, as mine heart is toward thine? And Iehonadáb anſwered, Yea, douteles. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had giuen him his hand, he toke him vp to him into the charet.

[g] For he feared God and lamented the wickednes of thoſe times: therefore Iehú was glad to ioyne with him: of Rechāb read Iere. 35,2

"Or, praiſed God for him.

16 And he ſaid, Come with me, and ſe the zeale that I haue for the Lord: ſo they made him ryde in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlewe all that remained vnto Ahāb in Samaria, til he had deſtroyed him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he ſpake to Eliiáh.

18 Then Iehú aſſembled all the people, and ſaid vnto them, Ahāb ſerued [h] Báal a litle, but Iehú ſhal ſerue him muche more.

[h] Here Báal is taken for Aſhteróth the idole of the Zidonians, & Iezébel cauſed to be worſhiped, as it is alſo vſed. 1. King 16,32. & 22,54.

19 Now therefore call vnto me all the prophetes of Báal, all his ſeruants, and all his prieſts, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great ſacrifice for Báal: whoſoeuer is lacking, he ſhal not liue. But Iehú did it by a ſubtiltie to deſtroye the ſeruants of Báal.

20 And Iehú ſaid, " Proclaime a ſolemne aſſēblie for Báal. And thei proclaimed it.

"Ebr. ſanctifie.

21 So Iehú ſent vnto all Iſraél, and all the ſeruants of Báal came, and there was not a mā left that came not. And thei came into the houſe of Báal, & the houſe of Báal was ful from end to end.

22 Then he ſaid vnto him that had ỹ charge of the veſtrie, Bring forthe veſtements for all the ſeruāts of Báal. And he broght them out veſtements.

23 And when Iehú went, & Iehonadáb the ſonne of Rechāb into the houſe of Báal, he ſaid vnto the ſeruants of Báal, Searche diligently, and loke, leſt there be here with you any of the [i] ſeruants of the Lord, but the ſeruants of Báal onely.

[i] Thus God wolde haue his ſeruants preſerued, and idolaters deſtroyed. as in his Lawe he grieueth expreſſe commādement, Deut. 13

24 And when thei went in to make ſacrifice & burnt offrīg, Iehú appointed foure ſcore men without, and ſaid, If anie of the men whome I haue broght into your hands, eſcape, " his ſoule ſhalbe for his ſoule.

"Or, he ſhal dye for him.

25 And when he had made an end of the burnt offring, Iehú ſaid to the garde, and to the captaines, Go in, ſlaye them, let not a man come out. And they ſmote thē with the edge of the ſworde. And the garde, and the captaines caſt them out, & went vnto the [k] citie, where was the temple of Báal.

[k] Which citie was nere to Samaria.

26 And they broght out the images of the temple of Báal, and burnt them.

27 And they deſtroyed the image of Báal, and threwe downe the houſe of Báal, and made a iakes of it vnto this day.

28 So Iehú deſtroyed Báal out of Iſraél.

29 But from the ſinnes of Ieroboám ỹ ſonne of of Nebát which made Iſraél to ſinne, Iehú departed not frō them, nether from the golden calues that were in Beth-él and that were in Dan.

30 ¶And the Lord ſaid vnto Iehú, Becauſe thou haſt diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes, and haſt done vnto the houſe of Aháb according to all thīgs that were in mine heart, therefore ſhal thy [1] ſonnes vnto the fourte generacion ſit on the throne of Iſraél.

[1] Thus God approueth & rewardeth his zeale, in executing Gods iudgement, albeit his wickednes was afterward puniſhed.

31 But Iehú regarded not to walke in ỹ lawe of ỹ Lord God of Iſraél with all his heart: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboám, which made Iſraél to ſinne.

[a] Or, to cut them of.

32 In thoſe dayes the Lord began to [a] lothe Iſraél, and Hazaél ſmote them in all the coaſtes of Iſraél, 33 From Iordén Eaſtwarde, euen all the land of Gileád, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and them that were of Manaſſéh, from Aroér (which is by the riuer Arnón) and Gileád and Baſhán.

34 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehú, and all that he did, and all his valiant dedes, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

35 And Iehú ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, and Iehoaház his ſonne reigned in his ſtēade.

36 And the time that Iehú reigned ouer Iſraél in Samaria is eight and twētie yeres.

CHAP. XI.

1 Athaliáh putteth to death all the Kings ſonnes, except Ioásh the ſonne of Ohoziáh. 4 Ioash is appointed King 15 Iehoiadá cauſeth Athaliáh to be ſlaine 17 He maketh a couenant betwene God and the people. 18 Baal and his prieſts are deſtroyed.

2 Chro 22.10.

[a] Meaning all ỹ poſteritie of Iehoſhaphát, to whome the kingdome appertained, thus God vied the cruelte of this woman to deſtroye the whole familie of Aháb

[b] The Lord promiſed to maintеine the familie of Dauid and not to quenche the light thereof: therefore he moued the heart of Iehoſhéba to preſerue him

[c] Where the Prieſts did lye

2 Chro 23.3.

[d] The chief Prieſt Iehoſhebas houſbād.

[e] Of the Leuites, which had charge of the keping of the Tēple and kept watche by courſe

[f] That none ſhulde come vpon thē, while they were crowning the King

[g] Called the Eaſt gate of the Temple.

THen [a] Athaliáh ỹ mother of Ahaziáh when ſhe ſaw that her ſonne was dead, ſhe aroſe, & deſtroyed all the [a] Kings ſede.

2 But Iehoſhéba ỹ daughter of King Iorám, and ſiſter to Ahaziáh [b] toke Ioáſh the ſonne of Ahaziáh, & ſtale him from among the Kings ſonnes that ſhulde be ſlaine, bothe him and his nource, keping them in the bed [c] chāber, and they hid him from Athaliáh, ſo that he was not ſlaine.

3 And he was with her hid in the houſe of the Lord ſix yere: and Athaliáh did reigne ouer the land.

4 ¶*And the ſeuēth yere [d] Iehoiadá ſent & toke the captaines ouer hundreths, with other captaines and them of the garde, and cauſed them to come vnto him into the houſe of the Lord, & made a couenāt with thē, & toke an oth of them in the houſe of the Lord, & ſhewed thē the Kings ſonne.

5 And he cōmanded thē, ſaying, This is it that ye muſt do, The third parte of [e] you, that cometh on the Sabbath, ſhal [f] warde towarde the Kings houſe.

6 And another third parte in ỹ gate of [g] Sur: and another third parte in the gate behinde them of the garde: & ye ſhal kepe watche [h] in the houſe of Maſſáh.

[h] Or, that none breake his ordre

7 And two partes of you, that is, all that [h] go out on the Sabbath day, ſhal kepe ỹ watche of the houſe of the Lord about the King.

[h] Whoſe charge is ended.

8 And ye ſhal compaſſe the King round about, euerie man with his weapon in his hand, and whoſoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be ſlaine: be you with the King, as he goeth out and in.

9 ¶And the captaines of the hundreths did according to all that Iehoiadá the Prieſt cōmanded, & they toke euerie man his mē that entred in to their charge on the [i] Sabbath with them that went out of it on the Sabbath, and came to Iehoiadá the Prieſt.

[i] Read verſ 5 and 7

10 [k] And the Prieſt gaue to the captaines of hundreths the ſpeares and the ſhields that were King Dauids, and were in the houſe of the Lord.

[k] To wit, Iehoiadá.

11 And the garde ſtode, euerie mā with his weapon in his hand, from the right ſide of the houſe to the left ſide, about the altar & about the houſe, round about the King.

12 Then he broght out [l] the Kings ſonne, and put the crowne vpō him and gaue him [m] the Teſtimonie, & they made him King: alſo they annointed him, and clapt their hands, and ſaid, God ſaue the King.

[l] That is, Ioáſh, which had bene kept ſecret ſix yeres

[m] Meaning, ỹ Lawe of God, which is his chiefcharge & whereby onely his throne is eſtabliſhed.

13 ¶And when Athaliáh heard the noyſe of the running of the people, ſhe came in to the people in the houſe of the Lord.

14 And when ſhe loked, beholde, the King ſtode by a [n] piller, as the maner was, and the princes and the trūpeters by the King, and all the people of the land reioyced, & blue with trumpets. Then Athaliáh rent her clothes, and cryed, Treaſon, treaſon.

[n] Where the Kings place was in the Temple.

15 But Iehoiadá the Prieſt commanded the captaines of the hūdreths that had the rule of the hoſte, and ſaid vnto them, Haue her forthe [o] of the ranges, & he that [o] followeth her, let him dye by the ſworde: for the Prieſt had ſaid, let her not be ſlayne in the houſe of the Lord.

[o] Or, out of the Temple

[o] To take her parte

16 Then they layed hāds on her, & ſhe went by the way, by the [p] the horſes go to the houſe of ỹ King, and there was ſhe ſlaine.

[p] That bothe the King and ỹ people ſhulde maintеine the true worſhip of God and deſtroy all idolatrie

17 And Iehoiadá made a couenant betwene the Lord and [p] the King, and the people, that they ſhulde be the Lords people: likewiſe betwene the [q] King and ỹ people.

[q] That he ſhulde gouerne, and they obey in the feare of God

18 Then all the people of the land wēt into the houſe of Báal, and deſtroyed it with his altars, & his images brake they downe coutageouſly, and ſlewe Mattán the prieſt of Báal before the [r] altars: & the [s] Prieſt ſet a garde ouer the houſe of the Lord.

[r] Euen in the place where he had blaſphemed God and thoght to haue bene holpē by his idole, there God powred his vengeance vpō him:

[s] To wit, Iehoiadá.

19 Then he toke the captaines of hūdreths, and the other captaines, and the garde, and all the people of the land: and they broght the King from the houſe of the Lord, and came by ỹ way of the gate of ỹ garde to ỹ

Kings houſe: & he ſate him downe on the throne of the Kings.

20 And all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was in quiet. t for they had ſlaine Athaliáh with the ſworde beſide the Kings houſe.

t Which by her crueltie & perſecucjō had vexed ȳ whole land before.

21 Seuen yere olde was Iehoásh when he began to reigne.

CHAP. XII.

Iehoásh maketh prouiſion for the repairing of the Tẽple. 18 He ſtayeth the King of Syria by a preſent frō comming againſt Ieruſalém. 20 He is killed by two of his ſeruants.

a 2 Chro. 24.1. 1 IN *the ſeuẽth yere of Iehú Iehoásh began to reigne, and reigned fourty yeres in Ieruſalém, and his mothers name was Zibiáh of Beer-ſhéba.

2 And Iehoásh did that which was good in the ſight of the Lord all his time that a Iehoiadá the Prieſt taught him.

a So long as rulers giue eare to the true miniſters of God, they proſper

3 But b the hie places were not taken away: for the people offred yet and burnt incenſe in the hie places.

b So hard a thing it is for them, that are in autoritie to be broght to the perfit obedience of God.

4 ¶And Iehoásh ſaid to the Prieſts, All the ſiluer of dedicate things that be broght to the houſe of the Lord, that is, the money of them that are vnder the c counte, the money that euerie man is ſet at, and all the money that one offreth willingly, and bringeth into the houſe of the Lord, c That is, the money of redẽption, Exod 30.12: alſo the money which the Prieſt valued ȳ vowes at, Leu. 27.2, & their fre liberalitie.

5 Let the Prieſts take it to them, euerie mā of his acquaintance: and they ſhal repaire the broken d places of the houſe, whereſoeuer anie decaye is found.

d For the Tẽple which was buylt an hundreth fiftie & fiue yeres before, had many things decaied in it, bothe by the negligence of the Kings his predeceſſors, and alſo by ȳ wickednes of the idolaters

6 ¶Yet in the thre and twentieth yere of King Iehoásh the Prieſts had not mẽded that which was decayed in the Temple.

7 Then King Iehoásh called for Iehoiadá the Prieſt, and the other Prieſts, and ſaid vnto them, Why repaire ye not the ruines of the Temple? now therefore e receiue nomore money of your acquaintance, excepte ye deliuer it to repaire the ruines of the Temple.

e He taketh from them the ordering of ȳ money becauſe of their negligence.

8 So the Prieſts conſented to receiue nomore money of the people, nether to repaire the decayed places of the Temple.

9 Then Iehoiadá the Prieſt toke a cheſt & bored an hole in the lid of it, and ſet it beſide the altar, on the f rightſide, as euerie man commeth into the Temple of the Lord. And the Prieſts that kept the "dore, put therein all the money that was broght into the houſe of the Lord.

f That is, on the Southſide.

"Or, veſſel.

10 And when they ſawe there was muche money in the cheſt, the Kings ſecretary came vp & the hie Prieſt, and put it vp after that they had tolde the money that was founde in the houſe of the Lord,

11 And they gaue the money made ready into the hands of them, g that vndertoke the worke, and that had the ouerſight of the houſe of the Lord: and they payed it out to the carpenters and buylders that wroght vpon the houſe of the Lord, g For the King had appointed orher which were mete for that purpoſe, Chap 22.5

12 And to the maſons and hewers of ſtone, and to bye tymber and hewed ſtone, to repaire that was decayed in the houſe of the Lord, and for all that which was layed out for the reparacion of the Temple.

13 Howbeit there was h not made for the houſe of the Lord bowles of ſiluer, inſtrumẽts of muſike, baſons, trumpets, nor anie veſſels of golde, or veſſels of ſiluer of the money that was broght into the houſe of the Lord.

h For theſe men had onely the charge of the reparacion of the Tẽple, and the reſt of ȳ money was broght to the King, who cauſed theſe afterwarde to be made, 2 Chro. 24.14.

14 But they gaue it to the workemẽ, which repaired therewith the houſe of the Lord.

15 Moreouer, they rekened not with the men, into whoſe hands they deliuered that money to be beſtowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money of the treſpaſſe offring and the money of the ſinne offrings was not broght into ȳ houſe of the Lord: for it was the Prieſts.

17 ¶Then came vp Hazaél King of Arám, and foght againſt Gath and toke it, and Hazaél ſet his face to go vp to Ieruſalém.

18 And Iehoásh King of Iudáh toke all the i hallowed things that Iehoſhaphát, & Iehorám, and Ahaziáh his fathers Kings of Iudáh had dedicate, and that he him ſelfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was foũde in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord and in the Kings houſe, and ſent it to Hazaél King of Arám, and he departed from Ieruſalém.

i After the death of Iehoiadá Ioáſh fel to idolatrie therefore God reiecteth him, and ſtirreth vp his enemie againſt him, whome he pacified with ȳ treaſures of the Temple: for God wolde not be ſerued with thoſe gifts, ſeing the Kings hearт was wicked.

19 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Ioáſh and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

20 ¶And his ſeruants aroſe and wroght treaſon, and k ſlewe Ioáſh in the houſe of l Milló, when he came downe to Sillá:

k Because he had put Zacharie the ſonne of Iehoiadá to death, 2. Chro 24.25. I Read 2 Sam. 5.9

21 Euen Iozachár the ſonne of Shímeath, and Iehozabád the ſonne of Shomér his ſeruants ſmote him, and he dyed: and they buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And Amaziáh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

*Or, Ioſabdr.

CHAP. XIII.

Iehoaház the ſonne of Iehú is deliuered into the hãde of the Syrians. 5 He prayeth vnto God and is deliuered. 9 Ioáſh his ſonne reigneth in his ſteade. 24 Hazaél dyeth. 26 Eliſhá dyeth.

1 IN the thre and twentieth yere of Ioáſh the ſonne of Ahaziáh King of Iudáh, Iehoaház the ſonne of Iehú begã to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, and he reigned ſeuentene yere.

2 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, and followed the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, w made Iſraél to a ſinne, and departed not therefrom.

a By worſhipping the calues which Ieroboám did erect in Iſraél

3 And the Lord was angry with Iſraél, and delideliuered them into the hand of Hazaél King of Arám, and into the hand of Ben-hadád the ſonne of Hazaél, all [b] his dayes.

[b] While Iehoahaz liued.

4 And Iehoaház beſought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he ſawe the trouble of Iſraél, wherewith the King of Arám troubled them.

[c] To wit, Ioáſh the ſonne of Iehoaház.

5 (And the Lord gaue Iſraél a [c] deliuerer, ſo that they came out from vnder the ſubiection of the Aramites. And the children of Iſraél [d] dwelt in their tentes as [e] before time.

[d] Safely and without danger

[e] Ebr as yeſterday and before yeſterday.

6 Neuertheles they departed not from the ſinnes of the houſe of Ieroboám which made Iſraél ſinne, but walked in them. euen the [e] groue alſo remained ſtil in Samaria)

[e] Wherein thei did cõmit their idolatrie, & which the Lord had cõmãded to be deſtroyed, Deu 16,20.

7 For he had left of the people to Iehoaház but fiftie horſemen, and ten charets, & ten thouſand fotemen, becauſe the King [f] of Arám had deſtroyed them, and made them like duſt beaten to poudre.

[f] That is, Hazaél and Ben-hadád his ſonne, as yee ſhal read of Hazaél Chap 8,12

8 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehoaház and all that he did, and his valiãt dedes, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

9 And Iehoaház ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, and Ioáſh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

10 ¶ In the ſeuẽ and thirtieth yeare of Ioáſh King [g] of Iudáh began Iehoáſh the ſonne of Iehoaház to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, and reigned ſixtene yere,

[g] His chief purpoſe is to deſcribe the kingdome of Iudáh & how God performed his promes made to the houſe of Dauid but by the way he ſheweth how Iſraél was afflicted and puniſhed for their great idolatrie, who thogh they had now degenerat, yet God bothe by ſending thẽ ſundry Prophetes and diuers puniſhments did call them vnto him againe

11 And did euil in the ſight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát that made Iſraél to ſinne, but he walked therein.

12 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Ioáſh and all that he did, and his valiant dedes, and how he foght againſt Amaziáh King of Iudáh, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the King of Iſraél?

13 And Ioáſh ſlept with his fathers, & Ieroboám ſate vpon his ſeat: & Ioáſh was buryed in Samaria amõg ỹ Kings of Iſraél.

14 ¶ When Eliſhá fel ſicke of his ſicknes, whereof he dyed, Ioáſh the King of Iſraél came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, & ſaid, [h] O my father, my father, thẽ charet of Iſraél, & the horſemẽ of ỹ ſame.

[h] Thus thei vſed to call ỹ Prophetes and ſeruãts of God by whome God bleſſed his people, as chap 2,12 meaning that by their prayers thei did more proſper their countrey, thẽ by force of armes.

15 Thẽ Eliſhá ſaid vnto him, Take a bowe and arowes. And he toke vnto him bowe and arowes.

16 And he ſaid to the King of Iſraél, Put thine hand vpon the bow. And he put his hand vpon it. And Eliſhá put his hands vpon the Kings hands, 17 And ſaid, Open the windowe [i] Eaſtwardẽ. And when he had opened it, Eliſhá ſaid, Shote. And he ſhot. And he ſaid, Behold the arowe of the Lords deliuerance & the arowe of deliuerãce againſt Arám: for thou ſhalt ſmite ỹ Aramites in Aphék, til thou haſt conſumed them.

[i] That is, toward Syria, ſo that he did not onely prophecie with wordes, but alſo cõfirmed him by theſe ſignes that he ſhulde haue ỹ victorie.

18 Againe he ſaid, Take the arowes. And he toke them. And he ſaid vnto the King of Iſraél, Smite the ground. And he ſmote thriſe, and ceaſed.

19 Then the man of God was [k] angry with him, and ſaid, Thou ſhuldeſt haue ſmiten fiue or ſix times, ſo thou ſhuldeſt haue ſmiten Arám, til thou hadeſt conſumed it, where now thou ſhalt ſmite Arám but thriſe.

[k] Becauſe he ſeme I content to haue victorie againſt the enemies of God for twiſe or thriſe, and had not a zeale to onercome them conetnually and to deſtroy them vtterly.

20 ¶ So Eliſhá dyed, & they buryed him. And certeine bands of the Moabites came into the land that yere.

21 And as they were buryíng a man, beholde, they ſawe the ſouldiers: therefore they caſt the man into the ſepulchre of Eliſhá. And when the man was downe, & touched the bones of Eliſhá, *he [l] reuiued & ſtode vpon his fete.

*Eccleſ 48,14.

[l] By this miracle God cõfirmed the autoritie of Eliſhá whoſe doctrine in his life they contemned, ỹ at this ſight they might returne & imbrace the ſame doctrine.

22 ¶ But Hazaél King of Arám vexed Iſraél all the daies of Iehoaház.

23 Therefore the Lord had mercie on thẽ, and pitied them, and had reſpect vnto thẽ becauſe of his couenant with Abrahám, Izhák, and Iaakób, and wolde not deſtroy them, nether caſt he them from him as [m] yet.

[m] That is, vntil their ſinnes were come to a ful meaſure, & there was no more hope of amẽdment.

24 So Hazaél the King of Arám dyed: and Ben-hadád his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

25 Therefore Iehoáſh ỹ ſonne of Iehoaház returned, and toke out of the hãd of Ben-hadád the ſonne of Hazaél ỹ cities which he had taken away by waire out of the hand of Iehoaház his father: for thre times did Ioáſh beat him, and reſtored the cities vnto Iſraél.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Amaziáh the King of Iudáh putteth to death them that ſlewe his father. 7 And after ſmiteth Edóm. 15 Ioáſh dyeth, and Ieroboám his ſonne ſuccedeth him. And after him reigneth Zachariáh.

1 THe ſecõde yere of Ioáſh ſonne of Iehoaház King of Iſraél reigned *Amaziáh the ſonne of Ioáſh King of Iudáh.

*2 Chro. 25, 1.

2 He was fiue and twentie yere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twentie yere in Ieruſalém, & his mothers name was Iehoadán of Ieruſalém.

3 And he did [a] vprightly in the ſight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father, but did according to all that Ioáſh his father had done.

[a] In the beginníg of his reigne he ſemed to haue an outward ſhewe of godlines, but afterwarde he became an idolater, & worſhiped the idoles of ỹ Idumeãs.

4 Notwithſtanding the hie places were not taken away: for as yet the people did ſacrifice & burnt incenſe in the hie places.

5 ¶ And when the kingdome was confirmed in his hãd, *he ſlewe his ſeruãts which had killed the King his father.

*Chap. 12,20.

6 But the children of thoſe that did ſlay him, he [b] ſlewe not, accordíg vnto that that is writen in the boke of the Lawe of Moſes, wherein the Lord commanded, ſaying,

[b] Becauſe thei nether conſented nor were partakers with their fathers in that act.

Deut 24,16. ezek 18,20. *The fathers ſhal not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers: but euerie mā ſhal be put to death for his owne ſinne.

7 He ſlewe alſo of c Edóm in the valley of ſalt ten thouſand, and toke the citie of Séla by warre, & called the name thereof Iokthéel vnto this day.

c For the Idumeans, whome Dauid had brought to ſubiection, did rebelle in the time of Iehorā ſōne of Iehoſhaphát

8 ¶ Then Amaziáh ſent meſſengers to Iehoáſh the ſonne of Iehoaház, ſōne of Iehú King of Iſraél, ſaying, Come, d let vs ſe one another in the face.

*Or, the towre, or, rocke.

d Let vs fight hād to hand & trye it by battel, and not deſtroye one anothers cities.

9 Then Iehoáſh the King of Iſraél ſent to Amaziáh King of Iudáh, ſaying, The thiſtle that is in Lebanón, ſent to the e cedre that is in Lebanón, ſaying, Giue thy daughter to my ſonne to wife: and the wilde beaſt that was in Lebanón, went and trode downe the thiſtle.

e By this parable Iehoáſh cōpareth him ſelfe to a cedre tre becauſe of his great kigdome ouer ten tribes, and Amaziáh to a thiſtle, becauſe he ruled but ouer two tribes, and the wilde beaſts are Iehoaſhs ſouldiers that ſpoiled the cities of Iudáh.

10 Becauſe thou haſt ſmiten Edóm, thine heart hathe made thee proude: f brag of glorie, & tarye at home. why doeſt thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou ſhuldeſt fall, and Iudáh with thee?

f Brag of thy victorie, ſo y thou tarie at home and annoye me not.

11 But Amaziáh wolde not heare: therefore Iehoáſh King of Iſraél went vp: and he & Amaziáh King of Iudáh ſawe one another in the face at Beth-ſhémeſh which is in Iudáh.

12 And Iudáh was put to the worſe before Iſraél, and they fled euerie man to their tentes.

13 But Iehoáſh King of Iſraél toke Amaziáh King of Iudáh, the ſonne of Iehoáſh the ſonne of Ahaziáh, at Beth-ſhémeſh, & g came to Ieruſalém, and brake downe the wall of Ieruſalém frō the gate of Ephráim to the corner gate, foure hundreth cubites.

g Or, brought him.

14 And he toke all the golde and ſiluer, and all the veſſels that were foūde in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the Kings houſe, and the children that were in h hoſtage, and returned to Samaria.

h That is, vnder the Iſraelites had giuen to them of Iudáh for an aſſurance of peace.

15 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehoáſh which he did and his valiant dedes, and how he fought with Amaziáh King of Iudáh, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

16 And Iehoáſh ſlept with his fathers, and was buryed at Samaria among the Kings of Iſraél: and Ieroboám his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

17 ¶ And Amaziáh the ſonne of Ioáſh King of Iudáh, liued after the death of Iehoáſh ſonne of Iehoaház King of Iſraél fiftene yere.

18 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Amaziáh, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

19 But they wrought treaſon againſt him in Ieruſalém, and he fled to h Lachíſh, but they ſent after him to Lachíſh, and ſlewe him there.

h Which elsie Roboám buylt in Iudáh for a fortreſſe, 2. Chro. 11,9.

20 And they brought him on horſes, and he was buryed at Ieruſalém with his fathers in the citie of Dauid.

21 Then all the people of Iudáh toke i Azariáh, which was ſixtene yere olde, and made him King for his father Amaziáh.

i Who is alſo called Vzziáh, 2 Chro 26,1.

22 He buylt k Elath, and reſtored it to Iudáh, after y the KIng ſlept with his fathers.

k Which is alſo called Elaṅon or Eloth.

23 ¶ In the fifteenth yere of Amaziáh the ſonne of Ioáſh King of Iudáh, was Ieroboám the ſonne of Ioáſh made KIng ouer Iſraél in Samaria, & reigned one and fourtie yere.

24 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the l ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, which made Iſraél to ſinne.

l Becauſe this idolatrie was ſo vile and almoſte incredible, that mē ſhulde forſake y liuing God to worſhip calues, y worke of mās hāds, therefore the Scripture doeth oft times repeat it in the reproche of all idolaters 25 He reſtored the coaſt of Iſraél, from the entring of Hamáth, vnto y Sea of the wildernes, accordig to y worde of the Lord God of Iſraél, which he ſpake "by his ſeruant Ionáh the ſonne of Amittái the Prophet, which was of Gath Hépher.

"Ebr by the hand of.

m Read 1 Kig. 14,10

26 For the Lord ſawe the exceding bitter affliction of Iſraél, ſo that there was none m ſhut vp, nor any left, nether yet any that colde helpe Iſraél.

27 Yet the Lord "had not decreed to put out the name of Iſraél from vnder the heauen: therefore he preſerued them by y hand of Ieroboám the ſonne of Ioáſh.

"Ebr had not ſpoken.

28 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Ieroboám, and all that he did, and his valiāt dedes, & how he fought, and how he reſtored Damaſcus, and n Hamáth to Iudáh in Iſraél, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

n Which was alſo called Antiochia of Syria, or Riblāh.

29 So Ieroboám ſlept with his fathers, euen with the Kings of Iſraél, and Zachariáh his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

CHAP. XV.

1 Azariáh the King of Iudáh beginneth a leper 3 Of Iothám, 10 Shallúm, 14 Menahem, 23 Pekahiah, 30 Vzziáh, 31 Iothám, 38 And Aház.

1 IN the "ſeuen & twētieth yere of Ieroboám King of Iſraél, begā Azariáh, ſonne of Amaziáh King of Iudah to reigne.

"Ebr In the twētieth yere & ſeuenth yere.

2 Sixtene yere oldē was he, when he was made King, and he reigned two and fiftie yere in Ieruſalém: and his mothers name was Iecholiáh of Ieruſalém.

3 And he did a vprightly in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziáh did.

a So long as he gaue eare to Zachariáh the Prophet

4 But the hie places were not put away: for the people yet offred, and burned incenſe in the hie places.

5 And the Lord b ſmote the King: and he was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt in an houſe aparte, and Iothám the Kings ſonne gouerned the houſe, & c iudged the people of the land.

b His father & grand father were ſlaine by their ſubiects and ſeruāts, & he, becauſe he wolde vſurpe the Prieſts office contrarie to Gods ordinance, was ſmitē immediatly by the hand of God with the leproſie, 2. Chro 26, 22.

c As vicecroy or deputie to his father.

6 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Azariáh, riáh,and all that he did,are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

7 So Azariáh ſlept with his fathers & they buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Iothám his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

8 ¶ In the eight and thirtieth yere of Azariáh King of Iudáh did Zachariáh the ſonne of Ieroboám reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria ſix [d] monethes, 9 And did euil in the ſight of the Lord, as did his fathers: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, which made Iſraél to ſinne.

10 And Shallúm the ſonne of Iabéſh conſpired againſt him, & ſmote him in the ſight of the people, and killed [e] him, & reigned in his ſteade.

11 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Zachariáh, beholde, thei are writē in ỹ boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél.

12 This was the *worde of the Lord, which he ſpake vnto Iehú, ſayīg, Thy ſonnes ſhal ſit on the throne of Iſraél vnto ỹ fourte generacion after thee. And it came ſo to paſſe.

13 ¶ Shallúm the ſonne of Iabéſh began to reigne in the nine and thirtieth yere of Vzziáh King of Iudáh: and he reigned the ſpace of a moneth in Samaria.

14 For Menahém the ſonne of Gadí went vp from Tirzáh, and came to Samaria, & ſmote Shallúm the ſonne of Iabéſh in Samaria, & ſlew him, & reigned in his ſtead.

15 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Shallúm, and the treaſon which he wroght, beholde, they are writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél.

16 ¶ Then Menahém deſtroyed [f] Tiphſáh, and all that were therein, and the coaſtes thereof from Tirzáh, becauſe they opened not to him, and he ſmote it, and ript vp all their women with childe.

17 The nine and thirtieth yere of Azariáh King of Iudáh, began Menahém the ſonne of Gadí to reigne ouer Iſraél, & reigned ten yeres in Samaria.

18 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, and departed not all his dayes from the ſinne of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, which made Iſraél to ſinne.

19 ¶ Thē Phul the King of Aſſhúr came againſt the [g] land: & Menahém gaue Phul a thouſand [h] talents of ſiluer, that his hād might be with him, & eſtabliſh the kingdome in his hand.

20 And Menahém exacted the money in Iſraél, that all men of ſubſtance ſhulde giue the King of Aſſhúr fifty ſhekels of ſiluer a piece: ſo the King of Aſſhúr returned & taried not there in the land.

21 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Menahém, and all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél?

22 And Menahém ſlept with his fathers, & Pekahiáh his ſonne did reigne in his ſtead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth yere of Azariáh King of Iudáh, begā Pekahiáh the ſonne of Menahém to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, & reigned two yere.

24 And he did euil in the ſight of ỹ Lord: for he departed not frō the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, which made Iſraél to ſinne.

25 And Pékah the ſonne of Remaliáh, his captaine cōſpired againſt him, and ſmote him in Samaria in the place of the Kings palace with [i] Argób and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: ſo he killed him, and reigned in his ſteade.

26 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Pekahiáh, and all that he did, beholde, they are writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél.

27 In the two and fiftieth yere of Azariáh King of Iudáh began Pékah the ſonne of Remaliáh to reigne ouer Iſraél in Samaria, and reigned twentie yere.

28 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, that made Iſraél to ſinne.

29 In the dayes of Pékah King of Iſraél, [k] came Tigláth Pileſér King of Aſſhúr, and toke Iión, & Abél, Beth-maachah, & Ianoah, and Kedéſh, and Hazór, and Gileád, and Galiláh, & all the land of Naphtalí, and caried them away to Aſſhúr.

30 And Hoſhéa the ſonne of Eláh wroght treaſon againſt Pékah the ſonne of Remaliáh, and ſmote him, and ſlewe him, & reigned in his ſteade in the twentieth yere of Iothám the ſonne of Vzziáh.

31 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Pékah, and all that he did, beholde, they are writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél.

32 ¶ *In the ſecond yere of Pékah the ſonne of Remaliáh Kīg of Iſraél, began Iothám ſonne of [o] Vzziáh Kīg of Iudáh to reigne.

33 Fiue and twentie yere olde was he, whē he began to reigne, and he reigned ſixtene yere in Ieruſalém: and his mother's name was Ieruſhá the daughter of Zadók.

34 And he did vprightly in the ſight of the Lord: he did according [l] to all that his father Vzziáh had done.

35 But the hie places were not put away: for the people yet offred & burnt incenſe in ỹ hie places: he buylt the hieſt gate of the houſe of the Lord.

36 Cōcerning the reſt of ỹ actes of Iothám, & all ỹ he dyd, are thei not writē in ỹ boke of the Chronicles of ỹ Kīgs of Iudáh?

37 In [m] thoſe dayes the Lord began to V.iiii.

---

[d] He was the fourte in deſcent from Iehú, who reigned according to Gods promes, but in him God began to execute his wrath againſt ỹ houſe of Iehú.

[e] Zachariák was the laſt in Iſraél, ỹ had the kingdome by ſucceſſion, ſaue onely Pekahiáh ỹ ſonne of Menahém who reigned but two yeres.

Chap. 10, 30.

[f] Which was a citie of Iſraél that wolde not receiue him to be Kīg.

[g] That is, of Iſraél

[h] In ſteade of ſeking helpe of God, he wēt about by money to purchaſe the fauour of this King beīg an infidele, & therefore God forſoke him, & Phul ſone afterwarde brake promes, deſtroyed his countrey & led his people away captiue

[i] Which were of the ſame conſpiracie.

[k] For God ſtirred vp Phul & Tiglāth Pileſér againſt Iſraél for their ſinnes, 1 Chro. 5, 26.

[l] He ſheweth ỹ his vprightneſs was not ſuche, but ỹ he had many and great faultes.

[m] After the death of Iothám.

[o] Or, Azariáh.

send against Iudáh Rezín the King of Arám, and [n] Pekáh the sonne of Remaliáh.

38 And Iothám slept with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, & Aház his sonne reigned in his steade.

n Which slewe of Iudáh in one day six score thousand fighting men, 2 Chro 28,6, because they had forsaken the true God.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Aház King of Iudáh consecrateth his sonne in fyre. 5 Ierusalém is besieged. 9 Damascus is taken and Rezín slaine 11 Idolatrie 19 The death of Aház. 20 Hezechiáh succeedeth him.

1 THe seuententh yere of Pekáh the sonne of Remaliáh, [a] Aház the sonne of Iothám King of Iudáh began to reigne.

2 Twentie yere olde was Aház, when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixtene yere in Ierusalém, and did not vprightely in the sight of the Lord his God, like Dauid his father:

3 But walked in the way of the Kings of Israél, yea, & made his sonne to [b] go thorow the fyre, after the abominations of the heathē, whome the Lord had cast out before the children of Israél.

4 Also he offred and burnt incense in the hie places and on the hilles, & vnder euerie grene tre.

5 *Then Rezín King of Arám and Pekáh sonne of Remaliáh King of Israél came vp to Ierusalém to fight: & they besieged Aház, but colde not ouercome [c] him.

6 At the same time Rezín King of Arám restored [d] Eláth to Arám, and droue the Iewes frō Eláth: so the Aramites came to Eláth, and dwelt there vnto this day.

7 Then Aház sent [e] messengers to Tigláth Pilesár King of Asshúr, saying, I am thy seruant and thy sonne: come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the King of Arám, and out of the hand of the King of Israél which rise vp against me.

8 And Aház toke the siluer and the golde that was foūde in the [f] house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the Kings house, and sent a present vnto the King of Asshúr.

9 And the King of Asshúr consented vnto him: and the King of Asshúr went vp against Damascus. and when he had take it, he caried the people away to Kir, and slewe Rezín.

10 And King Aház went vnto Damascus to mete Tigláth Pilesár King of Asshúr: and when King Aház sawe the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Vriiáh the Priest the patern of the altar, and the facion of it, and all the workemanship thereof.

11 And Vriiáh the Priest made an altar [g] in all pointes like to that which King Aház had sent from Damascus, so did Vriiáh the Priest against King Aház came from Damascus.

a This was a wicked sonne of a godlie father, as of him again came godlie Ezekiáh, and of him wicked Manasséh, saue that God in ỹ end shewed him mercie. thus we se how vncertein it is to depend on the dignitie of our fathers.

b That is, offred hīto Molech, or made him to passe betwene two fyres, as ỹ maner of the Gētiles was, Leu. 21,18, Deu. 18, 10. Isa. 7,1.

c For ỹ Lord preserued the citie and his people for his promes sake made to Dauid

d Which citie Azariáh had taken from the Aramites and fortified it, Chap 14,22 e Contrary to the admonitiō of ỹ Prophet, Isai. Isa. 7,4.

f Thus he spared not to spoile the Temple of God to haue succour of men, and wolde not once lift his heart toward God to desire his holpe, nor yet hrare his Prophetes counsel.

g We se that there is no prīce so wicked, but he shal finde flatterers & false ministers to serue his turne.

12 So when the King was come from Damascus, the Kīg sawe the altar: & the King drewe nere to the altar and offred [h] thereon.

13 And he burnt his burntoffring, and his meat offring, & powred his drinkoffring, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offrings besides the altar,

14 And set it by the brasen altar which was before the Lord, and broght it in farther before the house betwene the altar and the house of the Lord, & set it on the [i] North side of the altar.

15 And King Aház commāded Vriiáh the Priest and said, Vpon the great altar set on fyre in the morning the burntoffring, and in the euen the meat offring, and the Kings burnt offring and his meat offring, with the burntoffring of all the people of the land, and their meat offring, and their drinkoffrings: and powre thereby all the blood of the burnt offring, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the [k] brasen altar shalbe for me to inquire of God.

16 And Vriiáh the Priest did according to all that King Aház had commanded.

17 And King Aház brake the borders of the bases, and toke the caldrons from of them, and toke downe the sea from the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.

18 And the [l] vaile for the Sabbáth (that they had made in the house) & the Kings entrie without turned he to the house of the Lord, [m] because of ỹ King of Asshúr.

19 Concerning the rest of the actes of Aház, which he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

20 And Aház slept with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, & Hezekiáh his sonne reigned in his steade.

h Ether offrings for peace or prosperitie, or of thankes giuing, as Leui 3,1, or els meaning the morning and euenig offrig, Exod 29,38, Nom 28,3: and thus he contēned the meanes and the altar which God had commanded by Salomón, to serue God after his owne fantasie.

i That is, at ỹ right hand as men went into the Temple.

k Here he establisheth by cō mandemēt his owne wicked proceedings, & doeth abolish the commandement & ordinance of God.

l Or tent, wherein they lay on ỹ Sabbath which had serued their weeke in the Temple. and so departed home.

m Ether to flatter the King of Assyria, when he shulde thus se him change the ordināce of God, or els that the Temple might be a refuge for him if ỹ King shulde sodēly assaile his house.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Hoshéa King of Israél is taken. 4 And he and all his realme broght to the Assyrians. 18 For their idolatrie 24 Lions destroie the Assyriās that dwelt in Samaria. 29 Euerie one worshipeth the God of his nation. 35 Contrary to the commandement of God.

1 IN the twelfte yere of Aház King of Iudáh began Hoshéa the sonne of Eláh to reigne in Samaria ouer Israél, and reigned nine yeres,

2 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, [a] but not as the Kings of Israél, that were before him.

3 And Shalmanéser King of Asshúr came vp against him, and Hoshéa became his seruant, and gaue him presents.

4 And the King of Asshúr founde treason in Hoshéa: for he had sent messengers to So King of Egypt, and broght no present vnto the King of Asshúr, [b] as he had done yerely:

a Thogh he inuented no newe idolatrie or impietie as others did yet he soght for helpe at the Egyptians ỹ God had forbidden.

b For he had payed tribute for the space of eight yeres.

yerely: therefore the King of Aſſhúr ſhut him vp, and put him in priſon.

5 Then the King of Aſſhúr came vp throughout all the land, and went againſt Samaria, and beſieged it three yere.

Chap. 18, 10. 6 ¶ *In the ninth yere of Hoſhéa, the King of Aſſhúr toke Samaria, and caryed Iſraél away vnto Aſſhúr, and put them in Haláh, and in Habór by the riuer of Gozán, and in the cities of the [c] Medes.

[c] For at this time ỹ Medes and Perſians were ſubiect to ỹ Aſsyriãs.

7 For when the children of Iſraél [d] ſinned againſt the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharaóh King of Egypt, and feared other gods,

[d] He feareth forth at lẽgth the cauſe of this great plague & perpetual captiuitie, to admoniſh all people and nacions to cleaue to the Lord God, and onely worſhip him for feare of like iudgement.

8 And walked according to the facions of the heathen, whome the Lord had caſt out before the children of Iſraél, and after the maners of the Kings of Iſraél, which they vſed,

9 And the children of Iſraél had done ſecretly things that were not vpright before the Lord their God, and throughout all their cities had buylt hie places, bothe from the towre [e] of the watche, to the defenſed citie,

[e] Meaning, throughout all their borders.

10 And had made them images and groues vpon euerie hie hil, and vnder euerie grene tre,

11 And there burnt incenſe in all the hie places, as did the heathẽ, whome the Lord had taken away before them, and wroght wicked things to angre the Lord,

12 And ſerued idoles: whereof the Lord had ſaid vnto them, *Ye ſhal do no ſuche

Deut 4.19

thing,

13 Notwithſtanding the Lord teſtified to Iſraél, and to Iudáh "by all the Prophetes, and by all the Seers, ſaying, *Turne from your euil waies, & kepe my cõmandements & my ſtatutes, according to all the Lawe, which I commanded your fathers, and which I ſent to you by my ſeruants the Prophetes.

"Ebr by the hand of Iere 18,11 & 25,5. & 35,15

14 Neuertheles they wolde not obey, *but hardened their neckes, like to the neckes of their [f] fathers, that did not beleue in the Lord their God.

Deut 31,27.

[f] So that to alledge the authoritie of our fathers or great antiquitie, except we can proue ỹ they were godlie, is but to declare that we are ỹ childrẽ of the wicked.

15 And they refuſed his ſtatutes and his couenant, that he made with their fathers, and his teſtimonies (wherewith he witneſſed vnto them) and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, & followed the heathẽ that were rounde about them: concerning whome, the Lord had charged them, that they ſhulde not do like them.

16 Finally they left the commandements of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, *euen two calues, & made a groue, and worſhiped all the [g] hoſte of heauen, and ſerued Báal.

Exod 32.8. 1 king 12,28

[g] That is, the ſunne, ỹ moone & ſtarres, Deut 4,19

17 And they made their ſonnes and their daughters [h] paſſe through the fyre, and vſed witchcraft and enchantements, yea, [i] ſolde them ſelues, to do euil in the ſight of the Lord, to angre him.

[h] Read Chap 16,3

[i] Read of this phraſe, 1 Kĩg. 21,20, & 25.

18 Therefore ỹ Lord was exceding wroth with Iſraél, and put them out of his ſight, and none was left but the tribe of Iudáh [k] onely.

[k] No whole tribe was left but Iudáh, & the[i] of Beniamín & Leuí, ẅ remained, were coũted with Iudáh.

19 Yet Iudáh kept not the commandemẽts of the Lord their God, but walked according to the facion of Iſraél, which they vſed.

20 Therefore the Lord caſt of all the ſede of Iſraél, and afflicted them, & deliuered them into the hands of ſpoylers, vntil he had caſt them out of his [l] ſight.

[l] Out of the land where he ſhewed ỹ greateſt tokens of his preſence & fauour

21 [m] For he cut of Iſraél from the houſe of Dauid, and they made Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát King: & Ieroboám drewe Iſraél away from following the Lord and made them ſinne a great ſinne.

[m] That is, God cut of the ten tribes, 1 King. 12,16

22 For the children of Iſraél walked in all the ſinnes of Ieroboám, which he did, and departed not therefrom, 23 Vntil the Lord put Iſraél away out of his ſight, as he had ſaid" by all his ſeruãts the * Prophetes, & caryed Iſraél away out of their land to Aſſhúr vnto this day.

"Ebr by the hand of rele. 25,9.

24 And the King of Aſſhúr broght folke from Babél, and from [n] Cutháh, and from Auá, and from Hamáth, and from Sepharuáim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in ſteade of the children of Iſraél: ſo they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

[n] Of theſe peoples came the Samaritãs, whereof mencion is ſo muche made in ỹ Goſpel. & with whome ỹ Iewes wolde haue nothing to do, Ioh 4,9

25 ¶ And at the beginning of their dwellĩg there, they [o] feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord ſent lyons among them, which ſlewe them.

[o] That is, they ſerued him not: therefore, leſt they ſhuld blaſpheme hĩ, as though there were no God, becauſe he chaſtiſed ỹ Iſraelites, he ſhewith his mightie power among thẽ by this ſtrãge puniſhment

26 Wherefore they ſpake to the King of Aſſhúr, ſaying, The nacions which thou haſt remoued, and placed in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the maner of ỹ God of the land: therefore he hathe ſent lyons among them, and beholde, they ſlay them, becauſe they knowe not the maner of the God of the land.

27 Then the King of Aſſhúr commanded, ſaying, Cary thether one of the prieſts, whome ye broght thence, and let him go and dwel there, & teache them the maner of the God [p] of the countrey.

[p] That is, how to worſhip nã: thus ỹ wicked rather thẽ to loſe their cõmodities, wil change to all religions

28 So one of the prieſts, which they had caryed from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they ſhulde feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit euerie naciõ made their gods, and put them in the houſes of the hie places, which the Samaritãs had made, euerie nacion in their cities, wherein they dwelt 30 For the men of Babél made [q] Succóth-Benóth: and the men of Cuth made Neigál, and the men of Hamáth made Aſhimá.

[q] Meaning, ỹ euery coũtrey ſtuffed that idole, which was moſte eſtemed in that place whence they came 31 And the Auims made Nibház, and Tartác: and the Sepharuims burnt their children in the fyre to Adrammélech, and Anammélech the gods of Sepharuáim.

32 Thus they feared the Lord, and appointed out prieſts out of them ſelues for the hie places, who prepared for them ſacrifices in the houſes of the hie places.

33 They [f] feared the Lord, but ſerued their gods after the maner of the nacions whome they caryed thence.

34 Vnto this day they do after the olde maner: they nether feare God, nether do after [f] their ordinances nor after their cuſtomes, nor after the Lawe, nor after the cõmandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iaakób, * whome he named Iſraél,

35 And [ẅ] whome the Lord had made couenãt, & charged them, ſaying, * Feare none other gods, nor bowe your ſelues to them, nor ſerue them, nor ſacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lord which broght you out of the lãd of Egypt with great power, and a ſtretched out arme: him feare ye, and worſhip him, and ſacrifice to him.

37 Alſo kepe ye diligently the ſtatutes and the ordinances, and the Lawe, and the cõmandement, which he wrote for you, that ye do them continually, & feare not other gods.

38 And forget not the couenant that I haue made [ẅ] you, nether feare ye other gods, 39 But feare the Lord your God, and he wil deliuer you out of the hands of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they obeyed not, but did after their olde cuſtome.

41 So theſe [t] nacions feared the Lord, and ſerued their images alſo: ſo did their children, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, ſo do they vnto this day.

f That is, they had a certein knowledge of God & feared him, becauſe of the puniſhment, but they continued ſtil idolaters, as do [ỹ] Papiſts, which worſhip bothe God & idoles: but this is not to feare God as appeareth verſ 34

ſ He meaneth this by the Iſraelites, to whome he had giuẽ his commandements Gen 32,28. 1 king 18,31. Iudg.6,10. iere 10,2.

t That is, theſe ſtrangers, [ẅ] were ſent into Samaria by [ỹ] Aſsyrians

CHAP. XVIII.

4 Ezekiáh King of Iudáh putteth downe the braſen ſerpent, & deſtroyeth the idoles. 7 And proſpereth 11 Iſraél u caryed away captiue 30 The blaſphemie of Saneherib.

1 NOw in * the third yere of Hoſhéa, ſonne of Eláh King of Iſraél, Hezekiáh the ſonne of Aház King of Iudáh began to reigne.

2 Chro 28,27 & 29,1.

2 He was fiue and twentie yere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twẽtie yere in Ieruſalém. His mothers name alſo was Abí [ỹ] daughter of Zachariáh, a Although the of Iudáh were giuen to idolatrie and impietie, as the of Iſraél were, yet God for his [ỹ] mes ſake was merciful vnto the throne of Dauid & yet by his iudgement towarde the other, prouoked them to repentance. Nomb.21,6.

3 And he did [a] vprightly in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that Dauid his father had done.

4 He toke away the hie places, and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, & brake in pieces the * braſen ſerpent that Moſes had made: for vnto thoſe dayes the children of Iſraél did burne incenſe to it, and he called it [b] Nehuſhtán.

b That is, a piece of braſſe: thus he calleth [ỹ] ſerpent by contempt, [ẅ] notwithſtãding was ſet vp by [ỹ] worde of God, & miracles were wroght by it: yet whẽ it was abuſed to idolatrie, this good King deſtroyed it, not thinking it worthie to be called a ſerpent, but a piece of braſſe

c Read Chap. 17,9

5 He truſted in the Lord God of Iſraél: ſo that after him was none like him among all the Kings of Iudáh, nether were there anie ſuche before him.

6 For he claue to the Lord & departed not from him, but kept his commandements, which the Lord had commanded Moſes.

7 So the Lord was with him, and he proſpered in all things, which he toke in hand: alſo he rebelled againſt the King of Aſſhúr, and ſerued him not.

8 He ſmote the Philiſtims vnto Azzáh, & the coaſtes thereof, [c] from the watche towre vnto the defenſed citie.

9 ¶ * And in the fourte yere of King Hezekiáh, (which was the ſeuẽth yere of Hoſhéa ſonne of Eláh King of Iſraél) Shalmanéſer King of Aſſhúr came vp againſt Samaria, and beſieged it.

Chap.17,3.

10 And after thre yeres they toke it, euen in the ſixt yere of Hezekiáh: that is, * [ỹ] ninth yere of Hoſhéa King of Iſraél was Samaria taken.

Chap.17,6.

11 Thẽ the King of Aſſhúr did cary away Iſraél vnto Aſſhúr, and put them in Haláh and in Habór, by the riuer of Gozán, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 Becauſe they wolde not obey the voyce of the Lord their God, but tranſgreſſed his couenant: that is, all that Moſes the ſeruant of the Lord had commanded, and wolde nether obey nor do them.

13 ¶ * Moreouer, in the fourteenth yere of King Hezekiáh Sanehe[r]íb Kĩg of Aſſhúr came vp againſt all the ſtrõg cities of Iudáh, and toke them.

2.Chro. 32,1. iſa.36,1. eccleſ.48,19.

14 Then Hezekiáh King of Iudáh ſent vnto the King of Aſſhúr to Lachiſh, ſaying, [d] I haue offended: departe from me, & what thou layeſt vpon me, I wil beare it. And the King of Aſſhúr appointed vnto Hezekiáh King of Iudáh thre hundreth talents of ſiluer, and thirty talents of golde.

d As his zeale was before praiſed, ſo his weakenes is here ſet forth [ỹ] none ſhulde glorie in him ſelfe.

15 Therefore Hezekiáh gaue all the ſiluer that was founde in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſuries of the Kings houſe.

16 At the ſame ſeaſon did Hezekiáh pul of the plates of the dores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pilleirs (which the ſaid Hezekiáh King of Iudáh had couered ouer) and gaue them to the King of Aſſhúr.

17 ¶ And the King of Aſſhúr ſent [e] Tartán, and Rab-ſarís, and Rabſhakéh from Lachiſh to King Hezekiáh with a great hoſte againſt Ieruſalém. And they went vp, and came to Ieruſalém, and when they were come vp, they ſtode by the condite of the vpper poole, which is by the path of the fullers field, e After certeine yeres when Hezekiáh ceaſed to ſend [ỹ] tribute appointed by [ỹ] King of [ỹ] Aſſyrians, he ſet his captaines & armie againſt him

18 And called to the King. Then came out to them Eliakím the ſonne of Hilkiáh, which was ſtewarde of the houſe,& Shebnáh the chanceller, and Ioáh the ſonne of Aſáph the recorder.

353/1224

Or, writer of Chronicles, or, secretarie.

19 And Rabſhakéh ſaid vnto them, Tel ye Hezekiáh, I pray you, Thus ſayth the great King, euē the great King of Aſſhúr, What confidēce is this wherein ỹ truſteſt?

Ebr. talke of the lippes

20 Thou thinkeſt, Surely I haue "eloquence, but counſel and ſtrength are for the warre. On whome then doeſt thou truſt, that thou rebelleſt againſt me?

f Thou thinkeſt ỹ wordes wil ſerue to perſuade thy people, or to moue my maſter

21 Lo, thou truſteſt now in this broken ſtaffe of rede, to wit, on g Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wil go into his hād, & pearce it: ſo is Pharaóh King of Egypt vnto all that truſt on him.

g Egypt ſhal not onely be able not to ſuccour thee, but ſhalbe an hurt vnto thee

22 But if ye ſay vnto me, We truſt in ỹ Lord our God, is not that he whoſe hie places, and whoſe altars Hezekiáh hathe h taken away, and hathe ſaid to Iudáh and Ieruſalém, Ye ſhal worſhip before this altar in Ieruſalém?

h Thus the idolaters thinke that Gods religion is deſtroyed, when ſuperſtition & idolatrie are reformed 23 Now therefore giue i hoſtages to my lord the King of Aſſhúr, and I wil giue thee two thouſand horſes, if thou be able to ſet riders vpon them.

i Meaning ỹ it was beſt for hī to yelde to the King of Aſſyria, becauſe his power was ſo ſmall that he had not mē to fourniſh two thouſand horſes

24 For how canſt thou deſpiſe anie captaine of the leaſt of my maſters ſeruāts, & put thy truſt on Egypt for charets and horſemen?

k The wicked alwayes in their proſperitie flatter thē ſelues, ỹ God doeth fauour thē Thus he ſpeaketh to feare Ezekiáh that by reſiſting him, he ſhulde reſiſt God 25 Am I now come vp without the k lord to this place, to deſtroye it? the lord ſaid to me, Go vp againſt this lād, & deſtroy it.

Or, Syrians.

26 Then Eliakím the ſonne of Hilkiáh and Shebnáh, and Ioáh ſaid vnto Rabſhakéh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy ſeruants in the "Aramites language, for we vnderſtand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

Ebr. the water of their feet

27 But Rabſhakéh ſaid vnto thē, Hathe my maſter ſent me to thy maſter and to thee to ſpeake theſe wordes, and not to the men which ſit on the wall, that they may eat their owne doung, & drinke "their owne piſſe with you?

28 So Rabſhakéh ſtode and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, & ſpake, ſaying, Heare the wordes of the great King, of the King of Aſſhúr.

29 Thus ſayth the King, Let not Hezekiáh diſceiue you: for he ſhal not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand.

Or, by his hand

30 Neither let Hezekiáh make you to truſt in the Lord, ſaying, The Lord wil ſurely deliuer vs, and this citie ſhal not be giuen ouer into the hand of the King of Aſſhúr.

Ebr. bleſſing: meaning the cōditions of peace.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus ſaith the King of Aſſhúr, Make "appointement with me, and come out to me, that euerie man may eat of his owne vine, and euerie man of his owne figtre, and drinke euerie man of the water of his owne well,

1 He maketh him ſelfe ſo ſure, that he wil not grant them truce, except they rendre them ſelues to him to be led away captiues

32 Til i I come, and bring you to a land like your owne land, euen a land of wheat and wine, a land of bread and vineyardes, a land of oliues oyle, & hony that ye may liue and not dye: and obey not Hezekiáh, for he diſceiueth you, ſaying, The Lord wil deliuer vs.

33 Hathe anie of the gods of the nacións deliuered his land out of the hand of the King of Aſſhur?

34 Where is the god of Hamáh, and of Arpád? where is the god of Sepharuáim, Hena and Iuáh? how haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the nacións, that haue deliuered their land out of mine hand, that the m Lord ſhulde deliuer Ieruſalém out of mine hand?

m This is an execrable blaſphemie againſt the true God, to make him equal with ỹ idoles of other nacions: therefore God did moſte ſharpely puniſh it 36 But the people held their peace, and anſwered not him a worde: for the Kings commandement was, ſaying, Anſwer ye him not.

37 Then Eliakím, the ſonne of Hilkiáh ẅ was ſtewarde of the houſe & Shebnáh the chanceller, and Ioáh the ſonne of Aſáph the recorder came to Hezekiáh with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabſhakéh.

CHAP. XIX.

6 God promiſeth by Iſaiáh Victorie to Hezekiáh 35 The Angel of the Lord killeth an hundreth and foure ſcore and fiue thouſand men of the Aſſyrians. 37 Sanecherib is killed of his owne ſonnes.

1 AND when King Hezekiáh heard it, Iſa. 37.1
he rent his clothes and put on ſackeclothe, & came into the houſe of ỹ Lord,

2 And ſent Eliakim which was ỹ ſtewarde of the houſe, and Shebnáh the chanceller, and the Elders of the Prieſts clothed in ſackeclothe a to Iſaiáh the Prophet the ſonne of Amóz.

a To heare ſome newe prophecie and to haue comforte of him

3 And they ſaid vnto him, Thus ſayth Hezekiáh, This day is a day of tribulacion and of rebuke, & blaſphemie: for the children are come to b the birth, and there is no ſtrength to bring forthe.

b The dangers are ſo great ỹ we can neither auenge this blaſphemie, nor helpe our ſelues, no more then a woman in her trauel.

4 If ſo be the Lord thy God hathe heard all the wordes of Rabſhakéh, whome the King of Aſſhú. his maſter hathe ſent to raile on the liuing God, and to reproche him with wordes which the Lord thy God hathe heard, thē lift thou vp thy prayer for the c remnant that are left c Meaning for Ieruſalem ẅ onely remained of all the cities of Iudáh.

5 ¶ So the ſeruants of King Hezekiah came to Iſaiáh.

6 And Iſaiáh ſaid vnto them, So ſhal ye ſay to your maſter, Thus ſayth the Lord, Be not afrayed of the wordes which thou haſt heard wherewith the ſeruāts of the King of Aſſhúr haue blaſphemed me.

d The Lord can with one blaſt blowe away all the ſtrength of mā and turne it into duſt

7 Beholde, I wil ſend a blaſt d vpon him, & he ſhal heare a noyſe, & returne to his owne land: & I wil cauſe him to fall vpon the ſworde in his owne land.

8 ¶So Rabſhakéh returned, and founde the King of Aſſhúr fighting againſt Libnáh: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachíſh.

9 [e] He heard alſo men ſay of Tirhákah King of [f] Ethiopia, [f] Beholde, he his come out to fight againſt thee: he therefore departed and ſent other meſſengers vnto Hezekiáh, ſaying,

10 Thus ſhal ye ſpeake to Hezekiáh Kíg of Iudáh, & ſay, Let not thy [g] God diſceiue thee in whome thou truſteſt, ſaying, Ieruſalém ſhal not be deliuered into the hand of the King of Aſſhúr.

11 Beholde, thou haſt heard what the Kings of Aſſhúr haue done to all lands, how they haue deſtroyed them: and ſhalt thou be deliuered?

12 Haue the gods of the heathē deliuered them which my fathers haue deſtroyed? as Gozán, and Harán, and Rézeph, and the childrē of Eden, which were in Thelaſár?

13 Where is the King of Hamáth, and the King of Arpád, and the King of the citie of Sepharuáim, Hená and Iuá?

14 ¶So Hezekiáh receiued the letter of the hand of the meſſengers, and red it: & Hezekiáh wēt vp into the houſe of the Lord, and Hezekiáh ſpred it before the [h] Lord.

15 And Hezekiáh [i] prayed before ỹ Lord, and ſaid, O Lord God of Iſraél, which dwelleſt betwene the Cherubíms, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: thou haſt made the heauen & the earth.

16 Lord, [k] bowe downe thine eare, and heare: Lord open thine eyes and beholde, and heare the wordes of Sanchérib, who hathe ſent to blaſpheme the [l] liuing God.

17 Trueth it is, Lord, that the Kings of Aſſhúr haue deſtroyed the nacions and their lands, 18 And haue ſet fyre on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hāds, euen wood and ſtone: therefore they deſtroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beſeche thee, ſaue thou vs out of his hand, that all the [m] kingdomes of ỹ earth may knowe, that thou, ô Lord, art only God.

20 ¶Then Iſaiáh the ſonne of Amóz ſent to Hezekiáh, ſaying, Thus ſayth ỹ Lord God of Iſraél, I haue heard that which thou haſt prayed me, concerning Sanheríb King of Aſſhúr.

21 This is the worde that the Lord hathe ſpoken againſt him, O [n] virgine, daughter of Zión, he hathe deſpiſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorne: ô daughter of Ieruſalém, he hathe ſhaken his head at thee.

22 Whome haſt thou railed on? and whome haſt thou blaſphemed? and againſt whome haſt thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on hye? euen [o] againſt the Holy one of Iſraél.

23 By thy meſſengers thou haſt railed on the Lord, and ſaid, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the top of the mountaines, by the ſides of Lebanón, and wil cut downe the hie cedres thereof, and the faire fyre trees thereof, and I wil go into the [p] lodging of his borders, and into the forēſt of [q] his Cármel.

24 I haue digged, and dronke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feete haue I dryed all the [r] floods cloſed in.

25 Haſt thou not heard, how I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago? [s] and ſhulde I nowe bring it, that it ſhulde be deſtroyed, and layed on ruinous heapes, as cities defenſed?

26 Whoſe [t] inhabitāts haue ſmall power, and are afraied, and confounded: they are like the graſſe of the field, and grene herbe, or graſſe on the houſe toppes, or as corne blaſted before it be growen.

27 I knowe thy dwelling, yea, thy goying out, and thy comming in, and thy fury againſt me.

28 And becauſe thou rageſt againſt me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I wil put mine [u] hoke in thy noſtrels, and my bridel in thy lippes, & wil bring thee backe againe the ſame way thou cameſt.

29 And this ſhalbe a [x] ſigne vnto thee, ô Hezekiáh, Thou ſhalt eat this yere ſuche things as growe of thē ſelues, and the next yere ſuche as growe without ſawing, and the third yere ſowe ye and reape, & plant vineyardes, and eat the frutes thereof.

30 And the remnant that is eſcaped of the houſe of Iudáh, ſhal againe take [y] roote downewarde, and beare frute vpwarde.

31 For out of Ieruſalém ſhal go a remnant, and ſome that ſhal eſcape out of mount Zión: the [z] zeale of the Lord of hoſtes ſhal do this.

32 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lord, concerning the King of Aſſhúr, He ſhal not entre into this citie, nor ſhote an arow there, nor come before it with ſhield, nor caſt a mount againſt it:

33 But he ſhal returne the way he came, and ſhal not come into this citie, ſayth the Lord.

34 For I wil defend this citie to ſaue it for mine owne ſake, & for Dauid my ſeruants ſake.

35 ¶* And the ſame night the Angel of the Lord went out and ſmote in the campe of Aſſhúr an hundreth foure ſcore and fyue thouſand: ſo when they roſe early in the morning, beholde, they were all dead corpſes.

*Iſa 37,36. *tobi 1,21 *eccl 48,24. *1 mac 7,41. 2 mac 8,19

[e] That is, Sanchérib
[f] For ỹ Kings of Ethiopia & Egypt ioyned together againſt ỹ King of Aſſyria becauſe of his oppreſſion of other countreys [g] The more nere that the wicked are to their deſtruction, the more they blaſpheme.
[h] Before the Arke of the couenant
[i] He ſheweth what is the true refuge & ſuccour in all dangers, to wit, to flee to the Lord by erneſt prayer.
[k] Shew by effect that thou wilt not ſuffer thy Name to be blaſphemed [l] By this title he diſcerneth God from all idoles and falſe gods.
[m] He ſheweth for what end the faithful deſire of God to be deliuered: to wit, ỹ he may be glorified by their deliuerance
[n] Becauſe as yet Ieruſalém had not bene taken by the enemie, therefore he calleth her virgine.
[o] God counteth that iniurie done to him, and wil reuenge it ỹ is done to anie of his Saintes.
[p] Meaning Ieruſalém, ỹ Iſaiáh calleth the hight of his borders, to wit, of Iudáh. Iſa 37,24.
[q] Or, pleaſant countrey.
[r] Or, the waters of cities beſieged
[s] He declareth that foraſmuche as he is ỹ autor and beginning of his Church, he wil neuer ſuffer it vtterly to be deſtroyed, as other cities and kingdomes
[t] Thus he deſcribeth the wicked, which for a time florith, and afterwarde fade and decay like flowres
[u] I wil bridel thy rage and turne thee to & fro as pleaſeth me
[x] God did not onely promes him the victorie but giueth him a ſigne to confirme his faith
[y] The Lord wil multiplie in great nomber that ſmall remnant of Iudáh that is eſcaped
[z] The loue, ỹ God beareth toward his Church, ſhal ouercome the counſels and enterpriſes of men

36 So Sancheríb King of Aſſhúr departed, and went his way, and returned, and dwelt in Niniuéh.

y This was ſ iuſte iudgement of God for his blaſphemie, that he ſhulde be ſlaine before that idole, whome he preferred to the liuing God, & by them by whome he ought by nature to haue bene defended

37 And as he was in the temple worſhiping Niſróch his god, Adramélech and Shaṛézer his ſonnes y ſlewe him with the ſworde: and they eſcaped into the land of Ararát, ad Eſarhaddón his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

CHAP. XX.

1 Hezekiáh is ſicke, and receyueth the ſigne of his health 12 He receyueth rewardes of Berodách, 13 Sheweth his treaſures, and is reprehended of Iſaiáh 22 He dyeth and Manaſſéh his ſonne reigneth in his ſteade z 2 Chro 32.24 Iſa 38.1. eccleſ 48.46.

1 ABout that time *was Hezekiáh ſicke vnto death: and ſ Prophet Iſaiáh the ſonne of Amóz came to him, and ſaid vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lord, Put thine houſe in an ordre: for thou ſhalt dye, and not liue.

a That his minde might not be troubled.

2 Then he turned his face to the a wall, & prayed to the Lord, ſaying,

3 I beſeche thee, ô Lord, remember now, how I haue walked before thee in trueth & with b perfit heart, and haue done that which is good in thy ſight: and Hezekiáh c wept ſore.

b Meaning, without all hypocriſie

c Not ſo muche for his owne death, as for feare that idolatrie ſhulde be reſtored, which he had deſtroyed, and ſo Gods Name be diſhonored.

4 ¶And afore Iſaiáh was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lord came to him, ſaying,

5 Turne againe, and tel Hezekiáh the captaine of my people, Thus ſayth the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy d prayer, and ſene thy teares: beholde, I haue healed thee, and the third day thou ſhalt go vp to the e houſe of the Lord, d Because of his vnfained repentance & prayer God turned away his wrath

